UNITED STATES CITIZEN DIES ON GUILLOTINE

HITLER BEHEADS YOUTH DESPITE PROTESTS OF AMERICA

By LOUIS LOCHNER.
BERLIN, June 4 (AP)—Helmuth Hirsch, 21-year-old Jewish citizen of the United States who had never been in America, was executed by a mechanical guillotine at dawn today for an alleged treasonable plot under the explosive law—presumably a plan to kill Adolf Hitler.

Clemency apparently was refused by Der Fuehrer—the only one able to give it—because authorities believed Hirsch acted for Otto Strasser, Hitler's bitter enemy, who now is in exile in Prague, Czechoslovakia, the youth's home.

Execution occurred in Ploetzensee prison despite four clemency appeals by United States Ambassador William E. Dodd.

Hirsch went to his death by the guillotine with a 20-year-old German, Oscar Denner, condemned like himself on a charge of high treason. This grim mechanism was substituted only recently for the traditional axe.

Hirsch, who achieved American citizenship through his grandfather, merely asked for a cup of coffee and permission to write four letters before he was put to death. One of the letters was to his parents, in Praha.

A Jewish rabbi had stayed with Hirsch throughout the night.

American diplomatic and consular officials, in pleading vainly for Hirsch's life, urged clemency on these grounds:

1. That he was a citizen of the United States, where the death penalty is not given for an unintended act.
2. He was very young and probably influenced by older people.

Ambassador Dodd asked to examine the evidence in the case, including one allegation that Hirsch tried to dynamite the party headquarters of Julius Streicher and kill this high anti-semitic aide of Der Fuehrer.

He was told, however, that this was secret and that no one could see the transcript until the sentence had been carried out.

No American official was present at the actual execution.

Hirsch was sentenced last March 20 after a trial under the explosives law.

Hirsch was arrested last Dec. 20 on his arrival in Berlin from Praha, Czechoslovakia, where his father, Siegfried, still lives.

Helmuth's grandfather, Solomon Hirsch, was naturalized in New York in 1873. Siegfried Hirsch, after living in the United States eight years, returned to Czechoslovakia where he had been born. Helmuth was born in Stuttgart, in southwestern Germany.

ALLRED HITS BACK AT SMALL ON RACE ISSUE

AUSTIN, June 4 (AP)—Governor James V. Allred said today that Sen. C. C. Small of Amarillo "Apparently hasn't gotten over my defeating him for Governor in 1934."

Allred had been asked if he had any reply to Small's charges on the Senate floor yesterday during debate on repeal of the anti-miscegenation law.

"I don't believe the Senator would have said what he did in his calmer moments," Allred commented. "His statement about smoking me out reminds me of the little dog that barked at the moon."

Small had said that during the last legislative race track interests employed an Allred group to represent them and that repeal was not voted on at the regular session or submitted at the end of three special sessions.

He added that they failed to do that this year.

He also stated that he hoped he had "made some contribution toward smoking the administration out of bookies and dog racing."

Allred congratulated what he called "The immortal 16" in the Senate. Eighteen votes were cast for final passage of the repeal bill but only 16 stayed with the repealists on all moves.

I Heard...

So many complimentary remarks about the Top O' Texas Fiesta from old timers, newcomers and transients that it would take a book to record them. Pampa is indeed living up to her title as the "Friendly City at the Top O' Texas."

Thrills, Spills Attract Huge Rodeo Crowds

Rodeo Queen Will be Crowned Tonight At Park

Finals in the hotly contested rodeo and crowning of the Rodeo Queen will be highlights in the closing program of the Top O' Texas Fiesta tonight at Recreation park, a mile east of the city on U. S. Highway 60.

A beautiful crown will be placed on the head of the Rodeo Queen during the performance which is scheduled to begin at 8 o'clock with calf roping first event on the card. The queen will be selected by judges during a parade this afternoon but her identity will not be revealed until tonight.

Standing room was at a premium for yesterday afternoon's opening rodeo attraction and there were thrills and spills galore. "Cowboy" Earl Isley failed by five seconds to ride the Jaycee steer as the opening event. A light shower fell just before rodeo time last night but the contestants went through their program for no money.

Eddie Curtis of El Reno, Okla., world champion bulldogger, not only won that contest but took first place in bronc riding. Pampa's Jimmie Olsen gave an outstanding performance to win the steer riding event. Bill Van Vactor of Carter, Okla., took the calf roping title opening day.

Only one accident occurred yesterday when Junior Calwell of Fort Worth was knocked unconscious in the chute while mounting a horse in the bronc riding event. The horse reared back and slipped, falling with its rider. Calwell was injured in the Dumas rodeo last week and apparently had not regained sufficient strength to fight the horse. He was carried from the arena unconscious but after receiving first aid was able to be taken

800 PIONEERS ATTEND FIESTA

All registration figures were broken yesterday as more than 800 old timers registered at the Pioneers Roundup at the gym. Hundreds of visitors came today for the final Top O' Texas Fiesta attractions.

Old timers filled the gym all day yesterday and until the wee small hours this morning when the pioneer ball which began at 8 o'clock last night finally ended. Hundreds who did not come yesterday began arriving early today in the city from all over the Panhandle.

The program today, as yesterday, will include reminiscing, square dancing, fiddling. Many old timers will stay at home and rest until tonight when they will again fill the gym for the old-time dances.

The names of part of those who registered yesterday follow. The rest will be printed in Sunday's edition of the NEWS:

GRAND BALL TO WIND UP FIESTA EVENTS

Two of the largest crowds ever to attend dances in Pampa are expected tonight at the high school gymnasium and at the Southern club.

At the high school gym the concluding Fiesta dance for old timers will be held, beginning at 9 p. m., and at the Southern club will be the Grand Fiesta ball which is to get under way at 10 p. m.

Dances for old men at the Southern club last night and for the old timers at the gymnasium were packed with celebrators and tonight's crowds are expected to eclipse even those of the opening night.

COURT REFORM CERTAIN FOR TELLS PRESS

WASHINGTON, June 4 (AP)—President Roosevelt said today there was no question that the court reorganization bill would be passed this session. He made the statement at his press conference, at the same time parrying questions about a compromise.

The President, however, when he said Senator Robinson, the Democratic leader, had given a correct statement last night to newspapermen, indicated the administration might accept some compromise proposal.

(Robinson said certain amendments would be offered to the bill when it came up on the floor and that he may offer one himself.)

People Want Reform.

The President said the American people wanted court reform. He complained that while the Supreme Court was entitled to a recess it had adjourned for the summer without deciding several important cases in which the administration was vitally interested.

He listed them as the TVA case, which had been decided only partially before; the PWA cases involving the right of the federal government to lend money to municipalities for power projects, and the securities commission case.

He did not mention the fourth case specifically. He did say, however, the court had made no suggestion for remedying the situation which he said was preventing the

Sidelights On Fiesta

There was a new spirit prevailing among parade crowds downtown this forenoon, due to the perfect weather and the fact that the parade was still ahead of them. Because of the beautiful, sunny day—fiesta officials predicted capacity crowds for the rodeo tonight, and for the other feature attractions at the high school gym and at the Southern Club.

On, off, and on was the rodeo scheduled last night. A cold rain began falling about 7:15 p. m. The wind increased and more rain fell until ticket takers decided to seek shelter. Bill Jarrett decided the time had come to close the day's market on the Kiwanis bingo booth and began packing.

When it was discovered that the rain had not fallen to any great extent, and the rodeo contestants still wished to compete, the rodeo was declared on again an hour after the early comers had scurried away.

Despite all the energy he has expended in the past two weeks, getting the parade ready, the rodeo was still able to shout a cheery greeting to a newspaper reporter before double-quickling to the corral, where he and R. B. Allen and Alton Hale made some quick repairs, swinging hammers and boards in workmanlike manner.

J. A. Meek, in big hat and slicker, his teeth clamped on a cigar, talking over the day's business with R. Watson, ticket committee chairman. Principal Meek is the George Recter of the fair park's hunger emporium, the Pampa Downs cafe, which has a longer menu than such places usually have.

Bob Watson's umpteen-gallon hat and the hats of others who crowded into one of the ticket booths when the rain started pouring must have made that place crowded.

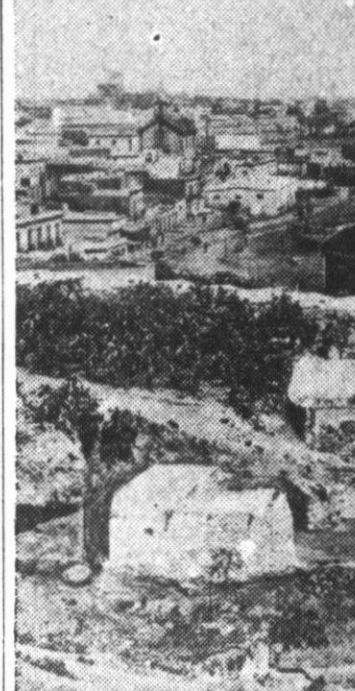

Early comers last night saw the ferris wheel being well patronized, and other riding devices getting a smattering of business and ready for more as the crowds increased.

The familiar sound of merry-go-round music sounded as the device went round and round and rain splashed on the canvas top.

Wheelbarrows, sawdust, empty nail kegs serve as reminders of the great amount of labor that has been necessary to build the grandstand and stable and other structures at

Nazi Warships Crush Helpless Spanish City

When the Nazi armada poured more than 300 shells into Almeria in retribution for the Deutschland attack, the tranquil streets of the seaport town above, were littered with ruins. With only slight warning, the 45,000 inhabitants, many of them refugees from other war sectors, fled to the hills back of the city. Twenty persons were killed, 150 wounded. Not a house escaped the bombardment.

In maneuvers, the huge Nazi naval guns above announced the rebirth of the German Navy and roared a defy of the Versailles treaty, which forbade their existence. At Almeria, Spain, devastating shells darted out of the smoke clouds that billow from the guns' muzzles and turned large areas of the unsuspecting city into a shambles in a tragic reprisal for the bombing of the battleship Deutschland.

Also at the fairgrounds park visitors will find the carnival spirit prevailing with many concessions and thrill rides for the entertainment of all.

The fiesta spirit will completely take over Pampa tonight and upwards of 40,000 people are expected to be in the city by night. Fiesta officials estimated shortly after noon today as a great throng began winding its way to the rodeo grounds.

'Best Wishes.'

The rodeo attraction is one of the best, if not the best, in the West today and yesterday afternoon's crowds came away from the grounds with the highest of praise for the thrilling contest, the expert riding of the Flying Clouds and the antics of Dutch Schultz, the rodeo clown.

Perfect weather conditions today also added to the Fiesta spirit as visitors came in from scores of Top O' Texas cities and communities under a bright sun. The weatherman this afternoon continued his prediction of excellent weather tonight—perfect for the rodeo, the dances and all other attractions.

Twenty-five thousand persons lined the streets for yesterday's parade, and even a larger throng witnessed the pageant of Industrial Progress this forenoon.

Parade of Industry.

Today's parade was named the Parade of Industry and while it did not represent the entire industrial picture of the Top O' Texas area there was a salient reminder of the progress this section has had with in the past quarter-century in contrasting the chuck wagon and stagecoach of the frontier with the modern giant truck of a wholesale concern and automobiles exhibited by Pampa dealers, at the end of the parade.

A float on which was mounted an oil rig told of the first major oil development in the Panhandle starting in Hutchinson county in 1925.

Commercial exhibits in the parade included a float of the Gunn-Hinerman Tire company, a giant truck of the McCoy Wholesale company, a truck carrying four automobiles in which passengers were seated, (one of the cars carried an orchestra which played as the transport moved down the street), of Cullum & Son, local Dodge dealers.

HOUSE VOTES DEATH KNELL OF WAGERING

AUSTIN, June 4 (AP)—The death knell for pari-mutuel wagering on horse racing in Texas tolled today as the House of Representatives finally passed, 94 to 13, a bill previously approved by the Senate repealing the law, enacted in 1933 legalizing such betting.

Only the signature of Governor James V. Allred was needed to complete legislative action, and the governor, driving toward victory in a long fight for repeal, had called the legislature into extra-ordinary session for the sole purpose of killing the law.

Because the bill did not receive a two-thirds majority in the Senate, passing in that House, 18 to 13, it will go into effect in 90 days after adjournment of the session, probably late in September.

ATKINS TO SPEAK AS LAWYERS HONOR JUDGES

The Hon. H. L. Atkins, of Amarillo, will be the principal speaker here tonight at a banquet honoring judges of the Seventh Court of Civil Appeals.

Lawyers from various Top O' Texas towns and cities are expected to attend the banquet which will be held at 8:15 p. m. in the Hotel Schneider.

Judge M. J. R. Jackson is the chief justice of the court which sits in Amarillo. Recently appointed justices are W. N. Stokes and A. J. Foley.

Attorneys John Sturgeon, Clifford Braly and John Osborne are members of a committee of Pampa bar-risters making arrangements for the banquet.

Flood's Crest Nearing City

CARLSBAD, N. M., June 4 (AP)—The 7,500 residents of this oasis city made ready today to abandon their homes as a huge brown crest rolled down the Pecos river toward the weakened, leaking McMillan dam to the north.

Citizens committees stood ready to conduct an orderly evacuation of the southern New Mexico city if the 18,000 acre feet of water in McMillan reservoir are loosed when the Pecos crest rears itself against the stone and earth barrier tomorrow.

"We'll remove the residents to the Green Hills to the west of the city. If it becomes necessary," said Mayor John E. Spears who last night called a special meeting of his board of eight to lay plans to meet a possible break in the dam 18 miles north.

More than 200 men labored at the dam today strengthening it for the test expected when the flood waters of Roosevelt and the extra flow from the Alamogordo dam roll in.

The Alamogordo dam, partially completed, stands across the Pecos nearly 200 miles to the north. Rains earlier in the week caused a heavy flow over its spillway and the resulting crest of the river was expected to reach here shortly.

Fifteen hundred sand bags were thrown into a gaping leak that broke through under the dam early this week.

Charged by sunshine and the report that the flow from the Alamogordo dam was on its way to expedite the project.

20,000 IDLE IN SITDOWNS

(By The Associated Press.)
Sit-down strikers opened new assaults on the nation's automotive industry today leaving an estimated additional 20,000 workers idle and disorders in a Michigan Lumber strike resulted in the death of one and injuries to five others.

The Chrysler Corporation in Detroit announced the closing of two plants employing 11,900. The company said two union men refused to work alongside two non-unionists. Closing of two plants was necessitated by shortage of cars and bodies, they said.

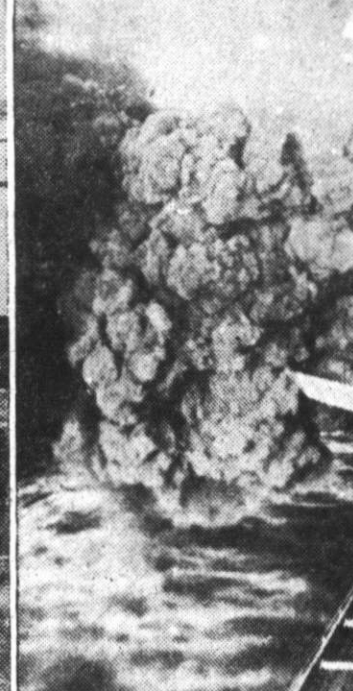

The Packard Motor Company reported it was forced to curtail production at Detroit because some workers did not appear in the stamping division. No reason was given, but 3,000 men were sent home because of lack of materials.

Differences over minimum wages caused a strike at the Timken Roller Bearing plant at Canton, Ohio, where 6,500 were idle. Members of the Committee for Industrial Organization of steel workers voted to strike after failure of a wage conference.

A battle of fists, clubs and bricks broke out at dawn near the Newberry (Mich.) Lumber & Chem-

STATE PARK OFFICIALS TO INSPECT SITE

Inspection of the site of a proposed lake at Beaver Dam was to be made this afternoon by Gray county commissioners in company with Captain R. O. Whitaker, chief engineer, and A. H. Dunlap, engineer and member, of the Texas State Parks Board.

The two engineers will meet the commissioners at 3 o'clock this afternoon and with them go to Beaver Dam, Captain Whitaker and Mr. Dunlap are coming to Pampa from Amarillo. Their trip here is not a special one, being part of the ordinary inspection tours.

However, the state park officials are expected to state their opinion whether or not a state park could be developed at Beaver Dam if the reservoir is constructed. A state park for the site, if the dam is built, has been advocated by local citizens and some encouragement has been given by state park officials. They are coming here today to inspect the site with a view to making recommendations regarding building of the proposed dam and development of a park.

It is understood that the officials will probably look with favor on the plan to develop a park at the lake. The problem confronting county residents and state officials would be a way to expedite the project.

PAMPA BEAUTIES LEAVE FOR FORT WORTH TEST

Ina Mae Dean, Miss Pampa of 1937, and De Ann Heskell, her alternate, picked as Pampa's most beautiful girls in a recent Junior Chamber of Commerce contest, left for Fort Worth shortly after noon today in company with Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Duval, chaperones.

Miss Dean, pretty 19-year-old brunet, will compete with girls from a hundred Texas cities for the title of Texas Sweetheart No. 1, to be picked by judges tomorrow at the Fort Worth fiesta.

Miss Dean also will have an opportunity to appear in the cast of Billy Rose's Casa Manana Revue, fiesta feature this summer.

Miss Dean and Miss Heskell rode on the beauty float in today's Fiesta parade here and then left immediately for Fort Worth.

Dean walked out of the meeting in a rage, at one time, declaring he was "All washed up," then was persuaded to return for another compromise attempt at settlement of the dispute. This consisted of a question and answer parley between Frick and Dean, with the pitcher flatly denying he made the critical statements attributed to him at St. Louis and Belleville, Ill.

Frick then announced lifting of the suspension, only to have Dean suddenly toss a further wrench into the peace proceedings. The pitcher shouted it was "Not over yet," that he would carry an appeal to Commissioner Landis, regardless, and also "See my lawyer."

Stunts and games are scheduled for the oldtimers between 4 and 6 o'clock this afternoon at the gym. A dance at 9 o'clock tonight at the gymnasium will be the concluding activity of the oldtimers part in the Top O' Texas fiesta.

30,000 COME TO PAMPA FOR DAY'S EVENTS

Grand climax of the Top O' Texas Fiesta, which attracted another huge crowd of approximately 30,000 persons to Pampa under sunny skies today, will come tonight with three triple top-notch features to entertain visitors.

High-lights tonight, of course, will be the Junior Chamber of Commerce rodeo at the Fairgrounds which will feature coronation of the rodeo queen, the grand fiesta ball at the Southern club and the old timers dance at the high school gymnasium.

Also at the fairgrounds park visitors will find the carnival spirit prevailing with many concessions and thrill rides for the entertainment of all.

FILLING OF NEW WATER STORAGE TANK BEGUN

Filling of the city's new 80,000 barrel water storage tank began this morning when water from city wells was turned into the vast reservoir. Taking advantage of recent rains, city officials will fill the tank during the period of least use by patrons. It is expected to take 2-1/2 days to fill the tank.

After being thoroughly checked for leaks, the exterior of the tank will be painted. The interior was painted last week and given ample time to dry so that the water will not taste of paint when it is turned into the lines.

COGDILL OPENS SERMON SERIES LAST EVENING

Public Is Invited To Francis Avenue Church

A crowd greeted Evangelist Roy E. Cogdill of Dallas as he preached the first sermon in a 10-day series at Francis Avenue Church of Christ last evening, although rain was falling as the service began.

Using as his first text a selection from 1 Tim. 3, he quoted the 16th verse, which he said covers the entire life of Christ.

"He was manifested in the flesh, justified in the spirit, seen by angels, preached among the nations, believed on in the world, and received up in glory," the speaker said. "Christ had an existence before he came in the flesh. His manifestation was necessary for the forgiveness of our sins."

"As he preached among the nations, so the gospel must be preached today. Men cannot believe until they hear. So the church is to make possible the preaching, and men are to be faithful in teaching the truth."

"Men cannot believe in Christ and not believe what he said. To preach Christ is not just to teach that he existed, but to preach what he commanded. Christ has already been received into glory and rules with full power. His kingdom has been established, not is to be."

M. C. Cuthbertson, minister, and members of the church invite the public to hear Mr. Cogdill in sermons at 10 a. m. and 8 p. m. daily except Saturday, when only the evening meeting is scheduled.

YOUR CHILDREN

By OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON

Jimmy would far rather stay at his auntie's house than at home," said young Mrs. Brown. "Henry and I cannot get him all the toys and treats they do, and he thinks we are being stingy."

Yes, small Jimmy does think so, and it is too bad.

He doesn't reason it all out that way, exactly. All he knows is that he is ever anxious to go to see Aunt Peg and Uncle Dick, and when he gets there he doesn't want to come home.

His father feels it more than his mother. She reasons that, if her sister and brother-in-law, without children of their own get pleasure in small Jimmy's love and he receives favors from them, it is all in the family and nobody should care.

Parents Give Practical Boons

But Henry has his pride and he is as anxious to buy his boy the presents as anyone. He works hard to get Jimmy a good home in a nice neighborhood, buys him food and clothes and spends his last cent on family upkeep.

These, however, are the things that a child takes for granted. Warm blankets, new shoes and whole milk he does not class as heart's longings. The sliding board, bicycle and electric trains over at Uncle Dick's have much more appeal.

He is allowed to take some things home, of course, but Uncle Dick likes his nephew-in-law to feel at home, so many of the thrillers are left for visits.

Such a problem presents difficulties indeed for the parents of a child who must stand by and see others get all the credit in the eyes of their offspring.

While it is not desirable to let jealousy enter into such a situation and say, "Oh, he is little and some day he will realize that we do all the big things," still the father and mother are only human and can be hurt deeply.

Cover Up Mutilation

Perhaps it is too much to expect of the prosperous Uncle Dicks and Aunt Peggys of the world, to ask them to present some of their generous contributions in the name of daddy and mother, so that the small recipient won't think it all so one-sided. It could be so arranged so nicely to everybody's satisfaction.

It did me a lot of good not long ago to hear one young loyalist say to his benefactor, "My daddy is going to get me a tricycle, so I guess you don't need to." As a matter of fact, his father wasn't but some secret pride in the boy brought out the prediction. However, his daddy did, when he heard it. I went without lunch for a month. I suppose.

Let us not discourage the wonderful good angels of childhood who are so anxious to be kind, but there is to be kept intact, and there are so many gracious ways of doing it.

Perfect Attendance Record Is Made by McLean Schoolboy

Claimants of school attendance records must stand aside for Francis Petty, who was graduated from McLean high school this spring without having once been absent or tardy through his years as a student.

He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Petty, who live east of McLean. Taught by his mother for a few years, he entered Liberty school in Wheeler county the last nine weeks of a term in 1930 in the fourth grade and was promoted at the end of the year. He had attended regulation school a total of 25 months before entering McLean high school for the four-year course, which he finished with 18 credits.

Compromise

An interesting compromise with trends toward higher evening gowns has been worked out by Mainbocher. The tunic and skirt of the black net gown have been trimmed with bands of multicolored crepe, leaving a transparent flounce that reaches the floor but reveals the leg contours.

MODERN MENUS

By MRS. GAYNOR MADDOX

Shake the cherries off the tree but roll them into desserts.

Steamed Cherry Roll

(4 to 6 servings)

One quart fresh cherries, pitted, 1 tablespoon gran. and pistachio nuts, 1 cup sugar, 2 tablespoons butter, 2 cups flour, 4 teaspoons baking powder, 1-2 teaspoon salt, 2 tablespoons sugar, 3-4 cup milk, 1-2 cup butter.

Sift all dry ingredients together including only 2 tablespoons sugar. Cut in 1-2 cup butter with knife. Add milk, mix, and toss on floured board. Pat out with hands to oblong about 1-2 inch thick. Brush top with softened butter. Arrange pitted cherries evenly over top, dust liberally with sugar and pistachio nuts. Roll up, moisten edges and pinch together. Use loosely woven bag large enough to permit swelling of the dough. Dip bag in boiling water, then four inside well. Place roll in bag, place in steamer and steam for 1-2 hours. Serve with hard or foamy sauce.

Suntanned cherries need never hide under any parasol. For every kind of party they add the glamorous touch.

Suntanned Cherries

Select large ripe red cherries. Pit, then weigh them. Weigh out an equal amount of granulated sugar. Use a large glass or enamel saucepan. Put in a layer of cherries, then a layer of sugar, and keep repeating until all cherries and sugar are used. Make no layer deeper than 2 inches, however. Heat slowly to boiling point, skim, boil exactly 10 minutes, skimming carefully. Arrange in shallow dishes, cover with glass and stand in hot sunshine for at least nine hours. Then jar and seal once. There will be a freezer of vanilla ice cream lurking behind ever jar.

Stuffed Salad Cherries

These are brilliant garnishes for almost any type of summer salad. Soften cottage cheese with cream, mix with finely chopped watercress and chopped almonds. Pit large cherries and stuff with this mixture. If you are seeking cherry novelties, have a try at the brand new fat red cherries with long stems intact, floating expectantly in jars of rum. For desserts and cocktails, they are the latest good news.

TOMORROW'S MENU

Breakfast: Strawberry and orange juice, rice cakes, syrup, coffee, milk.

Luncheon: Chicken broth, mixed garden salad, cream cheese, balls, buttered toast, chocolate brownies, tea, milk.

Dinner: Shrimp cocktail, broiled halibut, lemon butter, French fried potatoes, new peas, celery and radishes, steamed cherry rolls, coffee, milk.

PERKINS ASKS INDUSTRY SET BASIC SCALE

WASHINGTON, June 4 (AP)—Secretary Perkins suggested today that the basic wage scale under the proposed labor standards act be set by industry.

She told a congressional committee she was "not at all convinced" of the wisdom of writing a fixed minimum wage into the measure, which would bar from interstate commerce goods produced under "oppressive" labor conditions.

She expressed preference for leaving the determination of the minimum wage in each industry to a five man board.

"The delicate task of preserving the proper economic balance between town and country," she said in a prepared statement, "should be performed administratively, I believe, rather than by the placing of specific figures respecting differentials in the bill."

The bill under consideration empowers the board to adjust wage and hour standards to geographical and industrial conditions of various businesses. It sets up, however, minimum wage and maximum hour bases to govern the country in general. The exact figures have not yet been determined.

Miss Perkins said child labor should be handled both by provisions in the bill and by the pending child labor amendment to the constitution. Senator Johnson (D-Colo.) predicted the Interstate Commerce Commission would act Monday on a bill incorporating the principal features of all recent child labor proposals. He said its "composite" proposal embodied all the child labor principles in the wage and hour bill.

Leon Henderson, WPA economist and former economic adviser to NRA, told the wage and hour committee yesterday that the labor standards measure would affect industries employing an estimated 12,000,000 persons.

A maximum work week of 40 hours for these industries, he predicted, would result in re-employment of about 1,500,000 of the nation's idle.

International Sunday School Lesson

JOSEPH'S READINESS FOR SERVICE
Text: Genesis 41:33-44
By WM. E. GILROY, D. D.
Editor of Advance

The story of Joseph, which begins with this lesson and continues to the end of the quarter, is from every standpoint one of the finest in all literature.

Years ago, at a men's meeting that I conducted, a Baptist minister who was a very able reader recited the entire story as given in the King James version of the Bible, without comment of any kind.

It was one of the most impressive things to which I ever listened, and though I suppose I had read the story dozens of times, I had never realized before its greatness as a piece of literary art.

Here were all the elements of interest played up with simple and picturesque statement, the human problems and emotions of the story all interwoven deftly and in due proportion, with everything moving toward the climax of tragedy and triumph.

We are concerned here not so much with the dramatic power of the story, as with its moral and spiritual teaching.

Through experiences of indulgence and preferment as the young-est of many sons in the home of a father who lavished upon him disproportionate love and care, Joseph came to power in the Kingdom of Egypt at a crucial time.

In his interpretation of Pharaoh's dream, he foresaw the prosperous years to be followed by the lean years of suffering and famine, and he determined, as a wise prime minister, to see that in the seven plentiful years, food was stored up in Egypt against the coming years of need.

Joseph wisely did not suggest his own preferment, but advised Pharaoh to seek out a man of discretion and wisdom. Pharaoh showed good judgment not only in accepting Joseph's warning of the coming years of famine and in choosing Joseph as the man who should work out his own plans. "There is none so discreet and wise as Thou."

With the signet ring of Pharaoh upon his hand signifying his authority, arrayed in fine linen, and with the gold chain about his neck, with the people crying before him, "Bow the knee!" as he rode in the royal chariot, Joseph was still the man of incorruptible life, who had preserved his integrity through the brutal treatment of his brothers, and through his experiences of downfall and imprisonment.

He stands as an achievement of character. There is something here more than an ancient "success" story and the rise of a man to power. It is the record of a man who had not built his life upon the acquisition of power and wealth.

His chief purpose in every opportunity that came to him, whether in adversity or triumph, was still to serve his fellow men.

MC CAMEY DEVASTATED BY VICIOUS TORNADO

MCCAMEY, June 4 (AP)—At least 150 houses were partially wrecked or blown down in a storm here last night, Jimmie Martin, correspondent for the Standard-Times at San Angelo, reported here after a hasty survey this morning, estimating damage at $100,000. Five or six persons were injured only slightly, he said. Three houses with families in them were blown away, the occupants escaping unscathed. One house erected last week was destroyed and only a mechanical refrigerator was left on the site.

Power and telephone lines this morning were in a cobweb tangle, and crews from San Angelo, Sonora, Abilene and McCamey were engaged in attempting to restore service. M. E. Pittman, chairman of the Red Cross disaster relief committee here, called a meeting at 10:30 o'clock to survey relief needs, if any.

Houses in all parts of town were crushed, with most of the damage in the south and southeast parts. Sheet metal buildings and debris covered the streets, and in a few instances houses were moved bodily into the streets.

A portion of the roof of the post-office, a concrete and stone building, was blown away. Porch columns of the Baptist church, a stucco structure, were gone. The west wing of the Burleson hotel was wrecked, and rooms badly damaged by water. Five to six inches of rain fell here in an hour and a half and streets were flooded. Vision was reduced to a few feet.

THE FIESTA

The Fiesta spirit continued everywhere in Pampa today and once more thousands of visitors in the city were having an enjoyable time.

Pampa is happy to play host to these folk from surrounding cities, towns and communities. They are the Top O' Texas—and this is a Top O' Texas fiesta.

It is not a Pampa institution. Instead it is a yearly event at which Pampans do their best to pay tribute to their neighbors.

The community fellowship idea is the first thing the Pampa Junior Chamber of Commerce has in mind when it sponsors this big celebration.

It is the sincere wish of all Pampans that every visitor here enjoy himself to the utmost—and we want them to come back often.

"SLOW" DEATH

The extent to which simple carelessness causes traffic accidents is graphically illustrated by a recent bulletin from the Association of American Railroads, which points out that fatalities from grade crossing accidents are going up.

In most cases, probably, a grade crossing accident is due principally to the motorist's carelessness. But this bulletin contains added proof of that theory by showing that in 79 per cent of last year's grade crossing accidents the speed of the train involved was less than 40 miles an hour.

In other words, the auto in such accidents is not struck down by a thunderbolt which comes on the driver so fast that the driver cannot get out of the way. In practically four-fifths of the accidents, the train is moving at a moderate speed. It is almost impossible to escape the conclusion that just a little care on the motorist's part would do away with nearly all of these disasters.

TOWARD DEMOCRACY

When the spring elections in Belgium dealt a crushing blow to the ambitions of that country's Fascist party, it began to look as if the swing toward dictatorship might be subsiding in Europe. Further evidence to the same effect is now provided by the elections in Holland.

In Holland the voters gave a strong endorsement to the "middle of the road" policies of Premier Hendrikus Colijn. The Dutch Nazi party which had expected to win at least 10 seats in Parliament, apparently got no more than four. The Dutch Communists suffered a similar setback and evidently must forfeit several of the seats they now hold.

For a time it looked as if the swing toward dictatorship would be irresistible. The democracies have got their second wind, however, and the old standards of freedom and liberty are advancing once more.

WASHINGTON LETTER

WASHINGTON—There seems not to be a solitary soul in Washington who knows positively what can be done about the gold situation.

It has gone past the funny stage. All the jokes that can be made about having gold and locking it up have been told. Now some of the lads who ultimately will have a hand in solving it are dismally passing around a cartoon showing a miner clambering out of a tunnel with a lump of gold in his hand. Eagerly he rushes to Uncle Sam, grabs a handful of bills and heads again for the tunnel. Uncle Sam runs in the other direction with the lump and plunks it into the swelling pile of gold in the pit at Camp Knox, Kentucky.

It is just as silly as that in actual fact. Uncle Sam not only has to bury the gold, but he has to pay interest on the money he uses to pay the miner for digging more gold which the country doesn't want.

Talk of scaling down the price of gold so less will be dug or so less will be brought to the United States simply sends stock markets, foreign and local, into cold chills.

Even now some European buyers are getting rid of American securities and buying dollars instead. The reason is that if the value of gold is cut below $35 an ounce, dollars will become worth more and it will take fewer of them to buy an equivalent trunk full of securities.

Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau let it be known he was not hunting for world conferences to settle the problem of what the value of gold should be. Such a conference would have to include both Japan and England. Japan wants to continue to sell gold at a high price. It needs the money. A nation can't swallow China without a little heavy sugar.

Likely also England and France would object to fixing their currency permanently at its present relation to the dollar and certainly South Africa would kick like a bay steer.

At $35 an ounce Africa is able to operate low grade mines that would pay with gold at $20 an ounce.

With Russia's production also increasing and being sold here, the United States is picking off

TEX'S TOPICS

Pampa and the Top O' Texas cities and towns in the surrounding area did themselves proud with that first day fiesta parade yesterday, and then came back this morning to bring even a better pageant. . . . Today's parade included practically all of yesterday's features, augmented by an additional parade of industrial progress, depicting the area's industrial development.

This year's celebration is going over with a bang. Fiesta officials say. . . . Attendance is far above average at the rodeo, dances, and all the other attractions. . . . It will come to a grand climax tonight with the Old Timers' Round-Up dance at the high school gymnasium and the general fiesta ball at the Southern club. . . . The rodeo is the outstanding thrill, of course, and if it's the wild and woolly western atmosphere you are seeking—that's the place to find it.

The final rodeo performance will be given tonight and a feature of tonight's show will be the crowning of the Rodeo Queen who was secretly selected by the judges at this afternoon's performance. . . . In addition to the rodeo contests, the Flying Clouds are presenting one of the nation's foremost exhibitions of trick and fancy riding. . . . A rodeo clown is keeping the big crowds convulsed with his trained donkey and bucking automobile.

Jaycee President Dick Hughes is pleased with the way things have been run off in the two-day celebration, and when his committeemen can keep the big boss pleased, they figure it's something. . . . Hughes was particularly pleased with the large turnout of old timers from surrounding towns and cities and with their splendid entries in the parades. . . . They are the folks who keep this country going and for whom the Fiesta originally was designed. . . . It is the Junior Chamber of Commerce plan to have them as guests at each annual observance.

Pop Hooks' barbecue, for the old timers, the fiddle contest and the Top O' Texas marble tournament were among the outstanding features of the first afternoon. . . . The marble tourney finals were being run off this afternoon with the crowning of the area champion. . . . The spirit of good fellowship at the old time dance last night was something to be written in the history books. . . . If you want to see how neighboring folks from surrounding towns and cities enjoy themselves, there still is another opportunity at the second night old time dance in the High school gym tonight.

Smallest float in the Thursday parade was the dog-drawn covered-wagon from Miami. . . . That Santa Fe stream-line train attracted a great amount of attention. . . . We have decided never to enter any rodeo contests. . . . The decision was reached after witnessing a few of the spills the contestants took yesterday afternoon. . . . Matthew (Bones) Hooks, negro cook on the oldtime chuck wagons, and one of the early day bronc busters, was one who enjoyed the opening fiesta programs. . . . Hooks had a crowd around him most of the times, listening to the yarns he spun about early day history in the Panhandle.

Garnet Reeves, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, has been having Indian trouble during the fiesta. . . . Almost every time you saw Reeves, he was out hunting for his Indians, who refused to stay put. . . . Last year's fiesta committee also got the jitters when their Indians, imported from Oklahoma, went on a sit-down strike right in the middle of things.

Race track interests, here for the opening of the Pampa Downs race meet on Saturday, were a bit down-hearted when the news that the legislature had outlawed racing in Texas was phoned to them at the track yesterday afternoon. . . . They didn't think it would turn out that way. . . . Monte Rosenwald looks so much like a real cow-hand in his fiesta garb that the KPDN production manager was mistaken twice yesterday for Pawnee Bill, who was expected to put in a surprise visit to the city, but couldn't.

Bob (Cracker Barrel) Castle fooled the public today by walking around under a borrowed ten-gallon hat. . . . He may be all right as a radio announcer, but as a cow-hand he is far from the nertz. . . . Compared to Castle, a drugstore cowboy is dynamite.

new gold at the rate of a billion dollars a year.

To scale off the value of gold would increase the value of the dollar and make it hard to export American agricultural products. So the farm-bloc would be up in arms, if the situation in all its intricacies could be made clear to them. Moreover, such a gesture might bring on a setback in the prosperity wave.

Present talk is about the possibility that Morgenthau, by dickering with individual nations, can get them to scale down their gold production. Just what he would have to trade for such a concession is problematical.

THE ARKANSAS TRAVELER

Man About Manhattan

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—"A forest of white carpet!"

That's how someone has described Fanchon's bedroom—she of the theatrical firm. Fanchon and Marco (They're sister and brother—you know.) And while Fanchon is of the business world and is one of the few women producers in motion pictures, she is rather proud of that salute to her femininity.

Almost everybody knows about her professional success, but few have any inkling of her private life and of the off-the-record things she thinks and does.

For instance, her clothes are usually restrained, but she likes colored automobiles and once she owned a lavender roadster.

Occasionally—just occasionally—she enjoys chewing gum. Expensive jewelry leaves her cold, but she does have a weakness for heavy costume jewelry.

This tall, slim woman with jet black hair and eyes is married to the proprietor of a chain of restaurants in Los Angeles. So, appropriately, she has just been notified that a famous sandwich place in New York has named a new sandwich for her. It is a distinction to have a delicacy at this place named for you. Most of the real stars of the theatrical world have been honored from time to time—my favorite is the Jeanne Eagles sandwich, a summery bit of fodder composed of bacon and water-cress between thin toast.

And what is your idea of clothes, Miss Fanchon?

"I believe in lots of clothes. I think the more women have on, the more alluring they are. If a woman wants to reveal her body, she should do so frankly—in a bathing suit or play shorts. Then you have the beauty of clean lines."

She neither smokes nor drinks, and her parties are famous for their fruit punches.

"Career women shouldn't be prima donnas, and for this reason I go after a plain work-a-day week. Work in my studio stops at appointed hours and begins the same way. None of this pacing the floor at midnight conferences for me. Besides, there's the home side of the question, with my husband and my children. I have a little girl and a little boy, who are adopted, and I adore them. It would take a very important occasion to keep me away from them at night."

Maybe it's this belief in the simple life that inspires the motif for her pictures. The movies you see under the Fanchon insignia aren't the intricate "epics" which demand all the combined forces of 14 governments and Hollywood to produce. They're honest, believable love stories with just the right emphasis on romance.

So They Say:

The job of the politician is the high art of compromise.—Prof. T. V. Smith, University of Chicago.

If you athletically-minded girls would limit your activities to swimming and to golf and tennis, where success depends on co-ordination rather than brawn, your chances of acquiring husbands and families of healthy children would be enhanced.—Sprint Frank Wykoff.

I hope and believe we convinced the United States of the sincerity of our belief that no contribution to world trade could be greater than a trade pact between this country and

People You Know

By ARCHER FULLINGIM

With the old timers down at the gym: there is "Old Bones," ranch favorite in the early days, with a big crowd of white men encircling him while he tells stories of early days. In private life he is dictator of Amarillo's dark town. Every pioneer knows "Old Bones." There is Mrs. Katie Vincent eating her barbecue without onions. She "likes onions" "thinks not" eat them. All the Ledricks and their kinsfolk are on hand.

A lovable, gracious hostess is Mrs. C. P. Ledrick. There is Mrs. J. D. Stocking of Clarendon and her daughter, Mrs. W. L. McConnell of Berger. It seems that more people are wearing the Canadian badge than any other. . . . Miami's float made a big hit with everybody. The two youths, dressed as Indians were Mark Arrington, grandson of Capt. George Arrington and Mark Fuselby, and Lewis Locke, grandson of New Locke. "The first man" at Mobette. . . . Chief Baldwin Parker was on the warpath yesterday morning. He was supposed to ride on a float but through a misunderstanding he was told to walk, but he soon became ill due to a recent operation and dropped out. A physician later visited him. Also on the warpath were his "body-guard," six local Boy Scouts assigned to accompany him. They are out to get Charlie Malsell's, parade chairman, hair. . . . Baldwin calls his bodyguard, "the Pampa Running creek Indians."

AROUND HOLLYWOOD

By JOHN BOLES

(Guest columnist for Robin Coons)

HOLLYWOOD—When the usual conductor of this column invited me to take his place for a day, he specified that I should write about myself. He is a trusting fellow, giving free play like that to the actor's favorite subject.

But while he's away I'll try not to abuse his confidence. I'll be business-like and—there's an idea—write about business.

Being the first member of my family to adopt a theatrical career, and the first member not to become a business man, it is natural that I should attempt to run my career just as a business man would run his affairs.

The idea came to me a few years ago when I was floundering around, striving for success in several different theatrical fields without a great deal of success in any.

Picks His Field

Originally I had aspired to become an opera singer and had traveled to New York to that end. But eventually I gravitated to comic opera, to musical comedy, and then to pictures.

Suddenly I realized that in the various assorted branches of my chosen profession I wasn't getting very far. Then came the determination to see if a career could be put on a successful business basis.

Given pit entirely were ideas of becoming a grand opera singer. Musical comedy and light opera were also relegated to the background. In the motion picture field I had been the most successful, and I decided to follow that exclusively.

Limits Output

Next I concluded that I should make only a limited number of pictures each year. Nothing, it seemed to me, would ruin a career so quickly as too many pictures. I have refused to make more than four pictures annually and those are chosen with the utmost caution.

Also I decided to vary the types of pictures in which I should appear. I thought it would be excellent to appear in a comedy, then a drama, and then, possibly, a musical. So far I've been able to follow my "plan," balancing my screen activities.

With this "plan" I hope to stay in motion pictures for some time. But as soon as I feel that my day is done, let me assure you I will retire, as any wise business man would certainly do in equivalent circumstances.

ANSWERS TO QUESTIONS

By FREDERIC J. HASKIN

A reader can get the answer to any question of fact by writing The Pampa Daily News Information Bureau, Frederic J. Haskin, director, Washington, D. C. Please enclose three (3) cents for reply.

Q. Who was awarded the Daniel Guggenheim Medal for 1937? E. W. A. The aviation award was made to Dr. Hugo Eckener.

Q. Are the people of the United States increasing or decreasing in weight and height? C. G. B.

A. There has been a marked increase in both height and weight in the United States in recent years. Measurements of 8,894 men and 4,124 girls at the University of Cincinnati in 1916 and 1935 show that freshmen now are younger, taller, and heavier than they were 20 years ago. The reasons are better nutrition, less communicable diseases, better standards of living, and higher average health intelligence. Even in 20 years there have been definite racial betterments. If figures were available for 100 years ago the gain would be very marked.

Q. How long has Justice Cardozo been a lawyer? C. R. F.

A. He was admitted to the bar in 1891.

Q. How long will the eclipse of the sun on June 8, 1937, last? T. C.

A. At one point in its path, in the middle of the Pacific ocean, it will last seven minutes four seconds. At the points of observation selected—Peru and a tiny uninhabited atoll in the Pacific—its duration will be between three and four minutes.

Q. What is the name of the London church in which no sermons are preached and no hymns are sung? R. E.

A. It is the chapel of the Ascension, near Marble Arch, Hyde Park. The walls are hung with pictures of religious significance, and there are seats from which to view them, and cushions to kneel upon in prayer. The church is open daily.

Q. What college had the first course in library training? E. M. A. The first school for the training of librarians was established by Melvil Dewey at Columbia University, New York City, in 1887.

Q. How early were transcontinental trips made by motor buses? L. F. G.

A. In 1928 the first bus from Los Angeles to New York made the trip in five days and 14 hours.

REBS STUNNED BY DEATH OF BEST GENERAL

VICTORIA, Spain, June 4 (AP)—Insurgent Spain was stunned today by the death of Gen. Emilio Mola, Generalissimo Francisco Franco's ablest commander, in the crash of a fog-bound airplane on the Biscayan front where his tactical genius had brought his armies within sight of besieged Bilbao.

Flags were half-staffed throughout insurgent held territory. Officers in uniform wept openly as the news of his death was broadcast.

All public activities were suspended and newspapers called his loss "irreparable for Spain."

Immediately after the death of the 46-year-old "soldiers' general" was known, Franco split his former command.

General Fidel Davila, head of the technical junta of the insurgent regime, was named commander of the forces operating against Bilbao and on the Biscayan front; the Argan, the Soria and the Madrid fronts were placed under General Andres Saliquet, who had directed operations against Madrid under Mola.

The same penetrating Basque fog which had temporarily held up the advance of Mola's armies caused his death. Two staff officers and two pilots died with him. Despite the protests of his staff, he left Victoria yesterday morning in thick soupy weather for Valladolid.

Only a young shepherd, tending his flocks on the mountain side, saw the plane crash into the slope, two or three miles from the small village of Gastin de Peones.

INFLUENCE OF STRIKE FELT IN U. S. TRADE

NEW YORK, June 4 (AP)—The widespread influence of the strike situation was felt in some trade branches this week, Dun & Bradstreet said today in their weekly review.

However, the losses incurred due to the tensions were not as great as set in some lines by the approach of warmer weather and the closing of the school semester.

"Sales of summer apparel gained momentum vigorously," the summary stated, "led by women's dresses, millinery, handbags, accessories and men's gabardine and tropical suits."

"Polo shorts, slacks, sports shoes and straw hats all rose with the temperature."

Leading centers, excepting the strike areas, where advances were curtailed, averaged 3 to 6 per cent above last week. Taking the country as a whole the increase over the 1936 comparative was 8 to 18 per cent.

Increases at outside centers over 1936 were: New England 8 to 15 per cent; east 7 to 20; middle west 10 to 18; northwest 16 to 22; south 18 to 30; southwest 12 to 18; and Pacific coast 12 to 20.

BLESSED RUBBER SOLES.
POPULAR BLUFF, Mo., June 4 (AP)—Lightning hit Robert Hill, 57-year-old farm hand, near Bristol yesterday afternoon and doctors marvel at the fact that he is still alive. His clothing was in shreds, his shoes ripped from his feet and the lenses in his eyeglasses were shattered by the bolt. Hill was unconscious for some three hours before found by other workmen in the field but today he appeared to be recovering. He accredited rubber soles on his shoes with having saved his life.

FLINCHED WITH STOMACH PAINS
Gas and Bloat Caused Him Misery; But Now Van-Tage Has Relieved Him.

"I never would have believed there was such a medicine!" People over this entire section are saying that about Van-Tage, the amazing New Medicine which is being sold in large quantities here in Pampa. Recently, Mr. Chas. Green, of 415 21st St., Denver, Colo., endorsed it.

"For the past year I had been suffering with a gassy, upset stomach," said Mr. Green. "My food would lay in my stomach in lumps, and I just had to FLINCH with awful pain. I had cramps so bad it felt like my stomach was being tied up into regular knots, and my bowels were constipated. I was about as sick and discouraged as a man can be. I read about Van-Tage and decided to try this medicine and it helped me RIGHT FROM THE START. It acted on my upset stomach and cleared out so much of that awful gas and bloat that my digestion started getting better almost at once, and now I don't have those awful pains. It gave my bowels such a fine cleansing that they are getting more regular every day. I am a man of 70 years, and I'll keep on praising Van-Tage if I live to be a hundred!"

VAN-TAGE helps clear away poisonous wastes from the system in several ways at once! It helps cleanse bowels, assists Nature to flush excess impurity from kidneys and brings forth gas and bloat from stomach. So much Van-Tage is sold that its price is very reasonable, so get it—TODAY—at the Cretney Drug Store next to LaNora Theatre.

'SWEET TOOTH' LURES GOATS TO TIN CANS

SCHENECTADY, N. Y. (AP)—It's the "sweet tooth" in goats that makes them like tin cans, says Earl Thelen, a goat farmer.

Thelen insists that goats don't actually eat the cans. "It's the label they're after," he says, "because that's made of wood pulp. Sometimes it's the glue, because it has a sweet taste."

Defending the goat as a fastidious diner, Thelen said its eating habits closely resemble those of the deer. Both animals prefer tender sprouts of small trees and bushes to grass.

POLICE CAPTURE PANTS FILCHER JUST IN TIME

WAUSAU, Wis. (AP)—Louis Ostrom didn't know what a colossal-sound sleeper Rude Kukulka was until he successively fished a watch, wallet, necktie, and belt from the latter as he slumbered in an automobile.

Ostrom pleaded guilty to robbery. Now he's in state's prison.

BURKE FLAYS COMPROMISES ON COURT BILL

WASHINGTON, June 4 (AP)—The first public indication of an administration compromise on the Roosevelt court bill brought adverse rebuttal today from a leader of the opposition.

After Senator Robinson of Arkansas, the Democratic leader, said on the White House steps that amendments would be offered, Senator Burke (D., Neb.) commented:

"We will be here until the end of time before such a bill will ever pass."

"There can't be any compromise on the basis of adding a lesser number of justices to the Supreme Court for the purpose of influencing its decisions."

"It is a perfectly clear issue between those who are willing to add some members and those of us who are fighting to maintain an independent court."

Robinson, who conferred with President Roosevelt for two hours last night, gave no hint of the nature of the proposed amendments to the controversial bill.

"The measure," he said, "will be proceeded with, and it is expected that action will be taken on it during the present session."

"Aside from the provisions that relate to the Supreme Court, other features of the bill are to be regarded as of vital importance."

"The measure contains several provisions for speeding up the lower federal courts in addition to increasing the Supreme Court to 15 unless justices over 70 retire."

"The Senate leader, who has been boomed by his colleagues for appointment as Van Devanter's successor, said he was not a candidate."

Except for Burke, few members of the opposition would comment until the specific modification proposal was disclosed.

Chrysler Plant Closed by Strike

DETROIT, June 4 (AP)—The Chrysler Corp. announced today that its Jefferson and Kercheval plants had been closed following a sit-down strike in the Jefferson Avenue plant. Approximately 11,000 men were affected.

"The sit-down was on the motor line at the Jefferson plant," a company official said. "It came when two members of the United Automobile Workers refused to work alongside two non-union men. The sit-down spread to other departments and before long we had to close both plants because of a shortage of cars and bodies."

He said no conferences have been scheduled with the union.

to study all ground school phases of aviation as applied to the transport system. They will be under the immediate direction of Captain John D. Graves, pilot and flight dispatcher for TWA, who has been appointed scoutmaster of the new "sky scout" troop. Incidentally, Captain Graves might be considered a sort of unofficial member of the Tribe of Mic-o-Say. This is the Indian order within the Boy Scouts organization, membership in which is prized so highly by the boys.

Several years ago, Captain Graves dropped food, including great quantities of beans, to bands of Indians in New Mexico. The Indians had been caught in the deep snows and were threatened with starvation until Captain Graves made the series of food-dropping flights. Subsequently, members of the tribe went to Albuquerque and arranged to meet the pilot at the Albuquerque airport. As he landed from Los Angeles, he was greeted by the band and then there inducted into the tribe and given an Indian name, the English equivalent of which was (and is) Chief Flying Beans.

FIRST HORSE RACES, WITH BETTING ALLOWED, BEGIN HERE TOMORROW

22 WAGERING WINDOWS WILL DO BUSINESS

A bugle call, new to Pampa and this section of the Top O' Texas, will be heard tomorrow afternoon at 1:40 o'clock when thoroughbred horses are called from stable to paddock for the inaugural race of the Pampa Downs Jockey club at Recreation park, a mile east on U. S. Highway 60.

The first race is scheduled to get under way at 2 o'clock. Pari-mutuel windows will be open at 1:30. Daily double races will be the first and second events each day.

General admission will be 40 cents with box reserve seats 25 cents extra. For those desiring to secure a box for the meet, application may be made with Steve Brodie at the secretary's office on the grounds tomorrow morning. A box of four seats will sell for $10 for the meet. That will not include general admission.

Twenty-two pari-mutuel wagering windows will be open at 1:30. Daily double races will be the first and second events each day.

DeWitt Morse will be official representative of the Texas Racing commission and Horace Gooch of Amarillo will be in charge of pari-mutuel wagering.

Alex Schneider of Pampa will be presiding steward with John Morrissey of Fort Worth state steward. Steve Brodie will be assistant steward and secretary. Announcer will be Harry E. Hoare.

At the starting gate will be Jim Parker of Oklahoma City, veteran track man. C. V. McGowan will be clerk of scales.

Officials of the Pampa Downs Jockey club have left nothing undone to make this a first class meeting in every respect. It may also be the last race meet in Pampa, for a year or so at least, following action of the state senate yesterday in voting for repeal of the pari-mutuel wagering law.

Last night there were 201 horses at Recreation park with only 200 stalls available. More horses were scheduled to arrive today and additional stable room was being sought. Most of the thoroughbreds that raced at the Tri-State meet in Amarillo are on the grounds. Several horses new to this part of the country will vie with those well known to Panhandle turf fans.

Seven races will be run tomorrow afternoon. Most of them will be over the short distance with the longest race six furlongs. On Monday, second day of the meet, distances will be lengthened with the feature race a mile and 60 yards. From then on Manager Steve Brodie will give racing fans a variation of events.

Tomorrow's program calls for:

First race—$75 claiming, three years and up, four furlongs.

Second race—$75 claiming, three years, four furlongs.

Third race—$75 claiming, two-year maidens, four furlongs.

Fourth race—$75 claiming, three years and up, five furlongs.

Fifth race—$100 claiming, three years and up, five furlongs.

Sixth race—$100 claiming, three years and up, five and a half furlongs.

Seventh race—$125 claiming, three years and up, six furlongs.

'OLD DIZ' REFUSES TO SIGN FRICK APOLOGY

NEW YORK, June 4 (AP)—"Old Diz" and Ford Frick were still at swords' points today, the St. Louis Cardinals ace right-hander threatening all kinds of action against the National league in general and its youthful president in particular.

Standing pat on his refusal to sign an apology for a series of alleged statements against Frick, Umpire George Barr, and the league, Jerome Herman Dean declared he would carry his case to Commissioner K. M. Landis and then, if necessary, "sue Frick and the National league for plenty—at least $250,000—for depriving me of my job."

Outside of appealing to Landis for hearing, after a 10-day interval, Dean had only one other recourse. That was to change his mind and sign a formal disavowal of his alleged statements, which included, among other things, the calling of Frick and Barr, "the biggest crooks in the National league" at a father and son banquet in Belleville, Ill., May 25.

Dizzy refused yesterday after a two-hour conference with Frick, Manager Frankie Frisch of the Cards and the club's secretary, Clarence Lloyd.

"The next move is up to Dizzy," Frick said.

Meanwhile the suspension was costing Dean approximately $300 per day in salary, based upon his estimated yearly salary of $25,000.

YESTERDAY'S STARS

Lou Fette and Wally Berger, Bees: Former blanked Pirates with seven hits as Berger hit two homers, driving in four runs in 6-0 win.

Billy Sullivan, Indians: His pinch single with bases loaded drove in two runs in 6-2 win over Yankees.

Vernon Kennedy, White Sox: Held Red Sox to six hits and fanned seven for 11-4 victory.

Buddy Myer, Senators: Drove in two runs in 5-4 victory over Tigers.

Cooper, Manero, Picard Favored To Capture Open

TOLEDO, O., June 4 (AP)—Who will win the national open golf championship at Oakland Hills, Birmingham, Mich., next week?

The boys who should know—the top-notch golfing brigade of 16 professionals now entangled in the third Inverness invitational meet—say it will be "Lighthouse Harry" Cooper, second to Tony Manero at Baltusrol last year, or Henry Picard, the tall lad from Hershey, Pa.

The 16 professionals made their selections today, each picking his three favorites. Cooper was on 12 of the 16 lists and Picard placed on 10. Manero didn't get even one of the 48 votes, the balloting outside of the Cooper-Picard landslide going like this:

Ralph Guldahl, Sam Snead and Horton Smith, for each; Ky Laffoon, three; Byron Nelson and Jimmy Thomson, two each; and Denny Shute, "Jug" McSpaden, Al Watrous, Olin Dutra, Lawson Little, Ed Dudley, and Tommy Armour, one each.

Making the selections were Paul Runyan, Snead, Thomson, Dutra, Ray Mangrum, Armour, Picard, Cooper, Little, Johnny Revolta, Shute, Laffoon, Guldahl, Gene Sarazen, Jimmy Hines and Smith.

At the starting gate will be Jim Parker of Oklahoma City, veteran track man. C. V. McGowan will be clerk of scales.

INNING LASTS 34 MINUTES IN TEXAS LEAGUE

(By The Associated Press.)

WHERE THEY PLAY TODAY: Oklahoma City at Fort Worth. Houston at San Antonio. Tulsa at Dallas. Beaumont at Galveston. (All night games.)

Texas league baseball as played last night called for lots of endurance and plenty of wind.

Oklahoma City and Fort Worth, for instance, started off their game with a first inning that lasted 34 minutes, used five pitchers and produced 11 runs. The circuit-leading Indians came out with a 6-5 advantage after that long frame, but had to send in three hurlers to cut down the rambunctious Cats.

Hillin turned the trick and thereafter held the Panthers to three runs.

Another drawn out affair went to Dallas, 4 to 3, in 13 innings. It was the third night in a row the Steers and their opponents have played into extra innings and for the three nights they have played 42 frames. The Dallas club lost 17- and 12-inning contests the previous two nights.

Down south at San Antonio the Missions and Houston offered the fans an extra portion, splitting a doubleheader. The Padres took the first 8 to 1 and dropped the second 3 to 0.

Beaumont and Galveston took things more casually, the Shippers keeping close to Oklahoma City with a 5-1 victory. Boots Poffenberger pitched airtight ball for the winners.

Lewis Stops Olin In Eighth Round

ST. LOUIS, June 4 (AP)—John Henry Lewis, a champion who has outclassed his class, today cast a speculative eye over the heavy-weight field.

The Phoenix phantom practically exhausted the raw material in the light heavy division last night when he stopped Bob Olin in the eighth round of a scheduled 15-round title bout.

Lewis received $15,000 of a $23,872 gate. Olin, from whom Lewis won the crown in 1935, received 12½ per cent and a cracked rib.

The cracked rib was from a crushing right in the fourth round which sent Olin down for a seven count. He went down again early in the eighth, and on the third down Referee Walter Heiser rushed over to the nonchalant Lewis and raised his hand in token of victory, by technical knockout.

SURVIVORS IN GOLF TOURNEY NARROW DOWN

By RAY NEUMANN.

SAN ANTONIO, June 4 (AP)—Heat-plagued quarter-finalists, including a quartet of Curtis Cup stars, started out today over the sun-baked San Antonio Country club course in the eleventh annual Women's Trans-Mississippi golf tournament.

Sprinkled among survivors were four Texans who disposed of some of golfdom's biggest names in two feverish rounds yesterday.

Experience versus youthful skill was to feature the match between Mrs. Opal S. Hill of Kansas City, seeking her fifth Trans-Mississippi championship, and Miss Betty Jameson, shy local schoolgirl.

Mrs. Hill, Curtis Cup team member, in her first round match, defeated Mrs. J. W. Phillips of Bartlesville, Okla., 9 and 7, but wearied in the second to permit the consistent play of Mrs. H. D. Sterrett of Hutchinson, Kas., to bring the score to 2 and 1.

Miss Jameson, an 18-year-old gallery favorite, was left unaffected by yesterday's feverish rounds.

Mrs. E. R. Hurry, prodigious shot artist who resides in this city, was matched with Mrs. Frank Goldthwaite of Fort Worth, also a Curtis Cup team member.

Miss Marion Miley of Lexington, Ky., Trans-Mississippi champion the past two years and Curtis Cup player, matched her controlled play with Mrs. Russell Mann of Milwaukee, whose flawless work has given her easy victories to date.

Semi-finals are booked tomorrow with the 36-hole finals scheduled Sunday.

Cards Headed For Second Division, Experts Predict

BY SID FEDER, Associated Press Sports Writer.

The boys along the baseball front were picking a nice, quiet second division berth for the Dean-less St. Louis Cardinals today.

At the same time, the talk that wasn't given over to the Dean doings was directed at the work of another pitcher, Lou Fette, who's been proving himself the surprise package of the Boston Bees and the 1937 National league rookie crop.

Without their great "popper-of-fer," whether he's right or wrong in his row with Ford Frick, the Cards are anywhere up to 20 games weaker, depending on how long he's going to be on the outside looking in. If his suspension lasts for any length of time, the Gas House Gang, which is already deep in a pitching depression, figures to wind up back of the eight ball and out of a piece of the series melon.

If they do, two clubs, the Bees and the Dodgers, may fight it out for the fourth spot in the final National league lineup—the Dodgers, because Burleigh Grimes has given them a shot of dynamite, and the Bees, largely because of Fette.

A lot of baseball men laughed when old Bill McKeechle sat down at his desk last winter and signed a flock of rookie "old men" for his Boston Bees. Generally, it was considered somewhat of a joke that old Bill was going to bank on candidates of freshmen experience and senior years.

But Bill, as usual, proved about as foolish as a McGraw. For the rest of the league is kicking itself now over at least one of Boston's rookie veterans—Fette. This "youngster" is 30 years old, and for the last few years, has been doing a work-horse act with considerable success for St. Paul of the American Association.

Why none of the other big league clubs never gave him a tumble remains a mystery. But old Bill took a chance, and today Fette is one of the three top pitchers in the league. He has beaten every club that he has faced, and he's faced them all except the Giants and Phillies.

The only club to top him so far is Pittsburgh, nosing him out 4-1 early in the season's first game. Yesterday was revenge day for Fette in a big way as he handed the league-leading Bees their first shutout of the year.

He blanked them with seven hits for a 6-0 win and his sixth victory against one defeat this season.

With Dean, Fette and the weather man all getting their licks in, the other major league action yesterday didn't create as much stir as a leaf in a breeze. Only four games got by the rain altogether.

Cleveland's Indians renewed their series with the New York Yankees by taking a free swinging 6-2 decision from Lefty Gomez.

The Tigers kicked away enough chances to win three games and lost to the Senators 5-4. The White Sox took over third place from the Tigers in the American league by walloping the Boston Red Sox, 11-4.

War Admiral and Pompoon Will Race Tomorrow

NEW YORK, June 4 (AP)—Samuel Riddle's War Admiral and J. H. Louchie's Pompoon, the outstanding three year olds of the year, renew their rivalry tomorrow in the 69th running of the $50,000 Belmont stakes at Belmont Park.

There was little to indicate that the final event in America's "triple crown" will not be just another two-horse affair—just as in the derby when the Admiral beat Pompoon by two lengths and in the Preakness when the result was the same but the margin of difference only a head.

The prospect, however, figured to draw the largest crowd in many years through the turnstiles, a predicted 40,000.

Trainers of E. R. Bradley's Brooklyn, John Hay Whitney's Flying Scot, Maxwell Howard's Scene-shifter, and the Wheatley stable's Meoldest, already have said that their charges will be at the starting gate. Vamoose from the Falaise stable also may be entered.

War Admiral is expected to go postward at odds of 4 to 5 or shorter with Pompoon the 5 to 2 second choice. Flying Scot and Brooklyn generally are favored to fight it out for third place.

LASH VS. FENSKIE

MILWAUKEE, June 4 (AP)—Indiana's Don Lash and Wisconsin's Chuck Fenske will renew their rivalry in the mile run tonight when a field of 300 athletes competes under floodlights in the twelfth annual intercollegiate outdoor track and field championships. Lash beat Fenske in two outdoor meets and finished behind him twice in indoor tilts.

DWIGHT BEARD EXECUTED FOR DALLAS DEATH

HUNTSVILLE, June 4 (AP)—Augustus Dwight Beard went to his death in the electric chair today stoutly denying slayings for which he was convicted in North Carolina and in Texas.

The 27-year-old man who had been a collegiate football player and wrestler in North Carolina was executed at the state penitentiary for fatally shooting John R. Roberts, former Dallas detective who resisted a garage holdup.

A moment before he deliberately seated himself in the chair Beard told Warden W. W. Wald and other witnesses:

"I want to say that the crime I was convicted of in Dallas, another man is guilty. He is in Arlington. The crime in North Carolina that I was accused of, another boy was guilty in that crime. I'm well prepared through Father Finnegan and the Catholic church."

Father Hugh Finnegan, chaplain from Houston, administered the last rites of the Catholic church to the condemned man yesterday. Arlington is between Dallas and Port Worth.

Once before Beard had been condemned to die. He was convicted and sentenced to death for slaying a Valdesse, N. C., grocer, Augustus Bounds, in 1932. His sentence was commuted and shortly afterward he escaped.

A few minutes after Beard died, Wise Ellison, Lockhart negro, was executed for fatally knifing his wife.

Immigration From Mexico No Longer Serious Problem

WASHINGTON, June 4 (AP)—Several officials agreed today that the government no longer considers Mexican immigration to the United States a serious problem.

Senator Connally (D. Tex.) joined Secretary of State Hull and Secretary of Labor Perkins in expressing that opinion.

Connally said Mexican immigration, "once a serious problem to Texas, is no longer of great concern to my state."

Connally said the Mexican government's policy in recent years had been of assistance by encouraging return of many immigrants to their home country.

In opposing a bill by Senator Reynolds (D. N. C.) to impose quota restrictions on western hemisphere immigration, Secretary Hull wrote the Senate immigration committee that "immigration from Mexico, though admittedly a serious problem prior to 1929, has been effectively reduced by administration action to a point where it has averaged less than 1,400 per annum for the past three years."

HOUSE DUE TO OKAY SENATE REPEAL BILL

AUSTIN, June 4 (AP)—A Senate vote for repeal of the Texas horse race betting law was a reality instead of a possibility today and friends of racing admitted their cause appeared to be lost.

Working with a bare one-vote majority through much of the parliamentary maneuvering, Senate realists managed to engross the bill and pass it finally yesterday.

The House had yet to pass the Senate bill but in view of the ease with which a similar proposal sailed through the lower chamber earlier in the week a slip in that branch was regarded by legislators as extremely unlikely. They said the only question was whether it would take the House one, two or three days to pass another bill.

The Senate vote for final passage was 18 to 13, which meant that repeal would not become effective until 90 days after the current special session of the legislature adjourns, or some time in September.

So far as the state's three major tracks are concerned, the size of the vote perhaps made no difference. These courses, Arlington Downs, midway between Dallas and Port Worth; Alamo Downs at San Antonio, and Epsom Downs at Houston, have been holding no summer meets.

Governor James V. Allred has promised to submit tightening of the anti-bookmaking laws and prohibition of dog track betting as soon as he received a repeal bill. He had been urging elimination of horse track betting for the past three years.

The pari-mutuel system of betting on horse races became legal in Texas September 1, 1933, after wagering had been prohibited for a quarter of a century.

STUMPS SHIPPED TO FRANCE AND GERMANY

HOUSTON, June 4 (AP)—One of the oddest cargoes moving across Houston docks is diseased hardwood stumps.

This "burl," usually shipped in lots of 25 to 50 stumps, is collected by Noel Insal in West Texas, Arizona, Colorado and other states. He also goes all over North and South America digging up the stumps. Those found west of Arizona and Colorado are moved from Pacific coast ports.

The stumps go to furniture manufacturers in France and Germany for inlay and veneer in fine furniture. The stumps are found mainly in drough areas. Ground moisture accumulates in the stumps, making them larger by several inches than the lower body of the tree.

Most of the stumps are walnut and wild cherry. After being dug up and the roots removed the stumps are treated, a special preservative being spread over the axe and saw marks.

The stumps are stowed like any other dry wood.

TORNADO DEVASTATES WEST TEXAS OIL TOWN

MCCAMEY, June 4 (AP)—This small oil town deep in West Texas recoiled today from a freakish tornado which left behind three persons injured, about 50 buildings destroyed or damaged and a property loss estimated at $50,000.

The furious twisting winds first struck from the northwest and after a lull attacked from the east. Torrents of rain fell during the high wind and residents of one section of the town were cut off.

Communication lines went down. Water ran into business buildings from flooded streets.

A wide section received heavy rain and at Rankin the precipitation was accompanied by hail.

Injured in the blow were Mrs. R.

GERMAN FILMS FEEL NO U. S. COMPETITION

BERLIN (AP)—German and American films don't really compete in Europe, in the opinion of Guenther Schwarz, an executive of the Reich's Film chamber.

"The films produced in America and those produced here are so different," Schwarz told a group of foreign correspondents, "that they appeal to quite different types of people."

"You may be surprised to hear, for instance, that the American production, 'San Francisco,' which is having such a phenomenal run in the big cities of Germany, simply does not appeal particularly to small town folk."

Uncle Sam's Her Leading Man

Francis Gaal's pensive pose here can't mean that she is longing for her native Budapest, because she has signified her intention of becoming an American citizen. From her first acting experience in Hungary, she stepped into major roles in German films and now has the feminine lead opposite Fredric March in "The Buccaneer."

DWIGHT BEARD EXECUTED FOR DALLAS DEATH

HUNTSVILLE, June 4 (P)—Augustus Dwight Beard went to his death in the electric chair today stoutly denying slayings for which he was convicted in North Carolina and in Texas.

The 27-year-old man who had been a collegiate football player and wrestler in North Carolina was executed at the state penitentiary for fatally shooting John R. Roberts, former Dallas detective who resisted a garage holdup.

A moment before he deliberately seated himself in the chair Beard told Warden W. W. Waid and other witnesses:

"I want to say that the crime I was convicted of in Dallas, another man is guilty. He is in Arlington. The crime in North Carolina that I was accused of, another boy was guilty in that crime. I'm well prepared through Father Finnegan and the Catholic church."

Father Hugh Finnegan, chaplain from Houston, administered the last rites of the Catholic church to the condemned man yesterday. Arlington is between Dallas and Fort Worth.

Once before Beard had been sentenced to die. He was convicted and sentenced to death for slaying a Valdeese, N. C. grocer, Augustus Bounds, in 1932. His sentence was commuted and shortly afterward he escaped.

A few minutes after Beard died, Willie Ellison, Lockhart negro, was executed for fatally knifing his wife.

Happy Birthday for 'Mixup Baby'

Twelfth birthday found Mary Louise Garner more certain ever that she acted wisely when, last summer, she decided her real parents were Mr. and Mrs. John C. Garner, of Macon, and not Mr. and Mrs. Daniel L. Pittman, of Atlanta, who had given her custody in a famous "baby mixup case" in 1920. Louise's close association since last summer with the Garners, her three daughters has convinced her that her choice was Her happiness is apparent in this photo made as she reached 18 the other day.

On Capitol Hill

By HARRELL E. LEE

AUSTIN, June 6 (AP)—None of the several proposed changes in the make-up of the legislature had any luck at the long regular session and it is thought doubtful they will within the next few years.

Neither branch showed any sympathy for a proposal to substitute a one-house legislature for the two-house body. Among other suggested changes were reduction of the length of the biennial session from 120 to 60 days, increasing the pay of lawmakers from $10 a day when they work to a flat $3,000 a year, and reducing the number of members of the House and Senate.

The one to give the legislators a yearly salary and make them subject to call at any time got the farthest, and advocates believe it stands a good chance of eventual adoption.

They pointed out that the legislature spends so many months in session anyhow that putting the members on full-time pay would not be such a tremendous increase in expense. They were here 214 days during the biennium last January.

A second argument is that if a legislator should receive full-time compensation from the state he would not have any private affiliation which might influence his vote. Still another is that with government steadily expanding, the lawmaking body should remain in session much longer than formerly. Some legislators hold directly opposite views. They believe the amendment adopted in 1930 lengthening the regular session from 60 to 120 days was a mistake. Their theory is that the biennial session should be shortened and extraordinary meetings should not be called except in cases of recognized emergency.

The proposed full-time salary of $3,000 a year would not be sufficient to attract the highest type of candidates, they maintain, with campaign expenses coming every two years for House members and every four years for Senators.

Efforts to reduce the number of lawmakers on grounds the present body is too unwieldy have gained considerable support outside the legislature. Because of the size of Texas, however, and the fact that each member represents an average of more than 40,000 constituents, it is doubtful that the move ever will succeed. In fact, there has been some talk of enlarging the body.

Rep. J. Doyle Settle of Lubbock represents nine counties which in 1930 had an aggregate population of 199,279. If the legislature should be reduced that situation would be remedied, but the time perhaps is not far distant when each of the 150 House members would represent an average of around 50,000.

With fine rain the past week Top O' Texas is coming out on top. Why not this week make it a real Fiesta? A home of your own in growing, thriving, enterprising Pampa is the answer. With conditions growing better and better such bargains as these will not last long.

Listing 1. 4R. near west Francis street paving. This house is well located in good neighborhood. It is in splendid condition and will not last long at $1850.00.

Listing 2. We want you to consider seriously our new 5R. hard wood floors, east front, near paving and more direct path found to the coast. That was the achievement of Capt. John Charles Fremont, who in 1856 was elected President of the United States.

Fremont had taught mathematics in the navy, and took up surveying in 1838. He led a band of army engineers on his venture across the Rockies on a southwest route to the Pacific near what is now Los Angeles. He was hailed as the "pathfinder" to California.

Fremont continued to explore the watershed between the Mississippi and the Pacific. His explorations give him prominence in the stamps issued by the United States in 1896 in connection with the Trans-Mississippi Exposition at Omaha. He appears on the five-cent stamp.

Listing 3. Nestling among the trees on corner lot east is this neat little house over the Spanish cottage with double garage. It is cool, cozy and comfortable and best of all it is yours for only $2250.00.

STORIES IN STAMPS

BY I. S. KLEIN

LAID FIRST PATH TO THE COAST

IN 1804 the explorers, Lewis and Clark, traveled up the Missouri river, across the Rockies and down the Columbia to the Pacific coast. It was a long and tortuous route, but not until 1844 was an easier and more direct path found to the coast. That was the achievement of Capt. John Charles Fremont, who in 1856 was elected President of the United States.

Fremont had taught mathematics in the navy, and took up surveying in 1838. He led a band of army engineers on his venture across the Rockies on a southwest route to the Pacific near what is now Los Angeles. He was hailed as the "pathfinder" to California.
