WHY IS MAN OLD?
WASHING MACHINE PROGRESS
FOR EACH OF US
WASHING THEM DOWN.

WHY IS MAN OLD?
Civil War veteran of Illinois, aged 70, is told by the judge that a man has no business to get married. A Pennsylvania man of ninety, who marries a woman of 45, who has a new husband is "old in an old way."
Jacob Wettler, Swiss embroiderer, seventy-four years old, shot himself, saying life wasn't worth living at that age.

When he is forsaken, withered and shaken, what can an old man do but die?

Some men are as old at fifty as you can be. Molke, at ninety, is younger than many of the junior men that stood in stiff respect before him. A man is old when his mind stops working along new lines.

The people of America have about doubled their incomes in a few years. That, Americans earn, or receive from investments, rents from real property, etc., is not far from ONE HUNDRED MILLION DOLLARS A YEAR, almost a thousand dollars for every man, woman and child.

For every 100 homes in the United States there are 29 washing machines. That shows progress, and more for more progress.

The family without a washing machine, unless the washing be "sent out," proves that some woman is condemned to needless slavery.

An electric washing machine and wringer, costing only a few cents a day for current, makes of washing an amusement instead of hard work. It makes it possible in a large family, with a busy mother, for the growing boys and girls, to do the greater part of the week's washing and relieve the mother.

American ladies, it appears, entertain Parisians by wearing their stockings rolled down, showing all of the knee and part of the leg bare, below a short skirt.

Such women would represent the United States more usefully at home in front of American washtubs with their sleeves rolled up instead of having their stockings rolled down in Paris.

But there is a hygienic value in bare knees. All Esquimaux women, even in coldest Arctic weather, arrange for an opening at about the knee to let the air in. If they didn't do that, they would die for lack of oxygen.

Weak fish will find it hard to survive in the automobile endurance contest. One big company announced another cut in prices yesterday, making the fourth cut in a year.

The highest engineering skill and business ability are devoted to giving the public high grade automobiles at the lowest prices. That's valuable work.

When will commercial genius show the same energy in cutting the price of food "delivered?"

A scientist says that the young people of today have become "motor car wise." By instinct they avoid automobiles and adapt themselves to traffic. Older people seem unable to learn.

Even chickens and dogs have learned something. They stay out of the road and are killed less frequently than they once were.

APROPOS OF LABOR DAY

OVER 100 HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS CLASSIFIED

Supt. Irvin informs us that over one hundred high school pupils were classified on last Monday. This large advance classification will prevent much confusion and delay on the opening day of school. Many of the teachers are already here. All of the teachers of this district will be in Canyon next week where they will attend the District Institute.

School will open on Monday, September 14th, with exercises in the auditorium to which the general public is invited and especially urged to attend. A program will be rendered and all of the new teachers will be introduced.

From all indications, the enrollment for this year's school is going to be larger than ever before, the faculty looks good, and it is going to be a big school year for Perryton and Ochiltree County.

Misses Grace Brewer and Lurline Grigsby drove to Liberal, Kansas, Wednesday afternoon to meet Miss Carmen Brewer, who has been visiting friends in Los Angeles and other points in California for the past several weeks.

It would be good news if the young people of the generation would be "whiskey wise" in addition to being motor car wise.

During the next few years there will be more young people killed by whiskey than old people killed by automobiles.

A plague of butterflies, causing motor engines to become overheated, by clogging the radiators, suggests a gruesome possibility.

It is insect tribes with their horrible fertility, should get out of control, they could fill the air, destroy all vegetation, starve, suffocate and devour the human race and all other animals.

Nature fortunately attends to these things. Even the insect plagues of Egypt sent to punish sin did not kill all Egyptians.

REV. CHAS. A. CHASTEEN STARTS REVIVAL SUNDAY

Rev. Chas. A. Chasteen who will lead the Perryton Christian Church in its revival meeting beginning Sunday, September 6th, is widely known among the Christian churches of the great southwest where he has served in many positions of responsibility during the past twenty-five years. For five years he was corresponding secretary and superintendent of missions for Arkansas. He has served twice as general evangelist, under the Texas Christian Missionary Society. He has also served as pastor of some of the largest churches of this communion in the southwest.

REV. CHAS. A. CHASTEEN

He is at present minister of the Mt. Auburn Christian Church of Dallas, serving a ten year call. He came to the Mt. Auburn Church from the First Christian Church of Corsicana. Evangelist Chasteen is a man of pleasing personality and a forceful speaker. His sermons are clean and well prepared. While he is kind to all. People of other communions hear him gladly. The cooperation of the community is asked in this meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. John Beebe of Chillicothe, Texas, came in on Friday of last week for a few days visit in the home of Mrs. Beebe's sister and brother, Mrs. J. N. Conley and J. F. Teague.

Mrs. Newton Conley and small daughter of Canadian left Sunday after a few days visit in the Conley home.

J. L. DONLEY IS NEW CHEVROLET DEALER

A deal was consummated recently whereby J. L. Donley of this city becomes the owner of the Perryton Chevrolet Co. This business was owned and operated by Allen M. Wilbanks, Jr. and W. E. Mizar. Since taking over the business Mr. Donley has gotten in a number of the new 1925 models and disposed of several of the new models. The Chevrolet for 1925 is considerably improved over the 1924 model and the price is lower. It is a very popular car in this section.

Mr. Donley needs no introduction to the people of this community for he has lived here in Perryton for a number of years. He has been engaged in the hog buying and shipping business and we understand that he will still continue this line. Mr. Donley also has extensive farm and ranch interests.

The new owner of the Chevrolet agency informs us that he is in this business to stay and that he will appreciate your patronage. He will carry a full line of new cars and a complete stock of parts. The business will be located at the same old stand in the Forbes Garage. The Herald predicts that Mr. Donley will make a success of this business. He is a successful business man, honest and square in his dealings and a rustler from the word go.

BALL GAME AND RACES AT JINES PARK

A big days program has been arranged for the Jines Springs Park on Sunday, September 13th. A ball game between the Springs and Farnsworth teams will be played. Also a full program of racing has been provided for. Then there is the swimming pool and picnic grounds which always attract many to this popular resort. This place has enjoyed a big run this year. The management is alert to the alert to provide amusement and better facilities for picnic parties. Don't forget the date, Sunday, September 14th, ball game and races.

W. D. Tenney, manager of the Panhandle Lumber Company of this place, left last Saturday for Pampa and Miami, where he will look after the company's interests at those places.

McLain & McLain of Spearman recently purchased the Mary V. Humphrey 280 acre tract of land, which is south of Wawaka.

PERRYTON'S CHRISTIAN CHURCH

OPENING SERVICES NEXT SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER SIXTH

For several years the Christian Church has been looking forward to the completion of this beautiful new church home which they will enter with an opening service on next Sunday, September 6th.

The property represents a value of approximately $20,000.00 and stands as a monument to the faith and labors of this good congregation and its leaders, a tribute to Perryton's liberality, a credit to the community and a beautiful appeal to the higher and better things of life and to the cause of Christ.

The congregation numbers among its membership some of the best talent and most promising citizens of the community. With this splendid working force, its live Sunday School and the good favor it has in the community, a rapid and large increase may be expected in the congregation's numbers, life and activities as it enters this beautiful new building.

The opening services will be held Sunday, September 6th.

Rev. Chas. A. Chasteen of Dallas will be the special speaker of the day. Rev. Jasper Bogue, Panhandle District Evangelist, who has aided the congregation during the building will direct the services. Other speakers will be heard during the day. A specially prepared choir and orchestra will provide special musical numbers and lead the congregational singing.

PROGRAM

(All Services begin promptly on time)

Many are expected from other towns and communities and all Perryton is cordially invited.

COUNTRY SCHOOLS TO OPEN SEPTEMBER 14TH

All the schools of the rural districts will open on Monday, September 14th. The Huntton schools will also open on the same day. As was announced in last week's paper the schools of the Perryton Independent School District will open on this date. Prof. R. D. Ford will again be at the head of the Huntton School. During the past years that Mr. Ford has directed the affairs of this school, he has been very successful and has brought the school to the front and it now ranks as one of the best schools of its size in the state. Mr. Ford will be assisted at Huntton by Miss Anna Belle Shindler and Mrs. Geo. Pletcher. We have been unable to obtain the names of the teachers at the Blodgett and Cedar Bluff schools but the instructors of the other schools of the county, outside the Perryton District are as follows: Alfalfa—L. L. Hughes; Turner—Miss Virginia King; Crowe—Mrs. Vanda Kelm; Black—Mr. and Mrs. Homer Robertson; Taz—Miss Lottie Flowers; McMillen—Miss Pearl Branham and Notla—Miss Mae Branham.

PRAIRIE CHICKEN SEASON OPENED TUESDAY

The 1925 open season for prairie chicken opened on Tuesday morning of this week at sun-up and a number of our local hunters have been hunting in the sand hills near Glazier during the past few days. A party composed of Messrs. J. B. Nash, R. T. Correll, O. T. and Horace Glasgow, E. L. and C. E. Whippo, John Hood and Johnnie King went down on Monday afternoon and were there bright and early for the days shoot. They returned on Wednesday afternoon and report good success and that the birds are plentiful this season.

Miss Virgie Richardson left Wednesday morning for Miami and Amarillo, where she will visit relatives and friends before going to Canyon for the teachers' institute.

Mrs. B. B. Kent and daughter, Miss Marie, were shopping in Liberal on Monday of this week.

ADJUDGED INSANE AND TAKEN TO AUSTIN

Mrs. Lillie Harbour, wife of W. A. Harbour of south of Booker in the east part of this county, and the mother of three children almost grown, was brought to this city on last Saturday evening, suffering from a violent form of insanity. This good woman, who is 48 years of age, has been in very poor health for a number of years and has suffered slight attacks of insanity for the past 15 or 18 years. At a hearing before Judge J. M. Grigsby on Monday morning, she was adjudged of unsound mind and G. W. Cutter was appointed by the court to take her to Austin where she will be committed to the state institution. She was accompanied by her husband and Mrs. Leatha Bartley nurse. A case like this is sad and it is hoped that a cure will be effected.

ANTI-GLARE HEADLIGHT LAW IN EFFECT

Many auto owners have complied with the new Texas Anti-Glare Headlight law which was passed at the last session of the legislature. Official testing stations have been established by the Texas Highway department at the Johnston Motor Co. and the Forbes Garage and both of these places have been very busy here of late testing and adjusting auto lights. According to this law, all lights must be tested and an official certificate issued on same before the first day of September, which was last Tuesday. The penalty for operating a car with lights that have not been approved is very severe so take heed and go at once and have your lights tested. The small twenty-cent fee which is charged for this service is much cheaper than a fine many times the amount charged.

Mr. and Mrs. Aubin Allen and family returned last Saturday from a two weeks trip in the mountains of New Mexico, and while gone they visited in the home of Mr. Allen's sister, Mrs. Walter Dunn, at Cimarron, New Mexico, and his mother, Mrs. Hattie Allen, who has been visiting there for some time, returned home with them.

RESOLUTION

Whereas, It has pleased our Supreme Master to call our worthy brother, M. Q. McLelland, from labor here to rest in the Celestial Lodge on high, therefore be it Resolved, That in the death of Brother, M. Q. McLelland, we lose a worthy member of our lodge, a just and upright Mason, and a good citizen.

Brother M. Q. McLelland departed this life full of years—ripened with age and experience; he was worthy and well qualified and duly and truly prepared for admission into the Celestial Lodge above where our Supreme Grand Master presides; and he will be properly vouched for by his Lord and Master, whom he loved, and served on earth.

We sympathize with his widow and children, and his friends and neighbors who mourn his departure; but we can only remind them that he is not dead, but is only asleep—resting after a long and well spent life here; he cannot, and would not if he could, return to us; we can, if we will, go to him. Let us so live and perform our duties here as to insure a joyful reunion with those who have gone before, and a happy life in the great hereafter.

Helps Fruit Grower Pick Prize-Winners

Specialist Gives Some Valuable Suggestions.

Selection of fruit for exhibition purposes is a real sport for farmers in these days of many shows, fairs, etc. A. F. Mason, fruit specialist of the New Jersey Agricultural college, gives here some valuable suggestions to help the fruit grower pick out prize-winning specimens.

Exhibition fruit is best selected in the late summer while still on the tree. At this time the picking crew has not handled it, nor has it lost its bloom by being jumbled about on a sorting table, where bruises are bound to be acquired. Also, if the fruit is still on the trees when selected, the color can often be improved by the removal of a few leaves and consequent exposure to the sunlight.

Fruit is judged for perfection in several particulars. All judges follow the same schedule, although their opinions may differ widely on the comparative importance of the different points. In the order of their importance they are as follows:

Condition—Specimens should be absolutely free from insects, diseases and mechanical injury, and should be in proper state of development for the season.

Color—Specimens should have at least the normal color, and a little more if possible, but all specimens should have exactly the same degree of color. Poorly colored and highly colored specimens should never be mixed.

Form—Should be typical of the variety and absolutely uniform among specimens. Place the fruit stem end up and observe uniformity of top and sides, then turn them over and compare blossom ends and sides.

Size—Should be typical of the variety and most desirable for the market. For instance, a small Delicious is neither typical nor desired, while a very large York Imperial is equally lacking in type and desirability for trade. Average to slightly above average, rather than the very large specimens, are usually best for exhibit purposes.

Crank Case Oil Used as Cure for Mange in Hogs

Mange in hogs, a parasitic skin disease, is quite common and is on the increase, a recent survey indicates. It replies to questionnaires sent out to farmers all over Iowa last year estimate that mange is present on 90 per cent of the farms and is becoming more intense, states Dr. C. D. Rice, veterinary, Iowa State college.

Loss from this affliction is due to lowered gains from feeding and also to the lower valuation placed on many hogs by the packer, because the roughened skins detract greatly from the appearance of the meat. In severe cases carcasses have to be skinned before they can be sold at all. A conservative estimate places the annual loss through reduced selling value of many hogs at $1,078,000 for the states of Iowa, Nebraska, Minnesota and the Dakotas.

Yet mange can be easily and completely controlled by the use of waste crank case oil because it is both cheap and effective. Mix 1 per cent of kerosene or other standard disinfectant with the waste oil and either dip or spray the hogs, but do it thoroughly. Repeat the treatment if necessary. Keep treated hogs out of the sun for a day to prevent sun scald.

Start New Strawberry Patch After Third Crop

Renovation of the strawberry patch should receive attention as soon as harvest is over. This consists in cutting out all of the plants except narrow rows 4 to 5 inches wide and about 30 inches apart. If this is carefully done and the soil between the rows given good cultivation, sufficient plants are left to set new runner plants for the production of the second crop next spring. In general, only two or three crops should be expected from a patch and when the second or third crop has come on a new patch should be planted for the production of the next year's crop, the old patch plowed up and the land put to some other use immediately after harvest.

Farm Hints

Sell the males and produce infertile ones.

Dynamite is a better explosive than swearing when the plow hits a stump.

Pocket gopher damage in Kansas alfalfa fields amounts to $2,000,000 annually.

A persistently broody hen ought to mean a culled hen—unless you like to feed star boarders.

Feed the beef type of birds of the heavy breeds and retain the alert busy hens with the refined heads. Discard the crow-headed hens, and hens with thick heavy skulls.

A half ton of weeds require twenty tons of water for their growth. When water is scarce, as it has been this season, the wise farmer will allow as little tonnage to grow in his cultivated crops as good tillage will permit.

TEXAS FARMERS SHOULD DEMAND FAIR TAXATION

We wish to warn our readers against the effort that is being made by the larger cities of Texas to revise the State Constitution so that state income and inheritance taxes will be prohibited. The San Antonio Chamber of Commerce has asked other Texas cities to contribute to a fund of $3,000 to defray the expenses of Governor Miriam A. Ferguson on a trip to Florida to study that state's laws. Florida has amended her constitution so that income and inheritance taxes can never be levied, and it is the purpose of these larger Texas cities to prejudice the mind of the governor against this form of taxation. The impropriety of the governor accepting funds to cover the expenses of a trip of this sort from interested parties does not seem to have entered the minds of these city folks. If the governor accepts such a proposition, she should insist that the trip also include a state in which income and inheritance taxes are levied, in order that she may get both sides of the question. For evidence of the value of an income tax, we suggest that the governor visit North Carolina. As between the prosperity of North Carolina and Florida there is no comparison. Florida's prosperity is pretty much of the boom nature. Land speculation has run riot. Bribery by Florida's craven and perfidious legislature, rich tax dodgers have flocked to the state to escape the payment of what they rightfully owe to the support of the government. On the other hand, North Carolina's development has been built upon a solid foundation. The state collects no property tax. It derives its funds from income and inheritance taxes. When its citizens make money or have money left to them they pay rather heavy taxes, because they have the ability to pay. On the other hand, when its farmers suffer from the plagues that adverse circumstances sometimes visit upon their crops, they are not forced to the poorhouse by the state's insistent demand for tax money.

The big business interests of Texas recognize the fact that the demand for a state income tax is growing. They are not willing to let the question come to a head and be fought out on its merits. Instead they seek to shut off all argument at any time.

Unless farmers let their representatives in the State Legislature know how they stand on this question, the larger towns of the state like Dallas and San Antonio are going to rule out income and inheritance taxes for all time to come.—The Progressive Farmer.

FAMOUS FORTS IN U. S. HISTORY

By ELMO SCOTT WATSON

He Cut the Cross From the British Flag

In 1636 the colonists of Massachusetts bay were in a state of great perturbation. The master of a British ship which had sailed into Boston harbor had demanded to know why no flag was flying over the little palisaded fort on Castle Island to render him a salute and be saluted in turn. That was an embarrassing question for a short time before one Richard Stenport, acting upon the orders of stern old John Endicott, had cut the cross out of the British flag because to that dour Puritan leader it symbolized the ancient Catholic religion of the mother country. That was one reason why no flag flew over Castle Island, and it took considerable explaining to avoid unpleasant results.

Thus early in Massachusetts history, Castle Island, this little scrap of land less than a dozen acres in extent, became an important spot. The next incident in its history came in 1689, when the hatred of the colonists for their governor, Sir Edmund Andros, resulted in a revolt and one of the first places they seized was this fort.

In 1705 Colonel Roger, a famous English engineer, was employed to repair the fort, whose palisades had fallen into sad disrepair. He demolished all of the old works and erected new ones of timbers and earth, and this new fortification, the most formidable that had yet graced Castle Island, was named Castle William, or Fort William, in honor of the king.

During the French wars, Fort William was one of the most important defenses along the Atlantic coast, and at the close of these wars it had a total of 120 guns mounted on its walls. It was strongly garrisoned by the British at the outbreak of the Revolution as an aid in holding the rebellious colonists in subjection, but when Lord Howe evacuated Boston in 1776 the British flag was lowered over Fort William, never to be raised again.

In 1798 Massachusetts ceded Fort William to the federal government. The next year when President John Adams visited Boston he suggested that Fort Independence would be a more appropriate name for this defender of American liberties, and his suggestion was adopted. In 1832 Fort Independence was enlarged into a Independence, pentagonal, bastioned fortification, and for the first time in nearly 200 years Boston had a defender worthy of the name of "fort."

in the future by making income and inheritance taxes unconstitutional. The question is: Are the farmers of Texas going to stand for it? They can block it if they have the will to do so.

Get this straight. The State of Texas is going to need more and more tax money as years go by, in spite of all efforts toward economy. Where is it coming from? Shall it come from the pockets of those who have money and live well or those who are struggling for a decent living? The income tax will take the money from those who have the money and have the ability to bear the tax. It will not come from the farmer, because ordinarily his income is very small. If a farmer does make money, he will pay his share but no more. Under present conditions he is paying more than his share.

Unless farmers let their representatives in the State Legislature know how they stand on this question, the larger towns of the state like Dallas and San Antonio are going to rule out income and inheritance taxes for all time to come.—The Progressive Farmer.

The P. T. A. met at the school auditorium on Monday, August 31st, with a splendid attendance of parents and the four teachers that were in town, present. The program as printed in last week's paper was rendered and all of the numbers were very much enjoyed and appreciated. Prof. Irvin gave us a splendid and encouraging talk, pointing out some of the things the P. T. A. can do to help the school, especially emphasizing co-operation of the parents and teachers. Following his suggestion a sponsor for each grade was elected, who are as follows:

First Grade Mrs. Ed McMillen
Second Grade Mrs. A. C. Witt
Third Grade Mrs. Claude Jones
Fourth Grade Mrs. Clyde Cofer
Fifth Grade Mrs. Ed Morgan
Sixth Grade Mrs. H. C. Coffee
Seventh Grade Mrs. E. W. Witt
Eighth Grade Mrs. W. B. LaMaster
Ninth Grade Mrs. D. C. Shearer
Tenth Grade Mrs. R. H. Gamel
Eleventh Grade Mrs. W. D. Fulton and Mrs. LaMaster is chairman of this committee.

It was decided to have the next meeting in the form of a reception for the teachers and will be held at the school auditorium Monday evening, September 14th, at 8 o'clock, when all parents should be present to get acquainted with the teachers and welcome them to our community. A Bible has been ordered for each grade, which act was very highly praised by Prof. Irvin. Prof. Irvin is asking the parents to co-operate with the teachers by keeping the pupils at home at night so that they may bring up their work better and also be better off all around.

Mr. Cook, Mr. Records and Mrs. Irvin each gave short talks and all are asking for the co-operation of the parents.

After adjournment delicious refreshments of ice cream and wafers were served which, of course, were enjoyed by all.

Adopted by Ochiltree Chapter No. 161 O. E. S., Perryton, Texas, Friday, August 28, 1925.

WHEREAS, On the morning of August 6th, the messenger of death passed our sentinel and invaded our chapter and severed a link from our golden chain, summoning from time to eternity Sister Annie Johnson, one of our oldest and most beloved members, having become a member of this Chapter March 7, 1915. We shall never again enjoy her genial companionship and wise council. She was always a willing worker in the Chapter and we mourn her departure, and her memory will ever be kept fresh and bright in our hearts, as she was loved by all.

Sister Johnson was a consecrated Christian woman, being a member of the Baptist Church. She was not only faithful to her church, but just as faithful in believing that it was her duty as a Christian to do the will of her Master at all times. She was always ready to lend a helping hand in time of need, both in acts of kindness and in words. At the last, while surrounded by relatives and friends, she opened her eyes and with a pleasant smile on her face bade them all farewell. Truly she could say: "O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?"

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED: That the sympathy of this Chapter be extended to the sorrowing relatives of our sister and their bereaved families.

RESOLVED: That we as a Chapter so conduct ourselves, that when our summons comes, the golden chain will be unbroken in our home on high.

RESOLVED: That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of to the families of our departed Sister our Chapter and that copies be sent and also to our home paper for publication.

"That unto these whose faith remains Death does but sever earthly claims To spirits freed from this poor clod 'Tis but to sleep, to wake with God!"

SURPRISE PARTY

One of the most unusual afternoons of the social season was last Thursday, when Mrs. J. W. Wilson, assisted by Mesdames R. T. Correll and W. C. Barber, entertained with a "Line" party, in her beautiful home in Ridge Lawn Addition, for Mrs. Carl Ellis.

The decorative scheme, carried out by this most charming hostess, and the entertainment provided, was unique and heartily enjoyed by all present.

The honor guest was the recipient of many little "secrets," which as time glides by she may divulge.

To the music of "Jingle Bells," with words especially arranged for the occasion—Mrs. Ellis was invited to "clear the line" after which dainty refreshments were served and a most pleasant hour spent in social intercourse.

Those invited, besides the honor guest, upon whom the entire affair was a complete surprise, were Mesdames Bowen, Barber, H. C. Brillhart, S. S. Brillhart, Correll, Coffee, Cutter, Cartwright, Dodson, Edwards, Garrison, Holt, Johnson, LaMaster, Lance, May, Perry, Thornton, Whippo and Wilson and the Misses Dodson, Ellis and Perry.

—A Guest.

Mrs. J. M. Grigsby and daughter, Miss Lurline were among the many from this city who attended the Baptist meeting at Canadian last week. They were guests in the home of their daughter and sister, Mrs. Tom Carver, while in Canadian.

PROUD MR. BEETLE

"It's a matter of pride to me," said Mr. Beetle.

"Yes, it is a matter of great pride to me. Anyone in my position would be proud, too."

"I am in your position," said the Red-Winged Locust, "and I don't know that I am feeling particularly proud. I am crawling slowly about my cage here in the zoo as you are doing."

"Is that a position of which to be proud?"

"My dear Red-Winged," said the Beetle, "you are slow. You don't understand."

"Pardon me, my dear sir," said the Red-Winged Locust, "but you are thinking of my distant relatives, the snails."

"That is, they are not my near relatives, and I am not really sure that they are relatives at all."

"In fact, come to think of it, I don't believe they are relatives at all."

"My dear Mr. Red-Winged Locust," said Mr. Beetle, "why don't you think before you speak?"

"That's an old, old saying, older than you are or than I am."

"It's older than most creatures, I believe."

"But it's a good old saying, just the same."

"Well," admitted Mr. Red-Winged Locust, slowly, "I suppose I should have thought before I spoke."

"But the snails, I suppose, do belong to the insect class, and so do I, and so do you, so there must be some sort of a family relationship."

"No more than there is between boys and girls of entirely different families."

He did not mind being stupid, and from different states and countries and lands," said Mr. Beetle.

"They're all people, but they're not related."

"Well," said Mr. Red-Winged Locust, "you said I was slow, and I couldn't bear that."

"Ah," said Mr. Beetle, "I mean that you were slow with your mind, your thoughts."

Mr. Red-Winged Locust seemed to feel much better at hearing that.

He did not mind being stupid as long as he wasn't considered as slow in his actions as the snails.

"What is a matter of pride to you?" he asked after a moment, of Mr. Beetle.

"Ah, my dear Mr. Red-Winged Locust, listen and I will tell thee."

"Fine language, heigh-ho," said Mr. Red-Winged Locust.

"I know that you come from the South," commenced Mr. Beetle, "but I come from still further South."

"I come from South America, and my whole name is Mr. Hercules Beetle."

"I am named after a man of ancient fame who was very brave and who did very wonderful things."

"Well, well, well," said Mr. Red-Winged Locust, "I am glad you get so much joy out of that, but for my part I would rather be named a red-winged locust, as red wounds so gay and royal and noble."

"I wouldn't care so much just being named after some one else who was fine and brave, and all that sort of thing."

"Each to his own taste," said Mr. Hercules Beetle, as he crawled proudly away—or rather as proudly as a creature can crawl.

Which, after all, is not so very fine, as crawling is not a lofty way of moving about.

Still Mr. Hercules Beetle did his best.

Knowledge

"Dolly, what did you learn in school today?"
"I learned the name of the boy who moved next door, mamma."

PIT PRIVIES

If the pit privy is built correctly and properly maintained, it is one of the greatest blessings ever introduced in a community where city water and sewerage is not available.

The proper disposal of human excrement has been a vexing problem from the days of Moses to the present time. The pit of the pit privy, if properly constructed, will not get water in it and will not breed mosquitoes if it is made fly and insect proof, which of course is the proper way to build them. A pit privy may be well made and painted, but if it does not keep out flies and mosquitoes and water, it is because it is not properly built.

If you live in a low flat country where the ground water level is near the surface, it would be well to raise a mound of dirt several feet high to put your pit privy on. This will keep out the ground water. There is one thing about the construction of a pit privy that I would like to emphasize—the ventilation. There should be a ventilator from the seat of the privy out through the top of the house. This can be made from planks six inches wide nailed together, making a chimney with a four-inch opening. At the top of this ventilator or chimney there should be screen wire to prevent mosquitoes from entering; also a raised cover to prevent rain water from going down the ventilator. This ventilator, by going out the top of the house, creates a draft and all odors are carried out of the privy.

If you should happen to get water in the pit, put a cup of kerosene in the pit once a month to keep mosquitoes from breeding, if by chance any should happen to get in, but if the privy is properly built there will be no mosquitoes or flies in the pit.

THE MORE HORSEPOWER. THE MORE PROFIT

At times we may also find ourselves about ready to agree with those who say that the greatest farm need is more horsepower and machinery. Certainly, "the Man with the Hoe" can never hope to be other than "slave to the wheel of labor" so long as he is content to be only a man with a hoe. The man with the ox can never be more than a poverty-cursed peasant. The man with one horse has only a little better prospect. Figures recently compiled show that the average agricultural worker in Italy has only two-tenths of a horse—there is one horse for each five workers—and the crops produced per year per worker amount to only $45. In Hungary and France there is four tenths of a horse per worker and crop values rise to $80 in Hungary and $90 in France. In Germany there is one-half horse per worker, and values rise to $119. In the United States we have two horses per worker, and crop values rise to $292. In Iowa they are practically four horses per worker, and crop values rise to $595, while Nebraska with nearly five horses per worker shows a crop average of $910.

That hotel men are often producers of new wealth for a community because they always have such a boosting spirit that no one can escape its influence.

That the business-like way hotel men have of presenting the facts about their home communities to investors and home-seekers, does much to aid in its development.

Everybody should say a good word for the hotel man on account of their progressiveness a city can move ahead faster on the road of progress and prosperity.

WATER THE STOCK

Water must be convenient, plentiful and good, or livestock will suffer from lack of water during hot weather. In winter, livestock are injured less by insufficient water, but in any season it pays to make it easy and convenient for the stock to take all the good water they want, whenever they want it.

Dirty pools of warm water are too frequently the source of livestock water in the South.

The dairy cow in particular must have an abundant supply of good water if she is to produce a large flow of milk, which is 85 per cent water. The dairyman should water his milk, but it must be passed through his cows.

Mrs. W. D. Tenney and children left last Saturday for Wichita and Emporia, Kansas, where they will visit in the home of Mr. Tenney's sister, Mrs. Fred Miller. Mr. Tenney's mother joined them at Beaver and made the trip with them.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Kirkhart and family of Gate, Oklahoma, spent last Saturday and Sunday visiting in the home of Mrs. Kirkhart's brother, E. M. Allen, and sister, Mrs. P. E. Gidley.

Miss Edith Lawrence will leave tomorrow for Canyon, Texas, where she will attend the teacher's institute, and from there she will go to Higgins, where she will teach this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt Hood of the Boyd vicinity and their cousin, Miss Helen, Henderson of Waco, Texas, were Perryton visitors last Saturday

SHE HAD THE SPEED

"The stenographer we require," ran the ad, "must be fast, absolutely accurate and must have human intelligence. If you are not a crackerjack, don't bother us."

One of the answers wrote that she noted their requirements and went on: "Your advertisement appeals to me strongly—stronger than prepared mustard—as I have searched all Europe, Alrope, Irope and Hoboken in quest of someone who could use my talents to advantage. When it comes to this chin music proposition, I have never found man, woman or dictaphone who could get first base on me, either fancy or catch-as-catch-can. I write short hand so fast that I have to use a specially prepared pencil with a platinum point and a water-cooling attachment, a notepad made of asbestos, ruled with sulphuric acid and stitched with catgut. I run with my cut-out open at all speeds and am in fact a guaranteed double hydraulic welded, drop-forged and oil tempered specimen of human lightning on a perfect thirty-six frame, ground to one-thousandth of an inch.

If you would avail yourself of the opportunity of a lifetime, wire me, but unless you are fully prepared to pay the tariff for such services don't bother me, as I am so nervous that I can't stand still long enough to have my dress fitted."

She got the job.—Boston Transcript.

Hogs with lice cost from 1/4 to 3 cents more to put on a pound of gain than those that are free of them. A wormy hog will cost about one-sixth more than one that is free, says M. M. LeCrox, swine specialist, Extension Division of the Louisiana State University. Keeping the hog lot as clean as possible is very important. Feed the hog grain feed and let it eat all the green feed it wants. Be sure that it has all the clean water it wants to drink. Get as good a pig as you possibly can. Feed your pigs to grow first. Fattening hogs is very easily done.—The Progressive Farmer.

Frank Cheatham, who has been assisting the White House Lumber Company here, for a few days, left Monday morning to resume his work with the company at Follett.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bridges of southward are the proud parents of a baby girl born on Monday, August 24, to whom they have given the name Maralyn Elizabeth.

Miss Mary Garrett, who has been assisting the bookkeeper and stenographer at the Wilson garage in Shattuck, Oklahoma, returned home the first of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. McLarty and family left Wednesday morning for Lubbock, Texas, where they will visit. It is the home of Mr. McLarty's brother, John.

About Your Health

Things You Should Know

by John Joseph Gaines, M.D.

YOUR THROAT

Undoubtedly, in our struggle with the invisible enemies of mankind, we have been baffled by the invaders of the breathing passages more than anywhere else. Here many of the deadliest germs attack. We have practically abolished typhoid; cholera is a thing of the past; small-pox is no more dreaded; diphtheria and scarlet fever are yielding; influenza, pneumonia and tuberculosis remain mysterious and unconquered.

It is known that disease-germs may reside for years in a throat that appears healthy, and annoys its owners but little. From this locality they wander to more remote tissues; an overworked joint, an idle gall-bladder, or an irritable kidney is fertile soil for immigrants from a very modest throat-infection. Worst of all, however, a diseased throat is more apt to infest the heart-muscle, especially in people past middle age. I am safe in asserting that, the majority of fatal heart diseases have their real origin in a perfectly curable throat infection, neglected.

Removal of tonsils is too often only a step in the right direction—merely removing the headquarters of the enemy. Millions of bacteria are left behind to continue depredations. The number of "poisoned hearts" from influenza-germs is appalling! It is in this field that an ounce of prevention is worth many pounds of cure. What better prevention than daily cleansing the upper air passages with some harmless antiseptic? The invisible foe can be successfully combatted, only when he is not deeply fortified. To neglect the throat is to court disaster.

ture of the Plaintiff's demand as stated in the said petition being an action to recover of the Defendant as the owner of the lands returned delinquent (or reported sold to the State) for the taxes due thereon for the year 1923; and, whereas, the said owners are non-residents of the State and upon the affidavit of said attorney, having been made, setting forth that said owners are non-residents of the State of Texas (or the owners are unknown to the affiant, as the Attorney for the State of Texas, and after inquiry, cannot be ascertained.)

THE FOLLOWING NOTICE IS,
THEREFORE, To cite all interested parties and to make parties Defendant by notice in the name of
THE PERRYTON INDEPENDENT SCHOOL DISTRICT of the County of Ochiltree, directed to all persons owning or being in any way interested in the lands therein described delinquent to the said plaintiff for taxes, and to be published in a newspaper in said County, one time a week

Gordon Fuller, who is a student at the West Texas Teacher's College at Canyon, came in last Sunday for a two weeks visit in the home of his parents, Commissioner and Mrs. R. A.
Fuller of the Black neighborhood.
Gordon has won some high honors by his strict application to work at the Canyon school and has been employed as one of the student instructors at the school for the fall and winter term.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith Ellis who came in from Las Vegas, New Mexico, the fore part of last week for a visit in the home of their son, Carl Ellis, and family, left on Thursday of this week for Mound Ridge, Kansas where they will make their future home.

Mrs. R. E. Bennett and sons, J. C. and Clay, of Erick, Oklahoma came in last Monday for a few days visit in the home of Mrs. Bennett's sister, Mrs. L. T. Tucker, Mr. Bennett accompanied them but went on to Colorado to look after land interests.

Ora L. Cole, who has been visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Creed Walker of this city, left last Saturday for Kansas City where he will look after business interests before returning to his home at Iola, Kansas.

AMARILLO TRI-
STATE EXPOSITION

One of the outstanding features of the Tri-State Exposition to be held at Amarillo, September 26th to October 1st, is that the show is going to open with a crash. It is going in like two lions and come out like two other lions.

So often a fair drags about for a day or two before getting into full sway. The 1925 show has many of its best features the first two days.

Among them are—the band contest, the opening of the popularity contest, the automobile races, the motorcycle races, and on the very first day the great football game between Clarendon College and W. T. S.
T. C.

Dave Dordon, chairman of the band contest, has announced seventeen bands ready to take part in this competition. They have been classified and arranged so that absolute fairness will prevail. As a side attraction, but a popular one, will be the old fiddlers contest.

In the popularity contest names are already being entered and the secretaries of the Chambers of Commerce are asked to forward theirs at once to Dr. R. P. Parcells, Amarillo.
For this event an $1,800.00 Studebaker Sedan is being given by the McCart Motor Company. No Amarillo girl will be permitted to compete and the winners will lead the grand march of the ball at the Palo Duro Hotel, Thursday night. These entering this contest are required to remain in Amarillo during the week of the exposition.

The track is now being put in shape for the automobile and motorcycle races. It is being oiled so as to prevent dust and many of the fastest riders and drivers in the country are coming. These events are under the direction of W. C. Irvin and F. L. Boor, in the order named. Communications should be addressed to them. The motorcycle races, which proved such an attraction last year, have many of the same riders again entered, with a long list of new, but well known, demons of the dirt track.

Then there is the football game, this will immediately precede the motorcycle races, and those wishing to remain seated for both should purchase two tickets at the gate.

Clarendon and Canyon are seeking by this game to renew athletic relations and the game is expected to be a hot one. It will start at 1 o'clock.
Special trains from both cities with hundreds of students are coming.
Many others of their neighbors are expected to follow suit.

Besides these attractions, of course there will be the exhibits. They will be wide open and ready on the first day. The only problem confronting the directors is where to house them all. But they will be amply provided for.

The horse races will follow the machine races. These come Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday; and the same string which will make Hutchinson, Wichita Falls and Dallas are coming. J. L. Nunn is chairman of this department.

President U. N. Oliver at a recent meeting of the board of directors, where this progress was reported, highly complimented his large corps of workers and expressed thanks to the people of the Panhandle for the interest they have exhibited at this early date.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Cooke and family came in the latter part of last week to make their home in this city.
Mr. Cooke will be our vocational agricultural instructor in the local school. He left here several weeks ago to attend a conference at Austin, later going to get his family who had been visiting in the eastern part of the state. Mr. Cooke was located at Pampa last year.

We are in receipt of a card from S. R. George and family, who left a couple of weeks ago for a trip to points in California, Washington, Oregon and other western states.
The car was written at San Francisco, California, August 28, and state that they were having a fine time. From there they will go to Washington and Oregon for an extended visit. The Herald office certainly misses Mr. George's visits, but know that he is enjoying a much needed vacation.

Miss Alwayne Conley returned last week from Canadian where she has been visiting for the past two weeks in the home of her brother, Newton Conley and family. While at Canadian, Miss Alwayne was initiated into the Canadian order of the Rainbow Girls.

FULTON ITEMS

The fiftieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. M. Kerns was celebrated Sunday, August 24th, at their home near Gray. Those present were: Mrs. Kerns' brother, Henry Wells of Purcell, Okla.; Mrs. Kerns' sister, Mrs. Hatfield from Drexel, Mo.; Mrs. Linnie Cole and son, Ora, of Iola, Kansas; Lute Calvert and family from Liberal, Kansas; John Kerns and family of Forgan; Miss Bernice Walker of Perryton, Texas; Joe Wells and family, Joe Kerns and family, Gerald Kerns and family, Will Kerns and family, Arthur Christmas and family, Floyd Kerns and family, J. L. Kerns and family, Albert Ragsdale and family, Oliver Whitmarsh and family, Willis Buckman and wife, Irvin Berkstresser and family, all of Gray, Oklahoma, numbering 67 in all. All present enjoyed the day and left wishing Mr. and Mrs. Kerns many more happy years together. Though their voyage on the sea of matrimony has not always been an easy one, they both enjoy fairly good health. They have lived in this community many years and we hope their lives may be spared for many more.

C. A. Bransgrove and family attended the S. S. Convention at Beaver last Thursday.

Many from this community attended camp meeting at Range Sunday.

Mrs. Joe O. Kerns motored to Liberal, Saturday. She took Mrs. Hatfield and Mrs. Cole, who were going to Kansas City.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Kerns, Joe Kerns and family, Irvin Berkstresser and family visited at the Willis Buckman home, in the Fairview neighborhood Sunday afternoon.

Joe Wells, who has been living on the Charles Massey farm, has sold his crop to Mr. Massey and expects to move his family soon to Bartlesville, Oklahoma. We regret to see Mr. Wells and family leave our community. Mr. Massey expects to put his place into wheat.

Rain in many places near us, but none for us. Row crop about dried up, some farmers are cutting it.

C. E. McGarrough and family of south of Perryton spent Wednesday on the Palo Duro.

TYPEWRITER RIBBONS — All makes, 50c each at Herald office.

ALFALFA ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Jackson and children attended the encampment at Anvil Park Saturday and Sunday, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Freeman and children attended Sunday. They report a large crowd and a fine time.

"Uncle Billy" Callison is visiting his sister, Mrs. W. E. Merydith. He was a guest in the home of Mr. Drake Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Moore and Robert Henry were dinner guests in the home of Mrs. B. J. Jackson last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Widmer and children visited the family of Wm. Rose last Sunday.

George Jackson and son, Franklin, and H. B. Freeman drove some sows to Booker Tuesday, which George had sold to Ed Puls.

Mrs. J. R. Tipps is suffering with an abscess in her ear.

Charlie Jackson claims to have the finest piece of cotton in the community. There are a number of bolls on each stalk and they are beginning to open.

Mrs. Geneva Wright was called to her home at Dunlap, Oklahoma, by the sickness of her small son Davy.

Frank Keith was an overnight guest in the Chas. Jackson home Sunday.

Our Sunday school expects to be well represented at the convention at Booker next Sunday. Nearly the whole school having decided to attend.

Chas. Jackson was a business visitor in Perryton last Monday.

Mrs. Mattie Branham, Miss Faye Branham and Mr. Meade were dinner guests in the Moore home last Thursday.

Bert Purscell and Leslie Guffey were at Chas. Jackson's Monday working on a car.

Ed Puls of Booker was in this neighborhood the first of the week buying cattle.

Miss Rena Porter and Mr. W. E. Huddleston of Darrouzette were united in marriage by Judge J. M. Grigsby on Monday of this week.

Mr. J. F. Wilkinson and daughters of southeast of town were shopping here last Tuesday.

So She Sold the Eggs

A relative in Iowa got address cards mixed and by mistake sent 17,000 eggs to Mrs. E. T. Murphy in Boston. To save her kin a loss, she rented a store room and sold them all—at 25 cents per dozen less than regular retail price.

Mrs. Lillie Morrow, who has been visiting in the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. M. Grigsby, for some time, left last week for her home at Dallas, Texas.

A number of the young people were delightfully entertained Tuesday evening with a marshmallow and weinna roast at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Ragan.

J. S. Bradshaw, our new high school principal came in on Wednesday of this week to assume his duties.

Arthur Slavin, J. S. Talley and J. W. Richardson were on the Wichita market last Monday with shipments of cattle.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Gardner of this city are the proud parents of a baby boy, born Monday, August 31st.

Trade among Friends

No matter what some folks say to the contrary, there certainly is a lot of sentiment in business. Friendship, for instance, makes more satisfactory sales than all the cleverness and argument in the world.

You like to trade at a certain store—not because its counters are arranged in a scientific way, but because the folks who serve you are always friendly and helpful.

Just that very thing—FRIENDLY SERVICE—is the power that draws people together into communities like this, where everybody can enjoy the many benefits of neighborly cooperation.

And FRIENDLY SERVICE is the sentimental reason why you find it very much to your advantage to trade with our advertisers—to buy where you feel at home, where your friends will see that you are well satisfied.
