Michigan First To Face Repeal

DELEGATES ARE TO BE ELECTED TODAY FOR STATE CONVENTION

(By The Associated Press)

DETROIT, April 3 — Michigan blazed an unmapped trail today, as the first state to elect its constitutional convention for consideration of the amendment to repeal national prohibition.

An estimated 900,000 voters will elect 100 delegates to the convention, one from each of the 100 representative districts.

Rival Candidates Named

In each district there were two candidates. One was pledged to vote for ratification of the repeal amendment; the other for retention of the Eighteenth amendment. Thus, when the convention assembles on April 10, it will have no deliberative function to perform—only a formal recording of the sentiment expressed by the voters at the polls.

Although this was the first opportunity voters anywhere had had to render a decisive verdict on national prohibition, state prohibition was a clear-cut issue at the polls last November—and the wets won, repealing the "bone dry" clause in the Michigan constitution by a vote of 1,022,508 to 475,265.

Repeal Chances Less

That was done by a popular majority, Detroit's vote weighing heavily in the balance. Today, however, with the vote in each district standing alone, the chances for repeal were proportionately less and prohibition leaders based their hopes principally on that factor.

Repealists conceded that the vote by districts constituted a major hazard to their hopes and, although 87 of the 100 districts voted last fall for repeal of the state prohibition amendment, they issued warnings over the week-end against "over-confidence."

Bomb Interrupts Church Services

TAYLORVILLE, Ill., April 3 (AP)—Divine services were interrupted, but not stopped, when a bomb shattered one window of the First Baptist church and showered the congregation with glass.

The explosion occurred during last night's worship at the church. The pastor, the Rev. J. R. Hastings, was delivering a sermon. He paused—spoke quietly in words—and then continued to the end of his address. No one was injured.

Officials said they believed the bombing was in retaliation of remarks Mr. Hastings had made in reference to trouble between coal miners.

LOCAL MAN IS FOUND DEAD

E. W. RICHARDSON DIES SUNDAY WITH $392 IN HIS POCKETS

With $392.61 in his pockets, the body of E. W. Richardson, a cripple, was found dead Sunday morning in a bedroom adjoining the back of the Midway cafe, which he operated, at 1208 Avenue H. Justice of the Peace J. S. Connell, acting as coroner, returned a verdict of death by natural causes. He said a physician who examined the body attributed death to a heart ailment.

W. D. Morris, employed in the cafe, signed a written statement that he last saw Richardson alive about 9 o'clock Saturday night in his room. About 9 o'clock Sunday morning, Morris said, he attempted to awake his employer, but found the door blocked. Richardson, fully clothed, was stretched on the bed. His feet had pushed against a chair which became an obstruction against opening of the door from the other side.

Dead Several Hours

A doctor said Richardson had been dead several hours. The body was taken to Bynum-Stahler Funeral home.

The dead man had more than $390 in currency fastened in a hip pocket with a safety pin. Elsewhere in his clothing he had a $1 bill, 38 pennies, and some other change. More than $10 was in the cash register of the little cafe.

Richardson, about 50, is survived by a widow of Lubbock, and a son of Corsicana.

PACKING FIRM HELD UP BY THREE MEN

MACHINE GUN USED IN DAYLIGHT ROBBERY; AUTO ABANDONED

(By The Associated Press)

DALLAS, April 3. — Three men armed with a machine gun and automatic pistols today robbed the Adkins Packing company in South Dallas of $1,500 in cash.

The men entered the office soon after four persons opened the building for the day and ordered all of them to sit on the floor. Then the man with the machine gun asked who was in charge.

Scoop Up Currency

Henry Beck replied that he was the manager. The leader of the trio ordered him to open the safe, "or we'll blow up this place with nitroglycerine." Beck opened the safe and the two other men scooped up all the currency and cash in sight.

Informed that a sedan parked outside was Beck's, the leader told Beck they would escape in it but he might find it a while later parked on a downtown Dallas street. The men backed out of the office and headed south. They abandoned the sedan three miles south of Dallas, entered another car and drove toward the city again.

CONDITION IN EAST TEXAS IS CITED

REIGN OF TERROR IS CLAIMED FOR AREA IN SPECIAL MESSAGE

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, April 3.—Governor Miriam A. Ferguson today sent to the legislature a message proposing passage of a bill levying a gross production tax on oil and calling attention to "the serious condition now taking place in the East Texas oil field."

The governor said conditions in the field were so unsettled that "we might truthfully term it a reign of terror, and the people who live in that area are disturbed in mind and spirit beyond apprehension."

Say Citizens Armed

She said she had been informed that "this desperate condition has reached that stage where heretofore law abiding citizens are arming themselves with fire arms and are threatening to take the law into the ir hands if the rights of property owners and persons are not in some way protected by law."

The bill recommended by the chief executive would levy a tax of two cents on the first 150 barrels of oil produced each day from a single well, five cents per barrel on the next 100 barrels and 25 cents per barrel on all oil in excess of 250 barrels produced from a single well.

At this time the state levies a tax of two per cent of the sale price of the oil.

Would Provide Penalties

The bill would provide stiff penalties for violators of its provisions. A producer who failed to pay the tax would be subject to a fine of $1,000 and twelve months' imprisonment. It would require all pipe lines to be metered and would direct that all persons or corporations transporting oil to make daily reports. Those failing to make reports would

PUSH EAST TEXAS REHABILITATION

SAN AUGUSTINE, April 3 (AP)—Rehabilitation of the tornado devastated strip of East Texas where fourteen persons were killed and many more injured was in full swing today with hundreds of volunteer workers busy in the five affected counties.

Miss Edith Miller, representative of the American Red Cross Midwestern headquarters at St. Louis, established a base at Lufkin. She appointed Mrs. Edith Hennessey to direct Red Cross work in San Augustine county, Mrs. Leslie Bray in Angelina county, and Mrs. Clara Schuman in Shelby county.

A preliminary survey of the area indicated 20 lives were lost but a re-check by Miss Miller trimmed the official list to 14. Duplications and erroneous reports had been responsible for the early count.

Burial Of Young Woman Alive Under Investigation; Cult Members Jailed

NAZI BOYCOTT NOT RESUMED

STUNNING, IF NOT A KNOCKOUT, BLOW IS DEALT TO JEWS

(By The Associated Press)

BERLIN, April 3 — Chancellor Adolf Hitler's national socialist party apparently was satisfied today that it had dealt a stunning, if not a knockout, blow to what it regards as an international Jewish menace.

A resumption of Saturday's nationwide boycott which paralyzed all Jewish commercial activity was considered unlikely. Its announced purpose, to force an end to the spread abroad of stories of anti-Jewish atrocities in Germany, was zelieved achieved.

Hundreds Discharged

The Nazis also had reason to be satisfied with the permanent effects of the great organized demonstration. The boycott was kept alive unofficially yesterday in several towns in lower Silesia. There have been hundreds of Jews discharged from businesses and many more permanently eliminated from medical practice, from teaching schools and from newspaper staffs.

(Reports from Switzerland said 200 Jews and socialist exiles were arriving daily from Germany and trains entering Denmark from Germany were croweded with Jewish refugees. Thousands more have been reported arriving in Vienna, Warsaw and other cities.)

May Resume Boycott

The Nazi leaders have made clear that the machinery is all set up to resume the boycott on quick notice, if it is found necessary.

EIGHT FILIPINOS ARE HELD IN DEATH OF 'UNFAITHFUL' WIFE

(By The Associated Press)

MARTINEZ, Calif., April 3 (AP)—Accused of burying a young woman alive in a ceremony prescribed by their cult for unfaithful wives, eight Filipinos were held in jail here today.

Authoritics said others would be arrested and charged with participation in the horrible death of 26-year-old Celine Novarro, whose body was exhumed from a hidden grave on Jersey Island in the San Joaquin river yesterday.

Thrown Into Grave

By the light of flaming torches, investigators reported, the young expectant motner was thrown into her grave the night of last Nov. 19 and earth shoveled over her living body.

She had been accused of unfaithfulness to her sick husband when brought before a meeting of the Kalaya-An-Marie-Clara earlier the same night in Redman's hall in Stockton. Her husband, who has since died, was ready enough to forgive her but the women members of the cult demanded her death.

Mrs. Novarro was bound and gagged, police continued, and carried by automobile to Jersey Island where two Filipino laborers were roused from bed to dig the grave. While men members of the cult held torches, women hurled Mrs. Novarro into the grave and death. And into her face they threw a purse con-

PLAN OFFERED CONGRESS BY ROOSEVELT

ASKS REFINANCING OF FARM INDEBTEDNESS WITH LOWER RATES

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 3. —President Roosevelt recommended to congress today the enactment of legislation authorizing refinancing of farmers indebtedness.

Beginning his fifth White House week with the dispatch of his seventh message to the legislators, the president opened the way for inclusion of this latest major plan as an amendment to the farm relief bill in the senate.

Readjustment Proposed

Applying on farm mortgages, the message proposed both readjustment of the principal of the farmers debts and a reduction of interest rates.

He also proposed "a temporary readjustment of the amortization to give sufficient time to farmers to restore to them the hope of ultimate free ownership of their own land."

The president said he would soon propose an extension of this program to the debt burdened owners of small homes.

He also disclosed he would ask congress soon for legislation permitting the initiation of reciprocal tariff agreements.

No Heavy Burden

"The legislation I suggest," said the president, "will not impose a heavy burden upon the national treasury."

Overwhelmingly voting into the administration farm relief bill the so-called Simpson production cost guaranty plan, members of the senate agriculture committee today concluded work on that measure and turned directly to a study of the Roosevelt farm mortgage refinancing program.

After members had agreed on the farm relief bill, Chairman Smith (D., S. C.), called them to meet in executive session to take up form-

FORCED CLOSING OF SCHOOLS HERE MAY AFFECT HIGH SCHOOL'S RANKING

Lubbock High school stands a chance of losing its membership in the Southern Association of Secondary Schools and also suffering loss of affiliation as a Class A high school should the schools here be forced to close on April 15.

M. H. Duncan, superintendent, said today he did not know what action the association would take on the local membership should the schools close nor what effect the closing would have on the school's affiliation rank.

"Schools that have only eight months terms cannot receive first class affiliation," Mr. Duncan said. "Just what action the department would take in our case, I do not know".

Mr. Duncan said the pupils would probably lose their chances of promotion if the schools closed. He said promotion could only come after completion of the full year's work.

PROFIT IS MADE IN BEEF CANNING

Canning of beef instead of selling it on foot, on a low market, was profitable for two Lubbock county farm families last winter.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Slater, of the Slaton community, made a profit of $47.14 from a beef that would have brought only $10 on foot.

The beef yielded the following: 30 No. 2 cans chili, $10.50; 50 No. 3 cans steak, $17.50; 23 No. 2 cans ground meat, $8.05; 35 No. 3 cans soup, $12.25; 45 pounds of soap, $2.50; two gallons of tallow, one used for searing and the other for harness oil. Besides, they sold $7.50 worth of fresh meat to purchase cans and other supplies. Total value of products was $61.05.

Expenses were cans, $3.91; lye, 45 cents; value of calf, $10; total, $14.36.

Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Cade of the Union community sold $15.20 worth of fresh meat from a calf that was worth $8 on foot. They sold two No. 2 cans of roast for 40 cents; 20 cans of meat loaf and stew for $4; four No. 2 cans of steak for 80 cents, a total of $23.20. Deducting $8 for the price of the beef and 51 cents for cost of the cans, the net profit was $14.69.

Mrs. Revier canned 14 cans of boned chicken worth 30 cents each, six cans of ground chicken worth 50 cents each and one can of giblets worth 20 cents, for a total of $7.40. Her expenses were: 53 cents for cans and $1.40 for the roosters, a total of $1.93.

"And that increased value of $5.47 came with only one day's work," she said.

"Ann is going to get MARRIED!"

"YES! She's engaged to a nice boy. He's not making a big salary yet, but he's a hard worker. They'll have to be careful of their money, at first!"

Careful of their money! With a home to find, furniture to buy, marketing to learn . . . with the thousand and one little emergencies to meet that newlyweds never dream of! . . .

And a young girl, inexperienced in these practical problems, is expected to be careful of her money!

Ann will bless advertising. In the pages of this newspaper she will find the very experience she lacks—the advice she needs!

It is when every penny counts that advertising gives its best service. The advertisements you read are valuable lessons in everyday economy. They help, as nothing else can, to make your dollar go the longest distance. For advertisements show you which article, at the price you are willing to pay, is going to suit you best. And the very fact that it is advertised is its guarantee that it will give you satisfaction after you have bought it.

THE ADVERTISEMENTS IN THIS NEWSPAPER ARE A MOST VALUABLE GUIDE TO WISE BUYING. IT PAYS TO READ THEM REGULARLY.

MORTGAGE RELIEF

ally the mortgage measure.

Here is in the main what the mortgage bill provides:

A $50,000,000 ppropriation for the treasury to subscribe to federal land banks' capital to get the plant at work immediately.

Bond Issue Proposed

A $50,000,000 appropriation for the bond issue, the bonds to be exchanged with mortgage holders for the mortgages, under the general supervision of the recently consolidated federal farm credits agency.

It sets up machinery for taking over the unpaid balances of mortgages outstanding, and in the case of mortgages on which nothing has been paid, provides that the property be reappraised and a maximum of 70 per cent covered in a new mortgage based on current appraised value.

This 70 per cent would be made up by 50 per cent of the value of the farm and 20 per cent of the improvements.

SCHOOL PROBLEM

of an April 15 closing unless delinquent taxes totaling approximately $100,000 are paid within the next few days, members of the school board announced Saturday. Teachers are without cash, having been paid with warrants for their February and March salaries. Their last cash payments came from January's checks on money borrowed by the board and not yet repaid.

Saturday, the board mailed out 3,000 letters to delinquent taxpayers, explaining the situation to them and requesting them to pay their taxes within the next week. Penalty is to be waived on all payments made under this request.

Only 55 per cent of the 1932 school taxes have been paid. Seventy-five per cent of the delinquent taxes must be paid in order to keep the schools open, the board's letter said.

ACCIDENTS

DAILY MARKETS

Cotton Market

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, April 3 (AP)—Cotton opened steady, 1-4 lower in response to disappointing cables and under scattered selling. May 6.33; July 6.48; Oct. 6.68; Dec. 6.82; Jan. 6.87; March 6.99.

There was some selling here through houses with Liverpool connections but southern offerings were light. Early offerings were absorbed by trade buying of the near months with a scattering demand for later deliveries coming partly through houses with western and Wall Street connections. May held between 6.33 and 6.31 during the early trading with the market at the end of the first half hour quiet but fairly steady at net declines of 1 to 3 points.

Prices saggd another point or two later with May selling down to 6.29 and October to 6.68 or 2 to 6 points net lower, but offerings were smaller after the close of Liverpool and the market held fairly steady later on a very moderate demand. At midday active months were about net unchanged to 2 points lower.

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, April 3 (AP)—Cotton opened quiet but steady today. Cables came in somewhat better than due but there was a little buying and first trades here were two points up to two down. The market eased off slightly after the start, May dropping to 6.31 and July to 6.47, or 2 to 3 points down from the opening figures and one to two points under Saturday's close.

As stocks opened slightly firmer, cotton was steadier near the end of the first hour and July recovered a point from the initial lows. Trading was very slack.

The market ruled rather quiet all morning and at the beginning of the second hours prices eased off on a little hedge-selling, May dropping to 6.28, July to 6.45 and October to 6.66, or 4 points down from Saturday's close. As the morning progressed, however, a firmer tone in stocks and advances in wheat attracted trade buying and prices rallied moderately, May moving up to 6.34, July to 6.49 and October to 6.70, or 4 to 6 points above the earlier lows and unchanged to two points up compared with Saturday's close.

At noon the market was steady and at the highs.

Stock Market

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, April 3 (AP)—Stocks see-sawed placidly today, making frequent changes of trend but moving narrowly in either direction.

Small early gains under leadership of farm implement and other shares interested in the fortunes of agriculture were succeeded by declines when rails again eased, but the list firmed again as it entered the afternoon trading.

Case, Harvester, Sears Roebuck American Sugar, American Tobacco "B", Ligget & Myers "B" and American Can were up fractions to around 2 points at the best. American Telephone met occasional selling flurries which brought an extreme loss of nearly a point, but it steadied later. U. S. Steel, Westinghouse, General Motors, General Electric and Chrysler showed little change. Santa Fe, New York Central, Chesapeake & Ohio, Delaware & Hudson, Lackawanna and Union Pacific slipped moderately.

Motive Is Sought In Fatal Shooting

PARIS, April 3. (AP)—Investigators sought a motive today for the fatal shooting of Paul Jones, 20-year-old farmer, near his home last night. A man surrendered to officers and admitted shooting Jones. He gave no reason for his action.

Missing Woman Is Taken To Hospital

SAN ANTONIO, April 3. (AP)—Weakened by hunger and exposure suffered in the five days she was missing from her ranch home at Helotes, Mrs. Jo Hanna Hamma, 64, was under treatment at a hospital here today.

Searchers found her lying face downward in the brushy hill country. She had wandered onto an adjoining ranch. Due to her condition, hospital attendants did not permit authorities to question her about her experience.

taining $130 she was accused of stealing from her husband's brother.

Leader Confesses

Leon Kantinello, 40-year-old Jersey Island labor camp foreman and alleged leader of the cult which has a large membership, confessed to the burial, District Attorney F. J. Hoey said.

The story of her death was brought to authorities by Pablo Busbriuante, a Filipino who had quarreled with the cult leader. The grave diggers—Estaqui Cadog and Espridion Kang—pointed out the grave.

"At least seven or eight murder charges will be brought," said Hoey, who declared he would ask the grand jury to indict all connected with the death ritual. He said he had obtained a roster of the membership of Kalay-An-Marie-Clara from those arrested.

Those in custody besides Kantinello, Cadog and Kang are Mrs. Kantinello, Mr. and Mrs. A. Santellan of Pittsburgh, Calif., Mrs. Rufino Mapas of Stockton, and Mrs. Alberta Asta of Vallejo.

REPEAL VOTES

Anti-Saloon league frankly pessimistic of the outcome.

The Rev. Warren Jones, state superintendent of the league, said he conceded that the repealists would win. He said there was no hope for prohibition in Wisconsin in an election at which delegates to the state's 18th amendment convention were chosen from the state at large. If the delegates, he added, were chosen by districts there might be some possibility of overcoming wet majorities in Milwaukee and other cities in the eastern part of the state.

Fifteen delegates are to be named to the convention which will meet at Madison April 15. Names of thirty candidates, fifteen dry and fifteen wet and none identified with any party or political faction, appear on the ballot.

Walker And Betty Compton May Wed

CANNES, France, April 3 (AP)—Former Mayor Walker of New York, and his friend, Betty Compton, the actress, called at the city hall today and received full information about the marriage regulations here.

"We were just getting the necessary information," Walker said when asked about a rumor that he and Miss Compton had been married. "When I get married, I'll let you know."

Income Taxes Are Below Last Year

WASHINGTON, April 3 (AP)—Income taxes of $2,380,200 reported on March 31, the last day for filing returns, brought the total for the month to $180,712,300, compared with $195,410,800 a year ago.

The amount, however, does not represent all returns filed because many were mailed and would not be counted until today. So officials believe the government still has a chance of exceeding the amount collected during last March.

WELLES, BOWERS APPOINTED

WASHINGTON, April 3. (AP)—President Roosevelt today nominated Sumner Welles, of Maryland, to be assistant secretary of state and Claude G. Bowers of New York to be ambassador to Spain.

officer and an employe of another bank poured bullets into their large motor car.

The sheriff's office said the robbery had been expected the last six weeks and special preparations had been made to frustrate it, but the holdup was carried out without a hitch.

Command Ignored

When the bandits entered the bank O. B. Taylor, president, ignored the command of "hands up," stepped on an alarm button near the rear and slipped out the back door. From a nearby express office he telephoned the sheriff while five employes and two patrons were herded into the bank vault. The robbers were unable to close the vault door, however.

Responding to the alarm, Special Officer James Thompson rushed in the west door with one of his pistols drawn. The robbers took the weapon away from him and kept him and the others covered while they gathered up the cash.

THROWING KNIVES BLINDFOLDED!

ILLUSION:

You see knives flash from the magician's hand and plunge into the board, framing the girl so closely that she cannot move.

EXPLANATION:

Here is one way the blindfold knife throw is done: The knife thrower lets the knife go over his shoulder into the wings. The knife that you see quivering beside the girl is another knife. The girl standing against the board presses at the right place and a knife is sprung from behind the board into position.

It's fun to be fooled— ...it's more fun to KNOW

A clever trick employed in cigarette advertising is the illusion that manufacturing processes account for mildness in a cigarette.

EXPLANATION: All popular cigarettes are made in much the same way. Cigarettes vary greatly in mildness because they vary greatly in the quality of tobaccos used. Mildness, as well as character and good taste, depends upon the quality of tobaccos used.

It is a fact, well known by leaf tobacco experts, that Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE tobaccos than any other popular brand.

This is the most important statement ever made in a cigarette advertisement. Weigh its words. Consider what it means. Smoke Camels critically and learn to appreciate what costlier tobaccos can mean to you in mildness, in throat-ease . . . in added pleasure! Other cigarettes, we believe, will taste flat and insipid to you forever after.

Thought For Today

He that getteth wisdom loveth his own soul he that keepeth understanding shall find good.—Proverbs 20:8.

Adventure

It is doubtful if any airplane flight yet projected is more a "stunt" flight than the hop over Mount Everest which a group of British airmen will attempt shortly.

The last few years have certainly brought us enough flights whose actual dollar-and-cents utility was difficult to discover. Yet almost all of them have had some practical value, however small. The day of regular transoceanic air service, for example, is undoubtedly nearer because of all of the recent ocean flights, ill-advised and luckless as many of them were.

But this flight over Mount Everest is something else again. No air line will ever be established over that wild, storm-racked mountain chain; no knowledge of a plane's action under extremely adverse conditions will be gained that could not be gained just as well elsewhere. Whether the fight succeeds or fails, aviation will go on just about as before.

Yet there is something about this flight that appeals to one's imagination. Perhaps it is the simple fact that it is so useless—and so perilous. Men who insist on risking their lives for no reason except the inner feeling of satisfaction that comes from doing the different and the dangerous will always command our respect, even though they sometimes make us feel that they are acting foolishly.

The human animal, when you stop to think about it, is a queer and unexplainable creature. Fix him up in comfort and safety as thoroughly as you can, he is more likely than not to wriggle out of it and try to break his neck against some ice-bound, gale-swept crag on the other side of the globe. Let him know that on an inaccessible point of the map there is a sea that has never been sailed, or a mountain that has never been climbed, or a danger that has never been faced successfully, and he will not rest until he has tackled it.

Why should this be? Heaven knows. There is something in man that makes it impossible for him to take a dare. This causes a good many unnecessary deaths, from year to year, and leads us stay-at-homes to wag our beards gravely; but it also gives us a glimpse, every so often, of sheer magnificence.

THIRTY-FIVE of our 48 states are doing what they can to turn the depression into opportunity by inviting the unemployed to go to school.

And following on their invitations, they are making it possible for the jobless to delve into many vocational studies, which, in time, may serve them well.

That is common sense.

That is the courageous way to look at our present national economic difficulties, further accentuated by a world-wide crisis.

If, by doing, one may learn to better fit himself for life battles these states are contributing appreciably to mankind.

Over in the column headed 'The Plainsman Gets Some Mail', there appears a letter touching on the humble dandelion.

Read it—and which reminds us: the dictionary has several names for the dandelion; and so have those who take pride in nice lawns!

HERE'S a little verse The Plainsman happened to run across recently. It was written by Carey Holbrook, of Albuquerque, and appeared in The Kiwanis magazine. Its title, "The Squeak of the Saddle Girth".

Dedicated to the old cowpunchers of the South Plains region, this poem is being reproduced here—and doesn't it fit in with the springtime on the range?:

I warble a lay to a drowsy day,
An ode to the shifting sand;
A carefree song as I travel along
In thrall to a wide, wide land.
There's a drowsy drum to the horse's hoofs
On the cactus covered earth;
There's a soothing beat to his lagging feet
And the squeak of the saddle girth.

A minstrel I, to a cloudless sky,
Sing ye, who will, of the rain.
My spirits leap to the onward sweep
Of the wind on the wind-swept plain.
There's a peace that comes with a jingle of spurs,
There's a joy in the jogging miles
That roll away on a drowsy day
'Neath a blue, blue sky that smiles.

I warble a lay to a drowsy day
And then, when the twilight creeps,
I breathe a prayer for the sun and air
While the age-old mesa sleeps.
Then soft in my dreams comes the patter of hoofs
On the cactus covered earth
And the haunting note of a lone coyote
And the squeak of the saddle girth.

THE two special old hymn services, held here yesterday by the First Christian and First Methodist churches were sure fine successes, just as The Plainsman hoped and believed they would be. (And for your information, your humble servant attended both of them!)

The two pastors, Rev. Walter P. Jennings and Rev. Joe Haymes, with whom The Plainsman co-operated in putting on the sing-songs, were both tickled to death and both had large congregations to enjoy the music.

The crowd at First Methodist yesterday morning was larger than usual; the big auditorium and balcony being practically filled to capacity.

At First Christian last night the pews were filled to capacity and extra chairs were placed in the aisles to take care of the overflow. Special solo, duet and quartet numbers were featured at each church, both had special numbers by junior choirs and the audiences had plenty of opportunity to make the welkin ring—which they did as they 'bore down' on the old favorite hymns. Historical data in connection with the hymns was given by both pastors.

Choirs of both churches were large and played a big part in pleasing the hundreds of people who attended the services.

THE Plainsman will be glad to further co-operate in a publicity way with any other Lubbock church and pastor or with any South Plains pastor and congregation that want to try the feature out.

As stated here the other day there's an appeal to the old hymns and to congregational singing that all the hifalutin' music in the world can't equal—even though hifalutin' music has its important place.

This column wants to thank the hundreds of interested persons who took part in yesterday's services and is sure that Walter and Joe feel the same way about it.

Terms Of Versailles Treaty Are Under Fire Of Europe's Nationalistic Demands For Revision; Pact Is Attacked

BY JOHN M. GLEISSNER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON, April 3—Dictatorship of Adolf Hitler in Germany, new peace plans of Premiers MacDonald and Mussolini, Japan's withdrawal from the League of Nations and determination to retain mandated South Sea islands—all these, together with numerous international incidents—point to early revision of the Treaty of Versailles, the treaty which remade the map of Europe and defined the terms of peace between Germany and the allied powers after the World War.

The Treaty of Versailles was signed on June 28, 1919, and came into force six months later. Its basis was the speech of President Woodrow Wilson on Jan. 18, 1918, in which he announced the famous "Fourteen Points," and his later addresses. The powers accepted the Wilson program with the exception of Point 2 relating to "freedom of the seas," although the allies secretly had negotiated treaties of settlement among themselves.

Wilson's program was broad and revolutionary, unlike anything before considered by European diplomats. He asked for open diplomacy and an end to secret treaties, disarmament, peace and machinery for keeping peace, an end to alliances, and creation of the League of Nations.

Point 3 provided for removal of economic barriers, and Point 4 for reduction of armaments to the "lowest point consistent with domestic safety." These issues are now the cause of much of the ill-feeling in Europe.

Arbitration Clause

The treaty set up the League of Nations, whose covenant united its members to guarantee each other's territorial independence and integrity. Members bound themselves not to go to war until after three months of inquiry and arbitration.

The League was empowered to assume the lead in disarmament and did so in 1926, although little in that direction has been accomplished. Under the League a Permanent Court of International Justice was set up.

The League is governed by a council of nine, which originally was to include the United States, but this country would not ratify the treaty nor enter the League, although in recent years it has participated "unofficially" in League activities.

Japan, a member of this council, has withdrawn, and under terms of the convenant the resignation will be effective in two years. France, Great Britain and Italy, members of the council, and Germany was given a permanent seat in 1926. Other members are elected by the League Assembly, which is composed of the smaller member states and meets annually.

Rule Germany's Colonies

One of the most important functions of the League is supervision of the government of Germany's ceded territories in Africa and elsewhere, through the Mandates Commission, which inspects the annual reports of governments to which colonies were assigned.

The question of mandates and the ultimate disposition of the former German colonies will figure largely in any discussion of treaty revision. Germany's colonial empire comprised 1,027,000 square miles of territory in Africa, in the South Seas, and in the Shantung peninsula in China, with a total population of nearly 15,000,000 and an estimated invested capital of half a billon marks. German leaders continually have demanded restoration of at least a part of the colonies.

Another territorial problem created by the Versailles Treaty and now regarded as one of the greatest dangers to peace is the Polish Corridor, which severs East Prussia from the rest of Germany, and makes Danzig a free city governed by the League.

Poland vs. Germany

Poland insists she must have this territory to have access to the sea, and aroused apprehension when troops were moved along the boundaries after Hitler's victory. Another area in dispute between Germany and Poland is Upper Silesia, a part of which, with valuable mineral resources, was acquired by Poland under a plebiscite. Two million Germans in Polish-governed territory are supposed to have League protection.

The treaty awarded the Saar coal basin to France for 15 years, which meant the loss to Germany of most of her iron ore. France of course obtained the "lost provinces" of Alsace-Lorraine. Smaller units of territory went to Belgium, Lithuania and Denmark.

Germany was virtually disarmed at Versailles, and Hitlerism has been accompanied by militarism. The treaty forbade Germany to use conscription, and limited the German army to 100,000 men enlisted for 12 years. A small flotilla of naval ships was permitted for seacoast defense, but submarines and military aircraft were forbidden. Coast defenses were demolished and the left bank of the Rhine was demilitarized.

The section of the treaty providing for trial of the former Kaiser was never operative, because Holland refused to surrender him.

War Guilt

One of the most irksome clauses of the treaty to the Germans has been that causing her to accept responsibility for the war. German leaders repeatedly have denied Germany's sole guilt, and have sought to produce evidence supporting this contention.

Reparations, provided in the treaty, have been an endless source of dispute. Originally Germany was asked to pay thirty-one billion dollars in annual installments of five hundred millions. France was to get 52 per cent, Britain 22. There were also payments in kind. Reparations subsequently have been greatly reduced, but remain a source of friction.

The treaty gave a large part of the German merchant marine to Great Britain. A degree of international control was established over German waterways.

The treaty also forbade union of Germany and Austria, now being agitated. The war left Austria a country of 6,000,000 German-speaking people, unable to support herself economically, and with an army limited to 30,000.

As Brought Over Associated Press Wires Today

"Dead" Returns

PHILADELPHIA — For 18 years, Mrs. Terence Mooney believed her sister perished on the SS. Lusitania, a victim of submarine warfare. She almost fainted from the shock of seeing the sister, Mrs. Mary Thompson, standing in her doorway.

Mrs. Thompson said a letter she wrote saying she had cancelled her passage on the ill-fated ship at the last minute must have miscarried. Later, employed as a travelling companion, she lost track of her sister.

Changing World

CINCINNATI—Just to show the boys and grls what an easy time they have now, the University of Cincinnati News dragged out some of the rules of Salem college, at Winston-Salem, N. C., back in 1772. For instance:

"Baths can be taken only by special permission, and at times indicated by the instructors.

"The strictest order is to be observed in the embroidery room.

"Pupils are never to go out of sight or hearing of the instructor when out walking."

Not Monte Carlo

JOLIET—Frank D. Whipp, warden of the state prison, was amazed when he came across a request from one prisoner to transfer $149 from his account to another inmate. The prisoner explained he had lost the money in a friendly little game of cards. A debt of honor, he said.

"What," exclaimed the warden, "is this, Monte Carlo or the state penitentiary?"

A search for cards and other devices used in gambling was begun.

Mighty Little Girl

CLEVELAND—Miss Ruth Hall is only five feet, two inches, so a man, brandishing a gun, thought nothing of rudely pushing her aside and scooping money out of a cashier's drawer.

"What's the big idea?" said she.

"Shut up," ordered he. "This is a stickup."

"Oh, yeah!" said she.

Whereupon, she calmly walked over and pushed a burglar alarm button.

Police pumped four shots into the robber before they captured him. His companion escaped with $600.

NOT DIGESTIBLE

KNOXVILLE, Tenn.—Little Joyce Lee Case, three-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Case, has discovered that eating nails is not so much fun. Mrs. Case saw Joyce playing with two nails. Later she saw only one nail, and became alarmed. She rushed Joyce to the hospital where an X-ray showed the nail in the child's stomach. Special foods were fed Joyce in an attempt to avoid an operation.

THE PLAINSMAN GETS SOME MAIL

READERS DISCUSS DANDELIONS, OLD LETTER

ANSWERS TAHOKA MAN

Dear Plainsman: In the Journal issue of March 28 appears a letter to the Plainsman under the head of "Tahoka Man Answers Critic of Doctors".

Much space is consumed by scoring the author of a letter published a few days earlier and signed "A Reader".

I wonder if the Tahoka writer considers everyone narrow that does not subscribe to his point of view or was he just trying to be funny? Does not the Tahoka writer grant a man the right to express himself on a matter that is without doubt of public interest without subjecting himself to a public scoring by a self-appointed administer? Or is the Tahoka writer one of those medic worshipers that believe that a doctor can do no wrong?

I presume the gentleman who signed himself "A Reader" is plenty able to handle his own defense and I have no thought of trying to do that for him but only to comment on a few phases or things involved in the letters.

The Tahoka writer seems to take on a great deal of puff because he signs his original name to his letter and "A Reader" does not. Is it really of any importance who this said "A Reader" is? If the ideas expressed are of interest to the public and the writer wishes to remain behind the screen—well, what of it? He may not wish to expose himself to the ill will of the medical men where there is no occasion for doing so. Furthermore, he may be an employe of some corporation whose higher-ups are touchy about its employes expressing themselves on public questions. I have known men to lose their jobs for so small an offense and a job is a job now.

In a short answer to "A Reader" the Plainsman states that it is the compensation insurance companies that are sponsoring legislation for limiting medical charges.

It appears to be another case of the public incidentally or accidentally benefiting because of a conflict of selfish interests.

Isn't it regrettable that so much of our legislation is for the benefit of some group though always under pretense of the public's good and then comes a great depression and we begin to get legislation that is designed directly to benefit "the peepul".

AGAINST DANDELIONS

Dear Plainsman: You have been kind enough to sympathize with Lubbock homeowners who have been troubled by their neighbors' pet chickens, rabbits, cows and horses. Won't you spare a word for those whose lawns are being ruined by the dandelions blowing in from a careless neighbor's yard?

I have spent back-breaking hours pulling, digging and spraying dandelion plants from my lawn only to have them spring up again like magic from my neighbor's fertile patch across the driveway.

Every west wind that blows sends millions of tiny seed puffs to lawns of the neighborhood. It is enough to fight against wind, sand, drouth and unexpected freezes. It's the last straw to have to contend with pests from a neighbor's yard as well. There should be a city regulation against dandelions.

COUNTRY CLUB DOWNS MEADOWBROOK IN TOURNE

SPYING ON SPORTS

BY COLLIER PARRIS

Pitchers, we are told, that win less than 20 games in the minor leagues are not ripe for big league competition. Texas has produced a pitcher, however, who is to get his chance in the American loop.

He won 19 games for Beaumont last year, aiding and abetting that club in hanging up a Texas league pennant; he is fast enough to play first base; his heavy hitting makes him valuable as a pinch hitter—he has earned a place on the pitching staff of the Tigers—there you have Lynwood "Schoolboy" Rowe. Standing above 6 feet, weighing around 200 pounds and tossing a mean baseball, Rowe may make the Tigers a valuable hand in their junior league campaign.

Hope for a local entry in the West Texas-New Mexico league has just about been abandoned. There seems little likelihood now that a professional baseball club will represent this section this year. Such a golden opportunity may never come again. Lubbock had its chance and didn't take it, choosing to struggle along a while longer without the benefits which a professional club surely would provide.

An effort is now under way to form a Lubbock county league, however, if local promoters can stir up enough enthusiasm over the section, a South Plains loop may be formed of independent and semi-pro clubs.

Under the supervision of M. T. Daniell, sponsor, and Fred Rich, manager, the Wolfforth Baseball club will make an attempt to put on a big semi-pro campaign this summer. The Wolfforth club opened its season with a Lubbock club, at Wolfforth, yesterday. There's more baseball interest, so it would seem, in that little suburban community than in the whole of Lubbock proper. If local fans were interested in baseball to the extent shown by Wolfforth, it would be no trouble at all to maintain a Class D baseball club here in a professional circuit.

Speaking of baseball, the Sporting News' record book for 1933 is off the press and on the desk. It is an annual publication without which a sports writer almost would be lost. It contains the schedules of the big league teams and most of the minors, and is filled from cover to cover with statistics and information.

A vote of commendation to Coach Weldon Chapman and Lubbock High school for putting on the invitation meet Saturday. They labored, as did the 75 or more athletes, under tough circumstances brought about by unfriendly weather conditions, but as a whole it was a good meet and a successful one. Sixteen schools were represented, and competition was so keen in all events that fans and judges forgot the weather—nearly.

Coach Chapman wishes to express his gratitude to the fellows who assisted him Saturday; to Lee Jones, official starter who knew his biz; to Burl Huffman, assistant starter and referee; to Pinkey Lowrey and Paul Wright, who directed the field events, and to the judges, Ed McKeever, Bulldog Hale (even if he did forget to catch the third man in the mile run, went screwy trying to find a substitute and then turned in the name of a man who didn't even run); D. M. McElroy, Ernest Dowell, et cetera.

The rumor is about that there is no such person as Gus P. Axcelwush, one of this department's principal correspondents; that Gus is the brainchild of, originated and cultivated by, the konductor of this kolumn. Sech ain't the case, folks. Gus is a real personality, who mails in his dope more or less regularly and who delights in telling the history of his Dutch ancestors while taking cracks at this writer.

To prove that there is no ghost among the shrubbery, we're printing Gus' last note, arrived Saturday:

Dear Mr. Perish:

Besides being yolly fine boxfighter, my uncle, Bjornson Yvensen Axcelwush, jr. (Goot old Uncle Bjornson Yvensen Axcelwush, jr., he nefer tells a smutty yoke.) is svell poetry:

Yulius Ceaser
by Bjornson Yvensen Axcelwush jr.

Some fallows ban take Yulius
Ceasar for ride,
In Rome two thousand years ago.
And the Dagoes still keep the coostum oop—
In dear old Chi-caw-go.
Respectfully yes,
Gus Axcelwush,
Rural Route.

Now, anybody familiar with our decisive animosity toward poetry of any kind (since that college course in Old English Poetry) would know that this department would never take the trouble to rhyme a couple of lines. Nope, we leave the poetry to The Plainsman. Our esteemed pride in Gus has taken a drop, too, upon arrival of his latest outburst, but maybe it came in handy.

BILLY HOLMES IS MEDALIST IN MATCHES

SLATON REPORTED AS WINNER IN MATCHES WITH LITTLEFIELD

Billy Holmes of Shamrock, who lost his Texas Tech golf championship to Jack Wilson in a hectic match Saturday afternoon at the Meadowbrook, burned up the Country club course with a sizzling 70 yesterday to take medal honors in the Meadowbrook-Country club match of the South Plains league.

Country club's team won the matches, however, 15 to 9. Twenty-four matches were played, the biggest turnout in the history of the South Plains league, 1933 opening matches of which were played yesterday.

Slaton Is Winner

Unofficially, it was announced here that the Slaton team defeated Littlefield in the opening match at Slaton. Results of the Brownfield-Plainview match could not be learned this morning.

Holmes was No. 2 man for Meadowbrook yesterday. He defeated Country club's No. 2 player, Edgar Doherty, 3 and 2. Doherty shot a 73.

Both of Meadowbrook's top seeded players won their matches. Clinton Bussey of Meadowbrook shooting a 74 to take John Edmisson, Country club's leading man, 3 and 2. Edmisson had a medal score of 76.

Vanzant Named Captain

Neil Vanzant was elected captain of the Meadowbrook team in the South Plains league yesterday prior to the opening match. He was playing in No. 7 position, and defeated Bob Harvey of Country club, 1 up.

ROSENBLOOM WILL BATTLE SCOZZA

NEW YORK, April 3 (AP)—Maxey Rosenbloom, ruler of the light heavyweights, opens a dull week's boxing program at Buffalo tonight.

The Harlem battler, who successfully defended his title against Adolph Heuser and Bob Godwin in a span of two weeks last month faces Lou Scozza, rugged Buffalo battler, in a ten-round non-title engagement.

The only other outstanding bout of the week sends Freddie Miller, of Cincinnati, National Boxing association featherweight champion against Cecil Payne of Louisville at Los Angeles tomorrow night. They will fight ten rounds or less. Miller's crown will not be at stake.

WHITE SOX WILL MEET PITTSBURGH

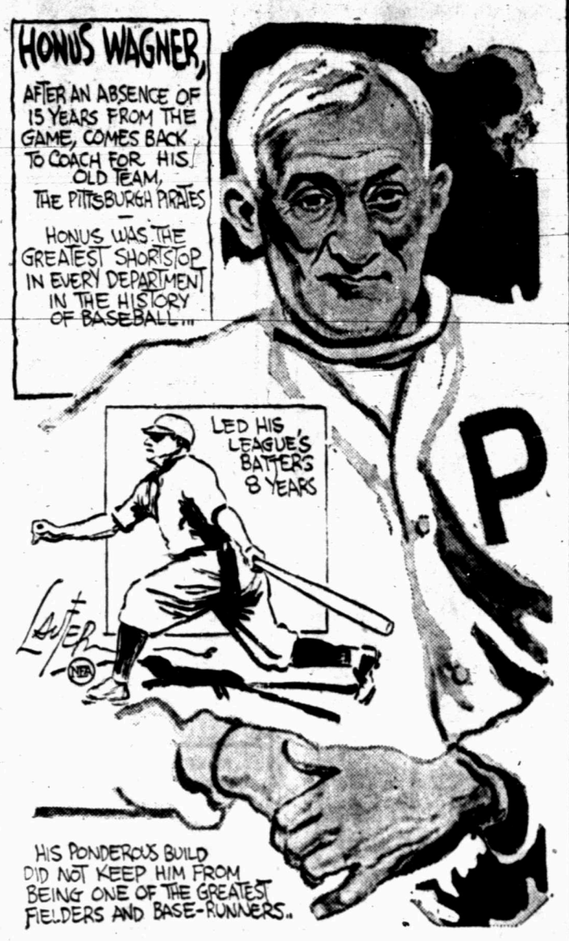

TUCSON, Ariz., April 3 (AP)—A prevue of Teddy Lyons' 1933 pitching assortment was scheduled for today as the White Sox moved into action against the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Lyons, an outstanding hero among White Sox fans through all the lean years, has been showing fine form during the spring training jaunt and probably will draw the opening pitching assignment against St. Louis April 12.

Urban "Red" Faber, 44-year-old veteran, opened his 20th White Sox campaign yesterday with fair results, holding the Pasadena Merchants to seven hits in four innings. The White Sox beat the semi-pro team in their farewell game on the West coast, 6 to 2.

WINN SEEN AS TURF WINNER

BATTLE FOR CONTROL OF ASSOCIATION IS THOUGHT SETTLED

CHICAGO, April 3 (AP)—The race for control of the American Turf association entered the stretch today with Col. Matt J. Winn winging out in front an apparent easy winner.

Charging "mismanagement, waste of funds and extravagance", a group of stockholders recently opened a campaign to remove Winn as president of the association, which controls and owns the Churchill Downs and Latonia race tracks in Kentucky and Washington park and Lincoln fields in Chicago. A brisk skirmish was held for controlling shares but, as the annual election came up today, Winn appeared certain of re-election.

It was reported on good authority that the Winn group obtained the balance of power in the organization by purchasing 85,966 shares of stock from the receiver of the Bank of Kentucky at Louisville, which was holding it as collateral.

Col. Winn, silent through all the fight for proxies and shareholdings, has been president of the American Turf association since it was formed four years ago.

NEW TEAMS TAKE BOWLING HONORS

COLUMBUS, Ohio, April 3 (AP)—The custodian of the official high ten standing board of the American Bowling Congress was a busy individual yesterday. New leaders appeared on practically every squad and officials said the general scoring was possibly the highest for any one day in the 32 years of A. B. C. pin history.

Topping the terrific bombardment were the Flaigs Opticians of Covington, Ky., who soared into the five-man event lead with a total of 3021. Other high totals included a 1356 count that sent Forrest Beye and David Knapp of St. Louis into the lead in the doubles.

Two sparkling totals were registered in the singles class. Rudy Riepel, Milwaukee veteran, counted 722 to take the solo event lead after Andy Tomasek of Cleveland had scored 721 on an earlier shift.

Art Dingwell of Detroit vaulted into second spot in the all-events division with 1942 and Otto Stein of St. Louis scored 1929 for third berth in the nine-game division.

Columbus "Regulars" will peg away with out-of-town bowlers again tonight, 41 teams being scheduled on the two squads.

COAST LEAGUE HOPES HIGH

SEASON TO GET UNDER WAY TUESDAY; BEER IS TO BE SOLD

SAN FRANCISCO, April 3 (AP)—With high hopes for a more normal season and a new ally—beer—at hand to help increase the revenue, Pacific Coast league baseball clubs will celebrate the thirty first annual opening of the circuit tomorrow.

The Sacramento club already has made plans to sell the 3.2 beverage at concession stands. Officials of the two San Francisco teams, Seals and Missions, and the Oakland Oaks, figure on increased revenues. Seattle, Portland, Los Angeles and Hollywood are expected to fall in line.

From the strictly baseball side, the lure for increased patronage will be lower ticket prices. Last season every club played to smaller crowds than the year before. Basic prices will be 25 cents for bleachers and 40 cents for grand stands.

The early season size-up promises a free for all scramble for the championship with Portland in the defending role.

LUBBOCK BOWLERS WIN OVER CLOVIS

Gust Kallas' Lubbock Bowling club team defeated the Clovis team, 2,664 pins to 2,351 in a match here Saturday night.

L. W. Bell of the Lubbock team was high man of the evening with 583 pins. His scores in the matches were 212, 184 and 187. Sedden of Clovis led the New Mexico bowlers with 496 pins.

Lubbock's final average was 887, Clovis 787.

FOUR-YEAR-OLD SETS NEW RACE MARK AT AGUA CALIENTE

AGUA CALIENTE, Mex., April 3 (AP)—To the list of thoroughbreds which have won great victories add the name of Gallant Sir, and opposite it write "the $25,000 added Agua Caliente handicap of 1933."

While the mile and a quarter race was no longer the "richest in the world" when he won it yesterday and while Gallant Sir was a standout in a small field, the big 4-year-old colt did his job handsomely in 2:02 3-5. He cracked the record set by Phar Lap, the wonder horse from the Antipodes, in overcoming surprisingly stiff competition.

Waylayer, owned by A. A. Baroni, was second, and Lemon Hills was third.

Texas Training Camps Near End

PLAYERS HAVE EIGHT MORE DAYS TO GET IN CONDITION

BY BILL PARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Texas league baseball players have only eight more training days before the inauguration of their 1933 pennant race. For most of the eight clubs, the remaining spring training days will be loaded with heavy workouts and exhibition games. Many unconditional releases will be handed out to aspiring rookies and fading veterans.

Naturally, as the managers drive their cohorts to the starting post, they have their pennant sights aimed high, and from all indications this year's race will be close.

Exhibitions Played

Sunday saw most Texas league teams playing exhibitions. The Beaumont Exporters, last year pennant winners but losers in the Dixie series, bounced the Galveston Buccaneers for a 6 to 5 decision. John Pasek, catcher returned to Beaumont after a spring trial with Detroit, clouted a homer in the fourth with a runner on to aid in Beaumont's win.

After winning Saturday, the Fort Worth Cats slipped into reverse Sunday to drop a 6 to 3 decision to the first string Indianapolis team. The victory squared the series at two all.

Oklahoma City Wins

Texans who have been wondering about the strength of Tulsa and Oklahoma City, new Texas league members, may get some idea from Oklahoma's 10 to 7 victory yesterday. Tulsa won the first series game Saturday, 12 to 6.

Manager Carey Selph sent his Houston Buffaloes against the amateur Humble oil team Sunday and had to bear down to get a 3 to 2 verdict.

The Dallas Steers won a 9 to 7 game Sunday from a mixture of Fort Worth and second string Indianapolis players. Zeke Bonura hit a home run. He signed Saturday after being listed as a holdout.

DIXIE LEAGUE IS FORMED

EIGHT CLUBS ARE T BE INCLUDED IN BASEBALL LOOP

TYLER, April 3 (AP)—Arrangements have been completed for the organization of the Class C Dixie Baseball league that will include Baton Rouge and Shreveport, La., Jackson, Miss., Eldorado, Ark., Longview, Henderson, Tyler and Waco.

Fifteen representatives from various cities attended a meeting here yesterday in which President J. Alvin Gardner of the Texas league presided. Gardner will serve as president of the Dixie league.

To Start April 27

It was voted to open the season April 27 and to close August 27. The league schedule will include 126 games, and the season will be split June 26. Mondays will be "off-days" and doubleheaders will be played on most Sundays.

Lamar L. Denman of Mount Pleasant was named vice-president, and Milton Price, secretary of the Texas league, was elected secretary.

The Dixie league will have a salary limit of $1,200 exclusive of managers' salaries. Each team will be limited to 14 players.

Bill Ruggles, who annually draws up the Texas league schedules, will arrange a Dixie league schedule and, as soon as it is completed President Gardner will call another meeting.

STEER ROOKIES RELEASED

DALLAS, April 3 (AP)—The Dallas Steers playing roster was cut today with the unconditional release of five rookies. Manager Happ Morse eliminated Laird and Schmucker, infielders; Joe Carter, catcher, and C. W. Carter and Spencer, outfielders. Laird was the only player under contract.

LADIES FINE SILK SLIPS AT $1.98 ARE UNUSUAL THIS SEASON

Frankly the response we have had on our offerings of ladies' slips at $1.98 has been surprising. We expected the "demand" to be for slips of slightly lower price but almost universally when women see the many added features that are possible in slips of this price they have chosen the better ones. The fact that these offerings represent the third re-order definitely illustrates.

High Quality Silk Crepe Bias Cut With Panel Seam Proof—Imported Laces

Six fine appropriate styles are offered—paneled slips—gored slips — straight top slips — V neck slips.

All are made from finest all silk crepe and all have guaranteed seam-proof features.

Imported laces—deep rows of it top and bottom add to the beauty.

All are EXTRA LONG — lengths range from 47 to 50 inches.

Featured in White Tearose and flesh in sizes from 32 to 44. Every style is a very unusual value at—

PEACHES HURT BY FREEZE

OTHER FRUITS SUFFER NO SERIOUS DAMAGE DURING FEBRUARY

Peach buds, for the most part, were frozen during the winter, although fruits apparently were not seriously damaged by the February freeze. Grapes were damaged some, but it is too early to estimate fully the extent of damages to fruits.

This was the report of Prof. C. V. Russell, head of the department of horticulture at Texas Tech, following a check of the orchard at the school.

No Peach Buds

"I have seen no buds at all on peach trees, anywhere" he said. "From that, I presume they were damaged. We have some apples blooming here at Tech and also some cherries and plums."

Mr. Russell said he examined the grape vines and there is a chance of their "coming out all right."

The February freeze, with the coldest day on record, the first full week in that month, was the severest known here. The cold came following a season of warm weather in which buds had begun to show signs of swelling.

There are several varieties of each kind of tree in the Tech orchard. Some of the later blooming varieties are not showing as much damage as earlier ones.

Over the city warm weather last week brought out many trees. So far no peach blooms have been reported. Apples, apricots, pears, plums and cherries are blooming in profusion.

THREE FIRES ARE REPORTED SUNDAY

Three fires which occurred in Lubbock and vicinity Sunday did little damage, fire department reports indicated.

An electric iron left connected in the house occupied by Mrs. W. A. Carlisle at Nineteenth street and Avenue N resulted in a fire, originating on the second floor, at 2:15 a. m. Half a dozen or more cages of canaries died there, firemen said.

Feed owned by J. V. Lemon on his farm four miles northeast of Lubbock became ignited again Sunday. Fire department equipment answered an alarm at 10:15 a. m. Firemen went to the farm last Wednesday, when the feed caught fire. The second blaze possibly resulted from smouldering embers of the first, they said.

Burning of trash beside a vacant residence owned by J. L. Graves at 1912 Texas avenue resulted in a run by fire-fighting apparatus at 2:25 p. m. The house had caught fire.

Livestock Judging Contest Is Planned

The third annual sophomore-junior livestock judging contest at Texas Tech is scheduled for either the last week in April or the first week in May, Ray C. Mowery, associate professor of animal husbandry and in charge of coaching work, states.

"All sophomores who expect to try out for the junior judging team next year should enter," Mr. Mowery said. "Juniors on the judging team and others, also will compete."

Professor Mowery indicated the tentative date of Saturday, April 29, might be changed.

Judging Teams To Vie At Abernathy

ABERNATHY, April 3 (Special)—Dairy judging teams of vocational agriculture departments over the South Plains have been invited to attend a contest here Saturday, April 8, in connection with the third annual Abernathy Dairy show, April 7 and 8.

Teams were invited from: Spur Post, O'Donnell, Littlefield, Olton Plainview, Floydada, Hale Center, Tulia, Ralls and Crosbyton.

It is calculated that about 10 per cent of all federal, state and local taxes collected in 1931 were paid by automobile owners.

Post Rotary Club Names W. R. Graeber

POST, April 3.—(Special)—W. R. Graeber, a charter member of the Post Rotary club, was elected president of the club for the new year by the directors at a meeting last week. Mr. Graeber has been an active member of the club since its organization.

J. R. Durrett was chosen as vice-president and E. R. Wright, county superintendent of schools, was re-elected secretary.

At the election of officers, "Andy" Anderson, district governor, attended as a guest.

ED RILEY IMPROVED

LITTLEFIELD, April 3 (Special)—Ed Riley, World war veteran, has returned from the U. S. Veterans hospital at Denver where he had been for treatment. Mr. Riley went to Lubbock three months ago for treatment of a disability due to service in the army. Later he went to the U. S. Veterans hospital at Albuquerque and then to Denver.

..WOMEN'S AILMENT..

WOMEN of all ages can find help for delicate organs by taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It overcomes backache, bearing-down pains, and the weakening drains of womanhood. Women all over the country praise it as does Mrs. Gertrude Hill of 203 Wilderman St., Forth Worth. She says: "I feared I would have a nervous breakdown. I was so nervous and irritable, had headaches, periodic pains, poor appetite and restless nights. One bottle of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription was all I found necessary to take as after its use I felt so well and strong I knew I was in normal condition again."

Write to Dr. Pierce's Clinic, Buffalo, N. Y., for free medical advice.

Tumlinson Drafts Program For April

Tentative schedule of activities for April has been arranged by O. G. Tumlinson, Lubbock county agent.

This week's program includes a sub-irrigation demonstration at the E. E. Wilson farm near Slaton Wednesday and another at th V. L. Cade farm in the Union comfunity Thursday.

From April 10 to 14 Mr. Tumlinson and R. N. McClain, assistant county agent, will be at the sixth annual Panhandle-Plains Dairy show at Plainview. Mr. Tumlinson is superintendent of the Jersey department.

On April 14 Mr. Tumlinson plans another sub-irrigation demonstration at McClung, on the J. W. Alspaugh farm.

WOMAN JURIST SAYS JUVENILE CRIME WOULD ABATE IF COURTS EFFICIENT

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 3 (AP)—"If we had well-equipped juvenile courts functioning at their highest point of efficiency in every city in the United States crime would abate perceptibly from the beginning and would be stopped in its incipiency in 50 per cent of the cases."

This is the conclusion of Judge Camille Kelley, who heals broken hearts and cures bad dispositions at her "moral clinic" here.

Appointed 12 years ago as the first woman ever to preside over a juvenile court in the south, Judge Kelley has come to the conclusion that "bad" boys are mostly nervous and discontented children.

Soon after her appointment she converted her court and court building into a moral clinic where she might "try to work the so-called bad boy and girl into society as a useful unit."

She estimates that the lives of 30,000 children have been affected by her work.

"I never talk to the little prisoners when they are brought in," she says. "They are bathed, fed, given clean clothing and put to bed for a good sleep. After they are comfortable you can reach them."

She does not care for "sissies," for she considers them "either scared to death or feeble-minded."

"I prefer the more vigorous type," she explains. "I like to shape and direct that fire and energy into something useful."

Judge Camille Kelley (above) the first woman ever to preside in a juvenile court in the south, has made her court into a "moral clinic" where so-called "bad" children can be made useful to society.

ONLY NINE CLEAR DAYS LAST MONTH

Maximum and minimum temperatures recorded at the state experiment sub-station here in March were 85 and 22 degrees, respectively, according to a report by Don L. Jones, superintendent.

Moore Invited To McMurry Program

John H. Moore, former lay leader of the Lubbock district of the Methodist Episcopal church and a former trustee of McMurry college, Abilene, has been invited to attend the celebration of "Founders Day" Wednesday. The invitation was signed by Dr. J. W. Hunt, president, and S. M. Jay, chairman of the board of trustees, of McMurry.

"Twelve years ago, April 5, the contract establishing McMurry college was signed by representatives of the Northwest Texas conference and the chamber of commerce and Methodist churches of Abilene," the letter read. "This is the tenth year since the college opened its doors for work.

"Exercises, with fitting addresses and music, together with a memorial service for those who helped in founding the college and have passed on, will be held in the auditorium at 10 o'clock in the morning."

Mr. Moore said he had served several years as trustee as well as having assisted in the organization work. He has not decided whether he will attend.

Says CARDUI Seemed To Stop Cramping

"Several years ago, when I was younger, I was advised to take Cardui for cramping and irregular trouble," writes Mrs. Esther L. Dodson, of Lowry City, Mo. "It helped me and stopped the cramping. Before the birth of my baby, I felt I needed a tonic to give me strength and appetite. Knowing that Cardui was a good tonic, I decided to take it again. I took it for nine months. I feel that my good health is due to Cardui."

Take Cardui to build up against the nagging symptoms of ordinary womanly ailments. It has been in use for over 50 years. So many women praise CARDUI, it must be good to have the widespread use that it has today. Sold at drug stores.

NOSE TRIANGLE SEEN AS INDEX TO HEALTH; VARIATION FROM 'ISOSCLES' HELD AS INFLUENCING PHYSICAL ILLS

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Apr. 3. (AP)—Nose "geometry," a trick by which any layman can see for himself whether he or his children have noses likely to imperil health, is explained to the medical profession by Myron Matzenbaum, M. D., in the Archives of Otolaryngology, published by the American Medical Association.

In outline every nose is an isosceles triangle. Its apex is at the brows. Its base is a horizontal line just above the mustache area. Its equal-length sides, whence the name isosceles, are the sloping sides of the nose.

When It Is Normal

In nose geometry you draw the outlines of the triangle made by the end of the nose when seen from below. If this triangle is isosceles, that is, if its two sides representing the sides of the bottom of the nose are equal in length, you have a normal nose.

If the triangle is not isosceles, one side will be longer than the other and will bring out clearly the fact that the end of the nose is twisted to one side or the other.

A Twist, Broken

A twist like that means, the physician says, that the nose has at some time been broken. The fact is, he adds, that many persons have broken noses without realizing it.

These breaks, which are merely dislocations of the cartilage, are particularly likely to occur in childhood. Birth itself may cause them, or the numberless bumps of childhood falls.

Should Tell Public

But because they can be remedied easily if noticed immediately, and because failure to do this may lead to a lifetime of annoying ailments, or in extreme cases even to stupidity and serious illness, the Cleveland physician suggests that doctors tell the public about nose geometry.

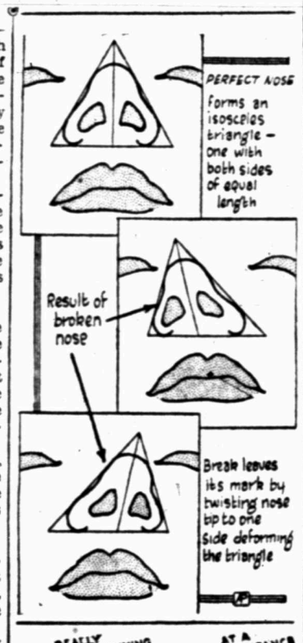

At least four difficulties may grow out of these displacements as described in the medical journal.

First is sinus disease, occuring frequently in children with obstructed noses.

Second is mouth breathing, which causes "buck teeth" and irregular jaws.

Third comes sometimes dullness in school and consequent maladjustment to environment,

Fourth is susceptibly to colds and the added discomfort of difficult breathing while suffering from a cold.
