JUST HERE and THERE

C. W. Barker of the southeast part of the county has a very valuable collection of jewelry which he picked up on the highway near his ranch. He would be glad to return same to the lawful owners if they can prove ownership.

Here's some excerpts from service newspapers.

He: "I can't see what keeps girls from freezing."
She: "You're not supposed to."

He: "Let's get married or something."
She: "We'll get married or nothing."

GE: "Say, whatever became of those old fashioned gals who fainted when a boy kissed them?"
Gal: "Huh! Whatever became of the old-fashioned boys who made them faint?"

"Halt, who's there?"
"Officer of the day."
"Well, what the hell are you doing out at night?"

"I'll be frank with you," said the soldier when the embrace was over. "You're not the first girl I ever kissed."
"And I'll be frank with you," she replied. "You've got a lot to learn."

(Classified ad in Camp Beale Bealiner: Maybelle: Consider our engagement at an end. It's all very well for a girl to look before she leaps, but you've been shopping around a little too much—Herman.

Here's a letter from our good friend, G. E. Lemon, who lives in the east part of the county near Booker.

Dear Editor:
This is a protest. You see I think bouquets are for dead people and complaints for the editors. I remarked recently that every time I tell my friends that the war will be over soon, old Secretary Knox calls me up on the air and gives me a balling-pout about it.

Now the Ochiltree County Herald is guilty of the same thing and I am mad about it. I refer to this statement in "Here and There," Sept. 16. "It's a fact that a lot of people here and all over the nation actually think that this war is about over. As a result there has been a letting up on the war effort."

I can't dispute the statement for it seems that all our militarists from the President down are agreed with you. But that's what I am kicking about. Convince me that we are on the finish and I will want to put everything I've got in the final knockout, but make me believe it is to continue a few years, and I will give up in despair.

Surely I am not alone. I note that Germany has fed their folks on enthusiasm and expectancy "til it has soured on them and still they are putting up a pretty good fight."

I don't believe in making promises that sour so quickly but I do think we should at least have a little room for hope. I can't believe that was won by melancholy and blues. The only statement of our losses in Italy that I have seen came from Germany, 10,000 dead and 10,000 captured.

Christian Science

"Reality" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, September 26.

The Golden Text is: "Since the beginning of the world men have not heard, nor perceived by the ear, neither hath the eye seen, O God, beside thee, what he hath prepared for him that waiteth for him" (Isaiah 64:4).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "All thy works shall praise thee, O Lord, and thy saints shall bless thee" (Psalms 145:10).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "God created all through Mind, and made all perfect and eternal" (page 208).

NEWS in the WORLD of RELIGION by W.W.R.E.I.D.

"A new idea has found its way into the thinking of the masses," says Bishop Hebert Welch (Methodist), of New York. "It is the idea of the worth and the dignity of the individual man, the idea of human brotherhood based on the fatherhood of God. This has in it the germ of a new social order. This is the answer to the problems of individual pride and bigotry, of class antagonisms, of racial intolerance, of national lust for dominance over other peoples. This is the basis, and the only basis, of a genuine internationalism which must lead to world organization for justice and for peace. The Gospel of Jesus Christ is the master creative force of world history."

The Pasadena Community Church of St. Petersburg, Florida, Dr. J. Wallace Hamilton pastor, has devised a plan of War Service Membership which makes it possible for absent men in the armed services to share in the fellowship of the home church. To each man in service is sent a pledge card which he is asked to sign. The card says, "I believe in

Says It Beats Hellouta Walking

Above is a picture of the car made by Cpl. Loren E. Allen and buddy at an airport some place on the Middle Eastern European front. Loren is a son of Mrs. Mattie Allen of Peryton. He was raised in this city and attended grade and high school here. Before going into service on Oct. 27, 1942, he was employed at Boeing Aircraft, Wichita, Kansas.

The above cut is reproduced from the "Stars and Stripes" published at Cairo, with the following comment by the official Army publication.

"Named 'The Bastard on Wheels' by members of a 9th U. S. Air Force heavy bombardment group, this weird, but fast-moving contraption in the foreground was built by Cpl. L. E. Allen of Peryton, Texas, and S/Sgt. Kenneth Hope of St. Petersburg, Fla. The ingredients which went into the steamed nightmare included an Italian truck frame, an engine from a German motorcycle, wheels from a British bomb trailer, gas tanks from a Liberator and gas throttle from a Nazi bomber. Other parts of the scooter are of unknown parentage or nationality. But the soldiers who get out of it way when it comes across the countryside swear its mother was frightened by a cannon shell."

Dead Vines, Weeds, Dry Grass Makes Good Compost Heap

Instead of burning dead leaves and dry grass from the lawn and dried up weeds, vines, and plants left in the garden, the foresighted Victory gardener will use them to start a compost heap for the improvement of future gardens. Vegetable trimmings and leafy refuse from the kitchen add valuable materials to the compost heap.

A compost heap furnishes organic material to improve garden soil. Finished compost is a well-turned or well-spaded mixture of soil and decayed plant material, usually with manure or commercial fertilizer added.

Simple Compost Heap
A simplified method of making compost, suitable to the small Victory gardener, is suggested by the garden specialists of the Research Administration of the Department of Agriculture.

Start a heap six or seven feet square, with a two- or three-inch layer of soil. Follow with a six-inch layer of waste such as leaves, grass and dead vines or plants (but avoiding pine needles or very heavy weed stalks). Then alternate these layers, keeping the sides vertical and the top either flat or dish. Boards or old fencing may be used to hold the compost heap together. It may be built up four or five feet high.

To assist in the rotting, water the heap enough to keep it damp clear through and add to each layer of plant waste fresh animal and poultry manures, or a few handfuls of a complete fertilizer high in nitrogen, cottonseed meal, or similar nitrogen-containing plant food. The soil in the compost heap absorbs the products of the decayed vegetable matter, prevents loss, and makes compost convenient to handle.

Do not add lime or wood ashes to the compost heap, because they cause loss of nitrogen from the fermenting vegetable matter.

Improves Condition of Soil
Turn the pile two or three times a year to make good compost. It takes a year or more to make fine compost, although a rough, usable product may be made in less time.

Compost, the garden specialists say, does not replace fertilizer, but is used primarily to improve the physical condition of the soil. Good compost is much richer than most soils, so it should be kept carefully stored in piles so that it will not be lost by wasting and scattering, or weakened by leaching or washing.

Lake View Tattler

Just finished cleaning out the dust from yesterday's wind so here I sit with no news to amount to anything.

Knox and J. W. Pipkin had their wheat just about sowed Friday morning. The wheat that was sown a week ago in this community, is looking fine.

Sam was just ready to oil up the drills and go to sowing when he broke a bone in his foot. He had just been wishing he had nothing to do but read, but it doesn't seem he is enjoying the sitting around so much. He is really learning to wing around on a pair of crutches, while Jack McGlothlin keeps the farming work humming. And the old cow that Sam was always telling wouldn't stand still to be milked, and this, that and the other about that old cow. I have learned, stands perfectly still and gives about four times as much milk as he brought in. Jack took over the care of the milk goat I was having such a time with.

Lawson Deck lost his sheep last week and didn't know where to find them. He wasn't waiting for them to come home wagging their tails behind them. He and W. M. Deck were over here looking for those sheep before the men folks here were up for breakfast.

The Pipkin ladies were canning greens Friday morning. The writer called there and also called in the Gilman Flowers home and carried off a lot of okra and turnip greens. John Sim is making the dust fly planting his wheat. Mrs. Sim and daughters Edna and Hila shopped in Spearman, Saturday afternoon.

While in town last week I learned that Mrs. E. B. Yoakley has been a very busy lady this summer and some of the country sisters that think the town house keepers don't have much to do should take notice. Mrs. Yoakley has canned 90 quarts of peas, 80 quarts of corn, 30 quarts of okra, 65 quarts tomatoes, 40 quarts of beans, three bushel of peaches, two bushels pears, one bushel of apples, fifteen cans of black berries, has engaged a bushel or two of beans to can, had a small victory garden that was hauled out but it takes more than a hall to dampen her ambition to conserve for home use and in that way send her share to the battle fields and the hungry of the other countries. She also has about 40 hens and thirty five young chickens Reese, the son, stated he had not had time to go fishing this summer. Mrs. Yoakley and son were working in the jewelry store while Mr. Yoakley had gone to market.

Mrs. Oscar Flowers was a very busy lady one day last week canning peaches and the way she was getting the job done proved she was an old hand at canning.

Cecil Dodd Sets Fine Production Record

Great appreciation for the production record he has accomplished to date this year, despite the handicaps imposed by war, is expressed in a communication received today from Richard R. Lee of Dallas, vice president and agency director of the Southwestern Life Insurance Company by Cecil Dodd.

"The impact of war," Mr. Lee's communication said, "gives every insurance agent an unequalled opportunity for public service. You are helping your clients to build a stronger economic future for themselves and at the same time, your work results in the creation of an immediate bulwark against the threat of inflation."

"I congratulate you on the record."

Let's Make It a Personal Fight!

This month will witness an event heavy with significance. In many ways it will transcend, because it will determine, political and military events on both home and battle fronts. It is likely to have a profound influence upon the length of the war—involving the sacrifice of men, property and perhaps that state of our future form of government.

This month the Government requests from its individual citizens the voluntary investment of $15,000,000,000, the largest financing program in the world's history.

The response will spell out answers to questions in the minds of our own people, in those of our Allies, and, more important, in those of our enemies.

Dollars in this case speak louder than lips, than parades, than resolutions, than Acts of Congress. Earnest money is a time-honored phrase among all peoples. It is a pledge; it is a token of determination. It comes from our sweaty labor of today, or from the result of our labor of yesterday. A voluntary out-pouring of dollars will drive down the morale of Jap and Hun more quickly and definitely than the drafting of a million sons and fathers.

We Americans boast of our freedoms. We exhort other unhappy peoples to note and take hope. We set up our freedoms of choice, or voluntary methods against the disciples and compulsion of dictatorial regimes.

Today we face an obligation, an obligation to pay. We cannot endure as an insolvent republic. That way dictatorship lies. Liberal governments are wrecked on the shoals of loose fiscal policy.

If we do not meet voluntarily this war obligation, what then? The alternative? Forced loans and forced labor. If voluntary financing fails, make no mistake, compulsory financing will follow quickly. But the fear of forced buying and even capital levies is to put the case upon a gross material basis. The fear should be in the loss of that freedom of choice which we are defending and which we promise to our vanquished foes.

Great news, indeed, if the announcement should come around October 1, that Tokyo had been successfully bombed, that Italy was training her guns on Germany, that Allied soldiers were marching against Berlin from the mainland. But the best substitute for such a morale-building event for us, and most destructive of enemy morale, will be the announcement that the hearts and will and sinews of the American people are in this war to the finish.

A September war bond proudly pocketed by 40,000,000 Americans will chill the zeal of the war lords of Japan and Germany. And it will create a fighting spirit at home, a determination to win completely and quickly, that will carry us surging forward in our resolve to build, post war, a better world in the tradition of free America.

Liberal Race Meet Oct. 6-9

LIBERAL—(Special)—The fifth annual Fall Race Meet, sponsored annually by the Liberal Junior Chamber of Commerce, will get under way here on Wednesday, Oct. 6, the first of four big days of the 1943 meet.

The meet, which continues thru Thursday, Friday and Saturday promises to be the biggest and best yet to be run on the Seward County Fair Ground half-mile track. Six running races will be held daily starting promptly at two o'clock p. m.

Headlining the between race attractions will be Jack and Jean Randall, acrobatic adagio dancers, who have performed to limited audiences in Liberal before and are reputed to be of high caliber. Other entertainment is being secured through the Special Service division of the Liberal Army Air Field. Many top-notch performers, who toured the nation's leading fairs and exhibitions before their induction or enlistment into the army air forces, are present at the field and have been secured for the between-race acts.

Another new feature of the 1943 meet, is the addition of an electric starting gate of the type being used at the nation's biggest tracks. The gate insures prompt running of the races and insures horsemen of an even break at the starting gate. The latter fact assures the meet of a high type of ace horses or horsemen.

The T. J. Tidwell Shows and Carnival will be on the midway, opening on Monday, Oct. 4, two days in advance of the race meet.

Also a feature of the meet will be two dances on Thursday and Satur-

Workers Ready on Census Drive

Lately representatives from seven denominations were at the meeting of the volunteer religious census workers which met on September 20. These workers are co-operating splendidly to secure some vital information. They will contact you in your home between two and four o'clock on Sunday afternoon the third of October.

The ministers and christian workers of Perryton will be better able to minister to our spiritual needs if they have the information that this religious census will bring forth.

County Agent to Training School

Clay Spurlock, county agent, will attend a County Agents' training meeting to be held at Lake McClellan, Sept. 27-28. The theme of this meeting will be "Keeping Livestock Healthy," and will be presented in the form of a refresher course.

This training school will be under the direction of Dr. W. A. Boney, extension poultry veterinarian, who will be assisted by Dr. H. G. Johnson, extension entomologist; G. W. Barnes and W. R. Nisbet, extension animal husbandmen; and Dr. J. L. Adrain, assistant state veterinarian of Amarillo.

Day nights in the Agricultural building, music will be furnished by the Liberators, the Liberal Army Air Field orchestra.

A total of $1,740 in purses will be given to the winners during the meet.

Polish Sailors

MEN OF POLAND'S NAVY find time during their hours off watch to train their ship's mascot, Fil, the black kitten, seems more at home before the camera than his young play-mate, Barek. Although Poland's navy represents but nine per cent of United Nations fleets affiliated with the United States and British navies her officers and men have won the highest number of decorations awarded by the British to Allied naval men—11 Distinguished Service Orders, 11 Distinguished Service Crosses, 15 Distinguished Service Medals.

THE CHALLENGE

Miss Hall Writes At Warm Springs

Recent communication from Miss Lee Ola Hall, who is receiving treatment at the Warm Springs Infirmary Paralysis Institution, gives her condition as improving. Miss Lee Ola underwent an operation on her arm about a month ago and now has the cast off and is able to be up most of the time. She is now beginning the Pool treatments.

Friends have been helpful in writing Miss Hall and she greatly appreciates this consideration.

Miss Myrtle Williams and son Harold, who are visiting their daughter and sister, Mrs. L. D. Payne, Pomona, Calif., write that they are enjoying the Herald and that they are extending their visit a few weeks longer. They are having a "wonderful time and enjoying California."

Miss Mabel Halliburton, Dalhart, is a guest in the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Chase.

Our Defenders Speak!

The Herald asks that men and women from this community serving in the armed forces write letters to this department for publication. Letters to relatives that would be of interest to the public will be published under this heading.

The following are parts taken from letters received by Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Bowen, from their son, Benton who has just received his wings at Harlingen Field, Harlingen, Texas, and is waiting his new assignment.

Sept. 2, 1943
Dear Folks:
I had two flights today and this should end my flying career at Harlingen. At the conclusion of 2 weeks of flying I have had 6 flights (or about 4 hours) in a one motor open cockpit plane, and 9 (or about 15 hours) in a twin engine bomber plane. The last run today was a camera mission which consisted of merely shooting pictures of an attacking plane.

I don't think we will leave Harlingen until Saturday night for some unknown reason. We were supposed to board the train at 9 p. m. Saturday.

Letter of Sept. 4, 1943: Dear Folks: At last I am wearing a pair of silver wings. We had our graduation today at 1:00 o'clock, and now have to wait here in camp for 2 days until our transportation arrives. A personnel officer gave a short speech then after having a few stirring marches by the band, we each marched up on the stage and received our special orders and wings.

Sept. 6, 1943. Dear folks: Back at Ellington again and it seems hotter than it was at Harlingen. We boarded the train about 5:30 yesterday evening and disembarked here at Ellington about the same time this morning. Believe me this was a tired bunch after spending the night on a chair car, and about an 1876 model at that. However, everyone lived through it.

I don't know how long I will be here this time, but I rather imagine about 10 days will cover it. Furthermore, I don't know what we are going to do during this time, but it will probably be cutting grass, pulling weeds and in general nothing. Some of the boys who have been in a furlough, but I haven't even been in six months yet. In fact I am beginning to wonder if we will be sent for as get an open post this weekend.

There isn't nearly so many cadets on the field now as when we were going through preflight. I guess the hurricane has scared them away.

Write soon and give me the latest news.

Lots of love,
Bus

Aug. 26, 1943
Dear Mr. Stewart:

I am writing you in regard to your article in the USO sending me the paper. I appreciate what you are doing by sending the paper to all the boys in the service.

As yet I have not run into any of the Ochiltree County boys over here.

I have a present only missed one copy of the paper and it may come in at a later date.

I will thank you again for the paper and keep the good news coming.

Yours truly,
Pfc. Lester E. Wilson

Mr. Stewart:

Am truly sorry and ashamed of myself for not writing you sooner. Have been pretty busy trying to keep our planes in flying order. I have 48 hours off so am spending part of that time writing the people I should have written a long time ago.

The papers are coming through very nicely. I really enjoy reading them and it gets my mind off of some of the worries that I have. The papers were a little slow coming when I first landed here in England, but that was to be expected, for as the mail was delayed. As a rule we get our mail pretty regular and in pretty good time. It takes from 7 to 14 days to get a letter but that is pretty good I think.

Must close for this time I guess. Just wrote Troy Bolerjack a few lines, and would write to Raymond Overbey if I knew his address.

Hoping everyone is getting along fine for we are over here.

Yours,
Sgt. Guy W. Allen

Dear Mr. Stewart:

I am writing you folks to thank you for the paper, it is a great help to all the boys here at Camp Wallace.

I am still in the dear old state of Texas. I will be here about seventeen weeks, and then I may get a furlough, and see all of you, I hope.

I am in the anti-aircraft replacement training center.

The weather here is hot and it rains here about two or three times a week. I am about fourteen miles from Galveston. I intend to go and see the Gulf next week-end.

This about all for now.
Thanking you again for the paper.

FOR VICTORY BUY BONDS

Camp Howze, Texas
Sept. 15, 1943

To the Ochiltree County Herald
Staff and the USO.
Hi you all:

Just a note this evening to express my thanks to you for the paper. It reaches me every Monday noon and is read from front to back before lights out that night.

A fellow gets his letters from home to keep him informed as to the welfare of his relations and close friends, but it takes the home town paper to really show and tell the progress that is being made toward an ultimate victory.

Life here at Howze is about the same as any other camp except that here in the Hq. Battery 911th P. A. Bn., records are being made. Past marches of from 4 to 10 miles are being made at a speed that really taxes the will power and stamina of man. An example: 4 miles in 24 minutes, that is fast. Don't get me wrong, I don't mean to brag, but this is a wonderful outfit. The average age is about 21, and full of pep, able to stand up under quelling days of classes, and sleepless nights of road marches, bivouac days and nights of heat, sweat, rain and cold all taken in stride.

A fellow starts to see and appreciate his comrade in arms as he spends days, weeks and months, of close association with men from his home state and every other state in this great U. S. A.

Thanks again for the paper. I speak for myself and I'm sure every soldier from our county will with me, when I say that it is one of the best morale boosters going.

Yours,
Pfc. Don Parnsworth.

Commerce, Texas
Sept. 16, 1943

Dear Mr. Stewart:

I've been aiming to write you for sometime and thank you for the paper, it sure is nice to be able to keep up with the home town news.

The army has sent me to Commerce, trying to make an engineer out of me, but as yet I have my doubts as to its outcome. We have a deep and mysterious subject that seems to be compulsory to engineers, called physics. You've heard of the guy who doesn't know the score well I'm the guy who doesn't even know who's playing. It may elude me later, with a lot of brain work.

The people of Commerce seem very friendly and nice. This last winter there were WAC's here, so I guess a group of soldiers is quite a change. Monday, Sept. 29, the college opens up its regular semester and from what I hear there are plenty of girls, who come out here to school and that's going to be quite a nice change for us after being in Camp Maxey for 15 weeks.

The only thing wrong is that we have very little time off. We get passes from Saturday noon until Sunday at 6 p. m. and no time off during the week days. Our week days are planned from 8:40 until 11 o'clock, the other 6 hours and 40 minutes we can sleep, unless we have a physic nightmare.

Which reminds me, I'm supposed to be studying now, and I can't wait to bring myself into the mysteries of sciences and things.

That's all for now, and thanks again for the paper.

This letter is from Pfc. Homer C. Smith, who has been in hospital since March, to his son, Jerry Charles, 2 1/2 year old son. Smith, a son of Mrs. L. K. Belt, 820 SW Fifth St., lived here when a lad. His wife and son have spent the summer here in the Belt home. Smith has been in the army since Nov. 1938.

Sept. 17-43

Dearest Son:

This I guess is about the third letter I have written directly to you. I only wish you were old enough to read it all by yourself. I was certainly glad to get your letter yesterday, it seemed like you were standing right in front of me. That is the feeling I had when I read your letter. I miss you son more than anyone will ever know.

It is too bad that this war could not have been put off for a few years, so that I could be with you and kinda grow up with you. We could have done all the things I had dreamed of doing before this war came on. I had thought how nice it would be to come home from work and romp and play with you and mother. We have never had much of a chance to do all those things sonny, because when I was with you, you were too tiny to really play but you are growing up now and you will soon be a big young man.

So we will have to be brave soldiers and put those things off for a while now. When you are a little older you will know why your daddy isn't at home with you and mother. I am sure mother has told you why, and in your little heart maybe you understand, but you will know in a few years now for sure.

You know son we live in a wonderful country. We have our own ideas as to how we should live and enjoy the best of our country. You know son in our country we are all born with equal right to life, in other words we can be what we want to be, and worship God as we want to worship. Unfortunately there are other countries in the world where the boys and girls don't have those ideals. Where they can grow up to be a preacher or doctor or whatever he might want to make of himself.

There are countries and people who want to change our way of living and our form of government, that is why men like myself have to leave their families and homes. We have to protect those we love, by leaving them, to go out and fight for our country and the freedom we now have. Fighting for the defense of our country and our homes and our honor and a duty which daddy has to do before he can come home to you and mother. When it is done, daddy is coming home to live with you and mother for ever and ever. I am not a front line soldier like lots of fathers, but it isn't because I didn't want to go to the fighting front, it is just a case where your daddy wasn't quite able to do the things that is required of a fighting soldier. I will probably be out of the army to come home to you and mother, but we will have to be brave and wait until they are through with her.

Why don't you and mother come up and visit me. I would like that very much.

Well son, until I see you, please take good care of mother, be a good boy and help mother, with everything, be obedient to everything she tells you, because she knows what is right and what is best for you in any way.

When you go out to play with your little friends always play fair and always to win, but if you have to lose n anything, well lose like a gentleman and be a good sport. Don't ever be a quitter in anything you start at.

Stay close to mother and follow her advice, no matter how you may disagree. She knows best and she will never let you down, and never lead you away from the right and honorable things of life.

Kiss mother good night for me, and bye bye for now.

All my love and devotion for you and mother.

Your daddy.

Look into Your Heart before you give me your Answer!

My name isn't important. I'm just one of the millions of fellows over here fighting for America. I'd like to speak for these fellows—to you folks back home.

You see, I think I know what's in their minds, because we often talk things over among ourselves. Mostly we talk about home—about the places we came from and the things we plan to do when we get back. Right now, especially, we're thinking a lot about home, for we're in the bloodiest battles of history—and we know that some of us will not come back. Some of us will never see again the ones we love.

But—we've got a job to do and we're going to do it. What I want to say to you folks back home is this: we'd like to think that you are with us in this bitter struggle of invasion. It would help a lot to know that you are really behind us, backing us up 100 per cent. It's going to take a heap of ammunition—and ships and planes, tanks and guns to beat the Axis. That's what the 3rd War Loan is for: it's for INVASION. We've got to depend on you. Don't fail us, will you?

Yes, it's to you this boy is looking in this critical hour. Today America calls upon you to do your part in the 3rd war loan. And your part is at least one extra $100 War Bond during the drive. AT LEAST $100. That's in addition to your regular War Bond subscriptions. Some of you must invest thousands in order to reach our national quota. Invest out of your income—invest out of your idle or accumulated funds.

Sacrifice today—you will be richer for it tomorrow. Back the invasion with extra bonds.

Your Answer is Either "Yes" or "No" in this Roll Call of the Nation—

YES I will honestly do my best to invest in at least one extra $100 War Bond during the 3rd War Loan Drive. I will lend my Government this money gladly to back up our fighting men.

NO I am not lending any of my money to my country. I'm spending it. Sure, I know the boys who are fighting for me need support, but let somebody else make the sacrifices.

Your answer will be given in the number of EXTRA War Bonds you invest in during September.

Safest Investments in the World

- United States War Savings Bonds Series "E"; gives you back $4 for every $3 when the bond matures. Interest: 2.9% a year, compounded semi-annually, if held to maturity. Denominations: $25, $50, $100, $500, $1,000. Redemption: Anytime 60 days after issue date. Price: 75% of maturity value.
- 2 1/2% Treasury Bonds of 1964-1969; readily marketable, acceptable as bank collateral. Redeemable at par and accrued interest for the purpose of satisfying Federal estate taxes. Dated September 15, 1943; due December 15, 1969. Denominations: $500, $1,000, $5,000, $10,000, $100,000 and $1,000,000. Price: par and accrued interest.
- Other securities: Series "C" Savings Notes; 7% Certificates of Indebtedness; 2% Treasury Bonds of 1951-1953; United States Savings Bonds series "F"; United States Savings Bonds series "G".

is the Army's newest, most unique military vehicle... ton, six-wheel, seagoing truck. Officially known as the DUKW, it has been aptly nicknamed the "Duck" by those who are familiar with its remarkable amphibian performance. While General Motors Truck and Coach factories have been producing quantities of this vehicle for some time, the first to arrive from the fighting fronts.

Left—"The Duck" alongside a freighter is loaded with much-needed supplies for American Forces on New Caledonia.

Above—With driving power switched from propeller to wheels, the "Duck" heads for a supply depot inshore.

Below—Unloaded by a crane, the "Duck" is ready for another trip to the freighter standing by offshore. In actual tests, these huge amphibian trucks have carried 35 men on land and even more when in the water.

Department Discloses Details of Amphibious Truck, the 'Duck'

The Army's newest and most unique military vehicle—the amphibious truck—has been the latest surprise to be revealed by the War Department. This remarkable vehicle is now in volume production at the General Motors Truck and Coach plants. The description and photographs of this new vehicle have just been released by the War Department. The "Duck" by the name of the assembly line, this vehicle has the same quality of performance on or off the water as the GMC military trucks, plus the ability to go in and out of water at will. Thus, it is as much at home on land as it is in the water. Regulations prevent the disclosure of many of the "Duck's" specifications, but it can be steering wheel guides the vehicle in water. The water propeller thrust, which pushes the vehicle through the water, is augmented when desired by the revolution of the driving wheels. Thus, the driver, prior to entering or leaving the water, can shift controls to provide a land and water drive to avoid getting stuck. A winch is mounted on the rear deck of the vehicle in such a manner that the cable can be used effectively from either end.

It is impossible to give any accurate figures as to the number of men who can be carried in this vehicle. It will depend largely upon the operation involved and the immediate purpose for which the vehicle is employed.

Essentially, the amphibian is not a combat vehicle. It will, undoubtedly, be used where speed is essential in forcing a river crossing and will prove invaluable in surprise landing operations where shags, reefs or sandbars are encountered, which ordinarily render the use of an assault boat impractical. It can also be used effectively for unloading cargo vessels or transporting men and equipment from ships to shore whenever desired. Unloading of materials or supplies can be accomplished with "The Duck" under conditions heretofore impossible. The amphibian "duck," traveling as it does on land or on water, can readily surmount ordinary difficulties without loss in speed or maneuverability. Where bridge heads must be forced, the amphibian truck can render a strategic service, enabling a foothold to be established and the waterway to be eventually bridged for the transporting of troops, material and the usual cargo that accompanies an invading force. It can also be used to advantage in transporting troops and equipment quickly across streams, marshes and rivers.

General Motors Truck & Coach has indicated that the first of these units was engaged in actual testing operations only 38 days after receipt of the original Letter of Intent from the War Department.

Farmers Blameless For Recent Rise in Food Costs

COLLEGE STATION. — Recent rises in food costs are due largely to higher handling and marketing margins, and very little to increased prices to farmers.

According to a recent U. S. Department of Agriculture study summarized by C. E. Bowles, these marketing charges now are 12 per cent above the prewar period, 1935-1939, and in May, 1943, reached the highest level since 1931. Bowles is the organization and marketing specialist for the A. and M. College Extension Service.

In the period covered by this study (mid-April to mid-May, 1943), Bowles explains, retail food costs to consumers rose three per cent. None of this was passed back to farmers who produced the food. Fresh fruits, vegetables and meats were among the foods showing retail advances.

In May, for example, sweet potatoes retailed at an average of 17.9 cents a pound. Of this price paid by consumers, farmers got 4.1 cents and marketing costs and profits took 13.8 cents. The government supported price announced for the bumper 1943 sweet potato crop will pay growers about 1.5 cents a pound for number ones delivered at the sheds, Bowles observes.

Beef, pork and lamb prices as a group rose more than one per cent at retail, but prices paid to farmers and ranchmen for their live animals actually declined.

Incomes of all groups in the nation, including salaries, dividends and wages, have risen more rapidly than food costs, Bowles continues. During the five years immediately preceding the war, 22 per cent of the average income was spent for food. But early in 1943, the bill for the same quantities of food could be paid with 16 per cent of the average income.

WASHING SILKS
Never soak silk and synthetics. Don't rub, twist or wring the garments, either. They just can't take it, according to Westinghouse home economists. Instead, wash gently in mild, lukewarm suds, and if washing by hand squeeze suds through garments. Rinse quickly at least twice to get every bit of soap out. Knead gently to remove excess water. Then hurry onto the line or roll in a bath towel.

War-Time Saving And Spending

COLLEGE STATION. — How a family uses its income in peace-time is important, but in war-time it is a matter of national concern. Many families have discovered this in the past few days as they figured their income tax declarations, says Louise Bryant, specialist in home management for the A. and M. College Extension Service.

A family's war-time economy necessarily must be based on saving more and spending less, Miss Bryant explains that is because the family must pay higher taxes, invest regularly in war bonds and stamps, and pay off financial obligations as soon as possible. This kind of a program is worthwhile because it helps stretch limited civilian supplies and ward off inflation.

If a family has not already made a war-time savings and savings plan, experience in recent days should prove this a good idea. In making the plan, Miss Bryant suggests that the entire family be brought in on the planning. That means small children, too, for they should gain experience in saving and spending wisely.

The first step in making such a

So long as a soldier can eat and think up disparaging names for his equipment the Army will do all right. Food is either "beans," or "chow."

"Chow" may consist of a well cooked meal or if circumstances demand our fighting men have learned to subsist on "Ration K," the concentrated food that all of them carry into battle.

With millions of men and women in the services it will require a lot of War Bond buying on our part to keep them happy.

Sgt. Orrel W. Buechner, who was inducted at Ft. Sill, Okla., October 15, 1942, took his basic training at Sheppard Field. He earned his silver wings as an aerial gunner in the Army Air Forces after completing a course at Tyndall Field, Fla. After leaving Florida, he was promoted from corporal to sergeant and sent to Salt Lake City, and is now at Ephrata, Wash., as aerial engineer, with a bomber squadron. Sgt. Buechner, born in Beaver County, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Buechner, Booker, Texas. He attended school in Beaver County, taking his high school work at Balke, and his senior year at Beaver City, where he graduated in 1939. He was engaged in farming when inducted. He has two brothers, George and Gene, at home; and two sisters, Mrs. R. E. Cramer, Elmwood, Oklahoma, and Mrs. W. V. Morris, Dalhart. His present address is Sgt. Orrel W. Buechner, ASN 38270647, 591st Bomb Sqdn., Ephrata, Wash.

plan is to figure out the family's gross income. Farm families may feel their income is pretty uncertain, but even a conservative estimate will help. Then the second step is to figure out the family's essential war-time needs. Even then it will be necessary to check the plan and change it to make it workable. Families can get help and ample work sheets from their county home demonstration agents, Miss Bryant says.

WARTIME PIES

You can have pie without raiding your ration coupons IF you go in for deep-dish pies with a top crust and IF you substitute suet for shortening. Mrs. Julie Kiene, Manager of Home Economics Institute at Westinghouse, tells how to render suet: Carefully remove excess fat from meat before cooking. Store in refrigerator until you have about a cupful. Tear off outer layer of skin, then cut suet in small pieces. Put skillet or saucepan over a low heat and slowly fry out the fat. As fat melts, pour it into a bowl. Let cool before using.

MEATLESS MEALS

Remember that portions of meat alternates must be at least doubled to equal the food value in an average serving of meat. Since that's impractical for ordinary menu purposes, Mrs. Julia Kiene, Manager of Westinghouse Home Economics Institute, offers these simple solutions: (1) Serve two meat alternates a day—one for lunch, one for dinner; (2) Spread meat alternates over all three meals for example, an extra large portion of cooked cereal for breakfast; a generous serving of cheese with salad for lunch; beans plus a milk dish such as custard for dinner.

Action Thriller Plays Next Week at Ellis

Murder mystery fans, more particularly those devoted to the adventures of the invincible Sherlock, can easily consider the new film, "Sherlock Holmes Faces Death," playing next Tuesday and Wednesday at the Ellis, the best to date of the series—and for several reasons.

It seems to come closer to capturing the atmosphere and spirit of the A. Conan Doyle time-honored stories, and there is a more definite trace of horror. The suspense is well maintained and following Holmes' "elemental-and-dear Watson" deductions is unusually engrossing. The murders are committed in an eerie British castle temporarily turned into a hospital for convalescing army mental cases.

Basil Rathbone, Nigel Bruce and Dennis Hoey play the featured roles.

Change in Pictures At Ellis Theatre

Announcement was made this week of a change of schedule for two coming attractions at the Ellis theatre. "Thank Your Lucky Stars," scheduled to show this Thursday and Friday, has been held over until Sunday and Monday, and the picture scheduled for that date, "Watch On the Rhine," is being shown Thursday and Friday of this week.

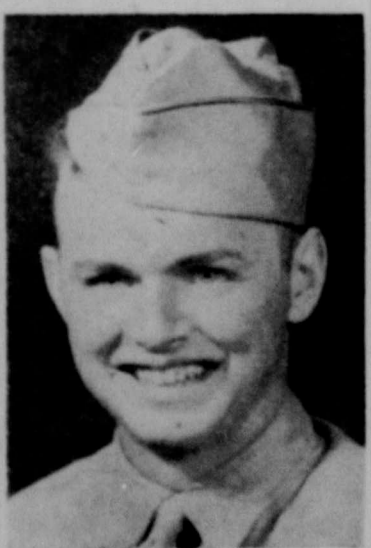

"Dingle" Coburn in New Comedy Hit

"My Kingdom For a Cook," starring Charles "Dingle" Coburn, is in store for theatre-goers at the Ellis theatre preview show, at 11:45 this Saturday night. The picture affords Mr. Coburn another hilarious character performance such as he portrayed in "The More The Merrier." His role of Budyard Morley, vitriolic English author, is said to be entirely different from his Dingle role, but one that also gives him every opportunity to display his unusual flair for light comedy.

In Armored School

Pvt. Joseph H. Cox, who reported for duty April 28, 1943, at Ft. Sill, Okla., was assigned to a tank division at Fort Knox, Kentucky, where he is now stationed.

According to the Public Relations Office at Fort Knox, Pvt. Cox is enrolled in a special course in the Wheeled Vehicle Department which trains the student mechanics in the intricacies of keeping peeps and jeeps, trucks and scout cars rolling in combat. This school operates on two seven-hour shifts six days a week. Men on the first shift rise at 4:30 a. m. and are in their shops and class rooms at 6 o'clock. As they leave at 1 p. m., the second shift marches in. Pvt. Cox, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Cox, attended the Perryton schools, graduating from high school with the class of '42. He was a student at the University of Texas for one semester, and just prior to his induction was attending business college in Oklahoma City. He has one sister, Mrs. Gene W. Brillhart of this city.

"Destroyer" Is a Saga of a Fighting Ship and Her Crew

Reports coming in on "Destroyer," the Columbia picture, which will be shown at the Ellis theatre on Thursday and Friday of next week, indicate that it is a vivid screen story of a group of average fighting Americans aboard a ship they helped build and which they grew to love. It is said to be an exciting sea drama, but one that does not sacrifice the tender emotions for the sake of sheer spectacular effects, preferring, evidently, to give us a heart's view of men at war and men in love.

Edward G. Robinson is the star of the picture, in the role of a Chief Boatswain's Mate called Boley. He is an old navy man who is working as a welder on a new ship that is to replace the old John Paul Jones, which went down fighting. When the new "Jonesy" is launched, Boley gets back in the navy so that he may be part of her crew and help give her the "soul" of the old ship—the one that had become as much a part of Boley's life as his home and lovely daughter.

No cash tickets will be sold to this picture next Thursday night, it is announced by Virb Conley, Ellis theatre manager. Admission will be by purchase of a war bond only. These bonds go on sale at the box-office Saturday afternoon and will be sold daily through Thursday night.

Wartime Lighting Suggestions

HOW TO GET MORE LIGHT FROM YOUR PRESENT EQUIPMENT

Use Shades with Light Linings to Reflect More Light

If your lamp shades are not white or very light-colored on the inside you're losing a lot of valuable light. Dark colors soak up light like a sponge—in some cases as much as 30% to 50% is lost. Clean your lamp shades regularly, or if they're too dark or discolored with age, replace them with clean, light-lined shades that reflect light instead of absorbing it. You'll find you'll get a lot more light from the same bulbs.

HOW TO CLEAN LAMP SHADES

Parchment paper shades should be dusted with a clean cloth. Silk shades with fancy trimming such as applied ornaments, and shades of shrinkable material should be dry cleaned. Plain silk or rayon shades can often (but not always) be washed successfully provided they are stitched and not glued. To wash, first remove all surface dirt with soft brush, then hold by wire frame at top and dip up and down repeatedly in lukewarm suds made from mild soap flakes. Rinse through three or four lukewarm rinses using same up and down dipping motion. Dry very fast hanging in shade outdoors in warm, breezy weather, or suspending over radiator or stove, using fan to accelerate drying, in inclement weather.

Electricity
... is vital to war production. Use all you need but don't waste it just because it's cheap and isn't rationed.

"Seed Loans" Now Available

Due to the long summer drought there is a feed shortage in many areas of Texas and farmers will find it necessary to purchase feed or plant fall feed crops to supply their livestock.

To meet this emergency and also to provide funds for planting fall cover crops as a soil building practice, Emergency Crop and Feed Loans for 1944 are being made available at this time for farmers who are unable to secure necessary financing at banks or from other sources, according to Chas. C. Bishop, Field Supervisor. It is expected that this early opening of the loans will materially aid in holding essential food production at the high level urged by the War Food Administration.

The AAA has extended the time for carrying out soil building practices to November 30. Farmers who plant fall cover crops may thus earn benefit payments and also greatly enrich the soil for 1944 crop production, the Field Supervisor states.

A first installment of the crop loan will be advanced to cover cost of preparing land, purchasing feed for workstock or fuel oil, cover-crop seed, planting seed for fall feed crops and other incidental expense. Remainder of the loan will be disbursed when needed for production of regular 1944 crops. Security for the crop loan is a first lien on crops to be grown. Farmers interested only in purchasing or producing feed for livestock may make a feed loan secured by a first lien on the livestock to be fed.

These loans, generally known as "seed loans," have been made in this county for many years. Eligibility rules are the same as in former years. The loans are administered in Texas from the Dallas Emergency Crop Loan Office of the Farm Credit Administration, 405 U. S. Terminal Annex, Dallas 2, Texas. W. E. Parwell is Regional Manager. Applications will be taken by Mrs. Mabel McLarty, at the county clerk's office.

Chas. C. Bishop, the Field Supervisor may be seen in Perryton, at the courthouse Thursday of each week.

THE WAR NEWS for the past few months has been mighty good for our side. And you can help keep it good. There's a big price tag on good news, on attacks and victories; a price tag of life, sacrifice, and cold hard cash. Our job here at home is to provide the cash. Plenty of it. Now!

Good news is born of action, action consumes material, material costs money. That's the reason for the Third War Loan that's now on. This Third War Loan calls for every working man and woman to put extra money into Bonds in September.

Not just the 10% of your salary. Not just spare change. Not just left-over dollars. But extra, hard-earned, budget-saved, money. It's the way, today, to back the men who are doing the real job of sacrificing.

Buy Bonds—up to the hilt—today. Keep that news good!

Gasoline for School Buses
School buses in districts where filling necessary applications or have failed to reorganize routes in accordance with the school bus conservation policy may get temporary gasoline allotments. The Office of Defense Transportation authorized this action so that school children would not lack school transportation.

British Save Fuel
Britons have been asked by the Ministry of Fuel to be even more sparing of home comforts this winter than they were last winter, the British Information Services reported recently. By lowering room temperatures in their homes, by using less hot water, by getting along with less light, and by cutting down on fuels used in cooking, the British saved four million tons of coal in the winter of 1942-43. This year the Ministry has urged that economies be pushed farther so that six million tons of coal can be saved. As was the case last winter, this winter's fuel saving in Britain will be on a voluntary basis. There will be no rationing but Britons will be expected to base their fuel consumption on a chart prepared by the Ministry of Fuel.

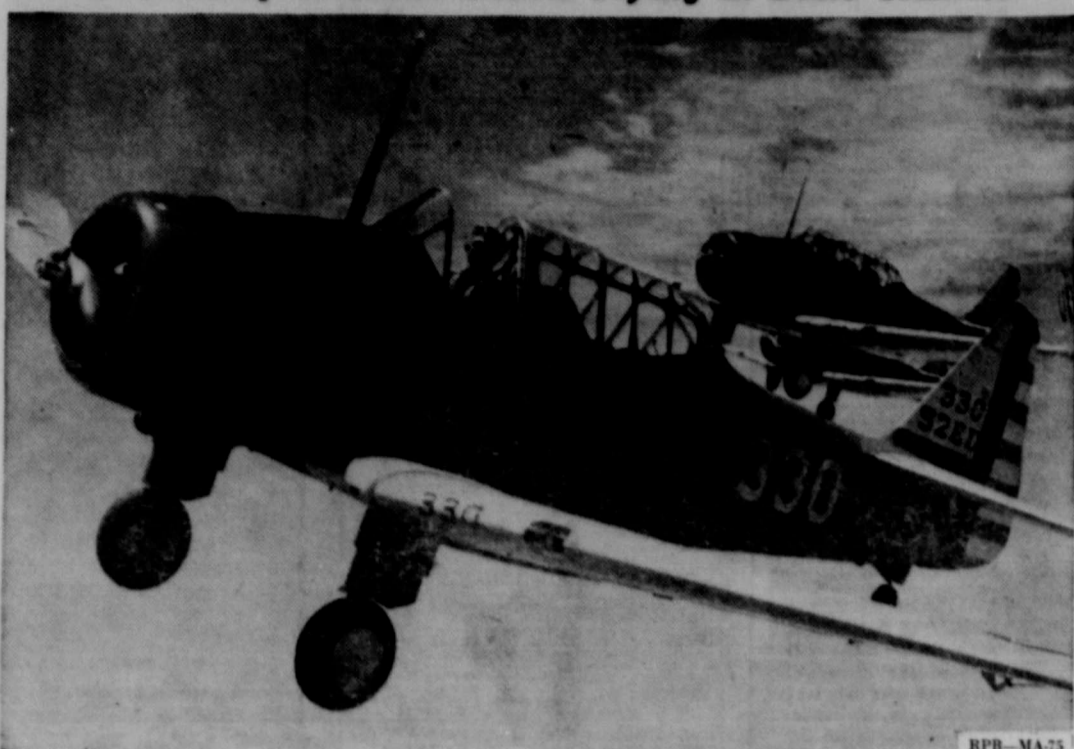

About Those Free Matches
If your tobacco dealer gave you free matches—the wood or the book variety—during March, 1942, when he sold you your tobacco products, he must continue to give them to you now. Sales through vending machines are included in the new OPA ruling on matches.

Anti-Freeze Distributed
To insure an ample supply of volatile anti-freeze mixtures for passenger cars in 14 western states before cold weather sets in, WPB has ordered industrial alcohol manufacturers with national distribution to supply specified quotas to the states upon receipt of orders from dealers. Each state will receive a supply equal to one and one-half gallons per passenger car registered. States involved are: Arizona, Colorado, Idaho, Kansas, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Mexico, North Dakota, Oregon, South Dakota, Utah, Washington, and Wyoming.

Notification of "Next of Kin"
Notification of "next of kin" of Naval personnel killed, missing, wounded, or captured—except where death occurs within the continental limits—is generally a telegram giving such available information as may be divulged. In case of death this telegram is confirmed by a letter from the Secretary of the Navy, conveying condolences and giving any additional details. Next of kin are also furnished data as to rights and benefits to which they are entitled. In the case of a "missing" person, the next of kin receives a letter about the continuance of allotments for insurance premiums and for dependents. If the Navy receives further details of the casualty, next of kin are promptly notified.

U. S. Army Aviation Cadets Flying in Basic Trainers

In the skies above Randolph Field, Texas, the "West Point of the Air," these Aviation Cadets are getting in their flying time experience preparatory to flying the huge bombers and fast tough fighters they'll use in Advanced Training. There is no better training than that given to the Army's Aviation Cadets.

In the early part of the last quarter, Bill Allen tore through the Demon line for the final score of the game.

The second game of the season for the Rangers will be played on their home field this Friday night with the Guymon high school eleven. Coach Tom Slack has been unable to get much dope on this year's Guymon team but believes his boys can take anything the visitors have to offer.

Probable starting lineup: G. Heidrich, le; Chas. Peckenpaugh, lt; James Daniels, lg; Johnny Dunlavy, c; Don Enterline, rg; Vernon Day, rt; Bob Zenor, re; Delos Pugh, qb; Robert Holland, fb; Donald Ellis, rh; Bill Allen, lh.

employed by the Fluor Corp. in the building of a new booster station, 31 miles west of Perryton in the north part of Hansford county.

The bodies of Van and Stockton were taken to Oklahoma City for burial; that of James to Sayre, Okla.

Oates says that Van was driving the car about 70 miles per hour when they came up behind a car pulling a trailer house. The driver waited until almost on the trailer house ahead before pulling sharply to the left to attempt to go around. The sudden turnout at high speed caused the car to plunge to the borrow pit on the left, then back and forth across the road turning over several times.

AMERICAN HEROES
BY LEFF

When Richard Breckenridge's submarine made a hurried dive off Japan, a hatch jammed, but he ignored the order to abandon the rapidly flooding conning tower and remained behind, desperately trying to fasten it. By succeeding, he saved vital equipment for his submarine and became the first enlisted man in the submarine service to win the Navy Cross. He was willing to give his life. How much of your income will you invest in Payroll Savings?

Invasion Wounded Return to Ships

Wounded American soldiers brought to shore line in jeeps, being carried to tank litter to be transported to a hospital ship. It is your War Bond money that keeps the Army doctors supplied with the marvelous Sulfa drugs and well-stored blood plasma that kept the death rate below 3 1/2 percent during the African campaign. That is the lowest death rate of any army, at any time. Keep it that way; buy more War Bonds.

Since our folks have only said that our losses were heavy, it surely is not disloyal for us to hope that the German claim was exaggerated. Here's for the Bond Drive, whatever it takes, but please let me hope.

G. E. LEMON
Mr. Lemon, let us just hope that every single person who thinks that the war is about over is right but we do not think so. We are gaining and we will eventually win but not without tremendous losses. We are afraid that the big fight, in so far as Americans are concerned, is just beginning.

The top of the hill may not be so far away, but a single slackening of the traces while on the upgrade, could leave us stuck in defeat. No letting up on the pull until we get over the hump, which we hope is closer than we think.

American fighting to date has been on relatively small fronts, a corner of Tunisia, a corner of Sicily, against minor German armies.

The real thing still lies ahead . . . in the way of big fighting in Northern Italy . . . in October, November, perhaps running into December. Will take until "near the end of the year" to beat the Germans in the Po Valley, says military men.

Then shuttle-bombing this winter, back and forth from Italy to England and from England to Italy . . . all adding up to the devastation of many more German industrial cities.

Land invasion from England is being readied. Enormous fighting forces of men and materials are being assembled for the jump off.

Mother, Daughter World War Babies

Peggy Lynn Shankle, daughter of Lt. and Mrs. Leon R. Shankle, made her appearance in this world Monday, September 20, at San Antonio, while her father was with the invasion army in Sicily and Italy. Her mother, the former Miss Mildred Lorraine Austin of Austin, was born during World War I, while her father, the late Capt. C. J. Austin, was in France with the American Expeditionary Forces. They were both born in San Antonio.

The Austins, Capt. and Mrs. Austin and Mildred, have visited in Perryton many times in the Van W. Stewart home. Mrs. Austin was State Secretary of the American Legion Auxiliary for several years. At the time of Mrs. Shankle's birth, August 6, 1918, her father, Capt. Austin, was reported missing in action. When he finally regained consciousness he was in a hospital in the French province of Lorraine, where he received word of the birth of his daughter, Mildred. At the suggestion of his nurse, he called that his daughter be named Mildred Lorraine, as he was in Lorraine, when he received the message.

FOR VICTORY BUY BONDS
The Methodist parsonage has recently undergone a redecorating program. The walls, ceilings and woodwork was repainted, and the kitchen was also redecorated. This improvement was sponsored by the women of the church.

that this war can be speeded to an end. The boys in the fox holes and on the battle ships and in the air need the weapons and ammunition to put the enemy on the run, not to catch them after they're whipped.

You all know the solid sentimental and patriotic reasons for buying War Bonds and for buying all of them you can. But also there are wholly practical and expedient reasons. If the government does not buy war goods with taxes and lendings of the people, it will buy them with manufactured credit. This will raise prices more when the war is over, and cost each of us heavily in the years to come.

But by lending now we help keep prices down, and we get our money back, and we can spend it for the things we need after the war is finally over. For many civilians the heyday of payday is now, the rainy day later, and to put away now serves a useful purpose, both selfish and unselfish.

So War Bonds are a good buy . . . any way you want to figure.
