INVERNESS PLANS CANCELLED

HAVE NOT DECIDED CHARGE TO BE USED IN ARBUCKLE TRIAL

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 15.—A threat of violence against Roscoe C. (Fatty) Arbuckle "if justice is not done in his case," was contained in an anonymous special delivery letter received from Sacramento today by Harry Kelly, secretary of the county grand jury. The letter was turned over to the police.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 15.—A county grand jury indictment charging Roscoe (Fatty) Arbuckle with manslaughter in connection with the death of Miss Virginia Rappe, motion picture actress, after she had attended a party in his rooms in the St. Francis hotel, was returned to Presiding Judge Shortall of the superior court today. The indictment was voted on the early morning of September 14. Bail was set at $5,000 cash or $10,000 bonds and the case assigned to the court of Superior Judge Harold Louderback in the hall of justice.

The indictment read: "We, the grand jury, charge to-wit:

"That on or about the 9th of September, 1921, Roscoe Arbuckle did then and there wilfully, unlawfully and feloniously and without malice aforethought, kill Virginia Rappe, a human being."

Arbuckle was not in court. District Attorney Brady explained that Arbuckle would not be admitted to bail until two murder charges pending against him had been disposed of. He is to confer with the chief of police and other authorities later in the day as to the exact charge on which Arbuckle shall be tried.

EXPECT TO DECIDE ON THE CHARGE DURING DAY

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 15.—Decision to try Roscoe (Fatty) Arbuckle, the film comedian, on a charge of murder or manslaughter in connection with the death of Miss Virginia Rappe, film actress, is expected to be made by District Attorney Matthew Brady today.

Arbuckle has two separate charges pending against him. On a complaint sworn in police court by Mrs. B. M. Belmont, friend of Miss Rappe, Arbuckle is charged with murder. Following this charge on last Tuesday night, the grand jury indicted him for manslaughter and the true bill is to be returned before Superior Judge E. B. Shortall some time today.

It was pointed out by Brady that should it be decided to try the film star on a charge of manslaughter and the murder charge be dismissed, Arbuckle would be admitted to bail. Under the California law a person charged with murder cannot obtain bail.

The coroner's jury yesterday returned a charge of manslaughter.

Telegrams were received by District Attorney Brady yesterday asking him to prosecute the case vigorously.

Arbuckle received 18 telegrams, the contents of which were not made public.

ARRANGEMENTS BEING MADE FOR FUNERAL OF MISS RAPPE

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 15.—Arrangements are being completed today for the funeral of Miss Virginia Rappe, motion picture actress, whose death in a sanitarium here last Friday resulted in four charges against Roscoe (Fatty) Arbuckle, two of murder and two of manslaughter.

Herman Jaurag, motion picture director of Los Angeles, is expected to arrive today and take charge of the body for forwarding to Hollywood, Miss Rappe's home. Jaurag is acting at the request of Henry Lehrman, fiance of Miss Rappe.

A telegram from Mayor L. C. Hodgson of St. Paul which thanked Brady for his announced intention that he will prosecute the case without fear or favor, was made public today. It said:

"Latest reports indicate Arbuckle money is overcoming state testimony. Do not falter. Fight this to a finish. If Arbuckle is not punished the moving picture business is done, for decent people are tired of the eccentricities of genius. Go the limit and win praise of all good people."

Brady replied that in spite of "Arbuckle's money and influence, the case will be prosecuted most vigorously."

Another telegram from Lehrman who is in New York, also made public, said:

"For the sake of God and justice to men, don't let justice be cheated. It brought tears of rage to my eyes when I read your speech that influence and wealth are brought into play to bar justice. I cried because you told the truth in spite of the pressure of gold to stifle it.

"You are convinced from facts and I from knowing him that Arbuckle killed Virginia Rappe as a result of his attack.

"Now don't let them cheat justice—for God's sake, don't."

While the city authorities busied themselves with the case, federal prohibition enforcement officials under the direction of Robert R. McCormack, assistant United States attorney general in charge of prohibition enforcement, continued an investigation of charges that a considerable quantity of liquor was served and consumed at the hotel party in Arbuckle's rooms in which Miss Rappe is alleged to have received her fatal injuries. McCormack announced that there would be a vigorous investigation and a quick hearing on the charges.

Mrs. Mae Taube, who was photographed looking from a window of the St. Francis hotel with Arbuckle on Sunday, September 4, the day before the party in Arbuckle's rooms, and who is wanted as a witness, was located today in San Francisco after she was reported to have dropped from sight, Brady said.

Miss Gatlin, who will accompany the body of Miss Rappe to Los Angeles, said the funeral would be "quiet and without pomp or display."

YOUNG LADY TEACHER DROWNS WHILE BATHING

LUFKIN, TEXAS, Sept. 15.—Miss Belle Florine Ramsey, 23, school teacher of Nacogdoches, was drowned in Jones lake, near here, last night while bathing with a party of friends. The body was shipped to Nacogdoches today.

2 HUNDRED GALLONS OF HOME MADE WINE PERMITTED ANNUALLY

HARTFORD, CONN., Sept. 15.—Among more than 5,000 letters received recently seeking information as to permits for the making of "home made wines," or "non-intoxicating fruit juices," were those of at least a dozen clergymen, the internal revenue bureau announced today. The office force has been forced with correspondence since announcement was made that heads of families may make two hundred gallons of wine yearly for home use provided a permit is obtained.

OFFICIALS ACKNOWLEDGE MANUFACTURE PERMITTED

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—Internal revenue bureau officials frankly acknowledged today that heads of families may upon filing of notification with local revenue collectors manufacture 200 gallons of wine yearly for home use.

Treasury regulations making effective such a provision of the law were issued by Internal Revenue Commissioner Roper with the approval of Secretary McAdoo in September, 1918, and because of general lack of public knowledge respecting the provision congress never has enacted legislation nullifying it, officials said.

The law applies specifically to exemption from payment of tax, officials pointed out, but in its application makes manufacture of wine at home possible provided the manufacturer is the head of a family and the wine produced be not sold or otherwise removed from the place of manufacture.

DEPARTMENT URGING A SETTLEMENT OF STRIKE IN CALIFORNIA OIL FIELDS

BAKERSFIELD, CAL., Sept. 15.—President Harding in a telegram which Walter J. Yarrow said was received by him last night, is declared to have expressed regret that the strike in the California oil fields was called, and to have assured Yarrow that federal departments were using every means possible to effect a settlement. Mr. Yarrow is district counsel adviser of the striking unions. The strike was called September 11 at midnight.

The striking oil workers are estimated to number 8,000. They quit work following reiteration by the oil operators of refusal to enter into agreement with unions regarding wages, the operators planning to withdraw a $1 daily bonus.

EXPERTS ARE PREPARING DATA ON ARMAMENT FOR FORTHCOMING CONFERENCE

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—Government fiscal experts are at work on reports for the state department setting forth the complete military and naval budgets of the leading foreign powers for the use of the American delegation at the armament conference, it was said today officially at the treasury.

The treasury officials explained, customarily keeps in touch with the various expenditures and fiscal estimates of other nations, including the amounts apportioned to the army, navy, aviation force and other branches of war service. The reports now in preparation, officials said, will present the latest official data in the hands of this government as to the present and proposed expenditure of the leading powers for military purposes.

BOLIVIA WITHDRAWS DEMAND FOR SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTE

GENEVA, Sept. 15.—Bolivia today withdrew her demand for the inclusion of her dispute with Chile in the agenda of the assembly of the league of nations. Experts will be given time in which to agree upon the question of the competency of the league to take up matters of this description.

PLAN FOR SEPARATE UNIT TO ADMINISTER PACKER REGULATION

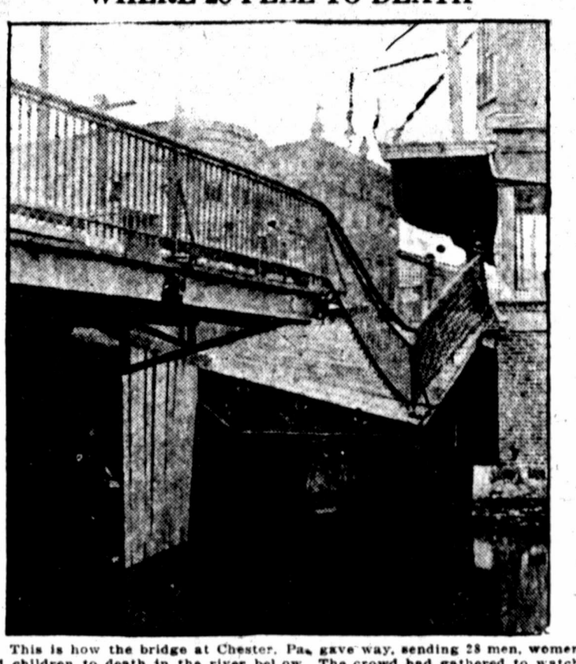

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—Establishment of a separate and distinct unit to administer the packer regulation act was said today to be in process of organization by the department of agriculture, under Chester Morrill, assistant chief of the bureau of markets. Legal phases involved in the organization have been placed in charge of Bayard T. Hainer of Oklahoma City, former federal district court judge of Oklahoma.

"Formal supervision of the packing industry," said a department announcement, "awaits the fulfillment of certain preliminary legal requirements. Already, however, the department has been informed that there will be placed before it at an early date complaints as to the commission rates, long a bone of contention—charged at some markets."

ENGINEER AND WAITER KILLED IN AN ATTEMPT TO ROB T. & P. TRAIN

FORT WORTH, Sept. 15.—Federal, city and railroad detectives today were trailing west of Fort Worth a third man in the attempted robbery of a Texas and Pacific mail train two miles east of here last night, in which two armed men were killed by officers. One suspect was caught near Benbrook, but later was released.

"Billy" Edwards, Texas and Pacific engineer, and a local waiter known as Charlie Morris were killed by officers when they attempted to rob the mail car. Federal officers had been suspecting an attempted robbery and had been when they attempted to rob the mail car for the last three nights, it was said today. City detectives were waiting at Tremble.

When the train reached a water tank near Camp Bowie, two miles west of here, Charlie Morris, the police said, jumped into the mail car and demanded the Breckenridge mail. He was armed and the mail was handed to him. As he threw five packages from the car the hidden officers stopped the train and shot Charlie Morris, killing him instantly. Edwards was killed as he came alongside the car to receive the packages.

All of the mail was recovered.

Morris was identified by the police today as J. L. Morris, El Reno, Okla., who escaped from the Louisiana penitentiary July 22, 1919.

RACE RIOT RESULTS IN NEGRO POPULATION MAKING THEIR EXIT

CHATTANOOGA, TENN., Sept. 15.—Waldens Ridge, a little mining town 20 miles east of here, the scene late yesterday of a race riot, was completely deserted by its negro population today and no further trouble was anticipated. About three score miners with their families, who made up the negro population, fled when the trouble started, leaving their possessions behind in their cabins and declared their intention of never returning.

The riot was precipitated by the shooting of three white girls by a negro girl.

Henry Clipper, negro, it is said, claimed ownership of a spring on the outskirts of the village and had purchased a shotgun with which to keep others away. When Edna Barnett, aged 12, and her two younger sisters went to the spring, Jewell Clipper, young daughter of Henry, fired at them, wounding all three. Older members of both races took up the affair and a number of shots were exchanged without damage.

When a sheriff's posse from Chattanooga arrived they found all the negro cabins empty except that of the Clippers who were barricaded within doors and surrounded by a mob of about 150 persons armed with all sorts of weapons. The negroes were arrested and placed in jail for their own protection. Local authorities are continuing the investigation and arrest of a number of white men involved in the trouble was expected.

Edna Barnett was said to have been peppered with buckshot and her condition considered serious. The others were not badly hurt.

PRESIDENT AND HIS PARTY CONTINUE YACHTING CRUISE

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—President Harding continued his yachting cruise today by coming from Southampton, Long Island, where he played golf yesterday, and going up the Hudson to West Point.

With Mr. Harding and friends, he had a night trip to the length of Long Island, on the oceanside, and an early morning view of the statue of Liberty, and the skyline of lower New York.

The president hoped to review the cadets this afternoon and then see if he could do better at golf then he did yesterday at Southampton, where he said:

"Going out I made eight holes in 42; then I blew up."

Attorney General Daugherty and George B. Christian Jr., occupants of the Mayflower's sick bay, so to speak, were much better today. The excellent yachting weather contributed to Mr. Daugherty's recovery from a slight touch of ptomaine poisoning, and enabled Mr. Christian the better to bear the stress of confinement from a fractured rib due to a fall through a hatchway.

From aboard the Mayflower came word that the presidential cruise might be prolonged over the week-end not only to aid the patients, but to enable Mr. Harding to take advantage of the weather to obtain a good rest.

AMERICAN SAILORS BATTLE WITH POLICE

COPENHAGEN, Sept. 14.—The National Tidende reports a serious fight between police and sailors from the American steamship Worcester at the small Danish port of Nakskov Fiord. The sailors stoned the police and also fired revolver shots at them. The disturbance lasted several hours. Finally the police withdrew and access to the harbor was barred to the steamer.

TWO OIL WORKERS KILLED IN ACCIDENT NEAR BRECKENRIDGE

BRECKENRIDGE, TEXAS, Sept. 15.—Dan C. Daubenspeck, 50, and H. S. Stroup, 45, both oil well drillers, are dead as the result of their automobile overturning near here last night. Stroup, formerly of Yale, Okla., died three hours after the accident. Daubenspeck, who came here from Tulsa, was almost instantly killed.

WILL NEVER KNOW EXACT NUMBER OF VICTIMS OF FLOOD

NO RECORD KEPT OF NUMBER BURIED IN THORNDALE COUNTRY

BRAZOS RIVER 40 FEET AND THE GAUGE IS GONE

Flood On Lower Brazos Expected To Be As Serious As That Of April, 1915

TAYLOR, TEXAS, Sept. 15.—The report that two negroes were drowned at Hutto, near here, in the Brushy creek flood, is incorrect, according to advices from Dr. R. M. Wood, chairman of the Red Cross at Hutto. He said that 11 negroes were injured, but that no lives were lost at Hutto.

Although the settlement of Jonah, nine miles north on the San Gabriel, was completely inundated by the swollen stream, no lives were lost, according to a newspaper man who succeeded in reaching the settlement by use of automobiles and a ferry. The hamlet is located directly on the bank of the stream and every house was flooded with at least five feet of water.

There will probably never be a definite list of the dead at Thorndale, southeast on the San Gabriel, according to F. Arthur Shaw, Red Cross field director, who returned from there late yesterday. He said that the bodies were taken from the river and immediately buried. No records were kept. He said further that the reports were "greatly exaggerated," but would make no estimate of the bodies recovered there. Previous reports from Thorndale said that 45 bodies had been taken from the San Gabriel, most of which floated down the river.

The Red Cross is continuing its search for information and furnishing supplies to the stricken settlements as fast as trucks can reach them.

The bodies of fourteen negroes were found beneath a bridge on the San Gabriel river just below Thorndale, according to a report received here by telephone shortly before noon. The man who made the report had only meager information and could not say how many were men and women.

The supposition here is that the negroes were drowned in Williamson county and the bodies floated down the stream. This makes the Thorndale report approximately fifty-nine.

BRAZOS RIVER FORTY FEET AND WASHES GAUGE AWAY

HOUSTON, Sept. 15.—Reports today to the local weather bureau stated that the Brazos river had risen to forty feet at Hempstead and had carried the gauge away. The lowlands around Hempstead are flooded, doing little damage other than to property and crops.

Rosenberg, on the Brazos river, reported a rise of 2.9 feet during the last 24 hours, bringing the water up to 35.5 feet. The Colorado river is reported falling rapidly along its lower reaches, having approximated a normal condition at Columbus, where the flood waters reached their crest.

Local observers stated that the flood along the lower Brazos would be as serious as one of April, 1915.

STEAMER MAJESTIC AND 32 PASSENGERS LOST IN HURRICANE

BRIDGETOWN, BARBADOES, Sept. 15.—The steamer Majestic, commanded by Captain Barnes, with 32 passengers and crew from Demorara for Barbadoes, is believed to have been lost in the hurricane which swept over this region September 8. The British warship Valerian returned here today from an unsuccessful search for the schooner.

Four boatsmen were drowned here during the storm but only slight damage was caused to the sea front.

MANY LIVES ARE LOST IN RECENT TROPICAL STORM

SAN JUAN, P. R., Sept. 15.—The tropical storm which reached its greatest intensity Sunday night at San Pedro Macoris, Santo Domingo, caused 22 deaths and great material damage there, according to Captain Tremdack of the steamer Marina which arrived here from Santo Domingo today. Many coastal craft in the harbor were wrecked, he said.

Delayed reports received here today from all over Porto Rico say that the storm which struck this island resulted in three deaths and considerable damage to shipping. It also caused a heavy loss in the coffee crop.

GROCER AT COLUMBUS IS SHOT AND KILLED AND A STORE BUILDING BURNED

HOUSTON, Sept. 15.—J. C. Ballew, 62, grocer at Columbus, was shot and killed early this morning at his store at Columbus. Shortly afterward an adjoining building was discovered burning. Residents thought the shot was the fire signal and for an hour the body was not found.

IRELAND DECLINES TO FURTHER NEGOTIATE WITH GREAT BRITAIN EXCEPT AS A SOVEREIGN STATE

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Sept. 15.—Prime Minister Lloyd George tonight cancelled the arrangements for a conference of sinn fein delegates with himself and members of his cabinet at Inverness on Sept. 20.

Lloyd George cancelled the conference in his reply to the communication of Eammon de Valera made public today. The prime minister said he now must consult with his colleagues on the course of action the new situation necessitated.

LONDON, Sept. 15.—Premier Lloyd-George has replied to the latest communication of Eamonn de Valera on the question of an Irish settlement, it was announced late today. The reply, it was stated, would be given out at once.

Later it was said there would be some delay in giving out the reply but that it was still expected it would be made public tonight.

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Sept. 15.—Eamonn de Valera's latest letter to Premier Lloyd George declares a willingness on the part of the Irish negotiators to enter the proposed conference at Inverness, but only as representatives of a sovereign state, it was learned here today.

BELFAST, Sept. 15.—Rioting was renewed in the North Queen street area here this afternoon. Two women were wounded. Troops were called out and soon the whole district was swarming with them.

The area, which is about equally divided between loyalists and Sinn Feiners, was effected by the truce agreed to last week.

DUBLIN, Sept. 15.—Eamonn de Valera in his reply to Premier Lloyd George accepts the invitation to the proposed Inverness conference in the terms of the final paragraph of Lloyd George's last letter, but reaffirms Ireland's independence as a sovereign state and declares that only as representatives of such, have the Irish negotiators any authority.

The text of Mr. de Valera's reply says:

"In this final note we deem it our duty to reaffirm that our position is, and can only be, as we have defined it through this correspondence. The principle of government by consent of the governed must be the basis of any agreement which achieves a final reconciliation."

The text of the reply of Eamonn de Valera Lloyd-George latest communication follows:

Text of Reply

"We are unhesitating in declaring our willingness to enter a conference to ascertain how the association of Ireland with the community of nations known as the British empire can best be reconciled with Irish national aspirations.

"Our readiness to contemplate such an association was indicated in our letter of August 20. We have accordingly summoned the Dail, that we may submit to it for ratification the names of our representatives. We hope that these representatives will find it possible to be at Inverness on the date you suggested, September 20.

"In this final note we deem it our duty to reaffirm that our position is and can only be as we have defined it throughout this correspondence. Our nation has formally declared its independence and recognizes itself as a sovereign state. It is only as representatives of that state and as its chosen guardians that we have authority or power to act on behalf of our people.

"As regards the principle of government by consent of the governed, in the very nature of things it must be the basis of an agreement that will achieve the purpose we have at heart, that is, the final reconciliation of our nation with yours.

"We have suggested no interpretation of that principle save its every day interpretation, the sense for example, in which it was understood by the plain men and women of the world when on January 5, 1918, you said:

"The settlement of Europe must be based on such grounds of reason and justice as will give some promise of stability. Therefore, it is that we feel that government with the consent of the governed must be the basis of any territorial settlement in this war.'

"These words are the true answer to the criticism of our position which your last letter puts forward. The principle was understood then to mean the right of nations that had been annexed to empires against their will to free themselves from the grappling hook. That is the sense in which we understood it. In reality, it is your government, when it seeks to rend our ancient nation and to partitition its territory, that would give to the principle an interpretation that would undermine the fabric of every democratic state and drive the civilized world back into tribalism.

"I am, sir, faithfully yours,

"Eamonn de Valera."

By Associated Press.

DUBLIN, Sept. 15.—Continuance of negotiations with the British government with a view to establishing a basis for peace in Ireland was believed here today to depend largely upon the report submitted to Eamonn de Valera and his colleagues by Harry Boland and Joseph McGrath, the couriers sent to Gairloch on Monday to confer with Prime Minister Lloyd George. There was a possibility, however, that the report of Boland and McGrath would be such that there might be a break at least for a time, in the conversations that have been going on for the past two months.

Speculation regarding the particular phases of the situation at issue between Mr. Lloyd George and the republican chieftains dwelt on a number of points, but there seemed to be a general belief the condition laid down by the prime minister that the sinn fein must abandon its demand for separation from the empire was one of the most troublesome factors in the present admitted critical situation. The prime minister was declared to have tacitly admitted the republicans had a basis for some of their objections to his offer of dominion status to Ireland, as a basis for a settlement of the century-old controversy, but he urged that these matters be brought to the conference table and there discussed. Seemingly, the only hard and fast stipulations were that Ireland and the British empire must not be divided.

LARGE ATTENDANCE OPENING DAY AT THE BAYLOR COUNTY FAIR

ATTRACTIVE DISPLAY AND SPLENDID PROGRAM HAS BEEN PROVIDED

PARADE ONE OF EARLY FEATURES OF THE DAY

Rodeo and Other Amusement Features Combine to Entertain the Throng of Visitors

Staff Special to The Times.

SEYMOUR, TEXAS, Sept. 15.—Ten thousand people was the early estimate of officials of the crowd that surged into the gates at the opening of Baylor county's second annual fair and rodeo that opened here this morning.

Eve available room in the city was occupied Wednesday night on the eve of the biggest event of the year. Ranchmen with a troop of vanqueros and cowboys were scattered all about the city and the outskirts of the fair grounds. They made the trip from adjacent counties and brought their chuck wagons with them. Encircling clouds of smoke that poured upward to a clear sky were in evidence in all directions around the city.

Every train brought more people and all highways were bespeckled with chugging automobiles, all of which were loaded to capacity. The majority of the people made arrangements to stay throughout the three days of sport and fun.

On behalf of the management and residents of the county Judge J. P. Dixon welcomed the 91 cowboys who have entered to make the annual rodeo one of the best ever held in west Texas. In closing the judge stated that he was elated to speak to and welcome so many representatives of the mightiest race of people of any county.

Sid Harris' 710-pound Poland China boar, which Mr. Harris states is not yet full grown, was the center of attraction in the live stock pens. The crowd continues to grow through the passing hours.

F. F. Fisher, president of the Baylor county fair association; G. D. Morris, vice president, and W. W. Wood, the treasurer, were confident that the total attendance for the three days would overreach the 50,000 mark.

The 8:30 o'clock sun this morning shone down upon a monster parade that wended its way through the crowded streets of the city of Seymour and then headed to the fair grounds a mile away. The crowd fell in behind, and the ticket takers at the gates were rushed as they had never been rushed in their lives.

Inside the gate a little city greeted the crowd. The city inside showed conclusively that the weeks of preparations had not been spent in vain. The exhibition buildings with the doors wide open gav the second evidence of the interest that the Baylor county people manifested in the annual affair. Every building was chuck full of the things on exhibition. Here the best cattle in the country; there the shining, groomed, feathery flock; then the best looking biscuits, muffins, bread and cake and the like; here the would-be champion pig of the fair, grunting for the $7.50 blue ribbon; and then the canned fruit and preserves. From a distance came the nicker that sent one's gaze to an extra long line of stables where the occupants stuck their head out of the half-open doors to gaze as they were being gazed upon.

Far Above Expectations.

Heads of the various departments and especially G. C. McGowan of the agricultural products group and Miss D. Halsey of the culinary department, stated that the number of exhibitors had gone far above their expectations. "It's going to be the hardest job these judges ever had," was the comment made by each.

"Hey, hey, there," and "In the next cage," in expanded and jumbled voices gave proof of the long line of side show attractions.

In fact, there was nothing missing to insure the departer of fifty cents at the gate that his money had been well spent.

Exhibition riding of steers and horses, calf roping contests and bulldogging are on the program for each of the three mornings with added attractions each day. A car load of livestock from Hill county, accompanied by a score of expert riders and ropers, arrived in the city early Thursday morning. Their arrival was a surprise to eve the fair officials, but the men stated they had a bigger surprise to spring when they entered the pens and the arena.

A sensational death-defying aerial exhibition will be given all three days.

The Air Spider, as he is billed, in addition to wing walking, doing the head stand on top of the plane and loop the loop standing on top of the plane, will go through the hand walk of death each afternoon. He will walk hand over hand on a single rope stretched from landing gear to the tail skid and return. A parachute leap is also included in the Air Spider's daily stunts.

Wichita Falls Day.

Friday will be Wichita Falls day. Mayor W. D. Cline will be in attendance and will deliver an address at the fair grounds at 3:30 o'clock Friday afternoon.

A registered Hereford cattle sale will be held on the grounds at 3:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Manager of the rodeo, Frank Rhodes of Throckmorton county, contended that the number of entries for these events for the three days exceeded by far the number of entries in any of the many rodeos he had ever managed.

The total amount of premiums to be awarded runs far above $5,000, and prizes will be awarded each day during the rodeo contests with a final

REPUBLICANS WANT A MORE ENERGETIC LEADER IN SENATE

SUGGESTED THAT LODGE ABDICATE IN FAVOR OF WATSON

HAS NOT PROVEN TO BE EQUAL TO THE OCCASION

Wane of His Power Is Seen In Failure To Put Through Tax and Tariff Bills

By MARK SULLIVAN
National Political Correspondent of the New York Evening Post and the Wichita Daily Times
(Copyright, 1921, by the New York Evening Post)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 15.—There is some evidence of a disposition among the republican leaders to really do something about the senate. The stagnation of the more important business in that body is the heaviest burden the republican leaders have on their minds. They blame the trouble on a lack of party solidarity, lack of party discipline, and other defects under the general head of lack of stern and aggressive party leadership. The republican majority has all the machinery of leadership, but the machinery doesn't work. They have the steering committee, which does not steer successfully, and they have the caucus, which in the words of a rather far-fetched, double play spun, committed by one disgusted republican, "does not caw and does not cuss" enough. A little emphatic. A little discipline is the thing which in the mind of this republican is needed.

The official republican leader of the senate is Lodge. Lodge is about all there is in the way of leadership. He is the republican floor leader, he is the chairman of the republican steering committee, he is a chairman of the republican caucus and he is chairman of the senate's most important committee. That Lodge was a most acceptable leader during the league of nations' fight is the testimony of every republican who looks upon that fight from a party point of view. That it was just Lodge's quality of temperament and personality that saved the party from flying into fragments is accepted by everyone. But for one reason or another Lodge's leadership this session has lacked his former success.

It is true the republicans have put through an amount of legislation, which, under ordinary circumstances would be a fairly full record. But the circumstances are not ordinary. The two things which the republicans wanted to put through and promised to put through, the tariff and taxation, are not through yet. From the point of view of the administration this is pretty bad. President Harding named these two things as the very things he wanted the present congress to act upon. Again and again he has emphasized that the two things, and these alone constituted the administration's program. The administration was not insisting upon anything else. In fact President Harding has pointedly made it clear that these two things were the only things as to which he felt it proper to exert any pressure on his own initiative. Up to date congress has passed a good deal of legislation that Harding was not concerned about. But has failed to pass the two things promised.

The proposed remedy, as it is tentatively discussed, is to allow Senator Lodge's coming membership in the disarmament conference to serve as a reason for him to abdicate either the formal leadership, or, at least, the working leadership of the senate. The suggestion is that his place would be taken by Senator Watson of Indiana. In an informal way Senator Watson has been exercising a quasi-leadership. He is generally looked upon as a second string to Penrose. And when Penrose is away, Watson is frequently regarded as reflecting the Pennsylvanian's mind. It is also suggested that Senator Cummins of Iowa, who is president pro-tem of the senate, may wish to shift this position over to another. Senator Cummings is not in good health and he has very burdensome duties as chairman of the committee on interstate commerce. If he should decide to rid himself of some of his responsibilities, his successor as president pro tem of the senate would probably be Senator Curtis of Kansas. Whether this change will cure the situation, or whether, indeed, these changes will take place is so far a matter of discussion. Watson and Curtis as successors to Lodge and Cummins would not mean much for example to the so-called "farmers' bloc," which has been responsible for preventing most of the party discipline so far.

It is this "Farmers bloc" and others outside of the old guard that on several occasions, two of them conspicuous, have run away with the machine. They pushed the farmers' relief bill and the soldiers' bonus bill to a point where the leaders were so embarrassed that they had to call on the president for personal help in sidetracking them. Under good party discipline, with a strong party leadership and with the steering committee functioning, these bills would have stopped before they got so far as to be an embarrassment. This whole question of making the republican senate majority a more businesslike body is moving slowly. It involves party and personal problems of much delicacy. The one certain thing is that the republican leaders are more concerned about it than about any other thing.

MORE WOMEN PREACHERS WOULD ATTRACT MORE OF MEN DECLARES SPEAKER

CHICAGO, Sept. 15.—If there were more women preachers in the pulpits there would be more men in the churches, Miss M. Madeline Southard, president of the International Association of Women Preachers, told members of that organization at their convention here. Miss Southard accused men of "feminizing the church."

Quoting Frances Willard, she said: "Men have been preaching for 2,000 years and the large majority of the converts have been women.

"Suppose that women should share the preaching power. Would not the majority of their converts be men?"

PACKERS PLAN FOR OPEN SHOP POLICY

Four Large Concerns Inaugurate System Recently Adopted By Armour Company

CHICAGO, Sept. 15.—A virtual "open shop" policy in the packing industry was presaged with the announcement that beginning today four of Chicago's largest packing companies will inaugurate the "American shop" representation system.

This system is similar to that recently inaugurated by Armour and company and includes provision for representatives of the employes meeting in council with company representatives to consider matters affecting the workers. Armour and company, Swift and company, Wilson and company and the Cudahy Packing company last night announced that they had adopted the plan.

A statement from the packers said that 75,000 workers or more than 90 per cent of the employes had voted in favor of the plan.

The system to be adopted takes the place of the Alschuler agreement under which the packing industry operated during the war and which expires today.

The plan, many assert, opens the way to the "open shop" throughout the packing industry.

Federal Judge Samuel Alschuler acted as arbitrator in all disputes between packers and employes to prevent strikes and insure the delivery of meat during the war period.

The new plan involves the employment of either non-union or union workmen, the workmen electing from their number representatives to confer with the packers regarding matters affecting the employes. There will be no immediate readjustment of wages under the new system, it was announced.

The unions had asked that a conference be held to fix a new working agreement and had asked practically that the Alschuler agreement be continued for another year. Union representatives had no comment to make today concerning the new system or its probable effect.

Morris and company early today had not announced what attitude it might take regarding the new system.

OFFER NEW SCALE IN AN EFFORT TO SETTLE STRIKE

NEW ORLEANS, LA., Sept. 15.—In a new effort to settle the strike of cotton handlers here, the cotton exchange handling committee yesterday offered the men a new wage scale. This would make the proposed reduction in pay considerably less than the 18 per cent originally ordered by the committee, but still above the 7 per cent which is understood to be the maximum the strikers are willing to accept. Cotton movement here continues almost at a standstill.

TWO MEETINGS IN THE COMING WEEK ON RAILROAD WAGE

CHICAGO, Sept. 15.—Decision as to whether the nation will face a general railroad strike may result from two important meetings to be held here next week.

On Sunday the representatives of 500,000 railroad shopmen will meet here to determine what action to take in regard to the wage cut and changes in working rules effective July 1.

A country-wide ballot taken some time ago is said to have resulted overwhelmingly in favor of a strike. The result of the vote will be made known at the meeting over which B. M. Jewell, president of the railway employes department of the American federation of labor, will preside.

On September 22 the heads of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, Order of Railway Conductors, Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and Firemen, Switchmen's Union of North America, and the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen will meet here to announce the result of a ballot now being taken.

Unofficial reports from some of the organizations indicate a large majority of the members favor a strike. It is reported that the unions are not so vitally interested in wage reductions, but are prepared to wage a bitter battle against changes in rules reducing the pay for overtime work.

Heads of some of the organizations recently cautioned members to conserve their resources in preparation for a "show-down."

Grim Reaper Is Depleting Roll of Texas Veterans

TEMPLE, TEXAS, Sept. 15.—The grim reaper is depleting the roll of Confederate veterans in Texas at about 10 per cent annually, according to Major General E. W. Kirkpatrick, commanding the Texas division, United Confederate veterans, which opened its annual reunion here today. The veterans will remain in session through tomorrow.

The number of old soldiers in gray who pay dues in camps of the U. C. V. is about 3,000, the commander said. However, this is only about one-third of the Confederate veterans in Texas, he said.

The annual meeting will be devoted to the reading of reports, election of division commander and entertainment of the assembled veterans. The sponsorial staff for the reunion is composed of sponsor, Miss Merle Neville, Houston; first maid of honor, Miss Tyler Lee Knight, Temple; maids of honor, Miss Davis Williams, Fort Worth, and Miss Anne Carline Alexander, Waco; matrons of honor, Mrs. Lorina Tally, Temple, Mrs. Jenny Hardy, Belton, Mrs. J. P. Harris, McKinney, and Mrs. Murfee Irby, Greenville.

DAMAGE SUIT FOR $15,000 ON TRIAL IN 89TH DISTRICT COURT

The case of A. T. Fikes vs. J. W. Pand et al. was on trial Thursday before a jury in the 89th district court. Fikes is asking $15,000 damages for injuries he alleges he received as a result of the running away of a team owned by the defendant's laundry company. The runaway occurred in May, 1920.

ARBUCKLE CASE TO BARE REVELS OF MOVIELAND

WILD PARTIES ARE STAGED FREQUENTLY

Witnesses In Murder Probe To Be Questioned About Hollywood High Life

By N. E. A. Service.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 15. — "High life, as it is lived by some members of the film colony here and in other cities along the coast, probably will be bared at the murder trial of Roscoe (Fatty) Arbuckle, the screen comedian, under arrest in San Francisco.

Arbuckle is held in connection with the death of Miss Virginia Rappe, movie actress, who died following a riotous party in Arbuckle's rooms at a San Francisco hotel.

Possibility that other members of the film colonies may be drawn into the Arbuckle scandal as witnesses is expected to bring about several hasty departures from the coast.

Any companies planning to "shoot pictures" on distant locations these days have no difficulty in rounding up volunteers.

Hollywood, the film colony near Los Angeles, is typical of the rest. It abounds with those who have sprung into fame and wealth almost overnight by means of the silver sheet.

Also it abounds with girls whose visions of fame have burned out, who are without resources, and who become easy prey to men of much means and low morals.

It is largely because of this type of screen actor and the sycophants who trail them that Hollywood and other film colonies along the coast have become widely known as places where they "hit only the high spots."

The movies "made" Los Angeles. When the film influx began here a decade ago, Los Angeles had a population of only a little more than 300,000. Today it has jumped to nearly 600,000 and is the tenth largest city in the country and far above the average in wealth.

Yet the golden-handed movie men always have found opposition among the Los Angeles old residenters.

When the mushroom movie millionaires applied for cards at the old Los Angeles clubs, they were turned down. When the wealthy stars tried to pry their way into Pasadena, the exclusive section in which are located the homes of many rich families of secure social standing, they found progress impossible.

So the movie men built their own clubs and formed their own circle of society. They built their homes in another suburb, Hollywood, which is today almost an exclusive colony of movie people, and which is as well, if not better, known the world over than Los Angeles through the work of the film companies.

Certain resorts and roadhouses and hotels within automobile distance of Hollywood became noted—or notorious.

Revels, nearly always marked by the presence of girls, were numerous. These revels have figured in many divorce suits, which have been tried in Los Angeles and elsewhere—as far away as New York and Paris.

Gambling, too, has run wild, those able to do so often playing for high stakes. Arbuckle has had quite a reputation for his ability to win at crap-shooting.

FATTY IS NOTED FOR MIMICKING THE COPS

By N. E. A. Service.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 15.—Fatty Arbuckle's intimitable burlesque of policemen—the same police who are holding him now in San Francisco on a charge of murder—gave the film star his first chance to make a name for himself in the movies.

It was as a movie "extra" that Arbuckle got several chances to appear with Mack Sennet's comedy policemen, and his huge bulk and the natural comedy ability he portrayed attracted the attention of producers.

Walter Newman, Arbuckle's first employer, tells how he hired Fatty at $30 a week in a minor role in a melodrama. Newman, as the hero, was supposed to be dying at the big moment of the play. Other characters tip-toed in to the bedside. Not so Fatty. In the doorway he tripped clumsily, turned a somersault and landed so hard he broke the stage.

"His antics brought down the house—but we had to finish the play as a farce," says Newman.

Arbuckle, 34, was born at Smith Center, Kan., and educated at Santa Ana., Calif. In 1905, while playing in musical comedies, he met and married Miss Minta Durfee, who was playing in the chorus. It was not until 1913 that he deserted the stage for the movies.

Fatty, a baseball fan, purchased the Vernon team of the Coast league, and one of his first moves was to put into effect a Ladies' Day on which fair fans were admitted free.

"Nothing makes a ballplayer extend himself like the hope that every circus-catch will fill his mail with violet-scented praise," the new owner announced.

Arbuckle, off the movie lot, is a Beau Brummel.

"There's nothing in the world," he once said, "so repulsive as a fat man who isn't well dressed."

When he surrendered to the police he wore a Norfolk jacket, green knickerbockers, green stockings to match and tan shoes.

Fatty gave even blase Los Angeles city of freak autos, a jolt when he appeared on the streets with a $25,000 specially built machine, said to be the costliest ever made.

The car, with a special body made to conform to Fatty's huge bulk, was equipped with every thinkable convenience—from a complete fireless cooking outfit to a meter to register altitude.

Since 1917 Arbuckle has headed his own company and has accumulated a fortune from his pictures.

Fatty decided a year or so ago to move upstage. He started making five-reelers and advertising himself as "Mr Roscoe Arbuckle." The fans said "Bunk!" Lately it has been "Roscoe (Fatty) Arbuckle" in his publicity.

THOUSAND POUND HOG TO BE EXHIBITED AT FAIRS

VERNON, TEXAS, Sept. 15.—Transmission, the thousand-pound Poland China male belonging to Bourland and Sharp of Vernon and S. E. Lewis of Childress, has been shipped to the latter owner and will be fitted for exhibition at the Oklahoma and Texas state fairs. Transmission won in his class last year at Dallas, and leading hog men predict a victory for him this fall. An interest in the animal was recently sold to Mr. Lewis, well known hog fancier of Childress.

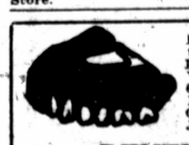

It required seven men to hoist the crate in which Transmission rested onto an express car. The monster hog was not apparently disturbed, making practically no movements as he was transferred from truck to railroad car.

DODSON SOUNDS CALOMEL'S DOOM

The "Liver Tone" Man Warns Folks Against the Sickening, Salivating Drug.

Ugh! Calomel makes you sick. It's horrible! Take a dose of the dangerous drug tonight and tomorrow you lose a day.

Calomel is mercury! When it comes into contact with sour bile, it crashes into it, breaking it up. Then is when you feel that awful nausea and cramping. If you are sluggish, if liver is torpid and bowels constipated or you have headache, dizziness, coated tongue, if breath is bad or stomach sour, just try a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver Tone tonight.

Here's my guarantee—Go to any drug store and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't straighten you right up and make you feel fine and vigorous, go back to the store and get your money. Dodson's Liver Tone is destroying the sale of calomel because it can not salivate or make you sick.—

"Mother Goose Tea" Program Is One of The Prettiest Offerings of the Month

With music and flowers and pretty costumes for the background and atmosphere, and all of the most beloved actors in the "Mother Goose" drama of the centuries ready with their particular performances, the "Mother Goose" tea program to be given Friday evening in the basement of the First Baptist church will surely be one of the most attractive entertainments of the month.

The program is the feature incident of the Day Nursery benefit tea which the Woman's Auxiliary of the First Baptist church is giving, and has been planned under the direction of Mrs. Walter Robertson. It opens at 4 o'clock and will shift from one pretty number to another for about an hour and a half. During the afternoon those who attend will be given an opportunity to contribute to the silver offering.

An invitation to the tea is extended every citizen, and the men who can get off at that hour will be welcome. The program in full will be as follows:

Prologue: Day Nursery in pantomime.

A Woman's Chorus: "The Morn," from the Garden of Flowers. Luigi Danza, Mesdames Ivan Murchison, J. C. Mytinger, N. O. Monroe, Jerry Schaefer, Rudgley, John Abbott, Wilhite, McIver and Misses Bessie Lee Bartlett and Pearl White.

Day Nursery: Mrs. R. C. Smith, supervisor; Miss Frances Scott, kindergarten teacher; Mrs. J. T. Rundel, nurse; Henrietta Jeter, cook.

Children—Josephine Bell, Dorothy Pounds, Frances Carter, Anita Walker, Clara Carter, Ora Cotton, Winell Ward, Ada Cotton, W. J. Hawthorne, Jane Hawthorne, Mandine Perry, Joe Fox, Winnie Smith, James Ward and Loren Walker.

Kindergarten Features: Good Morning song; story telling hour; jester, Miss Ruth Nolen; Little Bo Peep, Miss Arline Willis; Jack Spratt and wife, J. I. Staley Jr. and Jeanette Scott; Mary, Mary, Quite Contrary, Miss Louise Scott; Old Mother Hubbard, Mrs. W. H. Davis; Airedale, "Laddie Boy," Little Miss Muffitt, Miss Marjorie Hines; pieman, Mrs. O. M. Smith; Simple Simon, Mrs. Ben Bell; Little Tommie Tucker, Jack Murchison.

Nursey playmates are Phoebe Jane Filgo, Frankie King, Charlotte Joiner, Dorothy Pounds, Mozelle Smith, Frances Carter, Martha Frances Rubottom, Mattilene McGregor, Howard Simmons, Richard Rubottom, Ginger Shumake, Erwin Humphries, Wilmot Hunt, C. Williamson, Jack McKay, and Jimmie Mytinger.

Fantana, Miss Cleo Ferguson, soloist. Japanese coolie, W. C. Ashford.

Geisha girls, Misses Lucile Smith, Reta Barnard, Alma Willis, Hermia Pounds, Mary Frances Collier, Henrietta Allen, Faye Fisher, Thelma Fisher, Virginia Robertson, Maybelle Drinkard, Jeanette Prentice, Dorothy Skeen, Mildred Overall, Helen Davis, Georgia Maxwell, Ruth Williamson, Arline Willis and Jeanette Scott.

Accompanist Mrs. F. R. Collard.

FASHIONS

By LENORE

Whether she be Parisian or American, it is usually the ambition of every young girl who knows anything of French fashion and its creators, to acquire a model designed by Lanvin. It is not so much a striking originality as an exquisite sense of fitness" that makes her clothes distinguished—gentil the French would say—but most important of all, her designs are unquestionably created for youth. And while it is Lanvin dresses with which we are most familiar, her suggestion for an early fall suit, which I have sketched above, is typical of her graceful, clean-cut lines and simplicity of detail.

A soft woolen in gray and white checks is the material used, with inset strips of black patent leather on the shapely revers and moderately flared sleeves. Many of the coats this season are built on the same loose lines, with straight skirt. In this model there is an inset panel in the front about an inch shorter than the rest of the hem.

PATTERN NO. 259.

A paterns for the above model (No. 259) can be obtained in sizes 34, 36 or 38, by sending to Lenore, 8 West 40th St., New York City, your name, address and 50 cents in postage stamps. Be sure to keep this newspaper clipping of the sketch and description of the garment to use as a working model when the pattern reaches you—which will be within two weeks' time.—The Editor.

HORSERADISH ROOT PASTE TO TAKE OFF SUMMER FRECKLES

Horseradish root is being used very successfully by the girl who wants nice, white skin, without a single golden spot left over from her summer freckling and tanning at the beach.

To make the treatment, Mme. Moreau, a Paris news correspondent, gives the recipe thus: Grate the horseradish root very finely and cover with fresh butter milk. Let it stand overnight and strain. Wash the face and arms in the resultant liquor, but be careful not to get it in the eyes, as it smarts terribly.

The horseradish treatment is for freckles a little too deep for lemon juice to reach.

NO CLINIC NEXT WEDNESDAY; THREE-DAY CENTER SEPT. 26-28

There will be no child health clinic at the court house Wednesday of next week, mothers were informed Wednesday at the clinic, but all mothers were invited to bring the pre-school age children to the big three-day child welfare clinic which is to be held in the First Presbyterian church September 26-28.

The three-day clinic will be held under the direction of the home economics section of the Texas university extension department, and Miss Pinckney, from the section, will be here.

At Wednesday's clinic there were thirty-five patients, twenty over, and fifteen under, two years. The health center nurses were assisted in the weighing and measuring and registration by Mesdames Tully and Cotton, and Mesdames Cotton, J. H. Taylor and C. H. ON INFLUENCE.

"You're very much mistaken if you think Mary influences ME," a very indignant young woman said to a friend the other day. "Of course she's my best girl friend, but I do my own thinking."

Some weeks ago a man friend of two girls said to one of them, "I can't make out whether you influence Jane or whether Jane influences you."

Isn't it funny how most folks hate to acknowledge that anybody has the power to "influence" them?

Yet wouldn't we have to choose from a poor lot if we only selected friends from among those who possess no qualifications of character or personality desirable enough to emulate? Think of it!

Or wouldn't we be a first-class lot of egotists if we couldn't recognize the various superiorities of our friends?

Personally, I would not want a friend who wasn't qualified to influence me in some way. It is the traits in people which are more lovable, more desirable finer, stronger, sunnier, sweeter, or just plain more-livable-with that attract me. And I should be sorry to think that my own friends found nothing desirable enough in my own character to build on—after all these years!

It seems to me we should be just as ready to be wisely influenced as we are to discard a shabby coat for a better one. In points of character or personality, let the best man win. And give our good sense grace to absorb the benefit!

ADVANCES IN PRICE OF COTTON GOODS TO BE RECORDED SOON

Prices of cotton goods are advancing in the wholesale markets, according to W. W. Anderson of Anderson's store.

Mr. Anderson says that he has already received notice of the withdrawal of quotations given on cotton goods before the recent advance in the price of raw cotton, and says that the public must be prepared for advances of about 20 per cent in the retail prices of cotton goods when merchants' stocks now on hand are exhausted.

LIQUOR IS SEIZED AND ONE ARREST MADE IN RAID BY OFFICERS WEDNESDAY

About 60 gallons of strong waters of various kinds were seized Wednesday night, and N. Trent, formerly proprietor of an Ohio avenue tailoring concern, was arrested as a result of a raid on an apartment house conducted by county and precinct officers.

Trent waived preliminary hearing before United States Commissioner Lantz, and his bond fixed at $1,000.

Deputy U. S. Marshal Allen returned Thursday from Bowie with Ralph Carter, charged with transporting a stolen automobile from Chickasha, Oklahoma, to this county. His bond was fixed at $1,000.

John Walter Friberg, son of Mrs. E. V. Friberg of 802 Denver street, leaves Sunday for Stephenville, Texas, to enter John Tarleton college.

DYED HER FADED CURTAINS AND A SKIRT LIKE NEW

"Diamond Dyes" add years of wear to worn, faded skirts, waists, coats, stockings, sweaters, coverings, hangings, draperies, everything. Every package contains directions so simple any woman can put new, rich, fadeless colors into her worn garments or draperies even if she has never dyed before. Just buy Diamond Dyes—no other kind—then your material will come out right, because Diamond Dyes are guaranteed not to streak, spot, fade, or run. Tell your druggist whether the material you wish to dye is wool or silk, or whether it is linen, cotton, or mixed goods. Adv.

TWO CELEBRATED MOVIES ARE BEING SHOWN THIS WEEK

Wichita Falls moying picture fans are being treated to two of the season's most celebrated films the latter half of this week, as both the Strand and Olympic are showing feature productions that have been hailed as cinema epics. "Over the Hill," a William Fox picture based on the poem "Over the Hill to the Poor House," is the Strand attraction, while "The Old Nest," a Goldwyn picturization of a Rupert Hughes story, is being offered by the Olympic.

"The Old Nest" opened at the latter theater Wednesday, but "Over the Hill" has been showing all week.

Both pictures deal with the same subject, that of the comedies, tragedies and every day happenings of a typical American home, and both carry an appealing message as well as a challenge to the youth of the country. "Over the Hill" has drawn capacity crowds to the Strand all week, and "The Old Nest" packed the Olympic to the doors at its premier Wednesday evening. Either of the films could be shortened somewhat without destroying the value of the picture, but in very few cases are they tiresome or the action inclined to drag.

Robert Sparks, publicity director of the Olympic, has arranged a novel prologue which is presented at the opening of "The Old Nest," and in addition has attired his usheretts in costumes in keeping with the style of the picture. Roy Douglas of the Strand has also provided an attractive opening for his presentation.

Wichita Falls is fortunate in having two such masterpieces of the screen this early in the year, as neither of the pictures have been presented heretofore in any but the largest cities of the country.

JAPANESE PROPOSALS TO CHINESE MADE PUBLIC

By Associated Press.

TOKIO, Sept. 15.—Japan's proposals to China, relative to the restoration of Shantung, were published unofficially here yesterday. The conditions laid down by Japan are considered by newspapers as most liberal, and belief is expressed that they form a basis for negotiations which may clear away the controversy over the future status of Shantung.

It is pointed out by the Asahi Shimbun of this city that other interested powers could participate in the negotiations for the opening up of the interior of Shantung.

"Japan's abandonment of an exclusive settlement of the Shantung matter, and the restoration of customs," the newspaper continues, "constitute new features in Japan's program of restitution."

RECEIVERS APPOINTED FOR CONSOLIDATED DISTRIBUTORS

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—Receivers in equity were appointed today for Consolidated Distributors, Inc., a company which makes automobile accessories here and sells them in 39 stores in various parts of the country. Liabilities were given as $2,500,000 and assets as $3,500,000, but it was claimed the company lacked funds for current expenses.

Pat Carrigan Post No. 120, 812½ Ohio avenue, meets first and third Tuesday nights. Luther Hoffman, post commander; Zeb V. Nixon, post adjutant.

Frank Amen, formerly of company B, 359th infantry, 90th division, who was killed in an accident here Monday, was buried at Flot Point Wednesday.

H. E. Taylor, scout executive and finance officer of the legion, has moved his office to the post headquarters.

The state convention meets at El Paso the 26th, 27th and 28th. A big time is promised. Are you going?

All ex-service men are reminded that provision has been made for the recording of their discharges with the county clerk without cost. Your discharge will be returned to you.

Any soldier who has not received his victory medal, or the parent or other relative of those who died in the service, is requested to communicate with the adjutant, who will secure same for you.

The Pat Carrigan post takes pride in the fact that it has, since its organization, found employment for over 2,000 ex-soldiers, given medical treatment to more than 300, assisted many in adjusting claims for injuries incurred in the service and in the fact that all funerals of service men have been held under the auspices of the legion. To do this has required no little money and time. An appeal is being made to the public for its co-operation. Will you do your part?

The public is requested to communicate with the adjutant when it learns of a needy case, and to notify him of any jobs or positions that are open. We will supply the men.

Are you a member of the legion? If not fill out the application below:

Zeb V. Nixon, post adjutant,
514 Bob Waggoner building.

I desire to become a member of the Pat Carrigan port of the American legion.

Name, address, organization.

Don't forget the joint meeting Tuesday night at 812½ Ohio avenue with the auxiliary.

FORM AN ORGANIZATION TO COMBAT KU KLUX KLAN

CHICAGO, Sept. 15.—An organization to "promote harmony and good feeling between all classes, races and religions" was announced in the process of formation here today by Edward F. Dunne, former governor of Illinois and an emissary of the Irish republic at the Versailles peace conference. The society will be known as the National Unity council, and its organizers intend ultimately to spread it to every section of the country, according to Mr. Dunne.

One of the prime motives behind the organization, its sponsors said, was to combat the Ku Klux Klan, and organization of councils will be pushed particularly where the klan is strong.

The klan was called a "menace to this and any community" by former Governor Dunne.

REPORT HEAVY LOSSES ANTI-BOLSHEVIKI FORCES

RIGA, Sept. 15.—According to a radio dispatch from Moscow a detchment which raided Imperatorskaya at Vladivostok captured all the officers of the anti-bolshevik Merkulof government and also the convoy cruiser Lieutenant Davidoff.

A dispatch from Nikolsk reports the defeat of bands of the followers of General Semenoff, the anti-bolshevik leader in Siberia in the vicinity of Grokodovoka.

Another dispatch says the far eastern government has appealed to the Kappel troops, offering them amnesty if they surrender within a month.

LOCAL AUTOISTS TO MEET OFFICIALS OF HIGHWAY SATURDAY

Officials of the Wichita Falls Automotive Dealers' association received word late Wednesday that five men would be included in the Gulf-to-Colorado party of autoists who will be in this city Saturday on their tour of the highway which they represent. C. H. Walker of Dalhart, president of the association; Judge H. L. Small of Fort Worth, vice president; Capt. Bernard McMahon, field director; Sullivan Evans of Dalhart, J. Allen Walker of Clayton, N. M., and Sillian Evans, representing the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, will make up the personnel of the party

A committee of five from the local dealers' association will drive to Iowa Park Saturday morning and escort the visitors into Wichita Falls. A drive over the city and a banquet in the Kemp hotel at noon, at which time talks by Mayor Cline of this city and several of the guests will be given, is scheduled as the main part of the program for the entertainment. An effort is being made to secure J. A. Kemp as one of the speakers, but this had not been definitely decided Thursday.

All members of the dealers' association and the presidents of the Rotary, University, Kiwanis, Lions and Wichita clubs and officials of the chamber of commerce will attend the luncheon.

The tourists will leave for Fort Worth early Saturday afternoon and will spend the night there.

Small Child Falls To Its Death From A Beaumont Hotel

HOUSTON, Sept. 15.—Malcolm Hooper, eight months, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hooper of Beaumont, fell to his death from a third floor hotel window here this morning. The infant's parents were asleep and did not know the child had left the bed until a hotel porter woke them to tell about the accident.

HOUSTON MAN ALLOWED BAIL IN SUM OF $10,000

HOUSTON, Sept. 15.—Bail in the sum of $10,000 was allowed Eugene Holt, 58 years old, after a preliminary hearing today in connection with the fatal shooting Saturday of Charles Thacker, contractor.

NEGRO IS HANGED FOR MURDER OF WHITE GIRL

CENTERVILLE, ALA., Sept. 15.—Clyde Thomas, negro, was hanged here today for the murder of a 15-year-old white girl August 9. During the trial a company of militiamen and two machine gun detchments were on duty.

ESCAPED TEXAS CONVICT ARRESTED AT TEXARKANA

TEXARKANA, TEXAS, Sept. 15.—M. B. McCann, alias Jack Welch, confessed escaped convict from the Texas penitentiary where he has an uncompleted term of five years to serve, was arrested here today when he attempted to force an entrance into the home of John W. Wheeler, a banker.

PAYING THE PRICE.

It would be improper to attempt to pass judgment as to whether or not Fatty Arbuckle is guilty of the crimes of which he stands formally accused. Arbuckle must be presumed innocent of these crimes until he has been convicted by a jury of his peers. "But it is manifest," says the Denison Herald," that decency was put to shame and good morals scattered to the winds."

In its editorial on the subject the Herald takes up the question of the conditions surrounding the lives of many of the actors in the moving picture industry. Speaking of the Arbuckle party the Herald says:

"It was nothing more nor less than a carousal, a debauch, participated in by both men and women in violation of all rules of propriety and respectability, and would not have been tolerated had the participants been other than what they were—members of a popularly termed Bohemian set in which everything goes.

"No one would dare assert that all screen actors and actresses are immoral, but that they breathe an immoral atmosphere the world regards as a certain fact. And it bases judgment upon the cumulative evidence flowing in a perpetual stream from what is known as the 'Moving Picture Colony.' It is no secret that with many engaged in the industry moral obligations have no staying qualities, while the sanctity of the marriage vow is regarded so lightly as to be observed more in the breach than in the making of it.

"When such conditions exist it is not to be wondered at that tragedy rides upon the wings of the wind and strikes at the hearts of the gayest. It is not to be expected that men and women can habitually defy all rules of decency and scoff at laws of morality and escape without paying the price. They may get by for a time, but nature's laws are inexorable and in their exactions no leniency is shown.

"If the harm did not extend beyond the limits of the colonies the effect would not be so greatly felt, but unfortunately, the influence of the screen is manifested in every community throughout the land, so much so that much of the laxness in morals generally complained of is attributed to picturized vices or suggestive improprieties that pave the way to moral delinquencies. And when to that is added the publicity, or rather disclosures of midnight carousals participated in by those who furnish entertainment for the public, it requires no effort of the imagination to see the potentialities of harm to the young and adolescent.

"Obviously, those who have money invested in the industry, as well as those dependent upon their acting for a livelihood, must now see and feel the urge of more correct living, the complete abandonment of the Bohemian life that in the past has proven attractive to the innocent and unthoughted with minds filled with the fires of ambition. The candles that have drawn into their blaze the moths to have their wings scorched must be snuffed and in their place installed the white light of decency and right living or else suffer the doom an outraged public will pronounce.

MEXICO'S FUTURE.

Brandy flows freely in Mexico, which is celebrating the 100th anniversary of its independence from Spain.

The celebration would cause much glee among the ancient Mexican Aztecs who were butchered and enslaved by Cortes and his Spaniards.

The Aztecs had the first real civilization on the American continent. We don't know much about that civilization, for when Cortes and his plunderers destroyed it they also burned the Aztec picture-records.

History, in the long run, remembers only the destroyers.

One of the greatest mysteries of antiquity: Where did the Aztecs originate?

In Egypt, some scientists think. Maybe the Aztecs crossed the Atlantic on the bridge of land, the Lost Land of Atlantis, which according to fable once connected America with Africa.

Supporting the Egyptian theory are the stone pyramids which Aztecs built near Mexico City. One of these, erected by sun worshipers, is 216 feet high and 761 by 721 feet at the base.

But on those pyramids are hieroglyphics which Chinese claim resemble their writing. Did the Aztecs come by boat from China? That's possible. There were mighty civilizations in the past. Ours isn't the only one.

Cortes began destroying Mexico in 1519. He did a thorough job—thought he had won Mexico for Spain for all time. He was wrong.

September 15, 1819, the village priest at Dolores rang his church bell and started the first big Mexican revolution. A year and six days later, Mexico City was occupied by rebels. Independence followed.

Since its emancipation, Mexico has had two emperors—and shot them both. Presidents usually leave office feet-first. Trouble south of the Rio Grande is nothing new. "Revolution in Mexico" was a headline in newspapers that told of the assassination of Abraham Lincoln.

Don't blame the Mexicans for their revolutions. Blame the Spaniards, especially Cortes the Vulture. He put rebellion in the Mexican blood.

In the year 2021, when Mexico celebrates the 200th anniversary of her independence, her vast territory and tremendously rich resources will have made her a greater power than any in Europe.

WICHITA FALLS LIVING UP TO ITS OPPORTUNITIES

There was a time when great numbers of people came to Wichita Falls because of a peculiar, albeit somewhat familiar to many, product we sold. Now anybody can get the "stuff" from his home distiller without coming to Wichita Falls.

A little later great throngs came to Wichita Falls on account of the oil excitement and most of our folks were so busy making money that they had little time to devote to our own people and those who live close by.

The time has come when, if we want to have people come to Wichita Falls, we must have something to bring them here for. The leaders and business men of Wichita Falls have realized this and in providing hotel accommodations, amusements and entertainment and new and larger markets and mercantile establishments they have placed Wichita Falls on the road to substantial and permanent prosperity. Wichita Falls is a better city today than it ever would have been if our main distinction had continued to be the opportunity afforded to gratify an appetite or the lure of oil excitement. And the Wichita Falls of tomorrow will be a better city than the Wichita Falls of today because we are building upon a substantial and solid foundation and realize that we must succeed by our own efforts.

IT'S NO LONGER A JOKE.

The Eighteenth amendment hasn't stopped the drinking of liquor.

On the other hand it has made parties like that in the St. Francis hotel at San Francisco more common. In the old days when liquor was sold over the bar and in cafes and restaurants there was no distinction in being invited to a "little party." Now that kind of an invitation is considered a distinction and a privilege by some.

The illicit manufacture and sale of booze has reached a magnitude and has involved more people than most of us realize. It has really become a serious problem and can only be handled by the most determined effort.

One of the troubles in handling this problem is the disposition of most folks to make a joke of the whole business. The newspapers must bear a big share of the blame for this. Many responsible men participate in illicit transactions with "my bootlegger" or a "gentleman," and regard the matter rather as a joke than otherwise. Until such men realize the seriousness of the liquor problem that still confronts us the illicit trade in liquor will flourish and there will be numerous "little parties" with incidents as shocking, sometimes, as the one last week on the Pacific coast.

TODAY'S TALK

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

WHY BE IGNORANT?

I understand why it is that knowledge and intelligence are so often pictured as a light. For the one who knows—sees ahead!

To be ignorant is always to be handicapped in some way or other.

There are more mistakes made in this world through ignorance than through any other way. Most people are sorry for their mistakes and regret them. Many learn by them—and grow bigger and better.

But to be continuously ignorant is to live a tragic life.

Why be ignorant?

The mind is much like a sponge. It absorbs. But unlike the sponge, it retains what it absorbs, and thus lays up for emergencies and the proverbial days of rain, that which is able to comfort and inspire. For a well stored brain is something that increases in value as the years accumulate.

Friends may leave you. Material failure may come. But the sweetened memories of the yesteryears and the thousand and one things which have helped to make you appreciative of beauty about you cannot be effaced from the mind.

And how remarkable the brain becomes when once stimulated to activity!

The farmer boy becomes the business giant, the literary marvel, the political leader, the skilled engineer—the chap who everybody thought "never would amount to anything" looms as an inspirer of his time. Why? Because he sought to know—because he didn't want to remain ignorant.

The trained mind may win through a score of lanes. If one job is lost, another stands in waiting.

Why be ignorant? Why not learn all that you are able? You never know at what moment the particular thing you learn today may come in as an important link in some great scheme of achievement.

Idleness is the father of ignorance. And time is more precious than gold.

Why be ignorant?

JUST FOLKS

SOMETHING JOB MISSED.

Job was patient, but Man alive!
He hadn't a wife he must teach to drive.
He never was out on a crowded street
Telling his wife what to do with her feet;
How to start the motor and how to steer,
Give it the gas or shift the gear.
And Job when teaching her how to back
Never had her stall on a street car track.

Patient!. Job was a novice sure!
For all he suffered there came a cure,
But Job would have cursed, I will wager five
Had he tried teaching his wife to drive;
I doubt that he would have kept his seat
In an auto zig-zagging down the street
While he shouted aloud: "For pity's sake,
Take your foot off the gas and use your brake!"

I wonder how Job would have liked to hear
The awful grind of a stripping gear?
I wonder how he would have liked to be
In a car attempting to climb a tree?
Job's book of trials wouldn't have been enriched,
Had he taught his wife how the gears are switched.
He'd have had woes which but few survive
Had he tried teaching his wife to drive.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

Mistaken Kindness

Editor The Times:

There exists extensively in society today a sickly sentiment which advocates a mild and miscalled "kind" treatment for disorderly conditions and individuals in national, state, civic, school and home life. It is a "pacifist" scheme in each case and is practically impotent and always perilous. Like malignant diseases, such conditions and persons require drastic treatment, and it is nothing short of criminal to coddle and condone.

An effeminate form of government anywhere cannot guarantee security and happiness. Take for instance the home. An allwise Father understood the character of human beings and, accordingly had it written large in the wisdom books of the Bible. "He that spareth the rod hateth his child." The passage is often misquoted and its purport oftener ignored. For effectual corrective purposes some severe punishment is by that scripture necessary in any case of manifest willful disobedience to parental command or wishes, else the parent is as the Almighty regards him a positive hater of his own offspring. And disrespect is thereby shown for the divinely prescribed remedy.

The early chapters of the first book of Samuel relate an instance of terrible misfortune resulting from parental disregard of this urgent duty. It is told therein how the sons of the highest church official "made themselves vile, and he restrained them not." His lenient and gentle method of dealing with their outrageous wickedness found expression in the mild reproof, "It is no good report that I hear of your conduct. Why do you do such things?" The case reached this awful issue: "Eli's house shall not be purged with sacrifice nor offering forever!" It was Jehovah's edict. They and their indulgent father had committed unpardonable sin, and the sequel shows how swiftly and surely judgment arrives.

Chastisement, however just and urgent, consistently cannot be given in anger, or rashness, nor in a cruel manner, but must be applied effectively for securing proper results, and in a wholesome fear of God, before whose bar both must appear at last.

There are farmers who slightingly cultivate their crops and carelessly combat grass and weeds, resulting in a sorry yield. Apparently they hate the farm and are justly considered "slackers." Similar negligence in the rearing of children by parents and teachers will guarantee equally disastrous results. On the contrary, faithful and persistent exercise of skill and care in the cultivation and development of the graces that go to form sound character in the young, and insistent eradication of baneful propensities that operate against such character, will certainly bring large and gratifying dividends. Parents of ordinary intelligence know full well that when children are rebellious and allowed to have their own way, the wretched habit clings and entails in later life severe suffering for themselves and yields boundless trouble upon others. Surely no true lover of children desires for them such an inheritance.

Parents, teachers and all others invested with official responsibility, ought to consider well their duty and privilege herein, and perform the same as true lovers of humanity and servants of the Most High God.

The hour has struck when American youth of soldierly qualities, exhibiting a cheerful, instant, exact, unquestioning obedience to duly constituted authority, are demanded for meeting the responsibilities now at hand. The home, the school, and the civil government, have their part to perform if the finished product is to be forthcoming and in sufficient supply. Disqualification for service, when preventable, is both shameful and calamitous in the extreme. W. A. BETTS.

THE HISTORY OF

YOUR NAME

By PHILIP FRANCIS NOWLAN

PRICE.

VARIATIONS—Pryce, Preece, Rice, Reese, Reece, Rees.
RACIAL ORIGIN—Welsh.
SOURCE—A given name.

When pronunciations change, of names as well as common words, it is due to one or more of several causes. The most powerful cause of language changes, of course, is ease of pronunciation. The tongue unconsciously has a tendency to slur and shorten words. Sometimes the spelling follows quickly, and sometimes it does not, according to whether the change took place at a time when literature exerted little influence or much.

Another cause is the effort to pronounce a word as it is spelled. Both of these causes are involved in the explanation of why such names as Price and Preece, Rice and Reece, which really are the same names, would be pronounced with the "e" sound, as in "see," for "i" and "y" are so pronounced in the Welsh speech, and they never had the "eye" sound in Anglo-Saxon or Norman-French, nor even so late as Shakespeare's time.

All of these family names have been developed from the Welsh given name of "Rhys," which means "warrior," by affixing "ap" has been dropped entirely, In others only the "a" has been dropped and the "p" has been incorporated in the name.

But neither Price nor Rice has any connection whatever with our modern English words "price" and "rice."

Tomorrow—Bowyer.

Little Benny's Note Book

By LEE PAPE

Me and pop was eating brekfist this morning and pop sed, Good Heavens, this cawfee is strong enuff to run rite off its own grounds. Meening cawfee grounds, and he pored some more creem into it out of the creem pitcher, saying, There dont seem to be mutch creem today.

Wich there wasent, being even still less after pop pored somie more in his cawfee, and I sed, G pop, thats funny, creem makes your cawfee week instead of strong, and if I pored some in my milk it would make it strong instead of week, shall I try it, pop?

Certeny not, use a little judgment, confownd such strong cawfee, sed pop. And he grabbed a hold of the creem pitcher agen and pored some more in, not leeving hardly eny left and pritty soon ma came down and started to eat her brekfist, saying Well for goodniss sakes wat happened to all the creem?

Creem? sed pop with a ignorant ixpression, and ma sed, Certeny, theres no use of me putting these cupple of drops in my cawfee, who was sutch a pig as to take it all, that wat I wunt to know?

Benny, I herd you mention something about putting creem in your milk, you weren't so foolish as to do that, were you? sed pop. Me thinking, G, heers a chance to rescue pop and maybe make a exter dime. And I sed, I dident put hardly eny in, pop.

Well of all the rediculuss abserd things I ever herd of, thats the werst, sed ma, emptying the creem pitcher into his milk and ony leeving me about 2 and a half drops for my caffee, the boy must be out of his sentses, wat did you let him do sutch a thing as that for, how can I drink my cawfee as black as the day it was born? And she kepp on tawking about it and telling me wat a fearse thing it was, and pop started to get almost throo with his brekfist, and I sed, May pop, can I have a dime for something?

Wy, I gess so, I sippose so, yes, sed pop, and ma sed, Wat, give him a dime after wat he delibritly did with all the creem, wy Willyum, wats come ever you?

Well, the spirit of forgiveness and charity is a grate thing, sed pop, and ma sed, I dont care weather it is or not, Id jest like to see you try to give him a dime, the ideer.

And pop went out without giving me eny, and ma tawked about the creem every little wile all day, and if pop dont give me eny tonite Ill think I made a mistake.

Have It Pretty Soft Compared With Those Miners In Nevada

The hottest job in America is mining in the Comstock Lode, in Nevada. Miners there, 2,500 feet underground work in a temperature of 145 degrees and have to be sprayed continually with cold water.

Under your feet, the temperature increases an average of one degree for every 60 feet of depth.

HE DID NOT KNOW

By DR. WM. E. BARTON.

It is said that ignorance of the law excuses no man. That is not quite true. Indictments charge that a man "wilfully and maliciously" did the deed for which he is called into court. He may not have known the text of the statute, or that there was a statute, but he knew that he was doing wrong.

"He did not know it was loaded." Probably not, but he knew that he was doing a very foolish thing when he pointed the supposedly empty gun at another human being, and pulled the trigger. If he did not know enough to know that, he is not a safe person to have around.

There are some things which it is our business to know.

We ought to know that it is neither safe nor right to do to another man what we should not like him to do to us.

We ought to know that in matters involving danger to life or limb there should be a margin of safety in our actions; we should take all the precautions which safety demands, and then add a margin for defects of mechanism or error of human judgment.

You may have the right of way according to the rules of the road, and theman coming down the intersecting street may owe it to you to slow down when you honk at him, but that fact will not repair your car, nor settle your hospital bill.

You may not know that he does not intend to slow down for you, but it is not always safe to assume that he is going to do it.

Do you read the mounting statistics of death from automobile accidents? People did not know that the other car was coming; did not know that the policeman really meant what his signal seemed to mean; did not know that the steering wheel was out of order, or that the emergency brakes were not working very well.

There is a place a long way this side of heaven for the men who take chances with human life because they did not know that the danger was so great.

It is men's duty to know.

SOUTHERN'S BRIDGE OVER BRAZOS BARELY ESCAPES DEMOLITION

SUDDEN RISE IN RIVER COMES NEAR CAUSING SERIOUS DAMAGE TO STRUCTURE

PROMPT ACTION PREVENTS LOSS OF ONE OF SPANS

Chief Engineer Spends Night Dynamiting Driftwood—Damage Is Soon Repaired

Prompt and valiant work on the part of Chief Engineer McFarland of the Wichita Falls & Southern prevented serious damage to the road's bridge across the Brazos, below Graham, last Tuesday night, according to advices reaching this city.

A sudden six-foot rise in the Brazos river struck the falsework pier at the south end of the bridge, demolishing the pier, and depositing the steel bridge section on the concrete pier, just completed. The bridge span landed on the concrete pier in such a way as to make it appear that it was in imminent danger of toppling off into the stream, and causing a long and expensive delay in completion of the bridge.

Mr. McFarland lashed the span to the pier and to objects on the shore, and then undertook an all night job of preventing driftwood from doing further damage. Dynamite was freely used and when Wednesday morning came it was possible to secure the pier in place, and prevent further trouble.

Supt. R. W. Miller of the Southern returned Wednesday night from the scene of the trouble. He reports the danger safely past.

The bridge will be completed within a short time, the last of the concrete piers being practically finished.

SUSPEND NEGOTIATIONS FOR AN ARGENTINE LOAN

BUENOS AIRES, Sept. 15.—Negotiations between the Argentine government and American banking institutions for a loan of $50,000,000 have been suspended, it is learned in authoritative quarters here. The fact that these negotiations were in progress has given rise during the past few days to many conflicting rumors, and recent violent fluctuations in the foreign exchange market here have resulted.

Pastor Says Last Year's Suit Will Do; Asks For Washer

It is the custom of a good many Methodist congregations to buy their pastor a new suit of clothes just before he goes to the annual conference. Rev. W. A. Betts, pastor of the Northside Mission, has asked those who may intend to donate him a suit to donate his wife an electric washing machine instead. He has made this known in a little communication in verse which follows:

Good Friend:
If your cabletow is long enough,
And strong enough,
These truly "hard" times,
To help take the "blue"
Out of Monday's wash-day
For his wife,—
Just mail a contribution,
However small, or large,
To the shepherd of the mission
North of Wichita, R. F. D. 1.

He will buy therewith,
For her very own,
An electric washer!

You would gladly give
For her preacher-man
To buy a conference suit
But better far
This gift to her
I thank you.

W. A. BETTS, Pastor.

ANDERSON WINS IN STRAIGHT SETS AND WILL PLAY JOHNSON

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 15.—The first match brought together J. O. Anderson of the Australian Davis cup team, and Francis T. Hunter of New York. Anderson won in straight sets, 6-1, 6-2, 6-4, and will meet Wallace F. Johnson of Philadelphia in the semi-final round tomorrow.

Craig Biddle of Philadelphia was eliminated by his townsman, Wallace F. Johnson, in straight sets, 6-0, 6-2, 6-4. Willis E. Davis of San Francisco defeated Robert G. Kinsey, also of San Francisco, 6-3, 4-6, 6-4, 1-6, 6-4.

ACCIDENT FATAL TO OLD-TIME RESIDENT OF WICHITA COUNTY

Mrs. W. W. Bailey, aged 57, died Thursday morning at the home of her son, G. W. Bailey, north of town. Death came about 10 o'clock Thursday morning.

Mrs. Bailey, who is an old time resident of Wichita county, is survived by three sons, all of whom were here at the time of her death. She had been confined in bed some days as the result of a hip broken in a recent fall, and was in a weakened condition from two successive strikes of paralysis within the past year.

The funeral service will be held at the Merkle-Lunn undertaking parlor Friday morning at 10 o'clock, and burial will be made in Riverside cemetery.

MORRISON ATTACKS THE PACKERS' PLAN

Charges New System of Dealing With Men Is a "Reaction To the Stone-Age"

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—The new system of shop representation put into effect today by four of the big packing plants was attacked in a statement issued by Frank Morrison, secretary of the American Federation of Labor, as a "reaction to the stone-age." He paid special attention to the provision of the new system which prohibits representation of employes by other than workers in the plants.

"This practically means that the right of counsel is denied to employes in reaching decisions of the greatest importance in the life of the workers," said Mr. Morrison. "Besides, at times of unemployment it places a tremendous economic power in the hands of employers. Controlling the 'jobs of the representatives of the workers, controlling their very lives, with the advantages which this control exercises upon the minds of the workers, 'employe representation' is a tragic farce.

"Why should not employes have the right of engaging the best counsel that can be had to discuss their economic state with employers? The employers themselves exercise this in everything they do. Why deny it to the workers? The reason is plain. These packers know that this denial of the natural rights of the workers means eventually that they shall control not only the jobs of the workers, but the life of the workers and everything to which such control contributes—the education of the workers' children, the kind of a house they shall live in, their very mode of life in every particular. The purpose in short is to isolate the workers from their fellows and make of them 'company' men instead of family men."

MOORISH TRIBESMEN ARE OFFERING A RESISTANCE

MADRID, Sept. 15.—Moorish tribesmen who have been fighting against Spanish outposts near Melilla, are offering resistance to the advance of Spanish columns, which on Monday began an offensive southwest of that city.

MAKES A FLYING TRIP TO LEGION CONVENTION

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—Assistant Secretary Roosevelt of the navy department will fly today to the convention of the New Jersey department of the American Legion at Asbury Park. He will leave Bolling field in a marine DH-4 plane piloted by Lieutenant Ford O. Rogers, of the marine corps.

GROUCH, IRRIGATION TRIPS AND BOYS ARE TOPICS FOR ROTARY

Thursday was "grouch day" at the weekly luncheon of the Rotary club, President Robbins calling upon members who had grouches of any kind to air them and get them out of their systems.

Quite a number responded. John W. Bradley and B. J. Bean declared themselves fairly free from grouches, but each thought he would have a violent one if members of the club didn't turn out in full force for the trips to Seymour and Breckinridge. Tom Smock's grouch was that members were inclined to be too stand-offish toward newcomers and didn't help them get acquainted.

B. F. Johnson had no grouch, but took occasion of the free-for-all to tell about a plan he heard of at Houston whereby a certain number of boys are guests of the Rotary club at the league games every day. He thought something of the kind would be a worth while stunt here.

Judge J. I. Starley reported substantial progress on the irrigation project, and gave the Rotarians something to think about when he discussed the work that must be done aside from the irrigation scheme itself. Schools, good roads, canning factories and adequate marketing facilities, he said, ought to be receiving the attention of Wichitans in advance of the completion of the project.

E. S. Goodner promised his help, as a wholesaler, in seeing that "the Wichita Falls brand" of canned goods became properly famous.

George Gutzman urged the Rotarians to turn out for the trip to Breckenridge, pointing out the necessity for a big showing. About 20 Rotarians promised to make the trip.

FIVE ARE SENTENCED TO LIFE IMPRISONMENT FOR MURDER OF AGED FARMER

COLUMBIA, S. C., Sept. 15.—Mother, son, daughter and two male friends of Marcellus Cook, aged farmer, were sentenced to life imprisonment today by County Judge Seahe for the murder several weeks ago of the elder Cook. The jury in the trial of the five persons was directed by the judge to bring in a verdict of guilty after attorneys for both sides had given their consent and experts had testified that the defendants were persons of arrested development.

Those sentenced are Mrs. Julia Cook, wife of the aged farmer, who was charged with having instigated the crime for the sole purpose of getting rid of her aged and paralytic husband; Ira Cook, the son, who cut his father's throat from ear to ear; Mimie Cook, daughter, who held her father's feet while the crime was committed; Henry Wheeler, a friend of the family, and said to be the fiance of Mimie Cook and James Barfield, accused of having planned the murder.

ALL OF STYLE SHOW RECEIPTS WILL GO TO EPISCOPAL GUILD

All proceeds of the sale of tickets for the Style Show Thursday and Friday nights go to the Episcopal Guild, it was stated Thursday.

None of the admission receipts will be used for merchants' expenses, these being borne entirely by the exhibitors.

AKRON, OHIO, SPORTSMAN IS SHOT AND KILLED ON RETURN FROM CLEVELAND

AKRON, OHIO, Sept. 15.—Harry Sinclair, 40, Akron sportsman, was shot to death early today while returning from Cleveland with two women and another man in an automobile. The shots were fired from another car which had been following the Sinclair machine.

Marshal Fridde, husband of Lorra Fridde, one of Sinclair's passengers, was being questioned by the police.

DEMANDS POLITICAL AND FINANCIAL GUARANTEES

BERNE, SWITZERLAND, Sept. 15.—The Spanish government is demanding political and financial guarantees before permitting former Emperor Charles of Austria to take up a residence in Spain, as he has twice petitioned the Madrid government to be allowed to do.

Spain especially demands restrictions on the household expenses of the ex-emperor, which are estimated to amount annually to 1,200,000 Swiss francs. This expenditure is caused by his large suite of eighty persons, which the Spanish government desires reduced considerably.

IMMEDIATE REMOVAL OF PRYOR IS PRAYED FOR

AUSTIN, Sept. 15.—Immediate removal of W. G. Pryor as a member of the Texas prison commission is prayed for in a petition filed late today in the 26th District court by the attorney general's department on behalf of the state and at the instance of Governor Neff. The petition was filed under the provisions of the act passed at the first called session of the 37th legislature.

Shortly after the filing of the petition, Judge Cooper Sansom, judge of the court, issued an order suspending Pryor and appointing Walker Sayles of Stephens county to fill the position. Such action is permissible under the act authorizing the removal of prison commissioners.

Pryor was appointed a member of the prison commission by former Governor Ferguson and had served about five years of his six-year term. Governor Neff made an effort to have Pryor resign but the latter declined. Pryor has been manager of the state farms. Governor Neff charged mismanagement of the prison farms in demanding Pryor's resignation.

CHARGE WILSON FAILED TO PUT FORTH BEST EFFORTS

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Sept. 15.—The New Jersey boxing commission today adopted a resolution accusing Johnny Wilson of Boston, middleweight boxing champion, of failure to put forth his best efforts in his match with Bryan Downey of Cleveland, last Labor Day. The commission voted to place Wilson's share of the purse in a depository, pending final disposition of the case.

FURTHER REDUCTION IN POLICE FORCE IS EXPECTED SHORTLY

Further curtailments of the police force are to be made in the near future, according to well defined rumors Thursday afternoon. Police and Fire Commissioner Fitts, when questioned concerning the matter, admitted that such action probably would be taken, but did not disclose the extent of the cuts to be made. Three or four of the present policemen will be relieved, it is thought.

Mr. Fitts declared that a necessity for reducing the expenses of his department was the only thing responsible for the reduction. How soon the cuts will become effective was not disclosed.

Gasoline Causes Fire.

Fire starting from gasoline being used in cleaning some clothing caused a run for the central station fire department to the home of J. D. Camp, 205 Fourth street, at 1:30 Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Camp carried the flaming pan of gasoline from the house after it had become ignited and saved the place from damage. A few small articles of clothing were the only things lost.

GROCER IS TRIED THURSDAY ON A CHARGE OF THEFT

L. B. Gray, local grocer, was tried in the county court at law Thursday on a charge of theft. The jury was still out at 3:30.

Gray's complaint of treatment accorded him by the "kangaroo court" in the county jail, following his arrest on the theft charge some time ago resulted in a grand jury probe of jail conditions and in material changes in jail conditions and in kangaroo court methods.

The theft charge grew out of Gray's action in refusing to return a $5 bill which he was asked to change. He refused, he said, because the woman who wanted the bill changed owed him some money. A large number of friends of both parties attended the trial Thursday.

SHERMAN MAN DROWNS IN A DALLAS SWIMMING POOL

Jumbo Ramsey Subdues Panthers as Spudders Hand Pate Real Lacing

The few hundred fans who turned out at Athletic park yesterday saw another real ball game and came away from the ball yard well satisfied that both clubs were trying to let them leave with pleasant tastes in their mouths. The fact that the Spudders were on the long end of an 8 to 4 count is enough in itself to show that there must have been a ball game as any club that beats the Panthers must show a little bit more than ordinary ball. There was plenty of good hitting, several scintilating defensive plays and some good hurling, especially by "Jumbo" Ramsey, who worked his first game at Athletic park.

"Bugs" Pate was Skipper Atz's selection for mound duty and he received one of his worst lacings of the year. And it wasn't because he didn't try to win, for he was more than anxious to put over his 33rd win of the season. But the Spudders returned to their mid-season hitting form and dealt Joe plenty of misery.

Ramsey was a bit wild at the outset, but was tighter than a peeved clam in the pinches. Twice he turned the invaders back with the bases jammed when a hit would have undoubtedly sent him to clubhouse. The first run scored off him was pure gift, made possible by a wild chuck by Danny Gross, but the other three were earned. A two-ply wallop and a single in the second round netted them one, while circuit smashes by Coombs and Kraft in the last chapter gave them their other two. It was Big Boy's 31st of the current season and was a real smash.

Coombs Has Field Day

The heaviest clouting of the day was contributed by Cecil Coombs. The visiting outer-gardner found "Jumbo's" hooks and shoots made to order and out of five trips to the plate poled out an excursion bang, three hard doubles and drew a pass.

Frank Kitchens also had a pretty fair day with the willow, garnering a two-bagger, which netted him $5 in gold for hitting the Fisher sign, and a home to home clout over the left field barrier.

The fielding honors were shared equally by Buddy Tanner, Caddy Works and Dutch Hoffman. The first two worked together on one play which robbed Kraft of a hit. Buddy made a corking stop in back of third and Works finished up the play by stretching half way home to get Buddy's heave. Hoffman's contribution was a hair-raising, one-handed stop on a fast grounder of Danny Clark's near first base, which he converted from a base hit into an out.

Pate was wild at the outset and forced in the first Spudders' tally by walking Clark after the bags had been jammed on a pass to Josefson, Tanner's single and an error by Hoffman on Bischoff's sacrifice. An infield out chased the next one over.

Clean Hitting Nets Three

The next three in the third resulted from a bunch of clean hitting and a pass. Bischoff opened with a safety. Clark drew his second pass and Griggs scored Smiley with a crash to center. Clark went to third on this hit and later scored on an infield out. Griggs scored before the chapter was ended on Kitchens' two cushion thump.

Kitchens' round trip blow gave them their sixth marker in the sixth chapter and the last two in the seventh were made by three singles to the center pasture by Tanner, Clark and Griggs. The detailed score:

First Inning.

FORT WORT: Coombs doubled to left. Sears grounded to Tanner who threw to Gross, cutting Coombs off from third but in attempting to run him down between bases Gross threw the ball into right field, Coombs scoring and Sears making second. Stellbauer walked. Kraft swung at three and Hoffman flew out to Bischoff. Clark booted Haley's grounder, filling the bases. Rigney fouled out to Works. One run, one hit, two errors.

WICHITA FALLS: Josefson drew a base on balls and took second when Tanner singled to right. Bischoff attempted to sacrifice and was safe when Hoffman, who covered first, dropped Pate's throw. With the bases full, Clark drew a pass, forcing Josefson home. Griggs grounded to Hoffman and was thrown out, Tanner scoring on the play. Gross and Works fanned. Two runs, one hit, one error.

Second Inning.

FORT WORTH: Ramsey threw out Haworth. Pate fanned. Coombs doubled to right center. Sears walked. Stellbauer singled to left, scoring Coombs. Sears was thrown out trying to make third on the play. One run, two hits, no errors.

WICHITA FALLS: Kitchens grounded out, Haley to Kraft. Ramsey whiffed. Josefson singled to center but Tanner's best was an easy roller to Haley. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Third Inning.

FORT WORTH: Kraft flew out to Josefson. Hoffman poped to Clark. Haley fanned on three pitched balls. No runs, no hits, no errors.

WICHITA FALLS: Bischoff singled to left. Clark walked. Griggs singled to center, scoring Bischoff and sending Clark to third. Gross popped a fly to short center which Coombs finally captured. Works grounded to Haley and Clark scored while the Cat sacker was throwing Caddy out at first. Griggs went to second on the play and scored when Kitchens belted a double to left. Haley and Kraft disposed of Ramsey. Three runs, three hits, no errors.

Fourth Inning.

FORT WORTH: Rigney went out, Tanner to Works. Haworth popped out to Haley. Pate walked and went to third when Coombs doubled to center. This hit was Coombs' third two-bagger in as many times at bat. Sears walked, filling the bases but Stellbauer rolled to Tanner who stepped on second, forcing Sears. No runs, one hit, no errors.

WICHITA FALLS: Josefson grounded out, Hoffman to Kraft. Tanner fouled out to Kraft and Bischoff died o na grounder to Pate. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Fifth Inning.

FORT WORTH: Tanner and Works robbed Kraft of a hit, Buddy making a brilliant stop and Works pulling in a poor throw which he made from a difficult position. Hoffman walked and went to third when Haley singled to center. Rigney fanned, Haley stole second and Haworth popped to Gross. No runs, one hit, no errors.

WICHITA FALLS: Clark went out, Hoffman to Kraft, the former making a pretty stop of the grounder. Hoffman also threw out Griggs and Gross fanned. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Sixth Inning.

FORT WORTH: Pate was a victim of the Clark-Works combination. Coombs walked. Sears fouled out to Gross. Stellbauer doubled to left and Coombs was thrown out at the plate on his attempt to score, Bischoff ot Tanner to Kitchens. No runs, one hit, no errors.

WICHITA FALLS: Works fanned. Pop Kitchens lifted one over the left field fence for the circut. Ramsey singled to right but Josefson hit into a double play, Hoffman to Rigney to Kraft. One run, two hits, no errors.

Seventh Inning.

FORT WORTH: Kraft flew out to Griggs. Clark threw out Hoffman and Tanner threw out Haley. No runs, no hits, no errors.

WICHITA FALLS: Tanner singled to center and went to second while Haley was throwing Bischoff out at first. Clark singled to center, Tanner scoring. Griggs came through with another safety and when Hoffman messed up the throw in Clark scored. Griggs attempted to make second on the play but was nipped by a quick return throw. Gross rolled out, Pate to Kraft. Two runs, three hits, one error.

Eighth Inning.

FORT WORTH: Rigney was out Gross to Works and Haworth retired, Clark to Works. Pate flew out to Bischoff. No runs, no hits, no errors.

WICHITA FALLS: Works flew out to Coombs and Kitchens popped to Hoffman. Ramsey retired, Hoffman to Kraft. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Ninth Inning.

FORT WORTH: Coombs drove one over the left field fence. Sears went out, Clark to Works. Stellbauer grounded out, Gross to Works. Kraft got a homer into the pasture back of left and Gross threw out Hoffman. two runs, two hits, no errors.

Ruth Isn't Only Famous "Babe" in the Majors

By BOB DORMAN.

Pitchers may come and pitchers may go, but I go on forever.

That might well be the slogan of Babe Adams, veteran Pirate hurler who is leading the National league in box work and who is largely responsible for keeping the Pirates in the pennant race.

Babe is 38. For 13 years he has been feeding 'em over in the big league and for nine years before that he was in the minors.

"I haven't any special rules for keeping in shape," he says. I eat what I want, but regularly, and I get plenty of sleep.

"I have always taken good care of myself and it has mighty well repaid me. When other fellows with whom I started are all in, their physical powers burned up, I go along feeling like a youngster.

"I love baseball, and I'm going to keep on playing as long as the old wing will stand for it.

"I don't know why my arm holds up so well unless it's the way I grip the ball. Most pitchers, you know, grip the ball as tightly as possible, thinking they can get more break on it that way.

"I have always made it a practice to hold the ball loosely. I believe it gives me better control, and it certainly is easier on the arm."

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Yankees 11, White Sox 8

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—Strange things came to pass in the seventh inning up at the Polo Grounds Wednesday.

The strange things were Bill (Kid) Gleason's young pitchers. The passes went to various members of the Yankees. The strangs things also hit two of the home boys in the same inning and almost in the same places. The Yankees went into the inning three runs to the rear. They emerged two steps in front. The final score of the ball game as a whole seemed to be Yanks 11, White Sox 8. Proving, as we have often said before, you can never tell.

One of those Russels, who are always bobbing up in the big leagues, this one being Jim, from Sioux City, as left-handed as anything, kept the Yanks from doing much of anything important until the seventh, although Bob Meusel prodded him for two homers. He opened the seventh by passing Ward and McNally.

Bill (Kid) Gleason grabbed Jim out of there so quickly that Jim's head was swimming as he moved toward the club house. One Hodge, lean and lanky and full of wildness, came in and hit Schang and Baker, who batted for Rip Collins, besides passing Miller.

Out went Hodge and in came Connelly. Roger Peckinpaugh singled on the first ball Con curved, scoring two. Ruth forced Peckinpaugh and Connelly with pitched Babe on a peg, then walked Meusel, after dusting him up some. As Pipp fanned Babe was doubled up trying to steal third, ending the inning and everybody was glad of it.

Senators 1, Browns 0.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—Johnson outclassed Dixie Davis in a pitchers' battle Wednesday, holding the Browns to three infield hits and winning by a score of 1 to 0. All St. Louis hits resulted from misplays by Bush. Johnson profited by a triple play in the fourth inning. With Tobin on second and Ellerbe on first, Bush speared Sisler's liner toward left. He tossed to Harris, catching Tobin off second and a quick relay to Judge caught Ellerbe before he could return to the bag. Only twenty-seven men faced Johnson.

BRENNAN AND WALKER MEET IN DECISION BOUT

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 15.—Bill Brennan, Chicago, and Hugh Walker, Kansas City, meet tonight in the first twelve-round decision heavyweight bout staged here in a number of years. Brennan is substituting for Bob Martin, A. E. F. heavyweight champion, who withdrew because of illness. The bout has been arranged for the benefit of ex-service men.

Their horses chanced to cough,
And as the jockeys lost their seats
The starter yelled, "They're off!"

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Dodgers 9-2, Cards 7-3.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 14.—St. Louis divided a double-header with Brooklyn Wednesday, taking the second game 2 to 2 in eleven innings and losing the first 9 to 7. Schmandt sewed up the first with a triple in the eighth inning of the opener, while Clemons' double gave the Cardinals the night cap. Taylor's wild throw, trying to retire the Cardinals in the ninth gave them two runs and a knotted count.

Giants 10, Reds 1.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 14.—By a terrific batting rally in the eighth inning of Wednesday's game here the Giants were enabled to clinch the victory by making seven runs, knocking Pitcher Eppa Rixey out of the box and pasting the delivery of Markle, who relieved Rixey, fully as hard. The final score was 10 to 1.

Phil Douglas pitched a splendid game, allowing the Reds but six hits. Phil will doubtless pitch in the second game against the Pirates in the coming series in Pittsburgh. The Giants have a good start for a successful western trip. Wednesday's victory makes the seventh straight game for the Giants.

A RAISE HE COULDN'T CALL.

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., Sept. 15.—"He fined me once, but I raised him five."

This was the joyous announcement made by Umpire Mullen of the Dakota league staff, after the arbiter had soaked a $25 fine on Bill Carney, manager of the Watertown club.

Several years ago Mullen was playing with Portland, and Carney was umpiring in the circuit. Carney fined the player $20 one day.

"When I came to the Dakota league as an umpire," says Mullen, "I found Carney as a manager. One day he tried to get fresh with me, and I plastered him with a $25 fine. Believe me, he paid it."

SEVEN-GAME SERIES FOR DIXIE TITLE TO OPEN IN FORT WORTH

Panthers Get Breaks On Eve of Series; Wachtel and Lohman Can Use Spitter

MEMPHIS, TENN., Sept. 14.—The post-season series between Fort Worth, champion club of the Texas league, and Memphis, the Southern association winner, will be restricted to seven games and will be concluded as soon as one team has won four games. The clash will commence on Wednesday, September 21, in Fort Worth, the Cats having won the toss to decide on the location at the conference here today between J. Doak Roberts, president of the Texas league; John D. Martin, the Southern executive, and representatives of the two teams.

Games will be played in Fort Worth on September 21 and 22 and in Memphis on September 24, 25 and 26. If the sixth and seventh games are necessary, they will be played in Fort Worth on September 28 and 29. Unless adverse or weather necessitates postponements, only one Sunday game will be played, this taking place in Memphis on September 25, and will come in the players' share. In case of postponements, games will be played in towns where located.

Presidents Roberts and Martin, acting as a board in charge of the series on behalf of the National association, adopted the following scale of prices:

At Fort Worth: Box seats and reserved seats in grand stand $2, unreserved seats $1.50, bleachers $1.

At Memphis: Box and grand stand seats $2, pavilion seats $1.50, bleachers $1.

The discussion as to the use of the spitball, which the Texas league permits, while the Southern does not, resulted in a decision that Paul Wachtel only is eligible to use spitball in Memphis games, while no Memphis pitchers will use it locally, but 'Zeke Lohman is allowed to use it in Fort Worth. This restriction probably implies that Goodbred and Pate can use the delivery in Fort Worth. The Panthers list the Lone Star league's premier southpaw as a spitter, although he has never used it.

The two clubs are eligible to use only players joining them prior to thirty days before the close of the season.

The toss of the coin in Memphis yesterday gave Fort Worth the breaks at the start of the Dixie clash, as the two opening games will be played in Panther Park. As it is almost a certainty that more than five games will be required to complete the series, and the sixth and seventh if needed are billed for the Panther loam, the location is with the Atsmen throughout.

Dallas fans will regret, however, that no Sunday games are carded in Fort Worth as there are a great many who would go over to see the set-to if played on other than week-days.

Another break in favor of the Panthers is the Southern's liberality in the matter of permitting Wachtel to use the spitball, a point on which John D. Martin was expected to take a firm stand when the two presidents met. The Southern would have been well within its rights in declining to let a spitball artist work. The league has shown itself willing to meet the Texans more than half way in sportsmanship.

Wachtel is going to be a big factor in the series and it would not be surprising to see the opening game intrusted to him, although that honor may go to Buzz Whittaker, whose curve ball baffled Kid Elberfeld's Travelers last fall or to Joe Pate, the crafty left-hander, who has turned in thirty victories this season.

COMMENT

By ROY GROVE.

What about Suzanne Lenglen?

Slated right off the bat to come across with the wonder stuff, after a hard sea voyage.

In a strange country, with strange people and strange ways, expected to hop upon the courts and put volley-shots all over the U. S. A.

Americans expected this little bundle of French nerves to concentrate on championship tennis.

When a race horse is taken across the pond, it is months before he is put on the track.

If those who had charge of the matches and parings of the players were in such a hurry, why didn't they start the openers on the deck of Suzanne's liner while it was in quarantine?

Wonder who'll shoot who this hunting season?

Phillies recall six players for next season. Wouldn't you think they'd hate it?

Curtains.

The stage is being set to rid the fight game of Johnny Wilson.

Mike Gibbons and Mike McTigue are the logical property men to curtain one of the most unpopular boxers the game has ever known.

The public would welcome a fight like that—a fight in which Wilson would be knocked for a million goals.

Reading, from the bottom up, leads the International league.

Indiana university plans to use movies to point out players' errors this season. If Indiana games are like most of 'em, the pictures will come under the fight-film law.

Welcome.

Now that baseball pitchers have blown UP,
And bags have been beaten UP
And bags have been lined UP at the posts
And the diving contest entries have all come UP
And golfers have raced to be UP on each other
And a lot of new records have been hung UP,
Ain't the gridiron season a grand and glorious time when folks yell DOWN for a change?

Progress.

Milla ade, 22-year-old champion woman swimmer of Denmark, has just completed a successful crawl down the Hudson from Albany to Battery Park, New York City.

The Danish mermaid's feat marks the first time such a swim has been attempted by a woman.

She covered the distance of 143 miles, plus ten for detours, in six days, one hour and seven minutes.

Twenty-five years ago Cooper made the same swim in eleven days and four hours.

This if more than a man's job—and a woman did it.

Not so much in a name. Take the Smiths, for instance. Smith of Giants hits .333, Smith of Indians hits .310, Smith of Cards hits .315, while Smith of Dodgers hits .216, Smith of Nats hits .256, and the two Smiths with Phillies hit .215 and, would we believe it, .057.

BOXING CHAMP STUDIES LAW

EARL FRANCE.

BERKELEY, CAL., Sept. 15.—From the law library at the University of California to the lightweight championship of the west is a mean step taken by Earl France, Los Angeles boxing four-round contests throughout California.

He left school last February and annexed the title of the southwest from Tommy Carter and then relieved Jimmy Duffy of his class as champ of the west and northwest.

He then took the crowns from Tait, lightweight champion of Canada, Australia and the British Isles.

France holds titles over more territory than is ruled by any other lightweight, with the exception of Benny Leonard, whom he hopes to meet during the coming year and then return to the study and practice of law.

DALLAS GOLFER FINISHES SECOND IN SENIOR TOURNEY

RYE, N. Y., Sept. 15.—Charles P. Cooke of the Arcola Country club, Arcola, N. J., was the winner yesterday in the first half of the seventeenth annual United States senior golf association, 36 hole tourney at the Apawamis club, with a low gross score of 162. Mr. Cooke is registered in class A for men between 55 and 60, and had a handicap of six.

Hugh Halsell of the Dallas Country club, Dallas, Texas, winner of last year's trophy, finished second, with a gross score of 165. He played from scratch and was also in class A.

The low net prize was won by Judge Watson B. Dunmore of Yahdundasis club, Utica, N. Y., who is 76 years old, with a net score of 148. He had the benefit of a 48 handicap on the 36 holes.

The second half of the tourney in which more than 200 contestants are registered begins today.

ORTEGA WINDS UP TRAINING FOR BOUT WITH GIBBONS

COLORADO SPRINGS, COLO., Sept. 15.—Battling Ortega of San Francisco wound up a strenuous training program in preparation for his 12-round decision bout Friday night with Mike Gibbons of St. Paul yesterday by boxing a total of 17 rounds with sparring partners.

Gibbons was to arrive sometime today and was scheduled for a light gymnasium workout this afternoon.

MRS. MALLORY WINS FOURTH MATCH WITH MISS HUFF

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 15. — Mrs. Molla Bjurstedt Mallory, national title holder, won her fourth round match with Miss M. B. Huff, Philadelphia, 6-0, 6-0, in the middle states lawn tennis tournament at the Philadelphia Cricket club today.

Miss Martha Baryard, Short Hills, N. J., defeated Mrs. Robert Herold, Philadelphia, 6-3, 6-1.

BABE SMASHES RECORD.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—Babe Ruth made his fifty-fifth home run today, breaking his last year's record of fifty-four, during the season. It was in the fifth inning of the first game of today's double header between New York and St. Louis. One man was on base at the time and Bayne was pitching.

CONFERENCE SQUADS START 1921 DRIVE FOR WESTERN TITLE

CHICAGO, Sept. 15.—The western conference university football squads today held their first practice in preparation for a season which finds most of the stronger elevens of the 1920 season faced with the task of replacing a majority of their former stars and two of the tail enders of last year training to develop teams which will make creditable showings on scheduled eastern invasions.

Squads ranging from two to four score reported to the gridiron instructors at the ten fields today with the interest generally accorded Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin and Ohio state championship teams temporarily subdued by that given Chicago and Indiana, the two elevens which will carry western conference colors into stadiums of the larger eastern schools for the first time in years.

Chicago faces Princeton October 22 in the first of a home and home series scheduled between the two schools. With only the remnants of his last year's team available, Coach Alonzo Stagg is paying little atention to the conference games, pointing his team entirely for the clash with Princeton. The strongest defensive team in the conference last year, the Maroons, are working to retain that defensive power and to develop an attack which will have a chance of getting past the Tigers' claws.

At Indiana university Coach "Jumbo" Stiehm has an even more difficult task than Stagg, for his eleven, one of the weakest last season, and with few of its stars back in school, must trade thuds with Harvard at Cambridge on October 8.

In the conference itself, Ohio State, in order to retain its 1920 championship may need even more good fortune than last season when two games were won by one point and another by a touchdown actually made after the final whistle had blown.

Stinchcomb, former all-American half back, "Hoge" Workman, the middle west's greatest forward passer, and others in football's hall of fame, will have to be replaced by Coach Wilce.

Michigan and Wisconsin are expected to show considerable strength although the latter has lost many stars while Illinois, Minnesota, Northwestern, Iowa and Purdue are the "dark horses" of the season.

Illinois, always a factor in the championship race and runner-up last year, has lost its greatest players, but Coach Zuppke has a habit of always turning forth a winning team and while his followers do not know just how he will do it this year, they are confident the Illini will be well in the running.

The schedule presents an unusual arrangement this year. Ohio State and Wisconsin, ancient rivals, have severed football relations, and will not meet, nor will Chicago and Michigan, or Minnesota and Illinois, all bitter gridiron enemies in past seasons. Michigan, however, resumes its rivalry with Wisconsin.

Practice games will be played at Northwestern and at Indiana a week from next Saturday but the regular season will not get under way until October 1.

LONGHORN VANGUARD WORKING OUT DAILY

Main Body of Football Squad Will Report to Coach Whitaker Today

AUSTIN, Sept. 14.—The actual training of the 1921 football squad of the University of Texas has started with five kickers and two centers on hand. Under the eye of Coach Berry Whitaker the kickers are booting the pigskin all over Clark field. The two centers were on hand to pass to the kickers and at the same time practice passing the ball.

Kickers summoned and on hand for the initial practice were Tom Dennis of Cleburne, tackle and captain; Francis Domingues of Kerrville, fullback; Franklin Stacy, Austin, end; Dave Hemsell, Greenville, half-back; Ivan Robertson, Dallas, halfback. The two centers were F. M. Brally of Denton and J. M. McGee of Corsicana.

September 15 is the date on which the main body of the squad will report. There are about 60 in the aggregation, including 17 "T" men, 19 men from last years' freshman squad and 15 from the Shorthorns or ineligible team of 1920. In all there will be 84 men out who were on the varsity squad last year.

The personnel of the squad is replete with star players, while the majority of them have come across at one time or another with plays of no little brilliance. Captain Tom Dennis leads the crew. It was he who caught Bill Barry's pass over the line in the last quarter of the A. & M. College game at Austin last year, thereby making possible the touchdown that defeated the farmers.

Francis Domingues, plunging fullback, will be on hand. After Dennis had set the pigskin within a few yards of the A. & M. goal line last year it was this big fellow who was called on to tear through the line and set it back to he chalk-mark. He delivered, spoiling wha lookd like a 2 to 0 game for A. & M.

"Rats" Watson and Kyle Elam will come from Orange and Beaumont, respectively. These two men were the generals of last year's eleven, Coach Whitaker substituting one for the other at quarter. Then there comes Bill Barry, halfback and passer de luxe; Dave Pena, tackle, captain of the 1918 varsity eleven; from Missouri, George McCullough, end; Lane Tynes, fullback, and "Bud" McCallum of Austin, halfback. Lee Sens of Cameron, remembered from the 1917 varsity and two letter men, will return to the university and probably to the squad.

Clyde Littlefield brings forth from his freshman squad of last year Dave Hemsell of Greenville, 155-pound halfback; Ivan Robertson of Dallas, 175-pound half; Howard Gilstrap of Granger, 190-pound half; Joe Ward of Fort Worth, 200-opund fullback and 16 others.

Franklin Stacy, already among the kickers, comes from the Shorthorns of last year. Another product of the eminent "Tex" Bryan is F. M. Brally, center, present at the first call. Richard Burns of Houston, tackle, and George Gardere of Marlin, quarter, are others from the Shorthorns who are expected to run with the best of the varsity.

SPORT SHOTS by Paul W. Barkin

Too bad the Spudders and Cats didn't play Tuesday as they did yesterday.

Paul Sentell was in his usual 1921 form. He missed several on both sides though Pate suffered more than anyone. Paul and Joe carried on a rapid fire conversation all afternoon and we looked for the hurler to get the air any moment.

The best one of the matinee occurred, however, when Danny Gross was batting. Paul called a doubtful strike on him that looked inside and Danny turned around and said, "Aw, 'twas inside." Paul tore off his mask and jumped in front of his, yelling, "You get in there and hit." It wasn't what Paul said that tickled the crowd, but the manner in which he said it and the person to whom it was said. Don't get hurt, Paul.

The arbiter even argued with the fans and apparently derived much satisfaction when he called a Spudder out.

Jim Sewell has bone back to Dallas. Benny Allen has left for his home in Meridian, and Jake Miller goes back to play the races in Baltimore today. Sewell will probably take another fling in the box with the Spudders next year, but Allen won't be back. Allen simply finished out the season with the Spudders after his league had closed. He doesn't belong to Salm. Unless the unforeseen happens, Jake will be on deck early next spring.

Jake can hardly wait to get to the track. 'Tis rumored that he didn't have a very successful season last year and failed to pick 'em right. However, he and Jake Ats and a few more had a fanning bee before yesterday's contest, and the Spudder Jake now thinks he has learned a system from the Panther Jake that cannot be beaten. Bill Newell was an interested listener. Bill played the Tijuana track last year, Ats the New Orleans course, and Miller the Maryland circuit.

When the talk reverted to baseball, Umpire Myers horned in with the statement that Memphis wouldn't have a chance with the Cats. He has worked in both leagues and his opinion ought to be worth something. He claims that Fort Worth has the greatest class A club in the country, and he even stated that he thought Fort Worth, Wichita Falls, Houston and Dallas would easily beat the four first division clubs in any class A circuit. He claims that the fastest class A ball is played in the Roberts loop.

"Jumbo" Ramsey's work was fully appreciated by the handful of fans who journeyed to the park yesterday. He pitched just as hard as though the stands were packed and as if a championship hung in the balance. He has worked that way ever since joining the Salm clan. Here's hoping he'll be here next spring instead of mid-summer.

Another one of those "crooshial serious" opens tomorrow when the Giants invade the Smoky City for a three-day session with the Pirates. A clean sweep for the McGrawmen would just about put them on easy street, while a sweep for the Pirates would even matters up again.

grand prize in each event which will be contested for in elimination contests.

Those who are enthralled by the tripping of the light fantastic were the only ones who had a single disappointment. A municipal dance had been planned for each evening, but the weather put a crimp in the paving work in the city and the would-be dance floor is still piled in huge tiers on the sidewalk. It will be at least ten days before the brick is laid and the streets open for traffic.

The large swimming pool at the fair grounds att ted hundreds of swimmers early Thursday morning.

Seymour and Baylor county are in the midst of the biggest event of years and the people are enjoying it immensely.

SEEK TO AROUSE INTEREST IN OUT OF STATE FAIRS

SEYMOUR, TEXAS, Sept. 15.—Porter A. Whaley of Stamford, manager of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, B. M. Whittiker of Haskell, exhibits manager, and Judge Tom Bledsoe of Abilene, field representative of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, arrived here this morning by motor to visit the big annual fair and rodeo being held here today, Friday and Saturday.

While here they will particularly interest themselves in the promotion of out of state fairs together with the participation by West Texas in sending exhibits to these fairs.

CONFESSED SLAYER FACES HIS MOTHER

In Her Presence Church Repeats Details of the Double Murder

CHICAGO, Sept. 15. — Harvey W. Church, confessed slayer of Bernard Daugherty and Carl Ausmus, automobile salesmen, early today was brought face to face with his mother for the first time since his arrest, and in her presence in the state attorney's office, he repeated the details of the two crimes.

He reverted largely to the first of his many confessions and indicated, officials declared, that he planned and executed the murders without assistance.

Neither Clarence Wilder nor Milton Walker, named by Church as accomplices, officials said they had been convinced, had any part whatever in the crimes, and they also expressed doubt whether Leon Parks assisted Church, despite a detailed confession made by Parks.

Officials pointed out that Parks stoutly maintained his innocence until confronted by Church, who then supplied mos. of the answers to questions put to Parks by the investigators.

Mrs. Church, who collapsed when informed of Church's first confession several days ago, sat apparently unmoved today throughout her son's recital of the details of the murders. At the close of his story she shook her head when asked if she had anything to say. Later she remarked:

"I cannot understand why Harvey buried the man (Carl Ausmus) in the garage. There is a vacant lot next door where all the dead cats and dogs in the neighborhood are buried. Why didn't he bury him there? Then they never would have found him."

Church, in his first confession, said he alone lured Daugherty and Ausmus to hi: home, killed them and disposed of the bodies to obtain possession of an automobile. Later he said he had an accomplice and still later asserted he had two accomplices.

PERMANENT POLICY TO COMBAT UNEMPLOYMENT PURPOSE OF CONFERENCE

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—Inauguration of a permanent policy to combat unemployment throughout the country in future years, was said authoritatively today to be one of the purposes of the administration in assembling in Washington a national conference on unemployment.

Primarily, the administration is understood to be anxious to meet immediate unemployment needs and avert any hardship from that source during the coming winter, but beyond the remedy of the moment, it was asserted, the administration would look to the conference to develop a constructive program which could be followed in the succeeding years.

Exide BATTERIES

The First Automobile Starting Battery

Not so long ago all automobiles were cranked by hand. The year 1911 saw the first car regularly furnished with electric starting and lighting equipment. It had an Exide Battery. Today millions of cars are Exide-equipped.

Not so long ago farms were lighted by kerosene lamps—dim and dangerous. And farm work, like pumping, churning, washing, was done by human hands. Now thousands of farms have the modern comfort and economy of electric light and power—and most of such plants have Exide Batteries.

The first automobile battery was made possible, and the successful farm lighting battery was made possible, through the experience of the manufacturers of Exide in building batteries for every industrial and government purpose since the beginning of the storage battery business.

The result of this experience is a battery for your car that gives the maximum combination of power, reliability, and long life.

Nearby there is an Exide Service Station that can be useful to you.

SEYMOUR TRIPPERS LEAVE EARLY FRIDAY, BIG CROWD EXPECTED

A delegation of several score Wichitans will leave at 8 o'clock Friday morning as this city's official representation at the Baylor county fair, which opened Thursday.

The cars will form at the Chamber of Commerce offices, and will proceed as soon as all have reported. It is expected to reach Seymour by 11 a. m. or earlier. The return trip will be made late in the day.

Every Wichitan who wants to go is promised a seat in one of the cars, and while a large number of autoists have promised to take their cars, more will be cordially welcomed, Secretary Chatham of the Chamber of Commerce said Thursday. He urged that everyone desiring to make the trip do so, regardless of whether anybody has personally invited him or not.

ACTIVITY IN COTTON DOES NOT CREATE DEMAND FOR TONNAGE AT BRITISH PORTS

LONDON, Sept. 15.—The London Times, in its financial note, says that although considerable buying of cotton has lately been reported from the United States, there has been no corresponding activity here in freights, as is usual at this time of year, adding:

"Before the year, the chartering of British steamers for whole cargoes of cotton would have proceeded daily at London during September. This year there appears as yet no sign of such business. The demand for tonnage to load cotton was one of the factors to which ship brokers were accustomed to look before the war for the usual autumn revival in freight markets."

The Times explains that to some extent this absence of chartering is undoubtedly accounted for by the loading at gulf ports of many American steamers for Europe with general cargoes.

MEETING MONDAY TO CONSIDER NEW PLAN FOR FALL ACTIVITIES

Plans for further trade extension activities this fall and winter will be considered Monday morning at 10 o'clock, at a meeting of Chamber of Commerce directors, Merchants' association directors, and members of the trade extension committee. A call for the meeting was issued Thursday morning, following a meeting of the merchants' trade extension committee, which discussed plans for the Seymour trip to be made Friday.

Arrangements for the Seymour trip were completed at the meeting, and it was indicated that a large representation would make the visit to the fair Friday.

Activities later in the fall may take the form of a "stunt" of some kind, to be held in this city, or may consist of additional trips to points in this section. A decision as to the plan will probably be reached at Monday's meeting.

IMMIGRATION PROBLEMS WILL NOT BE INCLUDED IN CONFERENCE AGENDA

By Associated Press.

TOKIO, Sept. 15.—Belief that immigration problems will not be included in the agenda of the conference on the limitation of armaments and far eastern questions at Washington, is held in this city. It is declared this question will not be discussed because both Japan and the United States hope for a direct settlement. It is understood the note from Washington regarding the agenda did not mention immigration, and it is believed Japan will not insist upon its inclusion.

The Nichi Shimbun said yesterday that this was the feature of the present diplomatic situation, and added that negotiations regarding immigration would be pushed later when a favorable opportunity was presented.

ORDER AN INVESTIGATION OF REFINERY EXPLOSION

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 15.—Investigation of the explosion and fire yesterday at the Point Breeze plant of the Atlantic Refining company, which resulted in the death of 11 workmen and the injury of a score of them, was ordered today by Director Cortelyou of the department of public safety. Several injured are in a serious condition and additional deaths are expected momentarily by hospital physicians.

It was the second serious fire at the plant within a month. In the first blaze, five persons lost their lives and damage to property was estimated at $1,500,000. The financial loss yesterday was comparatively small.

Yesterday's fire is believed by officials of the company to have been caused by a loose connection in a tube leading from a naptha still to a nearby vat.

TIMES DAILY MARKETS

COTTON MARKET.

New York Cotton.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—The easier ruling of Liverpool and a favorable early weather map led to realizing, while there was also considerable southern selling in the cotton market at the opening today. First prices were barely steady at a decline of 37 to 47 points in consequence, but there was a good trade demand with fresh buying which absorbed offerings around 19.55 for December and 19.35 for January, with prices later showing rallies of 15 to 20 points with a less active spot demand, but a good off-take in futures.

A denial of the rumored condition report of 40 was followed by increased Wall street selling during the early afternoon and stop orders were uncovered on the decline to 19.48 for December, or about 62 points net lower. This brought increased covering with the market showing rallies of 12 to 14 points around 2 o'clock when business was very quiet.

Trading was less active than recently, but the market showed a generally steady undertone later, with December working up to 19.91, or within 19 points of last night's closing. There was probably some buying on rumors that a private mid-month report made the condition of the crop only 40 compared with 49.3 at the end of last month. This failed to inspire any general activity, however, and the market was almost dull early in the noon hour with prices a few points off from the best.

The cotton market closed weak.

New Orleans Cotton.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 15.—Under the efforts of poor Liverpool trading, the cotton market made wide declines in the early trading today, falling off 54 to 74 points in the first hour of the session, which sent October down to 19.04 and March to 18.73. Much liquidation came from the long side and more or less short selling was felt as the result of favorable weather conditions over the belt.

A private bureau report on condition, indicating a crop of 6,500,000 bales, made for a steadier feeling and in the trading up to 11 o'clock prices came back to within 21 to 23 points of yesterday's close. October recovered to 19.39.

The recovery was sustained for a while and until prices were within 18 to 21 points of yesterday's close but toward the close offerings increased and the market softened again. In the last few minutes of trading prices showed net losses of 45 to 47 points.

Cotton closed steady at a net decline of 40 to 47 points.

GRAIN AND PRODUCE

CHICAGO, Sept. 15.—Fresh declines in the price of wheat resulted today from rains in Argentina, relieving the drouth in that country. Initial quotations which varied from unchanged figures to 1c lower with December $1.30 to $1.30½ and May $1.34 to $1.34½, were followed by slight rallies and then by a moderate downturn all around.

Subsequently, new breaks in foreign exchange rates counted as a bearish influence and so too did slowness of export demand. The market closed unsteady, 1½ to 2½c net lower, with December $1.28½ to $1.28⅞ and May $1.33 to $1.33½.

Corn, after opening ½@¾c off to a shade advance, including December at 54½ to 55c, underwent a general sag.

In the later dealings rallies failed to hold. The market closed weak, 1c@1¼c to 1c lower, with December 53½@53⅝c.

Oats started ¼ to ⅜c down, December 39½c and later showed a decided setback.

Provisions had no aggressive support.

LIVESTOCK

Fort Worth Livestock

FOET WORTH, Sept. 15.—Everything in the cattle division had to sell on a lower basis today and the movement scaleward was decidedly draggy. Receipts were estimated to reach 1,500 head of cattle and 3,000 calves. Steers lost 15 to 25 cents, the decline on cows, heifers and yearlings amounted to 15 to 25c and the calf trade was sticky at a drop of at least 50 cents. The general trade was the poorest of the four day period, nothing seeming to be wanted.

With the exception of one car, which sold higher to an order buyer at $8.20, nothing very desirable was on offer out of a supply of 1,200 hogs, quality average being poor. The general market was steady. The packer top was $8.00 and bulk sales ranged from $7.25 to $7.75. Pigs sold generally 25c lower. Most sales were around $6.25 to $6.50, but outside buyers took over a few butcher pigs around $6.75.

In the sheep house receipts were close to 1,000 head. The early supply of 500 head ran exclusively to stocker lambs, and the market was dull. Quotations:

Cattle—Beeves $3.00@5.75; stockers $3.00@4.75; cows $2.50@4.50; canners $1.50@2.25; heifers $3.00@6.25; yearlings $3.25@6.50; bulls $1.50@2.75; calves 2.00@6.75.

Kansas City Livestock

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 15.—Cattle, receipts 4,000 head; beef steers, stock and bulls mostly steady to strong; some sales 15@25c higher; top steers $9.75; other sales $4.75@7.75; most grass heifers $4.00@5.50; bulk cows $3.50@4.50; bulls $3.50@4.00; heavy calves 25@50c lower; sales $5.00@6.00; best vealers $9.50@10.00; canners $2.00@2.25; stockers $5.00@5.50; feeders $5.00@5.75.

Hogs, receipts 4,000 head; generally steady to 10c higher; bulk good and choice, lights and mediums $8.00@8.15; top $8.25; bulk $7.25@8.15; stock pigs $7.75@8.00.

Sheep, receipts 3,000 head; killing classes generally steady; ewes $4.60; yearling wethers $6.00; no choice lambs offered.

NEW YORK STOCKS

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—Shorts were active at the opening of today's stock market, directing their efforts mainly towards oils, equipments, motors and coppers. Mexican Petroleum, Shell Transport and Royal Dutch fell 1 to 1½ points; Baldwin, Pullman, Harvester and Studebaker averaged 1 point declines. Anaconda, Utah, American Smelting sustained fractional losses with American Car and Westinghouse Electric. Offsetting features included United Drug, American Linseed, General Asphalt, Central Leather and Sumatra Tobacco, these gaining large fractions to 2½ points.

Call money eased to 4½ per cent at midday, but steels, American Locomotive, Mercantile Marine preferred, United Fruit and some of the investment rails reflected further pressure. Baldwin extended its early rise, however, and Pullman, Sears-Roebuck and sugars strengthened.

The closing was heavy. Sales approximated 600,000 shares.

HELD FOR CHICAGO CRIME

Chicago police say they have the confession of Harvey W. Church (above), 20-year-old youth, of Adams, Wis., to the murder of Carl Asmmus (below) and B. J. Daugherty, automobile salesmen. Church is said to have told police he clubbed both men to death, dumping one into the Des Plaines river and burying the other in a garage, and went off with the $5,400 automobile he was going to buy from them.

Base Burner Anthracite

We are now able to take care of a limited amount of orders for Colorado Baseburner Anthracite coal. We will have one car ready to begin unloading on Friday morning and ask those who have not already placed their orders to do so at once as the car will be unloaded direct from the car.

This will probably be the only car of hard coal we will receive this season and orders should be placed not later than Saturday.

LEGAL NOTICES.

NOTICE IN BANKRUPTCY.
In the district court of the United States for the northern district of Texas. In the matter of Beebe and Brown, a partnership, bankrupt. No. 75. In Bankruptcy. First Meeting of Creditors. Office of Referee, Wichita Falls, Texas, Sept. 14, 1921. To the creditors of Beebe and Brown of Burkburnett and Wichita Falls and district aforesaid, a bankrupt: Notice is hereby given that on the 12th day of September A. D. 1921 said Beebe and Brown was duly adjudicated bankrupt and that the first meeting of the creditors of the bankrupt will be held at my office in the city of Wichita Falls, Texas, on the 28th day of September A. D. 1921 at nine o'clock in the forenoon, at which time the said creditors may attend, prove their claims, appoint a trustee, examine the bankrupt and transact such business as may properly come before said meeting. Thelbert Martin, Referee in Bankruptcy.
Sept. 15

CITATION BY PUBLICATION
The State of Texas to the Sheriff or any Constable of Wichita County, Greeting: You are hereby commanded to summon George Tatum by making publication of this citation once each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county, to appear at the next regular term of the 89th District Court of Wichita county to be holden at the courthouse thereof in Wichita Falls, on the 1st Monday in October, A. D., 1921, the same being the 3rd day of October, A. D., 1921, then and there to answer a petition filed in said court on the 12th day of September, A. D., 1921, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said court No. 11555-C wherein, Corene Tatum is plaintiff and George Tatum is defendant and said petition alleging: That plaintiff and defendant were legally married Jan. 28, 1921; that about 20 or 30 days after the plaintiff and defendant were married the plaintiff contracted from the defendant a venereal disease, which was very cruel on the part of the defendant and grievous to the plaintiff as plaintiff thought she was marrying a moral and upright man. That about the month of June the plaintiff was in such a condition that it became necessary for her to have an operation and the defendant took her to Tulsa, Okla., to a physician friend of his who performed the operation upon her, and before she was able to sit up as much as a day at a time the defendant tried to get her to promise to have illicit relations with other men than himself for the purpose of acquiring money to defray their current expenses, and upon her refusal so to do, on the 9th day of July, 1921, the defendant while the plaintiff was in the office of the attending physician, gathered up all of the clothing belonging to the plaintiff and defendant and left for parts unknown. Wherefore, plaintiff prays that she be granted a decree of divorce and that each of the parties hereto be restored to all the rights and privileges of single and unmarried persons. Herein fail not, but have before said court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ with your return thereon showing how you have executed the same. Given under my hand and the seal of said court, at office in Wichita Falls, Texas, this the 12th day of September, A. D., 1921. A. F. Kerr, Clerk District Court, Wichita County, Texas. By Eunice Jackson, Deputy.
Sept. 15, 22, 29, Oct. 6.

OPPORTUNITY
HERE'S YOUR CHANCE TO GET A HOME

We are cutting up an 8,000-acre ranch into frams, and are putting it on the market so a poor man can own a home.

Located in Hockley County, Texas, one of the best farming counties on the plains, 14 miles from railroad at Littlefield, a nice little town on the Santa Fe Railroad, and about 10 miles northwest of Hockley City, the county site.

Description—99 per cent tillable, soil dark red loam, very rich, works easy, pure sparkling water at shallow depth.

Will sell you one or more tracts of 147 acres each for $21.00 per acre; $2.00 per acre cash and the balance 35 years time at low rate of interest. If you are looking for a home it will pay you to investigate.

We leave Lubbock for these lands Tuesday and Friday at 8:00 o'clock each week. Notify us when to expect you.

COTTON PICKING IS IN FULL BLAST IN SEYMOUR TERRITORY

SEYMOUR, TEXAS, Sept. 15.—Cotton picking is in full blast in the Seymour territory and the gins are running full time. It is thought by the farmers of this section that the cotton will average about one-third of a bale per acre. Some of course will make considerably more but other crops will fall short.

The McNeill Gin Co. of Seymour has ginned above 400 bales and the Farmers Gin Co. is running a close second. O. Y. Waters, public weigher of Baylor county, has weighed up to the present 925 bales of cotton. He weighed his first bale this season on August 10 and he began weighing last year on September 7.

His receipts are running above 100 bales per day now and are increasing daily while the weather is good. Mr. Watson carried over from last season's crop 214 bales in the yard, and by turning often and watching closely it is in fair marketable condition.

The receipts for last year's crop were 12,244 bales and Mr. Watson reports very little cotton weighed at his yard that grew outside Baylor county. He reports the grade of cotton this year as good as he ever saw in west Texas, but says the staple is very short. The crop is not opening up regularly as usual. Some farmers have made good headway with their picking while others have not begun. The writer has talked with some farmers who have out more than ten bales in different sections around town, while others are waiting for their cotton to open.

The cotton acreage is cut at least 30 per cent, according to the statements of the farmers from all sections of Baylor county.

The feed crop was never better and is being harvested in good shape and very little is being placed on the market at this time.

MARY HIGHSMITH, FIRST YOUNG LADY TO WIN BICYCLE

Miss Mary Highsmith, age 11, living at 820½ Ohio street, is the first young lady to win a Ranger bicycle, "Superbe," model for turning in thirty-five new subscribers to The Times. Mary was determined to have one of the Rangers the first time she saw one on display at The Times office, and she never let up until she had turned in the necessary number of subscriptions.

There are several other young ladies who will be returned winners in the next few days.

The boys also are very active, the latest one to be rewarded with a Ranger "Motorbike" model being Clyde Barrett, 13, living at 407 Scott. Clyde believes in the adage, "Nothing succeeds like success," as he kept plugging away until he had secured thirty-five new readers to The Times, and is now one of the "Ranger riders."

EVANGELIST TELLS WHAT IS NEEDED IF REVIVAL HERE IS TO MEET SUCCESS

Taking his lesson and text from the first chapter of Nehemiah, and preaching on the need of a revival, Evangelist Ireland detailed, on Wednesday night, the story of how Nehemiah heard of the run down condition of Jerusalem, burdened his heart to return to his native city and rebuild the walls of the city, and of how he got the king's permission and went back and rebuilt the walls of his beloved city.

The preacher detailed the way that a real revival must come to this city, showing that the people must have a will to work for the good of the kingdom, and that an honest confession of the soul must precede every great work of God.

"The good of the world depends upon the salvation of its young men and women and the fate of immortal souls depends upon this revival. We should burden our hearts to see that any of our beloved ones that are not saved now are saved while an opportunity is presented in this meeting, as all our prayers are an empty sound and clanging cymbal unless we bring someone to Christ. When Christ was upon earth men tore off the shingles from the roof to let sick men get to Christ for the purpose of being healed, and we ought to be able to work to save our loved ones in this meeting. To have a great revival we must get on fire to save our friends. Many people are 'has-beens' for God, since they were once active in His work, and should get back into His service. The Bible says, 'He that converteth a sinner from the way of his error has snatched a soul from death.' People predicted catastrophe and failure for Nehemiah when he started his work of reconstruction and the devil always attends church and tries to break up revival meetings. We should make it harder for the devil to get hold of our boys and girls.

"When the battle came on Nelson charged his men that England expects every man to do his duty, and just so, God expects every man to do his duty today in saving souls, as it takes personal work to save sinners. There are lawyers, doctors, oil men and other influential men in this city that do not know God and they will never be saved if we do not give up some of our pleasures and get to work to help save them."

VERNON TO ENTERTAIN HIGHWAY ASSOCIATION OFFICIALS ON FRIDAY

VERNON, TEXAS, Sept. 15.—Officials of the Colorado-to-Gulf Highway association will be in Vernon Friday, September 16, for the purpose of setting before those locally interested in their work the plans of the association for the coming year. The party will arrive here at 4 p. m. and will remain all night.

According to plans announced by the Vernon chamber of commerce, a meeting will be called as soon as the highway officials arrive. This will be held in the chamber rooms and everyone is invited. Besides discoursing on plans of the association in regard to its highway work, the speakers will also explain publicity plans for the coming year.

After the meeting the party will be taken to Hill Crest Country club for entertainment. C. H. Walker, president of the association, is one of those making the trip.

MANY MORE WOMEN WOULD TESTIFY

San Antonio, Texas:—"For a long time I had suffered with a weakness that was brought on by over-work and worry. Though this I became all run-down and extremely nervous. I had scarcely any strength left—the least exertion I would be all in. I was a physical wreck when I began taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and it was very quick in building me up in health and strength and I was so much better after taking this medicine that I feel I can safely recommend it to others."—Mrs. N. A. Briggs, 1415 Buena Vista Street.

Guess how many Bristles in this Brush ?

And win enough DEVOE Velour Finish to mottletone any room in your home

EVERYONE in town is entitled to one guess in each daily contest to be held on the dates noted below.

The person who comes closest and who is present in our store when the contest is decided (which will be daily at 5.30) will be given enough Velour Finish to Mottletone any room in his or her home.

The actual contest brush will be displayed in the window of our store on the dates noted below.

The number of bristles is known to only one person, the traveling Mottletone demonstrator. Come in each of these days and fill out your contest slip.

Mottletoneing gives beautiful effects of color and texture that only the wealthiest homes could afford in the past.

It can now be done easily and economically over plaster, burlap or wallpaper with Devoe Velour Finish merely touched here and there with a handful of ordinary wrapping paper.

Come in and do a square of Mottletoneing yourself during the dates noted. A factory expert will be present to explain all details.
