Committee Approves Amendment To Ban Interstate Shipments Of Illegal Oil

PAMPA
TOPICS OF OUR CITY
By O.E.H.

TWINKLES

We're going to have to play more golf and lower our score. While we like plenty of exercise and the rough provides it, the weather is most too warm for frequent stroking.

There are a number of three-times-a-year golfers here like the Pampan who are coaxed out on the fairways long enough to ruin their dispositions for months, or until the football season arrives.

We tentatively have a notion to attend the state press convention in Houston this week. We regret to leave these cool Panhandle nights and to drop 3,000 feet of elevation at this season.

We are told, and we believe it, that Brownsville is closer to Chicago than Dalhart. Chicagoans probably would be hardest to convince.

The styles for this season call for much white, but Old Sol seems to dictate delicate shades of red and brown.

Pity the poor legislators, each of whom had a program — that was the trouble. A legislature the size of ours is just too big and unwieldly and unyielding to get anything done.

DANGER OF PROSPERITY

John L. McCarty in Dalhart Texan: People move from one state of mind to another. We are entering an unusual decade. We can in some small degree determine what holds for us by our reaction to ourselves, the people, and the conditions about us. Few of us will be able to handle ourselves sanely and sensibly in the decade ahead. Few will profit by the experiences of the last four years. Few can stand prosperity.

(Right, John, but as to prosperity, lead us to it—we'll risk the reaction!)

OIL AMBITIONS

Jack Hull in Clovis News-Journal: Clovis must not neglect the fact that around her will eventually come some of the most important oil development in the southwest. This city must be ready to accept the opportunity to become the center of this activity.

(We never know a city which could "prepare" for an oil boom. The flowing gold has a magic appeal which turns conservative business men into gamblers and makes everyone dream dreams and see visions. . . . We hope you get your oil development, but don't make it too big all at once. If you do, some little federal dictator may get you, if you don't watch out.)

TAKE YOUR CHOICE

Herbert Hilburn in Plainview News: It was the worst winter in many years, Central Texas people will explain when asked about brown evergreens. And it's been a windy spring down there, too. The rest of the southwest has been cursed with plenty of wind also, but snail shells and black gumbo do not blow around like our own alluvial "deep chocolate loam." A lot of those "gentle zephyrs of Central Texas would tear a West Texas windmill to pieces.

(If any choice is left us, we will take the West Texas winds which

AMON CARTER EXCLUDES 'MA' AND HUSBAND

MRS. FERGUSON GREETS WIFE OF PRESIDENT AT AIRPORT

PUBLISHER TURNS HOST

REQUEST TO DINE AT FORT WORTH IS DECLINED

DALLAS, June 5. (AP)—After a short stop here for breakfast, during which she was welcomed to Texas by Gov. Miriam A. Ferguson, Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt continued her airplane journey to Los Angeles for a visit with her son, Elliott, at 9:42 a. m. (C. S. T.).

Mrs. Roosevelt, who arrived here at 8:20 a. m. after a day and night flight from Washington, was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Waterbury of Tyler, Tex., her cousins, Amon G. Carter, Fort Worth publisher, C. R. Smith, vice president of American Airways, and Robert Pool of Dallas.

East at Airport

All except Smith, who planned to accompany Mrs. Roosevelt to Tucson, Ariz., will leave her plane at El Paso.

Breakfast was served the first lady in the office of Smith at Love Field, municipal airport. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Waterbury, Ben Critz, president of the Dallas chamber of commerce, and Mrs. Critz.

After greeting Mrs. Roosevelt at the airport, Gov. Ferguson and her husband and adviser, former Gov. James A. Ferguson, returned to their hotel and planned to return to Austin this afternoon.

Mr. Carter introduced them to the president's wife and all chatted for a few minutes before breakfast was served. Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson left the airport 45 minutes before Mrs. Roosevelt's special plane took off for Fort Worth and Abilene, where brief stops were planned en route west.

The governor and her husband came to Dallas at the suggestion of Dallas citizens and went to the airport to greet the first lady.

Police Cordon Broken

Because the inbound plane was late in arriving, Carter previously had made arrangements to have breakfast at the field and had invited only the six persons. When the plane stopped briefly at Fort Worth before arriving at Dallas, Mr. Carter extended an invitation to Mrs. Roosevelt to remain there but the president's wife informed him that she had a definite engagement to meet her cousins here and continued to this city.

Carter then asked Mrs. Roosevelt to be his guest at breakfast here and upon her acceptance he arranged to have the meal served at the airport.

A large crowd began gathering at the Dallas airport shortly after 7 a. m., about the time the overnight plane from Chicago was scheduled to arrive. It was delayed by head winds after getting away an hour late at Chicago. Many women brushed aside a cordon of police to shake hands with Mrs. Roosevelt and speak a word with her.

The only other passenger on the southbound ship from Oklahoma City was E. K. Mead, Dallas newspaperman.

Mrs. B. O. Bertrand of White Deer was a Pampa visitor yesterday.

RAILROAD MEN QUESTIONED IN MORGAN PROBE

Decision Delayed On Personal Income Tax Returns

WASHINGTON, June 5 (AP)—Advance of the Van Sweringen railroad holdings from $2,000,000 borrowed in 1926 to the vast expanse now held was chronicled today in the senate investigation of J. P. Morgan and company by examination of O. P. Van Sweringen.

Prodded by Ferdinand Pecora, committee counsel, the Cleveland operator traced the entrance of himself and his brother, M. J., into the rail field to a deal by which they got entree into the Nickel Plate seventeen years ago.

It developed that the entire down payment of $2,000,000 of the $8,500,000 price agreed upon was borrowed.

At the start, the witness in a prepared statement, sketched acquisition of his varied transport interests, showing the big part taken by the Morgan bank. Repeatedly Morgan advised the brothers, they going to him—O. P. testified—because they looked upon the firm "as does the world wise counsellors in matters of finance."

Objections by John W. Davis as Morgan counsel, in a closed committee session before the hearing, made for postponement until tomorrow of a decision whether to inquire into the personal income tax returns of three partners of the huge bank, Thomas S. Lamont, William Ewing and Harold Stanley. The vote against deciding at once was ten to two.

Members of the committee said Davis raised the point that the law does not permit publication of income tax returns.

It was this question that the committee decided to study.

Jail Filled In Busy Week-End

The city jail was filled to overflowing last night and the last few persons arrested had to be put in the courtroom. Everything seemed to happen over the week-end after one of the quietest months of the year. There were charges of drunkenness, affray, disturbing the peace, vagrancy, and traffic violations on the books to the number of 25. Nineteen spent the night in jail.

Early Saturday night there were 10 in jail and Chief Jno. V. Andrew had a premonition that "things were going to happen", as he wondered where he would put his other prisoners.

Charges included five for affray, four for dunkennness, five for vagrancy, five for disturbing the peace, and five for traffic violations. One man was turned over to the county along with a quantity of beer. Six of those arrested pleaded not guilty.

Chief Andrews still has the trunk found Saturday morning.

POWER WOULD BE BESTOWED ON PRESIDENT

HARRISON TAX PLAN IS ADOPTED TO FINANCE WORK PROGRAM

SECRETARY CRITICIZED

CUTTING DEPLORES ACT OF HOWE IN VET CONTROVERSY

WASHINGTON, June 5 (AP)—Pushing toward completion of its revision of the industrial recovery-public works bill, the senate finance committee today approved an amendment authorizing the president to ban interstate shipments of illegally produced oil.

The amendment was proposed by Senator Connally (D., Texas), and reads as follows:

"The president is authorized to prohibit the transportation in interstate and foreign commerce of petroleum and the products thereof produced or withdrawn from storage in excess of the amount permitted to be produced or withdrawn from storage by any state law or valid regulation or order prescribed thereunder, by any board, commission, officer or other duly authorized agency."

The senate finance committee adopted the Harrison tax program to finance the $3,300,000,000 public works project in the industrial recovery bill. It eliminates the house increases of tax rates on small incomes.

A sharp criticism of Louis McHenry Howe, secretary to President Roosevelt, for appealing to the people to stand with the administration in slashing veterans' benefits was loosed on the senate floor by Senator Cutting (D., N. M.) a Roosevelt supporter.

Cutting took the floor to assail Howe's address last night just after Senator Robinson (R., Ind.) had attacked President Roosevelt's demand that the senate back down on its restoration of $170,000,000 in veterans' payments or raise taxes.

With the remark that he wanted to call to the attention of the senate "a great breach of propriety on the part of the White House secretariat," Cutting referred to two newspaper articles in front of him, one linking Howe with the purchase of reforestation workers' kits and the other quoting his address.

New Policy Of State on Bonds And Cash Cited

County Auditor R. C. Wilson is waiting for more detailed information concerning disposition of cash and securities held to the credit of the county's paving bond fund.

Since the state is taking over a substantial portion of the county's indebtedness incurred in helping to build designated highways, it has asked that counties turn over their assets as well as liabilities which are involved.

Gray county, receiving only a proportional part of the assistance of the state under its new policy, will be loath to turn over its cash surplus and about $55,000 of its bonds. One reason is that the state is now paying but one-third of the annual principal payments and the interest on that portion of Gray county's indebtedness it has assumed.

YARD BURNING

At press time, flames were eating their way into one side of the Foxworth - Galbraith Lumber company building on East Tyng street, and, fanned by a southwest wind looked diffucilt to control.

The origin of the fire was not known at once, but creosoted lumber was the most difficult to keep from burning. A large crowd gathered quickly.

Exploding of rifle shells in the office made work hazardous.

JIMMIE MATTERN TO REST 2 HOURS AND HEAD FOR SIBERIA IN ROUND-THE-WORLD FLIGHT

BREAKS LINDBERGH'S SOLO MARK IN HOP FROM NEW YORK TO NORWAY; TEXAN IS 2 HOURS AHEAD OF POST-GATTY TIME

IS CHEERED BY RUSSIANS

NEXT LEG TO BE 1,700 MILES; WEATHER NOT GOOD

By STANLEY P. RICHARDSON
Associated Press Staff Correspondent

MOSCOW, June 5 (AP)—James Mattern, United States aviator dashing around the world in a solo flight, landed in Moscow this afternoon, dog tired but "feeling fine."

He was exactly 51 hours and 37 minutes out of New York City.

(This put him almost three hours ahead of the Post-Gatty round-the-world flight record he is trying to beat.)

Mattern landed here at 7:57 a. m. Eastern Standard Time, swooping down on the muddy field from a sky darkened by angry clouds. He declared he would remain in Moscow two hours and then press on toward Siberia.

After taxing his ship to a standstill the Texan was gathered up by half a dozen Soviet aviators and tossed into the air several times in quite the most enthusiastic reception ever given an American airman here.

Greeting several old friends among the newspaper correspondents he grinned as he declared: "It seems almost like being back home again."

Eats Big Meal

Surrounded by perhaps 200 airport attaches, he was escorted to the airdrome reception room where officials listened to his wishes concerning gasoline and oil and conveyed to him information on weather conditions and landing facilities east of Moscow.

The weather conditions were not of the best, but Mattern declared he would go on. He ate hungrily of the sumptuous meal which was waiting for him.

An airport doctor intervened to feel Mattern's pulse and, with his fingers still on the aviator's wrists, he said:

"He is very tired and needs rest."

When this was translated toh im, Mattern grinned and remarked: "I feel fine but I would like to have about an hour's sleep."

Goes To Bed

The airman, who came to Moscow from Norway, where he completed his transatlantic crossing yesterday, also expressed desire to have a bath. As soon as he had finished his meal he was provided with a shower and put to bed in a room at the airport. He emphasized that he wished to be called promptly in order that he might lose no time.

Mattern said he hoped to hop non-stop at least as far as Novosibirsk (about 1700 miles) on leaving Moscow.

He landed here after having had only three hours sleep since leaving New York, all of which he obtained during his halt at Oslo, but he looked extremely fit despite his obvious wearing trip.

Ice Covers Ship

Explaining his action in flying via Oslo, Mattern said he encounteded a low pressure area about 400 miles out over the Atlantic which coated his plane with ice and forced him finally to turn north. Although he had fuel for several hours more

STORM TEARS SHIP'S WING ON ATLANTIC

Mattern Lands on a Rocky Beach of Norway Island; Forced Off Course.

By DR. EINAR ONSUM,
Associated Press Staff Writer.

OSLO, Norway, June 5 (AP)—Jimmie Mattern, the grinning Texas airman the world feared lost, was flashing toward Siberia in his red-white-an-blue plane "Century of Progress" today after a surprise landing on a small island 70 miles southwest of Oslo.

Fighting storms and fogs, which forced him 300 kilometers off his course, the dauntless flier from San Angelo, Texas, fought his way thru successfully to land safely on Jomfruland Island, on Norway's south coast, at 4:15 a. m., E. S. T., yesterday.

(He is the first man to make a non-stop hop alone from New York to Norway.)

Lands On Stony Beach.

"When I reached the west coast of Norway," I thought it was Scotland," said Mattern.

"But finding later that it was Norway I followed the south coast in the hope of making Oslo, but I didn't know just where that city was situated.

"Seeing what I thought was a sandy shore, I circled around and made a landing on a stony beach. The landing was rather difficult, but I brought the machine to earth satisfactorily on a little island inhabited by 20 persons."

Mattern revealed that he had slightly damaged a wing on landing, but he was able to make repairs himself. Girls on the little island on which he alighted wrote their names on the plane's wing.

Apart from oranges he had had nothing to eat since leaving New York.

He brought two bottles of tea along, but both of them were broken.

News of his landing took Norway by surprise. The military airdrome is 15 miles from Oslo and many outlying telephones were not working because of the Whitsunday holiday.

Inhabitants of the little island and Norwegian marine pilots helped Mattern repair his plane, which had suffered a rent a yard long on the underside of the left wing.

This damage occurred Saturday night which, the aviator said, seemed like a year, the weather was so bad and the plane was so badly buffeted.

He had good going until he got 600 miles out from Newfoundland, when he was forced to leave his course because of bad weather. Even with that precaution he took a drubbing from the weather which caused the tear in his plane's wing.

Residents of Jomfruland who witnessed his landing said it was a marvelous performance. He struck stones instead of the sandy beach he had expected to find. Stones whirled around him but the pilot was not hit and the plane was not damaged.

Gold Hoarding Probe Begins

Names of 1,000 Suspected Hoarders Transmitted To Investigation Bureau.

WASHINGTON, June 5 (AP)—Attorney General Cummings said today he had transmitted to the field offices of the bureau of investigation more than 1,000 names of suspected gold hoarders with a view to compelling compliance with President Roosevelt's order that all gold or gold certificates above $100 be returned to the treasury.

The names which are now being investigated were the first sent to the department of justice by the treasury department which had compiled them from reports of banks over the country.

The attorney general said the agents of the bureau of investigation would inquire immediately of those on the list whether they still had the gold or gold certificates in their possession.

If so, the holder will be advised specifically to turn in his gold immediately and the criminal section of the president's order providing a fine of $10,000 or 10 years in prison or both called to his attention.

The attorney general said this course was taken to prevent, in the event of prosecution, the gold holder from advancing the "specious claim" that he had never heard of the law.

If the holder contends that the gold has left his possession, the disposition of it is to be traced.

THE TASK BEFORE THE NEW GENERATION

The era that is beginning these days is to be a great time for young men, believes Dean Christian Gauss of Princeton. Getting us out of the mess we are in now will be, ultimately, the job of the younger generation, he says.

Dean Gauss expressed this viewpoint at Cincinnati the other day:

"The impressions of men over 40 cannot be changed," he said. "They have built their lives on a plan evolved when they were in their 20's. When they come face to face with a changing social order, such as we are facing today, they are helpless. They must lean upon the younger generation.

"The men of my generation received their training in the '90's. Success in those days meant following the example of certain great men. The great men were millionaires.

"Where have our examples gone today? Many of them have lost their fortunes, their positions. They are powerless to adapt themselves to the new order in which the millionaire has vanished as an ideal."

* * * *

That a new viewpoint and a new set of ideals are urgently required in the present time of change is indisputable. We shall have to evolve them as we go along, for the most part, and before we get through a good many of us of the older generation are likely to find ourselves pretty badly confused; but all in all it should be a time of great hope and great opportunity.

For we are not simply engaged in getting wheels moving again and starting people back to work. To do those things it is necessary for us to re-orient ourselves completely, to find, as Dean Gauss says, new leaders and new standards. The job will take a generation or more; but it will prove one of the most worthwhile jobs we have ever tackled.

* * * *

That is why the young man who is just ready to begin his career today is to be envied. To be sure, he faces a perplexed and blinded world; jobs are pitifully scarce; it will not be easy for him to find a chance to exercise his talents. But in the long run he will have reason to bless the fate that brought him to manhood just at this time.

The world will call on him for the very best he has to give. If he is man enough to grasp it it will offer him an opportunity dazzling in its size.

The town of Blaine, Wash., is issuing dollars made of wood. It ought to be an easy matter to float a loan there.

Western Kansas towns are turning out their street lights on moonlight nights as an economy measure. Don't they know that moonshine is still against the law?

Los Angeles and San Francisco both had earthquakes on the same day. You can't beat those California towns when it comes to rivalry.

That movie actress who boasts that her dining room contains "no two pieces of china alike" really has nothing to boast about. We can say that, too.

France has just honored Adolphe Sax, who invented the saxophone in 1846. Verily, the evil that men do lives after them.

Silent Gas Has Knockless Power —Of Purple Color

DALLAS, June 5.—Responding to public demand for an improved automotive fuel with higher anti-knock rating to sell at standard prices, "Silent Mobilgas" is announced by the Magnolia Petroleum company. The new Mobilgas, colored a distinctive shade of purple, has been placed on sale at no premium by over 11,000 Magnolia stations and dealers serving the southwest.

"Developed in the Magnolia laboratories to meet every requirment of high compression motors, the new Mobilgas was introduced only after rigid testing under actual driving conditions by Magnolia test cars," E. P. Angus, vice-president and manager of sales, said. "It has been found that under conditions that cause ordinary gasoline to knock, silent Mobilgas will give quicker starting, instant pick-up and split-second getaway. Tested for thousands of miles under varying highway conditions—in heat and cold—this new fuel not only gave knockless performance, but proved conclusively to be a longer mileage gasoline.

"While a material increase in the anti-knock rating is the most noteworthy improvement in the new Mobilgas, its distinctive qualities of 'Climatic Control' have been increased," Mr. Angus said. "Through the preadjustment of manufacturing specifications Magnolia produces in Mobilgas a fuel best adapted to the climatic and operating conditions of the locality in which it is used. This quality of Mobilgas is called 'Climatic Control'."

RUSSIA IS THERE

Charlie Guy in Lubbock Avalanche: Even had Mr. Roosevelt been so stupid as to hide his head in the sand and eliminate Russia from his peace message that wouldn't have made any difference in things being as they are. Russia is over there east of what we generally call Europe; in fact it is sprawled over a considerable bit of territory, if you remember your geography. It was there before Mr. Roosevelt made his speech. And it would still have been there even if he hadn't included the Russians in his remarks.

(Russia is too big and is getting too powerful to be ignored. She shows no signs of changing her form of government. If she overcomes her present difficulties, she will become a world power which, if not cooperating, can menace the military and economic peace of the world. Sometimes it pays to be on talking terms with one's rival.)

David M. Warren in Panhandle Herald: It's easy to blame the present high cost of government on the war. But it isn't convincing. Within 25 years the national government has increased its spending by 730 per cent, and most of that occurred in post-war days. Still more inexcusable is the fact that state and local governments, which have little to do with warfare, increased 900 per cent and 645 per cent respectively.

(Very true as to local governments, but it is a fact that past, and future wars are taking the largest bite by far out of the federal tax dollar. Operating costs have increased as you say, compared with previous costs, but that has affected relatively little the size of the chunk reserved for wars and preparation.)

Young Mother Dies Following Illness

Funeral services for Mrs. R. B. Walker, 22, who died in a local hospital yesterday morning, were to be conducted at 3 o'clock this afternoon in the chapel of the Stephenson Mortuary with Mrs Gladys Johnson, pastor of the Holiness Mission, officiating. Burial will be in Fairview cemetery.

Mrs. Walker is survived by her husband, a daughter, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Jackson. She had been a resident of Pampa for a number of years.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Wilson have returned from a trip to Ponca City, Oklahoma.

CO-ED CHOKES CONVICT UNTIL POSSE ARRIVES

Makes No Headway Trying To Pull His Hair

CHICKASHA, Okla., June 5. (AP)—The courage of an Oklahoma Aggie co-ed was credited today with a large share in stopping the frenzied cross-state dash of Frank Sawyer, fleeing Kansas convict, near Binger, Caddo county, Sunday.

Sawyer, one of the 11 desperadoes who escaped the Kansas state prison at Lansing last Tuesday, left a trail of kidnapings and stolen automobiles in his frantic attempt to escape the cordon of officers thrown about northwestern Oklahoma.

Sawyer, also a fugitive from the Oklahoma prison, was captured in a gun battle and free-for-all fight after he had kidnaped Bob Goodfellow, Caddo county clerk, and his 20-year-old sister, Lois Goodfellow, a junior at Oklahoma A. & M. college.

Goodfellow, wounded in the groin by a posseman's bullet when Sawyer used him as a shield, was taken to an Anadarko hospital, where his condition was described as serious but not critical.

After abducting the Goodfellows, Sawyer ordered the girl, who was driving, to go to Oklahoma City The co-ed drove the car into a ditch while her brother attempted to seize Sawyer's pistol but the move failed.

While Sawyer was trying to get the car out of the ditch, with pretended assistance from the Goodfellows, Sheriff Horace Crisp and Deputy El Marlow of Grady county drove up. Sawyer seized Goodfellow and opened fire.

When her brother was wounded, Miss Goodfellow, ignoring the blazing pistols, started pulling Sawyer's hair, which being cut short in convict style, proved unsatisfactory. Then, according to the sheriff, the young lady began choking the convict, giving the officers an opportunity to close in.

By the World FORGOT

A New Serial by Ruby M. Ayres

SYNOPSIS: Nicholas Boyd, the great film star, has played the hero once too often. In rescuing a girl from a frightened horse he has himself been struck a blow by the horse's hoof—and his film career is ended. Nobody wants a movie star with a limp and a scarred face. But the greater tragedy is the probability that Bernie Boyd, his gay young wife, will not be content to retire with him to a tiny village in Nicholas' native England. Bernie tells Nicholas she cannot live in England.

Chapter Two

FAIR WEATHER GIRL

BERNIE was pretty enough. Men raved about her china blue eyes and yellow hair. Nicholas had raved about her himself, once; funny that now she should seem so like a doll with empty staring blue eyes, and red, foolishly parted lips.

A doll which when it was wound up would say vapidly—

"I can't . . . I can't live in England."

He moved restlessly—his injured leg still pained him sometimes.

"If I stay here—" she began, then broke off, and Boyd laughed.

"Don't tell me again you can't live in England—it's getting rather monotonous. You'll be all right if you stay here—a girl like you always falls on her feet. Killick will see to that."

His scarred face grinned back at him.

He looked away from her, wondering why he was no longer jealous of Killick; perhaps he was no longer capable of any emotion.

Bernie made a little involuntary step towards him, then stopped. As he was sitting now she could not see the disfigured side of his face, but she knew if he turned his head. . . .

She said unwillingly "Don't you love me any more?"

"Don't you think that is a question I ought to ask?" Boyd answered. He dragged himself to his feet again. "Go to bed," he said irritably, and without another word she stole past him and into the adjoining room.

Nicholas stood looking after her. She was his wife, this girl, the woman he had held in his arms and loved; the woman he could still love if only . . . he waited a moment, his lips set in a hard line.

Then the door between them slowly closed and he heard the little sound of a key turning in the lock.

NICHOLAS Boyd was thirty-five. Jaffer had made clever capital out of his age, acclaiming that it was nothing short of a miracle that a man who had never been trained either for stage or screen, a man no longer very young, should in a night as it were, achieve greatness.

Nicholas had wandered out to Hollywood as so many people do when all other doors seem closed to them, and by the merest luck had been discovered. His appearance had been his chief asset.

He was six feet three in his stockinged feet, with the sort of careless he-man appearance that is so attractive to many women.

He was not strictly speaking good looking. He had a shock of brown hair which Jaffer had insisted must be allowed to curl, whereas Nicholas had spent half his life trying to straighten it; rather rugged features, and deep-set dark eyes.

Physically he was very powerful. He sat a horse in first-rate style, walked with dignity, and had a deep attractive voice which "produced" well. From a small part in a "crowd" Nicholas blossomed in what is known to the uninitiated as a single night, into a star.

And now, just as Jaffer had squeezed every drop of value out of his meteoric rise, so Jaffer had squeezed every drop of publicity out of the tragedy that had brought about his fall.

How the film magazines had loved it!

"Nicholas Boyd, great English Film Star, rescues beautiful girl from certain death."

Pages of photographs, paragraphs of biography.

"Unfortunately Mr. Boyd was slightly injured in his gallant attempt, but we can assure his admirers that he will make a complete recovery."

Complete recovery! with the iron hoof of a horse lashing his face, and frantic feet tramping his body.

It had happened during the rehearsal of one of the big scenes for his new picture, a circus procession through streets. An inexperienced girl had been riding one of the show horses, and the horse had taken fright at the sudden blare of a band, and had reared violently.

She had been in danger of being trampled to death when Nicholas dashed forward. He had dragged the girl into safety before he stumbled and fell.

"And why the hell you need have acted the hero when . . . weren't being paid for it, beats me," so Jaffer had said afterwards.

FINISHED!

And now Nicholas Boyd lay awake for the remaining hours of the night also wondering why.

It had been an impulse of course, for no man surely would be a hero if he stopped to think what the consequences might be.

The girl had come to see him when he was in the hospital; a poor cheap little thing in cheaper clothes. She had brought him a bunch of flowers, and had sat beside him tongue-tied and miserable.

"Why did you?" was all she could find to say. "It wouldn't have mattered about me, but you—"

Well, it didn't matter about him any longer either; the world was through with him, and all he could hope for was to find some kindly corner in his own country where he could live out the rest of his days.

If there was still a desire left in his heart as he lay awake during the breathless night, it was for home.

Had he ever been well and strong? Had he ever been able to dash across open country and spring onto a galloping horse? Had the cheers of a crowded house ever risen deafeningly as his prowess was paraded before them on the screen?

Jaffer had labelled him "The manly lover."

His scarred and crooked face grinned back at him ironically in the mirror. An ugly devil! That was the label he would have to bear in future. No wonder Bernie shivered when she looked at him.

And yet there were women in the world who had gone on loving men who had come back to them from the war, blinded, maimed—hideous. Perhaps Bernie was something less than a woman.

"The world forgetting, by the world forgot—"

The words floated subconsciously into his mind.

DEMO LEADERS TOLD TO KEEP EXPENSES LOW

PRESIDENT TO ADHERE TO FIRST BUDGET PROMISES

By CECIL B. DICKSON
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, June 5. (AP)—President Roosevelt has served notice on congress that if it insists upon increasing spending on veterans new taxes must be raised to keep the budget balanced.

Upon this ultimatum from a White House conference, democratic house leaders decided today to postpone action on veterans increases made by the senate in the independent offices bill until the country's reaction has reached the members. They also hoped Mr. Roosevelt would make a direct statement to the public.

Calling fifteen house democrats to the White House last night, the chief executive stated in no uncertain terms that though he wants congress to adjourn Saturday he was prepared to stick it out in Washington all summer to keep the budget balanced.

Further, he made it clear he felt that the democratic controlled congress, in restricting economies proposed by him on veterans allowances, was taking back power previously given him, and he insisted that by increasing expenditures it was violating the party's campaign pledge. He recalled that the veterans administration was making a survey of the border line cases where veterans are destitute and that it was seeking a relaxation of regulations under the economy act.

The democratic leaders considered grave the situation brought about by the senate in amending the independent offices bill to increase veterans' allowances $170,675,607. This change also reduced to 25 per cent the cuts in compensation for world war service connected cases and Spanish American pensions.

Speaker Rainey and Representative Byrns of Tennessee, the party floor leader, said the temper of the house as of yesterday was such that it would not only accept the 25 per cent reduction, but that a move had been initiated to reduce the cut to 15 per cent.

It will sharpen his appetite, improve his color and build up his pep and energy and increase his resistance to disease. Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic is pleasant to take. Children like it and it's absolutely safe for them. Contains nothing harmful. All stores sell Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic. Get a bottle today and see how your child will benefit from it. (Adv.)

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

NEW ORLEANS, June 5. (AP)—Cotton had a steady opening today. Liverpool was still closed for Whitsuntide but there was fair trade buying at the start here and prices opened 4 to 6 points up.

The market gradually declined during the greater part of the morning, partly due to the erratic course of stocks and wheat, but mainly on selling based on the continued good weather in the belt. July eased to 8.81, October to 9.07 and December to 9.21, or 21 to 23 points down from the early highs and 15 to 16 points under Saturday's close.

Late in the morning, the market rallied with improvement in stocks, which induced shorts to cover, and July recovered to 8.92 and October to 9.18, or 11 to 12 points up from the lows to within four points of the close of Saturday.

Contest End at Church Included In S. S. Reports

Closing an attendance contest that has been in progress several weeks, the men's Bible class of First Christian church was declared winner over the young people's class yesterday. This was in spite of an attendance of 79 for the young people yesterday morning.

Total attendance for the Sunday school was 398. The Methodist church reported 508 at Sunday school yesterday, the First Baptist church 666, and the Presbyterian church 115.

Regular services were conducted at all Pampa churches. First Baptist church entertained the Plateau singing convention in the afternoon, with a large attendance of gospel singers. The evening service at the Methodist church was conducted by Presiding Elder Beavers, who preached and then held quarterly church conference.

Colored Church Is Grateful For Aid

Appreciation to the friends of Macedonia Baptist church, colored, who have contributed to the church program during observance of the pastor's installation, was expressed today in a statement from members, signed by J. J. Jackson, pastor, and Mrs. O. F. Hunter, church clerk.

Pastors of the white churches of Pampa who have preached to the congregation there were also thanked.

YOUNG PEOPLE GO TO SUMMER TRAINING CAMP

Methodist Church To Be Represented By Three

Three members of the young people's department at First Methodist church left today for Abilene, to attend the annual summer assembly of the Northwest Texas conference at McMurry college, which begins today.

Josephine Lane, Florence Sue Dodson, and Wilson Long will represent the church here. They were accompanied by the pastor, Rev. C. A. Long, who will conduct one of the assembly classes.

Prominent speakers listed on the program include Bishop Boaz of Dallas and Mrs. Geraldine Green of Canyon.

Following the assembly sessions, Rev. Mr. Long expects to go to Ceta Canyon encampment in the Palo Duro and assist in conducting an adult church assembly.

Methodist young people held an outdoor service at their meeting hour yesterday evening. A fellowship program was given under the leadership of Margaret Beck, and a supper was served.

They planned a picnic for the evening of June 13.

Civic Club Scores Are Not Completed

The result of the Rotary-Lions golf tournament yesterday is unknown because players failed to turn in their cards at the club house. Captain C. T. Hunkapillar of the Rotary team and Captain H. H. Hicks of the Lions wish players with golf cards to turn them in immediately so that the count can be made.

The terrific heat kept most of the players away from the course and it may be that matches will have to be played off during the week before a final standing can be compiled. Some of the players "left off" when the wind started blowing and they will have to finish their matches later.

WOMEN'S CONTRIBUTION TO THE MOTOR CAR

There is some doubt that people care to hear very much about what goes on under the hoods of their cars.

The driver knows that "driving qualities" are not accidental; they are put there. How the manufacturer creates or evolves those results may not interest him. He judges entirely by the results he gets in driving.

Well, it is not essential to talk "shop"; let us talk Results.

Smoothness. Drive the Ford V-8 and you will find that the engine runs with surpassing smoothness, due to its design and the extra precise methods of its manufacture.

Power. There it is, 75 horsepower (we could say 80) at the drive-shaft for the driver's use. With less weight to pull around, the mettle of this car——its life-like response——is rather remarkable.

Economy. Our V-8 develops more power on a gallon of gasoline than any car we have made. Mileage is partly a matter of individual driving, but under average conditions the Ford V-8 does 17 to 20 miles a gallon. Of course, car economy is not only a matter of fuel. Ford V-8 has that too, but it is also economical in the complete sense——initial cost, operation, maintenance.

Appearance. This is woman's contribution. The motor car must not only be useful, but also good-looking. View the Ford V-8 and you will not need our comment on its fine appearance.

Comfort. This also is woman's concern. In 30 years she changed the motor car from a wagon to a coach. Comfort is a quality made up of numerous ingredients. There is no comfort without a quiet, smooth-running engine. We have all the other ingredients too,——color, good taste, quality, ease, safety, roominess and convenience.

MAGNOLIAS DEFEAT MAGIC CITY 9-5

NEWSOME HITS HOME RUN AND TWO SINGLES

FIRST PITCH SMACKED OVER FENCE BY PAMPAN

Without a regular pitcher to take the mound and with only 9 men in uniform, the Magnolia "Mags" won a 9 to 5 game from Magic City yesterday afternoon in the Wheeler county town. Stewart, who has worked in but one practice game, started for the "Mags" but gave way to Pullian, a catcher, in the fifth inning.

The Pampa nine started the game off with three runs when Freddy Newsome hit the first ball pitched over the fence to chase Coburn and Marshall across ahead of him. Coburn had doubled and Marshall was safe on an error.

Both teams hit for extra bases but Newsome cracked the only four-base wallop of the game. Odus Mitchell hit a triple and Coburn and Warren each doubles for the "Mags." Wills connected for three bases and Hickey for two doubles and Anderson for one two bagger for Magic City.

Newsome led the Pampa attack with his homer and two singles. Mitchell, Coburn, and Warren each hit twice. Marshall got the Magnolias' tenth hit of the game. Magic City got only six hits and four of them were for extra bases. Hickey, of Amarillo tournament fame in years past, got three of the Magic City hits. The other three went to Anderson, Wills, and Staggs.

Magic City made seven errors while the "Mags" were making eight miscues. The terrific heat affected both teams and they failed to play the usual steady ball of which they were canable. The "Mags" were without their regular shortstop and pitchers. Burke was in Dallas on business and Rogers had to take Mrs. Rogers to the hospital soon after noon.

The "Mags" added another run to the three scored on Newsonme's homer in the third when Warren singled, stole second and scored on Newsome's single. One more was added in the fifth when Mitchell tripled and scored on Coburn's single. Three more counters were added in the sixth when Shriver was safe on an error and Wagner was also safe on an error. Shriver scored on Mitchell's single and Wagner crossed when Coburn was safe on another error. The last Magnolia counter came in the seventh when Newsome singled and scored on two outs.

Magic City scored three runs in the fourth when Anderson singled and scored on Hickey's two bagger. Hickey crossed on Wills three base blow and Wills scored on Stagg's single. Pike was safe on an error in the sixth and scored on an out and another error. The last counter came in the ninth when May was safe on an error and scored as a result of two errors and a single by Hickey.

Twitty will come to Pampa for a game next Sunday.

Score by innings of yesterday's game:

	R	H	E
PAMPA 301 013 100	9	10	8
MAGIC CITY...000 300 101	5	6	7

INDIANS BEAT HOOVER NINE

Busby's Boys Win 11 to 10 When Catcher Drops Ball, Allowing Run.

The kind of finish that is read about but seldom seen, won a 11 to 10 baseball game for the Busby Indians yesterday afternoon when they met the fast Hoover nine at Magnolia park. With two men on bases and one out, Acklam swung at a bad one and Harris immediately started from third base. As he hit the plate he stepped on Catcher Benton's foot and that worthy dropped the ball as Harris scored the winning run.

Miles Marbaugh, elongated high school student, pitched nice ball for the Indians. It was his second attempt in the pitcher's box and he showed promise of becoming a star moundsman. Maples was behind the bat. Ritchie went the distance for Hoover with Dick Benton receiving.

There were many base hits and only a few errors. Harris led the Indians' attack with three bingles in five trips to the plate. Marbaugh, Rockwell, and Nash each connected twice. The work of Nash was outstanding defensively but every man on the team played head-up ball. Kelley made the only errors.

Dick Benton, P. Bond, and Ed Barnes hit twice for Hoover and the other hits were scattered. Jack Benton played a great game in the field for Hoover.

The Indians opened the scoring in the second inning when Harris and Acklam scored. Heiskell added another in the third inning. The Indians went scoreless until the sixth when Harris and Rockwell scored. Rockwell again crossed the plate in the eighth. The ninth saw the Indians come from behind when Heiskell hit a triple and scored on Kelley's hit. Maples hit safely and Kelley scored on Nash's out. Harris connected to score Maples and Rockwell sent Harris to third from which point he stole home as Acklam fanned.

Dick Benton scored in the first, and Bond in the second for Hoover. Barnes, Cunningham, Richie, and Nelson crossed in the third to send Hoover into the lead. The Indians then tightened and held Hoover scoreless until the seventh when Barnes, Cunningham, Richie, and Nelson again scored. That ended the scoring for Hoover.

Next Sunday the Indians go to Webb for a game and Pampa fans are urged to accompany the team on the goodwill trip.

Score by innings of yesterday's game:

	R	H	E
HOOVER 114 000 400	10	10	3

TULSA CRACKS BUFF DEFENSE IN 9-6 GAME

MISSIONS GIVE STEERS 3 TO 0 BEATING; CATS LOSE

By The Associated Press.

Breaking through the tight Houston defense, the Tulsa Oilers Sunday trounced the Texas league leaders, 9 to 6. It was the first game this season in which the Buffs have had more than six runs scored on them. The Oilers took a liking to the fast ball offerings of Ed Greer, big right-hander, scoring three runs in the second, three more in the fith, another in the seventh and two in the eighth.

San Antonio crept up on the leaders by handing the struggling Dallas Steers another lacing. The score was 3 to 0. The loss was the fourth in succession here for Dallas. The Missions lengthened their winning streak to five games.

The Steers were baffled by the hurling of Elton Walkup, young right-hander, who limited them to three scattered hits. John Whitehead, serving on the mound for Dallas, turned in a nice game. The Missions touched him for six hits in all.

At Beaumont the Exporters came from behind to win the first game of a double header against the touring Oklahoma City Indians, but in the nightcap the Indians took them into camp. The score of the first game was 8 to 5; the second, 6 to 3.

In losing a game to the Indians, Beaumont's sensational winning streak which carried them up to third place in league standings was halted at eight victories in succession.

Galveston's first division club won both ends of a doubleheader from Fort Worth, 4 to 2 and 6 to 0.

YANK HURLERS FAN EIGHTEEN IN TWO GAMES

JOHNNY ALLEN ALLOWS ONE HIT AGAINST ATHLETICS

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, Jr., Associated Press Sports Writer.

It appears to be the misfortune of more than one good ball club this season to be in the same league with the New York Yankees. Once they couldn't keep up with the slugging of the present world champions, and now they are finding the Yanks' array of pitchers sheer "poison."

The Philadelphia Athletics, who had climbed to second place in the American league a few days ago by a brilliant winning streak of ten out of 12 games, got a taste of Yankee flinging in a four-game series and wound up in the fifth notch again. They not only couldn't get the hits, but in four games, 46 batsmen were set down by the strikeout route. The Friday and Saturday games saw marks of 13 and 12 whiffings, respectively. Seven more fanned in the first game of a doubleheader as Russell Van Atta outpitched Merrit (Sugar) Caine to win 3-2 and eleven more fanned the breeze in the second game as Johnny Allen turned in a one-hit masterpiece to win 6 to 0.

The double victory gave the Yankees a lead of four games over the second place Washington Senators, who had to go 13 innings to beat the Boston Red Sox, 4-3. They got the winning run on a sacrifice and Ossie Bluege's single off Johnny Welch after the heat forced George Pipgras out of action.

The Chicago White Sox moved into fourth place by winning two games from the St. Louis Browns, 13 to 6 and 10 to 2. The Cleveland Indians and Detroit Tigers divided a pair of low-score games. Cleveland won the first, 2-1, on a ninth inning rally then fell a run short in an eighth innig outburst and went down 4-3.

The New York Giants, only National league team to win two games out of a set of four double bills, marched into first place by the margin of five points over the St. Louis Cardinals. Brilliant mound work enabled the Giants to beat the Brooklyn Dodgers 2-0 and 6-1 as Hal Schmacher and Fred Fitzsimmons allowed only eight hits between them. Lefty O'Doul's homer was the only Brooklyn run.

Cincinnati knocked the Cards out of the lead by winning the second game 6-2 the pitching and hitting of two former St. Louis players, Paul Derringer and Jim Bottomley, after the Cardinals had put on a late rally against Silas Johnson to take the opener 4-2. Pittsburgh's Pirates scored seven runs in a ninth inning uprising, marked by Floyd Vaughan's homer, to beat the Chicago Cubs 9-3 in the opener, but two circuit blows by Paul Waner off Pat Malone's pitching ended their scoring in the second clash and Chicago won, 9-2.

Eddie Holley's five-hit flinging and an unearned run gave the last-place Phillies a 1-0 victory over Boston but the Braves came back to slug out a 9-6 decision in the nightcap.

Chief Moore had the Panthers in check in the first game, allowing them but five hits, while his mates were collecting eight safe blows off White, Chambers and Minogue.

Abilene Youth Is West Texas Golf Champion

WICHITA FALLS, June 5 (AP)—Carnes Wilson, 18-year-old Abilene linksman, is the new champion of the West Texas Golf association.

In the final match of the ninth annual association tournament here yesterday he defeated Jimmy Phillips of Ranger, defending champion, 4 and 2.

Deadly accurate with his approach shots and putts, Wilson completed the first 18 holes seven up on his adversary. He pulled a spectacular shot on the ninth hole when he sank a 75-yard approach shot for an eagle three.

On the afternoon round his drives were erratic and frequently landed him in trouble but his tremendous lead made it possible for him to stave off Phillips' strong rally.

Phillips trimmed Wilson's lead to five up on the 27th hole and when they finished the 33rd, Wilson was only three up.

The match was settled on the 34th. Phillips drove straight down the middle and Wilson sliced behind a clump of trees. Wilson lifted his iron shot over the trees and landed on the green. Phillips hit the left side of the green, almost in the rough.

In attempting to pitch up, Phillips rolled fully six feet past the cup, while Wilson's approach putt came to rest a foot from the cup. His four won the hole and the match.

Foulis Smashes Par To Capture St. Paul Open

ST. PAUL, Minn., June 5. (AP)—Jimmy Foulis, descendant of one of Scotland's great family of golf teachers, wasn't quite good enough to qualify for the big 1933 National Open show but he had $1,500 in his pocket today and about that much satisfaction.

Competing against many of the important contenders for this year's National Open crown, including five members of America's Ryder Cup team, the silent Chicago pro kept his head down and sailed in with a par-smashing 72 hole total of 283 shots to win the $5,000 St. Paul open championship at Keller course here yesterday.

His card not only clipped five shots from par over the rolling Keller course but it beat George Von Elm of Los Angeles, golf's famous business man, by three strokes and Captain Walter Hagen of the Ryder Cup squad by five. More than that, he showed a doubting gallery that he wouldn't break under the pressure. His rounds were 70-72-69-72.

J. F. Cantrell of Miami was a visitor here today.

E. E. Romack of Skellytown was in the city yesterday.

"LOWEST-PRICED 4 DOOR SEDAN* sounded Good to Me!"

*WITH SIX CYLINDERS

A CERTIFIED INTERVIEW WITH MR. V. C. ECHLIN, 799 GOLDEN GATE AVE., SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.

"We need reliable cars . . . that are economical to buy and run"

MR. ECHLIN is not only an engineer . . . he makes automobile parts! So he knows automobile values...what a dollar ought to buy!

He bought Standard Plymouth for his salesmen because of "the many outstanding features that make for reliability and economy."

Floating Power engine mountings for instance . . . not only a smoother ride, but longer life from your engine. And hydraulic brakes . . . not only sure, but self-equalizing as well.

And Plymouth not only is the lowest-priced, 6-cylinder, 4-door sedan . . . but costs less to run because there is no needless dead weight!

Mr. Echlin bought Plymouth to make his dollars count! Why not follow his example? Look at all three low-priced cars . . . and buy the one that gives you most per dollar.

PRICED AS LOW AS THE LOWEST

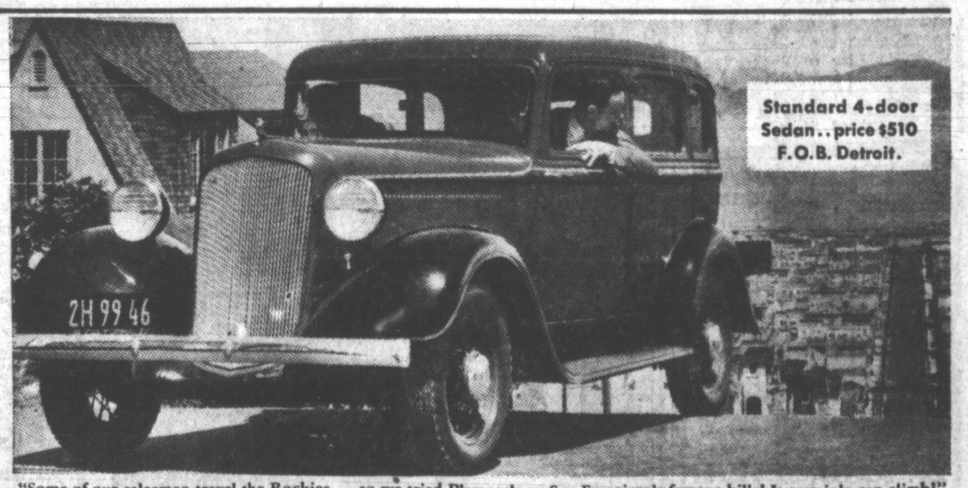
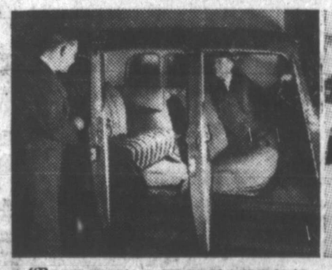
Standard Plymouth Six with Floating Power, 2-door sedan, $465; 4-door sedan, $510; rumble seat coupe, $485; business coupe, $445. All prices F. O. B. Factory, Detroit, and subject to change without notice.

SEE PLYMOUTH AT CHRYSLER MOTORS BUILDING, CHICAGO, CENTURY OF PROGRESS



"Some of our salesmen travel the Rockies . . . so we tried Plymouth on San Francisco's famous hills! It certainly can climb!"



"Room counts . . . we want our men to have comfort. The Standard is big."

"We can't forget looks, either! Plymouth's style makes a good impression."

"But what sold us is under the hood. We bought Plymouth on engineering."
