

ASCS Mail Election To Be Held

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 7, 1967

SILVERTON, (Briscoe County) TEXAS

VOLUME 59 NUMBER 36

Reporting the story about the soybean demonstration that is being conducted in Briscoe County brings to mind a product that I had been meaning to "have a little say" about.

When we were on the coast this summer, the restaurant at which we ate several times not only spooned a little sour cream with chives (with calories picked out, of course) on their baked potatoes, but also sprinkled some little flakes of what we thought was bacon crumbles on them.

While we were on the coast, my parents were visiting relatives in Denver, and they brought home a jar of (I think this is how the brand-name is spelled) BAKOS. This is a product which their niece was sprinkling in salads. When I saw the little flakes, I knew that it was this type of thing we had been eating while in Corpus. And some weeks later, they conducted a little test of their own: They handed my cousin a little slice of ham, crumbled to bits about finger-nail size or smaller—and asked her to taste it and guess what it was. She nibbled at it, and said, "Well, it's either ham or bacon—I can't tell which."

And this product is 100% SOYBEAN—no fat, no carbohydrates, no anything except PROTEIN!

Think how a widespread consumption by humans of soybeans could affect local agricultural economy. When it is available in this area, try it. If you like it as much as I think you might, we can do a lot for agriculture by eating it all up so they'll have to make some more.

Better watch these research men. We'll be having soybean products with our eggs for breakfast.

Mr. Brunner, father of Mrs. Marvin Montague, was a former Lockney mayor. Having played football himself, he closely followed the athletic events in which his grandchildren were participants, and was a familiar figure at Silvertown ballgames. He subscribed to the Silvertown newspaper so he wouldn't miss any news about his "kids."

Silvertown's Oldest Business Sold

Willson - Nichols Lumber Company, established here in 1925 by the late T. M. Nichols and operated continuously by the Nichols family for forty years, has been sold this week, according to a joint announcement by Jim Tom Nichols and Ware Fogerson.

The lumber company has been operated on the site it presently occupies since the days when T. M. Nichols made his home here. The late Mr. Nichols served as Silvertown's Mayor, and continued to own real estate here after moving to Tulia, where he also had a lumberyard. His son, Jim Tom Nichols of Tulia, had continued to operate the business in more recent years.

Mr. and Mrs. Ware Fogerson purchased the lumber company effective September 6, and are in business at that location today.

The Fogersons have operated a lumber and supply business here since 1948. He is a lifetime resident of Silvertown, and Mrs. Fogerson, who is active in the business along with her husband, has been a resident of Silvertown since before her marriage. They have two children, Stanley, who received his degree at Tarleton State College this year, is married to a former Matador girl, and is continuing to live at Stephenville, and Mrs. Jack (Diane) Mayfield, who teaches at Albuquerque, New Mexico. Both Stanley and Diane are graduates of the local high school.

Fogerson's Lumber and Supply Company was destroyed by fire on February 23 of this year, and part of the company's regular business has been suspended since that time while the owners were involved in the purchase which was culminated Tuesday.

According to Fogerson, the business will continue to operate as Fogerson Lumber and Supply Company, and will continue to handle most of the brand-name products as before the fire. The Redi-Mix operation will remain at the old location for the present.

Owls Open Season At Hart Friday Night

Silvertown's Owls travel to Hart Friday night to meet the Longhorns at 8:00 o'clock in a non-conference game.

On defense, Jackie Davis will play guard, going in for Strange; Thurman May will replace Wood; and Grady will go in as linebacker, taking Comer's place.

According to Coach Stephens, all players are well and able to play. They will be running out of an information.

The Owls have shown talent in the pre-season scrimmages with Nazareth and Matador. The coaches are continuing to switch the backfield players, in an effort to find

The Hart Longhorns lost only two players last year. Coach Don Ewing's team is expected to be stronger this year than it has been in the past several seasons, led by Halfback Tommy Gonzales, who punts, passes, kicks, and generally is expected to be a star for Hart all season.

Leo Comer To Head Quarterback Club

Leo Comer was elected to serve as president of the Quarterback Club in their meeting Monday night. Charles Whitfill was elected vice-president and Mrs. Vivone Arnold was elected to serve as secretary-treasurer.

Funeral services were conducted last week for Mrs. Abbie Slaughter of Trinidad, Colorado, who passed away August 29 in the hospital at Raton, New Mexico following a short illness.

Soybean Field Demonstration Being Conducted Here

A soybean variety field demonstration is being managed at Silvertown by Leo Comer, in cooperation with the High Plains Research Foundation at Halfway. Three varieties have been planted on two separate dates for comparison in yielding ability and maturity dates. Protein and oil content will also be checked on each variety. On one test, the Hinn, Hill and an experimental variety, PA8-963 were planted as full-season crops. In the second test, the Patterson, Clark 63 and the experimental variety have been planted in an early-maturing study.

This demonstration will be shown to the public and an explanation of soybean research will be given by Dr. Douglas Owen, Head of the Research Foundation's oilseed staff, on September 22, 1967, at 9:00 a.m. in Silvertown. All persons who are interested will meet at the Production Credit

A mail election is being held during the third week of September, with ballots to be returned or postmarked Wednesday, September 20th. Ballots will be counted at the ASCS office on September 25th at 8:30 a.m. The county convention will be held at the ASCS office on September 27th at 8:30 p.m. Anyone interested in witnessing this ballot counting is invited to attend.

Spouses of eligible voters are also eligible to vote. If the spouse is a wife, she is urged to sign the certification envelope with her own given name and not her husband's. (example: Mrs. Ann Doe, NOT Mrs. John Doe.) If the certification is not signed correctly, the ballot will not be counted.

Each eligible voter is urged to cast his ballot. We need the best men available for committeemen. A good return of ballots will make the elected committeemen feel that the farmers of Briscoe County are behind them.

The nominee who gets the most votes will be Chairman of the community committee. The one who gets the second most votes will be Vice-Chairman, and the third most votes the Regular Member. Those getting the fourth and fifth most votes will be the first and second alternate community committeemen. The three community committeemen serve as delegates to the county convention to elect farmers to fill vacancies on the ASC county committee. The alternate community committeemen serve as alternate delegates.

A copy of the Regulations Governing ASC County and Community Committees is available for review in the ASCS county office. The ASC county committee decides questions on election procedure or eligibility to vote or hold office. Such decisions may be appealed to the ASC State committee.

Spider Mites

Spider mites are infesting many fields of grain sorghum throughout the county. Many farmers have either sprayed or are now spraying for this tiny microscopic sucking insect. This bluish green mite induces a toxic poison into the leaves and stocks of the grain sorghum plant, thus turning the leaves brown to resemble "firing-up" of the plant. In severe cases, the plant dies completely, thus the head is impaired and the stock falls over before harvesting can be done. Most farmers have been using ethyl parathion and systox for control.

PTA Schedules A Count-In

Every child counts, with the PTA. That's the reason the National Congress of Parents and Teachers is planning a special "count-in" of their parents and teachers as schools reopen this fall.

"The PTA believes that every child must be provided with what he needs to grow up healthy, secure, well-educated and useful to his community," says Mrs. Irvin E. Hendryson, of Albuquerque, N. Mex., president of the National PTA.

"To help secure these rights for all children," she declares, "the PTA counts on every citizen to work at expanding the opportunities of all America's children.

Parent-teacher associations (PTA's), organized in the 50 states, the District of Columbia and schools for American dependents overseas, begin enrolling new members with the first PTA meeting of the school term and usually concentrate on membership enrollment during October.

This year, they will give particular attention to reaching parents in low-income areas.

One of the many valuable services any PTA provides, Mrs. Hendryson believes, is "the opportunity for parents and teachers to know each other in a social situation. They are the people most important in a child's world, and the child can't help benefiting from their friendly collaboration.

"In poor areas, especially," she notes, "this friendly relation between home and school is of particular value because it's where children most need help."

PTA's can work to improve educational opportunity, to protect dependent or delinquent children, to improve health care and to provide the leadership for vibrant community programs that will serve all children, Mrs. Hendryson points out.

Because every child counts with the PTA, its activities cover all the varied needs of children—for kindergartens, adequately financed schools, well-trained teachers, along with the proper nourishment, good health and favorable emotional climate in which to learn from them.

"We need many members to cover such wide-ranging programs," says Mrs. Hendryson. "So our task this fall is to persuade every parent and every teacher that he too counts, with the PTA."

As PTA's start their "count-ins" this fall, Mrs. Hendryson is urging them to demonstrate that "PTA is where the action is."

She has suggested, for example, that local units take the lead in sponsoring "cultural happenings" for youngsters. Some branches of the National PTA, she notes, have developed art mobiles, comparable to the popular bookmobiles, which bring traveling exhibits of painting and sculpture to school children in remote areas. Other PTA's regularly sponsor musical concerts or provide tickets for theatrical productions to children who would not otherwise attend them.

"With something as simple as a folk festival," says the PTA's national president, "we can do much to enrich the lives of children."

At the Top It's a PTA Family

New president of the National PTA, Mrs. Irvin E. Hendryson, of Albuquerque, N. Mex., is shown with her daughter, Mrs. Philip S. Weld, Jr., of Beverly, Mass., and 18-month old Sarah Weld, one of her four grandchildren.

Mrs. Hendryson, who will head the 11-million member organization until 1970, is a former professional librarian and the wife of an orthopedic surgeon.

Two of her special interests as National PTA president are "to encourage parents to read to their children, especially, in their preschool years" and to stimulate continued close cooperation between PTA's and the medical and health organizations that helped develop the PTA program of Continuous Health Supervision of children from early childhood through adolescence.

One of every six adults in the U.S. has been a 4-H member, claims the Cooperative Extension Service. At the present time the total 4-H Alumni in 50 states is some 26 million men and women. Their influence in community, state and nation is often noteworthy and merits special attention. One such way is through the 4-H Alumni Recognition program, now in its 15th year.

Men and women from all walks of life are nominated by friends and relatives for alumni honors including awards provided annually by the program sponsor, Olin Mathieson Chemical Corporation.

Among prominent people who have received the 4-H alumni gold key—the highest award—are educators, businessmen, statesmen, farmers, entertainers, clergymen and an astronaut.

They include Edd H. Bailey, president of Union Pacific Railroad; Mary Merryfield, a syndicated newspaper columnist; Astronaut Alan B. Shepard Jr.; Roy Rogers, movie and television star; Mrs. Dexter Otis Arnold, past president of General Federation of Women's Clubs; Robert Simpkins, prominent New Jersey farmer; J. Earl Coke, recently retired vice president, Bank of America, and Dr. George W. Beadle, president, University of Chicago.

For information on how to submit names for alumni awards, contact the county extension office. The former 4-H'er need not now reside in his home county or state.

Mrs. Lesley teaches English to high school juniors at Scottsdale in the Isleta School System, and Lesley coaches at Coronado, a new high school in the El Paso System.

Pfe. and Mrs. Guy Breedlove of Colorado Springs have spent his 15-day leave with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Breedlove and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin May and Thurman.

Among those attending the Wise County reunion in Mackenzie Park in Lubbock were Coy Chappell of Amarillo; Mrs. C. M. Chappell, A. H. Chappell and J. E. Wheelock.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Chappell and family of Amarillo, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Grosdidier and children, Mr. and Mrs. Warner Grabbe and family have been recent Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Chappell.

VIEWPOINT

September brings autumn with its unpredictable Panhandle weather and its falling leaves of red and gold.

But to most of us, the students of America, it brings something more. It brings books and paper and pencils (and Senior rings). September brings a new year in terms of SCHOOL.

A new year with a new football team (who'll win all their games of course), new teachers, new students, and the same old building. What we make of this year is completely up to us. But now—at the beginning—is the time to start off on the right foot.

Let's start the year with a good, strong, school spirit and the right attitudes. If we do this, we can't possible go wrong.

So—Good Luck, S.H.S.

Owls Tie In Pre-Season Game

by Coach Fox

The Silverton Owls and the Matador Matadors fought to a 6-6 tie at Matador last Thursday night in a pre-season scrimmage. Both teams looked good on defense. The Owls penetrated the Matador twenty-yard line twice, while the Matadors crossed the Silverton twenty only once.

The Owl offense was led by backs Lanny Arnold, Tim Mattheus and Bill Strange. Harvey Masey and Van May, Owl linebackers, anchored down the defense.

APATHY

by Ian Lanham

Today in the classes, organizations and society there is a strong feeling of apathy. In classes one often feels that he can make it without really trying, and seems to say, "why try?" In organizations too many times it is said: "Let someone else do it."

Apathy can kill an organization. No matter how strong an organization may be, if its members develop the "I don't care" feeling, it will die. Everyone has to do his part and not leave the responsibility to a small group. When apathy sets in, the challenge disappears. It is true that one may never try and still pass, but when the challenge of doing your best is gone, the challenge of success will disappear. If there is no challenge there can be little success.

Often we fail to realize that someone new in our school may be lonesome and unhappy here. It never enters our minds to make a move to welcome him. Why? For the simple reason that we don't care.

This is something everyone has to guard against. Apathy can ruin school spirit and organizations. It can almost ruin a person's future if it goes on long enough. The time has come for us, as students of Silverton High School, to start taking an interest and caring!

Student Council Elects Sponsor

by Juannah Nance
Student Council members met September 4, and elected T. A. Thornburg as their sponsor for the coming year.

Receive Rings

School opened on a Monday and S.H.S. Seniors officially became Seniors the following day when they were presented their class rings by Principal O. C. Rampley.

Seldom do people realize how much this beautiful ring symbolizes. It represents twelve years of learning, experiencing, growing, and maturing almost to an end. It is the first evidence of that last year in high school. Next to a college ring or a wedding band, the traditional Senior ring is the most prized possession of all. It is one of the few lasting, enduring symbols.

Several years ago, Silverton's Senior ring was standardized. It is a round synthetic ruby set in a gold mounting surrounded by "Silverton H. S., Texas". On either side of the stone is the school mascot, a tiny, engraved Owl, with the year beneath it.

If you see a Senior soon, stop him and look at his class ring. He'll be very proud to show it to you.

Silverton Whips Nazareth Here

by Coach Fox

Silverton's Owls pulled off an easy six touchdowns to defeat the scoreless Nazareth Swifts August 25.

The Owl offense was led by Quarterback Lannie Arnold, who mixed inside traps with outside belly plays. The offensive line opened large holes in the Nazareth line to send Halfbacks Tim Mattheus and Johnny Roy Weaver on long runs.

The Owl defense never allowed the Swifts past the midfield line. Linebackers Harvey Masey and Van May and Ends Lynn Frizzell and Randy Cantwell kept Nazareth bottled up to the inside.

Silverton totaled 400 yards rushing on forty offensive plays from scrimmage. The majority of the yards gained rushing came over the backs of Tackles Harvey Masey and Dale Sissney and Guard Larry Comer.

WHAT ORGANIZATIONS?

by Jackie Tate

Organizations were designed for people who like to meet people, who like to have fun, and who would like to enjoy high school. Of course, it is always a new and different experience for newcomers.

There are Future Homemakers of America and the Pep Squad for girls, and Future Farmers of America and the "S" Club for the boys. Anyone can join the Future Teachers of America, Future Business Leaders of America or the National Honor Society.

In our schools, these organizations and their sponsors meet the needs of pupils after lessons are over, for a time of fellowship, to get better acquainted, and for those who participate as officers, leadership training.

Won't you join us this year and help your school and yourself on our push ONWARD?

SPIRIT!

by Kathy Self

Two weeks before school began if you'd have happened by the football field at S.H.S., you'd have seen the makings of our football team. The boys were sacrificing and working for a ball club of which our school can be proud.

These boys are representing our school. Even though they have been working hard, they need the backing of the students, parents and people of our community.

The players should be commended for the spirit they have displayed. We would like to wish them luck during the coming season.

IT'S SCHOOL TIME AGAIN

by Kathi Perkins

It's school time again. It is time to work hard and study hard. Why wait until the last minute to buckle down and study? That is the worst thing for a person to do. Sure, he can pass, but look at all the worrying and cramming he will have to do.

It is best to study first and save all that effort that will come later. Don't wait until the last six weeks or even the last semester to decide to start studying, trying all at once to make up for all the other times you didn't make the grade.

Anytime you need help, ask for it. Don't keep putting it off and then, just before a test, go rushing up to a teacher screaming about not understanding something.

If a student starts learning and understanding from the first, it will come easier later. Even if you are barely passing, why not bring your grade up as much as possible. Don't lie down on the job simply because you are passing. Go as far as possible, and bring out the best in yourself. You'll find it will be completely worthwhile!

Your Own Future Prosperity

Spend a dollar here at home and it's a vote FOR the improvement of your own individual well-being.

Because it's a dollar that keeps on working for you . . . circulating and creating more trade volume in your own community.

Trade volume that makes YOUR business better, YOUR job more secure, YOUR schools and churches better, YOUR local investments more valuable and profitable.

Spend a dollar away from home and it's a vote AGAINST the life and growth of this community . . . the prosperity of which has much to do with the kind of living that YOUR work will provide for you.

Many small town folks have helped to vote themselves out of business, out of jobs, and out of investments which were the savings of a lifetime, by casting their $-ballots AGAINST the community in which they live.

Take a minute to think about Vietnam. Think about brave men. A rifleman in a rice paddy. The gunner's mate who postponed college. The 'copter pilot and his wounded marine passenger. Those men are Americans. Those men are there. Those men are fighting for freedom—and supporting it with their dollars, too, through the Payroll Savings Plan. They deserve your support.
