Pair Of Little News Items Gladden Trembling Hearts

By INEZ ROBB

In the best-of-all-possible worlds, two recent news items have gladdened my trembling heart.

First off, out in Bangkok, where he paused on a world tour, W. Somerset Maugham on the eve of his 86th birthday anniversary flatly predicted that within 200 to 300 years "English will be the universal language spoken all over the world."

Well, hurrah for our side! Will Maugham has given me the best rebuttal yet to those people who keep rushing up and insisting on repeating to me the 1960 definition of an optimist and a pessimist — the optimist is studying Russian; the pessimist, Chinese.

I don't know what Mr. Maugham bases his prediction. But he is such a wise old operator that I have just burned my Russian grammar.

And the second item that has reassured me that everything is for the best in this best of pre-conceived, prepackaged and pre-digested worlds is the announcement that "certified good taste" now comes prepackaged and pre-digested.

These certified ladies for a certified nominal fee are now available to advise the manufacturers of consumer goods, from automobiles to apparel, as to whether their products meet the rarefied requirements of certified good taste, or merely stink.

Let girls behind a banner reading "Excuse me" have organized themselves into the American Institute of Approval, Inc., a lodge name suggestively of modesty and authority. A manufacturer, for example, who doesn't know whether to put more chrome on tail fins, brings his problems to these modern vestal virgins. And, for a certified fee, they tell him how much chrome on tail fins constitutes gracious living. And that's that.

This is enlightened plan to give Americans prepackaged, certified good taste is the brainchild of Lady Douglas-Hamilton, an American woman who, when she went abroad to live, was shocked by the crudeness of the taste of the criticism of American manufactured products as well as not in certified good taste.

She felt keenly that something should be done about the whole sad ungracious matter. Her solution is the institute. And how were the vestal virgins of industry chosen? Well, on Lady Douglas-Hamilton's original theory that if you choose people who have led cultivated and gracious lives, their opinions are about the best you can find.

Not opinions on HOW things should be manufactured, of course, but HOW they should look for gracious living. The girls are chosen, for instance, to help a fellow in saucer pans, say who's racking his brains as to a problem that's too big for him, like copper-bottom pans more gracious than stainless steel. These certified ladies can settle his uncertified nash in a wink for a certified fee.

Or take a guy in rags who can't figure whether fake autos or fake Persians is more gracious this season. So he takes his problem to the vestal. And he gets the right answer before he can say "Take Návajo." Saves him a fortune, makes one for less girls, and spreads certified culture and good taste across the country like

DeGaulle, Ike Have One Similar Trait

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON, AP — President Charles de Gaulle and President Eisenhower have in common a remarkable quality which has served them well in critical moments. It is restraint.

With great calmness and self-control, De Gaulle has just smashed the greatest threat to his presidency and the continued existence of the French Republic. The revolt in Algiers.

Eisenhower, without fireworks and practically without raising his voice, has handled one crisis and peril after another during his seven years in the White House.

Where do they get this quality of restraint? There are several factors, of course. For instance, their individual characters and philosophies; the fact that both grew up in a Democratic tradition. But there seem to be others.

Perhaps, because both had gained so much self-assurance as military leaders, neither felt it necessary to prove his strength or toughness by belligerency when faced with crises in their political careers. They had become used to crises.

Unlike politicians whose prestige was derived from their office, Eisenhower and De Gaulle had built up a huge backlog of public

Housewife Freer Than Most Stars

NEW YORK AP — Ever yearn for the glamorous life of a Broadway star?

"Actually, a housewife has more freedom," said Mary Martin. "I don't get to go out anywhere. I've been out exactly three times since last August. And I never get to see anyone except my family and the people I work with. No housewife would put up with a life like that."

The curly-haired, vivacious singer, now starring in the musical "The Sound of Music," has several top roles on Broadway, leads a Spanish existence for only one reason. She feels it enables her to do a better job, and "it's no fun to perform unless you can perform at your peak."

Mary has learned the only way to do that is to stick to a rigorous routine. Every morning she sings while standing on her head. She also does boxing, gloves and plunges into a punching bag with both fists.

"I don't do anything but take care of myself," she remarked. "I eat very carefully. I take vitamins pills, each the size of a football. On matinee days I keep up my strength with honey and cheese. The sugar in the honey gives me quick energy, and the protein in the cheese makes it last."

The most important thing in the world if you want to stay happy is to stay healthy. I used to think everything was mental. But by golly, I've found if you keep your body healthy, you don't have to worry about your mind. It'll be healthy too.

"But it's not a simple thing to stay healthy. You have to use discipline in eating, in drinking — in everything you do. Discipline is a bore, but it pays off."

Mary relaxes by reading — she skimmed through James Michener's big novel "Hawaii" in three nights — painting and doing petit point.

Hoffa Spurs Kennedy Foes

By NORMAN WALKER
WASHINGTON (AP)—President James H. Hoffa of the Teamsters Union is spreading his Sun-Gun strategy in Wisconsin and other states to the presidential aspirations of Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.).

Hoffa is opposed to every member of Congress who voted last year for the new labor control law—he calls it the Kennedy-Landrum-Griffin Act. But Kennedy, a leading candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination, is Hoffa's prime target.

Hoffa's dislike for Kennedy, which he said in an interview is too early to say who the Teamsters Union might favor for president in either party, although he's busy picking and choosing among congressional candidates.

He indicated his special opposition to Kennedy is two-fold. First, he blames Kennedy for the new labor law. Second, the senator's brother, Robert Kennedy, as counsel for the Senate Labor-Management Committee, kept Hoffa uncomfortable busy the equivalent of two months as a witness.

"I just go out and tell the boys (Teamsters members) the truth, that's all—like the problems facing labor that Kennedy must accept responsibility for," Hoffa said.

Two weeks ago Hoffa chartered a plane and flew to Mauston, Wis., an important trucking stop. In a lengthy speech to more than 600 truckers, he blasted Kennedy as a "millionaire playboy brought up by nursemaids." Another Sunday Hoffa took a special plane to

Proxmire Set For 10-Year Engagement

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. William Proxmire (D-Wis.) said today it may take 10 years to win his fight against what he calls one-man rule of the Senate by Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon Johnson (Tex.).

Proxmire said he is encouraged by the "sharply increasing number of senators who want to be counted with us." But he said there is little prospect that Johnson's powers could be curbed soon.

"This will be a very long struggle before we win and by long I mean several years—perhaps 10 years or more (Wisconsin voters willing)," Proxmire said in a newsletter.

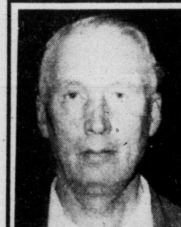

Johnson on Jan. 12 turned back a result against his powers. A closed conference that day of Democratic senators voted down, 11-12, a proposal to strip Johnson of control of the party policy committee, expand the committee's size and direct it to develop an overall policy. Sen. Ralph Yarborough (D-Tex.) was one of the 12 voting against Johnson.

Proxmire did not say how he planned to gain additional support for curbing Johnson's powers. Last year he made several Senate speeches criticizing Johnson. He contended individual Democratic senators had little voice in shaping party policy or in deciding what legislation would be brought up in the Senate.

100,000 Flu Cases Reported In Houston

HOUSTON (AP)—A Houston doctor says an estimated 100,000 residents here have been stricken with influenza since Jan. 1.

Jefferson Davis Hospital reported about 25 per cent of its staff out sick and St. Joseph's Hospital 20 per cent. A Memorial Hospital spokesman said more than 40 per cent of that hospital's out-patients were flu victims.

Hoffa said the Teamsters Union is geared to do its most active political job in 1960. A plan to collect voluntary contributions also have set up a political department in Washington, Hoffa said its function will be confined to mailing out literature, voting records, and extending general Court of Appeals. If he is turned down there, Hoffa said, he will amend.

New Appeal For Chessman

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Caryl Chessman's attorney says he will try to open the way for an appeal of the conviction of a man charged with the death-row detention violates the U.S. Constitution, and the contention Chessman was denied due process of law because he was convicted under a state law, which since has been down there, Hoffa said, he will amend.

seek the same certificate from the U.S. Supreme Court, and "if it is scheduled to be executed Feb. 19."

The application, said Hoffa, is based on two points which a judge termed impressive in a recent ruling: the contention that Chessman's death-row detention violates the U.S. Constitution, and the contention Chessman was denied due process of law because he was convicted under a state law, which since has been down there, Hoffa said, he will amend.

Daily Crude Flow Drops

TULSA (AP)—Declines in Kansas and Oklahoma were the big reasons for a 49,000-barrel drop in daily average production of domestic crude oil to 7,140,900 barrels during the week ended Jan. 30, the Oil and Gas Journal said.

Today, Kansas fell 28,970 barrels to 288,390 and Oklahoma was down 20,300 to 350,300.

The Journal estimated 1960 production at 214,886,240 barrels compared to 214,764,339 a year ago.

Colorado was off 700 to 128,400 and Arkansas off 170 to 80,300. Louisiana was up 150 to 1,071,450. Production was unchanged in Texas at 2,665,000 barrels and New Mexico, 299,400.

BAIZE BOPPED—Lyndon Boize, Snyder Boys Club boxer, seems to have gotten caught "wide open" in his Thursday night bout against Clavis Johnson during the Clavis Regional Golden Gloves Tournament held here this past Thursday, Friday, and Saturday. Boize, a 107-pounder, lost the three-round decision to the New Mexico boy. The Snyder boxers turned in an exceptional job during the bouts, as they topped the team trophy, with 9 of the 12 local participants being awarded individual trophies.

LAREDO (AP)—Dave Sime, holder of the world's 220-yard dash record and co-holder of the 100-yard record, may appear in special sprint events of the Border Olympics here March 4-5.

George O. Jackson, president of the Olympics, contacted the famed Duke flash and asked him about running in special 100 and 220 events against Eddie Southern of Texas, Earl Washington of Maine, Christian and Jimmy Weaver of North Texas State. Jackson said Sime told him he would like to do it but would have to give a definite answer later.

Jackson also had tried to get Bobby Morrow of Abilene Christian, the 1956 Olympics sprint champion, who is co-holder of the world's 100-yard record at 9.3. But Morrow said he had a previous engagement.

Carmen's Managers Are Axed By NBA

By ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The troubles of Johnny DeJohn and Joe Netro, co-managers of Carmen Basilio, multiplied today when they were barred by the National Boxing Assn.

DeJohn and Netro, who piloted Basilio to the world welterweight and middleweight championships in the eight years they handled him, were ejected from New York rings for life by the State Athletic Commission Monday for making payments to an undercover manager.

From his Providence, R.I., headquarters, NBA President Anthony Marconi said his organization will recognize the New York "bait."

"But," he said, "they have the right to present their cases before the NBA's grievance committee. The committee will decide whether to continue to uphold the New York action."

In other developments:

1. Norm Rothchild, Syracuse, N.Y., matchmaker-promoter, who was fined $2,000, also for making payments to an undercover manager, denied that he had done anything wrong.

"I've always felt that way," he added.

2. Basilio refused to hint on his managers, but conceded that he would handle his own affairs henceforth.

"We were together eight years and I can only say I don't want anyone else to handle my affairs," he said.

"Let me add that Joe and Johnny never did a thing to hurt me. They were honest and above board in all their dealings and I have only the highest praise for their abilities."

DeJohn, Netro and Rothchild all admitted they had made payments to Gabe Genovese, who was convicted last June of being an undercover manager of Ludwig Lightburn, British Honduras lightweight. Genovese was sentenced to two years in prison.

Under New York law, it is illegal for unlicensed persons to participate in boxing shows. It also is illegal for a licensed promoter to deal with unlicensed persons in making matches. It was under these laws that the three were found guilty.

Tigerettes Downed By Seminole

In a volleyball tilt run off here last night, Snyder's Tigerettes dropped an overtime heartbreaker to Seminole, 21-19.

The contest was nip and tuck all the way, with the halftime score being deadlocked at 14-14. The score at the end of the regulation time was 20-19 for Seminole, one point shy of the needed two-point spread.

High point for Snyder was Mary Ann Savidge with 6, and she was followed by Helen Iverson, who contributed 5. Anita Thompson was high server, and also had 4 points to her credit.

Snyder also dropped the "B" game to Seminole.

The Tigerettes and "B" team are slated for action in the Odessa Tournament of this coming weekend. The "A" team's initial activity will pit them against Sonora at 6 o'clock Thursday evening, while the "B" team takes on Odessa Friday morning at 10-11.

Blue Devils Whip C-City

Tors Hog 3-3A Stats; McKay Is Top Scorer

Games of this past Friday marked the halfway point in the District 3-AAA chase, as each member team has played four games and has that many to go in order to complete the slate.

Lamesa's Golden Tornadoes continue to roll along unchecked, having completely dominated first half play with an unblemished 4-0 record. In fact the Tors have been extended in only one district contest, it being the opener against Sweetwater, which the Lamesas copied by a 56-51 score. Since then, they have run roughshod over Snyder 74-41, Lake View 91-49, and Colorado City 54-37.

Snyder's Tigers jumped into the win column this past Friday with a 75-60 victory over Lake View. Prior to that time the Bengals had been upended by Colorado City 62-46, Sweetwater 45-72, and Lamesa 41-74.

In the category of individual scoring, Colorado City's Jerry Haley holds a commanding lead with 106 points, which tallies out to be a 26.2 point per game average. Last week's Lamesa game found him dropping below 28 points per district encounter for the first time, as the Tornadoes held him to a 162-46.

Jack Spikes Appreciation tickets remain on sale, and may be bought up until Thursday noon at the Chamber of Commerce office, Bennett's Office Supply, Texas Electric Service Co., and Thompson's Shoe Store. All Quarterback Club members also have tickets available.

The tickets will enable the holder to a barbecue supper, along with a top-flight program to be shown in Spikes' movie.

A film, "TCU Highlights", will be held, it being a movie having to do with the recent grid seasons of that school. Also, word was received here yesterday that the Right scheduled to return to Fort Worth immediately following the program.

At least one chartered plane will bring a group of Frog Club members to Snyder for the event, with the flight scheduled to return to Fort Worth immediately following the program.

Lincoln Will Test Big Spring Tonight

Lipscomb High's Trojans and Trojannettes will test Big Spring tonight in a cage doubleheader.

The Trojans have clashed with the Big Springers on two occasions thus far this season, with the locals losing both games by scores of 68-33 and 64-52. Lincoln's record for the year is 9-8.

The Trojannettes (5-4) have also encountered Big Spring twice, and have yet to down that settler. The local girls were wallpied by 41-3 in their initial meeting and have since absorbed a 33-17 defeat at their hands.

Ex-Champ Favored In Harlingen Golf

HARLINGEN (AP)—Defending champion David Goldman of Dallas and former champion Bill Powell of Wichita Falls are the tournament favorites of the Life Begins at 40 Golf Tournament that starts today.

Powell shot a 4-under-par 67 Monday to take medalist honors. Goldman, medalist seven times, had a 72.

A trio of top makers paced the Snyder "B" team to victory, with Kenny Welborn leading the onslaught with 40 points. Wayne Key chipping in 9, and Mike Murphy, capping 8. Only other scorer for Snyder was Carl Bailey, who had 3 points.

Wilson of Edison was tops for his team with 8.

Fish Canned By Edison

SAN ANGELO—Snyder's Freshmen tangled with San Angelo Edison here tonight, with the Edisonmen taking a 45-31 triumph. The Snyder loss clipped short a three-game winning streak on the part of that quintet, and gives them a 12-7 record for the season.

In a preliminary encounter the Snyder Freshmen "B" team downed the Edison Bees, 30-21.

The "A" game was closer than the score would indicate, as the local five trailed by only 5 points late in the final quarter.

The bulk of Snyder's scoring was made by Darrell Aldridge and Stuart Long, who made 15 and 12 points, respectively. Danny Colwell had 3 and Pat Lafountain 1 to complete the scoring.

Junior Editors Quiz on ANIMALS

QUESTION: Why do animals change color in the winter?

ANSWER: A wild animal lives in a world of constant danger. There is always another animal who wants to kill him for food. Nature has given most animals a built-in protection against their enemies. The lion is fierce so he can fight back; the deer is swift so he can escape.

Some animals, like certain rabbits, have been given the ability to change their color of their fur so they can blend into their surroundings and an enemy cannot see them. These rabbits are brown in the summer, the same color as the trees in their forest home, and white like snow in the winter.

People have adopted the same principle in changing the color of their clothing to fit the job at hand. Soldiers in World War II wore battle uniforms of mottled green and brown to blend into the background. Hunters wear red so that other hunters will see them and hold their fire.

FOR YOU TO DO: Here is a drawing of two rabbits. One is wearing his summer coat and the other has on his white suit for winter. Color the picture, making the rabbit's summer coat brown, blending into his surroundings.

Honors Set For Kreisler

NEW YORK (AP) — He could make a violin sing, or cry or laugh. He gave the instrument a voice that touched the hearts of millions.

Eritz Kreisler is 88 today, and he has said: guide his violin — but his performances remain a priceless treasure of America's musical heritage.

"Ah, my dear friend, what a joy it was," he says, reminiscing about when the strings responded to his nimble touch.

To show its gratitude, New York City today honors him at a City Hall ceremony where he receives a medal and a scroll.

"It is a career that for a half century made his name and genius almost synonymous with the violin."

But there is no special day dear to his heart.

"I can walk miles if necessary, only they won't let me," he said. "Mostly I listen to the radio and read whatever I can."

Things have changed greatly since he first performed in America in 1888. Then, he says, his question among musical agencies was, "who plays the best Brahms?"

"Now," he said, "they ask, 'Who draws the most?'"

Kreisler's long, slender hands, the fingers that once drew racing magic from the strings and bow are unweakened and unweary.

But he does not attempt to play. He has sold most of his instruments, including his Guarnerius and Stradivarius. He has retained only his favorite Vuillaume, made in 1860.

"I have had many beautiful moments in music," he says.

His first audience was as a boy of 10 in the Vienna Conservatory. His last was in 1950 when at 78 he appeared on a Telephone Hour broadcast.

Kreisler rarely appears in public, never goes out in the evening.

But each weekday noon, his music publisher and longtime friend and manager, Charles Foley, 73, sends a car for him, and the two lunch together at Foley's office, talking over old times.

Of today's violinists, he admires Francesco, Heifetz, Milstein, Stern and has a special regard for Oistrakh. He said Oistrakh "has one quality very few have, my dear friend. He does not play too fast."

"This is very unusual today. We are living in the time of money and power and violence, and above all, speed," he said.

One Man In Home Enough

DALLAS (AP) — Virgil J. Zipper brought his wife and eighth daughter home from the hospital Monday.

There were no boys at home to greet the new arrival.

"I don't want another man around the house," Zipper said. "This way I'm boss."

There are a few problems in having an all-feminine family, Mrs. Zipper, 38, said. Take the matter of names—each girl has two, making 16 names in all.

"I did have a little trouble at the end of the list," she admitted.

Mrs. Zipper doesn't sew and she thinks providing the girls with fetching frocks as they grow older may be a problem.

Mr. and Mrs. Zipper have been married 16 years. He is a contractor.

The all-girl roster includes Dorothy Ann, 15; Sandra Lee, 13; Patricia Carol, 10; Judy Elaine, 7; Connie Darlene, 5; Cindy Marie, 3; Shirley Lynn, 1; and 3-day-old Peggy Jean.

Man Leaves A Surprise

DETROIT (AP) — "When I die," Lewis A. Armstrong once told his friend, "there are going to be some surprises."

Armstrong died Sunday at 71, and his friend, Carl W. Borge, 47, learned Monday of the surprise — a $100,000 gift.

Borge, a steelworker, lived across the street from Armstrong in suburban Wyandotte.

Armstrong was a bachelor and retired shipyard worker. He had inherited property, made investments and lived simply.

He left half his estate to Borge. Another $100,000 was bequeathed to the University of Michigan.

Borge said he had no idea Armstrong had so much money.

"I just don't know what I'll do with it," said Borge. "It's so much. I guess the first thing I'll do is get myself a first-class home workshop."

Borge has a grown son and daughter.

Pennsylvania Continues As U.S. Groundhog Headquarters

QUARRYVILLE, Pa. (AP) — In Pennsylvania's famed haunted town today put aside routine and dignity to spy on a quaint, often cranky little animal supposed to be a weather prophet.

For this is Groundhog Day, and nowhere is the legend of the groundhog's prophetic powers more deeply rooted in folk culture. And nowhere has the groundhog cult been at it for so long and with such astonishing vigor as in Pennsylvania.

At its simplest, groundhoggy means that if the shaggy, rheumy-eyed oracle pops out of hibernation and sees his shadow, winter will last at least six more weeks. If he doesn't see his shadow, then hail shining spring, and fast.

On such barebones thousands of Pennsylvanians, formed into clubs and coteries, have grown a flesh rich in invention, fantasy and friskiness.

At Quarryville, in Lancaster County, heart of the Pennsylvania Dutch country, the Slumbering Groundhog Lodge claims to be the most rugged, zealous and picturesque in the land.

Under the leadership of its hibernating governor, Robert Herr, a pump-maker normally, the lodge brothers turn out at dawn in tall silk hats and long white nightgowns, some on foot, some on horseback, many aboard a train on a four-mile long abandoned railroad taken over for this purpose. They carry sheep-hard's crooks and wear heavy chains and huge golden keys around their necks on their chests.

Behind that facade it is hard to recognize doctors, lawyers, industrialists, bankers, the sober sides of a workaday world.

In Western Pennsylvania, the devotees of Punxsutawney Pete, who for years has forecast weather from famed Gobbler's Knob, deride the Quarryville boys as copy cats.

Felix Adler, Noted Clown, Dies At 62

NEW YORK (AP) — Felix Adler, 62, who tickled five decades of circus audiences by waddling around the rings in a droopy clown's suit followed by onking piglets, died Monday.

Adler, who left the Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey Circus last May after 50 years, died of a heart attack while on operation at St. Clare's Hospital.

It was his second operation since Jan. 15, when he entered the hospital suffering from an ulcer. Liver complications developed.

Adler knew the same gimmicks got laughs year after year, and his life was dedicated to laughter. Children and grownups alike roared when he topped his grotesquely misshapen costume with a tiny umbrella or when the red light glowed in the tip of his make-believe nose.

But his piglets, always the timest creatures he could find, provoked the biggest laughs. He trained them to stand on their hind legs and to prance along with him around the rings. When the pigs outgrew the act, he often gave them away. He loved to hear from people who had adopted his pigs.

Born in Clinton, Iowa, he was only 8 when a circus came to town. He fell asleep in the circus train and awoke in Davenport, Iowa, the show's next stop. His family retrieved him, but later he ran away with a troupe of acrobats.

His clumsy attempts at acrobatics brought laughs from the audience, and this is how his clowning started.

Adler is survived by his wife, Amelia, also a circus performer.

Steven Rockefeller Expecting A Baby

NEW YORK (AP) — It's official — Mrs. Steven Rockefeller is expecting a baby.

The word came Monday night from Steven, son of Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, as he waited at Idlewild Airport for his wife, Anne-Marie, to arrive from a visit to her parents' home in Norway.

Asked about the reports that Anne-Marie was expecting, he replied: "Yes, I can confirm it. He decided to say when the child is expected."

Anne-Marie, arriving economy class from London, smiled and said "Thank you" when a report-
