WORKED HARD, AVOIDED BOYS

ST. ASAPH, Wales, Nov. 20. — Britain's oldest inhabitant, Miss Isabella Shepherd, who claimed to remember the coronation of Queen Victoria in 1836, died today. Her official age was 115, but she may have been older.

Miss Shepherd, long a household servant, attributed her age to "hard work and no boy friends."

Greece's New Cabinet Asks Solon Approval

ATHENS, Nov. 20. — Greece's new coalition cabinet asked parliament tonight to give it a vote of confidence and then suspend meetings while the government launches a new program against Communist guerrillas.

Parliament was asked to suspend its sessions until Feb. 1, during which time the cabinet would assume legislative functions and be safe from overthrow.

Premier Themistokles Sophoulis, leader of the liberal party, opened the debate by outlining plans for a relentless economic and military drive to wipe out the guerrillas.

As he spoke, supporters of the Liberal-Popular coalition were trying desperately to line up enough members of parliament to win the vote of confidence.

Sophocles Venizelos, deputy leader of the Liberal Party, was working to topple the government. Venizelos forced the resignation of the previous Liberal-Popular cabinet a week ago, charging it had failed to crush the guerrillas, but Sophoulis agreed to try again with a similar coalition.

FEWER MURDERS

Texas Crime Rate Drops, Says Survey

AUSTIN, Nov. 20. — Fewer people are being murdered in Texas this year than in 1947. There is less rape. Robberies, burglaries and thefts are also on the decline.

The crime rate—covering seven major crime categories—is 18.1 per cent less than that of last year.

These facts were revealed today in a Texas crime report prepared by the Texas Department of Public Safety.

The report covered only the first nine months of the year, but rates of crime per 100,000 population were estimated on the assumption that the monthly average of offenses will remain at the present average for the rest of the year.

The estimated total of all offenses for the January-through-September period was 59,435 compared with 72,570 for the same period in 1947. This means there were 1,235 offenses per 100,000 population.

The ratio last year was 1,508 per 100,000.

A breakdown showed 851 murders and homicides in the first nine months of 1948, 29.3 per cent less than for the like period of 1947.

There were 692 cases of rape, a 33 per cent reduction; 1,406 robberies, down 18.1 per cent; 15,681 burglaries; a decline of 15 per cent, 5,690 aggravated assaults, off 15.7 per cent; 29,334 thefts, a drop of 17.5 per cent; and 5,781 auto thefts, 26 per cent fewer than in the first nine months of last year.

Opposition Given At U. N. Assembly

PARIS, Nov. 20. — The United States announced its opposition today to a part of the British-supported Bernadotte plan which would slice the huge Negev Desert from Israel and give it to the Arabs.

The American position was stated by U. S. Delegate Philip C. Jessup in the 58-member political committee of the United Nations Assembly.

In what he described as a preliminary statement, Jessup followed closely President Truman's declaration of Oct. 24 that no reductions in Israel's territory should be made without full consent of the Jews.

Jessup spoke during debate on the recommendations of Count Folke Bernadotte, slain UN mediator, which Britain is seeking to have the assembly approve. Jessup said the United States was in accord with Bernadotte's conclusions, with the exception of certain principles concerning boundaries.

This was a reference to Bernadotte's proposal that the Jews give up the Negev desert, assigned to them under the partition plan of Nov. 29, 1947, and keep Western Galilee, which originally was assigned to the Arabs. This swap would reduce the size of Israel by about 60 per cent.

Jessup said the United States supported Israel's claim to the boundaries of the original partition plan. He added, however, that if Israel desires additional territory "it would be necessary for Israel to offer an appropriate exchange through negotiations."

This was interpreted as a suggestion for Israel either to renounce Western Galilee, which Israeli forces now hold, or to offer some part of the Negev in exchange.

Jessup spoke amid these other UN developments:

1. Russia delivered a lengthy reply to a questionnaire submitted to the four big powers by Security Council President Juan Antonio Bramuglia on the currency phase of the Berlin controversy.

2. The assembly's No. 2 political committee approved an American proposal to extend the life of the interim committee, which is known as the Little Assembly. The vote was 44 to 6, with only the Soviet bloc countries voting in the negative.

VACATION OVER

Truman Gets Ready For Peace Talks

KEY WEST, Fla., Nov. 20. — President Truman put away his slacks and open-neck shirts tonight to fly back to Washington for important peace talks.

A "wonderful" two weeks vacation ended, he boards the "Independence," at 10 o'clock Sunday morning for the four-hour flight to the White House.

There, at 12:30 o'clock Monday afternoon he will sit down with Secretary of State Marshall for the first of a series of conferences to review the nation's foreign policy.

A meeting with his cabinet, the first since the election, is probable on Friday.

The President also will talk with W. Averell Harriman, roving ECA ambassador.

The White House clamped tight the lid of secrecy surrounding its consideration of Chiang Kai-Shek's personal appeal to the President for a new American policy statement of support for the hard-pressed Nationalist government of China. It made public neither the Chinese president's letter, nor Mr. Truman's reply.

Secretary of Defense Forrestal flew down Thursday after ordering 1,250 additional Marines into Tsingtao, China and transports to remove Americans from the path of advancing Communist forces.

However, he and the President postponed discussion of the Chinese situation to talk of the European picture and the question of rearming Western Europe.

Mr. Truman made it clear the United States will not participate in separate four-power peace talks until Soviet Russia lifts its blockade of Berlin.

Texan Says Aid Draws Industry From This State

AMARILLO, Nov. 20. — State Sen. Grady Haslewood charged today that some of the major carbon companies are using the European recovery plan to shift the carbon black industry from Texas to England and thereby do much toward taking industry out of Texas.

Most of the carbon black made in the world is manufactured from natural gas in Haslewood's Texas Panhandle district. Haslewood said that Texas law had favored the carbon companies, that the industry had been developed in Texas so that it could exceed the world demand for carbon black.

Haslewood said already one of the big black manufacturers in the Panhandle has been granted American approval to build a plant in England to make carbon black from Middle East petroleum. He said that present plans called for construction of enough carbon plants in England within the next two years to supply the needs of the United Kingdom.

Roaches Called Disease Spreaders By U. T. Expert

AUSTIN, Nov. 20. — Cockroaches carry diseases, a University of Texas scientist reported today to the Texas branch meeting of the Society of American Bacteriologists.

Dr. O. B. Williams, bacteriology professor, said research by himself and Miss Ruth Bitter, recent university graduate, showed that cockroaches are carriers of organisms that cause intestinal disturbances in human beings.

Roaches were found to carry intestinal diseases which are types of dysentery, paratyphoid fever, and food poisoning, Dr. Williams said.

Texas Girl Marries Scion Of Du Ponts

NEW YORK, Nov. 20. — Dorothy Elizabeth Barton, blonde Texas musician, and Alfred Victor Du Pont, scion of the Du Pont family of Delaware, were married today at the Park Ave. home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Thomas B. Barton.

The Rev. Charles Ernest Freeman of the Irvington, N. J., Episcopal Church, officiated.

Gunman Hunted In South Plains

LUBBOCK, Nov. 20. — Authorities over the South Plains tonight were on the lookout for a lone gunman who entered the People's Finance and Guaranty Co. and managed a narrow escape with his life instead of an intended holdup loot.

Ralph L. Reed, manager, was standing behind a desk when the man walked in. Reed, believing he recognized the man as the same one who had held up the business earlier this year, dropped behind a counter, grabbed a pistol and fired once. The bandit, after threatening to shoot Mrs. Reed, and in turn being threatened by Reed, fled.

Says We Must Stick It Out In Berlin

BERLIN, Nov. 20. — A member of a seven-man U. S. congressional group here on a tour of Europe said today the delegation is "convinced that America has to stick it out here and not let Berlin become another Munich."

The spokesman was Rep. Melvin Price (D-Ill.) of the House Armed Services Committee.

Blasted Gas Pump Station Bypassed To Race Cold Wave

SEYMOUR, Ind., Nov. 20. — Workmen installed bypass "Big Inch" and "Little Inch" natural gas lines today around the pumping station which was demolished by two explosions that injured 18 workers.

As a new cold wave headed east, officials of Texas and Eastern Transmission Corp., which operates the pipelines, hoped to restore service in both tonight.

While investigators rummaged through the scorched ruins, one Texas and Eastern official said high pressure in the "Big Inch" line might have burst a "patch point" and caused last night's blasts.

State police said an official of the company estimated damage at the Redding Pumping Station, eight miles northeast of here, at $1 million and said lost gas might be worth just as much.

The burning gas flared 500 feet into the air for almost three hours last night, lighting the sky as far away as Cincinnati, O., Louisville, Ky., and Muncie, Ind.

The 31 workers at the station escaped without serious injury. Only three of the 18 injured were hospitalized overnight.

Safe After Crash

PARIS, Nov. 20. — Fourteen persons miraculously escaped death tonight when a South African-owned passenger plane crashed into a power station on the outskirts of Orly Field here.

Nanking Road Fight In Offing

NANKING, Nov. 20. — Sporadic fighting persisted around Suchow today as both sides prepared for another battle on the road to Nanking.

Defense Minister Ho Ying-Chin told the cabinet there was still fighting near Nienchuan, 33 miles east of Suchow. This was the front on which the main Communist push was broken earlier this week.

The Evening Post said the Reds had attempted a new lunge here with four columns—possibly 40,000 men—but were thrown back when government planes joined the battle.

The press had nothing new to report 24 hours earlier that government troops had moved out 70 miles east of Suchow.

Other press accounts said Communist troops also tried to make another attack on Suchow, the railway point 50 miles south of Suchow, but were intercepted and encircled.

General Ho in his report to the cabinet emphasized that reinforcements were being sent to this sector of the front.

The government was rushing repairs to the damaged railway south of Suchow and along the Lunghai line stretching east.

The area still appeared dotted with Communist bands.

New York CIO Is Killed For Hewing Communist Line

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 20. — The CIO executive board today revoked the charter of the New York City CIO Council on the ground that this body has given "Slavish adherence" to the Communist Party line.

The decision, which CIO President Philip Murray said was by a vote of 38 to 5, ends the case.

In a joint statement James Durkin, president of the New York City Council, and Saul Mills, executive secretary, said they will not appeal the verdict to the CIO convention next week.

They denied the charges of Communist Party dictation, but said they would accept the decision in the interests of CIO unity.

The executive board appointed Louis Hollander, president of the New York State CIO Council, to take over all property and funds of the city group and wind up all its affairs.

APPARENTLY HAS ROPING TITLE NAILED DOWN

Toots Mansfield Takes Over The Lead In 'World's Champion Cowboy' Contest

Toots Mansfield, five times world champion calf roper, apparently had nailed down his sixth title and had a lead in the race for "world's champion cowboy."

He also was leading in the steer roping event in standings announced as of Nov. 15 by the Rodeo Cowboys association, of which Mansfield is president. Announcement of standings was made by Earl Lindsey, Fort Worth, manager of the RCA.

Runner-up behind Mansfield in the champion cowboy chase is Gerald Rogers, Phoenix, Ariz., who dropped from the lead after holding the No. 1 spot for three consecutive months from July to October. Mansfield had 20,132 points, 18,600 for Rogers and 18,372 points for Todd Whitley, Bethel, Okla.

While time has run out on the ratings, there are some 30 to 40 shows yet to be reported, and these could change standings. Rogers made the San Francisco show, which might give him a chance to overhauled Mansfield, who has not participated in as many shows.

Mansfield had 17,205 points in calf roping, so far ahead of Zeno Farris, Las Cruces, N. M., with 11,697 that Mansfield appeared certain to sack up his sixth title in this event.

Other leaders are Dab Phillips,

All-around cowboy—Toots Mansfield, Big Spring, 20,132; Gerald Rogers, Phoenix, Ariz., 18,600; Todd Whitley, Bethel, Okla., 18,372; Bill Linderman, Billings, Mont., 16,878; Harry Tompkins, Tulsa, Okla., 15,539; Gene Rambo, Shandon, Okla., 15,195; Chuck Sheppard, Phoenix, Ariz., 14,516; Homer Pettigrew, Chandler, Ariz., 14,143; Vern Castro, Richmond, Calif., 13,979; and Shoate Webster, Lenapah, Okla., 13,883.

Steer wrestling—Dab Phillips, San Angelo, 9,005; Homer Pettigrew, Chandler, Ariz., 8,755; Ken Boen, Danville, Ill., 8,680; Barney Willis, White Salmon, Wash., 7,584; Todd Whitley, Bethel, Okla., 7,103.

U. S. Economic Machine Sets Smashing Mark

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20. — The nation's economic machine got record-smashing results in the third quarter of this year.

It produced goods and services at an unprecedented annual rate of $256 billion, the Commerce Department estimated tonight.

The turnout for that quarter, covering the July-August-September period, was $6 billion above the rate of the preceding quarter and $11 billion above the rate in 1948's first three months.

Spending, of course, kept pace as an over-all matter. But officials found significance in the fact that outlays for personal consumption rose less than did personal income.

"Personal spending is more dependent on income now," one told a reporter. "In the early part of the postwar boom, people increased spending even if they didn't get an increase in income. Now it looks like they wouldn't spend as much if they didn't get more."

Personal income, after deducting tax payments amounting to more than $20 billion on an annual basis, moved to a record high rate of $198,700,000,000 a year in the third quarter, up $5,500,000,000 from the second quarter.

Yet personal consumption expenditures, although reaching a record rate of $178,500,000,000 a year, advanced only $2 billion over the second quarter pace.

The difference was reflected in personal saving. That rose $3 billion on an annual basis to a $15,300,000,000 yearly rate.

Government spending on goods and services, on the other hand, took a $4,200,000,000 jump to an annual rate of $37,700,000,000 during the July-September period.

State and local government payroll rises and increased construction outlays contributed to the gain in government spending, but the federal government was chiefly responsible.

Its payroll and construction expenditures also increased, but even more important were the jumps in spending for foreign aid and in outlays to help hold up prices of farm products.

Reviewing The Big Spring -Week-

Joe Pickle

Latest Rodeo Cowboy Association ratings indicated Toots Mansfield has earned his sixth title as champion calf roper. That's comparable to winning the major league batting championship that many times. All of his points have been in roping, and he is going to be right up front to the finish in the all-around cowboy title on the strength of his lariat artistry. Had he made a few more shows, there wouldn't be any doubt about it.

This has been a particularly bad week for crashes. From the time a collision occurred north of here last Sunday morning in a fog, a regular plague of wrecks has set in. Several serious injuries have resulted along with heavy property damage. Big Spring is shooting for at a year without traffic fatalities in the city limits, but if something doesn't change, we may not make it.

The big breeze Thursday will qualify as a sandstorm even to seasoned West Texans. When dirt rolls in like a wall and laps overhead in folds, it's out of the duster.

New VA Hospital Progresses Rapidly

Daily assuming proportions of the massive structure it will be, the Veterans Administration 250-bed general medical and surgical hospital is now past the one-third mark.

Bricklayers are making steady progress and with window sash being caulked and set, the north portion of the main building is rapidly being enclosed to the extent that workmen can continue operations during colder weather.

First roofing is due to start Monday, according to Louis G. Bradley, U. S. engineer in charge of the project. High winds of the past week have given some concern about pressing this work.

Form work is continuing so smoothly that last of the concrete frame is due to be poured during the final week of 1948. Cooper Brown, superintendent for McKee Construction Co., general contractor on the six-million dollar job, said he hoped that this could be finished by Christmas.

Considerable duct work for mechanical ventilation is now going in place, and shafts are beginning to take on a maze of conduits and cables as electricians and communication workers rough in installations in the north wing. Other shafts for four elevators and four dumb waiters are plugged with wire netting for safety.

Carpenters and helpers are rigging up for other major pour on the south extension, which now is within two stories of completing its framework. Slab is being poured also for roof on a shop building just north of the main building.

The boiler is arriving now and being installed and as soon as it is in place, workers will go on up with the powerhouse building, which now has only foundations and the steel framework.

Hundreds of cases of fluorescent light fixtures are stored in the basement of the hospital now along with other supplies. Thousands of feet of copper tubing, joined by silver solder, also is going in place for service lines. Roughed in plumbing and electrical lines are being corrected for wall placement.

The main building is in reality

NOT OVER

Chest Drive Short Of Goal

Headquarters for the Community Chest closed here Saturday with the goal still about $3,500 away.

Although the formal phase of the solicitation was completed, R. L. Tollett, chest president and general chairman, asserted that "it is not over, and we do not intend to cease effort until we have reached the goal."

Cash and pledges received to late Saturday amounted to $33,491.16, and there were other contributions reportedly made but not yet reported to headquarters. By the time these are tabulated, the shortage may be whittled down to less than $2,500.

Workers canvassing T&P employees reported $209.25 to Saturday noon with D. L. Ringler's group leading with $107.25 and one headed by Charles Vines $101 in second place. McKee Construction company workers contributed $103. More work may be done on this part of the campaign Monday and Tuesday.

More than a score of young women from the Tri-Hi-Y and the Hi-Heel Slipper clubs Saturday gathered approximately $500 in the Red Feather Day effort.

Initial response to letters mailed out last week to individuals, on whom the Chest had no record of participation, were beginning to come Saturday. Dr. R. B. G. Cowper, clean-up chairman, urged quick response to these appeals as one means of putting the Chest within easy reach of realization.

Tollett called a meeting of the board of directors for Tuesday evening, the time to be set later. At that time a review will be had of the progress to date and means of obtaining the outstanding amount discussed.

No Agreement Seen In Coast Strike

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 20. — Negotiations to settle the 80-day West Coast maritime tie-up entered their ninth day today.

There were no indications that an agreement would be reached before tomorrow's midnight deadline, but it was likely that an extension of the negotiating period may be agreed upon.

Horseback Preacher Still Riding Circuit In Texas

Parker County still has a circuit-riding horseback preacher, a grizzled, kindly old farmer-philosopher who spends Saturday in the saddle to deliver the Word of God on Sunday.

Every weekend for 34 years, 76-year-old Benjamin Johnson Forbes has traveled by horse or buggy to preach in the churches of Parker and neighboring counties.

"When I wore out my last buggy," he says, "I couldn't get another one. So for 16 years Ollie has been carrying me."

Ollie is Forbes's 20-year-old paint mare, a fat, patient creature which pulls the preacher's plow five days a week and totes him to and from his guest pulpit assignments the other two days.

Before Ollie, Brother Forbes, as he is known, had a sorrel mare.

"The sorrel was too rough to ride but he sure could get along with that buggy. Ollie rides smooth and easy. She's a 'fox trotter' and a single-footer but mostly a fox-trotter. A 'fox trotter' is a lot easier on a man than a jog trotter." Forbes lives in the Balch community of Parker County, 12 miles south of Weatherford. He owns 265 acres, most of which he leases to his daughter and son-in-law with whom he resides. But he reserves for himself and Ollie a small orchard, a garden and 10-acre plot on which he grows cotton, feed and corn. "I also own a couple of hogs."

Up at dawn, Forbes farms until dusk five days per week. He works without rest, not even taking time out for lunch. "Ollie and I figure two meals a day are enough for us."

A minister of the Church of Christ, Brother Forbes preaches in Parker, Palo Pinto, Erath and Hood Counties. "Distances don't make much difference. Ollie and I get up early and travel late. And we take the near cuts. Just strike right out over the fields and little roads and once in a while we hit an old road, no longer in use, that I traveled decades ago. A man can really think back riding an old road for an old road's like meeting an old friend." While following the plow on weekdays or riding Ollie to church, on weekends, Forbes composes and rehearses his sermons. "I followed Brother Forbes across my ranch the other day," a friend says. "He didn't know I was there and I listened to one of the best sermons I ever heard."

And Forbes declares: "A man can lose himself and prepare a sermon on horseback. He never could do that in a car—most likely he'd find himself in a ditch."

Sometimes, riding along on Ollie, brother Forbes reflects on the state of the world. "I've always been an optimist and hope I always will be. I think everything will turn out for the best. There's a great world crime wave on now, but crime waves ebb and flow like the ocean tides."

A native of Pettus County, Mo., Forbes came to Collin County, Texas in 1889. He went to Add-Ran Christian College at Throp Spring, Hood County (a school that later became Texas Christian University). After leaving the college in 1898 he taught school in Parker and Hood Counties before settling down to his main occupation as a farmer.

Brown-eyed Brother Forbes was Parker County's representative in the Texas Legislature from 1926 to 1932. Slightly built and of medium height, he weighs 140 pounds, his thick crop of hair is now grey.

"Once it was red as a woodchuck... folks could warm their hands over it in the winter." Overall, a cotton shirt and an old straw hat cannot hide the innate dignity of this quiet, serious, well-loved man. There is dignity in his weather-proof face, in his manner and voice, and in his strong, toll-scarred hands the dignity is there.

To find the oldtimer you follow a lonely country road a dozen miles south of Weatherford. You go through a couple of barbed wire gates, cross a cottonfield path and stop your car at the bank of a dry river. After that, you are on foot and you follow the river a quarter of a mile, cross it, and walk through snagging brush another quarter of a mile and then you catch sight of Forbes and Ollie, plowing.

This year, he and Ollie plowed, planted and picked three acres of cotton which yielded a bale, and five acres of corn which amounted to 125 bushels. All that, besides the feed crop. Forbes never hires any help. "Ollie and I do every lick."

Poster Awards Made At 'Y'

Awards were made Saturday by the Child's Study club to winners in the poster contest for Book Week, which ended Saturday.

The presentation took place at the YMCA with Mrs. Escol Compton as chairman, assisted by Mrs. Jack Y. Smith, Mrs. Stanley Cameron, and with Mrs. Benny H. Collins, county librarian, distributing prizes of $2.50, $1.50 and $1 to three winners in each of three divisions. Those earning honorable mention were presented a volume of "Books I Have Read." Money gifts were from the Friends of the Howard County Library association and the books from the library.

Judging, by a committee composed of Mrs. Ben LeFever, Mrs. T. C. Thomas and Nell Brown, was on the basis of originality of ideas and execution of those ideas. Among the first and second graders, Lee Jones (West Ward) won first place. Clare Jane Griffin (West Ward), second and Sam Junior Duncan (Lakeview colored) third.

In the third through the fifth grades, Judith Miller (Airport) set the pace, followed by Jacqueline Smith (West Ward) and Wayne Riddle (North Ward).

Jo Ann Williams (North Ward) won first in the sixth through eighth grade class, followed by Jeneva Pearl Taylor (West Ward) and Jerry Snyder (Central Ward).

Honorable mention went to Jan Tillinghast, Mary Ann Nugent, Paty Hale, Frances Tilley, Charles Lane Johnson, Darla Faye Craft, Larry Morgan, Dean Holland, Sandra Kay Williams, Eli Brown, Jr., M. W. Williams. Making posters jointly were Huberto Hernandez, Amelia Ochotoma, Lola Vela, Valdemar Deporto, Mike Hernandez.

Juan Munoz, Lydia Corroder, Octaviano Ramirez, Lee Palanco. Those receiving honorable mention had their posters displayed by co-operating Big Spring business houses.

Pausing during Book Week for a recapitulation, Mrs. Collins said that 239 additional juvenile books, 146 adult books and 63 easy books were put on the shelves during the week. A total of 108 adult books were checked out during the week along with 159 juvenile books. The library reported 89 new members. Activities included visits by 52 Lakeview pupils, 25 pupils from South Ward, 60 from North Ward and 46 for the Airport.

The Knott home demonstration club presented the library with the book, "Trails Plowed Under," by Charles Russell as a memorial to Mrs. Mattie Jones.

RHEUMATISM YIELDS TO SPECIALIZED SYSTEM OF TREATMENT

Excelsior Springs, Mo., Nov. 20.—So successful has a specialized system proven for treating rheumatism and arthritis that an amazing new book will be sent free to any reader of this paper who will write for it.

The book entitled, "Rheumatism," fully explains why drugs and medicines give only temporary relief and fail to remove the causes of the trouble.

The Ball Clinic, Excelsior Springs, Mo., has perfected a specialized system of treatment for rheumatism and arthritis combined with the world famous mineral waters and baths. This new system of treatment is fully described in the book and tells how it may be possible for you to find freedom from rheumatism.

You incur no obligation in sending for this instructive book. It may be the means of saving you years of untold misery. For writing promptly, the Clinic will send their newly combined book entitled, "Rheumatism—Good Health, Life's Greatest Blessing." Address your letter to The Ball Clinic, Dept. 2317, Excelsior Springs, Missouri, but be sure to write today.

The CHIROPRACTOR—and You

This is One Of A Series Of Articles Published In The Public Interest To Explain And Illustrate The Practice Of Chiropractic.

STOMACH TROUBLE. All forms of stomach trouble can be classed under two great divisions, namely, the organic and the neurotic. Organic disorders consist of those diseases which involve structural changes in the wall of the stomach. For example, ulcers of the stomach. Neurotic disorders are those conditions wherein the gastric juice is not normal in quality or in quantity.

There is often a confusing similarity between the symptoms of many forms of stomach trouble. A correct diagnosis is difficult to obtain. That is why one practitioner will often diagnose your case as one thing and another diagnose it as an entirely different condition. However, Chiropractic does not depend for its success upon a diagnosis of the case. The Chiropractor does not concern himself with whether the patient is suffering from gastritis, peptic ulcers or nervous dyspepsia.

THE CHIROPRACTOR KNOWS that something is wrong with the stomach; he knows that there are certain nerves supplying the stomach; and that these nerves branch out from the spine. He knows that these nerves must be free to carry nerve energy from the brain to the stomach, and that the only point along the entire course of the nerves where the carrying capacity can be interfered with is where the nerves emit from the spinal column.

So what does the Chiropractor do? He analyzes the spine, and where he finds a subluxation (a condition where the segments of the spine are not in proper alignment), he adjusts it with his hands, and because of this adjustment the pressure (or pinching) is removed from the nerves supplying the stomach. Now the nerves can carry their vital energy in normal quality and quantity to the stomach and under those conditions disease cannot exist. PERMANENT RELIEF. The relief which follows Chiropractic adjustments for stomach trouble or any condition of abnormality is not a temporary one, but permanent, because the cause of the disorder has been removed, and without cause there absolutely can be no disease.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION concerning the modern Chiropractor and what he can do for you, Phone 419.

Measles And Flu Increase In Texas

AUSTIN, Nov. 20. (AP)—The State Department of Health today directed attention to the increased incidence of measles and influenza throughout Texas.

The department's weekly report showed 261 new cases of measles, bringing this year's total to 47,541 compared to 7,229 a year ago. The record covers the period through Nov. 13. Influenza cases numbered 1,004 the past week compared to a seven-year average of 960 cases for the comparable time of year. However, the 1948 total is only 68,929 compared to 107,392 cases at this time in 1947.

Whooping cough and diphtheria are considerably below the totals of last year.

Twenty-seven polio cases were reported the past week, bringing this year's total to 1,664.

Wholesale Index Continues Drop

NEW YORK, Nov. 20. (AP)—The Associated Press index of 35 wholesale commodities declined for the second consecutive week.

The index, in which the base year 1926 equals 100, dropped to 179.06 this week from 179.14 a week earlier and 201.55 a year ago.

Non-ferrous metals advanced to a new 1948 high—200.32 compared with the previous week's 198.11. There also were advances in the grains and cotton and the textile category.

Industrials, food and livestock all showed declines from the previous week.

Pleads Guilty

Entering a plea of guilty to a charge of driving while under influence of intoxicating liquor, Paul S. Linder paid a $90 fine and costs in county court Friday afternoon. Driving privileges were suspended for a period of six months.

HEADS INTERNATIONAL GROUP

Garrison Honored As No. 1 Peace Officer Of World

AUSTIN, Nov. 20. (AP)—Col. Homer Garrison, Jr., No. 1 peace officer of the world.

That's what they called him at a recent dinner honoring the director of the Texas Department of Public Safety after he had been elected President of the International Association of Chiefs of Police.

Tribute came from many men. Bob Dysart, Fort Worth chief of police and president of the Texas Police Association, said it first: "Col. Garrison is not only the number one peace officer of Texas, but he is now the number one peace officer internationally. Texas peace officers respect him no end. I have never heard a single man speak a derogatory word of Homer Garrison."

Albert Sidney of Dallas, a member of the Public Safety Commission and one of the commissioners who originally named Garrison public safety director, expressed appreciation of the fine work done by Garrison and his department.

He remembered that the final ballot on which the commission chose Garrison director in 1938 "was based on what a fine woman his wife was. We knew he couldn't go wrong."

Johnson recalled "the natural suspicions that surrounded the creation of a new state department—fear that it would take away power from local officers."

"Cynics said, 'Well, it's started off all right, but just wait. It will be in politics. The merit system won't work.'"

Then Johnson thundered: "It's not in politics. There's no favoritism, and it's up to us and the people of Texas to see it never gets in politics."

Gov. Beauford H. Jester paid final homage.

He looked at the crowd of 225 persons who filled the hotel ballroom and observed that a cross section of every business and industry, all levels of state government, and every branch of law enforcement in Texas was present to honor Garrison.

"Texas honors its number one peace officer," said Jester. "We are grateful to you. You have given us a fine department of public safety, a department known throughout the nation."

Garrison, a 47-year-old husky who started his law enforcement career as deputy sheriff of Angelina County at 19, acknowledged the praise.

"I have always prided myself on the ability to rise to any occasion, but I can't tonight."

"This tribute and recognition—I don't feel it should come to me tonight, but to the men of my organization. I want them all to stand up so you can see them."

There was hearty applause for the men in the blue uniforms of the Highway Patrol, brown of the Drivers' License Division, and plain clothes of other office work-

Dying Boy Busy With New Toys For Christmas

BELLEFTONE, Pa., Nov. 20. (AP)—It was Christmas Day today for little Leo "Lucky" Jordan, 4, who doctors say has only two months to live.

The little fellow sat on the floor of his parents' trailer home and busied himself with dozens of shiny new toys, unaware that he is suffering from cancer of the lungs and doctors say there is no hope for his recovery.

Last night Lucky was taken to a downtown store after closing hours and was given his choice of anything he wanted in the toy department. A full-dressed Santa Claus acted as his personal guide.

"I must be a good little boy to have Santa Claus come to see me so soon," Lucky said happily as he filled his arms with toys.

Only his parents and a few fellow workers of his father, a metal worker, who arranged the party, attended the little boy's special Christmas.

The Jordans have one other child, a three-month-old boy.

Chilean President Says New Fascists In Overthrow Try

SANTIAGO, Chile, Nov. 20. (AP)—President Gabriel Gonzalez Videla says an "international group of new Fascists" is trying to wrest control of Latin American countries and "launch this continent on an absurd and incredible adventure."

Gonzalez Videla said the "conspirators" are characterized by "nationalist aggressiveness" and a "rabid, uncontrollable hatred of the United States."

The president blamed the "new Fascists" as the "real conspirators" in a plot to overthrow him three weeks ago. Sixty persons were arrested in the abortive uprising, including Carlos Ibanez del Campo, former president of Chile.

Moscow Forbids Hall's Wife To Join Him In U. S.

LONDON, Nov. 20. (AP)—Moscow has forbidden Alfred Hall's Russian wife to leave the USSR and join him here, so he tried to call her by telephone yesterday.

Seventy minutes and about 100 hello's later he gave up.

Hall had a friend call the British consulate in Moscow where Mrs. Hall is a switchboard operator. It was the second birthday of his son, whom he never has seen, and he wanted to talk about him.

The connection was strong and clear until Hall stepped to the phone.

"Hello, my darling," he greeted his wife. "Hello—hello, darling," she replied.

"How are you?" Hall asked. There was no reply.

His friend took over again and the line was restored but each time he started to talk there was an interruption or the line, unexplainably, went dead.

But in the gaps he got this over: "Tried to ring... sorry disappointed. Writing tonight... love you very much... happy returns to baby... never give up hope."

Lover Lecturer Has Act Stopped

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 20. (AP)—Remember Claude Marsan, 38, the Frenchman who made headlines a year or two ago with his lectures on how to make love?

Police said today he is one Frenchman who is making too good a thing out of love. They raided his "lecture" at a night club and arrested him and a young red-headed girl's assistant.

Both were charged with presenting an indecent show where minors might be present.

Miss Barbara Weir, 24, Marsan's assistant, said that the Frenchman lectured on love and then demonstrated.

"All I did was the feminine angle," she told police.

"Marsan serenaded me with a musical saw. I was fully clothed."

TEXANS IN WASHINGTON

State Will Have Versatile Team In Senate Next Year

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20. (U-P)—Texans will have a versatile team in the Senate next year.

The veteran 71-year-old Tom Connally and the dynamic Lyndon B. Johnson—whose 40 years make him a youth compared with the average senator—should complement each other.

Twenty years of service in the senate, coupled with the power and prestige that goes with the chairmanship of the Senate Foreign Relations committee, will make Connally a top-flight figure in the government when the Democrats assume complete control next Jan. 3.

The mere mention of his name when a state matter is being taken up with a governmental department commands respect and attention.

Senator-elect Johnson has vigor and personality—assets that will help offset his lack of seniority in a lawmaking body where seniority counts for much.

Of course, Johnson is wise in the ways of Washington and he has more experience in Congress than the average colleague with whom he will serve. His service in the House, dating from April 10, 1937, is longer than 72 of the 96 senators have served in the upper body—and two of those men will not be senators when the 81st Congress convenes.

Connally is renowned as an orator of the old school, and though the years are slowing him up somewhat, he is still a master both of flowery speech and invective. Johnson, on the other hand, seldom has spoken on the House floor. But he has been able to get things done through making friends with the right people in the right places.

Presumably, Senator Johnson will operate in the same manner as has Rep. Johnson.

Johnson's senatorial committee assignment is a question. When he took his House seat 11 years ago he went immediately on the Naval Affairs committee, a major assignment. Most freshmen congressmen have to start off on minor committees. But Johnson got off to a fast start with the personal backing of the late Franklin D. Roosevelt.

The young Texan's service on the House Armed Service committee (created by a merger of the naval and military affairs groups) would seem to qualify him for the same committee in the Senate.

Johnson also has been on the Joint Senate-House committee on Atomic Energy. Whether he continues in that group is a big question, for Connally also is on it as a senate representative.

After his appointment to the atomic committee, Johnson spent many long evenings poring over scientific works in quest of knowledge of a stupendous subject. Should Connally find his Foreign Relations committee chairmanship a full-time job, he might yield his atomic assignment to his junior colleague.

One on House side of the capital Texans will be involved in a number of committee shifts.

When the late Rep. Milton West of Brownsville announced early in the year that he would not seek reelection there was considerable speculation as to who might take over his coveted spot on the House Ways and Means Committee.

The Texas delegation will have to put up a scrap to keep a spot on that powerful committee, but with Bonham's Sam Rayburn serving as Speaker they might succeed. Both Clark Fisher of San Angelo and J. M. Combs of Beaumont have been mentioned for the position.

Corsicana Mayor's Mother Found Dead

DALLAS, Nov. 20. (U-P)—Mrs. T. J. Braselton, 65, prominent Dallas church leader and mother of Hubert Braselton, mayor of Corsicana, was found dead in Turtle Creek here Friday.

Justice of the Peace W. L. Sterrett withheld a verdict as to cause of death pending an autopsy report.

Mrs. Braselton had been missing since 7 o'clock Thursday night. At that time she left the home of a friend, three blocks from where her body was found.

Philosopher Says West Must Fight Or Let Reds Rule

LONDON, Nov. 20. (U-P)—Philosopher Bertrand Russell declared today the West must either fight Russia before she has the atom bomb or "lie down and let them govern us."

"Like all dictators, Stalin and the other Soviet leaders are living in a fool's paradise," 76-year-old Lord Russell told a London conference of school children and teachers.

"They don't realize the strength of our resources and that the United States and other Western powers would win any way now. That is the main gravity of the situation."

Russell said if the west waited until Russia had the atom bomb, it would find the Kremlin "much more difficult to argue with."

The philosopher—mathematician said he did not believe Russia had atomic weapons now because experimental explosions would have been detected.

Houston Man Killed

CORPUS CHRISTI, Nov. 20. (U-P)—Clyde Coleman Kerr, 45-year-old Houston resident, was fatally injured in a head-on collision between the car he was driving and a truck last night near Robstown.

RED LIGHT WILL HERALD TRUMAN

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20. (U-P)—The section of Pennsylvania Avenue running past the White House will have the city's only traffic light which can flash red in all directions at once.

The purpose: To stop all traffic while President Truman walks from his temporary home in the Blair House to his White House executive offices across the street.

The Trumans will live at Blair House while the presidential mansion is being repaired.

Case Dismissed

Dismissal was slated for a case lodged in county court against Freddie Perry on failure to stop and give information after a car collision. County Attorney George Thomas said Saturday afternoon that investigation of the matter indicated that no case was justified.

Faces DWI Charge

James W. Gibson faced a charge of driving while intoxicated. The complaint was lodged in county court after Gibson had been taken into custody Friday and turned over to the county for action.

Soap Plant Told To Stop Odors

WICHITA FALLS, Nov. 20. (U-P)—A soap plant here was restrained Friday from permitting the escape of offensive odors.

An injunction was granted by Judge William H. Atwell against the Soap Corporation of America after more than a score of persons protested that the odors offended them.

Eleven persons were awarded $31.916 in damages earlier in the week after damage suits against the firm.

Attorneys said that the injunction placed upon the soap company the responsibility of operating its plant without foul odors to avoid possible charges of contempt.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Nov. 20. (U-P)—The first edition of the Arkansas Gazette was published 130 years ago today.

The oldest paper west of the Mississippi River was founded Nov. 20, 1819 by William E. Woodruff.

Boy Killed By Car In Highway Mishap

THRIFTY, Nov. 20. (U-P)—Twelve-year-old Bobby Burnett was killed near here early last night as he walked along the highway with a school chum.

He was struck by a car officers said was driven by Jesse Graves. Sheriff Otis Shaw of Brownwood said the accident was unavoidable.

IF STOMACH BALKS DUE TO GAS AND BLOAT

Help Get Food Digested to Relieve Yourself of This Nervous Distress

Do you feel all puffed-up and miserable after every meal, taste sour, bitter food? If so, here is how you may get relief in helping your stomach do the job—it should be doing—in the digestion of its food.

Everytime food enters the stomach a vital gastric juice must flow normally to break-up certain food particles; else the food may ferment, sour food, and indigestion and gas frequently cause a morbid, touchy, fretful, nervous condition, loss of appetite, underweight, restless sleep, weakness.

To get real relief you must increase the flow of this vital gastric juice. Medical authorities, in independent laboratory tests on human stomachs, have by positive proof shown that 888 Tonic is amazingly effective in increasing the flow when it is too little or scanty due to a non-organic stomach disturbance. This is due to the 888 Tonic formula which contains special and potent stimulating ingredients.

Also, 888 Tonic helps build-up an organic, weak, watery blood in nutritional anemia—so with a good flow of this gastric digestive juice, plus rich red blood you should eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better. Avoid punishing yourself with over-doses of soda and other alkalies to counteract gas and bloating when what you so dearly need is 888 Tonic to help you digest food for body strength and repair. Don't wait! Join the host of happy people 888 Tonic has helped. Millions of bottles sold. Get a bottle of 888 Tonic from your drug store today. 888 Tonic helps build sturdy health.

Greyhound, Cafe Chain Executive Dies In Memphis

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Nov. 20. (AP)—Frederick Smith, 53, chairman of the board of Dixie Greyhound Bus Lines and president of the National Toddle House Corp., died here today.

He had been suffering from a heart ailment for about six months. Smith began his career which led him to head a bus line extending into nine states and the Toddle House restaurants, as a mechanic in a Memphis garage.

With money borrowed from a friend and with a little he had saved, he bought a small bus and began carrying passengers between Rosemark, Tenn., and Memphis. He drove the bus himself.

Five years later, his Smith Motor Coach Co. was merged with the Greyhound Lines.

'Spree' Desperado Is Adjudged Sane

CHICAGO, Nov. 20. (AP)—Irwin Kadens, 37, a former mild-mannered postal clerk who went on a wild crime spree in 1942 after deserting the Army, has won his fight to be adjudged sane.

Kadens, described by the FBI as one of the country's most dangerous desperadoes during his brief foray in crime, is being held in jail in lieu of $90,000 bond. He has been accused of rape, kidnapping and about 75 robberies.

A criminal court jury, acting on directions from Judge Daniel A. Roberts, declared Kadens sane. On Nov. 4, 1942, he had been adjudged insane by a jury and was committed to the Illinois Security Hospital for the Criminally Insane at Menard.

Kadens, who faces trial on three robbery indictments, one charging assault to kill and one charging rape, had tried unsuccessfully to prove his sanity since he was committed to the Menard hospital. He appeared pleased by the jury's verdict, which was returned after recommendations from Judge Daniel A. Roberts.

Kadens was married and the father of two young daughters when he deserted the Army in July, 1942. He had no previous criminal record but in the following three months he was charged with several crimes in Illinois, Ohio, and Michigan. He was seized in Chicago Oct. 19, 1942, while robbing a currency exchange. He told police an Army officer had hit him on the head and he decided to commit suicide. But, he said, he "was going to celebrate before I died."

Mother Freed Of Poisoning Her Daughter

CINCINNATI, Nov. 20. (AP)—Acquitted of a charge that she poisoned her 11-year-old daughter, Mrs. Mary Clay Watts is free to return to her home in suburban Norwood. Prosecutor Carson Hoy said that no effort will be made to prosecute the blue-eyed, 43-year-old Mrs. Watts in the death of her husband, Willis Watts, in 1944.

A criminal court jury of nine women and three men deliberated slightly more than two hours late yesterday before acquitting Mrs. Watts of a charge of first degree murder in the death of her daughter, Barbara Ann.

After Barbara Ann's death last May 15, her father's body was exhumed at Winchester, Ky., and poison was found in his system.

Mrs. Watts never was charged with his death but evidence concerning it was admitted at her trial.

The state charged Mrs. Watts gave Barbara Ann poison in order to inherit an $11,000 estate and insurance. The defense contended the poison found in the child's body came from treatments she received for an illness.

Auto Dealer's Debts Mount

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Nov. 20. (AP)—Robert L. Knetzer, the southern Illinois automobile dealer whose operations in selling new-used cars collapsed last month, has debts of $2,444,750.

The Edwardsville, Ill., salesman, in a formal statement of affairs filed in federal court bankruptcy proceedings listed assets of $181,299. Few of them appeared readily convertible into cash.

Knetzer said that of $2,406,630 in unsecured claims against him $1,658,500 was due Arthur F. Kramer, of Jerseyville, Ill., an associate in the fabulous car dealings, and $174,000 to C. C. Moss, of Paris, Ill. Moss was not identified further.

Knetzer's statement said the remaining $574,000 in debts was due some 600 creditors—most of whom paid deposits of from $1,000 to $1,800 on cars promised but never delivered. He said more than 1,000 prospective buyers were refunded cash deposits before the sudden end of their business.

The operations blew up after depositors started bankruptcy actions against Knetzer and Kramer when they were unable to obtain refunds or delivery of cars.

Both men were declared bankrupt and are under indictment on charges of conspiracy to defraud and obtain money by a confidence game. Kramer operated his car business from an alfalfa field near Jerseyville.

Steel Industry Sets Up New Allocations

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20. (AP)—The steel industry has agreed to set aside some of its scarce product for transporting an undisclosed "strategic material" to this country.

Plans for the new program, under the industry's voluntary priority system, were announced yesterday by Secretary of Commerce Sawyer after a meeting with the steel men.

For security reasons the amount of metal allocated and the type of strategic material destined for the nation's war emergency stockpile was not disclosed.

Sawyer said the steel group not only agreed to the set-aside for the strategic material project but also agreed to extend five programs for essential users' six months beyond the Feb. 28 expiration date for the present voluntary plan.

The only voluntary agreements previously extended were for national defense needs, such as for the armed forces, the atomic energy commission and aviation research.

These are the five programs approved yesterday for a six-month extension:

1. Construction and repair of oil tankers—40,380 tons monthly.
2. Construction and repair of merchant ships—15,190 tons monthly.

Body Of W. C. Fields Will Be Cremated

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 20. (AP)—The body of W. C. Fields—dead two years—is to be cremated, at last.

His widow, Mrs. Hattie V. Fields, had opposed cremation as directed in the late comic's will. But following her agreement with Mrs. Magda Michael, executor of Field's estate, superior court Friday issued an order for the cremation. The body has been in a crypt for two years.

Bear Proves He Knows Bad Whiskey

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20. (AP)—Why didn't the revenuers get their man? Well, seems there was this bear who knew bad whiskey when he tasted it.

While alcohol tax unit agents hid in waiting for the owner of a Tennessee still they had just found, the bear, "big and black", lumbered out of the forest and decided to sample the product.

He rolled it around his tongue, according to the report filed at the internal revenue bureau, took another startled taste—and smashed the still to pieces.

Their evidence destroyed, the revenue men went home.

Great Lakes Ship Believed Aground

DULUTH, Minn., Nov. 20. (AP)—The 11,900-ton Great Lakes ore carrier Robert Hobson was reported to have been blown aground last night in the entry to the Duluth-Superior harbor. She carried 33 men.

The mishap occurred at the height of a roaring Northeastern lashing Lake Superior. The wind was blowing at 68 miles an hour. The prow of the 580-foot ship was blown into shallows off a sandy beach just inside the entry. The rest of the vessel lay part way across the channel. The captain immediately ordered sea-cocks opened as the Hobson settled to the bottom.

The crew remained aboard and apparently was in no great danger. Dragonflies feed on small insects which they capture and eat on the wing.

OUR SINCERE THANKS

During the 12 years we have served the people of Big Spring and surrounding area, our moving and transfer business grew because of the patronage and the good word of our many friends.

While it would go without saying that we are grateful for this generous support, we feel that we must say once again that we do deeply appreciate the many opportunities we had in serving the public.

Now that we have sold our transfer and moving business to Neel Transfer and Storage, we hope the same consideration will be given them.

Kyle Gray

We Pledge Our Best Efforts

It has been our good fortune to acquire the Kyle Gray moving and transfer business in Big Spring, and with it permits that will permit us to handle your moving needs into Texas, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Arkansas and Louisiana. Howard TB Association Will Begin Drive Monday

The Howard County Tuberculosis Association will begin its annual Christmas Seal campaign Monday, and officials of the local chapter hope the organization's treasury will benefit by at least $3,500 before sales are discontinued.

The quota was announced Saturday by Dr. J. M. Woodall. The figure was established by the seal sale committee, headed by Mrs. John Corcoran, after plans were reviewed for expanded tuberculosis control services in the county during 1949. Dr. Woodall estimated that the total represents the minimum needed to carry on the association's health program for the next year.

"Tuberculosis is killing nearly 50,000 Americans annually and we must do all we can to fight the disease in Howard county," Dr. Woodall declared. Tuberculosis resulted in 18 deaths in Howard county during 1947, he advised.

As part of its year-round health program, the local association will make tuberculin tests available to all pupils in the county's schools, it was explained. The tuberculin test is a simple patch test to determine whether a person has been infected with tuberculous germs. If patch tests reveal positive reaction, X-ray pictures are then used to make definite diagnosis.

Envelopes containing seals were mailed Saturday to hundreds of Big Spring and Howard county residents. The seals were prepared for mailing by seventh grade pupils of the College Heights school, who were supervised by their teacher, Mrs. J. W. Arnette.

Officials of the tuberculosis association reminded that many local residents may not receive supplies of seals through the mail, since it is virtually impossible for the organization to maintain a complete mailing list. In such cases a telephone call to No. 1766 will assure delivery of seals, and supplies will be available throughout the drive at the city-county health unit.

Howling Blizzard Blows Itself Out

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 20. (AP) — A late fall blizzard which paralyzed a large strip of the great plains area from eastern Colorado to Minnesota blew itself out today, grounding a Lake Superior freighter in one final filing.

Despite the storm's paralyzing fury, only three deaths had been attributed to the blizzard as relief workers reported that of the hundred of persons marooned only one definitely was known to be still missing.

Many, however, still were in improvised havens, safe from the weather but in danger of possible food shortages unless relief crews could break through drifts quickly. Western Kansas and Nebraska appeared to be hardest hit. There was no way of estimating damage and livestock losses.

Most of the stalled trains were moving again — slowly and hours late as snow plows battered paths through drifts. Five trains still were stalled, but these were at stations and their passengers were safe. Four of them were on the Rock Island lines at Goodland in northwest Kansas and one was in the Union Pacific City of St. Louis at Weskan on the Kansas-Colorado line.

Many stranded motorists were rescued by Santa Fe train crews in the Dodge City-Garden City area.

A 68-mile-an-hour gale grounded the freighter Robert Hobson at the mouth of the Duluth-Superior harbor. The 33-ton vessel remained on the 19,000-ton vessel and were reported in no danger.

Many Attend Range Parley

Three score ranchers and youths took part in a range demonstration Saturday at the W. N. and Lee Reed ranch 20 miles southeast of here.

Sponsored by the supervisors of the North Concho soil conservation district, the meet was for the purpose of explaining to 22 boys who attended what was expected of them in a range conservation contest. The district has posted $500 in prizes for winners.

Among those attending were B. W. Allred, Fort Worth, chief of the regional range management division of the Soil Conservation Service and a leading authority on range problems, and E. J. Hughes, district conservationist. The Reed ranch traverses the corners of Howard, Glasscock and Sterling counties and lies in the district.

Andrew Massey Funeral Set

Services will be held at 4 p. m. Monday in Nalley chapel for Andrew Massey, 66, long time resident who died in a hospital here Saturday.

He had been ill for several years. The Rev. Roy O'Brien, assisted by the Rev. Paul Epler of Coshoma, will officiate. Burial will be in the Salem cemetery, 10 miles northeast of here.

Mr. Massey leaves his widow; two daughters, Mrs. Benet Hoover, Coshoma; Mrs. Jack Childress, Los Angeles, Calif.; two sons, Howard Massey, Big Spring, and Ray Massey, Phoenix, Ariz.; four brothers, Ellis, John, Ollie and George Massey of Mason; two sisters, Mrs. Lizzie Porter, Coshoma, and Mrs. Sussie McCullough, Glendale, Ariz. He also is survived by four grandchildren.

Palbearers will be Earl Hull, Dalton Hefflin, Mitchell Hoover, W. H. Wise, Pete Buchanan, Earnest Wallace, Earl Reid, John Davis.

Mahon Address Reset December 1

Date of the address of Rep. George Mahon has been reset for Dec. 1, it was announced here Saturday.

He is to speak at a joint meeting of the service clubs and of many other citizens who wish to attend. Previously, the date had been set for Dec. 8 but it had been set locally and was premature. The congressman will be leaving shortly after his visit here for Washington.

In the 81st congress, he will assume an important role as fourth majority member on the powerful appropriations committee.

Three Are Burned In Apartment Blast From Gas Heater

SHREVEPORT, La., Nov. 20. (AP) — Three persons were injured seriously at Waskom, Tex., this morning when an explosion caused by a leaky gas heater wrecked a small brick duplex apartment building on the western edge of town.

Hospitalized at the tri-state sanitarium here with burns about the face, head, and arms was Walter Judd, 20-year-old plumber, who was described by attendants as in "fair" condition, though not critical.

Treated at the State Line Clinic in Waskom were L. A. Rudd, about 60, father of the younger Rudd, and also a plumber and Ralph Perkins, about 40, a carpenter.

The elder Rudd was being treated for shock, but Perkins was released following treatment for burns about the face and hands.

class. Masons tried to tough it out atop the VA hospital job but finally threw in the towel.

Big Spring got a good plug in the current issue of the Los Angeles Examiner for Southwestern circulation. A column or so space extolls the virtues of this city and county. Most of it is the straight handiwork of our own Wacil McNair.

Grain movement is still increasing with something like 30 to 35 cars estimated to have been received by two local elevators during the past week. Yields are slightly better than estimated. Cotton harvest was slowed again by the high winds, which caused some damage by blowing lint out of bolls. Farmers are having an unusually difficult time in gathering this short crop.

Farmers are being urged to contribute to the CROP (Christian Rural Overseas Program) drive for a carload of grain from Howard county. So far response has been a bit disappointing, but that's probably because producers are not aware that warehouses are ready to receive every pound of grain they can spare. Anyone with money instead of grain can get in on the project by making a cash donation, which will be converted to grain.

The Community Chest closed headquarters Saturday night with about $3,500 yet to be gathered in order to meet the quota. If only 350 people would mail this column $10 before next Sunday, there'd be nothing to worry about. If 3,500 who have not given would put in a loneome dollar, success would result.

If anyone has forgotten the price of the last World War, return of the bodies of three veterans last week should jolt their memories. Possibly another will be returned this week—and still the silent, majestic parade goes on.

What the effects of the T&P Employees Hospital association contract with a local (Big Spring) hospital will mean in volume, none is prepared to say. It does mean that 3,500 to 4,000 T&P employees can have the choice of being treated in West Texas henceforth if they desire.

Texas Ground Water Engineer Honored

U. N. Leaders Not Lost In Pessimism Despite Deadlock Of East And West

PARIS, Nov. 20. (AP) — Hot words here and the cold war elsewhere have gone on without a break during the first nine weeks of the United Nations assembly.

The assembly has three weeks more to run at the Palais de Chaillot. Up to now it has not bridged any of the rifts between the East and West.

While there is no unbounded optimism, its leaders are not lost in pessimism.

The Security Council, meeting concurrently with the assembly, still has the Berlin crisis before it.

SURPRISE! SURPRISE!—Rita Faye Wright, who plays the part of Miss Emma, a busy-body, throws a screaming fit in "Here Comes the Groom," the junior play scheduled for presentation at the high school auditorium Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. Smugly ignoring Miss Emma's surprise is Jean Crompton, cast as Tootsie Jones, a sophisticated young miss who has been administering a beauty treatment to Marletta. (Jack M. Haynes Photo).

Two Navy 'Copters Stored At Muny were stored at Muny airport Saturday as crews made an overnight stop here.

Capt. W. V. Davis, Jr., USN, Savannah, Ga., director of flight tests at the naval air test center at Patuxent River, Md. piloted one of the helicopters, while Lt. Comdr. H. V. Sebach, squadron HU-1, Naval Air Auxiliary Station, Miramar, Calif., was at the controls of the other. His home is in Mt. Vernon, Ohio.

Crew chief for Capt. Davis was W. H. Moore, AD-1, East Palestine, Ohio, while H. W. Buchanan, AD-1, Stamford, Conn., was crew chief for Lt. Comdr. Sebach.

The Muny field is getting to be a popular place for fledgling pilots from Goodfellow Field at San Angelo when they take out on their cross country flights. One day 41 dropped in at the post, another day 33, another 21. The pilots are flying AT-6s, which used to be used for advanced students. From these they go immediately to twin and multi-engine jobs and on to jets.

A visitor during the week was Comdr. B. C. Shearon, communications officer from VR-32 at San Diego, Calif. Navy traffic continues to be increasingly active.

Wayne Yeager at Hamilton Field last week earned his flight instrument rating.

Bud Huddleston, airport control tower operator, served as master of ceremonies at Odessa last Sunday for its airport show and he is booked to MC the Midland air show Dec. 5, in cooperation with Herb Page, Hollywood stunt flier.

Bill Edwards, owner and operator of Big Spring Flight Service, has installed a new type sprayer on one of his cotton dusting planes and the equipment is said to be one of the best in the nation. Bill had added some twists of his own to make it more effective. All his dusting planes and apparatus are undergoing complete overhaul in anticipation of a big demand for spraying and dusting cotton next summer.

A&M Frosh Best Shorthorns 14-0

COLLEGE STATION, Nov. 20. (AP) — Texas A. and M.'s powerful freshman football team scored in the first and fourth periods and kept the University of Texas frosh in their end of the field most of the time to blank the Shorthorns, 14-0 here this afternoon before 14,500 fans.

Kenneth Shobe paved the way for the Aggies' first touchdown breaking over tackle on the Texas 37 and driving 18 yards before the fifth man to hit him brought him down. Gerald Bowen passed over the middle to Charley Hodge for eight yards, then Bowen sneaked to a first down on the nine. Shobe tore into tackle and went over standing up on the next play. Robert Shafer kicked the point.

Tackle Rush Hudeck and End Hodge set up the Aggies' second touchdown by jarring the ball from the hands of passer Jerry Robertson on the Texas nine. Shafer scored the touchdown and again kicked the point.

TRADITIONAL DECORATIONS SLATED

Organization Lining Up For '48 Christmas Parade

Several organizations already have indicated that they will participate in the Christmas parade here Dec. 3 and others are being urged to submit their respective entries as soon as possible, officials reported Saturday.

Meanwhile, Big Spring's business district will be decorated in traditional fashion for the annual event. In addition to the streamers of brightly colored lights which will be erected across the various streets, business establishments will have Christmas merchandise for the occasion. The lights on the tree at the northeast corner of the courthouse lawn will go on during the Dec. celebration. Nat Shick will maintain his part of the local tradition by taking charge of that department.

The parade, which is to be sponsored by the chamber of commerce merchants' committee, will march through the entire business section. Floats will be judged and the top three entries in three non-commercial classes will be awarded prizes. Although their entries will not be eligible for prizes, business firms have been extended an invitation to participate in the parade.

First official parade entry blank was completed and returned by the Lions club auxiliary, officials said. Several other organizations, including the ABC club, Forsan Service club, North Ward school, the junior chamber of commerce and the junior patrol also have indicated that they will sponsor entries.

All have been asked, however, to complete their respective entry blanks and return them to the chamber of commerce office. A complete list of official entries will be needed to plan for advanced organization of the parade.

Pete Green will be parade marshal, while Neel Barnaby and Tommy Hutto will be co-chairmen in charge of formations.

Sterling Tucker Body Will Be Laid To Rest

The body of Sterling Tucker, one of two men for whom the local Veterans of Foreign War post is named, will be laid to rest here today.

He was the first member of the post to be killed in World War II, giving his life while in action on March 21 with the 295th engineers of the Seventh army in Germany. Sterling was leading a patrol at the time.

Rites will be said at 3 p. m. at the First Methodist church by the Rev. Alale Carleton, pastor and burial will be in the city cemetery.

Born in Big Spring to Mr. and Mrs. John A. Tucker, Sterling was graduated from high school here in 1942 and worked with his father in the plumbing business and at the bombardier school before entering service in 1943. He trained at Camp Swift, where he was selected for specialist training. It was his unit which was credited with spanning the Roer river.

Besides his parents, Sterling is survived by four sisters, Mrs. Helen Woods, Barnhart, Mrs. Frances Andree, Big Spring, Charlene of Haidin-Simmons university, and Emma Corone of Big Spring; one brother, E. C. (Bud) Tucker; a great-uncle, Sterling Price; two aunts, Mrs. Tom Slaughter and Mrs. G. W. Sikes.

The remains arrived here Saturday and were accorded honors by the VFW, which will furnish an honor guard and will have charge of the services at the graveside.

Sooner Visitors

Mrs. Richard Hurn, and son, of Bartlesville, Okla., are visiting here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Smith, 1704 Johnson. She plans to be here through most of this week.

Club Cafe Holds Lead In Bowling

Club Cafe maintained its lead in Men's Classic Bowling league play last week by taking two of three matches from Phillips Tire.

In other league skirmishes Texaco Electric clipped Cosden two out of three, leaving Cosden with only a one-game grip on second place, while Nathan's Jewelers got back in the race by sweeping three from Donald's Drive In and Farwell Co. squeezed two out of three from Lee Hanson.

League play will continue Wednesday night.

Tulane Ekas Out

CINCINNATI, Nov. 20. (AP) — Tulane's mighty Green Wave, hopeful of a post-season bowl bid, was battered almost to a standstill today by an underdog University of Cincinnati team but managed to eke out a 6-0 victory before a crowd of 12,000.

EXPENSIVE WAY TO HOLD MONEY

HOUSTON, Nov. 20. (AP) — It cost the Tower Theater $65 to find out $40 was not burglarized from a theater safe.

Employees yesterday discovered that a 1,000-pound wall safe had been badly battered. Manager Russell Hindy had to call a locksmith to open the safe.

The $40 which had been placed inside was still there. Today Hindy received repair and service bills totaling $65.

McMillans Return From Sister's Rites

FORSAN, Nov. 20. — Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McMillan have returned from Dublin, where they were called on the death of his sister, Myrtle Louise McMillan, 16, victim of a car mishap.

Double services were held for her and a friend, Clara Louise Tyburn, who died soon after being taken to a hospital Nov. 12 when their car overturned while returning from a football game at Stephenville. Both girls were prominent in Dublin high school activities.

Clemson Keeps Its Record Unmarred

CLEMSON, S. C., Nov. 20. (AP) — It took the undefeated Clemson Tigers almost a full quarter to get started today but after they got their first touchdown they went on to a decisive 42-0 conquest of Duquesne university from Pittsburgh.

The victory boosted Clemson's bowl stock still further.

The Tigers, superior in all departments, scored in every quarter. They made 21 points in each half.

Three Injured When Two Cars Overturn

Three Latin-Americans were injured Saturday evening when two cars overturned on U. S. 80 seven miles west of here.

They were rushed to the Malone & Hogan Hospital by Ed May, Big Spring, and released after emergency treatment. No record was made of the names.

Red Williams, state highway patrolman, said that the mishap occurred when a car driven by Mrs. Beverly Cochran, Los Angeles, Calif., attempted to pass two west-bound cars, the front one containing the Latin-Americans. The middle car pulled out, causing Mrs. Cochran's machine to veer to the gravel shoulder. The car whipped back into the lead car, causing both to roll over. Mrs. Cochran and her husband, William Cochran, were unhurt.

five separate buildings, with independent, abutting columns being joined by copper bellows. This is to provide structural security for the five-story brick building in event of any settlement.

Before long workers will move inside to start wall work. Between the tile and brick exterior, there will be a three-inch air space, also to care for plumbing, with the inside walls of tile and plaster. This will give the walls a thickness of about 20 inches.

Faint green spots in the white face brick will bleach out in time. Bradley said. The coloration is due to a copper sulphate in the clay and chemical reaction will eliminate it.

Foundations and floor slab have been poured for the nurses' quarters west of the south end of the main building and forms are being moved to the locations for five other buildings in that area—the manager's quarters, attendant duplexes, garages, etc.

Currently there are about 275 men on the job, around 225 of them on the general contract the others under sub-contractors. The job is moving along well enough that it may be finished on time by the last of August 1949.

Longhorns Go Down As Birds Win, 51-0

Pete Shotwell's white-clad Abilene Eagles took full command of operations at Steer Stadium Friday night, and their versatile maneuvering paid off with a 51-0 triumph over the down-trodden and outmanned Big Spring Steers.

Of everything. Their troops represented a heavy majority in every department, ranging from captains to privates.

For the Steers and their meager aggregation of followers who shivered in the stands the only consolation was a home town passing attack that sparkled intermittently, and, perhaps, realization that it could have been worse. However, Coach Mule Stockton's lads were game to the final gun, with several displaying sheer grit that brought the names of individuals to the lips of the few hundred spectators from time to time.

Yes, it probably would have been worse, but for some heads up work on the part of such local performers as little Kimble Guthrie, who stopped the Birds several times when it appeared they would go the distance Billy Van Pelt, Cunningham, Lee Axtens, et al, made everyone aware of their presence also during the one-side battle. Offensively, the Steers were unable to percolate except via the air lanes. Cuin Grigsby was the favorite target of Jimmy Jennings, Donnie Carter, Howard Washburn and Cleome Russell, who divided the chunking duty. Washburn and Fred Herrington also maneuvered under passes.

On the ground, however, the Steer vessel floundered without a rudder in the absence of a big Arless Davis, who has accounted for something like three-fourth of the Longhorn yardage in previous games. The few Bovine fans who witness the bout like to think that the local troops would have scored once, maybe twice, had Davis been there and in condition to operate at full steam. Perhaps they are right.

As for the Eagle scores they came with rapidity that should have satisfied even their coaching staff. The game was scarcely two minutes old before John Stephens clutched the ball as it took a freakish bounce from Donnie Carter's arms and ran some 50 yards for the first touchdown. Seven other Eagle players scored a touchdown apiece before proceedings were halted by the time keeper. A few moments later Scotty Holland reached the end zone on a 1-yard plunge to climax a drive that featured a 31-yard gallop by Bill Galusha.

Longest run of the night, however, was executed by Hub Ingram, who went no less than 81 yards for the third score. Galusha made successful conversion from placement after the first three counts.

Next to make the scoring list was Robert Jones, who ran back one of two pass interceptions. His sprint covered 84 yards, and it wound up the first half scoring.

Abilene scored only once in the third period, and that when Lynn Grant connected with Roy O'Neal with a 58-yard gainer that carried beyond the double stripe. The Eagles started a drive from their own 16 early in the fourth quarter that launched another outbreak. Bob Hays went over from the nine. Shortly thereafter a blocked Steer punt set the Eagles up in business on the nine after Kenneth Green staged a brilliant run back. Wayne Bowers covered the last yard in the third play from that point.

The final touchdown came on an 11-yard dash by Charles Dennis. The Longhorns' best opportunity came early in the second when Bill Van Pelt smothered an Eagle fumble on the visitors' 19. Four plays failed to gain an inch, however, and the ball went over on downs. The half-time gun found the Steers on the Eagle 45, they had moved there on a 34-yard drive that produced three successive first downs, their best offensive effort of the evening.

The locals will close their 1948 season next Thursday afternoon with the annual Thanksgiving struggle with Sweetwater on the Mustangs' home gridiron.

THE GAME WAS IMPORTANT

DALLAS, Nov. 20. (AP) — A Dallas man was making frantic efforts this morning to get hold of the press box at the Cotton Bowl Stadium. "You see," he explained, "my wife's gonna have a baby maybe today but I just got to see that Baylor-SMU game and I wanna make arrangements to be paged if I'm needed at home."

Houston Buffs' Home Games To Be Televised

HOUSTON, Nov. 20. (AP) — Contracts were signed here today for television broadcasts of all home games next season for the Houston Buffs of the Texas League.

Buff President Allen Russell said he believes it to be the first such contract signed by a Class-AA baseball club.

Russell signed the papers in the office of W. Albert Lee, owner of Station Klee-TV which is to open formally Jan. 1 following tests which begin Dec. 15.

"We recognize that only a limited number of television sets will be in the Houston area next season but we are particularly interested in bringing baseball to shut-ins and other people who will be unable to attend the games," Russell said.

Nittany Lions Stunned, 7-0

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 20. (AP) — Pitt scored one of the most stunning upsets of a wild football season before 51,075 today by defeating heavily favored Penn State 7-0 on tackle Nick Bollock's 23-yard interception pass.

It was the first defeat in 18 games for State.

Penn State's last desperate bid ended with the final whistle as an aroused Pitt smashed Fullback Frankie Rogel's touchdown bid on second down from the Panther two.

More Tickets For A&M-Texas

AUSTIN, Nov. 20. (AP) — A surplus of tickets for the Texas-Texas A. and M. football game was reported today by Ed Olie, University of Texas athletic business manager.

Approximately 1,000 tickets will be released Monday, he said.

The extra tickets are left over from a bloc of tickets set aside for the 18,000 university students and their wives. They will go on sale at Gregory Gym ticket office at 8:30 a.m. Monday and may also be secured by mail orders.

Olie expressed regret that hundreds of earlier requests were turned down.

"However, we had no alternative but to set aside the full quota of student tickets," he said. "They cannot, of course, be released until the last minute."

Additional tickets may become available at 5 p.m. Tuesday, the deadline for students to pick up their tickets.

Missouri Smashes Nebraska, 33-6

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 20. (AP) — Missouri ran and passed a wet football for five touchdowns today and a smashing 33 to 6 victory over Nebraska. The Tigers rang up four scores before Nebraska crossed the goal line.

Bus Entsminger hurled touchdown passes of 37 and 18 yards for Missouri's fourth and fifth scores. After the fourth Missouri touchdown, Nebraska went 70 yards for its score. Dick Hutton covered the last 26.

Oklahoma City To Train At Marshall

MARSHALL, Nov. 20. (AP) — The Oklahoma City Indians will hold their spring training camp here again next year, Chamber of Commerce officials announced today.

The Indians will be joined by the Midland club fore pre-season drills March 5 to April 4. A grounds improvement at Fair Park Stadium will begin soon.

Dartmouth Cleans Up On Big Three

PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 20. (AP) — Dartmouth completed a sweep of the Big Three today by defeating Princeton 33 to 13 before 40,000 in a fast moving game played in belmy weather. Joe Sullivan and Bill Dey led the shifty Dartmouth attack that proved too much for Princeton just as it had for Yale and Harvard.

Bird Hunter Bags 170-Pound Buck

DUANESBURG, N. Y., Nov. 20. (AP) — Philip Christman's gun was loaded for birds, but the hunter brought down a 170-pound buck.

Christman says the deer stood a few feet away and watched while he took the bird shot shells from his gun and replaced them with slugs.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With TOMMY HART

Some of the sporting gentry are lamenting the fact that colorful rivalries such as the Sweetwater-Odessa and Big Spring-Midland football games have been broken up by the Texas Interscholastic league's plan to re-align the athletic districts. District 3AA didn't suffer individually and the damage wrought is by no means irreparable. Such stand-out classics as the Amarillo-Lubbock and Brownwood-Breckenridge sets have been terminated. It shouldn't be too hard to work up new rivalries however. The new District 5AA, of which Big Spring is a member, is one of the smallest in the new setup. Some of the leagues have as many as seven teams. The 5AA winner will meet the 6AA kingpin, which consists of Breckenridge, Cisco, Mineral Wells, Stephenville and Weatherford. Local school officials will make every effort to book Odessa in a non-conference game in 1949, since a game with the Broncos always pays well. Incidentally, the home gates are as poor as they've been in a decade or more. The Steers netted only $185 in the San Angelo game, which won't pay for the depreciation on equipment. Amarillo's Hurricanes aren't missing any bets for their next collision with the Odessa eleven, when and if they meet in the state playoff. Assistant Coach John Whinnery, who brought a track team to the Big Spring Relays last spring, by the way, scouted the Hosses in their win over Sweetwater recently. All the Hosses have to do to qualify for the shot at Amarillo is defeat the 2AA champ, which will probably be Wichita Falls. Bob Price, who ran for a touchdown in the Midland-Big Spring football game the first time he got his hands on the ball, has been lost to the Bulldogs for the season. He broke his leg in practice last week.

Players To Benefit From Longhorn Fund

They say Eddie LeBaron, the University of Pacific T-quarterback, handles the ball so deftly, he's causing the officials to take to drink. He oftentimes spins twice before palming off the ball. At least 32 post-season football games will be played within the next 45 days, including four contests within the Lone Star state. H. C. Butrus, the one-time Steer grid great and later a star for Hardin-Simmons, is finishing his schooling at Columbia university in New York, and is due back in this section shortly. He's seeking a coaching job, may already have as many as two offers. Harry Falkner, who taught Obie Bristow of Our Town his first football, may wind up as chief of the Abilene baseball Blue Sox of the WT-NM league. Harry operated at Tyler last season. Much opposition to Howard L. Green was supposed to crop out at some of the Longhorn league's meeting but the league proxy was re-elected without a dissenting vote. Green's annual stipend will now be $2,400, which represents a substantial raise over his 1948 salary. If the newly adopted 'player's fund' had been active the past season, players of the first four teams would have split something like $3,400. They will probably get more next year. Leon Brinkopf, the Odessa third sacker drafted by Dallas recently, is supposed to be at least a year away from AA ball, may wind up in the Class B Big State league. When Paul Hinrichs signed for the Kansas City Blues for a handsome bonus a while back, it was the second time he had come into money that way. He is supposed to have been given $15,000 for inking a Detroit contract before he was ever sent to Dallas. They say he got better than $40,000 for agreeing to play with the Blues.

Purdue Lambasts Indiana, To Win Old Oaken Bucket

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Nov. 20. (AP) — Purdue University regained the old oaken bucket from Indiana today with a smashing 39-0 victory over the powerless Hoosiers.

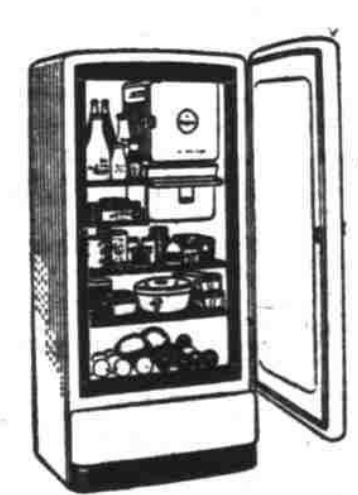

A record crowd of 47,161 watched the Bollermakers roll to six touchdowns and their third victory against six losses for the season. Indiana finished its season with two victories in nine starts.

Gophers Roll Over Wisconsin, 16-0

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 20. (AP) — A powerful Minnesota football team pushed Wisconsin all over the field but could run up only a 16 to 0 verdict in a Big Nine today before a capacity crowd of 55,000.

Action was in Wisconsin territory most of the final quarter with Minnesota continuing to dominate play. Harry Elliott boke loose over right tackle for a 33 yard gallop to cross the Badger goal line but the play was called back and the Gophers penalized 15 yards for holding.

DeMarco's Passes Win For Hawkeyes

BOSTON, Nov. 20. (AP) — Little Al DeMarco pitched Iowa's hard-driving Hawkeyes to a 34-14 victory over outclassed Boston University's Terriers before a chilled 12,948 crowd at muddy Fenway Park.

Trailing 7-14 at the halftime, the Hawkeyes clicked for 27 points in the second half to win going away.

Ponies Cinch Bowl By Edging Bears; Rice Rallies To Defeat Frogs, 21-7

Rote Sets Scoring Pace In 13-6 Win

DALLAS, Nov. 20 (AP)—Southern Methodist University beat Baylor with an ace today and won a Cotton Bowl bid on a 13-6 decision.

Kyle Rote was the ace in the hole that licked the Bears, scoring once on a 24-yard run to bring the Mustangs even and again on a 19-yard jaunt that wrapped up the $105,000 jackpot that goes with the coveted New Year's Day invitation.

The victory clinched a share of the Southwest Conference championship and even if the Mustangs lose their final game they will finish in a tie with Texas. Precedent

Hogs Trample Winless Tulsa For 55-18 Count

LITTLE ROCK, Nov. 20 (AP)—Even a guard got into the scoring act as the Arkansas Razorbacks crushed winless Tulsa University 55 to 18 in a wild football game before 18,000 here today.

The Razorbacks, operating without their star, Clyde Scott, mixed razzle-dazzle with the single wing attack to parade to paydirt in every quarter. And Jim Reichert kicked the points after seven of Arkansas' eight touchdowns. The game was such on offensive show that there wasn't a punt until late in the third period.

Guard Frank Lambright made a touchdown when he grabbed a Tulsa fumble in the air and ran 21 yards untouched.

Arkansas converted two Tulsa fumbles into an early 14-0 lead. Guard Ray Peters recovered the first on the Hurricane's 27. Fullback Leon (Muscles) Campbell powered over on his second try after a 24-yard run by Ross Fritchard.

Then Alvin Duke fell on a Tulsa bobble on the visitors' 20 and seven plays later Ray Parks scored.

Tulsa tallied next, a ten-yard pass from Jim Finks to End Dick Moseley capping an 84-yard drive. Gordon Long passed to End Ed Hamilton for 40 yards and Arkansas' third touchdown.

Tulsa stayed in the game as S. J. Whitman took a lateral from Finks and stepped seven yards into the end zone.

The Razorbacks made it 28-12 in the last five seconds of the first half. Long passed from his own 37 to End Bill Hix on the Tulsa 46. As he was kicked, Hix lateral to Fritchard, who wove the rest of the way to score standing.

The Hurricane tallied early in the third stanza on a one-yard plunge by Paul Berry. Arkansas then removed all doubt by scoring three quick touchdowns on an eight-yard smash by Campbell. Lambright's fumble recovery and run and a pass interception and 41-yard spring by Sonny Henson.

Arkansas reserves produced the final touchdown, on a 17-yard pass from Jim Phillips to Tracy Scott, Clyde's kid brother.

Mustangs Plan To Decide On Bowl Foe Today

DALLAS, Nov. 20 (AP)—Southern Methodist University's football team will meet tomorrow afternoon to decide what team they would like to meet in the Cotton bowl.

Southern Methodist clinched the post spot in the Dallas gridiron classic today with a 13-6 victory over Baylor.

Coach Matty Bell, who said he would make no decision on the visiting team but that the players would have to vote on it, was prevailed upon by Dan Rogers, chairman of the board of the Cotton Bowl Athletic Association, to hold a meeting tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock. Bell had planned to have the vote Monday.

The result will be secret until we can negotiate with the team of their choice, Rogers said. "But, just as soon as the Cotton bowl selection committee is informed of the preference, it will get to work and complete negotiations as quickly as possible."

Army, Clemson, North Carolina, Georgia and Oklahoma figure in speculation as to which team will be invited to meet Southern Methodist. Army and Clemson are undefeated and untied. North Carolina has been tied and Georgia and Oklahoma each has lost one game.

Oregon Wins, 10-0, In Mud

CORVALLIS, Ore., Nov. 20 (AP)—Two-inch ooze nearly stopped the Oregon Ducks' Rose Bowl drive but they finally staged two drives over a stubborn Oregon State team to produce a 10-0 victory here today.

It was the seventh straight conference win for the Ducks, whose hopes of going to the Rose Bowl now rest on a vote of conference schools.

Their rivals for the bowl—the California Bears—ended the season with six conference wins.

Michigan Forced To An Airlift To Overcome Ohio State, 13-3

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 20 (AP)—Michigan's mighty Wolverines, their ground attack stymied by a stalwart Ohio State team, took to the airways today and came from behind to win a 13-3 victory.

The second largest crowd ever to throng the Ohio stadium—82,754—saw the Ohioans rise to their greatest heights of the season, take the lead with a first-period field goal, and win everything but the ball game.

The victory, the Wolves' ninth straight of the season and 23rd in a row, wrapped up their second

Owls Dominate The Play In Last Half

HOUSTON, Nov. 20 (AP)—Rice's Owls shook loose from a bad case of first half jitters today to score two touchdowns in the final period and defeat Texas Christian, 21 to 7.

A homecoming crowd of 25,000 saw the underdog Horned Frogs outplay Rice throughout the first half and hold onto a 7-0 lead in the second quarter.

The turning point came as Berry fumbled the second half kickoff. S. J. Roberts, Rice guard, fell on the fumble on the TCU eight and from that moment the Owls were in command of the game.

A pass from Tobin Rote to James Williams tied the score following Roberts' recovery and the Owls moved into the lead early in the final period on touchdown marches of 79 and 23 yards, the latter set up on a pass interception.

Rote scored the second Rice tally from the one-yard line after four of his passes had accounted for 56 of the 79 yards.

Two plays later, Gerald Weatherly, second string Owl center, intercepted a pass from Berry and raced 20 yards to the Christian 28. A fourth down pass, Rote to Jack McBride, got eight yards and a first down on the eight. Bobby Lantrip scored over right tackle on fourth down from the two.

Berry and Pete Stout personally accounted for TCU's lone touchdown. Taking the ball on a punt on the Frog 26, Berry tossed two incomplete passes and then got 19 yards through center.

The two Frog backs then alternated in carrying to the three, and Berry went over. Homer Ludiker kicked the extra point for TCU, while Williams made good on all three attempts for Rice.

Two plays after the Frogs had scored, Bill Moorman, TCU right end, intercepted a Rice pass from Vernon Glass and returned to the Owl 28. Four plays netted only three yards and the Owls took over.

Meanwhile, Rice managed to enter TCU territory once again during the first half as the Owls' publicized ground game was netting only 33 yards to 109 for TCU.

In the second half, the Frogs threatened only once. After Rice's third touchdown, Leon Joslin began tossing passes to spark a 50-yard

Ackerly Routs Knott By 40-20

ACKERLY, Nov. 20 (AP)—Ackerly's Eagles closed out their season's play Friday night with a 40-20 victory over the Knott Hillbillies in a heavy offensive contest.

The win gave Ackerly seven for the season, with two losses and one tie, and the Eagles are tied with Flower Grove for second place in the loop standings.

The Eagles went into the lead in the second half, after the first half ended in a 20-20 deadlock and the first quarter had ended in a 6-6 knot.

The Hillies scored on the first series of plays after the kickoff without losing the ball. Burchell counting on a 12-yard pass play, Ackerly came right back, with Waymon Etheridge tallying on a pass from Gerald Rogers that was good for 31 yards.

In the second period, an aerial brought Knott another score, and a drop kick added two more points. The Eagles answered with a 30-yard payoff run by Carter Zandt, but later fumbled and the Hillbillies scored on recovery. Another aerial thrust, good for 33 yards, and a drop kick, gave the Eagles enough points to tie the score at the half.

Then Rogers and Zandt collaborated to thrust across two more Ackerly scores in the third period, and Gerald Rogers made a 17-yard gallop again in the fourth for the final tally. Rogers had a big night as a loser, the aerials accounting for much of Ackerly's gains.

Reds Say Berlin Government No Longer Exists

BERLIN, Nov. 20. (U)—All communist newspapers in the Soviet sector declared today "Berlin is without a government," indicating the Russians are ready to complete division of this blockaded city.

Editorials in the Soviet-licensed press followed weeks of systematic firings by the Russians of one elected anti-communist city official after another, apparently in preparation for a hand-picked Communist regime for the eastern sector.

The western military governments and the elected city government, predominantly anti-Communist, protested the firings as illegal. However, the officials involved were forced to move from the central city hall, in the Soviet sector, and set up their offices in western Berlin.

Alabama Sheriff, Deputy Face Civil Rights Charges

MOBILE, Ala., Nov. 20. (U)—The sheriff of Clarke County, Ala., and one of his deputies are scheduled for trial in federal court on charges of depriving nine Negroes of their civil rights.

Federal officers arrested Sheriff Jenkins Angus Hill and Deputy Willie Ray Harrell, both 35, yesterday after a South Alabama district grand jury indicted them on charges of violating a 78-year-old statute.

The two officers were released on $5,000 bond each. Indictments returned by the grand jury alleged that the officers, acting under "color of their office," had committed "illegal assault, beatings, whippings and other cruel maltreatment and physical abuse for the purpose of imposing illegal punishment."

Stock Market Continues Rise

NEW YORK, Nov. 20. (U)—The stock market got back on a rising track this week for the first time in a month.

Only once during the week was the upward trend interrupted. The market value of all shares listed on the stock exchange increased by more than $1 billion although this was only a small part of the heavy losses piled up during the post-election selling wave.

Progress in today's short session was at the same modest rate which prevailed most of the week.

Gains ranged from fractions to more than a point, with the railroad group taking a big share of attention. Selected industrials made a good showing but automobile shares faltered.

Volume dropped to only 340,000 shares, even less than last Saturday's meager 380,000.

The Associated Press average of 80 stocks advanced 2 1/2 points to 65.1, the highest since Nov. 8. Of the 718 issues which appeared on the ticker tape, 273 advanced while 206 declined.

Americans Hold Many U. S. Bonds

NEW YORK, Nov. 20. (U)—More than 75 million Americans now hold U. S. saving bonds with a total value of more than $50 billion.

Elliott E. Harris, advertising director of the treasury department's bond division, gave the figures yesterday at a meeting of advertising executives.

He said present bond sales exceed redemptions, and that there are now more outstanding bonds than at the end of the war.

Seaboard Vealmoor Deepening Ventures

Seaboard Oil company of Delaware was deepening its three prospectors in the region around the Vealmoor field of extreme North Howard County.

That concern's No. 2 Tora Campbell, 660 feet from south and east lines of section 20, block 32, T-3-N, TP survey, was venturing on from 9,993 feet through shale and lime in search of the Ellenburger.

Attempting to extend the Pennsylvania production of the pool, Seaboard No. 2 W. C. Campbell was below 6,920 feet, penetrating lime and shale. It is projected to 8,000 feet.

Location is 1,980 feet from south and 660 feet from east lines of section 29, block 32, T-3-N, TP survey.

Seaboard No. 1 Mayme Clanton, South Borden county wildcat, almost flush with the Howard-Borden county line, was also drilling ahead toward the Pennsylvania line above 8,000 feet.

Last report had it past 7,208 feet in lime. It is about a mile northwest of the Vealmoor field and 1,980 feet from south and 660 feet from west lines of section 20, block 32, T-3-N, TP survey.

In South-Central Borden county, five and a half miles south of the town of Gail, H. L. Hunt No. 1 Clayton & Johnson, slated 8,000-foot wildcat, 660 feet from south and west lines of the north half of section 24, block 31, T-4-N, TP survey, was boring ahead from 7,479 feet in lime and shale.

Another drillstem test of no consequence was taken at Sun Oil company and the Ohio Oil company No. 1 Helms, wildcat, contracted to around 8,000 feet for an Ellenburger test in Northeast Scurry county.

The examination was on the formation between 6,017 feet and 6,047 feet, with the tool open an hour. A little blow of air held at the surface part of the period.

Recovery was 12 feet of mud, with no shows of oil, gas or water. The venture was drilling ahead beyond 6,073 feet in sand.

It is 600 feet from south and west lines of section 636, block 97, H&TC survey, 20 miles northeast of the town of Snyder.

Humble Oil & Refining company No. 1 L. N. Perriman is to be a 7,000-foot wildcat in northwest Scurry county, to test into the Canyon lime of the Pennsylvanian.

It is 660 feet from north and east lines of section 438, block 97, H&TC survey, and about 10 1/2 miles northwest of Snyder.

That puts it one and one-half miles west and slightly north of Standard Oil Company of Texas No. 1 Jessie Brown, heavy flowing discovery from the Canyon lime between 6,333-6,414 feet. That development is due to take official potential test and complete early in the week.

Standard of Texas officials announced at the end of the week that the project had tested for at least 675 barrels of 45 gravity oil, per day, flowing natural. Size of the chokes which have been used in the preliminary testing, was not reported.

Drilling on the Humble extension effort is to start immediately.

Sun No. 2 Emil Schattell, half mile north and quarter mile west of No. 1 Schattell, first Pennsylvania lime pool opener in Scurry county, seven miles southwest of Snyder, struck salty sulphur water in the Ellenburger in drilling to 8,010 feet. It was to run 5 1/2-inch casing to test Pennsylvania.

Gaines Discovery Completed By Argo

MIDLAND, Tex., Nov. 20.—Argo production from the San Andres-Oil Corporation has officially completed its No. 1-N E. H. Jones, as a discovery from the Devonian in Northwest Gaines county, between the Russell and the Jones Ranch fields.

The new pool opener reported a 24-hour swabbing potential of 689, 68 barrels of 41.6 gravity oil, and no water, from Devonian pay at 11,125-190 feet, which had been treated with a total of 12,000 gallons of acid.

The well was not flowing regularly. Gas-oil ratio was given as 193-1. A pump is to be installed for regular production.

The potential was calculated for the actual production during one three hour period of a nine hour swabbing test.

The new well is 660 feet from north and 1,980 feet from west lines Argo No. 1-B Jones, one mile west and one-half mile south of the same company's No. 1-N Jones, the recently completed Devonian discovery, and 465 feet from south and west lines of the north half of the south half of section 31, block AX, psi survey, had reached 6,668 feet in lime, and was drilling ahead.

Argo No. 1-C Jones, 660 feet from south and west lines of the north three-quarters of section 32, block AX, psi survey, and three-quarters of a mile northwest of the No. 1-N Jones, was being drilled ahead.

Both the above projects are due to dig to around 11,500 feet to develop production in the Devonian pay which has been discovered in the No. 1-N Jones.

Amerada Petroleum Corporation No. 1 Creg McCrummen is to be a 5,000-foot wildcat in Northeast Gaines county to try to develop lime below the discovery pay that yielded oil and gas on drillstem tests between 7,851-7,907 feet. Location is the C NW NW 18-97, H&TC.

York and Harper, Inc., of Midland staked location for No. 1 W. M. Sleeper, slated 5,500-foot wildcat in northwestern Dawson county, C NW SE 7-C-23-psi, 5 1/2 miles northwest of Welch.

Tide Water No. 1 Edward Turner, wildcat in the extreme northwest corner of Dawson county, was installing a pump. It had swabbed some oil from acidized San Andres through casing perforations at 4,915-21 and at 4,880-4,913 feet. Location is the C NE SE 2-C-39, PSL, a mile and a half northwest of Welch.

Bride Saved From Snow

JUNCTION, Utah, Nov. 20. (U)—A rescue party broke through 19 miles of snowdrifts yesterday to save a Los Angeles bride marooned without food in a deserted mountain cabin.

As a result, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Giovannazzi resumed their honeymoon here today after two days of battling sub-zero weather when their car stalled on a little-used road high in the mountains west of here.

Sheriff Carl G. Beebe who led the rescue party said his party of five horsemen found Mrs. Giovannazzi huddled beside a tiny fire in a deserted sawmill cabin.

She and her husband became stalled in snowdrifts Wednesday afternoon as they were attempting a "shortcut" on their trip home. Their car plunged into deep snow and they were unable to move it.

After one night in the car, and a day spent in vain efforts to move the vehicle, the two located the sawmill and spent Thursday night there.

Friday morning Giovannazzi left for Junction, and hiked the 19 miles, through drifts up to two feet deep, by mid-afternoon. Sheriff Beebe organized the rescue party immediately.

New York Banker Sees Upward Trend In Interest Rates

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Nov. 20. (U)—A New York banker said today the upward trend in interest rates will continue as long as the business remains sluggish.

R. C. ... vice president of the Irving Trust Co., New York, told the Illinois Bankers Conference that short-term rates have been rising for the last 16 months "and are being suggested and are anticipated."

Prince Released On $25,000 Bond

DALLAS, Nov. 20. (U)—Ollie Otto Prince, Navarro County used-car dealer who is charged with two cases of bank robbery, made $25,000 bond here today and was released.

The 41-year-old Prince is charged in the Aug. 1 robbery of $4,000 from the First State Bank at Rice, Navarro County, and the $15,000 robbery of the Malone (Hill County) State Bank Oct. 5.

Reagan Wildcat Develops Slight Oil Indications

Slight indications of petroleum developed on a drillstem test at Humble No. 1-E Sawyer, wildcat slated to the Ellenburger in Southeast Reagan county, seven miles north of the Barnhart field.

The tool was open 62 minutes on an unidentified lime and shale formation at 9,734-71 feet. A weak blow of air was evident for most of the period. Recovery was 193 feet of drilling mud, slightly gas cut and with a rainbow show of oil.

This venture, located 660 feet from south and 1,980 feet from east lines of section 142, block 1, TP survey, was making hole under 9,816 feet in lime and shale.

Richardson & Bass was trying to develop an oil well from the Devonian at its No. 1 Neal, Northeast Upton county prospect which found the Ellenburger barren and plugged back to investigate shows drilled through.

Through perforations in the lower Devonian at 11,580-620 feet, operator acidized with 1,000 gallons, swabbed out acid and residue. No new oil developed.

The prospect was last reported plugging back higher in the strata to perforate at 11,450-530 feet. Tests will be run there.

Location is about seven miles northwest of the Benedum pool, and 660 feet from north, 1,980 feet from east lines of section 9, block Y, GC&SF survey.

In North Upton county, Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 1-A TXL, scheduled Ellenburger wildcat, 660 feet from north and west lines of section 31, block 40, T-4-S, TP survey, was drilling ahead below 12,375 feet in Simpson sand and shale.

Construction Awards Hit $22,768,118

AUSTIN, Nov. 20. (U)—Construction awards in Texas last week totaled $22,768,118.

The Texas Contractor, trade publication, reported that the week's building activity included $9,360,149 in engineering projects, $7,013,000 worth of residential construction, and $6,394,969 worth of non-residential work.

Residential projects included 902 homes costing less than $7,000, 38 more expensive homes and two duplex apartments.

The week's work brought the year's accumulative construction total to date to $836,673,347.

Telephone Wires Cut Maliciously

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 20. (U)—Telephone service between Albany and points south was disrupted for several hours early today after a cable had been cut near this city.

Troubleshooters informed state police that "it looked like malicious interference."

The cable was lying on the ground, slashed, they said. The break was near Normanskill Creek along Route 9W.

Some Associated Press wires were out for nearly an hour, before rerouting restored service.

Cut a half dozen marshmallows in quarters and arrange them over a chocolate bread pudding shortly before it is to come from the oven; serve hot with thin cream.

LAREDO, Nov. 20. (U)—William N. (Bill) Hall has been elected president of the Border Olympics, the seventh running of which will be held here March 11 and 12.

The Border Olympics annually are the nation's first outdoor track and field meet.

Hall said the objective of this year's meet was 1,000 athletes from over the Southwest. Three states—Texas, Louisiana and Oklahoma—were represented last year.

Chester C. Wine, Robert Cohen and W. F. Houser have been named vice presidents, Fernando L. Pena, secretary-treasurer and R. W. Parker, meet director.

Tom Green, Midland Counties Have First Ellenburger Shows

SAN ANGELO, Nov. 20.—The first Ellenburger oil shows in Tom Green and Midland counties shared attention in West Texas this week.

J. J. Perkins of Wichita Falls and Sun Oil Co. No. 1 Claude Lanthicum, Tom Green county wildcat only four miles west of San Angelo, topped the Ellenburger at 6,435 feet, 4,226 feet below sea level. It drillstem tested from 6,420-84 feet for three hours, showed gas in two hours and 25 minutes and recovered 85 feet of gas-cut mud, 90 feet of oil and gas-cut mud and 90 feet of oil-cut mud which was 40 per cent oil. There was no water. Shut-in bottomhole pressure was 200 pounds.

Five and one-half inch casing was to be run and cemented on top of the Ellenburger for testing of the open hole early next week. The wildcat is 660 feet out of the southeast corner of section 1, AB&M survey, on a block of approximately 12,000 acres.

Humble finally got the big water from the Ellenburger at its No. 1 Wardlaw, West Tom Green county wildcat, 12 miles west of the city of San Angelo and 660 feet from south, 1,320 feet from west lines of section 33, A Speier survey.

Consecutive drill stem tests were taken after entering the deep strata. No shows of oil, gas or water were encountered on any of those examinations.

The last test, however, tool open three hours at 7,293-7,398 feet, recovered 2,930 feet of salty sulphur water. Additional recovery was 90 feet of drilling mud. While the tool was open, a good blow of air held at the surface.

Operator was running surveys on total depth 7,358 feet. It is due to be plugged and abandoned.

Plymouth Oil Company No. 1 J. Wiley Green, southeast Tom Green county wildcat to 8,000 feet to explore into the Ellenburger, 15 miles southeast of San Angelo, and 1,980 feet from north and east lines of section 193, district 11, SPRR survey, took a 28-minute drillstem test in a lime in the Cisco section of the Pennsylvanian at 3,330-3,450 feet.

Recovery was 1,380 feet of slightly gas cut drilling mud, 900 feet of mud cut with sulphur water and 90 feet of sulphur water. The venture is making new hole below 3,588 feet in shale.

Fifty feet of free oil and 180 feet of oil and gas-cut mud were recovered by The Texas Co. No. 1 Clarence Schaubauer, Midland county wildcat, on a 65-minute drillstem test from 13,060 to 13,116 feet. Drilling ahead was scheduled. The Ellenburger was entered at 13,060 feet, 10,228 feet below sea level, 266 higher feet than in Gulf No. 1-E Wilson Bryant, 14 miles to the southeast. No. 1 Schaubauer is in the C NW NW 20-40-2 T&P, two miles south of the Midland Air Terminal.

Gulf No. 1-E Bryant, C NE NW 36-39-38-T&P, encountered salt water in Ellenburger, topped at 13,150 feet, 10,434 feet below sea level, in drilling to 13,822 feet. It was to plug back and set casing to try for completion as a discovery producer in the Fusselman. On a six-hour drillstem test in August from 12,645-767 feet, 540 feet of gas-cut mud, 2,250 feet of clean oil and 210 feet of salt water were recovered from the Fusselman.

More hole was being made toward the Ellenburger in East Midland county, 13 miles southeast of the city of Midland, by Tex Harvey Oil Company.

That concern was deepening its No. 1 Floyd, 2,000 feet from north and 660 feet from east lines of section 15, block 37, T-3-S, TP survey, under 11,696 feet in Simpson lime, sand, and shale.

Herman Brown and George R. Brown of Houston spotted No. 1 W. J. Long and others, scheduled 3,900-foot wildcat in northwestern Garza county, 2,310 from the south, 330 feet from the west lines of section 1305, abstract 359. Out of a 6,000-acre block, Honolulu turned a checkerboarded spread of 3,060 acres to Don M. Oliver and Fred F. Kotyza of Midland, who made a deal with Brown Bros. to drill the wildcat.

Plymouth staked an east offset to Sun No. 1 P. W. Milligan, Strawn lime discovery in south-western Coke county completed last week for a 24-hour flow of 5,555 barrels of pipeline oil from 5,558-70 feet. It: No. 1 P. W. Milligan will be in the C NW NW 21-6-1&TC.

Vet Hospital Factions Confer

Management and union were conferring Saturday in an effort to iron out difficulties which resulted a work stoppage at the Veterans Administration hospital project Wednesday afternoon.

Steamfitters and plumbers did not report for work when a shop steward was discharged. Farwell & Co., sub-contractors for the plumbing and steamfitting work, at first reported an understanding had been reached, but this did not materialize. Company and union officials made representations Friday and Saturday, seeking to find a mutual basis of settlement.

That concern was deepening its No. 1 Floyd, 2,000 feet from north and 660 feet from east lines of section 15, block 37, T-3-S, TP survey, under 11,696 feet in Simpson lime, sand, and shale.

Herman Brown and George R. Brown of Houston spotted No. 1 W. J. Long and others, scheduled 3,900-foot wildcat in northwestern Garza county, 2,310 from the south, 330 feet from the west lines of section 1305, abstract 359. Out of a 6,000-acre block, Honolulu turned

Garden City's School Adding Shop Building

GARDEN CITY, Nov. 20. — At a cost estimated from $8,000 to $10,000, a shop building is being added to the Glasscock county independent school district facilities here.

Primary uses of the building will be for the veterans' vocational class and the high school class for farm engineering.

The building, a converted barracks from the Amarillo Army Air base, has been established on elevated foundation. Reason for this is to lend utility as a shop building for bus repairs.

C. G. P. — superintendent, explained that the structure would be divided into two units, one at floor level furnishing 1,200 square feet of space to be partitioned for classrooms, office and woodwork shop. The basement 300 square feet will be at ground level and have concrete floor to support heavy machine and shop equipment.

North end of the building will have a big door which will permit buses to be driven in for mechanical repairs and overhaul. This maneuver will enable the district to supervise its mechanical work and to have the buses handy at school for the children.

By day, about 20 young men will study farm engineering problems in the building, and at regular intervals, under direction of Howard S. McDaniel will participate in classes. The building will be equipped adequately with machine and hand tools. The vets and vocational agriculture students are assisting in finishing the interior as class projects.

Dozen Wetbacks Lodged In Jail

An even dozen "wetbacks" were lodged in county jail Saturday under orders from the U. S. Border Patrol, which made the arrests.

They are being held pending deportation proceedings for illegal entry into the U. S. Approximately five women and children will be included in the party when they are returned to Mexico, said R. L. Wolf, sheriff. The "wetbacks" were not regular migratory laborers but had sought to set up permanent residence here, according to the sheriff.

CHILD'S SMILE HELPS MOTHER UNTANGLE SOME LEGAL RED TAPE

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 20. (AP) — Two-year-old Rodney Callender's bewitching smile and boundless energy helped his mother untangle some legal red tape.

Mrs. A. C. Callender, mother of two and expecting another, was called into city court yesterday to face eviction for non-payment of rent.

She explained why:

Hurricane water ruined all their clothing recently. Her husband disappeared four months ago.

She hasn't been able to work because of the expected baby. Her only income is $50 a month from the welfare bureau.

As she talked, Rodney romped about the courtroom with the speed of an accelerated jet.

An attorney stepped up, asked for a continuance to help Mrs. Callender find a solution.

Mrs. Callender glanced around for Rodney. He couldn't be seen.

She looked back at the judge — and there was Rodney, sitting in his lap, playing with the judge's papers.

The continuance was granted.

District Court Disposes Of Six Cases Saturday

Dismissals, divorces and a minority disability removal took six cases off the 70th docket Saturday.

Dismissed at motion of plaintiff were the damage claims of Joe Merrick versus Sun Oil company, et al; Dave B. Gaylor versus Sun Oil company, et al; and Howell W. Butler versus Sun Oil company, et al.

Judge Cecil Collings granted a divorce to Bobbie Jean Todd from Melvin Joe Todd and awarded custody of a minor child to the plaintiff. Tolbert Hale was granted a voice from Toka Hale, who was restored her maiden name of Toka Williams.

In an ex parte proceeding, the disabilities of minority were removed for Oscar Algie Shaw.

Next regular term of 70th district court in Howard county gets underway here Nov. 29. It will be the last term that Judge Collings will convoke, since he is to leave the bench here on Dec. 31 to assume his duties as associate justice of the 11th court of civil appeals in Eastland.

Congressman Says Government Should Supervise Polls

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 20. (AP) — Public opinion polls? Rep. Adam C. Powell, Jr., (D-NY) says they ought to be put under government supervision.

The Negro congressman said before sailing for Kingston, Jamaica, Friday that he contemplates asking that such polls either be licensed or placed under supervision of the census bureau.

He said they were "too far off the beam the last election."

Pakistan Threatens Action In Kashmir

KARACHI, Pakistan, Nov. 20. (AP) — Defense Secretary Iskander Mirza said today Pakistan will be forced to "take appropriate military measures if nothing is done to correct the situation in Kashmir within a few days."

He said he referred to the launching by India of what Pakistan considers to be a major offensive in the Jammu area and Southwest Kashmir and the building up of Indian forces there during the last few months.

Frances Wilson And Toby Cook To Marry In January

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Wilson, 1209 Johnson, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Frances, to Toby Cook, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Cook of San Angelo.

Wedding vows will be exchanged sometime in January. The bride-elect is a graduate of Big Spring high school and attended Draughon's Business college in Abilene. Cook is a graduate of San Angelo high school and of the San Angelo Junior college. He served two years with the Navy during the war and is now co-owner of the Wayne Stham Ice Station.

Following the ceremony the couple will be at home in Big Spring.

Dobbins Home Is Scene Of Bridge Party On Friday

Mrs. Willard Hendrick and Mrs. Roxie Dobbins entertained with four tables of bridge at a party in the home of Mrs. Dobbins, 1008 Sycamore, Friday afternoon.

Mrs. R. McEwen, Jr. won high score and Mrs. Charles Tompkins scored second high. Mrs. T. F. Horton won bingo and travelling prizes.

The Thanksgiving motif was used in the decorations and refreshments, with arrangements of chrysanthemums placed at vantage points in the party rooms. Those attending were Mrs. Jack Irons, Mrs. Reuben Creighton, Mrs. Travis Carlton, Mrs. Harold Hall, Mrs. Kent Morgan, Mrs. Good Graves, Mrs. L. D. Chrene, Mrs. A. W. Dillon, Mrs. Harold Talbott, Mrs. Ward Hall, Mrs. E. J. Hughes, Mrs. Ralph Wyatt, Mrs. C. W. Mahoney, Mrs. Tompkins, Mrs. McEwen and the hostesses, Mrs. Hendrick and Mrs. Dobbins.

On Thursday, it will have been 327 years since the Pilgrim Fathers, in gratitude for a bountiful harvest, set aside a day of recognizing the blessings of the Lord. Since that date, it has been an American tradition to pause in work-day activities for family gatherings, for feasting and for uniting in giving thanks to God.

Big Spring, on Thursday, will observe its annual Thanksgiving with a union prayer service, to be held at the First Baptist church at 10 a. m., then will see its citizens gather in family groups around laden tables and at hearthstones for an occasion that strengthens home ties as well as those linking humanity with Divinity.

Typical of the family gatherings is that pictured above, and The Herald gratefully acknowledges the assistance of Mr. and Mrs. K. H. McGibbon and their daughters in the presentation of this Thanksgiving Day scene. At her father's right is eldest daughter Kendra; on the other side of the table are Kay and "littlest" blonde Karen.

Big Spring Juniors To Have Play Tuesday

"Here Goes The Groom," the 1948 play production of the Big Spring High Junior Class, will be presented Tuesday night in the municipal auditorium.

Characters include Mrs. Wade played by Doris Ann Stevens. Mrs. Wade is a kind and understanding mother.

Luan Creighton, as Ann Wade, is the young sweet bride about 19. Connie Wade, played by Marietta Staples, is the bride's younger sister, who can be made to believe almost anything, especially by her best girl friend, Tootsie Jones, who is portrayed by Jean Crumpton.

Tootsie is also a teen-ager, but acts much older than she really is and has many romantic notions, possibly because her mother, of whom she is very proud, has been married four times.

Amos Jones portrays Dave Harkness, the handsome and rather wealthy groom.

Jeff Travis, played by Lowie Rice, is the best man. He grew up with Ann and Dave, and they are practically inseparable. Jeff is good looking and it seems strange that he isn't the groom. In fact, he is, almost.

Rita Faye Wright plays the part of Miss Emma, a rather giddy old woman who tries to be very helpful with a handful of good ideas that just don't turn out very well.

Mervil Click, as Muscles Malone, is a wonderful football player in senior high school. Connie Wade seems to have a crush on him, but he doesn't like girls.

The play begins with Ann Wade, Mrs. Wade and Connie Wade making hurried plans for the big event. Everything is going fine until Connie and her friend, Tootsie Jones, overhear a conversation.

They get the idea that Ann is only marrying Dave for his money and that she is really in love with Jeff. The efforts of the two girls to break up the wedding causes confusion and merriment that keeps everyone wondering until the play's end.

Camille Inkman Is Brunch Honoree In Carl Strom Home On Saturday

Mrs. Carl Strom and Mrs. Robert Middleton feted Camille Inkman, bride-elect of Robert Heath Boykin of Midland, at a brunch in the home of Mrs. Strom, 400 Pennsylvania, Saturday morning. Wedding vows will be exchanged in a formal ceremony in the First Christian church, Nov. 26 at 7:30 p. m.

The bride-elect's chosen colors of aqua and silver were carried out in the decorative theme. The refreshment table was covered with an imported white linen banquet cloth trimmed with fillet lace, Italian cutwork and Barona lace insets. The centerpiece of the table featured a large flirtatious hat fashioned during the gay '30's and made of aqua and silver colors. The crown was filled with a lavish display of large white mums, while the brim and sashes were dotted with a profusion of miniature white mums. Other sashes made of aqua metallic ribbon completed the decorations. Table appointments were of silver.

During the entertainment, the hostesses presented the honoree with a gift of linen. Mrs. W. E. Carnrike presided at the silver service. Other members of the house party included the honoree, her mother, Mrs. W. W. Inkman and the two hostesses. All wore identical white carnation corsages.

Those attending were Mrs. Maurice Koger and Karen, Mrs. Pat Patterson, Mrs. Robert Piner, Robbie Piner, Agnes Currie, Mrs. T. S. Currie, Lillian Shick, Mrs. Nat Shick, Mrs. W. E. Carnrike, Mrs. G. T. Hall, Mrs. Shine Phillips, Mrs. Marvin House, Sr., Mrs. Jim Little, Mrs. W. B. Hardy, Mrs. M. H. Bennett.

Margie Raye Woodson Becomes Bride Of Bobby Hill On Friday Afternoon

In a double ring ceremony performed Friday afternoon at 2 p. m. in the Coahoma Baptist church, Margie Raye Woodson and Bobby Hill were united in marriage by the Rev. Mark Reeves.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Woodson of Coahoma. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hill of Big Spring.

For the informal ceremony, the bride wore a blue satin dress with black accessories and carried a bouquet of gardenias which topped a white Bible. Satin streamers fell from the Bible.

Betty Joyce Woodson, maid of honor and aunt of the bride, wore a light grey dress with green accessories.

Robert Hatcher of Big Spring, served as best man.

Music was presented by Mrs. Cliff Prather of Big Spring. Helen Joyce Engle of Coahoma, sang "Always."

Lou Woodson, nephew of the groom, and Wade Choate were ushers.

Church decorations included bouquets of pink gladioli and fern. Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the home of the bride's parents. Relatives and close friends attended.

After a wedding trip to Dallas and Illinois, the couple will reside in Big Spring.

Mrs. Hill is a graduate of Coahoma High School. Mr. Hill is a graduate of Big Spring High School. Since his graduation, he has served 25 months in the U. S. Navy. Mr. and Mrs. Hill are employees of the T and P Railway.

Preceding their marriage, Mrs. Hill was honored with a miscellaneous shower given in the home of Mrs. S. V. Jordan with Mrs. Robert Hatcher as co-hostess. Mrs. R. L. Wood, sister of the bride, presided at the register. Nilah Jo Hill, sister of the groom, served cake. Mrs. Hatcher poured punch. Fall flowers served as decorations. Approximately 50 guests attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Smith have spent the past week in Mineral Wells. Smith took a C.P.A. examination.

Patti McDonald is spending this weekend in Lubbock visiting friends. She attended the Texas Tech-University of New Mexico football game.

Glynn Jordan left Friday evening on a vacation trip to Fordyce, Ark., where she will visit relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Neel Bumgarner and Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Bridges and families are spending the weekend at the company camp on Fort Phantom Hill Lake near Abilene.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Carothers have spent the past week in Mineral Wells where he took a C.P.A. examination.

Mrs. Robert A. Smart was in a local hospital part of last week. Kay Tollett spent last weekend in New York City with her father. She is this year attending The George Washington University in Washington, D. C.

Cornelia Frazier will make her first appearance to the New York music world in singing the role of Emilia in Verdi's Opera Otello. She is appearing with the Mario Opera Group at the Biltmore Hotel during the week beginning November 28th. Miss Frazier is a former Cosden employee.

Visitors in the office this week included: Skeen Staley of Dallas, Chester Jones of Colorado City, B. F. Snowden of Tyler, J. E. Samford, Monroe Calculating Machine Company of El Paso; B. A. Baker, Baker Office Equipment Company of Midland; Griff Barnett, Cosden Jobber of Merkle; Rex Baggett, Cosden Sales Representative of Abilene; and H. B. McNeil, Panther City Office Supply Company of Midland.

Sonora Murphey has been out of the office the past week on vacation which she spent in Big Spring. C. A. Ballard of the United Petroleum Gas Company, is the week end guest of his aunt, Mrs. Otto Peters, Sr., and Mr. Peters.

Burglary Charges Lodged Against Man

Burglary charges were lodged Saturday against Ellis R. Walker. No bond had been set. Sheriff R. L. Wolf said that Walker was booked in connection of burglary of the Ross Barbecue cafe on No. 17.

American Troops To Quit Korea

SEOUL, Nov. 20. (AP) — American troops are preparing to quit Korea, Prime Minister Lee Bum Suk declared today. He warned that would be a signal for Korean Communists of the North to launch an armed invasion of South Korea. Maj. Gen. John B. Coulter, the American commander, declined to comment. He has said, however, that the question of withdrawal would be settled when the United Nations acts on the Korean question. The prime minister made his statement before the national assembly of the young republic, which has been set up in the American zone of South Korea. The Communists have a rival regime in the Russian North.

Stolen Dynamite Kills 14 Filipinos

MANILA, Nov. 20. (AP) — Fourteen Filipinos were killed and 12 seriously injured today in the explosion of stolen dynamite at an evacuation center 30 miles north of Manila, the Red Cross reported. The victims were women and children who had fled nearby villages to San Ildefonso to escape the Communist-led Hukbalahap guerrillas. The refugees were unaware of the presence of the dynamite. The dynamite, stolen from a U. S. Army lumber mill, was wrapped in pieces of clothing.

Club Demonstrators And Leaders Are Named By Center Point Members

Club demonstrators and leaders were appointed at the regular meeting of the Center Point Home Demonstration club in the home of Mrs. C. E. Prather Thursday afternoon.

Those named were Mrs. Holbert Fuller, landscaping leader and Mrs. W. C. Carroll, demonstrator; Mrs. H. S. Hanson, housing leader and Mrs. A. A. McKinney, demonstrator; Mrs. Ernest Hull, work simplification leader and Mrs. J. W. Brigrance, demonstrator.

Mrs. Albert Davis read the council report and announced the landscaping, home freezing and canning would be the topics for study for the year 1949.

Margaret Christie, county Home Demonstration agent, led a general discussion on the tentative changes to be made in the fair arrangements for next year.

Announcement was made that the club Christmas party will be held Thursday, Dec. 16, in the home of Mrs. Allen Hull at 2 p. m.

Refreshments were served to Mrs. J. M. Cross, Mrs. Albert Davis, Mrs. Wesley Carroll, Mrs. L. J. Davidson, Mrs. Walter Davidson, Mrs. J. W. Brigrance, Mrs. E. L. Bynum, Mrs. Frank Hull, Mrs. Melvin Loudamy, Mrs. Allen Hull, Mrs. Ira Rice, Mrs. A. A. McKinney, Mrs. Ernest Hull, Mrs. Holbert Fuller, Mrs. Walter Pachall, Mrs. H. S. Hanson, Mrs. J. E. Wood and Mrs. C. E. Prather, hostess.

First Baptist Bykota Class Has Thanksgiving Banquet On Friday

First Baptist Bykota Class members met in the church Friday night for a Thanksgiving banquet.

Orange candles in three tiered copper holders covered with invisible oak decorated the table which was centered with an arrangement of large yellow and bronze mums and cat tails. Fall flowers of various kinds were used. Place cards and napkins carried out the Thanksgiving theme.

Lorena Huggins directed the program which consisted of the reading of Psalm 100 by Martha Ann Harding and a sing song.

Those present were: Cora Mauldin, Hazel Shipp, Letha Amerson, John Lou Callison, Fay Colthorpe, Ricky Cooper, Martha Ann Harding, Nora Harding, Lorena Huggins, Grace Mann, Edythe Wright, Neil Brown, Margaret Christie, Fern Hurn, Margaret Ann Kling, Edith Hatchett, Fannie Stephens, Oters Greene, Ruby Billings, John Haynes, Carl Phillips Haynes, Marie Haynes, Dr. and Mrs. P. D. O'Brien.

It's not far away—TWIRP season at Big Spring high.

Dec. 1 marks the beginning of the special period when The Woman Is Requested to Pay. Boys are not alone in looking forward to TWIRP, but the girls as well.

Maybe they all will have a date for a change.

Twosomes at the football game and dance: Wanda Petty and Jack Ewing, Barbara June Greer and Carol Choate, Marilyn Miller and James Fannin, Chubby Jones and Ann Crocker, Helen McClure and Ed Wise, Ellen Eastham and Larry Evans, Billie P. Graham and Bill Morris, Luan Creighton and Pete Shannon, Sue Wasson and Billy Satterwhite, Marletta Staples and Cui Grigsby, Susan Houser and Chop Van Pelt.

A preview of the junior play was presented to the student body Friday afternoon. The characters are as follows: Ann Wade by Luan Creighton, Dave Harkness by Amos Jones, Connie Wade by Marletta Staples, Tootsie Jones by Jean Crompton, Jeff Travis by Mervil Click, Mrs. Wade by Doris Ann Stevens, and Miss Emma by Rita F. Wright. The play is to be presented Tuesday in the city auditorium and it begins promptly at 7:30 p. m.

New students in school: Beal Crane, a freshman from Allen Junior High in Austin, Paula Crane, an eighth grader from Austin; Shirley Clarkson, a freshman from Plainview.

The Hardin-Simmons Cowgirl band, featuring Norma Kniffen played here Wednesday. Miss Kniffen is billed as the "world's champion baton twirler", and she performed some wonderful stunts at assembly. She is from Chicago and has won many medals all over the U. S. She first won the championship in Cleveland, September of 1947 and retained her championship in St. Louis the following year. She has two twirling classes, one in Baird and the other in Anson and holds regular classes during summers. Miss Kniffen has been featured with the Cowgirl Band for two years and is also with the Cowboy Band. She is classified as a sophomore in Hardin-Simmons and is majoring in sociology. She says that she plans to go into some sort of Y.M.C.A. work when she graduates.

Students are anxious for the Thanksgiving Holidays to arrive. School will be dismissed Thursday and Friday of this week.

Seen roasting wieners Saturday night, Betty Lou Hewett and Kimball Guthrie, Nancy Lovelace and Richard Laswell, Rosie Parks and Kelley Lawrence, Jean Pearce and Kenneth Currey, Marletta Staples and Cui Grigsby. Two ward school teams played at the half of the Abilene-Big Spring game Friday night. The boys are coached by several of the high school football players and everyone really enjoyed the game.

Seasonal Charity Can Gain Force Through Cooperation

Thanksgiving begins it and Christmas brings it to its fullest fruition, this business of seasonal charity.

Cynics may indicate the six-week impetus on grounds that it lacks consistency sufficient for human need, but grumbling is never as important as giving. Charity is a worthy offering whenever it occurs.

The very nature of the season invites renewed generosity. It is the time of harvest, the time of counting blessings. More than that it is the time when the example of giving again is brought into focus by the sacred religious holiday.

Of course the problems of sustained charity remain to be solved during the year. That's where the churches, the Salvation Army, Red Cross and others come into the picture along with individuals. Somehow, we manage to see that object hardship, suffering and privation are dealt with practically.

In this season of bounty which lies just ahead, however, there is an equally big problem—that of wise distribution. We do not think that any amount of people and organizations and businesses can give will be too much. But there is such a thing as permitting too much to go here, and too little there.

And that brings us to the point of this piece—the need for close cooperation between churches, the Salvation Army, Red Cross, etc. in locating families in need. The danger is not some family would get too much, but that some might be overlooked entirely. We suggest that now is a good time for interested agencies to get together on some simple plan of coordinating charity prospect lists.

Southern Bloc Is In Sound Position In Democratic Fold

By FRANK GRIMES
Herald Special Writer

It seems to us that a great many conclusion-jumpers went off the deep end following the Democratic Party's sensational upset victory on November 2.

The most frequently-heard prediction was that the Taft-Hartley Act would be repealed just as fast as committee hearings could be held and a vote taken. Hadn't President Truman made its repeal a major item in his program? Didn't a great many congressmen who had voted for the law bite the dust? And didn't organized labor play a powerful hand in electing the Democratic ticket from top to bottom?

These are, of course, facts; but they are not all the facts. Certainly in order to gain the active support of organized labor it was necessary for the Democratic platform and the President to promise outright repeal. Nothing less would have sufficed. While we're at it, it might be just as well to repeat what has been said here before, to-wit: Nothing less than a forthright declaration on civil rights from the President and from the Democratic National Convention would have weaned the bulk of the colored vote away from the Republicans and the Wallaceites.

But there are some pretty stubborn facts in connection with both these items—Taft-Hartley repeal and civil rights—that have to be considered before any definitive legislation on them can be taken for granted.

One fact is that fifty of the holdover senators voted for the Taft-Hartley Act, a clear majority, and that four others who were elected senators in November voted for the act as members of the House last year. That makes 54 senators who are on record in favor of the T-H act—not enough to override a presidential veto, but enough to keep any lopsided legislation on the point from reaching the President's desk.

In the new House, there will be 244 representatives who voted for the Taft-Hartley act last year—another clear majority, to start with, in favor of the law. Now, this does not add up to outright repeal of the Taft-Hartley Act and reenactment of the old Wagner act. It adds up to a compromise. Even the Republicans admitted the T-H law could stand some changes, but its enemies are not justified in looking for anything very radical in what comes out of the indicated compromise. Certainly they are not justified in hoping for complete scrapping of the T-H law.

Just how much the labor bosses are able to wrangle out of Congress in the way of modification depends pretty much on their own conduct between now and voting time in House and Senate. If they start throwing their weight around and getting high behind, they may get a good deal less than they have a right to expect. They should remember that it was only through the Taft-Hartley law that President Truman was able to make the United States government bigger than John L. Lewis. Spreading strikes and a few overt acts by labor bosses could wreck labor's hope of loosening up the T-H law at all.

So much for that. Another false conclusion a great many observers jumped to following the election was that the South had lost its traditional role of dominance in the Democratic Party.

This simply isn't so, as events will prove. The Southern bloc is still in there pitching. It constitutes the most considerable never-say-die segment of the Democratic Party, and its members in House and Senate will help most of the choice committee memberships and chairmanships.

To get anything out of this bloc in the way of labor law revision, Mr. Truman will have to compromise with them on the civil rights issue. To get anything on civil rights, he will have to deal with them on labor legislation. Any time the Southern bloc bows its neck in either House or Congress, something will have to give.

This is one of the reasons we stuck to the Democratic ticket in the recent election. There was everything to lose and nothing to gain by jumping the fence and going off after strange gods. Win, lose or draw the Democratic Party is the South's Party. By sticking with it this time the South is sitting pretty, mighty pretty.

Nation Today — James Marlow

What Influences Should Solon Consider In Vote

WASHINGTON, (U) — HERE'S A NICE little one you can try on your wife or the man next door—and then duck.

In the new Congress of 1949 how should your senator or congressman—be he Democrat or Republican—vote?

1. The way his party leaders want him to?
2. The way his constituents—meaning you, the people back in his district—tell him they want him to vote?
3. Or use his own head—no matter what you or the party leaders say—and vote as he wants?

WILL YOU CALL HIM A PARTY HACK if he goes along doing just what his party leaders tell him?

On the other hand, do you think he should be entirely guided by the desires of the people back home?

But when he's voting in Congress, he's mostly voting on things that affect the whole country, not just his district.

So, should he put the interests of his district above those of the country as a whole? And how would you feel if he did?

Right on this point—to please the people back home and get something they want—congressmen sometimes make deals by agreeing that:

"I'll vote for your pet bill if you'll vote for mine. Do you think that is right?"

But suppose your man in Congress disregards the urgings of his party leaders and your pleas back home and votes as he pleases?

WOULD YOU BLAME HIM? HE MIGHT answer that he's trying to do an honest job by using his own judgement on each issue as it arises.

He could say that, with all the information available to him and not to you, he can decide better what's best. So it's a question:

Did you help elect your congressman because you thought he was a good man and you were willing to trust him to do what he thought right? Or because you want him to look out for your special interests? Or because you are a member of his party and want him to do what the party says?

In actual practice most congressmen—I guess all—at one time or another do all three things mentioned above, depending on the issue in each case.

THE POLITICAL SCIENCE ASSOCIATION says:

"Where conflicts of interest arise between his district or state, his party and the country as a whole, he must remember that his primary obligation is to the general welfare."

In a speech on the job of a congressman, Senator Fulbright, Arkansas Democrat, has said:

"The average legislator, early in his career, discovers that there are certain interests, or prejudices, or trifles with . . ."

"A difficult case is where the prejudice concerns the fundamental policy affecting the national welfare."

AS AN EXAMPLE HE TOOK THE poll tax and isolationism. In his own state of Arkansas, people have to pay a poll tax before they can vote. Since it has not been abolished there, it must be assumed the people of Arkansas want it.

Is it of fundamental importance that Congress pass a bill to wipe out the poll tax in all states? Fulbright says he doesn't think so, no matter what anyone outside of Arkansas says. So, he said, "I shall follow the views of the people of my state."

But he said he thinks a strong United Nations is of fundamental importance. So even though he said the people of his state were against the UN, he voted for it.

Scholars believe that the gypsy tribes which have been wandering across Europe since the 15th century are remnants of an ancient tribe from India.

Wolves usually mate for life. There are two major species on this continent, the red wolf and the grey. The grey wolf is much heavier than the red.

Inside Glimpse Of China Doings Doesn't Present A Pretty Picture

(Copyright 1948 by Bell Syndicate)

WASHINGTON—Here is an inside glimpse of certain things that are happening in China. It's not a pretty picture, but before pouring more U. S. dollars into China, Americans should take a long, hard look at the facts.

Chiang Kai-Shek is finished—even though he refuses to face the facts. He's lost the support of the vast majority of the Chinese people. His generals, and even his own government, are anxious to oust him. Against such an imposing lineup Chiang will be fortunate to hold onto his job for the next 60 days.

Faced with the collapse of his House of Cards, Chiang is losing his emotional balance, just as Hitler did during the last days of Berlin. Intimates report that the generalissimo is starting to fly into Hitler-type rages without provocation.

Only last week Chiang was in his headquarters, studying reports from his defeated armies, when he said to an old and trusted friend: "I should have resigned at the end of the war. That way I could have avoided these terrible defeats and would have been an honored citizen for the rest of my life."

The friend, anxious to avoid argument, said: "Yes, excellency, that would have been a wise move."

UNCONTROLLED RAGE
Whereupon Chiang flew into an uncontrolled rage, shouting at the top of his voice: "So now you too have turned against me!"

Chinese graft—the Chinese people lay much of the blame for their wretched conditions directly on Chiang's doorstep. They point to his feeble attempts to wipe out army graft. They deeply resent his emperor-like manner and great wealth in the midst of hunger and want.

But most of all, the average Chinese citizen feels that the generalissimo is personally responsible for the inflation which has wiped out the savings of middle- and low-income groups.

Just a little over a month ago Chiang announced he was going to stabilize currency and urged all Chinese to place their savings in the new gold yuan. He promised to peg the new money at the equivalent of 25 cents. The people followed his advice and placed their meager savings in the new yuan.

Today—a little more than a month later—the official yuan is worth 5 cents, though its real value, as reflected on the black market, is about one-half cent. The Chinese people have lost their savings—and their respect for Chiang.

When Chiang is either ousted or flees (or both) it's likely that a coalition government will be established by Vice President Li Tsung Jen and Fu Tso Yi, the latter one of the few successful nationalist army commanders. Even this coalition is not likely to last. Its base will be too narrow—too much similar to the present setup.

Will Russia fill the vacuum?—students of China feel that the time left for us to act is fast running out. China is rapidly becoming a political vacuum—all set for the Kremlin to take over. Thus far, the Russians haven't had to do much more than donate captured Japanese equipment to the Communist armies. Their political offensive to take over China hasn't started yet, but will soon.

Some observers think that if we discard our present game of "footsie" with the Chinese reactionaries, we may be able to save the situation—but if so, it will be a miracle.

China is too vast, too overpopulated, too graft-ridden, and most of her leaders too intent on personal gain for any outside nation to bring about reforms. Reform has got to come from inside China, not outside, and even the Russians may get into trouble when they try renovating a nation where the people of North China have to speak pidgin English to understand the people of South China.

MONEYED DEMOCRATS
President Truman didn't get many "big" campaign contributions prior to the elections. Nevertheless, he did have a few big donations, and here is a partial list of the faithful:

Floyd B. Odium, head of the world's biggest investment trust—the Odium Corporation—$3,000.
Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Field—$4,500.

Mrs. August A. Busch of the St. Louis beer fortune—$1,500.

Mr. and Mrs. James Bruce (he's ambassador to Argentina)—$5,000.

Cornelius Vanderbilt Whitney—assistant secretary for air—"loaned" the Democrats $5,000.

W. Averell Harriman—ECA Ambassador—$10,000. But his brother and business partner, E. Roland Harriman, gave the Republicans $11,000.

Former U. S. Attorney General Homer S. Cummings—$500. (Cummings' law firm gets $60,000 yearly retainer from the Standard Oil Co. of N. J. The Standard Oil group was backing Dewey to the limit.)

Former U. S. Attorney General Francis Biddle—$200.

Note—Truman's good friend, George E. Allen, vice president in charge of lobbying for a big insurance group, gave only $800 to keep his pal in the White House.

UNDER THE DOME

Not many people realize it, but it's been years since the Far West has had a hand in the leadership of the House of Representatives. That is why a drive is on to make congressman Mike Mansfield of Montana majority whip in the new Congress, replacing John McCormack of Massachusetts. Another reason is that Mansfield is one of the ablest, most aggressive fighters in Congress. . . .

Russell Davenport, former editor of Life magazine and a strong Wilkieite, is calling a secret meeting of liberal Republicans in New York City to map a liberal revolt inside the Grand Old Party. . . . Editor V. V. Dallman of the Illinois State Register in Springfield now says GOP should stand for "Grand Old Politicians."

The showdown as to when George Marshall will resign as secretary of state will be about Nov. 22, when Marshall comes back to confer with Truman. . . .

Spectacular feature of the San Francisco United Nations charter meeting was a Russian ship, the Smolna, anchored in San Francisco Bay, where Foreign Minister Molotov entertained foreign diplomats. Today the same SS Smolna is lurking off the coast of China infiltrating agents into the Chinese army.

Hollywood — Bob Thomas

Gregory Peck Soon Will Be Free Agent

HOLLYWOOD (U) — Gregory Peck, filmdom's most "cut-up" star, will be free from studio commitments sooner than he expected.

Ever since his start as a film actor, the La Jolla (Calif.) lad's services have been frozen by contracts to several studios. Now he expects to do a picture apiece for MGM and 20th-Fox in the first part of 1949. That will make him a free agent, except for a three-picture obligation to Selznick.

"I'll try free-lancing unless my following starts to drop," he remarked. "In which case, I will grab for a seven-year deal with a studio."

Judy Garland, who has been known to be difficult, is now sweetness and light. She even has asked the MGM publicity department what she can do to help.

Ethel Barrymore was eager to meet Gene Bearden, the baseball pitcher who is at MGM for "The Stratton Story." The sports-minded actress was disappointed when she learned he hasn't reported for work yet.

George Brent's hobby has switched from yachting to his horse breeding farm. His interest is so great he hates to come to town. Strangely enough, he has never ridden any of his horses.

Pre-dated checks are reportedly pouring into the democratic campaign funds from Hollywood personalities who offer such excuses as "I've been out of town, etc." They apparently hope it's never too late to hop on the bandwagon.

Van Johnson will likely join Ester Williams in "The Duchess of Idaho." He's now doing his first costume picture, "The Good Old Summertime." It's the good old "Shop Around The Corner."

Chock-Full Of Interesting Data Again--Old Farmer's Almanac

Would you like to know how to calculate times of sunrise and sunset in Dallas, Texas? Or what the period of gestation is for a she-buffalo? Or how high the tide will be at Boston next September 19? Or how many drops of liquid it takes to fill a teaspoon?

Or, maybe more important, when to plant what crop, and what to do about the coming winter?

Well, you get the answers to these and a lot of other questions in 157th issue of "The Old Farmer's Almanac (k)." A copy came across the desk the other day, and I'm finding it completely intriguing, just as I have other issues in the past. I don't know where you can get one of these publications, but you ought to have one. The 1949 issue contains nearly 100 pages, about 5x7 inches in size, and they're packed, in fine print, with observations and facts you'd be interested in.

For instance, the Almanac points out that there'll be a lot of weekend holidays next year.

It has, of course, such helpful intelligence as tide corrections, list of eclipses, various astronomical calculations, planting tables for various sections of the country. There is even room for a listing of fish and game laws for the various states, motor vehicle laws, postal tables and weights and measures tables.

There are some pages of "anecdotes and pleasantries," as well as puzzles, riddles and charades. There are some recipe pages, too.

There are even a few columns of "curious facts," including the finding that a flea can jump 200 times the height of its own stature.

Of course, there are the monthly calendars, giving all facts on lunar aspects, anniversaries, and all the rest, and along the same pages are comments for farmers, most of it good paternal advice. For instance, it says in October: "As soon as the fruit is picked in the orchards, look to protecting your young fruit trees from the winter." And in March: "Man, what are you doing now shaking your head over broken harness and busted plough points? What were your winter months for but to be getting everything ready for spring? Now you are on the wrong foot, and what is the need of it?"

There's some sage advice for correspondents, too. I like this: "S. A. S., Weston, Mass.: In answer to your question as to whether the stock market is going up or down in 1949, we beg to state that if you think it will go up, it will go down, and vice versa."

Through the years, I think the big attraction of the annual Almanac has been its prediction on the winter. I don't think "Mr. Weatherwise" claims to use much high-falutin' scientific data, but he has his own clues. Last winter, he said it would be "white, long, cold," and now is somewhat boastfully recalling the tremendous New York City snow of last December, together with record-breaking snowfall throughout most of New England.

Anyway, for what it's worth, here's what he says about the next few months: "ICY—The winter of 1948 and 1949 will not be as cold on the whole as the winter just past. However, it will last longer into March and there will be frequent storms of rain and sleet as well as snow which will create unusually icy conditions." Personally, I'm gonna get ready for a long, icy spell.—BOB WHIPKEY

Ruhr Question Is Toughest To Be Settled By The West

AP NEWSFEATURE
ULTIMATE CONTROL OF THE RICH German Ruhr—industrial keystone of continental Europe—is providing one of the toughest issues to be settled by America, Britain, and France.

Twice now the Ruhr, with its wealth of iron and coal, has been the arsenal of an aggressive Reich engaged in world war. The allies have sworn that never again shall Germany be able to utilize the treasure of the Ruhr in this manner.

However, the Ruhr is so important to the rest of western Europe that its strength must be restored. Here lies one of the greatest steel-producing areas of the world. Europe can't recover economically while the Ruhr is impotent, and this means that the Marshall plan also is dependent on it.

NOT SO LONG AGO THAT PROBLEM seemed fairly simple. Just keep the Ruhr under rigid military control while the war damage is repaired and manufacturing is got underway.

Well, it isn't as easy as that. Germans must work the coal mines and the blast furnaces—and you can't get full production from sullen workers. They must have inducement, and so America and Britain have decided that one incentive would be eventual operation of the industries by the Germans themselves—with proper military controls.

But France, thrice overrun by German armies in seven decades, is insisting on international operation of the Ruhr. She is afraid to let Germany control an asset which is a potential war threat.

FRANCE'S GEN. CHARLES DE GAULLE says the decision to turn the Ruhr mines and mills back into German hands is "the gravest decision made so far during the 20th century." He adds:

"England and America flatter themselves they can make something of the Reich to oppose Russia. Perhaps they can. But perhaps they can't. Hitler didn't have any difficulty in reaching an accord with Russia when he wanted to dominate Europe."

That's a disturbing thought, and knowing France very well I should say the average Frenchman would agree largely with De Gaulle. They haven't forgotten how Hitler tore up the Versailles treaty in 1936 and goose-stepped his troops into the Rhineland. Then came World War II.

Broadway — By Jack O'Brien

Big Street Is Borrowing From Neighbor's Culture

NEW YORK—That oldie about "neither a borrower nor a lender be" certainly doesn't go on Broadway. The big street is borrowing from its neighbors' cultural sugar bowls like mad.

As of this writing, Broadway has borrowed Henry Fonda from the films to star in "Mister Roberts." It has lured "Inside U.S.A." from the nation's book shelves and has turned it into a hit musical. Currently, the Broadway boards are in debt to Hollywood for Ann Dvorak in "The Respectful Prostitute," Jessica Tandy in "A Streetcar Named Desire," Jack Haley in "Inside U.S.A.," Ann Jeffreys in "My Romance," and Phil Silvers in "High Button Shoes."

It has borrowed, without a co-signer, John Alexander to fill the ample talents and shoes of Paul Douglas in "Born Yesterday." We have put the touch on England for Beatrice Lillie for such an authentically American musical opus as the aforementioned "Inside U.S.A." We went whole hog in asking London's West End to extend its cuff for "Edward, My Son," which in addition to being written by Brits (Robert Morley and Noel Langley) has nothing but British players in its cast, down to the yerliest backstage maid.

Wall Street Broker Pushes Drive For Better Skating

ASBURY PARK, N. J. (U)—AN ELDERLY retired Wall Street broker is the big wheel in a one-man campaign to teach the nation how to roller skate.

And the goal of wealthy Perry B. Rawson is to create 20 million new skating fans. He is probably the only man in the world who owns two private rinks on his own use.

"Roller skating has become the number one participating sport in America," he said. "More than 17 million people follow it."

"But only about 5 per cent are really skaters—the rest are just scooters."

"A SCOOTER" TO RAWSON IS a skater who careens around a rink, teetering and tottering, at the peril of his own limbs and the safety of other fans.

Back in 1932 Rawson, who had seen the 1929 stock market crash coming and weathered it, retired from business with his fortune intact. He decided to devote his entire time to skating—a lifelong hobby.

"I had spent thousands of dollars here and abroad with professional teachers," he said, "and I decided most of it was wasted. So I set out to find the right way to skate."

He built a large rink on his 200-acre estate here on the Jersey shore and a smaller one on his summer place at Manchester, N. H. He turned the rinks into skating laboratories.

HE DEVELOPED SEVERAL CONTRIVANCES that have a Rube Goldberg look but enable him now to teach the average beginner the principles of skating in a single hour.

Forsan Baptist Church Is Workers Conference Host During Past Week

FORSAN, Nov. 20. (Sp.)—The Rev. Cecil Rhodes, pastor of the Westside Baptist church in Big Spring, served as chairman at the Workers' Conference of the Big Spring association which met jointly with the local Baptist church Thursday.

During the morning session, the Rev. Delbert Wells, pastor of the Calvary church in Odessa, read the scriptural text and Mrs. Mark Reeves, president of the Association of WMS and Mrs. E. R. Powell, of the First Baptist church in Midland, taught the book, "The Way of Missionary Education."

The Rev. Vernon Yearby, pastor of the First Baptist church in Midland, gave the address on "Unionizing Southern Baptists."

Following luncheon at the church, members met for a WMU and Executive Board meeting. The Rev. Monroe Teeters, pastor of the First Baptist church in Knott, spoke on the subject, "Unity, a Great Objective," at the conclusion of the session.

Mrs. Joe Carlson of Big Spring entertained her children, Judy and Ronnie, with a party on their birthday anniversary in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Thompson.

Indoor games were entertainment and miniature baskets of candy were presented as favors.

Those attending were David McNallen, Larry and Billie Ruth Blankenship, Gay and Sandra Griffith, Sue Wilson, Paula Sue Gordon and the honored children.

Mrs. J. D. Leonard led the panel discussion on the subject, "Understanding Racial and Religious Groups in Our Country," at the Thursday afternoon session of the local study club.

Mrs. J. E. Lett, Mrs. C. J. Wise and Mrs. Frank Jacobs assisted Mrs. Leonard with lesson study.

Mrs. Frank Tate, president, presided during the business session. Mrs. G. D. Kennedy was elected to fill the office of treasurer, following the resignation of Mrs. H. N. Yeaden.

Mrs. C. H. McClusky led the group singing and Mrs. G. T. Kennedy offered the closing prayer.

G. D. Kennedy, superintendent of the schools, spoke briefly on the Glimmer-Aiken proposals and invited club members to attend a public meeting Thursday evening, Nov. 23 at 8 p. m.

Roll call was answered with "A Trail I Admire," by the membership.

Following the meeting a white elephant sale was conducted.

Those attending were Mrs. E. N. Baker, Mrs. O. S. Clark, Mrs. Bill Conger, Jr., Mrs. Robert Cowley, Mrs. W. B. Dunn, Mrs. E. A.

Grissom, Mrs. J. T. Holladay, Mrs. F. P. Honeycutt, Mrs. Frank J. Jacobs, Mrs. G. D. Kennedy, Mrs. J. D. Leonard, Mrs. J. E. Lett, Mrs. C. H. McClusky, Mrs. Lois Smith, Mrs. Frank Tate, Mrs. C. V. Wash, Mrs. C. J. Wise, Jr., Deryl Miller and Betty Ross.

House-Warming Fete Given For Jacobses

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Jacobs were honored with a housewarming in their new home at 409 Lincoln street, with Mrs. Tom Buckner, Mrs. S. A. McTeer, Mrs. Frank Wilson and Pauline Buckner acting as hostesses.

An arrangement of yellow and white chrysanthemums centered a lace-laid table, and candles in crystal holders flanked the center piece.

Guests included Mrs. J. M. Smith, Mrs. W. H. Ward, Mrs. S. E. Buckner, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cathey, Mr. and Mrs. James I. Wilkinson and Tommy, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Baich, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Buckner, Mr. and Mrs. Ira J. Driver, Charles Buckner, Ennon Lovelady, a d. Donald, Norma Jones, Mrs. Ray Groseclose, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Gideon.

Also, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Skelley, Mrs. Dewey Martin, Mrs. Roy Green, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Hull, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Gross, Mr. and Mrs. Dalton Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Buckner and Tommy, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Bolinger, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Reuckart, Mr. and Mrs. Sonny Dunning, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Newton, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Brown, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. McTeer.

Local Women Find Ways Of Making Money In Their Own Business World

During the past week, Big Springers have had an opportunity to do their Christmas and gift shopping in a different way. Club and church women were responsible for two bazaars—the first was held Wednesday in the Crawford Hotel by the Big Spring Business and Professional Women's Club, and another was held Friday at the Episcopal Parish House by members of the St. Mary's Episcopal Women's Auxiliary.

Whether the shoppers were looking for a pair of warm mittens or something to eat, they found it at the bazaars. Women of the two organizations spent a lot of time before the days of the big events, so they would have all types of hand-made scarfs, pillow slips, dish towels, all types of household articles, Christmas gifts, home-made candy, cake, pie and even chili to tempt their customers.

Both organizations made their affairs more interesting by "giving away" something. At the business women's bazaar, the gifts included a tire and a blanket.

Success seemed to be the outcome of both affairs, because late comers found the booths almost empty. Which seems to show that even in the "ready-made" world we have today, people still enjoy finding something new and then with a touch of "home" to it.

The bazaars also brought to mind some of the other projects which various organizations have been sponsoring in order to raise money. Church and club organizations do a number of things for themselves and for the community and the world in general. And when it's a woman's organization that is sponsoring the project, it seems that the number one question is always "where will we get the money?" Maybe the men have the same problem, but the women seem to get "into more work over it."

This fall, Big Spring has had its share of Halloween carnivals, which raised hundreds of dollars, cake and pie sales, rummage sales and the recent bazaars.

It seems that the women are doing their part in their own club and church business world to raise money for worthwhile projects here and elsewhere.

Reproductions Of Famous U. S. Documents Will Be Shown Here

A striking reproduction of one of the most precious American documents—the "rough" draft by Thomas Jefferson of the Declaration of Independence—will this week inaugurate a series of unusual displays at the First National bank.

This is but one of the 26 important and historic national papers which will be brought here for exhibition during the next year. They are taken from the originals which have been on tour with the Freedom Train.

Although only 35 years of age at the time, Jefferson was accorded the sign of honor of drafting the paper entitled "A Declaration of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress Assembled." His remarkable product, together with penciled changes in the hand of John Adams and Benjamin Franklin, will be shown in the large reproduction that captures the antiquity of the document with fidelity.

Every two weeks for the next 12 months, copy will be changed to include such historic papers as the Paris treaty recognizing U. S. independence; George Washington's Valley Forge description; the articles of confederation; Lincoln's draft of the Gettysburg address; Gen. Robert E. Lee's letter of acceptance of the Washington (& Lee) presidency; Benjamin Franklin's self epitaph; the "Virginia amendments" to the constitution; Thomas Payne's immortal "Crisis"; Roger Williams' plea for religious freedom; the "bill of rights" as passed by Congress; the story of the first American flag; the manuscript to the Star Spangled Banner; Washington's Farewell Address and many others.

Robert Piner, First National president, expressed the hope that large numbers would avail themselves of the opportunity to view these reproductions and thus refresh devotion of their heritage as citizens of the United States.

Man Discovered With Flames Licking Clothes

W. L. Hartley, possibly of Marfa, was in a serious condition Saturday at Cowper's hospital, suffering from severe burns.

Meanwhile, police and firemen puzzled over how his clothing came to be ignited. Hartley was picked up by firemen, who had answered an alarm to the 100 block on S. Bell at 9:20 p. m. Friday, his clothing ablaze.

Firemen had extinguished the blaze, turned in by police shortly and discovered by Charlie Boyd, operator of a nearby service station almost simultaneously. A "hobo," frightened by moans, said a man was in a weed clump screaming that he was burning. It was then that Hartley was discovered coming up the road.

Boyd said a man had come by his station several times prior to the time he discovered that a small structure north of the Humble bulk plant was on fire. Whether the victim had kindled a fire in the shack to warm himself or had caught fire at a hobo camp fire remained a mystery. All Hartley could say was to notify his mother in Marfa.

Fire Damages American Ship

HOUSTON, Nov. 20. (AP)—Fire of an undetermined origin caused damages approximating $50,000 to the 7,870-ton American freighter Edward Luckenbach last night at Port Houston's Long Reach dock.

J. E. Davies, vice-president of the States Marine Corp., agent for the ship, said the vessel arrived Friday afternoon from Dublin, Ireland, to take on a cargo of flour and cotton for Italy.

He said repairs to electrical and engine room equipment on the vessel will require several weeks.

'Johnny Belinda' Arrives At Ritz, Stars Jane Wyman

Besides the two stars, Jane Wyman and Lew Ayres, Warner Bros. acclaimed drama, "Johnny Belinda," opening today at the Ritz, has a cast sparked with interesting names. Charles Bickford and Agnes Moorehead are prominent in support of the starring duo, which Jean Negulesco has directed.

The villain of the piece is Stephen McNally. He played the role in the stage version of "Johnny Belinda" now being taken by Lew Ayres—that of the young, small-town doctor. In the film version, McNally is a black-dyed villain indeed; the man who not only attacks Belinda, but kills her father (Bickford) as well.

Jane Wyman, a newcomer to films, has another key role in the picture as Stella, McNally's wife. Miss Wyman was tested for the part while on a two-week vacation from the Chicago company of "Born Yesterday," in which she had the lead. When notified she had won the role, Miss Wyman finished up her two weeks with the Chicago company, hopped a plane for Hollywood and then another for Fort Bragg upstate, where she joined the company. Miss Wyman has an imposing list of stage credits. They include Terrence Rattigan's "Grey Farm," with Oscar Homolka; "Panama Hattie," "This Rock," with Billie Burke and Warner Bros. Zachary Scott; Katharine Cornell's "Three Sisters," with Miss Cornell, Ruth Gordon and Judith Anderson; "The Rugged Path" with Spencer Tracy, and "Present Laughter," with Clifton Webb.

Another notable member of the cast is Dan Seymour, weighty bad man in films. In "Johnny Belinda" he's not a necessarily bad man, just a tight-fisted money lender and town boss.

Rosalind Ivan, who scored such a smash hit as Joan Loring's slatternly mother in the Bette Davis film "The Corn Is Green," is cast as a small town gossip in the picture, along with Ida Moore and Mable Paige. Others in the cast are Joan Winfield, Richard Walsh, Dick Taylor and Ray Montgomery.

U. S. Emergency Rations To China

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20 (UP)—The United States is speeding a months emergency rations to the 12,270,000 residents of war-battered China's seven largest cities. Totaling 120,000 tons, the shipments will provide about 15 pounds of rice or flour per person in the north and central cities of Shanghai, Swatow, Canton, Nanking, Tientsin, Peiping and Tsingtao.

Russia Exceeds Her Prewar Metal Output

MOSCOW, Nov. 20 (UP)—Russia has exceeded its prewar metal output, a Soviet official announced Friday.

F. A. Merkulov, vice-minister of the metallurgical industry, told metal workers that blast furnaces and pipe mills throughout the Soviet Union had met their quotas and most steel smelters and end rolling mills were up to schedule.

Stockman's Rites

FLORESVILLE, Nov. 20 (UP)—Funeral services for E. L. Cale, Jr., 75, prominent retired stockman and farmer, were held Friday afternoon. He died of a heart attack at his home Thursday.

LETHAL PRODUCTS FOR SMUGGLING

BELFAST, Northern Ireland, Nov. 20 (UP)—Best selling side lines in shady shops along the Eire-Ulster border as the Christmas smuggling season nears:

1. Knockoutdrops that put turkeys to sleep until they're safely over the line.
2. Poultry food that does ditto to ducks.
3. Special muzzles to quiet contraband cows.

BABY GETS ATTENTION—Jane Wyman, Agnes Moorehead and Lew Ayres center their attention on the film's baby in Warner Bros. "Johnny Belinda," latest Ritz attraction. The picture tells the tragic story of a deaf mute in a backward Nova Scotia fishing village and how a young doctor helps her find her rightful place in society.

WOUNDED—Thomas Mitchell receives aid from Anne Sheridan and Errol Flynn in this scene from Warner Bros. "Silver River," which opens today at the State.

HIGHLIGHTS ON KBST

Thanksgiving Game To Be Broadcast

Climax of the Big Spring Steers' football season on Thanksgiving

Day also climaxes KBST's broadcasts of local games. The Thursday battle, to be at Sweetwater, will be aired by the local station. With the exception of one, which could not be carried because of baseball playoffs, every Steer game has been given a play-by-play report by KBST.

"HIT THE DECK"

Frances Langford will sing and play the role of LouLou Martin, sailor-struck restaurant owner, when a radio version of "Hit the Deck" is presented on the ABC-KBST broadcast of the Railroad Hour Monday, at 7:00 p. m. Gordon MacRae, singing host and male lead on the program, will play the role of sailor "Bilge" Smith in the performance of one of the late Vincent Youman's most popular musical hits.

THEATRE GUILD

Four members of the original Broadway cast of "The Winslow Boy"—Frank Allenby, Alan Webb, Valerie White and Michael Newell—will be starred in the roles they created when The Theatre Guild on the Air presents the widely acclaimed Terence Rattigan drama over ABC and KBST tonight at 8:30.

Rattigan took his dramatic line from one of the most absorbing litigations in British legal history. A proud and bitter father ruins himself and exhausts the family fortune in his determination to clear his family name after his son, "The Winslow Boy," is sacked from the Naval College for petty thievery.

"GREATEST STORY"

The story of a young boy who stole a coveted silver dagger from his playmate's home will be dramatized, in "A Blade From Damascus" on today's KBST broadcast of The Greatest Story Ever Told at 5:30 p. m. The absorbing drama revolves around a little boy's passionate desire for his friend's beautiful Damascus knife which, in conscious disobedience of his parent's orders, he stole and refused to return. His act developed into a "tremendous trifle" which aroused two families and a town elder to a blazing controversy over proper punishment for the child.

BING'S GUESTS

Metropolitan Opera star Dorothy Kirsten and comedian Bert Lahr will aid Bing Crosby in the music and merriment department Wednesday, at 9 p. m. Reminiscing about old-time "Dutch" comics, Bing and Bert will roll back the years to the turn of the century to offer a "Schultz and Rudolph" dialect routine, which will be interrupted by Miss Kirsten in time to turn the dialogue into a three-way rendition of "Friendship."

Fifteen More War Criminals Hanged

MUNICH, Germany, Nov. 20 (UP)—Fifteen more German war criminals were hanged Friday. The executions brought to 73 the number hanged in the last six weeks for wartime murders of concentration camp prisoners and American soldiers.

Flynn, Sheridan Are Re-United In State Film

Warner Bros. "Silver River" reunites Errol Flynn and Anne Sheridan in a western drama which arrives today at the State.

Those who prefer their cinema fare exciting and colorful will certainly not be disappointed in "Silver River." It carries the action to a dramatic climax and projects a moving love story against the far reaching horizons of the 1880's.

Flynn is first seen as a soldier cashiered out of the Union Army, who turns to gambling as a quick way to personal power. He achieves this in Silver City, and is soon the ranking figure in the entire town. Ann Sheridan, as a southern beauty, transplanted to the rugged outpost, is opposite Flynn. Their romance is vividly presented against a series of lusty, brawling fights of the plains, political tussles, and American pioneer spirit in the fight for silver.

Thomas Mitchell and Bruce Bennett are also outstanding in the film, together with thousands of extras.

Meet The "Seniors" of the COSDEN FAMILY

This is the 21st of a series of special Cosden presentations, recognizing the long and valued services of those employees who have been associated with Cosden for 15 years and longer. Cosden is proud of the scores of its workers who have contributed to its success through so many years.

ALLIE L. CARLILE

Another who soon will observe a 19th "anniversary" with Cosden is Allie L. Carlile, whose employment with the local refining plant goes back to December 18, 1929.

Carlile is a native West Texan, has spent all his life in this area. He was born in Coke county, moved with his family to Hamlin when he was a lad of 12. He attended school there. Later he farmed in the Hamlin area, until moving to Big Spring, where he worked for some time as a carpenter until he joined Cosden as a still cleaner.

He moved into operations of the stills in 1933, and has been in that work since. At the present time he is a stillman on the Dubbs cracking unit.

Carlile was married to Miss Edith Mamie Thompson of Hamlin in 1928. They have three sons, Elwood, 23; Robert Lee, 19; and Billy Wayne, 17.

The Carliles own their home at 910 East Sixth street, and attend the Trinity Baptist Church.

Carlile makes his work his hobby, and he also puts to good use his old skill as a carpenter by helping his friends with "odd jobs" and repair work around their houses.

WEEK'S BUSINESS

Real Estate Activity Tops Transactions

Real estate activity highlighted the business front in Big Spring during the past week, as a substantial increase in transactions was recorded at the county clerk's office. Largest was the sale of the Lester Fisher building to Elmo Wasson for $94,084.45. Other transactions ran the week's total to $142,953, representing one of the heaviest weeks of the year. The yearly figures zoomed past the two million mark, with the Saturday tally showing $2,106,147.

City building figures declined from the previous week but still managed to push the 1948 total to a new record. Fourteen permits issued during the week authorized construction costing an estimated $11,900. The current total for the year is $6,846,630.

New motor vehicle deliveries here continued at about the previous rate, although trucks accounted for more of the total than usual. The county tax assessor-collector's office registered 15 passenger cars, 10 trucks and one bus during the week.

TEXAS POLL

Few Understand Taft-Hartley Law

By JOE BELDEN
Director, The Texas Poll

AUSTIN, Nov. 20. — While the one of the most important issues to Taft-Hartley labor law has become come before the 81st Congress as a result of President Truman's election, most Texas voters don't know enough about the law to state its general purpose.

In a statewide survey of 1,500 eligible voters, The Texas Poll finds only 46 per cent know that the general purpose of the Taft-Hartley law is to regulate labor unions. The fight of opinion among these informed voters is against relaxing the law.

Only 8 per cent of those who know what the law is about said they would vote for its repeal if they were members of Congress. Another 37 per cent said they favor changes in the law, but 4 out of every 10 of these believe regulation should be made stricter.

The following questions were asked in this survey:
"From what you have heard and read about it, what would you say is the general purpose of the Taft-Hartley law?"

Labor regulation (correct answer) 46
Don't know 54

"If you were a member of Congress, would you vote to make changes in the Taft-Hartley law, or keep it as it is?"

Correctly Informed Voters
Repeal it 8
Make changes 37
Keep as is 41
Undecided 14

Do you think government regulation of labor unions is now too strict, not strict enough, or about right?"

Informed Voters Who Favor Changing T-H Law
Too strict 25
Not strict enough 42
About right 29
No opinion 4

Only 9 per cent of the voters who did not know what the Taft-Hartley law is about said they believed government regulation of labor unions is too strict. Thirty-five per cent said regulation was not strict enough, 38 per cent said it was about right, and the remaining 18 per cent had no opinions. The sample of persons interviewed in this survey represented eligible voters of all classes in all parts of Texas. Of all those interviewed, 16 per cent belonged to labor union families.

New Business Opens At Garden City

GARDEN CITY, Nov. 20.—Lester Ratliff and Dan Houston have opened for business in a new location with expanded merchandise facilities.

They have added hardware, home furnishings, ranch and windmill supplies to their line of feeds. The new location is north of the Grill, and their former location at the corner of the highway intersections is to be used as a feed warehouse. Both Ratliff and Houston are Glasscock county natives and well known in the area.

GOP, Southern Demo Co-Operation Seen

MOBILE, Ala., Nov. 20. (AP)—Republican Party Leader Joseph W. Martin says there is common ground for joint action by his GOP minority and the Southern Democratic faction in the next Congress. The Speaker of the House for the 80th Congress addressed the annual dinner of the Alabama State Chamber of Commerce last night.

Referring to the "new deal", he said "it was the South which helped to hold the line for American enterprise through the trying years of the pre-war experiment in Washington."

New Funeral Home Slates Open House

Visitors are being welcomed today at the McDaniel-Boullion Funeral Home, as the new establishment conducts open house at 611 Runnels.

The building, which formerly was a large residence, has been completely remodelled, but the owners of the new Funeral service have purposely left interior arrangements as they would for an actual home.

The chapel, which is one of the largest in West Texas, appears as a spacious living room, and the main state room is equipped with private entrance for use of families during times of bereavement. The state room also provides private facilities for relatives during funeral services conducted in the chapel.

All furnishings and equipment in the McDaniel-Boullion Funeral home are new.

"Our aims is to offer the best type of service possible, and we feel that it is essential that the newest and best equipment be used from the very beginning," the owners declare.

New carpeting and other interior decorations have been installed throughout the building. The firm also has one new ambulance in service and another is expected to arrive next week.

President of the firm is Pete McDaniel, who at 32 is a veteran in his profession. He will be in charge of funeral services at the home. Partners in the firm are E. H. Boullion Sr., and E. H. Boullion Jr., E. H. Boullion Sr., a business man in Lynn county for 30 years, will be in charge of the insurance department, while E. H. Boullion Jr. will be an assistant in both departments.

All three of the owners are war

Grange Convention Ends With Support Of Oleo Tax Repeal

PORTLAND, Me., Nov. 20. (AP)—The National Grange concluded its national convention today after withdrawing support of oleomargarine taxes and endorsing compulsory arbitration of strikes that menace public welfare.

The farm organization's policy groups voted after two hours debate last night to support margarine tax repeal "if and when effective means are taken to prevent deception in its sale in imitation of butter."

Some delegates predicted the next congress will repeal the tax—10 cents a pound on colored margarine and one-half cent a pound on the uncolored product.

The house passed repeal legislation in the 80th Congress. Opponents kept the measure from a vote in the Senate. Heretofore the Grange has staunchly supported margarine taxes.

Sweetbreads always should be cooked as soon as possible after purchasing since they are very perishable.
