Not—
"April Showers Bring May Flowers."
But—
"March Freezes Bring No Peaches."

Upon mailing this publication last week we were immediately and promptly informed by several readers that "undoubtedly you got your headline wrong", in that they intimated in a strong manner that it should have read, "A Light Frost and Heavy Freeze" in article regarding the climatical change. The head read just the opposite.

We are sorry, as usual, and believe that we were not by ourself in not realizing just how low the mercury did drop. Just yesterday we were informed by one of our readers that temperature went to 14 or possibly lower.

Oh, well, that's Texas weather for you. But who wants to live elsewhere.

It is when the war is over, and the "it" who made their escape from Camp Barkeley Stockade last week like a bunch of gophers, get back to their "Fatherland" and you-know-who is fortunate enough to be alive and hear their story related, it will be most amusing. I am sure, that elderly nightwatchmen, railroad yard bulls and Texas Rangers have no fear of the "Superior Race" no matter what the Nazis life training had been in making them the "it" airmen.

Thus ends the search for 12 of the German prisoners who had a short liberty, after the last were caught by a special railroad agent in El Paso this week.

Easter, with its quiet meditative Sabbath observance, will be here Sunday morning. A season of the year, that brings to one's heart the thoughts of the Resurrection. And a prayer to our lips that the present world-wide conflict would cease and a calm pass over the disturbed universe, restoring to our midst our loved ones from the camps, and the battlefields.

There is a vacant seat for all who will go to the church of their choice in Eldorado Sunday, and breathe such a prayer.

That morning rush would be solved if folks realized coffee cooks quicker if it is put on ten minutes earlier.

Men Go Into Service; Others To Go For Physicals April 12

Among those men reporting for induction into the armed forces on Wednesday of this week were: Elmer (Smokey) Turnbow, Jacob Ward Watkins and Thorpe (Pete) Parker to the U. S. Army. Carroll Ratliff and Moises Rodriguez reported for duty in Naval service.

The men were inducted through a San Antonio induction center.

The following men are to leave April 12 for their pre-physical induction: James Elton Carroll, Frank Delwood Blair, Frances Joe Reynolds, Linn Dacy, Samuel Perry McDonald, James Emory Ledbetter, Guy Rodriguez, Julian Frutoz, Guerra Ramon, Anode Del Toro, and Fernando Bolderas Ramon.

The Selective Service Board received a call on Monday of this week for 18 men on May 15.

General Land Office Offers 225,000 Acres School Land For Sale

Bascom Giles, Commissioner of the General Land Office, has announced the sale for May 2, 1944, of 225,000 acres of State School Land located in more than 75 counties throughout the State. Commissioner Giles points out that the diversified soil and locations of this land should, in a large measure, meet the present unusual interest in and heavy demand for land purchases.

One of the purposes of the sale is to convert property, now in the hands of the State, which, in some instances, produces small revenue, into private ownership for development so that it will be rendered for taxes which will be beneficial to the schools and the counties as well as the state.

Attractive Terms Offered
The terms for sale of Public Free School Lands are most attractive. An initial payment of one-fifth is required, and the remainder may be carried over a period of 40 years in an "on-or-before" note. The State retains a free royalty of one-eighth of the gross production of sulphur and one sixteenth of oil, gas and other minerals.

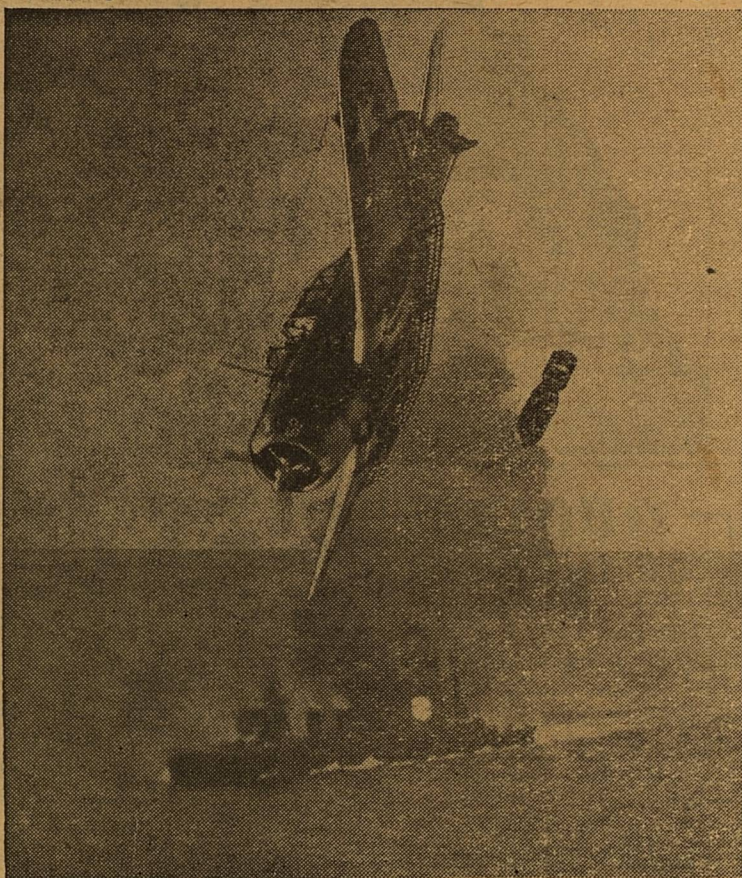

Anyone interested may receive a list of the lands offered, together with instructions for bidding, by writing Bascom Giles, Commissioner of the General Land Office, Austin, Texas.

Red Cross Total Reported At $2859.32

Mrs. E. H. Coulter, Wednesday of this week reported the final collection for the Red Cross Drive at $2,859.32, bringing the contributions slightly over the quota of $2,778.50 set for the county by national headquarters.

The three principal countries that colonized America are England, France and Spain.

Navy's Automatic Unwrapper For Tojo

Official Navy Composite Photos

Somewhere in The Pacific — A Navy flyer plummets his dive bomber in near vertical descent briefly racing his own bomb toward targets such as this Jap cruiser our flyers bombed, burned and sank off the Marshall Islands.

Navy bombs are equipped with delicate automatic fuses which have little propellers that start whirling when the bomb is dropped. After falling about 500 feet it unscrews the mechanism and a plunger falls into firing position ready to explode the bomb when it hits the target.

Foretelling bad news for the Japs, bomb fuses of this type have secretly been in mass production by Nash-Kelvinator Corporation since March, 1942, it was recently disclosed in a Navy approved statement announcing completion of the big contract "on schedule."

One New, One Re-elect In Saturday Voting

Saturday's election of last week saw a vote of more than double that of last year in that only some 44 ballots were cast in 1943 against 100 in the Independent School District election of last week.

Elected to the office of trustees were those on the ticket as follows: J. W. Lawhon, Jr., (re-election) and W. F. (Jimmie) West.

A write-in movement during the day accounts for the above-average vote being cast.

Jess Koy retired from the board this year after having served for a long period of time. West was elected to fill the vacancy.

W. N. Ramsay was acting election judge, with polls being established in the courthouse.

BROTHER OF MRS. DORA OLIVER DIES SUDDENLY

Mrs. Dora Oliver received word last week of the death of her brother, Adley Owen, of San Saba on Wednesday afternoon, March 29. Mr. Owen's body was found in a field where he had been plowing. His death was attributed to a heart attack.

A native of San Saba county, Mr. Owen was 66 years of age at the time of his passing. The remains were laid to rest in Harmony Ridge, San Saba county.

Besides his widow, he is survived by five children, two brothers, three sisters, including Mrs. Oliver, and a number of grandchildren.

There are four cups of sifted white flour in a pound.

Acting under strict military censorship, Nash-Kelvinator became one of the world's largest manufacturers of bomb fuses, producing three types for Navy bombs ranging from 100 pounders up to Atoll-Buster size.

Manufacture of these bomb fuses has been proceeding along with the company's mass production of 2000 HP aircraft engines, hydromatic propellers, propeller governors, and large scale manufacture of essential parts for jeeps, seeps, tanks and trucks, and parts for submarines and ships.

The bomb fuses, none of which have been seen by the public, have established an outstanding record in the Pacific. Larger size Navy bombs carry two of these propeller-type fuses to make doubly sure a bomb will explode—one in the nose and one in the tail. None of these bombs has ever been known to fall on the target a "dud".

Light Vote Cast In City Election

Little interest was apparently taken in the City election held Tuesday of this week, when only 23 votes were cast to elect those on the ticket for two aldermen. They are: S. M. Oglesby, Jr., and W. F. (Jimmie) West.

Former Eldoradoian Succumbs In Arizona

Mrs. Mattie Cozzens received word here Tuesday of the death of her sister, Mrs. Oscar Gibson at her home in Glendale, Ariz., on April 4.

Mrs. Gibson, the former Miss Susie Bailey, was reared in Eldorado and for many years, she and her husband resided in the Bailey Ranch community. The many many friends of the family will regret to hear of her death.

Funeral services were held in Fort Worth Friday (today) at 3 o'clock with interment there.

Survivors other than the husband include one son, Lieut. Col. W. B. Gibson, Dayton, Ohio; three sisters, three brothers, one grandson and the step-mother, Mrs. A. K. Bailey.

INFANT SON OF ISAACS REPORTED IMPROVED

Kenneth Eugene, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Issacs, is reported improved, after he was rushed to a San Angelo hospital earlier in the week, suffering from bronchial pneumonia.

Local Churches To Observe Easter Sunday Services Here

Observing Easter Sunday, various churches of the city are planning special services for the day.

The Presbyterian group are to have with them the Reverend B. B. Hestir of Carlsbad, Tex., who will bring an Easter message and conduct an infant christening at the church at 3:30 p. m.

At the morning hour the First Baptist church will have a special Easter service, with regular services in the evening.

The Methodist congregation will have a special Easter message in the morning, and at the evening hour a cantata, consisting of a large group of youth of the church will be presented. Much time has been spent in the preparation of the presentation and a large congregation is expected to attend.

Fundamentalist Baptist church will have special Easter sermon program, and communion at the 11 o'clock hour.

"Our Neighbor the Church", is the title of a special Easter page brought to the readers of this paper through the courtesy of business men, firms and individuals. Your are invited to turn to this page and observe it.

Eggs For Hunt Are Needed Now Say Committeemen

The annual Lions' Club Easter Egg Hunt will be held on Easter Sunday, April 9, at 2 o'clock p. m. on the lot north of the courthouse, committeemen in charge said this week.

Since candy eggs are not available this year, hen eggs will be used exclusively. All citizens who are willing to donate eggs for the hunt are asked to leave them at any of the local grocery stores by Saturday noon. Local members of the Girl Scouts have agreed to color the eggs.

Eggs will be hid separately for children of ages 1 to 3, 4 to 7, and 8 to 12 years of age.

Following the main hunt at the court house, eggs will be hid for Mexican and negro children at the same places used in past years.

Firemen Enjoy Barbecue Tuesday

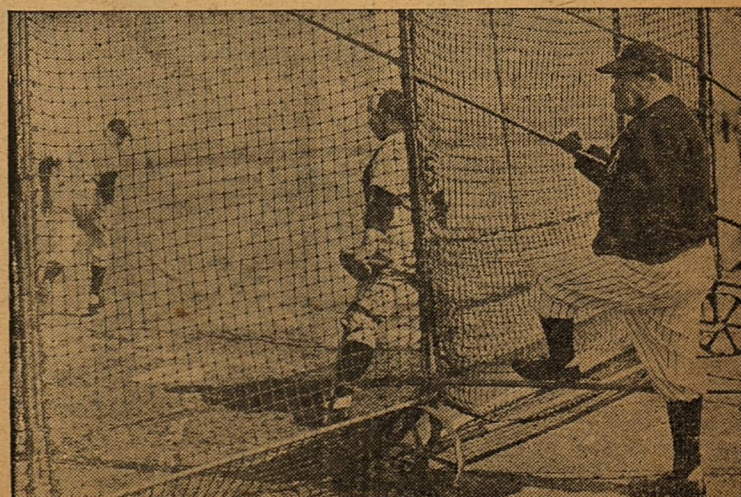

Volunteer Firemen, their wives, county and city officials, enjoyed a barbecue on the courthouse plaza Tuesday evening given by the department in honor of members of the department who are involved in the draft.

Approximately 70 persons were present at the event. A dance followed at Rock Station, with music by recordings.

WASHINGTON SNAPSHOTS

By JAMES PRESTON

Opposition has risen in both the Senate and House against the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration plans to provide hundreds of thousands of farm machines to other nations while American farmers are said to be unable to obtain adequate equipment. Representative Disney (D., Okla.) characterized the plan as "not only deplorable, but astounding." Senator Reynolds (D., N. C.) quoted in the Senate from the Truman report, which asserted that the farm machinery program was now behind, and that many farmers have "pressing" need for such equipment. He reported that despite this shortage UNRRA was planning to send abroad 85,000 plows, 30,000 tractors, 30,000 separators, 30,000 two-wheel trailers and other farm machinery.

Industrial executives from the District of Columbia will be among those attending the N. A. M.'s Eights Institute on Industrial Relations at the Royal Worth Hotel, West Palm Beach, Fla. April 3-6. A total of about 160 executives from 33 states are present this week. The conference, which will probe every present-day and postwar problem from morale to manpower, is designed to aid in establishing sound human and industrial relations between the nation's workers and managers.

A new slant on the postwar prospects of small business is covered in a Department of Commerce survey which should be of special interest to industries that normally dispose of a large proportion of their output to small distributors. In a nutshell, the survey acknowledges the heavy mortality suffered by small enterprise as a result of the impact of war but based on a long-range study of business and population trends, it predicts a healthy postwar resurgence.

New Machine For Army Disclosed

Army censorship has just been lifted to reveal that industry has developed 'an armored greyhound' combining the speed of an automobile with the punch and protection of a light tank.

The "greyhound," resembling a giant turtle, is a six-wheeled, seven-ton scout car. Capable of high speed over almost any type of terrain, the vehicle can climb a 45-per cent grade and travel through water. It is equipped with a 37-mm. antitank gun and .30 caliber machine gun, and is designed to "outgun everything that it can't outshoot."

THRIFT

A Patriotic Duty of Every American

In this time of stress, each of us owes it to his country to be thrifty. We must conserve materials on the one hand so they will be available for defense purposes. We must conserve money, on the other hand, to help our country finance defense activities. By being thrifty, and by accumulating money in your bank account, you are contributing to your country's well being while at the same time helping yourself.

QUOTES OF THE WEEK

"Live your life in a natural way; don't worry about the future; and have as good a time as you can, going along from day to day, but don't overdo it."—Secretary of Interior Harold L. Ickes, on his 70th birthday.

"The government is taking earnings of business away at such a rate that business is not being allowed to save capital to convert its plants back. If that trend continues as it is going now, it will have serious effects on reemployment of the eleven million men who are in the armed services."—Edwin G. Booz, Pres. Asso. of Consulting Management Engineers.

"If industry is to function it must be able to get new capital when it needs it. And if new industries are to develop even venture capital must be available. Thousands of people throughout the country must be willing to risk their savings."—Ralph Hendershot, financial authority.

"I don't want anybody outside of my controls waltzing around Europe doing as he pleases with the same name."—William Patrick Hitler, nephew of you-know-who, on being sworn into U. S. Navy.

You'll get by all the ups and downs of life if you stay on the level.

Less Pension Checks Are Scheduled

The State Department of Public Welfare is distributing this week 176,685 old age assistance warrants totaling $3,751,736.40.

This is 783 fewer checks than were distributed last month.

Blind aid is being distributed to 4,683 persons, which is four less than the previous month, at a total cost of $114,014.

The department added 114 families with 236 children to dependent rolls during the past month. A total of $211,198 is being distributed this week to 9,963 dependent children families.

It's true we usually can put through quickly your long distance telephone calls to towns near-by. But when you send your voice to far cities, it may travel on lines jammed to the limit with calls that help move troops, making planes, build tanks.

We can't put on more lines, because most of the metal has gone to war. So please help us in a vital job. Make as few calls as possible to war centers or cities far away, and please plan to keep such calls short. It will help clear the way for the calls of war.

THE AGRICULTURAL BILL

Before recessing for Easter, the House passed the annual agriculture appropriation bill. This year's measure carried a total of direct appropriations of less than 900 million dollars, whereas last year the bill was 350 million above that.

The largest single item of saving was on the $170,000,000 heretofore appropriated for parity payments. At present the price of practically all the major crops is very close to the parity level.

The largest single appropriation left in the new bill is the $290,000,000 allocated for soil conservation payments to partly reimburse farmers for carrying out soil conservation practices.

REA PROGRAM SUSTAINED

A rather vigorous effort was made to limit the right of the REA to finance the acquisition of existing projects where necessary to expand the service to rural people.

All attacks on the program were defeated, but it was evident that enemies of the REA are always ready to hamper or destroy this worthwhile service. Those who oppose REA are often heard to complain that the rural co-operatives are getting a subsidy from the government and are, therefore, unfair competition to the private utilities. But that is not true. The REA only lends money, and the private utilities have the same privilege of borrowing as do the co-operatives.

The local co-operatives are self-supporting. These farmer-owned business organizations have repaid more than $30,000,000 of the principal of their loans while only $16,150,384 has come due. And of more than $470,000,000 loaned, only $157,470 of the loans to farmer co-operatives were delinquent as much as 30 days on February 1. This is a remarkable record.

RIVERS AND HARBORS BILL

A few days before, the House had passed the post-war Rivers and Harbors Bill after a vigorous fight over the authorization of what is known as the Tombigbee Project. This project involved $66,000,000 for the construction of a canal to connect the Tennessee and the Tombigbee Rivers. I voted against the expenditure of such a large sum for a project that seemed to me to be of such limited value, offering benefits covering such a limited area. The house finally eliminated this proposed $66,000,000 project from the bill.

Compact and authoritative information for servicemen, veterans and their dependents is offered in the Handbook recently published by the government. I have purchased a quantity of these booklets and will be glad to mail one free to anyone who desires such information. OUR NEIGHBOR THE CHURCH

Ask your neighbor what he wishes most of all and very probably he will answer, "Happiness". We are often reminded that this is the universal guest. Books roll off the press telling us how to achieve happiness. There is, however; a deeper desire of the soul and that is for completeness; the fulfilling of all Basic needs and longing. With completeness comes happiness; not as sensation; but as an abiding gift of the spirit.

No other institution down through the ages has contributed more towards the completeness of man and hence his happiness than the church. Think back over your own life. What an emptiness there would have been if all those activities... religious and social... associated with the church had not taken place. Whether we are active members or not, we all look to the church as our friend and neighbor and in times of joy and sorrow. What an empty place our community would be without our churches! What a beacon of hope and comfort are our churches during these war-torn days!

So with the coming of Easter, we the Individuals and Business Firms listed below feel it is particularly fitting that we take time out from our every day affairs to pay tribute to "Our Neighbor the Church".

BOYCE HOUSE HAS VOTING
PLAN FOR MEN IN SERVICE

Boyce House, who made a strong race for Lieutenant Governor two years ago and who has been frequently mentioned as a likely candidate for that office again this year, has offered a suggestion as to how Texas citizens in the Army and Navy might vote in the Democratic primary. House's statement follows:

"As a matter of common sense, it seems to me that the legislature has no right to say who shall or shall not belong to the Democratic Party or who can or can not vote in the Democratic primary."

"If the right is conceded to the legislature to regulate and control the membership qualifications of one voluntary group of citizens (such as a political party), then the legislature would have the power to prescribe the qualifications for membership in a lodge or a church. No such power on the part of the legislature exists, in my judgment."

"The Democratic Party has the right to determine the qualifications of its members and to decide who can vote in its primary and who can not.

Therefore, I respectfully suggest that the State Democratic Committee (as the executive body of the party) adopt a resolution to permit Texas citizens who are now serving in the armed forces, to vote in the party primary, and without payment of a poll tax."

Synthetic Doubles Scarce Rotenone Supply

Insecticides derived from Rotenone-Lethane mixtures have proved deadly to these cabbage worms which chew up 20% of all cabbages produced, destroying over four million dollars worth of cabbages annually.

A synthetic insect-killer promises this season to avert widespread destruction of essential U. S. vegetable crops threatened by acute insecticide shortages and to play an increasingly important role in controlling crop-destroying worms, beetles, plant lice, and leafhoppers which in 1943 devoured $37,500,000 worth of vegetables. Last year this powerful insecticide, known as Lethane 60, replaced an estimated 2,000,000 pounds of war-scarce rotenone roots—the standard pre-war insecticide used to control such insects as plant lice, Mexican Bean Beetles and Diamond-Back cabbage worms. But in this decisive year with natural insect killers harder to get than ever, leading vegetable growers report they will rely even more heavily on this rotenone "stretchers."

Developed before Pearl Harbor by the Rohm & Haas Company of Philadelphia, this synthetic permits dust mixers to cut the rotenone content of their vegetable dusts in half and still supply an insecticide as deadly to insects as pre-war straight rotenone dusts—thus saving precious supplies of these valuable roots. The War Production Board has restricted its use to essential requirements, but there will still not be enough to protect crops from insect ravages. However, it is believed that by "stretching" supplies with the Lethane concentrate growers will be able to make the available rotenone tonnage fill their needs.

Rotenone has been widely used since ancient times by South American natives as a fish poison. Because of its paralytic effect on fish, they float to the top of the water and are easily caught. Before the war rotenone-bearing roots were imported from Malaya and the Dutch East Indies, but when Jap battle fleets cut off supplies from the Far East, South America's limited production became the sole source of supply. Despite record plantings in Peru and Brazil during the past few years, limited quantities only have actually reached this country, for two or three years are required between planting and harvest.

Thus, with the War Food Administration demanding 428,000,000 acres in crops this year—an increase of 12% over 1943—growers are finding Lethane 60 a valuable ally. This synthetic has undergone three years of testing by large growers and Agricultural Experiment Stations throughout the country, which has proved its value and safety as an insecticide.
