MAN INJURED IN CAR CRASH

Juan Barrera, 65, is in serious condition in a Corpus Christi hospital from injuries sustained Aug. 13 when his car and a truck collided at Highway 35 and Market St.

Chief of Police E. D. Taylor said Barrera, traveling north on Highway 35, attempted to make a left turn at the intersection and cut in front of the truck which was moving south on 35.

Driver of the truck was Harry Brown, Jr., 30, of San Antonio, who was not injured.

Taylor estimated damage to the truck at $800 and said Barrera's car was a total wreck.

Vice President Offers Fed. Help

Vice President Spiro Agnew has assured that the federal government will make available its full disaster relief resources to aid Rockport area victims of Hurricane Celia.

In a letter to Mayor Delmar R. Miller, the Vice President said:

"Please extend to all those in Rockport affected by Hurricane Celia my deepest sympathy for the hardship and loss they have suffered.

"The people of your city have sustained a severe blow, but I am confident that the same courage and determination with which they faced the onslaught of disaster will enable them to pick themselves up from the rubble and begin the massive task of building anew.

"You can be assured the federal government will make available its full disaster relief resources to aid the victims of this tragic disaster in that task."

The federal government already has responded to the needs of the Rockport area by sending representatives of the U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, the Small Business Administration, the U. S. Corps of Engineers and other agencies to assist persons requiring assistance.

Episcopal Chapel To Be Dedicated

The Rt. Rev. Harold C. Osnell, D.D., Bishop of the 10-county Episcopal Diocese of West Texas, will officiate at the dedication of the new chapel and a new activities building at the diocese's Bishop Elliot Conference Center at Rockport Sunday, Aug. 23.

The dedication is set for 7:30 p.m. It will be preceded by a basket picnic started at 6 p.m. Coffee and soft drinks will be available at the center and persons attending will bring their own food.

Cost of the two new buildings was $58,000.

The chapel, which will seat 40 persons, is octagonal in shape. It was financed largely through a Thank Offering from rector, wardens, vestry and members of Trinity Episcopal Church, Victoria, made during that church's 1969 centennial celebration. Furnishings for the chapel are a memorial to David Wicks.

Funds for the activities building came from the Everett Holland Jones Episcopal Advance Fund that was conducted throughout the diocese in 1969.

School Ups Tax Rate 6%

The Aransas County Independent School District has approved a budget of $1,500,660 and set the tax rate at $1.61 per $100 valuation to meet the needs.

This represents a 9-cent increase over the rate for the 1969-70 school year, a 6 percent increase.

The increase was made necessary, Supt. of Schools J. D. Gray explained, to take care of the school district's part of an increase in salaries for most school employees, primarily teachers, which was made mandatory by the 61st state legislature.

The salary increase will average approximately $1,000 per year for each teacher. The state pays approximately 65 percent of the increase and the local school district only 35 percent.

An example of how the tax increase will affect local people is as follows: tax on a typical $10,000 house in 1969 at the $1.52 rate was $53.20, whereas on this same property at the $1.61 rate the tax for 1970 will be $56.35, or an increase of only $3.15.

Gray said the largest taxpayer in the school district, whose taxes in 1970 will be $55,768.47, examined the proposed budget and said he was pleased as he was aware of the additional financial burden on schools all over the state.

According to Gray, the local increase is much lower than that of the average throughout the state. "Costs of all other school services, equipment and supplies have increased just as a typical family's cost of living has increased. The School Board makes every effort to keep taxes as low as possible and still provide a high quality program of education for the children of Aransas County.

Water Plant Operators Praised

An official State Health Department citation for work proficiency has been awarded to L. Paul Hendrick, James T. Montgomery and Carl W. Crickenberger, all of Rockport water plant operators.

Signed by the State Health Commissioner and authorities of the Texas Water Utilities Association, the certificate of competency is awarded only to those utility plant operators who have successfully demonstrated their skill and knowledge in modern principles of plant management.

To qualify for certification, a plant operator must have accumulated a prescribed amount of actual work experience. He must also have attended both regional and statewide short schools at which the techniques of water treatment and waste water disposal are taught, and must have passed an examination given by State Health Department sanitary engineers.

State law requires that at least one operator per shift be certified for competency by health department engineers, but many operators seek certification on their own time and at their own expense to increase their efficiency as key public servants to their community and state.

The engineers said the attainment is evidence of the men's efforts to better prepare themselves for the duties of their profession.

The Sacred Heart Kindergarten will start school Aug. 31 at 8 a.m. in the convent across the street from the school.

The first two of an estimated 50 emergency mobile homes being brought here by U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development have arrived for temporary occupancy by persons who lost their homes in Hurricane Celia.

A spokesman for HUD said more will be arriving from now on to provide living quarters for hurricane victims. The mobile homes, leased from manufacturers, are being placed on the lots of the persons whose homes were demolished or made unlivable.

In conformance with city regulations, proper sewer service (either hooking onto city sewer system or a working septic tank) is being provided, plus utility services.

Persons permitted to move into the HUD mobile homes receive free rent during the month they move in, plus free rent for the next three months. Under government regulations, the people may live in the mobile homes for up to one year while repairing or replacing their old homes.

At the end of the free rent period, a HUD representative said they will be charged the following rent: $35 a month for one bedroom mobile home; $40 a month for two bedrooms; $45 a month for three bedrooms; and $50 for three large bedrooms.

The City Council, at a special emergency meeting this week, agreed to request HUD to enter into a contract with an appropriate housing authority, such as the one at Corpus Christi or the one at Robstown, to handle the entire operation of locating the mobile homes, following up on sewer and utility connections, and collecting rent when that time arrives.

Previously, it had been planned that the project would be handled by city and county authorities working together.

Sixty-five applications have been received so far for HUD mobile homes. Most have been approved for eligibility.

To cooperate and help people have HUD mobile homes to live in while their own houses are being put back into livable condition, the City Council has agreed to waive the requirement for special permits for these temporary homes.

However, the Council emphasizes that special permits will be required for all regular applications for location of mobile homes on lots other than spaces in established mobile home parks.

The following information regarding occupancy of temporary mobile homes is supplied by HUD:

Q: Who may qualify for these mobile homes?

A: Any family whose home has been destroyed, or so badly damaged, that it cannot be lived in until rebuilt, and cannot get other housing.

Q: Is there any limit on incomes?

A: No.

Q: Are these mobile homes gifts from the Government?

A: No. Families will rent them on a monthly basis, for as long as one year. Rents will be based on family income after a short initial free period.

Q: Where do people go to apply for these homes?

A: At the City Hall.

Q: Where will the mobile homes be located?

A: Some can be sited on the owners' lots next to the damaged homes. Some will be placed in mobile home parks. Some will be located on sites to be created on public land.

Rockport Getting Back In Shape

The Rockport area is getting back into shape fast and the scars left by Hurricane Celia are rapidly disappearing.

Most motels are operating, as are restaurants, tackle shops, grocery stores, service stations, shops and other places of business.

The Chamber of Commerce reports that vacationers already are arriving, stopping at the C of C building for information about motels, trailer parks, good places to eat, charter boats, good fishing areas, location of the golf course and art galleries and any suggestions about interesting places to visit.

Thanks to the fast action by federal, state, county and city government authorities, plus the all-out efforts of the Red Cross, Salvation Army and other agencies, plus the speedy debris cleanup work by the Jack Sanders Corp. which got the contract to remove hurricane debris from Rockport, things are getting back to normal fast.

Merv Sours who moved here about a year ago from Wisconsin Rapids, Wis., summed it up when he said, "I never saw anything like it my life."

Sours, a retired paper mill executive, said he was amazed by the way "everyone pitched in to take care of such needs as food, medicine, shelter and clothing, and then got busy to get rid of the debris and rebuild or repair whatever needed replacing or fixing up."

At the request of many tourist-oriented business firms the Rockport Chamber of Commerce has launched an "Emergency Move Ahead Campaign" to raise funds from C of C members who wish to contribute to the cost of placing some ads in northern newspapers to let folks up there know that Rockport is in good shape and ready to serve visitors looking for a good place to vacation.

Following is the special bulletin which the C of C sent to its members regarding the EMAC campaign:

To all members of the Chamber of Commerce: This is a special notice regarding an EMERGENCY MOVE AHEAD CAMPAIGN to let the people up north and throughout the nation know that Hurricane Celia did NOT blow the Rockport area off the map, that although we did suffer some damage, debris removal and rebuilding are going ahead rapidly, that most motels, restaurants and other businesses which serve vacationers are operating and offering excellent services and accommodations, so,

Come on down to the Rockport-Fulton-Lamar area, enjoy the good fishing, golf, swimming, boating, beaches and all the other natural attractions and the facilities which assure having a good vacation or as a place to live permanently.

To get this message distributed to many areas where there are potential tourists and residents, we plan to do many things. The two major steps will be:

1. Place some advertisements in major news papers, such as the Des Moines (Iowa) Register and others, and,

2. Send out news releases to newspapers and wire services. Two such follow-up news releases have been sent out.

The Emergency Move Ahead Campaign (EMAC) was initiated by Max Grobe of Max's Tackle Shop and a number of local people whose firms rely heavily on tourist business.

Max called the Chamber of Commerce manager and said he and the others believed that action should be taken immediately to let the rest of the country know that the Rockport area was back in business and ready to welcome and serve all visitors who would like to come here for a nice vacation.

He said that he and the others are "digging down in their pockets" to contribute

Navig. Dist. Seeks Federal Funds to Re-Dredge Channels

In the hope of getting federal financial assistance to re-dredge channels from the Rockport area to the Intracoastal Canal, Navigation District Commissioners Matt Scott and Dick Fox Wednesday action that may lead to such assistance.

At the suggestion of representatives of the Office of Emergency Preparedness and the U. S. Corps of Engineers, Scott and Fox voted to have depth soundings taken now to be compared with soundings made after Hurricane Beulah to determine the amount of silt deposited in the channels by Hurricane Celia.

L. E. Casterline of the Casterline Fish Co. said his shrimp boats draw 11 feet and he estimated that Celia deposited "about three feet of silt in the channel from Fulton Harbor." He said the Fulton channel will be impassable as soon as "we get the first norther."

Among those attending a combined meeting of the Navigation District and Aransas County Commissioners Court were L. R. Chant, Galveston, U. S. Corps of Engineers, and B. Broussard, Denton, of the OEP.

Chant said it was possible that federal assistance may be available under Public Law 875 would provide a grant. He indicated that the amount of money provided by the federal government probably would be determined by the estimated cost of putting the channels back into the condition they were before Hurricane Celia hit here.

James H. Sorenson, Jr., president of First National Bank of Rockport, John P. Mitchell, Jr. vice president of Rockport Yacht and Supply Co., Emory M. Spencer, oil operator; Casterline and others emphasized in informal discussion with the government men that the channels serve shrimp boats operated by commercial fishermen, new shrimp boats manufactured by RYSCO, and boats which service oil rigs. The continued operation of all the boats is vital to the economy of the Rockport area, the government men were informed.

Schools Damaged By Hurricane

Although Hurricane Celia did considerable damage to the schools, it will not interfere with the schedule opening Aug. 31.

Supt. of Schools J. D. Gray gave the following assessment of hurricane damage, in addition to 520 windows:

Rockport Elementary: Covered walkway, storage building, part of wall on room 7 and 8, ceiling tile, roof cinders, storage building, roof on cafeteria porch, fence, windows.

Fulton Elementary: Roof leaks, wall leaks, windows, cinders on roof, pump house door, trees.

Live Oak Elementary: Air conditioner tower, sky light on mechanical building, cinders on roof, trees damaged.

High School: Leak in science lecture room, lockers in high school saltwater damage, covered walkway to gym completely demolished, gym windows, windows in building, rain on auditorium seats, press

20,000 Cu. Yds. Debris Removed

Jack Sanders of the Jack Sanders Corp., which has the contract to remove hurricane debris, said Wednesday that his crews already have disposed of 20,000 cubic yards of debris.

When Sanders got the contract, it was estimated there would be about 5,000 cubic yards to be removed.

Sanders said he and his men and machines went into action the day after he got the contract. He hired about 40 men, most of them local residents. He said he attempted to lease all local local equipment—trucks, cranes and loading equipment—and rented all he could and supplemented it with equipment from other cities to "get going st."

"As I understand by contract," Sanders said, "I am supposed to confine my work to removal of debris from thoroughfares and the right-of-way on each side of the streets and roads."

He said his crews had not yet started on the second phase of the cleanup job, which will give all property owners time to prepare their properties for removal of debris, trimming of trees, etc. Sanders said his men will walk in and pick up the debris and carry it to their trucks.

Sanders praised the U. S. Corps of Engineers under whose direction he and his men work. "They are experts—real pros—in all phases of disaster work, including debris removal," he said.

Sanders said his work will be completed "when Mayor Delmar R. Hiller is satisfied that we have done a good clean-up job. This includes removing pieces of debris six inches long and longer," he explained.

Legal Aid Station To Be Set Here

An emergency legal aid station to handle on a voluntary basis legal problems associated with the hurricane disaster for persons unable to hire a lawyer because of indigency or loss sustained in the hurricane will be set up in Aransas County Courthouse through the co-operation of County Judge John D. Wendell and County Commissioners W. B. Allen, Raymond Owens, Mrs. Wanda Sparks and Mrs. Ludene Wofford.

The announcement was made by Miss Lola L. Bonner, president of the Aransas County Bar Association.

The legal aid station will be manned by lawyers from the Aransas County Bar Association, the Nueces County Bar Association and the Legal Aid Society of Nueces County.

Morris Harrel, Dallas, president of the State Bar of Texas, said the state organization "wants to support the efforts of local bar associations in providing legal services to the hurricane victims."

"It is contemplated," he said "that the members of the State Bar Association who are located out of the disaster area may be asked to provide briefing support and other legal services which may be become necessary because of the multitude of unique legal questions and problems which are being identified by the lawyers located in the outreach centers."

The City of Rockport will take over the operation of the new water system about Sept. 1, according to Harold Picton, president of Aransas County Conservation and Reclamation District.

The new water system will bring treated Nueces River water, purchased by ACCRD from San Patricio Municipal Water District and sold to the City of Rockport, for use by residents of the city and the outlying areas of Aransas County.

Seth Steele, manager of the ACCRD $2 million project, said approximately 300 persons in the county (outside the city limits) have put up their deposits and applied for services. In the city, there are 1,641 homes and businesses using city water (formerly supplied by wells) and soon will be getting the new water.

At a meeting of the directors of ACCRD, George W. Barnes, Jr., resident engineer for Lockwood, Andrews and Newnam, consulting engineers, Corpus Christi, reported the following progress on work for the contractors laying the pipelines, building the water tanks, etc., to bring the water to the Rockport area:

As of July 31, R. S. Black, contractor, reported overall contract completion, 95 percent, and elapsed time, 172 percent;

Chicago Bridge & Iron Co., field construction, 100 percent; testing, 50 percent; and overall contract completion, 99½ percent; retail system, 99½ percent; overall contract completion, 99 percent; and elapsed time, 87 percent.

Inspections have been made regularly by Barnes. He said remaining work consists of completing the testing, cleanup, adjustment of fire hydrant heights, connections to existing systems and meter in stallations.

96,000 Pounds of Food Distributed

During the period immediately after Hurricane Celia, the Commodity Distribution Center of the State Welfare Department distributed approximately 96,000 pounds of food to 2,200 persons representing 540 families.

The Commodity Center will continue to issue emergency food the rest of this week to hurricane victims. After that, applications will be taken at the center for the purpose of helping people in the low income brackets.

A spokesman for the center said that "even though our warehouse was completely destroyed by Celia, we were able to get emergency headquarters in a three room house at 1028 N. Church St. to meet the needs of the people.

"We will continue to operate at that location until our regular warehouse is rebuilt," he said.

Disaster Locations

Residents of Aransas County who need assistance as a result of Hurricane Celia are reminded of the following locations offering help:

Red Cross, Aransas County Courthouse.

SBA, Aransas County Courthouse.

HUD, City Hall.

Demo Women Leaders to Meet

Democratic leaders from 18 Texas counties will receive on Aug. 26 a behind-the-scenes view of Texas politics, 1970, from the key campaign aides of Democratic nominees for the state's three top offices—Lloyd Benson, nominee for U. S. Senate; Preston Smith, nominee for Governor; and Ben Barnes, nominee for Lieutenant Governor.

This Campaign Briefing, 1970, will be a part of a Workshop for Democratic Women Leaders to be held in Victoria.

Main speaker will be Bob Landis Armstrong of Austin, Democratic nominee for State Land Commissioner. "Texas Candidates and Issues for 1970" will be the subject of his luncheon speech. He will be introduced by Senator William N. (Bill) Patman of Galveston.

Mrs. William Patman, National Democratic Committee woman from Texas, said this week that men interested in attending the luncheon should contact their County Chairmen for this event after Aug. 21, the last day for pre-registration.

Chairman for Aransas County is Miss Lola L. Bonner.

Fish Story

Vernon Kleypas, Phil Baldwin, Mike Hernandez and J. D. Gray (as navigator) got in a boat last Saturday and headed for St. Joe Island to find out what the hurricane did to their blinds.

About a mile from Rockport they "discovered" a deep reef and decided to stop and do some fishing. They caught over 200 trout, up to 2 pounds. They named the reef "Double Wishbone."

Gray said, "When Pat Greene reads this, he'll sure wish he had been along."

July Auto Crashes Costly to Texans

Austin — Traffic crashes during July tapped the wallets of Texans for $59 million, according to the Texas Safety Association.

The statewide safety group said today that traffic crashes during the first seven months of the year have cost nearly $400 million.

TSA says there has been a continuing increase in the number of traffic crashes and fatalities on the state's Farm to Market road system. Preliminary reports for July show collisions on the rural road system are up 26 per cent over the same period last year. A similar trend was first reported by TSA in April.

While the Farm to Market roads are experiencing increases in accidents and deaths, towns with populations under 2,500 are showing a 10 per cent decrease in accidents and a 16 per cent decrease in fatalities.

The Texas Safety Association says motorists using the state's rural road system need to exercise extra caution since there are special hazards like slow-moving vehicles.

TSA also pointed to the need for motorists to utilize their safety belts while driving on any roadway, since their use can increase chances of survival if an accident does occur. The group also said accidents and fatalities can be reduced if Texans will obey traffic laws and "Drive Friendly."

Pirate Band News

Summer band practice began Aug. 13 for the High School Fighting Pirate Band. The band was to have left for a band workshop at Camp LaJunta the day of Celia.

Needless to say, the band did not attend but is now having daily rehearsals as follows: Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday evenings from 7 to 9 p.m. and Wednesday and Friday afternoons from 4 until 6 p.m. Band members are urged to attend all rehearsals to be ready for the approaching football season.

The bands of Rockport-Fulton Schools cut a record and the records are in stereo, 50 minutes, for $4.50. If you pre-ordered a record and you have not received one, be sure to contact the Band Hall or a band member. Some extra records are available for sale. The record jacket has pictures of all three bands of Rockport-Fulton.

All bandmen are urged to remember to attend rehearsals for we are already over a week behind due to the hurricane. Mr. Stephens and Mr. Massey are looking forward to a good band year with a larger and better band.

San Antonio Cub Scouts Help Here

Cub Scout Pack No. 213 of San Antonio made a fast decision to help Rockport area victims of Hurricane Celia.

As true Scouts, they sent their members throughout San Antonio collecting food and clothing. The collected goods were brought to the Red Cross headquarters at Rockport by nine-year-old Jimmy Hesskew, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hesskew of San Antonio.

Jimmy, making two trips to Rockport with goods, stayed with his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Clark in Oak Terrace Subdivision, just west of Rockport.

Jimmy belongs to Cub Scout Pack 213 sponsored by the Immanuel Lutheran Church of 130 Saipan Place, San Antonio.

School System Aids Hurricane Victims

The school system did its part to help local folks affected by the hurricane. J. D. Gray, Superintendent of Schools, was asked by the Pilot to supply some of the details, which follow.

First, Gray was coordinator with Civil Defense Director Herman Johnson in setting up Fulton Elementary School and Live Oak Elementary School as hurricane shelters.

At the Fulton School, maintenance man Mike Hernandez spent five days helping to take care of the needs of about 200 persons who found refuge there, supplying food, clothing, bed clothes and whatever was needed.

At Live Oak School, maintenance man Don Mason moved his travel trailer to the school and stayed there the entire week to be on hand to look after all the needs of the 325 persons who fled there.

In addition, industrial arts director Phil Baldwin prepared all the school busses for possible use for evacuation of persons, if the vehicles were needed. He took one to the City Hall and then he stayed in the Science Building to be near the garage in case all the busses were needed.

HAS SURGERY

Mrs. Helen Vargas is recuperating from surgery at Physicians and Surgeons Hospital in Corpus Christi and expects to be released Saturday or Sunday. She is the wife of Patrolman Daniel Vargas of the City Police Department.

CARD OF THANKS

I thank God and my many friends for the fact that I am alive and O.K. After the hurricane. Even though my house was blown down, I am now staying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sowers. When the hurricane struck I was in Carrizo Springs, Texas with Mr. and Mrs. Sowers.

Vehicle Inspection Reminder Given

AUSTIN — Colonel Wilson E. Speir, director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, today reminded Texas motorists that vehicles bearing red motor vehicle inspection stickers with the large numeral "9" must be reinspected before midnight Sept. 30.

Texas now operates on a 12-month inspection system. The inspection sticker in the lower left-hand corner of the windshield contains a large numeral showing the month of inspection and expiration.

Speir said vehicles with red stickers and number "10" will require reinspection before midnight on the last day of October. Those with an "11" must be reinspected before the end of November, with a December 31 deadline for red stickers numbered "12".

All motor vehicles and certain classes of trailers are subject to the mandatory Texas inspection which includes brakes, lighting equipment, horns and warning devices, mirrors, windshield wipers, front seat belts in vehicles where seat belt anchorages were part of the manufacturer's original equipment on the vehicle, steering (including power steering), wheels and rims, exhaust system, and exhaust emission system.

The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this state at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1970, at which election the ballots shall be printed to provide for voting for or against the proposition: "The constitutional amendment to authorize the Legislature to provide by law for the establishment of a uniform method of assessment of ranch, farm and forest lands, which shall be based upon the capability of such lands to support the raising of livestock and/or to produce farm and forest crops."

PUBLIC NOTICE

Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NUMBER ONE ON THE BALLOT (HJR30) General Election Nov. 3, 1970

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Subsections (5), (6), (7), (8), (9), (11), (12), and (13), Section 1-a, Article V, Constitution of the State of Texas, be amended to read as follows:

"(5) The Commission may hold its meetings, hearings and other proceedings at such times and places as it shall determine but shall meet at Austin at least once each year. It shall annually select one of its members as Chairman. A quorum shall consist of five (5) members. Proceedings shall be by majority vote of those present, except that recommendations for retirement, censure, or removal of any person holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section shall be by affirmative vote of at least five (5) members."

"(6) A. Any Justice or Judge of the Appellate Courts and District and Criminal District Courts; any County Judge, and any Judge of a County Court at Law, a Court of Domestic Relations, a Juvenile Court, a Probate Court, or a Corporation or Municipal Court, and any Justice of the Peace, and any Judge or presiding officer of any special court created by the Legislature as provided in Section 1, Article V, of this Constitution, may, subject to the other provisions hereof, be removed from office for willful or persistent conduct, which is clearly inconsistent with the proper performance of his said duties or casts public discredit upon the judiciary or administration of justice; or any person holding such office may be censured, in lieu of removal from office, under procedures provided for by the Legislature."

"B. Any person holding an office named in Paragraph A of this subsection who is eligible for retirement benefits under the laws of this state providing for judicial retirement may be involuntarily retired, and any person holding an office named in that paragraph who is not eligible for retirement benefits under such laws may be removed from office for disability seriously interfering with the performance of his duties, or wholly reject the ance of his duties, which is, or is likely to become, permanent in nature."

"(7) The Commission shall keep itself informed as fully as may be of circumstances relating to the misconduct or disability of particular persons holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section, against whom a proceeding is instituted to cause his retirement or removal, due process of law for the procedure before the Commission, Masters and the Supreme Court. Such rule shall afford to any person holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section, against whom a proceeding is instituted to cause his retirement or removal, due process of law for the procedure before the Commission, Masters and the Supreme Court in the same manner that any person whose property rights are in jeopardy in an adjudicatory proceeding is entitled to due process of law, regardless of whether or not the interest of the person holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section is considered to be a right or a privilege. Due process shall include the right to notice, counsel, hearing, confrontation of his accusers, and all such other incidents of due process as are ordinarily available in proceedings whether or not infeasible is charged, upon proof of which a penalty may be imposed."

"(12) No person holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section shall sit as a member of the Commission or Supreme Court in any proceeding involving his own retirement or removal."

"(13) This Section 1-a is alternative to and cumulative of the methods of removal of persons holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section provided elsewhere in this Constitution."

Sec. 2. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this state at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1970, at which election the ballots shall be printed to provide for voting for or against the proposition: "The constitutional amendment relating to the removal, retirement or censure of Justices, Judges and Justices of Peace under prescribed circumstances."

Red Cross Needs Help

Disaster is a human tragedy on a mass scale — on such a scale, in fact, that it is often hard to comprehend. A case in point is the misery caused by Hurricane Celia recently in Texas. The American Red Cross reports that, in addition to the deaths and injuries in the disaster, more than 64,600 homes were destroyed or damaged. But an added figure, perhaps one more easy to comprehend, is the fact that this one horrible storm brought losses to more than 65,000 families.

Right now, amid the wreckage and debris along the Gulf coast of Texas, plans are underway to build anew. As always, the Red Cross is there giving hope and helping to rebuild the thousands of lives that have been shattered in just a few hours. Its financial assistance to the victims is an outright gift. Repayment is neither asked for nor implied.

The task before the Red Cross is a great one. American Red Cross volunteers and staff will be on the scene for months, helping Celia's victims reconstruct and repair their homes, replace lost household furnishings and occupational equipment, and to assist with the medical bills from disaster-caused injuries and illness.

Because of the magnitude of the recovery operation, Red Cross National Chairman E. Roland Harriman has appealed to the American people for generous contributions to help meet costs running many millions of dollars. We wholeheartedly endorse this effort. The Red Cross is the only organization in this country that can provide this help freely to those in need. Its sole financial support is that from the American people. In the weeks ahead, the families that suffered in Celia will be counting on the Red Cross to restore their way of life. And, we are sure, the Red Cross can count upon us for the means to do the job.

Your contribution can be sent or taken to our local chapter of the Red Cross.

Barbara West, Mark Edwards Exchange Vows

In a double ring ceremony July 31 at the First Baptist Church in Kerrville, Miss Barbara Sue West became the bride of Mark Daniel Edwards.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grady Abner West, Kerrville, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Truett Edwards, Lytle.

The Rev. Ralph Reasor, pastor, read the vows before an altar decked with spiral and fan candelabra accented with flowers, candles and foliage.

Traditional wedding music was played by Mrs. Ralph Reasor. Soloist Brownie Johnston sang "I Love Thee" and "At Dawning." George Evelyn sang the closing prayer, "Eternal Life."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an empire A-line floor length gown of imported organza. Re-embroidered lace formed the yoke, bishop sleeves and scoop neck, accented by tiny seed pearls. Matching lace formed the border on the skirt of the gown and detachable train. The imported English illusion veil was held by a modified bonnet cap of lace accented by seed pearls and tiny crystal beads. She carried an antique fan base of La Rubrum lillies with white sweetheart roses.

Virginia Howard, Kerrville, was maid of honor, and Bonnie Thompson, Kerrville, and Margie McNorton were bridesmaids. Amy Karen West, Austin, niece of the bride, was flower girl and Trey West, Austin, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

The bridesmaids wore floor length empire line of pink nylon sheer, with lace forming the bodice sleeves and panel back. Narrow pink ribbon with daisies were the headpiece. The young ladies carried old-fashioned ballerine bouquets of white daisies with pink sweetheart roses.

Serving the groom as best man was Jim Johnston, Alpine. Groomsmen were Madison School, Azale, and Randy Edwards, brother of the groom.

Ushers were Bobby Peschel and James Collins of Kerrville.

A garden reception was held at the Grady West home. The garden was accented with hanging geranium baskets and hurricane lights.

The bride's table was laid with an embroidered silk organza cloth and held antique candelabra, assorted flowers and the three-tiered wedding cake.

The groom's table was laid with hand-embroidered gold Irani cloth, antique gold candelabra, and an assortment of gold and bronze flowers and a German chocolate cake.

Those in the houseparty were Miss Mary Perkins, Eastland; Miss Kay Bowers, Lockhart; Miss Susan Stebbins, San Antonio; Miss Nancy Reasor; Miss Jackie Hartsfield; Mrs. Bob Ridgeway, Mrs. Ruth Thompson, Mrs. Leslie Sherman and Mrs. Opal Leatherman, all of Kerrville.

The bride's mother wore a gown of Dusty Rose Desire silk with yoke and short sleeves of re-embroidered cutwork, matching accessories and coiffure flowers. The groom's mother wore a pastel green dress of Desire silk and corsage of pink carnations.

Out of town guests were from San Antonio, Lytle, Prentiss, Rockport, Azle, Austin and Dallas.

The bride attended Tivy High School and Baylor University. The groom attended Lytle High School, Howard Payne College and Southwest Seminary in Fort Worth.

The bride wore a beige ensemble with matching accessories for her going away attire. They will make their home in Azale, Texas.

NOTICE

The Good Neighbor Club will meet on Wednesday, Aug. 26 at the IOOF Hall. Hostesses for the July meeting were Estle Turner and Bessie Edgar.

Report on Cemetery

Mrs. Myra Allen, president of the Rockport Cemetery Association, reports that: "The Rockport Cemetery is in bad condition due to the hurricane. I have tried to get labor to help clear it but it is impossible to hire anyone at present. "I hope the people will understand that houses and business buildings, roofs and other repairs to structures damaged by the hurricane must be taken care of at once in order to save the interiors of these structures. "So please bear with us and we assure you that the cemetery will be cleared and cleaned as soon as we can secure the labor to do so."

Forts Trail

AUSTIN—Historic forts and missions throughout Texas have long been a source of pride and a challenge to those Texans who have worked for their preservation. Their dedication is the establishment of the Texas Forts Trail.

The 608-mile journey passes through the counties of Brown, Coke, Comanche, Eastland, Erath, Jack, Jones, Mason, McCullough, Menard, Palo Pinto, Runnels, San Saba, Schleicher, Shackelford, Taylor, Throckmorton, Tom Green and Young.

Research shows that 70 to 80 per cent of a national sample of vacationers indicated they are primarily interested in the presence of historic sites in planning their vacation.

Forts listed on the trail are Fort Richardson in Jacksboro, Fort Belknap in Young County near Newcastle, Fort Griffin north of Albany, Fort Phantom Hill north of Abilene, Fort Chadbourne in Coke County, Fort Concho in San Angelo, Fort McKavett near Menard and Fort Mason near Mason.

Fort Richardson, located at the south end of Depot Street in downtown Jacksboro, was built in 1867 as the most northerly in a chain of military posts occupied by the U. S. Cavalry to halt Indian raids. During the 1870s Fort Richardson was occupied by Gen. Ronald McKenzie and was the largest military post in the United States from 1870-1873. It was abandoned in 1878.

The Forts Trail follows U.S. 281 southward to Mineral Wells, a noted health resort which became nationally famous because of its mineral baths. Several splendid lakes are nearby — Mineral Wells, Palo Pinto and Possum Kingdom.

U.S. 180 and U.S. 80 are used to route the Forts Trail through Metcalf Gap, on to Ranger, past Lake Leon and to Comanche via State Highway 16. Comanche is noted for its production of peanuts, Burks Museum and Proctor Reservoir on the Leon River.

Fort Mason, built in 1851, lies one mile north of Mason at the junction of U.S. 377 and 87. The fort was well established in 1855 and used to quell attacks by Comanche, Kiowa and Lipan-Apache Indians. The fort was closed by the Army in 1869.

Leaving Mason, the Forts Trail travels State 29 to Menard and nearby Fort McKavett, located 18 miles west on State Highway 29 and seven miles south on Farm Road 864. This fort contains 17 buildings that are not in rubble.

The Forts Trail follows State Highway 29 to the junction with Farm Road 2084 leading northward to San Angelo. Fort Concho is located within the city. Built about 1871, it was first occupied by part of the 4th Cavalry from Fort Chadbourne which had been abandoned because of water supply failure. Fort Concho was finally ordered abandoned in 1889.

The community which became San Angelo actually grew up around Fort Concho. Today, it is one of the largest primary wool markets in the United States and also home of Goodfellow Air Force Base, Angelo State College, Lake Nasworthy and a pair of reservoirs—Twin Buttes and San Angelo.

Fort Chadbourne is located in northeastern Coke County, 12 miles northeast of Bronte. The fort was established in October, 1852, for the 8th U.S. Cavalry. The land is in private ownership. Some of the original buildings are still standing.

Fort Phantom Hill is 14 miles north of Abilene although very few buildings remain. It was established in 1851 and served as an important link in the frontier defense that reached from the Red River to the Rio Grande. The site was also used as a station on the Butterfield Overland mail route.

Next stop is Albany, reached by Farm Road 2883 out of Abilene and U.S. 180. Fifteen miles north of Albany on U.S. 283 stands Fort Griffin, now a state historical park and home of the state-owned herd of longhorn cattle. Fort Griffin was established in 1867 to replace Fort Belknap, which was being abandoned. Fort Griffin and its troops played an active role in campaigns against the Indians on the Staked Plains of the Texas Panhandle. The fact was abandoned in the spring of 1881.

U.S. 283 leaves Albany and runs northward to lead Forts Trail travelers to Throckmorton. State High 24 goes eastward to Graham, Lake Graham and the vicinity of Newcastle, where Fort Belknap is located. This fort was established in 1851 and is situated three miles south of Newcastle in Young County. The fort is owned by the county and is within a 20-acre county recreational and historical park. Fort Belknap was one of the largest military posts in North Texas prior to the Civil War. The fort was abandoned once in 1859, reoccupied by the Army in 1867, but abandoned again the same year. Belknap, the first county seat of Young County, grew up around the fort.

CLAY McKEE DIES

Funeral services were held Aug. 13 at St. Peter's Episcopal Church for Clay McKee, 40, who died Aug. 12 at his home following a short illness. Burial was in Rockport Cemetery, with Marshall Funeral Home of Aransas Pass in charge of arrangements.

McKee was born in Washington, D.C., and had lived in the Rockport area for the past 2½ years. He was retired from the U.S. Air Force and was a member of St. Peter's Episcopal Church.

Survivors include his wife, Henrietta; three children and one sister, Mrs. Vicky Pruczinski of Florida.

Camper-Trailer Park Being Built

The Coastal Bend's first nationally-franchised campground began construction this week here as ground was broken for the Ancient Oaks Campground of America (KOA).

Phase 1 of this project, which will cost approximately $200,000, will include 104 camper or trailer sites, all with full hook-ups, water, electricity and sewer connections. All spaces will be drive-through.

In the administration building there will be a grocery store, laundry, bathroom and showers, and a recreational room. Other attractions will be a swimming pool, horse-shoes and badminton, and a softball field.

The KOA is being built by Mrs. Frances W. Beckman, William H. Brown, Robert E. Conwell and Robert G. Finke. Ed Kiely will be director of the development and general manager.

The site is located on a 22-acre tract just off Highway 35 in the city limits. To citizens of Aransas County it is generally referred to as the Pony Pasture. Only 10 acres will be used in the initial development.

KOA campgrounds are built according to rigid restrictions and are checked periodically to see that the operator follows the procedures they outline.

KOA has planned a vast advertising campaign for the Rockport area.

Hurricane Brought Out Humanitarianism

Hurricane Celia did a lot of damage here but she also brought out the humanitarianism in people.

Every day, examples are seen of individuals and organizations helping those in need. It is commonplace for a completely unsolicited and unexpected act of generosity to occur.

Here's just one example: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cook live here. Cook is a retired railroad man who subscribes to the Military Railway Service Veterans newspaper and occasionally submits an item.

The publication is edited by Mr. and Mrs. R. Elmo Godley of Vicksburg, Miss., whom the Cooks have never met.

This week Cook received a check for $20 and the following letter from Mr. and Mrs. Godley:

"Almost a year ago we were entirely wiped out by Hurricane Camille. Our friends were very kind to us and we would never have been able to survive the first few months after the hurricane if it had not been for their kindness and consideration.

"We have no idea of your circumstances, but from what we see on television and read in the papers it must be pretty awful. We would like you to accept this gift—for yourself—or if you do not need it I know that you will find someone who does need it.

"You will find in the months to come that the Red Cross and the Small Business Administration will give you lots of help—and right now your local church will do much for you. Right now is when most folks need a helping hand.

"Our very sincerest sympathy to you and all of the folks in the path of Hurricane Celia. We hope your discomfort is not too great."

The Cooks turned the money over to Herman Johnson, Civil Defense Director, who presented it to one of the national organizations helping local people who suffered from the hurricane.

G.I. FORUM TO REBUILD HALL

The Rockport American G.I. Forum Hall was completely demolished by Hurricane Celia, thus temporarily canceling all events such as dances and other activities for the time being.

A spokesman for the G.I. Forum said that the organization definitely plans to rebuild and that an application already has been placed with the Small Business Administration for a low-interest loan.

Hunting, Fishing Licenses Shipped To Distributors

Austin — The Texas Parks and Wildlife Department is distributing the 1970 dove maps to help prospective hunters prepare for the season on white-wing and mourning doves starting in September.

The maps will be available this week from license deputies, Department regional and field offices, or from Department headquarters in Austin.

For regulatory purposes, the state again has been divided into a North Zone and a South Zone. The North Zone mourning dove season is Sept. 1 to Oct. 30. The South Zone mourning dove season is Sept. 26 to Nov. 24, except in those counties having a whitewing season where it will be Sept. 5 and 6, Sept. 12 and 13, and Sept. 26 to Nov. 30.

Shooting hours in all counties will be 12 noon to sunset.

The Department map clearly indicates by shading the South Texas counties which a white wing season this year, and it also shows the protected "buffer zone" for whitewings along the Rio Grande in Starr County and a portion of Hidalgo County.

Whitewings may be hunted in 21 counties only on Sept. 5-6 and 12-13.

Daily bag limit for both species is 10 birds, with a possession limit of 20. Bag limits of both white-winged and mourning doves may be taken in the counties having a whitewing season Sept. 5-6 and 12-13.

The map also reminds sportsmen that no hunting is permitted in game refuges, state and federal parks, game reserves, within corporate city limits or from public roads or road rights of way.

The retention of one fully-feathered wing on dressed doves is required in those counties having whitewing season when both mourning and white-winged doves may be taken. This requirement also applies when doves are imported from Mexico or any foreign country.

Shotguns must be plugged permanently to three-shell capacity and may not be larger than 10 gauge. Rifles are prohibited.

The closed area is south and west of a line extending along U.S. Highway 83 from the Starr-Zapata County line to Mission, from Mission to the north city limits of Hidalgo via FM 1016 and FM 2926 during the concurrent whitewing and mourning season.

Early Teal Season Set Again This Year

AUSTIN — Texas shotguns again will be able to test their shooting eyes on the sporty teal this September as the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department has authorized continuation of the early teal season throughout the state.

The season will be Sept. 12-20, from sunrise to sunset, with an aggregate limit of four per day of bluewing or cinnamon teal. Possession limit is eight.

The special early season is held to provide a harvest of the birds which traditionally migrate south earlier than other waterfowl. The bluewings in particular are early, passing through Texas on their way to South America from mid-August through September.

Although the teal season has been set by the Commission, official action on regulations for this year's seasons on other duck species, geese and sandhill cranes will not be taken until the Aug. 19 Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission meeting.

Hunters need no special permit to participate in the early season, but a 1970-71 Texas hunting license is required if hunting outside the country of residence. Non-resident hunters should have a non-resident hunting license or a five day migratory bird license. Federal duck stamps also are a requirement for all duck hunters.

We Are Proud

To Be Part of the Rockport Community

Hurricane Celia certainly "tried the souls of men." Yet this community met the test of adversity with courage, fortitude and good cheer. Now, two weeks later, Rockport is rapidly resuming its normal way of life.

Generally, it is "business as usual" with almost all local stores serving their customers with efficiency and courtesy.

Despite the vicious onslaught of Hurricane Celia, First National Bank has continued its 90 year tradition of financial service to this community.

We remained open for business until noon Monday, August 3, shortly before Celia struck. And we were serving our friends and customers again the next morning at our regular opening hour.

It takes more than a hurricane to seriously interrupt our 90 years of service to this community.

The Kinsey Report

My wife and I took a drive Sunday afternoon and wound up at the Big Tree in Goose Island State Park. We got out and walked around, admiring the famous tree and expressing gratitude that it was not damaged by the hurricane.

Two couples drove up. One of the men explained that they were from out of town and asked if I would use their camera and take a picture of them standing in front of the tree. I was glad to do so and hope the picture turns out O.K.

We introduced ourselves and the visitors said they were amazed at the outstanding job being done in the Rockport area to clean up hurricane debris, make repairs, rebuild demolished structures and put things back in shape—quickly.

They were expressing what I believe everyone feels: that a truly remarkable job has been done and is being done. The local folks, individual residents and the authorities, pitched in and worked hard and are still working hard.

Outside help came fast—from governmental agencies from utility companies, from such organizations as the Red Cross and Salvation Army and others.

A little thing like Celia can't score a knockout punch on the Rockport-Fulton-Lamar area. People who live here and visit here really love this area, and the good life is returning fast.

From Pat Nixon, I received the following note and joke: "I was helping my wife clean out an old chest that had been stored away for some time, and came across a joke written in longhand. I typed it and am enclosing it for you to use if you ever have occasion."

The joke goes like this: One day in 1917 a man took a pair of shoes to a cobbler to be half-soled. The next day the man was inducted into the Army, went overseas, helped win the war, came home, married, raised seven children, survived the great depression, served in World War II, weathered inflation and taxes, and in 1963 decided to retire.

He sold his house and as he and his wife were cleaning out the attic, he found the suit he was wearing just before being inducted in World War I. In a pocket was the ticket for the pair of shoes he had forgotten.

The next day he went to the address on the ticket and, to his surprise, the shoe repair shop was still there. He went inside and handed the ticket to the girl at the counter. She stared at it, then took it to a wizened little man in the rear of the shop. He looked at the ticket quizzically, and then came to the front of the shop. "Is this your ticket?" he asked.

The customer nodded. "Are these your shoes?" the repairman inquired. Another nod.

Then the little repairman looked at the ticket and said, "Okay, your shoes will be ready tomorrow."

Letter to the Editor

In reading the names of people in the Pilot last week who were given thanks for great jobs done during Celia, we at Key Allegro think Buddy McLeister deserves being named.

His time and efforts on the island before and during the hurricane, and afterwards his time on the bridge were fantastic. He was really appreciated.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brust Key Allegro Isle.

NATURE TRAILS

By
CONNIE HAGAR

"Life is a series of todays which go quickly into yesterdays."

—Esther York

And now we are in our "turning time." Just "walk tall and keep our shoulders square."

Today a few beat-down sunflowers have started the upward look; so can we. A few oleanders have the fresh green look and the palms not blown over are holding their heads high, showing a green cluster of fronds. Let us hold an upward look for the world to see. Don't droop down.

How kind other towns have been, sending men to assist telephone people and CP&L folks, and wasn't power to our area beautiful?

Dear friends, think back on our ancestors. They made our country without all the advantages we feel are necessary. Let us not complain; just share the things we have with those who do not have the comforts left us.

The Pilot was correct in the quotation it published. To me, God is a spirit, and all is spiritual. Thank you, Pilot folks, you held your head high and carried on. How everyone appreciates having a paper.

Soon nature will send little green sprouts, green leaves and blossoms up to greet us. Let's all put on our best smiles and keep going for the good of all.

Today as I looked, what did I see? My trees have small green buds showing, a few lilies in bloom. Black skimmers are in large numbers at the beach, great blue herons, little snowy egrets, killdeer by the road, a few laughing gulls flying again.

Just look, look, look and see nature adjusting as fast as we must.

Debora McLead, Raulie Irwin, Jr. Say Vows

and white and yellow satin streamers tied in love knots.

Miss Margie McNorton was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Misses Mary Pat Wallis, Joan Mixon, Lenora Irwin, sister of the groom, and Joy Kathleen McLead, sister of the bride. Their gowns were of satin peau de soie with an empire bodice and A-line skirt. They were worn with sheer ponchos which extended to floor length in the back, bound in satin to match the gowns. Headaddresses were large sheer bows. The gowns were in purple, coral, lime green, hot pink and turquoise, respectively, and each girl carried a nosegay of flowers in these colors, with long satin streamers tied in love knots.

Miss Holly Heinsohn was the bride's flower girl. Her dress was of printed voile in the colors of the bridesmaid's gowns, with a lace apron and velvet sash.

John Michael McLain was the ring bearer.

The groom's attendants were Allen Cessac, best man, and Bob Huff, Kenny Browning, Mike McLead, the bride's brother, and Danny Cocozza, groomsmen.

Ushers for the ceremony were Pat McLead, brother of the bride, and her cousins, Stephen and David Kinsey.

Mrs. C. A. Benson, Sr., presided at the guest register.

The bride's mother chose a dress of blue silk with rhinestone accents and wore a corsage of pink roses.

Special guests for the ceremony were the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Johnson and the groom's grandmother, Mrs. Ed Kelly.

The church was decorated with wrought iron candelabra and baskets of yellow spider mums and purple asters, with accents of greenery. Single wrought iron candelabra marked the pews. The platform was centered with a table holding three candles, two of which were lighted, representing the homes of the bride and groom. At the close of the ceremony, the bride and groom took their respective family candles and together lit the center candle, symbolizing the joining of two homes into their new one.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church fellowship hall. The bride's table was laid in white with a net flounce, and trimmed with sprigs of purple statice and satin streamers. A gold and crystal epergne held an arrangement of yellow roses, purple statice and greenery, with white tapers. The bride's cake was white, in two tiers, trimmed with purple and yellow roses, small clusters of grapes and turtle doves, and topped with satin wedding bells. The groom's table was laid in pale yellow, with a white net flounce, and centered with a pair of white bisque turtle doves and varicolored nosegays. Other appointments were in silver. The groom's cake was a double wedding ring, with pale yellow roses for decoration. The bride's aunt, Mrs. J. D. Kinsey was in charge of the reception, assisted by Mrs. Z. T. Washburn, Mrs. Ben Howard, Mrs. R. W. Landrum, Mrs. Jack Colley, Miss Jean Roundtree and Mrs. Ed Cessac. Serving in the houseparty were Misses Rose Ann Elliot, Denise Washburn, and Connie Kelly, and Mesdames A. C. Webb, Lonnie Wright and L. M. Dyson, Jr., bags were passed by Cynthia Kinsey, Pam Colley and Melinee Landrum.

For traveling, the bride wore a deep salmon pants suit of double knit, with white accessories and a corsage of salmon gladioli centered with white rose buds. After a wedding trip to Monterrey and Horsetail Falls, Mexico, the couple will be at home in Bryan, Texas, where the groom will be a senior student at Texas A&M.

The bride and groom are both graduates of Rockport-Fulton High School and attended Texas A&I University at Kingsville, where Irwin was a member of Delta Sigma Pi fraternity.

Taxpayers Ask IRS

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U.S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q—I occasionally entertain customers by taking them on a fishing trip. Can I deduct anything for the cost of operating my boat?

A—If the boat was used more than 50 per cent for business, a portion of your costs of operating the boat, such as depreciation, repairs and general operating expenses, may be taken as a business expense. Records showing the date of usage, date of each business use, number of persons entertained and similar information must be kept to establish that the boat was used more than 50 per cent for business use.

Q—Can you lose your tax deduction for a business trip overseas if you take a vacation at the same time?

A—It is possible for your deduction to be less on a combined business and pleasure trip overseas.

Under certain circumstances, the cost of travel, including meals and lodging, to the place of the business meeting and back to the taxpayer's home will not be allowed in full as a business deduction because those expenditures would be allocated between the business and vacation portions of the trip.

Rules for handling business deductions in these circumstances are explained in Publication No. 463, "Travel, Entertainment and Gift Expenses," available free at all IRS offices.

Symptoms You Can See

Lost Parakeet Found, San Antonian Happy

A lady came into the office of the Rockport Pilot Aug. 12 and placed the following ad: "LOST: Parakeet, yellow male, answers to name of Sonny Boy, lost between Copano Causeway and South Rockport. Daughter heart-broken. Reward. Call collect: 924-6826, San Antonio."

The lady explained that she and her family were leaving immediately for San Antonio and she sure hoped the ad would do some good.

Later the same day, Mrs. Garvin Mitchell of 618 Laurel heard a bird making "strange sounds" in her yard. She went outside and saw a parakeet on a branch, singing happily.

"I put out my hand, called to him, and the parakeet came right over and perched on my hand," Mrs. Mitchell said. "I assumed he was somebody's pet, so I walked slowly into the house and deposited the parakeet in the bathroom for safekeeping. Then I fed him and gave him water."

At this time—one day before the Pilot was published—Mrs. Mitchell did not know who the bird belonged to, but the next day she read the Pilot ad and called the San Antonio number.

A Mrs. Slazer answered and was gratified to hear the news of Sonny Boy being found. The next morning Mrs. Slazer and her daughter arrived and retrieved the parakeet. Mrs. Slazer said her daughter didn't sleep a wink the night before.

Mrs. Mitchell refused to accept any reward, explaining that her reward was seeing the happiness of the little girl and mother in being reunited with Sonny Boy.

The average American's income increased $269 in 1969, according to the Department of Commerce.

Those three words, says the American Cancer Society, sum up prevention of skin cancer. If exposure to the sun can't be helped, use a screening lotion or wear a hat and long-sleeved shirt.

Florida will spend $3 million to train new highway patrolmen.

Miss Alva Henley, Dr. James Courtney Wed In Galveston

Miss Alva Evelyn Henley, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Adolphus I. Henley and former elementary music supervisor in the schools here, became the bride of Dr. James Louis Courtney, son of Mrs. Maiese Carr, in a ceremony Saturday at Reedy Chapel AME Church in Galveston.

The bride's father performed the nuptial ceremony and Adolphus I. Henley, Jr., gave his sister in marriage. Richard Gayden, sister of the bride, who sang, and Mrs. Roy Collins, organist.

A formal gown by Alfred Angelo of white silk organza and Chantilly lace was worn by the bride. An empire silhouette, the bodice was fashioned with a high neckline. Chantilly lace was applied in two bands down the front and back of the bodice and A-line skirt. The sheer bishop sleeves were of silk organza overlaid with lace, and the hemline was also banded with lace.

Satin ribbon encircled the bodice and ended in a bow in the back where an attached train created by a crescendo of tiny gathers flower into a full chapel train edged with lace.

That's Tricky!

Have you noticed how sharply competitive beer advertising is getting these days? For instance, one brand claims that if you don't have their beer, you don't have any beer at all.

That's tricky. It could mean that all the others went first. But, just in case it means that nobody else brews a real premium beer, that's wrong.

Lone Star does. A darn good one. It was the first premium beer ever brewed in the Southwest. Lone Star. And there's nothing tricky about it.
