West Envoys Meet Again With Molotov

Secret Session May Be Final One On Berlin

MOSCOW, Sept. 18. (AP)—The Western envoys met Saturday with Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov possibly to receive final Russian word on proposals for settling the Berlin crisis.

The usual secrecy surrounded the session — the 11th in the Kremlin on East-West differences in the past 51 days and the second this week.

U. S. Ambassador Walter Bedell Smith told newsmen after Saturday's talks:

'The three Western envoys had a delightful hour and 30-minute talk with Mr. Molotov. I have no comment."

Smith said he stayed behind at the Kremlin for a five-minute talk with Molotov. He said it was on a "purely Soviet-American matter" but would not divulge its nature.

He would not say whether the meetings were at an end or would be continued.

Special British Envoy Frank Roberts and French Ambassador Yves Chataigneau met with Smith in the U. S. Embassy after the meeting. Then they filed reports to their home governments—the usual procedure.

A meeting last Tuesday was the first with Molotov since Aug. 30 when the four negotiators reached agreement in principle on establishing a Soviet mark as the only currency for Berlin.

Details were passed on to the four military governors in Berlin. The governors conferred seven times, then reported to their governments without reaching any agreement.

The Western envoys were believed to have tried to bring the negotiations to a climax Tuesday. They sought either to reach agreement and refer the entire Berlin and German question to a meeting of the council of foreign ministers in Paris or, failing of agreement, to end the talks for the present.

Israeli Say Stern Leaders Arrested

Authorities Fear A Full-Scale War

TEL AVIV, Israel, Sept. 18. (AP)—The Israeli government announced tonight that its intensive manhunt for the assassins of Count Folke Bernadotte has resulted in the arrest of "some of the supposed leaders of the Stern Gang."

The government has charged the Sternists, a Jewish extremist group, with the slaying of the United Nations mediator and his French aide, Col. Andre Serot, in the Jewish part of Jerusalem yesterday.

Israeli authorities began moving Jewish troops into position in the fear that the shooting down of Bernadotte and Serot might be followed by a full-scale war with the Arabs.

The Israeli announcement said more than 200 arrests have been made in the attempt to comb out the killers. Jerusalem's 90,000 Jewish residents have been placed under virtual house arrest by a curfew order.

House-to-house searches brought 150 arrests in Jerusalem and the seizure of a considerable quantity of arms, the announcement said. Fifty arrests were made in other portions of Israel, including 40 in the Tel Aviv area.

A spokesman said the Israeli Army has invited members of the UN staff who witnessed the assassinations to view a parade of suspects which probably will be held tomorrow.

Jews were called upon to rise and track down the "traitors in our midst" and the "criminal gang responsible" for the slayings. All roads into Jerusalem were closed. No departures were allowed from Israel's airfields and harbors in order to prevent suspects from slipping out of the country.

Meanwhile, high United Nations officials in Haifa disclosed that a recommendation may be sent to the Security Council in Paris calling for the creation of a 6,000-man international army.

Such a force, the informants said, is the minimum now believed to be required for the job of compelling Jews and Arabs to accept the authority of the UN over the Holy City.

They said Bernadotte, in an abortive attempt to persuade the warring sides to demilitarize Jerusalem two months ago, had in mind an international force of 2,500 to 3,000 to garrison Jerusalem. Fierce battles which since have taken place during the "shooting truce" were said to have convinced him before his death that he had greatly underestimated the military pressure which would have to be applied.

One veteran of the UN mission of Palestine said the assassination of Bernadotte may finally open up the eyes of the world powers to the fact that you can't get anywhere in peace efforts here by shooting the opposing sides full of moral holes with resolutions."

WARNS AGAINST GOP BLIGHT

President Tells Corn Belt Demos Fight Farmers' Battle

DEXTER, Iowa, September 18. (AP)— President Truman told a yelling corn belt crowd today the Democrats are fighting the farmers' battle against "gluttons of privilege" threatening agriculture with "another Republican blight."

For their own "protection," Mr. Truman said in a major campaign speech, farmers ought to vote democratic this fall.

The President spoke from a bunting-draped stand in the middle of a trampled alfalfa field, at a national plowing match on a farm near Dexter, Iowa.

It was the first big speech on a 9,500-mile 19-state political stumping tour.

Mr. Truman looked out across acres on acres of rich, rolling land where corn was ripening under a friendly autumn sun.

And he looked at some 80,000 men and women who make their living from the soil, people from many states.

"Your best protection," he told them, "is to elect a democratic congress and a President that will play fair with the farmer — an administration that will reinforce soil conservation, and help the farmer make enough on his crops to meet the cost of living, and have something left over.

"We are planning to aid the farmers of America meet their present problems and avoid catastrophe."

He ticked off what he said the Democrats already have done for farmers — imported living standards, lowered interest, reduced debts.

Lt. David Herrick, area chief of the Iowa Highway Patrol estimated the Dexter crowd at slightly more than 80,000.

Many in the crowd responded with a loud "no" when the President inquired:

"Are you going to let another Republican blight wipe out your prosperity?"

Then he swung on the GOP.

"This Republican Congress," he said, "has already stuck a pitchfork in the farmer's back." Now, he said, the GOP is "ready to let the bottom drop out of farm prices" and the farmer faces the danger of a "man-made disaster bearing the Republican trademark."

Trustees Fix School Tax Rate At $1.50

Tax rate of the Big Spring Independent School district for the current year will be $1.50.

The school board in session Saturday fixed the rate, the maximum allowed under last Tuesday's special election.

Breakdown of the tax rate — amount set aside for sinking fund, operational purposes, etc.—will not be determined until the tax assessment rolls are completed. Work is under way on the rolls now, and it is estimated that the taxable valuation of the district will run close to $19,000,000.

School officials pointed out that the full rate is necessary because of large money refunds that have to be made because of "over-payments" on the voided $1.50 rate of last dear, and because of the necessity of making building repairs and—if possible—planning for additional classroom space.

With double day sessions in effect in practically all lower grades, the need for more rooms is acute, and the board may work toward plans of adding on to elementary schools to the extent that present financing would allow.

The board voted Saturday to make use of a newly-erected Boy Scout hut on the College Heights campus, converting this into a classroom which will house one section of the College Heights fifth grade. There are 56 in the fifth at College Heights now, and the emergency step is being taken to avoid transfers of another double-day session.

Special plumbing, lighting and partition work will be done n the Scout building to adapt it for school use.

Air Force Sets New Air Mark

NEW YORK, Sept. 18. (AP)—The Air Force announced Saturday a new world speed record of 670.981 miles an hour, made with a fully armed standard jet fighter, the North American F-86.

The new mark was set Wednesday. It is 20 miles an hour faster than the record established in August, 1947, by a Navy research plane, the Douglas D-558.

It was the first world speed mark in history for a production model aircraft, ready to fight.

The pilot was Maj. Richard L. Johnson, slender, test flier for the Air Material Command at Wright-Patterson Airbase near Dayton, Ohio. He flew over the course at Muroc Lake, Calif, where the record was raised three times last year.

Lie Demands That Mediator Be Protected

PARIS, Sep. 18. (AP) Secretary-General Trygve Lie today demanded that the United Nations take stern measures to protect the lives of its peace-makers such as Count Folke Bernadotte.

Lie angrily told the Security Council that the assassination of the mediator was "a direct act of attempted interference with the efforts of the UN to settle the Palestine question."

Members of the 11-nation council listened gravely as one delegate after another expressed horror and indignation over the slaying of Bernadotte and his aide, French Col. Andre Serot.

One delegate—Dr. Jose Arce of Argentina, openly accused the newly formed government of Israel of apparently failing to prevent the attack at a time when such an incident was likely to destroy the UN's work for Palestine peace.

'Unders' Barred From Schools

"Unders"—youngsters who had not attained their sixth birthday on or before Sept. 1, 1948—will not be permitted to attend school this year.

Letters were in the mail Saturday to a score of patrons with children between five and six years of age who had started them with the proviso they could not continue if crowded conditions would not permit.

The school board reached a decision which precluded the "unders" after a survey of enrollments. Under state regulation (Texas Public School Standards Bulletin 491, P. 32), accomodation of "unders" is not permitted where "their admission constitutes a crowded condition." This interpreted to mean more than 25 in a first grade class.

"Under no circumstance," continues the bulletin, "shall underage children be allowed to bring a crowded condition for the children of scholastic age. Deviation from the foregoing violates regulations and it may endanger the accredited status of the offending school."

Heretofore, when conditions would permit, under-age children have attended school on a tuition basis.

Meanwhile, enrollment in the schools increased during the past week. The high school had an additional 15 students and elementary schools had around 20 more pupils.

EX-DIPLOMAT SAYS

F. D. R. Didn't Trust State Dept. Code

WASHINGTON, September 18. (AP)— Congressional spy hunters made public today testimony of a former ambassador to Russia that President Roosevelt shared "the general impression" that the State Department secret code during the war was "not secure."

The testimony was given to a one man subcommittee of the House Un-American Activities Committee at Los Angeles last Thursday by Adm. W. H. Standley, retired. He was ambassador to Russia from February 1942 until October 1943.

The subcommittee consisted of Rep. Richard M. Nixon (R-Cal).

Standley testified that President Roosevelt occasionally used the Navy code instead of the State Department code in sending messages to the ambassador because he was concerned over leaks of information.

"It was the general impression," he said, 'that the State Department codes were not secure."

Although the Navy code was used with the knowledge of the State Department, Standley testified, "it was an unusual procedure," and "I felt that it would result in much confusion in regard to the continuity and record for the future."

So he raised the issue with the State Department, Standley said, "and I can not recall just how I received the information back to the effect that the President felt that he could not trust the State Department code. . ."

Briggs Strike Brings Action By Auto Union

By the Associated Press

The CIO United Automobile Workers Union intervened Saturday in an effort to end a strike of plant guards at the Briggs Manufacturing Co. that has made nearly 60,000 automobile workers idle.

Elsewhere on the labor front work stoppages involving 8,000 CIO production workers at two International Harvester Co. plants were called off and CIO stevedores began loading struck Army cargo at Seattle.

These were the developments by industries:

Automotive: The CIO-UAW at Detroit asked Briggs to arbitrate its wage dispute with the 170 striking independent union plant guards. Briggs did not comment, immediately, but President James McGahey of the plant guards union said the company previously rejected an arbitration proposal from government conciliators. The 11-day-old strike has idled workers at Briggs, Chrysler and Packard.

Farm equipment: The CIO United Farm Equipment and Metal Workers Union decided to return to work at Harvester plants in East Moline, Ill., and Louisville, Ky. Some 3,000 workers had been on strike nine weeks at the East Moline in a dispute over job reclassification. The issue will be negotiated. Some 5,000 workers at the Louisville plant had been on a "continuous meeting" for 24 hours to discuss the East Moline strike.

Shipping: As CIO stevedores went to work on Army cargoes in Seattle, the Army sought to reach some agreement for cargoes piled up at San Francisco. The Seattle cargoes are being handled through a firm that reached a contract agreement with the CIO Longshoremen's Union. The Army asked San Francisco firms to bid for handling Army cargo, but the Waterfront Employes' Assn. predicted its members would decline. Meanwhile, the longshore strike has prevented movement of non-military cargoes.

South Is Told To Mend Ways

ATLANTA, Sept. 18. (AP) — An influential group of southerners today told the south the time has come to change its ways, but fast.

The group—the executive committee of the southern regional council—also charged the region's politicians with "grossly" misrepresenting proposed civil rights legislation.

It told the south that States' Rights means states' responsibilities and the rest of the nation was unconvinced that Southern states have exhibited any.

Across the long list of accusations that the South has mistreated Negroes, the committee wrote "guilty."

It told the South to cool its hot head a bit and it told the rest of the nation to withhold its blanket condemnation as productve of little good. It told both to listen to reason.

The southern regional council is a non-political, non-profit organization made up of southern educators, civic leaders, newspapermen, professional men and church leaders of both the white and negro races.

One Man Is Dead In French Riot

GRENOBLE, France, Sept. 18. (AP) One man was killed and 17 others were wounded in fighting with fists, clubs and guns which attended a visit of Gen. Charles de Gaulle here today.

De Gaulle came to Grenoble for a speech in behalf of his Rightist Rally of the French People (RPF), which has been demanding general elections as the answer to France's governmental ills.

Upwards of 20,000 persons had crowded about De Gaulle to hear him when a rival group of several thousand persons, reported led by Communists, interferred.

Gunshots were heard during the skirmish. Most of the fighting was with fists and clubs. Troops were moved in to break up the battle, which swirled around a monument to France's famed Alpine troops, the Blue Devils.

AUSTIN, Sept. 18. (AP) — Drew C. Nichols today announced his withdrawal as a candidate for U. S. Senator on the Progressive Party ticket.

Calhoun Takes Top Demo Job

CORSICANA, Sept. 18. (AP) — John C. Calhoun, Corsicana oil man, said Saturday he is accepting the chairmanship of the state Democratic executive committee.

"I will do all within my power to create harmony and allay any friction that may appear to exist in the party in Texas," Calhoun said.

Calhoun returned to Corsicana Friday following a trip to Austin where he conferred with Gov. Beauford Jester and Vann Kennedy, state Democratic secretary.

The state Democratic convention elected Calhoun to the chairmanship of the executive committee last Tuesday night.

"Since all party officers and a large number of the members of the committee have urged my serving, I've decided to accept this post," Calhoun said Saturday.

Calhoun said he did not know when a meeting of the committee would be called.

AIR FORCE JET DISINTEGRATES BEFORE CROWD BUT PILOT SAFE

DALLAS, Sept. 18. (AP) — An Air Force Thunderjet, hurtling at more than 600 miles an hour, flew apart in full view of thousands of spectators here today, but the pilot parachuted to safety and remarked, "That's a hell of an airplane."

Lt. W. M. Hart, 23, of Walker Air Force Base at Roswell, N. M., floated into Mountain Creek Lake near Hensley Field, where his speed flight was billed as the feature of the Air Force Day celebration here. He was rescued in about two minutes by a Dallas man motorboating with his son.

Hart's only injuries were shock and a slight cut over the right eye.

Hart had just sped his jet past the spectators at an altitude of about 150 feet. When he had flown about half a mile beyond the crowd, he began a shallow climb. He had pulled the plane to about 350 feet when it disintegrated.

The crowd screamed. A few women fainted. Pieces of the silver wreckage whirled through the air.

Then Hart's parachute opened, and the pilot drifted into the lake south of the Hensley Field runways.

Air Force crash crews went into action, but J. W. Fallis, a brick contractor, and his son beat them to the pilot.

"He didn't say anything about what made the plane explode," Fallis said. "He was worried about his eye, but he said he could see all right."

HAS NO DEMO SENATE NOMINEE

Sample Ballot, Unique In History, Sent To Printer By Texas Official

AUSTIN, Sept. 18. (AP) — A 15 by 23 inch sample ballot, unique in Texas political history because it includes no Democratic nominee for U. S. senator, was sent to the state printer today by Secretary of State Paul H. Brown.

Just how long the space intended for the Democratic nominee for senator will remain blank depends on what the courts tell him to do, Brown said.

Brown sent the ballot copy to the printer in that form because he is under a federal court order restraining him from certifying the name of Lyndon B. Johnson as the Democratic nominee. The order was obtained by Coke Stevenson, charging fraud, in U. S. District Court.

A hearing on the restraining order will be held at Fort Worth Tuesday. The judge will rule then on whether or not to continue the order in force pending trial of the case on its merits.

If the judge modifies the order permitting him to certify Johnson, Brown, said it would be a simple matter to notify the printer to fill Johnson's name. If the judge orders a trial of the case on its merits, and continues the injunction in force, Brown said he did not see what else he could do but leave the space vacant until the court finally rules in the case.

In the midst of the confusion and the present uncertainty over whose name would appear in the Democratic column, the best legal sources were unwilling to comment on what might happen as the time for actual preparation of election supplies grows shorter. Absentee voting starts 20 days before the election Nov. 2.

Most lawyers agreed that "anything might happen" and that the courts will probably have the final say. Attorneys for both Stevenson and Johnson were concentrating this week end 'on preparing their cases for presentation to U. S. District Judge T. Whitfield Davidson Tuesday.

Columns are provided for these parties in this order from left to right: Democratic, Republican, States Rights, Prohibition, Progressive, Socialist, Independent, write-in.

Nearly one-half the bottom of the big ballot presents in pellet form the eight constitutional amendments that the last legislature ordered submitted for approval or disapproval.

Joe Pickle

Congratulations of the week are due the high school students who make up the football team and band, together with their instructors. Doped to lose their home opener here Friday, the Steers were plucky rather than lucky in ignoring the odds. They were so painfully inexperienced they didn't know they weren't supposed to win. The band looked sharp in its colorful uniforms, and judging from the size of some of the members, J. W. King ought to really come up with a musical unit in a few years.

GOP Senate Nominee Opposes Truman Civil Rights Program

AUSTIN, Sept. 18. (AP) — H. J. (Jack) Porter, Republican nominee for U. S. senator from Texas, Saturday announced a platform opposing President Truman's civil rights program or weakening of the Taft-Hartley Act.

Porter called for decentralization of the federal government and said he favored 'the eviction from Washington of all left wingers including Harry Truman, Lyndon Johnson, and any others who have been hobnobbing and working with Communist elements and fellow travelers."

The Houston oilman expressed opposition to socialized medicine or the socialization of any other profession or industry.

"I am opposed to federal control of the oil industry or any other industry," Porter said in a prepared statement.

He promised to work for an intelligent approach to the nation's fresh water supply problem and to support an adequate soil conservation program.

"As your senator, I will unalterably oppose the enactment of any of the so-called civil rights program by the national Congress," Porter said, adding that such proposals should be handled by the individual states.

"The FEPC which was conceived in Moscow, Russia, and promulgated and advanced from the lower east side of New York, is the most Communistic and Socialistic piece of legislation that has been proposed during the past sixteen years —a period during which more Communistic and Socialistic legislation has been proposed and enacted than in all the previous history of this nation," Porter continued.

He said he would be opposed to the FEPC "if the entire population of the country were native white American."

"I do not think the government of the United States has any right whatever to tell you whom you can hire or for whom you can work," Porter stated. 'It is contrary to all principles of our Constitution and the bill of rights."

He said he favored the right of workers to organize and maintain unions for the purposes of collective bargaining but opposed "unscrupulous labor leaders trying to treat and handle workers as sheep and tying up the economy of this country with nationwide strikes."

Army Peace Plan Enables Loading Of Coast Ships

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 18. (AP)—CIO stevedores began loading struck essential Army cargo at Seattle Saturday and the Army sought similar handling of Army cargo piled up in San Francisco Bay terminals.

Although the Army was making headway in getting its cargo moved, no settlement of the coastwise maritime strike was in sight for civilian traffic.

Employers stuck by their decision not to deal with Harry Bridges CIO longshoremen until leaders signed non-Communist affidavits.

Movement of essential army cargo in Seattle was being handled under an army "separate peace" contract with the stevedoring firm of Griffiths and Sprague, Col. William H. Donaldson, Jr., Seattle port commander, announced.

Price changes in most other deliveries were erratic with trends mixed. September corn was firm most of the session, buying coming from commission houses.

WEEK'S BUSINESS

Indices Nose Upward Here After Slump

Business indicies nosed upward during the past week.

Trading in real estate set the pace with 22 warranty deeds being filed at the county clerk's office to reflect transactions in the amount of $64,835, one of the biggest weekly figures in several months. This boosted the total for the year to near a million and three quarter dollars, or $1,701,126 to be exact.

Construction, after absorbing its worst week of the year, rallied with 20 permits granted in the amount of $20,665. This brought the year's total to $6,638,042. Most of the projects started during the week were miscellaneous items and small dwelling structures. An impending increase in residential construction is expected to set in soon.

New vehicle sales zoomed, too, for registrations at the county tax collector's office showed 22 new passenger cars listed as compared with 13 for the previous week. Truck deliveries dropped from four to one, but motorcycle sales doubled to reach two and motor scooter deliveries jumped from one to three.

Airmen Escape In B-25 Crash

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 18. (AP) — An Air Force B-25 bomber, flying from Langley Field, Va., to Denver, Colo., crashed and caught fire at Municipal Airport here Saturday. Flames were soon extinguished.

The eight crew members and passengers crawled out and escaped without serious injury. The passengers were enlisted Ground Force men from Fort Eustis near Langley Field. One suffered a slight cut on the back.

The plane was forced to land because its left engine went dead. The engine did not fall out as first reported.

The bomber landed upright north of the extreme north hangar at the airport. Firemen from the field station 400 yards away were soon at the scene.

The plane first attempted to land at Fairfax Field, Kansas City, Kas., after radioing that one engine was dead. It circled the field but could not land against the wind and continued on to the Municipal Airport just across the Missouri River.

Greeks Announce Victory At Mourgana

ATHENS, Sept. 18 (AP)—The Greek Army has announced it has won the battle of the Mourgana pocket and chased the communist defenders across the border into Albania.

A general staff spokesman said last night all organized resistance had ended in the area, except for a small rebel detachment encircled in the center of the sector and a few scattered snipers.

Recently the insurgents had 1,800 men in the area. It was not known how many had been killed and captured in the final phase of the battle.

An open flame heater produces 10½ gallons of water for every 1000 cubic feet of gas burned. That means that you have a built-in rainfall in your home depositing almost two tons of water on your drapes and furnishings every winter, when you heat with an unvented gas heating unit...enough water for a small-sized trout pool.

PAYNEHEAT is vented heat. The flame burns inside steel walls and the fumes and moisture-laden air are carried off by a vent before they can enter your home and become the air you breathe. Your family and your home are protected from excess moisture, safeguarding your possessions and reducing the danger of colds.

Don't wait for a rainy day. Every day is a rainy day in your home as long as your heater is unvented. Order a PAYNE GAS FLOOR FURNACE today . . . it's scientifically vented to give you the finest in home heating.

Research Improves New Kaiser Model

First extensive model change in an American automobile designed since the war is being announced by Kaiser-Frazer Corp. with introduction of the 1949 Kaiser Special and DeLuxe sedans.

The new models will go on display locally Monday at the Big Spring K-F dealer, Medlock Motor company, 600 East Third street.

Edgar F. Kaiser, vice president and general manager, has announced that engineering and tooling costs involved an expenditure of over $10,000,000. He described the 1949 models as representing "far more than the auto industry's traditional 'facelifting'."

"The new cars are the result of constant research in the two years since K-F automobiles were first introduced." Kaiser said. "Since August, 1946, more than 250,000 owners have recorded over two billion miles on our cars. We have put this owner driving experience to work in our engineering departments to develop a better product."

The first of the '49's was produced on August 24, immediately following output of the last 1948 model, he disclosed. Months of tooling and scheduling of parts into the plant were involved in getting the new models on the lines with a minimum loss of production, he said.

The following are cited as the major features of the new cars:

1. An increase from 100 to 112 horsepower in the Kaiser DeLuxe six cylinder engine with no loss of fuel economy.

2. Simplified clutch, steering, accelerator, and brake mechanisms. Fifty-two parts have been eliminated through development of an exclusive K-F clutch linkage.

3. A restyled body with a silhouette three inches lower in appearance than in previous models. A new grille, bumpers, fenders, hood and other body panels are among styling changes.

4. Completely redesigned interiors with new instrument panels and a color-styling program of unprecedented variety in the auto industry.

Candidate Charges Vote Irregularities In Navarro County

CORSICANA, Sept. 18. (AP) — Thirty-six election irregularities in the Precinct Three Navarro County Commissioner's runoff primary Aug. 28 were charged Saturday by B. W. (Wince) Hill of Dawson.

Hill, who lost by 10 votes to incumbent Fred Copeland of Pursley &filed an election contest suit in 13th District Court. He asked that the Dawson boxes be impounded and ordered opened and examined in court.

Hill charged that throughout Precinct Three, 21 persons voted without holding poll tax receipts and that about a dozen were nonresidents. The petition also charged that election officials coerced voters to vote for Copeland when their wish was to support Hill.

THE 1949 KAISER DeLUXE sedan has more than 100 improvements — 72 in styling and 30 in engine and mechanical features. Major developments, many of them based on the more than two billion miles which owners have put on K-F cars, include an increase from 110 to 112 in horsepower. The new K-F models will be shown beginning Monday at Medlock Motor company, local dealer, 600 East third street.

Mule-Snake Fight Is Off

WALNAVE, N. C., Sept. 18. (AP)— A scheduled battle between the "kickingest mule in Stokes County" and a 20-foot boa constrictor is all off by a double default.

The snake Saturday was in a safe hiding place and the mule's owner has joined the Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

Bill Page, owner of a carnival playing here, disclosed Friday his $1,000 boa constrictor would not be risked Saturday night against Moby Dick, styled as the "kickingest" mule in the county.

And Moby Dick's owner, Martin Luther Mitchell disclosed that his mule isn't going to fight anything, much less a boa constrictor. Mitchell added he had been fast-talked out of his mule's services by a friend and the next thing he knew the Moby Dick-boa constrictor match was on.

Clarence E. Stone, Jr., president of the Winston-Salem SPCA, investigated Friday. He said that after talking with Mitchell the mule owner joined the Winston-Salem unit of the SPCA. Stone added that the proposed battle conflicted with state laws on animal baiting.

World Citizen Doesn't Know What To Do

PARIS, Sept. 18 —Gerry Davis, self-styled first world citizen, nabbed by French police yesterday, then freed and told he could stay in France three more months, said today he doesn't know what he will do.

Some 100 police carried the 26-year-old former U. S. Air Force pilot off the international strip where he had been parking on the doorstep of the United Nations since Sunday.

Later they freed him at the police station and told him he could live in France another three months. Previously Davis had refused to accept an extension of his visa.

Davis returned to the unfinished building, where he had been haunting all week, to get his belongings and told newsmen:

"I don't know what I am going to do now. This sudden turn of events leaves me in a position where I'll have to go some place and think."

He indicated he might be going to take up his old stand as a legal resident of France now that he has a three-month visa.

"You probably won't have to look for me," he told a reporter, "You'll know where I am."

WINGS OVER BIG SPRING

Local Pilots See Air Force Show Put On At Goodfellow

Five planes from Big Spring dropped in Saturday on the Air Force day celebration at Goodfellow Field in San Angelo. This probably constituted the biggest single delegation from any city to the big aerial show for San Angelo.

In the group were Jack Cook, accompanied by R. R. McEwen, Jr.; Clyde E. Thomas, Sr.; J. D. Church, accompanied by Bill Low; J. W. McClendon; Arch Roberts accompanied by J. M. (Mule) Kyser. After taking off from the muny port here at 8:40 a. m., the fliers put down at the San Angelo Muny field for breakfast and then hopped over to Goodfellow for the show. They left there at 5 p. m. and were back home 45 minutes later.

For those who have wondered about the big plane which circled Big Spring Saturday, it was a B-36, the Army's tremendous bomber. This giant has six huge motors, all of the pusher type mounted on the rear of the wings, that generate such power that one feels the plane as well as hears it. Beside this mammoth craft, the B-29, the big boy of the last war, looks about like a private plane beside an airliner. The B-36 was circling the key cities of Texas as a part of Air Force day celebration.

• •

Traffic at the Muny continued its sharp upswing during the past week and Jack Cook, Muny manager, estimated that "we have had our best week." He said that Army, Navy and civilian traffic all were steady and heavy. Cook attributed the civilian increase to the general recognition the port is receiving. "They are now finding out about our 24-hour CAA tower service, about complete refuelling and food service facilities, about our air markers and our rating for service in general," he said. "Our interphone system has helped increase military traffic."

• • •

He might well be proud of the showing, for last week the port received the superior rating—highest granted—by the Aircraft Owners & Pilots association. Few qualify for it.

• •

Celebrity of the week at the port was Jack Dempsey, who to many folks will always be the "champ" in heavyweight boxing. Dempsey put down at the Muny port in his Navion, "Stutterin' Sam."

A Navy SN-J was boogered on landing Thursday when the landing gear collapsed. Some of the under gear, a wing tip and the prop were damaged but the pilot escaped uninjured.

The second set of preliminary plans have been completed and most of the agencies seemed well satisfied with provision for them in the new municipal airport terminal. The structure has been changed from a circular design to a conventional rectangular shape. Basically, it will be of a low, ranch-style type stretching 128-feet in length. Airlines, key agencies and others will have office space in the structure. Indications are that this will be the plan agreed upon by all concerned. A good part of the material is on hand from salvage operations.

'Salute To Youth' Gets Underway Today

Big Spring's "Salute To Youth", featuring a full week of special activities for youngsters of all ages, begins officially today with special observance in several churches of the city.

At the East Fourth Street Baptist church, services will be in complete charge of youth. The First Christian church will observe the occasion by awarding a charter to its new Boy Scout troop tonight, and at several other churches pastors will either speak on subjects pertaining to youth or feature young people in other parts of their respective services.

During the coming week, other activities will be conducted. Arrangements were made by a special committee headed by Lee Milling, and several civic groups and other organizations are cooperating.

Beginning Tuesday a radio speakers contest continues for three days, and on the same date younger boys will begin competition in a bicycle race sponsored by the Salvation Army. Entries for the races will be accepted at Salvation Army headquarters.

A ping pong tournament for senior and junior boys will be conducted at the YMCA, and on Thursday evening a doll style show for girls will be held at the Settles hotel under sponsorship of the High Heel Slipper Club. Divisions will be provided for girls under eight years old, girls eight to 12 and for girls 12 to 16. Hours of the display will be from 7 p. m. to 9 p. m.

Boys and girls both will participate in a bicycle parade to be held on Friday by the Boy Scouts, and youth will take over city offices for the day.

Closing feature will be an amateur night performance at the High school gymnasium on Friday night.

General announcements of the planned activities were made Saturday at a pre-salute theatre party held at the Ritz. A program of eight cartoons was presented by the Ritz management for the youngsters.

Troop Six Will Receive Charter

Boy Scout Troop No. 6, a new organization, will receive its charter tonight at a special service at the First Christian Church, which is sponsoring the new unit.

H. D. Norris, assistant Scout executive for the Buffalo Trail Council, will present the charter immediately after the regular evening church services. The church services will begin at 7:30. The Rev. Lloyd Thompson, pastor, will speak on the subject "Be Prepared."

Otto Havins is Scoutmaster for the troop, while Wendal Parks and Maurice Koger are assistants.

The troop committee is composed of Chester Cathey, chairman, Vollie Sorrells, secretary, Duval Wiley, Hansel Douglas and Russell Mougin.

Hospital Managers Can Make Purchases Without Advertising

AUSTIN, Sept. 18. (AP) — A board of managers of a city-county hospital has statutory authority to make purchases and enter into contracts without advertising for bids, the attorney general held in an opinion today.

The opinion was given at the request of Nueces County attorney James C. Marin. Martin's query related to board plans to expend $3,000 for a laundry at Memorial Hospital in Corpus Christi.

The CHIROPRACTOR-and You

This is One Of A Series Of Articles Published In The Public Interest To Explain And Illustrate The Practice Of Chiropractic.

WHAT IS PARALYSIS? Paralysis is a dis-ease which affects muscular tissue, which is the only form of tissue, which, by shortening itself (contracting) is capable of producing movement. For example, an arm or leg moves because muscular tissue contracts. Paralysis is the inability to move . . . therefore, it is the inability of muscular tissue to contract.

Here's a curious fact. If you were to examine microscopically a piece of affected muscle and also a piece of normal muscle, you would find the structure of both to be identical. In other words, in the condition of paralysis, the paralyzed tissue itself reveals no cause of dis-ease. We must look for the cause of paralysis in the mechanism upon which the muscles are dependent for their contraction.

WHY MUSCLES WORK. The Chiropractor knows beyond all doubt that contraction of all muscles in the body is dependent upon one thing only — and that is upon the "messages" or "commands" which are "telegraphed" to the muscles by the brain. For example, we decide to move our hand, and immediately the brain telegraphs this "command" to the muscles and they contract. This is true of the muscles of the legs, the arms, the neck, and even though we may be unconscious of the fact, every muscle, even those of the heart, stomach and intestines, must receive "commands" before they can produce movement.

It is the nervous system over which these "commands" from the brain are carried to the muscles. If for any reason those "commands are unable to travel over the nervous system, the muscles do not contract. For example: if, through some interference with the nervous system, "commands from the brain are not reaching the muscles of the leg, then the leg will be paralyzed.

LOCATING THE CAUSE. The first object of the Chiropractor is to locate that point in the nervous system where there is interference in the flow of "commands" from the brain to the paralyzed part. He knows that there is only one point at which this interference can and does occur — and that is in the spine.

The spine is composed of many movable bony segments. Nerves leading from the brain to each and all parts of the body pass between these segments. When one or more of these bony segments are jolted, pulled or pushed out of their normal position the adjacent nerve fibers are "pinched" and rendered useless to the "nervous system," thus curtailing the flow of vital forces between brain and one or more parts of the body.

For example, if the nerves leading to the muscles of the heart are "pinched," the function of the heart will be affected. Similarly, if the nerves which supply leg muscles are "pinched," paralysis of the leg results, and will remain so as long as there continues to be a point of interference between the brain and the leg muscles.

REMOVING THE CAUSE. The trained and experienced Chiropractor is able to determine the exact point of nerve interference in your spine. And having located it, he has the skill to remove it. By careful and precise adjustment with his hands only, he restores the misplaced segments of the spine to their normal position. This releases the pressure upon the nerves and contact is re-established between the brain and the dis-eased part. Health can be the only possible result.

John A. Smith Has Producer

John Albert Smith, formerly of Big Spring, has brought in a heavy oil producer near Pampa to open a new area of play in the Panhandle.

Smith, partner in the Smith-Nash Oil company, bailed 105 barrels per hour on his No. 1 Jackson for one of the heaviest producers on the area. On one 20 minute run it flowed a like amount. The Smith-Nash company also holds offset acreage, which is in an area once passed up by larger operators because of a dry hole in the vicinity.

According to a reliable source, Smith refused a quarter of a million dollars for the acreage on which the producer is located.

"Thanks to God I got oil," he told friends, openly admitting that "I was broke when we got oil."

For years Smith was an operator of the Smith Bros. Drug store here. He was especially well known in oil and railroad circles.

Rose's Body Is Identified

CAMDEN, Tenn., Sept. 18. (AP)—A body found in a crude grave here Wednesday has been identified as that of George Samuel (Jack) Rose, 30, of Dallas, Sheriff Ray Lewis said Saturday.

Lewis said the dead man's identity was established Friday by the widow, Mrs. Erna Rose, who came here from Texas to aid the three-state police investigation. Mrs. Rose identified a dental plate and clothing as those of her husband, Lewis reported.

The body was found in a shallow grave after Jim Corbett, 33, of Dallas, led Texas, Florida, and Tennessee officers to the spot not far from Kentucky Lake.

The search for Rose's body started after Corbett and Frederick E. Miller, 24, of Syracuse, N. Y., were arrested in Jacksonville, Fla.

Jacksonville police said the two men agreed that Rose had been shot in Texas and brought here and buried, but that each accused the other of the slaying. They have been held on charges of suspicion of murder since the investigation started, Jacksonville police said.

Civil War Vet Celebrates His 101st Birthday

BONHAM, Sept. 18. (AP) — William Haden (Uncle Hade) Whitsett, Bonham's only living Confederate veteran and one of the few remaining in the South, observed his 101st birthday Saturday. No special celebration was planned.

Born in 1847 at Glasgow, Ky., he came to Texas with his parents when he was six years old, settling southeast of Bonham. He enlisted with Shelby's Escort Cavalry and served more than a year. He returned home to complete his schooling at Old Carlton College, where he persuaded "Uncle Charlie" Carlton to allow him to carry his gun to class.

Uncle Hade is still active. Until a few years ago he went daily to the firemen's club room to play dominoes.

Egg Laying Contest Has Seven Entries From Howard County

Seven entries have been listed from Howard county in the Texas Farm & Home egg laying contest.

With the deadline falling over the weekend, the local contest apparently was complete with these entering their flocks: Mrs. B. J. Petty, Mrs. Pearl Cauble, Mrs. C. A. Denton, Mrs. Shirley Fryar, Mrs. Mark Crow, Mrs. Ross Hill and Mrs. Alvin Walker.

Under terms of the contest, which is a statewide event, reports are to be made monthly on the number of eggs produced, the number of hens culled, or which died or were otherwise disposed of during the month. Judging is to be on the basis of eggs per hen, and the factor will be the number of reported hens at the beginning of any month.

Oct. 1 is the starting date and the contest continues through July 31, 1949.

Police Watching For Woman Evictor

Police were on the watch Saturday evening for a man who reportedly had evicted a woman from his automobile and fled with two youngsters aboard.

Information taken by police said that the car bore an Oklahoma license and that the woman had been put out at 3rd and Main at about 6:45 p. m.

Otherwise matters were rather quiet at the station despite general activity over the city. A man had been picked up for drunkenness and shoplifting.

A collision between cars driven by William Van Kirk, Big Spring, and Kenneth B. Land, Abilene, in the 400 block of W 3rd at 4:33 p. m. was investigated.

Former Resident Hurt In Mishap

AMARILLO, Sept. 18. (AP)—Three men were injured, one critically, tonight in the collision of a house moving truck and a car six miles east of Amarillo.

The collision occurred at Pullman road and the Dallas highway. Injured critically was Charles Truitt Eubanks, 25, of Dallas, a salesman for the United Meat company of Kansas City.

Eubanks was suffering from loss of blood from cuts on the face. Attendants at Northwest Texas hospital said he also received possible back and internal injuries. He was alone in the car.

Less seriously hurt were occupants of the truck. They were G. W. James, 28, of Pantex Village, who came to Amarillo a month ago from Big Spring, and Roy Evans of Plainview.

Howard Will Be Well Represented At Meet

Howard county will be represented by two and possibly three members of its 1949 commissioners court when the County Judges and Commissioners Association of Texas convenes its annual session in Fort Worth Monday.

J. Ed Brown, county-judge elect, is to be on hand as will G. E. Gilliam, nominee for second term as commissioner from precinct No. 3. Earl Hull, commissioner and nominee from No. 4 may be able to go but illness and business obligations will prevent Walter Long, No. 4, Pancho Nall, nominee from No. 3, and W. S. Morrison, incumbent judge from attending. The state convention is to continue through Tuesday.

Farm Loan Group Re-Elects Officers At Saturday Meet

Officers were re-elected at the regular annual meeting of the Big Spring National Farm Loan association stockholders Saturday.

At the same time members returned D. F. Bigony, whose term as director expired, for another three-year term.

In turn the board elected Walter Robinson as president, A. J. Stalling as vice-president, and Ira Driver as secretary-treasurer. Other board members were C. H. Cravey and Ed Carpenter.

Driver's annual report reflected assets of $121,000 and accounts on U. S. bonds in excess of the amount of capital stock. Members felt that the liquid condition of the association equipped it to deal with any period of emergency which might arise.

The four railway operating brotherhoods resumed their traditional joint picnic at the city park last week. Scores of new faces were sprinkled in among the old guard, but the same old congeniality and hospitality were around to make the affair appropriately successful.

There's probably no other city in the nation with so large a percentage of its police staff going to college. Capt. E. W. York, Capt. S. H. Shaffer, and Officers L. D. Grice, J. C. Woodard, C. C. Incidentally, Sanders and his wife, who is on night duty at a hospital, have two classes togeter at HCJC.

Big Spring also has a peculiar honor in having two service club district governors. Saturday Doug Orme was named governor for the ABClub district No. 6 (Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas). Schley Riley recently assumed office as governor of Lions district 2-T-2 (far West Texas).

See where Joe Louis, who only a short time ago hung up his gloves with a declaration that he was through fighting, has announced he will fight again. Longhorns Strike Two Quick Blows To Win Over Cisco Loboes, 14-12

Dazzling First-Quarter Offensive Pays Dividends For Stockton's Crew

Starting early on an evening full of surprises, the Big Spring Steers struck two telling blows in the first quarter and held on for a 14-12 triumph over the Cisco Loboes Friday night.

It was a far more successful home opener than local fans had dared hope for, as the Longhorns scrapped their way to a statistical advantage that easily matched the actual score.

The Bovines went ahead before the starting whistle's echo had died away, and a scant six minutes had ticked off before they had their 14 points.

Both home town touchdowns were set up by Cisco fumbles, but the fact did not signify any lack of aggressiveness on the part of the Steers. They pounced upon a free ball in the first half-minute of play to get possession on the Cisco 37-yard line. A dazzling passing attack and a 10-yard run moved to the two, and before the visitors could take stock on the situation, Virgil Roundtree connected with Arless Davis for the touchdown.

Cuin Grigsby converted from placement.

In less time than it takes to tell, the Longhorns were in the end zone again. Roundtree again tossed for the climax, this time hitting Grigsby from two yards out. The stage was set when Cisco fumbled again and the Steers recovered on the 29 yard line. A series of running plays advanced to the 14, and a 12-yard gallop by Donnie Carter paved the way for the score. Grigsby converted again.

It was truly a game of breaks, and the Loboes came in for their share in the second quarter. Roundtree had faded to pass, and as two Loboes closed in, the ball apparently slithered from his hands. Gene Rylee, Lobo rightend, plucked the oval from the air and raced 45 yards for a score. An attempted pass for point was batted down.

The visitors threatened again in the third, driving all the way to the Big Spring six yard line before Roundtree hopped on a fumble to stop the attack, and it was not until the fourth that the Lobo air attack paid off. A drive which originated on the Big Spring 32-yard line brought the final tally when Glen Yates connected with Durward Smith for a 26-yard gainer that carried over the double stripe.

The Longhorns threatened in the final moments but their drive bogged down on the 20 yard line. Davis intercepted a Lobo pass on the 50 and raced to the 33, and then took a lateral and galloped 12 yards around his own right end before the Lobies stiffened to put out the fire. Kimbell Guthrie swiped another Cisco aerial shortly thereafter and moved to the 32.

A penalty stalled proceedings, however, and the final gun found the Longhorns in posession on their own 49.

Offensively the Steer passing game showed definite promise, with both Roundtree and Davis on the throwing end. The same pair also collaborated with Donnie Carter to produce several sparkling ground trusts. In the line, such performance as Bill Van Pelt, Richard Laswell, Grigsby, Guthrie and Fortenberry were standouts.

Russell Johnson, George Watts, and Glen Yates were constant threats in the Cisco secondary, while Durward Smith, Gene Rylee and Norman Boggs looked to advantage on the line.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With TOMMY HART

By WACIL McNAIR
For Tommy Hart

One reason some of Texas' high schools are coming up with such young football players dates back a few years to beginning of the 12-grade system in the state. In making the change from the 11-grade set-up pupils already in school were simply advanced, leaving a sort of no man's class to work its way up the ladder. Football coaches had a solution until the eight-semester rule went into effect. Players could remain over for an extra season and still come under the wire established by the age limit of 19. That gave many boys an opportunity to play an extra season and at the same time it trimmed down the number of 16 and 17 year-olds in the graduating classes. The football coaches contended, and with some justification, that most of the boys were too young to be departing high school anyway, and they seldom had any difficulty in convincing promising candidates and their parents.

The situation will not be cleared up until the "no man's" classes are graduated. The small class this year in the Big Spring school system is the eighth grade, which should indicate that in five years all classes in the high school should be of normal size. By that time however, the eight semester rule will be of absolutely no consequence. A boy who enters school at six minimum age for a recognized scholastic, and then wades through 12 grades will be 18 when he graduates if he makes a grade each year. After he reaches that point, the 19-year limit will automatically prevent him from participating in further competition.

BRONC ESTABLISHED TORRID STRIKEOUT PACE

If Freddy Rodriquez, the personable young righthander, had opened the season with the Broncs, he probably would have led the Longhorn league in strikeouts in a breeze. As it developed, Freddy, who joined the Hosses just before mid-season, wound up fourth in the whiff department. His total of 178 was overshadowed only by Bill Gann of Sweetwater, who fanned 197, Gerald Fahr of Vernon who finished with 191, and Bronc Pancho Perez who retired 185 men on strikes. Pancho saw action in 36 contests, while Gaan and Fahr each worked in 35. Freddy climbed the hill 23 times.

CHANGE IS RUMORED AROUND MIDLAND WIGWAM

A tinkle from the grapevine brings word that a slight shift is brewing. If there was no bad cannection on the vine, Tony Fiarito will be field pilot for the Tribe next season, while Harold Webb will devote all of his time to front office chores and to beating the bushes for talent. A hint of Webb's retirement as field manager was noised about considerably a few weeks ago, but the chubby one denied it here a short time later. Fiarito is the leftfielder the Indians purchased from Lamesa in August. His .410 average was good enough for second place in the West-Texas Mexico League's batting race. The change sent to him into a slump, however, and he wound up with a mere .210 in 16 games with the Tribe.

McMURRY INDIANS HAVE A FULL SQUAD OF TEXANS

Sportswriters and radio announcers should cotton to the McMurry college football team. The 33-man squad is dotted with names such as Sanders, Thorn, Sampson, Day and Collins, and all men on the varsity list are Texans . . . The Vernon Dusters spent their time between games at the Douglass hotel here during the first two playoff encounters at Midland . . . final satistics issued by the league office show that Pat Stasey was not crowded during the last week of play in his batting race. His .389 average was 19 points better than that of Stu Williams who finished second.

HE'S STILL AGILE AT 53

Dempsey Can't Say Much For Current Crop Of Glove Men

Jack Dempsey, the old "Manassa Mauler" himself, has an active brain as well as an athletic physique, as he demonstrated here Saturday afternoon during an interview.

Immediately after arriving here for an appearance as referee for a wrestling match at the Big Spring Athletic Club, Dempsey was ready to make the rounds and chat with anyone interested in discussing sports.

Although record books on boxing say he is 53 years old, the former heavyweight champion still moves about with agility which is the envy of many "practicing" athletes of today. And he can stand flat-footed and describe minute details of boxing matches he figured in more than 25-years ago. Of course he has had occasion to review his ring career time and again, but someone is always remembering some insignificant incident which has escaped previous interviews.

In an unrehearsed radio interview conducted by Bob Lindley, KBST program director, Dempsey left no question unanswered about his opinion of current heavyweight boxers.

"We have only about four or five boys in the game now who can fight even a little bit," he declared. However, he quickly called attention to the fact that he planned to do something about it. Next month he is opening a boxing school in New York City.

Judging from his own comments, Dempsey probably enjoyed a bout in Shelby, Montana as much as any other he ever fought. That was in 1923, and the "Mauler" was matched against Tommy Gibbons.

"Those people in Montana said we broke the banks of Shelby that night," he commented.

As for that famous "long count" with Gene Tunney, Dempsey says he believes he got the best of the deal.

"As it turned out, people all over the country are still convinced that I won, and now it's a cinch that my fans will never be convinced otherwise."

When he took the heavyweight title from Jess Willard, Dempsey narrowly missed winning $10,000 on a side bet. In fact he thought the money was his until he was summoned back to the ring to finish the job. It seems that he had Willard down for the count in the first heat (Willard bit the canvas seven times in that round) and the referee already had lifted Dempsey's hand as the victor. Jack was making plans to collect from an individual with whom he had wagered that Willard would be KO'd in the first.

It developed that the thunderous ovation had drowned out the bell which had sounded on the count of nine, and the KO did not stand. Dempsey came back and finished Willard for keeps in the third.

Brought here for a special appearance at the BSAC by Pat O'Dowdy, local wrestling promoter. Dempsey is heading for a visit to the Boys Ranch near Amarillo. Afterward he will return to New York where plans are shaping up for a benefit program that will feature boxing by Joe Louis. Dempsey and several others, as well as a refereeing debut for Gen. Ike Eisenhower.

Doubleheader Is Booked Today At Steer Park

Two games at Steer park this afternoon will bring baseball back to a prominent spot on the local sports front.

Principals in the two engagements will be four of the strongest independent aggregations in West Texas.

Forsan will entertain Welch in the opener, as those two aggregations resume their playoff series. The Howard county nine won the championship in the Tri - County league, while Welch copped the title in the Cotton Belt Independent loop.

Welch took the open, 5-1, last Sunday in a game played on its home diamond. Bill Brown is scheduled to go to the mound this afternoon as Forsan attempts to square the county. Game time is set for 3 p. m.

The second clash will match the Big Spring Tigers, local Latin-American independent aggregation, and the Marfa Indians. The Indians, who finished on top of the heap in the strong Big Bend semi-pro circuit, were originally scheduled to appear here last Thursday.

The Tiger lineup will include such performers as Gaspar Del Toro, former Big Spring Bronc who played in the Evangeline league this year; John Blanco, former member of the Broncs and the Del Rio Cowboys; and Gerry Rodriquez, who has been nominated for mound duty.

Frogs Outlast Kansas In '48 Opener, 14-13

Fumbles, Blocked Kicks Mar Tilt

LAWRENCE, Kan., Sept. 18. (AP) —A beefy Texas Christian University football team outlasted Kansas' Jayhawks for a 14-to-13 victory Saturday in a game marred by fumbles and blocked kicks.

An estimated 26,000 fans, largest crowd ever to attend a Kansas University home opener, watched the lighter Jayhawks battle the big Horned Frogs furiously before dropping their first regular season loss in 15 games.

The sweltering heat took the edge off offensive play and both teams appeared spent after the first half.

Blocked punts accounted for two touchdowns — one for TCU and one for Kansas—and a fumble set up another marker for the Texans.

The Horned Frogs, after twice being stalled deep in Kansas territory got a break on the last play of the first quarter that set up the first touchdown. Randy Rogers pounced on a Kansas fumble 10 yards from the Jayhawks goal line. Bud French, halfback had dropped a lateral from quarterback Dick Gilman.

It took TCU only four plays t. score after the turn of the quarter. All-Southwest Conference Fullback Pete Stout, cracked through center from the one-yard line. Homer Ludiker's place-kick put the Texans ahead 7 to 0.

Neither team scored in the second period.

Kansas got back in the game three minutes after the second half kickoff. End Dave Schmidt blocked Leon Joslin's punt on the TCU 29-yard line. Hugh Johnson, Kansas tackle, scooped up the ball and sprinted for a touchdown.

Farrest Griffith's attempted placement was wide.

The next blocked punt for a touchdown went to the Texans five minutes later.

TCU held a slight advantage in statistics, making 10 first downs to eight for Kansas and leading in rushing yardage 148 yards to 144. Kansas gained 83 yards passing, TCU 74.

Griffith, chiefly because of his 67-yard sprint, led the rushers with an 8.7 average in nine plays.

Fumbles proved costly for the Kansans who were able to recover only one of six bobbles, while TCU lost only one of four.

ARMY SWIFTIES — Winefield Scott, left, a Wahsington, D. C., and Bobby Jack Steuart of Tulsa, Okla., are expected to furnish Army with most of its backfield speed. Both are former trackmen.

Arkansas Razorbacks Trample ACC 40-6

LITTLE ROCK, Sept. 18. (AP) Arkansas' Razorbacks, though sluggish at times, outclassed little Abilene, Tex., Christian College 40 to 6 today as they opened the 1948 football season and dedicated the state's $1,250,000 War Memorial Stadium here before a sun-blistered crowd of 27,000.

With Clyde Scott, their great tailback, setting the pace but turning the scoring over to lesser lights, the Razorbacks flashed a powerful running attack which netted 307 yards. The Arkansas defense held the outmanned Wildcats to 26 yards rushing but looked ragged against punt returns.

It was a 71-yard punt return by V. T. Smith in the third quarter which gave Abilene its only touchdown.

Scott, who netted 119 yards on ten rushes, passed for one touchdown and set up three. He crossed the double stripe after running back an Abilene punt for 60 yards, but the stunt was nullified by a clipping penalty.

Ross Pritchard, fat, pass-catching wingback, scored the Razorbacks' first two touchdowns. Another first-quarter tally was contributed by Fullback Leon (Muscles) Campbell, but from then on the point-making was handled by reserves.

Although the tilt was billed in advance as a breather for the Razorbacks, the crowd was the largest ever to see a football game in Arkansas.

Arkansas put its aerial ace, Gordon Long, under cover, using him mostly on defense. Sophomore Ray Parks operated as the No. 1 reserve for Scott and looked good as he scored once and passed for another tally.

The Razorbacks played without the services of three injured regulars, including Captain and Guard Theron Roberts.

Brightest defensive performers for Arkansas were sophomore end Jack Richards and guard Frank Lambright.

Besides, Smith fullback Alton Green was a standout for Abilene. He was the Wildcats' leading ground gainer with 35 yards — more than his team as a whole netted.

Arkansas rolled up 15 first downs, 13 of them by rushing, to four for the visitors.

Best Of Season In Motorcycle Races Due Today

Riders from Texas and New Mexico roared into town Saturday in anticipation of the final races of the season over the Big Spring Motorcycle Club's track here at 1 p. m. today.

Nearly a score widely regarded riders were on hand by sundown and more were expected during the evening and early this morning. Competition was due to be the keenest ever as the purse ran up to $500 for the American Motorcycle Association-sanctioned event. This time the AMA has put a four star rating on it.

Club officials said the track was fast and that reconditioning during the week had practically eliminated the dust factor. A few spots were bumpy from the last chase over the rolling oval course, just enough to add to the thrills and possibly spills of the contests.

"We believe this will be the best race we have ever offered," said Elliott Yell, president of the club. It's the last show of the season and to all appearances the best for this section of the state."

B. K. Pounds, Dallas, representing the AMA, was on hand for the contests.

Time trials start at 1 p. m. with eliminations immediately following, probably around 2 p. m. The program calls for novice, amateur and expert divisions for each the 45 and 80 class motors, and then the traditional grand finale.

Ticket booth at the entrance to the course on the old San Angelo highway immediately west of the city park will open at 9 a. m.

Among the early entrants were these riders:

J. C. Bartlett, Fred Huskey, Lee Christian and Bobby Johnson of Lubbock; Wayne Early, Frank Taylor and Gene Sanders of Amarillo; Dwayne Goble, Buddy Loveless, Richard McDougell and Charles Pinkert of Albuquerque, N. M.; Lendall Ellison and Ralph Nelson of Roswell, N. M.; James White and Les Myers of Wichita Falls; James Null of Odessa; and Bob Eisenbeck and Jack Ewing of Big Spring.

Coahoma School To Get Uniforms

COAHOMA, Sept. 18— Coahoma High school baseball players will have a complete set of uniforms for use when play begins next spring.

B. A. Cramer, who managed the local Tri-County league entry this year, has announced that uniforms purchased for the independent nine will be turned over to the school's athletic department.

Plans for such action were made several months ago when the independent nine subscribed funds for purchasing the equipment. Several individuals and business firms in Coahoma and Big Spring made contributions to the fund.

They included Elbert T. Echols, Earl Reid, John C. Adams, Dink Cramer, Burton Lingo Co., Acuff Gin, Martin Service station, Pinkies Liquor stores, First National Bank, State National Bank, Kountz-Carter Oil Well Supply, Stamps and Sherrod, Slim Currie, Donald Lay, the Domino Hall and B. A. Cramer.

Braves Boost Lead

BOSTON, Sept. 18. (AP) — Boston's Braves moved six games in front of the rest of the National League Saturday by defeating the Pittsburgh Pirates 2-1 behind the classy pitching of Warren Spahn, Tribe left hander who went to the mound after only two days rest.

Texas Unveils Rugged Land Attack To Sink LSU, 33-0

By the Associated Press

AUSTIN, Sept. 18. — The Texas Longhorns showed power and speed aground as they whipped the Louisiana State Tigers 33 to 0 here today before 47,500 shirt-sleeved spectators.

With Quarterback Paul Campbell filling the shoes of Bobby Layne in capable fashion, the Longhorns smacked across the goal line in every period except the second and made good three of five extra point attempts.

The Tigers did not make a serious scoring threat, and it was the fine punting of their fullback, Rip Collins, that kept them from perhaps a worse defeat.

A brilliant punt return by Right Halfback Billy Pyle from the Texas 42 to the LSU 23 set the stage for the first tally. Pyle splashed through for 14 to the 11. Fullback Tom Landry powered for six more yards to the Tiger five, Pyle added four, then Landry ripped through center from the one-foot line. Frank Guess kicked the extra point and Texas led 7-0 late in the first quarter.

Another punt return of 30 yards by Perry Samuels, substitute halfback, put the ball on the Tiger 30. Guess carried to the 14, and Substitute Fullback Ray Borneman roared off left tackle to hit pay dirt with one second remaining in the initial period. Guess' try for point from the 17 was short.

Villanova Wildcats Zip By Ags, 34-14

By the Associated Press

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 18. —Villanova's visions of a highly successful 1948 football season took on a tinge of reality today when the Wildcats whipped Texas A&M 34 to 14 in the opening game of the season.

A crowd estimated at 35,000 probably the largest ever to see a Villanova home game, watched the game in shirtsleeve weather.

Although the score almost reversed the Aggies' 33-7 count in their only previous meeting, it wasn't the size of it as much as the way the team performed that made the big, experienced Wildcat team look impressive.

Off today's performance, the Wildcats, with Andy Gordon, Bob Polidor and Ralph Pasquariello spearheading the attack behind a huge line, loom as a distinct threat to Army next Saturday.

Pasquariello, a 225-pound, line plunging fullback from Everett, Mass., scored three Villanova touchdowns. Gordon passed to John Bogan and Joe Rogers for the other two.

Highlight for the Aggies was Charlie Royally's 93-yard runback of a punt for their second tally. Royally, a 155-pounder from Freeport, Texas, was playing his first game of college football. Wray Whittaker, a tall end from Houston, galloped 48 yards for the other Aggie score after intercepting Gordon's first pass.

Villanova, trailing 0-7 after only a minute and 50 seconds of play, improved visibly as the game progressed. The Wildcats line play was ragged and their attack stodgy in the early stages. At the finish it was a smooth-working machine that could gain on almost any kind of play.

Villanova tied the score in the second quarter when Pasquariello's plunge climaxed a drive that began when Turley's attempted field goal for the Aggies was blocked.

Pancho, Sturgess In Net Finals

FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Sept. 18. (AP) — Pancho Gonzales of Los Angeles and Eric Sturgess of South Africa — a slugger and a fancy Dan — battled their way to the finals of the National Tennis Championships today before 13,000 addicts.

Gonzales, the husky 20-year-old Mexican-American from Los Angeles, beat back Jaroslav Drobny, stocky Czech Davis Cup star, 8-10, 11-9, 6-0, 6-3, after a slam-bang duel between the two "biggest services" in the amateur game today.

Sturgess, who left Johannesburg only a few months back to find out if he really could play tennis, cut down young Herbie Flam of Beverly Hills, 9-7, 6-3, 6-2 in a flawless demonstration of stroking. He is the first foreigner to reach the American final since Baron Gottfried von Cramm of Germany lost to Don Budge in 1937.

Louise Brough of Beverly Hills and Mrs. Margaret Osborne Dupont of Wilmington, Del., will meet in the women's singles final tomorrow for the second straight year. Miss Brough won in 1947. They played their semifinal matches yesterday.

Red Raiders Clip Buffaloes, 19-0

LUBBOCK, Sept. 18. (AP)—A sluggish Texas Tech football team took an entire half to get started here tonight, before beating out the West Texas State Teachers Buffaloes before a capacity crowd of 16,000 persons, 19 to 0.

Left tackle John Andrews blocked a Buffalo punt with three minutes left in the first quarter, the ball rolling over the end zone for an automatic safety for Tech's lone count in the first half.

In the third period, however, Coach Dell Morgan's Red Raiders caught fire for two quick touchdowns and added a field goal late in the fourth period for their opening victory of the season.

Dempsey Scored Hit With Fans

Rex Mobley and Rod Fenton were billed as the feature event at the Big Spring Athletic club Saturday night but a swarthy fellow 52 years young stole the show.

He was Jack Dempsey, former heavyweight boxing champion of the world and still popular enough that the fans almost ignored the wrestling in the first round when the Masked Marvel beat Dory Detton two falls out of three. They kept clamoring for Dempsey.

When the old Manassa Mauler finally did appear they made the welkin ring. It took several minutes for the cheering to subside so that Mobley could get about the business of tossing Fenton twice for a victory in the top billing.

Dempsey did not always bother to pull his men apart—frequently he jabbed him apart. Fenton reeled under one short poke in testimonial that there's still dynamite in Jack's right fist. Still a congenial fellow, Dempsey took time out to sign autographs, particularly for the kids.

During the show, Cecil Hunter, Amarillo, better known as Stutterin' Sam, kept the audience in stitches with his stuttering routine. Always a favorite in these parts, Hunter had fresh gags to work his favored rustic technique. He is flying Dempsey and Dory Detton, Amarillo, over the area to meet engagements.

Today they will be at Boys Ranch in Amarillo for shots by a Life photographer. Monday they will be in Odessa to start a busy week that climaxes Friday when they fly back to Amarillo for Dempsey to get an air force plane back to New York where he will appear on a benefit boxing show which has Joe Louis and Gene Tunney on the program.

Looks like things are picking up — could be that with school starting and the tax issue being settled satisfactorily, the Steers winning a game, the circus coming to town and this nice weather (as cool as a Mother-in-law's kiss) is putting everyone in better spirits. I know that makes me feel better — have just about sold that wheelbarrow, anyway an old boy asked me about it and never did come back — but I'm still waiting.

Some of you folks that have rental property — let's show these Railroad people that our hearts are in the right place and help them find a place to live. Have had several of the key personnel asking about places to bring their families to — so if you want a good tenant for your house or apartment, call me and I will pass along the good word.

Seven room house on Runnels near High School, this house is well built and worth the money $7500. Five unit apartment house on Main near school, partly furnished — the lot is worth half the asking price of this place. Good 4 room house on East 2nd on 6 lots, $5500 ideal for a business site. 4½ Room house on East 16th $6875, nice throughout.

Have a buyer for a farm, preferably 160 acres and about 10 miles from BS.

Nice little downtown cafe doing good business, and really have good food, I eat there occasionally myself, owner has too many irons in the fire and must sell. Service station well located. Rooming and boarding house worth the money.

Do you want a nice little place to call your own and have chickens, cows, hogs, garden, storm house etc, and yet be close to Big Spring — 3 room house and shower bath, out-buildings of all sorts, gas, water and lights, fenced all around — $3500.

New 5 room on W. 18th
5 room on East 4th.
6 Room Brick on East Park
3 Bedroom House on E. 15th
5 Room on Washington Blvd
7 Room Duplex, 2 baths.

Have a drug store that is a dandy place and is making the owner money, but he has other interests and wants to be outside — will take good car, house or what have you on trade.

It's circus time and the old calliope puffing out "Old Grey Bonnet" has made these kids I've borrowed to see the circus with rearing to go — so WE'RE OFF, see you Monday.

WHEN YOU READ THIS GO TO CHURCH YOU WILL FEEL BETTER THE REST OF THE DAY

High Casualty List From Jap Typhoon

TOKYO, Sept. 18. (AP) — Rivers subsided in central and northern Honshu Saturday leaving an estimated 858 dead with 700 missing.

Torrential rains, measuring as much as 24 inches in some places, flooded the rivers after Wednesday's typhoon.

Pennsylvanian Section Tested In North Upton

MIDLAND, Sept. 18 Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 1-A TXL, possible discovery for commercial oil production, in North-Central Upton County, 30 miles south of Midland, was taking a drillstem test in a Pennsylvanian lime at 10,135-170 feet.

A core at 10,135-151 feet, had a recovery of about 15 feet of lime, with a few thin shale streaks. The lime had pin-point porosity, with light shows of oil and gas.

A one and one-half foot section of the lime had good porosity and good indications of oil and gas.

Operator drilled from 10,151 feet to 10,170 feet, and the samples in that interval had some signs of petroleum, and the drillstem test was ordered.

This prospector is 660 feet from north and west lines of section 31, block 40, TP survey, T-4-S.

It has shown for medium amounts of flowing oil, and heavy gas flows between 10,095 feet and 10,135 feet in the Pennsylvanian lime.

Unless it develops profitable production in some of the upper formations, it is slated to continue into the Ellenburger, which is expected by some geologists at between 12,500 feet and 13,500 feet.

Richardson & Bass No. 1 Neal, Ellenburger exploration in East-Central Upton County, about five miles northwest of the Benedum-Ellenburger field, and 660 feet from north and 1,980 feet from east lines of section 9, block Y, TCRR survey, had reached 11,704 feet in the Devonian lime and chert, and was mixing mud, to restore circulation.

The Devonian was topped at 11,351 feet, on an elevation of 2,726 feet. No drillstem test have been run in that formation.

Republic Natural Gas Company No. 1-E-A Barnett, three and three-quarter miles northwest of the Benedum field, in East-Central Upton County, and 1,980 feet from north and west lines of section 40, block Y, TCRR surrey, had plugged back to 11,680 feet, and was to make a production test on the section between 11,585 feet, where a string of 7-inch casing is cemented, and the new bottom.

That horizon is in the top of the Ellenburger (11,585-680). It showed some indications of gas when drilled through.

If the top of the Ellenburger fails to make an oil or gas producer, operators will plug back by degrees and test in the Silurian, in the Devonian, and in the Pennsylvanian.

Fred Turner, Jr., and J. M. Hewgley, Sr., No. 1 Barnett, discovery for flowing production from a Pennsylvanian lime, in East-Central Upton County, three miles northwest of the Benedum field, flowed one hour, through a seven-sixteenth inch tubing coke, and made 33 barrels of clean oil, with a gas-oil ratio of 3,800-1.

The production is coming from perforated streaks in the casing between 9,982 feet and 10,137 feet,

Ellenburger Venture Slated For Northeastern Sterling

Drilling is slated to start by September 25, on an 8,200-foot wildcat to explore into the Ellenburger in Northeast Sterling County.

The prospector is to be drilled by S. A. Brewster, and W. O. Bartle, both of Houston, as their No. 1 I. L. Ellwood, et al. It will be 660 feet from north and east lines of section 77, block 18, SPRR survey, and 16 miles northeast of Sterling City.

Rotary tools will be used.

DeKalb Agricultural Association, Inc., of Lubbock, has filed an application with the Railroad Commission of Texas, requesting a permit to begin operations on its No. 1 W. L. Ellwood estate, as a new development in the West Smyer-Glorieta field in East-Central Hockley County.

The venture is located 660 feet from north and west lines of the southwest quarter of section 12, block A, R. M. Thompson survey. That makes it three miles north of the town of Smyer.

Drilling with rotary tools, to about 6,000 feet, is to start immediately.

Gulf Oil Corporation No. 1-E Wilson Bryant, Central Midland County deep wildcat, 14 miles south of the city of Midland, was bottomed at 13,050 feet in an unidentified lime, and was circulating, and conditioning the hole, preparatory to undertaking a drillstem test.

This project has drilled through a considerable section of Simpson, middle Ordovician, and many interested observers were expecting it to enter the Ellenburger at any time.

No official information was available, at the time this report was prepared, as to whether or not the current zone was Ellenburger.

The exploration is 660 feet from north and 1,980 feet from west lines of section 36, block 39, TP survey, T-3-S.

Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 1 Winston, South-Central Scurry County wildcat, four miles south of Snyder, and 330 feet from north and west lines of tract 72, Kirkland and Fields survey No. 37, had perforated the 5-inch liner, at 7,840-52 feet in the top of the Ellenburger, and was making a swabbing test.

That zone had shown some slight indications of petroleum, when drilled through. In the event it fails to make an oil well, operator will plug back and test at least where encouraging indications of three zones in the Pennsylvanian, possible production were developed on drillstem tests.

Sun Oil Company No. 2 Ellwood, 15 miles south of Colorado City, in South-Central Mitchell County, and 660 feet from southwest and from southeast lines of section 25, block 16, SPRR survey, ad reached 7,700 feet and was drilling ahead in dry Ellenburger dolomite.

Up to now this venture has not logged any indications of oil or gas production. It is due to continue until it reaches granite.

Venezuela Buys U. S. Livestock To Avoid Disease

EL PASO, Sept. 18. (AP)—Because Venezuela imports live cattle only from the United States it is free of foot and mouth disease, Ricardo Montilla, agriculture minister of the South American country, said today.

Montilla is heading a party of officials making a study of agricultural conditions to help develop Venezuela's farms.

"We have known of aftosa (foot and mouth disease) in Argentina and Mexico for many years," Montilla said. 'That is why we have never allowed any cattle into our country except animals brought from the U. S. to help improve our own breeds."

Record Prices Paid At Corsicana Show

CORSICANA, Sept. 18. (AP) — Fifteen calves sold today at the annual boys' calf auction at the Corsicana livestock and agriculture show brought $5,537.20, an average of $369.15 per head. This was a record for the event.

The price ranged from 64 cents per pound paid for the grand champion, exhibited by Boyce Ross of Powell, down to 38½ cents per pound. The reserve champion, exhibited by Kenneth Kilcrease, Kerens, brought 5 cents per pound.

Local Activity At Medium Level

With a fourth completion registered for the Vealmoor pool, oil activities here resumed a sort of wate-and-wait pattern last week.

The Seaboard No. 1 Zant, west offset to the operators No. 1 Tora Campbell, second test and thickest pay zone in the field, was completed for 405 barrels flowing in 24 hours from 7,925-40 feet after having perforated from 7,880-7,910 feet. East of the No. 1 Campbell, Seaboard's No. 2 Tora Campbell, also section 29-32-3n, TlP, was below 5,800 feet in lime. A mile and three quarters northwest in Borden county, Seaboard No. 1 Clanton, section 20-32-3n, T&P, was in lime at 4,400 feet. Several miles due north Seaboard No. 1 Lee, southeastern Dawson exploration, was at 7,120 feet in shale with lime streaks.

In eastern Howard Basin Oil No. 1-C Read, section 48-30-1n, T&P, was below 1,830 feet in redrock and location was staked 990 feet from the north line and 330 from the south line of the soutwest quarter of the northwest quarter of the same section for No. 2-C Read. Ray Oil No. 4-A Read 330 from the west and north lines of the northeast quarter of the same section, was at 3,000 feet in lime with no shows. A. G. Talbot No. 1 W. R. Read, also in section 48, was at 2,630 feet in lime.

Over in Mitchell county tank battery, power line and pumping unit were being set on Kingery Bros. No. 1 Merrit & Pond, light producer in section 27-29-1n. T&P. C. T. McLaughlin No. 5 Coleman, section 70-97, H&TC, Coleman Ranch pool, drilled below 2,260 in anhydrite.

Present Planes Called Obsolete

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Sept. 18. (AP) — Maj. Gen. Kenneth B. Wolfe says a war today would force the United States Air Force to fight with World War II planes which are already obsolete.

The director of procurement for the Air Materiel Command spoke at a Kirtland Field dinner Friday night. He is here for Saturday's Air Force Day observance.

'We would need at least one year to build up our air arm to aggressive combat strength," General Wolfe said. 'We may or may not have time to develop the 70-group defensive Air Force that has been authorized by Congress. The aggressor is not yet ready to attack us."

Shooting Victim To Undergo Surgery

Cornelius (Buck) Jasper, Negro cook, was in Galveston for delicate surgery Saturday with his life hanging in the balance.

In the Howard county jail, Hershel G. Davis, Negro, contemplated a charge of assault with intent to murder which officers said would be withdrawn for a more serious one should Jasper fail to survive.

Jasper was shot through the chest Thursday night, the bullet penetrating his throat, lodging in his spiral column, and paralyzing him from the waist down.

Pilot's Wife Calls Slaying Mercy Killing

NEW YORK, Sept. 18. (AP)— The airplane slaying of a pretty, 28-year-old woman was a 'mercy killing," says the wife of the flier who was killed himself when the plane crashed.

The strange case, in which Miss Hannah Laufer was fatally shot three times during an ill-fated airplane ride with a Spanish pilot, came to light Friday.

Their plane plunged into a Long Island salt marsh Thursday night. The two were believed victims of the crash alone until a medical examiner Friday found the bullets in Miss Laufer's body.

Mrs. Lenore Monleon, a fashion model and wife of the pilot, 31-year-old Jesus Meneau Monleon, maintained the shooting was done out of mercy.

"The plane was going to crash," she said. "And the girl was suffering, so he shot her to end that, not out of malice. He could not see her in agony."

The autopsy indicated the pilot's death apparently was due to a keep chest wound which might have been self inflicted. Two harbor squad patrolmen found a knife with an eight-inch blade in the water-immersed plane wreckage.

In the wreckage of the plane, police found a letter which they said indicated Monleon had planned at one time to kill Miss Laufer and then take his own life. Subsequently, the note indicated, he planned only to kill himself.

Assistant Medical Examiner Richard Grimes said the letter, addressed to Miss Laufer, "indicated the writer was desperately in love and doubted that his love was returned."

Monleon, a squadron commander for the Spanish Loyalist Forces in Spain's civil war and later a flier for the French and British, rented the plane Thursday for a flight to Philadelphia.

Miss Laufer was a daughter of a New York furrier, and until last August, worked as a translator in the Army Adjutant General's office, where Monleon was employed as a translator.

Police said Monleon was separated from his wife, but Mrs. Monleon denied they were estranged.

ON THE FENCE — Work watchers observe stock handling in a corral at Boys' Co-Op Ranch of West Texas near Tankersly. The ranch is to be opened for homeless boys from 32 counties of West Texas. Boys will be admitted upon recommendation of juvenile authorities and will be reared under the influence of a normal home environment. The ranch will be largely self sufficient once it is opened, the boys tilling the soil and raising the stock to support their own home.

SANG TO KEEP UP COURAGE

Officer Tells Thrilling Story Of Riding Out A Hurricane

NEW YORK, Sept. 18. (AP) — An officer of the hurricane-battered freighter Leiceter told Saturday how four crewmen were swept overboard while others clung to deck rails singing to keep up their courage.

Six men were reported lost from the ill-fated British ship.

The story of the crew's all-night battle against pounding winds, mountainous seas and a wildly listing ship was radioed to the Associated Press by J. T. Andrew, the Leicester's second officer.

He and 38 others were rescued in the hurricane-lashed Atlantic Thursday. Another 40 men were saved from the stricken Portuguese schooner Gaspar by the Coast Guard Cutter Bibb 390 miles northeast of the Leicester. One Gasper crewman perished.

Andrews said that before help came, "It seemed certain the Leicester would capsize at any moment."

"We were clinging to the starboard boats and hand rails and sang songs to keep our spirits up. We huddled together and hung on to the rails all night."

Throughout the night, he said, the list of the helpless vessel increased until it was nearly flat on its side.

"Heavy seas swept along the port side of the deck, taking away two boats (lifeboats) and two men who were standing by," Andrews related. "Later, two other men were washed through the rails by the breaking seas."

Twenty of the Leicester's crews, including Andrews, were rescued by the American Freighter Cecil N. Bean. Nineteen other survivors were picked up by the Argentine Freighter Tropero.

Even after the rescue ships had reached the scene, however, the fate of the crew had remained uncertain. Andrews said two men "were swept away by the seas" while trying to swim to a lifeboat launched by the Cecil N. Bean.

One of them, however, managed to reach the rescue ship and was picked up," Andrews said.

Another two men were adrift in the raging sea for four hours on a half-sunken lifeboat before they were picked up.

Two clubs elected officers. Jack Wolf was named to head the Coahoma club, with Wayne White as vice-president, Billy Gene Walker as secretary-treasurer. Donald Lay was voted as sponsor assisted by M. G. Jenkins, vocational agriculture instructor.

Gay Hill selected William Crow as president, Don Lockhart as vice-president, and Tom Lockhart as secretary-treasurer. Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Crow were selected as sponsors. Clubs are active now at Coahoma, Gay Hill, Center Point, Knott, Forsan, Elbow, Vealmoor and Midway.

North Concho SCS Sponsors Contest

Supervisors of the North Concho soil conservation district are sponsoring a range management contest for 4-H and FFA club boys.

Agreement on details of the contest were reached at a meeting last week at the ranch of Clyde Reynolds. Among those participating were Marshall Cook, Jim Will Cox, Cecil Wilkinson and Reynolds. During the afternoon supervisors made inspection of irrigation projects with the idea of revamping the program of work for the district so that irrigation practices may be brought into the picture. SIGN-UP CENTERS WILL CLOSE

Youths Finish Registration For U. S. Peacetime Draft

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18. (AP) — Registration for the peacetime draft wound up Saturday as the last of the nation's 18-year-old reported.

Signing up started Aug. 30 with the 25-year-olds. From now on, youths will report to their local draft boards as they reach the age of 18. The 20,000 hpecial registration centers across the country will close.

Selective Service headquarters here had no idea how many young men are on its books, and officials said they will not know until next week.

National headquarters said it has had no reports of delinquencies, but added that heavy penalties are provided for failure to register. The maximum is five years' imprisonment, a $10,000 fine, or both.

Meanwhile, prospective draftees had a handy list to study. Announced Friday by President Truman, it sets out the infirmities that may keep a young man out of uniform.

The president, a World War I veteran, reinstated flat fet as a disqualification. That disability kept men out of the World War I draft, but it didn't make a bit of difference in World War II.

The 31-page directive issued by the White House listed 147 diseases or ailments that "may disqualify a registrant for service." Registrants were advised to ask for a local medical checkup if they think they have any of the 147 ailments in order to save the time of an army checkup later.

In addition to "flat feet, when accompanied by marked symptoms and deformity," the list includes alcoholism, stuttering, deformity of an eyelid, certain warts on 'weight-bearing areas," deep scars that might break, and loss of a thumb.

The directive also explains that men will be called from each area according to the actual number in Class 1-A or Class 1-A-O who have been found acceptable for service.

Induction may be postponed up to four months in case of a family emergency, illness, or other circumstances beyond the registrant's control.

Combine Originality And Materials And Make Your Own Clothes For Fall

By LEATRICE ROSS

There's nothing wrong with making your own clothes.

And here are several reasons why you may profit from doing so. You can, of course, (1) save yourself a whale of a lot of money; (2) combine the best from several dress designs for a frock more becoming to you; (3) have a wardrobe consisting of several "exclusive" creations; (4) make a bevy of skirts and jackets to stretch a sparce wardrobe; (5) try your hand at originality.

About saving money. Your "homemade" suit may be distinguishible from a Rothmore, but it can be done in splendid style for about $25. Whereas Ye Rothmore sets a purse back some $80 upward. A woman making her first attempt at dress-making should stay with tailored clothes and basic lines. Even a beginner can turn out a smart frock with careful following of instructions. But choice of materials is important. Fabric with good body, smooth feel, even weave and medium weight will make up into anything.

Locally, the smallest count of patterns coming from patterns counters in stores is 12 per day. In three stores, the number was over 35 and in one other store the average sale was 50 patterns a day. Sales in those five stores total about 170 patterns a day. Someone indeed sees value in making their own clothes.

Local saleswomen say that the tailored clothes which are so much more suitable for the beginning seamstress are most popular anyway. A smart new skirt has hit the pattern market—it is straight and slim in front and flares in the back. Such a skirt is quickly made from 1½ yards of material for size 14. A jacket to one's particular liking can top the becoming skirt.

Make your own exclusive dresses. Combine lavish colors, or unite two or more dull colors. Have you ever seen a slack suit in deep rose-red with a rose-red and pink combination blouse. Or a navy suit with a brown-and-beige trim? If you have, you will see what is meant by "exclusive" outfits. A spectacular dress—made, of course with good taste and an eye toward style—is worth hours of sewing and planning.

Change necklines on dress patterns. Buy a set of sleeve patterns and insert a more desirable sleeve. Buy patterns for weskits, cumberbunds, overskirts, any number of articles to make a dress more becoming to you. The more experienced dressmakers, say pattern saleswomen are beginning to buy accessory patterns — hats, bags, gloves. Local stores stock buttons and other trim items that are beautiful. Custom-made buttons and belts add a finished touch, and may be ordered at several stores. Sewing items such as pinking shears are selling with unusual success. Best of all, local yardage saleswomen are patient—even eager—to help you with selections.

Possibilities are so endless that it is worth a try to anyone to plan for making several new things this fall.

Get Welcome Relief From Stomach Gas, Sour Food Taste

Do you feel bloated and miserable after every meal? If so, here is how you may rid yourself of this nervous distress. Thousands have found it the way to be well, cheerful and happy again.

Everytime food enters the stomach a vital gastric juice must flow normally to break-up certain food particles; else the food may ferment. Sour food, acid indigestion and gas frequently cause a morbid, touchy, fretful, peevish, nervous condition, loss of appetite, underweight, restless sleep, weakness.

To get real relief you must increase the flow of this vital gastric juice. Medical authorities, in independent laboratory tests on human stomachs, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in increasing this flow when it is too little or scanty due to a non-organic stomach disturbance. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, SSS Tonic helps build-up non-organic, weak, watery blood in nutritional anemia—so with a good flow of this gastric digestive juice, plus rich red-blood you should eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better.

Avoid punishing yourself with overdoses of soda and other alkalizers to counteract gas and bloating when what you so dearly need is SSS Tonic to help you digest food for body strength and repair. WHY STARVE TO TAKE OFF FAT?

When you buy Barcentrate, you buy a preparation for taking off weight. You do not pay for a printed diet. Barcentrate is not a vitamin tablet to fortify you against weakness while on a starvation diet. You need never know a hungry moment while reducing with Barcentrate. It contains no harmful drugs, but does contain ingredients to make you feel better.

Barcentrate when mixed with grapefruit juice does this: First, cuts down your desire for sweets and fatty foods, but you do not have to FORCE yourself. Barcentrate takes care of your DESIRE. Second, dehydrates and eliminates, so that water is carried away—almost like melting fat. At the same time you feel better, more peppy, more alive, but never starved or hungry.

Lost 22 Pounds

"I lost 22 pounds taking Barcentrate and I feel much better in every way. I eat anything I want and I gladly recommend it to anyone who wants to lose weight."—Gertrude Billings, Route 1, Dorjpe, Texas.

15 Pounds Lost

"I lost 15 pounds taking Barcentrate and can now control my weight. I feel much better in every way and I gladly say, 'It's Barcentrate to control the weight'."—Mrs. Gayle Matthews, 925 Throckmorton Street, Beaumont, Texas.

Free Movement Trend In Youthful Clothes

COLLEGE STATION, Sept. 18 (AP)—For Texas youngsters this is back-to-school week.

Some returned to the classrooms last week. But whether it was this week or last, mothers of school-age children have to figure out what to clothe their youngsters in.

Nena Roberson, associated extension clothing specialist of Texas A&M College, says the clothing problem is just as big for mothers of little tykes not yet in school.

Often mother picks out clothes for the kids because she takes a fancy to the little red jacket or the yellow striped dress. It's going to be the kids that wear the clothing, so it should be picked out to meet their needs.

Comfort, freedom of movement, allowance for growth and attractiveness are points to remember when buying slacks, shirts or dresses for the children. Buy clothes that fit well, and be sure they are not too tight. Allow for plenty of movement. Maybe the boys play football with the gang after school. Perhaps the little girl goes skating with her friends. Whatever they do they'll need clothing that gives them freedom of movement—and still isn't too lose.

The clothing should also allow for growth, too. Five to eight inches for hems in girls dresses and five to six inches on the tails of boys' blouses should be left so there will be room for lengthening the children's clothes as they grow.

Fabrics should be selected for the child's comfort, happiness and protection, and for long lasting in wear and laundering. Attractiveness is important, too, but don't have too many decorations, says Miss Robersqn. They will be easier to care for with fewer decorations.

Youngsters want to be comfortable and dressed up, too. They can be both these and still stay inside the family budget, says Miss Roberson.

WHAT GIVES 'ROUND TOWN

By Leatrice Ross

Next Friday will see new officials taking over the city—but only for a day. The Big Spring High school class in government is just getting in a little practical experience.

Quite naturally Nancy Whitney takes the city manager's job from her dad. Carrol Choate will preside as mayor, Jean Robinson as city attorney, Charles Campbell as city judge, Billy Van Pelt as fire chief. Betty Lou Hewett will direct street cleaning for the day, Richard Deats will try to get a little money as tax collector and Billy Jean O'Neal is to act as city clerk. The "city dads" or city commissioners are being replaced by Donnie Carter, Rose Nelle Parks, Nilah Jo Hill and Jimmy White. John Coffee is new chief of police. Funny they don't run in a new superintendent of public schools in to dismiss classes for the day—

States' Righter Feels Movement Is Gaining

MOVEMENT IS GAINING — 14..

FORT WORTH, Sept. 18. (AP)—The States Rights movement "is rolling forward like a snowball," says Curtis B. Dall, former son-in-law of President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

People are beginning to realize that the States Rights party is composed of "a group of men who have a principle, whose only program is adequate protection of individual liberty," Dall said here Friday.

Dall, who resides in San Antonio, is a member of the state executive committee of the States Rights party.

The word "ten" is derived from "tun," the name of a large cask in which wines were once shipped.

School Pickets Deny Progressives Have Joined Ranks.

DALLAS, Sept. 18. (AP)—Parents are picketing Sowers Negro school here in a demand that the teachers be replaced, that a Negro board of trustees be established and that the school share in a $10,000 bond issue voted for enlargement of the Sowers white school.

But, says Charlie Richey, spokesman for the Negro parents who have picketed the school since Monday, support from the Progressive Party in Dallas "has not been sought and is not wanted."

"We want to settle this ourselves," Richey said. 'None of our people are associated with the Progressive party and we have not asked them to enter the case."

Progressives had announced through their candidate for Congress, Joe Bailey Irwin, that they would join the picket line at the school, near Irving.

KINGSVILLE, Sept. 18. (AP)—Strikes are being rehired at the Celanese Corp. plant near here. A strike had been in progress since July 26 but the strikers voted to withdraw pickets from plant entrances.

At the same time, they voted to replace two members of their negotiating committee and not to allow international representatives of the CIO oil workers union to sit in on further negotiations.

TEC Reports Need For Cotton Pickers

FORT WORTH, Sept. 18. (AP)—Between 4,500 and 5,000 cotton pickers are urgently needed in the Fort Worth control center area, the Texas Employment Commission reported Saturday.

The need was acute despite the fact that during August the employment service placed nearly 110,000 farm hands in jobs.

The control center embraces the districts of Dallas, Waco, Longview and Fort Worth.

Mexico Strike Said To Be A Stalemate

FIRST ANNIVERSARY IS OBSERVED

Air Force Flexes Mechanical Muscles For Benefit Of U. S. Public, World

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18 — — Two B-29 bombers out of 50 thundering into this country from overseas bases in celebration of the Air Force's first birthday landed at Pittsburgh today almost on the scheduled minute.

Forty-eight others were headed for U. S. cities from offshore bases in a demonstration of strength on the anniversary of the Air Force's creation as an independent arm of the military.

From their overall chief, Secretary of Defense Forrestal, all the airmen had an official "well done," for the year's accomplishments.

The first of the B-29s to reach their destinations landed at Pittsburgh after a 4,555-mile flight from Iceland.

In addition to the B-29s, giant B-36s toured the nation on nonstop flights from their Fort Worth base.

Air Force headquarters said one of the 50 B-29s reported mechanical trouble at 5:48 a. m. (CST) and headed for its home base at Roswell, N. M. It was one of two which left Shemya in the Aleutian Islands early yesterday afternoon for Baltimore. The other one is continuing.

Two other Fortresses, enroute from Germany to Detroit, encountered extremely heavy headwinds over the Atlantic and reported to headquarters they were 90 minutes behind schedule. They were originally scheduled to land at 10 a. m. (CST).

The first plane down at Pittsburgh was the B-29 piloted by first Lt. John B. Javis, Denton, Texas, whose time for the flight was 23 hours and 42 minutes.

At 7:01 a. m., (CST), three minutes after Javis had touched the runway, Major James R. Dale Jr., of Wise, Va., landed his bomber, 23 ours and 50 minutes out of Keflavikn, Iceland. The flight was not direct, the planes having flown over Florida to increase the distance of the mission.

The Air Force took the secrecy wraps off some of its newer weapons, including four experimental jet fighter planes. Speakers in scores of cities described air power's job in national defense. Air fields held open house so taxpayers could take a look at some of the things their dollars are buying.

Forrestal, in a Washington address last night, said "air power is peace power", and spoke out against communists, here and abroad, who charge that United States defense preparations in a dangerous world add up to "war mongering."

To demonstrate what its present-day planes can do, the Air Force sent 50 superfortresses off from bases in Japan, Germany, Alaska, Hawaii, the Azores, Labrador and other places on non-stop flights to 25 cities of the United States.

The B-29s flew as they would in combat, armed and loaded with weight equivalent to bombs.

To give a large part of the country a look at its biggest conventional-engined bomber, the Air Force scheduled five B-36s on individual flights over hundreds of cities at the lowest safe altitude. Take-off—and landing—point was Fort Worth.

The distances set for the B-36s were all within easy range for the big, six-engined bombers. One of them recently flew 8,000 miles. The Air Force designed them fro 10,000 miles range, carrying five-ton bomb loads.

NAZIS BURNED BOOKS

Famous Biographer Ludwig Succumbs

ASCONA, Switzerland, Sept. 18—(AP)—Emil Ludwig, world famous German-born biographer, playwright and political essayist whose books were burned by the Nazis, died at his home here last night. He was 67.

Ludwig had been suffering from a hear ailment for several years. Living quietly in Ascona, he recently completed a book of memoirs. He returned to Switzerland in 1945 after spending the war years in the United States.

Ludwig was known specially for a series of biographies which included Jesus Christ, Abraham Lincoln, and Wilhelm Hohenzollern. His "Life of Napoleon" was adapted to a motion picture in Hollywood in 1933.

The biographer is survived by his widow and two sons.

Funeral services will be held at his home next Thursday.

EMIL LUDWIG

He was born in Breslau, Germany, on Jan. 25, 1881, but became a voluntary exile in 1907. He received Swiss citizenship.

He made no attempt to return to Germany after the rise of Hitler. Several of his books were burned by the Nazis.

Ludwig began his career as a dramatist and wrote nothing but plays, nearly all in verse, for 12 years. After his 30th birthday, he took up psychological essays and biographers.

As a boy he wrote a 10-page essay on Goethe. At 25 he wrote a play on Napoleon. He made his first attempt at dramatizing the life of Bismarck, Germany's "Iron Chancellor" five years later.

Ludwig was educated at Breslau and Heidelberg.

He was a war correspondent for the Berlin Tageblatt during the First World War.

Ludwig was known widely in the United States through popular reading of his biographies and such works as "The Nile." He also went on American lecture tours.

In 1944 he shocked a Los Angeles audience by declaring "We find that music and the arts are not necessarily characteristic of democracy—in fact, the greatest music that has ever been composed was done so under tyrants."

He mentioned Beethoven, Bach, Brahms, Liszt, Franck, Tchaikovsky and Schubert. As the audience began to hiss, Ludwig cried:

"I have met and interviewed three dictators (Mussolini, Kemal Ataturk and Stalin) and I have found that each was a great music lover."

TEXAS POLL

War Is Just Around Corner In Opinion Of Many Texans

By JOE BELDEN
Director, The Texas Poll

AUSTIN, Sept. 18—To many a Texan, war today is just around the corner. But hardly anyone thinks the way to avoid war is to give up Berlin to the Russians.

Texans are solidly in favor of keeping U. S. troops in the German capital. That they are in no mood to appease Russia is disclosed by the latest survey by The Texas Poll.

A cross-section of the adult population was asked these questions:

1. "Do you think the United States will ever be in another world war?"

Yes	76%
No	9%
No Opinion	15%
	100%

2. "When do you expect that war to come—within a year, two years, five, ten, twenty-five? or when?" (Asked of only those who answered "Yes" to first question.)

One year or less	21%
Two years or less	37
Five years or less	80
Ten years or less	71
Twenty-five years or less	75

3. "Do you think the United States should keep troops in Berlin, even if it means war, or do you think we should let Russia take all of Berlin?"

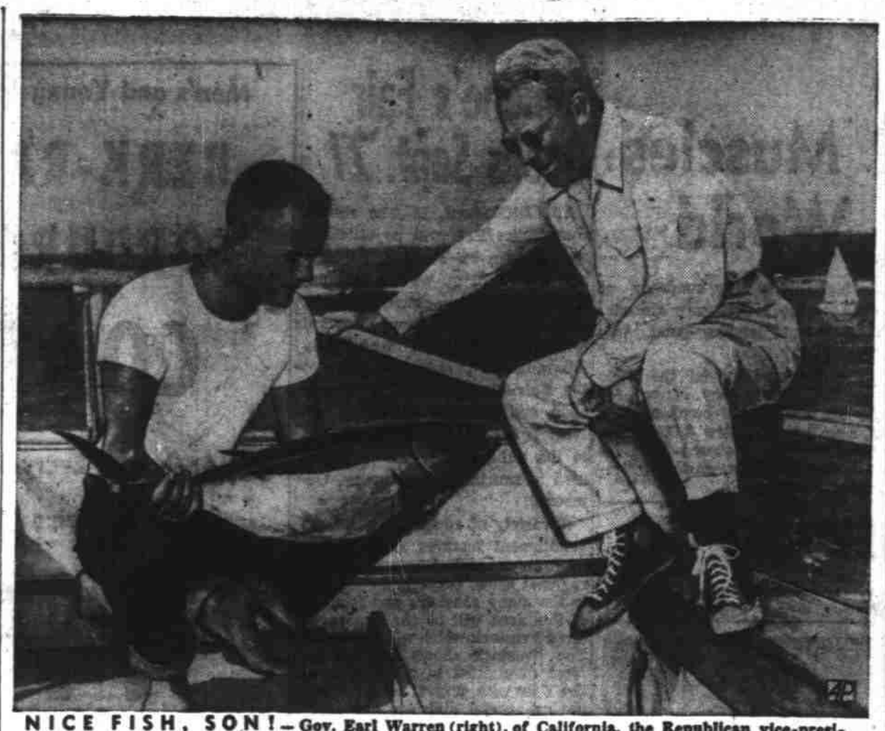

Keep troops in Berlin	86%
Let Russia have Berlin	4
No Opinion	10

This survey was conducted at a time when diplomatic talks with Stalin had encouraged American officials to believe the Berlin problem would be settled. Even under those conditions, the trend toward war appeared more sure to Texans than it had three months earlier.

The following table shows that Texans think war is nearer now than they thought it was in June:

Expect war within:	June	Now
One year or less	17%	21%
Two years or less	29	37
Five years or less	60	59
Ten years or less	74	71
Twenty-five years or less	79	75

While an increasing number are stepping up their time table for war, developments of the past three months, including resumption of the draft and continued international conferences, appear to have heightened the hopes of some Texans that armed conflict might be avoided. In June 89 percent said they thought the U. S. would be in another world war. In the latest survey this figure dropped to 7 per cent.

SERVED IN WILSON CABINET

Death Ends The Controversial Political Career Of Tom Love

DALLAS, Sept. 18 (AP)—Death has ended the controversial Texas political career of Thomas B. Love, who was both a new deal democrat and one of the men who turned the state's vote to Herbert Hoover in 1928.

Love, 78, assistant secretary to the treasury under Woodrow Wilson, died last night at his home here from a cerebral hemorrhage.

He had been a figure of controversy in politics since 1924. He quit the post of democratic national committeeman for Texas that year to fight the election of Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson as governor. An implacable foe of liquor, he also fought against the election of Alfred E. Smith in 1928.

He later zealously supported President Roosevelt in the Supreme Court fight.

Love had been deep in Texas politics for almost fifty years. He had two political idols, Woodrow Wilson and Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Love went to the Baltimore convention of 1912 as a member of the "immortal forty," the Texas delegation that stood rock-hard for Wilson during the earlier balloting.

Love became acquainted with Roosevelt while the two were in Washington during the First world War.

He later told friends that he might have originated the suggestion that led to the nomination of Roosevelt for vice-president on the ticket with James S. Cox in 1920.

Love later ardently supported

THOMAS B. LOVE

Roosevelt's administration, particularly his farm program and his attempt to put new blood in the Supreme Court. In 1936, Love ran for Congress against Hatton W. Sumners on a pro-Roosevelt platform.

Love came to Dallas from Missouri in 1899. He got into the Texas political ferment almost at once. In Missouri, Love had been secretary of the state democratic executive committee. He went to work in Texas on behalf of William Jennings Bryan's first campaign and raised $20,000 for it.

Dallas county first sent him to the legislature in 1902. By 1906, he was speaker of the House of Representatives. In Austin, he helped put over the Terrell election law. Gov. Tom Campbell made him the first commissioner of insurance and banking in '07, a post he held for two and a half years.

His political career did not really begin to blossom until Woodrow Wilson was first elected President in 1912.

Love was the dry candidate for democratic national committeeman in '16. He lost that post, but President Wilson appointed him assistant secretary of the treasury in 1917. Love, a MacAdoo and then a Cox man in previous years, fought the nomination of Alfred H. Smith because Smith was a wet. A short time later, he was working for Hoover, though supporting all other democratic nominees.

He was the target of political barbs in later years but he claimed to be the only "adjudicated democrat." He took his right to support his choice to the courts and they upheld him.

He was elected to the state senate in 1926. He ran unsuccessfully for governor in 1930.

He was born in Webster County, Mo., June 23, 1870, and was educated at Drury college in Springfield, Mo., and at the University of Virginia.

He was a member of the Texas Historical society, the Academy of Political Science, Town and Gown, the Dallas Agricultural club and the Dallas Writers club. He was a Mason, an Elk and Odd Fellow and a member of the Methodist church.

His wife died in 1946.

Survivors are three cildren, Dr. Stafford Love, Horace Love and Miss Dorothy Love, and a brother, Ralph Love, all of Dallas.

Salem Cleanup Set

All persons in the Salem community and others who have loved ones buried there are asked to join in an autumnal clean up campaign there Monday morning. Earl Hull said that those who will help are asked to bring rakes and hoes. He expressed hope that many would turn out because the scheduled spring clean-up did not materialize. Salem is located 10 miles north and east.

Damages Sought In Suit Filed Here

Damages are being sought by J. J. (Jeff) Roberts in a suit filed against Ed J. Carpenter, Vincent, in 70th district court. Roberts, in asking $10,000, alleges he was falsely prosecuted both by means of a civil suit for a small house and later by a complaint filed in justice court charging he deprived Carpenter of the house without Carpenter's consent. These actions, he charged in his petition, had damaged his reputation and had caused him expenses and chagrin.

Takes Special Course

Ben Hawkins, stationed here by the department of internal revenue, has left for Salt Lake City, Utah for special training. He is to be one of two instructors for the northern half of (2nd district) of Texas. B. B. Parmer, Lamesa, also assigned to this office, will be here Monday through Friday during Hawkins' absence.

During World War II, the United Nations controlled 99.9 per cent of the world's diamond production.

DIVORCE LAWS A LITTLE HAZY

Jesse Roy Aldridge is a little hazy on divorce statutes.

He wrote District Clerk George Choate wanting to know if Viola P. Aldridge "has got her divorce yet." He went on to add that he got his from Viola Aldridge on Dec. 3, 1945. Now, he wanted to know, had she filed for hers?

Choate answered that when the court cut the ties of matrimony, the bond was clipped on both sides.

Two $100 Fines Plus Costs Levied Here

Two $100 fines, plus costs, were dished out in county court Saturday by Judge W. S. Morrison.

One went to Francisco Fierro, who entered a plea of guilty to carrying a dirk, a mean looking weapon several inches in length. The other went to Chesley W. Horsley, Snyder, who admitted to driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor. Horsley had his drivers license suspended for six months.

TUNNEL--BAKED

MEAD'S FINE BREAD is the pace-maker in purity because it is untouched by human hands throughout the baking process. This is made possible by use of the air-conditioned, tunnel-shaped oven pictured below. Specially designed and built for Mead's Fine Bread Company of Big Spring, this massive oven bakes MEAD'S FINE BREAD with five different temperature stages. Each stage is thermostatically-controlled for baking accuracy. "Hands-off" tunnel-baking gives MEAD'S FINE BREAD active flavor and ripple-soft texture. Air-conditioned tunnel-baking is another advance in the art of making a better MEAD'S FINE BREAD.

LARGEST OVEN WEST OF FT. WORTH

This tremendous oven, 75 feet long and man-height, has a daily capacity of 96,000 loaves. Bread enters at one end, basks and bakes in five graduated heat levels, and comes out well done with perfect flavor.

A Fine Manner In Which We Can Salute Our Young People

This is Satlue to Youth Week, perhaps the newest of the numerous special observances to appear on the scene. Happily, however, Big Spring is among the few places taking the trouble to make a special event of it.

We like the idea of saluting youth seeing as how too many of us never give the young folks a thought unless it is in a negative sort of way. We're usually talking about delinquency, about how the younger generation is going to the dogs, how youngsters nowadays can't seem to do anything for themselves. We fret over their not absorbing the multiplication table exactly as we did and puzzle over the juvenile jargon that is twice as complicated as Caesar's wars. When they come up with ideas, we brush them off with a curt explanation that they won't work because we've never seen them work. And when they do something about those ideas in spite of indifference and obstacles, some of us puff and snort and vow we'll show those young whippersnappers a thing or two.

Memories are pretty short. Most of us forget our journey up fools' hill and when we floundered through the awkard age. We can't remember how that inner voice of righteous ambition cried out for action and justice, for fun and good. We can't recall our sense of frustation in dealing with our elders—good people but old fogies nevertheless.

Alas, we can be young but once—ourselves. Thank God we can be young through others. By sympathetic understanding of the problems of youth, we can project our personalities from fresh and new perspectives. All it takes is time and patience, the things of which youth feels a burning need. There would be no finer way this week to salute our young people than to resolve to give them our influence.

Philosophy, Science, Religion All Are Seeking The Same Goal

By FRANK GRIMES
Herald Special Writer

"We are ourselves but fragments torn from God," said Epictetus, the Greek slave who became the most Christlike of all ancient philosophers.

Epictetus also said: "When you have shut your doors, and darkened your room, remember never to say that you are alone, for you are not alone; but God is within, and your genius is within—and what need they of light to see what you are doing?"

He also said: "Any one thing in the creation is sufficient to demonstrate a Providence to an humble and grateful mind."

Of man's disposition to fret and worry about that which he cannot help, the philosopher said: "Let not another's disobedience to Nature become an ill to you; for you were not born to be depressed and unhappy with others, but to be happy with them. And if any is unhappy, remember that he is so for himself; for God made all men to enjoy felicity and peace."

A much later philosopher of parts said pretty much the same things no longer ago than Sunday, the 12th of September, 1948. Not in Rome, where Epictetus taught until the Emperor Domitian chased him away, but in London, 1858 years behind Epictetus.

This was Viscount Samuel, president of the Royal Institute of Philosophy, who was speaking to the British Association.

The arts, complained Viscount Samuel, have become "unmoral." Crime, he said, 'is entertainment, murder is a parlor game, adultery is taken as a matter of course, compunction and remorse have little place and religion never enters."

This modern philosopher explains this sort of thing by saying that the three chief preoccupations of the mind of man—religion, philosophy and science—go "their several ways without reference to each other."

Leaders of thought, he said, "should come together out of their professional compartments and across national lines and give to the world the guidance it needs."

There is no conflict between science and religion; there is only conflict between scientists and religionists. Genesis and modern geological science agree on the record of the rocks, on the order of life on the planet. Theologians and geologists disagree on the time element involved. Need that set them at each other's throats?

The artist paints the sunset as he sees it; but God made the sunset and gave the artist his vision. Should the artist quarrel with the Author?

The philosopher loves wisdom, and seeks her with a consuming passion. S'ould he fall out with religion because religion discovered wisdom first?

Is not Truth eternal? Do not the scientist, the theologian and the philosopher seek the same goad by ddivergent routes? Why should they not seek it together, like the Three Wise Men? Each can learn something from the other, and each is essential to the full flowering of human achievement.

It is only when the scientist ignores religion, when religion ignores the scientist, and then the philosopher impugns them both that there is confusion and doubt and disaster among their followers.

Every State Gives Its War Veterans Some Extra Help

By VERN HAUGHLAND
For James Marlow

WASHINGTON, (AP)— Every state gives its war veterans some help besides the benefits they get from the federal government.

A Veterans Administration survey discloses that:

All of the states provide for guardianship of veterans who are mentally unable to care for themselves, and all have central agencies to plan, administer and coordinate veterans programs.

All except Louisiana and New Mexico protect the veteran from loss of unemployment compensation benefits during the period he spent in armed forces.

All except Colorado and West Virginia cancel for veterans the payments ordinarily required for certain job licenses, and in some cases exempt veterans' property from taxation.

All except Delaware, Mississippi, New Mexico, and Oklahoma give veterans preference in (1) employment in public departments and on public works, and (2) state civil service or merit system examinations and appointments.

THIRTY-TWO STATES LET A MINOR veteran or his minor spouse sign contracts for insured or guaranteed loans.

(Those that do not are Delaware, Florida, Idaho, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Montana, Nebraska, New Hampshire, New Mexico, New York, Nevada, Oregon, South Carolina, Utah and Washington.)

Thirty-one states provide (1) money or other assistance to needy veterans and their dependents (2) vocational training programs and (3) funds for housing and public works projects.

(Those that do not: Alabama, Arkansas, Colorado, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, Missouri, New Mexico, Nevada, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, West Virginia, and Wyoming.)

Twenty-eight states provide educational benefits such as grants to educational institutions, free scholarships, special schools for veterans, subsistence payments to students and preference in admission to state schools.

(Those that do not: Arizona, Colorado, Delaware, Kansas, Maine, Maryland, Missouri, Nebraska, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New Mexico, Nevada, North Carolina, North Dakota, Rhode Island, Tennessee, Utah, Vermont, West Virginia, and Wyoming.)

These 28 states provide veterans with "domiciliary" care—such as food and shelter in a state veterans home: :

CALIFORNIA, COLORADO, CONNECTIcut, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Montana, Nebraska, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, North Dakota, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Dakota, Tennessee, Vermont, Washington, Wisconsin, and Wyoming.

In thirty-three states the state or county will pay for the burial of needy veterans and, in some instances, of their dependents.

(The states in which this is not done are Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, Missouri, Nevada, North Carolina, North Dakota, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, and Virginia.)

These 18 states give veterans homestead privileges or preference in the sale of state or county lands:

Arizona, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Florida, Idaho, Kansas, Louisiana, Maine, Massachusetts, Mississippi, Nevada, North Dakota, North Carolina, Oregon, South Dakota, Washington, and Wyoming.

THE FOLLOWING 14 STATES PROvide hospitalization and medical care, usually in a state tuberculosis sanitorium:

California, Connecticut, Delaware, Illinois, Kansas, Michigan, Minnesota, Montana, North Dakota, Oklahoma, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Washington, and Wisconsin.

These 11 states grant direct loans to veterans or guarantee loans by private lenders, in most cases for farm and home purchases:

Arizona, California, Georgia, Mississippi, New Jersey, North Carolina, North Dakota, Oregon, South Dakota, Washington, and Wisconsin.

At the time the summary was prepared, nine states were providing veterans with a bonus—cash payments based upon length and place of service—and eight others had similar legislation pending.

The bonus states: Connecticut, Illinois, Massachusetts, Michigan, New Hampshire, New York, Ohio, Rhode Island, and Vermont.

Washington Merry-Go-Round — Drew Pearson

Woebegone Democratic National Committee Finally Comes To Life

WASHINGTON — The woebegone, bedraggled Democratic National Committee finally came to life last week, after limping perilously near the verge of bankruptcy.

Some of the committee's operations have been so amateurish, they are unbelievable. In New York the committee has been paying for 50 rooms at the Biltmore Hotel—and keeping them empty. Desks and stenographers sit in the rooms—but that's all.

Meanwhile, young ladies have been given the job of raising money from top Democrats. Instead of having important leaders call on the big givers, young ladies who never met the big boys before have made the calls and come away almost empty-handed. A young lady was even sent to call on millionaire John J. Raskob, former Democratic chairman and former head of General Motors.

Chairman Howard McGrath, a good senator but apparently not an executive, has let his committee drift — hopeless, rudderless, pathetic.

TRUMAN ACQUIRES PATHOS

Last week, however, a money-raising campaign was launched at the White House. Mr. Truman invited about 30 top Democrats for tea, from California's Ed Pauley to New York's Morris Ernst. After the tea, he got up on a chair and made a little speech.

"I am appealing to you for help," he said, "help to carry my message to the American people. We just haven't got the money to buy radio time. In Detroit on Labor Day, we had to cut out one of the most important parts of my speech because we didn't have the money to stay on the air."

Mr. Truman looked pathetic and alone. He looked so appealing that those present forgot how many of them had opposed his renomination, how many had predicted that no money could be raised if he were nominated. They even forgot Truman's dog-in-the-manger attitude at Philadelphia.

However, a special finance committee met, including St. Paul's Robert Butler, ambassador to Cuba; Cleveland's Joe Keenan, war crimes prosecutor in Japan; West Virginia's Louis Johnson, former assistant secretary of war; California's George Killion, president of the American President Lines; Ed Pauley, and Bill Pawley, ambassador to Brazil.

Before they finished, and after some long-distance telephoning, they had pledged half a million dollars. One man alone pledged $100,000.

Louis Johnson was their appointed finance chairman — and promptly started housecleaning Democratic hangers-on who owed their jobs to once-important relatives.

To William Prim, son-in-law of North Carolina's late Sen. Bailey, Johnson gave a tough bawling-out.

"You can co-operate with us and get some real work done," stormed the ex-assistant war secretary or you can get out."

Ambassador Pawley amazed his colleagues by telling how he had walked into Democratic headquarters and told one of the lady money-raisers:

"I want to give five. Will you please write out a check for me Naturally, I meant five grand," explained Pawley later. "So imagine my surprise when the young lady writes out a check for $5. No more, no less."

This caused Johnson to jump down the throat of another chair-warmer, Asa Caraway, son of Arkansas' ex-Sen. Hattie Caraway.

"This kind of thing has got to stop," he told Caraway, who was considered responsible for the lady money-raisers. "Either it's going to stop—or you get out."

Johnson also proceeded to raise the Democratic money-raising goal from the $1,500,000 which had been fixed by McGrath to $2,500,000.

BLACK EAGLE CAPTURES GEN. VAUGHAN

One thing that discourages Democratic campaign-planners is that for every $10,000 they raise for Truman, his grandstanding military aide, Gen. Harry Vaughan, throws away $50,000 worth of political gain.

The genial, bumbling Vaughan has just pulled a boner that will take a lot of political repair work to patch up.

Vaughan has become a buddy of the famous Negro aviator, "Colonel" Hubert Fauntleroy Julian, who describes imself as the "Black Eagle" and who, during the Ethiopian war, was Emperor Haile Selassie's one-man air corps.

Apparently trying to win the Negro vote (though it's already strong behind Truman) Vaughan sent "Colonel" Julian to Europe to inspect Negro troops—partly at the government's expense.

Arriving in Europe with an advance buildup by Gen. Vaughan, Julian was given the VIP treatment (very important persons). He toured the entire American zone of Germany as the guest of the Army, was given a military aide, and spent an hour with Gen. Clay—one of the busiest men in the world.

But the Army brass hats were in for a rude shock. They found that "Colonel" Julian had interests other than the treatment of Negro troops. He was also using the prestige given him by the White House military aide to promote a cigarette deal.

In fact, Julian told the Army that he and his backers were willing to do Uncle Sam a great favor—namely, replace all of the Army's over-age cigarettes (valued at $11,000,000) at the rate of one fresh carton for every two stale cartons.

The deal would have netted Julian and friends about $5,000,000. When Gen. Clay heard about it, the Black Eagle was soon eagling his way back to the USA—shorn of his VIP treatment.

Note—Republican leaders say they get down on their knees every night and pray that Truman will not transfer Happy Vaughan before election day.

Frank Sinatra May Star In Irish Film

By JACK QUIGG
For BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—A tinker, as J. Carrol Nash exlains it, was a wandering handyman who circulated news and gossip as he patched the pots of village housewives. Such a tinker (played, he hopes, by Frank Sinatra) will be the central figure in a unique film Nash plans to make in his native Ireland.

Though he has generally played Latins on the screen, the 48-year-old actor says his family has lived in Ballycullen, county Limerick, for 700 years. It is there that he wants to film his story, "The Tinker of Ballycullen."

"It will show the charm and atmosphere of Ireland as it was 70 years ago," Naish said. "Frank Sinatra, singing the songs of that period, would be ideal as the tinker."

Naish has interested Sinatra in the project and is going ahead with plans to form his own production company.

Danny Kaye's plan to bring modern vaudeville to New York's Palace theatre is definitely off. The old showhouse is being converted for television, he says. Now the comic is mulling a personal appearance tour of Australian cities.

Rudy Vallee, whose screen career was rejuvenated when he began playing character parts, has a yen to be a troubador again. "I'd like to do a singing role," he said on the "Mother is a Freshman" set. "But I would not want to be typed as a singer again. I prefer a variety of roles."

Walter Brennan will play a sharpshooting hillbilly in his next film. He'll be the head of the feuding McCoy clan on "Roseanna McCoy"...Victor Jory is readying for a part in "Sirocco." Rita Hayworth is the off-again-on-again leading lady.

Duke University this season is fielding its first freshman football squad since 1942 and the Blue Babies will play a six game schedule. The yearlings will open on Sept. 24 against Wake Forest and will also meet Navy, William and Mary, East Carolina Tech, North Carolina State and North Carolina.

Let's Demand Action On Traffic Control Signals

It's supposed to be a good idea to take a calm and judicial attitude toward what you put down for print, but I'm beginning to lose patience with the state highway department on one score, and this column might not be as calm as it should be.

The sore spot is the matter of getting some traffic control signals at several intersections in Big Spring which involve busy residential streets and state highways.

People around here for months have been demanding that something be done about the hazard at 18th and Gregg; more recently, parents of school children who have to cross Third street have asked that someting be done at Benton and Third.

The requests have been given sympathetic treatment by the city commission, which is ready to install the lights.

Now the gimmick is that the state highway department has, and takes, the authority over controlling traffic on the highways, and the city can't take steps toward controlling that traffic unless the boys at Austin give the say-so. This might not make much sense to you, and I myself figure that the city ought to know what it is doing in handling its own intersections, but that's the way it is.

Why, a highway department representative even stopped the city from painting big speed limit figures on Gregg street, which, in addition to being highway 87, is one of our busiest municipal thoroughfares.

Well, the commission asked the highway department about control signals to make our streets safer. The department sent somebody from the Abilene division out here to make a "traffic count," the theory being that control signals should be placed only where the traffic is heavy enough to warrant them. I understand the results of this survey were sent to Austin, and that's as far as anybody has heard anything about it.

Meantime, the congestion at 18th and Gregg is something terrible, and is an open invitation to damage, disaster and death. Meantime, school has opened, and the East ward youngsters who are having to cross Third street are risking their lives three or four times a day to get to school and back.

If some departmental hitch is to blame for a child's death, we all would rise up in wrath. I say let's rise up before tragedy occurs, and demand that the boys down at Austin stir around a little.

I'm sending a copy of this column to the three highway commissioners, Mssrs. John S. Redditt of Lufkin, Fred E. Knetsch of Seguin and Fred Wemple of Midland. I'm sending a copy to Mr. DeWitt C. Greer, Austin, state highway engineer. I wish the Parent-Teacher organizations who are interested in their children's safety would send some resolutions; I wish the safety council would do likewise, as well as the other civic organizations and public agencies. I wish individuals would write.

I think Mr. Greer is your man. He's busy, and he can't possibly keep up with all the details of the vast highway department. I think he would do the right thing, if he is made aware of our problem. Won't you join me in trying to get some action?—BOB WHIPKEY

Video Vipers Are Latest, Pests To Enter Upon Scene

NEW YORK, (AP) — THE TELEVISION industry, still on its first half million sets, hopes to have 11 million in American homes within five years.

Hosts complain that no sooner do they get their video set working than it begins to draw more kibitzers than picnic lunch does ants.

Comedian Hank Ladd has made a survey among television addicts who howl about guests that bring saloon manners into the salon.

If you're getting a television set, here are the types of visitors you had better be prepared to deal with:

The "dial gypsy"—this guest wants baseball when a fight is on, wrestling instead of football, drama instead of sports—always vice versa.

THE "FURNITURE MOVER" — HE comes in and immediately rearranges all the furniture on the excuse everybody will be able to see the screen better. He never puts the furniture back in the same place.

The "critic"—can be recognized by his shouts of "how about a little more light?" or "get that shadow," or "is that out of focus?"

The "gate crasher"—the uninvited guest who breezes in with a group of dressy strangers just as you've taken off your shirt and are sitting there in your socks.

The "incurable ham"—an exhibitionist who competes with the program on the screen. No matter how funny the show, he has to prove he's funnier.

THE "STANDEE"—CAN'T BE MADE to sit down. Always crosses in front of the screen just as the program reaches a climax.

The "chair arm-dweller"—invariably perches on the arm of the weakest chair, and guaranteed to break it during the telecast.

The "engineer"—toughest of all to cope with. Tries to rebuild the set in the middle of every program. Unfortunately, he rarely electrocutes himself—just wrecks the set.

Well, there they are—charming reasons why the proud new owner of a television set should answer each knock at his door with a baseball bat in his hands.

It's the only way to keep out video vipers.

Queer Twist Of Fate Kept Hitler From Losing Power

By DeWITT MacKENZIE
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

IT WAS A QUEER TWIST OF FATE which kept Dictator Hitler from making war on Czechoslovakia in the autumn of '38, and at the same time provided him with the ammunition to launch World War II a few months later.

I am indebted to Dr. Erich Kordt, who then was chief of the German foreign office secretariat, for the astonishing background of that crisis.

Hitler had been greatly encouraged by his success at the Godesberg conference in bulldozing British Prime Minister Chamberlain into agreeing to demands for the Reich's annexation to Czechoslovakia's German inhabited Sudetenland. The Fuehrer became still more desirous for a "little war" with his small neighbor to enhance his prestige.

At this critical moment Dr. Kordt and many others, including high German army officers, were aiming at the overthrow of the Nazi regime.

ON SEPT. 26 BRITAIN, FRANCE, AND Russia threw their weight between Hitler and Czechoslovakia to the extent of announcing that if Germany attacked the republic they would stand by it. Meantime the Fuehrer was screaming that his demands must be met by Oct. 1. That same night of Sept. 26 he made his historic Sports Palace speech before an audience of 12,000 in Berlin, declaring in effect:

"If Czechoslovakia doesn't give me what I want, I shall go and take it."

The next day he decided it would be smart to march a large body of troops through the streets to the chancellery where every evening the crowds collected to cheer him. So he paraded a contingent and appeared on the balcony after the soldiers had crashed their heels and come to attention. This time, however, the Fuehrer got a shock.

There were no "heils," Dr. Kordt told me. The people stood in sullen and shocked silence as they gazed at the soldiers in realization that they might be an omen of war. The populace didn't want war. Hitler watched this for a few moments and then retired, remarking to followers:

"The people are not yet with me in this project."

THAT WAS WHERE FATE TEMPORarily threw the switch against Hitler. The next morning he suddenly wig-wagged the allies for a conference at Munich. The Germans who were planning revolt had set that very day for a rising, but the dictator's "conciliatory" moved spiked their guns. They had to postpone their project.

Well, Munich is history which needs little repeating here. Hitler continued his brazen front while Chamberlain and his supporters failed to throw an allied net over the mad-dog. The Fuehrer got the Sudentenland for delivery on the date demanded—Oct. 1.

Hitler's success in getting all his demands so boosted his stock that the plot to overthrow him was abandoned altogether. The leaders realized that they couldn't get either the army or the public to follow them.

The Fuehrer was treading on the clouds.

Berlin Crisis Casts New Light On Plans For Organization Of New Soviet Empire

By Joseph and Stewart Alsop

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18 (Spl)—The Berlin crisis has had at least one useful result. It has cast considerable light on the Kremlin's future plans for the organization of the new Soviet empire. It is now an even bet that what is ahead—perhaps in a few months, perhaps after a year or so—is the forcible bodily incorporation of Russia's eastern European satellites in a greater Union of Soviet Socialist Republics.

Throughout the Berlin negotiations, the Kremlin has sought to gain two objectives. Objective number one has been to upset British, French and American plans to make western Germany a working, producing area with a sane governmental structure. Included in this objection has been Soviet participation in control of the Ruhr.

Objective number two, however, has been simply to expel the Western Allies from Berlin. And the real Soviet effort has not been concentrated on the Ruhr or even on upsetting the arrangements for western Germany. The real effort has been to gain this second objective ot total, exclusive control of Berlin.

As is indicated by the report of the odds given above, expert opinion is still about evenly divided. But a constantly growing faction holds that the struggle to drive us from Berlin must be linked to the Kremlin's over-all plans for the eastern European satellites.

It this faction reasons correctly, the Soviets began some months ago to batten down the hatches, so to speak, throughout their European conquests. (The difficulty with, Marshal Tito is of course an obvious incident in this process.

Berlin, unfortunately, lies deep within the Soviet zone of Germany. Since the end of the war, it has been the only really important place where the Western and Soviet powers were in constant, intimate contact. With the Western Allies still controling their sectors of Berlin, the correct organization of the Soviet zone of Germany—as the Soviets view correct organization—has been and still is an impossibility. Our occupation of Berlin, in short, has the effect of a huge wedge, which prevents the fled from Prague. He stated that being battened down as completely as the Kremlin wishes.

This interpretation of the Berlin crisis is confirmed by intelligence from the Soviet satellites. Long ago, it was reported that Andrei Vishinsky had gone to Bucharest to order Madam Ana Pauker to transform Romania into a Soviet Republic. Eventually, other similar reports covered the whole vast area of the Soviet Union's European conquests. Romania, Bulgaria, Hungary, Czechoslovakia, Eastern Germany and Poland were all to be made Soviet Republics. These regions also were to suffer the fate of the unhappy Baltic states.

Until recently, the authorities in Washington paid relatively little attention to these reports. But now the course of the Berlin negotiations, plus the swelling mass of local evidence, has caused the earlier analysis of the situation to be re-examined.

The reports keep coming. Only last month, for example, a high official of the Czech Foreign Office kia into the Soviet Union. As he he had actually seen tentative plans to incorporate Czechoslovakiainto the Soviet Union. As he described the plans, the deed was to be done after a rigged plebiscite, which was to be held at a very early date.

Russian Woman Hops On Britain

MOSCOW, Sept. 18. (AP)— Izvestia published a letter from a Russian woman today which quoted her as saying British authorities will not allow her husband to join her in the USSR.

The woman, identified as Maria Aish, was quoted in the Soviet newspaper as saying she did not want to go to Britain to live with her husband, whom she married in 1934 and lived with until he went to Britain in 1941.

"Every healthy-minded individual understands that for husband and wife to be together, it is not necessary for the wife to go where the husband is," the letter said. "The husband can also come where the wife is.

"Evidently the English have forbidden my husband to leave and come to the Soviet Union and because of this he does not journey to his family here."

"I protest against interference by anyone in my personal life," the letter said. "I like it in the Soviet Union and don't see any reason for going to England where, as I well know, many suffer from want and unemployment."

Episcopalians To Use Radio

NEW YORK, Sept 18. (AP)— As part of $2 million advertising program the Protestant Episcopal Church will broadcast a series of dramatic plays — without sermons, hymns, Biblical readings or prayers.

"The people we want to reach would be scared away by religion," said Robert D. Jordan, promotion director of the church's national council in announcing plans for the broadcasts.

The radio series, to be known as "Great Scenes From Great Plays," will begin Oct. 1 over the Mutual Broadcasting System, he said.

Red Forces Take Chinese Position

PEIPING, Sept. 18. — Quick striking Communist forces today captured the Manchurian city of Suichung and had surrounded or taken Liushouying, 30 miles south of the Great Wall barrier the ancient Chinese erected against the Manchus.

Another Red Force between the Manchurian rail terminus of Chinhsien and Mukden started shelling Ihsien, 10 miles north of Chinhsien, second most important Manchurian city held by government forces.

Press reports here said the Communists in Manchuria were fighting a 'regular war" in that sector; a semi-regular war in Manuchuria.

First Again with MERTOX

Now — A QUART of Medicine for $1.00

Now you can save $4.00 with the NEW Mertox. We know that the thousands of users of Mertox will welcome this drastic innovation. Better health —MORE medicine for LESS money.

Thousands of bottles of liquid Mertox were sold at $1.50. A few months ago we reduced the price to $1.25 because we realized incomes would not s-t-r-e-t-c-h far enough. This price reduction increased our sales volume tremendously. However, we were still not satisfied, for we felt that what was really needed was MORE medicine for LESS money.

But with constantly increasing costs of raw material, bottles, labor, freight rates, etc., we just could not see any possibility of a further reduction.

So we figured: why not eliminate the bottle, the high transportation costs, the extra labor costs of compounding, filling, capping, labeling and a great many other operation costs and put up Mertox in a simple form so that the user could make it himself? Here it is: Mertox in powder form, ready to make by simply adding water. For a few minutes' work you can save $4.00. It's simple; it's easy. Full, illustrated instructions on the package for making and taking.

BETTER HEALTH WITH MERTOX

It has been found by researchers that many physical discomforts often arise from the accumulation of poisonous waste matter in the system and from the lack of certain health-giving elements supplied in plants by nature.

Mertox Compound contains the following ingredients: Black Cohosh, Barberry, Burdock, Dandelion, Gentian, Licorice, Poke, Mandrake, Sarsaparilla roots, Cascara Bark, Buchu leaves, Juniper berries, Senna leaves, Aloes, Magnesium Sulphate, Wild Cherry Bark, Capsicum, Stillingia, Salicylic Acid, Glycerine, Oil Sassafras, Methyl Salicylate, 1/10 of 1% Sodium Benzoate.

Mertox goes to work quickly to help overcome the torturing pains of rheumatism. It tones the bowels into a more rhythmic action. Gas and Bloat, indigestion, sour stomach are quickly relieved. Kidney and bladder troubles are helped so that the annoying broken rest from having to get up frequently at night is lessened. Dizziness and run-down feeling is overcome quickly. Helps to build rich, red blood. Mertox can be taken by every member of the family. It contains no narcotics, opiates or calomel and will not make you sick or nauseate you in the slightest degree.

Meet The "Seniors" of the COSDEN FAMILY

This is the twelfth of a series of a special Cosden presentations, recognizing the long and valued services of those employees who have been associated with Cosden for 15 years and longer. Cosden is proud of the scores of its workers who have contributed to its success through so many years.

LOUIE C. CHAPIN

Another of the Cosden employes who have been with the organization since construction of the Big Spring refinery is Louie C. Chapin. He went to work for Cosden in Big Spring in 1928, helping with the construction of the first Jenkins' stills. He has held various jobs with the company, and at present is serving as watchman.

Chapin was born in Marrietta, Ohio, and attended public schools there. He attended Marrietta College for two years, and then his family moved to Toledo.

Chapin is a veteran of two wars. In the Spanish-American war, he served as a sergeant with the Toledo Cadets, 121st Infantry.

After the war he came to Texas, settling at Beaumont and working in the Spindletop oil field. He was a worker on the first well in Texas to pump oil. Later, he was associated with the old Cosden company in some wildcatting ventures in Oklahoma.

In 1917, he enlisted in the Canadian service for action in World War I, transferred into the British service three months later, trained in England and served in Italy at the Ausseago front until the end of the war.

Mr. Chapin married Miss Bertha Elizabeth Meeks, a Texas girl, in 1927. They now live near the refinery and own their own home. Mr. Chapin devotes his leisure time to raising chickens and beautifying his yard. He is a member of the Episcopal church.

'Best Years,' 1947 Oscar Winner Returns To The Ritz

The triumvirate of Producer Samuel Goldwyn, Director William Wyler, and Cinematographer Gregg Toland, who have worked together in the past to make such memorable motion pictures as These Three, Dead End, Wuthering Heights and The Little Foxes, are reunited again in the production of "The Best Years of Our Loves," 1947 Academy Award winner which returns to the Ritz theater today at popular prices.

This film by Producer Goldwyn, boasts a cast that includes five of Hollywood's top stars and a screenplay by Pulitzer Prize winning Robert E. Sherwood. It is also the longest motion picture ever made by Producer Goldwyn, running three hours.

The history of "The Best Years of Our Lives" goes back to August 7, 1944, when the producer read in an edition of Time an account of a group of young men returning to homes only dimly remembered after years of absence. He saw in this news story a subject for a film that might be of significance to every family in the United States.

He commissioned MacKinlay Kantor, celebrated short story writer and novelist, to do an original story on this theme. When Kantor finally submitted his manuscript, his treatment turned out to be 434 pages of blank verse. It was subsequently published as Glory For Me and distributed by the Literary Guild. Robert E. Sherwood went to Hollywood to work directly with Producer Goldwyn and Director Wyler on the screen play.

By the time Sherwood has completed it, the story had resolved itself into a drama of three men who return to the same home - town, Boone City, and find themselves suddenly plunged into a strange new world in which their lives, and those of the women they love, are curiously entwined.

To play the three characters, Producer Goldwyn wooed Fredric March from the New York stage; exercised his half share of Dana Andrews' time, whose contract he shares with 20th-Century Fox, and brought Harold Russell on from Cambridge, Mass. Russell is a young man whom the War Department featured in a training film called The Diary of a Sergeant. Director Wyle after Russell's screen test, for "The Best Years of Our Lives" went on record to say that he was the best natural actor he had ever tested.

To portray the women of the story, Producer Goldwyn, teamed three of Hollywood's top stars-Myrna Loy, Teresa Wright and Virginia Mayo—and introduced his latest discovery, Cathy O'Donnell, who makes her debut in this picture. The rest of the cast includes such screen luminaries as Hoagy Carmichael (who plays five songs in the film), Gladys George, Roman Bohnen, Steve Cochran, Ray Collins and Victor Cutler.

Technical innovations in the film include the absence of all makeup on the male characters and the revolutionary depth of focus and clarity of photography achieved by Gregg Toland by stopping his camera down to f.8 for almost every shot. This required lighting more intense than ever before used in a black-and-white motion picture. To help Toland light his scenes as accurately as humanly possible, moreover, Sharaff, the studio's costume designer, executed the entire wardrobe exclusively in shades of gray and black and white.

One of the most spectacular scenes in the film was made on location at the Army airfield in Ontario, Calif., where thousands of surplus warplanes lie abandoned ready to be scrapped. For aerial shots in the first part of the picture, John Fulton, special effects expert toured the U. S. in a specially equipped private plane. He also brought back with him screen-tests of all the principal U. S. towns under consideration as the proto - type of Boone City in the script. Cincinnati, Ohio was eventually chosen to represent Boone, and another camera crew was sent there to make further background shots.

TOP STAR — Myrna Loy returns to the screen after a long absence to prove she's still a top star. The actress appears in the Academy Award winning "Best Years Of Our Lives," coming to the Ritz today at popular prices.

'Wild Harvest' Tells Combine Crew Life

Co-starred with Dorothy Lamour, Robert Preston and Lloyd Nolan, Ladd portrays the leader of a tough harvesting combine crew that includes Preston and Nolan. The story concerns their efforts to outsmart rival, unscrupulous crews in obtaining the work of harvesting the vast wheat fields from Texas to Canada.

They are hampered by the machinations of Dorothy Lamour in the role of a predatory female who is determined to break away from the monotony of life on her uncle's farm. She attaches herself to Ladd who, although attracted to her, is more concerned with his harvesting business. He walks out on her in favor of the work. Dorothy gets even by marrying his bes friend and co-worker, Robert Preston. In spite of objections by Ladd, the newlyweds are permitted by the rest of the outfit to travel along with the combine crew, which does not add to Ladd's peace of mind.

Complications develop when Preston gets mixed up in some shady deals with farmers, for which the crew is held responsible, and when Dorothy stirs up additional trouble between her husband and Ladd.

Lulu Belle And Scotty Return To Lyric Screen

An ever popular favorite with rural fans as well as with their more sophisticated city cousins, is pert Lulubelle—or more formally, Myrtle Wiseman. With her husband, Scotty, she headlines the cast of Republic's "Swing Your Partner," which will open today at the Lyric theatre.

Lulubelle hails from the North Carolina hills, having been born in Boone, N. C one Christmas Eve. Her father was upset because he'd wanted a boy but he soon found his daughter more to his liking.

The youngster's earliest ambition was to become a school teacher and when she played with dolls, they were always her pupils in an imaginary class room. But, finally, financial shortages necessitated Myrtle's removel from school before she finished high school. At first she found work as a nursemaid, and later became a salesgirl.

Her next job proved to be her heart's desire—singing on a radio program. In time she landed on the National Barn Dance program and there met her husband. Although they had been born within 40 miles of each other, it took a radio show to bring them together. They concentrated on developing to perfection their highly individualized singing.

Tent Theatre Opens Monday For A Week

A tent theatre sets up on the Read showgrounds on West Third street Monday, for a week's presentation of plays and variety acts. It's the new McKinnon stage show, being offered by an organization headed by the popular West Texas showman, Harley Sadler. The date here is under local sponsorship of the American Legion.

Monday will be a special ladies' night, and an amateur night is scheduled for later in the week.

The company will offer such popular plays as "Ten Nights In A Barroom," "Jesse James;" "Turn To The Right," "Saintly Hypocrites and Honest Sinners," "She Couldn't Marry Three," and a new Toby comedy, "Toby Is Called To Washington."

Between acts offerings featured a Hollywood troupe, Turnip Green and his Stardust Ranch Boys and Girls. There will be other music, dance, comic and novelty specialities.

Youth Sentenced As A Delinquent

The 12-year-old youngster who last week shot a neighboring six-year old boy with a .22 calibre rifle has been sentenced as a delinquent and parolled to his father.

Permission was granted by the court for the boy to accompany his father to California, and J. B. Bruton, juvenile officer, said that the pair had departed fro the West Coast.

In addition to having shot the youngster in the chest (the bullet glanced and lodged in the shoulder without critical effect), the youth also had plugged another lad in the leg as he fled. Theft of a horse at the rodeo grounds also was laid to his account.

So long as he was with other people, the youngster was defiant. He grew tearful, however, at solitary confinement.

Story Of Tycoon's Lust For Power Is Told In State Film

"Ruthless," was a cast headed by Zachary Scott, Louis Hayward, Diana Lynn, Sydney Greenstreet, Lucille Bremer and Martha Vickers opens today at the State.

It is a study of the private life of an unscrupulous business man who is destroyed when he tries to use some of the shady tactics he employed to get to the top in business in an affair of the heart.

As Zachary Scott creates the character of Horace Vendig, self-made financial tycoon in a drama of a man's quest for wealth, power and love at the expense of all who stood in his way.

Nearly trampled in Scott's rise to power are Louis Hayward, his boyhood friend who almost loses the only thing he ever wanted, and Diana Lynn as the concert pianist who fights to resist a great temptation. Destroyed by the tycoon are Sydney Greenstreet, an empire builder who finally awaits his moment for revenge; Lucille Bremer who betrays her husband for love only to be cast off when her usefulnes is ended, and Martha Vickers, who discovers that financial and social contact are not enough to hold the love of a greedy man.

Compelling performances are turned in by the large supporting cast with especially notable jobs by Edith Barret and Dennis Hoey of the Broadway stage and Raymond Burr.

S. K. Lauren and Gordon Kahn have adapted Dayton Stoddart's best-selling novel, Prelude to Night," to bring to the screen an intriguing and fascinating history of a man who is finally consumed by his own evil.

The Eagle Lion Film release was made for Producing Artists by Arthur S. Lyons, producer, and Edgar G. Ulmer, director, both of whom have contributed to make "Ruthless" a gripping study of a man whose only gods were money and power.

HIGHLIGHTS ON KBST

Dramatic Series In 'Quiet Please'

Quite Please, a new dramatic series written and directed by Wyllis Cooper, creator of the original Lights Out radio plays, will bow over the ABC and KBST this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Psychological situations, mysteries and fantasies with comic overtones will be among the dramas featured on Quiet Please. By employing not more than two or three characters in his new series, Cooper points up suspense and subtly impels the listener to identify himself, with the situation dramatized.

Ernest Chapel will play the lead each week, a feat which requires considerable acting versatility.

THEATRE GUILD

Joan Caulfield and John Loder will be starred in "For Love or Money," F. Hugh Herbet's comedy of young love, when it is presented by The Theatre Guild on the Air this evening at 8:30 p. m., over KBST via the American Broadcasting Company network. Vicki Cummings will be featured in the cast.

As Janet Blake, Miss Caulfield will be heard as the other woman in a triangle, a part that calls for both naivete and sophistication, along with more than a little feminine charm. Loder will re-create the role he played in the original Broadway production of "For Love or Money," that of a celebrated actor on the loose. Miss Cummings, also a member of the original cast, will be heard as a woman who knew precisely what she wanted—and didn't quite get it.

TEXANS IN WASHINGTON

Lone Star State Receives Big Wild Life Allocation

By TEX EASLEY

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18 —Texas shares with Michigan the top spot in amount of federal funds allotted to states for projects aimed to increase wild animal and bird population.

For the year which began July 1, these two states each were allocated $539,030 out of the total of $10,780,619 now being disbursed under the Pittman-Robertson Act.

The Act provides tat the 11 percent federal excise tax levied at the manufacturers level on arms and ammunition shall be allocated to states through the Fish and Wildlife service of the Interior department. The money is to be spent for such things as establishment of game refuges, transplanting of animals from one area to another, seeding of grasses and plants on which wildlife feeds, purchase of land and erection of fences.

Although the allocations are made annualy each state has two years in which to qualify for the money. Before the government actually makes the grant the state must submit projects for approval by the Fish and Wildlife service. The state must put up 25 percent of the cost of each project, the balance is paid out of the federal allocation.

Second place position in amount of federal money is held by California, which gets $496.627, and New York is third with $456.754.

The allocations are based one-half on the land area of a state, and one-half on the number of paid hunting licenses. In at least one state, Indiana, there is a strong support to have the word "paid" eliminted from the hunting license qualification. That is because war veterans get licenses free.

None of this particular fund can be spent on development of fish life.

Texas is taking a leading role in wildlife preservation activity says director Albert M. Day of the federal agency.

'We feel that Texas is running a good program down there," he says.

"They have taken steps to increase the wild turkey population and engaged in other such projects as the transplanting of antelopes."

Around the Capital:

Farmers in Georgia and other southeastern states enjoy a $125 per ton government support price on the same kind of peanuts for which Texas growers can obtain only a $210 guarantee.

Rep Lindley Beckworth of Gladewater wanted an explanation for what appeared at first glance to be a discrimination against Texas growers.

The Agriculture Department came back with this reply: The dry invigorating air of Texas causes a higher perentage of split nuts in the shelling process. A ton of peanuts from the more humid sections of the country yields more whole nuts and consequently brings higher price.

• •

Texas has done better for itself than any other state in getting federal funds for rural electrification.

Take the number of customers now served by power lines built with funds loaned by the Rural Electrification. The total is 195,182. The second state is Minnesota with 114,949.

There are 71,000 miles of Texas lines—Minnesota has 46,000.

NOT IT SEEMS DOG TOTES GUN

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Sept. 18.(AP)— The owner of a pistol-toting dog was sought FFriday by police.

Alfred La Tourneau, a fireman, turned up at police headquarters yesterday with a .45 calibre Army weapon which he said he had taken from a dog.

He reported the animal was carrying the revolver in a small bag between his teeth.

Several excited persons had called police to report they had seen the dog with the weapon.

Unit Of SPEBSQSA May Be Organized

Persons with a marked bent for "Close harmony," either as singers or listeners, were advised Friday that organization of a chapter for SPEBSQSA is in prospect for Monday evening.

Dan Conley said that an effort would be made to determine interest at 8:15 p. m. Monday at the YMCA in the formation of a unit of the celebrated Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing In America, Incorporated.

The organization, now with more than 100 chapters over the U. S. and Canada, is devoted to just what its name would imply. It was created in 1938 by a Tulsa, Okla. attorney, Owen C. Cash, who liked to join in close harmony on those old ballads which once wafted from the peppermint portals of those tonsorial emporiums of the past.

To be eligible for membership, one must be a male, congenial, free or of good repute, who can sing (or would like to sing or listen). Other chapters in the area have evidenced an interest in seeing one organized here, said Conley.
