Marijuana, Whiskey Grabbed In Raid

A lengthy investigation by Colorado City Patrolman Don Hamilton was concluded at 2 a.m. Sunday when a home on the city's southside was raided.

Four people, a husband and wife and their two sons, were arrested and charged with possession of more than four ounces of marijuana, a felony, and possession of alcoholic beverages for sale in a dry county, a Class A misdemeanor. Each person was released on bond from Mitchell County Jail.

The bond amounts on each person amounted to $1,000 for the misdemeanor and $3,500 for the felony.

Charged were: -Henry Williams, 53, of Rt. 3, Box 92, Colorado City.

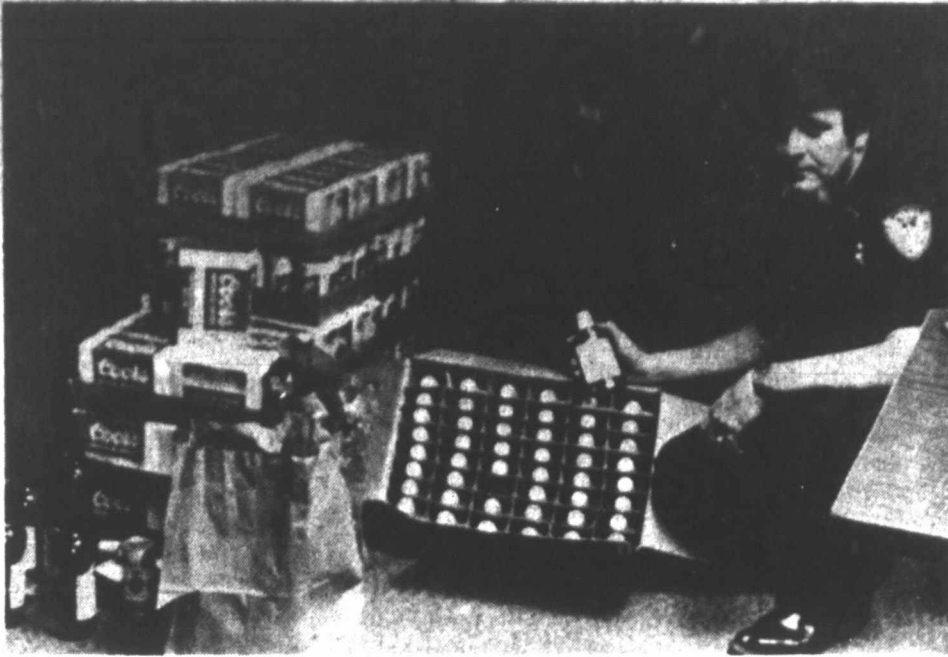

-Ruth Williams, 48, of the same address.

-David Henry Williams, 26, of the same address.

-Larry Williams, 29, of Rt. 3, Box 83.

Burglary Is Reported

The Jim Hearin home on Highway 208 north of Neff's Greenhouses was burglarized Saturday night or Sunday morning and by 2 p.m. Monday, the Sheriff's Office had arrested one man and recovered the stolen merchandise.

Officer Resigns

Bobby Calloway, city police officer here for almost three years, has resigned from the police force effective tomorrow (Friday).

Calloway tendered his resignation last week. He joined the police force Sept. 1, 1977. He is going to work for a local firm.

Sheriff Bill McGuire who investigated the incident with Deputies Jim Reynaud and Mike Stutts, said the home was broken into through the back door window with a tire tool.

Blood was scattered throughout the home as the burglar apparently injured himself getting into the house. There was blood on the carpet in each room and a trail of blood to where the stolen goods were loaded into a vehicle.

By 2 p.m. Monday, the Sheriff's Office had jailed a 28-year-old man and recovered the stolen merchandise which included a microwave oven, a color television and stereo and speakers.

Charged in the burglary is Juan Medrano, 28, of Colorado City. He

Labor Day Play Day Is Planned

The Colorado City Area Chamber of Commerce in its regular meeting Monday night voted that the Chamber should reaffirm and dedicate itself to following the organization's bylaws.

This occurred after Director Carl Beery Moore read a section of the bylaws to the directors, showing that a meeting held last week was not legal, according to the bylaws.

The board voted in its reaffirmation to the bylaws to offer an apology to Loyd Ledbetter and Mac McKinnon for the "gross error" in connection with that meeting last week.

Also in connection with that meeting, Chamber Director and Former Chamber President Bobby Lemons resigned, telling the Record that the recent action of the board was not in keeping with the practice and bylaws of the chamber. "In protest of what was done, I'm resigning," Lemons told the Record.

McKinnon, immediate past president of the Chamber, resigned from the Chamber board during the meeting last week.

Ledbetter read a letter to the board saying that he wanted the matter dropped and he noted that if the board felt there was any conflict with the Chamber getting the job done, they could take a vote and ask for his resignation. It was the consensus of the board that they did not want Ledbetter to resign and regretted Lemons' resignation.

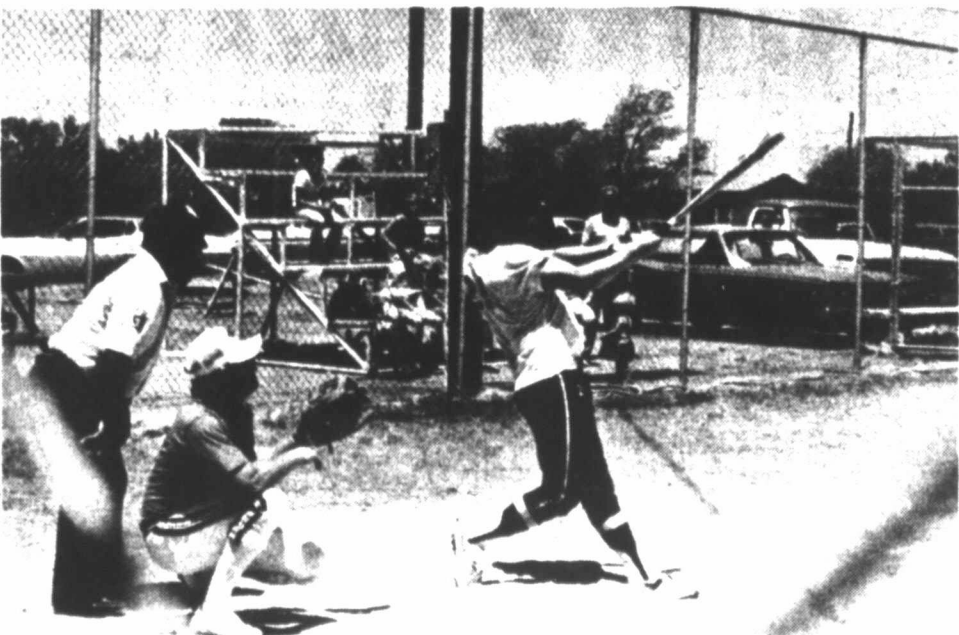

A copy of the bylaws is to be given to each new member of the board, it was decided during the meeting.

In other matters, Lemons reported before resigning that the Chamber needs to write a letter to District Highway Engineer Roger

Tickets To Go On Sale Here Monday

Tickets for "Never Too Late" will go on sale Monday in the Colorado City Playhouse box office for $3.50 each. "Never Too Late" will be presented August 14, 15, 16, 21, 22 and 23 in the Colorado City Playhouse. This comedy three-act play was written by Sumner Arthur Long.

The setting is Calverton, a small town in Massachusetts and revolves around Harry and Edith Lambert, soon to be parents after 20 years. Harry is a strong-minded pillar of the community and finds himself on the end of practical jokes around town.

The new mother-to-be, Edith, is swept away with the romance of having a new baby in the house. Adding to this dilemma, their daughter and son-in-law live with them. Kate, the daughter, is forced into a role of the family housekeeper, an undesirable and unwanted role.

Charlie, Kate's husband, is always caught in the path of his marauding father-in-law despite his efforts.

This delightful play will make a night for family entertainment to be enjoyed by everyone.

The cast includes Kent Womack as Harry Lambert. A Playhouse favorite, he appeared on stage as Elwood P. Dowd in "Harvey" and gave a wonderful performance.

Cecile Hubbard portrays Edith in her debut performance.

Charlie is characterized by Mike Brooks and Elaine Fugate gives a delightful performance as Kate.

Doctor James Kimbrough, friend and confidant of the family, is portrayed by Jon Millington and Grace, his wife, is characterized by Lisa Wilkinson.

A carpenter hired to remodel the Lamberts' bathroom, Mr. Foley, is performed by Porter Richardson, also a Playhouse favorite.

Greg Chaney acts out the role as Mayor Crane as Tommy Baker portrays a policeman, thrown in the middle of this crazy family situation.

Advance tickets may be made by contacting the box office Monday through Wednesday between 1 p.m. and 5 p.m. or by phoning 915 728-3491.

The box office will also be open from 1 p.m. until curtain time of daily performances of the play.

The land will be turned back to the owner, O.B. Trulock, Dec. 31. It has been leased by the city since the early 1960's. In addition, the city will pay $6,000 to Trulock and will not have to restore the land to its previous condition.

Local Team Finishes Third In The Annual Jaycees Softball Tourney

The Annual Jaycees Tournament concluded Sunday evening and it was termed as a "total success." There were 28 teams participating in the battle-filled games.

Woody Anderson stated, "The tournament was a total success and they made a lot of money. He added that they would not have another one...until next year because they were all tired from this one."

Several teams were entered from Colorado City and surrounding towns and they made it through Saturday night or maybe Sunday morning. It's hard to say because when you're playing a game at three or four o'clock in the morning, who knows?

After a short break, the championship games began Sunday afternoon with the first game of the day between the Colorado City Rejects, the only Colorado City team left in competition, and the Mohawk Mud team from Abilene, both with no losses. The Rejects fell to Mohawk Mud 2-1 after a battling game in the heat.

As the heat got hotter, so did the action. Midland Basin and the Kings of Big Spring met in the field, both having one loss each. The Kings were defeated by the Midland Basin team 2-1 in a semi-tough game.

In the third game of the day, the Rejects met the Midland Basin team again each having one loss each. The Midland Basin team took the game 1-0 under intense action. This put the Rejects in third place.

This left only two teams in the tournament, both battling for the first place title. Though the temperature was hot, the game was not. Mohawk Mud won it 3-1.

The All-Tournament team was named with two players coming from the Colorado City Reject team. They were Ray Torrez and Randy Anderson. Others named on the All-Tour-namment team were Jesse Zapata of the Kings; Bill Preston, Galberson Zachery and Dan Trulove of Midland Basin and R. McCleskey, Jerry McKennon, J. Wright and S. Roberts of Mohawk Mud.

Allen LaKatta of Mohawk Mud received a travel bag for being named the Most Valuable Player. R. Mc-

Cleskey received a bat for the most home runs and Dan Trulove received a new glove for being named the defensive glove.

Howard County Farmers received the sportsmanship award.

Lambert And Hackfeld Are United In Marriage

Karen Ann Lambert and Stanley Wayne Hackfeld were united in marriage at 6 p.m. July 26 in the First Baptist Church in Snyder. Rev. G.M. Cole, former pastor of the church, led a dedicatory prayer and Rev. Ken Brannan, pastor, officiated the double ring ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Derald Lambert and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hackfeld of Lorraine.

Vows were pledged before an altar featuring three brass candelabras forming an arch flanked by spiraling candelabra, decorated with English ivy and blue and ivory bows. The altar railing was decorated with ivy and carnations. Completing the altar scene was potted urns of greenery.

The bride, presented in marriage by her father, was attired in a formal gown, a House of Bianchi original, of candlelight chiffon. English net appliqued with heavily beaded re-embroidered Alencon lace formed the empire bodice and trimmed her long tapered sleeves. Beaded lace appliques also highlighted the full bias skirt. Her wattleau train flowed from a high back yoke. A lace-edged, beaded, full length mantilla of candlelight silk illusion completed the bride's ensemble.

She carried a cascade of silk gardenias, blue roses, forget-me-nots intermingled with greenery and tied with streamers of navy, blue and ivory.

Miss Polly Lambert of Smackover, Ark., cousin of the bride, served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Cynthia Ferrell of Midland, Cydney McDonald of Waco, Mrs. Win Bunch of Tyler, Mrs. Tod Lambert of Conroe and Mrs. Keith Hackfeld, sisters-in-law of the bride and groom, respectively. They were dressed in ice blue chiffon gowns fashioned with a neckline formed by a ruffled capelet, worn off the shoulder, dipping to the waistline in back. Their full skirts, attached to an empire waist, fell into soft folds. They carried fans decorated with silk flowers and ribbons in shades of blue.

Keith Hackfeld served his brother as best man. Groomsmen were David Green of Sweetwater, cousin of the groom, Bimbo Stewart of Lorraine, Louis Brooks of Sweetwater, Emory Birdwell of Palo Pinto and Ricky Walker of Lubbock. Mrs. Wayne Bethel presented nuptial music and accompanied Mrs. Larry Scott as she sang "Song of Ruth," "That's the Way" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church. The bride's table was covered by a softly gathered blue skirt and topped with an off-white lace overlay. It was centered with a silver epergne which held an arrangement of blue silk flowers, baby's breath and greenery. The five-tiered wedding cake was decorated with blue silk flowers. Tea sandwiches, ham roll-ups, olives, pickles and cheese cubes were served on plates of cut glass. Serving were Vicki Moore of Fort Worth, Allison Ragle of Graham and Mrs. Kathy Landrum of College Station.

The groom's table featured a centerpiece of blue silk flowers and greenery arranged in a miniature wooden wagon. Serving German chocolate cake and coffee were Mrs. Pam Beene of Houston and Charlotte Crow of Waco.

A rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's parents at The Shack. They also honored the couple with a party at the Colorado City Country Club.

Mrs. Donald Lambert of Smackover, Ark., Mrs. Bill Dougherty of Conway, Ark., both aunts of the bride, Mrs. Arthur Chambers, also of Smackover and grandmother of the bride, and Mrs. Roy Carter were hostesses for the bridal luncheon the day of the wedding.

Letter To The Editor

To The Citizens Of Colorado City:

We can certainly appreciate the courage and concern of the many citizens who have written various letters to the editors of our local and area newspapers concerning the city council's hiring of the new police chief. Many opinions have been expressed and many of these were well founded.

However, I think the time has come to realize one important fact: whether we agree with the decision of the council or not, the decision has been made and it is irreversible.

A new family is coming into our town. The man of this family will be responsible for our community's safety and well-being. This man and his family are coming here in good faith. Let us all accept him into his new home with the same good faith.

The pressures of the job of police chief are tremendous by nature. Let's not add pressures to his new job. Respect him, cooperate with him and support him. When he gets here, he will be groping in the dark trying to learn how the people of this town expect him to operate. I am certain that he will learn what is necessary to effectively perform his duties to the satisfaction of a unified majority. If, however, there are individuals lurking in the shadows waiting for him to make his first mistake so they can leap upon the council with a horde of "I told you so's," he will not be able to function toward achieving our best interests.

Remember, if we have quarrels with the decision, our quarrels are with the council members only—and we can act on our opinions at the next election. The new police chief, however, deserves our fairness. When he gets here, let's welcome him and his family and let him know we are behind him.

Respectfully,
Carl Beery Moore

Welsch regarding the need for a low water crossing on the Interstate at the Colorado River.

He also noted that groups here need to get together and go to Austin for a meeting with the Highway Commission to impress on them the need for the crossing.

Director Travis Cawthron thanked everyone for their help during the rodeo and the success of the rodeo was reported. It was noted that plans are being made for next year with the possibility of having the rodeo on the July 4th weekend.

It was also noted that money must be borrowed to pay for the bucking chutes which cost a total of $3,633.68.

Plans were discussed for a Play Day on Labor Day, Sept. 1, at the rodeo arena with Jimmy Moody and Pat McPhaul to furnish calves at no cost to the Chamber.

There will be four age categories for boys and girls: eight and under, 9-12, 13-15 and 16-19 in events including barrel racing, pole bending, flag races, breakaway roping and tie down roping.

Entry fee will be $5 per contestant per event.

A $25 bonus was voted for each of the two

Chamber's secretaries, Patricia Denson and Patty Graham, for their work during the rodeo.

It was noted that a date and a speaker are not yet definite for the farm tour to be held either late this month or early next month.

Director Betty Williams reported that "Fiesta Day" that kicked off the rodeo week was successful and the merchants will have something for the Christmas season.

It was also reported that plans are being made for the upcoming teachers' reception during which the Chamber of Commerce welcomes the teachers each year.

The board also decided to return a $100 check to McKinnon who had given the check to reimburse the Chamber for a hot dog supper sponsored by the Chamber for the girls' softball tournament held here in mid-July. He did so as there was some opposition to the Chamber sponsoring the supper and he said he did not want any hard feelings over the matter.

However, the board had voted in early July to sponsor the supper and in returning the check, the board noted it supports the girls' softball program.

How to keep this weather from blistering your electric bill:

Any Texan can tell you that summer's only half over when you get to August.

And staying comfortable in August and September means high electric bills.

But here are 10 things you can do to hold down your electric bill:

1. Keep the temperature inside at 78° or higher.
2. Use a portable fan to circulate the room air.
3. If you have central air, leave the unit's fan switch on "auto"
4. When you leave the house, turn the air conditioner off.
5. Trim back shrubbery or grass from around the outside unit. It needs air, too.
6. Close drapes, shades, and blinds to keep the sun out.
7. Change or clean your air conditioner's filter every month, if needed.
8. Make sure doors and windows are shut securely when using the air conditioner.
9. Cook with small appliances whenever possible. The heat from your oven makes your air conditioner work harder.
10. Open the refrigerator and freezer as seldom as possible.

At Texas Electric, we're trying to help you keep your electric bill from going out of sight this summer. For more energy-saving ideas, call for our free TIPS booklet.
