Grant Application

Law Enforcement Plan in Austin

The county's grant application in the amount of $49,588 to set up a consolidate police agency for the city and county is now being processed by the Criminal Justice Council of the Executive Department in Austin.

County Judge Zook Thomas received this information Tuesday, July 27, from Hugh W. McLeland, director, planning co-ordination and grant administration of the CJC.

The application was reviewed by the Panhandle Regional Planning Commission in its meeting Wednesday, July 21, and found to be consistent with regional goals and policies and compatible with PRPC multi-year plans, Ernest R. Clark executive director, also notified Judge Thomas.

It was then sent to the Joe Frazier Brown, executive director of the Criminal Justice Council in Austin with a recommendation from Judge C.L. Abernathy, Criminal Justice Co-ordinator for PRPC.

Judge Abernathy worked with county and city officials on the consolidated law enforcement program, which would be the first in the Panhandle and second in the West Texas. Hardeman county and Quanah presently have this plan in operation.

There will be an art exhibit, featuring artists who have at one time lived in the Loco-Arlie area, as well as books by former residents.

Hosts this year are Judge Glenn W. Thompson and his wife, Naome Hunt Thompson of Farwell, Edna Copeland Crow and Edith Copeland Carter of Hollis.

A more detailed program will be announced next week.

Vaccine Administered To Horses in County

Approximately 750 horses have been vaccinated for Venezuelan Equine Encephalomyelitis and the program is nearly complete in so far as Collingsworth is concerned, County Agent Don Reeves reported shortly before noon Tuesday, July 27. "We had tremendous co-operation from the owners and this brought out more horses than we had any idea were in the county," he declared.

Committee Heads for County Fair Named

Committee heads and initial arrangements for the 1971 Collingsworth County Fair were announced following a planning meeting held Friday, July 23.

Early arrangements indicate several major changes.

Jack Neeley, overall chairman, made the announcements. He was named to that place a short time ago to fill a vacancy created when Donald Nunnely moved away. Don Welch was appointed assistant chairman.

The Fair dates are Friday and Saturday, September 10 and 11, and Fair Week will start Labor Day, Monday September 6.

The major change is the relocation of the week-long carnival to the 1500 block between 8th and 9th streets. The only business on the block is C.E. Caldwell Real Estate, and it is used in the fall by the Farmers Co-op Gin for parking.

The carnival formerly was on or near the square.

As in the past, a big parade will open the two day fair, and this will be the only time that any of the downtown streets will be roped off, according to Mrs. Margaret Vines, Chamber of Commerce secretary.

Location of Fair events, except the carnival, will be Bura Handley Community Center, the American Legion Hall, Soil Conservation Service show barn and Livestock show barn.

Heading the agricultural and horticultural crops and community products division is Duane Scott, long-time agricultural experiment assistant. Working with him will be County Agent Don Reeves and the vocational ag teachers, Rodney Myrick of Wellington, Doyle Messer of Quail and Jimmy Brown of Samnorwood.

There will be two divisions in the livestock show, beef cattle and swine. Monty Mitchell of Quail heads the swine division, which will be held in the stock show building in the 700 block of Amarillo Street.

Mr. Reeves will be in charge of the beef cattle show, and this will be in the Soil Conservation Service show barn immediately behind that office. A beef heifer division will be returned to the calf show this year.

Ag teachers will assist in both divisions.

Mrs. Cecil Masten heads the women's open division. Assisting her in four divisions will be:

Baked products: Mrs. Joe Terry, Mrs. R.T. Savage and Mrs. Ozro Bartlett; food preservation: Mrs. C.E. Hightower, Mrs. T.J. Bowling and Mrs. Jake Meadows.

Textile furnishings: Mrs. Henry Langford, Miss Inez Clement and Mrs. Dudley Phipps; and clothing: Mrs. Jess Motsembocker, Mrs. Harold Caldwell and Mrs. Jack Colson.

The girls division will be in charge of Mrs. Leo Popwell, assisted by the homemaking teachers, Mrs. P.M. Scott of Wellington, Miss Judy Barber of Samnorwood and a teacher to be named at Quail.

Ritz Theater Now Open to Public

Mr. McConnell emphasized that the Ritz will be operated as a family theatre.

Mrs. Gorman Owens has been named manager for the Ritz; Mrs. Charlotte Cleveland is cashier; Linda Mitchell and Nancy Shumate operate the concession stand; Dickie Judd is projectionist and Trinidad Cantu is custodian.

Leaner Pork Due On Family Table

STILLWATER — A new tool is being perfected to help the swine producer put a higher percentage of lean pork on your table.

It's the K-40 counter which also shows promise in research to select lean beef animals.

"Based on studies to date, the counter looks quite promising for swine," says Dr. I. T. Omtvedt of Oklahoma State University.

"Most of the improvement in the swine industry has been in taking the fat off," Omtvedt says. "Now, when we want to increase the lean and keep the fat constant, this tool should be helpful."

The K-40 counter measures potassium in live animals. This reading gives a dependable indication of fat-free lean. Swine with the highest percentage of lean will produce leaner offspring.

For testing hogs, researchers at OSU's Agricultural Experiment Station have moved the counter's detector "logs". Instead of the 14 used to test beef animals, six have been arranged in a smaller area for swine testing.

"We're getting closer and closer to an ideal measurement on live animals," Omtvedt says in discussing methods used to check animals fat and lean. A simpler and less expensive live-animal measurement the backfat probe, also has proved a useful tool for selecting outstanding hogs. While not as good an indicator of muscling as the K-40 counter, it can be used to evaluate differences.

"You see, you can eyeball the difference between a real fat animal and a lean one," Omtvedt explains. "When you get down to relatively lean pigs you really can't tell the difference by looking."

Using such tools as the K-40 counter and the backfat probe on the live animals is superior to using carcass data.

"Measuring lean on the breeding animal is much more valuable than slaughtering litter mates or other relatives," he says. "They aren't a perfect indicator of what he is. So this is more accurate than carcass data."

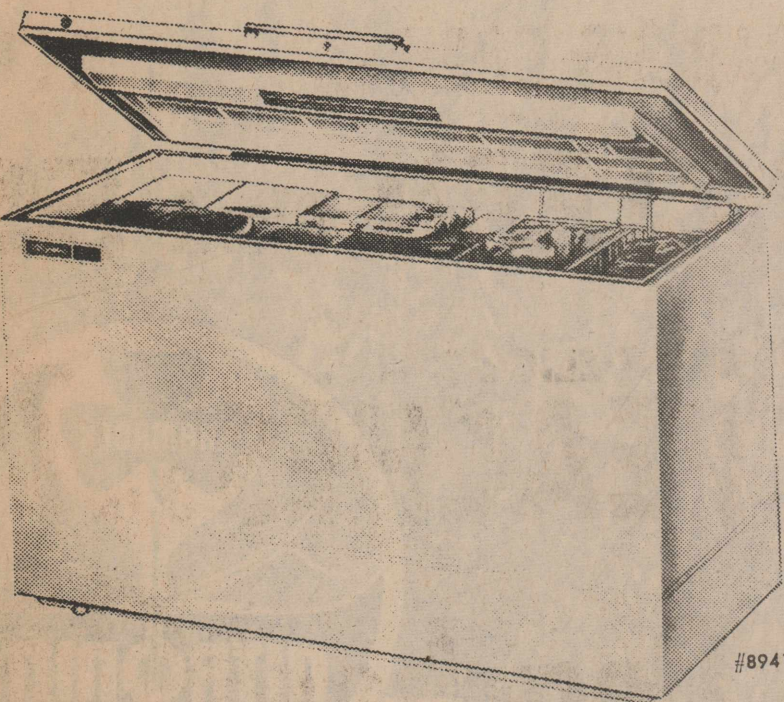

The K-40 counter is being

Fourteen County 4-H Club Girls Receive Bake Show Instruction

Fourteen 4-H girls met on Thursday July 22 at the Greenbelt Clubroom for their annual bake show training meeting.

This year the bake show products will be plain yeast dinner rolls and pound cake. The purpose of the bake show is to help 4-H members learn the nutritional value of bread and cereal in the diets as well as the skills of planning, preparing and scoring these products, Mrs. Leta Hill, home demonstration agent, pointed out.

The County Bake Show will be held Friday, August 13, and will be held in the home demonstration agent's office in the courthouse.

There the County Bake Queen will be crowned. She will be selected by points. The 4-H girl that scores the highest out of 225 points will be crowned queen. Each product counts 100 points and the record counts 25 points.

Any plain pound cake recipe using whole eggs and baked in a loaf pan or tube pan can be used. The cake cannot be iced. The yeast rolls can be plain or clover leaf rolls. No additional fruit, nuts or spices will be permitted.

Any girl in the county that is interested in entering products in the bake show may do so. Come by the home demonstration agent's office for further details.

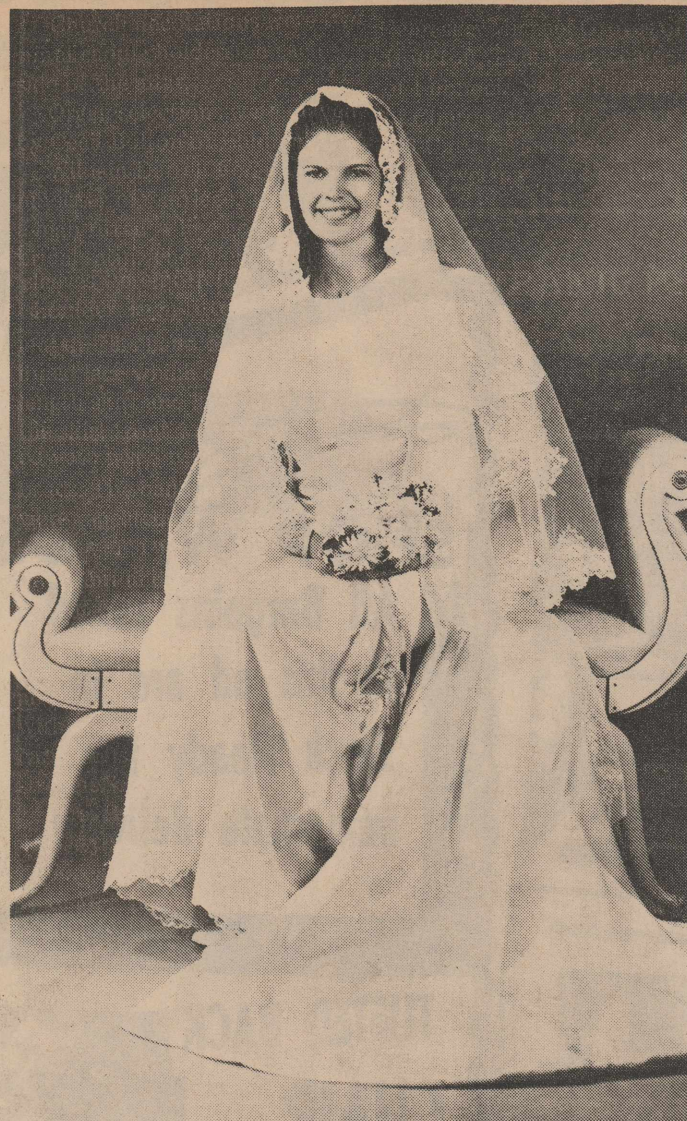

Mrs. Bill Colson, 4-H Food and Nutrition leader demonstrated making yeast rolls. The agent, with the help of the girls, made a loaf pound cake. Then each girl learned to judge yeast rolls and cakes containing fat.

Those attending the training were Penny Morgan, Jeanne Morris, Kathleen Reeves, Kathy Motes, Susan Kimbro, Verna Rudy, Pam Shumate Sonya Scott, DiAnna Schaub, Debra Stallings, Glenda Norman, Pam Vines, Debra Wood and Robin Amonett.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Leach last week were his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Don Leach and son, Jim, of Andrews. It was the first time they had vacationed here in about 8 years.

MRS. WILLIAM Q RICHARDS

Vows Spoken at Paducah Sunday by Regina Ferguson, Willian Q Richards

Miss Regina Juandola Ferguson became the bride of William Q Richards in a ceremony performed at three o'clock Sunday afternoon, July 25, in the First United Methodist Church at Paducah. The Rev. Phil Widmer, Pastor, officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Tom William Ferguson, 1410 El Paso Street, and the late Mr. Ferguson. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. T.J. Richards, Guthrie Route, Paducah.

Church decorations were two spiral candleholders on each side of the altar.

Organ selections were played by Cecil Bolton of Lubbock.

William Darrell Ferguson gave his sister in marriage. She wore a high-fitted A-line gown of bridal satin. The Alencon lace sleeves were puffed at the shoulder, then fitted to wrist length. The band of the scalloped lace which edged the floor-length skirt and lace motifs on the skirt front were embroidered with weed pearls and crystal beads. The banding and motifs were repeated on the chapel train, which was attached to the side front and finished with a bow at center back. Her veil was a mantilla of illusion and she carried a bouquet which was an orchid atop a White Bible, with a cascade of feathered carnations and narrow satin streamers.

Mrs. Rodney Parker of Denver City was the matron of honor, and the bridesmaids were Mrs. Ronnie Vaughan of Monhans, Mrs. Jim Sweeney of Paducah and the bride's cousins, Miss Charlotte Mock of Amarillo and Miss Elizabeth Ferguson of Maida, North Dakota.

Their dresses of pale lilac sheer were made with high waistlines and slightly gathered floor-length skirts. The bodices were finished with bands at the neck and long fitted sleeves while their open crown picture hats were of matching material and lace, with long purple streamers. They carried bouquets of lilac and purple asters, tied with satin streamers. Stanley Ballard of Terrell was the best man, while ushers were Jerald Pipkin of Omaha, Nebraska, Michael Groves of Houston, Tom M. Richards of Lubbock, Steve Thompson of Conroe, and Jim Sweeney and Gary Park of Paducah.

National Four-H Dress Revue Turns Dreams into Reality

Every young girl dreams of being a storybook princess with a prince charming gazing at her in admiration.

And 51 young ladies may bring their dreams to reality in Chicago later this year. Representing their home state and Puerto Rico, each will glide across the stage in self-created ensembles at the 1971 National 4-H Dress Revue.

The event climaxes a year's activity in which more than 350,000 4-H girls have participated in county and state dress revues conducted by the Cooperative Extension Service. Theme of the 1971 revue, sponsored by Simplicity for the 25th time, is Storybook Fashions.

With a "Prince Charming" to open the gala event and a "Fairy Godmother" to introduce the winners and describe their ensembles, the Conrad Hilton ballroom will become a virtual dream castle.

At the close of the 1971 National 4-H Dress Revue, six winners will be awarded $700 scholarships. Selection of the scholarship recipients will be made on the basis of their 4-H records, leadership and work in the dress revue program.

Leading to this national event, 4-H girls are expected to earn more than 26,000 medals of honor at county dress revues. The company, through the National 4-H Service Committee, also provides these awards and gives added support through assistance of its 4-H stylists and publications on modeling.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Campbell have returned from Fountain Valley, Calif., where they visited her brother, Mr. and Mrs. John Rose and family. They also visited Disneyland and the Queen Mary. Mrs. Rose will be remembered as Jo Norman of Quail. The Campbells returned by Fort Worth, where they visited a few days with their children, Mr. and Mrs. James Roy Fulcher and Mr. and Mrs. Duane Campbell.

enough green or red food coloring to give desired color to the pickles. Remove spice bag. Simmer while quickly packing one hot sterilized jar at a time. Fill to within 1/2 inch from the top. Be sure the vinegar solution covers the rind. Seal each jar at once.

When using pickles later on, be sure to keep the juices to use as a pleasing brush-on variation for barbecued chicken and turkey. Brush over meat minutes before serving, so the tart flavor doesn't have a chance to escape.

YARNS FOR FALL

No more fashion absolutes! Fall fabrics prove it. Yarns of all fibers will be made into chifons, denims, challis, and silk broadcloths. Cotton wool, silk and all the man-made fabrics will span the seasons. Fall has a variety of moods. You can choose from the ethnic, batik-inspired prints, natural looks, all important denims, country looks, tapestries and the quilts — all interpreted into a variety of fabrics for daytime and evening wear.

Cotton make the fall scene in muslins, soft twills, brushed denims, or embroideries. All-cotton tapestries will also be available, with a flat weave of a deep pile furry hand. Fashionable woolens will include the print on texture, softly brushed looks with a blanket feel and challis of paisley prints. Adding a new touch to the classic weaves will be metallic yarns.

And solids are still important in a fluffy jacquard weave that is machine washable.

Acrylic fabrics for fall come in tapestries, challis and a kitteny single knit. These fibers will be blended with wool and other synthetics. Keep an eye on the acrylics, as they have great growth potential.

A dimension of mystic beauty will in fall fabrics will be created with transparent nylons, sheer velvet and organza and silk chifons.

As for fall colors, they are clear and bright, blue, plum, pink, burgandy, terra cotta, papaya, green and red. Black, white, cream, and gray will be the great neutrals.

JUICY WATERMELON
Remember when you were little and a big chunk of red juicy watermelon seemed about the best part of a picnic?

You held a slice in your hands and took big bites. The juice would run down your chin, and when you got down to the bottom, the edges of the rind would be clear up by your ears! Well, I guess that's just about the very best way to enjoy this bright summer melon.

You know that kids love them! They are great to take along on picnics and cookouts, for what's better than a cool and refreshing dessert that won't melt?

Watermelons have been a favorite ever since they were used by ancient people as food and a source of water. The juicy melons are in great demand during the hot summer. June, July and August are their peak production months.

Texas is the largest producer of watermelons, producing 600 million pounds from 75,000 acres in 1970. Even though drouth conditions have stunted production for this year somewhat, Texas is still expected to lead with a total production of approximately 390 million pounds from 60,000 acres.

Watermelons are grown in most of Texas' 245 counties, but major production areas are in south, south central and east Texas. The luscious red-meated melons are abundant now, so stock up and keep plenty well chilled for the youngsters (and oldsters) in your house. They can also enjoy the rind, if you pickle it now for use this winter as an accompaniment to roast beef or other meat.

WATERMELON PICKLES
3 pounds prepared watermelon rind

2 pounds of sugar
2 cups white vinegar
2 tablespoons whole cloves
2 tablespoons allspice
6 3-inch cinnamon sticks
Canning jars and lids.

Use rind from firm, not over-ripe watermelon. Trim off outer green skin and pink flesh, allowing a very thin line of pink to show. Cut into 1 1/2 inch pieces. Soak overnight in salt water, using 3 tablespoons salt per quart water. Drain well. Cover with fresh water and cook until tender. Drain.

Heat sugar and vinegar to boiling. Add spices tied up in a cheesecloth bag. Add prepared watermelon rind.

Cook, uncovered, until rind turns transparent, about 15 minutes. (If desired, a few minutes before boiling time is up, add

Fast Action on VEE a Credit to Local Workers

Much credit is due the fast action of the men who carried out the VEE immunization program so completely in Collingsworth County. The Extension Service, area veterinarians, law enforcement officers and county horse owners, all acted with such co-operation that within another week, horses will be moving with considerable freedom.

The disappointment to rodeo and horse show fans and performers by the cancellation of these events is a small price to pay for the protection it gives.

Distance no longer gives immunity from disease to either humans or animals, and the speed with which it travels equals the movement of both, either locally or across national borders.

Besides the suffering and loss of horses that would undoubtedly have become infected here in the future, the VEE vaccine program has prevented economic loss and possible human infection in Collingsworth.

Whatever foot-dragging there may have been by the Agriculture Department in making the vaccine available in the United States, there was certainly none when it came down to the local level.

Other Editors Say . . .

Not as Nonchalant Over Apollo 15

Monday's Apollo 15 moon launch is not being approached with quite the nonchalance that has preceded other significant trips in the nation's space program.

The ill-fated Soyuz 11 mission of the Soviet Union remains in the minds of people here as well as in the U.S.S.R.

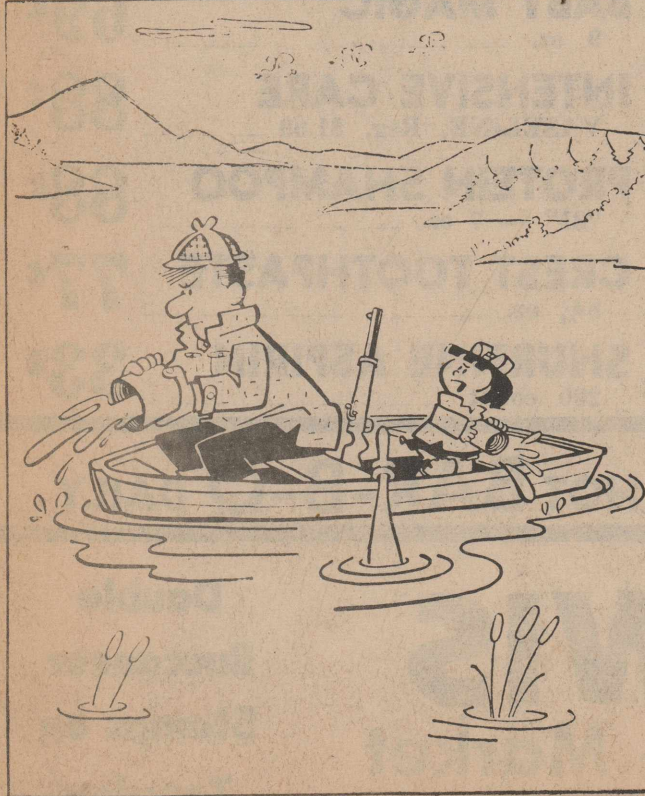

While the glamor of the space program is definitely diminished in the public mind and the drama of "first" flights does not extend to additional moon landings, there is developing for the Apollo 15 project, which contemplates a landing on the moon Friday, July 30, and an extended stay on the lunar surface for scientific information, unusual tension that might best be described as a "crossing the fingers" attitude.

However else the people of the United States feel about the space program, there is a continuing consciousness of the hazards and dangers involved for the Astronauts. From launch to moon landing to safe return to earth, there will be many moments of intensified feeling as especially hazardous stages of the roundtrip are reached.

It will be with greater interest, then, that the Apollo 15 launch is approached. By the same token, it will be with a more audible sigh of relief that the nation greets the conclusion of the mission.—The Wichita Falls Record-News.

The Breaks. In Fort Worth, two men going from store to store looking for work as window repairmen were arrested by policemen going from store to store investigating an epidemic of broken windows.—The Daily Standard, Sikeston, Md.

SWEETIE PIE

"Are you sure you were once a Navy man?"

But Look Who Gets the Girl

AUSTIN, Tex.—Back-to-school time isn't too far off for more than two million young Texans, and State Board of Education has approved a record $302.4 million statewide available school fund allotment.

Board set $121.90 as the state allocation for each pupil in public schools this year. Figure is based on the average daily attendance during 1970-71, or 2,479,400, although actual enrollment was over 2.7 million.

Local school districts may use their allocation to help pay annual operating expenses, including teacher salaries.

Available school fund draws investment earnings from the $835 million permanent school fund.

In other preparations for the upcoming school year, Board of Education also:

- * Approved an $887,500 contract with Southwest Educational Development Laboratory for a bilingual teaching program tailored for four-year-old children of Mexican-American farm workers. Ten bilingual specialists will work with 100 youngsters in McAllen and Hereford to develop an experimental project next school year and field test it in 1972-73.

* Approved a new accreditation plan to provide computer data to ward off developing weak points in school systems. Data will provide scientific analysis of information needed to decide which schools should be visited by accreditation teams. Such teams visit about 200 of more than 1,100 Texas school districts each year.

* Entered an agreement to link Texas Education Agency and U.S. Office of Education in a $1.8 million program to evaluate new special education pilot projects expected to have national impact on the teaching of handicapped children.

* Allocated $23.2 million to buy new textbooks (see below).

DISEASE SPREADS—A sleeping sickness-like disease spread among horses (and in a few humans) in the South Texas-Rio Grande Valley area.

CROSSROADS REPORT

Dear Editor :

There is considerable weeping and wailing in some places but not around here about the possibility that New York City may not be able to survive.

We're told that the town is broke, financially and morally, and its mayor is said to be looking around for another job, like maybe President.

And when the refugees from this semi-disaster area start swarming out across the country, it may take vast vigilante action to keep them from polluting every other city in the nation.

The Lord obviously put mosquitoes here to distribute malaria, encephalitis, etc., among the people, but He also put DDT here for us to fight the insects off with, if we ain't too lazy or stupid.

But the chronic boo-sayers hunting for something else to make people quit doing, have ruled DDT is a no-no. So mosquito-borne diseases are back in business.

My odds-playing neighbor says DDT may be hazardous to health but he would rather take his chances with it than with a dirty-billed mosquito or other insect that is careless about what he eats or walks on.

D.E. SCOTT
Crossroads, U.S.A.

U.S. Agriculture Department which originally had scheduled an experimental vaccine against Venezuelan Equine Encephalomyelitis in 13 counties, later released it statewide and slapped an embargo on Texas horses.

Later, a state Animal Health Commission order halted movement within state or out of state of horses not vaccinated at least 14 days earlier.

Several persons were hospitalized in Brownsville with VEE symptoms. Cases in horses increased sharply, though laboratory confirmation lagged behind discovery of symptoms.

Disease, described as "flu-like" among humans, is deadly to horses, and concern was expressed for the equine population. Emergency situation stopped all rodeos horses shows, race meets and other activities involving horses.

TEXTBOOKS AVAILABLE FOR REVIEW—Textbooks considered for 1972-73 school adoption can be looked over by interested citizens at 20 regional education service centers over the state.

Texas Education Agency, the largest single buyer of textbooks in the world, has $23.2 million available for the next school year. New books cost an average $8.10 for each of 2.7 million pupils. Proposed new textbooks can be reviewed at Edinburg, Corpus Christi, Victoria, Houston, Beaumont, Huntsville, Kilgore, Mount Pleasant, Wichita Falls, Richardson, Fort Worth, Waco, Austin, Abilene, San Angelo, Amarillo, Lubbock, Midland, El Paso, and San Antonio education service centers.

1.5 MILLION VOTERS?—Texas may have 1.5 million new voters in 1972 largely as a result of 18-21-year-olds becoming eligible for all elections, according to a state senator's forecast.

New law goes into effect September 1 which permits registration of a Texas voter for a three year period instead of annually as present. Registration will also be open year-around except for a 30-day cutoff before any election.

Dallas Sen. Mike McKool, author of the new registration law, sees youngsters as accounting for a large part of the 1.5 million increase in eligibility rolls and predicts they will vote as well as any age group.

AG OPINIONS—All Texas counties must adopt the jury wheel system and terminate selection of jury panels through use of commissions, Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin has held.

New state law providing for waiver of indictment in non-death-penalty cases is constitutional, Martin said in another opinion.

*Commissioner of Bureau of Labor Statistics has no authority to promulgate rules and regulations limiting the number of boxing and wrestling promoters in cities within certain population brackets.

*Bridge between Corpus Christi Bay and Gulf of Mexico adjacent to Mustang Island when accepted by Texas Highway Department becomes part of the state highway system.

*Comptroller of Public Accounts may issue a warrant to a contractor or seller of supplies and/or services purchased through State Board of Control without seller's certification of correctness of invoice (correcting an earlier opinion).

*Governor is authorized to make six appointments to Texas Board of Licensure for Nursing Home Administrators—two initial appointees to serve until Jan. 31, 1973, two until 1975 and two until 1977.

COURTS SPEAK—District judge in Midland ordered the lawsuit attacking constitutionality of the new Texas House of Representatives redistricting transferred to Austin where it may be tried this month.

Texas libraries were refunded nearly $500,000 as result of the Attorney General's price-fixing suit against children's book publishers.

Court of Criminal Appeals upheld a Texas 1969 statute on possession of LSD, but a new challenge was filed here on changes in the law this year.

Court again upheld sodomy PASS BIDS IN—A low bid of $1.4 million on the long-delayed second phase construction of a water exchange pass across Mustang Island apparently was submitted by Brown and Root Construction Inc. of Houston.

Brown and Root bid, including construction of a two-lane bridge across a 100-foot wide channel on Parks and Wildlife Department. Bids were studied before a recommendation on letting the contract.

Revenue from cigarette smoking jumped $3.2 million — to $18.9 million — from June 1970 to June 1971.

Wellington Men to Graduate at TSTI

AMARILLO—Among the 62 members of the first graduating class at Texas State Technical Institute will be four from Wellington: Mickey Carter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Carter; Bill Ferguson, son of Mrs. Tom Ferguson; Leslie Joe Cummings, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Cummings; and Joe Wood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Wood.

Members of the first-year program will graduate at 8 p.m. August 5 during ceremonies to be held in the TSTI Chapel, located on the southeast portion of the 1600-acre campus. Delivering the commencement address will be F.V. Wallace of Amarillo, a member of the TSTI Board of Regents, said Dr. J.N. Baker, General Manager of the Mid-Continent Campus.

Wood, who attended Wellington High School, has majored in Livestock and Ranch Operations at State Tech during the past year. While attending classes on the Mid-Continent Campus of TSTI, Wood was an active member in and served as Secretary-Treasurer of the LRO Club. He was named to the Vice-president's Honor Roll first trimester and the President's Honor Roll the second and third trimesters.

Ferguson, who attended Wellington High School, has majored in Agricultural and Industrial Equipment Mechanics at State Tech during the past year. While attending classes on the Mid-Continent Campus of TSTI, Ferguson was an active member in the school's AIE Club, composed of students interested in cars and motorcycles.

Cummings, who attended Wellington High School, has majored in Agricultural and Industrial Equipment Mechanics at State Tech during the past year. While attending classes on the Mid-Continent Campus of TSTI, Cummings was also an active member in the school's AIE Club, composed of students interested in cars and motorcycles.

Carter, who attended Wellington High School, has majored in Livestock and Ranch Operations at State Tech during the past year. While attending classes on the Mid-Continent Campus of TSTI, Carter served as Vice-president of the LRO club and was named to the President's Honor Roll, which recognizes those students who maintain a 4.0 average in all subjects taken, for all three trimesters.

The first fulltime classes on the State Tech Campus began August 31, 1970 with 275 students enrolled.

Draft Status of Area Men Is Discussed

Selective Service System Executive Secretary Mrs. Frances Starkey, who manages Local Board No. 20, Childress, says the current Congressional impasse over extending the induction authority has created great uncertainty among draft-age men.

"Selective Service Director Curtis Tarr has recently stressed the importance of explaining to our draft-age men the high probability that draft calls will resume in the near future and that the current impasse in the Congress is not likely to affect any registrant's chance of being drafted. "Our local board has been specifically instructed to continue to register and classify men, and to order for preinduction physical examinations those young men who may be needed to fill draft calls in the coming months," Mrs. Starkey said.

Men with lottery numbers, through 125 were eligible for induction in June in order to fill draft calls. Since then, the Defense Department has asked Selective Service to draft 16,000 men in July-August. This request is being held by Selective Service headquarters pending final Congressional action on the draft bill, which is expected within several weeks.

"Those young men with relatively low lottery numbers who are eligible for induction this year, particularly those with numbers below 175, the current processing ceiling, have a very good chance of being processed for induction after draft calls are restored," Mrs. Starkey said.

"Many young men," said Mrs. Starkey, "seem to think that the Selective Service Act has permanently expired and that they probably will never be drafted. Some of them also think that the entire system has stopped. They are wrong since it is only the induction authority that has expired. They, therefore, may be unintentionally breaking the law by failing to register at age 18, by not keeping their local boards informed of their current address, or by failing to report, if ordered, for their preinduction physical examinations."

Mrs. Starkey also stressed that local boards are continuing to consider CO, hardship and student deferments and to take other classification actions. "Young men who had planned to submit requests for deferments or exemptions are encouraged to do so," Mrs. Starkey said. "The expiration of the induction authority does not affect our responsibility to classify young men," Mrs. Starkey added.

Mrs. Starkey may be contacted at 109 Ave. B.N.E. the office of Local Board No. 20.

Accident Fatal to Ralph Neeley

A mine cave-in at Carlsbad, New Mexico on July 20, killed a former Plymouth man, Ralph Orlean Neely, 50.

Mr. Neely, a mine superintendent for the Duval Corp, 26 miles southeast of Carlsbad, was killed when a slab of potash weighing more than 30 tons fell from the shaft roof. He had been employed by the company since 1952, and had lived at Carlsbad 30 years, since shortly after leaving Plymouth.

The Eddy County Sheriff's office said the slab had been cut from the roof of the mine for ventilation purposes. Slabs cut for that purpose usually have to be forced down, but a mud seam above the block apparently caused the back-fall, the report continued.

Mr. Neely was born and reared at Plymouth.

Funeral services were conducted July 22 at Carlsbad. Survivors are his wife, a daughter, Patricia Ann; his father, Frank D. Neely of Dallas; and a sister, Mrs. Leslie West of Albuquerque.

Attending the funeral from this area were two aunts, Mr. and Mrs. C.C. Brown of Wellington and Mr. and Mrs. Verne Hardcastle of Wheeler. Other relatives still here are J.W. Neely, who now lives at Shamrock, and Mrs. Raymond Ledbetter of Samnorwood.

He received instruction in drill and ceremonies, weapons, map reading, combat tactics, military courtesy, military justice, first aid, and army history and traditions.
