EXPECTS GOOD RESULT FROM CONFERENCE

GRANDI SEES RELIEF MEASURE RESULT OF HOOVER TALKS

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19—Dino Grandi, the Italian foreign minister, was confident today his conversations with President Hoover would point the way to some measure of relief from world armament and debt burdens.

As the end of his Washington visit approached Grandi found himself in general agreement with the head of the American government on several subjects of international concern. He was ready for a final conference should Mr Hoover deem one necessary.

The young minister found the morning of his fourth and final day here free from social engagements, but he looked for many busy periods. There was the prospect of consultations over a joint communique to be issued at the White House covering the general results of the new face-to-face diplomacy.

Signor and Signora Grandi will leave late tonight for New York, before sailing November 27 for Europe.

The White House dinner last night afforded Grandi more than an hour of further conversation with the president. The other guests left them apart but Mr. Hoover called in one after the other of the four senators present—Borah, Moses, Pittman and Watson.

Today a luncheon with Undersecretary Castle of the state department, a press interview at his hotel, an automobile trip to Mt. Vernon, a radio speech and a dinner and reception at the Italian embassy tonight with the Ambassador and Signora De Martino of Italy crowded the final program.

Signor Grandi will carry back to his "chief", as he calls Premier Mussolini, a reiteration of the Hoover administration's policy of looking sympathetically on reparations and debt revision, but of leaving it to European initiative.

SEEKS CUT IN FARM LANDS

STONE THINKS THAT TOO MUCH LAND IS IN CULTIVATION

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Nov. 19—Chairman James C. Stone of the Federal Farm Board expressed belief today there was too much land in agricultural use.

A participant in the land utilization conference called by Secretary of Agriculture Arthur M. Hyde, the farm board head said land-planning "must include provisions for reducing the total area of land in farms, or else for shifting some of it to less productive use, as from crops to pastures."

Utilization of waste lands and conservation of soil was the keynote of the conference, with representatives from land grant colleges and universities, farm mortgage and insurance companies, conservation and forestry leaders and agriculturists attending.

The trend of the conferees' discussions was to solve the land ills of the future.

Chairman Stone said it would be an "almost impossible task" to develop a utilization program even in the next ten years.

Such a program, Stone said, has become one of the major precepts of farm board activities.

CONVICTED IN SLAYING OF AGED MAN

SENTENCE PRONOUNCED AT LAMESA TODAY; NO DISORDERS

BY J. SAM LEWIS
Journal Staff Writer

LAMESA, Nov. 19.—Ira McKee, convicted slayer of W. R. Billingsley, Sparenburg merchant, was sentenced today to die in the electric chair at Huntsville on January 8, 1932. Sentence was pronounced by Judge Gordon B. McGuire in 106th district court shortly before eleven o'clock this morning.

The sentence was the first death sentence ever pronounced in Dawson county. It was also the first extreme penalty ever pronounced by Judge McGuire.

No Demonstrations

McKee was chained to Sheriff Gus White of Dawson county, State Rangers Earl Young and Bob Summerall and Deputy Sheriff J. W. Westmoreland. Eight other officers were in the courtroom to prevent disorders but there was no demonstration from the 150 or more people present.

McKee was ushered into court by the officer after he had been brought from the Howard jail at Big Spring this morning. The officers will leave for Huntsville this afternoon with the condemned man.

McKee did not have an attorney to represent himself and Carl Roundtree, former state representative, was named by the court as his counsel. McKee asked that the sentence be postponed, maintaining his innocence.

Included in the spectators in the courtroom were Mrs. W. R. Billingsley, widow of the slain man and two of his brothers.

McKee was convicted of murder in June 1930.

Shot During Robbery

Billingsley was shot several times by a man who was attempting to make his getaway after robbing the filling station and cafe owned by Mrs. Mary Bryce and her son. The

CHARGE WIDOW IN MURDERS

WOMAN IS HELD FOR KILLING HUSBAND AND DAUGHTER

(By The Associated Press)

PEKIN, Ill., Nov. 19—Mrs. Alice Mason, 50-year-old widow of Delavan, Ill., was held today on charges that she killed her husband, John, a year ago and her daughter, Mildred, 12, last August, with poison.

State's Attorney Louis Dunkelberg who said she signed a statement last night admitting the slayings, announced the case would be presented to the county grand jury immediately after it convenes today.

Dunkelberg quoted Mrs. Mason as charging that the poison was given her by Dr. B. M. Barringer. He expressed doubt, however, if the physician took a part in the alleged crime.

The announcement of Mrs. Mason's confession was made several hours after the coroner's jury ordered her held to the grand jury on a charge of murdering her daughter.

The widow was arrested early yesterday after Dr. Willard D. McNally, Chicago toxicologist, reported to Coroner A. E. Allen, he had found sufficient poison in the girl's viscera to kill several persons. She died August 9, ostensibly from peritonitis.

WHEN IN AMERICA, SIGNOR GRANDI DOES AS AMERICANS AND GRANTS AN INTERVIEW; SON WILL VISIT IN U. S.

BY BESS FURMAN
(Copyright, 1931, by The Associated Press).

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19 (AP)—Signora Grandi, prettily turning the old adage, "when in Rome do as the Romans," proved how quickly she had learned American customs by granting, on her third day here, a press interview.

But she did what is seldom enough done in such conversations—she gave some news.

"Next year my son will come to America," she said. "He will come, and see it, for I think that to look at this industrious country will have a good effect on his character."

Signora Grandi laughed happily as she explained that her trans-Atlantic telephone call to her son, Franco, and daughter, Simonetta, had prompted this decision.

Fired by home-love, Donna Grandi talked enthusiastically of her plans for her son.

The Grandis previously had planned to add to Franco's education by sending him to America at the age of twelve. But his mother caught a tempo in the air that she wanted her son to sense in his formative years—immediately.

EXPECT OTHER TICKETS FOR GRID GAME

DESIRABLE ONES FOR AMARILLO-LUBBOCK CONTEST SOLD

The only unsold tickets to the Lubbock-Amarillo High school football game left in Lubbock this morning were about 160 pasteboards for seats behind the goal line, and E. J. Lowrie, business manager of Lubbock High school athletics, expected more tickets to arrive late this afternoon.

J. O. Smith, supervising downtown sales of tickets at the Hilton drug store, estimated that approximately 2,400 tickets had been received in Lubbock thus far. That figure included both those sold at the drug store and those disposed of to students through Lowrie.

More Seats Planned

Indications were only about 3,500 tickets would be available to Lubbock fans, who will occupy the entire east side of the field. That bank has a seating capacity of 3,135 at present but additional stands are to be erected behind the north goal line.

Matter Clarified

M. H. Duncan, superintendent of schools, received a letter Wednesday which clarified the matter of tickets, the number being sold, etc. There is a seating capacity of 7,195 in the Amarillo stadium at the present time but plans call for more bleachers to run the total to 10,200. The remainder, unless there is more ground available, will be used only for standing room, it was said.

Amarillo fans will not have a better section of the stands, the letter to Mr. Duncan stated, although they will be seated in a grandstand. The grandstand was built for baseball and extends around the south

SANTA CLAUS PARADE DECEMBER 11TH TO DRAW 50,000 ONLOOKERS; CROWDS TO SEE LIVE REINDEER AND PAGEANT

When Santa Claus drives his 12-reindeer team through the streets of Lubbock the downtown area will be thronged with 50,000 persons—easily the largest crowd in the city's history, chamber of commerce officials forecast today.

Based upon Amarillo's 70,000 throng when Santa visited there last year, 50,000 for Lubbock is believed to be a conservative estimate.

On December 11, The Avalanche-Journal will bring to Lubbock jolly old St. Nick himself, a parade pageant of Christmas, the Three Wise Men, riding live camels, and every lover of Christmas, from the cradle to the grave, will be on hand. The event is not commercial—there is no advertising to be permitted in the parade or on any of the many floats. It's just a big Christmas party for the people of this city and the entire South Plains.

FARMER FIRST, SAYS LAVAL

WELFARE OF PEASANT BEFORE OTHERS IN EYES OF PREMIER

(By The Associated Press)

PARIS, Nov. 19 — Pierre Laval, farmer and stock-raiser, stands ready to offer his country's cooperation in solving the world's economic troubles but at the same time, for him, the welfare of the French peasant comes first.

"Peasant's toil must be remunerative," the farmer-premier told the union of economic interests yesterday, explaining that France, "an essentially sound nation," would join in efforts to solve world economic troubles, but that her exports must be defended and her home markets protected at a time when no one thought of lowering customs barriers.

"Our agriculture," he said, "is not only a traditional foundation of our stability, but the nearest and surest customer for our industry."

A greater proportion of the people is engaged in agiculture and related enterprises in France than in any other of the western world's great powers and the peasant, with his prudence, shrewdness and solid character, is one of the national boasts of France, where the industrial population is considerably in the minority.

"Peep-Hole" Trial Nears Jury Today

MORGANTOWN, W. Va., Nov. 19 (AP)—The "peep-hole" case of Professor J. T. West, 50, charged with misconduct in his association with Miss Esther Williams, 27, a teacher in the Morgantown High school, was expected to go to the jury today.

The defense rested its case yesterday. Miss Williams was one of the last witnesses. She denied she had been guilty of improper conduct in Dr. West's office, as testified by Percy H. Smith, night watchman, a state witness, who said he watched the two in the room through a peep-hole cut in the floor of the room above.

CHARGES ECHO JAIL FIGHT

AGGRAVATED ASSAULT AND BATTERY ARE ALLEGED HERE

Following a fight between a city and a federal prisoner last night in city jail, Jatk Godwin, 35, who had been arrested for drunkenness, faces a charge of aggravated assault and battery in county court and L. A. Wallace, 51, is suffering from a severely sprained back, a blackened swollen eye, and minor facial injuries.

Appearing in county court this morning on both charges of assault and drunkenness, Godwin pleaded not guilty, the cases were set for trial Friday morning, and he was returned to jail in lieu of $200 bond in each case as fixed by County Judge E. L. Pitts.

Kangaroo Trial Held

A kangaroo court trial, in which Godwin was convicted and after which he was "punished", possibly led to the altercation which followed immediately after the iron door clanged behind him last night, authorities intimated.

Arrested on a minor charge about two weeks ago, Godwin was in jail when another prisoner missed $20.00, that amount was found on Godwin when all those in jaiy were searched, and he was found guilty at a mock trial. County Attorney Vaughn E. Wilson said jail inmates told him. Wallace, facing a

SANTA FE, N. M., Nov. 19 (AP)—The fate of ten men accused of conspiracy to violate federal laws in the promotion of an international lottery in the Saratoga sweepstakes of August 6, was in the hands of a jury here.

AND IF YOU DON'T BELIEVE IT YOU CAN FIGURE IT OUT FOR YOURSELF

(By The Associated Press)

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Ia., Nov. 19.—Last Sunday an Omaha newspaper told about Dr. Leopold Bauer of Austria, depositing a shilling in the Bank of England, at London, with instructions that his will would contain the provision that the shilling was to remain in the bank at interest for 1,500 years.

Then, wrote Dr. Bauer, the bank was to step out and "buy the American continent and a few other things it might want."

The idea intrigued E. V. Gustafson, former Council Bluffs, city clerk, and he immediately went into a huddle with himself.

Gustafson emerged from the huddle last night and delivered the information that at the end of 1,500 years, supposing the shilling to be worth 25 cents and the interest 5 per cent and compounded semi-annually the total would be:

Four thousand fifty one octillions, five hundred eleven septillions, eight hundred seventy two sextillions, three hundred eleven quintillion, seven hundred seventeen quadrillion, seven hundred sixty four trillion, eight hundred ninety six billion, three hundred nine million, five hundred ninety thousand, three hundred twenty three dollars and twenty cents.

CASHIER HELD TODAY AS AN ACCOMPLICE

CONFESSION MADE AND MONEY RECOVERED AT PALESTINE

(By The Associated Press)

PALESTINE, Nov. 19—Rapid developments in investigation, within 24 hours after the First National bank of Palestine was robbed of $8,368 yesterday, had resulted today in recovery of the money and charges being filed against Porter Cooper, cashier of the bank, and Howard Wingate.

Wingate was arrested late yesterday and in a signed statement to officers, named Cooper as his accomplice. He told of entering the bank and herding five employes into the vault at the point of a pistol. After locking them in, he collected the money in a bag but for some unexplained reason, did not take it out of the bank.

Money Recovered

The money, hidden in a compartment under the cashier's desk, was recovered by Detective Norman York.

Members of the bank personnel locked in the vault were President C. L. Hufsmith, C. L. Pounds, assistant cashier; Helen Gilliam, bookkeeper, and Miss Grace Officer, clerk.

Investigators were hopeful of being able to solve a previous robbery of the bank last March 28, when a robber took several thousand dollars under similar circumstances.

Indian Is Unmoved By Execution Stay

HUNTSVILLE, Nov. 19. (AP)—News that he had been given a 12-day reprieve from the electric chair failed to interrupt the stolid watch Chief Red Wing, condemned Indian, is keeping in his cell for Pocahontas.

Governor Ross S. Sterling granted the reprieve late yesterday afternoon, about eight hours before Red Wing was scheduled to die.

Warden W. W. Waid took the news to Red Wing. He found the Indian staring intently at a rough sketch he made last week of Pocahontas and an Indian brave. His gaze never left the sketch and not a twitch of a muscle indicated he had heard the warden.

MURDERS PAIR, SUICIDES

TRAPPED BY POSSES, SLAYER TAKES OWN LIFE EARLY TODAY

(By The Associated Press)

DENNISON, O., Nov. 19—Thomas Wheeler, 34, shot and killed himself early today not long after slaying Mrs. Blanche Scheideger, 34, who had spurned his attentions, and her husband, Russell C. Scheideger, 35.

Wheeler's body was found lying beside his automobile in which he had eluded posses of two counties for nearly three hours after the Scheidegers were shot down on a downtown street.

Two Guns Found

Beside the body were two guns he had used—a 22 caliber revolver with which Scheideger had been felled and a shotgun which had been fired at Mrs. Scheideger.

The Scheidegers' 12-year-old son, Russell, jr., who was walking home with them from a motion picture show, said Wheeler drove up beside them, jumped out and shot Mrs. Scheideger.

As she fell, her husband sprang toward Wheeler and shouted "say you," only to be instantly killed with another shot—this time from the revolver. Mrs. Eugene Rennicker, a neighbor, was slightly wounded by scattering shot.

Wheeler raced away toward Cadiz, 25 miles away, but was turned back near there by a sheriff's posse. He escaped and headed back to Dennison but found all roads there heavily guarded. Facing capture, he stopped his machine near the city, got out and shot himself in the heart with the shotgun, according to Coroner J. F. Lewis.

COLDS THAT DEVELOP INTO PNEUMONIA

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the infected membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold, no matter of how long standing, is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

DR. MYERS

Doctor Myers' Daily Column On Child Welfare

BY GARRY C. MYERS, PH. D.
Head Division Parental Education Cleveland College, Western Reserve University

CHILD STUTTERER

"Dear Sir: Reading your articles I was wondering if you would kindly give me some information on how to treat my child, a three-year-old boy, for stuttering."

Answer: The important thing is to make sure the child is built up physically, that he does not grow too weary or excited. Put emphasis upon regular routine habits. Let everyone work for quiet voices and unnecessary noises, and be sure he has an afternoon nap, that he never plays actively for more than an hour at a time, and that he comes in for quiet and rest about 40 minutes before the evening meal.

Never stop the child while speaking nor make him feel that you notice his stuttering. If you know the word he wants, quietly give it to him. Never look at his mouth while he is stuttering, and see to it that nobody laughs at him, teases him, nor talks about his stuttering. Try to be calm and patient and make him feel that everything will always be all right and that he never needs to hurry to express himself. In case there are other children, be sure that you never make comparisons and that you do everything possible to avoid jealousy.

"Dr. Myers: I don't just know how to begin this letter, but I will come right down to facts and tell you this, I cannot control my three-year-old child.

"I have tried everything from kindness to the hardest whipping—but of no avail. She defies incessantly, will listen to your explanation one minute and turn right around and do the very thing which she was reprimanded for. I am at my wits' end, if I must call it that. She will not listen to me, and so wish your advice as to what I could do to make her obey."

Answer: Write to the "Parent Problem," in care of this paper, enclosing ten cents (to cover cost of printing and mailing) and a self-addressed, stamped envelope, asking for my pamphlet on "Punishments and Rewards." Also go to your public library and borrow my book, "The Modern Parent," and read particularly the chapter on "Parents Who Punish Injudiciously."

I receive a number of letters from parents who live in sections where this column does not appear, but who have had it sent by some friend or relative that is a regular reader. I'm always glad to answer such letters, no matter where they come from, and I am pleased to learn that so many of my readers are clipping this column and mailing it to their friends who do not have it regularly available.

I shall be glad to answer, in these columns, any questions addressed to me in care of this paper, provided these questions seem to be of general interest.

If you have a question you would like to have answered personally write me, enclosing a self-addressed stamped envelope.

EDITOR'S NOTE. Two pamphlets by Dr. Myers may be obtained by sending 10 cents a coin for each and a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Dr. Garry C. Myers, in care of this paper or Central Press Association 1435 East Twelfth street, Cleveland O. The pamphlets are: "Punishments and Rewards" and "Fear."

Doctors Know Best How To Treat Colds

Medical writers agree that the important point in the treatment of a cold, or cough due to a cold, is to relieve the congestion in the nose and throat, thereby preventing serious complications which may follow a neglected cold. To stop this congestion calomel was the accepted and standard remedy until Calotabs, the improved calomel compound tablet was introduced.

Now that science has robbed calomel of its nausea and danger, making it pleasant to take and perfectly safe for general use, over forty million Calotabs are consumed in the U. S. yearly with only the most pleasant and satisfactory results.

In millions of homes Calotabs have proven their superiority in the prompt relief of colds and coughs due to colds.

One or two Calotabs at bed-time with a glass of sweet milk or water. No salts necessary. No nausea nor the slightest interference with your eating, work or pleasure. Next morning the congestion has subsided, your cold or cough is relieved, your system is thoroughly purified and you are feeling fine with a hearty appetite for breakfast. Eat what you wish,—no danger.

Get a family package of Calotabs, containing full directions, only thirty-five cents. Trial size, ten cents. At any drug store.—Adv.

GROWERS WILL GET ADVANCE

TO ENABLE FARMERS TO HOLD THE SEED UNTIL SPRING

Growers of sudan grass seed will receive an initial advance of 75 cents a hundred pounds and will be enabled to hold the seed until the spring of 1932.

Fred W. Mangelsdorf of Plainview has announced that, after conferences in Fort Worth and Dallas, he has made financial arrangements for the advances to members. Mangelsdorf is organizer of the Sudan Grass Growers association, formed to market the large crop of sudan grass seed produced this year.

"Under the arrangements completed," said Mangelsdorf, "we will immediately place in storage and hold for spring sales all seed delivered by our members to country elevators. We will pay the grower an initial advance of 75 cents per 100 pounds f. o. b country points. In the spring the seed will be sold at best possible prices obtained and additional sales dividends paid the members on the basis of quality delivery by each member.

"The market position of this commodity is much more favorable within the past few weeks. Reports from all sections indicate a good spring demand and we confidently expect a firm and higher market at that time. All growers who are not in immediate need of cash are advised to hold their seed for the present. Buying and handling arrangements with elevators will be completed within the next few days."

Several cars of sudan grass in Lubbock county probably will be placed in the cooperative association, D. F. Eaton county agent, said Wednesday. Two or three cars have been reported in the vicinity of Wolfforth.

Big Cotton Crop In Hockley County

LEVELLAND, Nov. 19 (Special)—Latest report from Hockley county gins indicate that approximately 40,000 bales of cotton have been ginned in the county by the 21 gins and that the total will be in excess of 50,000 bales at the close of the season.

Nine gins in Levelland and vicinity had ginned 19,184 bales at their last report, an average of over 2,000 bales per gin. The remaining 12 gins are believed to have averaged over 1,500 bales each, giving them a total of 18,000 more bales.

The crop, according to cotton men, is between 50 and 60 per cent picked. In many fields there are cotton piles all around the field, the gins being unable to handle more cotton and the farmers unable to haul it to town. Some fields have just been worked in part.

For the first time this season there is a surplus of pickers. The counties below the caprock are reported about through with pickers and ginners here say they are headed up this way.

Lubbock Boy Will Make Four-H Trip

With 19 other four-H club boys, Arvie Elliott, a Lubbock county weaver of the four-H emblem, will travel by the Santa Fe railway as a guest of the line to an annual congress of farm boys and girls at Chicago. Elliott and the other club boys are arranging to leave next Wednesday.

Because of his exceptional demonstration in hegari, Elliott was awarded the trip by the Santa Fe. He showed a profit of $110.23 on five acres of the feed. The crop produced 3,500 bundles of hegari which sold for $143.60. Total expense, amounting to $33.37, was divided as follows: Labor and expense of team, $5.27; harvesting, $5; hauling, $4; shocking, $1.50; twine, $2.10; seed cost, 80 cents, and rent, $15.

All expenses of the club boys will be paid, D. F. Eaton, county agent, said.

Won by a Whisker

One might think pretty Marjorie Janis was "bearding the lion" in this picture, but, in reality, she's satisfying her curiosity concerning the quality of the prize-winning whiskers which Ed Whalen is sporting. In this day of titles and records, Whalen holds the Northwestern University (Evanston, Ill.) whisker-growing championship. Note his loving cup trophy.

CHRISTIAN THAULOW, VIOLINIST, TO APPEAR IN CONCERT HERE TONIGHT

Appearing under auspices of the Lubbock High school band, Christian Thaulow, an internationally famous violinist, will present a concert at 8 o'clock tonight in the new high school auditorium. Net receipts will be used by the Westerner band to pay its expenses to Amarillo for the Thanksgiving football game and return.

This eminent native of Norway, who has been in the United States nine years, is best known in the Southwest for his connection with Morris Gest's "The Miracle" and the Friberg Passion Play. He was musical director of both of these stage productions. He is now professor of violin at Simmons University, Abilene, a position which he accepted last summer.

A real Stradivarius violin, now nearly 300 years old, will be heard in Mr. Thaulow's concert at the high school. The violin was given to young Thaulow as a present when he was six years old, by his father, the famous Frits Thaulow. The violin has been examined and dated by violin experts and its date placed at about 1630.

Began Studying at Five

Born 37 years ago in Paris of Norwegian parents, Thaulow began his musical career early. He began the study of the violin at five under the tutorship of his famous father, Frits Thaulow, and at six gave a concert of his own in Paris. He studied in Europe under masters of France, Norway and Russia, including the great d'Indy and Leopold Auer.

He has played concerts in every country in Europe except Turkey. Besides playing in violin concert, he directed a number of European orchestras. For several years he held a position as leader of the Royal Symphony at Oslo. His work in the United States has included solo playing with the New York Philharmonic orchestra.

Newspapers over Europe lauded him as one of the leading virtuosos of the new generation and Norwegian papers especially bemoaned his departure for this country.

Poland is exporting fully 50 per cent more hams and bacon than a year ago.

German talkies are having long runs in Norway this season.

HOLD WIFE IN SHOOTING

WEEK-END PARTY IS INVESTIGATED AS ENGINEER SLAIN

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 19 (AP)—A coroner's jury which investigated a week-end party at the fashionable Mt. Lebanon home of A. L. Culbertson, 35, an engineer, at which Culbertson was fatally shot, recommended that the man's wife, Laverna Culbertson, 35, the mother of two children, be held for the grand jury on a manslaughter charge.

Bond was fixed at $5,000 for the woman, who was not permitted by her counsel to testify at the inquest.

Liquor Consumed

R. W. Walker, Mt. Vernon, Ohio, lumber merchant, who, with his wife, was a house guest at the Culbertson home at the time of the shooting, testified liquor was consumed in large quantities over the week-end.

Mrs. Hazel Walker, wife of the Mt. Vernon man, told the coroner's jury that Mrs. Culbertson went to the basement and returned with a shotgun during a controversy over a hunting trip Culbertson had planned. She said Mrs. Culbertson went to her husband's room and that there was a report of a gun a short time later. She said Mrs. Culbertson rushed from the room shouting, "'Hazel, he's shot, he's shot'."

The chief of police of Mt. Lebanon, William J. Kane, testified Mrs. Culbertson told him her husband grabbed a shotgun from her hands in their room and that the weapon was discharged, the pellets striking the engineer.

Boy Implicates His Father In Slaying

LONGVIEW, Nov. 19 (AP)—The story of a four old boy which involved his father in the slaying of J. J. (Blackie) Garner, oil field worker, was being closely checked today by officials. No charges had been filed.

Officers were inclined to question the veracity of the story told by the boy. The youngster told officers his "daddy shot him."

Elaborating on his story the boy said his father "waited in a ditch for him (Garner). Then he chased him down the road shooting at him, then shot him once. Then he threw the gun in the creek and jumped into the creek and got the gun and wiped it off with a towel."

Garner's body was found Monday near a creek by the roadside six miles from Gladewater on the highway to Kilgore.

WASHINGTON. — An airplane pilot must be 100 per cent physically fit, if results of a study of airplane accidents taken by the medical section of the Aeronautics Branch of the Department of Commerce are true. The study shows that pilots with minor physical defects figure in 40 per cent more accidents than physically normal flyers.

Death Sentence

You'd be sad, too, if you faced the prospect this dog does. He is Roxie, a big German police dog, in Battle Creek, Mich., who has been sentenced to die for biting a little girl. Roxie's master has appealed the case, insisting that Roxie is unintentionally rough because 'of his size, and hundreds of school children throughout the nation have written Judge Paul Shafer begging him to free the dog.

TECH AND NEW MEXICO ELEVENS END PRACTICE SESSIONS TODAY

WESTERNERS PREPARE FOR SANDIES

SPYING ON SPORTS
BY COLLIER PARRIS

Two more football games are on tap for Lubbock folks this week. Tech's Matadors tangle with the University of New Mexico Lobos (new spelling) tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock and the Tech Picadors meet the Simmons University Dudes, Tenderfeet or whatever the Simmons University freshmen gridsters call themselves, at Tech Field Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

The Tech games this week are likely to be the last of the season at home for either team. The varsity goes to Abilene next Thursday to wind up the scheduled season with the Simmons Cowboys. The freshman team goes to Plainview for a delayed contest with the Wayland Jackrabbits on Wednesday.

Of considerable interest to local and sectional fans is the Amarillo-Slaton game at Amarillo tomorrow afternoon. Against anybody but Lubbock we like to think of Slaton as the people's choice around here, and quite naturally our hearts will be with the Fightin' Tigers at Amarillo tomorrow. If you compare scores you can see where Slaton has a chance to beat Amarillo, and what would be nicer? A Tiger victory would eliminate the Sandies from the race even if Amarillo should beat Lubbock on Thanksgiving, leaving two instead of three teams tied for the top position. Then Pampa and Lubbock would decide the issue. To tell the plain, unvarnished truth, we shudder every time we think of that Lubbock-Amarillo game. And we're supposed to be a clear-minded, unbiased sports writer.

The Pampa Harvesters come to Plainview tomorrow to wind up their district competitive season—maybe. Of course it's too sweet to think about but what if something should happen up at Plainview tomorrow to cause Coach Mitchell's operatives to go completely haywire. More drastic things have happened. If Pampa beats Plainview, that will hardly be news; if Plainview should beat Pampa, that would be news and an upset what is an upset. Lubbock wouldn't even have to play Amarillo if the weak sisters, each having lost two district games, should be strong tomorrow. Of course that's a dream that wasn't even dreamed.

Resorting again to our alleged "bush league method of switching from one subject to another" as charged by Friend Old Timer, we pause here to suggest that within a few weeks the sports pages will be trying to make its readers "basketball conscious." That is, the cage season is upon us. Lately we've been talking with Del Morgan, cage conductor at Tech, and Swede McMurray, basketball coach at Lubbock High, who have divulged some interesting facts relating of the 1931-1932 season's potentialities and possibilities.

Coach Morgan informs us that he has his hands full of freshmen footballers now and has little time to spend with the varsity cagers, which organization should have by now embarked upon the training season. "I don't know whether to let the basketball go and continue working with the fish or whether to let the fish go and start the varsity basketball." Morgan was lamenting the other day. He, you know, succeeds Crip Gollightly as head man around the maple court and at the same time succeeds Dutchey Smith as frosh football coach. Three men are trying to do what five men should be hired to do, and it makes it mighty tough on any and all of them.

Morgan is somewhat optimistic over his basketball chances. Not a single man is lost from last year's team which won almost twice as many games as it lost. "Tad" Tadlock of Amarillo is captain and guard. Clarence "Iron Man" Hodges, captain last year, is back. Leon Fisher, elongated center from Memphis, will hold down his old place unless crowded out. Harvey Dunn, one of the hardest working basketball men we ever saw work, is back for a forward position and Crews, Darr, Haden Moody and Clarence Weise are back. Coming up from the freshman and ineligible ranks are Jesse Holmes, "Bulldog" Hale, "Stoops" Bryant and a number of others who flashed last year in freshmen and intramural basketball. It looks like a more than fair to middling good season.

Swede McMurray is having the same trouble as Morgan, what with the Cowhand gridders to coach. But his football season is about over and Swede is going to give all his time to basketball from now on. Most of the regulars of last season, which were ably coached by Bill Keeling, are back, and they are already showing good form in the new gymnasium at the high school. Handicapped last year by lack of practice and playing room, the feature of a new and better housing will make its mark. The lads who played last year were inexperienced and lacked height and weight. They have grown perceptibly since last winter and the prospects are brighter.

MATADOR BACKFIELD HIT BY INJURIES, CAWTHON SAYS

The Texas Tech Matadors and the University of New Mexico Lobos will wind up a week of preparation for each other's entertainment this afternoon on the Tech practice fields. Tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock the teams meet in one of the most important college games of the season for Lubbock fans.

The Lobos arrived today at noon and were to take the practice field at 4 o'clock this afternoon for a limbering up after the long train ride from Albuquerque. Coaches Chuck Riley, Tom Churchill and Joe Nash accompanied about 25 players from the New Mexico stronghold.

Stress Line Play

Coach Cawthon drove his Matadors through a hard workout yesterday, laying particular stress on the line play. The backfield men, three of them at least, have not been able to work hard during the last few days as injuries became more pronounced instead of showing improvement. Cawthon revealed yesterday that Moffett, France and Nichols in the backfield and Yancy Price in the line were not in top physical condition. Moffett was hurt in the game against the Texas Miners last week and France sustained a nasty cut above an eye in practice Tuesday. Price has been on the sick list for nearly a week and may not see much service tomorrow.

As indicated yesterday, Cawthon plans to shoot in his best team to start the game. In all previous games the second team or "shock troops" has started, the regulars going in at the first show of weakness. According to the lineup hinted by the mentor yesterday, the regulars, composed of Hitchcock and Price, ends; Baker and Owen, tackles; Captain Durham and Harris, guards; Tribble, center, Moffet, quarter; Close and France, halves and Crites, fullback.

An annual saving of $700,000 would be effected by the salary reduction bill proposed in the Mississippi legislature.

If hard work means anything, the University of Arkansas Razorbacks will defeat the Rice Owls Saturday in their Southwest conference battle at Houston.

They spent hours yesterday perfecting defensive tactics to halt the Owls' powerful running attack. Evidently Arkansas plans to feature a strong defense and play for a few offensive breaks. The Razorbacks have yet to break into the conference win column. Shortage of reserves will be their only handicap against Rice.

Like Arkansas, Rice is prepared for a hard tussle. The Owls snapped into a routine practice yesterday as if they meant it. They worked on their running attack and also mapped out a defense to stop the plunging of Homer Ledbetter, the high scoring Arkansas fullback.

Frogs Face Bears

Coach Schmidt and his Texas Christian Frogs leave tomorrow for Waco to play Baylor Saturday. A stiff session was given the Christians yesterday with Coach Schmidt stressing precision in the running attack. At Waco, the Bears whipped through practice with a lot of fighting spirit.

The Texas Longhorns after a hard workout yesterday, left today for Shreveport to play Centenary college tomorrow.

WORKOUT IS ON DAILY MENU FOR TEAM

LUBBOCK WIN WOULD MEAN DISTRICT 1 CHAMPIONSHIP

While the fans are forgetting the teams and scrambling for tickets to the game, the Lubbock High Westerners are driving on in preparation for the game next Thursday at Amarillo. A Lubbock victory will mean that the Westerners are champions of District 1, while a defeat will probably throw the district race into a three-cornered deadlock between Amarillo, Pampa and Lubbock, provided Amarillo and Pampa win their games this week.

Encouraged by the rapid physical improvement of his star backs Coach Chapman is devoting full practice periods this week to fundamentals of play, blocking, tackling, passing, punting and signal drill. Satisfied that his repertoire of plays is large enough, the Westerner mentor is dealing in the execution of plays this week.

Team In Scrimmage

A hard scrimmage session yesterday between two squads, one coached by Chapman, the other by Burl Huffman, left the Westerners in a state of weariness but eagerness. The light of day was gone when work was halted.

Gene Barnett, regular fullback who was injured in the Childress game two weeks ago to the extent of a broken foot, was on the field yesterday but not in the role of fullback. He was not in uniform nor will he don the moleskins until next week, but he followed the team about the field with the aid of a cane and took close notice of everything that is being done.

Bill Davidson and Cecil Merrill also injured for several days, are able to do their regular turn and their knee and arm injuries apparently have been forgotten. With the exception of Barnett, the entire team will be ready and in tip top condition against Amarillo, provided no injuries result from the rigid practice this week. There is an even chance that Barnett will be ready to go against Amarillo.

PLAINVIEW TO CLASH WITH HARVESTERS ON FRIDAY

Three contenders for high school football honors in District 1 will wind up their 1931 season tomorrow in two games. The Slaton High Tigers wended their way via Lubbock to Amarillo early this morning to rest and drill a bit before meeting the Amarillo Sandies tomorrow afternoon at Butler Field. Plainview witnessed the influx of Pampa Harvesters and a few fans today for the Plainview-Pampa game tomorrow.

Amarillo and Pampa are heavy favorites to win, but the weaker sisters hope to make creditable showings against the stronger lads tomorrow. The games will end the conference season for Pampa, Plainview and Slaton, leaving Lubbock and Amarillo in the field to fight for honors.

Encouraged by their good showing against the Harvesters last week and over their great improvement, the Tigers are in Amarillo with lots of ambition and considerable strength. If they can hold Amarillo to a tie or to a one-touchdown victory they will be pleased, but if they can win they'll be as happy as if they'd won the championship.

Before he left, Coach Paul Wright, Slaton told the Daily Journal his team had improved 100 per cent since the Slaton-Lubbock game and that there was not a single injury, not even a serious bruise or scratch, to mar his team. The Slaton contingent goes to Amarillo prepared to stage the greatest battle of the year.

Campaign To Trim Salaries Started

CHICAGO, Nov. 19 (AP)—The opening shot of the long feared campaign to trim baseball salaries has been fired on the American association front.

Taking the initiative club owners of the American association today considered one of the most drastic wage cuts in years. Several others, including the major leagues, were expected to follow suit in greater or lesser degrees.

Under the present American association proposal, the maximum player salary would be limited to a maximum of $600 monthly. For years scores of former major leaguers roamed around the class AA league with salaries close to the ones they received for big time baseball.

Such a drastic reduction undoubtedly would end the playing days of major league cast-offs in short order as most of them refuse to continue in the game for much less than they received in the majors.

Thomas Jefferson Hickey still held the presidential seat of the American association today, victor of another fight to oust him.

Glenn Wright Gives Hopes To Brooklyn

NEW YORK, Nov. 19 (AP)—Good news has come for Brooklyn baseball fans and for Max Carey, on whose shoulders rests the task of turning the team into a winner next season. Glenn Wright reports his weak ankles are becoming strong again and that Brooklyn can count on him to hold down the shortstop berth.

"That," said Manager Carey yesterday, "is the best news I have had since taking over this job. Wright is the mainspring of our infield, if not the entire team."

Floydada Wins Over Littlefield's Eleven

OVERCOME EARLY LEAD FOR THE RIGHT TO MEET LAMESA

Staging a second half spurt that overcame a 13-point lead and gave them a 14 to 13 victory, the Floydada High school Whirlwinds downed the heavier Wildcats from Littlefield High school yesterday and won the Class B championship of the northern half of District 2. The game was played at Tech field before an evenly divided crowd of about 2,500 yelling, clamouring, snorting fans.

As a result of the victory, Floydada will meet Lamesa High at Lamesa on Thanksgiving Day in a game to decide the District 2 championship. Lamesa defeated Post's Antelopes last week for the southern half championship and yesterday nosed out the Tulia High Millers, 7 to 0, in a non-conference tilt.

Score Early

Off to a flying start with a touchdown in each of the first two periods, the Littlefield charges of Coach Tucker had nearly everything to themselves in the first half. It began to look like a Littlefield field day and a number of casual fans went home at the half. They missed the best part of the game.

Coach Barksdale evidently told his boys something between halves for the Green line came back in the second half to put on a show that was good to see. Outweighed all the way around, the plucky Whirlwinds sustained a 57-yard drive without once losing the ball to score a touchdown early in the third quarter, little Marion Heald going over for the counter from the 6-yard line after he had helped Little Murray, Welch and Bridges carry the ball all the way down toe field. Heald then circled left end for the extra point.

Kicked For Win

In the fourth period the Whirlwinds went the other way for 60 yards in ten plays, the first of which originated late in the third period for another touchdown. McLaughlin came out of the line to carry the ball over from the 7-yard line and Murray kicked goal for the winning point. Murray, playing with a disabled hand, broken in a previous scrimmage, was the hero of the last hill, outshining the brilliant Captain Harlise of Littlefield. Harlise's passing arm was one of the features of the game and the running attack of Carter for Littlefield in the first half was largely responsible for the yardage gained.

select a new manager for his Pittsburgh Pirates.

Eighty men are after the job.

Dreyfuss said all have applied in writing for the place made vacant with the release of Manager Jewel Ens.

The Pirate Boss said he doubted whether he would be able to make his selection before the league meetings next month since he wants to talk personally with at least some of the applicants.

Golf "Dub" Is To Have Say On Ball

NEW YORK, Nov. 19 (AP)—The golf "dub" who does most of the playing but usually has little to say about how the game is conducted, apparently was to have his day when the executive committee of the United States Golf association assembled for its quarterly meeting today.

The wail of the dub about the "balloon ball," the much discussed and abused 1.58-1.68 sphere, has been heard and the committee which was given the task of selecting a successor which would suit the ordinary player was to report today. The ball which has been selected combines the size of the "balloon" ball and the weight of its predecessor. It is to be 1.68 inches in diameter and weigh 1.62 ounces.

LEVINSKY MEETS CARNERA TONIGHT

CHICAGO, Nov. 19 (AP)—King Levinsky, Chicago's fighting fish peddler, goes angling for the largest catch in boxing's big pool tonight by engaging the man mountain from Italy, Primo Carnera, in the 10-round feature battle at the Chicago stadium.

The struggle was one of the all to win and nothing to lose ventures for Levinsky, whose furious, unorthodox attack has made him one of the real trial horses of the ring.

Carnera, aided by a weight advantage of 60 pounds or more, was a 3 to 1 favorite.

Championship Fight Set Tomorrow Night

NEW YORK, Nov. 19 (AP)—A real championship battle was in sight today as Tony Canzoneri and Kid Chocolate waited for their 15-round fight in Madison Square Garden tomorrow night which may see three titles go on the block.

Tony holds the synthetic junior welterweight crown as well as the lightweight title, which is the real object of the battle, and will risk them both. In return, it seems likely he will get a chance at the junior lightweight championship which Chocolate won from Benny Bass a short time ago.

The New York Italian has been a slight favorite but as the time of the battle approached public opinion seemed to be swinging toward the Cuban "Keed."

Glasgow and Kilmarnock are to be connected by an arterial highway costing $1,100,000.

SOUTHWEST WINS OVER EAST TEXAS

COMMERCE, Nov. 19 (AP)—Scoring both touchdowns in the first half, the Southwest Texas State Teachers college eleven defeated the East Texas State Teachers college last night, 14-0.

The San Marcos gridders drove down the field with steady gains in the opening quarter for the first counter. Another march gave them the second touchdown in the second quarter. Defense of the Lions tightened in the last two periods.

Line plunges accounted for the bulk of the Southwest Teachers gains. The East Texans resorted largely to passes for ground gaining.

Phylan and Sanders featured for the visitors with their consistent smashes off tackle. Johnson played the major role in the air offensive of the East Texas Teachers.

Seven Men Ruled Off Race Tracks

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 19 (AP)—An investigation which began Oct. 3 when it was discovered that a "ringer" had run and won a race at Havre de Grace has resulted in the ruling off Maryland race tracks for life of seven men and three horses. Among the seven was "Nigger Nate" Raymond, known as a gambler for large stakes.

At Havre de Grace, a horse named Shem was entered in a juvenile race but Aknahton, a three-year-old colt, ran under that name and won by a wide margin. Discovery of the substitution led to the drastic action taken yesterday.

Three horses, Shem, Aknahton and Ep, which were shipped from New York together, were barred.

TECH FROSH TO PLAY HERE

TO MEET FRESHMEN OF SIMMONS SATURDAY ON TECH FIELD

The Simmons university freshmen gridsters are coming to Lubbock Saturday to meet the Texas Tech Picadors in an important game at Tech Field. The game is due to start at 2:30 Saturday afternoon. It will mark the second home appearance of the Picadors this season and the last game on the local field for the first year men.

The game ends a heavy week of football in Lubbock. Floydada and Littlefield played an important Class B game here yesterday which was witnessed by some 2,500 fans. One of the largest crowds of the season is expected to turn out tomorrow afternoon to see the Tech Matadors play their Homecoming Day game with the University of New Mexico and Saturday see a big representation of fans at the Simmons game, which precedes the tussle between the varsity teams of the two schools by four days.

The Picadors showed a world of power Friday night against the West Texas State Teachers college Buffalo Yearlings, winning by a 44 to 0 count and thus turning in their first victory of the season. They have at least one more game to play this season, meeting the Wayland college Jackrabbits at Plainview next Wednesday.

way, the 1800-block of Fifth street, and to a storage house on Main street last night in connection with activities of the college students gathering fuel for the pep rally blaze.

Sawhorses, ladders, lumber, outhouses, and other property was dragged and carted away to be stacked on the campus, residents reported to police.

Assistant City Attorney Jess Levens began the inquiry. A college cheer leader conferred with Police Chief John Lemond yesterday relative to gathering inflamable materials for the bonfire and was told to take nothing without property owners' consent, it was said at the police headquarters.

had left his hotel. He declined to amplify that statement, but it was known he had been in communication with Washington and that both he and his government are deeply interested in Manchurian developments.

It was expected that General Dawes would talk with Aristide Briand this afternoon and that the council would ask Kenkichi Yoshizawa, the Japanese representative, to present in writing the declaration he made yesterday regarding Japan's demands.

VICTORIOUS ARMY PURSUING ENEMY

TOKYO, Nov. 19 (AP)—Japan's victorious troops, reported to have swept through Angangchi across the Chinese eastern railway to capture Tsitsihar, today were pursuing the retreating enemy toward Koku Shan Chen, 150 miles northeast of Tsitsihar, the Rengo correspondent at Harbin reported.

Neither the foreign office nor the war office made any announcement regarding the capture of Tsitsihar although advices from Mukden said General Honjo's headquarters had confirmed reports that the Japanese entered the city this morning.

To Hold City

Apparently on the assumption that the Japanese were inside the Tsitsihar wall, it was authoritatively stated they intended to hold the city only until it was assured that the Chinese forces under General Ma Chan-Shan had been scattered so widely as to make any chance for attack impossible.

FRIENDLY WARNING GIVEN TO SOVIETS

TOKYO, Nov. 19 (AP)—The Japanese government today instructed its ambassador at Moscow to convey to Maxim Litvinoff, Soviet commissar for foreign affairs, a friendly warning regarding the danger of serious complications if Russia should send troops into north Manchuria. The ambassador was charged at the same time to reassure the Soviet foreign commissar that no damage was done to the Russian-owned Chinese eastern railway during yesterday's offensive in the Anganchi area.

A Japanese charge that Russia is "partially responsible" for hostilities in Manchuria was on its way to Moscow today.

The charge was contained in Japan's reply to an earlier note of Litvinoff which complained that Japan was "manufacturing" rumors of Soviet interference in the conflict.

Telephone Line Is Built In Hockley

LEVELLAND, Nov. 19 (Special)—A telephone line from Levelland to Whitharral, 12 miles north of here, has been completed. A company was formed to build the line. It was composed of the following: Ed Newsom of the Newsom Gin and P. W. Poage, Whitharral merchants, and George and William Oakley, Levelland business men. The line was built east to the home of George Beakley, owner of the Highland seed farms, and thence north to Whitharral. Assistance in the formation of the group was given by the Levelland Chamber of Commerce.

Bobbed-Hair Bandit Starts "New Life"

Celia Cooney, the "bobbed-hair bandit" who was sent to Auburn prison seven years ago, was in New York to begin "a new way of life" when the picture at right was taken following her release on parole. At left you you see how Mrs. Cooney appeared in 1924 after she and her husband had been arrested for a series of robberies.

DAILY MARKETS

Cotton Market

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Nov. 19 (AP)—Cotton opened barely steady today at a decline of 2 to 6 points in response to easier Liverpool cables, liquidation and some southern selling January sold off to 6.26.

Initial offerings were fairly well taken by covering or trade buying but the selling continued and the market seemed rather unsettled during early trading, with December easing off to 6.14 and May to 6.60, or 6 to 7 points net lower. Trading was active at the end of the first half hour with offerings absorbed by further trade buying and covering on scale down orders.

Liverpool cables reported hedging and general liquidation owing partly to weakness in Alexandria but said there were fair sales of cotton cloths to South America and Africa. Egyptian cotton futures in the Alexandria market were 41 to 100 points lower, while the Indian spot quotation in Liverpool showed a decline of 15 points.

Sufficient trade buying or covering developed to check the decline but the market showed no rallying power of consequence as the bulges seemed to meet increased offerings from one source or another and prices at midday were within a point or two of the lows. Trading was quiet and the tone barely steady at net declines of 5 to 6 points.

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 19 (AP) — The cotton market opened fairly active. Prices started easier owing to lower Liverpool cables and hedge selling first trades showing losses of 7 to 9 points. There was more or less December liquidation in the way of transferring to later months.

December dropped to 6.09, January to 6.21 and March to 6.41, or 7 to 9 points under yesterday's close and then the market rallied 3 to 5 points on price fixing and short covering.

Near the end of the first hour the market was steady and near the highs.

The market was rather quiet all morning with prices fluctuating narrowly owing to steadier stocks and a moderate advance in wheat, prices gradually improved near noon on fair trade buying. December advanced to 6.15, January to 6.27 and March to 6.44, up 4 to 6 points from the earlier lows. This level was still 3 points below yesterday's close.

At noon the market was quiet and had eased off 2 to 4 points from the previous highs under some further liquidation.

Stock Market

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, Nov. 19. (AP)—Short covering in the rails by traders who apparently did not intend to be caught by any surprise announcement at today's railroad conference checked an early decline in the stock market today.

Losses of a point or more in Baltimore & Ohio and Atchison and Southern Pacific were fully recovered while Union Pacific, after dropping 2 to a new low, rallied a point net. Norfolk & Western and Atlantic Coast Line were heavy, the latter losing several points in anticipation of a dividend reduction.

Declines of 1 to 2 in Allied Chemical, American Can, General Electric, Case and American Tobacco "B" were made up. U. S. Steel was steady.

Call money renewed at 2 1-2 per cent.

Grain Market

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, Nov. 19 (AP)—Grain prices tended upward early today, influenced by Liverpool unofficial reports that 1,200,000 acres of wheat in southern Argentina had been affected by frost. Some moisture relief for western Kansas and western Nebraska acted, however, as more or less of a check on wheat price upturns. Opening at 1-8 to 5-8 cents gain, wheat afterward rose further. Corn started 1-8 to 5-8 up and continued to mount.

KANSAS CITY REPORT

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 19. (AP)—(U. S. D. A.)—Hogs 4,000; steady to strong; top 4.60 on 190-220 lbs.; 140-250 lbs 4.25-4.00; packing sows 275-500 lbs 3.50-4.25; stock pigs 70-130 lbs 4.00-4.50.

Sheep 3,000; lambs 25 higher; sheep steady; top and bulk fed lambs 5.50; lambs 90 lbs down 4.75-5.50; ewes 150 lbs down 1.00-2.25 feeder lambs 50-75 lbs 4.00-4.50.

RANCHER GETS THREE YEARS

STRICKEL IS FOUND GUILTY IN DEATH OF MEXICAN

Sentenced to three years in the state penitentiary for the murder of Francisco Carasco, a Mexican sheepshearer, W. T. Strickel, gray headed rancher, is free on appeal bond of $5,000 and his two-year fight against the law's demands evidently will be carried for the second time to the state criminal appeals court. The ranchman was convicted of shooting the Mexican to death in Cochran county, July 18, 1929, and for the second time a plea of self-defense failed to impress a jury.

The 62-year-old rancher, convicted of Carasco's slaying and given a three-year term in the penitentiary by a jury in 72nd district court late Wednesday, gave notice of appeal. Verdict was returned at 4:15 o'clock, exactly two hours after the jury received the case.

Tried In Hockley

Strickel, tried in Hockley county, was convicted of murder in connection with the death of the Mexican and was given four years. He appealed that conviction, winning a reversal. The case then was transferred to Lubbock county.

Strickel heard the verdict yesterday without outward show of emotion. When the jurors reported to Deputy Joe Reiger they had reached a verdict the defendant was sitting with his back to the jury box. He was smoking a pipe. He did not change position until after Judge Homer L. Pharr read the report. E. R. Davis, Acuff farmer, was jury foreman.

daughter of the family just about to enter the cafe, saw her mother and brother standing with uplifted hands while an armed man was taking the money she had. Hurriedly, the girl crossed the street and told Billingsley of the robbery. He grabbed a shotgun and started across the street, arriving at the front of the place as the bandit was about to emerge. The bandit struck him down with a bullet and then fired others into his body.

McKee was captured after an extended chase through West Texas after evidence had connected him with the Dawson county crime.

shopping," she went on. "I shall buy much children's literature, and the toys I promised them by telephone. For my little girl, Simonetta, who has blonde hair and blue eyes, I will buy dresses."

Answering the inevitable question about "impressions of America," Signora Grandi gave word-pictures that later will interest a small boy and girl in Italy—Mrs. Hoover, very charming, very interesting;" Woodley, colonial home of the Stimson's—"a White House in the middle of a great and silent grounds." Washington—"Oh, I like your very pretty city which my friend Mrs. Stimson so kindly showed me—and I have yet to see those great buildings of New York!"

In the intimate after-dinner hour at the White House, when the men go to the president's study for their cigars and the women chat in groups in the Red room, her talk was still of her children.

It was a subject that transcended any difficulties she might be having with the English language.

Determine Results Of New Ordinance

A survey by James R. Curtis, district sanitarian of Lubbock, was to be started this afternoon at Anton to determine what had been accomplished since passage of an ordinance there last summer requiring installation of sanitary outdoor toilets.

The sanitarian, who returned Wednesday from a state sanitarians' meeting at Houston, also expected to attend a Hockley county health committee meting today at Levelland.

Friday, Curtis will inquire as to improvements made at Littlefield since a similar pit-privy ordinance was passed there, and Friday or Saturday will begin a survey at Olton.

Sanitary conditions, particularly toilets and water supplies at Deaf Smith county's 16 rural schools, will be discussed at a meeting of school trustees Saturday at Hereford. Curtis will attend.

Sleeping Sickness Victim Dies Today

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 19 (AP)—A victim of sleeping sickness for 300 hours, Dr. A. J. Berresheim, 50-year-old Louisville surgeon, died here today.

Most victims of the malady die within two weeks after contracting it but Dr. Berresheim had been kept alive by regular injection into his veins of a fluid containing dextrose which served in place of food.

The Viceroy of India and members of his council have voluntarily reduced their salaries 20 and 15 per cent respectively.

Of 16,123 head of cattle in 2,456 herds tuberculin tested in Alabama during October, only two reacted.

"Crusoes" Back Home Again

INTERESTING BITS OF NEWS GROUND FROM THE GRIST OF THE DAY'S HAPPENINGS

(By The Associated Press)

Like Old Times

BUFFALO — Seems like old times when every vacant lot was a cow pasture. Milk is selling for six cents a quart, and dealers say it may go lower.

Bucket Is Found

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. — The old oaken bucket has been found and the University of Indiana and Purdue can go right ahead with that football game. The bucket, symbol of victory, was disinterred from the floor of the library cellar at Indiana.

Loop Noisier

NEW YORK—The loop is noisier than the square. Radio and telephone engineers measured street roars rumbles and screeches in Randolph street, Chicago and Times Square, New York, and reported that Chicago had an 80 per cent higher rate of noise.

Bad Selection

CLEVELAND, O.—Mrs. John Carlo was not displeased when her former husband serenaded her on his harmonica until he burst forth with "Among My Souvenirs." Then she called a policeman and had John arrested.

Used To Own It

CHICAGO—Indians are few and far between hereabouts. A survey shows that of Chicago's 3,982,123 inhabitants only 246 are Indians. They used to own the place.

Stork Arrives

IDABEL, Okla.—The stork arrived in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Draper yesterday, automatically releasing the state to launch efforts to electrocute the father. Draper, charged with killing three persons in a holdup, had bargained to facilitate prosecution by signing a confession if the law would delay his trial until his baby was born.

Know Own Roost

HARRISBURG, Pa.—Because a wise fowl knows his own roost, three chicken thieves are under arrest. Disposal of chickens by the trio closely followed the reported robbing of William Glass' henhouse but Glass could not positively identify the fowl. Police freed the birds and they made a bee-line for Glass' roost.

Pass The Buck

NORTHAMPTON, Mass.—The faculty of Smith college doesn't want to be bothered with questions from solicitous parents about their offspring. A new rule book distributed among 584 freshmen asked the students to "answer parents' inquiries about life at Smith. The president hasn't time to fill out questionnaires."

Ask Death Penalty In Slaying Trial

MT. STERLING, Ky., Nov. 19 (AP)—The commonwealth plans to seek the death penalty in the case of William Burnett, Harlan county coal miner on trial here on a charge of slaying Jesse Pace, Harlan deputy sheriff.

The jury was selected and 14 witnesses heard at day and night sessions yesterday, leaving only six prosecution witnesses to be heard today. One of these was hear yesterday but the state decided to recall him.

SEPARATE COACHES ARE BEING ASKED

Students and townspeople will make the trip to Amarillo in separate coaches Thanksgiving, if a petition presented by deans of the high school is granted. J. C. Brown is dean of men at Senior High school and Miss Nell Parmley is dean of women.

"Complaints have been received in the past from patrons about drinking and other disturbance on these cars and it is for this reason that we are asking a separate coach for high school boys and girls," Miss Parmley said Wednesday afternoon. This recommendation was made to school officials.

Scout Chiefs Are To Attend Barbecue

Christian Thaulow, Norwegian violinist, who is to give a concert at the high school this evening, and Dr. R. E. Garlin, professor of education at Tech, appeared on the program of the Lubbock Kiwanis club today in Hotel Lubbock.

Mr. Thaulow favored the group with three violin selections. He was accompanied by H. I. Bergin, teacher of piano in McMurry college, Abilene.

Dr. Garlin spoke on the "American Public Schools". M. H. Duncan, superintendent of the local schools, was in charge of the program.

By developing life interests, the modern public school is making a more functional approach on modern life, Dr. Garlin said. He pointed out that education was now appealing to the six most important life interests today, the economic, health, civic, family, recreational and aesthetic, and character, morality and religion. Education fails in its purpose if it does not develop these interests, he said.

E. O. Wyatt, director of the Cowboy band of Simmons university, was also a guest at the luncheon.

Banish Need

The pitiful little 13-year-old who was rescued from the windowless Washington closet where her father and stepmother had confined her seems to have attracted the kindly attention of most of the nation. Endless columns have been printed about her. We have been told in detail how she has been introduced to the joys of sunlight, toys and good food, and we have been guilty of a good deal of sentimentality concerning her.

News events like the one that has built itself up around her are not entirely good for us. They stir our sympathies, to be sure, and they help us to realize how black and dismal a child's life can be made. But they divert our minds from the real issue.

The youngster's situation was exceptional—in one sense. There are not, luckily, many children situated precisely as she was. But there are hundreds of thousands of children in the United States who do not, on the whole, have things so very much better than she had them; and when we expand our sympathetic energies on her we have none left over for the rest, and it is hard for anyone to arouse our interest in them.

Ask any social service worker to tell you about the way some children have to live in our biggest cities. Get some mine union representative to tell you about the lot of children in some of the nation's coal towns. Go to one or another of the innumerable homes in which the bread-winner has not had a job for a year or more and see how the children get along there.

Then, when you have done that, see if this pathetically unlucky little girl in Washington was really worse off than thousands upon thousands of her brothers and sisters.

We don't ordinarily bother our heads much about these other children. We would rather pour out our moral indignation over individual cases that get on the front pages. This little girl lived in the dark, she had poor food, she had no toys? Well, there are many others like her—only we don't hear about them.

From one end of the country to the other, about now, charitable organizations are appealing for money. If the case of this Washington youngster oppressed you—just remember, when you have a chance to contribute to one of these fund campaigns, that your money will be helping some other children who are not very much better off than she was.

Senator Caraway

The Senate that convenes next month in Washington will be a less interesting and colorful place than it has been in the last few years. It will miss the late Senator Caraway of Arkansas very much. Senator Caraway could always be depended upon to take a hand whenever the debate became fiery. Furthermore, he almost always said something pithy and to the point. He had a genius for deflating swollen oratorical efforts with a sudden shrewd question or a sharp and acidulous comment, and he provided a great deal of interesting reading for the Congressional Record.

The Senate will not be quite the same without this irrepressible man from Arkansas. It has lost a member who—whatever your own reaction to his political beliefs may have been—was able, courageous and alert, and who never, by any chance, went to sleep when a party war was brewing.

While King Carol's brother was eloping, Secretary of State Henry L. Stimson was opening a new transatlantic telephone service with Rumania. He probably urged disarmament.

Young Bob LaFollette urges an "economic brake." We've already been broke a long time.

The Plainsman Says:

That Girl on Broadway says if George Bernard Shaw really wants to impress her that Russia is a perfect country in which to live he'll have to remain outside its borders.

If West Texas does not come along as rapidly as it should from a political angle, persons who wish to see this section of the state receive its just due in Austin may lay the blame squarely upon the shoulders of a very appreciable number of West Texas newspapermen.

That statement may sound like a sweeping indictment of a group of men who have done a great deal toward aiding the advancement of the section in which they live and labor, yet it is none-the-less true.

Operating in a haphazard sort of fashion over the part of the state claimed by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce are three sectional press associations. They are the Panhandle Press association, which holds sway in the Panhandle-Plains region stopping at the Hale and Lubbock county border; the West Texas Press association, starting here and extending past Abilene and through the Oil Belt and west as far as El Paso; and the Heart 'O Texas Press association, taking up the territory in the vicinity of Brownwood, Stephenville, Brady, San Angelo and that general neck of the woods.

Each of the three associations is about as potent as the other but, aside from offering an opportunity for neighboring newspapermen to mix and mingle once or twice a year, their accomplishments amount to little more than zero.

UNDERSTAND: The Plainsman is not averse to mixing and mingling. Not at all, for it's a fine practice and on each association's program there is always a worthwhile treatise or two and the social affairs are very pleasant. While a member of but one of the three, this writer has attended sessions of the other two as a speaker and if there is any difference between the triumvirate they are not apparent to the innocent bystander.

Each meets, talks, dances, plays golf and eats a time or two, and a good time is had by all.

But lately since the populace of West Texas has been aroused to itself to the fact that somebody's dead in Denmark and that West Texas is not getting the attention it deserves from Texas officialdom, it has been suggested that something be done to give West Texas at least the fictional Chinaman's chance of being recognized. Among other suggestions it has been offered that a powerful organization of West Texas newspapermen would go a long way toward turning the trick—and it would.

But getting the three organizations to the point where they are willing to co-operate and to band together for the common weal is something else altogether.

YOU, or nobody else, can tell The Plainsman that the gents we Texans elect to office would overlook West Texas if they knew that the press of this section—big, Little and indifferent—was ready to hop on their old noggins every time they turned around.

If the newspapers from Texline to Stephenville and from Wichita Falls and Albany to San Angelo and El Paso would get together on this proposition of securing a square deal for West Texas, folks, we'd see something!

In case you've forgotten, the avalanche of ballots from West Texas which swept Jimmie Allred into the attorney-general's office and which nearly put Clint Small into a cinch runoff with Jim Ferguson, mark it down on your cuff that in any close state race West Texas could be the straw that breaks the camel's back.

We're getting more votes out this way all the time—but we'll be a long time in dominating our part of the political arena until we organize.

* * *

ONE big West Texas press association—operating in the same territory which composes the West Texas Chamber of Commerce—with a central office and a set of hard working, capable leaders ready to push an All West Texas project, can do a lot of good and, in The Plainsman's opinion, can so arouse the voters of West Texas that the next set of state officials will have to recognize West Texas whether they want to, or not.

But, as noted before, it's getting the newspapermen to forget petty neighborhood pride and the fact that "our association has been organized for umpteen years", that's standing in the way.

Some of these days the big paper and ink boys of West Texas are going to get wise to themselves and forget a lot of hokum and hooey about "our dear old association" and discover that they have to hang separately or together.

When they do, all West Texas will be better off.

KNOWING newspapermen in general, and a good portion of them in West Texas in particular, The Plainsman confidently expects to be a target for plenty of hot sarcasm as a result of this column today.

But the gentlemen of the three associations will profit by saving the space they'll give to caustic comment in this regard for letters to Santa Claus or something else equally as pressing.

Comment, pro or con, will not change this opinion and you people, who realize that to secure its just due West Texas must organize, can blame a lot of near-sighted editors for the slowness thereof.

Superstition Of Events Happening In Cycles Of Three Persists In National Affairs And American Politics

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19—Everybody's old home town has a superstition that bad things always happen three in a row. Almost any community has three noteworthy fires each winter, and they always come along about the same time.

DUTCHER

It's an old tradition, and people here, who nearly all come from small towns, have lately been recalling it and muttering about it in the wake of more than one series of tragedies which have come in triplicate.

None has been more startling than three fatal airplane crashes in three days which killed nine men. The military services and the air lines out of the capital had gone without fatalities for months when this happened.

Important personages are likely to die by trios, according to a half-accepted theory of veteran newspapermen and it was such a succession which at least temporarily threw control of the House to the Democrats. There had been several other deaths since the next Congress was elected last November, but the passing of Representatives Hale of New Hampshire, Ackerman of New Jersey and Wurzbach of Texas—all Republicans—within three weeks made it appear certain that the Democrats would have a House majority at the opening of Congress.

New Jersey recently lost three of her most prominent citizens within a very brief space—Senator Dwight Morrow, Thomas A. Edison and Congressman Ackerman.

And the deaths of Morrow and Senator Caraway of Arkansas recall the persistent stories that a certain other senator's seat in the chamber will never again be occupied because of his present illness.

A story might be written about the seemingly potent properties of the number three in Washington. The magic number of earlier times which does not appear to be very important in this capital was seven—remember the City of Seven Hills, the Seven Sleepers of Ephesus, the Island of the Seven Cities, the seven deadly sins, the Seven Champions of Christendom, the Seven Little Sisters, the Seven Gods of Happiness, the Seven Wonders of the World, and so on.

But in Washington there are:

Three branches of government—legislative, executive and judicial.

Three presidential secretaries—Richey, Joslin and Newton.

Three bosses of the House—the speaker, the chairman of the rules committee, and the majority floor leader.

Three bosses of the Senate—the vice president and the Republican and Democratic floor leaders.

Three factions in Congress—Republicans, Democrats and Progressives.

Three big issues—unemployment, prohibition and "abysmal ignorance."

Diet and Health

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M.D., Author of "THE HUMAN BODY"

EDITOR'S NOTE: Six pamphlets and six articles by Dr. Clendening can now be obtained by sending 10 cents in coin for each pamphlet and 2 cents in coin for each article, with a self-addressed, stamped envelope, to Dr. Logan Clendening in care of this paper, or Central Press Association, 1430 East Twelfth street, Cleveland, O. The pamphlets are: "Reducing and Gaining," "Feminine Hygiene," "Indigestion and Constipation," "The Care of the Hair and Skin," "Infant Feeding," and "Instructions for the Treatment of Diabetes." The articles are: "Normal Diet," "List of Books for Mothers," "Bed Wetting," "Diet of the Expectant Mother," "Ear Troubles" and "Tuberculosis."

CORRECT POSTURE

Since we have discussed in the last two articles the importance of good posture to health, it may be well to define what good posture is.

Dr. Clendening

THe ten commandments of good posture, as given by Dr. Philip Lewin, are as follows:

1. Stand tall.
2. Sit tall.
3. Walk tall and hasty, with eight transmitted to balls of feet.
4. Draw in abdomen, pulling it backward and upward.
5. Keep shoulders [illegible] square.
6. Pull chin straight toward collar button.
7. Flatten hollow of back by rolling pelvis backward and downward.
8. Separate shoulders from hips as far as possible.
9. Lie tall and flat.
10. Think tall.

It will be seen that according to this good posture is demanded while standing, sitting or lying down.

There are three types of bodily build recognized—thin, stocky and intermediate. The term stocky applies largely to children. Later on in life a less complimentary word is likely to be used. Each of these bodily types has its own standards by which one must judge posture. And in each type posture is rated under four headings—excellent, good, poor and bad. Under any one of these headings your child may be classified.

The standards for each rating for the thin type are as follows:

Excellent: Head up, chin in. Head balanced above shoulders, hips and ankles. An imaginary plumb line dropped from the side of the head should pass through the ear and through the middle of the shoulder, hip, knee and ankle bone.

2. Chest up. Breast bone the part of the body farthest forward.
3. Lower abdomen in and flat.
4. Back curves within normal limits.

Good: 1. Head slightly forward.
2. Chest slightly lowered.
3. Lower abdomen in, but not flat.
4. Back curves slightly increased.

Poor: 1. Head forward.
2. Chest flat.
3. Abdomen relaxed. (Part of body farthest forward).
4. Back curves exaggerated.

Bad: 1. Head markedly forward.
2. Chest sunken.
3. Abdomen completely relaxed and protuberant.
4. Back curves extremely exaggerated.

QUESTIONS FROM READERS

A. C.: "I am anxious to know all about the thyroid glands, especially the disease called exophthalmic. Is an operation necessary? How long after an operation before you feel all right again?"

Answer: The disease of the thyroid gland called exophthalmic goiter may be severe or mild or moderate in character. For the severe form the best treatment we have at present is probably operation. Recovery from this operation should be complete in a few weeks and after operation, if it has been successful, the symptoms of the disease should abate in about six months.

Pool Halls Ordered Closed By Courts

Pool halls allegedly operated by Sid Caraway in Lubbock and Luther Hickey at Slaton were closed by a temporary restraining order granted Wednesday by Judge Clark M. Mullican in 99th district court.

The temporary injunctions were granted to Durwood Bradley, district attorney, and Burton S. Burks, his assistant. No date for a hearing to determine whether the restraining order shall be made permanent had been set Wednesday. Last move by the state to close pool halls came early in September when two such petitions were filed. Caraway allegedly operates a pool hall on Avenue K here.

Defendant Wins In Civil Hearing Here

A 99th district court jury returned a verdict favoring the defendant in the case of Orr vs. Kessel, Wednesday.

The case was decided on a special issue, as to whether A. Kessel entered into a contract with G. H. Orr that he would put into a corporation $3,500 in cash or merchandise over and above certain property to constitute the capital stock of the corporation of the ready-to-wear store. The jury held that Kessel did not make such a contract.

IN NEW YORK with Gilbert Swan

NEW YORK, Nov. 19—Notes from a convenient cuff. . .

Most of the reminiscence writers seem to have rediscovered their pens since Jack Wilson, the veteran of burnt cork, snuffed out his own life. . . In case you didn't happen to note the item: Wilson had been in a recent accident and feared he would "flop" when he went on in a song and dance. . . He had been "at liberty" a long time.

Those who chatter about Broadway recalled that once he had been a vaudeville teammate of Kitty Gordon, the lady whose beautiful back was advertised frrom coast to coast. . . Mme. Gordon now operates a ladies' dress shop in the swanky Fifties.

But what they forgot to mention was that Jack Wilson had another stage partner. . . And she was Ada Lane, the charming performer he married. . . She died in 1914, and the tale goes that he pledged himself never again to marry. . . . She was, his friends would have you believe, the one big love of his life. . . . In later years, his name was mentioned with that of Kitty Gordon, but he died an unwed widower.

Speaking of old-timers, I have a note on my desk referring to the loyalty of fans through the years. . . Yesterday's stars, they will tell you, are forgotten as soon as they flit from the picture.

Yet, I am told, a Ruth Roland club exists in Chicago and is 15 years old. . . . Miss Roland returned to the stage recently, coming back with a flanchon and Marco group as a means of "breaking back" in. And when she hit Chicago, she found the club was still there. . . A recent poll that was taken of screen popularity placed Bill Hart to be [illegible] of the list.

Tourists Note: A [illegible] the busses parked at [illegible] which used to [illegible] now find the new Washington bridge a superior attraction. A vast percentage of visitors [illegible] seeing the new bridge and seeing the peaks of the Empire State building.

The opening of a new show doesn't mean attracting as much attention as a Broadway premiere. The other night when Joe Zeill came back from Paris, a crowd of a couple hundred people were trying to crash the doors. The event had the appearance of a Union Square fire sale. Zeill, by the way, got his start with an Italian restaurant in New York and prospered mightily by catering to the American tourist in Paris. His return, he explains, was prompted by the fact that Americans don't tour there as much as they did a few years ago. And so he came home.

In one of the swankiest Fifth Avenue shoppes you'll find a shoemaker—an elderly bent old fellow—who was a former maker of shoes for the queen of Italy. Yet he sits all day long at a work bench making kicks for you and me and the other fellow.

Scientists say when a camel loses its footing in a stream, it turns on its side and makes no effort to keep from drowning. But as someone has already said who wants to be a camel?

But, if that's the case, Volstead's camel will have to watch its step in the 1932 political torrent.

PLAN POULTRY SHOWS SOON

FIRST ONE TO BE AT ABERNATHY FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

Beginning with a poultry show Friday and Saturday at Abernathy under sponsorship of the Abernathy High school vocational agriculture department, a series of expositions reflecting increased interest in poultry raising will be conducted over the South Plains the next two months.

The Abernathy show last season displayed more than 200 birds, and the 27 varieties exhibited was greater than shown in any other poultry show in West Texas. New and larger quarters are being used for the show being held this week, and the sponsors hope to obtain entries for more than 400 birds. The Abernathy show will be judged by H. B. Lansden, licensed A.P.A. judge, of Lubbock.

Poultrymen at Idalou are sponsoring a show to be held Friday and Saturday, November 27 and 28. The following week on Dec. 3, 4 and 5, a poultry show is scheduled at Hereford, sponsored by the American Poultry association.

The Panhandle Plains Poultry show is being held at Slaton December 9, 10 and 11. Other shows with tentative dating in December and January include Crosbyton, Muleshoe, Brownfield, Hale Center and Floydada. Judging in practically all of these shows will be on a basis of standard qualification and production.

PLANE LANDS HERE

An hour and 50 minutes after leaving El Paso, about 300 miles away by air, an airplane containing four persons in addition to a pilot landed at Lubbock municipal airport Wednesday.

Walter D. Mauk was piloting the ship, a Lockheed monoplane powered with a Wright J5 motor. Dr. D. C. Tisdal of Elk City, Okla., owns the plane. The party, arriving at 11:25 and leaving at 12:15 after lunch, was en route to Elk City. Names of the passengers were not learned at Lubbock airport.

SLIGHTLY STOOPED LITTLE WOMAN IS AFRAID SHE WILL CRY AGAIN AS HER DAUGHTER SINGS IN CHICAGO OPERA

BY RUTH BALDWIN COWAN,

CHICAGO, Nov. 19. (AP)—Backstage at the Chicago civic opera this week is a slightly stooped little woman. Shy and dressed simply in black, she is almost part of the shadows. A few, knowing her, stop to inquire:

"It will be time again soon. Will you have the courage then?"

Eagerly responsive, a quick smile lights up her dark eyes.

"I wanta"—her English is broken by her Italian accent—"but I'm so afraid I cry. I feel like cry all time. Maybe I get used to it back here."

That timid figure that steps quickly aside for a hurrying stage hand is Signora Rosa Di Leo but for whose hands opera might be lacking a star that is shining this season. But the courage that braved poverty has not yet been great enough to take her out front to hear her daughter sing.

The Signora is the mother of Seraphina Di Leo, opera's cinderella, who went from New York's poorer section to laurels in La Scala in Milan, Italy, where she made her operatic debut last year.

But the mother, who had toiled in a garment factory to care for her sick husband, her brood of five children and provide lessons for her talented daughter, could not be there to hear her native countrymen acclaim the 18-year-old girl.

Now Seraphina is singing in the Chicago civic opera and the mother is here.

Came that big night—stage hands, who know that not all the drama of opera is on the stage, could tell about it—when Seraphina bowed to American audiences as Leonora in "Il Trovatore."

Seraphina sped away to be lost in the gayly costumed throngs in the wings.

The mother followed. She reached the door that would take her out front. She paused, turned back toward the wings.

Seraphina was singing, singing in grand opera!

It was too much for the mother. Eyes that had followed a million stitches in putting in pockets in hundreds of men's suits, brimmed. She sobbed. Faintly drifted song and music.

Making her way to a radio she turned the dials and into the room came Seraphina's voice.

The first act was drawing to a close. The last notes sounded, "Ave Marie," breathed the mother.

And then thundering through the rado came applause that was for Seraphina. Again and again sounded the discordant clapping of hands—"Pater noster," in thankfulness prayed the mother who has yet to sit in the audience.
