

JAMES APPEARS WITH MCMURRY QUARTET

Teddy Joe James of Wellington (extreme right) is a member of the French Horn Quartet that played several numbers during the McMurry College Indian Band Spring concert at Radford Memorial Auditorium last Friday night. The McMurry band recently returned from its spring concert tour in the panhandle, Oklahoma, and Kansas. Other members of the French Horn Quartet include Martha Cribb of Imperial, Pat Elliott of El Paso, and Johnny Jones of McCauley. Raymond T. Bynum, "dean of West Texas bandmen," directs the McMurry group.

Alfalfa Hay Yield Lower But Price Above 1947 Crop

The first cutting of hay of the 1948 alfalfa crop is about complete, and while the yield is considerably below that of last year on an average, it is still considered good for the amount of moisture the area has received, J. W. Thomas, county agent, said Saturday, May 15.

On the other hand, the price is much better than last year, the current market price being from 75 cents to 90 cents per bale, depending on the quality of the hay.

The yield is varying from well over a ton of hay per acre down to approximately half a ton, but the average is probably around two-thirds ton per acre, Mr. Thomas said.

This cutting is only around 50 per cent of the first cutting last year, but the good moisture in February and March gave this year's crop an early start and so far has carried it through the prolonged dry spell the county is now experiencing. Whether there will be one or two more hay crops and a seed crop depends on the moisture conditions during the summer, Mr. Thomas explained.

Considerably more of this cutting of hay is being held by the growers than a year ago, the county agent commented.

Alfalfa turns out from 30 to 33 bales per ton, each weighing between 60 and 65 pounds.

Johnny Jones Price Graduate

Johnny Jones, son of Dr. and Mrs. C. B. Jones of Wellington, is a member of the graduating class of the high school division of Price Memorial College, Amarillo.

The commencement will be held Friday, May 28, with the Very Rev. Lawrence J. FitzSimon, Bishop of Amarillo, delivering the commencement address.

Jones has attended the Amarillo school for four years. In addition to his studies, he has been active in athletic affairs, and lettered in football this year. He also participated in tennis and took part in the Cardinal Roundup for three years.

He will enter St. Regis College in Denver, Colo., in December to begin his pre-medical work.

J. D. Dorsey Dies In Plane Crash

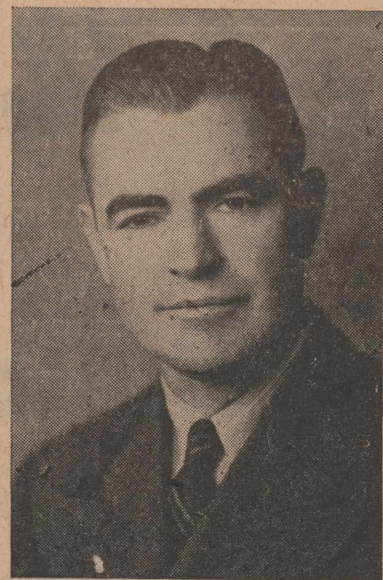

J. D. Dorsey, 25, of Gainesville, who grew up in Wellington, was killed when the plane in which he was flying alone crashed Sunday, May 16, his uncle, Martin Winegeart, and friends of the family were notified Monday.

In a telephone conversation with members of the family, Constable Elmer Jones was told that the accident occurred at Gainesville.

Funeral services were held at Gainesville Tuesday. Further details of Mr. Dorsey's death had not been learned here.

At the time of his death Mr. Dorsey and his father, Fred Dorsey, were engaged in the lumber and saw mill business at Gainesville. The family moved from here several years ago.

In addition to his parents, Mr. Dorsey is survived by his wife, a son, Jimmy, by a former marriage, and a sister.

Dodson Seniors to Graduate Thursday; Others on May 28

The four Collingsworth County high schools are graduating 111 boys and girls this year, with Wellington having one-half of this number.

The tentative list of Wellington graduates numbers 55. Samnorwood has the second largest class with 25 boys and girls; Quail third with 21, and Dodson the smallest with 10 students.

Dodson

Graduation week is under way at Dodson this week, with the baccalaureate service having been held Sunday, May 16. H. H. Risinger, former superintendent of schools at Dodson and now dean of Southwestern Tech at Weatherford, Oklahoma, will be the speaker at the commencement Thursday evening, May 20.

Ten students are graduating, Gerald Warren, Janie Branigan, Billie Tabor, Floydene Jones, Anna Jones, Vance Hunt, Edwin Bonneau, Paul Browning, LeVoy Musick and Bennie Z. Branum.

Harper and Ellis Head Alfalfa Seed Growers Association

John Harper, one of the first men to grow alfalfa around Wellington, was named president of the Certified Alfalfa Seed Growers Association for the county at a re-organization meeting held Tuesday evening, May 11.

Dewey Ellis, who served as secretary-treasurer during the last year, was re-elected to that post.

W. A. Goethe, state field seed inspector, attended the meeting and spoke briefly, complimenting the alfalfa growers of this county on the high quality of their seed, and urging them to keep it good, since high quality seed always moves first on an open market.

Applications for seed certification were distributed and there were signed on approximately 1,000 acres before the owners left the meeting.

The deadline for signing applications is June 12, J. W. Thomas, county agent, said, and by that time, between 6,000 and 7,000 ac-

The dates set were Monday morning, August 23, Tuesday, August 24, Wednesday, August 25, and Thursday morning, August 26.

The unit is sponsored by the Five-County Medical Society and in addition to stopping here, it will be at Childress, Memphis, Clarendon and Claude.

Mrs. C. W. Fritts of Norwood Has Major Operation on Friday

Mrs. C. W. Fritts, who has been correspondent for The Wellington Leader from the Samnorwood area for a number of years, underwent a major operation in St. Joseph's Hospital Friday afternoon, May 14.

Hospital attendants reported Tuesday afternoon that she was doing fine, although she will probably remain in the hospital for another week.

Lombardo and City Hold Entertainment Spotlight

Wellington will be the host city when Guy Lombardo and his Royal Canadians make one of their four Texas stops Saturday night, May 22, but the dancers will come from far points of the Panhandle and western Oklahoma, Russell Yates, who is in charge of the plans for the Veterans of Foreign Wars, said Tuesday.

Ticket sales have been heavy both locally and as far distant as Hereford, Amarillo, Canadian, Sayre, Okla., Paducah and other points, but dance lovers were reminded that the community building, where the entertainment will be held, is one of the largest buildings of the type in this section, and that there will be ample room for all wishing to attend.

A number of the orders have been for parties of ten or more.

The reserved seats are selling fast, and are proving especially popular with those who prefer listening to Guy Lombardo and "the sweetest music this side of heaven" to dancing.

The entire balcony is reserved for this group, Mr. Yates reminded.

Indicative of the out-of-town crowd planning to attend was the announcement from the Wellington Hotel that it has received more requests for reservations for Saturday night than it is able to handle.

Guy Lombardo and the Royal Canadians are making as their four Texas stops on this tour Dallas, Fort Worth, Lubbock and Wellington — and some of the larger towns and cities are still wondering just how Wellington got the Number One name band of the nation.

Norton Sapyde, entertainment editor of The Amarillo Globe News, wrote in Sunday's issue:

"It's getting so Amarillo dance band fans are making more and more frequent trips to Wellington. The big name bands that seem to skip Amarillo can be found in the big community building at Wellington just about every Saturday night. Wellington may be a small town compared with Amarillo but

Buck Lancaster Heads Singers

The Collingsworth County Singing convention met at the Lillie Baptist Church Sunday, May 16, for the regular third Sunday singing and to elect officers for the coming year.

Buck Lancaster was elected the new president; John D. King, vice-president; Ed Hively, secretary-treasurer; and Raymond Horton, reporter.

The retiring officers are Mr. Horton, president; Mr. Hively, vice-president; W. S. Brewer, secretary-treasurer; and Miss Peggy Jean Yarbrough, reporter.

Approximately 150 singers, representing communities over the entire county, were present, and an afternoon of singing gospel songs preceded the election of officers.

The next third Sunday singing will be held in the Salt Fork community at the Methodist Church, Mr. Horton said.

"The new president urges everyone to stand behind and support the singers, as more gospel singing is needed throughout the country to make this world a better place in which to live," Mr. Horton continued.

Wellington, Loco-Arle School Election May 22

Voters of the Loco-Arle consolidated school district and the Wellington Rural Independent High School District will vote Saturday, May 22, on the consolidation of the two districts and the assumption of the bonds of each.

Elections will be held in both districts, E. L. Pritchett, superintendent of the Wellington schools, said.

One of these will be at the Loco school where residents of that district will vote, and the other will be at the county court room in Wellington, where voters of this district will cast their ballots.

Voting will be on two issues, Mr. Pritchett said, the consolidation of the two schools, and the assumption of the bonded indebtedness of each.

The vote must carry in both districts in order for the consolidation to be carried out.

Fred Cox is president of the Loco school board.

Altogether, there are approximately 160 children in the Loco-Arle district, which was consolidated in an election held earlier this year. There will be a small number of these, however, who would not attend school here, since a portion of the district is nearer to both Dodson and Hollis, Okla., than it is to Wellington.

All voters in both districts are urged by the school officials of both the Wellington and Loco-Arle districts to participate in the election, expressing their position on this school matter, whether they are for or against it.

Miss Hays Finishes Nursing School

Miss Virginia Hays, daughter of Mrs. J. L. Hays of Wellington, will graduate with this year's class from the Wichita Falls General Hospital School of Nursing.

The commencement will be held Sunday night, May 30, at the First Baptist Church in Wichita Falls, with the Rev. Jimmy Landis, pastor, delivering the commencement address.

Miss Hays graduated from Wellington high school in 1944. During the summer of 1945 she was employed at St. Joseph's Hospital here. The remainder of the time she has spent as a student nurse in Wichita Falls.

Rain Sunday Night Varies Up to One And a Half Inches

This area received the first of its May rain Sunday night, May 16, with the amount varying from around an inch in the south part of the county to an estimated one-eighth inch in the section near the Wheeler-County line.

Several communities reported heavier rain estimated at one and one-fourth to one and a half inches.

Wellington received .57 hundredths of an inch, as measured in the government rain gauge here.

While this will benefit some wheat, some growers in the north part of the county have said their crop was too badly damaged to be helped.

In addition, however, it put much of the land in good shape for planting.

School Tax Rate of $1.25 Approved by District

Voters of the Wellington Rural Independent School District Saturday, May 15, approved a school tax rate of $1.25 per $100 valuation, and for the assumption of the bonds of each school now making up the newly formed district.

The vote carried 136 to 40 on the tax measure and 148 to 33 on the bond assumption issue.

"We want to express our appreciation to every person who voted, regardless of whether it was a vote for or against the two issues, and we want to assure you that the money gained by the election's carrying will be used to the very best interest of the children," E. L. Pritchett, superintendent of schools, said.

The additional money made possible by setting the new tax rate remains to be administered locally, it was pointed out, and it is used for such items as purchase of additional equipment, repair of the buildings, janitors salary, etc.

Three major items have been outlined by Mr. Pritchett: the high school curriculum, the addition of a cafeteria to the new ward school and enlargement of the colored school. Each of these will be housed in remodeled barracks buildings the school has acquired from the Childress Army Air Field.

Vocational shop work, not previously announced, will be carried out in co-operation with the Veterans Vocational School.

In addition, the federal government will share the cost of the teacher's salary, just as it does for vocational agriculture and vocational home economics instructors.

The plans, Mr. Pritchett explained, are to move two barracks to the campus. One will be located just south of the bus shop and will be used as a class room. The other, located across the street, will be furnished with all equipment necessary for teaching shop work.

The high school students will use

Dukes Bow to Fast Hitting Memphis Nine 7 to 3

The Dukes of Wellington went down fighting as they took their second loss in the Red River Valley League play by a 7-3 defeat from Memphis at Marian Airpark Sunday afternoon, May 16.

Scoring was started by the Dukes as they got the only run in the first inning, but Memphis took two runs in the second inning and three in the third, giving them a 5-2 lead on the Dukes.

The Memphis nine was held threateningly scoreless for the next two innings, but they broke loose in the sixth inning to chalk up their last two runs of the game.

P. W. Flowers, the Dukes' pitcher, gave up 13 hits while striking out 4 Memphis men, but his team mates worked two double plays to hold down the Memphis scoring. The Memphis pitcher, Metz LaFollette, allowed 5 hits and struck out 4 men.

Edmonson, Memphis right fielder, wielded the biggest stick of the day with 4 hits, one of them a triple. Hitting for the Dukes was led by Son Strong, center fielder, who got 3 hits in 4 trips to the plate, one a 2-base hit.

Bud Holton, playing his first game for the Dukes in the right field position, broke a bone in his foot on a stolen run to third in the last half of the ninth after turning in a brilliant fielding performance against the Memphis sluggers.

Lion Auto Adds New Marathon Car Tire Line

Introduction of a new Marathon line of passenger automobile tires to this trading area is announced by Morris Reed, who operates the Lion Auto, in Wellington.

"The new Marathon," says Mr. Reed, "provides a line that combines excellent mileage and traction at prices averaging substantially less than those now prevailing for most tires in comparable sizes."

"Included in the list of sizes of Marathons now available are the 5.25—5.50-17; 6.00-16; 6.50-15; 6.50-16; popular sizes in a range covering many of the cars that have been manufactured in the last 15 years."

"The original Marathon line of tires for passenger cars was introduced in March, 1938, but its production was discontinued during the war emergency. The Marathon had attained widespread popularity by 1942 and its return will be welcomed by thousands of motorists."

"With the Spring and Summer driving season just opening up, motorists are having their cars checked over, and any of them are going to find out their present tire equipment needs replacing before any considerable amount of driving is possible."

"The new Marathon is just the tire for this purpose, and in addition to being handsome in appearance has a wide tread, presenting a good wearing surface to the road and prolonging tread life, has the new roll-grip non-skid, combining all the advantages of multiple long-wearing, ribs with deep non-skid design," Mr. Reed said.

A local woman says they have eaten so many fried chickens that they've taken the mattress off their beds and started roosting on the slats.

Quail School Begins Extensive Improvement

The contract has been let to Reed and Brumley of Wichita Falls to move eight buildings to the Quail High School Campus from the Childress Army Air Field. The moving will start Thursday.

The first building moved will be located east of the present agriculture building to be used for a manual training building. The second building will be the new agriculture and veterans building. It will be located north of the teaching building. This building is being moved by the veterans administration, and will be shared by the veterans and high school agriculture boys.

The third building that will be moved will be moved north of the elementary building, running east and west in line with the gym. This building will be used for a cafeteria and visual education building. Five other buildings that will be moved in such a manner that will afford the greatest usefulness. Three of these buildings will probably be used to repair the other buildings.

A release on the buildings came through at 10 o'clock last Saturday. By 9 o'clock that night the lavatories and piping had been moved to Quail, thus preparing the way for the moving of the buildings.

The money to move these buildings and repair them came from the sales of the Buck Creek and Crossroads school buildings.

Navy Seeks Men as Flight Trainees

NEW ORLEANS — Approximately 650 college graduates will enter the Navy for flight training and commissioning as officers under a new program announced today by Eighth Naval District headquarters here.

First appointees will be ordered to the Naval Air Station at Pensacola, Fla., in early July for indoctrination and an 18-month flight course, it was announced. Graduates will later be given a choice of regular or reserve commissions but will remain on active duty in either case for approximately two years after completion of training.

The program is open to Naval Reservists as well as to men with no previous Navy experience, Commander P. K. Sherman, USN, in charge of officer procurement, said. He will accept and screen applications.

Childress Slates Wrestling Matches

CHILDRESS — (Spl) — Something new will be added to the new professional wrestling matches which will be held at the Childress Army Air Field Gym, 2 1/2 miles west of Childress.

In addition to the regular two main events on the card scheduled for Thursday, May 27, will be Labe Safo, world's champion punching bag artist who will open the night's program with several demonstrations.

Safo, who hails from Wisconsin, was presented during the Regional Golden Gloves tournament in Amarillo, and proved to be as big a drawing card as the Glovers.

The opening match on the wrestling card will see Yaqui Joe, noted leg wrestler, against Billy Sandow. Yaqui, an Indian, hails from Sonora, Mexico, and Sandow is from Toledo, Ohio.

The second card will show Ray "Big Train" Clements against Eddie Gideon of Springfield, Mo. Clements, from Lubbock, was on the last Childress card and proved a popular wrestler while losing to the Masked Marvel.

Although Safo is an added attraction and expense, there will be no increase in admission in prices. They will remain at $1.50 for ring-side, $1 for general admission, 50 cents for students and 25 cents for children under 12.

The show will start at 8:30. Tickets may be ordered from The Childress Index, sponsors of the matches. All profits will go to amateur sports in the Childress area.

Sell 1947 Loan Cotton August 1

All 1947-crop loan cotton still under loan on August 1, 1948, will be pooled on that date by the Commodity Credit Corporation for producers' accounts, Millard Brown of the County AAA office said this week.

Only a small amount of cotton in this area was placed in the loan, he commented.

Producers may either sell their "equity" in the loan cotton or redeem the cotton from the loan and then sell it in the open market. Producers are urged to give serious consideration to marketing the loan cotton before it is placed in pools. At present market prices, farmers should be able to dispose of most of this cotton at prices that will net them good profits above the loan and charges against the cotton.

The 1947-crop loan cotton not redeemed before August 1, 1948, will be placed in pools, as provided in the loan agreements, and sold in an orderly manner by Commodity Credit Corporation. On final liquidation of all cotton in the pools, the net proceeds, if any, after deduction of all advances, interest and storage, insurance, and handling charges will be distributed among the producers whose cotton was placed in the pools, in proportion to the amount of the loans on the cotton placed in such pools. No payment will be made to producers at the time their cotton is placed in the pools, and after July 31, 1948, producers will not be entitled to order the sale of the cotton.

SAMNORWOOD MRS. C. W. FRITTS

(Intended for Last Week)
The grade school May Day operetta Thursday night was well rendered to one of the largest crowds to attend any school event this school term. The beautiful costumes of the children made a very colorful scene.

S. J. Carrell returned to his home here from the Wellington hospital Friday, after several days treatment. His condition is some improved, but he is still confined to his bed.

Mrs. Theo Parker is a medical patient in a Shamrock hospital. She is suffering from a severe kidney ailment.

Mrs. Mary Morris of Wellington visited her children, Juanita and Billy Morris and Mr. and Mrs. Hick Morrow and Donia over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fritts visited Sunday in Mobeetie with Mrs. Fritts cousin and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lige McCauley and three daughters. Mrs. Fritts and Mrs. McCauley had not met in 28 years. They also visited Mrs. Clara Selby while in Mobeetie. Mrs. Selby and two sons, Robert and Jim, moved from Salt Fork in 1926. They still have relatives and friends at Salt Fork, Lillie and Quail.

Among those from here who attended the Wellington and Mobeetie ball game at Mobeetie Sunday afternoon were Robert Young and father, Bob Young, Malone Young, Jim Whitfield and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fritts. Several Dozier people were at the game.

Mrs. Thomas Smith and her uncle, Rae King of Lubbock, brought Mrs. Smith's father, Walter Fritts, home last Thursday night. Mrs. Fritts was ill several days last week.

SALT FORK

Everyone out here is happy over the good shower Sunday night. Hope we get more rain soon. It's planting time.

A number of children have the measles, a bad time to have them since it's the school closing time.

Most everyone from Salt Fork attended singing at Lillie Sunday. Salt Fork gets the Third Sunday singing in June. Everyone is invited.

A revival meeting closed at the Free Will Baptist Church Sunday night. Mrs. Cameron of Amarillo did the preaching.

This community regretted very much to hear of the serious illness of Mrs. C. W. Fritts of Samnorwood.

DIDACTICS

—By Deskins Wells

As this is being written, May 20 draws uncomfortably close. We have had some rain but not enough. The wind continues to blow from the southeast and there is a chance for plenty of moisture.

I have heard of ball games being called on account of rain and darkness; but Tuesday night Kiwanis and Rotary called theirs in the seventh inning because of the light bill. They were informed that they were running up such a light bill that it was eating up the gate receipts. In spite of the horseplay, some good baseball was played by each side.

Property owners who live in the school districts that have recently joined the Wellington district are reminded that they should render their property for school taxes at the city hall and not at the courthouse as in other days. S. R. Pinkston, school tax assessor, says that he will appreciate your co-operation in this matter very much.

The VFW is sponsoring Memorial Day program May 30. Before that day arrives a lot of work ought to be done in cleaning up the cemetery. Some parts of it need attention. It seems to me that people could keep their plots neat and orderly even if it will be next year before the city will be able to have water piped out there.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Wells are in Wellington for a short visit. He has been serving as vice-consul in Haiti; but will be transferred to the Embassy in Paris. Before going to France he will go to Washington for a time—probably for additional instruction.

Here is a clipping from that gifted and obliging man, Lewis Nordskye who writes in The Amarillo News:

"Wellington Department: Deck Wells, publisher of The Wellington Leader, points out that Guy Lombardo is making only major cities in Texas—Dallas, Lubbock and Wellington—on his present tour with the sweetest music this side of heaven." He will play for a dance at Wellington May 22, which is this coming Saturday... Jan Fortune, poet and novelist, is a native of Wellington and has a good many relatives there and at Dalhart. On Friday her new book, "Abbie's Honor," will be published by D. Appleton-Century in New York.

Thanks for the publicity, Lewis. After all if the VFW and Bo Yates can get a name band like Guy Lombardo to come to Wellington, they deserve some publicity and The Leader has been helping them get it.

Something nice should be said about Mrs. Pat Swift and the children's choir she is directing at the Methodist Church. She is doing a good job, and the singing of the children adds much to the service. Give the children a pat on the back—perhaps we will have their names in the paper next week.

Well I bowled Judge Cocke over the other morning when I took him a bloom from my new rose. It is called peace and it is a thing of beauty. But Judge Cocke is a hard loser. He has a sport of the climbing blaze rose and he is determined to bring me one.

The new clinic does not look so impressive now; but when Mrs. Jones gets through landscaping it that will be the beauty spot of Wellington. It will enhance the beauty of the hospital grounds. It is none of my business, Mrs. Jones, but I submit that the landscaping should be of a different pattern from the hospital. The hospital is wonderful; but there should be a contrast don't you think?

Incidentally the clinic and the hospital continue to draw more and more patients from distant points. In time they will have to have more doctors—they would put them on the staff now probably if they could get men of the right qualifications.

Mrs. Lucille A. Greer and her son Murray of Glendale, California, are in Wellington this week looking after business interests. Since the passing of Mr. Maddox, they have had no one here to look after their interests. Murray is a long time subscriber of The Leader and the story of the well at the swimming pool has caused him to become curious about the possibilities of putting wells on his farms for irrigation purposes. He intends to see Bura Handley about the matter.

Will someone help a public-spirited lady? Mrs. Austin O'Neil lost two pyrex pie plates and one preserving kettle at the Junior-Senior banquet, which she assisted in arranging. She is especially interested in getting the preserving kettle back because it did not belong to her in the first place. Look through your dishes and see if you picked up hers by mistake. This reminds me. Thanks to Mrs. Temple Slay for finding and returning my book.

Men May Enlist For Special Study

Under plans recently set up by the U. S. Air Force, men intending to enlist for the purpose of attending a specialist school can now determine definitely, before enlisting, whether or not he will be accepted for training. M-Sgt. C. W. Parrott, commanding officer of the Shamrock station, said that this program was designed to give the career-minded young man an opportunity to choose his technical vocation while still a civilian, and to receive assurances of desired assignment.

Upon advising the local Recruiting Office which school he would like to attend, a request will be sent by the Recruiting office to the Air Force requesting a letter of authorization to send the man, upon enlistment and completion of basic training, to school.

Other means of applying for specialist training are also in force. An enlistee can take an examination or can apply for technical training after being transferred to an Air Force installation.

"Whichever means is used," Sgt. Parrott said, "any qualified young man today is assured of technical training in a school of his choice, Army or Air Force, and the training he receives is the best obtainable."

CARD OF THANKS

We take this means of expressing our appreciation to our friends who were so kind and thoughtful at the death of our beloved mother and sister, Mrs. J. M. Thurman.

We especially thank those who brought food, flowers and helped in every way, also the Sisters of St. Joseph's Hospital and Kelo Funeral Home.

We can never forget your kindness and sympathy and will always pray God's richest blessings upon each and every one of you.

W. H. Thurman, her son.

'Call Northside 777' True-Life Drama, At Ritz

"Call Northside 777," a film based on a series of real incidents in Chicago, in which an innocent man was freed from prison, will be shown at the Ritz Theatre Sunday and Monday, May 23 and 24, Emmett Passmore, manager, has announced.

"This is one of the top pictures of the year, and we feel fortunate to be able to show it for the people of the Wellington area so soon after its release," he said.

Mr. Passmore outlined the story of "Call Northside 777" as follows: On October 10, 1944, an ad appeared in the personal columns of the Chicago Times offering a $5,000 reward for the killers of Police Officer Bundy—a crime "solved" eleven years previously by the conviction of Frank Wiecek.

"Call Northside 777" said the ad. And a young Times reporter, P. J. McNeal, made the phone call that pitted him, one man alone, against a city's violence, a decade's infamy.

Fired with a crusader's zeal, McNeal was to explode a gross miscarriage of justice. His story is the new Twentieth Century-Fox motion picture, "Call Northside 777," starring James Stewart with a notable supporting cast headed by Richard Conte, Lee J. Cobb and Helen Walker.

The background of "Call Northside 777" is the Chicago of 1932, the Chicago of gangland wars, bootlegger battles, blood and bullets, the year when Chicago has 365 murders—a killing a day—many of the murdered being policemen who were killed in the line of duty. With the city clamoring for a crime clean-up, the conviction of Frank Wiecek—a verdict based exclusively on the identification testimony of a single eye-witness (others failed to identify him)—and his subsequent sentencing to life at the state penitentiary, was gratefully received by harassed city officials.

The case would have been completely forgotten were it not for the unshakable faith of Tillie Wiecek in the innocence of her son. A scrubwoman, she saved penny by penny until she had the $5,000 to offer as a reward. The ad brought no response, except for the routine check by reporter McNeal. It was left for him to uncover one of the most incredible and dramatic series of circumstances in the recent history of crime and punishment—and justice.

As the reporter who battles against tremendous handicaps to secure the evidence that would free an innocent man, James Stewart in "Call Northside 777" has the most dramatic and most intense suspenseful role of his entire career.

Mrs. E. H. Fitzgerald of San Francisco arrived here Friday to visit her sisters, Mrs. Riley Dunson and Mrs. C. C. Taylor and other relatives. She was called to Texas three weeks ago by the illness and death of her brother-in-law, Bill Fitzgerald of Dallas, formerly of Clarendon. Her husband is employed by the Trans-Arabian Oil Company in Saudi Arabia.

persons over 15 years of age, and he urged that every one avail themselves to have X-ray tests made to determine cases of active tuberculosis.

This is not charity, he emphasized. The service is paid for by tax money and through funds raised by the recent tuberculosis campaign here and throughout the state. It is simply an effort on the part of doctors, interested citizens and the State Department of Health to eradicate tuberculosis in Texas.

The tests require only about two minutes and the person tested is not required to undress.

Dr. Jones said that children under 15 years of age are not included because the number in that group with tuberculosis is small.

B. W. Beaird, county superintendent; W. L. Pritchett, Wellington superintendent, and all service clubs are co-operating in bringing the mobile testing unit here.

P. W. Guess of the State Health Department explained the operation of the unit to members of the Rotary club Tuesday, and consulted with local doctors relative to plans for the work here.

Norwood and City Ropers Meet Tues.

Wellington ropers will go to Samnorwood Tuesday night, May 25, to compete with the team from that community, Barney Walker, Norwood manager, announced this week.

The roping will begin about 8:00 p.m.

Approximately 10 men will be on each team, and since the calves are still wild and lively, some fast action and keen competition is due, Mr. Walker declared.

All persons interested in this sport are urged to attend.

In a recent roping contest between Jack Lowe of Amarillo, formerly of Samnorwood, and Troy Whatley of Groom, Lowe won with an average of 20.4 seconds on 12 calves, to a 26.9 average for Whatley.

History of Home Demonstration Work in County Tells of 13 Women With 20 Year-Service

There are a number of home demonstration club members of long standing in Collingsworth County who are to be commended for the effort they have extended through more than twenty-five years of service to their communities. The values resulting from this teamwork are to be found in more efficient homes, better diets for the family, and greater health and happiness for all.

Among the number who have continued their efforts in home demonstration club work for twenty or more years are Mrs. C. A. Kesler, Mrs. E. C. Clement, Mrs. T. C. Clement, Mrs. W. A. Morrow, and Mrs. A. B. Hicks, Fresno; Mrs. B. H. Brewer, Mrs. Tom Caldwell and Mrs. Charlie Graham, Midway; Mrs. Nathan Thompson, Mrs. V. J. Simpson and Mrs. Ike Rogers, Samnorwood; Mrs. W. C. Ketner and Mrs. George Mahaffey, Aberdeen.

One of the first home demonstration clubs was the Good Neighbors Club organized in the Fresno-Pleasant Point Community in 1916. The clubs organized at that time were sent programs directly from the Extension Service, Texas A. and M. College. Club members presented the different parts of the programs and gave a summary prepared by the specialists.

Miss Birdie Thompson came to Collingsworth County as home demonstration agent in 1922, and a beef canning demonstration was among the first demonstrations given in the county. Mrs. C. A. Kesler relates a vivid picture of one of these demonstrations given in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Forbis where most of the community members had gathered to see this demonstration. As a result of these demonstrations over the county several pressure cookers were purchased and a number of them are still in use.

In 1924 Mrs. Kesler won first place in the county kitchen contest. She and one or two other club members in that community were among the first in the county to have elevated cisterns and sinks to provide running water in their kitchens.

There were also a number of outstanding 4-H club girls during the early years of home demonstration work in the county. Hazel McClure (Watts) was a state scholarship winner which entitled her to $300 scholarship to be used in any state college she chose to attend. Trula Morrow (Clement) was a state winner in the National 4-H Camp Contest and received a trip to Washington to the National 4-H Club Encampment. Attractive C of C Booklet Describes Resources and Opportunities of County

A brochure containing an agricultural, commercial and industrial survey of Collingsworth County was released for the first time last week by the Wellington Chamber of Commerce.

Designed especially to give any prospective resident or other interested persons a complete overall picture of Collingsworth County, its opportunities and resources, the booklet is also being mailed to business firms of the county in order that they, too, may be aware of the full value of the county in which they live.

"We hope each person receiving this booklet will read it carefully. Many times, it is a merchant and the information concerning a place that he gives out that determines whether a prospective resident moves to town or not."

"A number of Wellington business men have asked us to prepare the information for them concerning the Wellington trade area, and this booklet is our response," T. A. Tomlinson, Chamber of Commerce manager, said.

The attractive booklet was compiled by Mr. Tomlinson and Miss Joyce Wynn.

The material is printed and mimeographed, and has an attractive simulated wood cover, bearing a line-drawing representing the Duke of Wellington, for whom this city was named. This is also the booster name carried by the Red River Valley baseball team.

The drawing was made by Henry Sullivan and is reproduced along with this article.

In the coming issues of The Leader, the information contained will be reprinted along with maps used in the folder.

DESCRIPTION OF COLLINGSWORTH COUNTY

Collingsworth, a cotton, grain, and livestock county with an area of 899 square miles is situated in the southeast corner of the Texas Panhandle. It has a level to broken surface and drained by Elm Creek, Buck Creek, and by Salt Fork of Red River. Its altitude varies from 1800 to 2600 feet.

The annual rainfall is about 21 to 24 inches with the major portion falling between April and September. The annual temperature is about 65 degrees and the average killing frost date is November 15.

There are four towns and community markets, Dodson, Quail, Samnorwood, and Wellington, the county seat, was named for the Duke of Wellington and has an estimated population of 4,500. This town is the commercial center for the county and has five cotton gins, one cotton compress, four grain elevators, a newspaper, a wholesale concern, and one hospital.

It is served by a branch of the Fort Worth & Denver City Railway, the Missouri, Kansas, and Texas Railway, and several bus and truck lines.

Dodson, an old community in the southeastern part of the county, has a population of 426 and is a marketing center for considerable territory.

Samnorwood and Quail are two of the largest consolidated school districts in the county, each having a splendid plant built with the assistance of the Work Project Administration.

Physiographically, Collingsworth is in that area just below the caprock where the roughlands gradually soften to the gently rolling prairies of the north central plains, geologically, the county is in the Permian Basin, which means that 250,000,000 years ago, it was a shallow sea which, extended over much of what is Northwest and West Texas.

Fruit, berries, and grapes do well in the county especially in the sub-irrigated section to the north and east of Wellington. The shelter belts planted over most sections under government supervision in the late 1930's have made remarkable growth and show that trees will do as well if set out and given proper care.

Collingsworth is an agriculture county, where twenty to thirty thousand bales of cotton are ginned every year. Approximately 550,000 bushels of wheat have been shipped this past season to points south and east. There are approximately 254,000 acres in cultivation which is an increase of 50,000 acres in two years. Wheat, cotton, maize, alfalfa, oats, barley, and sudan for pasture make up this acreage.

CLIMATE
This section is considered to be very healthful. The climate is mild, and the summer heat and winter cold are not too effective because both the heat and cold are of a dry nature.

The rainfall in 1947 measured 24 inches. The average mean temperature is 59 degrees. The average date of the first killing frost is November 15 and of the last killing frost is March 23. The growing season averages 203 days.

The soils vary from dark brown sandy loam to grey brown gypsum and deep sandy.

The altitude of the city of Wellington is 2,031 feet.

Snooping around the Capital City trying to learn who will be the Secretary of Agriculture after Clinton P. Anderson officially resigns on May 10, we find the picture a little foggy, but a large number of predictors saying it may be Congressman John Flanagan of Virginia, who has announced his retirement from the House this year. He has been active in agricultural legislation for many years. Other names mentioned, but less often are those of Charles Brannan, assistant to Anderson, and N. E. "Fats and oils, the food commodity probably second in importance to cereal," says the Food and Agricultural Organization of the United Nations, "... unfortunately appear to be almost as inadequate as a year ago while prospects do not warrant any real optimism for the next year or two at least." Rev. Ellis Meredith Receives Doctor's Degree on May 7

ARLINGTON — At commencement ceremonies held Friday morning, May 7, at the Southwestern Baptist Seminary in Fort Worth, Rev. Ellis Meredith, pastor of the First Baptist Church here, had the degree of Doctor of Theology conferred on him. Rev. Meredith has been pastor of the church here since June 1, 1941.

A former principal of the schools at Lillie, the 37-year-old pastor, who was reared at Floydada, where his mother, Mrs. C. E. Meredith, Sr., still resides, completed his high school work at Floydada. He then completed Wayland Baptist Junior College in 1939 and received his B. A. degree from Simmons University (not Hardin-Simmons) in 1933.

After teaching for three years, he began his pastoral work in 1934, holding pastorates at Dodsonville, Petrolia, Archer City and Burleson before coming to Arlington.

In 1940 he received his Master of Theology degree from Southwestern Seminary and was admitted for graduate study and completed two years residence work toward his Th. D. degree in 1942.

Requirements for Doctor of Theology degree are high as all work must average 90 or above. Five years of residence work are required in addition to college degree work, and a rigid oral examination on all work must be taken, with a thesis involving extensive research. All must be approved by a Graduate Committee.

Writing his thesis on "The Humanity of Jesus as Set Forth in the Gospel and First Epistle of John," Rev. Meredith did some research work previous to last fall. The church here granted him necessary leave for completion of his work at that time and additional research was one in the libraries of the Seminary and TCU at Fort Worth as well as the libraries of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary and the Presbyterian Seminary in Louisville, Ky. The thesis was completed and submitted for approval in February of this year.

Under Rev. Meredith's leadership, the church resident membership has increased from 616 to 1103. There have been 1161 additions to the church and the Sunday school attendance has been upped from an average of 256 to 470. Rev. Meredith has also led in a building campaign which was culminated in the erection of a $225,000 church building here.

Mrs. Meredith, the former Miss Maudelle Dukeminier of Wellington, and the pastor were married in 1934. She is an accomplished musician and pastor's helper.

HOW READEST THOU?

"And beside this, giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue; and to virtue knowledge; and to knowledge temperance; and to temperance patience; and to patience godliness; and to godliness brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness charity. . . . But he that lacketh these things is blind, and cannot see afar off, and hath forgotten that he was purged from his old sins. Wherefore the rather, brethren, give diligence to make your calling and election sure; for if ye do these things, ye shall never fall" (2 Pet. 1:5-10).

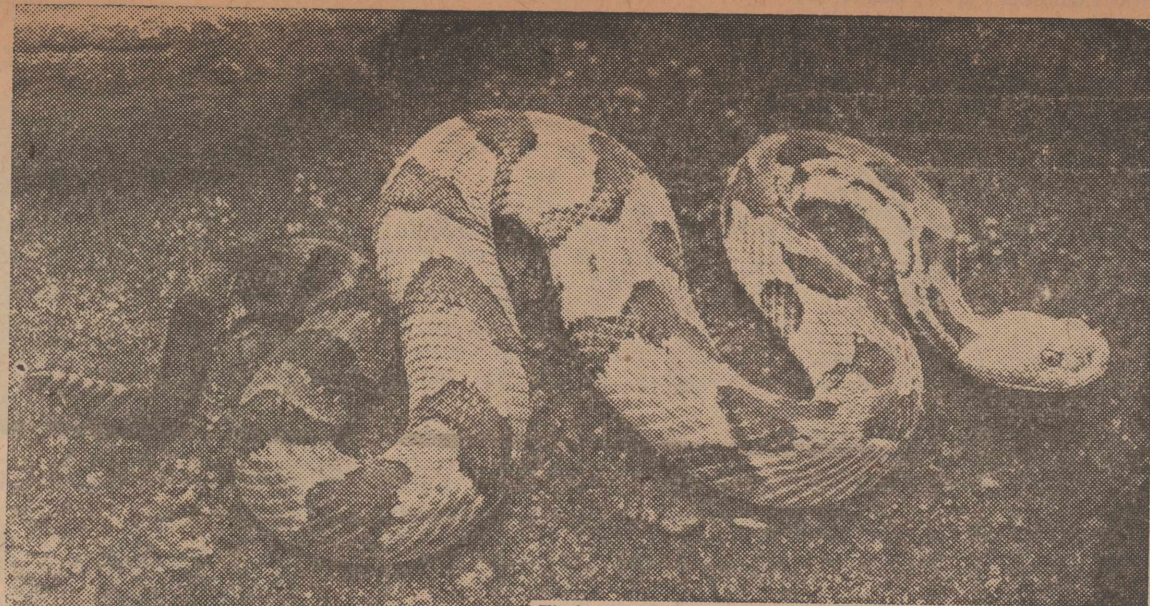

"For if after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein, and overcome, the latter end is worse with them than the beginning" (2 Pet. 2:20).

SNAKEBITE SEASON'S HERE

Someone's going to be bitten—What would you do if it were you? These directions are given for emergency treatment of snakebite. Send for a physician at once. 1. Apply a tourniquet immediately about two inches above the bite. Loosen at intervals to prevent gangrene. 2. Make cross cut incisions with sharp knife or razor blade, at bite and on advancing edges of swelling. 3. Apply suction at each cut incision for fifteen minutes of every hour. 4. Inject ativenin as soon as possible around the wound and higher on the bitten limb. 5. After injection of antivenin, release tourniquet and continue suction with empty syringe until all symptoms subside.

You too Can Have Cool Washed Air

Night or Day With These

Essick Air Conditioners

On days when the heat or humidity, or both are unbearable people in all climates go to the lake or seashore to be cool and comfortable. The reason why they are cool and comfortable are the same five reasons evaporated air coolers create comfort.

The propeller fan or blower of an evaporative air cooler, continuously pulls outside air through wet filter pads, usually made of excelsior. This process lowers the temperature of the air through evaporation of water in the wet filter pads and also filters the air. This cool, fresh, filtered air is then directed into the area to be cooled. The cool breeze of the seashore is air in motion that has been cooled by this same process of water evaporation.

The fresh cool air from an evaporative air cooler and the fresh cool air at the seashore are identical. With an evaporative cooler installed it is possible to duplicate and enjoy the same cooling and comfort in the home, office or store that people enjoy at the lake and seashore.

We Practice What We Preach!

Many newspapers will continue to "hound" the local merchant to advertise. Week in and week out representatives of the publication will call on the various business firms and "preach advertising"—never for once trying it themselves. Never for once spending valuable space to advise their readers of the merits of their publication, of the job work service they offer, of the stationery they handle. But, with The Wellington Leader it's different—we practice what we preach.

We Advertise!

We advertise because it is the only means we have to inform our readers of the many advantages our publication offers. We advertise our job printing department through the columns of the Leader because we know it is the best contact we could ever establish with our prospective job printing user. In brief, we advertise everything because we believe in advertising.

We Know It Pays!

Results are obtained from every advertisement we run—which gives us reason to know that advertising pays. It costs so few cents per column inch that every merchant can afford it. Advertising isn't overhead—it's an investment—and it pays.

Farm prices, which skidded disastrously in 1921 and took other prices with them on the descent, appear to be in no danger of similar collapse in the foreseeable future. Secretary of Agriculture Anderson recently predicted that the general level of agricultural prices may decline by a third in the next two or three years. Even this drop would not match the precipitous plunge in 1921 but Mr. Anderson's forecast, made on the eve of his resignation from the cabinet to run for the United States Senate, may be taken as colored more by politics than economics. It appeared to be part of an effort to convince the farmers that the Democrats are their true friends and that they can expect little if a Republican administration comes into power.

The recent analysis of farm price conditions and prospects issued by the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago therefore can be taken as being a sounder and more impartial effort to divine the future. The bank's study concluded that farm prices may decline generally in the next few months, but only enough to bring them more nearly to the level of other prices.

So long as employment and income remain at a high level, the demand for farm products can be expected to remain high. Expenditures to be made under the European recovery program also will help to sustain demand for farm products, even though grain and flour shipments to Europe are not due to be as high as the unprecedented level of the current crop year. The recent tax cut and the prospect of greater expenditures for national defense are other factors which should have an effect, even if indirect, in bolstering farm prices.

The sag in the commodity market earlier this year created an uneasiness among farmers that this was a forecast of worse things to come. But farm prices now have recovered a great deal of the ground lost then and changing economic conditions now seem to offer assurance for an indefinite period against price ruination for the farmer—Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

The first time I was ever paged was in the lobby of the Jefferson Hotel in Dallas in the spring of 1928. I was sitting there reading a paper when a bellboy sauntered by, chanting "Paging Mr. House; Mr. Boyce House." I was so astonished that he had nearly gotten out of earshot before I hailed him.

There are some questions that are better left unanswered—as for example if your wife asks, "If I were to die, would you marry again?" If you answer, "Yes," she may think you've already got a successor in mind; if you say "No," she may think that you consider marriage such a state as once out of, you'd never return thereunto. So, brother, sidestep that question.

Maiden Voyage... S. S. TEXAS

The steel industry and its allied fabrication plants provide jobs for more than 40,000 Texas workers. This is another Texas industry in which natural resources of the earth are put to use for the benefit of mankind.

The growing steel industry of the South combines our own native minerals with the natural resources of many other areas. But there would be no steel industry in the South today if those natural resources were left worthless in the ground.

There would be no natural gas industry, either—no convenient, low-cost fuel for your home or factory—if this important resource were left in the ground. Only after companies like United Gas gathered, processed and transported it to places where people could use it, did natural gas become of value to mankind. This is practical conservation, for it stimulates industrial development, creates jobs and benefits all the families in Texas.

STEEL INDUSTRY

Southern capital invested in steel fabrication plants has made thousands of jobs for southern workers, providing payrolls for our people, tax revenues for our government and income for local businesses in every section of the South. This is Free Enterprise at work—the profit system that has made the American standard of living the highest in the world today.

Real Strength of Nation in Soil Coleman Reminds

The statement "eternal vigilance is the price of liberty" applies to our soil as well as our national life, says J. A. Coleman, Chairman of the Collingsworth County Agricultural Conservation Committee.

"At this time when there is so much being said about increasing our military forces, building more airplanes and developing super atomic bombs, some of us may forget that the real strength of the nation is rooted in the soil.

"From the soil comes food. And without food all the other things have little meaning. Too often and far too long the soil from which we get our food has been taken for granted. Even floods which wash away millions of tons of precious top-soil often interests us only because of the bridges washed away or the homes destroyed. A $10,000 bridge washed out attracts attention. $100,000 worth of top-soil washed away by the same flood may not even be mentioned. And yet, the bridge can be replaced while the soil cannot."

The Chairman points out that the thin layer of top-soil which supports life on the earth is getting thinner each year. Only by "eternal vigilance" in checking erosion wherever possible can "we continue to take from our soil the 240 billion pounds of food needed for the people in this country each year. Only by keeping our soil and keeping it productive through the use of conservation practices will we be able to keep our Nation strong."

The Agricultural Conservation Program, he explains, has been set up to help farmers of Collingsworth County to do their share in building a "stronger Nation by building a stronger soil."

Canadian Wildcats Lose to Rockets

Southpaw Orville Copeland set down the Canadian baseball crew Tuesday, May 11, with a three-hit pitching performance while his mates got to two Canadian twirlers for 10 hits and 15 runs.

Starting his first game of the season, the freshman Portside struck out 10 of the 20 batters to face him in the five-inning affair and had allowed no hits until two were out in the fourth when Farnsworth, Canadian catcher, lined a home run past the center fielder.

The Rockets got off to a fast start in the first inning when they combined seven hits and a walk to chase in 9 runs. Fulton and Brim hit triples in the big first inning.

It was a big day for triples for the Rockets. In the second Brim got his second triple but was thrown out at the plate and Eads hit for three bases in the third with two on. Fulton got his second triple in the fourth with one on.

The Tuesday win brought the season standing to 9 wins in 14 games. Three losses is league play were to Memphis, White Deer and Shamrock, and two to Shamrock.

The three wins outside district play were over Dodson and Pampa.

Eyes set too close together may mean a mean disposition, but lips set too far apart are sure to get you into trouble.

Howdy, folks.

Howard Forbis, from down in the Pleasant Point community was in the store last week after some repair parts. We didn't have what he wanted, but he said the only reason he wanted it anyway was so we'd get his name in the paper.

The fish story we had last week got some considerable comment. Some even went so far as to give it as their opinion that there wasn't anything to it. Others, like A. L. Head, merely wanted to know how to get to the place where the fish was caught.

Speaking of fish stories reminds me about one of our citizens who went fishing over at Lugert, and dipped his bait in a bottle he had along. He lost the fish off the line, but it followed him home anyway, begging for some more of that bait.

Leo Wyrick, from Arlie, was in the store the other day with his magneto, to get it overhauled.

Sam Berryman brought his truck in the other day to get some work done on his brakes.

Jim Clark had a small job done on his F-14 Farmall in the shop recently.

Joe Baumgardner brought his Farmall H in for a complete motor overhaul late last week.

V. K. Orr had his International truck in the shop Saturday for a small repair job.

Jim Woods brought his Farmall M to the shop to be cleaned up and checked over last week. Which reminds me—as the weather gets hotter, your tractor is likely to run hot unless you have the radiator cleaned out, and the motor cleaned off. We do this with steam, and the cost is very reasonable.

Buck Breeding brought his H

Farmall in for some clutch and brake repairs the other day.

The 15-30 International tractor belonging to the Three Cookes was in the shop late last week for a clutch and front wheel overhaul. This is an old tractor, but is still doing a whole of a lot of work for these gentlemen.

John Jones had us do some work on an F-20 magneto last week.

Paul Bell is getting a combine in shape for the harvest this year. He was in the store buying parts last week.

R. L. Karnes, E. C. Blevins, H. A. McWhorter, D. D. Thomas, and many others have been in the past few days after parts for their Farmall planters, and for complete planter boxes and equipment for building planters on other tractors.

Lee Minyard brought his D2 International truck in for some work and repairs on the brakes the other day.

A. V. Lowrie was here last week buying some clearance lights to put on his new truck. Sorry it wasn't an International, but maybe that was our fault for not having one for him.

Walter Robinson, farming near Arlie with Pete Nipper, was in after some go-devil knives last week. We have plenty of these—regular IHC knives, which are higher in price, but also worth a good deal more than the usual knife made out of cheap stalk cutter steel.

O. B. Wilson came in after some truck parts the other day.

J. H. Painter, of Hedley, was in Wellington last week to get some repair parts for his combine. It's getting close to time to start out with these machines—and it looks like there might be some shortage of some combine parts this year as there was last. Forward-looking combine owners are buying what they need right now.

Palo Cummings had to have some parts for an old style International mower the other day, and of course he didn't have any trouble finding them here.
