Part Of Aid Cuts Restored

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Appropriations Committee voted today to restore $500,900,000 of the $809,650,000 that the House slashed from President Eisenhower's foreign aid money bill.

The committee voted 14-7 to recommend to the Senate $3,025,660,000 in new funds. It also approved the reappropriation of $667,050,000 in carryover funds for a total of $3,692,710,000.

By the same vote, the committee rejected a motion by Sen. Ellender (D-La) to hold new funds for military aid to the $1,250,000,000 allowed by the House.

Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon Johnson said earlier he would support a boost in aid funds of about half a billion dollars.

The Texas Democrat made this announcement after an hour-long breakfast meeting with President Eisenhower. It was the first time they met privately with no others present.

Johnson said he told the President he was prepared to support "a substantial increase" over the 2½ billion dollars in new aid money voted by the House.

Asked to elaborate on the amount he would support, Johnson told newsmen it would be "in the neighborhood of a half billion dollars" above the House figure.

He said the President was "very much concerned" with getting adequate funds for the mutual security program, and added: "I've been concerned about it for some time."

Eisenhower has voiced hope the Senate will vote the full $3,367,000,000 provided in the authorization bill passed previously by both Houses. The President also has said he hopes senators will make the best deal they can in reaching agreement with the House on a final figure.

The authorization measure merely fixed spending ceilings for the aid program. Actual appropriations now are being considered by the Senate.

Eisenhower acompanied Johnson to the door of the White House's north portico after their steam breakfast. Newsmen thought they heard the President tell his guest: "Thanks a million."

Eisenhower's supporters were reported willing to compromise on a hike of about a half billion dollars.

Johnson told newsmen on emerging from the White House: "We just had a most enjoyable hour of talk about everything from our health to world events."

He described his talk with the President as "very constructive." He has not previously met privately with the chief executive. Eisenhower held a similar breakfast meeting last week with House Speaker Rayburn (D-Tex).

Johnson said there was only an incidental mention of the civil rights bill and no discussion at all of Eisenhower's statement last week that he is "tremendously disappointed" in Congress' action on his program at this session.

The Democratic leader said he will wait until the session ends before attempting any evaluation himself. He said he hoped the lawmakers can wind up the session at the end of this week but added that it may run until the middle of next week.

Johnson said he and the President, in talking about their health, mentioned such things as what they eat for breakfast rather than discussing in any detail the heart attacks which both have suffered.

Earlier, Republican leader Knowland of California said in an interview he expected the Senate appropriations committee to vote for a fund substantially higher than the House approved.

CLOSE SHAVE—Bill Dennis, seated in a car, holds a piece of a pressure plate which flew through the floorboard of his car while he was racing at Big Spring yesterday, barely missing him. Looking on is Chili Childress, another hot rod racer. (Lee Watson photograph)

IN RACING ACCIDENT

Hot Rodder Escapes Unhurt

Bill Dennis, 20-year-old Snyder hot-rod racer, escaped injury yesterday when a defective pressure plate blew off his car while he was racing at Big Spring.

Bolts stripped out of the plate, with the engine turning up some 8,200 RPM. The plate disintegrated, with parts flying upward, part down. Parts went through the floorboard, missing Dennis by only about six inches. Parts hit the top of the car, one door, and the steering column.

Dennis, an employe of Lamb Chevrolet Co., was one of six Snyder men driving in the Big Spring stock car races. He was driving a 1956 Chevrolet with a 300-horsepower engine in the D-gas class. The transmission and motor were torn up.

Dennis was leading his race when the accident occurred.

Two Snyder men took trophies in the Big Spring events. They were Joe Bailey in the C-stock class with a 1957 Chevrolet with 185-horse engine, timed at 16.8 seconds on the quarter-mile, and Chili Childress, driving a 1957 Chevrolet with 220-horse motor in the B-stock class, timed at 15.95.

Others in the races included Bill Valentine, driving a 1957 Chevrolet station wagon with 300-horse motor in D-gas; Willie Rains in a 1957 Chevrolet with 145-horse motor in D-stock; and Danny Woods, driving a 1950 Ford in E-stock.

Valentine had a time of 14.56 on the trial run, his best time so far.

Childress has entered the National Drags, a four-day event which begins Friday in Oklahoma City and which will name national champions. There is a field of 450 entries in the races.

Childress' car has already passed inspections required for the national races. To enter, a racer must be a member of the National Hot Rod Association.

Childress, 20, of 2311 Twenty-ninth Street, has won seven trophies in 12 races he has entered this year in West Texas and New Mexico.

His best time was 15.87 on the quarter-mile at Roswell, N. M., where he took a first place.

SPOT MUSE

SIMILARITY OF NAMES often leads to confusing situations such as the one in a local barber shop Friday.

Jay Massingill, sheriff's deputy called the shop for a hair cut appointment, and while en route to the shop another Jay — Jay R. Huckabee — walked in for a hair cut.

Huckabee was in the barber chair when the other Jay came in to keep his appointment.

Massingill says he will use his surname next time he calls for an appointment.

NO ONE had shown up by late this morning in the commissioners courtroom in connection with the hearing on the 1957 county budget. The court will officially adopt the budget later. Today was the day for the official budget hearing. It is unusual for anyone to be on hand for the hearing.

BOSTON (AP)—Gov. Foster Furcolo attempted today to settle a strike of 300 mailers which left Boston without six daily newspapers since Aug. 10.

Swimming Pool Is Opened Here

After several weeks of waiting, the swimming pool at the new park in south Snyder was opened yesterday.

W. J. Ramsey, county superintendent of parks, said the pool had some 70 customers in the five hours it was open yesterday.

The pool has not yet had its final inspection, but the architect, Butler-Kimmel Co. of Lubbock, worked out an agreement with the contractor, Velvin Construction Co. of Midland, for the opening of the pool while minor repairs and finish work are being done. The things left to be done at the pool can be done while it is in operation.

Woodruff Powell is manager of the new pool. The pool will be open on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday from 1 to 5 p.m. and 6:30 to 8 p.m. On Wednesdays and Sundays it will be open from 1 to 6 p.m.

The pool will not have long to operate, since cool weather will be here shortly. It is expected that there will be few night customers now.

Houses Set On Fire By Plane Crash

PITTSBURGH (AP)—An Air Force training plane, crashed into the small mining community of Clinton five miles west of Greater Pittsburgh Airport today, setting fire to two houses.

First reports from the scene were that the plane which crashed was a jet. However the Civil Aeronautics Administration office at the airport said the plane was a propeller-driven T28 en route from Pittsburgh to Youngstown, Ohio.

Occupants of the homes apparently escaped injury.

The burned body of a man, apparently the pilot of the plane, was found at the scene.

There was no immediate information whether more than one person was aboard the plane.

Jerry McLaughlin, a resident of Clinton, said, "The plane was right over my head. It was very quiet, as if its motor was off."

The plane struck a house owned by Morris Ritchey, McLaughlin said, and there was a slight explosion before the flames spread to the nearby home of Gus Smith.

Both of the frame houses were burned to the ground before firemen reached the scene.

Iran Is Offered Unlimited Credit

TEHRAN, (AP)—Russia has offered Iran unlimited credit for the development of its heavy industry at the low interest rate of 2 per cent.

This was announced by Soviet Trade Commissioner Nikolai Gadeichik today and confirmed by an Iranian government source.

Gadeichik said the offer is similar to those made to Afghanistan and Syria.

An Iranian government source said no decision had been taken.

One Killed And Two Are Seriously Hurt

SEYMOUR, Tex. (AP) — Raphael Manuel, 18, of Elbert in Throckmorton County, was killed and two persons were seriously injured in a car-truck crash today 10 miles east of here.

Taken to the Baylor County Hospital were Delbert Emil Nolte of Archer County, riding in the car with Manuel, and Fred Musgrove of Seymour, driver of the truck. The accident occurred about 8:15 a.m. at the intersection of Highway 199 and Farm 1790.

Refrigerators Needed

MOSCOW (AP) — Pravda today called for more refrigerators. The Communist party newspaper said only 180 of the Soviet Union's 475 meat packing plants have refrigerators. It said at least 300,000 tons of refrigerators, both of the home and industrial type, were needed at once to reduce losses of meat and other foods.

Two Youths Arrested For Burglaries Here

Twelve Snyder burglaries were cleared up by police who arrested two 14-year-old boys during the weekend, T. L. Steele, police chief said.

Steele said that in interrogation the two youths admitted and gave detailed accounts of five burglaries which had been reported to police this summer, and seven other burglaries which were not reported to police. Only part of the burglaries had been discovered by the owners or operators of business firms involved.

Included in the burglaries cleared up were two break-ins at the Veteran's Club building, both of which occurred last Thursday, and theft of $55.85 from a gun shop on Avenue S while the owner was across the street drinking coffee last Thursday.

Steele said the youths stated that they entered the Veteran's Club building two times that day and took about $1 in pennies from the club, and 14 packages of cigarets, and broke into a pay telephone box from which $8 was taken.

The youths admitted taking more than $40 at the gun shop, but did not know the exact amount, Steele said.

They also admitted two burglaries of the Caprock Materials Co. office, Twenty-third Street and Avenue Q, in which $8 was taken one time and $6 the other time, and two burglaries of the Toyland store located just east of the Snyder National Bank on Twenty-fifth Street. Those burglaries were reported to the Scurry County Sheriff's department and were investigated by the sheriff's department. Toys, toy police uniforms, and pump air rifles were stolen from the Toyland. Part of the Toyland loot was recovered.

Unreported burglaries on Aug. 4 of the Feather Printing Co. in which nothing was stolen, the Bennett Office Supply in which note books and an expensive fountain pen and pencil set and other merchandise were taken, the Mixon Tire & Supply Store on the north side of the Square in which nothing was taken, and the Adams Drive-In Bakery, 1701 Twenty-sixth Street in which food items were taken were admitted by the two youths.

One reported and one unreported burglary of the Ezell-Key Feed Store, 1705 Twenty-fifth Street, were also admitted. One of those burglaries occurred about noon on July 4, the other one night during August.

The youths said they took shirts, pants and shoes in burglary of the Fair Store on the night of July 20. That burglary was not reported to police.

Steels said that none of the money taken by the boys in any of the burglaries was recovered, but part of the other loot was recovered.

The police chief said that apparently the unreported burglaries had not been discovered by the operators of businesses burglarized, and that no forced entry was used in many of the burglaries.

Bill Zimmerman, county juvenile officer, took custody of the boys this morning. They were arrested about 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon by city police officers.

IN CONTEST

Substitute Father Is Requested

LONDON (AP)—As the prize in a London newspaper's win a man contest, handsome Chris Powell does anything the winner demands.

He's cleaning an attic today, for example. Tomorrow he'll run a bakery for a woman whose business is bad. Next day he'll try to settle a neighbors' quarrel in Birmingham. Readers of the Daily Sketch with the best reason for wanting Powell win him for a day.

But a widow in Lexington, Ky., stumped the tall, former British army major.

Her entry in the London Daily Sketch contest caused a bit of a stir. She wants Powell as a "pinch hitter for a father."

She wrote she is having a difficult time rearing her 17-year-old daughter and 8-year-old son, and besides "Mr. Powell has got what every American housewife should have."

The Sketch, which did not identify the widow, said her request was the first "direct suggestion of marriage." But it said it was filing her request away with the losers because: Powell is too busy with British winners, and he's already married.

Cool Front Moving Toward Panhandle

By The Associated Press

A cool front was moving southeastward across Colorado Monday toward the Texas Panhandle where it is expected to lower temperatures by night and in the upper South Plains and Red River Valley by Tuesday.

A few isolated thundershowers were predicted for western areas of the state. One dropped .82 of an inch of rain on Van Horn Sunday.

Charges Of Luring Woman To Her Death Denied By Girard

MAEBASHI, Japan (AP)—William S. Girard today denied Japanese charges that he lured a woman brass scavenger to her death on a U.S. firing range.

Japanese prosecutors entered a new accusation that the Army specialist from Ottawa, Ill., shot at four other Japanese before an empty cartridge case fired from his grenade launcher killed Mrs. Naka Sakai Jan. 30.

"The facts in the indictment are not correct," the 22-year-old GI told the three black-robed judges as his trial on a manslaughter charge opened in the Japanese District Court here.

In a brief statement Girard told the court Mrs. Sakai's death "was an accident as far as I'm concerned and I'm sorry it happened." The prosecution charged that he threw out empty shell casings to entice the scavengers onto the firing range, then shot at them.

Moving that the indictment be dismissed, the soldier's chief Japanese attorney Itsuro Hayashi renewed the claim that Girard was carrying out his official duty and therefore is not subject to Japanese jurisdiction.

This argument originally had set off considerable congressional and press criticism in the United States of the Army's decision to let Japan try Girard. The U.S. Supreme Court finally upheld the Army action, ruling that a Japanese trial would not violate the soldier's constitutional rights.

Presiding Judge Yuzo Kawachi said he would not rule on the jurisdiction issue until all the evidence in the case is heard and "the final decision is given." This is expected to be in late October or November. Hayashi said this was agreeable to him.

In accordance with the Japanese custom of extended recesses between sessions, the trial was adjourned after today's hearing until Sept. 6. It will move then to the Somagahara firing range, where the fatal shooting ocurred.

The trial opened in a steaming hot little courtroom into which were jammed more than 90 people, including 35 spectators chosen by lot and 42 reporters. Heavy curtains were drawn across the closed windows to prevent photographing into the courtroom.

MAN IN TROUBLE—Manuel Moreno, 37, jailed in San Francisco on charges of striking his wife while drunk, decided he would seek escape through the small opening in the bars used to pass food to prisoners. He gained "freedom" up to his neck, but then could not get his head back. It took firemen an hour and a half to cut through the bars and "free" Moreno.

Man Found Dead Today East Of Ira

William Warren Sheshey, 32, was found dead at about 7:30 a.m. today at his housetrailer home one-fourth of a mile east of Ira.

Cause of death was not know today, and an autopsy was ordered by Peace Justice W. C. Davidson. It appeared, however, that no foul play was involved, officers said.

Officers of the sheriff's department were investigating the death today.

The autopsy will be held in Abilene. Bell Funeral Home was to transport the body there today.

Sheshey, separated from his family, lived alone in the trailer. He was an oilfield worker and had lived at Ira several months.

Mrs. Lowell Martin, mother-in-law of Sheshey, found him at his trailer this morning. It was reported he was sitting in a chair when found.

Mrs. Martin notificed the sheriff's office.

Sheshey's survivors were not listed by late this morning, but he has several children. He has a mother and sister living in Conroe, it was reported.

River Dragged In Search For Youth

SILSBEE, Tex. (AP)—Search continued today for a girl who disappeared during a family picnic on a river sandbar yesterday. Her father said he is convinced she didn't drown.

Her father said his daughter, Dianne, 5, was afraid of water. She was last seen returning from the picnic area, 6 miles east of here, to his auto in the woods and Burch doesn't think she returned to the river.

Other search parties combed the wooded areas near this East Texas town. Dragging operations along the Neches River also were being conducted. The hunt went on throughout the night.

It was feared the little girl may have fallen into the river sometime after noon yesterday.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Burch of Evadale.

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP) — President Shukri Kuwatly met his Cabinet today for the first time since agreeing to the appointment of a new leftist army command.

Newspaper reports indicated the Cabinet was preparing to take up "administrative changes" — a purge of so-called imperialists.

Kuwatly flew to Egypt eight days ago when the appointment of leftist Maj. Gen. Afif Bizri as army chief of staff was announced. He returned yesterday. The flight brought reports — and official Syrian denials — that he had resigned.

Upon his return he declared Syria would stand firm "despite pressures and plots of imperialism, the West and America."

At the Cabinet meeting at Kuwatly's home was Gen. Bizri.

Mrs. Eisenhower Is 'Coming Along Fine'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower is not expected to leave Walter Reed Army Hospital before the end of this week.

White House press secretary James C. Hagerty said the President's wife is "coming along fine" but repeated a statement he made last week that she "is not hurrying to get out of the Hospital."

Mrs. Eisenhower underwent an operation Aug. 6. Hagerty said no date has been set for her to leave the hospital but that he would expect she would remain there all this week.

The First Lady is expected to accompany the President on a vacation at Newport, R.I., about the time Congress adjourns, which now looks like this weekend or later.

Action Slated On Rights Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House Rules Committee today voted 10-2 to clear the long-blocked civil rights bill for House action.

The committee vote overrode Chairman Howard W. Smith (D-Va) and Rep. Colmer (D-Miss) last-ditch opponents of the compromise measure, and paved the way for House action expected tomorrow.

Speedy House passage is expected for the measure which had been bottled up in the Rules Committee since Senate passage Aug. 7.

The meeting of the Rules Committee was forced by seven members because Chairman Smith had refused to call a session of the committee.

Under House rules, a majority of a committee can force a meeting when the chairman does not call one.

Rep. Hugh Scott (R-Pa) signed at 9:30 a.m. a call for a meeting previously signed by six Democrats.

A proposed compromise bill was worked out last week by Democratic and Republican congressional leaders. It would give federal judges limited powers to punish for criminal contempt in voting rights cases tried without a jury.

Once a meeting is held, the Rules Committee is expected to write the compromise into the bill before sending it to the House for action, probably tomorrow.

Then the Senate will act. Southern senators apparently have no intention of staging a filibuster, but plan to voice again their objections to the legislation.

It was not certain how much time these speeches will require, but the leadership goal is adjournment of Congress by this weekend.

In its final form the bill is expected to contain:

1. Provision for a bipartisan civil rights investigating commission and for a special section of the Justice Department to handle civil rights matters.

2. New powers for the attorney general to seek U.S. court injunctions against violations or threatened violations of voting rights.

3. A special provision—the heart of the final compromise—that a judge shall decide whether a person charged with criminal contempt for violating an injunction shall be tried by himself, or by a jury.

If the judge tries the case himself and levies a penalty of more than 45 days in jail and a $300 fine, the defendant would have the right to a new trial before a jury.

Body Of Young Girl Discovered

CHICAGO (AP)—Detective squads combed a West Side neighborhood for clues today in the mutilation slaying of a 15-year-old schoolgirl, whose dismembered body was found floating in Lake Michigan in two separate oil cans.

Police said the body of Judith Mae Andersen had been chopped and sawed, and was waterlogged. Police said identification was definitely established last night when fingerprint experts made their report. Crime laboratory technicians said a series of 20 prints taken from the girl's personal belongings matched those on a severed hand.

Earlier, police had assumed the girl to be Judith Mae, missing from her home since Aug. 16. Their assumption were based on a dental-chart identification of the severed head. The head contained a single, small caliber bullet-hole, police reported.

The can containing the head two hands and an arm were found Saturday in Montrose Harbor. Two days earlier, two men in a boat found the butchered torso in an oil drum near the same North Side lakefront harbor.

The girl's father Ralph Andersen, 43, disputed police fingerprint identifications and the report of two dental surgeons on charts taken from the office of the family dentist.

"There's still some doubt in my mind," Andersen, a foreman at a bookbinding company, told newsmen. Then he added, in a voice choked with emotion: "But . . . but they say fingerprints never lie."

Andersen had viewed segments of the body at the county morgue. Judith Mae was last seen about 11 p.m. Aug. 16 when she left a girl friend's house to return to her home, about a mile away, on the far West Side.

The case of Judith Mae was the third sensational and apparently motiveless slaying of youngsters—homeward-bound from night time trips around the city. All the crimes are unsolved.

Ike Getting Asiatic Flu Shot Today

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower will receive a shot of Asiatic flu vaccine today. The White House said he has come in contact with at least two persons believed to have been stricken by the disease.

Inoculation was advised by Dr. Leroy E. Burney, U.S. surgeon general, who said persons with a history of heart or lung ailments are more likely than others to suffer side effects from the disease. Eisenhower had a heart attack in September, 1955.

The supposed sufferers from Asiatic flu who have been in contact with the President are Dr. Gabriel Hauge, an economic adviser, and Thomas Craven Jr., a newsreel photographer.

White House press secretary James C. Hagerty said Hauge saw the President Wednesday, immediately after returning from a trip to Buenos Aires. On Thursday, Hauge was stricken with illness.

Craven, who became ill last Wednesday, had been in a group of photographers making pictures of the President in his office early last week.

Both cases have been tentatively diagnosed as Asiatic flu although a final decision must await laboratory tests. Neither Hauge nor Craven is seriously ill.

In addition, Jack Cliff, an Army sergeant who drives White House cars, has been stricken with apparent Asiatic flu. He is not, however, believed to have been in contact with the President.

Hagerty said the decision to inoculate Eisenhower was made by his personal physician, Maj. Gen. Howard M. Snyder, in consultation with the surgeon general.

The doctors reported, Hagerty said, that there is enough vaccine in the Washington area to inoculate all those with heart or lung histories of the kind mentioned in a statement Saturday by the surgeon general.

Eisenhower told a news conference last Wednesday he would be inoculated as soon as the vaccine was generally available.

Hagerty said he assumed that White House staff members likely to come into close contact with the President would be vaccinated as further protection for the chief executive. However, none of the presidential aides has received a shot as yet, Hagerty said.

He Needs A Rest

NEW YORK (AP)—Arthur Murray turned down an offer by ABC-TV to spot his Arthur Murray Party in the Saturday 10 p.m. slot in the fall. Murray, who packages and produces the show, said: "I need a rest, and will not accept any TV offers for the next 13 weeks."

Romance Of Heiress And Khan Denied

GENEVA (AP)— Reports of a romance between the 20-year-old Aga Khan and a Mexican heiress were denied here today.

Fernando Casablancas, Mexican businessman, said his daughter Sylvia, 17, is just a teen-age friend of the rich young ruler of the Moslem Ismaili sect.

The Aga Khan's family spokesman said the young Moslem religious leader was too busy to marry.

The London Daily Mail said the Aga Khan had a romance going with Sylvia, a student at an exclusive finishing school at Eastbourne, England. She is on a visit to Geneva with her father.

"Karim—the new Aga, my son Fernando and my daughter are longtime chums," Casablancas told a reporter.

"They have known each other for years. But it's just a teen-age friendship. There is no romance behind it. The newspaper reports are exaggerated."

Murder By Arson Charges Are Filed

AUSTIN (AP)—Charges of "murder by arson" were filed yesterday against Ida Porter, 46, in the fire death of Sidney Darden, 35, early Sunday.

Police said Darden was the woman's common-law husband. His body, burned almost beyond recognition, was found by firemen on a bed in the garage apartment where the couple had been living.

The woman was arrested about an hour later and taken to a hospital where she was treated for a week-old burn on an arm, a possible fracture of the right cheekbone, two black eyes and lacerated lips. She told officers she received the injuries in arguments with Darden.

He Gets His Stolen Car After Long Trip

DETROIT (AP)—Eddie Dickerson, 41, finally has his stolen car back, but he traveled a bit to get it.

Police called Dickerson and told him they found the car parked on Scotten Avenue near Toledo Street, in Detroit. Dickerson thanked them and said he would pick it up.

A few hours later, police got a long distance call from Dickerson.

"Listen," he said. "I'm in Toledo, Ohio, and I can't even find Scotten."

Population of Latin America's nations is now about equal to that of the United States and Canada.

SLIDE VICTIM REMOVED—National Guardsmen and other volunteers remove the body of one of three sisters who were buried alive beneath a landslide at an excavation site at Dixon, Illinios. The three girls, missing for several days, were widely sought since their disappearance. They were daughters of Mr. and Mrs. John Guernsey and Guernsey was foreman of the crew filling the quarry where the landslide occurred.

Victory Won By Rights Backers

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—Negroes and the supporters of civil rights have won a clear-cut victory. Southern whites have suffered a definite defeat.

This is clear after an analysis of the compromise civil rights bill which is expected to be passed by Congress this week.

It's been called a bill to protect Negroes' voting rights. It goes far beyond that. It would have gone further, by letting the attorney general step into all kinds of civil rights cases.

But Southern senators were able to get that part of the bill knocked out. As it stands, the bill would let the attorney general step into voting rights cases only.

That's plenty. So is the rest of the bill. And for the first time in this century, the Southerners were unable to block civil rights legislation.

That may mean more chance for more civil rights legislation in the future.

The bill calls for a commission to investigate all kinds of civil rights violations. The commission would have no powers to act against such violations, as the attorney general could have done under the knocked-out part of the bill. But it could expose.

For example: The commission could investigate the Ku Klux Klan and the White Citizens Councils set up in the South to resist public school integration and integration in general.

The more the commission may reveal—particularly about harassment of Negroes—the more could be the pressure for more legislation. And the commission would have power to hold hearings anywhere in the South.

Because it could issue subpoenas, it could force witnesses to appear and testify.

Under the bill, the attorney general could ask a federal judge for a court order to stop a voting rights violation. Again, there would be exposure. For once a judge issues such an order, he would hold a public hearing to bring out the facts in the case.

And the bill leaves untouched the judge's traditional power to try and jail—without a jury—anyone in civil contempt of courts for disobeying his order.

Action Expected On FBI Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. O'Mahoney (D-Wyo) said the Senate will approve late today or tonight a bill making it clear that secret files of the FBI and other government agencies "are not open for fishing expeditions."

At the same time, O'Mahoney said in an interview, the legislation will retain the Supreme Court's basic theory that an individual facing criminal prosecution has the right to inspect FBI and other files pertaining to a government witness' testimony against him.

Both the Senate and House Judiciary Committee have approved bills designed to limit the scope of a controversial court ruling in the case of Clinton E. Jencks, a former union official convicted of falsely swearing he was not a Communist.

The court held June 3 that Jencks had a right to examine FBI files containing material furnished by government witnesses who testified against him, in an effort to impeach their testimony. The high court ordered a new trial for Jencks.

Since then several lower federal courts have ordered government agencies to open their confidential files or dismiss criminal charges. There are conflicts among these decisions.

Pending now in the Senate is a bill drafted by Atty. Gen. Brownell and since completely rewritten by O'Mahoney and the Senate Judiciary Committee. The newest version brings most parties to the dispute into near agreement. Under its provisions, federal judges would first inspect FBI files and could delete any material not relevant to the pending case. In case of an appeal, the entire file, including the deleted matter, would be sent to the higher courts.

If federal prosecutors decided against presenting the files, the testimony of the government witness would be stricken by the a mistrial or order a dismissal judge. Or the judge could declare of the case.

Four Arrested On Fighting Charges

Four men were arrested Saturday afternoon by city police on charges of fighting.

The fight ocurred at a fruit stand adjacent to the Snyder post office, police chief, T. L. Steele, said.

All four posted statutory bonds after three of them pleaded not guilty and one pleaded guilty.

Steele said that the one plea of guilty, will be reconsidered by the city corporation court at a later date. He said that the men have obtained council and a jury trail will be held in the case.

WATERMELON AND GREEN GRAPE COMPOTE

Ingredients: 2 cups watermelon balls, seedless grapes, fruit juices, ¼ cup watermelon juice or other fruit juice, ¼ cup grenadine syrup.

Method: Lightly mix watermelon balls, seedless grapes, fruit juice and grenadine syrup together; chill. Makes 5 to 6 servings.

Note: If you do not have a French ball cutter, you can use the ½ teaspoon from a set of round-bowled measuring spoons for scooping out the watermelon balls. Grenadine syrup is generally available in bottles in food-chain stores and supermarkets. Besides using it in fruit compotes, it can be combined with fruit juices and carbonated water for a cold drink.

PRIVATE PROPERTY—Even if it's not spacious, a small room of his own is far better for a young schoolboy than a big one shared with a brother.

FOR SCHOOLBOY

Decorate A Special Room

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

IF YOU CAN possibly manage it, give your schoolboy a room of his own.

Even if it must be tiny, a haven he can call his own is better for a growing boy than a large room he must share with others.

You'll find he'll be a better student if he has a room where he can concentrate on homework, where books may be kept from the groping fingers of younger members of the family.

Keep furnishings on the simple side so that he will be able to tidy up his room. Many new bedspreads have been designed with that idea in mind. A fitted bedspread is ideal. One new one of avisco rayon and cotton has a handsome rough-textured weave that will appeal to a young cowboy, yet it may be tubbed, fluff-dried and put back on the bed without ironing. Carpeting is a good idea for a small boy's room because it helps to deaden noise.

Provide Good Light

Good light is important to young eyes. Be sure his desk is near the window and that he has a good lamp for after-dark reading.

This will protect his eyes and also make his room look cheerful.

A coat tree is a useful and appreciated article in any youngster's room. It's a good place to hang slacks and sports shirts in a hurry, when there just isn't time to arrange everything on hangers. It will keep these items off the bed and chair (and perhaps even the floor).

A good roomy chest with many drawers can separate articles for easy handling. One new combination chest and desk with a plastic top can stand lots of doodling. He will like a comfortable chair and a typewriter, if you're looking for that special gift for him. It's a good idea to put an electric clock in a young man's room — one that will not slow up because he has forgotten to wind it. That way he'll be on time some of the time.

Be sure to include a waste basket and small clothes hamper in the boy's closet. That way he'll keep track of his dirty laundry. A wallboard for his memoranda and mementos will save walls from nail and hammer. If he has enough room is a long, low wooden box (that he can put together himself with plywood) that may be stored under the bed to hold everything from baseball mitt to ice skates. Put a rope handle on it, so that it may be pulled out in a jiffy when these articles are needed.

Peggy Brown Ends Her Tour Of Colorado

Peggy Brown, 17-year-old Ira 4-H Clubber, returned yesterday from a week's tour of Colorado.

Miss Brown was one of eight girls in Texas winning the Talent Club Tour for outstanding 4-H Club work. While in Colorado she attended the meeting of the National Cooperative Association.

Afterward, the group toured points of interest in several parts of Colorado.

Miss Brown is a 1957 graduate of Ira High School and plans to enroll in the University of Texas this fall, majoring in nutrition.

BRENDA HICKMAN returned home from San Antonio, where she had visited her sister and family, DR. AND MRS. J. C. BEISNER, for the past month.

Red Ribbon Is Won In Dress Revue

Betty Plyant, member of the Fluvanna 4-H Club, took a red ribbon in a district 4-H dress revue held in Lubbock Saturday.

Miss Pylant, 15-year-old sophomore at Fluvanna High School, was a blue ribbon winner in the senior division in the Scurry County 4-H dress revue several days ago.

At Lubbock, she modeled the same dress. It is a peacock blue nubby acetate rayon with built-in cumberbund, unpressed pleats, and three-quarter length sleeves. She modeled it with black suede shoes and bag and black felt hat.

There were 13 girls from the 22-county district in the dress revue, which was held in the Texas Tech student union building. A luncheon was held in connection with the revue.

Miss Ruby Butts, county home demonstration agent here, was mistress of ceremonies for the district revue. Parts of the revue will be on the Jack Kreel program on Channel 13 on Sept. 8.

SOME WIFELY TIPS

That Outdoor Cook Of Yours May Need To Be Housebroken

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

WOMEN HAVE SPENT the last 10 years saving themselves work by wooing men to the outdoor barbecue. Now many have a problem on their hands: how to keep a glory thirsty chef from runing their kitchen indoors.

When a man is performing culinary acrobatics over the garden grate, he's a hero to family and friends. Drunk with praise from hungry guests, at summer's end he often wants to graduate to the kitchen. Many a housewife has learned to her sorrow that he will not easily let go of skewer and grill.

Artful Abandon

Outdoors he has been able to cook with convivial abandon — grease flying and charcoal and burnt hamburger lost to the lawn. Spilled goodies? Just leave them for the squirrels.

Indoors his bout with Escoffier may reach hysterical proportions. Mashed potatoes may be whipped to the ceiling. The stove becomes a fiery inferno from spilled fats. The refrigerator looks like it has been attacked by hungry leopards. And the floor resembles a thawed ice skating rink from splashed water and sundry liquids.

To top everything, the average man rearranges things to suit his own convenience, even if he only gets into the kitchen weekends. Tall? He'll move staples to the top shelf even if the little woman slaves in the kitchen all week long. If shorter than she is, he'll move all to within his easy grasp. Glasses, ice bucket, soda and what have you will dot the counter for easy reach. Saucers become ash trays.

He'll make pronouncements about how the food should be preserved, whether coffee and bread belong in the ice box, how long to keep hamburger. He'll dispose of leftovers and anything else that annoys him — empty jars (saved for a reason) and bottles that have another serving of catsup, milk, pickles. A man can't bear tidbits.

There are ways to discourage his cooking aspirations though. It may take a little time, but most women will agree it's worth the effort. Here's how:

1. Tell him you are ill when the meal is over and ask him to please clean up his 18-pot dinner himself.

2. Invite your mother-in-law for dinner and tell her your husband is too bashful to admit he enjoys company in the kitchen when he cooks.

3. Forget to buy an essential ingredient of his culinary specialty when he is cooking for favorite guests.

4. Move the baby's play pen into the kitchen just before he starts the meal. Or sic the older children on him from time to time with requests for orange juice, cookies, milk.

5. Invite his best friends to dinner and then converse in low tones in the living room while he sheds onion tears in the kitchen.

6. Tell him you are on a budget and cannot afford steak, cream, wine shallots, butter and other fancy fixin's a man needs to produce a meal. Suggest a complicated casserole.

7. As a final insult, if nothing else works, cover the walls and floors with old newspapers before he begins his cooking session.

Rosemary For Roast

Sprinkle rosemary on a meat roast before putting in the oven.

Bride-Elect Honored At Gift Tea

Miss Sandra Sue Underwood of Colorado City, bride-elect of Jerry Dwayne Overman of Snyder, was complimented with a gift tea Thursday evening in the home of Mrs. T. V. Tipton in Colorado City.

Hostessess for the occasion were Mrs. Tipton, Miss Sherlon Tipton, Mrs. Joe Igo, Mrs. Leon Yeager, Mrs. Paul Navickas, Mrs. C. E. Bearden, Mrs. E. J. Stockton, Miss Mary Bell Stockton, Mrs. Leonard West and Miss Glenda Hart.

Mrs. Joe Igo registered guests, while Mrs. Leonard West and Miss Mary Bell Stockton served punch and cake.

Presenting piano musical selections during the evening were Mrs. W. C. Hooks and Miss Weldena Hester.

Blue and white, the bride-elect's chosen colors, were carried out in all appointments and decorations. The serving table was laid with a pastel blue linen cloth. Centerpiece consisted of a bridal doll standing in front of a large blue satin wedding ring with tiny white flower diamonds and a floral arrangement of small white pompom mums and large shaggy mums, all on a styrafoam base. Blue satin streamers from the centerpiece were inscribed "Sandra" and "Dwayne" in large gold letters. Napkins were inscribed "Sandra and Dwayne" in blue.

On one end of the table the crystal punch bowl was filled with pale blue punch. On the opposite end of the table were cake squares decorated with tiny blue flowers.

About 60 guests were registered, including Mrs. Fred Overman, Miss Barbara Caldwell and Miss Linda Chauncey of Snyder.

BUCKIN' THE LINE

By BUCK FRANCIS
News Sports Editor

ATTENTION MEMBERS of all football players here below the varsity level:

"Tomorrow's watermelon feed being sponsored by the Quarterback Club is for you as well as for the Tigers. In previous stories released on the feast it mentioned that only the Tigers would be the honored guests."

However, Quarterback Club officials said today that it was intended all along for all local gridders to be invited to the watermelon feed.

Since school hasn't started it's impossible for the coaches of all local teams to contast each player concerning the watermelon feast so let this serve as an official invitation to you to be on hand for tomorrow's big affair.

The coaches would like for all players to report thirty minutes early, at 6:30 p.m. tomorrow, in order that they may get your name before the feed starts at 7.

And don't forget, too, that the feed is open to all Quarterback members and would-be members.

'Cleaning Up' Department

Perhaps you may be wondering who that 16th Tiger lettermen is. In yesterday's edition, it was stated that 16 lettermen from last year squad are returning this season but only 15 pictures were published.

The 16th lettermen is center Bill Rinehart. It wasn't discovered until just before press time that we did not have a picture of Rinehart. In checking back we found that Rinehart was absent when the pictures were taken last fall.

Also one of the returning lettermen is Larry Mullins, not "Ronnie Mullins" as it appeared yesterday.

Dramatic Finish

You can call it a pressure shot or what but that "eagle" Frank Wharton of University of Houston fired on the 72nd hole in the Texas PGA tournament at Lubbock yesterday was one of the most dramatic shots perhaps in the history of golf.

Wharton came into the 72nd hole needing a "birdie" to tie Earl Stewart for the tournament title and the picture looked extremely dark when Warton's tee shot went into the rough, 140 yards shy of the green.

Stewart had already finished with a 72 hole score of 281. Wharton was 278 after 71 holes.

But Wharton, after driving into the rough from the tee box, rose to the occasion by blasting his second shot into the cup for an "eagle two" and a tournament total of 280 and giving him the championship by a single stroke.

Golfers, pro or otherwise, just don't go around holing-out from 140 yards or thereabouts away every day. In fact, it only happens once in a "blue moon" for the very best.

We can't ever recall of a player coming through on the final hole to win a tournament in the manner which Wharton did yesterday.

There were only about 1,500 fans on the scene yesterday but there likely was more than 1,000,000 fans throughout the West Texas area who saw Wharton's dramatic shot. Yesterday's finals were televised over three TV stations covering a huge area in this part of the state.

Record 909 Teams To Play Football

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor

The legions of Texas schoolboy football roll out Monday for a campaign that already has set a record and threatens more.

It will be the biggest high school race in history with 909 teams playing in six classes.

The bulk of the teams open practice Monday with 164 in Class AA, 191 in A, 226 in B and 153 in six-man football. These divisions play first games Sept. 6.

The top classes, AAAA and AAA, begin practice Aug. 30 with first games Sept. 13.

Two winning streaks will be on the line. Abilene, three times kingpin of AAAA, has won 37 straight and can set the all-time record if it wins its first 7 games. Stamford has 32 consecutive triumphs and is after its third straight AA crown.

Neither is a title favorite. Abilene is a district championship threat isn't expected to make it to a record fourth straight AAAA crown. Stamford lost 23 players from its first string, including Mike McClellan. The Bulldogs aren't even district favorites.

Abilene should have about as good a chance as anybody in its district. Coach Chuck Moser has a fair nucleus from his 1956 team plus a flock of boys who played in the 14-game schedule that led to the title. Gone are the touchdown twins, Glynn Gregory and Jimmy Carpenter.

Garland, defending champion of AAA, and Stinnett, king of A, are not strong favorites to repeat although given probably a better chance than Abilene and Stamford. Garland has 14 lettermen. Stinnett retains its starting line, losing all four regular backs.

Corpus Christi Ray, which lost to Abilene in the finals last fall, and Amarillo, seeking to recapture the glories of the 30s and early 40s, are considered major contenders for the AAAA state championship.

Andrews and Nederland are top-rated in AAA, with Graham and San Antonio Edison threats.

Lockney was the main talk in AA, Terrell, Gilmer, Marlin, Angleton, Giddings and Lockhart had their backers.

In A, the big teams are Stinnett, Farwell, Big Lake, Paducah, Wilmer-Hutchins, Mart, TomBall, Ganada and Bishop, without a really outstanding state championship favorite.

Young Iba Decides To Play For Papa

FORT WORTH (AP)—Basketball star Moe Iba has changed his mind about attending Texas Christian University and said he plans to enroll at Oklahoma State University.

His father, Hank Iba, is the famous basketball coach of the Oklahoma school.

Young Iba starred on the Stillwater, Okla., high school team.

He had signed a letter of intent to go to TCU, but Frog Coach Buster Brannon said he told him family ties were too strong for him to play for anyone other than his father.

Robin Loses Starter's Role

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Robin Roberts, veteran mainstay of the Philadelphia Phillies pitching staff has been dropped as a starting hurler by Manager Mayo Smith.

After yesterday's 7-3 loss to the Milwaukee Braves, in which Robbie gave up six hits, including two homers in 3 1-3 innings, Smith said he had decided to replace him in the pitching rotation.

"Don Cardwell and Jack Meyer will take his place," he said. "What else can I do?"

Roberts has been a great favorite with the fans since he joined the club in 1948.

He posted a 15-15 record his first full season and for the next six years straight was among the 20-game winners. Last season he missed it by a single victory but lost 18 over the route.

Yesterday's game was his 18th loss against 8 wins, one of the worst records in the majors.

Robbie has relied heavily upon his sizzling fast ball over the years and there is general agreement that the 30-year-old right-hander's loss of speed has been the major factor in his poor showing of late.

An excellent control pitcher, Roberts has also been plagued for some time by the "gopher ball," the home run pitch. This season he has given up 35 homers.

Chisox Aren't 'Dead' Yet

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

Those Chicago White Sox die so hard, who-knows? They might just manage to stay alive.

You can smile, pal, but don't laugh. After sweeping a pair from Baltimore 6-2 and 3-0, while New York lost a single game at Detroit 7-2 yesterday, the White Sox are only four games behind the Yankees in the American League chase.

Another Yankee loss at Detroit today, while the Sox are idle, and a Chicago sweep in a three-game series with New York opening at Comiskey Park tomorrow night would bring the Sox within three percentage points of the top.

All of which could upset the preseason dope, making it an all-the-way race in the AL while Milwaukee runs away with it in the National. The Braves grabbed a 7½-games lead again by defeating Philadelphia 7-2 as Brooklyn knocked off second-place St. Louis 6-5.

The New York Giants, pressing for the first division, clobbered Cincinnati 10-1. Chicago's Cubs, blanked 3-0 on four hits by Vern Law, bounced back with 16 hits in the nightcap at Pittsburgh for an 8-2 decision.

In the other AL games, Kansas City defeated Boston 3-2 and Cleveland swept Washington 3-2 and 6-4.

Don't knock the White Sox's chances. The Yankees are only 5-5 at Detroit, and have lost four of six on this final Western trip. At Chicago, the champs will pitch young Johnny Kucks, Tom Sturdivant and an ailing Bobby Shantz (if his injured finger is okay).

Against the Yankees, the White Sox have Jim Wilson, Billy Pierce and Dick Donovan ready—with Bob (No-Hit) Keegan the No. 1 relief man.

It was Keegan who helped get the sweep over the Orioles, throwing a three-hitter in the opener as a follow-up to Tuesday's no-hit job on Washington. The 35-year-old right-hander, now 9-6, walked none and retired the first 10 before Bob Boyd's triple and an infield out scored one in the fourth. Al Pilarcik homered in the fifth, but the Birds didn't get another hit until Billy Gardner singled in the seventh.

The Sox, scoring two first-inning runs without a hit and pocketing a pair of unearned runs in the second inning of the opener, were blanked on two hits by Bill Wight until the nightcap sixth. Then Sherm Lollar's two-run single and a wild pitch nailed it, Billy Fischer won his fifth.

Al Kaline had half Detroit's eight hits, including his 15th and 16th homers, both two-run shots. Bob Turley lost it while Billy Hoeft, who won 20 last season, gained a 6-8 record with an eight-hitter.

Yankee Mickey Mantle was 2-for-3, pushing within two points of Boston's Ted Williams, who was hitless as his bat average skidded to .378.

Bob Hazle whacked a pair of three-run homers for the Braves and also singled in three trips for a .526 average in 57 at bats. Warren Spahn also homered while winning his sixth in a row for a 16-8 record. Robin Roberts lost his 18th.

Sal Maglie trudged in from the bullpen and saved it for the Dodgers, fanning Ken Boyer on three pitches with the bases loaded and two runs home in the ninth. Don Drysdale won his 13th. Gil Hodges drove in three runs with his 21st homer and a double off loser Sam Jones.

Don Mueller had four hits, two of them home runs, for the Giants. Ruben Gomez won his 14th with a six-hitter, losing a shutout in the ninth when Ed Bailey cracked a home run.

Ex-Pirate Dale Long had three of the Cubs' hits off Law, who won his 10th, and lined three more in the nightcap. Moe Drabowsky fanned nine while losing the opener.

Braves Rookie Is Sparking Pennant Drive

By JOE REICHLER

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A discouraged minor league outfielder who decided to give baseball one more fling today is one of the big reasons why the Milwaukee Braves area leading the National League by 7½ games. He is Bob Hazle, currently the hottest hitter in the major leagues.

The youngster, who only a few months ago was contemplating quitting baseball because of a troublesome knee and an aggrieved batting average, is hitting a blazing .526. He started hitting practically the day he joined the Braves about a month ago and hasn't stopped. In 57 times at bat since his promotion from Wichita, where he failed to hit .300, he has accumulated 30 hits, including five home runs.

He smashed homers 5 and 6 yesterday and drove in six runs as the Braves defeated Robin Roberts and the Philadelphia Phillies 7-3 for their 14th victory in the last 18 games. During that stretch Hazle has driven in 21 runs. He also singled and walked yesterday for a perfect day at the plate.

"The kid can really rip the ball," said Andy Pafko, veteran outfielder who has been assigned to tutor Hazle. "Next to Henry Aaron he's got the strongest wrists I've ever seen. And he doesn't swing at too many bad balls either. That's rare for a youngsters."

The apple-cheeked 26-year-old Carolina youngster now making his home in Columbia has become a favorite among his teammates. Nicknamed "Hurricane" for rather obvious reasons, Hazle has provided the Braves with the left-handed punch it lost when Bill Bruton was forced out of the lineup with a damaged knee. Some of the Braves credit the lad with being the spark in their pennant drive.

Amateur Wins Texas PGA

LUBBOCK (AP)—The amateurs, particularly Frank Wharton of Dallas, had the glory and the professionals consoled themselves with the money today as the aftermath of the Texas PGA golf tournament.

Wharton, the University of Houston star, became the second amateur in three years to win the tournament yesterday. He sank a 130-yard approach shot on the eighteenth green for an eagle that gave him a 1-stroke edge over professional Earl Stewart Jr. of Dallas.

Wharton wound up with a par 72 on the final round for a 72-hole total of 280—eight under par. Stewart also shot a 72 and finished with 281, being the low pro and winning the $1,000 first money. Wharton got the Dr. Alden Coffey trophy.

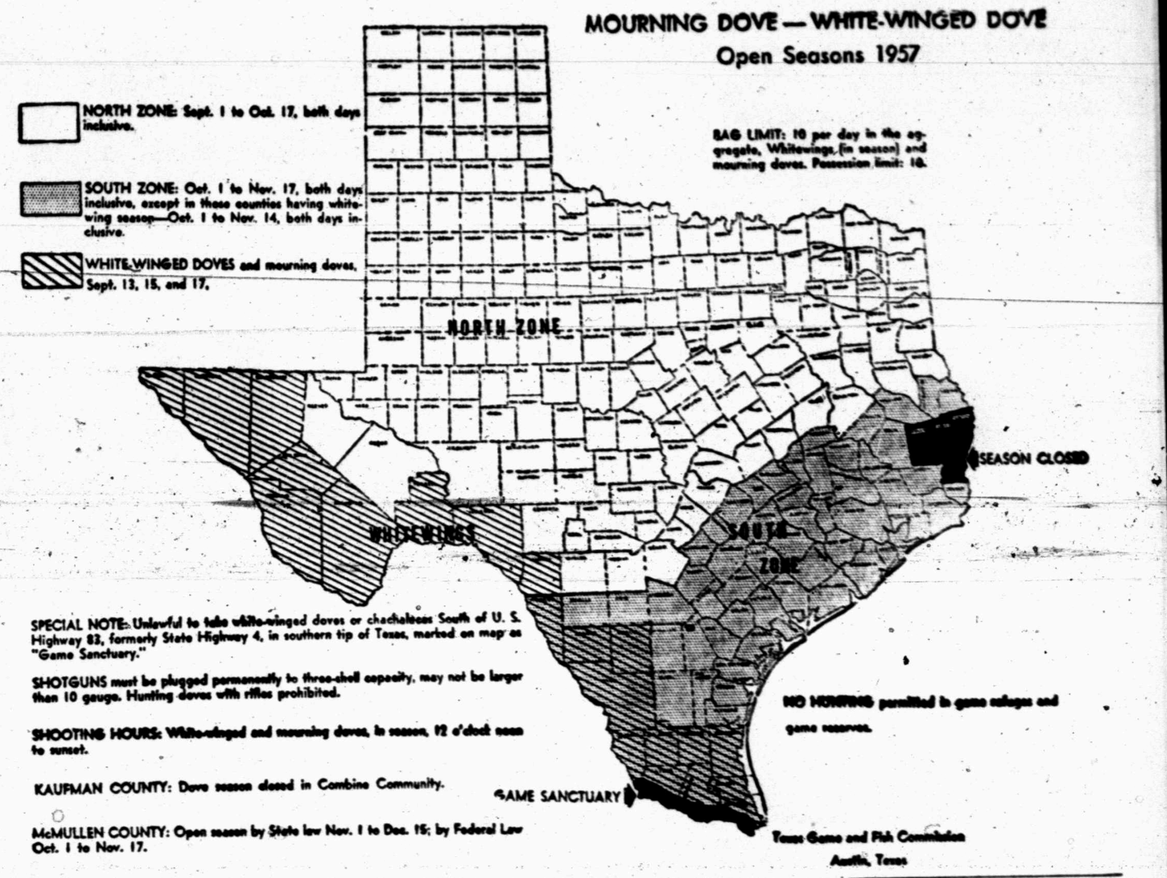

There were six amateurs among the top 16.

John Cain of Sweetwater, Bill Roden of Odessa and Marcelino Moreno of Midland shot 290 to tie for twelfth.

Byron Nelson of Roanoke and Ed Carpenter of San Antonio had 283 to tie for second among the professionals, each winning $500.

Tech Fencing Hosts

DENVER (AP)—Texas Tech College yesterday was announced by the National Collegiate Athletic Assn. as the site of next year's fencing finals for the organization. The meet will be held March 21-22.

Ken Venturi Pockets 6 G's

MILWAUKEE (AP)—For a golfer who maintains money is secondary, boyish looking Ken Ventiri of San Francisco is doing all right for himself.

The 26-year-old pro pocketed a $6,000 check yesterday for winning the $35,000 Milwaukee Open Golf Tournament by five strokes with a 13-under-par 267 at the 6,355-yard Tripoli Golf Club.

The victory, his second in a row in tournament play, catapulted him from 30th to 15th place on the PGA's money list with earnings of $14,211 in less than four months.

Venturi turned pro Nov. 28, 1956, but he didn't become eligible for money in PGA cosponsored events until May 28. During that six-month probationary period, he won $4,249 in non-PGA sponsored tournaments, plus about $1,000 in pro-am events. In the last nine months his winnings add up to around $20,000.

Giants, Bears Set For Dallas Clash

DALLAS (AP)—A crowd of better than 30,000 is expected Friday night when the New York Giants and Chicago Bears meet in a replay of their National Football League championship battle last winter.

Both squads fly in Wednesday and will be honored at a luncheon Thursday with Morris Frank, Houston Chronicle columnist and humorist, as toastmaster.

Dove Season Opens Next Sunday Noon

It's time to drag the shotgun from the corner in the closet and wipe off the lint. The 1957 shooting season will begin Sunday noon, Sept. 1, for mourning dove in the north zone, acording to the director of law enforcement of the Game & Fish Commission.

Thirty days later the season will open in the south zone.

The seasons extend: north zone, Sept. 1 to Oct. 17 inclusive; south zone, Oct. 1 to Nov. 17, inclusive.

The white wing season has been authorized for the Rio Grande Valley area for Sept. 13, 15, 17.

The dove bag limit is 10 per day, with 10 in possession.

Shooting is allowed from noon until sunset.

Under federal and state regulations all shotguns must be plugged to three-shell capacity. Shooting from vehicles or across the highways is prohibited.

The director issued warning to shooters to make arrangements with land owners for their hunts.

Three East Texas counties, Jasper, Tyler and Newton will have no open season. In a local bill, these counties were excluded from the general laws and a special season was set up. This special season is in conflict with the federal laws.

Reports from all over the state indicate the largest dove crop in years. It is estimated that some 600,000 whitewings will be available for the Valley hunt.

Mourning doves are plentiful now in every area. Unless there is a drastic change in weather conditions before Sept. 1, they are expected to remain in the local areas. Cooler weather or rain could change this condition. Water hole shooting also can be affected greatly, especially if heavy rains fill new water holes, providing too much water in various areas where food is available.

"Every safety precaution should be used," the director said. "Hunting season usually brings on several accidental-deaths, due entirely to carelessness."

He also warned that all persons between the ages of 17 and 65 need licenses when hunting outside their home counties. These licenses now are available from wardens and other authorized license dealers throughout the state.

2 Games Left In City Loop

Two more games reamin to be played in the 1957 City League race.

Sun Oil, who has already won the season title by capturing both the first and second half titles, will meet Snyder Furniture in tonight's game, starting at 8, at Towle Park.

The season will then end tomorrow with Hermleigh and the Blue Sox set to clash.

While Sun has already won the second half, the only thing remains to be settled is the runnerup spot. Hermleigh currently holds the No. 2 position with a 5-4 record. The Blue Sox, 4-5, can tie Hermleigh for second by beating the Hermleigh club tomorrow.

Following are the second half standings:

CITY LEAGUE

GRIDDERS ASKED TO REPORT EARLY FOR QB FEAST

All local footballers, from junior high on through high school, are asked to report at the Towle Park Pavilion at 6:30 p.m. tomorrow for the "watermelon supper" sponsored by the Snyder Quarterback Club.

The feast isn't scheduled to start until 7 p.m. but the coaches of each team would like to get the names of those present before the affair gets underway.

Fathers of all the footballers and other fans are invited to the watermelon feed. All persons wishing to join the Quarterback Club can do so at tomorrow's feast.

STAR AUTO SALVAGE IN NEW LOCATION—H. H. McDonald, owner, and Al Greenway, employe, of the Star Auto Salvage, are shown above in front of the firm's new location on the East Highway across from the Starlite Drive In Theater. The firm was formerly located three miles north of Snyder on the Lubbock Highway. (Lee Watson photograph)

Star Auto Salvage Is Moved To Location On East Highway

The Star Auto Salvage has just completed moving to a new location on the East Highway across from the Starlite Drive In Theater, and has added several lines of new automobile parts and acessories.

H. H. McDonald, owner, said that move to the new location was made to afford more convenience to his many customers and to give a parts service.

The new parts lines added by Star Auto Salvage include mufflers and tail pipes, electrical parts, generators and starters, hub caps and acessories of all types of all makes and models of cars.

One of the most popular new items being sold now by Star Auto Salvage is rubber white walls to beautify cars. On the whitewalls McDonald is offering a special getacquainted price of only $5.75 for a set of four from now through next month. Regular price of the whitewalls is $7.95 per set.

Another example of price saving made possibly by McDonald is new radio atennas for all cars for only $3.25 for the full-size 75-inch antenna.

"Many makes of new cars come equipped with two radio antennas now and two antennas are popular dress-up items on other cars," McDonald said.

The firm is also selling used sealed beam head light units for 75 cents each now.

One of the main features of the firm's new location is the parts bins provided in the new building which permits complete cataloging of all parts, both new and used, for quick acesibility to the customer.

"There is usually no waiting period while the part is being located on a salvage car in the lot then taken off the car," McDonald said.

McDonald said that Al Greenway, lone-time resident of Snyder, is now associated with the firm, and that continuous service will be offered to customers.

McDonald's residence is located adjacent to the firm and someone will be available at all times to serve customers. Star Auto Salvage's business telephone number is 3-6731, and the resident telephone is number 3-3658.

McDonald is attempting to sell his stock of late model used cars, and is offering extra high trade in on 1949, '50, and '51 model Ford and Chevrolet cars and trucks.

For money saving automobile parts service call or go by Star Auto Salvage's new location on the East Highway anytime day or nigh

Assembly Plant Is Swept By Big Fire

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Engineers today probed the Aero Design and Engineering Co.'s burned assembly plant to determine damage while company directors called a meeting to discuss future plans.

A fire of undetermined origin swept the main assembly building early yesterday, destroying the structure and seven Aero-Commander twin-engine planes.

President R. T. Amis Jr. estimated damage to the planes at more than half a million dollars. Building and other equipment losses were estimated by firemen at more than half a million.

The firm has built 15 planes for the government, including two for President Eisenhower, but has no contract now, Amis said.

He Almost Lowers Boom On Himself

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — A Hialeah man was charged with suspicion of malicious destruction of private property yesterday after he almost lowered the boom on himself.

Sgt. Stanley Hartles of the Dade County road patrol was told Strill Chadwick, 44, climbed into the cab of a crane, pulled the wrong lever and brought the boom crashing down on the cab roof.

It missed Chadwick by inches. The man also was charged with drunkenness and vagrancy.

She Wants To Keep Turtles

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—A woman who says she boards turtles for children whose parents object to the pets is protesting a zoning department order that she get rid of her 35 turtles.

"My turtles don't make noise," Mrs. Veronica Vladimiroff said. "They are clean and they don't smell. They aren't dangerous because they don't bite. I never keep snapping turtles.

"They aren't disease carriers. They don't wander because I keep them in my house or in my yard."

She's going to ask neighbors to sign a letter stating the turtles are not objectionable.

She said she has taken in many which have been found sick or injured, and added: "I can't give up my turtles. I love them and they need me."

Man Gives Jails In Georgia A Try

MACON, Ga. (AP)—A man who said he dislikes Florida jails was willing to give the Georgia variety a try, but was only partially successful.

Policeman Terry Etheridge said Jesse Carvers, 24, a Fitzgerald Negro, kicked in a Macon store window Saturday night. Etheridge said Carvers told him he hoped that the stunt would get him arrested and figured that if he was jailed in Georgia, he wouldn't be sent back to finish a life sentence for rape in Florida.

The man suffered a badly cut foot in breaking the window. After his release from a hospital he'll be lodged in jail at Macon but only until Florida authorities come after him.

Prison Padlock Sale

JACKSON, Mich. (AP) — A new item has gone on sale at the inmate store at Southern Michigan Prison: padlocks with two keys. The only catch—one key must be turned over to the guard.

New Office Of Jack & Jack Realty Is Being Remodeled

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. McClanahan, owners of Jack&Jack Realty, have announced the new location of their offices at 611 East Highway.

The firm completed its move from its old address of 1921 Twenty-sixth Street during the weekend, and a remodeling program is underway at the new office.

A complete remodeling has already been done inside the building, while a facelifting of the outside of the building is to start this week, including new plaster work and new sidewalks.

At the new location, there is plenty of parking space and no parking meters, McClanahan said. The office is located just east of the bend of the highway in east Snyder and on the north side of the street. It is easily accessibly either from the highway or from Twenty-fifth Street.

The firm had been at its old location near the square for about three years. Prior to that time, it was located on the East Highway about two blocks east of its present location.

The McClanahans have been in Snyder about eight years. McClanahan had been sucessful in the construction business in San Angelo and was in construction when he moved to Snyder. The McClanahans later purchased the realty firm and have been in real estate and building since that time.

McClanahan has been in the construction business since 1939. He began in road construction, and during World War II he worked with the Army Engineers supervising construction work, including roads, bridges, and buildings.

Later he went into building construction. At the present time, McClanahan has one GI house under construction on Forty-second Street and has plans in for approval for two FHA houses in the same area.

Jack & Jack Realty handles listings not only on homes built by McClanahan but for other homes in Snyder. McClanahan has numerous plans for the prospective home builder's choosing in two or three bedroom homes or larger.

Jack & Jack also has numerous rental listings for apartments, houses, and business locations.

Although rental units remain scarce most of the time in Snyder, vacancies in the Jack & Jack listings now include one three-bedroom furnished house and some three-room furnished apartments. The McClanahans own a number of rental units and handle a total of about 80 units here.

Included in Jack & Jack listings are several business locations various sizes in different parts of Snyder. Many of those locations are suitable for several types of businesses, either small or large.

Personnel in the Jack & Jack office include both the McClanahans and Mrs. Harry Newton.

IN DISPUTE

Negro Student Jailed

HENDERSON (AP)—A Negro ministerial student from Africa was hit with a blackjack, jailed several hours and fined $25 here as a result of an altercation with a policeman trying to make the student move to the rear of a bus.

The student, Essin Essin of Nigeria, West Africa, was released Saturday night, a few hours after the incident.

Roosevelt Sams, dean of Southwestern Christian College in Terrell, where Essin has been a theological student for a year, paid the fine and said he planned a full investigation.

City Judge Barto Giles levied the fine after Essin pleaded guilty to charges of disturbing the peace and resisting arrest. The 30-year-old Negro continued his journey from Terrell to Houston where he planned to visit friends. He could not be reached for comment.

Patrolman L. L. Boatright said he found Essin sitting in the middle of a Continental Trailways bus after the driver complained a Negro refused to move to the rear.

Boatright said when Essin told him, in a crisp British accent, that he had not understood the driver's order, he grabbed the student by the arm and escorted him to a rear seat.

He said Essin refused to sit down.

"When he reached into his coat pocket, I had to tap him with a slapjack," Boatright said. Essin later told the city judge he was reaching for his passport.

Boatright said he returned a short time later and found the student had moved back to the middle of the bus and took him to city hall.

H. O. Hooker, superintendent of Continental's Houston division, said he had no report of the incident and could not comment.

Reuther Plan Worth Study

By INEZ ROBB

While the economists, the labor experts and the moguls of management cautiously circle Walter P. Reuther's proposal to halt the wage-price spiral, old John Q. Public sits hopefully cheering on the sidelines.

Any suggestion that sounds as if it would turn the damper down on inflation is sweet music to the public's ears.

Is it hard for the innocent bystander to assess the true merits of the plan put forward by the president of the United Auto Workers. But Reuther's intimation that the union would temper its demands if auto makers would slash prices of 1958 cars by $100 per model has a siren sound to the likes of John Q. and me, who are punch drunk from battling inflation.

Since all the government seems willing or able to do about soaring prices is tamper with the rediscount rate, John Q. and I have about given up our belief in the law of gravity, i. e., that everything that goes up comes down. Inflation appears to have repealed Newton's law.

The last and most unlikely out, short of a miracle, seemed an agreement between management and labor to call a halt to the never-ending spiral of wage increases and higher prices. And let's don't quarrel now about whether the chicken or the egg came first. It's the effect John Q. and I want to unload.

For years there's been more talk about inflation that the weather, and less done about it. And now Reuther comes forward with a suggestion that will surely seem sensible to a vast numebr of Americans.

Whether the labor leader is sincere or grandstanding, whether there is a catch in his suggestion or a hidden ball trick to catch managemet, the expert will have to decide. But it is one woman's hunch that the experts had better take a long, earnest look and come up with sound, rather than off-the-cuff, opinions. For the suggestion that labor and management get together to do something about inflation is going to sound powerfully attractive to the public.

And the public isn't going to care who gets the credit for the first suggestion, management or labor. Old John Q. and his trick will dearly love both if the two of 'em can come up with a plan that is fair to the public and themselves. Inflation is the licensed theif that has robbed everyone of us for years and threatens to have an extended franchise to continue into the foreseeable future.

There are kudos aplenty for both management and labor if they will collaborate in a sensible program to put the lid on rising prices and wages. The public, helpless in the cross currents, will bestow adequate bouquets on both rescuers.

It has become trite to say that the worst sufferers from inflation are the old, the ill, the pensioners, those on fixed incomes and the white-collar worker. But it's nonetheless true and it hurts more and more all the time.

Our greatest internal enemy is inflation. If the auto manufacturers and their employes can get together and set an example for the rest of industry, they will be doing their nation—to say nothing of themselves—the greatest favor within their power.

Let's not fight about who gets the credit. Just rush up the oxygen tank and I for one, shall kiss both parties.

Elderly Texan Is Found In Mountains

SOCORRO, N.M. (AP)—An elderly Texan, object of a two-day search in rugged mountain country north of here, was found yesterday in good condition despite having suffered from exposure.

Herbert Dysart, 70, Plainview, said his rented car became stuck about 12 miles from his 20,000-acre ranch in a spot where recent rains had made roads impassable.

He said he once stopped a pick-up truck and offered the driver $50 to take him to Socorro. Dysart said the man declined, saying he had to go to work.

The elderly man had been sought since he failed to return to Albuquerque Friday after renting the car to drive to his ranch, 20 miles north of here in the Ladron mountains.

Siberians Told To Speed Up Harvest

MOSCOW (AP)—Pravda has called on farmers in Siberia to speed up the grain harvest.

The Communist party newspaper said yesterday only 8 to 16 per cent of the crops were in by Aug. 20 in some areas. It blamed late ripening of the crops and poor use of machinery.

Grain harvests Aug. 20 were 12,355,000 acres ahead of last year outside of Siberia, the paper reported.

Increased agricultural production is being pushed by Communist party boss Nikita Khrushchev.

Flu Strikes US Airmen

LONDON (AP)—An epidemic of suspected Asiatic flu has hit U.S. air bases in Britain. More than 500 American servicemen were reported in hospitals today.

The Air Force canceled a number of intercommand sports events and announced plans to fly an American devised antiflu vaccine here Oct. 1.

"All American military personnel in Britain, will be compulsorily vaccinated against Asiatic flu," an Air Force spokesman said. "The treatment will be voluntary for their families."

The spokesman said no quarantine restrictions had yet been placed on servicemen, pending positive identification of the disease.

Ten new cases among American airmen were reported in the London area over the weekend and 29 at the northern base of Burtonwood.

Kansas State Fire

MANHATTAN, Kan. (AP) — The worts fire in the history of Kansas State College destroyed East Waters Hall yesterday. The loss is expected to exceed 1½ million dollars. Dr. Glen Beck, director of the School of Agriculture, said the worst loss was 50 years of agronomy experiment records on the improvement of wheat, oats and other crops.

Official Reports On Asiatic Flu

WASHINGTON (AP) — Dr. Leroy E. Burney, U.S. surgeon genera, said today the presence of Asiatic flu in this country is not the start of germ warfare by the Communists.

"Is there any possibility that the Communists have planted these germs?" Burney was asked in a copyrighted interview in U.S. News & World Report, a weekly news magazine.

"No," he replied. "I don't believe that is a possibility. We have epidemics occasionally and have had them in the past."

"Could the entry of Asiatic flu into the United States have been prevented?" he was asked.

"No," Burney replied. "In the first place, there are many unapparent infections. In other words, you may have the influenza virus—carrying it around here now, and I couldn't detect it in you. That's No. 1.

"No. 2—There are about 1,800 people who disembark on the West Coast from the Pacific areas every day from planes, ships and otherwise. You can carry the virus and there's no way of detecting who has it and who doesn't have it."

Burney, asked whether he was quite certain the disease was going to come in epidemic proportions in this country, said: "Yes, on the basis of experiences with past epidemics and with its tremendous spread thus far throughout the world."

Burney estimated there are now 20,000 to 25,000 cases in the United States and that between 25 to 34 million persons ultimately may be affected.

"Would you say an individual should be alarmed about the outlook for Asiatic flu?" he was asked.

"No," Burney said. "As long as the virulence of the strain does not change—the disease does not become more severe—I think the individual does not have too much of a problem. I think the tremendous impact upon our community life and economy, by having a 15 to 20 per cent attack rate, is the important part.

Burney said the supply of vaccine is now relatively limited but that it is hoped enough vaccine for 60 million Americans will be available by Feb. 1.

Antiquated Laws

LUDINGTON, Mich. (AP) — The City Commission plans to meet soon to scrap such antiquated city laws as running across a bridge and speeding at more than six miles an hour on a bicycle. But one old 1874 law the commissioners probably will retain makes it illegal to plant a tree in the middle of the street.

Chinese Reject Newsmen's Entry

HONG KONG (AP)—Plans to send American newsmen into Communist China appeared stalemated today by a Peiping demand for reciprocal U.S. admission of Red Chinese reporters. The State Department promptly rejected the Communist demand.

Radio Peiping announced last night that the State Department's decision to allow 24 U.S. reporters to work in Red China for six months "is completely unacceptable to the Chinese people."

The Chinese government "expects Chinese correspondents to be given reciprocal treatment to go to America to report," the broadcast commentary from the official Peiping People's Daily said.

Secretary of State Dulles' announcement in Washington Thursday permitting American newsmen in Communist China for the first time in eight years said the United States "will not accord reciprocal visas to Chinese bearing passports issued by the Chinese Communist regime."

The broadcast said the State Department is trying to "send people into our country to search out opportunities to create trouble. . . . The wrecking activities of the U.S. government will come to nothing and will never to be tolerated by the people of China."

Eleven of the 24 Americans were waiting here for answers to visa applications. The Peiping broadcast did not say specifically no visas would be issued until the State Department changed its stand, but that appeared to be its implication.

A full text of the Peiping commentary was read by what veteran radio monitors said was obviously a young American's voice. Forty-one American youths are now in Red China as guests of the government, and 12 American Korean war turncoats also are still on the mainland.

MONEY FOR IMPROVEMENTS

TV Quiz Show Is Changing Routine Of Dairy Farmer

NORTH HEBRON, N. Y. (AP) — Harold Craig set out to win $500.

The 26-year-old dairy farmer has reached $84,000 in winnings on the NBC television quiz show Twenty-One and will be shooting for more tonight.

The money is earmarked for improvements on the 400-acre Craig farm in this tiny hamlet in upstate New York.

Craig and Charles Van Doren are the best known of the Twenty-One contestants.

Van Doren is the intellectual offspring of an intellectual family. He holds college and university degrees and as a college professor who life remains steeped in education.

Craig is the son and grandson of farmers. He went to high school, spent a few months in a teachers college and returned to the farm. He works a 13-hour day that begins at 6 a.m., when he rounds up 43 cows and herds them into the barn for milking. It ends when he cleans the barn after a second milking at night.

In between, he feeds and cares for calves and—depending upon the time of year—cuts and stores hay, plants and harvests corn and oats, mends fences, clears land, and does other duties he calls chores.

Each Monday morning for the past 10 weeks, Craig's life has undergone a sharp transition.

When the early chores are done, he changes to a business suit, packs a bag, drives to the nearby city of Glens Falls and boards a plane for New York City. There, he emerges as the current star of a major TV production.

Craig's most distinguishing marks as a TV personality are his rural twang, an almost shy smile and the manner in which he methodically — and aloud — works out his answers to questions.

Viewers watching the farm boy compete with urbane, well-educated participants attach a David-and-Goliath aura to the show.

Craig began the quiz venture by applying to a daytime TV show produced by the same organization.

When he wrote, he says, he hoped to make $500. He won a wristwatch.

But he made an impression—his occupation helped—and he was asked to take qualifying tests for Twenty-One.

Craig says he has built up his store of knowledge through reading and an especially good memory. "I don't cram," he says. "I just began heavy reading 10 to 15 years ago and have kept it up."

His reading is mostly history. (the latest was on the important documents and conferences of modern Europe) and literature.

It includes newspapers and magazines. He admits to being weak in sports and technical subjects.

He reads during lunchtime, when the day's work is done and on rainy days. A radio in the barn is kept tuned to a classical-music station. Hence he is knowledged in that field.

Craig, who says he can remember things that happened to him when he was 2 or 3 years old, lives with his parents. A brother and sister are married and in their own homes. A second sister is finishing a two-year tour in the Women's Army Corps.

Harold's social activities consist mostly of an occasional date for square dancing ("I'm getting a little too old for it now") or a drive-in movie. He doesn't smoke and has only an occasional social drink.

He says there is no special girl in his life, has no plans toward marriage and won't be doing any thinking along that line as long as he is on TV. ("I'm going to wait until the dust settles.")

Craig says that his prime goal as the money and fame increase is to "stay natural."

"But sometimes," he adds, "you get wore a little thin."

He says that he intends to remain in farming—on the same farm—for the rest of his life. But he does not eliminate the possibility of a "very short-term" business venture as the result of his TV fame if an opportunity should arise.

13 Are Killed In Traffic Mishaps

By The Associated Press

Traffic killed 13 persons and weekend violence claimed a total of 21 lives in Texas.

Deaths included:

Victor Ozuna, 16, was killed and four other youths were injured when their car overturned Sunday near Premont.

Sidney Darden, 35, was burned to death in an apartment fire in Austin Sunday. Ida Porter, 46, was charged with murder by arson.

Hector Benet, 28, was fatally stabbed Sunday in Corpus Christi.

Oliver Lovelady Jr., 31, Mesquite, was fatally shot in a tavern in Dallas Sunday.

Mrs. Lena McGowen, 41, Coldspring, was killed Sunday when her car collided with another five miles west of Shepherd on Highway 150. Two others were injured.

Russell Sparks, 46, Abilene, was fatally injured Sunday when his car crashed into the side of a bridge and plunged into a ravine south of Abilene.

Donald Drake, 16, DeKalb, was killed when the car in which he was riding overturned eight miles south of Texarkana.

Dianne Burch, 5, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Burch of Evadale, was missing Sunday and feared to have drowned while on a family picnic on a river sandbar six miles east of Silsbee.

Mrs. Mary Walley, 40, and a daughter, Ann, 12, of Fort Worth, were killed in the head-on crash of two cars late Saturday night. Four other persons were injured. The collision occurred near Kennedale on the southeast edge of Fort Worth.

Another head-on collision 6 miles east of George West resulted in the death of Mrs. Melvin Bourg, 55, of Houma, La.

Two men, identified as Steve Caufield, 50, and Mark Brown, 60, both Negroes, drowned in the Brazos River near Waco Saturday night.

High-Living Fugitive Due For Questioning

DALLAS (AP)—A high-living Florida fugitive was due to be questioned again today in an effort to solve a string of automobile thefts.

Harry Langham, 29, was whiling away his time in a cell, rather than the plush hotel room he occupied when he was seized Saturday.

Langham escaped from a Florida road gang July 6 while serving a sentence for car thefts. His high spending and tips prompted the police investigation here.

His arrest led to recovery of a stack of Oklahoma automobile registration and title forms which Langham admitted stealing from the El Reno tax office two weeks ago.

Three Young Men Die In Accident

ST. MARTINVILLE, La. (AP)—A traffic accident in nearby Parks killed three young men yesterday, including two Texans.

The dead were identified as Charles Handlin, 26, of Beaumont, Ivan Landry, 24, of Sunset, La.; and Carol Landry, 26, of Beaumont.

Officers said their car smashed into a culvert on Highway 31. Ivan and Carol Landry were brothers, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Ashley Landry of Grand Coteau, La.
