Stab Wound Fatal to Father of 10

A blind 37-year-old Colorado City woman has been charged with murder in connection with the stabbing death of her husband, Jerry Williams, 54.

Charges were filed Wednesday morning here in Justice of the Peace T. E. Arnold's court against Mrs. Addie Bell (Lady) Williams, mother of 10.

The charges, filed by District Attorney Weldon Kirk, that Mrs. Williams stabbed her husband with malice of forethought.

Williams died at 12:30 a. m. Wednesday at Root Memorial Hospital shortly after arriving there. Kirk said he died as the result of a stab wound in his neck.

According to Kirk, Williams was stabbed in the left neck, in the left collarbone region, by a 5-inch kitchen knife at his home, 145 Paris St., shortly before he died. Kirk estimated the incident occurred about 12 midnight Tuesday.

Williams apparently died as the result of internal bleeding. Kirk said his jugular vein had been severed by the knife.

CALL-UP OF UNIT POSSIBLE

Local National Guardsmen Included in Alert of Units

Colorado City's National Guard members were included Wednesday in U. S. Army orders for intensified training and reinforcement to prepare them for possible call-up to active duty.

The 49th Armored Division of Texas, of which the local guardsmen are a part, is one of 4 National Guard divisions listed for possible call-up. The other 3 are from Massachusetts, Pennsylvania and Wisconsin.

M/Sgt. Earl Taylor, high ranking member of the local unit, has received no official word on any possible call-up or extended training sessions.

The local unit is a part of A Battery, 3rd Rocket Howitzery and is a detached unit of the Big Spring Battery.

The Colorado City Big Spring batteries are a part of the West Texas battalion which is commanded by Lt. Col. Otto Scherz of San Angelo.

"The critical thing is a man's military occupational specialty," Scherz said of the information that men would be drawn from the Ready Reserve to bring the 49th to full strength. The Army said these reservists would come from areas of the National Guard units and train with those units at their home stations.

Scherz said that his group would have to have at least partially trained men for spots open under his command.

The units now under Scherz's command now drill at least 12 hours monthly.

All National Guardsmen, including the local unit, drill one Sunday a month for a minimum of 8 hours and attend

2 drills of 2 hours each monthly. The week end drills usually begin on Saturday nights and end early Sunday.

Scherz explained that another week end drill might be added to the Guardsmen's schedule.

"Final orders for the units have not been issued at this time."

Members of the local Guard unit include:

Taylor, Roy Sweatt, Joe Clark, Lee Roy Culbertson, Perry Mitchell, Lloyd Mitchell, Jerry Cannon, Bud Windham and Jimmy Wood.

Also Don Fite, Bud Hart, Charles Pruitt, Melvin Walker, Jimmy Browne, Frank Brown, Jerald McCann and Fred McDowell.

Capt. Devie Stevenson is commanding officer of the local unit—he is commander of the Big Spring unit, Lt. Johnny Hopper, executive officer to Stevenson, serves as one Sunday a month for a minimum of 8 hours and attend the local group.

Texas Electric Scientists to Nuclear Meet

Research in nuclear fusion supported by Texas power companies has been given a place on the program of an international conference on nuclear fusion research to be held in Salzburg, Austria beginning Sept. 4. It was reported by Beeman Fisher, president of Texas Electric Service Company.

Texas Electric has its local business office here at 153 Oak St. and its power plant on Lake Colorado City.

Texas Electric is a member of the Texas Atomic Energy Research Foundation, which is composed of 11 investor-owned electric companies of Texas. The Foundation and General Dynamics Corporation are jointly sponsoring research aimed at controlling the nuclear fusion (hydrogen bomb reaction) for the eventual production of electric power. It is the world's largest privately-financed research program in this field.

Five scientists at work on the Foundation's research program will join others from the United States and other countries in discussing the latest developments in man's attempts to control on earth the energy process of the sun and stars.

In making the announcement, Fisher said, "Naturally we are gratified that scientists from our project were invited to participate in this important international event. We think it is significant that a major scientific effort being carried out by private enterprise here in the United States will have a place on the program along with governmental efforts by other countries."

KICK OFF IS 8 P. M. IN POST

Wolves to Battle Post In Opening Tilt Friday

The Colorado City Wolves hit the 1961 football trail Friday night in Post against the Class AA Post Antelopes.

Kick off time is 8 p. m.

The Wolves will be going for their second opening game victory in succession under Coach Sam Christy. The Wolves, humbled the 'Lopes by a 53-0 score here at home last year in the Wolf opener.

But Friday night's contest isn't the season's opener for the vastly improved Post squad. They were in Rawls last Friday night for their opener and lost a ball game they should have won, 7-6.

Rawls couldn't move on the Post crew, but an Antelope fumble and a completed pass, coupled with an extra point, beat Post with less than 2 minutes to go in the game.

Rawls handed Post a 26-6 defeat last year — attesting to the improved state of the Antelopes when you consider that the Rawls squad is rated just about the same as it was last season.

Christy early this week named his traveling squad 27 players strong.

The 27 who will carry Colorado City's hopes to Post will be:

Quarterback David Lewis, back Mike Andrews, back Bill Boren and back Ken Northcutt.

Guard K. Connell, back Dickie Summers, back Roger Richards, back Jerry Mayo, center Larry Oliver, guard Lee Schafer and tackle Bill McGuire.

End Don Free, guard Mike Robinson, tackle Stanley Post, guard Joe Dean, guard Darrell Davis, tackle Jerry Whitaker and tackle Larry Hamner.

right end; Andrews and Womack, cornermen; Northcutt, middle linebacker; and Hillhouse and Latimer, halfbacks.

But there will be a lot of changes in these lineups before the night is over, warns Christy.

On offense, Andrews will work at wingback and tailback besides some at fullback. In fact, there may be all types of switches in the backfield on offense because each back is being groomed to handle every other job. Andrews, a steadily improving runner, will also handle the man-under chores when the passing game of the Wolves goes into effect.

And Christy says the Wolves will pass enough to "keep the defense loose." And Boren and Houston will see some fullback duty too.

The Wolves will throw up a basic 6-3 defense against the ever-dangerous Antelopes. The biggest switch there will come when Womack moves back to hit old post of middle linebacker and Northcutt goes to cornerman.

Womack was moved to cornerman, explains Christy, because of his vast experience and experience is always needed at the highly important defensive post of cornerman, the key to the 6-3 defense's outside and pass protection.

Christy called Tuesday afternoon's workout the best of the young practice season for the Wolves. "We're ahead of this time last year," he adds. Keep an eye out for Schafer.

Post only suited out 19 players against Rawls, so their weakest point seems to be lack of depth. The rotating Wolf backfield could have a field day against tired Post defenders late in the game if the depth isn't on the Post bench.

The Antelopes will run mostly a wing-T, with a floating back, against the Wolves if their offense of the Rawls game is any clue. And they will throw up an over-shifted 5-4 defense against the Wolves. The defensive shift always moves with the flanking or wingback.

The defensive shift akin to a "monster" defense, but is a shift of the entire or a portion of the defensive team with the flanker and not a single roving defender as in the monster type of defense.

Capps, guard Bobby Hudman, and Billy Shumard and tackle Dean Johnston will lead the Post defensive efforts.

"If we're ready, we can beat them," says Christy, "but if we go up there for a good time, we'll get beat."

The AAA Wolves are favored to beat the lower classed (AA) Antelopes, but it's expected to be a much closer affair than last year's 53-0 Wolf triumph.

BOWLER of the Week

Mrs. O. D. Carter

Mrs. O. D. (Jo) Carter has been bowling only 1 year, but she's already improved to the 140-average mark and this week was voted "Bowler of the Week."

Mrs. Carter competes in 2 leagues at Crown Bowl (formerly Mark Lanes) and carries a composite average of 140 in the 2. She bowls in the Thursday Night Mixed League and in the Tuesday night women's league — on the Rangerette team.

She already has 3 trophies to her credit — one for her high scratch series of 542 in the winter league last season, one for the high game of 195 in the mixed league during the summer and one for being a first place team member in the summer mixed league.

Mrs. Carter, who has rolled a sanctioned 200 league game, owns one of the highest arm patches of bowlingdom — a triplicate patch. She bowled 141 in 3 successive games in league play to qualify for the patch.

Crown Bowl's "Bowler of the Week" is selected each week by past winners of the honor.

AT SPECIAL MEET

Burkhalter Talks To Jaycee Group

The Colorado City Jaycees met for their annual get-together at a special meeting last Thursday at 7:30 p. m. in Civic house, with their wives.

Guest Speaker Jack Burkhalter, Mitchell County Agent, presented a talk on diseases, and insects which attack trees, shrubs and grasses common to this area.

Of special interest was his mentioning of the beetles which have been attacking the elm trees of the city.

Burkhalter said that they were rare in this section as they are caused by the wet weather. He also pointed out that their life span was about 3 weeks. The agent discussed the types of soil present in the residential area of this city and explained that contrary to what most home owners thought, it is better to water a short length of time but frequently. He also discussed the various types of poisons and insecticides.

The floor was opened for a question and answer period following Burkhalter's talk.

Jaycee president, Drew Ballard then conducted a short business meeting after which the husbands and wives enjoyed games of bridge and 42.

Present were, Mr. and Mrs. Wade McDonnell, Mr. and Mrs. Royce Bates, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Orr, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Ruffin, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Goodlett, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Elwood, Mr. and Mrs. Cummins Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Ballard, Mrs. Larry Moffitt and Mr. and Mrs. Burkhalter.

GET THE HABIT ...

For be it from me to tell you what to do. But there are not many things you can do better Friday night than follow our Colorado High Wolves football team to Post.

It is the first game of the 1961 schedule for the young athletes of Coach Sam Christy and Coach Ken Kearns.

And right now, at the start, looks like the best time for getting the habit of backing our district co-champions for the entire season.

Storm Clouds Boil as New Sales Tax Goes into Effect

Texas Press Association

Storm Clouds of protest boiled up quickly among consumers, clerks and merchants during the first week of application of Texas' almost-general sales tax.

Reaction was not so much against the cost of the new tax, but more to the principle, inconvenience and confusion. Natural resistance to any new levy always is evident. And there's certainly nothing "hidden" about a sales tax. Noticeably were strange new surpluses of pennies in pocket and purse. They were bothersome. Arguments also ensued over what is subject to tax, and what isn't.

Although State Comptroller Robert S. Calvert issued bulletin after bulletin explaining what is covered by the tax, it was evident that much time will have to pass before everyone concerned clearly understands the new law.

No one would venture a guess as to how many telephone calls were received by the Comptroller's office during the first week. The multitude of businessmen converging on the Capitol to seek information or lodge complaint give Comptroller Calvert not a moment's peace.

Meanwhile at the other end of the line — the direct contact point for collection of the extra pennies — clerks, especially those in supermarkets, were equally harried. There had been so little time for them to bone up on the many exemptions and intricacies of the new way of taxing Texans.

Probably the most universal scheme to best the tax emerged in coffee shops across the state. If the coffee tab for the group came to 25 cents or more, there was no sense in 1 person picking it up and having to pay an extra penny.

squeezed out of the market with below-cost prices, the ultimate result will be scarcity and sky-rocketing retail chicken prices."

Wilson said that since August, 1960, there has been a decline of some 6 cents per pound in the price paid by producers in Texas, to a low of 12 cents or less. He pointed out that 14 to 16 cents per pound is the usual cost of raising broilers.

The Attorney General is invoking a court-of-inquiry to investigate the possibility of anti-trust violations.

SLOW DOWN—State Highway Department survey indicates a continued slowdown in average speed on speed on Texas highways. This year the study indicated an average of 55.3 miles per hour for passenger cars clocked by hidden radar at 25 locations over the state. This compares with 55.9 MPH in 1960, and 56.2 MPH in 1959. Average speed for trucks was 50.1 MPH, compared with 51.2 MPH last year. Buses slowed down slightly from 60.7 MPH last year to 60.5 MPH in the recent survey.

RACE SHAPING—Many eyes of Texans are beginning to look in the direction of the Lieutenant Governor's office, vacated by Ben Ramsey's appointment as Railroad Commissioner.

SHINNERY PHILOSOPHER

Put Crises on A Quota System

Editor's note: The Shinnery Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Bone Hollow Creek has an odd notion this week, but there's nothing odd about that.

Dear editor: I'm not telling anybody how to run a newspaper, but as a farmer who knows what it is to be a victim of over-production, at least somebody else's over-production, I would like to suggest to the newspapers of this country, especially the big city dailies, that the crisis market in this world is being swamped and if it keeps going like it has the past few months newspapers are either going to have more crisis news than they can handle or the people are going to get tired of reading about it.

In fact, after reading all the headlines about Berlin, Cuba, Brazil and a few months back the Congo, Egypt, and all those other crises in at the time but have which sounded world shaking have faded from memory. I have come to the conclusion that what the world needs is a crisis quota. Running a country is not much different from running a farm. Very few people can do it successfully.

a crisis at a time, and that 1 limited to 1 month. Any time a crisis can't run its course in a month, somebody is just hogging the news.

Thus we'd have only 12 a year, and never more than 1 at a time.

You take a country whose crisis allotment comes in January, and it gets to itching to have 1 in November, it'll just have to wait. There's nothing worse or harder on newspaper readers than having 2 or 3 crises at the same time, not to mention how hard it is on Washington to get enough officials to fly to them, or on the news papers to find enough reporters to cover them all.

Oh, I know some people will say we could save money by having 1 diplomat attend 3 or 4 crises on the same trip, but it's asking too much, he'll get home and start trying to remember how much money he promised which country. One crisis a month, 12 a year, ought to be the maximum. Otherwise the crisis business is going bankrupt.

Over-production can play havoc with the crisis market the same as it can with 40 farmers, and everybody knows the world can't stand to be in the same phase for long.

TAYLOR - MADE

By RICK TAYLOR,
Record News Editor

HARRY RATLIFF, who is interested in the affairs of the Colorado City Historical Museum, uh-oh, I mean.

Hysterical Harry Ratliff, who is interested in the affairs of the Colorado City Historical Museum, is . . .

Oh, well, forget what I was trying to say.

DALE MATHIS and Taylor-Made had a conversation Wednesday night that was a first for The Shadow here. Old Sneaky here was sitting in LARRY MARK'S little teakettle, a Volkswagen, when Larry and Dale struck up a conversation on short-wave radios.

It was quite a ball, and my first fling over the air on short-wave.

But, now get this, Dale, who had already retired for the night, said that Taylor-Made sounded better over the air waves than he did on the pages of the Record.

That cost him a cup of coffee, that's for sure.

Dale also asked, still on the radio—we've never actually met face-to-face—if Taylor-Made (this column) was a "lonely hearts" type of thing. "Yes," was my reply.

So Dale has promised to write to Taylor-Made for advice on some trying aspect of his life . . . watch for it here in this corner.

Taylor-Made will not only print Dale's letter, but will also give a printed reply of advise with it.

THIS corner keeps getting calls for "The Shadow." And when I answer here's what greets my ears:

"Hello, is this The Shadow? This is The Twilight Zone," the voice says.

Who is this mystery voice that breaks into my day every so often?

It is a bird (probably), a plane or Superman?

Tune in same time, same station next week for the baffling answer.

If you can't wait, why don't you ask ARTHUR KELLEY about it — he's The Twilight Zone, in person.

Now, Arthur, talk your way out of this one.

Want to join Dale for a little of my advice? Maybe I can solve this misty problem of yours.

MARCUS WEST, he's a County Commissioner, has been trying for months to get Taylor-Made to draw a cartoon for this page.

I refused—here's why.

I'm a coward!!!

MOODY RICHARDSON, another Commissioner, tells some good jokes himself.

Moody has promised to cut Taylor-Made in on the first million dollars he inherits. (Well, we all can dream, can't we.)

Moody never has said whether he will cut the other Court members, Vest, GEORGE BACON and JARVIS NORTH, and Mitchell County Judge ELMER MARTIN in on any of this dream of inheritance or not.

Remember this, Moody: million bucks splits a lot better two ways . . .

TOLD son Randy not too long ago that he was going to have a new baby sister. So now, affected greatly by the grasshoppers that seem to fill his feet all the time, he refers to his coming "Baby Sticker."

I hope he isn't disappointed.

Circular Ads are High-Priced Ads

By MADGE BELL
Record Staff Writer

Annoying . . .
"Forced on me . . ."

These are some of the terms used by the public to describe circular advertising, according to a study by Market Research Service, The agency, which did a survey to compare circulars to newspapers as an advertising medium, reported that more than half of the recipients immediately discard circulars after a quick glance.

In contrast, the research agency found that newspaper advertising was accepted as believable and useful.

The advertiser, however, is more interested in the effective audience per dollar spent on advertising than he is in emotional response. Is the "annoying" advertising in circulars less expensive than newspaper advertising?

Projections of the study by the research service shows that newspaper advertising is not only more acceptable but also much less expensive. On an "effective audience" basis, according to the study, circular advertising is likely to be 500 percent more expensive than comparable newspaper advertising.

The study indicated a similar ratio of costs in terms of circulation and space. Thus, by any standard of measurement, acceptable quality newspaper advertising may be used for a fraction of the cost of printing and distributing what is often referred to as "junk" mail.

Yet a few retailers still think they are saving money when they attempt to distribute circulars as a primary form of advertising.

This leads to the conclusion that perhaps the first principal of good advertising is based on simple arithmetic — computing results in terms of dollars spent.

WASHINGTON REPORT

Aircraft Hijacking Bill Passes Easily

By RALPH YARBOROUGH
United States Senator

My amendment to provide a possible death penalty for aircraft hijacking was passed by the Senate, and the House passed it in almost identical form by a resounding 375-to-3 vote.

There are some minor differences in the Senate and House versions but the essential features of the bill are intact.

The bill would provide for a death penalty on recommendation of a jury if force, violence or the threat of force or violence had been used to seize a plane. There is an optional scale of lesser penalties, down to 20 years imprisonment.

If an airplane crew member is attacked, for example, the attacker could get 20 years imprisonment or a $10,000 fine.

By this legislation, Congress is serving notice that the atrocious crime of plane hijacking is going to be something far more dangerous than a swift flight to the sheltering arms of the Cuban Communist regime of Fidel Castro.

Piracy on the high seas was a heinous crime. But it was nothing compared to the danger in the skies when armed men who know nothing of flying seize control of a plane and crew.

The spectacle of scores of our citizens held captive on planes moving several hundred miles an hour, 4 or 5 miles above the earth, and with the pilot helpless at gunpoint, demanded preventive legislative action.

The legislation will serve as a powerful deterrent to would-be plane hijackers. The El Paso hijacking incident may never have occurred if the men who plotted to seize the plane had known they would face the possible death penalty.

Another measure which I introduced in the Senate has also been approved by the House. My bill, now to be law, is important to the Gulf Coast shrimp industry.

The bill clarified a law that might have seriously interfered with the shrimp industry, by authorizing fishing vessels to take the catch of another fishing vessel aboard on the high seas and transport it free to a U. S. port.

WITH CLASSIFICATION PLAN

Most County Drivers Save Money on Auto Insurance

Approximately 55% of the private passenger automobiles in Mitchell County can now be covered for basic limits public liability insurance for only $6. more than the same insurance cost in 1958. This is due to the use of insurance classification plans, including the Texas Safe Driving Insurance Plan according to the State Board of Insurance.

To give a specific illustration: basic limits public liability insurance (bodily injury and property damage combined) on a private passenger car, used only for family purposes, and not owned or operated by a male under 25 years of age, and principally garaged in a town or city in Mitchell County now costs $36.00. If the owner and his co-resident operators are accident and conviction free under the Texas Safe Driving Plan (sub-class 0) a 20% differential is allowed which would reduce the rate to $29.00. In 1958 the same insurance on a private passenger car in a city or town in Mitchell County would have cost $23.00. Approximately 55% of the non-farm, private passenger cars in this county are entitled to this reduced rate.

Farm automobiles carry a lower rate because they are not exposed to hazard in the same degree as non-farm cars. The purpose of insurance classification plans is to allocate more of the cost of insurance to the class of risks which result in the most losses. Classification begins with type of motor vehicle. If a private passenger car, then classification for liability insurance is by territory where principally garaged, use of the vehicle and driver characteristics. On physical damage, including collision, fire, theft and comprehensive insurance, the list price of the insured automobile and its age are also considered.

Rates are made separately on commercial types of motor vehicles from private passenger cars, and on private passenger cars according to the use made of them. The State is now divided into 26 statistical territories and 10 rating territories. Large metropolitan counties are separate territories since there are a sufficient number of cars in such counties to afford a sound basis for separate rating. Smaller counties are grouped with other counties having a reasonably similar loss experience for rating purposes. Each rating territory can largely control its own rates by reducing accidents and consequently the number of insured losses. Automobile rating classes pertaining to use as private

Danny Barber in Germany on Duty

Sgt Daniel L. (Danny) Barber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dell Barber, Route 1, is presently on an extended tour of duty with the U. S. Army in Frankfurt, Germany.

Barber's tour of duty was recently extended 6 months, until October of 1962, in the recent buildup of U. S. troops in Germany.

NEW CREDIT SYSTEM

Hospital Offers Courtesy Cards

Courtesy cards are the new thing at Root Memorial Hospital.

Announcement of the new credit system was made this week by Root Memorial administrator Charles Root and business manager Martin Weaver.

"The system, long-used by many business establishments, now will enable Root Memorial patrons to forego important steps in getting registered," they say. "With financial information having already been compiled in advance, the sometimes long and inconvenient step of registering can be bypassed through the use of the courtesy card credit system," they continue.

Application cards for the new service are now available at the local hospital.

The new service, says Weaver, will not only add to the convenience and ease of admittance for patrons, it will also enable our staff to better handle incoming and outgoing patients in a minimum of time and without extra paper work.

All courtesy card holders will be billed monthly and, too, will not be required to make deposits upon admittance as is the practice in most hospitals.

Other things are going on at Root Memorial too.

A remodeling and redecorating program is presently underway.

The program includes repainting of rooms, new furnishings, repainting of halls and auxiliary rooms and installation of permanent floral arrangements.

A new nursery is also being constructed. It will be modern and completely equipped. A new labor room is planned just across the hall from the delivery room.

The kitchen and foods department will also undergo changes and the laboratory has been expanded. The administration department is also undergoing alterations and a new hospital-wide communications system is to be installed.
