Word that the Santa Fe Railway was changing the schedules of passenger trains through Snyder came as a surprise, since the Texas Railraod Commission a couple of weeks ago had approved Santa Fe's application to discontinue the service.

Nevertheless, the schedules for the "California Special," the official name of the trains, have been changed to the wee small hours — 2:19 a.m. and 5:25 a.m.

There has still been no wrod at all from officials of the railroad about suspension of passenger service here. Public officials and civic leaders at some points along the line — between Houston and Farwell — have expressed doubts that the passenger trains will disappear in the immediate future. However slack the railway passenger business may be, the fact remains that the Santa Fe California Special links Houston, the largest city in the south, with the West Coast.

Snyder, of course, is not likely to generate much passenger business at 2:19 a.m. and 3:25 a.m., but the early (or late) hours here mean better hours somewhere down the line.

A startling tragedy, such as the assassination of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy always causes problems in all areas involved with the principals. A lot of television programs were changed at the last minute in the days immediately following the shooting in Los Angeles. Men in public life such as Sen. Kennedy, often are referred to in the world of entertainment. Some TV programs that had already been taped were pre - empted because of references to Sen. Kennedy, and for some it was too late to do anything about it. In the latter category is the comic strip, Captain Easy.

In today's Captain Easy episode, there is what the Newspaper Enterprise Association calls "an unfortunate, though fleeting, reference to the late Sen. Robert Kennedy."

Since Sunday comic supplements are assembled some 11 or 12 weeks in advance to allow ample time for color processing, printing and shipping, there is not much that can be done to change them once they are on the way. So, it is hoped that readers of the Captain Easy comic will understand.

B52s Pound Routes Of Cong Infiltrators

By ROBERT D. OHMAN
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — American B52 bombers pounded Viet Cong infiltration routes around Saigon with 150 tons of bombs today, as the enemy shelled several cities and allied positions and ground forces engaged in sharp clashes.

The rolling thunder of the 500-pound bombs was clearly heard in the capital as the bombers made two strikes about 20 miles northwest of the city.

Twenty enemy mortar rounds hit the southern fringe of Saigon, wounding two policemen and six South Vietnamese civilians. About 60 Chinese-made 107 mm rockets struck the Bien Hoa airbase 15 miles north of Saigon, but U.S. spokesmen said they inflicted no casualties or damage.

Associated Press photographer Dang Van Phuoc reported sharp fighting in suburban Gia Dinh, where South Vietnamese troops tried to root out guerrillas in bunkers. He said the regulars failed to dislodge the enemy. A South Vietnamese lieutenant was killed and two American advisors were among 17 wounded.

A government spokesman said South Vietnamese paratroopers killed 30 Viet Cong and suffered three wounded in an engagement through a string of hamlets five miles northeast of Saigon.

Forty-eight North Vietnamese regulars were killed in two actions near the demilitarized zone.

Marines of the U.S. 26th Regimental Landing Team counted 21 bodies after repulsing an enemy charge on their night position southwest of Da Nang. Three marines were wounded.

Near the South China Sea, other U.S. Marines pinned down a band of North Vietnamese and the cruiser USS Boston was called in to shell the enemy position. A U.S. spokesman said 27 enemy soldiers were killed.

While allied troops fanned out within the enemy's seven-mile rocket range of Saigon looking for firing sites, enemy gunners zeroed in on supply points, training camps and civilian targets.

The U.S. Marine command reported that 22 of the enemy's 122 mm rockets hit the supply base northwest of DaNang, inflicted light damage on the Cua Viet supply point six miles below the demilitarized zone.

Infantry training centers at Quang Ngai and Chau Doc were mortared and light casualties were reported. Mortar rounds also slammed into the Quang Ngai City airport, killing one civilian and wounding 20 others.

At Can Tho guerrillas fired four mortar rounds into a rice mill, killing four civilians and wounding four others.

A Viet Cong party raided the Vinh Tho refugee camp 15 miles south of Da Nang and abducted 60 persons after setting fire to 20 tents. A U.S. spokesman said the civilians presumably would be used as a labor force.

North Vietnamese shore batteries fired on the Australian destroyer Hobart and the American destroyer Chandler when the two warships shelled a highway bridge 11 miles southeast of Dong Hoi. Neither vessel was hit.

U.S. officials said allied soldiers searching for rocket sites around Saigon have found more rockets than have been fired at the city. Since Jan. 29, they said, about 267 rockets have hit the city, and in the same period allied forces have found 304 of the six-foot rockets in enemy ammunition caches.

New Threats By E. Berlin

By HUBERT J. ERB
Associated Press Writer

BERLIN (AP) — With new threats rumbling out of East Germany Bonn authorities today planned ways to pressure the Soviet Union into stopping East Germany's slowdown of traffic to West Berlin.

Mention of "new and unpleasant surprises" from East Berlin spurred the West German government into seeking talks with allied governments on ways to ease the newly imposed travel restrictions—including the possibility of threatening to refuse to sign the U.N. treaty to check the spread of nuclear weapons.

The treaty, passed Wednesday by the U.N. General Assembly, was drafted jointly by the United States and the Soviet Union.

Observers believe a threat to not sign it would push the Soviets into action with its East German ally because Moscow has voiced strong objections to a nuclear armed West Germany.

Refusing to sign would leave the door open for the West Germans to arm themselves at any time.

Traffic out of Communist-surrounded West Berlin was slowed again today by the new visa restrictions imposed by the East German regime Thursday. Police said the traffic jam started before dawn and cars were lined up for up to four miles on the West Berlin side of the East German border waiting to be processed through an autobahn crossing point.

West Germany called home its ambassador to Moscow on Friday. The move coincided with an editorial in the official East German Communist party newspaper, Neues Deutschland, warning that "there will be new and unpleasant surprises" for West Germany as long as it refuses to recognize the East Berlin government.

Chancellor Kurt George Kiesinger summoned Ambassador Helmut Allardt for discussions that could deal with trading West Germany's signature on the nuclear weapons treaty for withdrawal of the new East German travel restrictions.

In past years, West Germans have been allowed to go to West Berlin through Communist territory with their identity cards but, under the new regulations announced Tuesday, must now pay a $1.25 visa fee and will have to obtain passports by July 15. The East Germans have also imposed new taxes on goods shipped between West Germany and West Berlin.

Policemen Rescue Negro Protestors

By BOB GILBERT
Associated Press Writer

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Police rescued 11 casket-bearing demonstrators—most of them Negroes—from an angry, advancing crowd of George C. Wallace supporters Friday night following the presidential candidate's rally.

Wallace had left the auditorium just before the fracas erupted and did not see it.

The demonstrators carried a child's white casket, a sign saying "Wallace is a Hitler. Crime, Murder, Injustice and Hate Follow Wallace." They carried, too, a picture of four children killed in a Birmingham, Ala., church explosion in 1963.

"The crowd was tense," said Police Maj. Joe Casey. "We didn't arrest the demonstrators. We just brought them in for their own protection and then released them without charges."

A helmeted policeman who reached the surrounded demonstrators said, "I had to knock down one man to keep him off a big Negro. The crowd was going to kill them."

A young white man, not with the demonstrators, was arrested as he walked into the auditorium shortly before Wallace began his speech. Police said the man, identified as George W. Dehoff, 25, of Murfreesboro, Tenn., had a loaded pistol tucked in his belt.

"There was one round in the chamber and about seven or eight rounds in a clip," said Asst. Police Chief Donald Barton. "He was charged with carrying a pistol and released on $50 bond."

Barton said Dehoff identified himself as a "special deputy sheriff" in adjoining Rutherford County and said he had "a permit to carry a gun in that county." The gun was confiscated.

The demonstrators—one of them a Negro man in a wheelchair —were parading in front of the auditorium as Wallace concluded his speech inside by calling for strict law enforcement and asking for the support of all Negroes in Tennessee.

Utility Pole Shattered In Truck Crash

A big truck shattered a utility pole on U. S. 84 west of Avenue G about 3 o'clock Saturday morning, but the driver of the truck, Aubrey Veston Spalding, 1013 S. Central, Hamlin, escaped injury.

City Police, who investigated the mishap, said the driver apparently went to sleep. His 1966 Model Chevrolet 2 - ton truck veered off the road to the right and crashed through the power line pole.

The impact knocked in the right front wheel on the truck and caved in the right front side. Damage to the vehicle was estimated at $750, and damage to the pole was placed at $200.

Employes of Texas Electric Service Co. shut off power in the area so that the pole and lines could be replaced.

The truck is owned by Pied

AT END OF FIVE WEEKS

Talks Still On Dead Center

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
AP Special Correspondent

PARIS (AP) — At the end of five weeks, the peace talks between the United States and North Vietnam rested on dead center today. Neither side showed any sign of making a concession that could break the stalemate.

The next meeting between Ambassadors W. Averell Harriman of the United States and Xuan Thuy of North Vietnam is scheduled for Wednesday following a week-long recess.

During the recess Harriman will consult with his advisers here and keep in touch with policy-makers in Washington.

Since last Wednesday's meeting, which produced another round of argument over how to de-escalate the war, Thuy and his delegation have been silent, but claims of military victory and eventual triumph for the North Vietnamese cause continue to be heard from Hanoi.

The latest came Friday from Defense Minister Vo Nguyen Giap in an interview with the American newspaper El Moudjahid. Giap was quoted as saying the battles now going on in South Vietnam are comparable to the battle of Dien Bien Phu in 1954 in which his forces defeated the French.

U.S. officials believe the stream of victory claims coming out of Hanoi in recent weeks may be designed in part to boost the fighting spirit of the Communist forces in the South. They also believe the verbal barrage is aimed at convincing world opinion that the United States and its allies are losing the war and should therefore negotiate a surrender in Paris.

The issue on which Harriman and Thuy have been deadlocked from the beginning is North Vietnam's demand that the United States stop all attacks on its territory and the U.S. counterdemand that North Vietnam must also scale down military operations.

Although some other topics have been introduced, virtually all the arguments made by Harriman and Thuy in the past five weeks have revolved repetitiously around this initial issue.

Poor People Get One More Week

By TOMSEPPY
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Poor People's Campaign has been given an additional week to remain in its shantytown near the Lincoln Memorial. But a campaign leader says the demonstration will continue until demands are met.

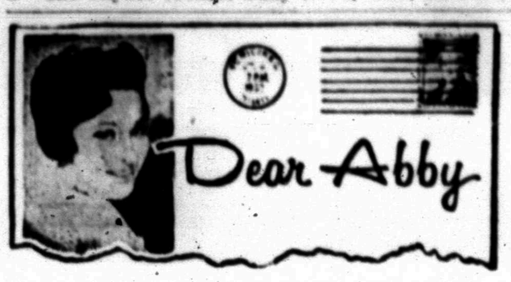

And, says the Rev. Ralph David Abernathy, the main demand is for "M-O-R-E."

Abernathy, head of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference which is sponsoring the campaign, spoke at the National Press Club as his followers protested at the Departments of Agriculture, State and Health, Education and Welfare.

Meanwhile, Frank Espada, chairman of a Poor People's Campaign Puerto Rican March, said in New York some 5,000 persons would converge on Washington today from across the nation.

He said the Puerto Ricans would present their demands at a rally at the Lincoln Memorial.

The Interior Department issued Friday a one-week extension of a permit, originally due to expire Sunday, which allows the Poor People's Campaign to occupy Resurrection City on 15 acres of federal property between the Lincoln Memorial and the Washington Monument.

DEAR ABBY: Beth and I have been married about 10 years and have a very good marriage and two adorable children.

I have been traveling quite a bit lately in my business and it has created a slight problem. Yesterday when I came off the road, after having driven from 7 a.m. until 6 p.m. Beth says, "It's a lovely evening, let's go for a little ride."

When I am out of town I eat in restaurants all the time, which gets pretty tiresome, so when I come home I look forward to a good, home - cooked meal. Well, Beth greets me at the door, with, "I've been cooped up in the house all week, let's eat out."

Tell me, Dear Abby, what is the penalty for wife beating in the state of Nebraska?

RON

DEAR RON: I don't know but I would guess that you'd be ahead to "take a little ride" and eat out occasionally.

DEAR ABBY: The other day a letter came addressed to my husband. Thinking it was an advertisement, I opened it and found several pictures of nude women with a letter saying, "If you want more, send money."

I suppose I am naive, but I was shocked. I don't know whether my husband sent for these pictures or not. If he didn't, shouldn't these people be reported for sending this kind of stuff thru the mails?

My problem is this: I'm afraid if I show this stuff to my husband and question him, he'll start having all his mail sent to his office and I won't see any of it. He is sometimes a little careless with money, and charges things he doesn't want me to know about. I recently quit working, and now I see all the mail before he does, and I like it this way. What do you suggest?

HIS WIFE

DEAR WIFE: Your biggest problem, as I see it, is the obvious lack of communication and mutual trust between you two.

For openers, ask him how he came to be recipient of the girlie gallery. (He may be innocent.) Then present the material (in its original envelope) to your postmaster, who will add it to his bulging file on pornographic abuse of the United States mails. If your husband sent for the stuff, you have still another problem. You are married to a "little boy" who still likes to look at dirty pictures.

DEAR ABBY: I am a maiden lady, 70 years of age. I retired 10 years ago and am making my home with my sister, 74, and her husband, 76.

My brother-in-law is a kind man and a good Christian. We have had a happy home together because we all like to do the same things.

Of course, at our age, any of us might pass away at any time, which raises this question: If my sister should go first, her husband would be utterly helpless to cook and keep house for himself, so since it is "my" house, too, I know my sister would want me to stay on and look after him. But how would this look to other people?

My brother-in-law has no other relatives. Your advice, please?

NAMELESS

DEAR NAMELESS: The LAST thing I would worry about is how it would "look" to other people. Why not wait until the problem presents itself before worrying about how to solve it?

CONFIDENTIAL TO D. WOO: What "old Chinese proverb"? The size of one's ears has absolutely no bearing on the length of one's life. Quit worrying!

No Finks On Links In Fink

FINK, Tex. (AP) — It may sound a little incredible, but Fink hasn't found any Finks who play golf.

This is for the Fink Invitational June 22-23 at the Tanglewood Hills Country Club course about one and a half miles west of here.

The tournament opens National Fink Week which will be climaxed June 27 with National Fink Day.

The Fink celebration began a few years ago about the time the term "fink" came into general use as slang for stool pigeon. The village name made it a natural for world Fink headquarters.

Fink is just a little smaller than a dot on the map. It has four residences strung out along Farm-to-Market 120 and a general store presided over by Mayor Pat Albright.

Her husband, Willard Albright automatically became mayor when the Albrights bought the store. But he felt the responsibility was too much and turned the title over to his wife.

Fink is four miles north of Pottsboro, which is 13 miles west of Denison, which is 75 miles north of Dallas.

The original settlers wanted to name the place Georgetown but the Post Office Department for reasons now unknown named it Fink.

At last year's celebration, about 125 outsiders signed the register at the store, only a few of them named Fink.

Will Stone, chairman of the golf tournament, said 187 invitations were mailed out with not a single Fink on the list. Stone said he tried to get a foursome of Finks but was unsuccessful. But the field is being held open until June 19.

Invited were two name golfers from this area—Miller Barber of Woodlawn Country Club in Sherman and Dudley Wysong of McKinney. Another possibility is Charles Clymer of Denison who beat Wysong in a Gainesville tournament.

All the players will be winners—all golfers get a new ball engraved "Fink Invitational" at the first tee.

Mayor Albright will be in the first foursome.

Good, Flowing Water In Firm's Basement

BIG SPRING (AP) — Flowing water is always a welcome sight in West Texas but not in the basement of a business firm.

Good, clear spring water began flowing recently at a rate of eight gallons a minute into the basement of a downtown hardware store.

A store official said he first thought the water came from a brown water main but investigation proved otherwise.

It was believed that the source was an artesian well which once flowed on the courthouse grounds about two blocks away.

Wheat Allotment

WASHINGTON (AP) — A new wheat allotment—with acreage sliced 13 per cent—has been announced by Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman.

Total acreage was set at 51.6 million for 1969, compared to 5 for this year.

The new allotment should satisfy most farmers. A report in May showed wheat farmers generally favoring a 10 to 15 per cent acreage cut for next year.

Freeman said Friday the reduced allotment "will make it possible to strengthen farm prices and reduce our carryover by around 100 million bushels."

Price supports, the secretary added, will continue at a national average of $1.25 per bushel.

Change Vote On Sale Of Guns

WASHINGTON (AP) — Six senators who opposed a ban on mail order sales of rifles and shotguns only a month ago now favor it, one saying "violence and terror" changed his mind.

The switch in position by the six became known Friday when the administration bill introduced Wedensday was printed and with it the names of 29 Senate sponsors.

The list included Sens. Warren. G. Magnuson, D-Wash., Hugh Scott, R-Pa., William Proxmire, D-Wis., Gaylord Nelson, D-Wis., Edmund S. Muskie, D-Maine and A. S. Mike Monroney, D-Okla.,—all of whom voted in May against an amendment to ban sale of all guns through the mail.

That amendment failed and the gun control legislation that was finally adopted—as part of the omnibus anticrime bill—governs only mail order sales of pistols and revolvers.

The new administration bill represents another attempt to bring rifles and shotguns under the same regulation. It also would prohibit over-the-counter sales of such weapons to persons under 18 or to nonresidents of the state in which the seller does business.

Magnuson's change of heart holds special significance for the new measure since he is chairman of the Senate Commerce Committee, one of two Senate committees to which the bill has been referred.

It was not the assassination of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy that prompted his turnabout so much as "the violence and terror surging through the streets of every city and every state," Magnuson told the Senate.

"This has become a matter of deep conscience," he said.

Magnuson said he is even ready to back compulsory registration and licensing of all firearms. If state and local jurisdictions won't take the responsibility, federal action is called for, he said.

Magnuson said he will do all in his power to get the bill out of his committee without delay.

But the measure also must pass through the Senate Judiciary Committee, where its chances are not as bright. Sen. James O. Eestland, D-Miss., the chairman, has been an opponent of attempts to stop mail-order sales of rifles and shotguns.

Bulking large among other opponents to the bill is the National Rifle Association, which through its monthly magazine triggers a mountain of anti-control mail to members of congress.

Tracy Digs Into Rubble

TRACY, Minn. (AP) — The cleanup of Tracy continued today and authorities feared that more bodies might be found in the rubble of homes struck by a tornado. Two persons were unaccounted for.

Nine bodies have been found since the twister cut through two miles of residences in this farm community, Thursday night. Of the 23 still hospitalized, five were critical.

The Small Business Administration, which designated Lyon County a disaster area, estimated damage at $2.9 million. Property owners in the county, where the community of 28,000 is located, will be eligible to apply for low-cost loans to rebuild.

National Guardsmen, Civil Defense workers, Red Cross volunteers and Salvation Army members worked in the rubble Friday. Gov. Harold LeVander toured the wreckage.

Baptists Ask Solons To Reject Proposal

DALLAS (AP) — The executive board of the Baptist General Convention of Texas Friday asked Texas legislators to reject current efforts to pass liquor-by-the-drink laws.

Members of the board, composed of 192 pastors and laymen also appointed the Rev. Charles Lee Williamson of Waco to serve as director of the convention's mission division.

Williamson has been serving a superintendent of missions for the Waco Baptist Association.

ADA Chairman Asks Votes For McCarthy

WASHINGTON (AP) — John Kenneth Galbraith, national chairman of Americans for Democratic Action, today renewed his support of Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy for president and said "his nomination and election are the liberal answer to the dispair of these last few days."

Galbraith, whose group has supported McCarthy since before President Johnson's decision not to seek re-election, said that 70 to 80 per cent of Democratic primary voters supported either McCarthy or the late Sen. Robert F. Kennedy.

"This is the measure of the rejection of the old politics, of the demand for the new," he told a news conference.

In conclusion, Galbraith said, "we ask every liberal, every citizen, every delegate who claims to be responsive to the public will to come to the support of Eugene McCarthy."

(Craft Studio)

Sealy-Detrich Wedding Vows Exchanged In Church Ceremony

Miss Phyllis Gwen Sealy and Mr. Charles Ronald Detrich were united in 8 p.m. rites at the First Baptist Church of Snyder, June 8th.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don L. Sealy, 2701 Thirty - eighth Street, Snyder, and the groom is the son of Mrs. Chris Detrich, 3766 Sunset, Snyder, and C. A. Detrich of Huntsville, Arkansas.

Rev. G. M. Cole, pastor of the Ridglea Baptist Church of Fort Worth, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride, presented by her father, wore an empire gown of white chiara crepe, highlighted by a band of venise lace that extended the length of the chapel train. Her tiara was of white, crown-fitting petals of appliqued lace, accented by crystal teardrops and pearls, and held her veil of nylon tulle. She carried an arrangement of cymbidium orchids, surrounded by yellow feathered mums.

For the traditional something old and something blue the bride carried a keepsake handkerchief trimmed in blue, which had been given to her mother by her grandmother; something new was a diamond drop, a gift from the groom; something borrowed was her veil, belonging to Mrs. Rex Bird of Fort Worth, college classmate of the bride.

Serving as maid of honor was Donasu Sealy, sister of the bride, of Snyder, with Jan Detrich, sister of the groom, Snyder, and Betty Buchanan of Snyder as bridesmaids. Ginilee Sealy, sister of the bride, was junior bridesmaid.

Attendants were costumed in identical gowns fashioned of orange ice linen, accented with moss green velvet ribbon with white lace on the bouffant sleeves and ribbon around the empire waistline, ending in streamers down the back. Their headpieces were of white daisies on lemon - yellow ribbon and each attendant carried a single lemon - yellow Killiari diasy.

Tom Kincaid, Snyder, served as best man, with Jerry Vestal, Snyder, and Steve Crowell of Big Spring as groomsmen. Max Underwood of Snyder was Junior groomsman. Ushers were Drew Bullard and Charlie Park of Snyder.

Vows were exchanged before an altar of four graduated candelabra with white candles. White bows marked the family pews. The junior bridesmaid and junior groomsman served as candlelighters.

The bride's mother was attired in a yellow linen dress with lace coat and white accessories. The groom's mother wore a gold ensemble with bone accessories. Their identical corsages were white Cymbidium orchids. The grandmothers' corsages were of white carnations.

Traditional wedding music was presented by Miss Emily Kincaid, soloist, accompanied by Mrs. Wayne Bethel, organist.

A reception was held in Fellowship Hall of the church following the ceremony. The bride's table was laid with a white organdy cloth over white with lace inserts, and was centered with a memory candle surrounded with yellow daisies and greenery. Mrs. Rex Bird presided at the three - tiered wedding cake which was topepe with a miniature bride and groom. Mrs. Darrel Aldridge presided at the bride's book. Orange punch and yellow and white mints carried out the bride's chosen colors. Appointments were in crystal. Miss Sharrylon Ator and Mrs. Rex Bird served, and Jerry Tate, of Abilene, cousin of the bride, entertained with piano selections.

Rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's mother at the Country Club.

For traveling the bride chose a costume of white cotton knit, A-line style, with red and white houndstooth double - breasted coat and red accessories. After a trip to points in New Mexico the couple will make their home in Big Spring.

The bride is a 1965 graduate of Snyder High School and is currently studying journalism at North Texas State University in Denton. The bridegroom is also a 1965 graduate of Snyder High School, attended the University of Texas at El Paso and is a psychology major at North Texas State University. He is employed at the Big Spring State Hospital.

Duplicate Players Set Tournament

FORT WORTH — Events for tyros, intermediate and advanced players are on the program for the Republic of Texas Duplicate Bridge Tournament to be played at the Texas Hotel from July 4-7. A special Early Bird match has been arranged. Nationally known because of the strong field it attracts and its hospitality program, about 1,500 are expected from all parts of the country.

One of the internatioally recognized top players to compete is Mrs. David H. Hawed of Fort Worth who is on the woman's team representing the United States at the World Bridge Olympiad in Lausanne, Switzerland from Jun 5 - 21.

Sanctioned by the American Contract Bridge League of Greenwich, Conn., as a sectional tournament, master points are to be awarded in proportion to the number of tables in each match. In addition, a silver trophy is to be awarded winners. The Fort Worth Star - Telegram bowl is to be presented to the player who accumulates the most points during the four days.

On the program are men's, women's, mixed and master's pairs, an open team event, side games, novice sessions and a Saturday morning game for early risers. To make the bridge test as difficult as possible, all major events are to be two session. While it's a problem to have a big score in a one-game match because of the strong field, it is just that much more of a challenge of technical ability when the sessions are dual, said Scott L. Daly, president of the Fort Worth Duplicate Bridge Club, sponsor of the tournament.

John Emery of Wichita Falls of the ACBL staff has been named senior director.

Buffets, social hours, dancing and snacks are on the hospitality agenda.

Some good cooks like to dredge a leg of lamb with seasoned flour before roasting. This is an old - time method, but it's still good!

Hollow out a small edam cheese; mince fine and mix with a little dry vermouth. Pile back into the "shell." Chill and serve with crackers as a before-dinner offering along with tomato juice or some other beverage.

Jackson-Ray Marriage Vows Repeated June 1 At Union

Miss Murray Ann Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Murry Jackson of Union, became the bride of Jimmy Earl Ray, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Ray of Knapp, in double ring rites at 9 p.m. June 1 at the Union Methodist Church.

The Rev. Jesse Dea, pastor of the church, officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal length silk organza over taffeta, with seed pearls on re-embroidered taffeta, fashioned in empire lines with bell sleeves. The chapel train was attached to the back yoke. She wore a headpiece of petals covered with silk organza, adorned with seed pearls and framed with re-embroidered tulle. The costume was designed and created by the bride.

She carried an orchid framed with miniature mums and daisies atop a white Bible.

Marie Jackson of San Antonio, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Her costume was formal length yellow silk linen in empire lines.

Debra Littlepage of Snyder, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. Her dress was patterned after that of the bride.

Bridesmaids were Peggy Smith of Brownfield, cousin of the bride, and Belva Shipp of Colorado City. Their costumes were identical to that of the maid of honor. All attendants carried white streamers and bouquets of yellow daisies.

Bill Laster of San Angelo was best man. Charles Ray of Midland, brother of the bridegroom, and Charles Bell of Snyder were ushers, while Robert Ray of Tyler, brother of the groom, and Mike Sterling of Lubbock were groomsmen. Con Ray of Tyler, nephew of the groom, was the ringbearer.

Bill Jackson, brother of the bride, and Mary Ray, sister of the groom, lighted the candles.

The vows were repeated before matching candelabra, flanked by baskets of white stock, yellow daisies and greenery. There were candles in each window of the church.

Mrs. Dick Ray, organist, sister-in-law of the groom, played traditional wedding music and accompanied Debra Norton who sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

A reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church. The bride's table was covered with a floor-length cloth of white lace over taffeta. Bouquets of the bridesmaids flanked a memory candle. Donna Cobb of Big Spring and Vicki Minor of Snyder served the 3-tiered cake which was topped by a miniature bride and groom. Mrs. Oliver Clerihew of Olney, sister of the groom registered guests.

Mrs. Charles Ray of Midalnd and Mrs. Robert Ray of Tyler, sisters-in-law of the groom, presided at the groom's table and served fruit cake and punch.

For the wedding trip the bride selected a yellow A-line dress with matching full length sleeveless coat, designed and created by the bride. Following the wedding trip the couple will be at home at 373 South Jackson Street in San Angelo.

The bride is a 1968 graduate of Snyder High School. She was a member of the SHS choir and of the Gay 20 Club.

Mr. Ray is a 1965 graduate of Snyder High School. He attended Howard County Junior College, East Texas State University and Angelo State College, where both plan to enroll this fall. He is assistant manager of a food store in San Angelo.

Out-of-town guests here for the wedding were from Olney, Brownfield, Midland, Tyler, Abilene, Gail, Big Spring and San Angelo.

The bridegroom's parents were hosts for the rehearsal dinner at the Knapp Community Center.

Perk Menus With Lamb In A Loaf

Homemakers who frequently need budget aid would do well to use ground lamb for the variety accent.

This is different kind of meat loaf from those usually served mainly because of the seasonings. Finely crumbled bay leaf gets mixed right in with the other ingredients.

With so many different ingredients, make certain they are well mixed but not excessively handled for this meat loaf, cautions Reba Staggs, meat authority of the National Live Stock and Meat Board.

Perky Lamb Loaf

1½ pounds ground lamb
1 cup fine dry bread crumbs
1 cup milk
1 egg
3 tablespoons grated onion
1½ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
2 tablespoons chopped parsley
1 small bay leaf, finely crumbled
¾ cup cooked rice
3 tablespoons chopped pimiento
1 cup cooked peas

Combine lamb, bread crumbs, milk, egg, onion, salt, pepper parsley, bay leaf, rice and pimiento. Mix thoroughly. Add peas mix lightly. Pack firmly into 9 x 5-inch loaf pan. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 1½ hours. 6 to 8 servings.

Canned mushroom soup to which a little milk has been added makes a good sauce for a chicken, turkey, ham or beef biscuit roll. If you like, you can add sauteed sliced fresh mushrooms or the canned variety to the soup when you heat it.

Main Dish Salads Wait In Refrigerator

Feel bent over double after working in the yard? Or sore-kneed and kinky after weeding the flower beds?

These symptoms of gardenitis will probably give way to a hot shower. If supper is almost ready with a main dish calad refrigerating and muffins or rolls heating, then spirits lift easily.

Salad suppers are simple, a good prepare-in-advance kind of meal. If appetites are on the runaway side, serve hot soup in mugs before or along with the salad.

Ready-to-serve meats make easy work out of the salads, points out Reba Staggs, meat authority with the National Live Stock and Meat board. In the case of the frankfurter and German-style potato salad made with bacon, the potatoes cook in advance.

In the Sausage-Bean Duo, summer sausage in bite-sized pieces and bologna in small strips offer contrast to two kinds of beans: pork and beans in their tomato sauce and garbanzo beans (a variety of chick-peas) which are drained.

This German-style potato salad with frankfurters is hot, and might well be served from the skillet on the porch. The sausage-bean combo is cold, with dressing poured over it just before serving.

Mein Frankfurters Und Potato Salad

1 pound frankfurters
6 large or 8 small potatoes
½ pound sliced bacon, cut in ½-inch squares
¼ cup vinegar
¼ cup water
2 tablespoons sugar
1½ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
½ teaspoon celery seed
1 tablespoon prepared mustard
1 cup finely sliced celery
1-3 cup chopped green onion
2 tablespoons chopped parsley
1 tablespoon finely cut pimiento

Cook potatoes in water to cover until tender. Remove peeling from potatoes and slice about ¼-inch thick. Brown bacon pieces lightly, reserving ¼ cup drippings. Combine bacon drippings, vinegar, water, sugar, salt, pepper, celery seed and prepared mustard. Mix well and bring to boil. Add the potato slices, bacon, celery green onion, parsley and pimiento to the vinegar mixture. Mix lightly. Top potato salad with frankfurters. Cover tightly and cook slowly 10 minutes or until heated through. 4 to 5 servings.

Sausage-Bean Duo Salad

1 pound sliced summer sausage, cut in bite-sized pieces
½ pound bologna, cut julienne-style
1 cup diced celery
2 tablespoons pickle relish, drained
¼ cup sliced green onions
1 can (16 ounces) pork and beans in tomato sauce
1 can (16 ounces) garbanzo beans, drained
1 tablespoon vinegar
¼ cup Italian dressing
Lettuce

Combine summer sausage, bologna, celery, pickle relish, onions, pork and beans and garbanzo beans. Chill. Mix vinegar with dressing. Just before serving, pour dressing over salad mixture and toss lightly. Serve on lettuce. 6 to 8 servings.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED — Mr. and Mrs. Eugene D. Miles, 2805 Avenue M, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Billie J. Miles, to Glenn R. Coy, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Coy, 2406 Avenue L. The couple will exchange wedding vows at 6 p.m., July 4, at the Northside Baptist Church, with the Rev. Bill Knight performing the ceremony. (Craft Photo)

BEACH SET — Fashionable out of the swim is summer's newest cover-up: the beach dress. A stylized floral print in sheer cotton is the choice for the high-yoked dress with dainty rickrack trim. At right; its water-loving companion — a two-piece hipster suit in the same fabric with decorative button detail.

Pickled Eggs

1 cup distilled white vinegar
1 cup cold water
½ teaspoon salt
1½ teaspoons peppercorns
1½ teaspoons whole allspice
½ tablespoon chopped fresh ginger or a small piece of dry ginger
6 hard-cooked eggs, shells removed

In a 1-quart saucepan, heat the vinegar and the water to boiling; add salt, peppercorns, allspice and ginger; simmer for 10 minutes. Pack eggs into a wide-mouth quart jar; strain vinegar mixture over them. Cool. If necessary, to keep eggs submerged in marinade, stuff a thick wad of transparent plastic wrapping into the jar over the eggs. Refrigerate overnight or for several days. Makes 6 servings.

SO MANY GAVE SO MUCH . . .

It is impossible for any of us to acknowledge each gift individually, so we take this means of expressing our heartfelt gratitude to all who gave so generously to meet our immediate needs after the tornado destroyed our homes and possessions on May 24, 1968. West Texans Complaining About Time

By ROBERT HEARD

AUSTIN (AP) — Under daylight saving time, the latest sunset in Port Arthur this year will be at 8:21 but in Lubbock it will be at 9:02.

Darkkness will come 30 to 40 minutes after that, just in time for the 10 o'clock news. And Johnny Carson will seem like after-supper entertainment.

Some West Texans do not like it. They are complaining to their legislators.

Rep. Elmer Tarbox of Lubbock says he has received about 500 letters in four or five months from people who want to go back on standard time.

Other lawmakers say they have received a spattering of letters from Dalhart and Odessa.

There is some question whether it would be possible to go back to standard time yearround. A federal law put all states on daylight saving time last year except those whose legislatures specifically exempted themselves.

The Texas House beat down an attempt to exempt the state last year. Could it be done now? Some say yes. Some say no.

At any rate, nothing can be done about it this year unless the governor presents the matter to the special session of the legislature as a topic it is permitted to act on. This is about as likely as a repeal of the sales tax.

Therefore, Lubbock, you are stuck with 9:02 sunsets this year from June 27 through July 2.

And in Amarillo it will be 9:05 because sunsets occur later not only the further west you go but also, during spring and summer, the farther north you go.

If you go all the way to the North Pole, you run into the latest sunset of them all: None.

And if you are puzzled about the latest sunset not occurring on the longest day of the year, June 21, the answer is that the sunrise also occurs later.

Here are Naval Observatory figures on the latest sunsets in some other Texas Cities:

Houston 8:26 June 25-July 7.

Brownsville 8:25 June 23-July 11.

Dallas 8:40 June 27-July 2.

And if El Paso observed central instead of mountain time, it would watch the old ball go down at 9:15.

NEW LENGTH — The hemline in the fashion headlines for late day and evening is the midi. Here it's given ultra-feminine treatment in white embroidered cotton and dainty ruffling. A wide water rose belt accents the tiny waistline

CONFLICT CONTINUING

Viet War America's Longest

By HARRY F. ROSENTHAL
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The war in Vietnam becomes the longest war in American history next Sunday. Six years, six months, one day.

Three days before Christmas in 1961, James Thomas Davis, an amiable Tennessean who used to stuff hoot owls as a hobby, pitched headlong onto a road near Saigon. He was the first American soldier killed by Viet Cong bullets.

Men will argue, as they do in every war where surprise attack or declaration are lacking, about when the war actually began. After all, America has been involved in Vietnam for a quarter century, most intimately since that country was divided in 1954.

But Tom Davis—no one called him by his first name—died in combat Dec. 22, 1961. The tragedy of another American war began.

Six years, six months, one day.

Longer than the six years, six months of the American war of Independence. That war began with a skirmish at Lexington, Mass., April 19, 1775, and terminated with the surrender of Cornwallis at Yorktown, Oct. 19, 1781—two years before the peace treaty actually was signed.

Longer than the four years of the Civil War. That began April 12, 1861, when the guns of the South fired on Fort Sumter and ended April 9, 1865, when Lee surrendered to Grant at Appomattox.

Longer than the three years and nine months of World War II; the three years and one month of Korea; the two years and six months of the War of 1812. Longer than any of the campaigns in the Indian wars.

Officially, Americans were military advisers to South Vietnam before Spec. 4 Davis and nine South Vietnamese were killed in an ambush and, officially, Americans remained advisers for nearly three more years. But young Tom Davis was, in President Johnson's words, "the first American to fall in defense of our freedom in Vietnam."

Nearly 25,000 other Americans have since died there. One was Tom Davis, killed May 6 this year.

Tom Davis was a volunteer, enlisting just before graduation from Tennessee Tech in 1957. He was an instructor at the U.S. Army Security Agency School at Ft. Benning, Ga. when, in early 1961, he wrote home, "I'm going to Vietnam."

James Clarence Davis, a drug store owner in Livingston, Tenn., was like a lot of Americans. He didn't know where Vietnam was—or what it was—until young Americans began going there in increasing numbers—by the hundreds at first in the 1950s, by the hundreds of thousands in the 1960s.

Vietnam is an S-shaped land, hugging the coast line of the South China Sea, south of the Chinese mainland. Its people have known war from the centuries before Christ, when Vietnamese tribesmen settled in the Red River Delta area.

In the 17th century came the first Roman Catholic missionaries from France and by the late 1800s, French forces had gained control not only of Vietnam, but also Laos and Cambodia—the divisions that made up French Indochina.

Then came World War II and Japanese occupation. Before the French could reassert their authority after that war, Ho Chi Minh and his Communists had formed a separate government in North Vietnam. France fought Ho's troops bitterly from 1946 until 1954 when the Communists defeated them in the bloody siege of Dien Bien Phu.

As far back as 1943, President Franklin D. Roosevelt had criticized French rule. He was determined tht the country should have an international trusteeship. It did not come to pass.

On Dec. 23, 1950, the United States agreed to give France direct U.S. military aid in Southeast Asia. It followed that in September, 1951 with an agreement with Vietnam for direct economic assistance.

Then came 1954 and 16,000 French casualties at Dien Bien Phu. Pierre Mendes-France became premier of France on a promise to negotiate peace. The resulting Geneva Conference partitioned Vietnam into two countries with a demilitarized zone along the 17th parallel separating them.

It also imposed regulations on foreign military bases and personnel and on increased armaments, called for countrywide elections leading to reunification to be held by July 20, 1956, and set up an international control commission to see that the accords were carried out.

Neither the United States nor South Vietnam signed the agreements, but the United State promised to "view any renewal of the aggression ... with grave concern and as seriously threatening international peace and security."

Just as the Geneva conference was ending, Ngo Dinh Diem was appointed South Vietnam's premier. One million refugees began flowing to South, Vietnan from the North, including a strong contingent of dedicated, trained Communists.

In the fall of 1954 Diem asked for United States assistance and on Oct. 22, President Dwight D. Eisenhower ordered a crash program to strengthen the Diem regime. One week later, the United States declared its intention to give direct aid.

At Diem's request, the first United States Military Assistance Advisory Group—MAAG—took over training of the South Vietnamese army when the French began moving out in February 1955. The same month, the Southeast Asia defense treaty—SEATO—providing for the collective defense of Southeast Asia, came into being. The signatory nations were the U.S., Britain, France, Australia, New Zealand, the Philippines, Pakistan and Thailand.

Late that year, a gruff-talking Texan, Lt. Gen. Samuel Tankersley Williams—veteran of the initial Normandy landings and five major World War II campaigns in Europe, division commander in four major Korean War campaigns—took over as commander of the 481 military advisers there to build up the South Vietnamese army.

Relaxing in his San Antonio home recently, the now-retired general talked about those days.

When the French pulled out, North Vietnam already had an army of 300,000 battle-trained men, Williams said. But in the South, a weak army with almost no trained officers had its hands full with an armed revolt against the Diem regime by the Binh Xuyen political-bandit group.

The unrest spread throughout the southern provinces with the participation of two religious sects, the Cao Dai and the Hoa Hao.

"If North Vietnam had invaded at that time, they could have walked into Saigon standing up," Williams said. "They couldn't have been stopped.

"I was under the impression at that time that if Ho Chi Minh had moved his army into South Vietnam he would have had to move Chinese divisions into North Vietnam to hold his people under control ... and I believe Ho Chi Minh would hesitate to do that for fear he would never get the Chinese out again if he invited them in. And I still view that to be true even today."

Junior Editors Quiz on POLITICAL PARTIES

QUESTION: How did we get two major political parties — Democratic and Republican?

* * * *

ANSWER: At first we had two parties, Federalists and Anti-Federalists. The Federalists worked for a strong central government. The Anti-Federalists supported states' rights. Such Federalists as George Washington, Alexander Hamilton and James Madison succeeded in establishing a powerful constitution, and the Federalist party was in control until 1801, when Thomas Jefferson emerged as leader of an opposition party. This stressed states' rights and a program of democratic progress. Dominating the government from 1801 to 1861, this was, from 1829, called the Democratic party, which split into two factions, north and south, over the issue of slavery. Meanwhile, the Federalist party came to be known as the National Republican party and then the Whig party. An issue arose as to whether slavery should be extended into the new territo ies of Kansas and Nebraska. In 1854, some of the Whigs violently opposed the idea of more slavery and succeeded in forming a new party based on this objection. This was the beginning of the Republican party which in 1860 had its candidate, Abraham Lincoln, elected as president.

Sports Hand Buffs 1st Loss, 7-1

The Sports put down the Buffs 7-1 Friday night in Towle Park on a 2-hitter twirled by Robert Phariss and Wall.

The Junior Teenage Sports erupted for five runs in the 4th after the Buffs went ahead 1-0 in the opening stanza. Two more Sport runs in the 7th were added for good measure.

Jim Province singled and scored the only Buff tally. The other single, in the third, went to Bobby Thompson.

An error, three walks and singles by Cobb and Mike Line accounted for the five - run uprising by the Sports in the 4th. Their final two tallies resulted from three walks and singles by Terry Arnold and Phariss. Elbert Klein doubled for the Sports in the 2nd. It was the only extra base hit of the game.

It was the first loss handed to the Buffs.

Hargrove Is Golf Champ

MIDLAND — Three Snyder youths competed in the PGA's West Texas Chapter Junior golf tournament here Friday with Mark Hargrove winning first place in the 12-13-year-old age group with an 86. He finished one stroke ahead of runnerup Mark Nobles.

Glen Rambin placed third in the 14-15-year-old division with a 79. Phil Ator competed in the 16-17 age bracket, and he carded an 84.

Braves, Yankees Clip Cubs, A's

The Braves shellacked the Cubs 20-8 and the Yankees clipped the Athletics 8-3 in two exciting Little League games held in Towle Park Friday night.

The Cubs just waited too long to get started. They scored all eight of their runs and got all four of their hits in the last inning. Their hits — all singles — were registered by Ricky Howell, Bobby Wall, Clay Hill and Jim Browning.

The last inning was also the big inning for the Braves — they scored 14 runs in that frame. But they also tallied in every inning and five of their 14 hits were of the extra base variety.

Ralph Lewis poked two home runs and Steve Talbott lofted one over the fence. Lewis also socked a triple while going four for four. David Yearwood added a double. Talbott, Greg Godair and Dennis Young each slammed two safeties while single hits were registered by John Boren, Tim Jones, and Roy Gill. Boren was the winning pitcher.

The A's almost matched the Yankees in hits. They had six compared with seven for the victors. But the Yanks had a little more oomph to their attack with Joe Hardin slamming two doubles and Clay Bishop cracking one.

David Reed got the only extra base hit for the A's — a double.

Hardin went 3 for 4 while single hits were contributed to the Yank cause by Mark Harless, Randy Gressett and Randy Rinker. Larry Price, Sidney Montgomery and Weldon Cobb all hit one single for the A's, and Barry Keller picked up two.

Clippers Nudge Jets In 11th Frame, 4-3

That Senior Teenage tussle between the Clippers and Jets rocked along for 11 innings in Towle Park Friday night before the Clippers pushed across the winning run for a 4-3 verdict.

With the score tied 3-3, Billy Jack Weaver opened the 11th for the Clippers. He missed the third strike, but the catcher dropped the ball and Billy was safe at first. Subsequent throwing errors enabled him to go all the way to third. Then Terry Holt cracked a hot liner to the third sacker. The ball bounced off his chest and Weaver scooted in with the winning run.

Each team got only five hits during the extra - inning contest. Jim Patrick was the winning pitcher. He shared mound chores with Tony Suttle and Steve Holder. The loser, Merce Hermandez, only twirled one inning after starter Brad Morgan was pulled in the 11th under the 10 - inning rule.

The Clippers scored first on a triple by Terry Holt and an infield bobble in the 1st frame.

The Jets evened the count in the 2nd on a walk, an error and a single by Roxy Small.

Each team tallied twice more in the 5th. The Jets got their runs on two errors and a single by Jodi Williamson. The Clippers stayed even with two more runs on two errors, a stolen base and singles by Patrick and Mike Levens.

Both teams threatened several times before Holt's hot liner ended things.

The Clippers put runners on third base in the 6th, 7th, and 9th frames but couldn't get them in. Brad Morgan bore down and retired the sides on all three occasions — on a strikeout and two infield outs. In the 8th, Holt reached third after a hit and a stolen base, but another strikeout put out the fire.

The Jets put men on third in the 6th and 8th innings, but couldn't muster a scoring punch. Strikeouts in both innings spoiled their bid for an upset.

Holt led Clipper hitters with two for five while Almond, Patrick and Levens added the other safeties. All of the Jets hits were singles. Williamson collected two of them and the others went to Steve Moffett, Small and Morgan.

The victory leaves the Clippers in first place with a perfect 4-0 record. The Jets slipped to 1-3.

ROCHESTER OPEN

Bland Bert Has Two-Stroke Lead

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP) — There's an all-American-boy air, a certain mild naivette, about big, blond Bert Yancey, the second-round leader in the U.S. Open Golf Championship.

"Right now, I'd be very happy to settle for a 140 for the next two days," he said, bland and straight-faced as ever after posting a 68 for 135—equaling the best opening, 36 holes ever shot in an Open—and a two-stroke lead Friday.

It seemed like a reasonable statement. All such a performance would do is tie Jack Nicklaus' all-time record of 275 in this most prestigious and demanding of all the world's golf tournaments.

It was impossible to tell from Yancey's impassive face if he was aware of what he was saying, but it's very, very possible indeed that such a performance may be necessary if he is to stand off the challenge of brash Lee Trevino and some of the game's more glamorous names, who refuse to roll over and play dead.

"He has to catch me," Yancey shrugged when Trevino came in with his two-under-par 68 and remained two strokes off the pace after 36 holes over the 6,962-yard, par 70 Oak Hill course. The implication was that so would the rest of them.

"I still think I can win," said Billy Casper, the season's leading money-winner who rebounded with a second-round 68 for 143. And Billy, fully recovered from a back ailment that plagued him on opening day, grinned broadly.

"He can be caught," said defending champion Nicklaus, who had a par 70 for 142. "He can't be caught if he keeps up this pace, but that doesn't mean he will keep up that pace."

Arnold Palmer wasn't saying much of anything. He stumbled in with a 74—he didn't have a single birdie—for 147 and was a dejected and crestfallen man.

Charles Coody, who shared second place after the first day's play, slipped to a 71 for 140 and a tie for third with Don Bies, 70, Australian Bruce Devlin, 69, and Jerry Pittman, 67.

Nicklaus was bunched in a herd of 11 at 142.

Cliff Loses To Temper

BRISTOL, England (AP) — Cliff Richey, the firebrand from San Angelo, Tex., has been eliminated by his temper from the West of England Tennis Championships.

Arthur Ashe of Richmond, Va., had just broken Richey's service for a 3-2 lead in the third set of their semifinal match Friday when Richey belted the ball out of the court.

Col. Harry Evans, the umpire, told Richey not to do that again. Richey said he would do what he wanted. One word led to another and finally to Richey's disqualification.

Richey had won the first set 6-4 and Ashe the second 6-3. The disqualification put Ashe into the final against Clark Graebner of New York, who beat Jim McManus of Berkeley, Calif., 6-3, 6-3.

Kerry Melville of Australia won the women's title by defeating Karen Krantzcke of Australia 6-3, 6-3.

West Makes Clean Sweep

The Western Division of the Texas League made a clean sweep of its games Friday night with the Eastern Division.

Albuquerque stayed atop the western standings by three percentage points with a 2-1 victory over Dallas-Fort Worth. El Paso stayed on the Dodgers' heels with a 17-6 victory over Shreveport. In other games, Amarillo nipped Eastern leader Arkansas 7-6 and San Antonio downed Memphis 6-2.

Henry Williams of Albuquerque pitched a five-hitter to best the Spurs' Bob Watkins in a mound duel. Del Sudakis drove in the winning run with a single.

El Paso buried Shreveport with a 19-hit attack, featuring two home runs by Don Wilkinson.

John Harrell was the hero for Amarillo, pushing across the winning run with a single in the eighth inning.

Memphis contributed six errors to the Shreveport cause, three of them during a five-run rally in the second inning.

In games tonight, Amarillo is at Memphis, Dallas-Fort Worth at El Paso, San Antonio at Arkansas, and Shreveport at Albuquerque.

Weak Hitting Astros Fall

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The weak-hitting Houston Astros managed but two singles Friday night off Pittsburgh rookie Bob Moose and sank even deeper into the National League cellar.

Moose, who beat the Astros 3-0, pitched 7 2-3 innings of no-hit ball before Julio Gotay singled into the eighth. Ron Davis stroked another single in the ninth.

The rookie walked Rusty Staub with two out in the first inning and then retired 21 straight batters.

There has never been a no-hitter in Forbes Field since it opened in 1909.

Pittsburgh scored the only run it needed off Denny Lemaster in the second inning on a bunt single, a steal of second, an error and a single.

Yanks Shell A's, Cubs Bomb Braves

The Yankees shelled the Athletics 21-11 and the Cubs bombarded the Braves 16-9 in two hard - fought Farm League tussles Friday night in Towle Park.

Strangely enough, the A's outhit the Yanks, 9-6, but they gave up too many Annie Oakleys — 1 — to stay in the game.

A 13 - run uprising by the Yanks in the 3rd decided the issue.

Richard Kruger socked two doubles and Mitchel Smith blasted one for the Yanks. Both boys got two hits each while Ronny Hester and Larry Landreth added singles.

For the unfortunate A's, Reed Wilson stroked a double and two singles. Phil Banks and D. Hobbs each hit a double while Anthony Lewis hit two singles and David Rice and Marvin Walton each hit one single.

The Cubs outhit the Braves 12-7 and they also held a big edge in extra base smashes. Tim Collier, Dwaine Collier and Jessie Rollins each cracked three hits. Included among Jessie's safeties were two triples while Dwaine Collier smacked two doubles and his brother hit one. Eddie Rollins got two hits, including a double, and Jay Duck cracked one two - bagger. All of the Cub hits were for extra bases.

Only one Brave was able to double — Brad Francis. None of the Braves got more than one hit. Singles were credited to Doyle Browning, Jeff Brown, Ricky Jackson, Mike Spivey, James Smiley and James Spivey.

DEFENDANTS TO APPEAL

Spock, Associates Convicted

By WILLIAM F. NICHOLSON
Associated Press Writer

BOSTON (AP) — Baby doctor Benjamin Spock, Yale University Chaplain William Sloane Coffin Jr., and two others have been convicted of conspiracy to counsel young men to evade the draft. A fifth defendant was acquitted.

"My main defense," Spock said, "was that I believed a citizen must work against a war he feels is contrary to international law. The court has decided to feel differently."

After the conviction Friday night by an all-male federal jury, Spock's counsel, Leonard Boudin, and defense attorneys for the other three said there would be an appeal to the U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals. The four men were expected to carry their appeal to the U.S. Supreme Court, if necessary, as part of their opposition to the Vietnam war.

Convicted with Coffin and the 65-year-old pediatrician were Michael Ferber, 23, a Harvard graduate student, and Mitchell Goodman, 44, a writer and teacher from Temple, Maine.

Marcus Raskin, 34, a Washington research director, was found innocent by the jury after seven hours and 20 minutes of deliberation. The trial began May 20 and lasted four weeks.

Raskin walked from the 12th floor courtroom in federal courthouse, his head down and tears in his eyes.

"I feel very good for myself," he said in a choked voice, "and badly for the others."

Raskin's lawyer, Calvin Bartlett, maintained during the trial that Raskin was not part of any conspiracy and barely knew his co-defendants.

U.S. District Judge Francis J. W. Ford ordered Spock and the other three freed in personal recognizance until sentencing on July 10. They face maximum sentences of five-year prison terms and $10,000 fines.

The jury, in a list of findings on specific charges made in the indictment, found that Spock and the other three conspired to counsel, aid and abet Selective Service registrants to refuse or evade duties under the Selective Service Act.

"My belief has always been," Coffin said, "that the issues we wanted to bring before the court were never argued. That's the legality and constitutionality of the war and the draft. Perhaps the appeals level is the place to do it."

Later, at a news conference on the first floor of the courthouse Coffin added, "I speak for all. If this is a conspiracy, we have the lightning bug confused with the lightning."

Coffin added he was "absolutely delighted" that Raskin was acquitted and described the acquittal as "an important victory for the First Amenment," which guarantees free speech.

"If the jury had found all five of us guilty there would have been the danger of an epidemic of indictments against people who are protesting the draft and the war."

CAREER CORNER

WHERE TO GET CAREER INFORMATION

The Omaha World - Herald and Miss Lain award a new Mercury portable, courtesy of the Royal Typewriter Company, to Mrs. Sandra Baquet, Omaha, Nebr., for her question:

"I'm the mother of five children — each has different interests. I would like to help guide their vocational choices but I don't know about many jobs myself. In addition to collecting your articles, how can people find out about careers?"

A — Each career - scope in this column is a "taster" of the unbelieveable panorama of career opportunities available today. When you see something you like, I hope you'll follow up with the resources I mention. In addition to regular newspaper reading to stay current, here are a few other general ideas. I'll pass on more from time to time.

Counselors — in School. Your guidance counselor can be a goldmine of information. Ask what vocational aptitude tests are available. Check college or trade school catalogs and career material in your counselor's office. Take advantage of opportunities to visit businesses or college campuses through "career day" programs. Let your counselor know you're sincerely interested.

Counselors — out of school. Many cities have not-for-profit counseling agencies with fees based on ability to pay. These may be listed under "vocational counseling services" in the phone book or ask your library for the "Directory of Approved Counseling Agencies," by the American Board on Counseling Services.

Libraries — bless them all If you don't know your way around a library, this is a good time to learn. Librarians are usually more than willing to help, but for a start, check the card catalog under "vocational guidance" for general books. Then check under a subject you're interested in, and don't forget encyclopedias. Magazines, particularly the specialized trade publications, are a good source; the Reader's Guide to Periodical Literature is an index of articles by subject.

State employment services. Most people wait until they want a job to call upon these free and valuable public agencies. But did you know that state employment services may also help with counseling, testing, vocational choice and training referral?

Observe and ask questions. Of course, you can't possibly find out all about an occupation by reading. One of the best additional ways to explore is by observing and talking with people who are working in your field of interest. Don't be timid about asking such people for an appointment and have your questions ready in advance.

Good pamphlets. "Need a Lift?" is an excellent roundup of career helps and scholarships for college students. It's available for 25 cents from The American Legion, Dept. S., Box 1055, Indianapolis, Ind. 46206. "Facing Facts About Career Opportunities for the High School Graduate," free from The Prudential, Box 36, Newark, N.J. 07101. "B'nai B'rith Vocational Service Catalog" (free), 1640 Rhode Island Ave. N.W., Washington D.C. 20036. "Keys To Careers in Science and Technology," costs $1.00 from National Science Teachers Assoc., 1201 16th St. N.W., Washington, D.C. 20036. (This is a 52-page bibliography of other sources.)

Sailor Has Vivid Report Of Battle

E. O. Hardy, 311 Thirty-fourth Street, has received a vivid description of a military action involving the ship on which his son is serving in the U. S. Navy.

In a recent letter home, Rodney Hardy, DKSA, USN, enclosed a mimeographed narrative furnished by the commander of the USS Henry B. Wilson (DDG-7), describing battle action.

"At 2:05 p.m. on June 3, 1968, the USS Henry B. Wilson (DDG-7) was hit by the North Vietnamese shore batteries about four miles from Don Hoi," E. L. Finke, Commander, USN, noted in his report. "Taking one direct hit and several near misses, the Wilson immediately turned seaward and commenced to return the communist fire. The direct hit was in the after stack and is believed to have been 85mm.

"Near misses were taken amidships and near the bridge. One man was wounded superficially and was immediately evacuated by helicopter to the USS Enterprise. Shrapnel could be found almost the length of the ship, even the Wilson's battle flag was holed. The San Diego based destroyer was firing at a truck park location near Dong Hoi and had nearly completed its mission and was turning seaward at high speed when the North Vietnamese opened up."

Cmdr. Finke went on to describe how the youngest first class petty officer aboard the destroyer, Roger E. Watson of Sanford, Me., saw the first round of communist fire land about 25 yards off the starboard side of the destroyer. The next round hit the starboard side of the rear smokestack of the destroyer.

But the best part in Cmdr. Finke's report involved subsequent events — after the wounded man had been transfered.

"This Seventh Fleet Destroyer then had the opportunity to turn around and demolish the batteries which had fired upon the ship," he noted.

The Wilson, which is the flag ship of Capt. John C. McGill, Commander Destroyer Division 212, fired her 10,000th round against the enemy since March during this engagement.
