Thomas Leading Lockhart In Representative's Race

LOCAL MAN IS TRAILING BY FEW BALLOTS

TOTAL OF 358 VOTES SEPARATES TWO IN "HOSS RACE"

G. E. Lockhart, Lubbock attorney, and John Thomas, Tahoka filling station proprietor, were "running" a hoss race right on down the stretch today as reports from seven of the nine counties in their district trickled in.

Shortly after noon today Thomas was leading Lockhart by 6394 to 6306 with Yakam county yet unreported. Lockhart reporting 30 of 32 precincts complete. Hockley county complete; Cochran one-half complete; Gaines two-thirds complete; Terry half complete; Lynn with 300 votes still uncounted; Crosby unreported and Dawson complete.

Thomas favored to win. Indications were that Thomas, who was polling long leads in the south part of the district, would be selected to succeed Carl J. Rountree. Lamasa lawyer, who has turned the post for the past two years but who did not offer for re-election. The Lubbock county boxes still out were Abernathy and Idalou, which combined are expected to poll about 500 votes.

Lockhart was virtually assured leadership in the Abernathy and Idalou boxes but additional votes expected for Thomas in the south part of the district were forecast to overshadow the ballots forthcoming in Lubbock county.

Vote By Counties
The vote by counties was listed as follows:
LUBBOCK—Lockhart, 3,042; Thomas, 1,438. Two boxes unreported.
GAINES—Lockhart, 288; Thomas, 306. One-third of the votes still out but expected to favor Thomas by same ratio.
DAWSON—Lockhart, 789; Thomas, 1,778. Complete.
TERRY—Lockhart, 286; Thomas, 289. Half complete.
LYNN—Lockhart, 811; Thomas, 1,664. Three hundred votes still out.

ENDURANCE IN SECOND WEEK

O'BRIEN AND JACKSON APPEALING FOR MORE FUNDS

(By Associated Press)
ST. LOUIS, July 28.—Dale Jackson and Forest O'Brien today began the second week of an endurance flight in which they hope to break the record of 554 hours recently established by the Hunter brothers in Chicago. At 7:11 a. m. today the flyers completed the first week of the flight.

Jackson and O'Brien had out an O. S. sign to the citizens of St. Louis for more money to finance the flight. Already about $20,000 had been subscribed, but the flight officials claim that it is at least $9,500 short of the amount needed.

O'Brien dropped a note yesterday saying the motor was running nicely. "If it keeps up," he added, "we will land August 21 but it will be before then if the people of St. Louis don't get some more money."

OFFICERS SEEK THREE NEGROES

LAMESA, July 28. (AP)—Officers are continued today their search for three negroes, one of whom shot and wounded R. J. Barrett, a mesquite night police officer, as he stepped last night to stop a fight between two negroes, among a group of eleven, gathered here on a downtown street.

Half a dozen shots were fired, one of them wounding the officer in the arm. He returned the fire as the negroes fled and said he believed he wounded one of them. Barrett did not learn the cause of the argument which resulted in the fight.

HOBERT OFFICER DIES FROM BULLET WOUNDS
HOBERT, Okla., July 28. (AP)—A. Trentham, 40, night policeman, died today from a gun shot wound received last night when he went to the home of Fred Wallace, negro, to quell a disturbance. Klawns county deputy sheriff and Hobart policemen were searching today for Wallace.

Although Hobart apparently was not shot this morning, the shooting was believed to be the same as the shooting of Sheriff Sam Standerfer, who was shot by Wallace to another community safekeeping if he is arrested.

JONES WINS OVER CADE

AMARILLO CONGRESS MEMBER LEADING BY 4 TO 1

Congressman Marvin Jones, of Amarillo, called "West Texas Political Jacobin" because he seems to be able to run faster and longer than any of his ambitious opponents, won another election, reports today from 37 of his 53 counties conclusively showed.

With only 7 counties complete, Congressman Jones had piled up 22,741 votes to 7,072 for James Cade, Amarillo attorney, his sole opponent.

Action of the voters sends Jones back to Washington for his seventh term as Congressman from the Eighteenth district. He was first elected in 1916 and has held the post continuously since that time.

VESUVIUS THREATENS TO ADD TO EARTHQUAKE HORRORS

Fears that Vesuvius, world's most famous volcano, may begin another disastrous eruption and add to the horror caused by Italy's most recent earthquake are being held throughout that nation. The picture above shows a cusp of Vesuvius in eruption, showering clouds of ashes high into the sky and pouring streams of molten lava down the mountainside, to engulf villages below.

ITALIAN EARTHQUAKE TO CHANGE MAP OF COUNTRY; NEW LOCATIONS SOUGHT FOR DEVASTATED VILLAGES IN AREA

(By Associated Press)
NAPLES, July 28.—Last week's disastrous earthquake, which in some instances obliterated whole towns, will change the map of Italy to a certain extent.

Of some villages nothing except piles of lumber, stone and masonry remains. They will have to be reconstructed, but in the rebuilding some of the picturesque character of ancient Italian communities will be sacrificed to safety.

Melfi Site Gone

For one example there is Melfi. This city, before the earth heaved in the early hours last Wednesday, perched prettily upon a volcanic hill. A new Melfi must arise, but it will lie in the valley below, along a river, where tests have proved shocks are less likely to be felt.

King Victor Emmanuel has urged that no reconstruction should be done on territory especially susceptible to shocks, hence all plans are for building where reasonable safety may be expected.

Homes Rebuilt
Work began today on the rebuilding of the 10,000 houses destroyed or damaged in four provinces stricken, and for the first time since Wednesday thousands of workmen wielded hammer and saw.

CALIFORNIA'S SMOULDERING WATER CONTROVERSY FLARES UP AGAIN AS DROUTH THREATENS LAKE TAHOE AREA

(By Associated Press)
TAHOE CITY, Cal., July 28.—A smouldering controversy flared today after an attempted diversion of the waters of Lake Tahoe, on the California-Nevada boundary, for use in irrigation.

Word of the issuance of a peace disturbance warrant yesterday halted operations of a steam shovel designed to cut a sump into the lake to drain its waters.

Claim Rights
Ranchers who brought the shovel to the lakeshore, claimed rights to 75,000 acre feet of water for irrigation, citing a grant allegedly dating back to 1915 and a federal court decision of 1915 to support their contention.

PITTS AND NORDYKE IN RUN-OFF; TWO BOXES OUT

With less than 400 votes yet to be tallied in Lubbock county, returns from the Idalou and Abernathy boxes still unavailable at noon today, little doubt of results in three of the major races of the county were seen.

SEVENTY COUNTIES IN COMPLETE; TOTAL IS NEAR 700,000

(By Associated Press)
DALLAS, July 28. —Mounting returns from Saturday's Democratic primary today brought only alterations in figures and left the relative standing in the governor's race unchanged, with the runoff August 23 to be between Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson of Austin and Ross Sterling of Houston.

The Texas Election Bureau's compilation at 11 a. m. representing returns from 54 of the 78 counties, 70 complete, showed Mrs.

Ferguson's happy Austin, July 28. —While happy over the victory, the Fergusons, James and Miriam, had no comment to make today on the results of Saturday's primary election.

Mrs. Ferguson, apparently the leading candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor, was too busy even to pose for photographers, she said. Among other things she planned to make a long deferred trip to a dentist.

Her husband said they would wait until all returns were in before expressing their views on results of the primary.

Ferguson 54,707 votes ahead of Sterling and Clint C. Small of Wellington trailing the Houston man by 38,716 votes. A total of 685,234 votes had been accounted for, with election bureau experts estimating that possibly 200,000 votes had been cast.

The latest totals: Ferguson 201,855; Sterling, 147,148; Small, 108,432; Love, 69,587; Young, 64,967; Mayfield, 46,792; Miller, 45,772; Moody, 3,952; Loven, 2,460; Putnam, 2,455; Walker, 2,008.

Under State Senator Morris Sheppard maintained his long lead over his opponents, the count being: Sheppard, 404,436; Henry, 133,686; Mitchell, 31,890.

WHI Opposes Strong
The run-off for lieutenant governor seemed definitely fixed between State Senator Edgar Whit of Waco with 133,144 votes, and Sterling F.

Lubbock Woman Is Glad That She Found It

Says Her Troubles Disappeared After Taking One Bottle of Argotane

"It was in a general run down condition and couldn't digest a thing I ate hardy, before I started taking Argotane but now I can sit down and eat three square meals a day and enjoy them and am gaining in weight every day I live," is the statement of Mrs. R. Wynn, residing at 2012 Ninth St., Lubbock, Texas.

"I was all run down in general and was so nervous that I couldn't get but very little rest at night. I was actually constipated and everything I took to relieve it just helped for a while. I didn't have any appetite at all, and what food I had to eat didn't do me any good. I had to eat out of the house, because I didn't like to cook. A friend of mine recommended Argotane to me so I bought it and took it and it did me good. I was so nervous that I couldn't get but very little rest at night. I was actually constipated and everything I took to relieve it just helped for a while. I didn't have any appetite at all, and what food I had to eat didn't do me any good. I had to eat out of the house, because I didn't like to cook. A friend of mine recommended Argotane to me so I bought it and took it and it did me good."

"Well sir, I feel a hundred percent better in every way since taking that first bottle of Argotane. I can just eat like a normal man and I have already gained in both weight and strength. I began to pick up in strength and to improve after the first few doses. I took three times a day and enjoyed the biggest meal I ever ate before. When I go to bed at night I can drop off right away and sleep like a baby, and when I get up in the morning, I feel full of life and energy as I ever did in my life. Argotane is the only thing that is responsible for the remarkable improvement in me, and I gladly recommend it to any one suffering from a general run down condition like I was. I am sure glad I found it when I did."

Argotane is a product of digestion and is secreted by weaker bowels in the form of tiny scales which appear between segments on the inner side of the abdomen.

South Plains Beauties Complimented With Attractive Luncheon On Sunday

Ten young ladies—the fairest of the South Plains—and several other guests were present for a smart luncheon given, by Nydia and David Dallas Sunday at 12:30 o'clock at Hotel Lubbock. The luncheon was held just preceding the revue at the Palace theater in which the ten girls were the principals.

Immediately following the contest this evening the girls will be special guests at the dance at Hotel Lubbock, which is to be given in honor of the winner.

Roses As Decorations
The table was centered with a large bowl of pink roses, softened through the use of smaller blossoms in pastel shades. Two similar clusters in smaller bowls completed the decoration.

Miss Gayetta Jackson, of Tulsa, proposed a toast to the "beauty of the South Plains," and the group chatted informally of the coming contest.

Contestants present were as follows: Miss Amarillo, Alta Rae Patterson; Miss Pampa, Maxine White; Miss Borger, Thelma Arnold; Miss Dimmitt, Xonelle Brooks; Miss Tulsa, Hilda Jackson; Miss Plainview, Hilda Brundt; Miss Abilene, Justine Law; Miss Lubbock, Frances Gunn; Miss Slaton, Monette Patterson. Others attending were Davis Vaughan, Lubbock; Mr. Phillips, Tulsa; Mesdames Brooks and Jackson, mothers of two of the contestants, and Hollye Sellers.

Miss Leveland, Tylene, Walker, was unable to be present because of illness, but it was announced that she would take part in the contest tonight.

TAHOCA DOWNS LUBBOCK; LEVELLAND, LAMESA WIN SUNDAY

IN THE REALM OF SPORTS

With Collier Parris
Journal Sports Editor

The question of who holds the sack in the Hank Thormahlen-Waco-Fort Worth deal is likely to be settled pretty soon now, with the disputed chunker lies in a Fort Worth bed with malaria. August 1 is the day on which the remainder of the Cats' bill for him come due. Already the Panther pants-wearer have said Waco would not get the remaining $5,000 due on him, and have further suggested in meaningful tones that Waco refund the first $5,000 paid down on him and take the big potter back to the banks of the Brazos.

Waco has given Fort Worth the house, willing to take either the remaining five grand or the pitcher, but entirely unacquainted with the idea of refunding the first big V. The money has already been spent in lighting up Katy Park and lighting up Katy Park has saved the Waco team from possible ruin and has boosted them to the top place in the average column. But the discussion is about Hank, the bedridden pitcher who sold for the largest price ever considered in the Texas League.

Just a few days before the sale of Hank to the Cats, Waco and Houston played some exhibition game at a big Matinee celebration in Brenham, famous as the home town of one Jinx Thormahlen. Thormahlen was playing pretty good for Waco, but got held out by a couple black jacks when he interfered with a fight outside the ball park. Brenham likes his brawl, and even the coach fair play. Hank counted stars and listened to birdies a few hours and upon his survival was sold to the Panthers for the above mentioned unheard-of price. Anyone who could survive a blow like that would make money on the mound. But immediately his prowess as a hurler was found to be nil and void, said the Cats, and thus the argument started.

It was thought that the Brenham blow interrupted for the time being the change in Thormahlen, but now it develops that he has malaria. If Fort Worth could prove that Waco knew Hank had malaria before the trade, it would be a horse of another color. But the M. has just decided the nature of the deal, so it's another case for Philo Vance. Hank will be out for a few weeks, and with all respect to the suffering, the Cats will not be much worse off.

Another glaring example of the lively baseball was seen last week in a game between Peoria and Quincy of the Three-Rye League. The Peorians slammed three Quincy moundsmen for thirty-one hits and scored as many runs. Only one member of the club was able to get on base, and he was the pitcher. The heavy hitter was Blurge shortstop, and brother of Ouse Blurge of the Senators, who slammed out two triples, two doubles and a one-base single. Peoria scored in every inning.

There has been quite a universal dispute and discussion for the last two seasons relative to the so-called lively ball. Some are prone to believe that manufacturers of athletic goods have placed a ball on the market of an inferior quality but possessing great bouncing properties, while others believe that today's chunkers are not up to the standard of the old time pitcher, and that the way in which the ball is delivered is to blame for the lack of the hit and the brevity of the ball's durability. We are prone to side with the latter division. Although science has done much for the general improvement of things mechanical, a horse is a horse, and time has not changed the texture of his hide, with which baseballs are bound, and rubber and fabric grow on the same kind of vegetation that fostered the products since the flood subsided.

Measurement and weight of the ball, for official requirements, has not changed since the game has been played in modern times, and modern times did not start last summer or the summer before. Why not blame it on the bat and its manufacturers? While the bat must be uniform in every game, each player has his choice of a bat, as long as it is such, and an observer of a ball game will see every kind and color. It appears that the bat might be more to blame for the length and frequency of bingles than the ball.

But there have always been bats and there have always been balls, while pitchers, real hook-arm batters, are not always to be had on every team. There have always been long hits, home runs, triples, doubles, and many of them, which should be a point in our favor. A ball, properly thrown, has always traveled, and will travel. The thing for a ball to do is to avoid being smacked in the center. Under the right kind of control from its starting point it will not be hit on the nose that why batters are not better, and today's pitchers are less animated.

Campaign Is Started In Henderson Area
HENDERSON, July 28 (AP)—A solicitation campaign to cover seven counties has been organized here by the Texas Cotton Co-operative association and thirteen meetings have been scheduled for next week. Fifty farmers signed membership contracts at a meeting held here yesterday. Judge Edwin Lacy of Lovelock, will address a mass meeting at Willsboro Monday afternoon.

NINTH RALLY FALLS SHORT FOR HUBBERS

SQUIRES IS VICTIM OF HIT ATTACK; ERRORS ARE FREQUENT

A four-run rally in the ninth, inaugurated by Sam Scott who doubled and carried on by "Dirty" Waller who doubled to score three tallies, after two were out, was hardly sufficient for a victory, and Tahoka's ball club went home Sunday evening with the heavier end of an 8 to 6 count, and proud of it. Until the ninth the Lubbock Hubbers trailed behind a six-point lead, five points of which were picked up in the first two innings when the visitors jumped on Blackie Hoyle, Hubber right hander, and mauling the unsteady pitcher out of the box. Sam Scott went to the rescue and held the upper hand throughout the rest of the game.

Lefty Squires, pitching all the way for Tahoka, was good for eight strikeouts, which points to his leadership in the loop, but the "Tough One" was hammered all over the field, a total of one dozen bingles being gathered off the star southpaw. For most of the way he was able to keep the hits bunched, and was rarely in a serious hole. After pitching a hard game, he was attacked in the ninth by a barrage of blows that threatened his lead, but a timely strikeout, and later an easy bounce to second saved him.

Errors Mar Contest
Numerous errors, nine in all, was responsible for a number of Tahoka's runs. Without them the visitors would have been held to not more than six runs, for Hoyle and Scott were selfish with his allowing only nine for the afternoon. With good support both Hoyle and Scott would have turned in better cards.

Rather loose umpiring on the base lines and at the mound accounted for at least one run on each side, and what might have been a satisfactory encounter was narrowly averted in the eighth over a disputed foul ball when a decision was reversed. The box score:

LAMESA SLUGGERS HIT SOUTHLAND MEN HARD
SOUTHLAND July 28.—(Special)—Southland's South Plains League were held helpless as the Lamesa sluggers hit to every corner and scored in nearly every inning to take a 16 to 6 victory at the local park Sunday afternoon. Moody went the route on Lamesa's mound, while Southland used two hurlers, both with equal success. Gregory started, but was relieved by Crumming, who finished the game. The Lamesa crew clouded the Southland hurlers fifteen times, while five errors on the part of the home boys aided in the opposition's scoring.

LEVELLAND RUNS OVER BROWNFIELD TEAM
LEVELLAND July 28.—(Special)—The Levelland ball club ran rough shod over the Brownfield entry here Sunday afternoon and when the dust had settled Levelland was leading by a score of 12 to 1. The victory brought the teams out of a tie for the cellar, again giving Brownfield undisputed possession of the low rung, while Levelland, whose team meets the Lubbock Hubbers Wednesday, has a chance of ascending to third place before the first half of the season is out.

EXCEEDS AVERAGE
Recent census figures released show that Scurry county exceeds in population growth the average West Texas county in that their average run 31.2 per cent while Scurry county advanced 38 per cent, and Snyder, 37 per cent in growth.

Blood in the average human body travels five times the nautical distance between New York and Manila in one year.

STRIK TO MEET PHIL

INTERSECTIONAL PLAY BRINGS OUT DISPLAYS OF STRENGTH AND CHANGES IN STANDINGS; ROBINS CLIMB HIGHER

BY HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer
An unexpected display of strength on the part of the western clubs of both major leagues marked the intersectional series which wound up yesterday after a little over two weeks of summer play. But it was the opening blasts of the current intra-sectional warfare that provided yesterday's sensations and made some important alterations in the standings.

In the National league, Chicago, after leading the way in the intersectional struggles with eleven victories and six defeats, went down yesterday before the Cincinnati jinx and lost a game and one half to the Brooklyn Robins, who trounced the Phillies twice. The Cubs had a promising rally nipped by the second triple play the Reds have made against this season and sent down their fifth straight decision to Cincinnati as the Reds followed their advantage with a four run burst. The Robins pounded the Philadelphia pitchers for 26 hits in a pair of slugging matches which produced nine home runs. They won by scores of 19 to 8 and 9 to 6.

Improves Record
This double victory was something of an improvement of the Robins record of 9 victories and 8 defeats in their home stand against the west. Their mark, however, equalled that of the New York Giants, co-leaders of the eastern brigade. The Giants were pulled down somewhat in their intersectional campaign as the Pittsburgh Pirates scored two victories in the final double header yesterday. The Pirates bunched their hits for enough runs to offset a six run Giant rally and won the first game, 10 to 8, then piled up an early lead off Pete Donohue for an 8 to 4 triumph in the second.

The St. Louis Cardinals added to the prestige of the west by handing the Boston Braves a double defeat. They won the first game, 2-0, on homers by Plater and Hafey and Sylvester Johnson's three hit pitching, then copped the second, 6 to 1, with Herman Bell on the mound.

Cards Below .500
The Cards fell below the .500 mark for the intersectional play by one game, but with Cincinnati's record of winning eleven out of 19 of the western clubs of the National league won 39 games and the east only 30.

Due to the surprising showing of Cleveland and Detroit at home and Washington's slump, the American league's western division took 39 contests to 24 for the east. The Indians won eleven games and lost eight while the Tigers were victorious ten times in 17 games. Philadelphia's Athletics again led all rivals winning 12 out of 16 games, but Washington fell down to a losing record of seven victories and 12 defeats.

Sens Best Box
Washington put on one of its rather infrequent displays of its earlier strength and slumped the Chicago White Sox for 15 hits and a 10 to 1 victory after losing three straight. Fred Marberry made it a complete triumph by holding the Sox to three hits.

The St. Louis Browns ended their struggle to remain in seventh place by winning two of the day's most surprising games from the Boston Red Sox, 10 to 9 and 9 to 6. These two weak hitting clubs brought forth 33 hits, nine homers, and bursts of seven and eight runs in the first game. Goose Goslin hit three four baggers, Webb and Todd two apiece, while Marberry won the second clash with a ninth inning homer.

CARRIED TO POLLS

SAN ANTONIO, July 28.—(AP)—Too ill to rise from bed, Mrs. Annie Higgins was taken to the polls here in an ambulance Sunday morning to take the voting booth on a stretcher, and cast her ballot. Her determination to vote was indicative of interest aroused in Bexar county by one of the bitterest campaigns ever waged here.

SPUDS BACK IN LEAD IN TEX. LEAGUE

FORTUNES ARE SHIFTED SUNDAY: CUBS AND CATS TIED

BY GAYLE TALBOT, JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer
Rapid shifting of fortunes around the Texas league front over the week-end saw the Wichita Falls Spudders, knocked into second place Saturday night, come back Sunday to sweep a double bill at Beaumont and regain the pennant, while Waco's nocturnal specialists, after enjoying a day on the peak, fell back into a tie with the Fort Worth Cats for second place.

A pair of rookie chunkers, Vincent and Florid, with the assistance of Larry Bettencourt's big bat, put the Spuds back in the lead. Vincent, in the first bout, 8 to 7, thanks largely to Bettencourt's thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth homers of the year, the two blows accounting for five runs. Florid held the Shippers to five bingles in the nightcap and blanked them, 5 to 0.

Cats Best Cubs
After expending most of their energy in taking two out of three from the Spuds in their big series, the Cubs fell easy victims to Fort Worth in yesterday's daylight battle, 13 to 10, and their tussle tonight was due to establish one or the other as runner-up to the Spuds.

Bill Harris, after winning seven straight, was knocked from the hill by the Cats in the fourth, and his successors, Thurman and Wendt, were battered hard. Ed Brown, whose bludgeon has been a big factor in the Panthers' climb to select circle, led the winners' attack with three homers.

Buffs Humble Sports
The Sports were helpless before Ralph Judd's fast ball and dropped their opener to Houston, 6 to 0. The ex-Cardinal gave up only seven scattered hits and struck out 11. Carey Seip, with a home run and single, was big gun for the Bisons. Six Dallas errors helped the Indians take their inaugural 14 to 10 and break a four-game losing streak. The tribe was out for 14 to 10, but took full advantage of their miscues to score in all except two innings. Hugh Williamson homered for Dallas with one on in the seventh.

BOUT IS TEST FOR TITLE OF WORLD, CLAIM

GEORGIAN IS FAVORED TO WIN; SCHMELING NOT RECOGNIZED

(By Associated Press)
LONDON, July 28.—W. L. (Young) Stribling, of Macon, Ga., and Phil Scott, the London firm, meet in a 10-round bout at Wimbledon stadium tonight in what is ballyhooed as a match for the world's heavyweight championship.

British boxing followers, believing Scott was the victim of an unjust decision in his Miami Beach, Fla., bout with Jack Sharkey, have declared to recognize the authenticity of Max Schmeling's title claims. Hence the official designation of tonight's bout.

To Draw 30,000
Barring rain, the young American promoter, Jeff Dickson, was counting upon a crowd of 30,000 to see the battle. Although Scott holds the heavyweight championship of his native land, he has found few Britons eager to back him financially against the Georgian. Stribling ruled a favorite by a wide betting margin today.

SCHAAF MEETS RISK IN WEEK'S FEATURE

NEW YORK, July 28.—(AP)—Ernie Schauf, up and coming Boston heavyweight, battles Johnny Risko of Cleveland, at Philadelphia tonight in what promises to be the week's outstanding fight attraction. Schauf has been unusually successful in the last year or so but he probably will be on the short end of the betting at ring time tonight for Risko, despite his many years in the ring, still ranks as one of the toughest, if not the toughest, of all heavyweights to beat. The main bout is at 10 rounds as is a semi-final between Babe Hunt, Ponca City, Okla., heavyweight, and Ted Sandwina, Sioux City, Ia. In the metropolitan district, the only bout of much interest during the week is the ten rounds between Tom Heeney, New Zealand blacksmith, and Gerald (Tuffy) Griffiths, Sioux City, at the Queensboro stadium tomorrow night. Primo Carnera meets George Cook in Cleveland's weekly show tomorrow night.

TEACHERAGE COMPLETED
FLOYDADA July 28.—(Special)—A 5-room Spanish style teacherage costing $2,000, has been completed by L. B. Maxey, contractor, at Center school district. Cost is about $2,000 and the building is 28 by 24 feet.

Last year nations of the world launched 50 per cent more cruisers and 200 per cent more were in progress of building than in the twelve months preceding the World War.

FRENCH MAKE SWEEP OF DAVIS CUP SERIES SUNDAY; TILDEN'S VICTORY OVER BOROTRA ONLY AMERICAN POINT

(By Associated Press)

AUTEUIL, France, July 28.—Once more the tennis musketeers of France have beaten off America's challenge for the Davis cup. Capturing both of the final singles matches yesterday, France retained the cup by a margin of four victories to one and left no doubt of the superiority of French tennis, over the best America can offer in a tennis way at the present time.

Borotra, the "bouncing Basque" of old, clinched the series with a five set victory over George Lott of Chicago, 5-7, 6-3, 6-2, 8-6, and Cochet put the finishing touches to an overwhelming French victory by trouncing Big Bill Tilden, 4-6, 6-3, 6-1, 7-5.

Thus the series ended with Tilden chalking up the only American point by beating Borotra in singles on Friday. Lott lost both his singles matches and Wilmer Allison and John Van Ryn, Wimbledon champions, lost the doubles to Cochet and Jacques Brugnon.

The Tariff
Now that the new tariff law, designed to bring protection to the American workingman and farmer, has finally gone into effect, it might pay to look about and see if the times afford any signs concerning the way it is going to work.

Here and there one can find little incidents that seem significant. One of them took place in Akron the other day.

The B. F. Goodrich Co. of the nation's largest tire manufacturers is preparing to transfer bodily the bulk of its tire and footwear export business to Kitchener, Ont.

This is being done in order to strengthen the British dominions better. The dominions are retaining to our new tariff law by putting up tariff walls of their own.
Exports from Canada will be able to get in where exports from the United States cannot.

Goodrich, accordingly, is simply looking ahead and taking the obvious, common sense step to meet this new situation. The city of Kitchener gains a nice new industry, Akron loses, and sundry American wage earners in Akron are going to find their jobs moved out from under them.

A rash of a nasty, critical turn of mind might, conceivably, inquire just how far the new law has protected these Akron rubber workers.
Acute same time-the cables bring significant news from overseas.

Stanley Baldwin, leader of England's conservative party has agreed to Lord Beaverbrook's campaign for a British empire tariff wall, and it is probable that the next British election will be fought on this issue. The conservatives plan to tear down the trade barriers between England and the dominions and build up barriers against the rest of the world—after which the barriers would be lowered for such nations as would lower their own tariff walls.

Great Britain now buys more than $600,000,000 worth of American goods a year—chiefly foodstuffs.
This trade, if the Beaverbrook plan succeeds, will be largely transferred to the dominions. Cables state flatly that the new American tariff law is giving the Beaverbrook campaign a great impetus.

Our hypothetical crisis, once more, might ask just how this is going to help the American farmer for whom—theoretically—the tariff was passed.

As the same time, representatives of 14 European nations have met in Paris to consider ways and means of combatting the American tariff.
They are looking forward to an economic coalition that would do for all of Europe what the Beaverbrook plan would do for the British empire—distribute to other producers the huge orders that are now being placed with America.

Time signs of the times are just a shade disturbing. Can it be possible that our new tariff law is going to backfire on us?

The Highway
The scheme for a great Pan-American highway, which would give motorists of Canada and the United States access by road to the countries of South America, will probably receive material aid from the Intercontinental Road Conference which will be held in Washington next fall.

Already, it is announced, the U.
S. Bureau of Public Roads is preparing to open an office in Panama to advise Central American countries on the location of the road from the Mexican border to the Isthmus. The Mexican section will be completed before long, and South American nations are displaying keen interest in the project.

One can only hope that the whole project will be of immense importance to every country in the new world.

The most notable event since the beginning of the world.

THE PLAINSMAN

CLOSED FOR REPAIRS!

This part of this column had been set aside to celebrate Senator Small's going into the primary.

Imagine our embarrassment, and

DETOUR!

WELL, folks, The Plainsman doesn't know who all the folks are who voted for Mr. Ferguson, but there sure were lots of 'em.
We're just about to conclude that the people of Texas like Ferguson governors which, in the final analysis, may be just as good as any other kind.

As a political prognosticator The Plainsman is a fine oil can. Just five weeks ago he said "Mr. Ferguson hasn't a Chinaman's chance to be elected Governor of Texas.
Oh my, oh my, oh my!"

There's one satisfaction in seeing Ma and Sterling in the run-off and that is the campaign will have a lot of new interest. The Ferguson vote will be the Standard Oil company, the Humble Pipeline company and the New York Stock exchange around the neck of the St.
Peter of Heavenly Houston until the world looks level! And a good time will be had by all —with the possible exception of Mr. Sterling.

NO less than nine thousand people have asked The Plainsman a very embarrassing question since last Saturday night.

"Who are you going to vote for in the second primary?" they persist in asking. "You've poured in on both Ma and Sterling!"

To be perfectly frank about it The Plainsman hasn't any idea who he's going to vote for. He's never voted for a Ferguson yet—but earlier he would have voted like an ambrosia compared with voting for Sterling.
It's just a tough proposition for this old boy—and that's that.

If you all had watched the returns dribble in by counties, like The Plainsman did, you'd realize that we're shooting you the straight stuff, on the balance of Texas turning thumbs down on West Texas politically. It was just the world agreed West Texas on Saturday and they made us do it.

One of these days, however, the people of West Texas are suddenly going to realize that there's being discriminated against and when they do there's going to be plenty of going on.

We're going more popular, all the time, and some day we'll give em the whuppin' of their lives.

OLD Clint ran a good race for a poor West Texas boy and The Plainsman is proud to have supported him. You can mark that down in your little book. This column is for WEST TEXAS FIRST—THEN LAST AND ALL THE TIME. That goes for politics and everything else. If The Plainsman didn't like West Texas he'd leave—and if he couldn't support her in everything he'd try to do her in. It's just like the song Bud Roberts, Frank Jones and Skinny Stevens used to sing at night in Slim Allen's cafe:
"Old West Texas am good enough, am good enough, am good enough, for me!"

The Plainsman is a better sport than you might think, however. He takes his hat off to his old battered hat off to him. They know how to do it.
Ma led the big parade and even if The Plainsman always has been an anti-Fergusonite he's here to tell the world that Ma ran a whole of a race and we glory in Old Jim's spunk.

West Texas still has a chance to scrape off a little of the gray if we play our cards right. The West Texas vote, which went to Senator Small, will likely decide the run-off.
We ought to make Ma and Sterling promise us something for that vote before we hand it to either one of them. Let 'em say that they're going to do for us and then we can decide the rest. The Plainsman ain't in favor of giving them a darn thing until they promise to give us something—and that goes for the election primary and all the rest of the elections to come.

Good evenin'.

Washington May Be The National Capital But It's Like
Other Cities When It Comes To News, Correspondent Says

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON, July 28.—It must be that people who attract attention to Washington at all visualize it as a cluster of white buildings in which the president resides. Congress spouts and various bureaucrats sit at desks to treat the public ness of a my-erious nature which means very little to anyone. As for the people here,
the average citizen doesn't remember something about Mr.
Hoover, Mr.
Gann, Senator
Borah, Bishop
Cannon, Walter
McDuffie, Alice
Longworth, the British ambassador
and Joe Grundy.

As a matter of fact there are about 800,000 persons living in the District of Columbia and its surrounding suburbs, which means that this is a community of considerable size as well as the nation's capital. As regards the white population Washington might be called a city of the middle class, for there are no factory workers here and no element of foreign born.

Like the Best of Us
At any rate all these people live here very much like other people and no more than two or three percent at the most are intimately concerned with those political and social activities which are the prime interest of the Washington people. who break into the newspapers. The people of Washington work, play, go to church, shop, eat, drink, love, kill each other, love each other, inhabit apartments, large or tiny, dances, go to church, drink, have babies, but generally get such a good grip on the situation that they hardly anyone cares.

Continual proximity to the workings of weighty national affairs seems only to intensify their interest in local happenings. A good murder case sends newspaper columns zooming as nothing else could do short of a presidential death or the cave-in of the Capitol dome. Bias as it is to international relations and domestic problems, the populace seems rather a credu-lous one. Clairvoyants and fortune-tellers do a surprising amount of business. Miss Ellena Howells has just been found guilty of swindling two nurses of $5000. She said she got tips on the stock market "from the stars" and they let her invest their money.

All sorts of little things of local interest happen. . . . Nine colored boys, aged 11 to 17, have been arrested for the theft of 60 automobiles in three months. They called themselves the "Cat-o'-Nine Tails Gang." . . . The Senate or House District of Columbia Committee is always investigating some local matter or other—most lately mortgagee's rights. . . . Mr. Paul Browning is accused of a unique murder attempt; his wife says he forced her down her throat and she may die.
Mrs. Emily Birch tried to run away from home with the family car and two children and when her husband tried to stop her, the car crashed into a garage wall.
Fire departments of all nearby towns have been invited to the eighth annual firemen's parade.

And They Have Taxes, Too
The present local tax rate of $1.70 per $100 will remain in effect another year. . . . The Girl's Club of the Neighborhood House has been holding rehearsals for some of Assop's Fables. . . . A prominent specialty proprietor was rebuked by a cop when his truck full of empty beer kegs blocked an alley and is now on bail charged with the crime of blocking a $10 bill.

SOUTHAMPTON, N. Y., July 28 —This charming old town, where I have been fleeing over the weekends during the hot spell, shares with Newport whatever distinction may lie in being super-fashionable.

The vast and lavish estates which sit back from the drifting sand-dunes are the looting spots of Manhattan's most far-flung millionaires and blue blood. The New York newspapers keep a veritable pack of society reporters trailing up and down the lanes, which wear such romantic old names as "Fishers Lane," "Windmill Road" and "Lee's Neck Lane." The old green-shuttered houses bear signs telling you that here dwelt many historic persons. The background is dipped deep in antiquity.

Colonial farm houses are flanked by acres of wild daisies, timothy hay and more practical signs of soil cultivation. The Beach Club wears its nose in the air and the smartest Fifth Avenue shops trail the social calendarists about.

All this happens for a few months in summer. The millions of the rich spring into sudden life. The gardeners go about trimming hedges into neat squares. Gardeners turn vast acres into colorful bloom. Expensive cars burn up the roadways.
The Shinnecock Golf Club grows smoother and smoother with the age of its pioneer members.

But just beyond the spot, where the sport planes of the young blaztake off and land, there is a reservation for the Shinnecock Indians whose fathers were here before Columbus ever sighted America.
There are no more looking houses.
Babes play and wander the front porches and wander in the big house.

The negro servants of the rich have information and a strange looking hood of black-brown offspring. They are the remnants of the Shinnecock Indians looking in great stand and reserve. A spot within a stone's throw from the spot where the four-pasenger Shinnecock-Detroit sweeps over the field like some huge glider, they are there three times of Indian located in the twilight of the races within the space of a few miles.

They walk up town in those cheap, rummage-sale pants and those heavy, cloudy shoes.
The cars of the Rich Road folk whiz by. But the Indian still follows his road to life.

Contrast comes up and smites you in the face.

For just around the corner, Cassady, Barry, whose multiple family from Shinnecock Old and new, are prize dogs in from time to time on his huge estate which carries the name "Port of Missing Men."

There are many legends concerning how this name came about.
The favorite one is that the name was given to the estate by a man who was invariably "missing" on the first day of his life.

Re all this as it may, the view from the beach is that the rich down town of the palatial summer place are imported with extra bags. They are the names of the rich who may stay in it a few years and more into rooms that await them. Their names are on the door, the servants greet them and they walk in.

Down the beach, not far from the glorious club, the Count, Marco Zeppeola has gone into the real estate business. The count transplanted from his native Italy, married a society girl and gave her a title. Divorced, the count has built a little colony of houses and gardens about with his real estate in the best of the Los Angeles or Hollywoods.

Melting of the Antarctic ice cap, according to scientists, would raise the levels of the oceans by more than 50 feet.

here in discussing the new plant his company is starting. The company, Menning added, had contracted to

Years ago when malaria and chills were at their height, GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC was the outstanding treatment. The same ingredients are still making it a famous tonic today.

Its quinine has an antiseptic value in destroying malarial germs in the blood, while the iron enriches the blood. That's why this old southern tonic is so effective in rebuilding health, strength and energy in grown people as well as children who are pale, weak and nervous.

THE TINYMITES

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

The Tinymites had had their fill of Bagdad. It was quite a thrill to travel round the city, cause the scenes were very queer. The narrow streets that wound around in all parts of the town were found. And far, far down the Tiers they could gaze, when it was clear.

They had a boat ride all along the river front mid current strong, but everyone enjoyed it. They decided to repeat this wondrous trip, so off they went and about a half an hour was spent in drifting round and singing songs that sounded very sweet.

The folks on shore gave them a hand because they thought the music grand. One fellow shouted, "Sing again." And so they sang one line, "Wee, happy Tinymites are who travel round, the sights to see. We're glad we came to Bagdad cause we think your city's fine."

Once more the clapping filled the air. "I guess our singing's rather rare," said little Gwynn Tinymite. The others all agreed. The Travel Man said, "Yes, you're grand, but come, we must go back to land. The Tinymites obeyed him and returned to shore with speed.

"Where are you going now?" asked one. "What can we do to have more fun?" We've seen enough of Bagdad. Let's be on our merry way. "All right," replied the Travel Man. Another town we'll shortly see. It's far across the desert and we'll start this very day.

"How will we travel?" Gwynn cried. "We'll have to have some way to ride." The Travel Man just grinned and said, "By caravan we'll go." A camel train soon was brought out and a very merry shout, the Tinymites climbed aboard. Mr. but the camels traveled slow.

(The Tinymites are more marvellous scenery in the next story.)

FIVE THOUSAND
SEE GLIDER HOP

Five thousand people waited two hours to see the first demonstration of glider flight of the Lubbock Glider club at the municipal airport yesterday afternoon. Late in the afternoon, trial flights were made by Ben Branson pilot, Sam Adair and several others.

The airport was a scene of much air activity with five planes taking off and alighting at various times during the afternoon. Numerous passenger flights were made over the city.

During the afternoon the new 3-place Stearman monoplane, known as the "Spirit of Liano Estacado" was dedicated.

So great was the traffic com-gestion on the road to the airport that it was necessary to call city traffic policemen to the road and port to handle the crowd.

C. C. Wright is president of the glider club, which has at present about 19 members.

Exhausted over the election proved too much for Ronald McClain, who had been sitting in a tree on South Texas avenue since Friday a week ago, and he came down from his perch Sunday morning leaving Alton Phillips champion of Lubbock's tree-sitters.

—Young Phillips is remaining aloft and insists that he is still "feeling fine" although he seems more reluctant to talk than when he first made his ascent. He goes bare-foot most of the time and swings down a limb by use of a rope to
