Preliminary Census Reveals County Population Growing

Preliminary census figures released Tuesday paint a much brighter picture for Mitchell County and area towns than the first tentative figures released in July.

Preliminary census figures show that Mitchell County has a population of 9,062 persons currently, as compared to the tentative count in July of 8,608 persons.

The last actual physical count was made in 1970 and at that time, the population was determined to be 9,073 persons.

The preliminary census figures show there are 4,366 housing units in the county at the present time.

"These increased figures will benefit persons in both the public and private sectors of our community," County Judge Bill Carter said.

Colorado City preliminary census figures indicate a current population of 5,428 persons, as compared to the tentative count in July of 5,174 persons.

The last actual physical count, in 1970, showed a city population of 5,227 persons.

Board To Hear Presentations

Colorado Independent School District Board of Directors will hear the last of the Middle School teachers' presentations Monday at 7 p.m. during their regular session.

Board members will also approve a Textbook Committee consisting of local teachers. The purpose of the committee is to review and decide what textbooks are suitable for use in the coming year.

Books under consideration will include the Basal Reader for grades one through eight; Spanish primer for first and second grades and earth science for Middle School.

An amendment will be made to the school calendar for the inservice day scheduled for Nov. 21.

This holiday was scheduled to allow teachers to attend a TSTA Conference, however only a few teachers planned to attend so the holiday has tentatively been rescheduled for the Monday after Easter, April 28.

CHS Band Competes In UIL

There are currently 2,233 housing units within the city limits, according to the latest report.

Farmers' Home Administration Supervisor David Marion said, "There has been a great deal of improvement in the community. I am very proud of the growth and the part FmHA has played in that growth."

"We have tried to help those persons who wish to help themselves," he said. "At times, there were no funds available and all we could do was listen to the request."

"At times, we have been a high priority area for government funding, with little money.

"Small towns have a particular problem in redeveloping neighborhoods."

"We have come a long way in the community and I am very proud of the public housing built through the housing authority, but we still have a long way to go," Marion said.

Mayor Elmer Martin

said, "The census figures will help in many ways. They show that we are a growing community and because of the two lakes, we are a good retirement community and a great place to raise families."

"I believe the community has a good outlook and will gain enthusiasm and continue to grow," Martin said.

Loraine preliminary census figures indicate a current population of 928 persons, as compared to the tentative count released in July of 854 persons.

The last official count, made in 1970, showed 872 persons resided in Loraine, according to the "Texas Almanac."

The current census shows 351 housing units in Loraine.

Westbrook preliminary census figures indicate current population to be 297 persons, which is the same figure published in July.

The last official count, made in 1970, showed a population figure of 198 persons, according to the "Texas Almanac."

There are 124 households

"Jaws Of Life" Free Pair From Wreckage

"The amazing thing was that they lived to tell about it," Ray Dillard said following an accident in which a truck crashed into a concrete abutment, overturned and skidded 60 feet down Interstate 20 on the Colorado River bridge Wednesday.

The original radio report at 9:25 p.m., said the accident was in the construction area west of Westbrook. The report stated the truck was engulfed in flames.

Colorado City Volunteer Firemen, Texas

Highway Patrolmen and Sheriff's Deputies headed for the Westbrook area.

Dillard, a volunteer fireman, was in his private vehicle, headed for that location when he drove up on the wrecked truck on the Colorado River bridge.

He radioed his location, checked the wreck for injured persons, then radioed for an ambulance and the Hurst's "Jaws of Life."

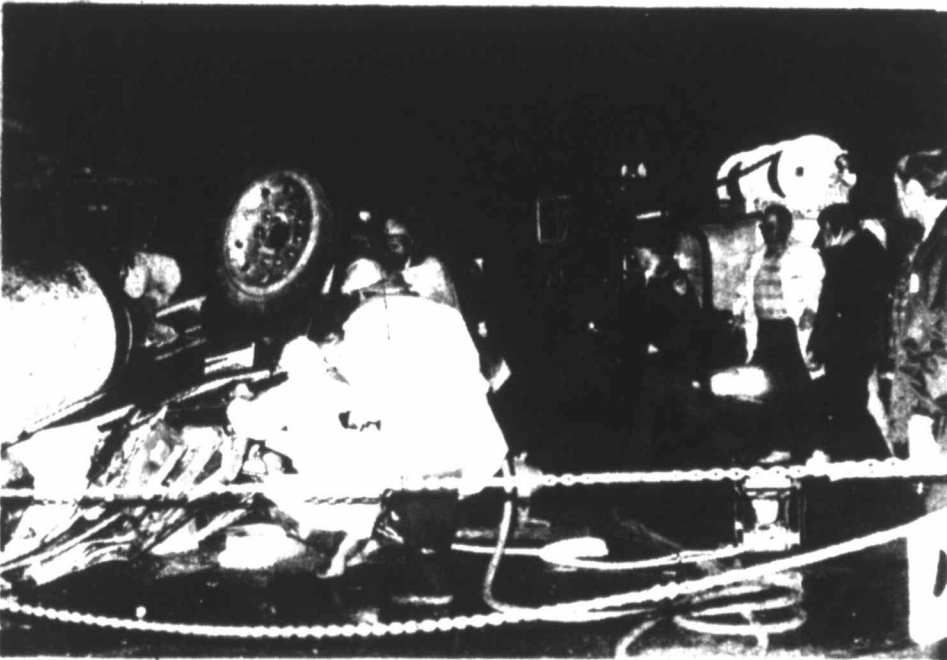

Dillard then entered the truck cab through the shattered front window.

Dillard said the driver was conscious and trapped by the steering column and dashboard, which were tangled around his legs.

A woman's arm was extending from what remained of the sleeping compartment. Dillard said she had apparently

With deer season set to begin Nov. 18, football may have some serious competition. Deer hunters across the state will leave their roles in the big arm chair, as the weekend quarterback, to assume the new role of the "Great White Hunter" and his annual quest for a new wall mount and fresh meat in the freezer.

Before you go off singing "A Hunting We Will Go," you might go over a check list to see if your equipment is as ready as you are to hit the bushes.

To begin with, you can't forget that all important deer lease and license and then a suitable gun. It only makes sense when going deer hunting to use a deer rifle and not an elephant gun.

You need to be prepared just in case you hit one. You'll need a good steel knife with about a five inch blade for skinning and dressing.

Did you know shoes are a very important part of your hunting wardrobe? Slick leather soles are great for kicking up your heels to the "Orange Blossom Special" and "The Last Cheater's Waltz," but they are not too logical for the deer stand. Can you see yourself getting that 18 point buck in the sites of your scope and your feet slip and you fall out on your head, miss the deer and break your neck? Of course, this is an extreme situation, but nevertheless, possible.

And you know that nice yellow rain suit that would be so nice in the rain, well that's a no-no too. Although deer are color blind, they can spot the intensity of the yellow color a block away.

I hope these few pointers are a help so you can be prepared when the Call of the Wild...calls on you.

I can't believe there are only 47 days left before Christmas, but with my children telling me every-time they see a commercial on television what they want Santa Claus to bring them, then I do.

It really gets me, trying to decide what Santa wants to give them that is worth the dollar sign on the box. And all the time knowing that two weeks after Christmas, it will be thrown into the closet with long lost Christmas toys from last year, the year before that and the year before that.

The decisions must have been easier when I was growing up. It was always a big soft doll with great big blue eyes and long eyelashes. That was, of course, until I got too embarrassed to tell everyone at school what I got, and my folks started buying me clothes, which confidentially was my junior year in high school.

Elections are over and Reagan is the man. It will take time to see any radical changes but I think they will come. This was the first time I have ever exercised my right to vote and when it came to filling out the form, I panicked.

Council To Open Car Bids

Colorado City Council will open bids for a new police car during their regular session Tuesday at 7 p.m. in City Hall.

They will also review and study regulations for residents around Lake Colorado City.

City Manager Brenda Tarter will bring the council up-to-date on the latest efforts by the city to locate a new sanitary landfill site.

COLORADO CITY Volunteer Firemen and local law enforcement agencies worked for 45 minutes Wednesday night, using the Hurst's Tool, to free two persons from: this twisted wreckage on I-20 on the Colorado River bridge.

Hurst's Tool Demo Is Set

Colorado City Volunteer Firemen will put on a display of the Hurst's "Jaws of Life" tool Sunday.

Firemen will gather at Donsey's Wrecker Service on East Highway 80 at 4 p.m. for the demonstration.

The public is invited to attend.

been sleeping on her stomach and when the truck overturned, she was trapped by the crushed roof, with the mattress smothering her.

Dillard administered

first aid and tried to free the woman.

"There was a computer clock in the top of the cab and I kept watching the minutes tick-off," he said.

THP Officers Frank

Costabile and Tom Johnson arrived and Costabile entered the crumpled cab.

"He did a fantastic job of calming the driver. He just kept talking to him and telling him everything would be all right," Dillard said.

The VFD and rescue truck arrived, bringing the Hurst's "Jaws of Life."

The woman was cut out of the wreckage first. She was conscious and complaining of back pain. She was placed on a backboard and taken by ambulance to Root Memorial Hospital.

Firemen then used the Hurst's tool to lift the cab and remove the tangled dashboard and steering column from around the man's legs.

He suffered only muscle cramps and a deep cut on his head. A second ambulance delivered him to Root Memorial Hospital.

The pair were trapped in the wreckage for about 45 minutes before firemen were able to free them.

The driver of the truck, a 1977 International, was Ronnie Deese, 37, of Bossier City, La.

His co-driver and wife, was Darlene Deese, 24.

Both persons were admitted to the hospital, where she was reportedly treated for a broken pelvis and he was treated for a cut on the head and possible concussion.

Trooper Johnson investigated the accident and stated the driver said he had been passing a vehicle in the passing lane, traveling east.

He reportedly left the paved surface, drove into the median and failed to drive back up onto the highway before hitting the concrete abutment and bridge railing.

The truck jackknifed, overturned and skidded 60 feet down the guard-rail. The trailer, loaded with crates of tomatoes, swung around and slid down the concrete siding into the riverbed below.

The cab of the truck slid forward, tearing out 60 feet of guard railing and came to rest, impaled on the guard railing with the left rear wheels extending over the open crevice.

Trooper Johnson reported he spent the first 30 minutes on the scene trying to run bystanders off and clear the traffic jam.

Traffic was diverted for about two and one-half hours until 87 Wrecker Service of Big Spring could remove the wreckage.

Firemen washed diesel fuel from the bridge and then went under the bridge and hosed the runoff and trailer, to further dilute the diesel.

"Diesel has a very low sparking point and if it had been gasoline, the truck would have probably burned," Dillard said.

This was the fourth time this year the Hurst's tool was used to save lives.

The first incident involved a woman trapped in a Datsun on March 14 near the 218 mile marker on I-20; the second occurred when a truck wrecked on May 1 at the 206 mile marker, killing one man and trapping another; the third incident occurred when a man was trapped in his car Oct. 21 near the intersection of Sixth and Walnut Streets.

"We would really have had a hard time getting this pair out if it had not been for the Hurst's tool," Dillard said.

Every time we tried to shift the wreckage, we would put pressure on the woman, he noted.

"The highway patrol and ambulance crew were great. It is a very good feeling to know we can work together as a team," Dillard said.

Assisting in the traffic control were units from the Colorado City Police, Sheriff's Office, Reserve Deputies Donnie Phillips and Ted Petty, Game Warden Ronnie Aston and the Texas Highway Department.

Now that the voting is over and the tabulation has been done and we do have a new President, I'm a little more at ease with my vote. I believe I made my decision from the facts I'd read and heard and now myself and the whole nation has to put their trust in God and pray it was the right one. There are many verses in the Bible that deal with faith and here are two of my favorites: "If thou can'st believe, all things are possible to him that believeth," Mark 9:23 and "The things which are impossible with men are possible with God," Luke 18:27.

Stamford Conquered By Seventh Grade

"The whole team played well. Our back up men played more than the regular players," said Seventh Grade Football Coach Ronnie Gainey, as his team defeated Stamford 30-0 Thursday.

Wolves' first touchdown came from an eight yard run by Sammy Rivera in the first quarter. Ronny Lowrance ran the two point conversion attempt in for a score of 8-0.

The second touchdown was made by Ronny Lowrance on a 30 yard run. The conversion attempt failed, leaving the score 14-0.

Albert Rivera took the handoff from Stamford's quarterback in their end zone resulting in the third touchdown for the Wolves. Ronny Lowrance again made the two point conversion.

The Wolves' final touchdown was made by Robert Lemons on an eight yard run. Jimmy Thompson made the conversion attempt successful for a final score of 30-0.

All of the scoring took place in the first quarter. After that, there was no more scoring done in the ball game.

"We played everyone on the team and the guys played exceptionally well," said Gainey. "There were no problems for us. The whole team played well."

"I have enjoyed working with the boys," said Gainey. "They are a dedicated bunch of competitors and I see a lot of good things to come to them."

Boys' Wrestling To Begin Soon

Boys' wrestling will begin Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays at 6 p.m. in the Boys' Club.

The Boys' Club is located across from Anderson Motor Company.

Pat Barber is the director of the program and coaching the activity is Coach Vince Gaona.

Also, working with the Boys' Club are the Colorado City Jaycees.

Last year, six tournaments were attended by the 25 members. Boys from the program placed in each of the tournaments.

A weight lifting program is also being held for older boys. Another program on exercising is being provided at the club.

For information, phone Vince Gaona at 728-3902 or Pat Barber at 728-8439.

County Plans Public Hearing

Mitchell County Commissioners will set a date for a public hearing during their regular session Monday at 1 p.m. in the County Courthouse.

The public hearing will afford local residents the opportunity of expressing their opinions on the establishment of rules and regulations for sewage disposal around the two lakes.

A proposed set of regulations for installation of new septic tanks, precluding existing facilities which do not currently constitute a public health hazard, was compiled and presented to commissioners last month by County Judge Bill Carter.

Commissioners gave tentative approval to the regulations and began the process of implementation which includes the public hearing. In other business, bids on seven pickups for county use will be opened. Bidders have until 10 a.m. Monday to place their bids.

An Equalization Study For The Mitchell County Appraisal District

In 1979, the Texas Legislature approved a Property Tax Code by the passage of Senate Bill 621. Under the guidelines of SB 621, taxing districts must value all the properties within their boundaries according to its fair market value. Districts must be in compliance with SB 621 by 1982.

The Mitchell County Appraisal District realizes that most citizens don't mind paying taxes as long as they feel they are being treated fairly. The fairness of property tax depends on how well the job of appraising property is done. To assure you, the taxpayer, of fair and equal treatment, and to comply with the requirement of SB 621, the Mitchell County Appraisal District, after careful consideration, has engaged Southwestern Appraisal Co., Inc. to conduct an equalization study of all property in Mitchell. Upon completion of this equalization study, the Appraisal District will be able to implement uniform and equal assessments for all property.

In the near future, field appraisers from Southwestern Appraisal Co., Inc. will be calling on you to request permission to inspect your property. How well we are able to do our job depends to a great extent on your cooperation. The better information we are able to obtain concerning property in the Mitchell County Appraisal District, the better your equalization study will be. We respectfully request your assistance. With YOUR help, we can assure that the cost of your local government is shared fairly and equally by all.

Rev. G.G. Flores
Pastor
Christian Temple Church

Many times what looks to us like the end proves to be only the beginning. It looked like the end when Jesus Christ was crucified. Their leader was dead, executed under the most horrible and embarrassing circumstances. But it was not the end; for, Jesus Christ rose from the dead!

In the closing verses of the Gospel of Luke, we find Jesus Christ meeting with His disciples and giving them some final words, a Commissioner to a wonderful work, "that repentance and forgiveness of sin should be preached in His name to all nations BEGINNING FROM JERUSALEM." (Luke 24:47).

What seemed like the end to the early Church was just the starting place. The closing of the Gospel of Luke is the opening of the Acts of the Apostles. And the closing of the book of Acts is the beginning march of Christ's cause through the centuries and around the world.

Jesus is saying to His disciples, to being right where they are...on the familiar, drab and unexciting local scene...Many of us Christians today are properly intrigued by stories and speakers of faraway mission fields. But we find very little appeal in the next block or our neighborhoods or our community; of course, we are interested in the distant missionary work, but we should be sure to begin, HERE, where we are!

Jesus was saying, "Begin right here where you have failed...Jerusalem." This may sound to us simply like the name of a city. But, to the disciples, it meant the place where their Master had been arrested and publicly executed in a shameful manner. It meant the place where the influential leaders (religious leaders) had organized against them. It meant the place where one of their own number had disgraced them by disloyalty and betrayal. Yes, it meant the place where Peter had denied this Lord.

Very often the place of failure is the stopping place. That is where everyone of us would like to quit and...we can...Give up, Give in or we can Go on, the choice is our own.

But, Jesus' Word to His disciples is still His Word to all who seek to serve Him through the Church today. We too, have received the same commission--"THAT REPENTANCE AND FORGIVENESS OF SIN SHOULD BE PREACHED IN HIS NAME TO ALL NATIONS BEGINNING FROM COLORADO CITY TO JERUSALEM."

The place to begin is right where we are--right where we have maybe failed many times in many ways...our homes. Asi' Sea'.
