Fair's finale set Saturday

The annual Mule Show will be the featured entertainment Friday night as the 21st Scurry County Fair continues in the coliseum and its adjacent ag annex.

Friday night events will precede the final day and fairgoers won't lack for things to see and do.

The grand finale Saturday will include both a horse show and a dog show for local youth and the third annual Scurry County Ranch Competition.

Also Saturday, a free flea market will be offered from 8 a.m. until 5 p.m. with locals encouraged to sell their garage sale type items.

At 7 p.m. Friday, the attraction will be the mule show to include halter and western pleasure plus such events as the bloomer race, ring race, balloon bust and the "parade of jacks."

A pull competition will end the show with animals pulling a weighted sled a distance of 10 ft.

Cash prizes will be offered the winners plus awards for individual mules.

At 5 p.m. Friday, a fashion show of fair entries is due at the stage area also.

Baked goods will be accepted at the coliseum from 5 until 9 p.m. Friday with judging slated Saturday morning.

Other entertainment Friday is set at 8 p.m. at the stage area as Spanish dancers will demonstrate native dances.

The fair will close at 10 p.m. Friday and reopen its doors Saturday at 8 a.m.

Late entries in the baked goods category will be accepted from 8 until 9 a.m. with judging to take place at 10 o'clock.

Judging for the junior livestock events, to include lambs, steers and heifers, is due from 9 until 10 a.m. Saturday also.

At 9 a.m., the finals for the Deep Creek Domino Tournament will be staged, and at 10 a.m., youngsters are encouraged to enter a pedal tractor pull in the ag annex.

To be conducted simultaneously at 1 p.m. will be the horse show and dog show, both aimed at young competitors.

For adults, however, will be the third annual ranch competition, the featured event for Saturday night. It begins at 7 p.m. Saturday in the ag annex.

It will consist of ranch hands from county ranches competing in specific events. These include team penning, team branding, heading and healing and the horse saddling event. Each are timed events with four-man teams to compete.

Q. — Did the school board make a public report on whether the school administration staff was given a salary increase?

A. — Sure did. At the same time they approved the district's new pay plan it was noted by board members and reported in the newspaper that administrators would also receive a 3 percent pay increase. This is based on the average salary of administrators placed in several pay categories, so the actual amount varies.

IN INTENSIVE CARE — Ambulance personnel and local firemen work to secure 88-year-old Tate Walter Lockhart of Rt. 3 after freeing him from the wreckage of his vehicle Thursday. Two-vehicle crash pins elderly driver

An 88-year-old Scurry County man was pinned briefly inside the wreckage of his vehicle Thursday following a two-vehicle crash which occurred just north of the downtown square.

Tate Walter Lockhart of Rt. 3 was listed in stable condition at Cogdell Memorial Hospital Friday morning recovering from injuries sustained in that accident.

The "jaws of life" device was required at the scene as firemen pried open the passenger side door of Lockhart's 1977 Buick to free him.

Lockhart was taken to the local hospital by units of Snyder EMS for treatment of possible internal injuries. A hospital spokesman said Friday morning he was being kept in the intensive care unit.

According to police, Lockhart pulled onto College Ave. in front of an oncoming 1984 Chevrolet surburban driven by Cynthia Carol Bynum of Rt. 2, Snyder.

Bynum's 6-year-old daughter Terra was also taken to Cogdell Memorial Hospital following the mishap.

She was treated at the emergency room for minor injuries and released.

Soviets call on Reagan

WASHINGTON (AP) — Soviet Foreign Minister Eduard A. Shevardnadze made an unscheduled call on President Reagan today at the White House in the highest-level superpower talks in 10 months.

He met in the Oval Office with Reagan, Secretary of State George Shultz, White House chief of staff Donald Regan and John Poindexter, the president's national security adviser.

White House spokesman Larry Speakes said the meeting was arranged less than an hour before Shevardnadze arrived. It was proposed by Shultz as he and the Soviet foreign minister concluded a round of meetings at the State Department.

Speakes said Reagan would raise the case of American journalist Nicholas Daniloff as the first subject of business. The spokesman would not say whether the talks would move on to other subjects.

"The president wished to express his views directly" about Daniloff, Speakes said. Daniloff was arrested on espionage charges in Moscow on Sept. 30 and has been released to the custody of the American embassy there.

The White House did not allow any photographs of the Reagan-Shevardnadze meeting and said it would not distribute any taken by the White House photographer. Shevardnadze was brought into the White House through a gate not usually used as an entrance.

Domino top 4

The finalists for the Deep Creek Domino Tournament were determined Thursday night and they will meet in the finals Saturday morning at the Scurry County Fair.

Finalists are: Ted McMillan and Billy Longbotham; Ken Slaughter and Howard Gracey; Nelson Eckert and E.L. Franklin; and Bill Jordan and Carl Foree.

Swap meet

The annual swap meet held in conjunction with the Scurry County Fair is again set Saturday in the breezeway between the coliseum and ag annex.

Individuals are encouraged to sell all garage sale-type items—even livestock—with the exception of clothing.

Spaces are free, but sellers must bring their own tables and chairs. Also, no parking is allowed inside the sale area.

Items for sale will be accepted from 8 a.m. until 5 p.m. Saturday.

Weather

Snyder Temperatures: High Thursday, 90 degrees; low, 68 degrees; reading at 7 a.m. Friday, 68 degrees; no precipitation; total precipitation for 1986 to date, 21.02 inches.

Snyder Area Forecast: Tonight, partly cloudy with a 20 percent chance of evening showers and thunderstorms. Low in the upper 60s. South wind 5 to 10 mph.

Saturday, partly cloudy with isolated afternoon thunderstorms. High near 90. South wind 10 to 15 mph. Rain chance less than 20 percent.

Queen due her crown

The queen of the 1986 Snyder High School Homecoming will be revealed Friday.

Candidates this year are Seniors Allison Adams, Kristi Neill and Leslie Light; and Juniors Christi Comer, Kirsten Miller and Ashley Miller.

The announcement--based upon a vote of the SHS student body--will be made at halftime of the Snyder-Fort Stockton district game to begin at 8 p.m.

Also Friday, the All Sports Booster Club has scheduled a barbecue from 5 until 7 p.m. in the SHS cafeteria. The meal, catered through The Shack, will be $6 for adults and $5 for children under 12.

The feller on Deep Creek says, "Dieting is like quitting smoking. It's so easy some folks do it five or six times a year."

Keeping tabs on our neighbors:

Frank Adams, writing in the Paducah Post, got his drandruff up from a recent city council decision. Wrote Adams:

"When the city council met on Aug. 14, they voted to pay $25 for a membership to Sam's Wholesale Club of Lubbock.

"The council should be very careful about what they buy from Sam's or any other out of town business. Local merchants, as taxpayers, should be given first consideration...

"Also, the cost of traveling to Lubbock or any other city to make purchases should be taken into consideration. Transportation, employee time and all other costs connected with the transaction must be examined.

"If the local merchants are to survive, they must at least be given an opportunity to compete. We should not just assume that everything is less expensive somewhere else."

Amen!

Larry Crabtree, in the Vernon Daily Record, repeated a story that is making the rounds. It concerns a U.S. customs agent at the Mexican border.

It seems as if the guard asked a bicyclist what he was carrying in two sacks slung over his shoulder.

"Sand," the cyclist replied.

The guard checked and found nothing but sand. The same thing happened week after week. Then finally, after six months, the cyclist failed to appear.

Soon afterwards, the guard happened to meet the guy downtown.

"Say, buddy, you sure drove us crazy at the border," he said. We knew you were smuggling something. I won't say a word, but what was it?"

"Bicycles," the guy replied.

Weekend fiesta set

The local observance of the Diez-y-Seis Mexican Independence Day Celebration is slated Saturday and Sunday with most events centering at the Latin American Center, 13th and Ave. K.

Saturday at 7 p.m. will mark the coronation of this year's fiesta queen, Anna Marie Alvarez. Also honored will be Lupe Torres, fiesta princess.

Following the coronation, a dance at the Latin American Center is scheduled from 9 until 11 p.m.

The public is invited to view the annual Diez-y-Seis parade Sunday afternoon. It will begin at the Scurry County Library at 2 p.m.

Tributes to mark Mexican quake

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Mexicans will gather today at churches, memorial parks and plazas to pay tribute to the thousands who died in the great earthquake one year ago that shattered parts of their capital.

President Miguel de la Madrid is beginning the day of remembrance by lowering the nation's red-white-and-green flag to half-staff in a ceremony in the main Zocalo plaza at 7:19 a.m., the time the great quake struck Sept. 19, 1985.

Afterward, he is dedicating Solidarity Plaza, a park in downtown Mexico City that is filled with flowers, trees and benches.

The park is built on the cleared site on Juarez Avenue where the well-known Regis Hotel, Salinas and Rocha department store and other shops stood. All were too badly damaged by the quake to be repaired.

A plaque in the plaza says simply, "To the solidarity of all Mexicans."

Two Masses are being said at the Roman Catholic Basilica of Our Virgin of Guadalupe, the nation's holiest shrine, to honor those who died in the quake, those who lived but suffered from its devastation, and the rebuilding effort.

The deadly temblor lasted just 2½ minutes but registered 8.1 on the Richter scale of earthquake intensity, a magnitude that is capable of causing tremendous damage. A strong aftershock the following day registered 7.3 on the Richter scale.

Estimates of the number of dead range from the official government figure of 6,000 to 20,000 to 30,000, used by some foreign diplomats and Mexican private sector sources.

Solons look at farm bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — It has been less than a year since Congress, with a leap of faith and a sigh of relief, produced a new law to guide the nation's farm policy through 1990.

That policy would be expensive, the lawmakers warned, and would not produce results overnight. But it would, they said, return America's farmers to prosperity by the end of its five-year run by re-establishing their competitive edge among the world's commodity producers.

So why is Congress abuzz already with talk of a new farm bill?

"There is an election coming up," said Agriculture Secretary Richard Lyng, in response to a similar question last week.

In particular, there is an election coming up that will determine whether Republicans retain their slim control of the Senate, an election that hinges in large measure on the outcome of cliffhanger votes in several farm states.

The situation has produced a stampede to see who can do the most, or at least talk about doing the most, for farmers.

Senate Majority Leader Bob Dole, R-Kan., is one of those most concerned. Dole has been searching for ways to help some of his most endangered troops — including Sens. James Abdnor of South Dakota, Mark Andrews of North Dakota, Mack Mattingly of Georgia and Bob Kasten of Wisconsin — win farmers' favor.

Nine months into the new farm law there has been little sign of an immediate turnaround in the agricultural economy, and Republicans are worried that in some close races that issue could determine the outcome. Any dissatisfaction among farm voters would tend to penalize incumbents.

Dole, together with other GOP lawmakers, has been putting together a farm package with an expanded export subsidy for wheat, soybeans and corn as its centerpiece.

The subsidy, similar to one already in effect for cotton and rice, would permit farmers to sell their grains at whatever the market would bring while guaranteeing them a higher price, with the difference made up from the Treasury. The new subsidy, if it follows the pattern of cotton and rice, would be exempt from the $50,000-per-farmer payment limit.

Dole hasn't formally introduced his package yet, in part because of a snag: It would cost $5.5 billion. "I'm not going to just toss it out here without some way to pay for it," Dole said.

Money is not a problem, however, with a package to be introduced by a group of farm-state Democrats next week.

That bill, to be unveiled Tuesday by Sen. Tom Harkin, D-Iowa, and Rep. Richard Gephardt, D-Mo., is a classic supply management approach, diametrically opposed to administration philosophy.

The bill would call for a referendum among farmers of the major crops on whether to cut their output enough to do away with surpluses and drive prices up. If approved, the referendum would require all farmers to cut their acreage by about 35 percent.

Good People Are Wrapped In All Kinds of Packages

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1986 by Universal Press Syndicate

DEAR ABBY: Why all this commotion about being too fat or too thin? Ten or even 20 pounds one way or the other shouldn't make that much difference. It seems foolish to worry, even for reasons of health. There are no guarantees how long we'll endure in spite of determined efforts to keep fit. Perhaps it's just as well that we don't know when we are going to be physically challenged.

I am 60 pounds underweight due to a terminal illness. When I was healthy, I was a beautiful, shapely, well-proportioned young woman with extraordinary legs that caused men to walk into parking meters. At first I was devastated to consider that people would react with horror on seeing my skinny, meatless, bony legs. Actually no one noticed. I keep repeating a quotation of unknown origin that I would like to share with you:

Each day is made special
By what we can give it
By how we accept it
Then how we live in it.

ACCEPTING IT

DEAR ACCEPTING: A sobering thought. Sometimes being reminded of our mortality can cause us to re-examine our priorities, and possibly rearrange them. Thank you for sharing.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: Breast surgery is a bust indeed! I submit one man's observations for what they're worth: I am over 60, and during my lifetime I have made love to a number of women whose breasts have ranged in size from Dolly Parton look-alikes to "eggs over easy." One woman had a pair of 38s obtained by implants. Unfortunately, they were hard as rocks, and caressing a rock during lovemaking is a big turnoff.

Ladies, your reaction to being caressed is vastly more important than your shape. Satisfying sex has nothing to do with your measurements. If you don't leave your breasts alone, I will.

ONCE UPON A ROCK,
SEABROOK, N.H.

DEAR ONCE: I am sure many of my more modestly endowed women readers will find your candid observations both enlightening and encouraging. Women considering breast augmentation surgery should be advised of all possible negative results.

• • •

DEAR READERS: "Puzzled in Carmichael" complained about shoppers who pulled back the corn husks looking for "I don't know what." Although I was born and bred in Iowa, I admitted that I didn't know what the shoppers were looking for either.

Did I get letters? Shucks, I'm up to my ears in corny comments.

Dr. L. Lamoreaux of Portland, Ore., said: "Fresh corn is the sweetest. The only way you can test the freshness is by stripping back the husk and piercing a kernel with your thumbnail. If it squirts juice, it's young and tender. If it doesn't, leave it for the livestock. It's old."

Rosemary Polgar of Lomita, Calif., said: "You have to pull the husks back and look at the corn. If the kernels are large and yellow, the corn is tough. Smaller pale yellow or whitish kernels mean the corn is sweet."

From Edmonton (Canada): "The best corn is fresh picked, so if it's possible, buy it from the farmer. Old corn is gummy and sticks to the teeth because the sugar has already turned to starch, which also makes it higher in calories. Younger corn has fewer calories."

Mrs. A.L. Latta of Fort Worth, Texas (age 75), said: "I grow my own corn, so I know how fresh it is. And, by the way, it's refreshing to see questions about corn rather than so many sex-related letters."

So, Dear Readers, it's OK to pull back the husks to take a peek. It will not devalue the corn.

Moral Majority founder planning to quit politics

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Rev. Jerry Falwell, conceding his aggressive political campaigning has polarized people, says it is time to leave the campaign trail and return to the pulpit.

"I will not be stumping for candidates as I have in the past," Falwell said in a telephone interview Thursday from his headquarters in Lynchburg, Va.

He quickly added that "I will be still speaking on the moral and social issues."

The evangelist, who founded the Moral Majority, rose to prominence in 1980 as a supporter of Ronald Reagan and was credited with helping to bring millions of fundamentalist Christians into politics.

"When I work as aggressively as I have in the past seven years for certain candidates whom I love and respect very much, it does polarize the general public and makes it difficult for me to deliver the gospel," he said.

Falwell said, "I'm 53 years old now and I want to make the next 20 years count in the spiritual and not the political arena."

Falwell said he will keep his commitment to support Vice President George Bush for the 1988 Republican presidential nomination, but that "I will not be adding any miles to my schedule for Mr. Bush and he doesn't expect me to."

Falwell claimed his organizations registered 8.5 million new voters since 1978.

"We worked in dozens of congressional races and won most of them," he told reporters shortly after the 1984 election.

In the telephone interview on Thursday, he cited conservative trends since Reagan took office and said, "I don't think we did it all, but I do think we played a significant role."

He made it clear, however, that he wants a change.

Few untouched by merger-mania

WASHINGTON (AP) — Federal approval for Texas Air to buy Eastern Airlines is the latest in a wave of mergers that is likely to result in a half-dozen companies soon controlling nearly 80 percent of domestic air travel.

The Transportation Department on Thursday approved the $767 million acquisition of Eastern, the country's fourth largest airline, by Texas Air Corp., which already owns Continental Airlines and New York Air.

The action came only days after Houston-based Texas Air announced plans to buy financially troubled People Express. If that deal also is approved, Texas Air would become by far the largest airline company with about 19 percent of the domestic market share, according to figures provided by the Air Transport Association.

Meanwhile, Delta Air Lines formally requested government approval as quickly as possible Thursday for its planned acquisition of Western Airlines, a $860 million deal announced last week.

The country's major airlines have been so busy gobbling each other up during the past year that industry analysts and consumer advocates have begun to voice concern that the emergence of a small group of "mega-carriers" will lead to higher air fares and declining service.

Even Alfred Kahn, who was the architect of airline deregulation as Civil Aeronautics Board chairman during the Carter administration and who continues to be one of its strongest advocates, has raised questions about the fallout as a result of all the mergers.

Kahn has suggested the federal government has been too quick to dismiss potential competitive problems some mergers pose.

"This administration has never seen a merger it didn't like," Kahn has been fond of telling people in recent weeks.

The merger trend began nearly a year ago with government approval of United Airlines' acquisition of Pan American World Airways' Pacific division. Since then the Transportation Department has approved the merger of Northwest Airines and Republic Airlines and Trans World Airlines' purchase of Ozark Air Lines, even though the Justice Department has voiced competitive concerns about both deals.

As a result of the department's latest decision, Eastern Airlines will become the largest of three airlines under the Texas Air flag. The other two are Continental Airlines and New York Air.

With all three subsidiary airlines, Texas Air and United Airlines will be virtually neck-and-neck for the distinction of being the country's largest airline company. If Texas Air obtains People Express, as it likely will, it will become by far the largest.

According to figures provided by the Air Transport Association, United Airlines is the country's largest carrier with about 15.6 percent market share, followed by American Airlines with 13.6 percent; Northwest Airlines, 10 percent; Eastern, 9.6 percent; and Delta Air Lines, 8.9 percent.

But the the wave of mergers is far from over.

Playing cards by the odds

By James Jacoby

If you consider yourself a demon on percentages in the play, this deal is just for you. How would you play three no-trump?

South thought he knew the answer. He took the first heart with the king in his hand, cashed the K-Q of diamonds and then played a low spade. The defenders quickly continued hearts. When the ace of diamonds failed to bring down both remaining diamonds, declarer tried the A-K of spades. That suit also failed to break, and the game contract now failed.

If the diamond suit in dummy had been stronger, like A-10-9-8, anyone would know that declarer should overtake the second honor with dummy's ace and force out the jack. That would guarantee the contract. But even with the actual holding, that is still the best play. It is true that you give up some overtricks when diamonds are split 3-3. It is also true that when diamonds are divided 4-2, it is likely that either the jack or the 10 will be doubleton. You will also win on some occasions when the jack or 10 is singleton in an opponent's hand.

What if you overtake the second diamond in dummy and neither the jack nor the 10 has appeared? At this point, those two remaining cards should be split 52 percent of the time, so it's still best to continue with the third round of diamonds.

West Germans in controversy over nuclear power

BONN, West Germany (AP) — With the Chernobyl accident still fresh in West German minds, a dispute over a nuclear plant just over the border in France has become a rallying point for the growing ranks of nuclear foes in this country.

The fright brought on by the Soviet nuclear-plant accident in April has not faded in West Germany — it caused $250 million worth of damage to West German farm crops — and nuclear energy has developed into an emotional issue in the campaign for national elections in January.

Johannes Rau, the opposition Social Democratic Party candidate for chancellor, has called for a phaseout of the 20 West German nuclear power plants now operating.

It was the first time a mainstream candidate has taken an anti-nuclear position. Recent polls said more than 60 percent of West Germans are opposed to nuclear power plants.

Chancellor Helmut Kohl, a conservative Christian Democrat, supports nuclear power, which provides 30 percent of West Germany's electricity. He has warned of dire economic consequences if West Germany scraps its plants.

"Abandoning nuclear power would spell the end of the Federal Republic (West Germany) as an industrialized nation," Kohl told West German television in August.

But Kohl has been forced onto the defensive, especially after an accident Aug. 23 at the plant under construction in Cattenom, France, and the publication of new studies in Bonn that said West Germany could abandon nuclear energy without an economic crisis.

No radioactivity was released when the French reactor building was flooded just across the border from the West German Saarland state. But the reaction in West Germany was immediate.

"France — a dangerous nuclear neighbor," said a headline on the cover of Der Spiegel, the weekly news magazine.

Dieter Ehrenstein, a Bremen University professor of nuclear physics, said on West German television the accident could have led to a Chernobyl-style disaster if Cattenom had already been in operation.

Vehicle seizures effective

SAN ANTONIO, Texas (AP) — City officials have found that threatening to seize people's cars for past-due parking tickets is far more effective than picking violators up personally.

"Now that we're going to pick up their cars, my God, we're getting more response than when we were picking them up personally," said Luis Garcia, chief municipal court prosecutor. "People are coming in like mad. The response is way over what we expected."

The rush is coming two weeks after city officials warned that violators who did not pay fines were in danger of having their cars impounded. So far no cars have been seized, but the threat seems to be working.

Municipal Court Director Bill Arnette said the scofflaws are flooding into city offices to pay off their fines, and so many payments are arriving by mail that clerks have been called in to work overtime.

"They (payments) have to be processed and credited," Arnette said. "It's not something we can finish in two or three days."

Officials have set Sept. 30 as the deadline for motorists to pay their fines. After that day, officials will have the option of impounding the offending cars.

About 27,000 parking violators with 77,000 violations — owing $690,000 in fines — have been asked in a letter from the city to pay up.

Your Birthday

Sept. 20, 1986

Strong ambitions will be awakened in you in the year ahead that will inspire you toward greater material accumulation. Your desires can be fulfilled without taking undue risks.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Others will find your demeanor and style today both attractive and pleasing. Regardless of where you go, you'll stand out in any group. Major changes are ahead for Virgos in the coming year. Send for your Astro-Graph predictions today. Mail $1 to Astro-Graph, c/o this newspaper, PO Box 91428, Cleveland, OH 44101-3428. Be sure to state your zodiac sign.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Judgments you make today should not be based solely on material interests. Treat the aesthetic factors as equally important.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Someone you thought didn't like you has in reality always held you in high regard. Today, you may learn this for yourself.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Your instincts in business matters are sharper t[illegible] usual today. If you get a strong feeling [illegible] to how something should be done, you'd be wise to acknowledge it.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Friends will be closely observing you today, and they will be swayed by the example you set. Fortunately, you'll make all the right moves.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Provided everyone is in accord regarding a common family concern of a confidential nature, this is a good day to respond collectively.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Be sure that you include a few of your special friends in your social arrangements today. You'll have more fun doing things that you like with people who you like.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) You're in a brief cycle where you can increase your resources through your own initiative. Think of a specific amount and really go after it.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Your greatest asset today is your ability to get along well with others. You'll instinctively know what to do and say to charm even the most difficult.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) A conscientious friend who is aware of your present needs will do everything he or she can today to help ease your burden.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) You could be extremely fortunate today in your partnership arrangements, especially if you're associated with individuals whose ideals and philosophies are in tune with yours.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) If you do everything in accordance with your high standards and ethics today, your actions will add luster to your image and make friends proud of you.

DANCERS--These authentically garbed Mexican folk dancers will be performing Saturday and Sunday during the Diez-y-Seis celebration held annually in Snyder. The event is sponsored by Our Lady of Guadalupe Catholic Church. (Church Photo)

Fiesta events announced

The Diez y Seis Fiesta this year will be celebrated on Saturday and Sunday.

A few of the Saturday highlights include puestos opening at 3 p.m. and the coronation of the queen and princess at 7 p.m. A dance begins at 9 p.m.

On Sunday the parade will begin at 2 p.m. Entertainment will be provided by the Mariachis of Pecos, the local Folkloric Dancers and Los Regionles.

Lotus 123 is offered at WTC

A Continuing Education course on the Fundamentals of Lotus 123 is to begin Sept. 27 at Western Texas College.

The 27-hour course will begin with Introduction to Lotus 123.

The first class will meet at 9 a.m. on Sept. 27 in the WTC Learning Resource Center. Members of the class will decide when to meet thereafter.

Clay Peterson, a graduate of Texas A&M University, is the instructor.

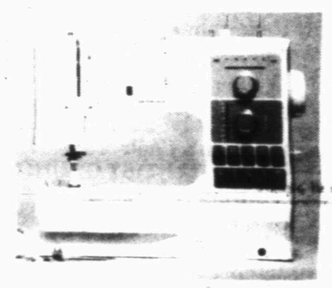

To reserve space in the class call 573-8511, ext. 240. The $30 fee is to be paid at registration on the first morning of class.

Inoculations may be necessary

By Peter H. Gott, M.D.

DEAR DR. GOTT — As prospective parents, we are trying to make an informed decision as to whether our child should undergo inoculations for diphtheria, polio, etc. We are concerned about links between the DPT vaccine and the high U.S. rate of Sudden Infant Death Syndrome, hepatitis and AIDS, and an increase in polio among vaccinated Americans. How can we make an intelligent decision?

DEAR READER — One of the great breakthroughs of modern medicine has been childhood inoculations, because they have prevented much suffering and death. I am not aware of any consistent relation between Sudden Infant Death Syndrome, hepatitis, AIDS and DPT inoculations. Polio is now largely preventable by oral immunization.

I suggest that you follow the recommendations of your pediatrician. Although he or she may not wish to give your child all the infant shots, clearly your child should have some or most. The recommendation about which ones should be given can best be made by a doctor who is familiar with your family and any special health problems that your youngster may have.

Make an appointment with the pediatrician now, before your baby is born, to discuss this and other issues of child care. You will find it easier to have an in-depth consultation without a squirming baby sitting in your lap.

DEAR DR. GOTT — My legs feel stiff and sore most of the time, as if I'm walking on boards. The sciatic nerve is sore when I press it, and going up stairs or up a small grade tires me out. I've been told I have good circulation, and I've had all the tests for multiple sclerosis, since this has been going on for 17 years. Darvon and Valium help. Should I have more tests?

DEAR READER — Possibly. If your condition has remained stable for 17 years but you are still having symptoms, I am sure that your doctor would be willing to refer you to a neurology clinic in a university hospital. Darvon (a pain reliever) and Valium (a tranquilizer) may temporarily relieve the symptoms of many diseases. I believe you need a thorough medical analysis in a teaching hospital where the specialists are familiar with unusual disorders.

DEAR DR. GOTT — I have what my doctor calls a sebaceous cyst on my nose. Is there anything to prevent these from forming?

DEAR READER — I do not know of any method that prevents the formation of sebaceous cysts, the oily collections that commonly occur in blocked pores. An occasional sebaceous cyst presents no health problem, but if you have multiple recurring cysts, I think you should obtain an opinion from a dermatologist.

Dr. Gott's new Health Report, WHAT YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT NURSING HOMES, offers a step-by-step guide to rating facilities and finding the best care available. For your copy, send $1 and your name and address to P.O. Box 91428, Cleveland, OH 44101-3428. Be sure to mention the title.

Another bank closes

PASADENA, Texas (AP) — Deteriorating assets and significant loan losses contributed to the failure of Texas Independence Bank of Pasadena, the 17th Texas bank to fail this year, officials said.

Texas Independence Bank, with about $12 million in assets, was closed Thursday by Texas Banking Commissioner James L. Sexton, and the Federal Deposit Insurance Corp. was named receiver, FDIC spokeswoman Julie Amberson said.

An assumption of the deposit liabilities by a newly chartered subsidiary of Citizens Bankers Inc. of Baytown was approved by the FDIC board of directors, Ms. Amberson said.

Today, the failed bank's only office will reopen as The Texas Independence Bank of Pasadena, she said, adding that its depositors will automatically become depositors of the assuming bank.

Incidents of alcoholism on rise among today's women

CHICAGO (AP) — Four times as many men as women are being treated for alcoholism, but recent evidence suggests women born in the 1950s and afterward may be narrowing that gap, according to a study published today.

"As society changes and more and more women are exposed to heavy drinking, we will see more and more alcoholism," said Dr. Sheila Blume, whose article is part of a series on alcoholism in the Journal of the American Medical Association.

Another journal article concludes that drivers who drink are two to four times more likely to suffer serious or fatal injuries in accidents, debunking the "extraordinary myth that drivers who drink are looser," and more likely to avoid injury, said Dr. George Lundberg, the journal's editor.

A third article details how severely alcohol depresses the body's ability to fight off other diseases.

Recent estimates have put the direct and indirect social costs from alcohol-related problems at $120 billion annually. But Ms. Blume said that because women use and respond to alcohol differently than men, society may be paying an unnecessarily heavy price for failing to recognize those differences.

Female alcoholics who don't recover lose 15 years of their lives and have a mortality rate 4½ times that of other women, she said.

Another devastating effect of alcoholism is fetal harm, Ms. Blume said, citing studies showing the disease is one of the three most frequent causes of birth defects associated with mental retardation.

Studies also have shown that women develop alcohol-induced diseases like hypertension, obesity and malnutrition faster than men, that women who seek treatment for alcoholism are twice as likely as men to have an associated drug problem, and that drinking and alcohol problems among women have increased considerably since World War II.

Researchers say women show higher peak blood-alcohol levels than men even after adjustments are made for body weight and, thus, may be more easily impaired, Ms. Blume said.

The death rate "for alcoholic women is very high, and there is some evidence it's higher than for men," Ms. Blume said from South Oaks Hospital in Amityville, N.Y., where she works in the Alcoholism and Compulsive Gambling Program.

"Studies have shown women are less likely to be arrested, even when stopped for driving while obviously intoxicated. And even those who are arrested are less likely to be offered an alternative-treatment program," she said. "That's one of the ways males get into treatment, but we find nine men referred for every one woman."

Ms. Blume said the most recent studies have concluded that 13 percent of all adults have been diagnosed as alcoholic at some time during their life, with 6 percent actively combating the disease at any given time.

Oklahoma girl fights for life after rare transplant

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) — A 3-year-old Oklahoma girl dying of cancer may now have a 75 percent chance at life after undergoing a rare bone marrow transplant at a Fort Worth hospital.

The operation was the first autologous bone marrow transplant to be done in the Fort Worth-Dallas area. Such transplants allow doctors to remove a patient's own bone marrow, purge it of cancer cells, and return it to the patient's body.

The bone marrow rescues patients from lethal doses of chemotherapy and radiation often given to kill cancer cells.

Dr. Terry Pick, the specialist who performed the procedure Thursday on Emily Gilstrap, expressed hope Thursday afternoon that the child will recover free of cancer.

"It went smoothly," Pick said. "I have some quiet optimism that the kid will do well."

Without the treatment, Emily, who has a form of cancer called neuroblastoma, had slim chances of living. Neuroblastoma kills 95 percent of its victims within six months after it is first treated with conventional therapy and goes into remission, the term used when symptoms at least temporarily disappear.

The new treatment is saving 75 percent of those children, said Pick, a pioneer of the treatment and director of the newly established Marrow Transplant Services at Cook-Fort Worth Children's Medical Center.

Only about 100 children with neuroblastoma have been treated worldwide with bone marrow transplants, about half of them in France, Pick said.

The "autologous bone marrow rescue" has a 60 percent to 75 percent success rate against neuroblastoma — a malignant tumor that originates in nerve tissue. In children in complete remission, as Emily is, it is 75 percent successful, according to the first major study of such treatment.

Dudleys to sing at Ira Baptist

George and Judy Dudley will be singing at 7 p.m. Sunday at the Ira First Baptist Church. A nursery will be provided.

The Dudleys are professional musicians who have dedicated their lives to spreading the word of God's love through programs of music for organizations and churches across the nation.

They have been married for 25 years and have reared three children. Their traveling ministry began in 1979. They receive no support from any organization or church. Since 1983 they have been licensed as musical evangelists by the Alabama-Northwest Region of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ).

In 1985, the Dudleys expanded their ministry by serving as inspirational leaders on a tour of the Holy Land.

Bible Way plans Mexican dinner

The Bible Way Baptist Fellowship will host a Mexican dinner at 12:30 p.m. Sunday at the church's fellowship hall. Tickets are on sale now from different church members for $4 per adult and $2 per child.

The dinner's proceeds will go toward retiring the church's debt.

Witness, a Gospel singing group, will minister from about 2-2:30 p.m. Members of the group are Mike and Anne Brown, Eddie and Geneen Bolin, Paul and Glenna Glover and David Morrell.

Also, a duet of Dorothy Bly and Glenda Botts will sing and minister.

The public is invited.

Ask The Preacher

..."does God really know me?"

By Randall Gray

The Bible has a great deal to say about God and his knowledge, but perhaps the most personally significant aspect of His knowledge is what He knows about each one of us, individually.

In the book of Psalms, the Bible says:

> "Oh Lord, you have searched me and you know me. You know when I sit and when I rise. You perceive my thoughts from afar... Before a word is on my tongue, you know it completely, O Lord... Such knowledge is too wonderful for me, too lofty to attain." (Psalm 139: 1-6)

This somewhat scary passage is an insight to the enormously detailed knowledge God has about each one of us. Jesus himself said:

> "Are not five sparrows sold for two pennies? Yet not one of them is forgotten by God. Indeed, the very hairs on your head are all numbered. Don't be afraid, you are worth more than many sparrows..." (Luke 12: 6-7)

Well, what does all of this mean to us? It means that we cannot hide from God. Not anything. It means that "all things are naked and laid open before the eyes of Him with whom we have to do..." (Heb.4:13)

Brewster leading way for WTC at first rodeo

PORTALES, N.M. – Snyder's Adam Brewster got Western Texas College off to a good start in the Eastern New Mexico University Rodeo, which began here Thursday evening.

Brewster scored a 63 in the bareback, and is in third place. He was the only WTC team member to compete Thursday.

WTC student Troy Budvarson is second in the saddle bronc with a 65.

In action involving former WTC students, Tobin Tate, now with ENMU, scored a 75 to lead the bull riding. Shelly Eldridge, also attending ENMU, is winning the goat tying with a 10.2 time.

Odessa's Jim Sharp is winning the saddle bronc with a 69 and is second in the bull riding with a 70.

The four-day rodeo continues with performances Friday and Saturday at 7:30 p.m. MDT, and at 1 p.m. Sunday.

Baylor Bears challenge USC as SWC grid teams kick off

by The Associated Press

The Southwest Conference hopes to get the egg off its face this weekend.

Texas A&M, Texas and Texas Tech suffered humiliating losses last Saturday in the second weekend of intersectional football fun, while Baylor, Texas Christian and Arkansas were upholding the league's honor.

The biggie of the day Saturday will be in Waco.

Southern California meets Baylor in a 2:30 p.m. CDT nationally televised clash of unbeatens at Baylor Stadium, and the oddsmakers favor the ninth-ranked Bears by four points.

Baylor has an impressive 10-4-2 record against the Pac 10 and is the only SWC team with a winning record (2-1) over USC. The Bears downed USC 20-13 last year.

If Baylor wins, Teaff will become the winningest coach in school history. He is tied with Morley Jennings with 83 victories.

In other games, Texas is at Missouri in an 11:30 a.m. regionally televised game and rates a four-point pick; Houston is at Oklahoma State at 11:30 a.m. and is a 12-point underdog; Tulsa is at Arkansas at 2 p.m. and is a 14-point underdog.

Also, North Texas is at Texas A&M at 6 p.m and the Aggies are 24-point favorites; New Mexico is at Texas Tech at 7 p.m. and is a six-point underdog; Kansas State is at TCU at 7:30 p.m. and the Frogs are 20-point picks; and SMU is at Arizona State at 9:30 p.m. and the Sun Devils are field goal favorites.

Last week Baylor ripped Louisiana Tech 38-7, Arkansas blanked Ole Miss 21-0 and TCU blasted Tulane 48-31 in non-conference play. LSU shocked Texas A&M 35-17, No. 2 Miami beat Texas Tech 61-11 and Stanford downed Texas 31-20.

SMU beat Rice 45-3 in a SWC game.

Tech's 50-point loss to Miami last week was the worst in the school's history and the most points ever allowed by a Raider team.

UIL trying to solve problem of suits over playoff games

AUSTIN (AP) - A bill may soon be filed that would give Travis County judges jurisdiction over all lawsuits against the University Interscholastic League, says Rep. Richard Smith, R-Bryan.

Bryan's House subcommittee heard testimony Wednesday that high school playoffs have been jeopardized in recent years by conflicting judicial rulings across the state.

UIL Director Bailey Marshall told Smith and Rep. Randall Riley, R-Round Rock, the other subcommittee member present, that "all we're interested in is having rulings by judges who are not under extreme local pressures, and I would think judges would welcome relief from these pressures."

Marshall and other witnesses cited conflicting rulings by judges in Waco, Austin and Edinburg that delayed the Class 4A state baseball tournament eight days in June.

Lucious Bunton, whose law firm has represented the UIL in many cases across the state during the 1980s, told the subcommittee, "If we have venue in one place, we are not going to be confronted with threats to state playoffs. Judges in Travis County can look objectively at a lawsuit and decide if it has any merit."

Representatives of the Texas High School Coaches Association, Texas Education Agency, Texas Association of School Boards, and Association of Secondary School Principals all testified in support of the legislation.

A proposal drafted by University of Texas legal counsel would give Travis County judges jurisdiction in all UIL cases except those involving schools in Travis County. Visiting judges would hear cases involving Travis County schools.

Net squad set for 2-4A slate

Snyder High School opens District 2-4A team tennis competition in Andrews this Saturday.

The Tigers take on Fort Stockton at 11:30 a.m. and Andrews at 3 p.m. as the new fall schedule begins for Class 4A. Class 5A has played in the fall for several years but this will be a first for 4A schools.

Matches will be played in September and October with the top two finishers in each district advancing to regionals. The top two in the four regionals will then advance to the state playoffs.

In addition to Saturday's matches in Andrews, Snyder will host Sweetwater on Sept. 23, play Big Spring and Monahans in Big Spring on Sept. 27, entertain Lamesa and Pecos on Oct. 4, and play Lake View in San Angelo on Oct. 7.

Team tennis competition consists of 18 matches between each school in the district; nine girls matches and nine boys matches. There are six singles matches played in boys and girls and three doubles matches in each. In case of a tie, the winner will be determined by the team that wins the most sets and games.

Last season, Snyder posted a record of three wins and four losses in team tennis, which was played in February.

Snyder loses three boys and one girl to graduation from last year's squad..

"We will miss those players but we are fortunate to have some younger players coming up to take their places," said Coach Charlie Chrane. "We hope to improve on last year's record."

Snyder will carry nine boys and nine girls on the varsity.

Boys on the team include Michael Risenhoover, the only senior; sophomores Alfred Brice, Steve Freeman, Stetson Merritt, Michael Rodriguez, Dan Scannicchio and Kevin Winter; and freshmen John Griffin and Brandon Martin.

Girls include seniors Dee Butler, Shawna Chrane and Michelle Osborn, juniors Deone Farmer, Meredith Reed and Andrea Veazey, and sophomore Lori McFarland.

Among the girls competing for the other varsity position are juniors Robbye Morales, Tammi Srna and Mary Ann Suarez, sophomore Rebecca Vestal and freshmen Jennifer Harden and Jacy LaRoux.

First home game at 8 o'clock...

Tigers try to cage Panthers tonight

Just a few weeks ago, Fort Stockton, Snyder's opponent tonight in the District 2-4A opener, was picked to finish at the bottom of the conference. No more, though.

"Coming into the season and looking at them on paper, they didn't look as strong as had been in the past. But they changed coaches and put in a new offense and defense and they are executing real well. I really think they are a better team than they've been in recent years," said Snyder coach Dennis Tomlin, who takes his Ragin' Tigers against the Panthers at 8 o'clock in Tiger Stadium.

Ken Herring has taken over the Panther club and with wins over Crane and Alpine, has already insured the 1986 Fort Stockton team will at least equal last year's 2-8 effort. The Panthers were winless in 2-4A, however, and will be trying to reverse that situation tonight.

Snyder and Fort Stockton clash for the seventh time. Fort Stockton owns the series five wins to one. The Ragin' Tigers would like to get their second victory over the Panthers tonight, to cap off homecoming.

"The football game is the highlight of homecoming and our job is to win the game," said Tomlin. "We are going to try our best. This is our first game in front of the home fans and it is a sellout. It's going to be great having fans cheer for us."

Tomlin said Mike Nix, a 6-3, 220 middle linebacker and fullback, "leads their team." Nix, a converted tight end, has rushed for 143 yards on 22 carries this season.

"They have a quarterback (Gilley Trevino) who does an outstanding job of throwing the ball. They have a wide-open passing game when they need it. They play good, hard-nosed defense and they are sound in every area. They haven't been making many mistakes, either," said the coach.

"It's going to be a real tough game for four quarters. Defensively, we can't make the big mistakes. We can't give them the long play for a touchdown. Offensively, we have got to get a passing game established. Our inside running game has been good but you can't win with just an inside running game. I think our success will stem around our ability to move the ball in the air and around the ends."

Snyder will make a couple of lineup changes for the ballgame. Jeff Rose is not full speed after suffering a thigh injury and will be replaced by Wayne Ware at right halfback and Michael Riggins at tailback. In one other change, David Martinez will take over at the right 3-technique for Jerry McNew.

Coach Tomlin also noted that Toby Ubando will suit up tonight after missing last week's game with an ankle injury. Ubando, a senior fullback and linebacker, may only be played sparingly, however.

Snyder game captains will be senior Dewayne Murdock, Chris Garrett, Cotton Merritt, Mark Helms and Brad Gambrell.

JV falls to tough ACHS varsity grid squad, 7-6

ABILENE – Snyder's junior varsity Cats were nipped by Abilene Christian High School varsity here Thursday night, 7-6.

The Cats got on the scoreboard first when Tracy Odom hit Lewis Wesley on a 31-yard bootleg pass. David Hunter missed the extra point kick, but Snyder got another chance when Abilene Christian was flagged for roughing the kicker. The Cats went for two this time, but were stopped.

Abilene's lone score came in the second quarter on a 30-yard reverse play. The kick-after was good.

"Offensively, we had a fumble on the center snap on a first and goal situation at the seven, leading 6-0 in the second quarter. That fumble really hurt us," said Snyder Coach Rick Howell. "We had trouble with their constant blitzing. We played hard offensively but two costly fumbles did us in as they usually will against a good team.

"Defensively, we were hurt by the dive on the veer all night. We played the quarterback, pitchman and pass well but they ran the dive at will. We had some effort on defense but not a team effort like we're capable. It was a tough loss to a good class-A varsity football team."

The same Snyder bunch went 10-0 as freshman and had started the season with a big win over Levelland last week.

"These kids are used to winning. They didn't like it (the loss) so I don't think we're going to see a lot of it," said Howell.

Abilene totalled 196 yards offensively while Snyder had 191. Wesley caught three passes for 81 yards. Top rushers were Roy Gutierrez wth 47 yards on 11 carries, Hunter with 38 steps on seven tries and Brad Newman with 17 yards on three carries.

Snyder will play its first home game next Thursday, hosting Lubbock Coronado at 7 p.m.

Freshmen defeat Steers

BIG SPRING -- Snyder freshman football teams defeated Big Spring in a pair of games played here Thursday evening.

Snyder A-team came from behind to win 42-26 while the Cat B-squad won 12-2.

"We were real pleased with the way our B-team played. They didn't have a whole lot of time to work together for the game," said Coach Larry Scott. "It gave us a chance to take a better look at some kids who came out late and it gave some kids a chance to show us what they could do."

Scott said the A-team "got off to a real slow start (down 12-6 at halftime) but really came back and played well the second half."

Details of both the A and B-team games will appear in Sunday's edition of The Snyder Daily News.

Snyder A-team is now 2-0 while the B-team is 1-0. The freshmen band together next Thursday, Sept. 25, to entertain Lamesa in a single game at 7 p.m.

8th grade teams win

Snyder eighth grade teams defeated Big Spring in football action here Thursday.

Snyder Gold defeated Big Spring 24-0.

Paul Anderson scored all four touchdowns for the Gold squad. He scored the Gold's first TD on a 30-yard sweep. The two-point conversion try failed.

Anderson did the trick again for 15 yards in the second quarter. Again, the pass-for-two was incomplete.

Late in the quarter, Anderson scored another time on a fourth-down play for an 80-yard run.

The final score came in the third quarter as Anderson took the sweep for 25 yards and a TD.

Later in the evening, Snyder Black defeated Big Spring 14-6.

The Cats tallied in the first quarter as Shelby Bufkin took the sweep 80 yards to score. Snyder converted the two-point conversion on a run by David Botts to lead 8-0 at halftime.

In the third quarter, Bufkin took a punt return 65 yards to score again. This time the conversion failed.

Big Spring scored late in the fourth quarter when safety Neil Mayfield intercepted a pass and ran it back for a touchdown.

"We were proud of the way our young men played," said Coach Roger Goodwin. "They have improved greatly over the last game. However, we still have a long way to go."

Snyder Gold is 2-0; the Black team is 1-1.

V-ball action

Snyder volleyball teams play in Andrews and Big Spring this Saturday for a full slate of action.

The Lady Tigers varsity will play 2-4A rival Andrews in a district match at 3 p.m. in Andrews. Junior varsity teams clash at 2 p.m.

In other action, Snyder freshmen battle Fort Stockton at noon in the Big Spring Tournament.

Snyder underclassmen will also play Saturday in tournaments at Big Spring. The seventh grade Gold will play Sweetwater at 10 a.m. while the seventh grade Black plays Goliad at 11 a.m.

The eighth grade Gold also plays Sweetwater at 10 a.m. and the Black plays Goliad at 11 a.m.

The seventh grade tournament will be held at Goliad; the eighth grade tournament at Runnels.

In 1980, New York Yankee southpaw pitchers won 68 games to establish a majorleague record.

After Babe Ruth left the New York Yankees, his uniform number, 3, was worn by five players until it was retired.

Ira looking for victory

Ira and Hermleigh hope to find their first victories of the season tonight as District 4-1A Six-Man ball teams continue to get ready for loop play.

Ira, 0-2, entertains Klondike while Hermleigh, 0-1, is at Loop.

In other East Zone games, McCaulley, 0-2, is at Guthrie; Jayton, 2-0 welcomes Dawson; Highland, 1-1, hosts Grady; and Blackwell, 1-1, entertains Sands.

State may transfer inmates to Salvation Army facilities

DALLAS (AP) — State prison officials are negotiating for the possible transfer of low-risk inmates to Salvation Army facilities after the state lost in its bid to transfer them to a National Guard armory.

"There is great need for an organization to help the state take these people who are on furloughs or might be released early. The Salvation Army is well-equipped to do that all across the state," Lt. Col. John Mikles, Salvation Army commander for Texas, told the Dallas Morning News in today's editions.

"The question is whether the state can afford what it would cost to do that. We have no money to do it ourselves," Mikles said.

The state last week proposed temporarily relocating 300 low-risk inmates to a barracks at Fort Wolters in Mineral Wells to comply with court-ordered population limits and avoid triggering early release of prisoners. But U.S. District Judge William Wayne Justice of Tyler blocked that plan Tuesday.

The Salvation Army currently operates halfway houses in Dallas and elsewhere around the state for inmates soon to be released from the Texas Department of Corrections system. The possibilities the state discussed Thursday with the agency would expand that program, Mikles said.

"We have facilities in 40 cities across the state, and some in the metropolitan areas are very large. We probably could handle 200 to 250 inmates across the state," he said.

James Riley, deputy director for operations toured the Salvation Army's new Carr P. Collins Service Center in Dallas Thursday, but Salvation Army Maj. Frank Gordon said no specific proposals were made.

Hershel Meriweather, an attorney on the staff of Gov. Mark White who advises the governor on prison issues, said he was unaware of the talks between the Corrections Department and the Salvation Army, but added, "I'm all for it."

During a Thursday news conference, Gov. Mark White predicted the federal courts eventually would permit the state to use the National Guard barracks to house inmates.

White said the state will continue to press the court for approval of the temporary transfer, adding that nothing in constitutional prohibitions against "cruel and unusual punishment" should prevent using the Guard barracks.

"The prison facility expansion we were trying to utilize there at Mineral Wells clearly is a constitutional setting for prisoners," White told his weekly news conference.

"We think it is something this court (Justice's) hopefully will permit. If not, then certainly on appeal we'll be permitted to expand our capacity," the governor predicted.

"The facilities there at Fort Wolters are adequate. The fact is, they're very nice accommodations. They've been utilized on a frequent basis by the National Guard, and if it's good enough for them it's good enough for the prisoners," White said.

The state also is negotiating to buy trailers formerly used by oilfield workers on the Alaska pipeline and now stored in Wyoming.

The state was ordered in 1982 to begin reducing inmate population in the Texas prison system. Related orders from Justice followe in 1983 and 1985.

Earlier this week the state admitted it would have exceeded Justice's crowding limits for five days

Homecoming due tonight

After Friday's game, the SHS National Honor Society will sponsor a coffee reception for exes in the high school library.

A dance sponsored by the student council in the student center is due also. Admission is $2 per person and may be purchased at the door.

All students and exes are invited to the dance. It will end at 12:30 a.m.

"The Year of the Tiger" is the theme for this year's homecoming.

Fiesta slated with weekend

Booths at the center will also open at noon Sunday.

At 6 p.m. that day, mariachi music will begin and a performance of the Ballet Folklorico is set for 6:15 p.m.

Fair continues into Saturday

Saturday will be provided at 10 a.m., 2 p.m. and 6 p.m. by Flower the Clown, appearing at the stage area.

Also at 7 p.m., a dog fashion show is planned at the stage area.

This will be followed at 8 p.m. by entertainment and fiddle music from the Weldon Reed Band.

On both Friday and Saturday, fair goers can enjoy the Kiddie Barnyard, the children's treasure hunt, the kid's wash, helicopter rides and the nightly attraction of carnival entertainment from Jest Amusement.

The fair officially closes at 10 p.m. Saturday.

For individuals bringing entries, they are asked to pick these up from 1 until 3 p.m. Sunday.

Directed verdict motion denied

LAS CRUCES (AP) — District Judge William Deaton has denied defense motions that kidnapping, rape, murder and conspiracy charges be dropped against a man charged in the slaying of Linda Lee Daniels.

Deaton denied the motions Thursday. The prosecution rested its case on Wednesday, and Johnny Zinn's attorneys argued Thursday that all charges should be dropped because there was no physical evidence linking Zinn to the death of Miss Daniels.

Meanwhile, the trial was postponed until next week after a key defense witness was killed in an incident officials say is unrelated to the case.

Jurors are to report back for duty Tuesday at 8:45 a.m., said Bernice Maynez, court clerk for Dona Ana County.

State District Judge William Deaton postponed the trial Wednesday afternoon and told jurors the shooting death of Tommy Myrick was unrelated to the trial.

Zinn, a 44-year-old assistant baker from Albuquerque, is accused of masterminding the abduction and slaying of Miss Daniels, 22. Miss Daniels' body was found in a culvert in the Jemez Mountains on Jan. 20, eight days after she vanished from her fiance's driveway in Albuquerque.

Myrick, 15, was expected to testify that Zinn was with him and his mother, Terry Myrick, the night Miss Daniels disappeared. Myrick was shot in the head Tuesday night while at a party with schoolmates, Albuquerque police said. His body was found Wednesday afternoon in the Pine Flats picnic area on New Mexico 14 southeast of Albuquerque.

The prosecution rested after several witnesses testified Zinn was looking for a woman to do a pornographic film in Farmington. An FBI agent from Albuquerque testified an investigation by that agency has failed to uncover any porno ring operating in Farmington.

James M. Scartaccini and Sidney T. Sliger have testified Zinn told them and Wallace Randolph Pierce to kidnap any woman off the street. They said Miss Daniels was taken to a motel, drugged and raped by the four men as pictures were taken. Zinn allegedly ordered her killed to conceal the identity of her abductors.

Zinn is charged with first-degree murder, kidnapping, first-degree criminal sexual penetration and conspiracy. If convicted on the murder charge, he could be sentenced to death.

Scartaccini, 17, struck a plea bargain with prosecutors that could set him free if he fulfills the terms of the deal.

Sliger, 21, pleaded guilty to reduced charges of third-degree criminal sexual penetration.
