Managers are notifying their players when to appear for work-outs. These work-outs will continue through next week, and league play will begin on May 28. Each boy will be issued a uniform.

At the player auction, team managers selected 15 players for each team, five from the 12-year-old group, five from the 11, and five 10 and under. Also, each manager selected one alternate player.

Television Guest Born In Tahoka, But Who Is She?

Who is Mrs. Charles (Beth) Dickens, who was born in Tahoka? This lady, with her husband, appeared on the Edgar Bergen and Charlie McCarthy "Do You Trust Your Wife" program on television Tuesday night.

She said she was born in Tahoka, the daughter of an oil well driller, and had lived in Muleshoe, Levelland, Ropesville, Meadow, and Loop. Her husband was born in Nashville, Tenn.

Since the program, literally scores of people have called The News to inquire about the lady. In fact, calls began coming in before the program was over.

The lady appeared to be between 30 and 40 years of age.

The first oil well drilled in this county was in 1918—the old Shook well south of Tahoka. The next was the first J. B. Nance sponsored well near where Joe Robinson lives on T-Bar two miles west of town, drilled in about 1926.

Incidentally, the couple won $1,200.00 on the program.

NIXON HAS OPERATION

George Nixon underwent major surgery Tuesday in a Lamesa hospital for gall bladder. A part of his stomach was also removed. Mrs. Nixon telephoned Dorothy Kidwell Wednesday afternoon that he was doing fine.

Help keep Tahoka clean!

Swimming Pool Open Saturday

Tahoka Municipal swimming pool, located in City Park, will open for the first time this season this Saturday at 2:00 p. m., Dean Wright, the operator announces.

The pool will open each day next week and throughout the summer at 2:00 p. m. The same admission prices as in the past will be charged, 35 cents for adults and young people, 15 cents for children below 12 years of age. Children are admitted to the wading pool free, if accompanied by an adult to look after them.

Stanley Stone will be the life guard again this summer. Stone is a qualified life guard with a life saving certificate.

Swimming lessons will not be started until about June 15, Coach Wright states.

All swimmers will be expected to abide by all rules of safety and good conduct at the pool.

Man Is Injured In Car Wreck

L. L. Bradley, 63, postmaster at Channelview, near Houston, was very critically injured Saturday night between 8 and 9 o'clock when his car overturned on U. S. 87 six miles north of Tahoka. He suffered a crushed vertebrae in the neck, and is completely paralyzed from the neck down. Little hope is held for his recovery, The News is informed.

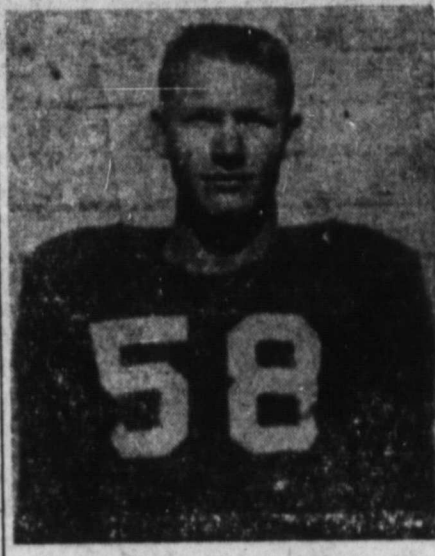

Mr. Bradley, traveling alone, was en route to the Texas Postmasters' convention in Lubbock. He told Tahoka Hospital attendants he thought he went to sleep at the wheel and lost control of the car. The car rolled over two or three times, near the Bohanan farm.

Martin White of Stanley Funeral Home brought him to Tahoka Hospital, where he was given oxygen and plasma, and Monday at about 11 a. m., he was transferred to Methodist Hospital, Lubbock. Local Postmaster Happy Smith says he is in a very critical condition.

Mr. Bradley told Lawrence Harvick: "If I don't recover, tell the people of Tahoka how much I appreciate their kindness. I was never treated better anywhere."

A special nurse not being available Sunday night, men of the town took turns helping out at his bedside at the Hospital until he was moved to Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Benson and Mr. and Mrs. Lee McFadden spent last week fishing on the San Saba River. The largest fish they caught was a 35 pound catfish.

DONALD BLAIR

West Texas State Signs Don Blair

Donald Blair, Tahoka football and track star, last week was given a four-year athletic scholarship at West Texas State College by Frank Kimbrough, head football coach.

The 170-pound Tahoka fullback was one of the outstanding backs on the South Plains last year, although handicapped a part of the season with an injured kidney. He is also a sprint man on the track team, and has been clocked at less than 10 seconds in the 100 yard dash. A pulled leg muscle kept him out of the state finals.

Donald's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Blair, also expect to move to Canyon next week, where Mr. Blair has secured employment as a maintenance man for the college. Last week he sold his farming equipment to a cousin, Olin Blair of Newmoore. Mr. Blair has been farming one of Mrs. Pearl Calloway's places.

Junior Pitts, Tahoka's 6-foot 5-inch basketball star, was recently given an athletic scholarship at West Texas State. His parents also expect to move to Canyon next fall, and his dad, Tom Pitts, will also be employed with the college.

W. B. Slaton Shows Some Improvement

W. B. Slaton is gradually improving, Mrs. Slaton reports.

Tuesday, his brother, Wilbur Slaton of Lubbock, carried him to the hospital for a check-up, and the doctors said he was doing fine and should be walking in a few weeks.

Mrs. Slaton has both day and night nurses to help care for him.

The Tahoka banker suffered a stroke on March 11.

RECITAL AT BROWNFIELD

Mrs. Dea Parker will present her 175 Brownfield dance pupils in recital Thursday, May 24, at 8 p. m. in the Brownfield High School auditorium. The public is invited, and there will be no admission charge.

Scott and the benediction by Rev. Ray Elmore. Mrs. E. W. Patterson will play the processional and recessional.

Awards will be presented by Principal W. P. Jones.

Supt. J. P. Hewlett will present the class, and Clarence Church, president of the school board, will present the diplomas.

Eugene Bruedigam will pronounce the invocation, and Juanita Murray will give the benediction. Processional and recessional will be played by the Wilson High School Band.

Evangelist Taylor has served as singer, evangelist and preacher for different sections of the country for over fifteen years. He studied public speaking under the famous Josh Lee in Oklahoma University. (Cont'd. on back page)

Pioneers Will Meet June 23

Plans are underway for the annual Lynn County Pioneer Reunion on June 23, according to Clint Walker, president this year.

Usually, the reunion is held on June 24, but since this date falls on Sunday this year, the date has been changed to Saturday, June 23.

The all-day affair will be held at the school again this year, with the general session in the auditorium and the dinner served at noon in the cafeteria.

Hall Robinson is the vice president, and Mrs. Garland Peunington is the secretary this year.

Committees will be announced in next week's issue of The News, Walker says.

Blow-Out In Gas Line Near City

A main line of Pioneer Natural Gas Company blew out at a point about four miles south of Tahoka Monday morning at 7:40 o'clock and the noise created mild excitement around town for about thirty minutes.

The noise sounded like a flight of jet planes, and could be heard fully ten miles away.

Dean Taylor, local manager of the company, said the blow-out of the 10-inch main line laid in 1927 occurred near the windmill at the John Hill farm. Pressure in the pipe was at 570 pounds at the time of the blow-out. Gas continued escaping until cut-off could be made both at a point on the line near the Fred McGinty farm and at the compressor station west of Tahoka. A hole in the ground "big enough to bury a car" was blown out.

Workmen from the pipeline company repaired the break.

NEW GRAND-DAUGHTER

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Cooper came home Wednesday from a visit to Dallas with a new granddaughter. The parents are Mr. and Mrs. O. H. (Myrtle Cooper) Ross, and the Coopers declare they can't tell which parent is proudest of the new arrival. She has been named Pamela Sue, weighed 6 pounds 13 ounces, and was born May 7.

Forty-three Tahoka High School seniors expect to receive diplomas of graduation at final exercises tonight at 8 o'clock in the school auditorium.

Honor members of the class will present the major portion of the program.

Jerry Cain, with the highest grade average, will bring the valedictory address; and Margie Curry, second highest, will present the salutatory address. Other talks will be by honor students, Ted Pridmore, Joyce Lauderdale, and N. E. Wood Jr.

Awards will be presented by Principal L. F. Jacobs.

Supt. Otis Spears will present the candidates for graduation, and diplomas will be given out by Maurice Huffaker, president of the school board.

Ann Reasonover will give the invocation, and Junior Fitts the benediction. Mrs. Harold Green will play for the processional and recessional.

The class returned home Thursday from their annual trip to MO Ranch, Kerrville, to which place they went last Sunday night following the class sermon exercises.

Members of the graduating class are:

Glen Earl Anderson, Leon Anderson, Jimmy Beggs, Carlton Bell, Donald Blair, Ronnie Brooks, Jerry Cain, L. W. Castleberry, Bobby Cook, Leon Davis, Joe Dockery, Joe Draper, Robert Draper, Jake Dunlap, Kenny Durham, Junior Fitts, Bobby Hays, Wase High, Leighton Knox, J. E. Mrs. Noble Seeks District Office

Mrs. Margaret Garland Noble of Lynn County last week formally announced her candidacy for State Representative of the Ninety-ninth Legislative District, comprising the counties of Andrews, Dawson, Gaines, and Lynn.

Mrs. Noble was born in Lamesa, is forty-four years of age, and lived in Lamesa until 1933, when she moved to O'Donnell, where she has resided ever since. She is the daughter of Mrs. J. E. Garland of Lamesa and the late Judge J. E. Garland, who was a pioneer Dawson County attorney and District Judge.

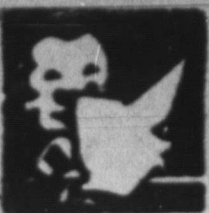

Mrs. Noble, a student of Government and History, is married to J. M. Noble, for 17 years postmaster at O'Donnell and who is now in the Rural Mail Service. Mr. Noble is a member of a pioneer Lynn County family. They are the parents of two sons, James Mack, age 22, who upon graduation from Tech in 1954, entered the Armed Forces and is currently stationed in Korea; and Edward Garland, age 19 who is graduating from Texas Tech in May.

Mrs. Noble attended high school in Lamesa, and attended college at West Texas State Teachers College and Texas Tech. She was a teacher for several years in the O'Donnell High School and is currently a substitute in the O'Donnell School System. She has been a member of the Methodist Church since childhood and is a former president of the O'Donnell P. T. A. Until her entrance into the teaching profession, Mrs. Noble was an active member of the O'Donnell Study Club and also for many years has been an Official Election Judge in the O'Donnell (Cont'd. on back page)

Phillips, son of Mr. and Mrs. K. W. Phillips. Rev. D. W. Copeland performed the vows before an archway of greenery and white daisies.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a white dress fashioned with a low neckline, outlined with lace, a fitted bodice and short sleeves. She wore a shoulder length veil and white accessories. Her bouquet was of white daisies centered with white carnations.

Mrs. Barbara Miller, cousin of the bride was matron of honor. She wore a pink linen dress with white accessories and carried a nosegay of white and pink daisies.

Mrs. Pat Hutchison played traditional wedding music.

The best man was Mr. Henry Ayrs and Ray Frankland served as usher, both friends of the groom.

A reception was held in the Daniel's home following the ceremony. The guests were registered by Miss Mary Bell Wood. The bride's table was laid with lace and arranged with a three tiered wedding cake and a punch bowl. Baskets of flowers were placed throughout the house.

For the wedding trip the bride wore a brown linen suit with white accessories. The couple will live in Lubbock, where the bridegroom is employed by Spears Furniture Company.

Methodists Plan Vacation School

Vacation Bible School of the First Methodist Church will open next Monday morning, Mrs. W. H. Eudy, the general director, announces.

The School will begin each morning at 8:30 o'clock, and will be dismissed at 10:30. Refreshments will be served the children each morning.

All children of the community are invited to attend this school, whether they are attendants at the Methodist Sunday School or not.

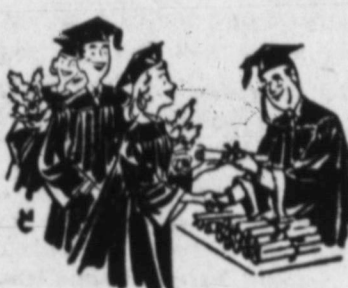

SISTER IS BURIED

Mrs. Sam (Eula) Priddy, 76, sister of Roy E. Poer, died at her home in Hubbard City on May 1, and was buried there the next day. She is survived by her husband, one son, one granddaughter, two great granddaughters, two sisters and one brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Poer went down Tuesday, May 1, but ran into the heavy rain which forced them to spend that night in Hillsboro. Hubbard City received 8 inches, and Ash Creek was two miles wide that night, blocking highway traffic. Next morning, the water had subsided sufficiently for them to proceed to Hubbard City.

Graze properly and raise plenty of beef; overgraze and "beef" plenty.

Get into an Olds!

THERE'S A POWERFUL DIFFERENCE BETWEEN AN OLDSMOBILE 88 AND THE OTHER LOWER-PRICE CARS!

IF YOU WANT A CAR THAT'S REALLY DIFFERENT... you want OLDSMOBILE! This budget-priced "88" not only has big-car size and prestige but it rides and handles like a big car. There's big-car power and performance, big-car style and beauty that make it a standout... anywhere!

RIDE? We've put all of Oldsmobile's luxury and comfort in a sleek and solid Body by Fisher. We've cradled the whole works on a rugged chassis. The result is the surest, softest "hug-the-road" ride you've ever tried!

RESALE VALUE? You've got a real winner here, too! It's a fact that Oldsmobile is right up there with dollars to spare at trade-in time. Your investment holds when you go over to Olds.

And there's a pleasant difference in our way of doing business, too! Come in now! You'll wind up way ahead... in a dazzling new Rocket "88" Oldsmobile!

H. D. Daniel Owns Farm East of New Lynn

Mystery Farm No. 94 belongs to Mr. and Mrs. Horace D. Daniel and is located eight and a half miles east and three miles north of Tahoka, east of New Lynn.

A. B. Bush was the first rural reader and Raymond Gary first town reader to identify it correctly. Others include H. D. Gartman, Mrs. L. L. Corbell, and Mrs. Dan Carpenter.

Mr. Daniel bought the 165.4 acre farm in December, 1944, from Dan Carpenter. He and his family moved on it the following January 15, 1945, and have lived there ever since. Mr. Daniel also farms the Lockwood half section located immediately north of this place.

Both places are farmed dry land, and cotton and maize are about the only crops. But, Mr. Daniel supplements his crop income with some milch cows and also some beef calves and chickens.

He has his place terraced, and thinks this is a great country if we would just start getting a litle more rain again.

Mrs. Daniel is the former Miss Lillian Woodard, reared south of Abilene, and she was married to Mr. Daniel at Hawley, north of Abilene, on February 20, 1929. They moved from there to Lynn county.

They have two children; one daughter, Velma Dee, 21, who was married on May 5 to J. W. Phillips; and one son, Dean, 13, a school student at Wilson. Velma Dee is working for the REA in Lubbock, and J. W. is working there for Spears Furniture.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel are members of New Lynn Baptist Church. He is a Mason and she is a member of the Eastern Star.

Jack Cleghorn In Combat Training

Camp Pendleton, Calif.—Pvt. Jackie C. Cleghorn, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Cleghorn of Route 2, Tahoka, finished four weeks of individual combat training May 4 at the Marine Corps Base, Camp Pendleton, Calif.

The course of instruction at this huge training base includes the latest infantry tactics, first aid, demolitions, field fortifications, and advanced schooling on weapons.

The trainees learn that all Marines are basically infantrymen, whether they serve as cooks, typists, truck drivers, or with aviation units.

The training is given to Marines scheduled for duty overseas and to all graduates of recruit training before they are assigned to new duty stations.

BAPTIST WMU HOLDS ROYAL SERVICE PROGRAM

The W. M. U. of the First Baptist Church met at the church Monday at 3:30 p. m. for the Royal Service program with 16 members present.

The program was led by Mrs. Everton Nevill, and opened with a song, "Onward Christian Soldiers." A special prayer was given by Mrs. K. R. Durham for the Missionaries abroad and local, the ones having birthdays this month. The Scripture quotation was on the "Great Commission," Matt. 28:19-20.

The program was in the form of a panel discussion. Participating were: Mrs. L. M. Nordyke, Education Commission; Mrs. Terry Noble, Brotherhood Commission; Mrs. Paul Cox, Radio and TV; Mrs. J. C. Womack, American Baptist Theological Seminary; Mrs. Bordon Davis, Historical; Mrs. J. H. Kuykendall, Christian Life; and Mrs. Clifford Harris.

Mrs. Ivan McWhirter gave the dismissal prayer. Next week, the W. M. U. will meet at 3:30 in circles for their Mission study. Circles will meet in the following homes: Walker circle, Mrs. H. B. Howell; Sallee circle, Mrs. Carl Williams; Sharp-ley circle, Mrs. Paul Cox; and Wingo circle, Mrs. J. C. Womack.

ELMER BLANKENSHIP

Grass seeding is still in progress in the District. The two sets of fine seed planter boxes that the district has are being used almost daily. One set is adaptable to Farmall planters and the other for John Deere equipment. These boxes are made specially for small seed such as blue panicum. George Barron near Lakeview used one set of these boxes for planting sesame. Paul Pittman used his own planter equipment to plant blue panicum and a small acreage of Indian grass as a dry-land trial on his farm near Draw. Some of the grasses that are recommended in the district are, blue Blue panicum, Indian, Blackwell switch grass, Sand longgrass, Sand bluestem, Little bluestem, Weeping longgrass, blue grama, King Ranch bluestem, and Unal side oats grama. This is not a complete list but some that can be planted and grown with equipment on hand. There is every good market demand for the seeds of these grasses. All are producers of forage for grazing livestock and when used in a crop rotation improve the soil.

Technicians assigned to the district assembled conservation plans on Calloway Huffakers farm west of Draw and a place operated by J. E. Nance, west of O'Donnell. Calloway plans to plant hairy vetch on his irrigated farm for soil improvement. Mr. Nance completed a terrace system, plans to use peas in the summer for soil improvement and will likely plant blue panicum sometime in the future.

The mesquite and other brush control work with root cutter blades that was mentioned a few weeks ago in this Column which was being carried out in south Texas is now much closer. Some of this work was observed Monday near Big Spring by S. C. S. personnel and Mr. Wynn, outstanding ing farmer and rancher from Tahoka. One plot of ground was seeded to a mixture of blue panicum and K. R. Bluestem while the other was only blue panicum. The same kind of work is starting on thickly infested mesquite range land near Midland. The Tahoka work unit office will be given information from time to time on results of these brush control trials.

BREAKS SHOULDER

Miss Gladys Fox of Grassland broke her left shoulder in a fall Tuesday, and is a patient in Tahoka Hospital. Last October, Miss Fox suffered a very bad break of the right shoulder. Since that time she has been living at Grassland with her sister, Mrs. E. A. Thomas. At the time of the first break, she was teaching in Stephen J. Hay school in Dallas. She once taught in Lynn county.

Mrs. Hubert Edwards reports she received a Mothers Day cablegram from her son, Pvt. Melvin Edwards, in Butzbach, Germany, with the Fourth Infantry. He expects to be transferred soon to the Field Artillery.

Sandra Massey, age three, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Massey, entered Tahoka Hospital Tuesday for treatment of a virus infection.

Gardner Child Is Back Home

Tommye Jan Gardner, year-old daughter of Principal Milton Gardner of North Elementary School and wife, was able to come home Saturday from Baylor Hospital, Dallas, where she was a patient two weeks.

The child recently underwent an operation in Methodist Hospital, Lubbock, in which a tumor was removed. The tumor was found to be cancerous, and the child was carried to Dallas for x-ray treatments.

The Dallas doctors told the child's parents she has a good chance to recover completely.

Uzzle Graduates At Wayland College

Charles J. Uzzle of Tahoka will graduate from Wayland College, Plainview, at commencement exercises next Tuesday at 7:30 p. m., along with a class of 42 seniors.

Reared at Draw, Charles has been studying for the ministry at Wayland, and while doing so he has been serving as pastor of rural churches. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Uzzle of Draw.

The number of broilers produced in Texas more than doubled from 1950 to 1955. Production jumped from 33.4 million broilers to 79 million broilers and says Kermit Schlamb, extension marketing specialist, if the rate of chick placement which has prevailed or the first 12 weeks of 1956 holds throughout the year, 1956 production could exceed 90 million by the year-end.

Rural churches are playing an important role in the community improvement programs of the state. Rural pastors are working closely with local county extension service agents in rebuilding community spirit and fellowship.

Disorder ranks second only to poor judgment as a cause of accidents. Farms and homes can be made safer and living conditions more pleasant by giving them a thorough spring clean-up. Get rid of accident and fire hazards.

Cancer will at some time strike one in every four Americans, according to present estimates. Fight it with a checkup and a check. Thus you will protect yourself and help save others.

The cancer death rate for women aged 35-44 has declined 25 percent since 1942, says the American Cancer Society Fight cancer by joining the ACS Crusade.

Experimental drugs have been found which control certain cancers in laboratory animals. Help support this vital research by giving to the American Cancer Society's April Crusade.

Mrs. Noble is an accomplished helper and also a teacher of Music, having directed choruses at different places where they have labored in the work of the church. Mrs. Taylor's grandfather, Evangelist David Parks, was a very well known evangelist in the churches of Christ. Day services will be announced. Because of her training and her life-long residency in this district, Mrs. Noble believes that she understands and appreciates the problems which are our own here and can intelligently represent our interests in the State Legislature. Since our district has a diversified economy of oil, ranching, and farming, each of these interests should be given due and proper consideration before decisions are made concerning any type of legislation.

Mrs. Noble will make every effort to see personally every citizen of the district before election and sincerely hopes that her qualifications will meet your standards of a State Representative and earnestly solicits your vote and support.

T-Bar Country Club Course Is Opened For Play By Golfers

The grass greens golf course of T-Bar Country Club opened Sunday, with 22 players showing up for the first day's play. The Club plans a formal opening later in the summer.

Although more time will be required to get the fairways in good playing shape, most of the golfers were surprised to find the course in as good playing shape as it is. In fact, several of them played 36 holes. Others have been playing this week.

A. N. Norman, new president of the club, and his helpers have done a good job in getting the course ready for play. Fairways are a little weedy, but they were being mowed and are now in better shape than for the opening.

Seven of the greens are in good shape. Grass on the No. 9 fairway was blown out by recent sandstorms and cannot be used at this time. The No. 8 green was also blown out, and the No. 9 green was damaged by vandals recently. Therefore, golfers are playing through No. 1 to No. 7, and then doubling back on Nos. 6 and 7 to play nine holes.

Grass in the fairways is coming along fine since the recent showers. More rain soon would help the course tremendously.

J. W. Edwards of New Home recently contributed the drilling of a water well, which tested out a three-incher. As soon as this is tied-in to the water lines, some water can be allocated to the fairways. The club now has five small wells on the course.

About 25 trees have been planted recently, and more will be planted in the future.

Arrangements are being made for a pro shop, where cold drinks and golf accessories may be made available, and a shelter will be built also with funds contributed by the VFW.

The Club is also preparing to start plans for a creditable club house to be located on the hill overlooking the course.

Several golf professionals who have inspected the course say the T-Bar Country Club course is a fine layout.

The club intentionally laid out a short course that would prove more attractive to "dubbers," ladies, and young people. Yardage of the course is 3,034, whereas most of the courses in this area are around 3,200 yards.

Also, three of the holes are on the hill, near the clubhouse site, so that golfers may come in to the clubhouse easily at almost any time they wish.

No. 1 fairway is the longest, 494 yards, is a par 5, and doglegs to the left. The fence on the north is out of bounds.

No. 2 doubles back eastward, and is a par 4 hole of 352 yards. No. 3 is the short hole, only 130 yards long, but is uphill, and the green is near the clubhouse site.

No. 4 is the second longest, but is downhill part of the way to the west. It is 484 yards, and 5 is par.

No. 5 is 365 yards to the south-east, doglegs to the left, and is par 4.

No. 6 is 330 yards, doglegs to the right, and is uphill to the east, ending near the clubhouse site. Par is 4.

No. 7 is another short hole, 193 yards downhill to the southwest, par 3, but the golfer who over shoots the green will be in trouble. No. 8, not now in use, is a long 384 yards, to the east, with the south course boundary fence out of bounds, and is par 4.

No. 9, also not in use yet, is 305 yards, all uphill to the north, with the green south of the clubhouse site. It is also a par 4.

Sand traps and bunkers will probably be added later to make the course more difficult.

Also, more grass will be planted soon, especially in front of and around the greens as members and workers can get to it and as climatic conditions will permit.

Mrs. O. C. (Peggy) Elliott, secretary, says the club now has 101 paid members. All golfers and others who would like to play golf are invited and urged to join now. The members come from all over the county, and 18 are from O'Donnell.

Those who have been working on the club feel they have done well considering the amount of money available with which to build the club.

Mrs. C. O. (Mollie) Edwards of Fort Worth, one of the T-Bar Ranch owners, contributed the 125 acres of land to the people of Lynn county in honor of her late husband, which donation has made made the course and future county park possible.

Provision was made for an airport, and a separate organization from the Country Club, the airport committee headed by J. E. Nance has laid caliche for one runway and expects to lay another runway later.

Land has been set aside also for a Boy Scout council area, for or possible rodeo grounds, and for a picnic area.

A number of business men and others have bought memberships who do not intend to play golf, just to help out the project, or to use the club house facilities, when the latter is built.

Through contributions of labor and materials, the course has

Rollin McCord Jr. Gets Promotion

Washington, D. C. —The Navy Department announced the promotion April 16 of Joseph R. McCord, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. McCord of Tahoka, and husband of Mrs. Sue McCord of Tahoka, to quartermaster third class, USN, while serving aboard the Pacific Fleet heavy cruiser USS Los Angeles.

The promotion followed successful completion of a Navy-wide petty officer examination conducted in February.

been built for about $10,000.00. Much of this went for irrigation wells, pumps, motors and pipe. Work was delayed several months by failure to find sufficient water in one or two wells, and finally five were required to get sufficient water to raise the greens.

The club was further helped by the donation of much pipe by Pioneer Gas Co., the installation of electric lines by Southwestern Public Service, and the donation of two water wells.

During the first year and a half Truett Smith, O. C. Elliott, and "Red" Brown furnished most of the leadership, with Elliott overseeing most of the actual work in building the course. During recent weeks, A. N. Norman has furnished the leadership and supervision and work that actually got the course in playable shape.

After a long, hard struggle, through dry and windy weather, those who have worked so hard, which includes many others in addition to those named above, now are proud of the course and its potentialities.

Grain Sorghum Wireworm Control

Good control of wireworms on treatment of grain sorghum seed with lindane, Dieldrin, or heptachlor, according to County Agent Bill Griffin.

Dieldrin or lindane should be used at the rate of two ounces and heptachlor at two or three ounces of actual toxicant mixed with 100 pounds of seed. For example, if a 25 percent wettable powder of lindane or dieldrin was used, eight ounces would treat 100 pounds of seed.

These insecticides may be applied to the seed whether or not they were previously or will be treated with a fungicide.

It is important to distribute the insecticide evenly so that each seed will be coated. Application of these insecticides in heavy dosage above the recommended amount could result in damage to germination.

For cottonseed, use one-half of above recommendations.

"Topsoil" is the most important ingredient in the commodity we know as "land".

Odd Ends

(By E. L. Hill)

Well, as some of us fore-saw, Sam Rayburn, speaker of the Lower House of Congress, and Lyndon Johnson, Senior U. S. Senator from Texas, city-slicked Governor Allan Shivers and left him standing out in the cold and still shivering in so far as the next Democratic (?) national convention is concerned. I knew that was going to happen and said so in this column, but there was nothing I could do about it, and so I did not even attend either the local precinct or the county convention. I think I am a Democrat, but I am what they now call a State's Rights Democrat. Some of the so-called Loyalists in Texas sometimes call us State's Rights folks Shivercrats. That appellation does not fit me, however, for while I stand for the same things virtually that Shivers stands for I am in no sense tied to him as a personal supporter, and I think that he has bungled the issue of State's Rights which has been raised by recent decisions of the U. S. Supreme Court.

His proposal to combat the Supreme Court's usurpation of power by introducing resolutions in precinct and county Democratic conventions sounded farcical to start with and it proved to be farcical when so presented. As Sam Rayburn and Lyndon Johnson have boasted since that they had a lot of fun making dog-meat out of Galt proposal. All they had to do was to shout "Hurrah for Texas, Let's run Johnson for President." That got the job done; and two days after the conventions were held, Johnson announced that he was not going to make any campaign as a candidate for President and that in fact he was not going to ask anybody outside of Texas to vote for him for that job in the National Convention—assuring the supporters of other candidates that he did not intend to interfere with their political plans. Another report sent out from Washington the same day said it was not believed that Johnson would even be a candidate for the nomination. Yes, it was just a fake campaign that Sam Rayburn put over on the people of Texas. And the Supreme Court will keep on usurping powers, as I view its performances, until after awhile we shall be compelled to call a halt or be sunk to the bottom as a free and liberty-loving people.

But somebody, I doubt not, will call a halt before we go over the meddlesome, roaring political Niagara Falls Precipice, even if the Supreme Court itself does not.

discover the danger and steer our boat safely ashore. Now that Speaker Sam Rayburn and Senator Lyndon Johnson have led us into waters that to us seem troubled and turbulent, we shall expect them to lead a movement that will draw a lot of Northern states to join the State's Rights forces in such numbers as to block the way and scotch the wheels of the power-mad Supreme Court. Former Governor Lee O'Daniel says he will scotch the U. S. Supreme Court wheels in Texas himself.

West Texas people have experienced enough the past few weeks to convince them that it is not the speed of the wind but its direction that brings rain or a drought. Likewise it is not the glamor with which a boy may be able to shine in society that counts but the direction in which he is headed—and the girl too.

In West Texas both the cock-sure weather man and the traditionally super-cautions mesquite bushes are sometimes led into grave and blighting errors. This year we kept having winter days for two or three weeks after the Mesquite had put on their spring-time robes with leaves an inch long. The Mesquites and the weather prophets do not seem to be much better guessers than Dr. Krick or some of our distinguished political seers.

Now, in turning again to relate another chapter in the life of Sam Houston, whom we left last week as a drunken sot out among the Cherokee Indians at Fort Gibson in the present state of Oklahoma but ready to start on a mission in their behalf to the City of Washington, it seems appropriate that I quote these verses from a grand old hymn published 72 years ago in a little Methodist hymn book which I have (and it is found in some of the present-day hymn books), as follows:

"God moves in a mysterious way,
His wonders to perform;
He plants His footsteps in the sea,
And rides upon the storm."

"Deep in unfathomable minds
Of never-failing skill,
He treasures up His bright designs,
And works His sovereign will."

There are other verses just as true and just as beautiful, but these are sufficient for our present purpose; for while much of Sam Houston's life among the Indians and some of it later in Texas was in no sense Christ-like, yet in the end it did turn out gloriously.

Even in this trip which he was about to make to Washington, accompanied by his Indian clients, he had already become a changed man. No longer was he the "big Drunk" nor the groveling pagan, rather had he become something of a philanthropist. The change had been wrought through the influence of his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Houston. I am indebted to Marquis James' book, "The Raven" for these facts. In August, 1831, a letter from East Tennessee was delivered to the prodigal son at the Neosho-Wigwam near Fort Gibson on the Arkansas River where the Cherokee Indians then lived. It was from his mother. He lost no time in setting out for home. In September he climbed the slope of Baker's Creek Valley in Blount county, Tennessee, where the family had settled, you remember, and where he had lived as a boy, and it was from that home that he had run away and had spent much time with the Cherokee Indians, who lived in East Tennessee at that time.

Entering the porticoed old home-stand on the hillside, he wept by the bedside of a real "heroine," his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Houston. Lovingly, she pressed the hand that wore another ring, with a motto in it, the significance of which we will explain to you later, and then she died. Sam Houston went back to the Neosho-Wigwam in October a changed man. In November he sat in the National Council of the Cherokees. In December he departed for Washington, accompanied by Cherokee Chief Black Coat and a delegation of Cherokee Indians. But he was resolved to go by way of Nashville and to spend some days there, not only to attend to some matters of business for some of his Indian friends but also to see some of his own friends and to be seen by others, and finally to show his Indian delegation through the Hermitage, President Jackson's former home.

At the Hermitage Houston cut a hickory cane from the premises and trimmed it into a simple walking cane, since he was lame from injuries he had sustained.

We stated awhile ago that when Sam Houston visited his dying mother, he went back to his wigwam near old Fort Gibson a changed man. He had been melted by the experience and his desire to help others, especially the Cherokees, had doubtless been intensified, but it had not taken away from him his love for strong drink nor his vengefulness toward those who he felt had wronged him. One of those against whom he bore malice was Congressman William Stanberry of Ohio. Houston had gone to Washington more than once during his residence among the Indians of the Cherokee Nation at old Fort Gibson in their behalf seeking justice from the Federal Government for these Indians, who as he claimed were being defrauded by agents of the Government in the cost of meats and other supplies the Government had contracted to furnish to them, causing some of the agents to be fired; and some of them in turn charged Houston with crookedness himself. Congressman Stanberry of Ohio had made a vitriolic speech against Houston and had caused charges against Houston to be published in a Tennessee newspaper. So, after stopping at Nashville with a Cherokee Indian delegation and showing them through the Hermitage grounds, Houston proceeded on to Washington.

Soon after arrival there, Houston unexpectedly met Stanberry on the street, accosted him, and assaulted him with that cane which he had carved out at Nashville on the Hermitage grounds. As Stanberry apparently tried to run away, Houston leaped upon his back, pulled him down, and the two rolled over on the pavement. Stanberry is said to have drawn a pistol, pressed it against Houston's chest, and pulled the trigger but it failed to fire. Houston grabbed the pistol away from Stanberry, struck him several more blows with his cane and otherwise pommelled him.

Complaint was filed against Houston for assaulting a member of Congress for statements he had made in the course of debate in the House, and the trial that followed lasted a month. At the conclusion of the evidence, Houston made one of the most remarkable speeches of his career.

It had been one of the most dramatic trials ever recorded in the political history of this country. The House found the defendant "Guilty," but not by an overwhelming vote, and Houston received only reprimand.

Although Houston had been found guilty of the charge and was reprimanded in accordance with the verdict imposed by the House, the trial had been attended by great crowds of visitors that jammed every nook and corner of available space most of whom seemed to be sympathetic with the distinguished defendant who had been arraigned before the bar of the House. Now I am going to quote a sentence given us by Marquis James in his book, "The Raven," Houston's striking personality, his perfect poise and his resonant voice caught the breathless attention of every person present as he proceeded to speak. "Branded as a man of broken fortune and blasted reputation," he said, "I can never forget that reputation, however limited, is the high boon of heaven. . . . Though the plowshare of ruin has been driven over me and laid waste to my brightest hopes, I have only to say: 'I seek no sympathy, nor need; The thorns which I have reaped are of the tree I planted; they have torn me, and I bleed.'"

"It was very effective," Mr.

James says, "and the galleries applauded. As Houston awaited an opportunity to resume, a bouquet of flowers dropped at his feet. A woman's voice was heard above the hum."

KILL ALL SPECIES OF

seed treatment

NEWLY SEEDING FIELDS make good feeding grounds for true and false wireworms and other soil insects. If there is not enough moisture in the soil to permit quick sprouting, seeds are vulnerable to insect attack for several days. But the threat of wireworm damage should be recognized at all times.

A dieldrin preventive seed treatment is a sure way to protect small grain seeds until they sprout.

LOW-COST PROTECTION

It costs just pennies per acre to treat seed with dieldrin, but dollars per acre to feed the wireworms untreated seed! A dieldrin seed treatment prevents "spotty" stands . . . eliminates the expense of time and money for re-planting or sowing extra seed for the wireworms to feed on . . . assures you of a longer grazing period. And dieldrin does not harm plant development.

COMPATIBLE WITH FUNGICIDES

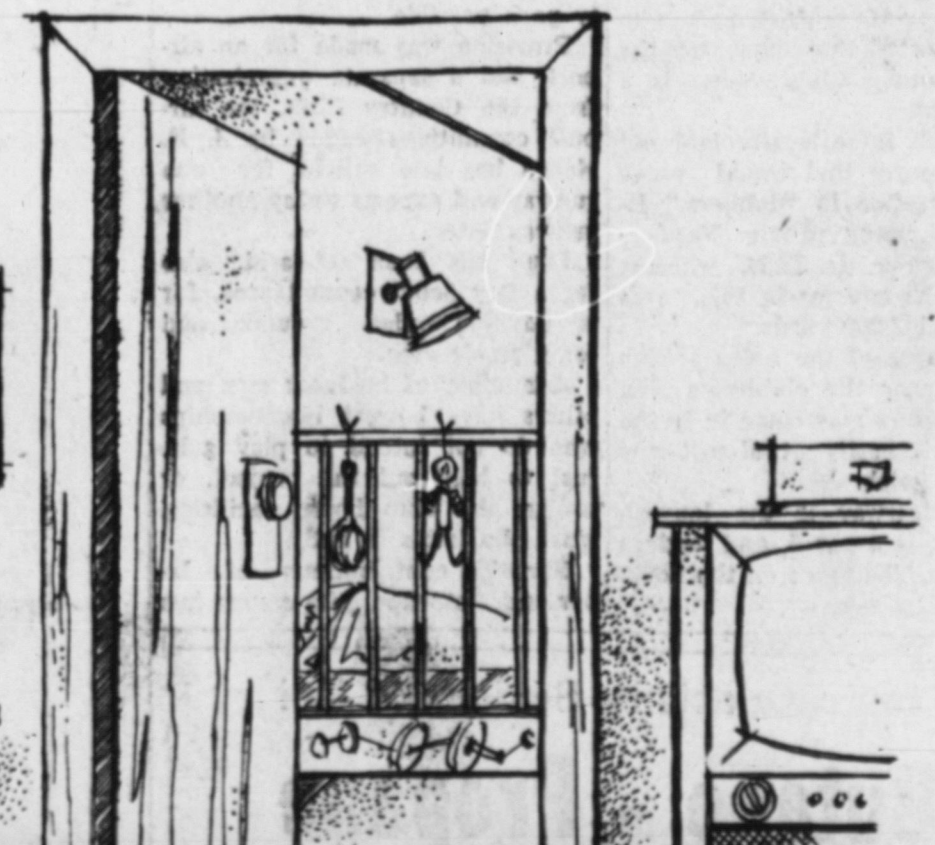

Dieldrin is compatible with fungicides . . . can be applied at the same time to save the expense and work of a double treatment. You can buy dieldrin-treated seed from your seed dealer, or treat the seed yourself. Dieldrin can be applied as a slurry, dry, or in a grain drill. A convenient method is to apply dieldrin to the seed in the grain drill as you plant. Follow directions on the label for the particular formulation you buy.

LESS WORK AT PLANTING TIME

Seed can be treated now and stored until planting time. Dieldrin eliminates the rush of treating seed and planting within a few days. Dieldrin formulations are available throughout the small grain growing area. See your local supplier.

"I had rather be Sam Houston in a dungeon than Stanberry on a throne."

For thirty minutes longer Houston spoke, delivering one of the most dramatic speeches ever heard in the Halls of Congress, a speech that did as much to put him on his feet again, figuratively speaking, as any other event in his remarkable career.

But not satisfied by the light penalty of a mere reprimand, Stanberry thereupon had Houston charged with the criminal offense of Assault, and upon that charge the fugitive from civilization and adopted son of a Cherokee Indian Chief was tried, found guilty, and fined $500.00.

Furthermore, Stanberry instituted an investigation by the House of a "Ration contract" for supplies to be furnished by the Government for the use of the Cherokee Indians who had been removed out to Fort Gibson and vicinity near the present town of Muskogee, Oklahoma, among whom Houston had been living for some three years, which contract Stanberry alleged was fraudulent, and which should be canceled and Houston severely punished. So, Congress appointed a committee of seven members to investigate the alleged fraud, and Stanberry himself was made chairman of the committee. At the conclusion of a long-drawn-out investigation, the committee reported by a divided vote that "John H. Eaton and Samuel Houston do stand entirely acquitted from all imputation of fraud." Eaton was one of the United States Senators from Tennessee, and he was charged along with Houston as having participated in the alleged fraud. Houston conducted his own defense and he showed that his bid for the contract was favored by both Senator Eaton and President Jackson. It was subject to criticism, however, for while it would have saved the Government a large sum of money if the contract had gone through, still it would have enabled Houston to have taken a heavy "rake-off" for himself; and for the further reason that it was a secret contract.

It was along about this time that Houston does seem to have entertained and attempted to pro-

Foundation Is Rotary Subject

The Rotary Foundation was the subject of a talk at the local Rotary Club Thursday noon of last week by Dr. Emil Prohl.

The Foundation was set up in 1947 to promote better international understanding as a memorial to Paul Harris, the founder of Rotary. Its principal project is the granting of fellowships to outstanding college graduates for a year's advanced study in some foreign country.

So far, 705 such fellowships have been granted at a cost of $2,500 each, and grants are being made 128 students for this coming year. The Foundation now has raised $4 million for the project.

Each club member is asked to contribute $10 to the foundation, and about 60 percent of the Rotarians of the world have done so. The Tahoka club is a 100 percent contributor, as are 36 of the 40 clubs in the 183rd District of Rotary International. To remain 100 percent, the club contributes $1.00 per member per year.

This district has had two Rotary Foundation fellows. Two years ago, Miss Flossie Jones of Sweetwater spent a year of study at the University of Edinburgh and visiting in England and Scotland.

This year, Jerre Hancock of Lubbock is studying political science in the University of Paris, France. Jerre is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Hancock, and formerly lived in Tahoka.

E. R. Edwards was in charge of the program.

Johnny Reasonover, incoming, made some visionary scheme by which Texas might be won from Mexico and himself enriched in the process. One of these schemes entered into his thinking at the very beginning of his fugitive life among the Cherokee Indians after he had resigned the governorship of Tennessee, fled from the state and from the civilized world and went to live with the Indians. But his designs were frustrated and he was severely rebuked by his "patron saint," Andrew Jackson, when that dominating character heard of Houston's hopes and ambitions.

But that is another story which we will be compelled to reserve for further attention later on. So, Good Night.

New Home Ladies Hear John Gregg

New Home Home Demonstration Club met in the Community Center Thursday, May 10, at 2:30 p. m. John Gregg of the National Cotton Council gave an interesting talk on production, export, and advertising cotton in France, Japan, China, and Mexico.

He also brought two films, "Sheets and the Making of Beds" and "Living in the Sun and Liking It," showing the uses of canvas, the greatest user of the short staple cotton we grow on the South Plains.

The club enjoyed the talk and films and wants to thank Mr. Gregg again for taking the time to present the same to the club.

Mrs. L. C. Unfred, chairman, Mrs. J. B. Edwards, and Mrs. Carlton Davies were elected to work with the members of the Community Progress program, which contest we intend to win in '57. They are to take pictures and keep a scrap book of clippings, etc., with this goal in mind.

Delicious summer refreshments were served to the Club members and Mr. Gregg by the hostesses, Mrs. Frank Lismey, Mrs. Barney Mayfield, and Mrs. L. C. Unfred.

The meaningful emblem of Body by Fisher

When you see "sterling" on silver you know what it means—solid silver, all the way through.

And when you see the medallion "Body by Fisher" on an automobile it means much the same thing—quality all the way through, in things unseen as well as on the visible, gleaming surface.

The significance of this emblem cannot be tested on the showroom floor. Its meaning was not built up in a day but only after long years in which owners learned that "Body by Fisher" was a veritable symbol of solid, enduring satisfaction.

Only one who has owned a Chevrolet for several years can fully know the deep sense of satisfaction this emblem pledges. It is the warranty of an inner soundness that your eye or your touch cannot test. And only Chevrolet in the low-price field is entitled to wear the small, proud plaque that proclaims "Body by Fisher."

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank the friends and neighbors who have been so nice to me, for words of sympathy and comfort, to Rev. Clifford Harris and members of the First Baptist Church. Also, I greatly appreciate the offer of the gentlemen to help finance my flight to England for the funeral of my father, but securing of visas and other "red-tape" made this trip impossible in so short a time. May God bless each of you kind people is our prayer.—Mrs. Tom (Connie) Hale and family.

SEE THE DIFFERENCE RSD MAKES

With ordinary suspension wheels hop and bounce violently on rough roads as shown by actual oscillograph records.

With RSD Suspension (on the same road) every wheel bounce is instantly counteracted, smoothed out to a mere flutter on the oscillograph.

the whole automotive industry envies!

YOU'RE GOING TO DISCOVER the most amazing ride you've ever experienced in a motor vehicle. And that goes for cars as well as other make trucks.

It's our Blue Chip GMC equipped with Road Shock Dampener Suspension.* You'll see it smothering every jolt and bounce the worst road offers. You'll note how RSD Suspension blots up even short, sharp vibrations such as from roadway expansion joints.

You can drive at normal speed over a washboard road where other vehicles must crawl. There's no slewing—no steering wheel wrenching—no punishment to truck or driver.

Part of this eye-opening ride, too, is the surging response you'll get from GMC's 180-hp V8 engine, with far and away the biggest displacement of all comparable engines. You'll like the wide-angle safety vision of GMC's panoramic windshield—the luxury of seats that use air, as well as springs and foam rubber, to cushion you.

And you'll discover the amazing economy of GMC's fast-ratio cruising axle that gives overdrive performance at a fraction of its cost. Plus the time-, money- and driver-saving advantages of Hydra-Matic Drive.

Find out all about this soon, won't you—say tomorrow! Drop in at our showroom and learn firsthand about GMC Blue Chip leadership!
