Intrigue Promised

PORT AU PRINCE, Haiti (AP) — The Haitian government promised testimony that will outdo the wildest intrigues of the "CIA and the British intelligence service" in the trial opening today of a British official accused of helping to plot an abortive invasion in May.

David Knox, 44, information director of the Bahamas, was seized after he entered Haiti under an assumed name May 31 and paid a doctor $60 to cut two scars into his face, the government says. It contends he acted as a special British agent.

A government spokesman said the trial would include sensational disclosures about "foreign elements" in the United States, Canada and the Bahamas who the regime of President Francois "Papa Doc" Duvalier claims plotted the unsuccessful invasion by a small band of exiles on May 20.

The newspaper Nouveau Monde, which speaks for the Duvalier regime, said Knox "played a certain role, and not a small one, in the preparations" for the invasion.

Knox is being tried by a military tribunal at the Jean Dessalines barracks. He is expected to conduct his own defense.

Ten of the invaders who landed by plane in a remote region of the country were captured and condemned to death by the same military tribunal trying Knox. However, Duvalier is expected to pardon them.

Bombs Dropped On North

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. troops guarding the southern approaches to Saigon battled the Viet Cong today at two points nine miles apart.

Helicopters landed more than 1,000 men from the 9th Division in rice fields 22 miles south of Saigon in an attempt to encircle an enemy force estimated at more than 100 troops.

Details were sketchy, and no casualty figures were reported as yet. But the fighting was said to be heavy at times.

That fight was just south of Rach Kien, a key district capital. The Americans were sent in after intelligence reports told of the enemy unit, and the GIs drew fire shortly after they landed.

Nine miles farther north and only 15 miles below Saigon, another 300 men from the 9th Division virtually wiped out an enemy platoon of 40 or so men, according to initial field reports. Only three Americans were reported wounded.

In a delayed report, U.S. headquarters said that a Viet Cong force fired with bazooka-type rockets Saturday at the U.S. freighter Southport II as it approached Saigon.

U.S. Navy gunboats, helicopter gunships and Air Force fighter-bombers attacked the enemy positions along the bank and then strafed fleeing groups of Viet Cong. A U.S. spokesman said 20 Viet Cong were killed, there were no U.S. casualties and the ship was not damaged.

In the air war, U.S. Air Force B52s bombed North Vietnam for the first time in nearly a month, while U.S. tactical fighter-bombers flew 110 missions Sunday against enemy supply lines in North Vietnam's southern panhandle. The latter pilots reported destroying or damaging 42 trucks and 17 supply boats.

The B52 strikes along the frontier ranged from inside the northern half of the demilitarized zone about eight miles west-northwest of the Marine base at Con Thien to five miles inside North Vietnam.

Military spokesmen said the bombers attacked North Vietnamese troops believed preparing to infiltrate into South Vietnam's northernmost provinces. They also rained explosives on truck parks and on antiaircraft and artillery emplacements posing a threat to American fighter-bombers and combat bases just below the demilitarized zone.

One mission struck at suspected enemy troop positions 12 miles west of Da Nang, near the spot where U.S. Marines fought a fierce close-range battle with about 100 North Vietnamese soldiers from dusk Saturday to Sunday morning.

The North Vietnamese broke off contact and withdrew after American artillery and dive bombers pounded their fortified positions. Twenty-two North Vietnamese and eight Leathernecks were killed and 42 Americans were wounded, U.S. headquarters said.

Da Nang, headquarters of the Marines in South Vietnam and the country's second largest city, is considered a likely target for the major enemy offensive which expects the U.S. Command within the next month or so. But neutral diplomats in Saigon don't believe an enemy offensive is imminent. They say the reduction in ground fighting since mid-June is a deliberate enemy de-escalation intended to win a halt in American dombing of North Vietnam.

In other action over the weekend, allied troops sealed off a village about 25 miles north of Saigon and captured six Viet Cong suspects. A similar roundup in the nearby village of Chang Luu Friday and Saturday netted 18 enemy killed and 114 captured, many in a vast network of tunnels and bunkers.

South Vietnamese soldiers reported killing 22 North Vietnamese, capturing 11 and seizing 11 weapons in a two-day sweep that ended Sunday four miles east of Quang Tri city, below the eastern end of the DMZ. Two South Vietnamese were reported killed and 11 wounded.

North Vietnam meanwhile took special pains to deny that any of its troops were fighting in South Vietnam.

Three Die In Watts Gunfire

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Police exchanged gunfire with Negroes in the Watts area Sunday night and three civilians were killed. Two of the dead were listed as Negroes.

Three police officers were among 31 reported injured.

The Disturbance, which appeared to be quieting today, followed a festival commemorating the third anniversary of the Watts riots in which 34 died. Festival sponsors have held the celebration annually since 1966, saying it is proof that something constructive could come from the devastating 1965 riots.

Police called a tactical alert shortly after midnight Sunday placing 2,000 officers on duty throughout the nation's third largest city.

Some 200 officers were rushed into an area around Will Rogers Park, a few blocks from the area that was scorched by the 1965 rioting that caused $40 million in property damage.

Police Lt. Lew Ritter said the trouble started about 10:30 p.m. when two officers, directing traffic at the Watts Summer Festival, arrested a woman on suspicion of drunkenness.

Bystanders hurled rocks and bottles at the officers, who called for reinforcements. Sixty policemen were sent to the scene and an exchange of gunfire began.

Police Chief Thomas Reddin said the firing at police was heavier than in the early stages of the 1965 rioting.

"Then we had scattered reports of snipers," he said. "This time there was concentrated firing."

Sgt. David McGill, one of the officers who moved in after the first shooting, said, "We saw a lot of people being hit. They shot into their own crowd."

A police substation in the area was fired at.

Ritter said "the attack on the police station was apparently planned, and the firing in the park was definitely planned. It all began as if there had been a signal sounded."

About 20 blocks of the 98 per cent Negro area were touched by some part of the disturbance during the night. Police cordoned off several blocks.

Chief Reddin at first said he did not think the outbreak was organized, then later said: "I don't know yet. Maybe we'll know after talking to 10 or 12 officers."

One Negro man in his mid-30s staggered into the police substation shortly after the firing began, collapsed there and died.

Some hours later another Negro man died in a community hospital. Police said he was a civilian.

Neither was immediately identified.

Hurricane Dolly Spawned Off Cape

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—A tropical depression in the Atlantic Ocean off Cape Hatteras, N.C., may become hurricane Dolly today, the Weather Bureau reported.

The disturbance has intensified rapidly, with maximum winds at least 50 miles per hour, the bureau said.

The depression at 10 a.m. EDT was near latitude 35.2 north, longitude 70.7 west, or about 380 miles northwest of Bermuda.

It was reported moving east-northeast at about 20 miles per hour.

The intensification reports were received from a Navy reconnaissance aircraft and confirmed by a satellite observation, the bureau said.

Johnson To Undergo More Tests

By FRANK CORMIER
Associated Press Writer

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson is nearing the end of a 48-hour, liquid-only fast in preparation for further tests to learn the extent of a chronic intestinal disorder.

The Texas White House declined to say exactly when Johnson would return for X-rays and other tests to Brooke Army Medical Center at San Antonio, a 35-minute helicopter trip from the President's ranch.

But Johnson, who began the fast Saturday by watching visitors eat steak, was considered unlikely to prolong it.

Johnson disclosed Thursday, after two trips to Brooke for a checkup, that he is afflicted with diverticulosis, a condition that produces small pouches on the inner lining of the large intestine.

To prepare for the new examination, Johnson has had to observe a liquid diet for 48 hours. He began it Saturday—before serving steaks to two ranch visitors, Richard M. Nixon and Gov. Spiro T. Agnew of Maryland—the Republican ticket in the 1968 presidential campaign.

Johnson and other top officials briefed Nixon and Agnew on foreign policy matters.

Johnson attended Roman Catholic services Sunday at St. Francis Xavier Church in Stonewall a couple of miles from the LBJ Ranch. Although not a Catholic, Johnson frequently goes to mass there and is a friend of the pastor, the Rev. Wunibald W. Schneider.

GREETING A FELLOW STUDENT — Miss Edna Venegas Francao, foreign exchange student, is greeted by Mike Levens, Snyder High School Student Council president. Miss Francao will attend SHS during the coming term under sponsorship of the American Field Service. Her home is in Sao Paulo, Brazil.

First Front Of Season Cools Area

The first cool front of the season to dip any great distance into Texas brought some relief from hot weather and a taste of moisture over the weekend.

Showers which accompanied the front through Snyder late Saturday brought .10 inch of rain in the official gauge at the city water plant. Some areas of town, notably to the southwest, had as much as a quarter of an inch. However, the shower activity was spotty over the area.

The front was felt more keenly in the temperature department. Saturday's high in Snyder was 98 degrees, while the maximum on Sunday, after the front moved through, was only 84 degrees. The minimum for the weekend was 62 degrees.

The cool front had not been expected to move much past the northern edge of Texas.

Scattered showers fell in coastal areas.

Three inches of rain fell during a furious thunderstorm at Madisonville. Lightning struck dangerously close to traffic on the busy Dallas-Houston highway.

Temperatures Sunday behind the front were in the cool 70s but were torrid ahead of it.

High readings Sunday included Cotulla 103 degrees, Houston 101, Alice 99, and Del Rio, McAllen and San Antonio 98.

Humphrey Claims Nomination Won

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, expressing confidence he'll win the Democratic presidential nomination on the first convention ballot, has pegged his delegate strength at 1,600 votes.

And Georgia Gov. Lester Maddox says he may turn the Democratic race into a four-way battle to show Americans the party "offers more than liberals and socialists."

The Democratic nomination in Chicago in two weeks will require 1,312 votes and Humphrey was asked Sunday if his estimate of delegate strength means he thinks he has the first-ballot nomination sewed up.

"Let me tell you I feel rather relaxed," Humphrey replied. "I feel good. I think we ought to be looking forward to November."

Humphrey also said the Paris peace talks are "at a serious stage" and America's position with Hanoi should not be weakened by loose talk by candidates.

"If I can lend one little note of optimism today," he said, "which I do very carefully and with prudence and caution, I would say that the negotiations, while they have been sticky and they have been slow and they appear many times not to be productive, that those negotiations are at a serious stage."

Ulbricht In Czechoslovakia For Talks With Reformists

By PETER REHAK
Associated Press Writer

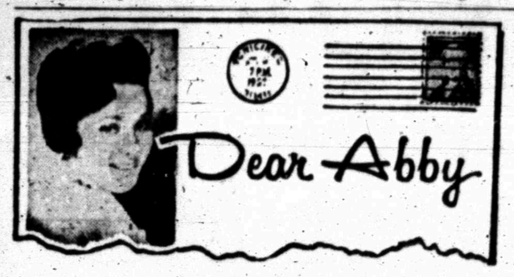

KARLOVY VARY, Czechoslovakia (AP) — East German Communist party chief Walter Ulbricht arrived at this Czechoslovak spa today for talks with Prague's reformist leaders on political and economic relations.

Ulbricht was greeted on his arrival by Czechoslovak party chief Alexander Dubcek, the man he tried to get the Kremlin to unseat and whose liberal reforms he opposed so vigorously.

Ulbricht and his hosts were expected to give much attention to economic issues and relations with Comecon, the Communist common market. On the political side, Ulbricht was expected to ask the Prague men for assurances that their dealings with West Germany would not harm the position of the Communist regime in East Germany.

Both Czechoslovakia and East Germany, the two most industrialized of the lesser European Communist nations, have large surpluses in their trading account with the Soviet Union and would like some changes made in Comecon so they could get some benefit from the surpluses.

Ulbricht is the second East European Communist leader to journey to Czechoslovakia since party chief Alexander Dubcek and his colleagues weathered the showdown with the Soviet Union over Prague's liberalization policies.

DEAR ABBY: Today while doing my dishes I just happened to glance out of my kitchen window in time to see my next door neighbor take two pairs of my husband's brand new shorts off my clothesline. Now Abby, I know she couldn't have mistaken them for her own laundry as she had absolutely nothing on her clothesine at the time.

Should I talk to her about this? Or should I ask my husband to speak to her husband about it?

EYE WITNESS

DEAR EYE: Leave her husband (and yours) out of it. Just pay her a visit, tell her you came to collect the two pairs of shorts she lifted off your clothesline, and don't be bashful. If you really want to teach her a lesson, wait a few weeks, and then tell her that you were very much surprised to discover that HER husband was wearing YOUR husband's shorts. (She'll go crazy wondering how you found out.)

* * *

DEAR ABBY: My only son is stationed in Viet Nam. He has been there for 3 months. Shortly before he left he became engaged to a girl he had been going with for 2 years.

Last night he TELEPHONED her, and I am very hurt and upset because he has never telephoned me. He just told her to call his Mom and give her his love. Am I foolish for feeling as I do?

NO NAME PLEASE

DEAR NO NAME: Yes. You are to be congratulated for having a healthy, normal young man who is able to separate romantic love from mother love. The world is full of unhappy wives who would give anything to be married to a man like that. Cheer up, Mom.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: I plan to go to Paris to meet my fiance who is also an American citizen. There is a good chance that we will get married over there, but I would like to know a couple of things first.

Do I have to get a marriage license and blood test here first, or can I do it over there? If I do get married in France, will my marriage be recognized here? We are both over 21, if that makes any difference.

MAKING PLANS

DEAR MAKING: You must live in France for 30 days before you can be married there. You'll not need a blood test, but you WILL need a French marriage application, which you should get in France. And yes, your marriage will be recognized here.

DEAR ABBY: This is for the woman who didn't mind that her second husband named three pigs after her three daughters by a former marriage.

After all, she should be most qualified to determine what namesakes are most appropriate for her three daughters.

However, when her husband called, "Rose, Joyce, and Marie," and the daughters AND the pigs come running, could he tell which was which?

GOP's Plan Said Favored

PRINCETON, N.J. (AP) — The Republican party's pledge for the "de-Americanization" of the Vietnam war is favored by two of every three voters, the Gallup Poll said Sunday.

A survey made just prior to the GOP National Convention last week found that 66 per cent of the American electorate would back a candidate on such a stand.

The de-Americanization proposal was contained in the Republican plank on the Vietnam war.

Gallup said that closely comparable views are held by supporters of Richard M. Nixon, the GOP presidential nominee, and Democratic contenders Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy and Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey.

The pollster said the GOP plank is reminiscent of the 1952 strategy of the Republicans, when presidential candidate Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower called for greater participation by South Koreans in the Korean conflict.

A Gallup Poll at that time showed the public more than 2-to-1 in favor of Eisenhower's plan.

Gordon To LCB Post

AUSTIN (AP)— Gov. John Connally named Tom Gordon of Abilene as chairman of the Texas Liquor Control Board.

Gordan, 54, whose term will expire Nov. 15, 1971, succeeds W. D. Noel of Odessa whose term expired Nov. 15, 1967. He continued in office until Connally named a replacement.

Gordon is a prominent West Texas lawyer and oil man. In recent years he has been prominent in state Democratic party affairs.

He presently is a member of the State Democratic Executive Committee, and was chairman at the recent Dallas state convention.

Grdan also is a member of the state School Land Board.

He is a partner in the Abilene law firm of Brooks, Jones and Gordon and is connected with the Franbrooks Oil Co. and Big Country Oil and Gas Co., both of Abilene.

Gov. Maddox May Seek Nomination

By VINA WINDES
Associated Press Writer

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Gov. Lester Maddox, a Democrat who supported Barry Goldwater in 1964 and says he likes Alabama's George C. Wallace this year, has announced he may make a bid for his party's presidential nomination.

Maddox said his candidacy would offer a choice among one conservative and three candidates he called Socialists.

"I have no intention of running as a favorite son," he added.

Maddox said Sunday he had not discussed the idea with national or state Democratic party officials, and had no idea what their reaction would be.

His decision, he added, could come "as late as the day of the convention. Or it could be tomorrow."

After losing several elections, including two for mayor, and a 1962 race for lieutenant governor, Maddix defeated former Gov. Ellis G. Arnall for the Democratic nomination for governor in 1966.

He was elected governor in January 1967 by the Georgia General Assembly after neither he nor Republican Howard "Bo" Callaway received a majority of general election votes. Callaway outpolled Maddox by 3,039 votes.

Before his election, Maddox, 52, became known as the Atlanta restaurant owner who closed rather than comply with the 1964 Civil Rights Act to serve Negroes.

Maddox said the Democratic party nominees, including South Dakota Sen. George S. McGovern who announced Saturday, offer no choice.

Argentine Beef Exports Are Down

WASHINGTON (AP — Argentine meat exports for the first half of this year were down 50 per cent from a year earlier, the Agriculture Department reported today.

A major cause was a ban on Argentine meat by the United Kingdom as a result of hoof and mouth disease in the importing nation, the department said.

The ban was lifted April 15 on frozen beef and pork from Argentina but remained on lamb and mutton.

The department quotes "informed sources" as saying Argentina's meat exports will continue lower the remainder of 1968.

He was taken to Cogdell Memorial Hospital by Snyder Ambulance Service and released after receiving treatment. He turned the wheel to the right. The vehicle skidded, then overturned.

Viet Reds Blast Demos, GOPs

PARIS (AP) — A North Vietnamese spokesman today blasted both the Republican and Democratic parties of the United States, but saved a special attack for the Republican presidential candidate, Richard M. Nixon.

The way was left open for more specific criticism of the Democratic candidate after that party's convention later this month.

Nguyen Thanh Le, spokesman for the North Vietnamese delegation at the Paris peace talks with the United States, went ino American politics at a news conference.

He said that the Republican platform and Nixon's personal stand could not possibly lead to an end to the Vietnamese war.

Le asserted he did not want to interfere with the internal affairs of the United States, but thought it was pertinant to give his views on Republican statements concerning Vietnam. He added that he was not referring to any policies of Nixon other than those concerning Vietnam.

Le referred to the platform plan on Vietnam adopted by the Republicans at Miami Beach and said "this program does not propose the unconditional halt of bombing and other acts of war against the Peoples Democratic Republic of (North) Vietnam, and does not speak of withdrawing American troops from Vietnam."

These have been two of the principal demands of the North Vietnamese at Paris.

Furthermore, Le argued that before the Paris talks opened Nixon had recommended an intensification and extension of the war in Vietnam. He quoted Nixon as saying that he refused to "sell out" South Vietnam.

"Nixon has pushed impudence to the limit in considering the southern part of our country as his property," Le said.

Le also said that such an attitude shows that Nixon recommends a perpetuation of the division of the country and a continued policy of neocolonialism in South Vietnam.

Le volunteered his comments on the Republican party and Nixon at the news conference. When a reporter asked if he had anything to say about the Democratic party or perhaps Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, Le said his government has often condemned the policies of the Democratic administration.

Grocers Plan New Course

DALLAS (AP) — Grocers hope to set up college training courses to relieve a chronic shortage of employes in Texas, a spokesman said Sunday.

This was reported by Robert E, Crozier of Waco, executive vice president of the Texas Retail Grocers Association, as its members assembled for their 41st annual convention.

"Obtaining employes has been the biggest problem for grocers for years," Crozier said. "Trained personnel in the food business is non existent."

He said there are at least half a dozen $25,000-a-year jobs as grocer managers unfilled currently for lack of trained men.

To relieve the situation, Crozier said the association hopes to see a two-year college level course established to provide such training at James Connally Technical Institute in Waco.

Crozier said, "The food industry has only one method of training now—the apprentice method—and it's too slow. It takes five years for a good, sharp kid to work up to assistant manager."

Union Leader Backs Humphrey

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — H. S. Brown, president of the Texas AFL-CIO, said today his organization is backing Vice President Hubert Humphrey's presidential candidacy, despite Sen. Ralph Yarborough's endorsement of Sen. Eugene McCarthy.

Brown, in an interview, said the AFL-CIO believes Yarborough, D-Tex., will campaign for Humphrey after the vice president gets the Democratic nomination.

Brown sad he believes Yarborough's endorsement of McCarthy, D-Minn., stems from opposition to the Vietnam war, opposition to Gov. John Connally of Texas and the fact that many of "Ralph Yarborough's closest friends and associates are backing McCarthy."

Brown said he believes Yarborough is "concerned that Connally might be on the ticket" with Humphrey.

Connally and Yarborough are old and bitter political enemies. Connally is widely assumed to be a backer of Humphrey and controls the Texas Democratic delegation to the national convention as a favorite son. Connally also is reported to have interest in the vice presidential slot on the ticket.

Brown said Yarborough could not "in good conscience" support a Humphrey-Connally ticket and "neither could I."

Brown said a staff meeting would be held in Austin later today for Texas union men to discuss support of Humphrey. He said he could see no opposition to the vice president among labor ranks in Texas.

Brown and some 25 union officials met with Humphrey in an informal gathering Saturday while the vice president was on a campaign swing through San Antonio. Connally was not at the meeting.

Yarborough endorsed McCarthy Friday at Houston.

UNHAPPY WITH TICKET

Robinson Breaks With GOP

By RAY KOHN
Associated Press Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Jackie Robinson, quitting as an aide to Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, says he'll back any Democrat against Richard M. Nixon. His turnabout highlights the expressed unhappiness of some Negro Republicans with the GOP ticket.

Robinson, 49, who broke the color line in major league baseball, said Sunday that Nixon heads a ticket that is "racist in nature" and that the former vice president has associated himself and sold himself out to the bigots in the South."

By selecting Maryland Gov. Spiro T. Agnew as his running mate, Robinson said, Nixon has handed over contol of the party to the Southerners.

The former Brooklyn Dodgers great, who was elected to baseball's Hall of Fame in 1962, declared, "I intend ... to support the Democratic nominee, and pray to God that every black man and every minority in this country does the same thing," adding:

"I'm a black man first, an American second and then I will support a political party third."

He appeared on the NBC-TV program, "Searchlight."

Dissatisfaction with his own party was expressed by one Negro delegate to the GOP convention in Miami Beach, Fla., who commented at a private meeting, "The black voter has generally been disenchanted with the Republican party for so long that, in order for the GOP to recapture any significant numbers of blacks, they will have to offer far more than they have to date."

Negro Republican resentment against the GOP ticket sometimes centered about the selection of Agnew.

William O. Walker, an alternate delegate from Cleveland, said of Agnew: "The thing that disturbs me is how his selection was brought about. This was done by Nixon selling out to South Carolina Sen. Strom Thurmond."

Wendell G. Freeland, an alternate from Pittsburgh, termed the choice of Agnew "a horrible mistake."

Barrington Parker, a delegate from Washington, D.C. said the Nixon-Agnew ticket "isn't going to have any appeal in the District."

Archie Jones, a Negro delegate from Baltimore, said the nomination of Agnew "will not help the ticket."

Mrs. Carolyn Hill Stewart of West Virginia said that GOP political personalities were not attracting enough young Negroes to the party.

Citing young Negro workers for the presidential candidacies of the late Sen. Robert F. Kennedy and for Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, both Democrats, she asked: "But who have we got that they're going to do that for —except maybe New York Mayor John Lindsay?"

But other Negroes expressed support for the party and the Nixon-Agnew slate.

Chester K. Gillespie, GOP delegate from Ohio, has urged Negroes to stay within the Republican party "and fight for what is right." He said "it is stupid for all Negroes to be Democrats."

Alvin W. Dyson, an alternate from Richmond, Va.; said: "We can live with the ticket and work with it."

Agnew, Dyson said, has kept "lines of communication open to Negro leaders in Maryland."

In 1964, Robinson stumped for Rockefeller's bid for the GOP presidential nomination. He refused to endorse the candidacy of Barry Goldwater and campaigned for President Johnson.

Robinson, who campaigned for Nixon in 1960, said he did so because Nixon's stand on civil rights then was "forthright."

His disappointment over the failure of his party to name Rockefeller as the presidential standard-bearer was a decisive factor in his move, Robinson said.

Negro Mayor Disapproves GOP Ticket

DALLAS (AP)—Mayor Richard G. Hatcher of Gary, Ind., a Negro, said Sunday that in nominating the Nixon-Agnew ticket "the Republican party has in effect turned its back on the black people of this country."

He told newsmen, "It has shown that it does not seek nor deserve the support of the Negro."

Hatcher discussed the Republican ticket of Richard M. Nixon and Spiro Agnew with reporters while in Dallas to address the 43rd annual meeting of Alpha Kappa Alpha, national Negro women's sorority.

The Gary mayor, 35, said he would have preferred New York's Gov. Nelson Rockefeller or Mayor John Lindsay as the GOP presidential candidate—or "perhaps others who have displayed more understanding and compassion for the legitimate aspirations of black people."

He asserted the Republican national convention was basically segregated with only 26 black delegates and "that's as close to lily white as you can get."

Hatcher said, "I hope we will see black people playing a larger role at the Democratic party convention, and that the nominees will more adequately reflect the current needs in this country."

Charleston Crash Claims Three More

CHARLESTON, W.Va. (AP) —Three more persons died Sunday, raising to 35 the number killed by the crash of a Piedmont Airplines plane.

Two survivors, Barbara Schiller, 19, and Thomas Voignier, 27, both of Cincinnati, remained in satisfactory condition at Charleston Memorial Hospital.

"I thought it was all a bad dream, just a bad dream," Miss Schiller said. "I wasn't even looking out the window when it happened. I blacked out and when I woke up they were throwing foam all over us."

Miss Schiller was en route to vacation at Virginia Beach with two of those who died Sunday, Judy Benhase, 20, and Sue Boskin, 19, both of Cincinnati. Darrell Triplett, 20, of Branchland, W.Va. also died Sunday.

The twin-engine Fairchild FH227 flight 230 from Louisville, Ky., to Norfolk, Va., was making an instrument landing in fog and smoke when it crashed short of the main runway at Charleston's Kanawha Airport Saturday.

The plane skipped over the top of a 300-foot ravine before the runway and skidded 75 yards down the airstrip as it caught fire.

The crash is being investigated by the National Transportation Safety Board and the Federal Aviation Administration.

Edward E. Slattery Jr., the board's director of public affairs, said Sunday the glide slope equipment at the airport has not been operating since June 16 because of "trouble with the antenna position."

The glide slope is a phase of the airport's instrument landing system.

W. G. McGee, a Piedmont vice president, said positive identification of the bodies was expected to be finished today.

The accident was the fourth fatal crash in Piedmont's history and was the worst air disaster in West Virginia.

Rebel Prisoners Release Guards

MICHIGAN CITY, Ind. (AP) — Two State Prison guards held by rebellious inmates were released unharmed Sunday after a newsman listened to prisoner grievances.

Two ringleaders of the six-hour disturbance were placed in maximum security cells after the meeting. The newsman, Al Spiers of Michigan City, listened with Warden Ward Lane and Anthony Kuharich, state correction commssioner, for more than an hour to various complaints from some 20 prisoners.

Spiers said the majority of the 150 inmates in the block appeared unconcerned although "about two dozen leaned over the railings of catwalks to see and hear what was going on."

The guards, Fred Parker, 25 of Michigan City, and Frank Dunn, 27, of Portage, Ind., told officials they were not abused or threatened. Spiers left the cellblock soon after the guards.

Lane identified the ringleaders as William Francis Brown 31, and James Lee Collins, 20, who forced the guards into top tier cells in a four-tier cellhouse adjoining the prison's administration building.

Brown and Collins were armed with makeshift knives, officials said. Brown is serving 1-10 year sentence for assult with intent to commit a felony. Collins was sentenced to life as an accessory after the fact of murder.

At word of the guards' seizure a 50-man Indiana state police riot squad was sent to the prison. With a 22-man prison riot squad it stood by outside the 30-foot high walls while Kuharich and Lane spent several hours talking with the prisoners outside the cellhouse door.

When the rebellious inmates asked to see a newspaperman Spiers entered the cellhouse. He is Editorial director of the Nixon Newspaper Group, of which the Michigan City News-Dispatch is a member.

Grievances aired by the convicts, Spiers said, concerned policies of the State Parole Board and appointment to it last January of John J. Barton, former state police superintendent and former Indianapolis mayor.

The prisoners said that Barton "is a police officer with a policeman's training and with a policeman's attitude," Spiers reported.

Regan Clips Reds' Wings 8-5

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Cincinnati Reds spent a long weekend trying to clip Phil Regan's wings, but neither bats nor fists could keep the Vulture from his appointed rounds.

Billy Williams' three-run inside-the-park homer in the 15th inning Sunday sent the Chicago Cubs past Cincinnati 8-5, giving relief ace Regan his second victory over the Reds in less than 24 hours.

But Regan, who has been preying on National League batters for three summers with Los Angeles and Chicago, had to work 7 2-3 innings—his longest stint since 1965—before nailing the victory.

Saturday night the 31-year-old right-hander survived a two-run homer by Lee May and a scuffle with Pete Rose while subduing the Reds 8-5. Sunday he gave up a tying two-run homer to Johnny Bench in the eighth, then hurled six scoreless innings before giving way to a pinch hitter in the 15th.

After Williams' second homer of the game broke a 5-5 deadlock, Jack Lamabe mopped up the Reds, preserving Regan's seventh straight victory and 10th in 12 decisions this year.

Los Angeles' Don Drysdale beat Philadelphia 1-0 for his eighth shutout; Felix Millan's five hits paced Atlanta to a 5-3 victory over first place St. Louis; San Francisco swept a twin bill from the New York Mets 2-1 and 5-0 behind southpaws Ray Sadecki and Mike McCormick, and Houston trimmed Pittsburgh 5-1 in other National League action.

In the American League, Detroit nipped Boston twice 5-4 in 14 innings and 6-5; Cleveland took a pair from Chicago 6-1 and 2-1; California riddled Baltimore 11-1; Minnesota crushed New York 11-2, and Oakland pounded Washington 8-3.

Regan, nicknamed the Vulture three years ago while running up a 14-1 record in relief for the Dodgers, made his 52rd appearance of the season Sunday, rescuing Ken Holtzman from a seventh inning jam with the Cubs ahead 5-3. He was tagged for Bench's 10th homer after an error by Ron Santo in the eighth, then blanked the Reds to two hits through the 14th.

Don Kessinger, who had five of the Cubs' 14 hits, and Glenn Beckert singled in the 15th before Williams hit his 19th homer —a drive down the right field line that eluded May's bid for a shoe-top catch and rolled to the fence.

Williams poled a two-run homer and Ernie Banks clubbed his 21st of the season in the sixth.

Regan's slider — which opposing hitters suspect is akin to the spitball—made the Reds see red Saturday night. After May homered in the eighth, Regan hit Tony Perez with a pitch. Cincinnati's Clay Carroll nicked Regan with a pitch in the ninth and Rose took a swing at him after grounding out to end the game.

The punch didn't land . . and Regan took another decision in Sunday's 15-round rematch.

Drysdale scattered four hits, struck out eight and drove in the only run with a two-out single in the fourth while snapping a personal four-game losing string and bringing his record to 13-10. It was the big right-hander's fourth 1-0 victory of the season tying the club record previously shared by Nap Rucker, Johnny Podres and Sandy Koufax.

The Braves spotted St. Louis a 1-0 lead on Mike Shannon's second inning homer, then struck for five runs in the fourth, chasing left-hander Steve Carlton. Millan doubled home the go-ahead run and Deron Johnson delivered a two-run single. Pat Jarvis, 11-9, got the victory with relief help from Phil Niekro as Atlanta ended the Cards' winning streak at four games.

Sadecik fired a four-hitter, struck out 13 and retired 23 Mets in order from the second to the ninth, when they ruined his shutout bid on Tommie Agee's two-out triple and Phil Linz' infield single. Willie McCovey tripled in the sixth and scored the deciding run on Dick Dietz' single.

McCovey slammed his 30th homer with one on in the nightcap and McCormick also hit a two-run homer while blanking New York on five hits.

Denis Menke's two-run double in the sixth keyed the Astros' attack and Dave Giusti protected Larry Dierker's fifth straight victory with 2 2-3 innings of two-hit relief.

Oilers Vs. Jets Tonight

HOUSTON (AP)— The Houston Oilers of the American Football League, victorious in their first exhibition game, face the untested New York Jets tonight in the Astrodome.

The Oilers, 1967 AFL Eastern Division champions, opened the season Aug. 1 with a 9-3 triumph over the Washington Redskins of the National Football League in the Astrodome.

Quarterback Joe Namath will lead the Jets' aerial attack against defense-minded Houston.

Namath, who underwent a third knee operation in March, gained 4,007 yards last season for an AFL offense record. He passed 491 times, completed 258 and accounted for 28 touchdowns.

Over 41,000 persons are expected to see the indoor game.

Head coach Waly Lemm of the Oilers will count on Pete Beathard, who completed 16 of 25 passes against Washington for 166 yards, including a nine-yard scoring bomb to flanker Mack Haik.

Coach Weeb Ewbank of the Jets has George Sauer, Pete Lammons and Don Mayard on the receiving end of Namath's attack.

Sauer headed the AFL receiving chart last season; Maynard gained more ground with his receptions than anyone else in the league, and Lammons was the No. 11 AFL receiver.

Houston battled the Jets to a 28-28 standoff in their last meeting a year ago in New York. Namath had six passes intercepted that game in Shea Stadium.

"We have these exhibition game so the coaches can see what we have," said Lammons Sunday. "I just want to see the team win that league championship, no matter what the cost."

Both clubs will miss key performers. Emerson Boozer of the Jets is in the military and the Oilers' Miller Farr is recovering from hepatitis.

BOOSTER CLUB MEETING SET

The annual membership drive will be a main topic of discussion at the first meeting of the Snyder Booster Club, to be held at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in the high school cafeteria.

The Club changed its name from the Quarterback Club following a recent meeting of the executive board. Vonnie Black, president, emphasized the change was made to call attention to the Club's support of the entire athletic program. Other officers of the club are Rev. Bill Knight, vice - president; Bruce Gardner, treasurer; and, Buck Rambin, secretary.

$$$ Pains Hurt Jockey

By ED SCHUYLER JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

Dark Mirage's foot injury is expected to trouble the sensational 3-year-old filly, but it certainly has caused financial pain to jockey Manny Ycaza.

Ycaza, Dark Mirage's regular rider, said he would be aboard her for the Alabama at Saratoga last Saturday instead of riding Damascus in the William duPont Jr. Handicap at Delaware Park. Braulio Baeza got the mount on Damascus.

Then Dark Mirage bruised the outside of her right forefoot last Thursday and was not entered in the Alabama, which she was expected to win easily. So, Ycaza got the call to ride Robert J. Kleberg's Heartland in the same race.

Heartland finished first in the $56,800, 1¼-mile test but was disqualified and placed second behind Meadow Stable's Gay Matelda.

Damascus finished first in the $53,700, 1 1-16-mile duPont, and Mrs. Edith Bancroft's great 4-year-old stayed first.

Heartland crossed the finish two lengths in front of Gay Matelda. However, the stewards ruled Ycaza and Heartland interferred with Gay Matelda and John L. Rotz during the stretch run. The time was 2:04 2-5.

OVER 49ERS

Landry Gracious After Victory

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Tom Landry could afford to be complimentary toward his former assistant Dick Nolan and he was.

"They don't come any finer than that boy," said Landry, coach of the Dallas Cowboys who beat Nolan's San Francisco 49ers 16-14 Sunday. "I think he will do a fine job."

With two losses in the National Football League's exhibition season, Nolan's job is still cut out for him and he's the first to admit that it may be a while before the 49ers are totally comfortable with the ambitious multiple offense he has installed.

Landry, from whom Nolan learned about multiple offenses, for instance, used 10 different formations while San Francisco used only three.

"You can't expect miracles overnight," said 49er quarterback George Mira. "But I think the multiple offense will really help us."

Playing the second half, Mira led the 49ers to a 14-10 lead when he found Sonny Randle in the end zone late in the third period, climaxing a drive of which Ken Willard's impressive runs up the middle played a key part.

But Mike Clark kicked two of his three field goals in the fourth quarter to give Dallas its margin of victory.

Still, the 49ers had a chance when with about five minutes left Charlie Krueger recovered a fumble by Don Perkins but two plays later, Dallas rookie Ken Kmeic picked off a Mira pass and that was the end of that.

"The linebacker was supposed bblocked adwneuto tohe,s"a to be blocked out and he was," explained Mira later. "But the free safety (Kmeic) dropped into the hole and I didn't see him coming."

Mistakes played a key part for both teams—the Cowboys lost three fumbles and had one pass intercepted while the 49ers had four passs picked off and lost two fumbles.

Both coaches found reason to praise their teams, however. Landry felt his defense showed up well and that Perkins, who carried the ball 22 times and gained 111 yards, was outstanding.

Nolan liked the work of Krueger, Willard and running back Gary Lewis whose good rushes on one drive led to a 25-yard scoring run by CKUNNI 25-yard scoring run by Cunningham in the second period.

East Tops West In Texas League

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Eastern Division clubs in the Texas League took all four games from Western Division foes Sunday.

They'll forget such rivalries temporarily tonight, however, as the Texas League All-Stars take on the Houston Astros in their annual exhibition.

Western Division leader El Paso scored six runs in the first inning against Shreveport, but the Braves refused to give up. They held the Sun Kings runless from then on and kept chipping away, finally winning 7-6.

Arkansas beat the Amarillo Giants 5-2 but it took them 10 innings and a comic interlude at the plate.

The score was tied 2-2 in the top of the 10th with the Travelers Jerry Davanon on second. Giants catcher Jose Morales dropped a third strike on Laron Lee, and kept picking up the ball and dropping it.

By the time he found the handle Davanon was sprinting home and Morales threw high to pitcher Joe Pollack covering the plate allowing the deciding run to score.

The Memphis Blues bombed four San Antonio pitchers for 16 hits and a 9-5 victory over the Missions.

Right fielder Roy Foster drove in four runs with his fourth homer of the year and two triples. Half the Blues' runs went for extra bases.

Dallas-Fort Worth grabbed a quick 3-0 lead and held on for a 3-2 decision over Albuquerque. The Spurs picked up two runs in the first inning on a hit batsman, a single and a sacrifice fly and tallied again in the third on a bases-loaded ground-out.

itcher Wayne Twitchell picked up his third victory in four outings for Dallas-Fort Worth.

Houston will be gunning for a third triumph as the Astros take on the Texas Leaguers tonight at Arlington for the third year in a row.

Nicklaus Wins On 5th Extra Hole At Akron Golf Classic

By HAL PARIS
Associated Press Sports Writer

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — When you're in a head-to-head duel with golfer Jack Nicklaus it's tough to come out on top.

Lee Elder, a 33-year-old 10-year pro playing his first season on the tour, will be the first to admit it.

"I gave it all I had but there isn't much you can do when you're up against the world's best," Elder said Sunday.

He made the observation after staging the battle of his life before losing on the fifth hole of a sudden death playoff in the $125,000 American Golf Classic.

The stirring struggle ended when Big Jack rolled in a 10-foot birdie putt to cop the $25,000 jackpot.

Nicklaus, who now has won back-to-back tournaments after a victory drought that lasted 9½ months, looked like he was human after all when he was in the bunker with his second shot on the second hole.

But the blond belter, needing a 30-foot putt after he blasted out to match Elder's par, promptly drilled it home.

Elder, the 1963 Negro golfer of the year from Washington, D.C., could have wrapped it up on the 18th hole of regulation play but he hit into two bunkers and took a bogey five.

Nicklaus, who birdied No. 18 with an eight-footer, had to wait out the finish and said "all I want is a playoff."

Frank Beard joined Nicklaus and Elder in the three-way playoff but dropped out after the first hole when he wasted his first two shots and parred the hole.

All had 72-hole ttals of 280, even par for the distance. Nicklaus had a final 69, while Elder and Beard posted 70s.

Third-round leader Don Beis, a part-time tour player from Seattle, and Bert Yancey both missed chances to force a five-way playoff when they bogeyed their final hole.

Beis, who set the course record Saturday with a hot six-under 64, soared to a 75 while Yancey shot a 71. They finished in a four-way tie at 281 with Bob Stanton and PGA champion Julius Boros.

Finishing at 282 were Bob Lunn, George Knudson and Art Wall while Gardner Dickinson, Ray Floyd and Rod Funseth closed at 283.

Arnold Palmer looked like he was ready to make one of his famous charges when he moved within one stroke of the lead with a birdie on No. 11. But the fabled pro bogeyed Nos. 13 and 14 and suffered an embarrassing triple bogey eight on the monster 16th when he put his third shot in the water, overshot the green and needed three to get down.

Palmer's 76 put him in a seven-way knot at 284 while halfway leader Bill Campbell, 1964 U.S. amateur king, skied to a 77 for a 285.

In the quarterfinals, he lost to Stanley Morris of Fort Worth 6-3, 6-4.

Joe Kuharich Moans, Geo. Wilson Beams

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

A black cloud hovered over the head of Joe Kuharich today and it will be some time before it leaves, but all is sunny for George Wilson, who sees even brighter skies ahead.

"I'm just a jinxed coach," moaned Kuharich, whose Philadelphia Eagles lost a National Football League exhibition to Detroit 20-3 Sunday and their No. 1 quarterback Norm Snead to a broken leg.

"The black clouds are right over the top of us. (But) we can't jeopardize Snead's future. I personally won't push him . . . I'll go for the maximum knitting period."

Coach Wilson, on the other hand, was beaming after his Miami Dolphins tied Buffalo 28-28 in an American League contest and All-American fullback Larry Csonka climaxed his pro debut by scoring the tying touchdown in the final period.

"He made a few mistakes, but —and that's a big but—wait a few more weeks," Wilson said. "He'll really shake them up."

In Sunday's other pre-season game, Mike Clark kicked his third field goal of the game midway through the final period to give the Dallas Cowboys a 16-4 edge over San Francisco in the NFL.

On Saturday night in the NFL, the New York Giants shocked Green Bay 15-14 on Fran Tarkenton's four-yard touchdown pass to Joe Morrison with 14 seconds remaining; Charley Gogolak's 45-yard field goal with 16 seconds left gave Washington a 16-14 decision over Atlanta, and Baltimore blanked Chicago 10-0 on a Johnny Unitas touchdown pass and Lou Michaels' field goal.

In the AFL, Bob Humphreys booted a 33-yard field goal with five seconds left for Denver's 15-13 victory over Cincinnati, and Oakland bombed San Diego 31-7 as Daryle Lamonica hurled two scoring passes.

In interleague play, Bill Kilmer passed New Orleans of the NFL by Boston 19-0, and Kansas City of the AFL stopped Minnesota 13-10 on Jan Stenerud's 15-yard field goal with 47 seconds remaining.

The New York Jets play at Houston in an AFL game tonight.

The Eagles lost Snead on their first play from scrimmage when Izzy Lang's option play pass was intercepted and Snead tried to tackle Lem Barney, the interceptor. He is expected to be out at least 12 weeks.

The Lions turned the interception into a seven-yard scoring run by Mel Farr, later added a 33-yard Jerry DePoyster field goal and finally rookie Greg Barton's 26-yard touchdown pass to Bill Malinchak after another Barney interception.

Veteran King Hill took over for Snead and couldn't move the club, and then castoff John Huarte tried and failed.

The game was scheduled for Mexico City, but a last minute cancellation brought it to Philadelphia.

Csonka, who reported to Miami late because of the College All-Star game, started slow against Buffalo. But with Buffalo leading 28-21, he ran for 17 yards, took a 21-yard pass from Bob Griese, bulled for six more yards and finally grabbed a six-yard toss from Griese for the tying score.

He finished with 31 yards in six carries and two pass receptions.

Miami missed a chance to win in the final seconds when Jim Keyes missed a field goal try from the 17.

San Francisco took a 14-10 lead into the final period, but sub quarterback Jerry Rhome led Dallas into position for Clark's 28-yard field goal with 10:34 left. When the 49ers fumbled the following kickoff, Dallas recovered and Clark wrapped it up from the 26.

Oil Bowl Workouts Begin

WICHITA FALLS (AP) — Two-a-day workouts for the 31st annual Oil Bowl begin today in preparation for Friday night's charity game.

The 24-man high school graduate squads from Texas and Oklahoma reported Sunday and held light workouts.

One Texas player, Steve Luebenhusen of Fort Worth, was replaced. Luebenhusen, who was graduated from Fort Worth Eastern Hill and plans to attend Texas A&M, suffered a deep cut during the Texas Coaches All-Star game earlier this month.

Texas coaches selected Gerrel Bolton of Granbury to fill in. Bolton was an Associated Press all-state selection last season. He plans to attend the University of Texas.

Golfer Shirley Shines Again

KAMESHA LAKE, N.Y. (AP) — Shirley Englehorn of Caldwell, Idaho, honored last year for making a comeback after an auto accident, is coming back again.

The 28-year-old brunette entered today's final round of the $28,500 Concord Open on the Ladies Professional Golfer's Association tour with a two-stoke lead.

Playing in only her second tournament after surgery to remove a pin placed in her left ankle in 1965 to repair a broken bone suffered on an auto accident, Miss Englehorn fired a one-under-par 76 for a 153 in the 54-hole tourney, richest on the tour. The winner collects $4,275.

Sandra Haynie of Dallas, the first round leader, soared to an 81 in gusty winds of up to 20 miles per hour and tied for second with Sharon Miller of Marshall, Mich., who had a 76.

Suggestion Box Is Of Age

By JOHN CUNNIFF

NEW YORK (AP) — The suggestion box has come a long way since World War II, when it hung near the factory washroom, an inspiration, supposedly, to the war effort, but often just a repository for impolite remarks about the boss.

Last year at San Jose, Calif., G. R. Minden, 30, an assembler, and R. A. Maddox, 42, a technician shared $41,026 for showing their employer International Business Machines, how to fabricate metal covers so they could be used on two rather than just one type of computer unit.

It was one of 250,000 suggestions at IBM last year, 15 per cent of which paid off. The all-time high payment, $72,186 in 1963, also went to two IBM men, Charles Glancey and Lawrence Lavigni, for explaining how to reduce the number of circuits in a tape drive unit.

At United Airlines, a San Francisco maintenance specialist, Dean Webster, 42, received a $14,645 check last year for working out a process that enables jet engines to be examined without dismantling.

Two years ago Dean Kinsman, then 52, a body layout man in Ford Motor's pilot assembly plant at Dearborn, Mich., won three maximum awards, each for $6,000 and a new car. Earlier, he had won four maximum awards in five years.

Ford last year paid out $3 million for 28,492 winning suggestions, bringing to more than $20 million the total awarded in 20 years. Several of the maximum award winners have been repeaters, including some women.

Kinsman's recommendations included using fiber glass instead of metal in control panel consoles.

Such awards indicate the suggestion box has indeed come of age—almost despite itself, for during the early days management didn't always follow-up on recommendations. Good ideas were ignored; even thank you notes failed to go out.

"We had a terrible image and rightfully," says Eric Ekstrom of the National Association of Suggestion Systems, based in Chicago. "It was management's fault. They didn't know what they were doing."

A manufacturing saving of 10 cents a unit seems like peanuts. But after two million cars have gone down the assembly lines, as will happen at Ford this year, the saving is $200,000, perhaps to be repeated year after year.

"Nothing is more sensible," says Ekstrom, "than to understand that the guy on the line has creativity if it is tapped. Working day in and day out he's going to know more than any engineer. He's got a feel for his job."

Ekstrom, NASS executive director, estimates that payoff ideas are at this moment moving through 6,000 company systems. NASS represents about 1,300 of these, and Ekstrom estimate the companies involved saved $500 million last year.

Eligibility varies. In almost all instances hourly paid workers are included. But there is no set cutoff point. In some firms any employe with supervisory control is ruled out. In others, even executives compete.

But cash saved or 'awarded isn't the only incentive. Morale is improved by a properly operated systen. And promotable employes often make their presence known to superiors through intelligent suggestions.

Says Donald Schultz, NASS president and head of the Illinois Central Railroad suggestion system: "A good many officers of this company came up that route."

Junior Editors Quiz on TRANSPORTATION

QUESTION: How come they didn't have automobiles in earlier days?

* * *

ANSWER: In the earliest days, men had to carry thing around on their own backs. Then they learned to domesticate such powerful animals as the horse, camel and ox. With the development of the wheel, making carts and carriages possible, these draft animals could do most of the heavy work needed. Our illustration shows the kind of contraption people had to use before cars came along. It's a funny combination of several things; it's a kind of train, because its wheels ran on iron rails; it's a kind of cart, because it was pulled by horses; it's a kind of trolley, because it ran on rails in city streets. But such a slowpoke affair would never do in our age, when men and goods must be shifted around so rapidly. For vehicles to move with any speed they must be powered by engines. The reason there were no cars in the early days was that the engine had not been invented. When James Watt perfected a practical steam engine in 1769, things began, literally, to move. First came trains, then gasoline-powered cars, with his famous Model T, Henry Ford "put America on wheels".

Bulletins From Boyle's Mailbag

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

Fantasy starts early in human life. Researchers believe that many babies begin to have dreams within five hours after birth.

Does your mate snore? Snoring is so prevalent in Britain that a specialist estimates it threatens the marriages of 1.5 million couples in that country. He believes that about 50 per cent of snorers can be cured of their affliction and another 30 per cent helped by proper treatment.

Uncle Sam picks up the tab for the world's most expensively tailored clothes. They are the individually fitted 21-layer suits which U.S. astronauts will wear on projected flights to the moon. The suits cost about $100,000 apiece, weigh 57 pounds, and are designed to protect spacemen from lunar temperatures which range from 250 degrees below zero to 250 degrees above.

Although women generally brush their teeth more often than men, they are more likely than men to lose all their choppers. On the average, U.S. women have two more fillings or missing teeth than men. At any age they are also more likely to need eyeglasses. About 50 per cent of the female population wear them, only 43 per cent of the male population.

Here's why it's a good idea to stand well behind a golfer teeing off: A well-hit golf ball takes off at a speed up to 200 or more miles an hour.

Quotable notables: "When liberty destroys order, the hunger for order will destroy liberty." Will Durant.

Subsurface diplomacy: Iban tribesmen of Borneo once had a custom of settling arguments that delegates to the United Nations might well employ. When two tribesmen disagreed violently, they dived together into the water. The one who stayed under the longer was declared winner of the dispute.

Worth remembering: "The trouble with most of us is that we would rather be ruined by praise than saved by criticism." No magic cure: Science has yet to come up with a wonder drug that will quickly remove the agony of a hangover. "Sobering up is essentially a matter of time," says Leon A. Greenberg of the Rutgers University of Alcohol. Studies. Neither coffee gulping or work do much, he says, to speed recovery from the results of excessive imbibing.

Prosperity note: Roughly 182,000 individuals are expected to file personal bankruptcy proceedings this year—chiefly because they didn't stick to a family budget, let small debts pile up. Today nine out of ten bankruptcy cases involve ordinary consumers, not businessmen who have failed.

It was Kin Hubbard who observed, "The safest way to double your money is to fold it over once and put it in your pocket."

Eisenhower Continues To Show Improvement

WASHINGTON (AP) — Forhower, nearing the end of a critical period of recovery after his sixth heart attack, continues to "show satisfactory improvement."

This was reported by doctors at Walter Reed Army Hospital in their daily bulletin Sunday.

The 77-year-old general of the Army suffered his latest attack last Tuesday while at Walter Reed recuperating from an earlier one.

Doctors generally believe the first week after a heart attack to be the most critical period.

Divers Claim Buried Hull Is First Ironclad Battleship

By BOB MARTIN

NORFOLK, Va. (AP) — While the proud and mighty battleship New Jersey steams through the Pacific, the antecedent of all battleships rests at the bottom of the ocean just off Cape Hatteras, N.C.

But if a group of men, working in secrecy since last April meet with success, that tiny ship, the USS Monitor, will be found, raised, and exhibited to the public.

The 127-foot "cheesebox on a raft" is famous for three achievements: Saving the Union blockade from the ironclad threat of the Confederate ship Merrimac at the battle of Hampton Roads on Mar. 9, 1862; demonstrating the obsolescence of the wooden warship; and making the movable turret a prime feature of most warships.

The original Monitor, built by Swedish-born inventor John Ericson at the Greenpoint Navy Yard, Brooklyn, N.Y., in the first two months of 1862, was not a seaworthy vessel.

In the night of Dec. 30, 1862, she foundered in one of the frequent storms off Cape Hatteras — "graveyard of the Atlantic" and sank with the loss of 4 officers and 12 men out of her crew of 63.

The location of the "tin can on a shingle" has been a mystery ever since. Accounts of her sinking place her location from 1 to 25 miles offshore.

Robert F. Marx, a professional treasure-diver, claimed to have found the Union ironclad in 1955 while diving in about 50 feet of water a mile offshore, but said he could not locate the ship on subsequent dives due to shifting of the sandy ocean bottom.

The group now exploring off Hatteras is a partnership between the state of North Carolina, which claims ownership under a 1967 law, and the North Carolina Tidewater Services, Inc., a salvage company.

Samuel P. Townsend, supervisor of underwater archaeology for North Carolina's State Department of Archives and History, has granted an exclusive permit to the company, under provisions of the new law, to explore for wrecks in a nine-square-mile area directly offshore and to the northeast of Hatteras point.

Many of the wrecks in the area are probably buried under shifting sand, said Robert L. Simmons, 50, a company director. The water runs to a depth of about 40 feet there.

To locate wrecks, the underwater explorers are using a differential proton magnometer, which is designed to produce outlines of buried metal hulls.

ATS 4 Satellite In Wrong Orbit

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — America's Applications Technology Satellite 4 tumbled around earth in the wrong orbit today as space engineers attempted to salvage what they could from a $28 million mission spoiled by rocket failure.

Officials at the National Aeronautics and Space Administration's Goddard Space Flight center in Greenbelt, Md., said ATS 4 was cartwheeling at the rate of one revolution every 40 seconds and was still attached to the upper stage of its Atlas-Centaur booster rocket.

The drum-shaped satellite, packing a new weather-watching camera built to stalk storms in daylight or darkness, blasted into space Saturday aiming for an orbit that would keep it permanently positioned 22,300 miles over the equator west of South America.

En route, however, the Centaur upper stage of ATS 4's booster rocket failed to re-start a second time as planned and, instead of drifting the satellite toward its lofty 22,300-mile high goal, left it stranded in a low orbit where cameras and communications experiments aboard the craft are useless.

NASA refused to speculate on why the failure occurred. Sources close to the investigation said engineers suspect something went wrong in the propellent system which feeds fuel into the Centaur engines. A pump used to build up pressure in the fuel tanks may have frozen, possibly because of a heater failure, they said. Without proper pressure in the fuel tanks, the engines would not start.

ATS 4 also did not separate from its 7,000-pound Centaur rocket as planned. With such a heavy weight on its tail, controlling the satellite will be difficult if not impossible, officials said.

Project officials said the most that can probably be gained is engineering information that will tell whether satellite experiments survived the launch.

Officials said ATS 4 cost about $15 million. Its Atlas-Centaur rocket was valued at another $13 million.

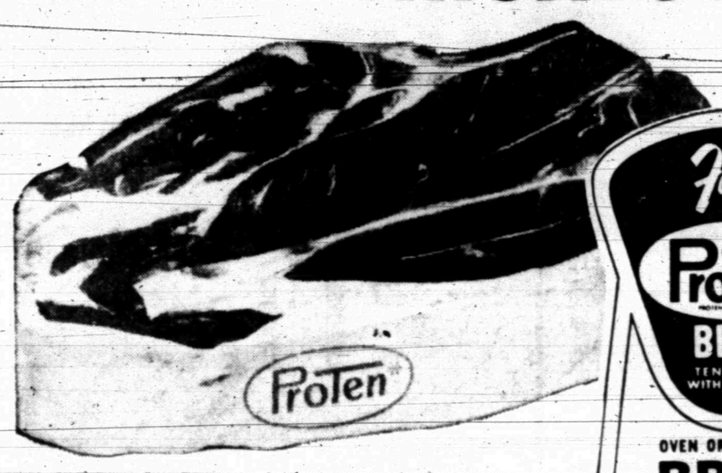

Locusts Lay Siege To Area Of Sudan

WASHINGTON (AP) — Farmers in the Great Plains occasionally recall, with only mild overstatement how grasshoppers in the dust bowl years were so hungry they ate fence posts level with the ground.

But nothing in recent years has surpassed the siege in Africa's locust belt. The Food and Agricultural Oganization of the United Nations says at least 200,000 square miles of the Sudan is infested by the biggest outbreak of locusts since 1958.

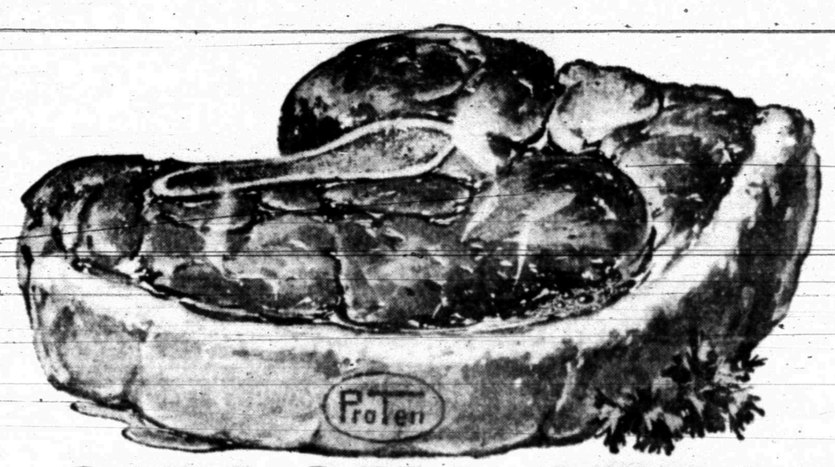

One developing group of the flying insects is reported to cover an area 30 miles long and 20 miles wide, the FAO said.

THE EASY WAY — Application of Johnston's No-Roach is the easiest and most effective way to rid your home of roaches and other crawling pests. You just brush it on places where there is pest traffic.

Johnston's No-Roach Most Effective Crawler Killer

The manufacturers of Johnston's No-Roach are not bragging or boasting, they are just stating a fact — No - Roach means exactly that, no roaches.

This claim is made with knowledge obtained through 20 years sales experience, thousands of laboratory tests, and millions of satisfied customers.

Johnston's No-Roach comes in a brown amber bottle with a brush attached and is different from other roach killers for many reasons. No-Roach eliminates the need for frequent application of messy, unsafe sprays and powders. No-Roach is clean and easy to use and it is harmless to pets.

There is no need to move dishes or food when you use Johnstons No-Roach; simply brush this odorless, colorless, liquid around baseboards, sinks, tablelegs, behind cabinets and appliances, on shelves and inside cabinet doors. Johnston's No-Roach is good for use in bathrooms and anywhere else cockroaches may breed.

No-Roach dries fast to form an invisible path of death that kills cockroaches, ants, silverfish, spiders, all crawling insects, and best of all it continues to kill effectively for months.

"No-Roach makes so much sense," wrote a housewife in Cleveland, Ohio. "When I apply No-Roach I don't have to move anything. I simply brush the coating where I want it, and forget it. Lo and behold, a few days later there's not a cockroach to be found in my spic and span kitchen. I can't praise it enough and I want everyone to know that No-Roach makes so much good sense."

We know we must be doing something right. That is why one housewife will tell another that No-Roach is "the only way — the modern way to keep your home free from crawling insects.

It is having an exterminator working for you 24 hours a day for weeks at a time.

Johnston's No-Roach is available at Safeway, Piggly Wiggly, Furr's, Rainbow and all grocery stores.

Fall Injuries Said Fatal To Chavez

WASHINGTON (AP) Preliminary autopsy results indicate Dennis Chavez Jr., son of the late senator from New Mexico, died of head injuries suffered several days earlier, authorities say.

Dr. Richard Welton, District of Columbia coroner, said final certification of cause of death will follow further investigation.

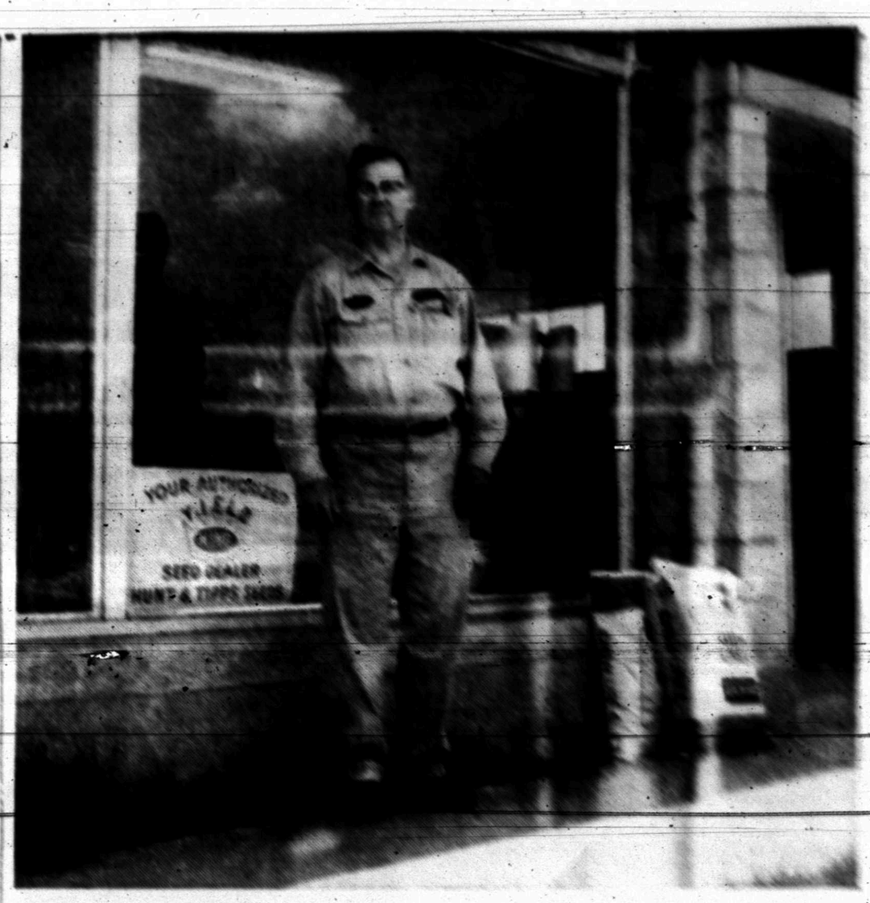

Chavez, 35, a Washington lawyer who had worked as an aide and campaign manager for his father before the senor Chavez' death in 1962, died Sunday shortly after he was found unconscious on the floor of a jail cell.

Police said Chavez was arrested after he was seen staggering on a Washington street. He was charged with drunkenness.

Dr. Welton said the autopsy showed Chavez suffered brain concusions and bleeding from membranes surrounding the brain and that the injuries apparently were suffered in a fall several days before his death. Dr. Welton said the injuries could have produced the staggering.

Chavez was the son of the late Sen. Dennis Chavez who served in the Senate from 1935 until his death.

Chavez, a bachelor, won the silver and bronze stars for heroism during World War II service as a U.S. Marine.

Independents Fear Inventory Burden

By MAX B. SKELTON
AP Oil Writer

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Independent oil men have warned that extremely burdensome inventories will develop by October unless domestic crude production is reduced sharply.

The Independent Petroleum Association of America estimates that the August-October requirement for domestic crude should average 8,700,000 barrels a day. This is nearly 600,000 barrels a day below the July average.

The association warns that if burdens from inventories are to be avoided the total supply of new oil should not exceed 13 million barrels a day the next three months.

Total supply is derived from three sources—from petroleum imports and from domestic production of crude oil and domestic production of natural gas liquids.

Independent operators have been advised they can expect oil imports to average 2,850,000 barrels a day through October and can expect natural gas liquids output to average 1,450,000 barrels daily.

"This means a requirement for domestic crude of 8,700,000 barrels a day, about 600,000 less than July output," said "Executive Report," a monthly information bulletins distributed to the 6,000 members of the nation's largest trade group for independent oil men.

Lingering after-effects of last year's Israeli-Arab war continue to aggravate petroleum supplies. The bullet said the closed Suez Canal and resulting increases in tanker rates kept imports below quotas the first half of the year.

"In the past three months, total new supply of oil averaged 13.2 million barrels a day, up 750,000 a day from the same month last year," the bulletin said.

"But domestic production was up 830,000 barrels a day in this period while imports were down 80,000. Inventories continued to rise to 950 million barrels on June 30, up 54 million barrels from the same date in 1967. Most of the gains in products stocks, with heating oil inventories up 28 million barrels."

Chase Manhattan Bank's monthly Petroleum Review indicates no immediate inventory problems of major proportions but agrees with independent that current trends cannot continue much longer.

"The rate of the buildup in the past two months has been in excess of indicated needs, and if it continues much longer corrective action will become imperative," the Review said.

The Chase Manhattan report placed June 30 combined stocks of crude oil and refined products at 942 million barrels, 41 million above 1967 and 92 million above 1966.

Like the independents, Chase Manhattan expressed concern over heating oils. It said gasoline stocks are not significantly above the average midyear level of the past five years and that the increase in kerosene inventories is well in line with the usual seasonal pattern.

"But for distillate, a 23 million barrel addition to stocks was a great deal more than normal," the Review said. "The 139 million barrels in storage at the end of June was 24 million more than a year ago. We should be mindful, however, that distillate stocks at this time last year were considered too low."

Legion Names Robert Walsh

HOUSTON (AP) — Robert P. Walsh of San Antonio is the new commander of the Texas Department of the American Legion.

Walsh, elected Sunday at the closing session of the department's 50th convention, succeeds William G. Nami of Cuero.

Jack W. Flynt of Dimmitt was elected national committeeman. His alternate is Teal Adkins of Beeville.

Other new officers include Quincy Main of Harlingen, historian; W. H. McGregor of Austin, adjutant; Max Maule of San Antonio, judge advocate, and Ray W. Thompson of Houston, sergeant-at-arms.

Delegates voted to hold next year's convention in Austin.

Mrs. Billy B. Hester of Houston was elected president of the women's auxiliary. Mrs. James White, also of Houston, was elected chaplain and Mrs. Eddy Ginn of Corpus Christi was elected historian.

Mrs. Lee Soterner of Lockney was elected head of Eight-and-Forty, an auxiliary service organization.

Americans consumed 275,000 tons of strawberries in 1967.

Motel Man Said Killed In Holdup

ENNIS, Tex. (AP)—Motel operator Clarence H. Lyons, 65, was shot and killed during a holdup about 1:20 a.m. today at Ennis, between Dallas and Corsicana.

His wife told officers the dark-haired bandit, about 35, fled in a late model white car after taking about $50. The shooting occurred at the Geneva Motel, on the east side of town.

Police dispatcher D. H. Priddy gave these details:

The robber shot Lyons once with what was believed to have been a .45 caliber pistol.

Mrs. Lyons entered the office from another room with a 32 caliber pistol and the holdup man took it from her, forcing her to lie on the floor.

Officers set up roadblocks on several escape routes but found no trace of the fleeing man.
