Driver in shooting pleads, receives probation

By ROGER CLINE
Staff Writer

After more than five hours of jury deliberation Thursday, a man accused of aggravated assault with a deadly weapon pleaded guilty to a lesser charge.

Monte Raven Anderson, 28, of Big Spring pleaded guilty to the third-degree felony "deadly conduct" for his role as driver in the Nov. 6 drive-by shooting of brothers Eric and Will Franks on Harding Street in Big Spring. In

"I certainly can understand the feelings of the jury and how they were mixed with the split the way they had it."

Hardy Wilkerson, district attorney

the shooting, Eric Franks received a flesh wound to his side, while Will Franks was grazed in the left leg.

As part of the plea agreement, District Attorney Hardy Wilkerson recommended that Anderson receive a five-year suspended prison sentence and five years community supervision, and a $750 fine.

The deal was reached after jury members told Judge Robert Moore III that they were deadlocked after four hours of deliberation. Moore ordered the jury to continue deliberations.

"It's a lot like any compromise," Wilkerson said. "I think both sides are equally unhappy with it. I certainly can understand the feelings of the jury and how they were mixed with the split the way they had it. I don't think either side wanted to retry this case. We wanted to resolve it one way or the other."

The fact that Anderson was not the shooter made Wilkerson's

A CAUSE TO RIDE

Cactus and Crude tour is bound for Big Spring

By LYNDEL MOODY
Staff Writer

The race is on, and Saturday, Big Spring will be right in the middle of all the action.

More than 130 philanthropic cyclists will be heading to Big Spring in a race to find a cure for Multiple Sclerosis.

"I really encourage the community to come out and support the people who are riding in the Cactus and Crude 2003 MS Bike Tour," said local MS Society member Tracy Pounds.

POUNDS

The 15th annual Cactus and Crude bike tour begins at 7 a.m. in Midland on a two-day, 150 mile journey that will take cyclists through a back roads tour of Midland, Glasscock and Howard counties before finally wrapping up in Post.

Leaving from Midland Saturday, the riders will head down Highway 158 toward Garden City, then follow FM 33 to Big Spring, come down

Friends of Library needs books for its annual sale

By ROGER CLINE
Staff Writer

Got a pile of old books cluttering up your house?

A local group would be happy to take those off your hands, and for a good cause, too!

Friends of the Library of Howard County is planning its annual book sale, and is just itching to get its hands on your tomes.

"We're looking for donations of good quality, good condition, clean books," said Friends President JoAnn Staulcup. "No Reader's Digest Condensed Books or National Geographics. No magazines. We don't have a place to sell them."

With those few exceptions, Friends will take just about anything else, be it hard- or paperback.

"Either one," Staulcup said. "We appreciate them very much and as long as they're in good condition and clean, we'd be glad to get them."

STAULCUP

We've always had a great response from every body."

The book sale will take place Friday through Sunday, Sept. 19, 20 and 21, at the library, 500 S. Main St. Friday and Saturday, the sale will run from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m., while Sunday it will run from 1 to 4 p.m.

BIG SPRING AROUND THE TOWN

Obituaries

Barbara Welch

Barbara Welch, 64, of Midland died on Tuesday, July 15, 2003, in her residence. Memorial services will be held at 3 p.m. today, Friday, July 18, 2003, at the Nalley-Pickle & Welch Chapel with the Rev. Waymon Swopes, pastor of Greenwood Baptist Church, officiating.

She was born on Aug. 12, 1938, in Big Spring. She married Charlie Welch on Dec. 1, 1972, in Midland.

She attended Greenwood Baptist Church. She worked for West Texas Compress in Stanton and Big Spring. She owned and operated a family retail business in Stanton and then operated a dress shop in Stanton.

Survivors include her husband, Charlie Welch of Midland; three sons, James Meek and Danny Meek, both of Midland, and Irvin Welch and his wife, Karla, of Richmond, Texas; one sister, Jo Anne Jordan of Pascagoula, Miss.; and two brothers and sisters-in-law; Stephen and Shirley Gay of Big Spring and Robert and Dorothy Gay of Grand Rapids, Mich.

She is also survived by four grandchildren, Sgt. Conrad Meek of Fort Hood, Julie Heidelberg of Stanton, Toby Meek of Seattle, Wash., and Heather Madison of San Antonio; and one great-grandchild, Samantha Heidelberg of Stanton.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Morris and Asenath Gay, and her first husband, Dan Meek.

The family suggests memorials to Odyssey Hospice, 2651 John Ben Shepard Parkway, Building 4, Suite B, Odessa 79761. The family would like to especially thank Odyssey Hospice of Odessa.

Arrangements under the direction of Nalley-Pickle & Welch Funeral Home & Crematory of Midland.

decision to deal easier, he said.

"He testified on his own behalf and I think he was actually a very good and compelling witness for himself," Wilkerson said. "He told a good story. It influenced the jury a great deal. On the other hand, his presence in that vehicle, driving the vehicle, I thought was pretty compelling evidence of guilt. The jury obviously felt both ways."

Although Anderson was not the person who pulled the trigger, Wilkerson charged him with aggravated assault — and in the plea bargain with deadly conduct — under the "law of parties."

"The law of parties is essentially one that, if you aid, assist, abet, encourage a person in committing an offense, then you are guilty of that offense as well," Wilkerson said. "The way at he's charged doesn't distinguish between the primary actor and those who help. You charge them in the same way. Nobody is maintaining that Mr. Anderson fired that weapon. The real question in this trial was, 'When Mr. Carter brought out the gun and started shooting at the Franks brothers, was Mr. Anderson aware that that was going to happen, and was he a participant?' We have some evidence on both sides of that."

Wilkerson vowed to pursue the man he believes was the actual gunman, Robert Lee Carter, 20 at the time of the shooting, of Des Moines, Wash. Carter is not currently in custody.

"Robert Carter, who was acknowledged to be the gunman in all this, when we get him, he will be coming back to stand trial, and there will be no plea bargains in that case," the DA said. "He will be facing the full measure of justice for committing a drive-by shooting in this county."

A third suspect in the shooting, Corey Lee Harris, 21 at the time of the shooting, of Big Spring, was also arrested shortly after the crime.

"He's currently indicted and we're reviewing what his role in that was, in light of statements that Mr. Anderson gave on the stand today and other statements that we have."

Wilkerson said. "We're trying to find out what level of responsibility he may or may not have had."

Although Anderson refused to comment following the trial, his attorney, Tim Yeats of Big Spring, said his client was satisfied with the deal.

"He was facing a second-degree charge, a charge of aggravated assault with a deadly weapon," Yeats said. "The plea involves a third-degree felony, basically being a party to discharging a firearm, with the court's decision of probation. That's a decision the client has to make and he studied it and decided to accept that plea bargain offer."

OUR VIEWS

We salute:

Each week, the Herald salutes individuals and groups from our community and area who have been recognized for special achievements or accomplishments.

We recognize these special people for working to help make our region a better place to live, work and play

This week we salute:

• BIG SPRING INDEPENDENT SCHOOL DISTRICT administrators and trustees who have agreed to donate outdated computer processing units and accessories to be revitalized and made available for use in rural Mexico.

• Big Spring High School graduate CHRIS WIGINGTON and Coahoma High School graduate AUSTIN BARTON, who have been named National Merit Scholars.

• The MARTIN COUNTY OLD SETTLER'S REUNION, and all of the participants and organizers, on another terrific get-together.

• BIG SPRING MODEL AIRCRAFT ASSOCIATION, on its indoor electric Fun Fly last Sunday. It was both entertaining and educational.

• Big Spring High School Assistant Principal CARIE DUNNAM, who has been named Marcy Elementary School principal.

Is there an individual or organization in our community that you feel should be saluted? If so, please send us their name and why you think they should be recognized. We must have your name and telephone number and you must provide it in writing.

LETTERS POLICY

The Herald welcomes letters to the editor.

- Limit your letters to no more than 300 words.
- Sign your letter.
- Provide a daytime telephone number, as well as a street address for verification purposes.

A SMALL PRAYER

by K. Rae Anderson

Dear Lord, help us to pursue the path you set for us. Teach us to walk in the right way.

Amen

Trying to find logic in a tax-free weekend

Went to visit Uncle Elber last weekend. You know Uncle Elber. Sure. You take that farm-to-market road west of town, head south six miles, turn back east two miles, then north a quarter of a mile, then west again over a dry creek bed. Make a sharp left just after the second bridge. You can't miss it.

He asked what was going on in Big Spring and I said well, I guess most of the talk is about back to school, since that's just right around the corner and also because it hasn't rained now for a few weeks.

He allowed as it must be tough on parents nowadays, buying back-to-school supplies and all.

So I told him about the state's Tax Free Holiday which is coming up on Aug. 1-3, and how it is designed to give parents a break just before students head back to the classroom.

"Well, I think that's admirable that the state would do that," he said. "Make it a little less expensive to buy pencils and paper and erasers and stuff."

BILL
McCLELLAN

Course I had to tell him that pencils and paper and erasers and 'stuff' like that weren't tax free.

"Danged computer age," he spat. Well, it's not so much the computer age as just a kind of selective way of looking at things, I told him. Our state government at work.

I think it says something about our legislature when you can buy sleepwear tax free during the Sales Tax Holiday but you have to pay taxes on pens and pencils. Does that mean it's OK to sleep in class but not to write?

You can buy baby clothes tax free — the logic being that more and more junior high and high school age students are having babies, of course.

But you will have to pay taxes on paper, and that includes not just writing paper, but diapers as well. That's the old lure, by the way. You can get a cell phone for free but use it and it costs a fortune. You can buy a printer for $25, but cartridges cost $75 — each. And you can make a baby for free, but paying for it? Oh man! But I'm getting off the subject.

It was difficult to explain to Elber just what our legislators had in mind when they came up with the back-to-school Sales Tax Holiday.

What can you buy tax free during that first weekend in August? Well, work uniforms and baseball caps, two classroom staples if there ever were ones.

Want can't you buy? Notebooks and book bags.

You can buy hiking boots, but not climbing boots. Seems to me that kinda cuts down on the incentive to move up in the world.

You can buy clothes, but not the stuff to make clothes, such as cloth, buttons and zippers.

You can buy belt buckles, but only if they come already attached to a belt.

You can buy golf hats, but not golf shoes.

You can't buy a barrette without paying tax on it, but you can buy a tie, tax free.

Somehow, it all makes sense. It's priorities.

In short, while you can dress your kids so that they look great for school, you can't buy anything that will help further their education.

No wonder redistricting is so hard.

As for Elber, he's happy. Fishing caps will be tax free, and he needs a new one.

John Kerry, Baskin-Robbins, and Key Lime Pie

Do we have an exit strategy for Iraq? I thought exit strategies were one of those things we were always supposed to have, along with plans not to get bogged down in quagmires.

Quite a few people who are into the bare-midriff look shouldn't be.

John Kerry is setting a very bad example by riding his Harley without a helmet.

Why do we have to be quiet at golf tournaments and not baseball games? You can't tell me it's harder to hit a golf ball than a curveball.

When a person says, "To make a long story short," you know you've got at least 20 minutes to go.

Right after hockey pucks and Peter Jennings, the BlackBerry is the best thing ever to come out of Canada.

If New York Mayor Michael Bloomberg's approval rating dips five more points, he automatically becomes mayor of Trenton.

There is no culinary act more fraught with peril than de-boning a fish.

I can't help it: I use "google" as a verb.

I cannot understand why we have not yet found those weapons of mass destruction. In the old days, the CIA would have planted some by now.

Does Starbucks have any age limit? Would they serve coffee to a 5-year-old?

I just don't think I'll ever get used to blue nail polish.

A few months ago, nobody knew who Howard Dean was. Today, everybody knows that his favorite Beatles' tune was "I Am the Walrus," which he used to sing at the top of his lungs while at Yale.

So next time you see him, ask him what these lines mean: "Semolina pilchard ... Climbing up the Eiffel tower ... Elementary penguin singing Hare Krishna ... Man, you should have seen them kicking 'Edgar Allan Poe.'" I am sure he has a very good explanation.

I don't trust a concierge who recommends the hotel's restaurant.

If you are not watching "The Wire" on HBO, you are missing the best series since "The Sopranos."

I don't get it: Midsummer's Night does not come mid-summer.

Learned at a wine tasting in California's Anderson Valley: No matter how tipsy, never drink from the spit cup.

Who will be the first Democratic presidential candidate to host "Saturday Night Live"? (And wouldn't it be a hoot if President Bush beat them to it? Or someone even bigger, like Karl Rove?)

If you always accept the first table the hostess shows you or the first hotel room the front desk gives you, then you are a sap.

Having just driven through about 10 zillion of them, can anybody tell me the difference between a sequoia and a redwood? (And why do they grow so close to the road?)

Are you as sick as I am of those Iraqi National Museum officials who keep blaming the looting on the Americans? How come they don't blame the Iraqi looters? And how come they didn't stay at their posts and shoot the looters?

I often select my entree based on the side dishes.

The Oregon Shakespeare Festival in Ashland, Ore., is one of the country's great festivals. (And there is plenty of non-Shakespeare, if you find the bard a bore.)

Key lime pie should never be green.

Paperback pick of the month: "Six Days of War" by Michael B. Oren and anything by Henning Mankell.

Shouldn't Baskin-Robbins have come up with more than 31 flavors by now?

My advice to this year's graduating class: If you don't learn to fix a running toilet, you will be at the mercy of plumbers for the rest of your life. (And will probably die broke.)

If you know that an "Arnold Palmer" is a drink made of half-ice tea and half-lemonade, then consider yourself among the cognoscenti. (Question: Does Arnold Palmer know what an Arnold Palmer is?)

Ralph Nader says if Dennis Kucinich gets the Democratic nomination, then Nader will be less likely to run as a third-party candidate for president. Other events that will keep Nader from running: getting hit by an asteroid, winning the Lotto or being named ambassador to Disneyland.

Even if it's just street buskers, there is nothing like live music.

Why do people with tattoos assume the rest of us want to see them?

A career is a job you've had too long.

week course of study designed for small groups is entitled "Charting a New Course." According to Burkett, "This is the first step in determining where a person is with respect to personal financial management and the beliefs and habits which serve as external indicators of his or her inward spiritual condition. Aligning beliefs and habits with the Word of God brings a whole new meaning and purpose to life."

The group is open to women of all ages. Cost of the workbook is $10. Please call the church office at 267-7163 to order your copy. The new study will begin on Wednesday, Aug. 7, at noon in the library of St. Paul Lutheran church, located at Ninth and Goliad.

First United Methodist Church

On Sunday, come and hear the Cuban Methodist Bishop, Ricardo Pereira, deliver his message from the word of God.

The first worship service begins at 8:30 a.m., followed by Sunday School at 9:45 a.m. The second worship service is at 10:30 a.m.

Vacation Bible School for FUMC begins this week. This year's theme is Son Harvest County Fair — Growing the Fruit of the Spirit. Each day, Monday through Friday, July 25, from 9 a.m. to noon, we will have children four years to fourth grade at our church, discovering how to grow fruit of the Spirit. VBS is always a great time for all children who attend and all the volunteers who give of their time. The children will learn that through the examples of Jesus and the parables they can Grow Love, Sprout Joy, Plant Peace, Produce Patience and Pick Kindness.

The week will be filled with daily skits, crafts, music and snacks. Friday, July 25, at noon, the children will perform a mini-musical. The children and volunteers conducting VBS need additional volunteers to bake cookies for approximately 100 children per day. Please send these cookies to Garrett Hall. If you would like to be a part of VBS, contact Heather Crabtree at 263-6904.

Additionally, noon Bible study is conducted every Wednesday at Garrett Hall. The Bible study is open to the community for a great time of food and fellowship. First UMC will host a noon prayer time on Thursday and a morning prayer time at 7 on Friday, July 25.

First United Methodist Church is located at 400 Scurry. For more information on any of its programs, call the church office at 267-6394.

First Christian Church

Walter L. Reed, from Austin, will be preaching the morning worship service at 10:45 in the sanctuary at First Christian Church, 10th and Goliad, on Sunday, July 27, in view of a call as full-time minister. First Christian Church invites and welcomes everyone to come.

The weekly pastor's column and Club News will appear in Sunday's edition of the Herald.

Armstrong looks to soar ahead in time trial

TOULOUSE, France (AP) — Lance Armstrong's cautious game of cycling chess is over.

Happy to sit back on his slender lead in the previous two stages, the four-time champion was expected to take the offensive today in the 29-mile individual time trial.

"He's going to go flat out, no question. He's going to try and burn his rivals," said Frankie Andreu, a former teammate.

In Thursday's 11th stage, won by Spain's Juan Antonio Flecha in just under 3 1/2 hours, Armstrong hung back, finishing 29th in an almost gentle procession alongside his main rivals.

"The standings are very close," Armstrong said, adding that he was excited about the undulating time trial from Gaillac to Cap Decouverte. "I like the course because there's a little hill near the end. But we'll have to see what happens because the wind direction might change."

The top 14 overall positions and times went unchanged Thursday, hinting that Armstrong's rivals also were holding back and are banking on the time trial.

Germany's Jan Ullrich, the winner in 1997 — finally has a chance to attack the American star.

Unable to take time away from Armstrong after three torturous days in the Alps, and happy to sit on the Texan's tail in the last two stages, Ullrich is 2 minutes, 10 seconds behind.

However, Ullrich has the credentials to make inroads on that lead Friday. A silver medallist in the individual time trial in the 2000 Sydney Olympics — where Armstrong took bronze — the 29-year-old is a rider to fear.

"Ullrich is a good time trialist," Andreu said. "If he takes two minutes out of Lance in the time trial then he can be a contender."

Armstrong recently called the upcoming time trial the most important of his glittering Tour de France career. That may be because he feels vulnerable.

"I have been doing extra time, training on the time trial bike," Armstrong said.

Having won the last four Tours, a victory this year would see Armstrong join Spanish cycling great Miguel Indurain as the only cyclist ever to win five straight titles.

Big Spring's Ashley Smith goes for a rebound during a Lady Steers' game this past season. Smith, and teammate Courtney Brock, are slated to headline the South All-Stars next Friday afternoon in the 2003 All Americas Basketball Classic. The all-star contest, which features players from throughout Texas, is scheduled for 1 p.m. Saturday in the Dorothy Garrett Coliseum. The boys' all-star game will be Friday at 7:30 p.m.

Texas blasts Tampa

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — Juan Gonzalez is driving in runs — and stirring up another round of trade talks.

Gonzalez went 3-for-5 with four RBIs to help the Texas Rangers beat the Tampa Bay Devil Rays 12-6 Thursday.

Before the game, Texas general manager John Hart met with Gonzalez's agent, Fernando Cuza. The Rangers want to know whether Gonzalez, who last month blocked a deal to Montreal, would waive his no trade clause. Hart said talks will continue.

"The purpose of the meeting was to find out facts," Hart said. "We'll have more discussions. I'm sure we'll meet again."

Gonzalez is keeping an open mind.

"It was informative," Cuza said. "Exchange of information. We'll give it time to absorb what we talked about today."

Hart and Cuza talked in the stands about three hours before the game. Later, the announced crowd of 11,366 saw Gonzalez put on an offensive display.

Gonzalez hit his 429th homer, a three-run drive, and added a run-scoring double. He made it 11-1 in the eighth with his 24th homer and has a hit 13 of his past 14 games.

Donnie Sadler and Marcus Thames also homered for the Rangers, who have won seven of their last 11.

"It seems like every year, the day after the All-Star break is a low offensive day," Rangers manager Buck Showalter said. "Things kind of opened up for us."

John Thomson (7-9) allowed three runs and seven hits in 7 2-3 innings.

Griffey sidelined for season with injury in loss to Astros

CINCINNATI (AP) — Ken Griffey Jr. thought he had homered in the sixth straight game in which he had an at-bat. He ended up limping off the field with a season-ending injury.

The 11-time All-Star ruptured a tendon in his right ankle Thursday night, the latest in a string of major injuries for the Cincinnati center fielder.

Griffey was hurt running out a double after pausing at home plate as if he thought his drive to left field would be a home run. He had to speed up and was hurt just after rounding first in the sixth inning of the Reds' 5-4 loss to the Houston Astros.

The center fielder was scheduled to have surgery Friday.

Griffey had been bothered by a sore tendon for about a week and was getting treatment before games. Injuries to both legs and his right shoulder have caused Griffey to miss 140 games since joining the Reds for the 2000 season, including 33 so far this year.

Griffey also will have surgery in a couple of weeks to repair damage he suffered when he dislocated his right shoulder while trying to make a diving catch on April 5.

The Reds will recall outfielder Ruben Mateo from Triple-A Louisville to take Griffey's place on the roster.

The Reds fell 7 1/2 games behind NL Central Division-leading Houston with their seventh consecutive loss to the Astros.

Houston used a five-run second inning to snap a six-game road losing streak. The outburst was capped by a two-run single by Geoff Blum that extended his career-high hitting streak to 16 games.

State 7-on-7 tourney set to begin in College Station

COLLEGE STATION (AP) — Katy, the consolation champion of the state's 7-on-7 high school football tournament last year, is back to try winning the big prize.

The sixth annual event will be held at Texas A&M on today and Saturday.

There will be 64 teams from across the state competing, with the top two teams in each pool qualifying for Saturday's bracket play.

Among the star players competing are Miami-bound quarterback Kirby Freeman of Brownwood, Burnett quarterback Stephen McGee and wide receiver Jordan Shipley.

The 7-on-7 format is used as an off-season workout program by high schools to improve the play of quarterbacks, receivers, secondary players and linebackers. The game emphasizes passing using a 45-yard field and a one-hand touch for a tackle. All players except the center are eligible receivers.

The game is played in two 20-minute continuous halves. Uniforms consist of shorts and T-shirts with no pads or helmets.

Horoscope

BY JOYCE JILLSON

The Pisces moon turns up people's intuition and stirs deep feelings in the morning. With Leo now exploring Mercury, you might be torn between telling the truth and exaggerating for effect. Drama emanates from the message no matter what, and you'll be pulling people into the scene before you know it. Let yourself help and be helped.

ARIES (March 21-April 19). You like me! You really like me! You emerge as a popular figure in a group you had no idea you were a part of. The new role and new friends truly suit you. Your vivacious verve wins everyone over.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20). Phone calls made this afternoon are a direct link to making money within the next three weeks. Get out your pointer finger, and dial for dollars! Remember that romance shouldn't just be reserved for Feb. 14.

GEMINI (May 21-June 21). Accept all invitations to go out and have a good time, even though they might come from unusual folks. You surprise yourself with how much fun you have at a place you swore up and down you'd never set foot in.

Horoscope

CANCER (June 22-July 22). A confidence boost comes from an unlikely source — yourself. It's easy to see that you're doing a fine job after events this afternoon. Dust yourself off, and start the weekend feeling like a million bucks.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22). Connect with the mystical symbols that surround you. Information in dreams and in cryptic written messages lets you know that you're on the right track. Find things to do tonight that don't involve a lot of money.

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY (July 18). Be bold and daring — the world needs more of you! Dazzle everyone at work this month with a project idea you've been keeping to yourself for too long. Promotions follow in September. November finds you busy and buzzing with a new love. Aries and Sagittarius make you glow the most. Be judicious about taking on new work in December. Your lucky numbers are: 5, 17, 38, 49 and 21.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22). Let little ones have their fun, and keep the home fires burning bright. Time spent with them is the glue that keeps your family together. A co-worker approaches you about a scheme you're not so sure is worth the trouble.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23). You luck out in the love department while out on the town. Don't just chalk it up as a fluke — your winning streak stretches through the next three days. Those unattached can take their pick between a Scorpio and an Aquarius.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 21). A phone call from a friend warms you up to the idea of taking a vacation from your everyday life. You can go plenty of places without actually leaving your town. A Pisces pleases in a most exceptional way.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21). Keeping secrets from friends may seem sneaky, but no one needs to know every little thing about you. The element of surprise is your strongest ally. Take a date out to a place that is not your usual stomping ground.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19). Invest in items that make home life easier. Things seem to flow effortlessly together when you make a few key changes. At work, squash the guilt you feel about being promoted over friends. They're actually happy for you.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18). You've got a whodunit on your hands. There are several suspects, but don't jump to conclusions until you do some thorough investigating. The answer isn't right under your nose. Singles, let loose, and send signals right back.

Horoscope

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20). Take time to update your goals to match your new life. Work up a to-do list, and forget about what is now out of your control. What you learn from a Sagittarius is remarkable. You could fall in love.

WEEKEND LOVE FORECAST: Your relationships bloom this weekend if you are open to change. The Aries moon loves to start something new, and relationships that begin now have impressive momentum.

ARIES: Go ahead and speak from the heart. The truth is, your sweetie longs to hear it.

TAURUS: The more spice you add to your relationship the better. Read up, and gain some conversation fodder.

GEMINI: Love thrives in a different environment. Change it up, and introduce someone new to the crowd while you're at it.

CANCER: There is plenty of romance around you. Share it with a Virgo or Libra for lasting commitment.

LEO: Having the satisfaction of an ex-love coming back around isn't as sweet as you thought it would be.

VIRGO: Draw clear boundaries with loved ones, or they'll accidentally take advantage of you.

SCORPIO: You happen on love with someone you never thought you'd end up with.

SAGITTARIUS: You're crazy about the one who keeps running away. Make her or him stop!

CAPRICORN: You hold more power in a relationship than you think.

AQUARIUS: Someone is affectionate when you least expect it.

PISCES: Romance with friends of friends is favored.

COUPLE OF THE WEEKEND: Leo and Taurus are in tight with one another, though it takes a while to make the hookup. These signs operate at a similar speed but express love quite differently. Leo is full blown, and Taurus is low key. If Taurus remembers that Leo needs to hear words of love, and Leo remembers that Taurus needs a firm commitment, the passion can commence.
