RANGERS OPEN SEASON FRIDAY

GOODWELL COLLEGE FRESHMEN PLAY HERE IN FIRST GRID GAME OF THE NEW SEASON

Perryton grid fans will have an opportunity Friday afternoon of seeing the Rangers play their first game of the season when they meet Goodwell college freshmen on the Pampa field. The game is called at 7:30 o'clock. The freshmen have a strong reputation this season according to reports from Goodwell and a good game is expected. Although the Rangers are stepping out of their shoes in meeting the college team, they are prepared to give a good account of themselves, according to Coach Clifford Keith.

The game between the Rangers and Pampa Gorillas, scheduled for Saturday afternoon was called off because of the condition of the roads. The game will probably not be played because of the schedule of the local team. The schedule for the season follows: 7—Goodwell college freshmen, 14—Fullett, there, conference game, 21—Shattuck, Okla., here, 25—Gruver, there, conference game, 28—Canadian, there, 31—Spearman, there, conference game, 11—Amarillo Yannigans, 18—Liberal, Kans., here, 24—Open.

HO, HUM! LET'S GO PORCUPINE HUNTING

"When a dog bites a man, that isn't news" according to the old definition and our latest variation might continue, "but when a dog bites a porcupine, that's news", especially when the porcupine is in your front yard.

There may be some parts of the state where porcupines are plentiful, but in Ochiltree county and what is thought to be the first and only porcupine ever caught here was found in W. B. LaMaster's yard early Wednesday morning. The family was aroused by the dogs barking and found the prickly animal cornered.

We're sorry this story doesn't have a happy ending, but such is news. The porcupine was penned up at the LaMaster home but sometime Wednesday night, it made its escape and is now again at large, roaming the plains of Ochiltree county. Where it came from and where it's going will probably always be a mystery. No doubt Tack of Amarillo News-Globe fame if told of the event, would declare it was a sign of a long, hard winter.

APPLY FOR FEDERAL AID FUNDS

MAYOR DAVE SHANKS MAKES APPLICATION FOR FEDERAL AID FOR PERRYTON SECTOR

Mayor Dave Shanks was in Amarillo Monday for a conference with Wilbur C. Hawk, president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, in regard to the application by the city of Perryton for a part of the $300,000,000 fund provided by the Federal Emergency Relief and Construction Act of 1932. The W. T. C. C. has been designated by Governor Sterling to supervise the applications from West Texas and Mayor Shanks has been appointed by Mr. Hawk to represent Perryton in the preparation of the application for a part of these funds.

A meeting was called Saturday morning by Mayor Shanks at which a number of representatives business and profession men and civic leaders were present, to discuss the amount that would be necessary to carry out the relief program in this city this winter. The general opinion is that our needs will be much greater this year than ever before. Data was assembled from different organizations giving an estimate on the amount expended for charity in the past, number of families and single persons aided, and estimates made as to the number that would require assistance during the coming winter months.

From a compilation of this information, Mayor Shanks prepared his application, asking the Federal government for a sum slightly in excess of $20,000. It is not known how much, if any of this amount, will be procured. It is understood that these funds come direct from the Federal government for the relief of those that are destitute. It is not a loan. These funds are supposed to be used for providing employment for those needing aid. Work provided applicants are able to work. This method of assistance is much better than direct charity and is much more acceptable to the high class of citizenship which we have in this part of the Panhandle. Our people, as a whole, are not looking for charity. What they want is the opportunity to work at some job that will give them and their families a respectable living. If Perryton receives any part of these funds, some kind of public work will be done whereby the relief money will be expended for hand labor, thus providing employment for the greatest number of needy people.

Parcel Post Higher

New Higher Rates On Parcel Post Went Into Effect On October 1; Effect Short Hauls

Increased rates on parcel post mail became effective October 1st. The new rates which were approved in February by the Interstate Commerce Commission are intended to cut the annual deficit this class of mail has produced. Based on revenues and expenditures for 1930, the department figured that parcel post was being handled at a net loss of $15,000,000. While there was a material loss on parcels in the first three zones, those beyond were handled at a profit. The new schedules are designed to equalize the rates. No change was made on parcels for local delivery. The increases run from one to three cents, depending upon weight and distance.

The new rates are: First and second zones, 8 cents for the first pound or fraction of a pound and 11 cents for each additional pound or fraction; third zone, 9 and 2 cents, respectively; four zone, 10 and 35 cents; fifth zone, 12 and 7 cents; seventh zone, 15 and 11 cents. The postage on parcels mailed on rural routes for local delivery are 2 cents less than these rates and 3 cents less when for other than local delivery. The new regulations permit mailing matter up to 70 pounds in weight and as large as 100 inches in length and girth combined.

FIRST FROST OF YEAR GIVES WARNING TUESDAY

The first frost of the season, giving a warning of approaching winter, descended upon Perryton and the Panhandle Tuesday night, bringing with it a temperature near the freezing mark. The United States weather bureau at Amarillo reported a minimum temperature of 36 degrees. It is thought that damage from the frost would be very slight. Temperatures have been rising for the balance of the week under a bright sun. The norther which hit the Panhandle late Monday blew itself out Tuesday, but was followed by the touch of frost Tuesday night.

TWO YEARS FOR BANK BURGLARY

BOB BETTY CONVICTED MONDAY ON BOOKER BANK ROBBERY CHARGE LAST YEAR

A two-year prison sentence was given Bob Betty Monday evening by the jury which convicted him on a charge of burglary for robbing the First State Bank at Booker of $995 on December 23, last year. The trial was held at Pampa on a change of venue from Lipscomb county. Officer W. J. Pottorff, who was successful in running down the gang at Amarillo following the burglary, Sheriff J. S. Talley, Ecton Lawrence and Compton Bull were all called as witnesses at the trial. Betty and his companions passed through Perryton on the evening of the robbery, stopping at a local filling station. The case of Frank Roddy, indicted on the same charge, was passed until October 12. The principal state witness at Betty's trial was George Brown, the Amarillo youth held as an accomplice in the burglary. He related details of the robbery and involved Betty, Roddy and another person.

Two To Penitentiary

Elmer Dillingham And Roy Mitchell Taken To Amarillo, En Route To Huntsville

The men were Elmer Dillingham, convicted on a sale of liquor charge and sentenced to eighteen months and Roy Mitchell who will serve a four year term for forgery, two years each on two different counts.

RICHARD DIX PHOTOPLAY WILL AROUSE HUMANITY

Long sentences are blamed by Warden Lewis E. Lawes of Sing Sing Prison for such prison riots as the one that marks the spectacular climax of "Hell's Highway", RKO-Radio's poignant prison drama coming to the Ellis Theatre, Friday and Saturday, with Richard Dix in the starring role. Warden Lawes says: "You may build impregnable prisons, fireproof and sanitary. You may feed the stomach or clothe the body. But as long as you continue to starve the spirit by withholding human hope, prisons will be cauldrons where passion and emotion shrivel into bitterness and hatred."

MOTHER DIED AT BALKO

SMALL LOSS IN GROWING TREES

WINDBREAK DEMONSTRATIONS IN COUNTY SHOW SMALL PERCENTAGE OF LOSS THIS YEAR

According to Sidney S. Burton, agent for Southern Great Plains Field Station, Woodward, Okla., the windbreak demonstrators working with the cooperation of his station have made a remarkable showing this year. Those taking part in the windbreak demonstration are A. E. Deviers, Lone Tree community, H. C. Cutter, Lord community, B. L. Barnes, McMillen community and Wm. Deck, Black community.

In spite of the adverse conditions of the past season, making it very difficult to grow trees without irrigation, these demonstrators came out with a loss of but three to six per cent, which, according to Mr. Burton, is by far the lowest percentage of any county in Kansas, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Texas included in the station area.

The trees set out in the windbreaks last spring were all Chinese Elms, from two to four rows according to needs, spaced ten feet apart in the rows and the rows fifteen feet apart to permit cultivation. Next spring, pines will be sent from the station, to these demonstrators to be planted just inside the Chinese Elm rows.

'GRAND HOTEL' COMING SUNDAY

GREATEST FILM OF YEAR OPENS THREE DAY RUN SUNDAY; NO ADVANCE IN ADMISSION

"Grand Hotel", the long-awaited and much discussed Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer all-star production, will open Sunday at the Ellis Theatre for a three day run, as the most important picture in years. The Perryton showing on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday is probably the first appearance of this great picture in the Panhandle at regular admission prices.

The world premiere of "Grand Hotel" at the Astor Theatre in New York was marked by the largest public advance sale of tickets in the history of the theatre and its subsequent special engagements in hundreds of cities throughout the country proved it to be a tremendous box-office sensation wherever screened, breaking theatre gross records and establishing new advance sale records. It is the most outstanding achievement of the motion picture industry, outdoing even such great successes of the silent era as "Ben-Hur" and "The Big Parade".

Based on the Vicki Baum play, which ran for more than a year at the National Theatre in New York, "Grand Hotel" brings to the screen the most astounding galaxy of stars and players ever seen in a motion picture. Each of the five principal roles is filled by an outstanding screen star. The exotic Greta Garbo plays the Russian dancer, Grusinskaya, who lives on the acclaim of her audiences and is ready to die when they no longer applaud. John Barrymore plays the impetuous nobleman whose love for the dancer prevents him from turning thief. Joan Crawford is cast as the seductive stenographer who is willing to sell herself for whatever she is worth to the industrial magnate, Preysing, portrayed by Wallace Beery. And Lionel Barrymore plays the provincial bookkeeper, Kringelein, who, broken in health, spends his hoarded dollars to enjoy his last days in the splendor of the Grand Hotel. Lewis Stone and Jean Hersholt head the supporting cast which also includes Robert McWade, Purnell B. Pratt, Ferdinand Gottschalk, Rafaela Ottiano, Morgan Wallace, Tully Marshall, Frank Conroy, Murray Kinnell and Edwin Maxwell.

The lives of these strangely different characters are drawn together in the vortex of the fashionable Berlin hotel and the result in which love, intrigue, murder, lust, comedy and tragedy all play a part. What happens to one on an exciting night in this hotel has its effect on each of the others and although some of them never meet, their lives are fantastically intertangled. It is probably the most unique plot ever used for screen production. William A. Drake adapted the American version of the play and the picture was directed by Edmund Goulding, who produced "Devil's Holiday" and Gloria Swanson's "The Trespasser".

WORK ON NO. 4 EXPECTED SOON

WORK ORDER WILL BE ISSUED IN NEXT WEEK OR TEN DAYS; ARE MOVING FENCES

Construction work on the grading, drainage structures and caliche on Highway 4 from Perryton north to the state line will probably be started within the next week or ten days according to A. E. Dyatt, resident engineer, just as soon as the work order issued by the State Highway commission.

The contract calls for 6.747 miles to the state line and was let to Davies & Son, Abilene, who also hold the contract on Highway 117. According to the contract, seventy-five work days have been allowed for finishing the project.

The plans for Highway 117 from Perryton to the Lipscomb county line east are in Austin and the first section of No. 4 south from Perryton. According to Mr. Dyatt, these two projects may be included in the October letting.

The project on Highway 117 calls for grading and drainage structures while the No. 4 plan calls for grading, drainage structures and caliche and limestone base courses.

Entertain With Dinner Party The teachers at the Murphy duplex entertained Mr. and Mrs. Max Boyer and Dr. and Mrs. Manse Wood with a dinner party, Thursday evening, September 29. After dinner an enjoyable evening was spent by playing bridge. Plates were laid for the following: Mr. and Mrs. Boyer, Dr. and Mrs. Manse Wood, Misses Hutchinson, Brasley, Manly, Kuper, Yoe, and Britton.

Surprise Birthday Party Oscar Blank was greatly surprised Thursday evening when a number of friends came in to help him celebrate his fourteenth birthday. Games were played until a late hour when dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. O. E. Blank, Mrs. R. O. James, and Mrs. O. C. Shearer. Everyone declared that they had had a delightful time.

"THE FENCE" The new gridiron fence is very interesting so we sent a reporter to examine it. Here's his report. "Hello, football fans, all out, and cast your peepers upon our new gridiron fence. The fence is a beauty. It is a protection to fans and warriors alike. The gates to the fence of the gridiron are very large and spacious. The fence is made of very strong pine, presumably to keep out ambitious youngsters who would like to strut their football. The fence is not forbidding, but very serene and smiling—if you will stay behind its useful bounds. Perryton has undoubtedly the nicest gridiron fence of any school in this district. Here's to our gridiron fence."

JOKES Alice: Oh, I've been stung by a wasp! Mr. Bush (in Biology class): Quick, put some ammonia on it. Alice: I can't, it's gone. George N.: Mrs. Jones, may I use your telephone? Mrs. Jones: Certainly, George, is yours out of order? George: Well, not exactly, but she is using it to hold up the window, ma's cutting biscuits with the mousetrap and baby's teething on the cord. Carmen: Ike must be seriously thinking of marriage. I hear he's figuring on buying a house for you. Nell: Well, he's got a good start; I gave him the gate last night. Miss Feely: Guss, can you tell me one use of cowhide? Guss: Yes, ma'am. It keeps the cow together. Ellis K. went into a grocery store and asked for a box of matches. Presently he returned, saying: "Please, mother says these matches won't light." "Won't light," cried the grocer. "Why, look here!" and he struck one on his trousers. Ellis took the matches away, but presently returned them once more. "Please, sir, mother says she hasn't time to come and scratch all her matches on your trousers!"

ORE REPORTS Well, the editor-in-chief sure played havoc! That's the way it goes though, when a person wants most of all to make a good impression. The chief and a "bunch" of his rule abiding classmates were engaged in an innocent game of baseball the other noon. Everything went along nicely until the chief suddenly changed the game from baseball to football and the ball made entrance to Mr. Bush's office through a window pane. Hasn't it seemed queer this week? We have not had any elections—to speak of. Most of the ones who got jobs or offices last week are wishin' they didn't and those who didn't are wishin' they did. It's a 143q life. —Reports Ore.

THE HIDDEN CREED (from The Hamburg Sandwich) The religion of all nations is patriotism. Every citizen of every nation is deep down in his heart, a patriot; and none but a coward hesitates to lay even his life on the altar of his country. Our school is our nation. The patriotism of our experience is school spirit. If an outsider mocks our school, a feeling of resentment creeps into our minds. We patriotically rebuff him because, embodied deep down in the hearts of most of us, there is a feeling called school spirit. If chosen, none of us would hesitate to represent his school on the football gridiron or basketball court. While witnessing an athletic contest there is something in us that makes us cheer 'till our throats fail us. We may appear indifferent, unappreciative and hard but when "Jack" wins the game with a spectacular last minute play, the mask is thrown off and a real feeling we hold toward our school shines in the eyes of all. We all have it; neither can we deny it, for we all love our school.

"THE OL' SCHOOL SPIRIT" Until the last few days I have been wondering what has become of the "Ole School Spirit". There has been practically nothing said about it. Now there is so much of it that it is becoming difficult to hold the school together. The Pep Squad is organizing; the band is getting started on the old peppy music. Everyone is ready to boost the Rangers in their first game of the season with the Oklahoma Aggie freshmen. This is going to be a game played under the new rules you have heard so much about. Ev-

RANGER-GORILLA GAME CANCELLED

Pampa cancelled the game that was to be played last Saturday, due to the condition of the weather. The Rangers were all set for a victory. This game was supposed to open the football season for the Rangers. It will now open October 7, when they meet the Aggie College freshmen of Goodwell, Okla. in a non-conference game.

PEP SQUAD

The Pep Squad, this early in the season, can boast over seventy members. Better stunts, yell, songs and spirit is expected this year. The Pep Squad must be a "winner" to equal the expected winning football team. Nell Coffee and Janice Murphy with their enthusiasm and unshakable zeal are leading the squad through strenuous practices. The Pep Squad appreciates the privilege of being allowed to practice during the physical education period. The squad has made a few additions to their former attractive red and white uniforms this season. We invite you out to the games and to see our stunts. Three cheers for the best Pep Squad known to Perryton High School.

THOUGHTS FOR THE WEEK

Flattery is merely some one giving audible expression to your secret opinion of yourself. Treading on other people's toes is not a very good way to mount the ladder of success. Everyone, big and little, large and small, come out and see the Rangers take the Aggie freshmen to a first class cleaning, Friday, October 7.

Must We Endorse The Lubbock Platform

Do The People Of Texas Favor a Levy On Gasoline For The General Fund? Do They Want To Invalidate The Work Of The Special Session?

In the midst of eloquent appeals for "party harmony" and for "loyalty to the Democratic Party", and aside from the issue of "proxy government", it seems to us to be in order to call attention to the "Democratic" platform which the people of Texas are being asked to endorse by their votes. If the Ferguson's are elected in November, we shall be told at the regular session of the Legislature in January that the people endorsed the platform by this action, and the members will be expected to enact the "demands" of the platform into law. The platform, of course, is the Ferguson platform, and in no true sense can it be said to have been framed by the Democratic convention at Lubbock. The "ten points" of the Ferguson platform are included in it, and they constitute its chief proposals for specific legislation.

With most of the glittering generalities about the "time-honored principles preached and practiced by Jefferson and Jackson" no fault can be found. They are chiefly high-sounding language with no very definite meaning. But it is different with the Ferguson "ten points". They are very definite proposals for the enactment of specific measures into law. Some of them, like the proposal to regulate trucks and buses "to prevent road destruction and insure public safety" and the promise to consolidate departments of government, are couched in such general terms as to leave little room for disagreement until they are embodied in specific bills. But others are of a different character.

Consider, for example, what the platform proposes shall be the highway program of Texas in the future. It proposes the reapportionment of gasoline taxes, distributing one-third to the schools, one-third to the highway department, and one-third to the general revenue fund, and it proposes also that the members of the State Highway Commission shall be elective instead of appointive officials. Both of these assurances, in our opinion, would mean retrogression for Texas in the matter of highways. And the division of the gasoline taxes in the manner proposed would require the repeal of the measure passed by the special session of the Legislature providing for the assumption by the State of interest and principal payments on county and district bonds which have been expended on State highways. Not only that, but it would spell the doom of all proposals to lift the burden of highway bonds from the farms, homes, and other real property in the State.

Let it be noted that the proposal is that the present appointment of one cent a gallon for schools and three cents a gallon for highways shall be changed to one and one-third cents a gallon to the general fund, one and one-third cents for schools, and one and one-third cents for highways. Now there is no valid justification for placing a special tax on the motor traffic of the State for the benefit of the general fund, just as there is no justification for the placing of an ad valorem tax on farms, homes, and other real estate for State highways. The bill just enacted by the Legislature would abolish the ad valorem tax for State highways and take care of the county and district highway bonds out of the gasoline tax fund. That is perfectly proper, for motor traffic should pay for the construction and maintenance of State highways. But the "Democratic" platform proposes that one-third of the gasoline tax on motor traffic shall be handed over to the Legislature to appropriate as it chooses for any purpose it chooses. It also proposes to increase the tax on gasoline for schools by one-third.

Let us see what this does. In the first place it establishes a new tax policy for the State, that of taxing gasoline for the general fund. In the second place it increases the tax on gasoline for school purposes. And third, it cuts the revenue of the highway department from gasoline taxes to less than 45 per cent of the present revenue of the department from that source. There is no justification for the first, the second is of doubtful wisdom as a State policy, and the third cripples the highway department to such an extent as to make inevitable a demand for an increase of the gasoline tax.

If the proposed measure had been put in the form of a proposal to place an additional tax on gasoline for the benefit of the general fund and for the schools there would have been such a howl against it that it would never have been embodied in the platform in spite of all the hand-wagon jumping at Lubbock. And yet that is precisely what the proposal amounts to in the end, for it can be taken for granted that the enactment of any such measure into law would compel an increase of the gasoline taxes in order to insure the maintenance of the highways of the State and provide enough revenue to match Texas' share of Federal aid for highways.

And this would become necessary in order to levy a tax of one and one-third cents a gallon on gasoline for the general fund and increase the school tax on gasoline by one-third of a cent.

Do the people of Texas favor levying a special tax on gasoline for the benefit of the general fund? If they stop to think about it, we are quite sure that they will not favor it. The average man in Texas already pays more gasoline taxes to the State Government than he pays of any other kind of taxes to the State Government. Even if the levying of such a tax on gasoline for the general fund were to result in a decrease of the State ad valorem taxes on property, which we very much doubt, the little man would be a net loser by such a change. The net result of the operation would be to increase the tax of the little man for the benefit of the big property owner. It would mean, for example, an increase of the tax on the operation of the tenant farmer's flivver for the benefit of the big landlord. It would mean an increase of the tax on the city work-er's flivver for the benefit of the big city real estate owner. It would mean this, if it resulted in relieving anybody of any taxes, but we are frank to say that our own opinion is that it would provide the Legislature with just that much more revenue in the general fund to appropriate, and would have no other effect.

But an even greater objection to the proposal to tax gasoline for the benefit of the general fund is the effect it would have upon the matter of relieving property from the ad valorem taxes now levied by the counties and road districts for bonds which were expended to construct State highways. Such ad valorem taxes are absolutely unjust, for they constitute a burden on property which should be borne by motor traffic. It is just that a portion of the gasoline taxes should be used to pay the interest and principal charges on such bonds because it is motor traffic that is getting the benefit of those bonds. Instead of handing over a tax of one and one-third cents a gallon on gasoline to the Legislature to spend as it sees fit, without any restrictions, the State should use part of the gasoline taxes to relieve the farms and homes of county and district road taxes which go to benefit highway traffic. And that can be done without increasing the gasoline taxes. That is what the law enacted by the special session of the Legislature provides for, but it would invalidate the law, and make its repeal necessary, if the proposal of the "Democratic" platform should be carried out.

We are quite sure, we say, that a majority of the people of Texas would never favor such a proposal. And yet under our system of making the platform of a single candidate in the primaries the platform of the party itself, the Democratic voter in Texas is left no choice but that of voting for this proposal or voting for the Republican candidate. We are absolutely opposed to any such proposal, we do not believe in levying a special tax on gasoline for the benefit of the general fund, and yet we are told that we cannot be loyal to the Democratic party unless we vote for this proposal in the November election.

And the same is true of the proposal to make the three State highway commissioners elective. That means, among other things, the creation of three more independent offices, without any responsibility to the State administration, and three more candidates for State office without any responsibility to anybody but their personal followers. Eloquent gentlemen appeal for "party loyalty", but the truth is we have no real party organization in Texas. We have only personal politics. The convention at Lubbock, when you come right down to the plain truth, was not a Democratic convention in any strict sense; it was a Ferguson convention, just as it would have been a Sterling convention, if Governor Sterling had received a majority of the votes in the primary. The various other candidates for State offices on the ticket were not the nominees of that convention; each of them was the candidate of his own particular personal following. Our primary system, together with the multiplicity of elective State offices, has destroyed any vestige of real party organization we ever had in Texas. And now it is proposed to create more such independent political machines by making three more State offices elective and subject to the Democratic primaries! Moreover, by compelling the candidates for the places on the highway commission to raise immense campaign funds and make State-wide campaigns for the Democratic nomination, the department will be thrown into politics up to its neck.

There are other features of this "Democratic" platform to which we are unalterably opposed, and which we believe a majority of the people would oppose if they were presented to be voted on separately, but these applying to highways are sufficient to damn it. Do the gentlemen who are appealing for "party loyalty" insist that the proposals of this "Democratic" platform shall be enacted into law in the event of the election of the Ferguson's in November? We are quite sure that many people would like to have that question answered before casting their votes.

Texas has made real progress in providing an adequate highway system during the past six years. The State Highway Commission has handled hundreds of millions of dollars without any suspicion of graft or irregularity of any kind. During the campaign, Mr. Ferguson made wild and reckless charges against the commission, but no man who took the trouble to examine those charges even casually gave them any weight. No more than a handful of Mr. Ferguson's own followers took them seriously. And not one of Mr. Ferguson's followers proposed at the recent special session of the Legislature to impeach the commissioners on the assumption that the charges were true.

But now, the "Democratic" platform proposes radical changes in our whole highway policy and in the laws governing the commission. Have the people of Texas no choice but that of going to the polls like a lot of sheep and voting to endorse this "Democratic" platform or voting for the Republican candidate? What do the eloquent pleaders for "party loyalty" have to say about it?—The Texas Weekly.

Legion To Plainview

American Legion And Auxiliary Of 18th District In Convocation On October 15th And 16th

Plainview, Tex., Oct. 3.—Department Commanders from three southwestern states have been invited to attend the convention of the American Legion of the 18th Texas District to be held in Plainview, October 15 and 16. Acceptances of invitations have been received from Carl E. Nesbitt of Mineola, commander of the Texas Department, and from Everett Grantham of Clovis, N. M., commander of the New Mexico Department.

The 18th District is composed of 60 posts in the territory comprising the 18th Congressional District, extending from Chillicothe, Quanah and Haskell west to the New Mexico state line and north from Snyder, Lamesa and Seminole to the north boundary of the Panhandle of Texas.

Eight posts in the immediate vicinity of Plainview are aiding the Plainview post in preparation of program and will act as joint hosts. These posts are Lubbock, Lockney, Floydada, Petersburg, Tulla, Dimmitt, Littlefield and Silverton.

Today, a month from the date for the opening of the convention, sixty former service men have registered for the Denver lines, who is chairman of the arrangement committee for the local post, predicts a registration of 600 for the convention.

The morning of the opening day will be devoted to registration of guests. At 3:30 that afternoon the Amarillo and Pampa "40 and 8" voitures will start what they say will be a memorable "wreck".

A dutch lunch for visitors will precede an athletic program late in the evening and a dance will close the day's program. Largent-Peret's dance orchestra will play. Two floors of a downtown building will be used for the dance, accommodations being available for 500 couples.

A school for service officers will open the second day. Advice and instruction will be given service officers and others who wish to attend. The Legion's State Service Officer, representatives of the U. S. Veterans Bureau from Dallas and Muskogee, Oklahoma, and efficient service officers of the local posts will lead the discussion which will pertain to details of all forms of veteran's relief work. At noon a barbecue will be served.

Concurrently with the Legion Convention the Legion Auxiliary will hold its convention. A reception and bridge party will be held on the first afternoon and a supper will be served by the Plainview Auxiliary at Plainview's new municipal shelter house, "The House of Friendship", in one of the city parks. Sunday afternoon the business session will be held immediately after the public meeting. Mrs. James Trent of Clarendon will preside.

Dr. Bradford Knapp, recently appointed President of Texas Technological college of Lubbock will address the Legion members and the public at 1:30 p. m. as part of a patriotic program of variety. An

REVIVAL STARTS SOON

A host of men, some of our very best minds, believe that this day of distress was brought on by laxness of morals and backsliding from the power of an all-consuming faith in God. That host is receiving recruits every day who make the claim, who herald the contention, that these days pause while we make up our minds what we are going to do with God, His laws and commandments.

That recurrent question, the question which dazed Pilate, "What then shall I do with Jesus who is called the Christ?"—is burning itself into our souls. This question is far more important than others we now discuss; even far more important than who will be the next governor of Texas, or even president of the Nation. And the sadness of it all is that there be so many who cannot conceive of queries more grave than these.

We here quote from the pen of one of our greatest American preachers, pastor of the First Methodist church of Detroit: "Well stated creeds and high-idealized politics are not enough. The most practical and virile principles will weaken and faint unless they are motivated in a character unique and irresistible because of an unbroken communion in God. The world never needed Jesus more than now. The great deliverance will not be supplied by reading the splendid stories of tireless characters who met the calls of other days. . . . Surely at an hour like this, we will not dare to fail as Christians to be solicitously loyal to our faith."

Our town needs such a revival. There have come many to our town who conceive it to be a Mecca for all sorts of wildness, the safe place to barter all sorts of wares. The court can sentence them and the laws can suppress them, but religion ought to do more for them, what no other can, convert them. Many of our members are absorbed, wholly taken up with other matters of worldly character, and others are indifferent to our programs of church life. In such times as these some seem inclined to fiddle while Rome burns!

Elsewhere—in our church announcements, we explain our plans for a revival to begin in the Methodist church—now get the date, October 16.

GONE HOME

Rose Newingham, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Newingham, was born near Waka, Texas, on October 1, 1932. Like a little tender flower she bloomed a few days in God's field, below and was soon transplanted to shine in the Paradise above, not for two days but through Eternity.

Her father, mother, and four sisters, Marie, Goldie Mae, Lillie Ellen at home, and Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Swink of Perryton, mourn the loss of little Rose.

Services were held at the home on October 3rd, conducted by Rev. O. H. Peller, from the words of Jesus, "Be not afraid" and "Of such is the Kingdom of Heaven".

He who calmed the storm and troubled sea will comfort our broken hearts. And a Savior who took the little children up in his arms and blessed them and said "of such is the Kingdom of Heaven" loves our children today.

A sympathetic crowd of neighbors and friends, the beautiful flowers and spirit filled message in song by the quartet gives assurance to the bereaved family that the Waka community cares. The little form was laid to rest in the Waka cemetery.

"I take these tender lambs" said Christ.

And lay them in my breast. Protection they shall find in me. It may be ever blessed.

Death may the bands of life unloose. But can't dissolve my love; Millions of infant souls compose The family above.

"I Like The Depression"

By The Late
Henry Ansley
"Jackass Of The Plains"

Mr. Ansley recalls that before PROSPERITY he was just one of the home-town boys who knew everybody and whom everybody knew. Even when he got drunk at the sheriff's convention and lost his job folks were mighty nice to him. PROSPERITY went to his head. Over night he became a Business Man, a Big Shot. He couldn't be bothered with the old folks, the boyhood pals, the friends of the family. They were old fogies. He and the upstarts knew all there was to know.

Then came the DEPRESSION, a pall over the land. Gloom clutched us. But Mr. Ansley says he likes the DEPRESSION.

It has brought real friends back to him and long forgotten neighborliness. It has taught him what a dollar is worth and that hard work, horse-sense and the Golden Rule are more valuable than a snowball in Hades. It has taught him how to use time comfortably. It has taught him a most amusing and delightful lot of things about Wives and other Women, about Farming, Clubs, Conventions, Politics, Dogs, Bosses, Parties and Entertainment, Clothes, Furniture, Home, Food, Health and Doctors, Families and Church.

MAYOR SHANKS HAS NO FEDERAL MONEY TO LOAN

During the past few days many people have come to me to apply for Federal aid loans. They misunderstood the article in last week's Herald referring to my appointment by Governor Sterling to prepare Perryton's application for a part of the Federal emergency relief and construction funds.

These funds are available strictly on a charity basis, not a loan. Perryton has made application for a part of this appropriation and if obtained, some kind of public work will be done whereby those that are in absolute need will be given employment at a living wage in order to prevent them from becoming objects of charity and wards of the government. Please do not confuse these funds with those of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation. I represent no organization with any money to loan.

District Court Hurt Our Town

Some of the citizens of Ochiltree are convinced that the re-opening of the September term of district court were detrimental and destructive to business. This conclusion is based on the theory that liquor traffic adds materially to the business prosperity of our community.

Thoughtful and intelligent citizens weigh these facts. This winter orphan children will feel the pangs of hunger as they shiver from the cold. Full of a mother with a family she will face the ghastly spectacle of want and privation and misery. Many a man will seek relentlessly for labor, to find none. How indeed must be the man who has his money, the price of and bacon and beans, for the booze. Money spent with the groceryman reaches channels of circulation as rapidly or more so, than the other straves. Very few of the straves cause no harm on the highways to stimulate the wreckers business and do they cause delirium tremens and hiccoughs to help the undertaker. But booze offers no profit for ruined homes and no for broken hearts.

It shall it profit our county to the whole world and lose her only knows the sympathy of a sincere Christian citizen for a sinner, whether guilty or innocent, caught in the coils of the law. Christian citizens are also convinced that the law shall not be flouted or insolently defied.

This week, on Sunday evening, we are having a meeting of the teachers council, and the teacher in the church school is expected to be present. At this time we are planning a program, "Moth and Youth Week". In this is none other than an effort to bring the child life of the church to the parents. We frequently the other way. "Childhood Week" is to be observed from 9 to 16, with visits by the parents to the homes of their pupils as this is at all possible. It is in mind to become better acquainted with the parents. On Sunday evening, October 14, the Sunday school of the mission will give a Mother and Daughters' banquet in the church. This is one of the big affairs of the year.

There is a quaint, homely and ancient saying about one "cutting their nose to spite their face". I have never known this to happen literally but I have seen it happen figuratively and spiritually. The person who slights the service of the church by not attending it may hurt it sometimes and he may help it but without an exception he hurts himself. He slaps his own face and robs his own purse. He may think he is slapping at someone else and impoverishing another but he only hurts himself.

There are those who say, "I would not live in a community where there was not a church" and thus confess that the church's ministry is noble, worthwhile and uplifting but at the same time stay away from the church services. The church was there before he came along and will be there when some poor unfortunate preacher has been embarrassed at his funeral. The church might be helped or it might be hindered but this is certain the man is robbing himself. There are those who believe in sending their children to Sunday school and thus confess their belief in the value of the churches ministry but they do not attend. They rob themselves.

There are church members who think the church ought to have a Bible school and thus confess their confidence in its ministry. At the same time they do not come to the school and rob themselves of any good the Bible school has. There are those who would "throw a fit" if the church did not have Sunday night services. They believe that a church ought to have these services. They believe the services are worthwhile yet they do not come. They rob themselves of any good to be derived from them. There are those who feel that every church ought to have a prayer meeting every week but who never attend. They confess that it is good and that they rob themselves.

There are those who stay away from the services, some from indifference and some through spite but the church goes on and they rob themselves of joy, of peace, of conscience, of fellowship with God and man.

It would be amusing if it were not so serious. Think of the humor of a person picking their own pocket; of sticking a gun in their own face to make their other hand pass over the purse; of a business man riffling his own safe. It is unthinkable if not laughable. However when you see people robbing their own spiritual lives it becomes deplorable and heart breaking. Of all the boons in the world, man is the greatest. Of all the irrational things in the world man is the most unreasonable. Get your hand out of your pocket and get your gun out of your face and come to church, get what the church has to give.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wells, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Wells and daughter and Ina Wells spent the day Sunday in Borger visiting with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Harris were in Wichita Falls over the week-end visiting with home folks and friends.

Fire Prevention Week

Week Of October 9 To 15 Proclaimed By President As Fire Prevention Week

Announcement has been made by the White House that President Hoover has proclaimed the week of October 9-15, 1932, as National Fire Prevention week. The President by proclamation annually sets aside the week in which falls the anniversary of the great Chicago fire to be observed as National Fire Prevention week in the interest of the prosperity and well-being of the citizens of this country. Governors, Mayors, and other public officials will in many instances issue similar decrees, to the end that the week will be observed in hundreds of communities.

Organizations in many of these communities throughout the nation will give their cooperation to the promotion of fire prevention knowledge, and in many instances will take a leading part in the observance of that week. It is requested that all local organizations cooperate in the sponsoring of either part or all of an effective fire prevention week program. Only by such cooperation can the yearly destruction of life and property by fire be materially lessened.

The fire losses in 1931 were greater than in 1930. The value of the property destroyed by fire in 1931 is estimated at $500,000,000—a staggering sum for a nation in the throes of a depression. America's fire loss is still the greatest in the world. Aside from this huge property loss it is estimated that between 10,000 and 15,000 persons lose their lives by fire each year and that several times that number are injured. In addition to these direct losses, there are the indirect losses which result from the interruption of business, the loss of buying power on the part of those thrown out of work, tax losses, broken contracts, and many others. These facts present conclusive evidence of the necessity for greater efforts in the interest of lessened fire waste.

The fire loss sustained by business aggregates approximately 65 per cent of the total fire loss. Business men can do themselves a real service by undertaking an active program to promote the use of such preventive measures as will assure a reduction of this loss. Business men have welcomed the opportunity to carry on this important activity.

Fire Prevention week is designed for educational purposes. No opportunity should be overlooked of presenting facts to the public. To assure the most success, plans should be made well in advance for the observance of Fire Prevention week. Fire Prevention week in some communities has brought out the need for such improvements as new fire prevention or building codes, better water supply, and many other civic improvements of permanent value.

On the basis of the average loss for the preceding five years, the Chambers of Commerce enrolled in the Inter-Chamber Fire Waste contest saved $50,000,000 for their communities last year. The per capita loss in the competing cities last year was reduced to $2.33 as against $4.07 for the country as a whole. This is convincing evidence that fire prevention pays handsome dividends to those communities actively engaged in it. The facts are that the activities promoted by these communities during Fire Prevention week played a material part in making this splendid showing.

OBITUARY

Glenn Arthur, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Kerstetter, was born at Perryton, Texas, June 16, 1931, and died on Sunday, October 2, 1932, after an illness of ten days. He reached the age of 15 months and 16 days.

The child's disposition was lovely and with a smile on his face all the time. He was loved by every body. Friends, he had many. Jesus, in settling the argument of His disciples, "Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven," called a little child unto Him, and set him in the midst of them, and said, "Verily I say unto you, Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter the kingdom of heaven." Jesus loves little children. He says, "Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God."

This little son leaves to mourn his beloved parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Kerstetter, one brother, Ray Junior, three grand-parents, Arthur Kerstetter, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Golbek, one great grandparent, Philip Fehrer, one uncle, four aunts, and many friends and relatives.

"There is a reaper whose name is Death,
And with his sickle keen
He reaps the hearded grain at a breath,
And the flowers that grow between.

"And the mother gave, in tears and pain,
The flowers she most did love;
She knew she would see them all again
In the fields of light above."
—Longfellow.

"Asleep in Jesus—Parewell till we meet again."
The body was laid to rest in the A. O. U. W. cemetery, Aiva, Okla., on Tuesday, October 4. Rev. J. L. Burket and Rev. C. C. Voth officiated.

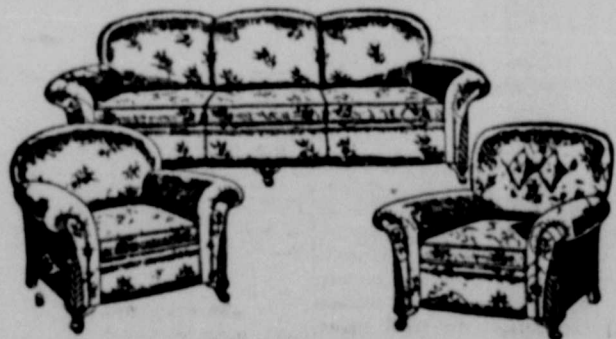

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Shupe were in Perryton Saturday looking after business matters and were guests for the night in the C. E. Woods home. Mr. Shupe is attending Teachers college at Emporia, Kans. this winter and will receive his Masters degree in the spring.

Mrs. Hannah R. Dunscomb, Parnsworth, spent the week-end in the home of her son, F. P. Rogers and family.
