State Chief To Seek Second Elective Term

Governor Cites His Efforts To Balance Budget

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, March 23—Governor Coke R. Stevenson today announced his candidacy for Democratic renomination.

The governor will be seeking his second elective term. As lieutenant governor he became governor in succession to W. Lee O'Daniel in August, 1941, when O'Daniel took his seat in the United States Senate. Stevenson was the Democratic nominee for governor in 1942 and was elected to a full term in the general election of that year.

His announcement, long expected, was made at a press conference.

Puffing a briar pipe, Stevenson looked out the window, observed that the sun was shining and remarked:

"Well this looks like a good day to file notice of my candidacy with Charley Simons."

Simons is secretary of the state Democratic executive committee.

To Have No Platform

Answering a question the governor said he would have no platform, adding:

"I have gained the impression everywhere I go that most people appreciate the efforts made in my administration toward balancing the budget."

He was referring to the reduction in the general fund deficit which has dropped from $33,600,000 in 1941 to approximately $12,000,000.

Reduction Rate Increased

The rate of reduction has increased in the last calendar year and may be expedited even more if courts allow transfer of unused special fund balances to the general fund. The transfers were authorized in legislation recommended by Stevenson but are now involved in litigation.

The last legislature reduced general fund appropriations in line with Stevenson's recommendations for reductions consistent with efficiency.

The governor estimated the general fund deficit may decrease to $5,000,000 by next year.

No New Taxes

No new taxes have been recommended or voted during his administration.

The governor declared that a

Congress Must OK Lend-Lease

House Committee Adopts Amendment

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, March 23. — The House foreign affairs committee voted today to give Congress, rather than the President, the final say-so in the settlement of lend-lease contracts.

An amendment with this effect was written into the legislation extending lend-lease for another year beyond June 30. It was offered by Rep. Wadsworth (R-NY) and adopted unanimously before the entire bill was reported out for action by the House.

The amendment specified that "nothing is to be construed" in the extending of lend lease to "authorize the President in any final settlement to assume any obligations on the part of the United States with respect to post-war economic and military policy except as is consistent with constitutional procedure."

Considered By Senate

By inserting the constitutional procedure phase, Rep. Mundt (R-SD) explained, all lend lease settlements will be subject to consideration by the Senate, which passes on treaties, or by either house when a two-thirds majority votes to go into it.

America had disbursed $19,000,000,000 in lend lease to the Allies, a program styled by its supporters as the biggest weapon weilded against the Axis.

What to do about the ravaged populations as the conqueror's yoke is lifted was decided yesterday, the House adopting and sending to President Roosevelt legislation pledging U. S. participation in the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation administration.

The measure authorizes a $1,350,000,000 contribution to a United Nations "kitty" for the helpless of Europe and Asia. The organization, styled "UNRRA," is headed by Herbert H. Lehman, former governor of New York.

Solons Warned On Pay Scales

WASHINGTON, March 23. (AP)—Chairman William H. Davis of the War Labor board (WLB) warned Congress today that if subsidies are abandoned "we couldn't hold present wage scales."

He told the Senate banking committee the board meanwhile would continue to adhere to the little steel wage formula unless inquiries now underway should convince the members that it causes "gross inequities and injustice."

Davis departed from a prepared statement in which he said wage rates have been stablized when Senator Danaher (R-Conn) asked him if it was his purpose to "ask Congress to up the little steel formula" under which the board limits average wage scale increases to 15 per cent above January 1, 1941, levels.

Threat To War Effort

"We have no such purpose," Davis replied.

Earlier, Davis had declared that any attempt to limit "take home" earnings of workers might prove "disastrous to the war effort."

Davis contended in testifying before the Senate banking committee that WLB decisions on wage increase demands have not disturbed the basic living cost structure, and added that increases in actual earnings, not subject to wage rate controls, are not "inconsistent with objectives of the stabilization program."

He testified that basic hourly

Two States To Hold Elections Tomorrow

WASHINGTON, March 23 (AP)—Main and Louisiana lead off tomorrow in a seven-state series of political conventions and primaries that will name 217 Republican and 142 Democratic delegates for the national conventions by April 1.

In the busiest period of a dawning presidential campaign, Republicans will choose 13 delegates in Louisiana tomorrow, 14 in Minnesota Saturday (followed by 7 more on April 1), 85 in New York on March 28 (with 8 to be chosen later), and 23 in Iowa and 19 in Kansas both on March 31.

The Democrats will select 10 in Maine tomorrow, 10 in Arizona Saturday and 90 in New York on March 28 (with six to be chosen later).

Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York, who says he is not a candidate but who came to the defense of constitutional government in a letter made public here yesterday, apparently has collected the most support, with the bulk of North Carolina's 25 votes and a majority of New Mexico's eight claimed for him, as well as two definitely pledged to New Hampshire's 11. Supporters of Wendell L. Willkie claim six in New Hampshire. Florida's 15 were uninstructed. Four district delegates have already been chosen in Minnesota.

Wickard Envisions Air Farm Marketing

DETROIT, March 23 (AP)—Secretary Claude Wickard envisioned today "a very real prospect" of developing through air transport "a new and improved method of marketing some of our perishable farm products . . . and a new use for the vastly expanding air industry of this country."

Speaking at an "air cargo luncheon" sponsored by Wayne (Detroit) university and Detroit Board of Commerce, the agriculture secretary noted that tree and vine ripened fruits and vegetables flown from distant points, including the Caribbean area and Mexico, were served the guests. Some of them, he said, were picked only 24 hours earlier.

Deferments To Be Limited To Critical Work

Heavy Emphasis Laid On Invasion Weapons In List

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, March 23. — The War Production board, Army and Navy do not plan to recommend men under 26 for industrial deferments unless the items they are working on are rated as "critical" and urgently required to meet immediate war objectives, it was learned today.

An extremely tough policy, laying heavy emphasis on requirements for invasion weapons, was indicated in a letter tentatively drawn by C. E. Wilson, chairman of the production executive committee, to be sent to manufacturers, telling them exactly what to do if they have young men in the critical programs whom they believe to be irreplaceable.

May Change Letter

Informed sources said the letter is subject to possible changes by the representatives of WPB, Army, Navy and War Manpower commission on the production executive committee. This committee has been working out machinery by which state draft directors will be guided in deciding which men under 26 they will earmark for deferment.

But as it stood today, the war programs to be included were; Landing craft, including "ducks;" synthetic rubber and 100-octane gasoline plants; tires and tubes, both for aircraft and combat and heavy-duty trucks and buses, including necessary tire cord, fabric and molds; high tenacity rayon for war products; certain airplanes; certain types of radar; certain submarine plants; and a secret weapon.

The tentative letter said:

"The armed services and the WPB will limit their support of

U. S.-Finnish Break Is Near

WASHINGTON, March 23 (AP)—With American-Finnish relations dangling precariously on a thin thread of hope, Secretary of State Hull declared today that as far as he knew negotiations between Russia and Finland over armistice terms have not been terminated.

This meant that up to the time Hull spoke, at his mid-day press conference, the Russo-Finnish efforts to get Finland out of the war had not deteriorated to the point where the United States will be compelled to decide whether to break relations with Finland.

Hull said in response to a question that the American government is still hoping that the Finnish government may finally work away from Germany. He then was asked a direct question whether negotiations on peace terms had ended and he replied that he could not say that they had been terminated.

Break Is Obvious

The possibility of a break between the Washington and Helsinki governments was obvious.

The only thing believed capable of preventing final diplomatic rupture would be some official word that peace negotiations between the Finns and Russia have not collapsed completely.

Hope that such word would be forthcoming was very slight to informed quarters here. Nonetheless there was some reluctance to abandon all hope.

U. S. Principles Cited

On excellent authority it can be said that the American policy toward Finland is based on the following principles:

The United States has maintained relations with the Finns despite the fact that they are allies of Germany and enemies of Britain and Russia because American leaders thought that by so doing they would have more chance of getting Finland to quit the war.

Jap Forces Threaten Imphal On Two Sides

Enemy Makes Second Invasion Of India In 24 Hours; Japs Stronger On Burma Front

(By The Associated Press)

NEW DELHI, March 23. — Japanese columns invading India now threaten Imphal, key road center in Manipur, from the south and east, it was disclosed today when Allied headquarters told of an enemy force which has driven more than 80 miles up the lower Manipur river valley from Tiddim in the Chin hills area.

The headquarters statement said the column was 30 miles from Imphal.

This report of a second invasion of India within 24 hours by the Japanese ran counter to previous reports of activity in the Tiddim area, where earlier announcements indicated the enemy was confined within the Burma borders.

ALLIES LAND MYSTERY COLUMN

NEW DELHI, March 23 (U.P.) — A mystery column of Allied ground troops has landed squarely astride the main Mandalay-Myitkyina railway in northern Burma, it was revealed today, severing the lifeline of communications for thousands of Japanese in the north and imperilling the rear of other enemy forces moving across the Indian frontier on Imphal.

No Hint Of Jap Advance

Yesterday's report said an Allied force had been dispatched to "deal with Japanese outflanking units north of Tiddim," but gave no hint that the enemy had slammed 80 miles into India from the south as well as from the east.

The eastern Japanese invasion force was also reported about 30 miles away from Imphal.

The rice paddies of the Imphal plain would be readily adaptable to airstrips, if the Japanese have the planes available to use them.

When and if the fighting breaks into the open plain, the Allied air superiority against the almost non-existent or carefully husbanded Japanese air strength in this theater is expected to play a heavy role.

Japanese pressure appeared to be growing along the whole Burma front, although headquarters here said Allied troops were converging on the enemy invasion columns in India.

Action On Arakan Front

Headquarters said enemy activity was particularly noticeable on the Arakan front where Allied bombers and fighters are supporting a ground drive headed toward the coastal base of Akyab.

Monsoon weather lies scarcely more than a month ahead and the Japanese apparently are intent on capturing Imphal, southern terminus of the all-weather road which joins the Assam supply route to China, before the jungle fighting goes into its monsoon stalemate. Fall of Imphal would jeopardize all Allied positions in the northern Burma front.

In the Southwest Pacific, the Bismarck sea, rapidly becoming a graveyard for Japanese shipping, claimed three more enemy ships. Allied headquarters today listed one destroyer and two small cargo ships sunk off the New Guinea

Goal Of Fifth War Loan Is 16 Billion

WASHINGTON, March 23. (AP)—A $16,000,000,000 goal has been fixed for the Fifth War loan, Secretary Morgenthau disclosed today, "because we need it for the war and because we've been assured that we can get it."

The Treasurer chief told a news conference he wanted to correct "an unauthorized impression" that the goal would be $14,000,000,000, same as the Fourth War loan which brought in $16,730,000,000.

Saying he had been "smoked out" by the published reports, Morgenthau added a full announcement as to the date and type of securities would be made next week.

Hitler Summons Rumanian Boss

New 'Kidnaping' Is Indicated

(By The Associated Press)

LONDON, March 23.—Maneuvering swiftly to caulk his Balkan dike against the Russian flood, Adolf Hitler appeared today to be about to kidnap the Rumanian government as he already has abducted that of Hungary.

There were widespread reports that Premier Ion Antonescu of Rumania has been summoned to Hitler's presence as Admiral Nicholas Horthy, regent of Hungary, had gone before him. There was speculation that Antonescu was likely to be kicked out because of German suspicions that he was involved in peace overtures toward the Soviet.

Warning Is Broadcast

The British radio at once began broadcasting this warning to the Rumanians:

"Rumanian leaders have been called to Hitler's headquarters. If you oppose Germany, Germany will wreak vengeance on you, but if you oppose the Allies an even graver fate is in store. German transport is exposed and runs through Rumania. Concerted evidence of the desire to help the Allies now would be the first step toward Rumania's survival."

Germany's occupation of Rumania would be largely academic except as a measure for complete political control, for the country already is little more than a German camp area.

A German foreign office spokesman, according to a Berlin broadcast, "emphatically denied" that Horthy was held prisoner, that Premier Nicholas Kallay had escaped to southern Hungary and had sent out an appeal for help from abroad, and that Yugoslav Marshal Tito had established contact with Hungarian forces.

In the first official Nazi announcement since German armed forces crossed Hungary's borders early Monday, the Berlin radio said yesterday a new government had been formed in Budapest un-

Enemy Hurled Back In Bitter Cassino Battle

Allied Bombers Batter Enemy Supply Lines

(By The Associated Press)

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, Naples, March 23—Fifth Army forces doggedly flung back German attacks yesterday on their Cassino positions while in the air war Allied bombers struck sharply at enemy supply lines in northern Italy, Allied headquarters announced today.

In the southern section of Cassino, New Zealanders still were engaging the enemy at close quarters. Allied artillery knocked out a German tank emplaced in one wrecked building, raising to five the total destroyed in the week of fighting.

Allies Keep Up Attacks

Westward along the lower slopes of Monastery hill Allied forces kept up their attacks. The Germans counter-attacked against hill 193, a key height just northwest of the town early yesterday, but were thrown back, leaving 30 prisoners in Allied hands.

The Germans also lunged forward in two strong attacks in a new sector—near Monte Castellone, three miles northwest of Cassino, but French troops broke up and repulsed their formations with artillery fire.

Rail lines in northern Italy were hit heavily yesterday and last night, both heavy and lighter bombers participating.

Chaplin Trial Started Today

LOS ANGELES, March 23 (AP) — Gray-haired Charles Chaplin's answer to the government's charge that he violated the Mann act is that his motives were "legitimate, above board and honest" when he provided railroad tickets for a trip to New York by his former protegee, Joan Berry.

This was a portion of the reply by Chaplin's counsel, Jerry Giesler, to the opening statement in the government's case by Charles H. Carr, that the movie comedian engaged in intimacies with her in a New York hotel in 1942.

Giesler told the jury of seven women and five men that he would not endeavor to excuse the "propriety of any intimacy prior thereto." (The alleged intimacy in New York.) Then, Giesler added:

In opening his case in which he hopes to send Chaplin to the federal penitentiary, Carr said that Miss Berry, while under contract to Chaplin's studio, repeatedly asked the actor for permission to make a trip to New York, and

Big Argument On Anzio Beachhead Is Whether Nazi Shells Have Booster Charge Or Vacuum

BY GEORGE TUCKER
Associated Press Staff Writer

NAPLES, March 19 (Delayed)—To appreciate Anzio it is necessary to remember that the beachhead is shaped like a fan, the handle of which is a sort of funnel. The Germans are spread out all around the fan and their idea of fun is to see how many shells they can pour through the funnel.

Naturally, there are a lot of buildings at the end of the funnel and when you pour artillery fire into a bunch of buildings some of them are going to be hit.

Argue About Shells

Right now the big argument on the beach is whether those shells have a "booster" charge that explodes while they're still on their way, or whether it's a vacuum that gives off that scratching noise as they pass over your head. The subject is very controversial, and old friends have become bitter over the point.

I wouldn't pretend to know which it is, but I do know they always wait until they're right over your head before they do whatever it is they do.

During dinner the other night some captain from Boston told Ernie Pyle he knew it was vacuum.

"Well," said Pyle, "it's the first time I ever saw a vacuum throw shrapnel."

Have Good Food

We ate well on the beachhead. Some of the mess sergeants come up with the most unpredictable menus. The other day I was out with a tank destroyer outfit, commanded by Maj. Edward L. Austin, son of Senator Warren Austin of Burlington, Vt.

Austin looked at me and said, "you like meat. I mean meat that's real fresh?" When I nodded he went on.

"It's a funny thing. There are cows on this beachhead. Sometimes they get killed. In spite of anything you can do some cows just won't keep out of the way of bullets."

With light hearts we strolled over to a mess tent hidden in a grain field and ate all the fresh meat we could hold.

Bold Foray Hits Home Fields Of Enemy Airmen

Luftwaffe Believed To Have Taken Bait; German Radio Reports "Violent" Aerial Combat; Four Air Bases Are Attacked

(By The Associated Press)

LONDON, March 23. — Striking the second day in a row in the wake of a 1,000-plane RAF night raid aimed chiefly at Frankfurt, approximately 1,500 American bombers and fighters bombarded the German air force on its home bases in western Germany today.

The American raiding force, which included upwards of 503 Fortresses and Liberators, bombed the Brunswick district, the aircraft park at Werl, 40 miles east of Essen, Achmer air force station in Oldenburg to the south and the German bomber base at Handorf, a U. S. Army Air force announcement said.

The German air force apparently rose to the bait of the bold attack today for the German radio said "violent" air combats were fought with the extraordinary large number of fighters which accompanied the bombers.

PARIS AREA BOMBED

LONDON, March 23 (U.P.)—Radio Vichy said Allied planes bombed the Paris area at mid-day today.

The U. S. headquarters announcement said the Thunderbolts, Mustangs and Lightnings doing escort duty were in "very great strength."

Berlin Still Burning

Fires still burned in Berlin from yesterday's attack, and Stockholm dispatches said telephone communication with the Nazi capital was still cut 24 hours after the attack. Mosquito bombers, making a foray over Berlin last night, said the fires were visible 200 miles away.

American medium Marauders bombed the Ceil railroad center in France the third time in a week, and two airfields.

In opposing the Fortresses and Liberators the German fighters adopted a new tactic, the first returning Mustang pilots reported, and concentrated their passes on a small part of the attacking formations.

As a result, other Mustang pilots said, "We went almost to Russia without being able to find anyone to fight."

The first reports of the daylight aerial invasion came from the Germans who said in their broadcasts that bombers, presumably American Fortresses and Liberators, were following up their big attack on Berlin yesterday with blows at the western, central and northwestern reich.

Berlin Harassed Again

Berlin, attacked yesterday by 600 or more Flying Fortresses and Liberators and at least an equal number of fighters and with a bomb load of about 1,500 tons, was harassed again last night by Mosquitos which also hit other objectives in western Germany.

Altogether, the RAF announced, 33 aircraft were missing in the night operations.

The attack on Frankfurt, the 48th of the war and the 11th heavy bombardment the city has undergone, left fires burning and smoke rising to a great height, the Air ministry said.

It was the third time in a week that the RAF has sent out a force of over 1,000 planes.

Frankfurt Heavily Bombed

Probably well over 3,000 tons of bombs fell on Frankfurt, and this, with the tonnage dropped on

Reds Nearing Black Sea Base

Russians Continue Gains In Rumania

By EDDY GILMORE
Associated Press Staff Writer

MOSCOW, March 23.—Russian troops fought today within sight of the Black sea naval base of Nikolaev and drove into the hills of Bessarabia.

The battle for Nikolaev has begun and the Germans appear doomed.

Marshal Ivan S. Konev's mobile troops reached points 25 miles from the Prut river, where the Rumanians and Germans launched their invasion of Russia.

Two Rumanian divisions with German commanders and storm troops offered sharp resistance in the rolling hills, but failed to arrest the tremendous tempo of the Red army.

FIGHTING INSIDE KOVEL

LONDON, March 23 (AP)—The German high command said today that fighting was going on inside Kovel and northwest of that center below the Pripet marshes in the eastern part of old Poland—approximately 50 miles beyond the announced positions of the Red army.

German planes in great numbers sought to destroy bridges and roads behind the Russians, but bridges over the Dniester and southern Bug river were too numerous and the Red army was too strong.

BERLIN REPORTS OPENING OF NEW SOVIET DRIVE

LONDON, March 23. (AP)—Spearheads of the Red army have driven to within 25 miles of the Prut river border of Rumania below the fallen German bastion of Mogilev Podolski, Moscow dispatches indicated today, and Berlin reported the opening of a new Soviet offensive from the Tarnopol-Proskurov sector apparently aimed at trapping large Nazi forces in the Vinnitsa area.

An increased threat to Rumania developed as Marshal Ivan S. Konev's Second Ukrainian army widened its Dniester river bridge-

Bus Strike Affecting Five States Is Ended

NEW ORLEANS, March 23. (AP)—Paul S. Hennessey, general traffic manager of Teche-Greyhound lines, announced today that a two-day work stoppage of 800 bus drivers, maintenance crews and station agents of the lines in five southeastern states was ended at 6 a.m. and that full service was resumed.

Approximately 800 employees of the company which handles more than 30,000 passengers daily on its lines extending from Lake Charles, La., to Marianna, Fla., have been idle since Tuesday due to a controversy over discharge of several employes.

The decision to return to work followed a hearing yesterday before the Eighth Regional War Labor board at Dallas at which the board set a back-to-work deadline for noon today and instructed a tripartite panel to visit New Orleans to investigate the cause of work stoppage and fix responsibility.

Employes reported for work here at 6 a.m. and the buses started rolling shortly afterward. Resumption of activities was reported similarly from other cities.

Climax Of Vesuvius Eruption Due Today

POMPEI, March 23. (AP)—Mount Vesuvius continued to spew volcanic ash and cinders today, and although the rain of ashes was less intense in Pompei further report indicated crop damage was greater than at first surmised.

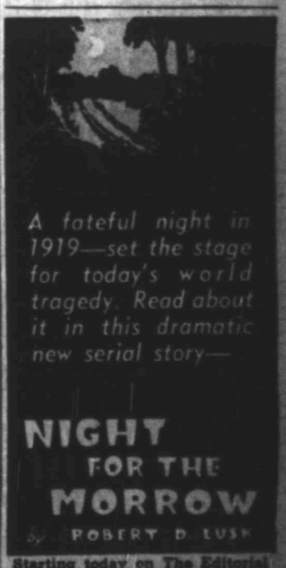

The eruption's climax was expected today by authorities who said Vesumius' rampages usually last five or six days. The present eruption started Saturday.

Many inhabitants of the area have fled afoot, wrapping children in blankets and holding washtubs over their own heads.

Gen. Gerald C. Brant Is Presented Medal

SAN ANTONIO, March 23. (AP)—Major Gen. Gerald C. Brant, commanding general of the Central Flying Training command, was presented with the Distinguished Service Medal at a review yesterday at Randolph field.

Election Eyed In Oklahoma

MUSKOGEE, Okla., March 23 (AP)—Oklahoma's second district congressional campaign moved into the final stage today, with Senator E. H. Moore declaring a Republican triumph might bring the fourth term movement to an end.

The contest, watched nationally as a barometer of 1944 political sentiment, is between Republican E. O. Clark and Democrat W. G. Stigler. The election in the normally Democratic district will be held Tuesday.

O'Daniel To Speak

Senator W. Lee O'Daniel (D-Tex) an outspoken New Deal critic, will follow Moore into the district today. He is scheduled to address a Clark rally at Muskogee tonight, although he said he was speaking merely against the New Deal and not necessarily for the candidate.

Senator Alben Barkley of Kentucky will speak for Stigler Monday at Okmulgee and Muskogee.

Moore took time to criticize Barkley in his address, declaring the Senate majority leader's "brave and courageous stand" on President Roosevelt's tax bill veto was nullified "under pressure and fear" when he sent "his truckling letter" to the White House.

Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. When they get tired and don't work right in the daytime, many people have to get up nights. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't neglect this condition and lose valuable, restful sleep.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may also cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

WLB Hearings On Wages Approved

WASHINGTON, March 23 (AP)—The War Labor board, after debating for five days whether to permit a panel hearing on relaxing wage controls, today approved two—one for the AFL and one for the CIO.

Then it quickly said that approving the hearings did not mean the board was committed to seek or not to seek a change in the "little steel" formula limiting general wage increases to 15 per cent above the January, 1941, level. This formula is embodied in an executive order from President Roosevelt and cannot be changed by the board.

The CIO hearing will begin Friday when the United Steel workers will present their wage case to a WLB panel. They are seeking a decision on 14 demands, foremost of which is an increase of 17 cents an hour admittedly in excess of the little steel formula. Details of the AFL panel hearings have not been arranged.

The decision on two hearings untangled a snarl growing out of AFL-CIO rivalry over which might get the credit if wage controls should be relaxed.

Aviation Industry Urges Deferments

WASHINGTON, March 23. (AP)—Two branches of the aviation industry — transport and engine manufacture — today spoke up for continued draft deferments for young skilled employes, asserting in both cases that more than a fourth of their technical workers were under 27 years of age.

James P. Murray, president of the Aeronautical Chamber of Commerce, said that 27.4 per cent of the engineers in the aircraft engine industry were under 27 years, and that 55.5 per cent were under 30. Both figures are exclusive of men classified 4-F because of physical disability.

Epidemic Blamed On Vegetable Insecticide

BAY CITY, March 23. (AP)—State, county and city health officers have expressed the tentative belief that an epidemic which caused illness to approximately 2,000 persons Sunday was due to arsenical insecticide sprayed on lettuce and other vegetables.

Meanwhile, state laboratory officials were seeking to determine the cause of the illness, whose symptoms were nausea, sometime violent, and diarrhea.

Some persons collapsed and a few suffered partial paralysis, while the attack in other cases was light, causing some nausea and severe abdominal pains.

All persons were warned against the use of fresh vegetables, particularly lettuce, until the investigators are sure what caused the illness.

Most of the victims are recovering rapidly.

Pipeline Plans Are Discussed

WASHINGTON, March 23 (AP) —The Senate's new 11-man oil committee today began an investigation into plans for a pipeline to transport oil products from the Persian gulf area to the Mediterranean—a project condemned by one senator as an attempt of the administration to get into the private oil business.

The criticism was made by Senator Moore (R-Okla) of a program sponsored by Interior Secretary Harold Ickes.

Meanwhile, a report by a U. S. technical mission tells of enormous oil deposits in the locale of the proposed pipeline.

The report, dated Feb. 1, four days before the Petroleum Reserve corporation (PRC) announced the pipeline agreement, said that:

The center of gravity of world oil production is shifting from the Gulf of Mexico-Caribbean area to the Persian gulf area and is likely to continue to shift until it is "firmly established" there.

Oil reserves either actually proved or indicated by already-discovered fields in Iran, Iraq, Saudi Arabia, Kuwait, and Oatar are between 25 and 27 billion barrels—comparable with United States reserves.

The three companies for whose oil the government intends to build a pipeline to the Mediterranean, and which have agreed to set aside a billion barrels for U. S. armed forces, are Standard of California, the Texas company and Gulf.

are pretty close together, so close the men on both sides can talk to each other. But they don't dare lift their heads above ground level. One of our boys wasn't feeling so good and asked an Army doctor to look at his throat.

"I think I've got diphtheria," the boy said.

"No, son," the doctor said, peering into the throat. "You haven't got diphtheria."

A German across the way yelled "the hell he hasn't." That's how close the lines are.

There is a church at Anzio known as the church of Saint Teresa. The Italians say the hand of God is on it. No shell or bomb fragment has ever touched it. The other night three enlisted men were caught in a raid and tried to get to it for shelter. They were picked up in the street almost in the shadow of the church, and there were shell marks all over that vicinity, but Saint Teresa still stands.

Rent Property In Zone 2 Registered

Registration of rental property in Zone No. 2 is being completed at the area rent office at 1415 Avenue Q, and by the time the office closes at 5 o'clock this afternoon the total for the first four days of registration should be well over the 2,000 mark, according to Earl W. A total of 1760 was reached for the first three days with the registration of 621 housing accommodations Wednesday, he said.

Landlords with property in Zone 3 will register their property Friday and Saturday. This zone is bounded on the east by College avenue, on the north by Nineteenth street, and takes in all territory south and west of these boundaries.

Heath also announced that registration for the city of Slaton would begin on April 6 and last three days. Officials there have announced that a suitable place would be provided for the registration.

Army Is Using New Re-Assigning Plan

CLINTON, Iowa, March 23. (AP) —A new system of re-assigning soldiers discharged from hospitals, designed to prevent giving a man duty unsuited to his physical condition or sending him to an improper climate, was described today by an officer of the War department general staff.

Col. E. C. Lynch told the details at a conference on the Army's recently - inaugurated "reconditioning" program.

Col. Lynch said the War department introduced these steps recently to overcome such difficulties:

1. Three personnel War department reassignment centers have been set up—at Fort Sam Houston, Texas; Camp Butner, N. C.; and Camp White, Ore. — where men who are no longer physically able to do the duty they had before hospitalization will be reassigned to a job appropriate to their experience or trained to do a new one.

2. Men who still can qualify for the Army or service where they served before, but whose physical condition warrants special consideration, such as a different climate, will be interviewed personally by a ground forces representative before being assigned.

Governor Stevenson

balanced budget was all the more imperative in view of the fact that state necessarily must increase appropriations in the postwar period. This is to provide for new buildings and repairs blocked by wartime priorities and for salary increases, he said. He estimated a general salary increase of 15 per cent for state workers would cost about $2,000,000 a year.

Stevenson said he planned no formal address, by radio or otherwise, to announce his candidacy for renomination.

Two Announced Opponents

The governor's only announced opponents for Democratic nomination to date are Virgil Arnold, attorney of Houston and Gene S. Porter, Waco, merchant. Porter was a candidate for governor in the first Democratic primary election two years ago.

Stevenson's long political career began with the county attorneyship of Kimble county in 1914. From 1918 to 1921 he was county judge. In 1928 he was elected to the house of representatives and re-elected four times thereafter. He was speaker of the house twice. Elected lieutenant-governor in 1938 he was re-elected to that office in which he was serving when elevated to the governorship.

Yanks Attack Nazi Air Bases

Berlin by the Americans yesterday, brought the bomb load tossed on the reich in the past 24 hours close to 5,000 tons.

Last night's attack probably was not as big, however, as the one on Stuttgart on Feb. 15, when more than 1,000 heavy bombers centered their whole force on that city.

The RAF hit Frankfurt unusually early, around 10:45 p.m., and unloaded showers of blockbusters for about half an hour.

An hour after it was over Mosquitos saw huge expanses of fire —into which they unloaded more high explosives—and columns of smoke soared a mile high.

RAF Liberators and Wellingtons.

Medium and light bombers also joined in the railway attacks with blows against bridges at Poggibonsi and Arezzo, south of Florence, and Popoli, in front of the Eighth army line.

German planes swept low over the Cassino area, shooting up Allied positions.

German artillery tried repeatedly to knock out bridges across the the Rapido below the town, but all their attempts failed.

Allied Shipping Attacked

Nazi aircraft attacked Allied shipping off the Anzio beachhead, but it was announced that they caused no damage.

In the heavy bomber mission against Verona, a formation of 20 enemy planes, including rocket-firing ships, attempted to intercept, but escorting Lightnings beat them off and shot down two.

Seven enemy aircraft were destroyed during the day, five of them falling to Spitfires in sweeps over the Anzio and Cassino sectors. The loss of four Allied planes was announced.

Fortress gunners shot down one of the German planes that attacked the bombers in the Verona area and Lt. Charles E. Simpson, of Gail route, Big Spring, Tex., a Lightning pilot, brought down another.

Dallas Man To Head Cotton Association

GALVESTON, March 23. (U.P.)—Roger Dixon, Dallas, was elected president of the Texas Cotton association at its 33rd annual meeting yesterday.

Approximately 150 members of the association registered for the one-day "war conference," which was devoted largely to discussion of post-war problems.

W. L. Walker, Houston, retiring president of the group, scored government encroachment on functions of private enterprise and said its continuance must be guarded against after the war.

He said returning soldiers would not be willing to live under a form of government "so closely approaching the ideals they have been fighting to defeat, although it may be called democracy."

Dream Of Military Regime Has Caused Petain To Accept Laval

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Taylor Henry's notes have just been released by the censorship division of customs, and he is beginning to write from his vast experience in France and German internment. The following is the real picture of Petain and Vichy.)

BY TAYLOR HENRY
Associated Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, N. Y., March 23—Phillipe Petain, France's Fascist-thinking chief of state, has been forced to accept Premier Pierre Laval's collaborationist policies with the Nazis in order to preserve a dream of his own for an authoritarian state in France.

Long a believer in a military type of regime for France, Petain seized upon her collapse as an opportunity to impose his own ideas of a semi-Fascist state under the guidance of one man.

Today, in the face of his inability to stop collaboration, he has become a figure-head behind whose reputation Laval carries out his collaborationist policies.

Feels Presence Necessary

Petain accepts the situation first of all because he feels his presence is necessary to the continuation of the new form of the French government, and secondly because he considers himself a symbol of ancient French glory by which there is some hope of keeping occupied France from disintegrating into open civil war.

Petain has been stripped of his last remaining anti-collaborationist advisers by the continued maneuvers of the German-inspired Laval.

The 86-year-old chief of state today probably is the loneliest man in France, surrounded by collaborationists who have been handpicked by Laval and the Nazi occupation authorities.

Admitted To Be Honest

He is generally admitted to be honest, even by Frenchmen opposed to his regime.

Frenchmen knew him to be a soldier, fond of discipline, who would likely impose an authoritarian regime. Many Frenchmen believed that in their country's state of collapse such a regime was necessary. They were willing to go along with him in his semi-Fascist ideas of a unitarian syndicalist state.

They remembered him as the hero of Verdun, an honest Frenchman and patriot who thought he was doing his honest best for his country.

What they forgot was that Petain has long been known as the defensive type of fighter frequently vacillating, seeking the line of least resistance.

Always Relied On Advisors

The marshal has always relied on the advice of those in whom he had confidence, often taking that of the last person with whom he talked.

So long as he were at least anti-German, if not pro-Allied, the aged marshal was able to exercise a steadying influence against giving France away to the Germans.

Today, the story has changed and the one-time hero of Verdun has lost any power he once might have had to stem the tide of collaboration. Virtually a prisoner of Laval, he rides the current, hoping his reputation will hold France to a semblance of unity.

Stands Alone Today

Today Petain stands alone, a symbol of what France might have been but stripped of any power to halt Laval's collaborationist policies.

France trusted Petain in 1940. Unfortunately, many Frenchmen still trust him today, not realizing his inability to halt Laval, hoping he still has an ace up his sleeve which will save France.

That blind trust in the marshal is Laval's main stock in the trade of government. He has sold it to the French people as a cover for his underhand deals with the Nazis.

Nazis In Hungary

der a Quisling premier and a German gauleiter.

Fate Of Hungary Is Example

The fate of Hungary was an example for countries failing to fall in line as Hitler strove to build up an eastern wall of defense against the fast-moving Russians.

Dispatches from neutral capitals continued to refer to Bulgaria and Rumania as possibly next on Hitler's list for full military occupation and added another—Slovakia, created from the carved-up state of Czecho-Slovakia.

A Daily Mail dispatch from Madrid said German airborne troops were seizing Bulgaria's railways and communications systems and had detained the Soviet ambassador and occupied the embassy in Sofia. Bulgaria and Russia have remained at peace although on opposite sides in the world conflict.

Rumania Too Weak

Most informed quarters in London viewed Rumania as too weak to be other than docile, particularly since the advancing Russians are knocking against her Prut river border. London dispatches from Ankara quoted rumors there that Hitler had promised Premier Ion Antonescu immediate return of Transylvania from Hungary as one inducement for full collaboration.

A Vichy broadcast heard by the Associated Press said Antonescu had gone to Hitler's headquarters for "important discussions."

A DNB propaganda broadcast, discussing the occupation of Hungary, declared that "Germany's Allies are entitled to far-sighted and careful planning in situations as they may arise in connection with the Bolshevist menace."

Chaplin On Trial

Chaplin persistently refused.

Those requests were made between April and June, 1942, Carr said.

No Business Relations

Carr emphasized his allegation that at this time there was no business relationship between the actor and 24-year-old Joan. Chaplin did arrange for her transportation, the United States attorney asserted, and in New York Miss Berry registered at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel and later at the Pierre hotel.

Meantime, Carr asserted, Chaplin had arrived in New York and Miss Berry visited him at the Waldorf-Astoria. A few days later Chaplin allegedly provided Joan with funds for the return trip to Hollywood.

Chaplin is charged with two counts of Mann act violation, one involving the asserted trip to New York and the other based on the return journey.

More Funds For WMC Asked By President

WASHINGTON, March 23. (AP)—President Roosevelt asked Congress today to appropriate $84,948,200 for expenses of the War Manpower commission (WMC) in the fiscal year beginning July 1.

The request is $7,076,000 more than the figure for the current fiscal year The White House said the extra money would let WMC maintain activities financed through supplemental appropriations during the later half of the 1944 fiscal year.

A program for continued allocation of available workers to war industries is included to facilitate shifting of workers from plants in which production may be curtailed to those with expanding production schedules.

Farley Is Opposed As State Chairman

ALBANY, N. Y., March 23 (AP)—Sentiment for stripping the New York state Democratic chairmanship from James A. Farley, considered a leading party foe of a fourth term for President Roosevelt, was voiced by the powerful Albany Democratic organization today.

John J. O'Connell, jr., chairman of the Albany county Democratic committee and nephew of Daniel P. O'Connell, veteran party leader, announced the organization was "in favor and support of" replacement of Farley and said it would back Thomas J. V. Cullen, of Goshen, for the chairmanship.

Albany Democrats, he added, would "go down the line" for Cullen at the organization meeting of the party's state committee, to be held within 15 days after election of members at the spring primaries next Tuesday.

Farley, questioned in Pittsburgh, replied:

"No comment on politics. I never talk politics while on a business trip. The meeting is two weeks off and we'll wait until it comes up."

Ellington Plane With Two Men Is Missing

ELLINGTON FIELD, March 23. (U.P.)—The public relations office announced today that a twin-engined training plane carrying two men was unreported and overdue from a routine "local" flight.

Aerial and ground search for the craft was underway. Next of kin of the two men had been notified.

Aboard the plane were:

Lt. John W. Beard, Houston, Air corps instructor, and Cadet James F. Bickel, 24, sons of Mrs. M. E. Bickel, Philadelphia.

HOUSES GO A-FLOATING

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., March 23 @ — Floating logs on a river is nothing new, but floating houses is something else. A local contractor floated 120 temporary houses from Point Pleasant, W. Va., to Camp Breckinridge, Ky., where they will be used to alleviate crowded housing conditions.

HAZY ON COLUMBUS

VANCEBURG, Ky., March 23 (U.P.) — The Rev. Ira Stout, local clergyman, taught a grade school class for a teacher who was ill. When the teacher returned to school, she asked her class how they liked their substitute. "Oh, fine," one little girl said. "But he knew a lot more about God than he did about Columbus."

1,000 Germans Slain

Marshal Gregory K. Zhukov's First Ukrainian army continued its slow but steady push southwest of Kremenets toward the large industrial center of Lwow. More than 1,000 Germans were killed, many prisoners and much booty captured in a single battle in this area, a Soviet bulletin asserted.

On the southeastern end of the 500-mile-long Ukrainian front, Gen. Rodion Y. Malinovsky's forces staggered the German line by capturing the important fortified railway junction of Pervomaisk, driving to the approaches of Vosnesensk, 85 miles northeast of Odessa, and reaching a point eight miles from Nikolaev on the Bug river estuary, Moscow announced.

Would Clear Path To Sea

Pervomaisk and Vosnesensk, 40 miles to the south, had been blocking the Russian advance on Nikolaev and Odessa. Fall of Vosnesensk, which appeared imminent, would clear the path to both Black sea ports.

Moscow, often silent when an important Soviet movement is in progress, made no mention of the German-reported drive from the Tarnopol sector, but Berlin described it as "a great flanking attack" in support of the Russian forces operating further south. The Nazi announcement said German forces were falling back under strong pressure by infantry and tanks.

Stevenson Tries To Boost Prison Funds

AUSTIN, March 23. (U.P.)—Gov. Coke R. Stevenson called for financial reports today to see if he can keep the state prison system supplied until next September with funds for gasoline, telegraph, telephone and messenger service.

The governor is limited to $200,000 total in the amount of "deficiency appropriation" he can authorize.

In order to prevent adjustment of the regular session of the legislature without an appropriation bill, he promised he would supplement liquor board appropriations with $70,000 deficiency appropriation if needed.

The liquor board has been operating within its direct appropriation and Stevenson said it might be possible to help the prison system some.

Try Hot Water After Meals For Acid Indigestion

If the thousands of unfortunate people who suffer from so-called dyspepsia, acid indigestion, food fermentation, sour stomach, flatulence, gas or other stomach distress brought on by excess acid would just try drinking slowly after each upsetting meal a glass of real hot water containing one spoonful of Neutracid they might soon find themselves able to eat good nourishing meals without the distressing symptoms of acid indigestion.

Neutracid is not a laxative — it is soothing and comforting to the mucous membranes and very agreeable to take. Neutracid — a physician's formula — can now be obtained at Mark Halsey Drug or any first class drug store. Adv.

Deferment Policy

recommendations for deferment of workers in this age group (22 through 25) to those plants in which production of specified urgent war programs, listed on the attached schedule, is so critical that the output of end products is insufficient to supply immediate war objectives."

Limited To Individual Cases

Even then, it was stated, recomendations will be limited "only to specific individuals engaged in work in those plants and programs requiring extreme and specialized skill or knowledge or a high educational or specified qualification; and then only when the individual worker is irreplaceable from other less urgent work within the plant or by recruitment."

Meanwhile there were these other developments in the turbulent military and civilian manpower situation:

(1) The Army announced the transfer to ground duty of 36,000 young men who had been earmarked for air training—an effort to make up for a general shortage of ground forces.

(2) A high military official reported that draft boards had been failing for 13 months to meet the calls of the armed forces and asserted that "the time has arrived when we must have the fighting men we need."

(3) Plans were made for congressional inquiry into charges that the draft has been used as a lever to force farmers into government agricultural programs.

In transferring the 36,000 candidates for flight training to ground duty the Air forces also announced new enlistments of 17-year-olds in the Air Corps enlisted reserve had been temporarily suspended. However, training of those already enrolled will continue and these reserve enlistments will be resumed at a future date. Applications may still be filed by the 17-year-olds during the suspension.

Errors Mar Tigers' Intra-Squad Opener

Novikoff-Starr Swap Rumored

NEW YORK, March 23 (AP) — Maybe it isn't a true forecast of what war-riddled baseball will be like in 1944—but the Detroit Tiger regulars made nine errors in booting away their frist intrasquad game yesterday to the Yannigans, 8 to 3.

From Cincinnati comes the news that the reason Ray Starr doesn't want to pitch for the Reds is that they won't let him hurl every other day to keep his rubber arm in trim. Last year he was on the hill 217 innings in winning 11 and losing 10. There's a rumor the Reds might try to swap Ray to the Chicago Cubs for Lou Novikoff, who would come in handy in the Cincinnati garden.

CARDS' COACH HAS DIPHTHERIA

CAIRO, Ill., March 23 (AP) — The National league champion St. Louis Cardinals today faced the possibility of a quarantine for diphtheria, which if enforced may keep them from opening their schedule on time.

The team was given preventive inoculations last night after Coach Buzzy Wares was stricken with the disease. He had mingled with the squad during the day and complained of what he thought was a throat infection. Examination by physicians revealed he had diphtheria.

The board of health indicated he would be taken to the isolation ward of the local hospital today.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

CHICAGO (French Lick): Mgr. Jimmy Wilson says he's definitely set on Harry (Peanuts) Lowery for third base when he arrives next week.

BOSTON (Wallingford, Conn.): Mike Sandlock, ex-catcher turned infielder, is worrying 4-F Whitey Wietelman about shortstop job with classy fielding.

ST. LOUIS (Cairo, Ill): Big Mort Cooper expected to give Billy Southworth a chance to make him salary-happy in day or so.

BROOKLYN (Bear Mountain, N. Y.): Southpaw Fred Ostermueller (won 0, lost 2 for Browns in '43) arrives, expected to sign today.

NEW YORK (Lakewood, N. J.): Ace T. Adams, who won 11 and lost seven last year, wired he'd be on hand Friday—but he hasn't accepted terms yet.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

CHICAGO (French Lick, Ind.): Manager Jimmy Dykes says "we should finish in first division." (Fourth last year.) Relief Pitcher Joe Haynes only holdout, and V. P. Harry Grabiner sees no difficulty coming to terms.

CLEVELAND (Lafayette, Ind): Mel Harder and Oris Hockett, long-missing vets, took part in first drill, braving chill winds for intra-squad game.

BOSTON (Medford, Mass.): Squad jumps to seven as Pitcher Yank Terry and Outfielder Johnny Lazor report.

PHILADELPHIA (Frederick, Md.): Luke Hamlin (won 21 lost 8 for Toronto last year) arrived with "soft potato pitch"—a new change of pace—and said he was ready to sign. Connie Mack offered him $5,500.

NEW YORK (Atlantic City, N. J.): Catcher Joe Glenn leaves today for Navy, but Outfielder Roy Weatherly is coming in Tuesday for an undetermined stay. He's passed his induction test.

"Rocket Ball" Stirs Wave Of Speculation In Indians' Camp

LAFAYETTE, Ind., March 23 (AP) —Conversation in the Cleveland Indians spring training quarters today turned from 1-A and 4-F draft classifications to the 1944 "rocket ball."

No one was giving much thought about the new sphere until 155 pound Jimmy Grant ups and slams a 400-foot home run. Then he ups and hits a long two bagger. Then Pat Seerey, a .222 batter in 26 games with the Tribe last year, got the urge and smacked a homer.

The immediate reaction was that all was not normal. Manager Lou Boudreau was quick to credit the uprising to the ball rather than to any outcropping of latent power.

"If the cover was any tighter it would be a golf ball," Boudreau said as he fondled it. "It actually has a ping when it's hit."

Mel Harder, anxious to start the season, as he looks forward to reaching the select 200-game winning circle—he needs only three victories to do it—figures the ball will be something of a lifesaver to the game.

"I don't think it will make any difference to the pitchers," he theorized, "but I think the game needed something like this ball this season to make hitters out of guys who normally aren't. After all, the fans go to a game to see the ball smacked around. And with most of the power-hitters gone, this new ball, if it is as lively as they say, has come at an opportune time and will take up the slack."

Junior Track Meet Set Here April 15

Invitations were mailed Wednesday afternoon to 32 schools in this area in behalf of the Junior High school invitation track and field carnival here April 15, E. J. "Pinkey" Lowrey, athletic director of Lubbock schools has announced.

Lowrey said that the renewal of this event, which was formerly an annual sports feature of Lubbock, was in keeping with the stepped up athletic program for Lubbock schools as adopted last winter by the Lubbock school board.

The meet is strictly for boys in the seventh, eighth and ninth grades in schools and offers the boys the chance to get into active combat in track events.

Lowrey also added Wednesday night that any other schools interested in the meet, but not included in the list of invitations, write him in care of Lubbock High school for entry blanks.

Two-Day Program Of Athletics Here Opens With Junior High Track Meet This Afternoon

The Junior High track meet this afternoon at 4 o'clock at Chapman Field will launch two days of school athletics which will reach a peak Friday in a dual track meet at the same site, and a triangular tennis meet at the Dupre courts.

The Cowboy trackmen have been divided into two squads under Coaches Curtis Barrett and Russell Wimberley and will battle through 13 events on today's program for the big meet here April 15.

The events named for the meet will include the shot put, discus, pole vault, broad jump and high jump as field events. The track events will include the 100 yard low hurdles, 50, 100 and 200 yard dashes, the quarter mile and half mile runs, the 440 and 880 yard relays.

The first call for track hopefuls at Junior High drew out a squad of 150 boys. Since that first call was issued, the squad has been reduced to almost half, and 75 boys will take part in this afternoon's meet, the first clash between the Cowboy trackmen.

Friday will bring forth another track meet, a dual affair between the Lubbock Westerners and the Amarillo Golden Sandies. Invitations were forwarded to all schools in Class 1-AA, but Amarillo was the only one to accept the invitation.

E. J. "Pinkey" Lowrey, athletic director at Lubbock, was informed by Brownfield and Plainview schools that they had no track teams, and Pampa and Borger has offered no replies.

The Amarillo Sandies have been reported to have another powerful squad under the guiding hand of Coach Howard "Bull" Lynch and are expected to bring about 35 boys to Lubbock for the meet.

Five of the Golden Sandies entered the Fat Stock Show meet in Fort Worth last week.

At the same time as the dual track meet, a triangular tennis meet will be run off at the Dupre courts just south of the high school will teams from Amarillo and Quanah playing against the Westerners.

Amarillo will bring a full tennis team of boys and girls for both singles and doubles, but Quanah will enter only the singles and doubles boys teams. The tennis events will start at 2:30 o'clock.

Before World War II the United States imported more than a million tons of cinnamon from Ceylon annually.

Sports Roundup

BY HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, March 23—When Bert Kenmuir, who signed to pitch for the Oakland Pacific Coast league baseball club this year was heading for training camp at San Bernardino, Calif., the friend who was driving suggested that they pick up another Oakland player . . . The newcomer, Infielder Howard Anderson, started a conventional acknowledgment of the introduction then burst out "Guadalcanal and." . . . "The naval hospital at Oak Knoll," Kenmuir completed the sentence . . . Both former sailors, they had met at Guadalcanal and later in the hospital . . . They hadn't learned each others' names then, though both were Los Angeles boys . . . To complete the coincidence, both played for the Hollywood Stars part of last season, but not at the same time . . . Now they're roommates at the Oaks' camp and hope to remain together through the season.

"But I ain't askin' for much on it—just enough for a bowl of Wheaties!"

Wheaties cost very little — and they give a lot of satisfaction. They're chuck full of solid nourishment. And they're loaded with the kind of flavor that makes and keeps friends. Wheaties are easy to get and mighty easy to take.

That Girl on Broadway says the person who is given to saying he has no bad habits adds another to the inevitable list by lying.

It's a foolish wife who thinks if she gives her husband a little rope, he'll skip; the wise wife knows the best way to hold a husband is to turn him loose now and then.

WE have always wondered what happened to the fellow who used to name Pullman cars, promote flag-pole sitting tournaments, bunion derbies and dance marathons—but now we believe we've located him. From all indications, he's now a brass hat in the Western Training command headquarters of the U. S. Air Forces in Santa Ana, Cal.

Certainly, the officer who concocted some of the rules applied to pre-flighters at Texas Tech is a man of great imagination, if not vision. If he didn't turn his peacetime talents to the channels above listed, he missed a wonderful opportunity. Unless, of course, he was a New Deal economist.

We realize that there must be regulations governing the young men of the armed forces.

We also realize the great part discipline plays in the formation of an army.

But we realize, too, that regulations and discipline will never do for an army, or the individuals in it, what they're supposed to do if they aren't based on something closely resembling horse sense.

And some of the regulations applied to the pre-flighters at Tech are of the type upon which is based the well known adage of uniformed men in all ranks and grades:

"There are three ways of doing everything; the right way, the wrong way—and the Army way, and sometimes it looks like there are only two ways!"

FOR instance, our regulations thinker-upper in Santa Ana gives the pre-flighters weekly time off each Saturday from 2:30 p. m., until 2 a. m., the following Sunday morning. Then they have to scurry back to their barracks and remain there until 6 a. m., when they're free until 4 p. m.

On week-day afternoons, the youngsters get an hour following retreat—which means from 7 p. m. until 8 p. m. However, during that hour they may not get farther away from taw than College avenue between Main and Fourteenth streets.

Perhaps the regulations wouldn't be so bad if all the pre-flighters were single lads. After all, it's no hardship to demand that single bucks be in their barracks bunks by 2 a. m. on Sundays, and curtail their week-day roaming to a part of College avenue.

But many of the pre-flighters are married and their wives are here, living in rooms and apartments adjacent to College avenue between Tenth and Nineteenth streets. The rule which insists that all pre-flighters be in their barracks between 2 a. m. and 6 a. m., Sundays, breaks up week-end trysts between husbands and wives and serves no good purpose, since there is no program of work between those hours. The boys affected merely crawl out of one bed, dress, walk to their barracks, undress and crawl into another bed. There they remain until 6 a. m., when they get up, dress and rejoin their wives.

Regarding the week-day free periods, the Rajah of Regulations at Santa Ana has figured out another dandy.

Daily, between 7 and 8 p. m., the married pre-flighters may meet their wives and chat about the weather, PROVIDING they show no evidence of affection—including hand-holding.

It's all right for them to sit in a drugstore booth and sip soft drinks; they may even stroll slowly back and forth on the sidewalk between Main and Fourteenth on College. But if the wife happens to have a room or an apartment 50 feet off College avenue, she and her husband may not repair there-to. They must remain in the public eye and woe be unto the poor pre-flighter whose young wife, in the exuberance of youth, snuggles up to his arm as they trudge along!

WE have no idea of the identity of the Western Training command's thinker-upper of regulations, but we'll bet his Army job is no more confining than a civilian office job, and that if he were a combat wing commander he'd pay more attention to dress and salutes of the men under him than he would in number of enemy planes they downed, or enemy targets they hit.

We say this because the poorest stickler for form in the Air Forces is the flying general who has done the most with the least: Chennault, of China!

Bob Burns is the only person we've ever heard of who got rich by talking about his blood relations as if they were in-laws.

THE next time you hear a radio announcer blithely say that the program he's ballyhooing is being "beamed by short-wave to our fighting men everywhere," take the statement with a handful — not just a grain — of salt.

In the first place, the difference in time between the U. S. and the various fighting fronts makes much of such "beaming" impossible of service to listeners.

In the second place, our fighting men are often fairly busy with other matters — too busy, anyway, to be sitting around listening to the radio.

And in the third place, at least some of the widely heralded "beaming to service men" is plain, unadulterated baloney.

H. J. Kendrick, the rural mail carrier, the other day told us a story indicative of the real picture in this regard. He got his information "straight from the feed-box" —from a Lubbock young man then home on furlough from the South Pacific.

The Lubbock young man was Coleman McSpadden, son of Mr. and C. A. McSpadden, who live two blocks south of Thirty-fourth street on a conjunction of Avenues U and V. In conversation with Mr. Kendrick, Seabee McSpadden said he and his mates never heard the song "Pistol Packin' Mama" until they picked it up from a Jap propaganda broadcast.

Everyone remembers a few weeks ago when "Pistol Packin' Mama" literally jammed the U. S. air waves and was on all the musical programs allegedly "beamed by short-wave to our fighting men everywhere."

Thus, if the "beaming" is really being done, as advertised, something happens to it before it gets to its goal!

* * *

OUR very good friend, Morris Levine, called us on the telephone the other day in high good humor. In fact, Morris was giggling so much when he opened the conversation that The Plainsman didn't recognize his voice.

When he finally controlled himself, Morris explained:

"I have just read a letter from a New York manufacturer, explaining why he could not ship our stores some gloves, as ordered. In the last paragraph, the manufacturer says:

"'In fact, the only thing the government will let us do these days without official approval is furnish the capital!'"

By golly, the guy's got something there!

Night For The Morrow

By ROBERT D. LUSK
(Copyright, 1944, NEA Service, Inc.)

I

THE man reached the top of the hill, cursing inwardly the dumb perversity of young critters which caused them to become lost; cursing also his own carelessness in failing to bring a flashlight. It was becoming quite dark. He paused to look at the luminous dial of his wrist watch. He smiled. It always amused him that he should be wearing a wrist watch. A couple of years ago such a watch was a part of the unmasculine make-up of the dude. But the war had changed this, just as it had changed the attitude toward cigarets, as it had changed many other things.

It was not really late, but darkness came early the latter part of that September in 1919. The man stood at the summit of the small hill, pondering in which direction he should go now or whether it might not be wiser to go to the house, have supper, and come back with a light.

He breathed deeply of the sharp, heady air. It was a magnificent evening, typical of autumn in the high plains of southeastern Colorado. He loved these fall evenings. They were part of the reward of living in the land where the prairies lifted themselves upward to meet the tremendous heights of the Rockies. Looking back over the last dozen years the man could remember scorces of evenings just like this one.

There was nothing, then, about this evening to set it apart from others before or since. There was no sign. There was nothing to warn the man that the events of this evening would stalk him until his dying day. There was nothing portentous to mark this night for the rest of the world, to set it apart as one which for decades would shape the destinies of men living and yet to live, which would throw the world into mad confusion, which would drive millions of men and women and children yet undreamed into misery and death.

The man was completely unaware, as were his fellow men, of what was to transpire that night. His thoughts were on the vague outlines of the hills, on the fresh breeze which blew from the east and entered his nostrils like the bouquet of a rare wine, on the thousands of stars in the arched heavens.

SUDDENLY, a sound roused him from his pleasurable thoughts. It was the long wail of a train whistle echoing up from the Arkansas river valley to the south. His forehead wrinkled in puzzlement. He was fairly familiar with the schedule of the trains. None that he could recall was due to pass by at this hour. Maybe the train was late; possibly there had been an accident. But this was idle speculation. Whatever, it was no concern of his. He dismissed the train from his mind.

His thoughts back on the seven spring calves which had strayed that afternoon, the man swung down the easy slope of the hill into a ravine. He headed southward through the widening, dry run. He zigzagged his course to cover all of its area. Surely seven sizable critters couldn't have disappeared completely into the earth.

It was fully 20 minutes before he came to the barbed wire fence that protected the south end of his property. He turned to his left and started to climb the other side of the ravine, keeping close to the fence. It was not quite so dark at the top of the hill as it had been in the gulch. He could make out the forms of low trees silhouetted against the sky. But it was too dark to carry on this hunt. Damn the calves. He would go back to the house now.

He was about to turn north, when he heard a sound. At first he thought it was the bawling of a distant calf. Then it was clearer. It was a human voice.

"Quick, quick!" it said.

Startled, the man looked in the direction of the sound. He could see nothing. He moved to the fence, grasping the strand of top wire, peering into the darkness beyond.

"Hello," the man yelled. "Hello, who's there?"

"Quick, come quickly," the voice replied.

THE man crawled between the wires and followed the voice at a rapid pace. In a moment he could make out a dark form. It was standing at the side of the dusty country road which skirted the low, breaking hills. When the man reached the side of the dim figure, in the darkness he could see but few features. Whoever the person was, he was of average height. He was not emaciated, but the unusual size of his head made his body look thin to a point of weakness. And whn he came upon him, this illusion was exaggerated, for the shoulders appeared weary of their task. They were slouched forward, the neck bent. Both hands were over the face.

"What's the matter?" the farmer asked.

"I don't know," came a hoarse voice from between the hands. "I feel strange. I've never been this way before. My head aches terribly. My face, the side of my face, it's numb. I can hardly drag my feet along. I don't know what's wrong. I have the strangest feeling."

"Sit down," the farmer ordered.

The dark figure slumped to the grass by the side of the road. The man knelt beside him.

"Shall I run for help?"

"No, please don't leave me."

LET'S NOT FORGET THE ABSENT

Beyond question, one of the most difficult positions occupied by any official group in the nation at this time is that of the Civil Aeronautics board in Washington.

On the one hand, the board obviously is conscious of the desirability to hasten as much as possible the airline expansion that everyone expects to follow victory. The CAB is attempting at this time to get as much "paper work" out of the way as is practical and possible so that no time will be lost when the "go signal" is given for post-war aviation. This, of course, may involve the issuance of numerous airline permits of various kinds.

On the other hand is the fact that large numbers of men—mostly young men—who are vitally interested in post-war aviation are prevented by duties elsewhere at this time from having a voice in the present planning. Unless CAB is extremely careful—and doubtless it is being careful—those young men will return from the war to discover that all or most of the desirable routes have been assigned to others during their absence. It goes without saying that the young men affected wouldn't like a thing like that.

We certainly won't presume to suggest to the CAB how any problems of this kind that have arisen or may arise should be handled. However, most people doubtless feel that CAB will be wise and just in any steps it takes to safeguards the interests of the men who still are to return from the war.

Ruth Millett's Column

Halting Juvenile Delinquency

MOST towns and cities in the United States are trying to do something about juvenile delinquency.

Some have a ten or ten-thirty curfew for boys and girls under a certain age.

Some have set up a "children's forum" where kids can have their say about what they want and need in the way of recreation, guidance, and other conditions.

MILLETT

At least one city is right now considering a law fining negligent parents $25 for each offense their children commit.

Some towns have set-up "juvenile joints" — where high school students can gather to have fun.

And that seems to be one of the most sensible steps yet taken to keep 'teen-agers out of trouble.

Take a look at the "Dry Dock," Fort Madison, Iowa's answer to the complaint from adolescents that they had no place to congregate that wasn't objectionable to their parents.

The cost of turning some empty rooms into a high school hang-out was paid for by parents and business firms.

The Dry Dock has everything necessary to a "juvenile joint." It has a juke box, which almost pays the "Dry Dock's" expenses, It has enough floor space for dancing. It has booths and a soda fountain. And it is open every day.

A SIMPLE SOLUTION

It is always jam-packed with young folks, many of whom would spend their time in real joints, if the "Dry Dock" had never been opened.

This is such a simple solution to the problem of giving young folks a supervised place to hang out that it is a wonder so few towns and cities in the country have set up "juvenile joints."

There ought to be one in every residential district in cities, and one in every town, no matter how small.

The farmer continued to kneel before the crumpled figure. He could make out little more than the most general outlines of his appearance, but he recognized no aspect of the silhouette that was familiar. And it was obvious from his manner of speaking that this was a stranger. There was not the careless enunciation, the easy talk of the folk of southeasern Colorado. There was a dignity to these words as they came forth, even though the man was greatly wrought.

"You are a stranger," the farmer said. "Where are you from?"

"I came from the train."

"Was there an accident? I heard the whistle."

"No, I thought this cool air would help me, but I'm afraid it has all been—too much."

The stranger was breathing heavily.

"You needn't talk," the farmer said. "Just sit quiet."

"But there is so much that must be said, so much to be done. The time may be very short."

The body of the stranger slumped over.

GOSH, Yes! Georgia Gibbs says one depressing thing about this war is that Bund leader Fritz Kuhn is in such a safe cell.

Have a Silly: Two dolls were ogling a third who was with a sad looking 4-F at Ruben Bleu. "Looka," whispered the first, "her slip is showing."

"Yes," said the other, "she takes him wherever she goes."

Hawl You prob'ly heard it, but don't stop me, I wanna hear it again. About the three fellows who were rescued after a shipwreck five days before.

A rescuer asked a survivor: "What's yer name?"

"Smith," he gasped. "Water, water!"

The query was put to the second: "My name's Jones," he feebly replied. "Water, water!"

The third answered: "My name is Mefoofsky!" And then gasped: "Seltzer! Seltzer!"

YAK-YAK! It happened at the Little Palm club last night. Lovely rhumband leader Dacita said to her husband, the tooter: "Aren't we stupid?"

"Please," he said, "speak in the singular."

"Awright," was the reply. "Aren't you stupid?"

Novelette: Irving Berlin arrived the other day from England with messages for kin and loved ones of members of "This Is the Army." Berlin phoned parents, wives, sweethearts and pals, and took down messages to relay to the boys in his show now abroad. He made several hundred calls.

The most touching: Two soldiers gave him the same name of "the only girl in the world."

Dancers' Mirror: Maestro Melba of the Cotillion Room sums up the types of dancers who pass his gaze. To wit: The girl who doesn't shag, but will stand practically still while her partner does; the unmanageable trio on the floor—he, she and her hat; the chap who looks like a left halfback and waltzes through the crowd in much the same way he does on the gridiron; the dippers who get into positions seen elsewhere only on auto radiator caps; the couple that ogles the orchestra, waiting for heaven knows what; the middle-aged duo, fooling themselves into acting young and giving a perfect impression of two pairs of left feet looking for their mates; the exhibitionists, madly displaying new steps; and the romantic twosome, more in love than in tempo.

Broadway Rembrandt: The wiseguys are still talking about it breathlessly. A drunk wobbled into one of the saloons, clutching fistfuls of $20 bills. He went to the bar and yelled: "Fill 'em up. Everybody drink!"

For a gag one of the wisenheimers asked him if he had two 20s for a ten.

"Sure, sure!" he yelled back. "Anybody else want two 20s for a 10? I can keep this up all night But I warn you, I'll break you!"

That kept up for half an hour, and finally, out of 20s, he staggered into the night. He kept his word, too.

His 20s were counterfeit.

POOR Man: Not only was Scotch scarce, but W. C. Fields was making personal apparances in a dry State.

"Can you imagine,' he groaned, "living for four full weeks on nothing but food and water?"

Ringside Seat: Robert Sherrod, whose new book, "Tarawa," is a click already, says the Pacific war was nearly two years old and he had seen much of it elsewhere when we invaded Tarawa. On the transport a youthful lieutenant asked Sherrod why he hadn't written a book. He said he was waiting for a real story.

On the first day on the Tarawa beach, where our troops held only a 20-foot beachhead, charges of dynamite were flung into a Jap pillbox. The officer turned to Sherrod, grinned and asked:

"Will this one do?"

SOUNDS Like Him: They were reminiscing about John Barrymore again. Once Joe Frisco was walking with him when Frank Fay passed.

"You know Frank Fay?" asked Frisco.

"Know him!" said Barrymore. "I've been doing him for years!"

Such langwidge! Capt. Rickenbacker in a speech said: said: "Let's remind these venom vendors—the publishers who buy and print their material—and the sponsors who keep it on the air, they are directly or indirectly responsible for the flow of propaganda that is designed to poison the mind and becloud the viewpoints of the American public."

Treading On Brittle Eggs

Italians Scramble For Goodies Tossed Them By Yank Fighters

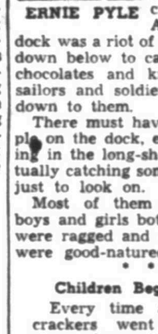

Joy And Tragedy Mark Life On Italian Docks

By ERNIE PYLE
Journal War Correspondent

WITH The ALLIED Beachhead Forces In Italy, March 23.—(By Wireless) — We were due to sail for the Anzio beachhead a few hours after I got aboard our LST.

But at the last minute came a warning of a storm of gale force brewing in the Mediterranean, so we laid over for 24 hours.

Some of the sailors took the opportunity next day to go ashore, and asked if I didn't want to go along. But I said, "What for? I've been ashore for three months already." So I stayed aboard, and just killed a full day with doing nothing.

ERNIE PYLE

We were tied up along the waterfront street of a small port city near Naples.

All day long the dock was a riot of Italians grouped down below to catch cookies and chocolates and knick-knacks the sailors and soldiers would throw down to them.

There must have been 200 people on the dock, either participating in the long-shot chance of actually catching something, or there just to look on.

Most of them were children, boys and girls both. Mostly they were ragged and dirty. Yet they were good-natured.

Children Beg For Food

Every time a package of crackers went down from above, humanity fought and stamped up over it like a bunch of football players. Now and then some youngster would get hurt, and make a terrible face and cry. But mostly they'd laugh and look a little sheepish, and dash back in again after the next one.

All Italian children call all American soldiers "Hey, Joe," and all along the dock was a chicken-yard bedlam of "Hey, Joe, bis-ueet." Each one crying at the top of his lungs to call attention to himself, and holding up his hands.

THE soldier's favorite was a stocky little fellow of about 8, with coal-black hair and a constant good humor. He was about the only one of them who wasn't ragged, the reason being that he was entirely clad in military garb.

He had on a blue Navy sweater. Then for pants he had the biggest pair of British tropical shorts you ever saw, which came clear below his knees.

His legs were bare. He had on gray Army socks rolled down to his shoetops. And on his feet were a pair of brand-new American GI shoes, which must have been at least size 8. To top it all off, he had a beguiling grin with a tooth out in the middle of it.

This youngster was adept at walking on his hands. He spent hours walking around the muddy stone street on his hands, with his feet sticking straight up in the air.

The soldiers and sailors were crazy about him, and every time he finished his little performance he'd get a flood of crackers. I finally figured out that he was walking on his hands so much because it was easier than walking in those gigantic shoes.

Teen Age Girls Join In

Pretty teen-age Italian girls in red sweaters would come and stand at the edge of the throng watching the fun. But the sailors and soldiers at the rail would soon spot them, and the play for them would start. Reluctant and timid at first, they would finally obey the sailors' demand that they try to catch something too, and pretty soon would be in there battling for broken crackers.

Most Americans are touched by the raggedness and apparent hunger of the children over here. But it was hard to feel sorry for these kids, for although maybe some of them really were hungry, the rest of them were just having a wonderful mob-scene sort of good time.

IT was the old women in the crowd that I could hardly bear to look at. Throughout the day there must have been a couple of dozen who came, tried for half an hour to catch something, and finally went dejectedly away.

They were horrible specimens of poverty and insanitation. They were old and pitiful, and repulsive. But their hunger most surely was genuine.

Stark Pathos Seen

One elderly woman, dressed in tattered black and carrying a thin old shopping bag on her arm, stood at the far edge of the crowd, vainly beseeching a toss in her direction. Finally one sailor, who had just started on a large box of nabiscos piece by piece, changed his mind and threw the entire box toward the old woman.

It was a good throw and a good catch. She got it like an outfielder, But no sooner did she have it in her arms than the crowd was upon her. Kids and adults both tore at the box, scratched and yelled and grabbed, and in five seconds the box was empty and torn.

The poor old woman never let go. She clung to it as though it were something human. And when the last cracker was gone she walked sort of blindly away, her head back and her eyes toward the sky, weeping with a hideous face just like that of a heart-broken child, still gripping the empty box.

It was a lot of fun watching this foreign riot of childish emotions and adult greed that day. But some of it was too real—greed born of too great a necessity—and I was glad when word came that we would sail that night.

Feed
20%
PIG RATION

Today, more than ever before, it is extremely important to speed up growth and keep mortality down in young pigs. Feed is too precious to waste on the laggards and pork is too valuable to lose before it goes to market. Stanton's 20% pig ration provides extra protection against both. In hundreds of hog lots, it has consistently improved pig health, speeded up growth and reduced mortality because it gives little pigs the same kind of boost that chick starter gives to baby chicks. It is being fed widely to sows before farrowing and—preferably in "creeps" as illustrated—to pigs from 2-3 weeks of age on up.

MANAMAR
in Stanton's 20% Pig Ration supplies the hard-to-get feeding essentials—fish proteins, food minerals and vitamins, including the important Vitamin B "Complex," supplied by patented "B-G Plus."

ManAmar and B-G Plus have been developed and are produced in the laboratories of Philip R. Park, famed livestock nutrition authority. These laboratories have approved the formula for Stanton's 20% Pig Ration. Let the records of users tell the rest of the story. Get all the facts today.

Butter Supplies For Civilians To Be Slightly Less Than 1943

BY MARLOW AND ZIELKE
Associated Press Staff Writers

WASHINGTON, March 23 — Butter set aside for American civilians this year will average 12 pounds per person, or about a half pound less than last year.

Reason for the cut: Expanding military needs.

Do you wonder—How much of our butter goes to the Russians? Why do we send them any? Does the butter they get from us deprive us of some?

The War Food administration gives these answers:

The Russians say they need butter for their troops and wounded to make up shortages in their own supply. Therefore, they get it from us. England imports most of its butter from Argentina, New Zealand and Australia.

Dents Our Own Stocks

The butter we sent the Russians puts a comparatively slight dent in our own stocks. We give them in lend-lease less than five per cent of our total butter.

In addition the Russians get from us margarine and fats, like lard.

This country's butter supply this year—about the same as in 1943—will be 2,046,000,000 pounds.

To meet the various demands, the butter is distributed this way with the percentage of the total in parentheses:

Civilians: 1,556,000,000 pounds (76 per cent); military, which includes the armed services and the War Shipping administration; 366,500,000 (18); Red Cross and territories like Hawaii and Puerto Rico: 11,000,000 (½ of one per cent); lend-lease, almost all to Russia: 102,000,000 (5); reserves set aside for emergencies: 10,000,000 (½ of one per cent).

Margarine Breaking Records

Margarine production is breaking all records and has soared in the past three years as American butter had to be spread around the world.

In 1942 margarine output was 426 million pounds. It climbed to 614 million pounds in 1943. This year it will be 739,200,000 pounds.

Margarine set aside for civilian consumption will average about four pounds per person.

This is the margarine distribution with the percentage of the total in parentheses:

Civilians: 559,200,000 pounds (75 per cent); lend-lease, with most of its divided about equally between Russia and the United Kingdom: 158,400,000 (21 ½); Red Cross and the territories: 20,400,000 (3); military: 1,200,000 (one-half of one per cent).

Allies To Study Use Of Charter

BY DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press War Analyst

British Prime Minister Churchill is used to world-wide audiences, but keen attention will be paid his statement in Parliament that there will be renewed consultation between principal Allies on the application of the Atlantic charter.

Need of clarification of this historic Allied pledge to mankind long has been apparent. If proof of that were necessary we should find it in the adroit manner in which Mr. Churchill sidestepped any commitment regarding specific application of the document.

Self-Determination Is Issue

However, we don't need further proof than we've long had in the demands from many countires for enlightenment. Self-determination is the big issue.

Churchill declined to be more specific than to say that "the Atlantic charter stands as a declaration of the spirit and purpose in which its signatories are waging this war—not without success—and that it implies no pact or bargain with our enemies." He left it to those new consultations among the "principal" Allies to deal with this pressing problem which is as full of explosive as a block-buster.

Debate Motion Refused

Only last week a motion supported by seventy members to debate the charter was turned down by Premier Churchill, unless the hostile members wished to make it the subject of a "vote of censure" of the government—which they did not.

We are as I see it on the verge of a period of hard-boiled and sometimes harsh realities. What the Big Three—America, Britain and Russia—have to iron out is whether there's any clash between idealism and stern realities. While one can foresee headaches and heartaches, nothing has arisen thus far to challenge the broad general principles of the original declarations.

However, nothing has happened either to alter the trend towards division of the world into spheres of influence over which will preside the dominant nations.

Some of the natives on Ponape have etiquette in warfare, and give notice of the day and the place of battle to the tribe to be attacked.

Maj. Huttig Assumes Command At Tech

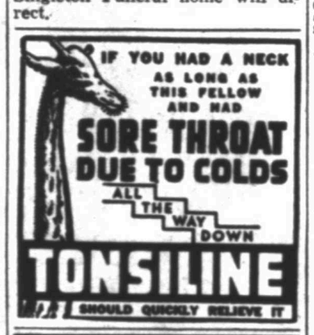

Duties as commanding officer of the 309th College Training Detachment (Aircrew) at Texas Technological college have been assumed by Maj. John N. Nuttig, of Orlando, Fla., according to an announcement Wednesday.

Maj. Hutting comes here from Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, home of Iowa Wesleyan college, where he held a similar post. He was born in Kansas City.

He replaces at the Tech unit Lt. Col. F. M. Monroe, who several weeks ago was ordered to report to Santa Ana, Calif. During Col. Monroe's absence, Capt. H. R. Gaus has been acting commander.

Maj. and Mrs. Huttig are staying at a downtown hotel until they can find a house or apartment.

Large Group Hears Duo Pianists Here

An audience numbering approximately 1,150 persons heard Ethel Bartlett and Rae Robertson, duo-pianists, in a Texas Technological college artist course program in Senior High school auditorium Wednesday night.

Outstanding numbers were: Fugue in G minor by Bach; Jamaican Rhumba by Arthur Benjamin; Liebestraum by Franz Liszt (arranged by Bartlett and Robertson); Hungarian Rhapsody by Franz Liszt (arranged by Covacs). The latter number reflected the characteristics of the Hungarian gypsy—the temperamental extremes of melancholy and exuberant buoyancy of his spirit. This was followed by Summer Wind, a study in thirds, by Camillie Saint-Saens.

After Bartlett and Robertson played Perpetuum Mobile, which was made popular by Carl Maria Von Weber, they encored and played Cavot by Coulep.

Faithful Fire Truck Finally Falls Apart

ALEXANDRIA, Va., March 23. (AP)—Alexandria's "old faithful," a ladder truck that has been clanging to fires for 15 years, finally met its end in action.

The truck was speeding—well, clanging — to a blaze yesterday when an explosion blew its crankcase into the street and scattered engine parts for a block.

Coughs That Cause Restless Sleepless Nights

or Bronchial Irritation Resulting from Colds

But adults can't expect real results from the same sweet syrupy concoctions that you'd give to a child. When you want to throw off a bothersome cough you've just got to have a real cough medicine; then you should ask your druggist for a bottle of good old Bron-chu-line Emulsion.

Bron-chu-line isn't a cheap cough syrup mind you, for first-raters are never cheap. But if you want the best and are willing to pay a little more for real results, get a bottle today and notice how the first dose takes hold right away and gives you real relief from the coughing and soreness.

Don't ignore a cough — get relief as quick as you can. Ask Mark Halsey Drug Co. — or any progressive druggist for a 65 cent bottle of Bron-chu-line Emulsion and keep this in mind — if not joyfully satisfied — money back.
