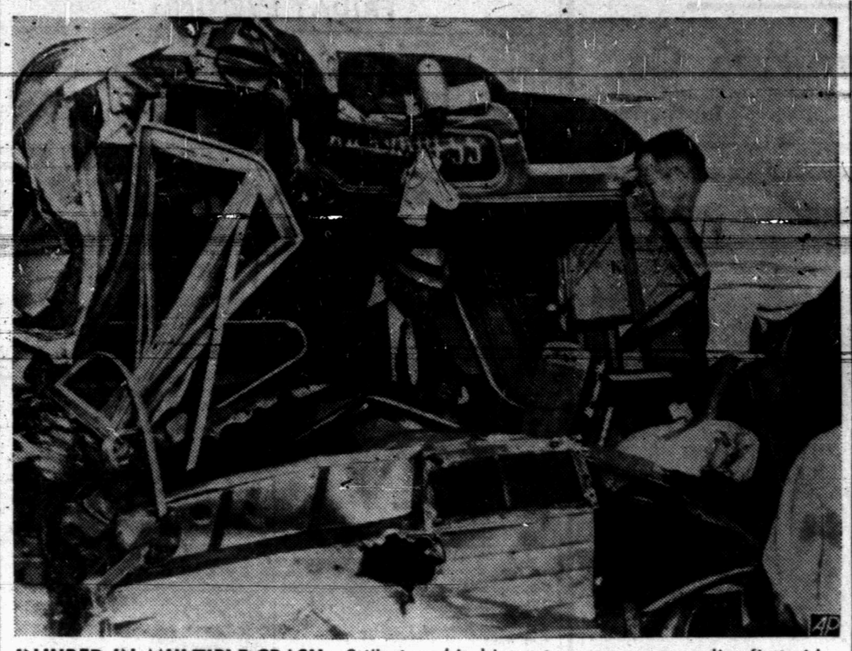
Body Of Kidnaped Child Is Found In Underbrush



INJURED IN MULTIPLE CRASH—Still pinned in his seat, a passenger applies first aid to a bruised knee as a highway worker starts to try to extricate him out from a wrecked bus. One person was killed and 27 injured when a loaded bus crashed into a trailer-truck on the New Jersey turnpike near New Brunswick. A dozen other vehicles collided with the wreckage in a chain reaction on the foggy highway.

Sizeable Vote Seen In Saturday Primary

Two state nominations three in Scurry County, one in Borden, and one district race will be decided tomorrow when voters to the polls to cast their ballots in the second Democratic primary.

State races are drawing considerable attention, since one of the runoffs is that for the gubernatorial nomination. Voters will decide tomorrow whether to nominate Price Daniel or Ralph Yarbrough.

In the runoff for attorney general are Will Wilson and Tom Moore. There was to be a runoff for lieutenant governor, but when Sen. A. M. Aikin withdrew because of ill health only Ben Ramsey was left on the ticket.

A sizable vote is expected tomorrow, although many do not beleive the vote will be as heavy as the 5,172 in the first primary, which was a local record for primary voting.

There were to be some 300 absentee ballots, not quite the amount in the first primary.

The district attorney's race for 132nd District, which comprises Scurry and Borden Counties, is to have a runoff between Wayland Holt, who led the first primary, and J. Ray Martin, who ran second. There were four candidates for the office in the first primary.

In Scurry County, runoff candidates for sheriff are Homer Whisnand, incumbent, who led the first primary ticket, and Earl Abercrombie, who was second. Those two led in a field of five candidates in the first primary.

Two commissioner percent offices are also on the runoff ballot. In precinct 1, those on the ticket are T. B. Knight, incumbent, who led the first primary vote, and Clarence Wade, second in a field of four.

In precinct 3, those in the runoff will be L. L. (Pat) Moore, incumbent, who topped the first ballot, and Whit Farmer, second. There were five in that race during the first primary.

Charlie Smith was the only one of three candidates who tied in the first primary's write-in votes who filed to be placed on the second primary ballot.

In Borden County, there is a runoff for the office of commissioner of precinct 1 between Dee Burrus and John Stephens. There were three in the race during the first primary.

Polling placees are all scheduled to be at the same places as during the first primary.

The polls will open at 8 a.m. and close at 7 p.m.

Voters have been asked to remember their poll tax or exemption certificates when they go to the polls.

Two hundred eighty-eight absentee ballots have been cast so far, with 19 still in the mails. The deadline for ballots to be accepted in the county clerk's office is one o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Little Richard Goes To Jail In Amarillo

AMARILLO (AP)—Richard (Little Richard) Pennima, 23, a rock and roll band leader, was taken to the jail last night after officers stopped a floor show at a dance.

Chief Deputy C. E. Travis said the band leader and three members of his band, all Negroes, were held for taking part in the show. He said it consisted of improper posturing.

Travis said the dance was attended by about 400 persons, mostly white juveniles.

Stevenson Protests Eisenhower Charge

LIBERTYVILLE, Ill. (AP)—Adlai Stevenson protested today against what he described as President Eisenhower's "ill - considered charge that the Democrats set group against group."

And he declared in a statement that "It is too bad that the Republican record bears so little resemblance" to Eisenhower description of it.

The Democratic presidential nominee made his comments as he awaited at his farm near Libertyville the arrival of Clayton Fritchey, his new press secretary, and other campaign officials for further conferences on next week's flying trip to lay the groundwork for rallying Democratic voters for the election in November.

LIBERTYVILLE, Ill. (AP)—Adlai Stevenson stepped up the pace of his speech writing today in preparation for his departure Monday on a campaign schedule that will keep him on the road almost continuously until election eve.

Facing the 1952 landslide team of Eisenhower and Nixon again, he has told friends that his hopes for victory lie in personal contacts with thousands of voters in every crucial state.

The Democratic presidential nominee got an idea of what he is up against last night as he watched a telecast of President Eisenhower's acceptance speech at the Republican National Convention. But he had no comment on his rival's talk before retiring at his sheep-farm home near here.

Stevenson is in continuous telephone contact with James A. Finnegan, his campaign manager, and chief strategist on what they call a program for the "greatest grass roots campaign in political history."

Stevenson is counting heavily on conferences he and Sen. Estes Kefauver, the Democratic vice presidential nominee, will hold next week with state and local party officials and workers in five regions of the country.

Other such conferences in additional areas will be set up for the following weeks.

The idea is to get advice at the grass roots on what areas should be campaigned most thoroughly and on what issues to stress in an effort to rally Democratic voters to the polls.

Stevenson said that Democratic registration which exceeds Republican registration offers the foundation for his belief that the Democrats can win in November.

Tizzy Among Ticker Tape

BIRMINGHAM, England (AP) — Mrs. Nellie Neale touched off a tizzy among the ticker tape today by insisting on her right to become a lady bull—or bear.

She has applied for membership in the Birmingham Stock Exchange, a frequently rowdy arena where men have been known to lose their pants along with their shirts.

If accepted, she will be the first woman member in the history of England, Scotland and Wales.

The first reaction from the all-male citadel of commerce was a resounding "No, sir, by gad, sir!"

Nobody denied that Mrs. Neale—quiet, middle-aged and comely—is qualified for membership. She has 13 years of experience with a local stockbroking firm.

"She knows her stuff," conceded one member "but good heavens, does she realize what she would be getting into?"

When stock trading is lively, he explained, there often are scenes and sounds on the floor of the exchange which are not for the eyes or ears of a lady.

Living Cost Jumps For Second Month

WASHINGTON (AP) — The cost of living jumped seven-tenths of one percent in July for the second successive month, sending consumer prices to a record high and bringing wage boosts to 1¼ million.

The increase means the consumer's dollar has lost more than one penny of purchasing power in two months and two cents in a year.

Auto workers, under contracts adjusted to living costs, will obtain a 4-cent hourly wage increase. So will 90,000 electric workers.

Aircraft, farm equipment and some other workers, will gain three-to-five-cent increases.

The July index, issued today by the Labor Department, stood at 117 percent of the 1947-49 average.

The July increase was attributed largely to "super-seasonal" peaks in fresh fruits and vegetable prices. All other major prices rose too — rents, transportation, services and recreation among them.

Factory take-home pay dropped about 32 cents, less than normal for July.

Food prices, representing about 30 per cent of the index, are not expected to decline until after September, when the harvests and heavy livestock marketings will have improved supplies.

Some other costs are rising gradually, notably housing, transportation, utilities, and a long list of consumer services ranging from haircuts to doctor bills.

July living costs also reflected for the first time the new highway-user taxes which will pay for the huge highway program. The July 1 excise tax increases raised the cost of gasoline, tires and diesel fuel.

WHAT DO YOU KNOW?

Joe For President

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Interview aboard a San Francisco cable car:

"Excuse me, sir, but I heard you say your name was Joe Smith and—"

"Yeah, I know. You're one of them newspaper guys. They been pesterin' me and every Joe Smith in the country. Get lost."

"Well, naturally, sir, since a Joe Smith was put in nomination, or almost in nomination, by a Nebraska delegate at the Republican convention the other night—"

"Do you know how many Joe Smiths there are in this country, buster? I looked it up. There are 1,096,203 of us. So why pick on me?"

"Well, I just thought—"

"Think again. I decline the nomination."

"Don't you want to be vice president?"

"Nah. I'm shootin' the works. Like Happy Chandler said at Chicago, I'm goin' for the roses. That's a racin' term, in case you don't get it. Kentucky Derby, like. It means I'm out for the top spot."

"You mean you're a candidate for president, Mr. Smith: I don't mean to downgrade you, but the nominees for this year seem to have been selected. And frankly, I didn't hear your name mentioned—even as a dark horse."

"Ah, what do those politicians know about politics? I'll have them coming to me yet. On their knees."

"One thing bothers me, Joe. Suppose a Joe Smith does get elected. How are you going to prove you're the right Joe Smith?"

"Who cares? I'm just runnin' for the fun of it. I wouldn't take the job if you gave me the White House."

"Why not, Joe?"

"No room for advancement."

Farm Labor Discussed In Meeting Here

Some 75 or 80 members of the Scurry County Farmers Union heard a discussion of procedures for acquiring Mexican Nationals for harvest labor at a meeting last night in the district courtroom.

Here to confer with the Farmers Union members were David Harlow, manager of the Texas Employment Commission Office in Sweetwater, and Claude Ledbetter, TEC field man.

Farmers were informed that permits from the Sweetwater TEC office would be required for hiring Braceros individually. A fee of $5 goes to the U. S. Department of Labor for processing, while $4.50 per month for each Bracero is required for insurance.

Transportation by bus or private automobile to and from the reception center is required. Trucks and pickups are not allowed for this purpose without special permits. It was announced that the Scurry County Labor Association would deliver Mexican Nationals to the Co-op Gin in Snyder for a fee of $25 each. Special individual contracts will cost $8 additional.

The prevailing wage was announced as $1.50 per hundred in the field for pulling cotton, and 25 cents to 50 cents for hauling. It was suggested that farmers establish a definite price for pulling and hauling by local labor before hands are sent to the fields. This procedure will enable farmers to establish a balance for pulling, it was explained.

Misunderstanding over the rates in the past have given laborers a lever to fluctuate prices from field to field, the farmers were told.

Man Admits Bank Robbery

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—Scott Werner of the FBI said today a Florida man had surrendered to the Portland, Ore. FBI office and admitted robbing the Bexar County National Bank of $2,000 Aug. 8.

Joseph Coffmann, 52, was quoted as saying he "was tired of being hunted." Coffman also told FBI officials he arrived in San Antonio from Florida without money and decided to rob the bank.

Coffman further stated he wrote a note and handed it to Walter St. James, a teller at the bank. The note demanded $2,000.

He said he also stated in the note he had a vial of nitroglycerin and threatened to blow up the bank unless given the money. In his statement to the FBI Coffmann said he did not have any explosive but carried a bottle of corn medicine. Coffmann did not say what happened to the loot.

Coffmann told officials that after the robbery he tried to buy groceries with one of the two $500 bills taken from the bank. He failed. He also obtained a $1,000 bill in the robbery.

Composer Is In Jail Again

VINCENNES, Ind. (AP)—Frank Grandstaff, 55, a convict who wrote the "Big Spring Cantata" performed at Big Spring, Tex., was sentenced to the state farm yesterday on the complaint of two girls, 12.

Grandstaff was pardoned from a life term in a Tennessee prison in 1950 largely because of the Cantata.

Judge Sidney Gelb fined Grandstaff $10 and sentenced him to six months for assault and battery. The girls were not harmed.

Grandstaff, now of Fort Wayne, Ind., said he was in an alcoholic daze when he arrived in Vincennes a week ago en route to Evansville. He said he had only a vague recollection of events leading up to his arrest.

After his pardon from a life sentence as a habitual criminal, Grandstaff went to Fort Wayne, where he married. They were separated.

Invitation To All Joe Smiths

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — All the Joe Smiths of America will be invited into the Democratic party if Oklahoma Gov. Raymond Gary has his way.

Gary said he will propose at Monday's regional meeting of Democratic leaders at Santa Fe, N. M., that such an invitation be issued.

Joe Smith is the mythical person Nebraska delegate Terry McGovern Carpenter tried to nominate for vice president at the Republican National Convention.

Gary said an invitation to Smiths would illustrate the difference between what he termed the "wide open" Democratic convention and the GOP "cut and dried" convention.

"We might as well organize a Joe Smith-for-Stevenson Club and open the doors wide to all Democrats who went astray four years ago and welcome them back where they will be treated like they are wanted," the governor declared.

Nixon Rushes To Father's Bedside

WHITTIER, Calif. (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon returned from the Republican National Convention in San Francisco today and rushed to the bedside of his 77-year-old father, who is critically ill with a ruptured abdominal artery.

The vice president arrived at Los Angeles International Airport with his wife Pat and his brother Don and his wife. Nixon immediately telephoned the family physician and then told waiting newsmen that the report was "more pessimistic" than before.

Nixon then drove to the home of his father Frank Nixon in nearby La Habra, a suburb 15 miles southeast of Los Angeles.

Suez Committee Moving Swiftly

LONDON (AP)—A committee of five nations moved swiftly today to bring before Egypt the moral force of 18 countries demanding international control of the Suez Canal.

Prime Minister Robert Menzies of Australia led the committee through a session he described as "very urgent and extremely confidential" to map strategy for approaching Egyptian President Nasser.

Menzies was named chairman of the special Suez Canal Committee set up after India and Russia blocked the sending of a delegation under auspices of the full 22-nation Suez conference, which wound up eight days of discussions yesterday.

Sitting with Menzies were delegates representing a cross-section of powers directly concerned with freedom of navigation in the canal—the United States, Sweden, Iran and Ethopia.

Emerging from the first private meeting, Menzies was closemouthed. He told newsmen, "It is so tremendously important that I feel we shall all behave like Trappist monks."

Earlier, an aide indicated the Egyptian ambassador to Britain would be sounded out on fixing a time and place for meeting Nasser. Before the meeting, Menzies himself had said this would be considered. Secretary of State Dulles took part in the deliberations.

The majority's proposal is that Egypt, which nationalized the canal July 26, should turn its operation over to an international board on which she would be represented.

The French stepped up military preparations in case Egypt turned down the idea. But French Foreign Minister Christian Pineau back in Paris from the conference, said even if that happened, further talks would precede any thought of using force.

He was asked if force would be brought into play in case Nasser rejected the proposal. He replied in English: "The question of force is not yet (sic). We will have new conversations."

Pineau hurried to report on the London conference at an extraordinary meeting of French leaders, with President Rene Coty presiding.

Soviet Communist leader Nikita S. Khrushchev has said that in case of war over the canal, the Arabs would have help.

"The Arabs will not stand alone," he told ambassadors attending a Romanian reception in Moscow yesterday. "It will be a just war and there will be volunteers."

An officer of the Egyptian liberation army last Sunday said members of yourth groups in the Soviet Union, Red China, Bulgaria and Yugoslavia had volunteered to join the army.

France's Cabinet was called into session to consider what action to take if Nasser does turn down the West-sponsored proposal. Reports from the French capital said troops were being readied for transport across the Mediterranean, warships had been sent to sea on "maneuvers," and several air squadrons had been regrouped for possible movement.

Special paratroop units were reported being assembled in Algeria where the bulk of France's armed forces is already fighting nationalist rebels.

Man Held For Kidnap

MINEOLA, N.Y. (AP) — The decomposed body of kidnaped Peter Weinberger, with a safety pin still intact, was found today in roadside shrubbery 51 days after he was taken from the patio of his Westbury, Long Island, home.

It was found where FBI agents said Angelo J. LaMarca, a cab driver, told them he had abandoned the month-old child on July 5, the day after he took the baby.

LaMarca, 31, father of two children, was arrested yesterday by FBI agents and Nassau County police and charged with kidnaping. Financial difficulties apparently caused his act. He had asked $2,000 ransom.

More than 50 Nassau County police and FBI agents moved on the abandonment spot at 9:15a.m. It was situated alongside a cut-off road from Northern State Parkway leading to Plainview where LaMarca lives. It is only 8 miles east of the Weinberger home.

Forming a line an arm's length apart, the searchers moved slowly through the underbrush. Shortly after 10:30 a.m. the body was found.

Asst. Chief Inspector James Farrell said the baby had not been buried. He apparently had been placed in the underbrush, then summer storms whipped up honeysuckle vines and leaves to blanket the body.

It was not known whether the child had died or was killed before he was abandoned.

"Even if the child was alive when it was placed on the ground, it may will constitute murder," Nassau County Dist. Atty. Frank Gulotta said.

More than 50 Nassau County police and FBI agents began searching the area at 9:15 a.m. The body was found shortly after 10:30 a.m.

The searchers moved through the wooded area in a line. The men were an arm's length apart.

Inspector James Farrell said the baby had not been buried leaves and shrub branches, whipped by summer storms, had covered it.

The body was found only eight miles east of the Weinberger home and half a mile from LaMarca's home in Plainview.

The search party started a foot-by-foot search of the area shortly after 9 a.m. Police had guarded the roadside throughout the night.

From a distance, observers could see police digging with shovels in various spots. One FBI agent carried a four-foot slender pole, which apparently he was using as a probe.

Conviction of kidnaping, like first degree murder, carries a maximum penalty of death in New York.

3 Mile Deep Wildcat Said World Record

HOUSTON (AP)—A three mile hole in the ground has found gas with a 11,000-pound per square inch pressure for a joint operation of Richardson and Bass and Tidewater Oil Co.

The wildcat, in the south Broussard area of Louisiana's St. Martin Parish, was carried to 16,606 feet for a reported world record.

Gas production through a 5-16ths inch choke was rated at 4.5 million cubic feet daily. Flowing pressure stood at 10,750 pounds per square inch with the fuel coming from perforations in broken sand at 15,024-85 feet.

Cut In Water Rate Studied By Officials

BIG SPRING — Directors of the Colorado River Municipal Water District projected tentative new rates to member cities and gave the green light in initial steps toward developing an additional source of supply here Thursday.

The board's rate committee reported that effective Jan. 1, 1957 it appeared that rates to member cities could be reduced by approximately one cent per thousand gallons. This could be accomplished, they predicted, by taking revenues from oil field repressuring units and other industrial users and applying them to the reserve fund required by the bond holders.

The figures submitted were approximations and depend on several factors, including water consumption figures in the member cities.

(City Manager Roy Dunlap said such a rate schedule would actually provide Snyder with about .7 of one cent per thousand gallons additional revenue. This probably would not permit the city to pass on the reduction to the consumer in the near future, since the city must fulfill requirements of its own water department revenue bonds from that source of revenue.)

The projected new rate for Big Spring would drop from 15 cents per thousand gallons to 14 cents per thousand, while it is estimated that Odessa's rate would drop from about 18.5 cents per thousand to 17.2 cents per thousand.

The board authorized the general manager, Col. E. V. Spence, and the consulting engineer, Si Freese, to acquire necessary topographical maps of an area on the Colorado River below Colorado City where the district is studying the possibility of constructing a dam. Spence reported that arrangements already were being made for gauging stations to study quanity and quality of the water.

Tentative estimates are that a dam about 15 miles below Colorado City would impound some 300,000 acre feet of water, which would make it about one and one half times as large as Lake J. B. Thomas.

At the same time the district board heard requests from city officials in Lamesa, Midland and Stanton, asking that those cities be considered in the district's study of supply sources.

Directors from Snyder who attended the board meeting were Lyle Deffebach, W. J. Ely and James Rosser.

Wreckage, Empty Life Rafts Of Navy Patrol Plane Found

TOKYO (AP)—Search planes and ships today found wreckage and two empty life rafts presumed to be from a U.S. Navy patrol plane which disappeared after radioing it was being attacked off the Red China coast.

First reports of the finding said there was no indication of what happened to the 16 American airmen aboard the missing plane, a four-engine P4M Mercator the Navy said was on a routine patrol and training mission from Japan.

Navy officials refused to speculate on the possibility that Communist boats had picked up at least some of the men. The State Department has asked Britain, which has diplomatic relations with the Peiping regime, to find out if the Reds have any information about the plane and its crew.

Navy spokesmen at the huge Yokosuka base said the first wreckage and rafts were found floating a few miles south of a Communist-held island about 100 miles southeast of Shanghai.

That put the wreckage nearly 200 miles north of the position given by the P4M when it radioed at 1:25 a.m. Thursday it was being attacked by unidentified aircraft.

However, the wreckage was found in approximately the same area south of the Saddle Islands off the Bay of Hangchow, at which Peiping radio said Chinese Communist aircraft intercepted and damaged a "Chiang Kai-shek plane" early Thursday.

Chiang's Nationalist air force on Formosa said it had no planes in the area at the time and none of its planes were missing.

The Communist broadcast said the plane its airmen attacked trespassed over several Communist-held islands and flew off oward the southeast after it was hit.

The Navy said the Mercator's flight plan called for it to fly south well out over international waters, toward Formosa and then to circle back northeastward to Formosa.

A 17-ship fleet, including three aircraft carriers, and scores of land and carrier-based planes searched throughout yesterday and again today for traces of the missing aircraft.

AREA OIL ROUNDUP

SE Borden Area Extender Finals

Cosden Petroleum Corp. of Big Spring and Tri-Service Drilling of Midland have completed No. 1 Murphy as a southeast offset to a three-quarters mile north extension to the Reinecke (Canyon reef) field in Southeast Borden County.

The well was completed for 128 barrels of 43-gravity oil daily. Production was through a one-half inch choke and open hole at 6,931 to 6,949 feet. Gas-oil ratio was 995-1.

Location is 1,650 feet from north and east lines of section 66, block 25, H&TC survey and 15½ miles southeast of Gail.

Stanolind Oil & Gas Co. will reenter and clean out to 8,620 feet a Spraberry sand oiler in the South Gail field of Central Borden County.

Originally drilled to the Ellenburger and plugged back for Spraberry completion, operator now will clean out and test for production in the Pennsylvanian.

On last report, the well was making five barrels of oil daily from the Spraberry.

Location of the project, originally drilled by Stanolind, is 660 feet from south and west lines of section 3, block 30, T-5-N, T&P survey. It will be reentered as No. 1 J. E. Miller.

Cities Service Oil Co. and others No. 1-148 Flat Top, 1½ miles northeast of the Flat Top 162 (Swastika) field of Southeast Stonewall County, was running logs Thursday.

Drillstem test in the Mississippian 6,186 to 6,236 feet, open 90 minutes, recovered 67 feet of slightly oil and gas-cut mud.

Location is 1,980 feet from east and 660 feet from north lines of section 148, BBB&S survey, nine miles southeast of Aspermont.

Humble Oil & Refining Co. has plugged No. 8 Annie Armstrong, South Yoakum County wildcat, at 10,800 feet after unsuccessful attempts at completion in the San Andrew.

The duster is three miles northeast of Denver City, 1,980 feet from north and 660 feet from west lines of section 869, block D, John H. Gibson survey.

Outcome Of Canal Dispute Still Doubtful

By The Associated Press

The Suez Canal conference has ended with the security of a Western lifeline still in doubt, and danger on the horizon.

The conference was a golden opportunity for the Russians to prove the sincerity of their "peaceful coexistence" talk. If Moscow wanted to avoid a chain of events seriously affecting Europe's future and peace prospects, it would have lined up with the West in seeking an iron-clad guarantee for continued international access to the canal. The Russians did not. They used the controversy as a weapon to belabor the Western nations as "colonialists" and to marshal the fightened neutralism of Asia.

The 22-nation conference had the effect, probably, of staving off an explosion in the Middle East, but big as that accomplishment was, its results could be all too temporary.

Egypt's president Nasser will be told by the 18-nation majority of the London conference that they favor international operation of an Egyptian - owned company. This most certainly will be rejected by Nasser.

The Egyptians might accept the idea of the Russians—joined by India, Ceylon and Indonesia—for Egyptian operation of the Suez with some sort of international advice. But this cannot meet the demands of the West. Can the big Western powers give in now?

There must, at the least, be more negotiations, more marking time, and even, possibly, more economic pressure on Egypt to retreat from its position. The London conference was just a beginning.

Child Killed By Auto

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—An 18-month-old boy was killed yesterday by a car at his home. Stephen Howard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clem Howard, walked behind a neighbor's auto while playing.

White bread prices rose 70 percent between 1946 and 1956.

India Plans Newspaper Regulations

NEW DELHI (AP)—India has taken a long step toward greater regulation of newspapers.

The government has introduced bills in Parliament to create machinery for fixing prices and to set up a statutory press councils that could censure papers for lapses of taste or ethics. Both bills are expected to be approved this year.

They follow recommendations of a press commission that made an official inquiry into the Indian press two years ago. The government already has carried out some of the recommendations.

A press registar to collect data about the ownership and circulation of newspapers started functioning July 1. Measures regulating working conditions of journalists are now on the statute books.

The press council bill is perhaps the most far-reaching measure envisaged. The proposed council would have power to "censure" editors or their newspapers for offending against "the standards of journalistic ethics or public taste."

Before it could censure anyone, the council would have to hold an inquiry during which it could "summon and enforce the attendance of persons and examine them on oath."

The council's only disciplinary powers would be to "censure" and to express disapproval. But any witness called by the council must reckon with the possibility of a perjury charge, since he would be testifying under oath.

The second bill now before Parliament would empower the central government for a five-year period to set minimum prices at which newspapers must be sold, on a sliding scale based on the number of pages published. The bigger the newspaper, the higher the price.

The idea is to encourage competition without price cutting, thus protecting the poorer newspapers and reducing the advantages of the wealthier newspapers.

The bill also incorporates a press commission recommendation that the government should limit the amount of advertising a newspaper may carry in relation to the amount of news it prints.

Peace Goal Is Outlined By President

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) President Eisenhower fixed "peace for all time" as the goal of the Republican "party of the future" in accepting formally its nomination for another four years in the White House.

Accepting "humbly but confidently" command of the GOP's 1956 campaign for national leadership, he told cheering delegates at last night's windup session of the party's centennial convention it is not enough to promise "the young who fight the wars" that there will be "peace in our time."

"There is only one peace now, and that is peace for all time," he declared.

He said thermonuclear war had become "not just tragic, but preposterous."

"With such weapons," he said, "there can be no victory for anyone. Plainly, the objective now must be to see that such a war does not occur at all."

Beaming at the thunderous reception given him and his running mate, Vice President Richard M. Nixon, Eisenhower pitched his bid for re-election primarily on his promise to work for "a brave and shining new world . . . a world in which back-breaking toil and long hours will not be necessary."

Nixon told the delegates shortly before in accepting his second-place nomination that "we have peace in the world today, but we are not going to rest on our laurels and be satisfied with the achievements of 3½ years."

It was a gay, colorful convention session that stormed approval for its two nominees. "I like Ike" balloons floated down from the ceiling. Eisenhower joined in bouncing them around as he waited through preliminary ceremonies on the platform to begin his formal speech.

Mrs. Mamie Eisenhower, in royal purple hat and dress, carried a big sheaf of red roses, as did Mrs. Pat Nixon.

When he arose before the throng, the 65-year-old Eisenhower said he wanted to express his "great satisfaction" that the convention had decided to keep intact for this year's race the same team that won in 1952 against a Democratic ticket headed by the same man the GOP's opposition has named this year — Adlai E. Stevenson. Stevenson's running mate this year is Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee.

Spadea's International Designer Pattern

S-319

Biki presents a definite design for fashionable living—a bold plaid. The bodice and upper part of the skirt which is gathered onto the waistline, are cut on the bias, a trick that makes the most of the fabric coloring and your figure. The all around apron effect is on the straight and is top-stitched to give it a separated look. Perfect for campus wear and country living, it works up best in wool or cotton plaids, from conservative glens to bright tartans. Because the pattern is hand made with accurate perforations and complete instructions for matching, even a beginner will discover how easy it is to turn out a couture model with professional results. This hand cut, custom made pattern is not standard sized but is the only pattern available with exclusive designers retail sizing measurements for a more accurate fit, better styling, less altering. Open perforations for easy markings without damaging tissue; also time saving. From this chart select the size best for you. Size 12 requires 3⅜ yards of 54-inch material for dress. To order Pattern No. S-319, state size, enclose $1.00. Airmail handling requires 25c extra. Address INTERNATIONAL DESIGNER PATTERNS, Box 993, G.P.O. Dept. SX-13, New York 1, N.Y. 96 page Pattern Book "B" 50c. If paid by check add 4c.

Warning Issued Against Chlorine Retentive Fabric

As a result of its research studies, American Institute of Luandering's textile and laundering authorities recommend that any white or predominately white washables be constructed of fabrics that are not chlorine retentive. Cutters should be encouraged not to buy or use chlorine retentive fabrics. This applies not only to white goods but also to colored goods that are likely to be laundered with other white work because of excellent color fastness characteristics.

Colored chlorine retentive garments should not be made with white trim or with white areas that require the use of bleaching agents during laundering to keep them white.

On new garments, tags that say "Do Not Bleach" might just as well be thrown away. Normally they are not helping the housewife. She may not understand and often forgets the instructions. Thus, the purpose of the tag is lost.

It also should be recognized that chlorine retentive garments, such as work clothing, wash dresses and uniforms, frequently are stained during use. Many of these stains can be removed only by oxidizing agents of which sodium hypochlorite is the most common. (Sodium Hypochlorite makes chlorine available.) Therefore, stain removal can contribute to a chlorine retentive problem.

Homes Getting Bigger

About three-fourths, or 75 per cent of all new homes built in 1956 will have three bedrooms, says the United States Savings & Loan League. In 1955, about 68 per cent of new houses were of this size and in 1954 they accounted for only 58 per cent.

For Commissioner Precinct No. 1 Scurry County

T. B. KNIGHT

. . . will again (sincerely) appreciate your vote and influence for re-election for a second term.
I am grateful to you for the confidence you have reposed in me in the past by placing me, by your vote, in the important position as county commissioner.
And, I have endeavored at all times to make the kind of commissioner that would be a credit to you and the county as a whole and if re-elected will pledge myself to do the best I can and what I think is right at all times.
Thanking you again in advance for your continued support, I sincerely hope to remain your commissioner.

A Bit Of Confusion

The Republican National Convention in San Francisco had been billed as one of the most tightly-scheduled events in human history. There was a time and a place for everything. There was a master of ceremonies, in private life a motion picture actor. There was a music master, also an actor. This was going to be a truly magnificent pageant, with male and female singers and other specialty acts to fill in the hiatuses. Not a dull moment, as was the case with that Democratic thing at Chicago.

But the television events of Tuesday indicated the convention needed fewer signal-givers, hog-callers and masters of this and that than co-ordinators, traffic directors and timekeepers.

A terrific show had been prepared, with something new in political presentation: instead of reading the platform in toto, it was merely introduced with a preamble and then each member of the cabinet came forward to the "snorting pole" to explain the platform item by item.

Well, that program was followed to the letter—but only the crowd in the Cow Palace saw and heard any part of it. The big news was the President's arrival by air, and all the networks concentrated on that. When the sequences of that particular show dragged, which they did with boresome iteration, the announcers alternately praised the "beautiful" fog over San Francisco and its environs and explained why the video wasn't coming through—too many hills and underpasses.

The notables assembled on the platform knew the program was not going out to the palpitant millions throughout the country, but the delegates on the floor and the visitors in the back seats didn't: so they applauded vigorously throughout the affair.

The long waits between sequences of the presidential arrival were occupied by the commercials but what was going on at the Cow Palace was a deep, dark secret from the national "audience."

Money Becoming Dear

"The cost of borrowing money moved higher yesterday across the nation," notes the Wall Street Journal Wednesday morning. "All major New York banks and a large number throughout the country quickly boosted the 'prime' interest rate to 4 percent from 3¾ percent after First National Bank of Boston did so late Monday afternoon."

The newspaper explains that the "prime" rate is the interest commercial banks charge the biggest borrowers with the best credit ratings. The new 4 percent rate, it goes on, is the highest since the early 1930s, and a full percentage point higher than that in effect since August of last year.

Behind all this is the administration's "tight money" policy. A New York banker was quoted as saying the new rates are designed to discourage borrowers, because "we have little money to lend, and what's worse we don't know where any more is coming from."

The Journal declared the rate the government has to pay for its shortest-term money hit a new 23-year high last Monday.

The latest surge toward higher interest rates came just a week too late for the Democratic Party to make the most of a new anti-administration talking point. In one of his frequent public talks Harry Truman did point out how much more the recent rise in rates was costing the government—that is, the taxpayers—and had this latest upsurge come a week earlier the Democratic platform could have "gone to town" with it.

"Cheap" money has been a determining factor in the tremendous growth and development of Snyder and many another city throughout the country. The latest rise may well cause serious concern.

Price Of Money Is Going Up While Its Value In The Market Place Is Slipping

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—The price of money is going up at the same time that its value in the market place is slipping.

It will cost a businessman more to borrow money this fall. And when he spends it, chances are he'll get less in materials and services than he could have last spring.

Consumers are finding it costs more to buy many items. At the same time they are finding it hard to locate funds to finance mortgages on the new home they want.

The price of money — what you pay in interest when you borrow — is going up in response to the law of supply and demand. The demand for money, particularly on the part of businessmen wanting to borrow, is growing while the supply of lendable funds is very tight.

Since business is bidding for construction materials and for such capital goods as machinery and tools, and since the supply of many of these items is tight, their price is rising. This approximates the classical definition of inflation: "Too much money (borrowed in this case) chasing too few goods."

In the consumer's case it's quite different. Prices on many manufactured items are going up although there are large stocks of these goods on hand and idle productive capacity. There certainly aren't "too few goods."

The price tags are being marked up at manufacturing level because of higher costs of labor and materials. At the retail level, where competition is fierce, markups aren't nearly as widespread.

Money is tight for several reasons. The great demand for it is one. The demand comes from businesses wishing to expand to prepare for the even greater prosperity they foresee, from merchants carrying costly stocks, and from consumers buying on time.

The supply of it, while growing, isn't keeping up with demand. Basically the supply of money for investment comes from the savings of individuals and corporations. The rate of savings varies as consumers go on spending sprees or tighten up for awhile.

But business notions now of how big an industrial plant the nation will need in the next few years are much bigger than current savings can pay for.

The Federal Reserve Board could ease credit considerably. It could let the banks have more money to lend. By supporting the bond market as it did just after the war it could halt the rise in interest rates.

But the federal reserve policy is to keep money sufficiently tight to head off any upswelling of inflation which it feels would follow the pouring of cheap money into expansion plans and new business ventures. Inflation could bring sharply higher consumer prices.

So borrowing is allowed to grow more difficult and more costly. It is hoped that will help hold down the rising cost of living. So far that weapon hasn't seemed to help the consumer much.

LITERARY GUIDEPOST

YOUR CHILD CAN LEARN TO READ. By Margaret McEathron. Grosset & Dunlap.

Rudolph Flesch stirred up quite a storm when he brought out "Why Johnny Can't Read," urging return to teaching children to read by phonics, or sounding out words. Many teachers accused him of taking education backward. Others argued that the trend toward sight reading, or recognizing words by pictures or association, had created a generation of poor readers.

Margaret McEathron, remedial counselor at the Reading House, Los Angeles, follows a middle course. She sees good in each method, and feels that good readers can be made only by combining the two systems, adding: "Failure in reading corrodes the very nature and behavior of many children, inside, and actually produces behavior problems."

Her most interesting conclusion is that boys and girls learn differently:

"Boys, particularly, have..... 'why' minds. The majority are born with aptitude for analytical reasoning." They learn, she says, "by taking apart and putting together, building, and using logic rather than memory."

On the other hand, "girls, in general, can learn the sight way easily. Because girls seem to learn so effortlessly, many boys get the idea that they themselves are 'dumb.'

Her book is a step - by - step analysis for both parents and teachers in exercises to improve reading techniques, from the simple consonants to such puzzling forms as the differences between "ite" and "ight."

As a companion book, Grosset & Dunlap is issuing in the same format a reprint of more than 70 reading exercises from Dr. Flesch's "Why Johnny Can't Read," under the title "Teaching Johnny to Read."

Shirley Booth Now Wishes Her Oscar Had Come Later

By Hal McClure

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Shirley Booth leaned back in her chair beside her swimming pool and said, "I wish I hadn't won the Academy award so soon."

Not that the Oscar—for her 1952 portrayal of a frumpy hausfrau in "Come Back Little Sheba"—has done her anny harm.

"But, I felt it came much too quickly. It was my first motion picture, you know. I always think you should work up to something," she said.

Her success on the stage with "Sheba" and subsequent plays came after many years of hard work, frustration and tears. Miss Booth, by the way, made her Broadway debut in 1925 with a young fellow named Humphrey Bogart.

The red-haired actress is a temporary Hollywoodian while appearing in the play, "The Desk Set".

"It's a funny thing," she went on, "when success arrives in your later years, no one is envious at all. Older people hope the same lightning might strike them; the younger folks aren't a bit jealous because they know you've been working for it a long time."

Shirley, who doesn't look her 49 years, recalled a conversation with her ex-husband, Ed Gardner, creator of "Duffy's Tavern."

"Ed said, 'Shirley, people envy me my success, but they all hope you'll make it to the top one of these days. They say, good ol' Shirley, she's been pluggin' away a long time.'"

Long - memoried radio fans might recall that Shirley played the original "Miss Duffy" on the radio for two years. She and Gardner were divorced in 1943.

Shirley interrupts her busy schedule at the end of the month for a two-month tour of England, France and Italy. She returns to San Francisco and several more weeks with "The Desk Set". In January, she starts, "Next of Kin," her third motion picture.

She plumped some pillows behind her, leaned back and sighed: "Ol' Shirley—maybe a little more tired — is still pluggin' away."

Bird People Have Difficult Decision To Make If Whooping Crane To Be Preserved

By DION HENDERSON
The Associated Press

Should a token flock of whooping cranes be captured and held in captivity, rather than risk the ever-increasing gamble against extinction in the wild?

The question, say some good friends of the continent's biggest — and one of its rarest — birds, ought to be put up to that same public which during the past few years has been aroused by the whoopers' last, stubborn stand.

At the last count, the world still held 29 of the huge white travelers. Three of them already are in captivity, in the New Orleans Zoo. The zoo's adult pair — acquired when one bird was crippled — hatched two chicks this spring but both died.

The other 27—of these, 20 mature birds and seven of last year's young—are scattered from Saskatchewan to Canada's Northwest Territory, except for one Texas-loving yearling that liked the winter home at Aransas, on the Gulf Coast, so well it declined the trip North this spring.

The 26 successfully negotiated the precarious 2,000-mile spring flight from the Aransas refuge to the Canadian nesting grounds and presumably are about the business of trying to hold the whooping crane population even and perhaps gain a bird or two again.

Still ahead, of course, is the still more perilous fall flight South, when some hunters who apparently wouldn't know a whooping crane from a mourning dove are abroad with weapons, adding to nature's hazards.

The question of whether it would be better to have a few whoopers in captivity rather than not have any at all has been sounded along the "Whooper Network," made up of observers along the big cranes' migration path.

It was suggested first by Canadian observers, and picked up by Howard Dodgen, executive secretary of the Texas Game and Fish Commission, who suggest that "The tremendous interest in the long range whooper planning justifies opening up the subject to the a letter to Fred G. Bard, director of the Saskatchewan Museum of Natural History at Regina this week.

Dodgen termed establishment of a captive flock of at least four whoopers "a final disperate effort" to save the rare birds.

The suggestion was expressed in public view."

There would, however, be no assurance of maintaining a flock even if a start were made with members of the present wild flock. Only two sets of whooper parents have produced chicks under close observation. One chick was hatched at Aransas several years ago, but disappeared shortly thereafter. Then the New Orleans pair hatched the two that later died.

The captive flock plan would take its cue from these instances, where production of chicks proved to be possible, but difficult. It would call for setting up an isolated project under a career bird manager, giving the birds maximum security from public and predators alike.

"The decision on pen raised whoopers is one for the bird people to make," Dodgen said. "But it all points up the common problems of improvising and planning to meet the ever increasing pitfalls for all wildlife."

Facism Creeps Up While Commies Are Under Attack

By INEZ ROBB

Are the civil liberties handed us on a silver platter by our embattled ancestors to be lost by default in this generation to creeping Fascism?

Are we, the inheritors of the proud tradition of individual liberty and freedom of conscience, so lost to reason and honor that we will stand idle while the Bill of Rights is gutted?

Since World War II and the advent of McCarthyism, the very phrase "civil liberties" has become in many quarters two of the dirtiest words in our language. The crackpots and lunatic fringe of the extreme right have transmuted that golden phrase into the base metal of subversion and equated it, in their addled heads, with Communism.

But no blow struck at civil liberties is as sinister or as asinine as that dealt by the State Senate of New Jersey.

The State Senate's Republican majority has refused to confirm the appointment of Judge John Ogden Bigelow, a distinguished jurist, lawyer and citizen of the state, to the board of governors of Rutgers University solely because he represented a client who took recourse in the Fifth Amendment.

(It is completely beside the point that the 70-year-old jurist assumed the defense of this controversial client at the request of the Essex County Bar Association.)

Does this incredible action on the part of the Republican majority foreshadow the time:

(1) When a lawyer is to be assumed guilty of the crimes with which his client is charged?

(2) When that great bulwark of Anglo-Saxon justice, the assumption of innocence until proved guilty, is denied the accused and both he and his attorney are held guilty until proved innocent?

(3) When a man and his attorney in an unpopular cause can be hounded from society, even before a case is settled?

Does this predict a time in the near future when a man accused in a cause repugnant to popular opinion will be unable to obtain counsel, and thus be denied justice, because the legal profession will shy from the presumption of guilt by association?

You say this is nonsense? Yet these are the implications plainly and boldly written in the action of the New Jersey Senate majority.

How else can you interpret the idiotic, soap-opera statement of Wayne Dumont Jr., president of the Senate, in these self-serving words; "I would never have represented the type of client Judge Bigelow chose to represent. This is an issue bigger than either the Senate or Judge Bigelow."

This from the man who presides over the Senate of the first state in the nation to ratify the Bill of Rights!

Communism is an ever-present danger. But so is creeping Fascism. They are merely the opposite faces of the same counterfeit coin.

Bombay Woman Studying Our American Indian

By JANE EADS

WASHINGTON — Mrs. Eruch Hunsiff, of Bombay, the first East Indian seen in some parts of Africa when she went there several years ago as a missionary of the Baha'i faith, was welcomed by a war cry when a native mistook her for an American aborigine. That's when she first got interested in American Indians.

Now living in Washington, where her husband is second secretary of the Indian Embassy, Mrs. Hunsiff is off on an eight-week bus trip to visit two of our Western reservations in Arizona and New Mexico to meet members of the Apache and Navajo tribes. She is accompanied by her little daughter Jyoti, 9, who not only has a working knowledge of American slang but can carry on with Southern and and Texas drawls.

Her mother speaks 14 languages, but confines herself chiefly to French, English, Persian, or Hindustani, when lecturing before followers of her world-wide sect. Before taking off on her current visit to the American Indians however, she added the speech of the Navajos which she studied for weeks beforehand through linguistic records

Mrs. Ouida Wagner, beauteous Texan in charge of the British Overseas Airways Corporation's flight wardrobe advisory service, tells women the proper clothes to take on trips to various parts of the world.

She says most femmes take too many pairs of shoes. She's met some who tote eight pairs. Three should be plenty, she says, and one pair should be slippers for added comfort on long flights. Other tips include a basic color scheme requiring only one set of acessories; a large over-the-shoulder purse to leave the hands free; all-over prints, instead of cloths in solid pastel colors; soap and soap powder for many countries where there are no 24-hour laundries.

Good-looking, enthusiastic Mrs. Herbert Brownell, wife of the Attorney General, and an ardent baseball fan, especially when the New York Yankees are playing, will focus her attention on the convention arena instead of the baseball diamond this month.

"I haven't missed a Republican convention in the past 20 years," she says. "I'm an avid convention-sitter. I go to all the sessions and sit through most of them. I guess I just like to watch people."

Ex-Lawyer Song Writer Defends Rock-Roll Style

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—An ex-lawyer how has become one of America's top song writers today defended rock 'n' roll music as the happy offspring of the old-fashioned Gospel hymn.

"Those who call rock 'n' roll detrimental just don't know what makes people tick," said Samuel (Buck) Ran.

"To say that rock 'n' roll is the cause of juvenile delinquency is like saying that going to an American Legion meeting causes adult delinquency."

Ram, who well may end up a millionaire partly as a result of the wildfire popularity of rock 'n' roll, said few critics realized its origin.

"I don't like to break music down," he remarked, "but those who do break it down know rock 'n' roll isn't basically a new form. It comes from the old-fashioned, hand-clapping Gospel music.

"A lot of the rock 'n' roll hits were stolen from the popular old hymns sung at revivals. And Gospel music itself is a mixture of primitive African and Haitian jazz and English folks songs.

"Rock 'n' roll, like the old hymns, is what we call happy music. Its beat is emotional, and it has a mass effect on people. But that isn't bad. It is more often therapeutic. It gives people an outlet for their feelings."

Ram, a graying, big man, began his career as a boy symphony violinist. After breaking his left hand in a football scrimmage, he took up the saxophone and learned it in three weeks.

He practiced as a lawyer briefly after leaving college, then became a song writer. Among his early hits were "At Your Beck and Call," "I'll be Home for Christmas" and "Twilight Time."

He also served as arranger for the bands of Duke Ellington, the Dorsey brothers and Count Basie.

In the last year he has hit the music world's cash register again in a big way with such tunes as "The Great Pretender," "The Magic Touch," and "Only You."

Ram has published 500 songs, written and torn up twice that many more. He says a really breakthrough hit tune now can earn its author up to $100,000. It used to be about $20,000.

Policemen Get Call To Remove Bee Hive

NORFOLK, Va., (AP)—Patrolmen M. L. Everett and Gene Elmore were troubled by the call on the police radio. Bee hive? Yes, said the radio voice.

Accompanied by Sergeant J. S. Siler and a man from the SPCA they went to an address where a swarm of bees had sacked out for the night in a patch of weeds.

Somebody suggested a burlap bag. It was carefully lowered over the bees.

Johnny Lowe, representing the SPCA at the eviction, got stung on the finger.

RADIO-TV REPORT

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP) — Although it's very early to mention 1960, something will have to be done about television coverage of the national political conventions in that year.

Despite the fact the major networks performed an extraordinary feat in covering the Democrats in Chicago and the Republicans in San Francisco, this year, the widely advertised two week spectacular was a television flop on these scores:

1. Financial-wise, the networks took a shellacking. Coverage cost them a minimum of 17 million dollars, of which sponsors footed about 14 millions. This does not take into account the regular programs which were pre-empted.

2. Audience-wise, the networks apparently failed to compensate in prestige for what it cost in cash. A thorough compilation of estimated viewers will not ve available for some time. But a Trendex rating for the first three nights of the Democratic Convention shows the audience proportionately behind the estimated five-night audience of the 1952 Democratic Convention.

3. Political-wise, it seems doubtful if either the Democrats or Republicans succeeded in winning many friends or influencing many people via television. Astute politicians of both camps, trying to tailor their convention proceedings to TV, failed to recognize that television is basically show business. And a basic maxim of show business is that it's not enough just to be on; you have to be hot when you're on.

When Democrate National Chairman Paul Butler publicly rapped CBS for failure to show an entire party film on opening night, he sounded a depressing note.

Why must a television network be committed to covering every minute of a political convention?

It should not be, and it's reasonably certain that in 1960 it will not be.

The proceedings of many days at both conventions were worthy of little more than a couple of hours of audience viewing.

It's possible that the political tensions in 1960 will be such that almost full-length of coverage of the conventions will be indicated. Whatever the situation then, however, television journalism should treat it as the TV journalists view its merits—without political harassment.

With TV production costs rising steadily, the networks may have to tell the major parties: "We'll have to do it our way—or not at all."

Strack Low Amateur; Lamesan Low Pro In Tourney Here

Dr. Dean Strack of Snyder and Jimmy Adams of Lamesa were the big winners in yesterday's West Texas Pro-Amateur golf tournament at the Snyder Country Club.

Dr. Strack was the low amateur and also the low man of the entire field with a sizzling 66. Adams was the low pro for the day with a 68. Par is 70.

An even 100 golfers from all over the West Texas area took part in the tournament.

Foy Fanning, the pro at Abilene Municipal, captained the winning pro-amateur team. Fannnig's team recorded 121 points to best the second place team, captained by Lamesa's Adams, by six points.

Ross Dixon, Colorado City pro, captained the third place team who accumulated 112 points.

Other members of Fanning's winning team were Frank Freer, Lamesa; Theo Lamb, Snyder; and Gus Goettsche, Sweetwater.

Adams' second place team consisted of Don Scott, Snyder; D. H. Bartlett, Post; and T. H. Ray, San Angelo.

Dixon's team members were E. L. Powell, Big Spring; Max Dyer, Snyder; and Henry Midgley, Snyder.

Fanning was the second low pro of the day with a 69 with Jack Mann of Brownfield third with 71. Only the first three places among the pros figured in the money winnings.

John Paul Cain, Sweetwater and Texas Tech, was the second low amateur with an even par 70. Dr. Strack and Cain each received merchandise awards.

Yesterday's field included 90 amateurs and 10 pros. In addition to the winning pros previously mentioned, other pros on hand yesterday were Morgan Hampton, Abilene Country Club; Gene Pestridge, San Angelo; S. B. Patterson Ozona; C. A. DeWees, Big Spring Country Club; W. O. Maxwell, Big Spring Muninicipal; and James Dixon, Andrews.

The entry list yesterday set a new record for a pro-amateur tournament here.

Following is the way they finished in Thursday's tourney: (Unless otherwise indicated, player is from Snyder)

SPORTS

BUCKIN' THE LINE

By BUCK FRANCIS
News Sports Editor

BOB SMITH, ASSISTANT principal at Snyder Junior High, comes up the prize statement of the year.

Says Bob:

"I don't see why we don't elect Ben Hogan as president of the U. S. As long as we're going to have a "golfing president" we may as well have a good one.

Then an eastern sports scribe comes forth with another prize statement.

In a game following Ted Williams' "spitting episode" of which he drew a $5,000 fine, one of the eastern writers covering the Red Sox game said:

"Williams went spitless in three trips."

Sooner Fan Points Out Bowl Record

An Oklahoma fan writes in defense of the Sooner football team.

Our mail man handed us the following letter yesterday:

Dear Mr. Francis:

In the Aug. 21st issue of your paper you say that Oklahoma U. should not be rated as high as it is.

I think they should be rated that high because of the bowl games they play in. Coach Bud Wilkinson's record in bowl games is four wins and one loss.

Last year he beat Maryland, an undefeated team, soundly in the Orange Bowl.

I think Oklahoma is rated very good in pre-season and final polls.

Harry Bradley
Box 907
Snyder, Texas

Harry certainly has a point on the Sooner bowl record.

But wonder if the Sooners would have gained as many bowl bids had they played a tough schedule each year?

Bowl sponsors don't always succeed in landing the top teams. Many times the bowl officials have to invite the best teams at hand regardless of that team's record.

West Virginia's trip to the Sugar Bowl in 1955 is a shining example of this. Any team in the Southwest Conference could have beaten West Virginia that season.

Several Ex-Tigers In Coaching Ranks

As you know, football season is nearly upon us. When schoolboy gridders hit the practice fields next week, there will be at least four ex-Snyder High School gridders serving in the coaching ranks.

There are perhaps many more but the ones we know of and the school they'll be coaching at this season are:

Theo Rigsby, Alice, a 1932 graduate at SHS.

Charlie Boren, Joinerville, a 1945 graduate of SHS.

Raymond (Bubu) Bynum, Richardson, a 1954 graduate of SHS.

E. J. (Tiny) Moore, Levelland, a 1949 graduate of SHS.

Grant Teaff, Lubbock, a 1952 graduate of SHS.

If anyone knows of any other ex-Tigers in the coaching ranks we would be glad to hear from you.

AT WICHITA FALLS TONIGHT

Sooners After 1st Win In Oil Bowl

WICHITA FALLS (AP)—Oklahoma tries to break a maddening jinx in the Oil Bowl football game tonight but what may be the finest Texas team ever assembled for this all-star struggle indicates the Sooners will fail for the twelfth time.

Wild running Wahoo McDaniel of Midland and talented quarterback Charley Milstead of Tyler head up a blistering Texas offense that's a resounding favorite.

Oklahoma was worried about its ace quarterback, David Cross of Oklahoma City Northeast, who spent the night in a hospital trying to get rid of a cold. He's slated to start the game but may not be up to usual strength.

The Sooners are pinning their hopes on a hard-running backfield featuring Buster Hobby of Midwest City, considered by many as the top schoolboy player of all time in Oklahoma.

In the history of the series, Oklahoma has never been able to win a game but played a 6-6 tie in 1954 and the year before outplayed the Texans although losing 20-19. Last year Texas won 7-0, cashing in on a fumble.

Furnituremen Rally To Nip Ira Nine, 5-4

Snyder Furniture closed out its season last night with a come-from-behind 5-4 win over Ira at Towle Memorial Park.

Don Head's single drove in Neal Boyd with the winning run in the bottom of the seventh inning. Boyd scored from second base after drawing a walk and a sacrifice by Gary Vice.

Ira owned a 4-2 lead going into the bottom of the sixth but Snyder Furniture rallied to tie it up in the sixth and then win it in the seventh.

Snyder Furniture thus closed out second half play with a 6-3 record while Ira suffered its 9th loss in as many outings.

Junk Bowers went the distance for Snyder Furniture to pick up the win.

The curtain will fall on the 1956 City League season tonight when Hermleigh, the city champion, takes on Sun Oil.

Snyder 9's Win Tourney Tilts

Snyder's two entries in the Invitational Women's Softball Tournament here and Johnson-Connelly of Lubbock captured opening night victories last night at Towle Memorial Park.

The Snyder Blue Sox (Colored All-Star team) edged the Hamlin Sky Rockets, 6-5, in the first game; the Snyder Texettes nipped Iraan, 9-7, in the second game; and Johnson-Connelly rolled past Cabell's of Midland, 15-4, in the nightcap.

Three more games are on tap tonight. The schedule tonight is as follows:

6 p.m.—Snyder Texettes vs. Bronte.

7:30 p.m.—Snyder Blue Sox vs. Coahoma.

9:00 p.m.—Woody Tire of Lubbock vs. Johnson-Connelly of Lubbock.

The winners of the first two games tonight will meet in the semi-finals Saturday night at 7. Tonight's winner of the Johnson-Connelly and Woody Tire automatically advances into the finals.

Rose Nell Walker pitched the Snyder Blue Sox to victory last night, limiting Hamlin to only three hits.

The Blue Sox, however, had to push across a run in the bottom of the seventh inning to capture the decision. Going into the final frame tied up at 5-5 Gene Anderson singled, reached second on a fielder's choice, and scored on a single by Maxine Cox.

Anderson and Karen Sue Goff paced the Blue Sox attack with two hits apiece.

Ruby Medford went the distance for the Snyder Texettes in their victory over Iraan. Helen Fisher was the loser.

Kitty Henderson collected three hits in as many trips, all singles, to lead the Texette 13-hit attack. Wanda McNally, Janice Osborne and Juanita Farren each had two hits for the Texettes.

Sandra Perry, Georgia Davis and Helen Fisher each hit safely twice for Iraan.

Frances Jackson went all the way in pitching Johnson-Connelly past Midland in the night's finale. Jackson gave up seven hits, six of them coming in the last three innings after her mates had staked her to a commanding lead.

Milwaukee Braves Shun 'Choke' Talk

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

If Milwaukee is starting to show the strain of pressure, as some folks say, someone forgot to tell the Braves about it. Particularly Bobby Thomson, Hank Aaron and Johnny Logan.

They looked as though they didn't have a care in the world last night, protecting their two-game National League with a comeback 11-5 waltz over the Thomson's seventh major league grand-slammer tied it in the fourth and Aaron and Logan then homered as the Braves scored seven in the fifth.

The Phillies are the only club in the league with an edge (10-7) over Milwaukee.

The "pressure" talk started when Milwaukee dropped a 2-1 decision to the last-place New York Giants Wednesday.

Big Don Newcombe of Brooklyn put the suddenly revived Giants in a different light by becoming the first to win 20 in the majors this season, choking off the homer happy Cincinnati Redlegs 6-5. The third-place Redlegs set a club mark with three homers that upped their season total to 183.

The Giants, meanwhile, came within 1½ games of leaving the celler by defeating the seventh-place Chicago Cubs twice, 2-1 and 8-5. Fourth-place St. Louis also swept a pair, beating Pittsburgh 3-0 and 3-2 in a twi-nighter.

New York's Yankees were belted 8-3 and 6-4 by the Chicago White Sox, with Nellie Fox getting seventh straight hits. Second-place Cleveland was spilled 2-1 by Boston as Mel Parnell beat Bob Lemon in a pair of three-hitters. Baltimore beat Detroit 3-0 and Washington defeated Kansas City 5-3.

Southpaw Curt Simmons, who had won seven in a row, took his second straight defeat after Thomson's 17th home run—first since July 26—overcame matched a 4-0 Phillie lead set up on Stan Lopata's 26th and 27th home runs. Ray Crone gained the decision, his 10th victory, with relief help.

Vote For Clarence Wade

Candidate For County Commissioner

A Man Who Has The 'Know-How' To Properly Handle The Finances Involved In Serving You As Your County Commissioner!

HERE ARE SOME FACTS:

What do you know of your County Finances? Where does your tax dollar go? The Commissioner in Precinct No. 1 had available at January 1, 1956 the sum of $90,941.77, and to this date has spent the sum of $74,912.58, leaving a balance to complete the year of $16,029.19.

The Commissioner in Precinct No. 2 had available on January 1, 1956 the sum of $119,028.69, and to this date has spent the sum of $73,361.91, leaving a balance of $45,666.78 for the balance of the year.

The Commissioner in Precinct No. 3 had available on January 1, 1956 the sum of $132,333.49, and to this date has spent the sum of $41,472.40, leaving a balance of $90,761.09.

The Commissioner in Precinct No. 4 had available on January 1, 1956 the sum of $107,315.46, and to this date has spent the sum of $66,266.25, leaving a balance of $41,049.21.

The Commissioner of Precinct No. 1 has only $16,029,19 left to operate the last four months of the year . . . NOT ENOUGH MONEY TO PAY THE REGULAR EMPLOYEES in precinct No. 1 for the balance of the year.

In 1953-'54 During Clarence Wade's term in office there were 18.9 miles of paving completed in Precinct 1.

States Righters Schedule Meeting

By TIM PARKER

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — States Righters who don't like either the Republican or Democratic ticket will meet next month in Memphis, Tenn., to work out their own presidential campaign plans.

Indications the States Righters seek to broaden their scope were seen in the absence of mention of segregation and other regional issues in the announcement after an unannounced conference here yesterday.

The States Righters still aren't saying who their standard bearer will be. The Louisiana faction has endorsed former Internal Revenue Commissioner T. Coleman Andrews. A Tennessee man said Andrews, who now advocates abolishing the income tax, was among prospective nominees discussed at Jackson.

The Jackson meeting was at a downtown hotel. Reporters were not admitted and most men leaving and entering wouldn't give their names or say what the meeting was about.

At its windup, however, Circuit Judge M. M. McGowan of Jackson typed a statement for reporters.

It said the meeting brought together representatives of seven Southern states "interested in placing on the ballot on Nov. 6 presidential electors pledged to support candidates for president and vice president who are dedicated to state rights and constitutional government."

Sough Carolina, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Texas, Tennessee and Arkansas had representatives there for that purpose, he said. He added, without explaining why they were listed separately, that "Virginia and Florida had authorized representatives present."

The Sept. 14-15 Memphis meeting was called "to coordinate the efforts of all of the states, both North and South, which have already or are now preparing" to join the splinter movement.

McGowan has said the States Righters hope to gain a "balance of power" in the Electoral College and throw the presidential election into the U. S. House of Representatives, where each state has one vote.

Credit Curbs Are Put Into Effect

WASHINGTON (AP)—The lending rate of four federal reserve banks moved up to 3 per cent today in a move to curb credit and the threat of inflation.

The Federal Reserve Board's announcement of the action yesterday had been widely anticipated, and New York financial sources said they expected it to have little effect on the economy.

"The move means that the board feels the business outlook is good, because increases in the discount or lending rate to member banks come only when times are good," a reserve official said. "But it also means the board recognizes there are inflationary dangers and is hopeful the move will help to prevent possibility of boom or bust operations."

What the board did was to approve, effective today, discount rate hikes from 2¾ to 3 per cent at its reserve banks in New York, Chicago, Philadelphia and Richmond, Va.

This action puts these banks on a 3 per cent lending level with the Minneapolis and San Francisco banks, which jumped to that figure from 2½ per cent last April.

Within a matter of days the rate is expected to go up from 2¾ to 3 per cent at these other six banks in the federal reserve system: Boston, Cleveland, Atlanta, St. Louis, Dallas and Kansas City.

The discount rate is the interest rate at which reserve member banks may borrow from the federal reserve to meet the lending needs of their customers.

The 3 per cent gate is the highest since 1933, but the figure reached 7 and 8 per cent in the 1920s.

The current ground of increases is the sixth in 16 months. The rate was 1½ per cent at all 12 banks prior to April 1955.

Normally a rise in the discount rate causes higher interest rates on bank loans. In this case, however, the board's action was anticipated and banks in major cities controlling most of the financial operations raised the prime interest rate this week from 3¾ to 4 per cent. The prime rate applies to the banks' best customers with best credit ratings.

In New York, financial circles generally suggested the new hike in the discount rate would have little effect on the bond or stock market or on the growth of business. They said the big trouble now is not high interest rates but a shortage of funds to lend.

Texas Republicans Confident Of Win

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Texas Republicans expressed belief today the Republican National Convention had given a good kickoff to their campaign to put the state in the Eisenhower-Nixon column again.

John Adams of Harlingen, the Texas GOP chairman, said the state's delegates to the convention are going home confident of carrying the state again but "not with an idea that it will be an easy campaign."

As to the convention, Adams said:

"If dignity and unity mean anything, then our convention certainly was a contrast to the Democrats in Chicago."

"It may not have been exciting, but we didn't have anything to fight about. We came here with one purpose—to renominate President Eisenhower and Dick Nixon."

As to the Texas campaign, he said:

"We already have organized 233 of the 254 counties in the state. This is more than we ever have had before, and I think it may be more than the Democrats have organized."

Rep. Bruce Alger of Dallas, only Texas Republican in Congress, and a convention delegate, said he considered the GOP convention "far superior" to the Democratic meeting.

"All you had to do was to listen to the speeches here by former President Hoover, by Sen. Knowland and by many others," he said.

By contrast, 90 per cent of what we got from Chicago was half truths or outright misrepresentations."

Alger said he considered himself the No. 1 target of Texas Democrats this year, but declared "I'll make it again."

The congressman was given a boost by the President yesterday in the form of a picture taken while he was shaking hands with Eisenhower at his hotel suite.

Alger was one of 27 GOP candidates for Congress called to the suite. All are running in districts where the races figure to be tough.

Net Income Of Farmers To Be Higher

WASHINGTON (AP) — The 1956 net income of U.S. farmers will be somewhat higher than the $11,300,000,000 they earned in 1955—halting a five-year downward drift—the Agriculture Department says.

Acting Secretary of Agriculture True Morse said yesterday this prediction is based on figures for the first half of 1956.

"It will be the first year-to-year increase since 1951," he added.

No specific estimate of 1956 income was made. The department said higher prices in the second half of 1956 and 300 million dollars or so of government payments under the soil bank and wool programs will account for the gain.

The statement set farm marketing receipts for the first seven months of 1956 at $14,300,000,000, slightly above 1955. Prices for the rest of 1956 are expected to average above the same period last year, it said.

Production estimates said the cotton crop will be down 8 per cent, the corn crop down 3 per cent and oats and barley crops combined down about 21 per cent.

"Wheat production is about the same as last year," the report continued. "Output of livestock may top the record level of 1955, reflecting a big increase for poultry and a smaller gain for dairy products.

About the same beef output as last year was foreseen.

Sheffield Sentenced To 10 Years

LUBBOCK (AP)—Brady real estate operator B. R. Sheffield was convicted yesterday of forgery in a Veterans Land Program deal. His punishment was fixed at 10 years.

Sheffield opened his mouth slightly when the verdict was read and pulled hard on a cigarette when the sentence was recommended.

Mrs. Sheffield, sitting beside him, appeared stunned.

Defense counsel Everett Looney of Austin said a motion for a new trial would be made.

Judge Robert Bean said he would rule on a motion for a new trial before sentencing Sheffield.

Sheffield talked briefly with his family, then went with the sheriff to jail.

He will remain in jail until a new appeal bond is set.

Sheffield was indicted on two counts of forgery in the sale of a 10,000 acre South Texas ranch under the program.

The state alleged Sheffield engineered the block transaction and was in conspiracy with Bascom Giles, former land commissioner, to exploit the program. Giles is serving six years in connection with the same transaction.

Easy Carpet Cleaning Discovery Hailed

What is said to be the easiest and "cleaningest" home rug cleaner, known as Blue Lustre, is now available after years of research.

Blue Lustre leaves no foreign residue to cause rapid resoiling. The pile is left open and fluffy as the colors spring out like magic. So easy to apply with a long handle brush (like playing shuffleboard) and is safe for all types of carpets.

Use Blue Lustre to clean the entire carpet or remove spots and traffic lanes. It's economical to use as ½ gallon of consentrate cleans three 9 x 12 rugs.

J. RAY MARTIN

A Seasoned Lawyer Who Knows Both Sides

. . . FOR DISTRICT ATTORNEY

NO POLITICAL FRICTION

Unlike his opponent, J. RAY MARTIN did not seek political support for our District Judge's job before announcing for District Attorney. Nor has he encouraged any other official to eye the Judge's job to create a vacancy for himself. J. RAY MARTIN is no political conniver. He will cooperate with the elected District Judge. He will not run anybody's office, except his own—through the Grand Jury, or otherwise. Our District Judge does not need a District Attorney who will be a political thorn in his side for the next four years. J. RAY MARTIN shoots square with everyone—in the courtroom and out.

FAIR TO ALL

J. RAY MARTIN is the only candidate who has been FOR: "Liberty and Justice Equally Under the Law." He will respect the rights and dignity of every citizen in court. Every experienced lawyer knows that many defendants are ignorant of their rights in court, or do not have funds to hire a lawyer—so they plead "guilty." J. RAY MARTIN will not abuse the powers of his office to oppress such persons so that he may build a lop-sided record of convictions for political self-promotion.

QUALIFIED

A 36-year-old native Texan and veteran, J. RAY MARTIN'S candidacy to be your District Attorney is his first request for public service. His opponent has had two terms of public office, and seeks to stay on the public payroll four more years. A regular change of elected officials is good for the public interest. A new broom sweeps clean. J. RAY MARTIN is qualified by experience in Snyder and by education at North Texas State College and Columbia University. J. RAY MARITN has been commended by the highest criminal court in Texas, at Austin, for his skill in handling criminal matters—a rare honor in his profession.

Bandits Nab Cashier; Get Haul On Bank

RIO VISTA, Tex. (AP)—Two bandits kidnaped the vice president and cashier of the First State bank last night, forced him to open a bank safe, and fled with about $254 in change.

Doyle Ball, the victim, said two came to his Central Texas home last night as he sat watching television. He said both were armed and asked him for money.

Ball told them he didn't have any at the house, so one thug forced him to drive his own car to the bank. The other robbed him of $36 he had in his pocket. He said the two forced him to lie on the floor and they taped his hands, feet and mouth with adhesive tape.

Ball said after he heard them drive off he managed to work a knife out of his pocket and cut his feet loose. He said he was unable to free his hands, so he walked to a neighbor's house, where he was cut free.

Ball told Sheriff Earl King of Cleburne the gunmen forced him to keep his head turned away from them and that he never got a clear look at them. He said he didn't see their auto.

Rio Vista is about seven miles south of Cleburne on Highway 174.

American Soldiers Sentenced For Rape

WUERZBURG, Germany (AP) — Four American soldiers were sentenced today to life imprisonment and three others to 40 years each for the rape of a 15-year-old German school girl.

The seven, all Negroes, were convicted by a U. S. Army court-martial yesterday of the mass attack on the girl in the woods of nearby Bamberg last July 9. The trial started Aug. 7.

The blonde girl, whose name had been withheld because of her age, collapsed twice on the witness stand in describing how the soldiers raped her while her companion, Wilfried Pillokac, 22, a student, was restrained.

Report Given On Tourist Trade Here

At least 3 million of the annual income of Snyder businesses comes from tourist trade, according to Bill Davis, past president of the Snyder Motel Association.

Davis, in a talk before the Rotary Club at its weekly luncheon yesterday, said the $3 million contributed to the local economy compared to about $4.5 million on a 30,000-bale cotton crop.

The tourist industry is not as widely recognized in Texas as are other industries, such as the oil industry or agriculture. Still using local figures, Davis said tourists daily spend some $8,400 here. Of this, an average of $588 goes for amusement, $1,680 for lodging, $2,436 for meals, $1,764 for automobile expense, $420 for miscellaneous expenses, and $1,512 for retail sales.

The tourist traffic is growing by the year, Davis said, adding that by the end of this year about 17,300,000 Americans over 15 years old will have made a trip of at least 1,000 miles one way, and tourists will have spent at least $18 billion in the U. S.

Twenty-six states rank the tourist trade among the three largest industries, and two, New Mexico and New Jersey, rank it as their top industry. Texas is one of three states which do not promote tourist trade. There are efforts underway, Davis said, to get state promotion of the tourist industry.

The highways have become more lucrative annually. Last year, tourists spent $412 million in Texas, or $26 million more than the value of the 1955 cattle crop in the state.

During a 24-hour period some 3,730 tourist vehicles, with an average of 2.7 persons per car, travel through Snyder, or about 9,900 tourists daily. The average tourist in the U. S. spends $7.53 daily, so if Snyder's total daily tourist flow spent an entire day here, the total money spent would be about $74,247 daily, or $27 million annually.

Mayor Seeking Honor Guests For Celebration

CHESTERTOWN, Md. (AP)—Mayor Philip G. Wilmer wants to invite two persons to attend the town's 250th anniversary celebration October 5-13, but he doesn't know who they are.

Wilmer and celebration officials are looking for the nearest living descendents of two people who had a hand in the town's founding in 1706. They were Benedict Leonard Calvert, Baron of Baltimore, the 4th Lord Baltimore, who was Lord Propreitary of Maryland from 1679 to 1715, and Col. John Seymour, Colonial Governor of Maryland from 1704 to 1709.

Electrical Strike May Occur Soon

NEW YORK (AP) — A strike against the Western Electric Co., by 18,000 telephone equipment installers in 44 states could occur soon, Joseph Bierne, president of the Communications Workers of America, said today.

Beirne says a walkout "depends on the inclination of the company to reach an agreement."

A company spokesman said last night Western Elctric was willing to resume bargaining but wanted reasonable notice. Deadlocked negotiations continued in recess since Monday night.

The union executive board "set up the strike machinery of the entire union, for use in the event a satisfactory settlement is not forthcoming," Beirne said.

The 18,000 men involved install equipment in central exchanges of the Bell Telephone System, of which Western Electric is the manufacturing and equipment arm.

The union, which also represents other classes of employes, claims a strike by the installers would idle about 200,000 workers.

Bierne said an installers' strike across the nation would be "attended by picketing respect by our members" and would "disrupt orderly telephone service throughout the United States."

The union's bargaining committee "will seek a meeting with the company right away," he said, "and, if need be, the union is prepared for marathon bargaining in order to reach agreement."

The contract expired Saturday and the union agreed to continue work pending negotiations.

The union, which modified its original demand, now seeks a pay increase of 15 cents an hour across the board. The company, which upped its offer a small amount, has offered an average of 7.7 cents an hour increase. Pay has ranged from $1.38 to $2.36 an hour.

The union also is demanding a union shop, longer vacations, elimination of geographical pay differentials and other benefits.

Cecil To Take Bride In Arib-Type Wedding

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Cecil, the camel at Crandon Park Zoo will take an Australian bride, Cecelia, today in an Arab-type "ceremony" with oriental overtones.

The wedding announcement was made by Yank Taylor, publicity County Parks Department.

The "Voice of America" will cover the wedding for a world-wide radio broadcast.

Until recently the only camel at the zoo, Cecil's lonesome expression provoked the Miami Herald to start a campaign for donations toward the purchase of a bride. Purchasing agents found a mate in Australia and she is becoming acquainted with Cecil from an adjoining, but unconnected, lot.

Prosecutor's Wife Slain

GAINESVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Mrs. Marilyn Fagan, attractive 30-year-old wife of the Alachua County prosecuting attorney, was found shot to death at her home early today. Authorities sought a deaf mute for questioning.

The husband, Osee Fagan, found the body beside the front stoop when he returned home shortly after midnight. Mrs. Fagan had been shot through the heart.

Detective R. T. Angel said he believed it was a grudge slaying. He and Sheriff Joe Crevasse said a roundup was begun immediately of persons whom Fagan had sent to jail during his four years as county attorney.

The body was discovered by Fagan about 12:30 a.m. as he returned from a social gathering.

The Fagans' three young children were sleeping undisturbed.

Doctors at Alachua General Hospital said a single bullet entered the 30-year-old woman's chest near the heart.

Liechtenstein, a principality between Austria and Switzerland, is contained in 65 square miles.

Strike Of Safeway Workers Is Ended

DALLAS (AP) — A nine day strike at Safeway Stores main distribution warehouse at Garland ended yesterday with a wage accord with 18 truck repairmen.

The repairmen, members of the Assn. of Machinists Union, pulled off picket lines. Supply lines to the over 100 stores in this area were severely crippled by the strike.

Garage repairmen received a 3-year wage increase of 33¼ cents an hour. Pay increases of 10 per cent of the base rate of the regular employe scale will be given other members of the union.

Bee Caused Accident; It's In Hospital Too

BOISE, Idaho (AP) — A bee put Charles Backstron in the hospital.

Then Backstron found that the bee was in the hospital, too.

Backstron, driving through southern Idaho with his wife, stopped his car when the bee flew in the window.

Trying to catch the bee in a paper napkin box, he inadvertently stepped on the accelerator and sent his car into the ditch.

Recovering from his injuries in a Boise hospital yesterday, Backstron reached for a paper napkin. The bee was in the box, dead. He's caught it after all.

YOU IN THE CHURCH
THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial are molding religious character. Statesmen today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we "with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you" form a combination for good. Be a regular CHURCH-GOER and a daily BIBLE READER.

© WILLIAMS NEWSPAPER FEATURES Fort Worth, Texas

...That is the simplest form of prayer, the most elemental act of Christian devotion..."We thank Thee, Lord, for our daily food."

How is it at your house??? Is grace at meals a fixed habit where you live? Do you pause to offer homage to God for the edibles... the very things He alone can give? Or is your gratitude shown only once-in-a-while when the pastor is company, or when the children are all home for Thanksgiving dinner? How long is it, Dad, since the family heard your voice saying grace at the table...? or a word of simple prayer for their welfare...? or even bothered to urge another to say, "Thank you, Lord, for all these bounties???"

Dad,— Mother,— you owe your household this much of a godly heritage. Attend church regularly and say grace at mealtime. God will hear your supplication.

WHY BE A MEMBER OF THE CHURCH OF CHRIST?

BECAUSE IT WAS FOUNDED BY THE LORD JESUS CHRIST (MAT.16:16:18). If a church was founded by Henry VIII, John Calvin, John Wesley, John the Baptist, or Alexander Campbell it would be a human church—not divine. In keeping with His promise to build His church, Jesus gave the apostle Peter the authority (the "keys") to state the terms of admission into His church, and Peter was guided by the Holy Spirit (Matt. 16:19; John 14:26). BECAUSE IT WAS FOUNDED UPON THE RIGHT FOUNDATION—CHRIST (MATT. 16:15-18). Peter had just confessed Christ—"Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God." Jesus immediately confessed Peter—"And I say also unto thee, that thou art Peter . . . " Christ then promised to build His church upon "this rock." The "rock," therefore, must refer either to Christ's confession of Peter, or to Peter's confession of Christ. Many have been led to think that it has reference to Peter, since the word "Peter" means a rock or stone. But the Greek in which Jesus spoke will not permit this interpretation because two different words are used: "Thou art Peter ("Petros", masculine gender meaning a stone) and upon this rock ("petra", feminine gender meaning a ledge of stone) I will build my church" (Matt.16:18). This "rock" was the foundation ledge of the confession Peter had made concerning Christ—"Thou art the Christ . . . " Hence, the Lord's church was not founded upon the weakness of human flesh, but upon the divinity and Sonship of Christ. Other passages bear out this interpretation: 1Cor.3:10,11; Eph. 2:20; Isaiah 28:16—Jesus applied this prophecy to Himself (Matt.21:42-46); Peter applied it to Christ (Acts 4:10-12). Christ's church is resting on a tried stone, a sure foundation! That is why everyone should be a member of the church of Christ.

"THE CHURCHES OF CHRIST SALUTE YOU." (ROM.16:16). Tune in KSNY on Tuesday and Thursday at 7:15 p.m. and hear C. Dale Brooks.

Byrd Claims Cut In Tax Is Unlikely

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Byrd (D-Va) says the government is on an election year "spending spree" which may make tax cuts impossible.

Byrd said in a statement tax cuts are overdue, but he expressed doubt they can be made, or even that the budget can be kept in balance, "unless the executive authorities sharply curtail probable spending."

He said tax collections are pouring in "at an all-time peak" rate that may produce 70 billions or more revenue in the fiscal year ending next June 30, but that spending threatens to surpass that figure.

He issued his statement as chairman of both the tax-writing Senate Finance Committee and the Senate-House Committee on Reduction of Nonessential Federal Expenditures.

"The spending spree advocated in the President's budget for fiscal year 1957 which began July 1 was accelerated by Congress," Byrd said.

He said the President requested appropriations totaling $67,700,000,000 in the last session of Congress, while Congress actually appropriated $69,600,000,000, including 800 million dollars for the big new highway program.

He said Congress probably will vote even more money in supplemental appropriations after reconvening in January which would sop up all of the anticipated 7-billion-dollar income.

British Firm About Rebels

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP) — Britain stood firm today by her surrender terms for Greek rebels on Cyprus.

The colonial government refused to back down after the EOKA underground flatly rejected the British conditions and threatened to call off its week-old truce on this Mediterranean island bastion.

The guerrillas, fighting spearhead of the campaign to unite Cyprus with Greece, said in leaflets scattered broadside they would "regain freedom of action" if Britain did not reopen negotiations on the future of Cyprus by midnight Monday.

In reply, a British spokesman said his government "stands firm" on the surrender terms announced Wednesday by Gov. Sir John Harding.

Daniel And Yarborough Make Final Pitch To State Voters

By WHITEY SAWYER
The Associated Press

Ralph Yarborough and Price Daniel, runoff primary candidates for governor, made their final appeals for votes Friday. The election is Saturday.

Yarborough stumped the Fort Worth-Dallas area while Daniel was in Houston.

Daniel was greeted by about 450 persons at Beaumont Thursday night. He said his opponent's "campaign of smear and falsehoods during the last week of this campaign is not worthy of consideration by fairminded people of Texas."

Yarborough spoke at a rally at Denton, then returned to Dallas.

He asked voters to throw out what he called the "TAAM—Texas Assn. for the Advancement of Millionaires." He criticized "dollarcrats who run for governor with one foot on the Democratic ticket and one on the Republican."

Both candidates have urged supporters to get out a large vote.

Daniel pleaded for labor's support at Port Arthur.

"Go to the polls Saturday and vote as you please, not as the paid organizers ask you to vote," Daniel said. He said the first primary showed that "many independent-thinking members of organized labor disregarded the dictates of the paid organizers and voted for Price Daniel."

"I hate seen circulars and marked ballots suggesting that Texas union members vote for my opponent, but I have never subscribed to the belief that dues-paying members are less independent than anybody else," the senator said.

"Union members who voted for me on July 28 know that I have always been fair to the working man, both organized and unorganized," Daniel said.

Yarborough charged that the state has been without leadership for 20 years and said a vote for him was a "vote for good government in our time."

He said his platform called for $30 a month more for old folk, and 100 new dams for Texas rivers.

He criticized Daniel for "voting for lock land deals" when he was attorney general and held up what he said was his opponent's signature on the charter of U.S. Trust and Guaranty Co.

Yarborough said he had received telegrams of support from former U.S. Sen. Tom Connally and John Byers, former Harris County campaign manager for W. Lee O'Daniel. His headquarters at Austin said Mrs. R. D. Randolph of Houston, Democratic national committeewoman from Texas, has endorsed Yarborough.

Daniel said progress has been made in such fields as education, state care for mental and tubercular patients, and prisons, but that there is still room for improvement. He also said that the old age pensioners should have an increase that would bring their incomes in line with the cost of living.

Civil War Waif 102

FLORENCE, Ala. (AP) — A one-time Civil War waif who wrung from Abraham Lincoln an expression of pity celebrated his 102nd birthday yesterday.

George F. Mercer was a 7-year-old child at Fairfax, Va., when the Civil War broke out. His father joined the southern forces, but a brother enlisted in the Union army.

This so angered the father that he left George with friends at Raleigh, N.C.

The father died of typhoid fever and when the little boy finally reached Fairfax he found his home burned and his mother gone. He found her years later in Pittsburgh.

A Union general took George to Washington and introduced him to President Lincoln as an example of the tragedies inflicted by the struggle.

"This war must come to a close at once," said Lincoln.

Aid Is Sought In South Texas Cases

AUSTIN (AP)—Atty. Gen. Shepperd today said he will ask four or five top prosecutors in the state to help him redouble his office's efforts to try pending cases in South Texas this year.

South Texas and Duval County political king George Parr will continue to be the main target, Shepperd said.

The attorney general was in conference most of the afternoon yesterday with Dist. Atty. Sam Burris of Alice. Shepperd said they were discussing strategy on election suits now being heard at San Diego and future action against Parr.

"I'm going to call in four or five of the top prosecutors in the state Sept. 1, and we'll meet in Duval County the week of Sept. 3," Shepperd said. He said he could not name the men until they have accepted.

"We are going to try the Dobie Ranch civil suit against Parr in Cotulla Sept. 4 and 5," Shepperd said.

The Cotulla suit filed last year seeks title to the Dobie Ranch plus interest, rental fees, and oil royalties over an 11-year period. The suit alleges Parr bought the ranch with Duval County funds in 1945. Including interest, the suit seeks about $1,400,000.

Burris said two injunction suits will be heard Aug. 30 in 79th District Court to keep Parr's name and others off the general election ballot. Parr got enough votes in the primary to enter the runoff unopposed for Duval County sheriff.

The suits allege no candidate in the sheriff's race or the county commissioner's court place No. 2 received a vote majority.

Besides Parr, others named in the suits are Sheriff J. P. Stockwell, who was defeated by Parr, and Duval County Clerk A. Garcia Jr., and county commissioner's court candidates Maximo Martinez and Juan Leal Jr.

Garcia is named in both suits to keep him from printing the names on the ballots, Burris said.

Burris said none of the candidates would have a majority if the illegal and fraudulent votes cast in the July 28 primary were thrown out.

He said Parr would be tried Sept. 17 on charges of threatening the life of Tomas Molina, Duval County commissioner and an opponent to Parr. Parr walked into the Duval County courthouse with a rifle and threatened to kill Molina before Texas Rangers took away the weapon, Burris said.

Hot And Dry Continues To Be Prediction

By The Associated Press

Friday was another hot day in Texas with only a few clouds and no rain.

Dawn temperatures ranged from 60 at Dalhart to 79 at Galveston. Some lightning was reported near Beeville and Palacios.

Temperatures Thursday ranged from 105 at Seymour to 86 at Galveston. Some scattered showers were reported between Midland and El Paso.

Pleasant weather—a little cool and dry—was the outlook for Midwest and Northeast sections of the country today.

A fresh batch of cool air moved southward from Canada over the north central part of the country. It extended over the Great Lakes region, southwestward to Missouri and westward to the Dakotas. The cooling breezes were headed eastward and were expected to spread through the Ohio Valley to western Pennsylvania and New York during the day.

During the night there was a warming trend from Arkansas and Louisiana eastward to the coast and northeastward through the Ohio Valley to western Pennsylvania and New York during the day.

Showers and thundershowers that hit areas ahead of the cool air moving eastward from the Great Lakes region diminished during the night. However, moderate rainfall was reported from Ohio northeastward through Pennsylvania and New York.
