WINES BUT NO LIQUOR AT WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29 (AP)—A statement that no distilled liquor will at any time be served in the White House, but that "there will be no fixed rules as to the serving of wine," was issued today by Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt. When wines are served, Mrs. Roosevelt said, they will be simple wines, "preference being given to American wines."

COMMITTEE APPROVES PLANE APPROPRIATION

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29 (AP)—The house naval committee voted today to give the president blanket authority to provide an airplane contingent for the navy commensurate with a treaty-limit fleet, involving 1184 new planes costing $95,000,000.

29 REPORTED HURT AS TRAIN HITS BUS

SPRINGVILLE, N. Y., Jan. 29 (AP)—A school bus was struck by a train here today and 29 children were reported injured, four critically. The locomotive crushed one side of the bus. Witnesses said no lives were lost because the bus "caught" on the front of the locomotive and was carried along until the engineer managed to stop.

NIGHT WATCHMAN TIED AT MIDLOTHIAN AS $5,000 TAKEN

MIDLOTHIAN, Jan. 29 (AP)—The First National bank of Midlothian was robbed of $5,000 early today by a gang of yeggmen who bound and gagged a night watchman and burned their way into the bank's vault.

The yeggs seized R. F. Edwards, night watchman, and, after disarming him, forced him to accompany them as they forced their way into the bank.

Work For Four Hours

They worked steadily on the bank's vault for four hours, finally succeeding in breaking into it at 5 a. m. and escaping with currency estimated at $5,000 by Cashier M. L. Wilemon.

Edwards succeeded in freeing himself about one hour later and reported the robbery to authorities.

The yeggs cut down all means of communication before entering the bank.

Edwards said that although only two men entered the bank, he believed others waited outside as lookout men.

Treated "Very Nice"

Edwards, about 60 years old, said the robbers were "very nice to me" and did not harm him. They placed him in a back room of the bank and one of the men guarded him while the others worked on the vault. He said he believed there were from three to five men in the gang, all masked.

Wilemon said an exact estimate of the loot would not be available until later in the day when insurance company representatives made a definite check.

The First National bank had never been robbed before.

Get Ball Tickets In Advance, Plea Of Man In Charge

Although advance sale of Roosevelt Birthday ball tickets has been satisfactory thus far, Riley F. Huie, director of sales, urges that those planning to support the President's Warm Springs Paralysis foundation purchase their tickets prior to the opening of the booth at Sled Allen's Auditorium tomorrow night.

Mr. Huie anticipates a box office rush at the Auditorium formerly the Uptown Dance Palace, tomorrow night before the ball opens and seeks to avoid any more of a jam than is absolutely necessary.

Tickets, at a dollar per couple, will be on advance sale until 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the following places, Mr. Huie said: Texas Tech college, care M. E. Beard; Bowen's Drug; Willie-Garrett's No. 1; The Avalanche-Journal; J. & J. Sporting Goods company; Police station; West Texas Gas Co.; Lubbock Auto Co.; Kuykendall Chevrolet Co.; Hotel Lubbock; Hotel Hilton; Walton's Man's Shop and Huie The Tailor's.

The Lubbock ball will start at 9 o'clock with Jack Casteel's orchestra furnishing the music.

TRIAL OF ROSS SET TODAY

ROBBERY CASE SLATED IN DISTRICT COURT THIS AFTERNOON

Trial of G. A. Ross, charged with armed robbery Feb. 7, 1932, of C. C. (Cliff) Lindsey, of Lindsey theaters, Inc., was to begin at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon in 99th district court.

Judge Clark M. Mullican this morning set criminal cases, which form most of the week's docket.

Ross was indicted for robbing Lindsey of $29 and forcing him to open a safe and surrender about $1,000 at pistol-point.

Mrs. Walker Summoned

Mrs. Hugh Walker was summoned as a states witness in the Ross case. Her husband drew a 99-year sentence in a murder trial in which Ross was a key witness for the prosecution.

Other criminal cases were set by Judge Mullican as follows:

Wednesday—Jack Bryant, trailer theft; Jess Belcher, assault to murder; M. L. Standifer, burglary.

Feb. 12—Mrs. J. A. Ray, liquor law violation; Robert Blakley, failure to stop and render aid.

Radiator Cap Theft Suspects Arrested

Police recovered 16 stolen automobile radiator caps and arrested five suspects Sunday. This morning all except six of the caps, all of which were of the ornamental type ranging from $3.50 to $5 each in price, had been claimed.

Two of three youths arrested by G. G. Stringer, a patrolman, at Tenth street and Avenue G, pleaded guilty in Justice of the Peace J. S. Connell's court this morning of theft of a radiator cap each and were fined $14.15 each. The third youth was released without charge.

Two men arrested in buying of the caps were released this morning without charge. Police said 13 caps were recovered from the three youths and 3 from the accused buyers.

Jobless Insurance Possibility Looms

NEW YORK, Jan. 29 (AP)—The possibility of creating a nation-wide system of unemployment insurance within two years—designed to take the place of bread lines—was declared today by Miss Frances Perkins.

The secretary of labor, addressing the national conference for unemployment insurance at the hotel Commodore, disclosed a bill will be introduced in congress shortly for a federal tax on employers.

Another Extension Sought By Insull

ATHENS, Jan. 29 (AP)—A formal appeal which he hoped would give Samuel Insull, sr., former Chicago utilities operator, from five to fifteen more days' haven in Greece, was submitted today to the ministry of the interior by P. Rhallis, Insull's lawyer.

The appeal was based on what he claimed to be Insull's bad health and was accompanied by a certificate from a private physician who said his patient's health did not permit him to travel.

THE WEATHER

TWO OKLAHOMA FUGITIVES CAPTURED

SUSPECTS ARE WOUNDED BY OFFICERS

"WHITEY" WALKER AND RAY JOHNSON CAUGHT IN FLORIDA TODAY

(By The Associated Press)

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Jan. 29.—Two men identified by Chief Deputy Sheriff Joe Campbell as "Whitey" Walker and Ray Johnson, escaped Oklahoma convicts, were captured here at 8:30 a. m. today.

Both were shot and slightly wounded as they resisted arrest.

Campbell said officers "spotted" the men as they rode along Monroe street, on which two banks are located. Following, the officers cornered the pair on a side street.

Officers Open Fire

Campbell said one of the men reached for an automatic pistol on the floor of the car as officers closed in. The officers opened fire.

The men were taken to a hospital to have their wounds dressed. First reports were that bullets struck them in the arms.

Whitey Walker is an escaped fugitive from the Oklahoma state prison where he was serving a life sentence for armed robbery. Records here showed he was sentenced Dec. 21, 1929, and escaped Aug. 31, 1933. He also is wanted for bank robbery in Palestine, Tex.

Johnson's record was not immediately available.

"No Use To Talk"

"You know all about us, so there's no use for us to talk," officers quoted Walker as saying.

"There's no question about the identification of the men," said Campbell.

Irvin (Blackie) Thompson, who escaped with Walker and Johnson was captured in Miami a few days ago. He was sentenced to life imprisonment on May 2, 1927, from Grady county, Oklahoma.

Fingerprints of the men were made shortly after their arrest by Walter A. Roberts, identification officer for the state prison bureau.

The arrests were made by city and county officers on information supplied by Miami authorities.

VICTIM OF DANCE SHOOTING IS DEAD

GONZALES, Jan. 29 (AP)—A dance hall shooting witnessed by several hundred persons brought death today to Warren Bobbitt, 20, and resulted in the detention of I. G. Vackar, 51, farmer living near Gonzales.

Women screamed, the orchestra abruptly stopped playing and dancers dashed for exits when five shots were fired at young Bobbitt, who had been standing at the rear of the crowded dance hall last night.

Immediately after the shooting, Vackar surrendered to officers, explaining that he had had trouble with Bobbitt over his 17-year-old daughter.

Mid-West Officers Seeking Dillinger

TUCSON, Ariz., Jan. 29 (AP)—Defiant even behind jail bars, the "dangerous Dillingers" of Indiana today confronted a small army of midwestern peace officers who had moved into this city over the week-end intent on "getting their man."

Backed by Governor B. B. Moeur's promise that they can have John Dillinger, gangster chieftain, and his henchman, Indiana authorities expedited extradition papers to the governor in Phoenix and looked over the jailed men they have accused of a series of robberies and slayings.

SEVEN FIREMEN HURT

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Jan. 29 (AP)—Fire, fanned by a gale and fed by row after row of frame structures, destroyed a large section of Carnarsie, on Jamacia bay, today and resulted in injuries to seven firemen.

Trans-Atlantic Airplane Falls

THREE OF FOUR ITALIAN FLIERS ARE THOUGHT ALIVE; AMERICAN PILOT SEES WRECKAGE

(By The Associated Press)

FORTALEZA, Brazil, Jan. 29—Italy's premier trans-Atlantic air mail plane crashed on the beach 12 miles south of here early today and was found by a Pan-American Airways mail-and-passenger plane which reported its pilot believed three of the four Italian fliers escaped death.

The wreckage of the Italian airplane was sighted at about 7 a. m. by Bert Saurs, pilot of the American airliner.

Saurs was unable to land the airliner, filled with passengers and mail bound for the United States, but circled low above the spot of the disaster.

He reported by radio that he saw three men standing beside the smashed ship. His message indicated there had been no fire.

Quickly he wrote a note:

"Help coming."

He tied it to a weight and dropped it beside the beached men. They waved back.

Burnett Boyd, manager of the local Pan-American Airways port, immediately organized rescue parties to start to the scene by motor launch and overland by foot.

The Italian plane, which left Rome early Saturday, had been due in Buenos Aires today. It left Dakar, Africa, early yesterday, and reached the Brazilian coast, 300 miles off its course, about 10 p. m. yesterday. Afterward it wandered aimlessly, seeking its destination, Natal, until, out of gas, it crashed.

The plane was manned in addition to Commander Lombardi, 36 years old, by Count Franco Mazgoti, 29, second pilot; Marino Battaglia, 36, mechanic; and Davidi Giulini, 34, the radio operator.

All were seasoned veterans of the air and Giulini was a veteran of the flights of the Italian commander Italo Balbo from Rome to Rio Janeiro and from Rome to Chicago.

Their plane was discovered after a long search which began when the fliers failed to appear on schedule at Natal.

PROOF BREMER ALIVE ASKED

FATHER OF ABDUCTED BANKER MAKES PLEA TO KIDNAP BAND

(By The Associated Press)

ST. PAUL, Jan. 29—Sixty-seven-year-old Adolph Bremer, ill and worried, today pleaded with the kidnapers of his son, Edward G. Bremer, for some sign that the missing man is still alive.

As the twelfth day passed since a gang seized the younger Bremer, without any definite word of his fate, the elder Bremer apparently was becoming more concerned, and begged for a contact with the abductors.

Makes Public Statement

He made public a statement yesterday in which he said:

"Please communicate with us. We want our son back. We are ready to negotiate and the money is ready if you will only tell us where to meet you.

(Signed) "Adolph Bremer."

Even federal operatives of the department of justice have been unable to span the sea of silence that has widened between the abductors and the family since the first ransom note and a telephone call were received by Walter Magee, wealthy contractor and friend, a few hours after Bremer was spirited away.

City police have not tried. They have resumed their normal routine at headquarters in contrast with heavy forces of officers on 24-hour duty during the early stages of the case.

CHICAGO, Jan. 29 (AP)—Melvin A. Traylor, banker stricken with pneumonia, rallied valiantly during the morning hours today after a relapse which his physicians said was serious.

CHANGE LOOMS IN PROGRAM

AWAIT REACTIONS OF COTTON FARMERS TO COMPULSORY PLAN

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29—The farm administration faced its first major change in policy today as it awaited reaction from southern farmers to a plan for compulsory government restriction of cotton production.

It appeared to be a foregone conclusion, however, that the compulsory plan, as contrasted with the voluntary restriction now in force, would be instituted. Officials of the cotton section predicted that sentiment of cotton farmers would be overwhelmingly in support of the move.

"A Complete Reversal"

Such control would mean a complete reversal of action in the cotton belt. The cotton program to date, both in the 1933 plow-up campaign and the present year's acreage reduction activities, has been voluntary, although the opportunity of increased income through rental and benefit payments, cotton loans and profits on options in most cases

Heavy Earthquake Is Felt In Mexico

MEXICO, D. F., Jan. 29 (AP)—Thousands "camped out" in parks, gardens and even in the streets of Acapulco and nearby towns in the state of Guerrero today, fearing further shocks following a heavy earthquake felt over a 1,000-mile area in south-central Mexico.

The Red Cross and other relief organizations prepared to speed aid to the stricken regions as soon as a definite check could be made. Many persons were reported injured.

PRESIDENT TO TURN THE DINING-OUT TABLES ON JOHN N. GARNER TONIGHT

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29—Tonight's the night that President Roosevelt does his dining out for the season—with Vice President John N. Garner.

For several seasons, Garner, who hates formal functions, has formally dined out in just one place—at the White House—where an invitation is regarded equivalent to a command.

Comedian Will Rogers, who has announced he'll be one of the 36 guests, interpreted the situation as the president turning the dining-out tables on Jack.

But preparations at the Washington hotel show that the Garners are preparing royal hospitality. The dinner will be on an enclosed roof which commands probably the capital's best view of the night-illumined Washington monument.

It has been freshly-redecorated with rose draperies and rose rugs. Near at hand is a sun-parlor, which at night becomes a star-parlor, where the men will have their after-dinner smokes.

And Mrs. Garner has purchased a new and beautiful black velvet evening gown, in front, low in back, trimmed with silver lace, for the occasion.

ROOSEVELT TO GET MEASURE TOMORROW

ONLY SIGNATURES OF GARNER, PRESIDENT ARE NOW LACKING

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—Congressional action was completed today on the administration's money bill, leaving the signatures of Vice-President Garner and President Roosevelt all that was necessary to enact it into law.

It required only a few minutes for the house to vote concurrence in senate amendments to limit to three years the life of the proposed $2,000,000,000 stabilization fund and the time within which the president might devalue the gold content of the dollar by 40 to 50 per cent. Unanimous consent was given by the house to the changes placed in the bill by the senate last week.

Quick Approval Expected

President Roosevelt will receive the measure tomorrow and is expected to lose no time signing it.

President Roosevelt informed Speaker Rainey over the telephone that he was willing to accept the amendments the senate had written into the bill.

The senate took today off, making it out of the question for vice-President Garner to sign the document for transmission to the White House after the house vote.

Currency War Looms

Administration officials carefully outlined plans for throwing the stabilization fund into gear, at the same time seeing possibilities of a stern currency war with Great Britain.

It is stated authoritatively that the treasury has reached no understanding with London on the relative position of the pound and dollar. In other words, this government will employ what Secretary Morgenthau terms its $2,000,000,000 of "blue chips" independently of England's use of her equally large equalization fund.

When asked the direct question of whether a currency struggle with Great Britain is imminent, Morgen-

DALADIER NAMED FRENCH PREMIER

PARIS, Jan. 29 (AP)—Edouard Daladier was entrusted today with the task of forming a sort of "public safety" cabinet for a vigorous house-cleaning of financial scandals and restoration of shaken public confidence in the government. The new cabinet will supplant that of Camille Chautemps which resigned Saturday.

Daladier, minister of war in the Chautemps government and a former premier, was summoned to the Elysee palace by President Lebrun after two others had declined to accept the premiership.

Seventy-one-year old Gaston Doumergue, former president, declined to accede to the president's request yesterday. He said he was too old.

Then Leburn turned to Jules Jeanneny, but he refused to attempt to form a government which could restore political tranquility — and asked by the president—because of ill health.

"Whisky Highball" Death Case Opens

GREENWOOD, Miss., Jan. 29 (AP)—Dr. Sarah Ruth Dean, 33-year-old child specialist, goes on trial today on a charge of killing Dr. John Preston Kennedy by giving him a poison whisky highball.

District Attorney Arthur Jordan announced the state will demand a verdict of guilty to the charge and Defense Attorney A. F. Gardner said the "state will have to prove it."

The state charges that poison was administrated to Dr. Kennedy last July during a midnight visit he made to the residence of Dr. Dean.

BANK ROBBERY FRUSTRATED

SOCIALIST CANDIDATE CONFESSES HE TRIED TO BUILD TUNNEL

(By The Associated Press)

HOLBROOK, Ariz., Jan. 29 (AP)—Accused of attempted bank robbery Dillworth Sumpter, who last October as a candidate for congress drew the largest socialist vote in Arizona's history, is in jail.

Sumpter, defeated in the election by Mrs. Isabella Greenway, Democrat, though he ran two-to-one ahead of a Republican opponent, H. B. Wilkinson, is accused of battering at the foundation of the bank in an effort to tunnel through it.

"I have bungled everything," police quoted him as declaring after asserting he was "denied work by capitalists" and needed money to support his invalid mother.

Mother In Hospital

Mrs. Lucitta Sumpter, the accused man's mother, is in a Gallup, N. M., hospital recovering from a broken pelvis. Attendants said she had expected her son to come for her Sunday.

Sumpter was arrested last night in a chase that started as Patrolman James Hickey heard blows coming from a hidden space between the First National bank of Winslow and an adjoining building. During the 3-block chase, the officer fired several shots before Dillworth, an electrician by trade, surrendered.

Police Chief R. L. Neil of Winslow said the former candidate, who was equipped with tools, explosives and a supply of water, admitted he planned to tunnel into the bank.

Charge Of Drunken Driving Is Filed

A charge of driving an automobile while intoxicated was filed against R. T. Hensley, 44, of Lubbock this morning in Justice of the Peace J. S. Connell's court. Bond was set at $500.

Police arrested Hensley early today, after they said, an automobile he was driving struck a parked car owned by Henry T. Diebel in front of a garage operated by Diebel at 1812 Nineteenth street.

Diebel signed the complaint, drawn by County Attorney Vaughn E. Wilson.

RELIEF BONDS TO COME UP AT SESSION

AMENDING STATE DRY LAWS MAY BE TAKEN UP BY SOLONS

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Jan. 29.—The 43rd Texas legislature, called into extraordinary session by Governor Miriam A. Ferguson to enact legislation designed to assist those oppressed by stringent financial conditions, convened at 12 o'clock noon today.

The floors of both legislative chambers were crowded with visitors and the balconies were filled with onlookers when Speaker Coke Stevenson of Junction, in the lower branch, and Lieutenant Governor Edgar Witt of Waco, presiding over the senate, pounded for order.

Momentous Session Looms

Witt just did arrive from El Paso, where he had gone to make a speech, in time to open the session. Senator W. K. Hopkins of Gonzales, president pro tem of the senate, had gone for the gavel to convene the upper house when Witt walked in.

Called by the governor for the purpose of issuing relief bonds and enacting legislation to help debtors whose homes, ranches and farms are threatened with mortgage foreclosures, through the financial crisis, legislators expressed opinions this would be a momentous session.

There was talk of a movement to influence the governor to submit the matter of amending the state prohibition laws to permit the importation and transportation into Texas of beverages of more than 3.2 per cent alcoholic content. Members of both houses who are against the existing stringent prohibition laws planned to caucus soon to determine their course.

Amendments Proposed

Some lawyers had contended that the existing prohibition law, which provides severe penalties for transportation, manufacture, sale and possession of intoxicating liquors, could be amended to permit transportation for personal use. The state constitution prohibition sec-

THEATER MANAGER FEARED KIDNAPED

WACO, Jan. 29 (AP)—City and county officers expressed fear that J. P. Harrison, theater manager, was kidnaped a short time after he entered the theater early today.

No one saw him leave the building but Thomas Randolph, a negro porter, reported that two men asked for Harrison, covered him with a pistol and then locked him in a closet. The porter crawled through a heating pipe tunnel to the theater stage and gave the alarm to workmen, none of whom had seen Harrison.

The theater safe, which had little money in it, was not opened.

District Director Of Business Women's Clubs Meets With Members On Sunday

Members Help In Organizing Society

Seventeen members of the Business and Professional Women's club met with Miss Clara Lee Shewmaker of Pampa, Sunday morning for breakfast at Hotel Lubbock. Miss Shewmaker, who is director of district one of the Texas Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs, talked informally about plans for a district meeting here in April.

In the afternoon, Miss Shewmaker and 10 members of the local club went to Littlefield to help with the organization of a club there.

Those who attended the breakfast were Mesdames Lucile Smith, Olive Fluke, V. M. Frazier, A. F. Phillips, H. A. Welmaker, J. J. Smelser, Joe Atchison, Floe Swenson, Edward S. Wilson, Misses Lola Mae Rozzell, Paulene Parker, Bessie Harris, Irma Claye, Hazel Bratley, Jennie Fay Stennett, Elsie V. Link and Shewmaker.

MOTHER OF LOCAL WOMEN SUCCUMBS

Mrs. John Estes, 84, who died last night at her home in Hereford after an illness of about two months, was the mother of Mrs. Carl Roberds and Mrs. F. L. Klett and the grandmother of Mrs. J. T. Krueger, all of this city.

Mrs. Roberds and Mrs. Klett have been in Hereford for several days. Dr. and Mrs. Krueger and Mr. Klett left this morning to attend the funeral services, which were to have been at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the First Baptist church in Hereford.

Mrs. Estes was among the pioneers of the Panhandle. She and her family had resided in Hale and Swisher counties for many years before they moved to Hereford. She was visiting a daughter, Mrs. L. A. Harral, who resides west of Abernathy, when she suffered a paralytic stroke about two months ago. Since then she had been ill but she was moved to Hereford several weeks ago.

Solons Get Bitter Over "Straw Man"

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29 (AP)—Two senators are feeling pretty bitter about the "straw" man question.

Connally, Texas Democrat, told Fess, Ohio Republican, his argument on the money bill was only to "set up a straw man and knock him down again."

"That's the only way I can deal with certain senators," Fess said.

"I realize," Connally came back, "the senator is more effective when dealing with imaginary things."

Gwendolyn K. Gwynne Is To Wear Green Frock

It's the President's birthday, but his wife gets the new party rig. For the Birthday Ball in Washington, one of the many to be held all over the country on January 30, Mrs. Roosevelt wears this Milgrim evening gown of Georgia peach crepe satin trimmed with brilliants and a brooch of jade.

Miss Gwendolyn K. Gwynne (left) chose this peach-leaf green crinkled organza gown. The drop shoulders and straps add greatly to the interest of the dress, and with it Miss Gwynne wears silver accessories.

BYRD'S FLAGSHIP IN RACE WITH TIME IN HUNT FOR FIRM UNLOADING DOCK

BAY OF WHALES, Antarctica, Jan. 27—(Delayed)—Via Mackay Radio)—(AP)—The flagship of the second Byrd Antarctic expedition is in a race with time in a search for a firm unloading dock.

With three days of fair weather and a good mooring place needed to complete the job of unloading supplies, the flagship was driven from its dock early today when great masses of ice crumbled while unloading was in full swing.

Quick action saved both the ship and her crew from possible serious consequences. The situation remained critical because the flagship was approaching the deadline set for oil consumption in these waters. She must start back north soon.

Set back in the work of unloading and transporting the supplies to Little America by this third mishap of the kind in six days, Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd said:

"If the ice keeps going out at this rate, Little America may yet be at the water's edge. In the whole twenty miles of coast in this bay there is apparently not a single stable place."

Most of the stores landed at a cache about 100 yards from the edge of the ice had been hauled away by the 47 men marooned ashore, but 25 bales of hay were lost.

"Abolish Wheels For Prosperity"

SHANGHAI, Jan. 29 (AP)—Take it from Tarchin Baboo, the only way to restore prosperity is to abolish wheels.

Wheels, says Tarchin Baboo, make mass production and unemployment possible. So if you stop wheels, you stop unemployment, and bring prosperity, he reasons.

Tarchin Baboo is the only newspaper editor in Tibet. His journal, "The Mirror of the Few Vicissitudes of Every Corner of this Universe"—no fooling—is published once a month at Kalimpong. In its eight pages, the Baboo deals with such weighty subjects as trade and commerce, international unemployment, finance and the fear of war.

The Baboo has little time for the money problems of other nations. For in Tibet they use gold and silver to cover the roofs of temples.

Small fancy shapes cut from green peppers and pimientos and used to adorn the open sandwiches make effective accompaniments for salads or beverages.

RUSSIAN EXPORTS THOUGHT SMALL

By ALBERT W. WILSON
(Copyright, 1934, By The Associated Press)

LONDON, Jan. 29. (AP)—The international wheat advisory commission, opening its third meeting today, does not believe that Russia's aloofness from the export quota allowed her will make much difference in the world situation.

A 37,000,000 bushel quota was offered Russia under the world pact. Russia demanded a quota twice that size.

Delegates representing the big four exporting nations—Canada, Australia, the United States and Argentina—believe that by the time the quotas expire July 31 Russia will hardly have exported the 37,000,000 bushel quota offered her, let alone the double quota demanded. Leaders estimate Russia has not exported more than 25,000,000 bushels already, and her shipping season is virtually over.

THREE IN TIE FOR LEAD IN CAGE RACE

LIGHT SCHEDULE THIS WEEK HAS BEARING OF STANDINGS

(By The Associated Press)

Although but three Southwest conference basketball games are scheduled for the current week, their outcome may have important bearing on the chances of three teams which are rated at this time as strong contenders for the conference championship.

Because of semester examinations, only Texas Christian, Baylor, Texas A. & M., and Arkansas will see action during the week, but they have much at stake in the impending contests.

Three Teams Tied

A three-cornered tie for conference leadership exists at present Texas Christian, Texas A. & M. and Rice institute each having won three and lost but one. Texas A. & M. and Texas Christian clash in a crucial game at Fort Worth Saturday night. The team that takes this game gains the conference lead, as Rice has no game this week.

The Arkansas Razorbacks, regarded as a dangerous entry in the title race, invade Waco for a pair of games with the Baylor Bears Friday and Saturday nights. Despite the fact that Baylor has taken beatings in the four conference games played so far this season Arkansas must trounce the Bears to move up into the ranks of the conference leaders.

Arkansas has played two games against conference teams to date, winning one and losing the other.

Steers Appear Strong

Standing just a notch above Arkansas in the conference is the University of Texas aggregation, with three wins and two losses. Texas also is idle this week but backers of the team expect the Longhorn goal shooters to go places when they swing back into play.

Texas has on its team the leading scorer of the conference, Jack Gray, who had dropped in 27 field goals and 13 free shots for a total of 67 points. It also has the conference's second ranking scorer, Francis, center, with 21 field goals and 13 free shots for a total of 55 points. Allison, Texas Christian forward, is third with 19 field goals and 13 free throws for 51 points.

In games played thus far, the Rice Owls have made the best offensive record. They have accounted for a total of 151 points, as compared with a total of 123 for their opponents in four games.

Conference standing:

Team—	W	L	PCT	PTS	OPP
T. C. U.	3	1	.750	131	109
Rice	3	1	.750	151	123
A. & M.	3	1	.750	132	108
Texas	3	2	.600	171	174
Ark	1	1	.500	52	43
S. M. U.	1	4	.200	142	158
Baylor	0	4	.000	90	154

Games last week:

At Waco: Rice institute, 45; Baylor, 30.

At College Station: Texas A. & M., 30; Baylor, 14.

SANDIES HOLD CAGE LEAD

PAMPA QUINT CROWDS AMARILLO FOR TOP PLACE IN RACE

The Pampa High school Harvesters are crowding the Amarillo Sandies for leadership in the District 1, Class A basketball race as a result of games last week-end, while Borger, Plainview and Lubbock dropped further back.

Borger's Bulldogs won their first game of the Panhandle League season Saturday night by tramping the Lubbock Westerners, 26 to 21, at Borger. It was Lubbock's fifth straight defeat, against no victories.

At the same time, Pampa was defeating Plainview's Bulldogs, 30 to 23, to approach Amarillo's standing. Last Friday night, Lubbock took a 20 to 13 mauling from Pampa on the Harvesters' court, and Plainview defeated Borger, 33 to 16.

The standing:

Team—	Won	Lost	Pct.
Amarillo	6	1	.857
Pampa	5	1	.833
Plainview	2	3	.400
Borger	1	4	.200
Lubbock	0	5	.000

STEVENS, GAINES WIN GOLF TITLE

RIVERSIDE, Calif., Jan. 29 (AP)—The golden trail of the winter golf parade led the nation's play-for-pay experts toward Agua Caliente today as they settled the first annual $2,000 Riverside amateur-pro tournament.

And there was a new champion in their midst, Tom Stevens, Glendale, Calif., professional by way of England, who yesterday received exceptional support from his amateur partner, Jack Gaines, to capture the title here. They had a best ball card of 64, eight under par.

Tied for second place with 65s were Chet Beer and John Depaolo, Los Angeles, and Byron Nelson, Texarkana, Tex., teamed with Art Sato, San Francisco amateur champion.

The "Spanish Main" was located off the north coast of South America.

Here it is February, nearly, and no baseball promoters in town yet. Do we have the measles, or are the smart baseball boys getting smart?

The month of January in Lubbock usually goes down as the period in which professional baseball leagues are conceived, and the dear public's appetite whetted for the crack of the willow against the horsehide, etc., etc. New parks are built. Big shot managers are hired. Five hundred down and out baseball players write in wanting tryouts with the Lubbock club. You can almost see the guy shading his eyes out in the sun field.

Then, pop! And the bubble's busted, right in our laps. Everything is ready except one detail—finances. We pay back the few funds that have been collected, announce that the league is off and that Lubbock and the South Plains must struggle along another year without a professional ball club.

We thought we had a lot of headaches in January, 1934, but we got by without that baseball headache. The next one will be on the People of Lubbock. No more, through the generosity of this department, will outside promoters hold out a hand for your shekels, in return for which they promise to bring you a fast Class D ball club with league membership papers done up on bright, red ribbon. The next move must come from the inside, by which we mean that the People of Lubbock must rise and demand a ball park and a ball club.

MINUTE MEANDERINGS . . . .

Sid Knowles, who used to play football, in a big way, for Texas Tech, has moved from Bowie High, El Paso, to Austin High, of El Paso—where he will coach the track team this spring and assist with football next fall—When this announcement was made, Sidney was to be assistant to Pat Murphy, Austin Hi coach—but Pat is coming back to Abilene High—and this may mean another boost for Big Sidney—he has coached the last two seasons at Bowie High—

So Marty Fieldler is bringing Jack Dempsey to Lubbock in March—as a fight referee—In the face of his financial licking sustained last week, Marty is doing a daredevilish thing—because it will cost several yards of the good old green to get Mr. Dempsey to stop here—he would draw better as a referee for a wrestling show at the Auditorium—but it won't be at the Auditorium—and it won't be wrestling.

Iowa State college conducts a class in hunting—laying particular emphasis on sportsmanship in running down wild game—The bulletin bell on the A. P. telegraph machine rings when an important news item is about to show—"Flash—Bulletin," it said just now—"Babe Ruth has a cold."—That's an interesting wrestling show Sled Allen has booked for this week—Rob Roy will give Yaqui Joe a nice battle before he loses—and that handicap event, in which Dorry Detton must pin Charley Heard twice in 45 minutes or lose the fall—that should show plenty of action—Heard is a better grappler that most people think—if he ever gets Cyclone Mackey in the same ring with him, you'll see—

Nothing more, as this is written, regarding the University of New Mexico coaching situation—Dutchy Smith confessed that he got a second letter—but wouldn't say what was in it—They'd have to show him a nice contract before he'd leave Texas Tech—where he is given 50 per cent of the credit for putting out winning Matadors elevens—Pete Cawthon would have a tough time finding another line coach with Smith's ability — Weldon Chapman doesn't plan to leave town—right soon, anyway—he can be of great assistance to the basketball teams at Lubbock High by just standing around and looking on—the boys will perform better with him there—Chapman smiles broadly when discussing the 1934 football situation at Lubbock High—in the face of the fact that Pampa has 17 lettermen coming back—

INDEPENDENT BASKETBALL TEAMS ARE INVITED TO ENTER TOURNAMENT HERE

Basketball teams of the South Plains and West Texas are invited to participate in a Panhandle Independent Invitation tournament beginning Thursday and running through Saturday night, Alvis Day, manager, has announced.

Day, coach of the Draughon's Business college quintet, is cooperating with Sled Allen, Auditorium manager, in staging the tournament. The Auditorium has been equipped with basketball outfittings and is one of the largest courts on the Plains.

Any independent team is eligible, Coach Day said, to enter the tournament and compete for the championship and prizes offered. An entrance fee of $4 is required of each team playing in the tourney. This fee is to be used to take care of expenses, hall rental and trophies, and will admit the players and managers to see all games.

Guests At Dance

After the final game Saturday night, teams which have played in the tournament will be honored at a dance at the Auditorium.

Already about six teams have entered, and Day expects a total of 12 or 16 teams by deadline time Wednesday.

Managers of teams are requested to fill in the entry blank below and return it as soon as possible together with the fee, to Coach Alvis Day at Draughon's Business college or to Sled Allen at the Auditorium.

Women Golfers Will Vie At New Orleans

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Jan. 29 (AP)—New Orleans has been chosen as the site for the southern women's golf championship to be played the week of May 7-12.

The championship will be decided over the Country club course with the 18 hole qualifying round on May 7. Miss Anelia Gorczyca, the slender girl from Fort Worth, Texas—the first golfer to carry the title west of the Mississippi river—will defend her crown.

Diamond Bride

A great batting eye has Riggs "Old Hoss" Stephenson, star Chicago Cub outfielder, and a great one for beauty, too, as he showed when he chose Miss Alma Chadwick, above, of Hot Springs, Ark., as his bride. They were married at the Arkansas spa and slipped away to New Orleans for their honeymoon.

A law has been passed in Canton, China, banning the wearing of short skirts or slit skirts, because they distract the attention of automobile drivers and cause accidents.

KNIGHT MEETS ROSENBLOOM FOR TITLE

GEORGIA FAVORITE IS SEEN AS THREAT TO CHAMPION MAXEY

NEW YORK, Jan. 29 (AP)—This is Maxey Rosenbloom's week to get serious.

The Harlem playboy, holder of the world's light heavyweight championship, laughs and clowns his way through non-title matches, apparently caring little whether he wins or loses. But his crown will be in real jeopardy at Miami Thursday night when he meets young Joe Knight, Cairo, Ga., sensation, in a 15-round championship match.

"First-Class Fighter"

And Rosenbloom, with his title at stake, is a first-class fighting man, hard to hit squarely and harder still to hurt, a bewildering, if not dangerous, puncher himself.

Knight is a favorite in the southland but the Georgian probably will be on the short-end of the betting. The 29-year-old champion, a bit shop-worn perhaps by the more than 200 battles he has engaged in since he began his professional career in 1923, still is one of the toughest of all boxers to beat when there's anything important hanging in the balance.

Walker Meets Godwin

Another southern feature this week will send Mickey Walker, erstwhile welterweight and middleweight champion, against Bob Godwin, another Georgia light heavyweight star, in a ten rounder at West Palm Beach tonight.

On Friday, Tony Canzoneri, former lightweight king, will face Cleto Locatelli of Italy in a 12-round bout in Madison Square Garden here. Canzoneri won their first meeting by decision over the ten round route. The return match was set for last week but Locatelli came down sick on Thursday, and a postponement was necessary.

Another New York fight center, the Broadway arena, will offer a ten round non-title match between Freddie Miller, of Cincinnati, National Boxing association featherweight champion, and Frankie (Kid) Covelli, Wednesday night.

VENZKE SHOWS FINE FORM

ADVANCE WARNING FOR ALL MILERS GIVEN IN PROUT GAMES

BY HERBERT W. BARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Jan. 29 (AP)—Gene Venzke's back in form, all milers, and especially Glenn Cunningham, take note.

The slim Pottstown, Pa., middle distance star who discovered in Cunningham a nemesis of the first order last year, signalized his return to top form at Boston Saturday night when he galloped off with the K. of C. mile of the Prout memorial games.

Gives A Warning

His stride as smooth as silk sprinting with all that famous "kick" that made him feared far and wide two years ago, his judgment of pace faultless again, Venzke outdistanced a crack field and gave Cunningham advance warning what to expect when the two hook up in the Wanamaker mile of the Millrose A. A. games in Madison Square Garden Saturday night.

Venzke's time, 4:20, was not particularly impressive when compared with his own indoor standard of 4:10, but that could be explained by an official's mistake in signalling for the final lap when in reality two laps remained. The error threw the whole field into confusion and the Penn star merely loped home to win by 30 yards from Joe Mangan of Cornell with Glen Dawson of Tulsa third and Frank Crowley of Manhattan fourth. These three, with Venzke and Cunningham, will make up the field in the Wanamaker mile.

In Good Condition

But for the mistake in the lap count, Venzke might have shaded 4:15, which on the smaller, more severely cut turns of the Boston garden track, is the equivalent of 4:12 or so in the New York Garden. There is no possible doubt but that Venzke has rounded into grand condition and that Cunningham, the Kansas flier who is rated by some experts as the greatest miler in the world will need to be at his best to win.

Aside from Venzke's performance, the Boston meet was noteworthy principally for the defeat of Joe McCluskey, former Fordham ace, by John Follows of Wisconsin and Oxford, in the two mile run.

DORRY DETTON MEETS HEARD

MUST THROW SANTONE GRAPPLER TWICE IN 45 MINUTES TO WIN

Something a trifle different from the ordinary run of events is scheduled for the Auditorium Wednesday night in Sled Allen's regular weekly wrestling show.

Dorry Detton, streamlined welterweight from the salt plains of Utah, one of the most popular eartwisters to hit town, is booked to throw Charley Heard, slashing grappler from San Antonio, twice in 45 minutes. The two have never met, yet they have appeared several times on the same card.

If Detton fails to pin Heard twice within the allotted time, he forfeits the match. Just one fall won't win for the former University of Utah football and wrestling ace.

Yaqui Joe Meets Roy

Joe In the main event Wednesday night, Rob Roy, the buffalo-bull-dogger of Goodnight, meets Yaqui Joe, Mexico Indian from Sonora, across the international border. They are scheduled to mix in a three-fall event.

A 30-minute preliminary will open Wednesday night's card.

Tickets for the show will go on sale Wednesday morning at the J. & J. Sporting Goods company. Both ringside and general admission tickets will be sold in advance.

New Wine Pumped On Raging Blaze To Save Old Wine

LOS GATOS, Calif., Jan. 29 (AP)—Between 40,000 and 50,000 gallons of comparatively new wine served to save more than 200,000 gallons of old wine when the winery of the Sacred Heart novitiate of the Jesuit order here caught fire Saturday. Loss was estimated at between $100,000 and $150,000.

Fire apparatus summoned to the high hill upon which the novitiate is located was useless because of inability to make hydrant connections. Huge vats began to burst and the wine ran down a ditch to an abandoned cistern. Firemen promptly dropped a suction hose into the cistern and pumped the wine back on the fire, extinguishing it after a four hour battle.

"GOOD LIES FOR BAD GOLFERS" IS SET AS GOAL

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 29 (AP)—With "good lies for bad golfers" as their goal, the men who look after the fairways and greens of the nation's golf courses are gathering in Pittsburgh today.

It is the annual convention of the National Greenskeepers' association, and these manicurists of the greensward will be in Pittsburgh until Friday, swapping ideas on how to keep to a minimum the anguished cries of the club swinger who would have dropped that putt but for that infernal (and worse) worm cast.

Chief among the topics for discussion, it is disclosed by John Quaill, greenskeeper at Pittsburgh's Highland Country club and chairman of the convention committee, is the problem of keeping golf courses in condition on post-1929 appropriations.

Charles Nuttal of Pittsburgh's Fox Chapel club is listed as leading discussionist on the pressing question, "what the depression taught greenskeepers about sound economy."

JACK DEMPSEY TO REFEREE BOUT HERE

MARTY FIEDLER SIGNS MANASSA MAULER FOR EARLY IN MARCH

When Marty Fiedler conducts his next boxing show here, the old Manassa Mauler, Jack Dempsey, will be the third man in the ring.

Fiedler announced Saturday the closing of contracts with Dempsey. The former heavyweight champion is to officiate at a fight card here early in March, Fiedler said, "and," in the words of the matchmaker, "it will be the best fight card yet produced here."

Dempsey In Oklahoma

Dempsey at present is touring the state of Oklahoma. He will open a Texas tour late in February or early in March, with Lubbock as one of his first stops.

Fiedler said the fight and the appearance of Dempsey here would be under the auspices of the national guard, and the show will be staged at the Armory, scene of the last four boxing demonstrations here. Until then, Fiedler said he would not attempt to stage a boxing bout.

Thought For Today

Ye eat the fat, and ye clothe you with the wool, ye kill them that are fed: but ye feed not the flock.—Ezekiel 34:3.

Where all are selfish, the sage is no better than the fool, and only rather more dangerous.—Froude.

To End Racketeering

Sometimes an ordinary news article in the daily paper can be more educational than whole columns of careful exposition and exhortation.

A sample is a recent story which told how New York police, unshackled by Mayor LaGuardia, are trying to stamp out racketeers at the famous Fulton Fish Market.

This market happens to be the largest wholesale fish trading center in the country, doing an annual business of around $25,000,000. Dealers, called before a police inspector, who is looking into the racket, testified that as a group they have been paying a certain racketeering ring $5000 a year for protection.

Every tug that lands at the docks has to pay a fee; every truck that enters the market also has to pay.

And the dealers weren't especially anxious to have the police try to drive the racketeers out. Everything worked smoothly, they said. Paying the $5000-a-year fee was a nuisance, of course, but it works; they did get protection.

Every so often some sneak thief would steal a basket of fish or something, but as soon as the "protective association" was notified, the stolen goods would be returned.

Thus you get the first picture; racketeers levying their toll in an efficient and businesslike manner, staging a theft now and then, and returning the loot immediately afterward, to demonstrate the dealers' need of their services. Now listen to the other side of it.

Last winter a patrolman who didn't believe in racketeers was assigned to duty at the market. He cracked down on the gangsters; he found one collecting tribute from an aged dealer, and beat the daylights out of him.

For two weeks the market was entirely free of racketeers. Then a Tammany-controlled police administration transferred the cop out of there, and the old order returned in full swing.

Now Police Inspector Lewis J. Valentine tells the dealers that they might just as well save their $5000 a year. If they will refuse to pay, he says, and will testify freely whenever they are threatened, the police can break up the racketeering ring completely.

"The racketeers will run like yellow dogs with their tails between their legs, if a good cop cracks them on the jaw," he remarks.

All this is deeply instructive. It shows just how a racket is worked and just how it can be stopped. To work it, you need political influence and a set of business men who would pay tribute rather than stand up for their rights. To stop it, you need only honest cops and fearless business men.

The way to stamp out racketeering after all, is simple. You just stamp it out.

That Girl on Broadway says women have always been known to be brave but in the new evening gowns they are showing more backbone than ever.

While it doesn't do an empty stomach so much good, an ounce of flattery is worth more than a pound of baloney.

DOES anyone in Lubbock have a real large picture of President Roosevelt and, if so, will he lend it to Sled Allen to be used in the decoration of the Auditorium for tomorrow night's Roosevelt Birthday ball?

Anyone having such a picture and willing to help make the ball bigger and better is asked to call The Plainsman tomorrow morning at 13, 14 or 15—the phones at the Avalanche-Journal.

Speaking of the Roosevelt Birthday ball here—one of nearly 5,000 similar affairs to be held over the United States tomorrow night and proceeds from which are to go to Warm Springs, Georgia, Infantile Paralysis foundation—it is only fair to say that there is some criticism of the plan.

There are many persons who do not believe in dances of any sort, regardless of the reason for their being held—and that's certainly anyone's personal privilege.

As far as The Plainsman is concerned, he's in favor of every fellow having his own ideas and sticking to them. That's the right of free men in a free country.

However, there are many others who do favor the plan and who will support it—and that's their privilege, too.

* * *

THE Central ball committee here is composed of two men each representing the ABC, Lions, Kiwanis and Rotary clubs, the Lubbock Labor council and the American legion—plus a general chairman appointed from New York. That makes 13 men on the committee and every one of them has been working hard to put the ball over.

But Central committeemen are not criticizing anyone for being against the ball idea nor do they intend to criticize anyone who conscientiously opposes dancing.

They do, however, seek as much support as is possible to secure from those who find nothing wrong with the proposal.

Outside of the cost of printing the ball tickets, the heating and lighting costs for the Auditorium and the cost of the orchestra every dime of the money raised through tomorrow night's Roosevelt ball in Lubbock will go to President Roosevelt for his use in his favorite humanitarin project.

Lubbock, in having a Roosevelt Birthday ball, is only doing on a small scale what is being done on a large scale the nation over.

Doubtless some of your favorite public officials in Washington are helping with the big ball there and the President has fully sanctioned the foundation benefits from coast-to-coast.

No one in Lubbock who doesn't believe in such functions is asked to desert his honest beliefs, even in the guise of aiding a tremendously popular President in putting over a great humanitarian project.

To support or not to support the plan is a matter for the individual to decide for himself and is nobody else's business.

BYRON Utecht, warm friend of Texas Tech, has always had a great belief in and an abiding affection for West Texas. Always he has wanted to live in West Texas—particularly on the South Plains.

But his ambition along that line has never been realized simply because, as one of Texas ace reporters, The Ft. Worth Star-Telegram has deemed it necessary to keep him on the Austin firing line. His trips out, while many, have been for particular coverings of particular stories and his stays have always been necessarily brief.

But a couple of years ago, in conversation with The Plainsman, Byron admitted another ambition.

"I hope", he said, "that my son Jack can do what I've so long wanted to do. I hope he can come out here and make his home. That's what I'd do were I as young as I used to be."

And today Byron Utecht's second ambition is realized.

His promising young son Jack begins work as secretary of the Ralls Chamber of Commerce—which looks like a good connection for both Ralls and Jack Utecht.

ONE thing is as certain as tomorrow's headline on the new monetary system—and that is if Jack has in him as much of the 'war horse' that his dad's friends believe he has he'll make good for Ralls and Ralls will make good for him.

Scores of Byron Utecht's friends out this way will read this item and, in spirit, will reach across to Ralls with "Good luck, Jack Utecht. Don't let the old master of political reporting down!"

And those who have had an opportunity to watch the latest Utecht model don't believe he will.

With New Deal Guns Trained At Higher Prices, AAA Gets Crossed Up And Is Forced To Seek Lower Prices On Milk

By RODNEY DUTCHER
Journal Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—Every so often the New Deal gets itself crossed up in a lot of barbed wire.

Imagine the farm recovery generals, sworn by law to work for higher prices, forced to seek lower prices for the farmer's own good. Don't tell anybody, but that is what's happening right now in the AAA with regard to milk.

Dutcher

Nearly all the AAA's tremendous capacity for heavy thinking lately has been directed at the milk problem. In normal years farmers sell around two billion dollars' worth of milk. Milk sales provide 20 to 25 per cent of all farm income, which makes milk three times as important as wheat.

Now that AAA has stopped fighting within itself, the production, legal, consumer, and other sections are able to go into a huddle with a common aim, to make dealers pay farmers a good price and compete among themselves for the retail business.

How the heavy thinking works out is exemplified when applied to the Chicago situation. Some 18,000 farmers in that area recently pulled a big milk strike and forced a price agreement for $1.85 per hundred pounds.

But the AAA economists insist $1.70 is the economically justified price. Any more will attract a flood of milk from its butter and cheese outlets, breaking the agreed price.

The tough part comes in selling this idea to farmers. AAA will try.

Two Billions To Spend

Ever dream that someone handed you two billion dollars to spend at your discretion? It's hard to dream that much money. But it has come true for that celebrated gentleman farmer, Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau.

The Roosevelt dollar revaluation bill places a $2,000,000,000 stabilization fund "under the exclusive control" of the secretary, whose decisions are to be final and not subject to review by anybody.

Your Nose Knows

The only reliable, simple test of good whisky is smelling, says G. F. Beyer, chief treasury chemist and liquor tester.

But, he adds, you have to be a good smeller. Many noses can't tell the difference between pure aged whisky and mixtures of diluted alcohol.

U. S. Bill Collector

The New Deal may do something about the billions of dollars in unpaid small bills—owed to merchants, doctors, lawyers, and the like.

Official conferences secretly are discussing feasibility of RFC financing for community credit corporations, the advances to be used by merchants for restocking their shelves and the unpaid bills to serve as security.

Independent merchants who have "carried" customers to the limit now holler blue murder because the latter have deserted them for cash stores.

The proposed credit corporations would pool the unpaid accounts after scaling them down to the extent deemed advisable. They would receive RFC funds for distribution to merchants in proportion to their interest in the pool and would undertake to collect the accounts.

WAR AGAINST RUSSIA WOULD START A WORLD REVOLUTION, STALIN DECLARES

MOSCOW, Jan. 29. (AP)—A war against the Soviet union would start a world revolution in Asia and Europe, which would crush capitalistic governments in a number of countries, Joseph Stalin told the all-union communist party congress in a speech, the text of which was made public here.

He decried the activities of "war mongers" having designs against the Soviet state but pledged his country to be ready to fight if necessary.

Issues A Warning

"We warn everybody not to poke their snouts into the Soviet potato patch," he declared, applying by implication the name "swine" to those nations which cherish warlike designs against Russia.

He singled out Japan and Germany for particular criticism in the section of his address which dealt with the Soviet foreign policy.

"It is a mistake to think an ambition to wage war against the Soviet union and share its territory is held only by Japanese military circles," he said.

"We know very well it is shared by some political circles in Europe. But if this happens it will be the most dangerous war for mankind in history, not only because the population of the Soviet union will fight to death to defend the country but because the war also will take place behind the lines of our enemies, where our numerous friends would deal a mortal blow to those daring to take up arms against Soviet union."

He found a bright spot in the establishment of normal relations with the United States.

Stalin concluded with a reiteration of the Soviet's peace policy and said:

"Our foreign policy is to keep peace and increase our trade relations with all countries."

As Brought Over Associated Press Wires Today

"May Be Down—"

CLARION, Pa. — Benjamin Cyphert, 65, a CWA worker painting the inside of the courthouse, slipped from a scaffold and fell three stories to the tile floor below, dropping through a narrow space between the stair rails.

Fellow workers took him to a physician. Other physicians were called in to study the case. They scratched their heads and announced:

"We can't find a thing wrong with him."

Asked how he felt, Cyphert grinningly asserted he was "all right."

Copper Conscious

CHARLESTON, W. Va. — Eighty cents and the conscience of Delegate Stout have upset the entire bookkeeping system in the state auditor's office.

Stout received a check for $16.80 for expenses incurred in traveling. He figured a bit and decided his mileage should have been an even $16.

Taking the matter into his own hands he struck off the extra eighty cents and cashed the check. It cleared that way and now the state's books are off eighty cents.

Favors Idea

WASHINGTON — A literal interpretation of the constitutional provision giving congress the power to coin money would be all right with Senator Smith of South Carolina.

Senator Connally of Texas had just remarked that a strict construction would mean that "we would have to set up a mint here in the senate chamber and actually turn out the money, because congress and nobody else can coin money."

"I wish we would," Smith burst in enthusiastically.

FEWER FAILURES REPORTED BY NRA

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29 (AP)—Figures showing a tremendous decline in number of commercial failures during the final half of 1933, not only from the previous year but from pre-depression levels, were issued by the National Recovery administration.

A report by Arthur D. Whiteside, division administrator and special assistant to Hugh S. Johnson in charge of credit affairs, was put forward as a partial answer to the cry that the NRA has caused serious injury to small business.

It showed business bankruptcies for July to December 1933, inclusive, the first six months of NRA, to have been only 7,584 or 47 per cent below the 14,389 total for the last half of 1932, and 31 per cent under the 11,014 figure for the final six months of prosperous 1928. The decline was evenly distributed among big and small concerns.

McDonald Will Run For A Third Term

AUSTIN, Jan. 29 (AP)—J. E. McDonald has announced he would be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for commissioner of agriculture, the office he now holds.

McDonald said his campaign would be conducted on a platform calling for immediate formulation of a permanent plan that would place agriculture on a sound basis and impart independence to persons engaged therein.

McDonald is serving his second term as agricultural commissioner.

BETTER STANDARD OF ACCURACY FOUND IN MEASUREMENT OF SPEED OF SOUND

CLEVELAND, O., Jan. 29. (AP)—A new standard of accuracy in the measurement of the speed of sound was announced to the world of science today as the conclusion of a war-time experiment with big guns at Sandy Hook, N. J.

With instruments of the greatest precision possible, Dr. Dayton C. Miller, physics professor at Case school of applied science, here, said he has determined sound travels at a speed of 1,087.13 feet per second. Heretofore the speed was commonly accepted at figures varying from 1,085 feet per second to 1,088.

Would Aid In War

One of the practical applications of the discovery, Dr. Miller said, will probably be the enabling of greater accuracy in locating an enemy's gun-fire.

The Cleveland scientist, internationally known for his theories concerning the speed of light, began his war-time experiment in 1918. He has since conducted exhaustive tests.

To measure the velocity of the explosions' sound, he set up six microphones along a four-mile course and connected one directly to a gun. He connected each of the microphones by separate wires to a "string galvonometer" and then "caught" the recordings by photographs on a moving film.

Re-Measured Minutely

He timed the film with a tuning fork which set up measurements on one-hundredths of a second. When printed, the film record can be re-measured to one-thousandth of a second.

When a shot was fired, each microphone began to buzz the instant the sound reached it, and the buzz was instantly reproduced on the record. By comparing the difference in the time of each response with the mileage, Dr. Miller was able to make what he believes is the most accurate measurement of sound ever made.

The new Ohio states police will not be allowed to wear mustaches.

DAILY MARKETS

Cotton Market

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Jan. 29 (AP)—Cotton opened firm 7 to 10 higher on active trade and commission house buying owing to the passage of the gold bill and in absence of heavy selling. 11.26; May 11.39; July 11.56; Oct. 11.68; Dec. 11.78; Jan. 11.86.

The opening demand carried the market up to 11.41 for May making net advances of about 9 to 12 points on active months. Buying was encouraged by the talk of possible legislative action to strengthen control of production, but after the first spurt demand tapered off and the market became quiet. Offerings were light but prices reacted 3 or 4 points from the best and showed net gains of 6 to 8 points at the end of the first half hour.

The realizing attracted by the opening advance was absorbed on reactions of 4 or 5 points. Some selling here through houses with Liverpool connections tapered off after the close of the market abroad. Prices made new highs for the day late in the morning with May up to 11.43 and with the general list showing net advances of about 10 to 13 points.

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 29 (AP)—Cotton opened firmer and quite active today. Although Liverpool was only about as due and sterling but a shade up, first trades here showed gains of 10 to 13 points and the market moved up slightly more after the start, May trading at 11.37 and July at 11.54, or 11 to 13 points above Saturday's close.

The advance was attributed an an accumulation of buying orders and the impending devaluation of the dollar coupled with prospects of stabilization of sterling.

Prices reacted 4 to 7 points later in the first half hour on realizing and easier stocks.

The market ruled very steady all morning with fair trade buying and some price fixing. Stocks and grains were also firm, sustaining the upward tendency in cotton. May traded up to 11.39 and July to 11.55, or 13 points net higher.

Near noon prices eased a point.

Grain Market

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, Jan. 29 (AP)—Material upturns of wheat values took place early today as a result of extreme cold weather over domestic winter wheat territory, together with absence of a snow blanket. Senate approval of President Roosevelt's monetary plan was also construed as bullish.

Opening at 5-8 to 1 1-4 gain, wheat later held near the initial limits. Corn started 1-8 to 1-2 up, and subsequently rose further.

Stock Market

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, Jan. 29 (AP)—Stocks and staples looked on the bright side of the market picture today and prices generally maintained a steady to firm tone.

Shares of some of the rubber, metal, oil and tobacco companies moved up sedately under varying influences. The activity was not much more pronounced than in Friday's session. There were intermittent profit-taking flurries and brief spasms of short selling, but these failed to unsettle the list as a whole.

Grains and cotton improved moderately. Silver and rubber futures developed strength. Wheat got up a cent or more a bushel at one time. The dollar was somewhat reactionary, losing around 2 cents in terms of sterling. Bonds were rather quiet and narrow.

Specialty stocks attracted some attention. Wright Aeronautical swung in a range of 2 to 8 points. Electric Auto-Lite, Pathe, American Sugar Refining, U. S. Rubber, Goodyear, Du Pont, Western Union, American Tobacco B, Liggett & Myers B, Montgomery Ward, Sears Roebuck, May Department, Woolworth, Case, Chrysler, Deere, International Harvester, U. S. Smelting, American Smelting, Dome, Cerro De Pasco, McIntyre, Seaboard Oil and American Telephone advanced 1 to 2 or more. General Motors was up fractionally to a new 1933-34 high. U. S. Steel, the rails and utilities did little.

tion does not ban transportation. The constitution was amended recently to permit the sale of 3.2 beer.

Many legislators expressed a hope the matter of softening the prohibition statute would be left to the regular session next January, when a constitutional amendment could be submitted to the electorate.

Senator Frank Rawlings of Fort Worth was elected president pro tem of the senate.

Twenty-one of the 31 senators answered roll call. One hundred and twenty-nine of the 150 house members were at their desks.

New Members Report

Four new house members were sworn in by Speaker Stevenson. They were elected at recent special elections to fill vacancies caused by resignations.

Those who took the oath of office were John A. Atchison of Gainesville; Carl Bergman of Trinity county; Edward H. Lance of Laredo, and A. W. Roark, jr., of Cleveland.

There was one vacancy in the house, caused by the death of W. A. Few of Midlothian. A special election to fill his place will be held in that district soon.

It was not certain Governor Ferguson would send her message, describing the program she would like to have carried out to the legislature, today. She may decide to wait until tomorrow.

Bonds Advertised

The first special session of this legislature, which adjourned October 1 last, provided for the issuance of $5,500,000 in relief bonds. Half that amount has been sold and the proceeds made available to the Texas Relief commission. The remaining $2,750,000 have been advertised for sale, bids to be received until February 20. The constitution, as amended by a vote of the electorate last August, authorized issuance of bonds up to $20,000,000.

Governor Ferguson is hopeful this legislature will order the issuance of the $14,500,000 balance, to be sold as money is needed for relief. The federal government has promised to match each of Texas' dollars.

Speaker Stevenson expressed doubt if the legislature would authorize in excess of $4,000,000 in additional bonds at this time.

Rites For Strasser 'Are Read At Slaton

SLATON, Jan. 29.—(Special)—Last rites for Edward S. Strasser, 57, who was burned to death when flames destroyed his home here early Saturday, were read at 10 o'clock this morning at the First Baptist church.

Rev. W. M. Turner, the pastor, officiated.

J. W. Hood, Mr. Strasser's partner in the Hood & Strasser Lumber company, also spoke at the funeral.

Burial, directed by Foster Funeral home, was in Englewood cemetery.

Only relatives attending the services were a niece, Miss Ruth Strasser, and her mother, both of Missouri state. Several brothers also survived Mr. Strasser, who was a bachelor.

be Thompson and Walker made in banks here on Jan. 8 and Jan. 9 were seized by injunction proceedings.

Sheriff Frank Stoutamore served on the banks' an injunction against paying out any deposits. The injunction was issued in Miami.

On Jan. 8, officers said a man giving the name of Howard Peoples deposited $1,000 in a bank here. Officers think Thompson made the deposit.

On Jan. 9, a deposit of $750 wsa made in another bank here under the name of George Wilson, officers suspeoted Walker made this deposit.

THREE "FISHERMEN" BEHIND BARS AGAIN

McALESTER, Okla., Jan. 29. (AP)—The arrest and wounding of W. J. (Whitey) Walker and Ray A. Johnson at Tallahassee, Fla., completed today the recapture of Oklahoma prison's three escaping "fishermen."

With Irvin (Blackie) Thompson, the pair fled from the prison here last August 30 after obtaining permits to fish at a prison lake outside the walls.

Thompson Caught Friday

Once out, they nonchalantly hailed a taxi, rode to a nearby town and disappeared.

Thompson was caught only last Friday at Miami, Fla., and a state's prison officer was sent to return him.

All three men are life termers, Walker having been sentenced for a bank robbery at Ada; Johnson for slaying a Grant county officer in a holdup and Thompson for the killing of a Drumright deputy sheriff in trying to flee following a robbery. Johnson originally was under death sentence, but the penalty was commuted to life imprisonment.

Suspected In Robberies

Since December 28, they have been sought for a $41,000 Marlin, Tex., bank robbery and are suspected of another bank raid at Palestine, Tex., which netted $4,400.

Warden Sam Brown of the prison, expressing elation over the captures, said two additional guards would leave at once for Florida to return the convicts here. However, Texas authorities also may seek their custody.

If they are returned here all three will be kept in solitary confinement, authorities indicated.

MONEY BILL

thau's frank reply was "I don't know."

FDR Feels Prepared

In other quarters, however, it was indicated that while a money conflict stands as a possibility it is not looked for immediately. President Roosevelt is known to feel the tremendous United States gold reserve and the size of the stabilization fund prepares this country for anything.

Treasury officials, mindful that the dollar strengthened materially abroad while congress debated the devaluation bill—a $4.96 to the pound figure prevailing over the week-end as contrasted with the $5.10 level a few weeks ago—were ready to start using the fund as soon as it is handed them. The administration is believed to much prefer the $5.10 figure.

BY GAMBLING OR OTHERWISE, MAN LOSES HIS $20

After a white man complained Sunday to J. C. Roberts, a former constable here, that a negro had grabbed and run away with $20 the white man had exposed in a dice game, Roberts arrested the complainant and, after a chase, the negro. Both were charged in Justice of the Peace J. S. Connell's court with gambling. The negro, who pleaded guilty of gambling and was fined $14.15, said he had won the $20. The white man's trial on the gambling charge was set for Wednesday. He posted $100 bond.

Vast Sections Of Nation Feel Cold

(By The Associated Press)

Winter had a corner on the weather market in vast stretches of the country today as spring like temperatures gave way to quotations near and below the zero mark.

Originating in Alaska and the Canadian northwest the first cold wave of the new year struck the middle west on the wings of a gale Sunday and by last night had been blown over much of the Atlantic seaboard.

But the weatherman predicted that relief was on the way and probably would arrive by tomorrow.

DICKENS, Jan. 29.—(Special)—Dickens county Young Democrats organized here last Tuesday. Robert Nichols of McAdoo was elected as chairman and O. C. Arthur of Spur secretary.

Fifteen delegates to a West Texas convention at Lubbock were named.

About 100 persons attended the organization meeting.

Man Is Fined For Negligent Homicide

DICKENS, Jan. 29 (Special)—J. L. Patterson, 48, was convicted of negligent homicide and fined $25 by a county court jury here last week, and Judge Jim Cloud dismissed negligent homicide charges against Patterson's 17-year-old son, Hugh, and Chester Brown, 22, who worked for the Pattersons.

The Pattersons and Brown, all of Munday, were charged as a result of a truck-mishap in which B. C. Billings, about 25, of Wichita Falls died last Nov. 12 about 10 miles east of Dickens.

H. A. C. Brummett was defense attorney; County Attorney A. B. Chapman prosecutor. The county attorney recommended the dismissals, Mr. Brummett said.

Hale County Man Is Taken By Death

A. J. Green, 72, a farmer, died about 8:20 o'clock this morning at his home 8 miles northeast of Abernathy after several years' ill health. He had lived in Hale county 10 years. He formerly lived in Cottle county.

Funeral services will be conducted Tuesday afternoon at the First Baptist church in Abernathy by Rev. C. C. Griffiths, the pastor. Burial, directed by Rix-Bynum Funeral home, will be at Abernathy.

Survivors were:

The widow; four sons, A. F., of Abernathy; C. R., of Sweetwater; C. H., of Littlefield, and L. G. Green of Hale Center, and seven daughters, Mrs. Robert Bullock of Farmersville, Mrs. W. H. May of Blue Ridge, Mrs. R. C. Hall of Slaton, and Mrs. S. G. Alexander, Mrs. J. A. Addington, and Misses Era and Eula Green of Abernathy.

COTTON PLAN

has made it highly profitable for farmers to cooperate.

Aimed at what farm officials termed "a small minority of chiselers," the compulsory restrictions would prohibit the marketing of cotton in excess of demand. Either a prohibitive tax on the excess or actual prohibition of ginnings would be employed.

To Supplement Program

Such a program, officials declared, would be supplemental to the voluntary acreage reduction program now under way which, they claimed was as good as fully accomplished.

Such a voluntary effort to increase prices by eliminating 16,575,000 cotton acres from production this year can only fail, the administration declared, through lack of cooperation of a few farmers in each community who would not sign acreage reduction contracts but, instead, would seek to increase their acreage and, by intensive cultivation, stimulate output of their acres.

Sentiment has been rising in southern communities against such endangering of the program, officials said.

An Enterprising Young Merchant--

NEWSPAPERS are an important factor in the progress of the world, supplying all of the news from at home and abroad to every interested person at a negligible cost. The service which they render has come to be taken more or less for granted, but there is one factor that is deserving of your attention and consideration.

The carrier boy who delivers your newspaper daily, regardless of weather or other interfering forces, is the principal link between the publisher and the reader. It is through his enterprise and industry that you are able to enjoy the convenient service that characterizes newspaper delivery.

This young man in most cases is not a newspaper employee. He is an independent young merchant, buying and paying for his papers by the week and selling them on a weekly credit basis to his customers. His profits for the service that he renders are small, yet many of these boys, by thrifty management, are paying their way through school with their earnings and at the same time putting something away for the future.

Encourage your carrier boy in the thrifty habit which he is forming by paying him regularly for the service that he is rendering you.

THOMPSON TO SUPPORT MANSFIELD ACTIVELY FOR CONGRESS

BY WILLIAM S. WHITE
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29 (AP)—In a gesture not often seen in politics, Representative Clark W. Thompson has announced he would not seek re-election but would actively support a fellow Texas Democrat and veteran, Joseph Jefferson Mansfield.

Two of the counties in Thompson's present district—Galveston and Chambers—will go into Mansfield's augumented ninth district in January, 1935, when the Texas re-districting becomes effective.

Mansfield "Thankful"

Mansfield, head of the Texas delegation, is highly influential as chairman of the house rivers and harbors committee. His comment upon Thompson's decision was this:

"I am of course very thankful, and my only regret is that matters so stand that both Clark and myself cannot remain in congress."

It has been understood for some time that Thompson would not be a candidate for re-election, but the first public notice of his decision came today.

"I will not oppose Judge Mansfield in his race as a member of congress from the ninth district and will support him as vigorously as he wishes me to," Thompson said.

"He is a fine man and one whom I have come to respect and admire during the years that I have known him. He is a statesman and a gentleman, a credit to his district and his party, and should by all means remain in congress as long as possible to give the state and the nation the benefit of his service.

"His presence as chairman of the rivers and harbors committee is very important to the Texas coast and, selfishly, we of Galveston will undoubtedly profit by having him as our representative."

The International Society of Collectors of Lead Soldiers displayed more than 10,000 such toys at their Paris convention.

ONE OF BIGGEST BIRTHDAY PARTIES IN HISTORY TO BE GIVEN TUESDAY

NEW YORK, Jan. 29 (AP)—One of the biggest birthday parties in history will be given Tuesday, when men and women throughout the country will forget care and dance in honor of President Roosevelt's 52nd birthday and for the cause of charity.

No less than 6,000 "birthday balls" are scheduled, the national committee in charge of the affairs has announced. All proceeds will go to the Warm Springs foundation for infantile paralysis.

This is the institution where the president himself goes every year to further his own cure from the disease.

Record Attendance Seen

On Tuesday night, celebrations will be held in gilded ball-rooms of big city hotels, in whitewashed barns, on ocean liners, on remote islands and even in the frigid Antarctic headquarters of "Little America." An unprecedented outpouring of dancers, bridge players, tea drinkers, sportsmen, theater-goers, and songsters is anticipated, the committee said.

The president will broadcast a birthday greeting from the White House at 11:30 p. m. Eastern Standard time, over a national hook-up. Mrs. Roosevelt and her daughter, Mrs. Anna Roosevelt Dall, will attend the ball at the Shoreham in Washington.

Mrs. James Roosevelt, mother of the president, an energetic woman of 79, will attend not only one festivity but two. She will attend the insurance men's dinner at the hotel Astor here, and then will occupy box number one at New York's largest function, the birthday ball at the Waldorf Astoria.

To Wear Uniforms

New York alone has more than 40 affairs scheduled for Tuesday night. Members of the army, navy and marine corps will help make the balls colorful by wearing their uniforms.

The most distant birthday ball will be that at Little America, where Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd is chairman for whatever celebration can be arranged. There will be parties in the Hawaiian islands, the Canal Zone, and in Alaska.

Particularly brilliant affairs will be those in Washington, which high government and diplomatic personages will attend, and in Palm Beach where many social leaders are wintering. On the other hand, the Blackfoot Indians out in Browning, Mont., will have a ball with tribal dances and tribal music.

Woman Dies Here Of Brain Ailment

Mrs. W. C. King, 38, who had lived at Roaring Springs 12 years, died at 2 o'clock Sunday morning in a sanitarium here. Death was attributed to a brain ailment. She had been ill several days and been brought to the sanitarium Friday.

Funeral services were to be conducted at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon at Roaring Springs. Members of the Order of the Eastern Star, of which Mrs. King was a member, were to conduct rites at the grave. Burial, directed by Rix-Bynum Funeral home, was to be at Roaring Springs.

A widower, who is Magnolia Petroleum company agent at Roaring Springs; a son, her father, J. J. Saylors of Oklahoma City; two brothers, and three sisters survived Mrs. King.

It has been estimated that the average woman eats only 83 per cent as much as the average man.

HEIMWEHR TO FIGHT NAZIS

ARMED FASCIST GUARD OF AUSTRIA PLANS "FINISH BATTLE"

VIENNA, Jan. 29 (AP)—The armed fascist heimwehr lined up with the government of Chancellor Engelbert Dollfuss today in an announced "finish fight" against the Nazis.

Rallied to the cause by Prince Ernst Von Starhemberg, leader of the heimwehr, or home guard, members were enjoined:

"Every leader down to the last man must henceforth immediately avenge every Nazi attack. If legal authorities fail to mete out justice take the law into your own hands.

"Only One Law"

"There is only one law in the heimwehr — I command and you obey. . . . my command is that effective today the heimwehr must go actively into the offensive."

There was little to indicate that heimwehrmen need fear authorities would not "mete out justice," for Vice-Chancellor Emil Fey was quick to approve the prince's order.

Together, the government and the home guard lashed out with determination to increase the anti-Nazi campaign with the approach of the anniversary of Chancellor Adolf Hitler's elevation to power in Germany.

"This is a final fight," Fey said. "It is now or never. Whoever raises a hand against the heimwehr must be struck down."

Abraham Lincoln was about 6 feet 4 inches tall and the tallest president of the United States.

"B.C." Relieves Your Headache In 3 Minutes

Realizing that no one drug can relieve all headaches, as they come from so many causes, a North Carolina pharmacist has developed a combination of several ingredients, so blended and proportioned as to relieve almost any headache in a few minutes. You can get this formula wherever drugs are sold under the name "B. C.," 10c and 25c packages, and when you have one of those violent nerve-racking headaches, from inorganic causes, "B. C." will give you soothing relief in three minutes. "B. C." should also be used for the relief of muscular aches and pains, common colds and neuralgia, reducing fever and for quieting a distressed nervous system without opiates, narcotics or such habit-forming drugs.—(Adv.)

LOOK at them . . . and your cheeks, too, without make-up. Do they possess the natural glow of health, which comes from a sufficiency of rich, red blood? If they do, make-up is simple . . . if they don't, read on . . . you may find one of the reasons why your skin is not clear and rosy.

You cannot have red lips, rosy cheeks, energy and cheerfulness if your blood is in a run-down condition. Lack of hemo-glo-bin, the red coloring of the blood, may also indicate a weakened condition of the body . . . loss of strength . . . poor appetite.

S.S.S. is not just a so-called tonic but a tonic specially designed to stimulate gastric secretions, and also having the mineral elements so very, very necessary in restoring a low hemo-glo-bin content. If your condition suggests a blood tonic of this kind, try S.S.S. Unless your case is exceptional, you should soon notice a pick-up in your appetite . . . your color and skin should improve with increased strength and energy.

S.S.S. is sold by all drug stores in two sizes.

HALF A BLOCK OF ANDERSON RAZED

ANDERSON, Ind., Jan. 29 (AP)—Fire that broke out shortly after 1 o'clock this morning swept over half a block in the downtown district here before being brought under control more than six hours later.

Fire Chief Ward Lantz was unable to estimate the damage but it was believed it would total several hundred thousand dollars.

The fire started in the Citizens bank building, a six-story structure and, fanned by a high wind, quickly spread to adjoining business buildings.

Several policemen and firemen were injured slightly in fighting the blaze and suffered from exposure to the extreme cold.

The first floor of the Citizens bank building was gutted and the other floors were badly damaged. The offices of the Indiana Bell Telephone company, located in this building, were destroyed and employes were forced to flee. The city was cut off from all telephone communication.

LANDOWNER DIES

LAREDO, Jan. 29 (AP)—Don Luis R. Ortiz, 75, one of the largest landowners in this sector and former sheriff of Webb county, died Saturday. He was survived by his widow, a son, a sister and a brother.
