More Twisters Predicted

By The Associated Press

More tornadoes were predicted Wednesday in the west and north central sections of weather-besieged Texas, and a small funnel cloud moving northward was sighted near Orange Grove, about 40 miles off the coast northwest of Corpus Christi.

Official forecasters issued a special advisory that severe thunderstorms and tornadoes were indicated between 2 and 9 p.m. (ST) in an area extending from the Panhandle and South Plains into western Oklahoma.

The Corpus Christi Bureau reported the small funnel was spotted near Orange Grove at 9:35 a. m. No damage was reported.

Word of damage also was lacking after two other funnel clouds were reported Tuesday night in the air at Knippa and 45 minutes later on the ground between Knippa and Sabinal, both near Uvalde in southwest Texas.

Tornado warnings flew on the heels of a flash flood Tuesday night in low sections of Hondo in South Texas. Gathering clouds carried a promise of scattered thunderstorms over most of the state.

The Weather Bureau predicted violent thunderstorms and tornadoes in an area bounded by a line through Amarillo, Tex., to Ponca City and Ardmore, Okla., to 50 miles south and 50 miles west of Midland, Tex., thence back to Amarillo.

It was the 28th straight day of weather devastation somewhere in Texas.

High water threats ebbed elsewhere and Lampasas struggled out of the debris of its 5-million-dollar flash flood which occurred Sunday night.

The Hondo storm dumped 1.35 inches of rain to send water surging waist deep over 10 square blocks. It drove more than 100 persons from their homes. They spent the night at the courthouse.

Only Encinal, farther south near Laredo, reported other appreciable rain during the night. It measured 1.65 inches.

Forecasters said a weak cool front was moving into the Panhandle, and a low pressure center to the northwest was expected to set up a southerly wind circulation. They foresaw a possibility this might pull more moist air inland from the Gulf.

Gov. Price Daniel Tuesday joined in offering whatever state aid could be arranged after a personal inspection of the flood destruction at Lampasas in Central Texas.

Disasters like this should hasten legislative action on a pending water conservation program, he declared.

"Let's build those dams to help prevent things like this," Daniel said.

"A Lampasas office was established by the Small Business Administration. It will handle government loans which Publisher Ward Lowe of the Lampasas Dispatch said will be "our only salvation."

Fifty blocks were still roped off there and tropps kept guard in the section where 10 feet of water rolled through a broken levee and smashed homes and business places Sunday night.

The body of L. K. Gunderland, about 70, was found below the recreation park he operated outside Lampasas, confirming a death toll of five.

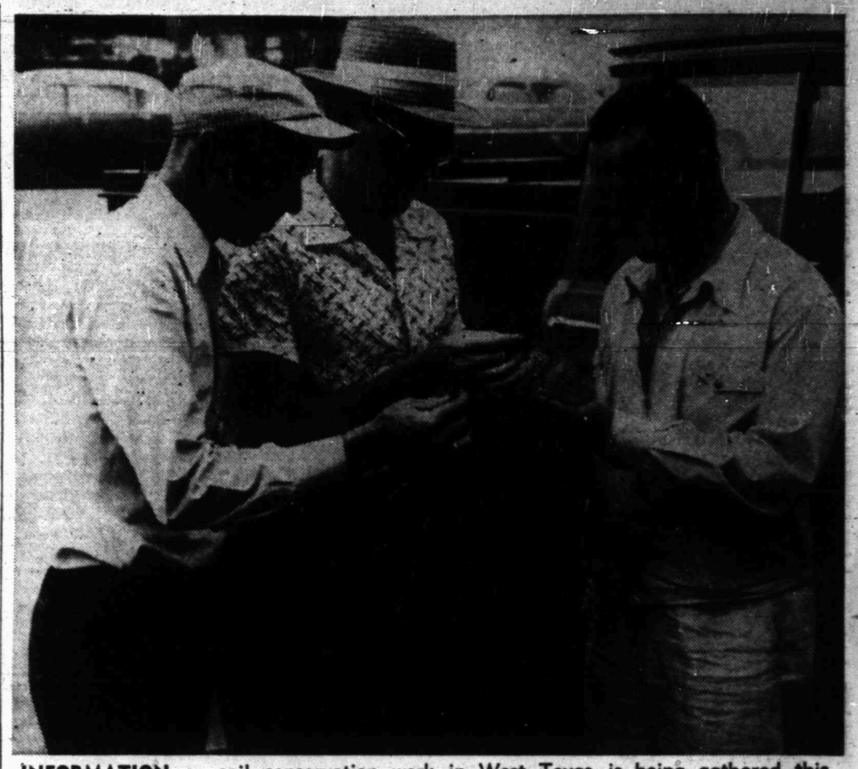

Care for 300 Lampasas residents was provided by the Red Cross and Salvation Army. Merchants were reclaiming goods from a salvage heap on a downtown lot. Wreckage was cleared by Army equipment.

Another disaster area, Tom Green County, was designated Tuesday. This permits applications for 3 per cent loans by owners of businesses damaged by San Angelo and Christoval floods.

While flood waters subsided at Abilene, the outflow of Lake Fort Phantom Hill north of San Angelo still carried a threat on the Clear Fork of the Brazos downstream. As a precaution, some homes were vacated at the town of Nugent.

Farther downriver at Waco, the Brazos had receded, removing a threat of surface floods from storm sewers in low areas.

At Dallas, most of 900 persons routed Monday from homes along the Trinity were able to return as that stream also dropped.

INFORMATION on soil conservation work in West Texas is being gathered this spring by Hilnon G. C. Leite, who is employed by an agency much like the Texas Extension Service for the Brazilian government. Leite is spending this week going through the regular routine in the Upper Colorado Soil Conservation District with technicians of the Soil Conservation Service. Recently graduated from Escola National de Agronomia in Brazil, he has been with the agricultural agency there about three months. His area covers four counties. Leite is shown here with two SCS men, Eldon Perry, left, and Ernest Gowdy, center. (Lee Watson photograph).

FOR SPECIAL WEEK

Guard To Hold Open House

An open house program in connection with Armed Forces Week will be held by the Snyder National Guard unit tomorrow.

Lt. John T. Lynch, Jr., commander of the unit, said the open house will begin at 4:40 p.m. At that time, all the unit's equipment will be on display.

Beginning at 7 p.m., members of the unit will begin demonstrations of the equipment. The equipment includes the track vehicles like the M-41 tank and the armored personnel carrier; weapons including the new infra-red sniper rifle, which can be used at night for the sniper to see his target up to 150 yards away; training aids equipment, and radios.

There will be jeep rides for children from 7 to 9 p.m., Lynch said.

Also to be on display at the armory, which is located near Deep Creek on Twenty-seventh Street, will be the floorplan for the new National Guard armory to be constructed here soon. Jay Tate of Snyder, who had the low bid on the armory, is now signing the cantract, which must be sent back to Austin and forwarded to Washington for the work order. Building is expected to begin early in June, and Tate has estimated 140 work days to complete the project, which will be in Towle Memorial Park just west of the stock barn.

The National Guard unit here has 110 men.

Coffee and Cokes will be served from 7 to 9 p.m. at the open house.

Soil Bank Is Under Attack

WASHINGTON (AP)—A move developed in the House today to kill the administration's billion dollar a year farm soil bank program after this year.

As the House began voting on already-trimmed Agriculture Department money requests for 1958, Rep. Harrison (D-Va) said he will seek a "temporary injunction" against further spending for farm soil bank subsidies after 1957.

He said his "injunction" would take the form of an amendment he plans to offer to the agriculture appropriations bill now before the House. Harrison's move apparently had considerable House

He said the House Appropriations Committee's sharp criticism of the soil bank plan's results requires a reappraisal of the entire program.

State Poet Laureate Named By Committe

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—Mrs. Margaret Royalty Edwards of Waco yesterday was named poet laureate of Texas.

Dating Dispute Erupts

BONHAM, Tex. (AP)—A near brawl between some 75 youths over who had dating privileges with girls in nearby Celeste resulted in fines for 31 of the boys.

Fanning County Attorney Tibby Wright said yesterday 36 boys from Bonham were among the youths engaged in the argument broken up Monday night by peace officers from two counties. He said all but five of the youths were over 17 and drew fines of $21 each for disturbing the peace. The other five were to appear in juvenile court, he said.

He said the boys were brought to Bonham under an agreement with Hunt County officers. Thirty or forty other youths were given a stiff lecture yesterday by officials in Greenville.

Some of the youths were reported armed with clubs and rubber hoses.

The Sherman Democrat said the dispute between the teenage factions—Hunt County versus Fannin County—started last Thursday night when four Fannin County youths were chased out of Celeste for dating teenage girls there.

Wright said someone tipped sheriff's officers that the fight was scheduled and officers arrived before any blows were struck. A crowd had gathered on the sidewalks of Celeste to watch the brawl.

Snyder Boy Hit By Car

Tommy Wadleigh, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Leroy Wadleigh, 3305 Fortieth Street, suffered a fractured leg and bruises when he was hit by a car about 6:45 p.m. Tuesday.

City police said the child, who was riding his tricycle, was hit by a car driven by Mike Dunlap Nail. The accident occurred at the intersection of Fortieth and Forty-second Streets.

The child was carried to Cogdell Memorial Hospital in a Bolger ambulance. His injuries were not listed as serious, and he was scheduled to be released from the hospital today.

Amendment Is Sought By State Legislature

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—The state Senate has declared that at no time has Texas "delegated to the federal government its right to regulate the conservation and production of the natural resources of this state."

A resolution was passed yesterday urging that an amendment to the U.S. Constitution be passed granting the states the right "to conserve and regulate the exploration, production and distribution of petroleum products, water, sulphur, minerals and natural resources."

Sen. Frank Owen Jr., of El Paso offered the resolution. It called on the other states to aid in passage of the amendment.

Wreckage Is Found

BUENOS AIRES (AP)—Wreckage of a missing Argentine airliner was found last night scattered across a rugged mountainside in the Andes. The 10 passengers and five crew members, all believed to be Argentines, died in the crash.

New Filibuster Ends After Eleven Hours

AUSTIN (AP)—Sen. Henry Gonzalez of San Antonio gave up his second stubborn battle against a segregation measure today.

Gonzalez yielded the floor at 4:47 a.m. and wearily took his seat after filibustering almost 11 hours against a bill sponsored by Sen. Wardlow Lane of Center that would give school boards the power to call local option elections to determine whether their district's schools shall segregate Negroes and whites, or integrate them.

Sen. Lane immediately began a new explanation of the bill while sergeants-at-arms started rounding up absent senators to obtain a quorum. Only four senators were present when Sen. Gonzalez collapsed in his big leather chair.

He quoted the philosopher Aristotle during his long battle to block or delay the measure.

Gonzalez yielded the floor after a whispered conference with Sen. Abraham Kazen Jr. of Laredo, his principal assistant in the battle against nine segregation measures already passed by the House.

The pair two weeks ago staged a record-breaking 36-hour filibuster against another segregation measure which later was passed by the Senate.

Kazen told newsmen that he and Gonzalez decided they could not continue the filibuster until Thursday midnight as they had planned but he felt they had won at least a partial victory.

"We have served notice on the Senate that we will fight these House bills," Kazen said.

"I don't believe after this, the backers of the segregation bills will have enough votes to bring them up for debate."

Kazen said if any of the remaining seven segregation bills come up in this session of the Legislature, already running a week overtime, he and Gonzalez planned similar delaying actions.

He said they felt they may have stalled action on the other bills.

"I don't know but at least I hope that is what we have accomplished," Kazen said. "We have been able to give these bills the full discussions in public which they demanded.

If Gonzalez and Kazen had been able to carry on the filibuster until midnight Thursday, the Senate rules would have prohibited a vote on the local option measure on Friday. Wednesday and Thursday are days set aside for consideration of House bills and Friday is a Senate bill day.

During his long talkathon, Gonzalez quoted the Philosopher Aristotle.

Board Delays Final Action On School Insurance Plan

The Snyder school board last night delayed action on proposals for school employe insurance made by several companies through a committee of the Classroom Teachers Association.

The board, which the day before gave tentative approval to an insurance program for employes, was presented proposals of the companies by a committee composed of J. C. Jackson, chariman, W. A. Mayfield, Frank Miller, and Homer Morris.

After long discussion of the proposals, the board decided to delay action until more proposals could be taken.

The proposals submitted were for hospitalization insurance and $5,000 life insurance as companion policies under a group plan. The board, in asking for further study, said it would like the proposals made in such a way that it could accept either one or both plans.

Proposals must be submitted by local agents of insurance companies.

At last night's meeting, the board heard reports from Melvin Montgomery, school instrumental music director, Mrs. Elmo Crowder, and Mrs. Myron Roe on the recent tour of the high school stage band in Central Texas, and Bob Clinton, director of choral music on the recent tour of the a capella choir on the Plains and in the Panhandle.

Fred Buford of Dallas, architect for the schools on the high school addition project at the Abraham Lincoln School, reported on progress being made there by the contractor, T. E. Shelburne & Son, on the new wing of the building. Buford said the project will probably be completed two weeks ahead of schedule. Scheduled completion date is Aug. 15.

The board voted to send a letter of thanks to the West Texas State Bank for its recent gift of a television camera. The bank had purchased the camera for use in checking handwriting at the drive-in window, but the particular make of camera was not designed for close picture detail, and it was offered by the bank to the high school science department, which is now using television equipment in a staff utilization project.

The board voted to allow $600 for summer recreation of children designated for the Boys Club to hire a summer aide for the club's director.

Herman Trigg, now junior high principal, will be principal at Central Elementary School next school year.

Joel Griffin, now Central Elementary principal, will be principal at West Elementary.

Silas Devenport, now West Elementary principal, will be principal at Northeast Elementary School. Joe Glass, who is principal there now, will be a classroom teacher at the junior high school.

Pat Falls, now principal at the North Elementary Schools, was recently appointed school director of curriculum and instruction succeeding Frank Wilson, who resigned to become superintendent of the Colorado City schools.

WRONG MAN KNIFED — City detectives hold Judith Morgan, 50, for questioning in the knifing of a salesman as he left his downtown New York apartment house for work. Police said the Morgan woman mistook the victim for Federal Judge Edward Weinfeld, who lives in the same apartment building. They said the woman once sued New York City and four psychiatrists for $1,500,000 damages and Judge Weinfeld dismissed the suit.

Eisenhower Warns Against New Cuts

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower said today that if Congress trifles with defense spending the country is going to be in trouble.

Eisenhower made the statement at a news conference in commenting on reports that a House Appropriations subcommittee has decided tentatively to cut the Defense Department's request for new appropriations by 2½ billion dollars.

Eisenhower said he believes the department has taken the position that new defense appropriations could be cut about a half billion dollars.

But he went on to say that if the House subcommittee goes beyond that point and makes an additional honest cut of two billion dollars, he wants to see just how it is done.

Eisenhower said he has been around Washington a good many years. Then he added that if we are going to trifle with defense spending, we are going to be in trouble.

He said that if such cuts as reported are possible, he is going to have to be educated all over again.

A good part of Eisenhower's news conference was devoted to a discussion of the administration's $71,800,000,000 spending budget, and Eisenhower's defense of that program in a nationwide television -radio address last night.

Eisenhower, wearing a brown suit with a white shirt and brown figured tie, also discussed these other matters:

POLITICS — Eisenhower said he believes he is growing more conservative so far as his political philosophy is concerned.

He made that remark with a smile when a newsman told him some Republicans believe he has been moving somewhat to the left.

Far from it, Eisenhower said. He went on to say he is absolutely against trifling with the nation's financial integrity, for example.

MODERN REPUBLICANISM — Reminded that he interpreted his re-election last November as a victory for Modern Republicanism and as a mandate from the people in support of his program, Eisenhower said he believes that as the general public is informed regarding his objectives they probably will support that for which they vote.

A reporter had asked Eisenhower for an appraisal of how his program of modern republicanism is faring—and whether he feels the will of the people is being flouted in Congress.

ISRAEL — Eisenhower said he sees no objection to Israel's sending a ship through the Suez Canal as a peaceful test.

He added that on the other hand any use of force in such a test woul be reprehensible.

DISARMAMENT — The whole matter of Russia's limited "open skies" disarmament proposal is still under earnest study, Eisenhower said.

Where the study will end up he said he couldn't possibly predict.

Commission Chief Named

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Marshall Formby of Plainview has been selected by Gov. Price Daniel to head the State Highway Commission.

Formby, a member of the three-man commission, succeeds Brady Gentry of Tyler, former U.S. representative who also had served several years ago as chairman of the commission.

Daniel yesterday named Charles F. Hawn of Athens to the commission. Hawn, past president of the East Texas Chamber of Commerce and chairman of its highway committee, has been in the lumber business.

Gentry advised the governor that personal and business developments had made it impossible for him to serve.

Was It Borrowed Or Stolen?

WASHINGTON (AP) — An insurance official testified today Dave Beck did not list loans of $300,000-plus from the Teamsters Union when making a financial statement in 1951.

Robert F. Kennedy, counsel to the Senate Rackets Investigating Committee, commented: "It would therefore appear that the money was stolen rather than borrowed."

Kennedy referred to statements Beck, the Teamsters Union president, has made to the effect that he borrowed several hundred thousand dollars from the union interest free.

The Senate committee contends its evidence indicates Beck misused at least $320,000 of union funds. It has advanced the suggestion that Beck decided to call this money loans after income tax agents began investigating his tax returns.

A. M. Burke, a vice president of the Occidental Life Insurance Co. of California testified that he returned the 1951 financial statement to Beck in 1953 or in 1954. He said this was before Beck had paid off a $273,000 personal loan from the insurance company on a note signed by Beck and Mrs. Beck.

Burke said the statement was returned at Beck's request.

Burke related that the company had required the financial statement when it made the loan in 1951.

He identified a memorandum he had written for his files in which he said Beck, in the financial statement, had listed assets of $1,052,715 and liabilities of 234,000, representing a loan he had obtained from the Security First National Bank of Seattle.

The memorandum said that in the statement Beck had declined to give a statement of "salary and benefits."

Burke testified that Beck telephoned him one afternoon just five minutes before the Occidental office was to close for the day, and asked for return of the statement.

"He said it was very imperative that he had it that night," Burke said.

He said he mailed it to Beck that evening, without making a a copy of the document for the files.

"The financial statement had served its purpose," Burke said, when asked why he didn't make a copy.

Flood Fund Is Added To Money Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)— The Senate Appropriations Committee today voted to add funds for a flood insurance program and minerals subsidies to a house money bill, increasing it by 62 million dollars.

The committee raised the total in the measure to 142 million dollars as compared with about 80 millions as it passed the House. This reversed the pattern the committee had set in acting on three previous bills, when it held to the House figures or cut below them.

The committee voted to grant 14 millions of the 50 asked by President Eisenhower to make a start on a government flood insurance program authorized by Congress last year.

It also assured another tussle with the House by recommending the full 30 million dollars originally asked by Eisenhower to continue a strategic minerals buying program. Most of this is for tungsten.

The House steadfastly refused to grant a penny of this in a bill earlier this session.

It had appeared prior to the committee action that the Senate—in past years traditionally more liberal on appropriations bills than the House—was out to reverse that trend this year.

Ready for floor action today was a money bill carrying $102,564,509 less than Eisenhower recommended and $714,500 under the amount voted by the House.

Weeping In Court Is Understandable

NEWARK, N. J. (AP) — A city magistrate and five persons in his court wept when two men appeared, charged with possession of a dangerous weapon.

The tearful scene took place when Chief Magistrate Nicholas Castellano examined the weapon. It was a small tear-gas "pencil," and the judge accidentally discharged it.

HE WINS OUT IN THE LONG STRETCH

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (AP) — William B. McClaran had to do a long stretch before he was accepted on the police force.

The 21-year-old candidate led 20 applicants in the written tests but was rejected because he was a quarter-inch under the 5-foot-10 minimum height.

He said he exercised at a health clinic to stretch his vertebrae, had his sister and brother-in-law stretch him on a homemade rack and hung from an overhead pipe with weight tied to his waist.

He made the minimum height after two days of exercising.

Salesman Has Trouble In Opening Car Door

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP) — Mrs. Buna Pfeifer decided to trade her car in on a later model. An overeager salesman showed her several cars. None pleased her. As she was about to leave he said he had just remembered a 1949 auto that had been turned in and was parked on the street.

The salesman got a ring of keys, went to the curb and began to point out the good features of the car. But none of his keys would open the car door. He execused himself and went to the office.

Mrs. Pfeifer unlocked the car, got in and drove away.

Why not? It was hers.

Manager Of Courts Released On Bond

Robert Joseph Gockerill, operator of the Cabin Courts here, who was charged this week with illegal transportation of whisky and beer in a dry area, is now out of jail on $250 bond.

Cockerill was arrested by the sheriff's department on the Big Spring highway during the weekend.

He also has a charge of illegal possession of intoxicants pending here.

Integration Report For Dallas Slated

DALLAS (AP)—School Supt. W. T. White said yesterday the "most significant" report on the problems of integration yet released by Dallas school officials would be given next week.

He said it "deals most intimately with the problems...as related to families."

The report will be presented at a school board meeting May 22.

Appropriation Bill Stalled In Legislature

AUSTIN (AP)—The major appropriations bill remained stalled today amid wrangling school teachers and segregationists as the time for its argument came and went.

Rep. Max Smith, vice chairman of the House-Senate conference committee that turned out the spending bill, said this morning the crucial measure likely would not be debated until tomorrow.

"However, we have hopes it might be possible to lay it out this afternoon," he said, pointing out that school teachers were still dissatisfied over the effect the bill would have on their pay raises.

Vital measures in the Senate that affect both the appropriations bill and the teachers pay raises were delayed by a filibuster on the House-passed segregation bills.

The House met early today and worked for almost two hours on a long list of local and uncontested calendar before going into its regular session.

The senators slept off their filibuster weariness and did not meet until 2:30 p.m.

Jack Webb Granted Divorce Yesterday

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Jack Webb, 36, star of the television show Dragnet, was granted a divorce decree yesterday after he testified his marriage to actress Dorothy Towne had been "extremely tenuous" and marked by three separations in the last two years.

He said the 26-year-old actress "seemed to want more social activity than my business could possibly afford."

The couple married Jan. 11, 1955, in Chicago.

Webb previously was married to actress-singer Julie London. She divorced him in 1953.

Visiting Teachers To Be Added Here

Two more visiting teachers will be added to the Snyder school professional staff next year.

The Snyder school board, after hearing extensive reports at its meeting last night on work of visiting teachers and their case loads, voted to add the two.

Making the report to the board were Miss Ila Fern Warren, visiting teacher employed by the state and on loan to the Snyder schools, Harry Itzkow, visiting teacher employed by the Snyder schools, and Pat Falls, who will be director of curriculum and instruction next year.

The visiting teacher gives aid to the child who has problems in school because of emotional, social, or other difficulties. He works with the student and with his family to help the child iron out the difficulties so his school work will not be affected and he can measure up to his full potential.

The report showed that at least 150 children have been discussed in team meetings in the various schools. The majority of those have received direct service, while others have had various forms of help. Principals have noted that there are many children needing help but who are not referred for various reasons.

Referrals of students in the past have been 47 in 1954-55, 61 in 1955-56, and 46 by May 1 this school year. Since some children are referred late in the school year and some need to be seen longer than one school year, they are carried over for service into following years.

There will be at least 56 children needing visiting teacher help next September, and there will be from 45 to 60 new referrals made from September through June. This would involve a minimum of 101 students.

The state is putting Miss Warren on a half-time basis next school year, with half her time to be spent in special report work for the state and half for the Snyder schools. Itzkow and the two new visiting teachers will be used to carry most of the case load.

Radar Report Loses To Driver's Record

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—A police radar report lost out to a trucker's tacograph in Traffic Court.

Judge James Demopolis favored the tacograph record that showed truck driver Charles Ray Dyer, 20, was not speeding. A tacograph is a gadget attached to vehicles that records speed and time.

Demopolis said the radar check showed that Dyer was traveling 45 m.p.h. in a 30 m.p.h. zone could have been wrong and dismissed the speeding charge.

Negro Woman Named P-TA Unit President

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A Negro woman who has taught in the public school system for nearly 35 years today becomes the president of the Philadelphia Teachers Assn., the first of her race to hold the office.

She is Mrs. Edna Westberry Griffin, a sixth grade teacher who holds degrees from the University of Pennsylvania and, Columbia. She was chosen through balloting at the city's 243 public schools. Two other candidates ran against her.

George Meany Meets With Union Group

WASHINGTON (AP)—Dave Beck's Teamsters Union colleagues held a private huddle today with AFL-CIO President George Meany on the union's problems stemming from corruption charges, but shed no light on the dsicussion.

A five-man delegation of Teamsters vice presidents — without Beck — held an hour's closed session with Meany and AFL-CIO Schnitzler in Meany's office.

Meany left by a side door and aides said he would have no comment. Einar O. Mohn, Teamsters administrative vice president who headed the truck union's delegation, emerged with an unenlightening prepared statement.

"We had a very pleasant meeting and discussed general problems as they affect the Teamsters organization," it said.

It was believed likely that Meany broached to the Teamsters leaders the AFL-CIO terms for a corruption cleanup by the union to avoid threatened ouster from the federation.

Mohn, sticking to his prepared statement, declined to say whether the mounting accusations against Teamsters President Beck had come up.

The Teamsters-Meany meeting came amid reports from a number of sources that moves may be under way within the Teamsters organization to get the 62-year-old Beck to step aside as head of his union.

Mohn was asked whether the five-man Teamsters group, which had been originally named to help Beck on AFL-CIO charges against him, would accompany Beck to a hearing Monday before the AFL-CIO Ethical Practices Committee. The committee is to consider whether to continue Beck's present suspensi9n as an AFL-CIO officer.

"No" Mohn replied "that's an individual matter."

Reporters took this to mean that the Teamsters Union does not now intend to try to undertake to defend Beck against AFL-CIO charges that he has brought the labor movement into disrepute.

Peruvian Singer Gets Divorce By Default

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) — Peruvian singer Yma Sumac, 35, won a divorce by default from composer Moises Vivanco yesterday after testifying he subjected her to repeated verbal abuse.

The interlocutory decree ended a marriage that lasted 14 years and recently produced one of Hollywood's most spirited brawls.

A property settlement provides that the 38-year-old Vivanco will continue as Miss Sumac's manager and will receive 50 per cent of her earnings for his services. He will pay $200 a month for support of the couple's 8-year-old son Charles, who will be in his mother's care.

Man Is Shot In Rioting

MATAMOROS, Mex. (AP)—One man was shot in the leg and scores of persons were stranded yesterday as demonstrators blocked traffic on both international bridges connecting this border city with Brownsville, Tex.

Hundreds of demonstrators and automobiles clogged the bridges shortly after 8 a.m. in what officials called a demonstration against a recent tightening of restrictions on the import of foreign cars.

The demonstration broke up after Mayor Augusto Cardenas Montemayor went to the bridges to make a direct appeal to the crowds. Montemayor told the demonstrators nothing could be gained by further demonstrations.

Traffic across the Rio Grande was back to normal by 1 p.m.

Witnesses said customs officer Jesus Gloria Trevino fired his pistol when the crowd interfered with his efforts to remove a truck from the bridge. Cayetano Galindo Llanas, 27, was wounded in the right leg but was not believed to be seriously injured.

Shortly afterward a loudspeaker truck was back to the bridge and leaders of the demonstration made a plea for an orderly demonstration. No further violence was reported.

The Oleander plant, flourishing in southern United States with its pink, red and white blossoms, originally came from the Mediterranean.

Bluing Is Deceptive, Expert Says

CHICAGO (ap) — When a homemaker adds bluing to the family wash, she is creating a phenomenon that actually reduces the brightness of the laundry.

"In essence, a bluing agent substracts light or reduces the reflectance of the fabric so that the over-all effect is more neutral," according to O. Harry Olson, a specialist in colorimetry at the Illinois Institute of Technology.

Olson performs scientific research in the field of light and optics.

His explanation of the effect of bluing on the family wash is merely an example of how humans see color.

"A color-conscious public demands that color must match, harmonize, create moods, attract, repel, cool or warm," he says, aqua, pink and orange mean different things to different people. The perception of color is a highly personal experience."

He says our color memory is poor, adding:

"Therefore, color standards must be set up to control the color of dyes, glass, inks and textiles."

YOU AND YOUR TEEN-AGER

By BEVERLY BRANDOW

The greatest value of education, in my opinion, lies not in learning the height of Mt. Everest, an algebraic equation, or the prominent dates in a memorable but ancient battle.

No, the greatest thing education has to offer to the masses is understanding of and tolerance for the ways of each other. This knowledge provides the difference between existance and life, war and peace, anger and happiness.

Ten or twenty years "post sheepskin" an educated person often does not retain a great portion of the miscellaneous facts that were crammed into him, but his education is still a priceless possession, for regardless of the escaped facts, his emotions will retain the effects of cultural stimulation and his mind never again will shrink to the size it was before it was broadened.

Psychology courses teach us that as a child matures, through education, he becomes more understanding of the ways of his playmates.

At first when he discovers a group of children playing a game he knows using slightly different rules, they are playing it "wrong" while he and his friends play it "correctly." Later in his development, upon encountering a like situation, he reports that he has discovered there is another way, in addition to his own, of playing a certain game.

At any age, it is growth to be able to realize that becuase someone else's way of thinking or behaving is different than my own, it is not necessarily wrong.

It is the narrow, bigoted person who argues loudest in his own behalf and who uses the weakest excuses: namely "I'm right just because..."

It is the person broadened by the magic of education who, considers first the other person's platform, whether it be of any value rather than crudely denouncing it without basis.

Teen-agers often differ from their parents in beliefs and ideas. Don't be too sure you're right just because you're older and are an esteemed parent. Exercise your mind before you exercise your tongue.

If it were not for honest differences of opinions, we would not have different political parties or there is no proved right and wrong to a matter, allow your teen-agers as you allow your neighbors, a right to do their own thinking and hold their own opinions.

This is both Christian and democratic. It is the mark of education and high breeding.

Shoppers At Supermarket Are In Trancelike State

By DOROTHY ROE
AP Women's Editor

When you go into the supermarket and start wandering up and down the aisles, did you know you're in a trancelike state?

When you emerge with twice as many items as you intended to buy, and wonder where the money went, did you know you are a victim of a deep-laid psychological plot known as motivational research?

Did you realize that you really don't know what you want, until the double-domes employed by modern advertising agencies figure it out for you, plant the subconscious desire and trigger the buying action by an iresistible pacage?

Well, it's all true, says Vance Packard, author of a new and highly controversial book, "The Hidden Persuaders."

In his chapter, "Babes in Consumerland," Packard traces the movements of women in a supermarket, as reported after exhaustive study, hidden cameras and other devices by various research groups.

Interestingly, many of these women were in such a trance that they passed by neighbors and old friends without noticing or greeting them," he says. "Some had a sort of glassy stare. They were so entranced as they wandered about the store plucking things off shelves at random that they would bump into boxes without seeing them. . . ."

Women seldom go to market with a shopping list any more, Packard reports. Instead, they depend on impulse buying, as planned and plotted by the psychological research teams of manufacturers and agencies. Anything in a red package is likely to appeal to a woman, he says. Men, on the other hand, reach for blue.

The result of all this motivitational study and delving into the consumer's psyche is that we all more than we used to, says Packard—but then we have more fun doing it.

Fifteen club members and 11 children were present at the meeting.

Wife Of Cuban President Is Popular With People

HAVANA (AP) — It may be true that Cuba's President Fulgencio Batista couldn't win a nationwide popularity contest, but one member of his family could.

That's his wife — tall, pretty, brunette Marta Fernandez Batista, whose grace, charm, and flashing green eyes seem to have captured the hearts of most of the Cuban people.

Off all who have held the title of "Primera Dama" (First Lady) in the long series of presidential administrations in this revolution-conscious and sugar-rich land, she is the first who has worked tirelessly to promote the welfare of her people.

A striking figure, she has become one of Batista's most capable helpers, and often has soothed Latin tempers at the point of exploding in opposition to some of Batista's governmental policies.

Charitable Work

A devout Catholic, the First Lady, who has four sons and is expecting her fifth child, devotes every hour possible to charitable work, mostly through church organizations.

Specializing in the field of underprivileged children, she is known the length and breadth of the land as a "charming, sympathetic and hard worker to improve the lot of poor people."

She lets nothing stand in the way of trying to help those who need assistance.

Once, about four years ago, even though she was expecting a child, she braved the terrors of a hurricane to help the people in stricken villages of Cuba.

Cubans Love Her

All of this constitutes the reason why most all Cubans seem to love and respect the First Lady, and never does one hear a single world of criticism directed against her. As for her husband — well, that's different — he has an abundance of political enemies.

The First Lady does her charitable work quietly and without fanfare and never seeks, but rather shuns publicity.

But her tall, stately figure is easily spotted wherever she goes and crowds quickly gather. That's so even when she goes shopping in Havana, just like any other housewife. Once she appears, crowds gather quickly to cheer her and kiss her hand.

Romantic Meeting

Batista's meeting with Marta Fernandez y Miranda was "accidental." Years ago, his autobobile collided with a bicycle ridden by a pretty, green-eyed Cuban girl. No one was hurt seriously, but Batista took her to a first-aid station. His constant inquiries as to the state of her health soon developed into courtship and they married.

The Batistas' four sons are: Jorge, Carols Manuel, Roberto Francisco and Fulgencio Jose. Fulgencio Jose, now four years old, was the first boy born in the presidential palace on Feb. 1, 1953. Roberto Francisco was born in the United States and his brothers call him "El Americano" — the American.

In addition, Batista has two daughters and a son by his first marriage.

Atomic Insurance Risk Under Study

BROOKHAVEN, N.Y. (AP) — An accidental atomic blast in the United States might cost "billions of dollars for property damage alone," Arthur W. Murphy, New York insurance specialist, said today.

Personal damages would be even more difficult to calculate, he said.

These facts, Murphy said, constitute a major roadblock to the development of atomic energy by American private industry.

He outlined the problem of providing insurance for atomic installations in a prepared speech for the Inter-American Symposium on Nuclear Energy at Brookhaven National Laboratory.

Murphy said the probability of a "catastrophic accident" is low, but reported that insurance analysts have made estimates of the possible cost.

"These estimates vary from hundreds of millions of dollars up to billions of dollars for property damage alone," he said.

Claims for damages from personal injury would require even more complicated calculations. Injuries, might not appear until years after the accident, there would be difficulty in ascribing them to a specific source of radiation, he said.

"The inability of private industry to secure adequate financial protection against the risk of unprecedented liability, and its reluctance to proceed without such protection, threaten to frustrate a major national objective," he said.

In the effort to meet this problem, he said, three syndicates "comprising nearly all the insurance capacity of this country" have been formed to write insurance for atomic industry. They will provide 60 million dollars of liability coverage for each nuclear installation, he reported.

However, he said, action by the federal government also is needed.

Outlining legislation now before Congress, Murphy said the proposed laws stipulate that "the government would indemnify the licensees and all others in the amount of 500 million dollars against any liability on account of each nuclear incident."

COMFORT FOR A BOY IN TROUBLE — Weeping Lawrence Madsen, 14, is comforted by his grandmother, Mrs. Maren Madsen, at criminal court building in Chicago where he underwent further questioning in connection with the death of three-year-old Lise Jorgensen, who was strangled and buried under the steps of house where both lived on northwest side. The Madsen boy lived with his grandmother who adopted him when he was a year old after the death of his mother. Police Capt. Robert Ryan, said Madsen admitted he strangled the girl, disrobed her and buried her under the steps.

Six-Legged Frog Is Entered In Contest

ANGELS CAMP, Calif., May 15 (AP)—Mark Twain would tilt a shaggy eyebrow if he knew all the commotion his frog story still causes in this mother lode country on the rolling green shoulders of the Sierras.

A bullfrog's throaty croak is music to Angels Camp ears. And for four days starting tomorrow more than 20,000 folks from all over will be watching with hushed expectancy while the frogs do their stuff.

More than 500 frogs are entered, including 15 from foreign lands, in the 30th annual Jumping Frog Jubilee which commemorates Twain's famous fable — "Jumping Frog of Calaveras County." The jubilee is sponsored by California's 39th District Agricultural Assn.

"It's going to be a dandy this year," said Carl T. Mills, secretary-manager of the jubilee. "Madera County, which has been trying for a coon's age to win the championship, has come up with a six-legged frog.

"Youngster name of Ernest Topping found him. Four hind legs and two up front. Reckon we'll have to impose a handicap on him. A regular frog gets three jumps. Multiply that by four legs and you get 12. All right, so we'll divide 12 by this frog's six legs and allow him just two jumps."

What the Jubilee claims is a world record—16 feet 10 inches, in a hop, skip and jump—was set in 1954 by an amphibian named Lucky, owned and trained by Ray Weimer of Angels Camp. There's a prize of 1,000 frogskins for any entry breaking that mark.

No foreign frog has yet even placed, but there's a great deal of tub thumping about two entries this year—a South African species from Margate, Natal, and Won Long Hop, the Free China champ from Taipei, Formosa.

Won Long Jump won the Chinese title in an elimination jump held recently at Taiwan. An entry of Gen. Claire Chennault's Civil Air Transport, the frog is being flown to the United States accompanied by a pretty Chinese stewardess.

The South African frog, a little fellow not more than three inches long, has been entered by Mrs. Blanche Van Den Bergh, secretary of the Town Office at Margate.

"That species has been known to jump nearly 40 feet," said Mills. "But we had one in last year's jump and he barely got off the ground. Kinda think the long air trip dehydrated him, or something."

Angels Camp's big annual event started in 1927 on Main Street and was held there until 1938. So big were the crowds that they had to move it to the fairgrounds. Even now there are bleacher seats for only 1,000. The rest of the big crowd watches from a grassy slope facing the 30 by 50 foot platform. The platform is covered with yellow canvas on which are concentric rings of 5, 10, 15 and 20 feet.

Qualifying jumps begin tomorrow. The 15 top jumpers will compete in the finals on Sunday. A frog's handler is called a jockey. He cannot touch the frog, but can shout, sing, stand on his head or anything else to encourage the frog. If the frog doesn't jump within 15 seconds, he's disqualified.

Cloudy And Wet Weather Is Reported

By The Associated Press

Cloudy and wet weather was reported in wide areas of the country today after a series of violent storms in sections of the Midwest.

Tornadoes, severe thunderstorms and heavy rains struck areas in Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Illinois and Iowa, but no deaths or serious injuries were reported.

Precipitation in the early morning was reported in most areas except the middle and lower Mississippi valleys and the Ohio Valley. However, only scattered showers hit the Southeast and Texas.

The low center which moved across the upper Great Lakes region yesterday, triggering the stormy weather, brought thunderstorms and showers in the upper Mississippi Valley. Thunderstorms with hail and strong winds also struck area in the plains states.

Locally heavy thunderstorms rumbled across areas in Pennsylvania, New York, New England and the Middle Atlantic Coast states.

Tornadoes skipped across areas near Grandville and Jamestown, Mich., about 20 miles southwest of Grand Rapids, last night. Earlier, a twister hit rural areas near Blooming Prarie, Minn., near Rochester.

It's Blamed On Hiccups

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — David Gantt, 42, up before a federal Judge on a bootleg booze-running charge, pleaded: "I just can't hold a job on account of the hiccups. I go all to pieces."

It has been like that for years, Gantt said, adding that anything he tackled — say helping out in a garage, the closest to a steady job he could remember — would be interrupted so much he just had to quit.

Gantt was arrested here some time ago by agents of the federal alcohol tax unit, who testified he had driven in from Greensboro, N. C., with 120 gallons of raw alcohol aboard.

The judge fined Gantt $100 and sentenced him to a year in jail. Not a single hiccup was heard at the hearing.

Senators Wield Economy Ax

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senators appeared busily engaged today in trying to outdo their House colleagues in the congressional rush toward economy in government.

For years the House has been cutting the President's money requests and the Senate has been restoring much of the funds.

House members have chided senators for their lack of economy and tried to blame them for spending. Some senators contend the House members were urging them privately to restore the funds the House cut out.

But the Senate, under the expert political guidance of Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, seems ready to put the shoe on the other foot.

The Senate Appropriations Committee approved two departmental money bills yesterday at levels below the House allowances. There is every indication the Senate will go along with the committee on these two measures. One contains funds for the State and Justice departments. The other carries allowances for the Commerce Department and related agencies.

If these bills are passed by the Senate relatively unchanged, the House members of a Senate-House Conference Committee will be put in the position of urging the senators to agree to let the departments spend more money.

Johnson is generally credited with originating the strategy which would put the Democratic-controlled Senate in the public eye as a stern handmaiden of economy.

Johnson has given every indication he believes reduction in government spending is the best politics the Democrats can play at this point. He is reinforced in that belief by the overwhelming demand for economy in answers to a questionnaire sent to Texas voters.

But while the Johnson strategy is rolling along rapidly now, there are some pitfalls ahead. They will be encountered when the Appropriations Committee, and subsequently the Senate, vote on bills for Interior Department projects and for rivers and harbors improvements in the public works bill.

Democrats, particularly from the West, traditionally have been liberal spenders on such projects. Johnson will have to reckon with public power, irrigation, reclamation and river development advocates if he tries to economize in those fields.

McAllen Is Chosen As Convention Site

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — McAllen was chosen for next year's convention of the 2-A (South and Southwest Texas) District of Lions International.

Neil Mathena of Del Rio was elected district governor yesterday. John Stickley of Charlotte, N.C., president of Lions International, was the main speaker yesterday.

Enlistments Are Halted

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army says it has temporarily stopped —until July 1—enlisting pre-draft age youths for six months' training.

Asst. Secretary of the Army Hugh Milton, who announced the suspension yesterday, said it would not apply to the National Guard, which also is accepting recruits for six months of training.

Milton said the move was necessary because of a recent rush of youths into the program. Some Army officials said the increase was due to an April 1 order reducing the ready reserve obligation of participants from 7½ to 3 years. Service in the reserve follows the six-month active duty training.

Milton said last December, only 1,893 men signed up under the six-month program. This month, he added, the total is 12,000.

Mayor Clough Is Reelected

GALVESTON, Tex. (AP)— Mayor George Roy Clough, who campaigned on a "clean but open city" platform, yesterday was returned to office for another two-year term over two strong opponents.

Clough's political enemy, Police and Fire Commissioner Walter L. Johnston, was defeated in his bid for reelection.

Clough polled 7,855 votes, more than half the total turnout, to win over David H. Nathan and J. D. Winchester in complete but unofficial returns. Nathan got 5,032 votes and Winchester had 2,135.

Walter B. Rouke Jr. ousted Johnston in the race for police-fire commissioner, polling 6,074 votes. Fletcher Harris Jr. had 4,328; Johnston, 4,112; and ex-police Sgt. James A. Kingsley, 383.

Water Boost Is Expected

LAREDO (AP) — Another 200,000 acre-foot increase in water storage was expected in Falcon Reservoir by Saturday.

Storage increased by 64,000 acre feet Monday and Tuesday, bringing total storage up to 911,300 acre feet.

The International Boundary and Water Commission said measurements on the Rio Grande above Falcon Dam indicated total storage would be up to 1,115,000 acre feet by Saturday, more water than has been in the reservoir since February, 1956.

Rains in the upper valley area caused several river rises yesterday. None of the peaks caused flooding but the flow increases brought the river up to what hydrographic engineers refer to as a "full channel."

Houston Is Chosen For Bankers Meeting

GALVESTON, Tex. (AP)—Houston was chosen yesterday for next year's meeting of the Texas Bankers Assn.

BUCKIN' THE LINE

By BUCK FRANCIS
News Sports Editor

THE TIGERS HAVE NOW broken their bi-district "jinx" barrier after winning yesterday's game from Vernon but the "jinx" won't be completely broken until the Bengals have wrapped up the series.

To win the series, of course, the Tigers need to win another game from the Lions. The Tigers will get two chances to pick up the second win. We hope they only need one chance.

It was enlightening, to say the least, to see the large crowd on hand for yesterday's game. The estimated attendance of 1,000 is perhaps the largest crowd to watch a high school game here.

Both Abilene games here last year attracted large crowds but we don't believe either was as large as yesterday's gathering.

Tigers Respond

The Tigers treated the crowd to a pretty good performance yesterday but their hitting was still a bit shaky. The Bengals got eight hits but some of 'em were a bit "scratchy."

All in all, though, the Tigers came through in good style yesterday as the 9-0 score will attest.

Ronnie Baker truly pitched a fine game as he came up with his second one-hitter of the season. Baker only walked two but one of 'em may have cost him a no-hitter.

Baker walked the batter preceding the lone safety, a single by Mac Percival. Since Vernon had a base runner at first, Tiger first baseman Milton Ham was forced to hold the runner on and Percival, a left handed batsman, singled between first and second for the hit.

Had Ham been playing his normal position which he would have been except for the base runner, he might have made the play on Percival's grounder. Even had Ham been playing his normal position, though, he would have had a hard play to make on Percival's rap which was pretty solidly hit.

It might have been the best thing, anyway, for the hit to go through which came in the second inning. With his no-hit bid spoiled at this early stage, Baker was able to pitch steady ball the remaining distance. Sometimes it gets a little bit nerve-wrecking to a pitcher so long as he is working on a no-hitter.

First Triple-A Foe

You may not have realized it but yesterday's game was the first time this season that the Tigers have met a Triple-A team this baseball season.

Of the 23 games the Tigers played during the regular season, 21 were against Class 4A teams. The other two games were against Rotan, a Class 2A team.

The Tigers better than broke even with the 4A teams, winning 11 and losing 10. Six of the 10 losses, incidentally, were by one run margins.

Mrs. Ike Snead, mother of Alan Snead, all-around athlete at Snyder High School from 1945-56, was a spectator at yesterday's game.

The Sneads, who moved to Silver last summer, are now residents of Pampa.

Mrs. Snead reports that Alan started the season at pitcher for the SMU freshmen this spring but was moved to shortstop to get the most out of his hitting.

The SMU Yearlings, incidentally, went undefeated this season. Alan is the first Tiger grad to land a college baseball scholarship.

Whiteside Hurls Sun To Victory

Wayne Whiteside hurled a one-hitter at the Blue Sox last night to lead Sun Oil to a 4-1 City League victory at Towle Memorial Park.

Max Coffee's single in the third inning was the loen safety the Sox collected off Whiteside.

The win gave Sun a 1-1 record. Last night's game opened the season for the Blue. Sox.

Whiteside struck out 12 but had control trouble, walking eight. But Sun backed Whiteside up with errorless play afield to rub out potential Sox rallies.

Sun took the lead in the second inning when Hogg was hit with a pitched ball with the bases loaded, forcing in a run and giving the Oilers a 1-0 lead.

In the fourth Sun moved ahead 2-0 when Hogg again was hit by a ptiched ball and then later scoring on McKinney's sacrifice fly.

The Sox made their last bid for victory when they scored their lone marker in the top of the sixth to cut the Sun lead to 2-1. With one away in the sixth, Clarence Minton walked, went to second on a passed ball, stole third and then scored on Royce Pierce's groundout.

Sun iced the decision away in the bottom of the sixth with their final two runs.

Snyder Furniture and the Blue Sox will meet in the next City League game tomorrow at 7:30 p. m.

Big Klu Is Discharged

BOSTON, (AP) — Ted Kluszewski, Cincinnati Red infielder, was discharged from Lahey Clinic today with instructions for special exessity for an operation.

He was told by the doctors that he can get in shape and "be of definite value" to the baseball club. He entered the clinic Monday.

Dr. James L. Poppen who examined Kluszewski, said: "There will be no operation at this time, although no one can say for certain that surgery will not be necessary at a later date."

Dr. Poppen said that Kluszewski has a protruded intervertebral disc and that he has given "the biggest man in baseball" special exercises, including "a good bit of swimming, using the crawl stroke for strengthening the glutal muscles."

San Angelo May Get Pampa Club

SAN ANGELO (AP)—San Angelo appeared today to have a slim chance of regaining the Southwestern League club it had last year.

G. F. Bransom, president of the Pampa club, says his club definitely will fold after tonight's game because of financial difficulties.

If this happens, league President W. J. Green said the franchise would be relocated and operated by the league in San Angelo if an agreement can be reached for the ball park.

The Pampa club will be held as a road club by the league until Saturday if Clovis remains in the league.

Clovis has been threatened with an attachment of its gate Thursday if the Internal Revenue Department isn't paid some back taxes. Clovis President Eddie Jones said he would throw in the towel if the gate is attached. A meeting was planned today to see if the federal demand for at least $1,695 of the $5,200 owed can be paid.

Green has said the league would operate with six teams if both Pampa and Clovis fold.

Tigers Rip Lions In Opener 9-0

Vernon Stopped By Baker's 1-Hit

By BUCK FRANCIS

Behind the one-hit pitching of Ronnie Baker, the Tigers rolled to a 9-0 victory over Vernon's Lions in the opening game of a best two-out-of-three bi-district series at Towle Memorial Park here yesterday.

The Tigers backed Baker up with an 8-hit attack off two Vernon pitchers with loose play afield by the Lions also aiding the Tiger cause.

Vernon booted the ball five times but, oddly enough, seven of the Tiger nine runs were earned.

Second game of the series will be played at Vernon next Tuesday, May 21. If the Lions win Tuesday, then the third and deciding game would be played the following day, also at Vernon.

Yesterday's one-hitter was the second of the season for Baker. He had previously held Midland to one hit here April 2.

Big Mac Percival, son of the head football coach at Vernon, Bob Percival, ruined Baker's bit for a no-hitter yesterday. Percival grounded a single into the hole between first and second base in the second inning for the lone Lion safety.

Percival's hit, incidentally, put Baker in his only jam of the afternoon. Catcher Larry Peters had walked ahead of Percival's hit and he took third on the base hit. Percival then stole second to put runners on second and third with none away.

But Baker braced to strike out Richard Christopher and George Wiederanders and got Don Propes on a groundout.

After that the Loins never got a base runner past first base. Only three Lions, in fact, reached first from the second inning on. Steve Graham got aboard on an error in the third, Propes walked in the fifth and Martin was safe on an error in the seventh.

Baker struck out 10 Lion batsmen and walked only two.

James Bolton of the Lions lost his first game of the season after five wins. Bolton hurled the first four innings yesterday and was relieved in the fifth by Ronnie Rodgers with the Tigers out front, 8-0.

For all practical purposes, the issue was decided in the second inning when the Tigers exploded for four runs. The Tigers then padded their lead with two runs each in the third and fourth innings and one in the fifth.

Neil Boyd highlighted the first two Tiger rallies. Boyd singled with the bases loaded in each the second and third innings to drive in a pair each time.

In the second inning, Milton Ham led with a walk and moved around to third on Jimmy Allen's single and a walk to Baker, loading the bases. Boyd then drilled a single to left to drive in Ham and Allen, Baker taking third on the play.

Baker then scored the third run on Coleman John's groundout. The rally was climaxed when Boyd raced home when third baseman Wideranders erred on Gary Vice's grounder.

In the third, the Tigers loaded the bases when Ham walked, Allen singled and Baker got aboard on Wiederanders' error. Boyd then slammed his second straight single to drive in Ham and Allen to send the Tigers ahead, 6-0.

The Tigers made it 8-0 in the fourth with another pair of runs. Allen got his third straight hit to drive in Reaves and Prichard with the two fourth-inning Tiger markers. Both Reaves and Prichard were aboard via singles.

The final Tiger run came in the fifth when Tom Falls doubled and scored on another double by Reaves.

The largest crowd of the season, about 1,000 fans, witnessed the bi-district clash.

The Tigers go to Big Spring today for a non-district tilt. The game is a make-up of last Saturday's washed out contest.

Rookies Are Putting Phillies Back In National Limelight

By The Associated Press

A new generation of "Whiz Kids" appears to have emerged upon the Philadelphia horizon. They promise to thrust the Phillies back into the National League spotlight after six years of frustration and disappointment.

Some of the original "Whiz Kids," like Richie Ashburn, Granny Hamner, Willie Jones, Robin Roberts and Curt Simmons are still on the scene but they've been forced into the background by such youngsters as Ed Bouchee, Harry Anderson, Bob Bowman, Jack Sanford, Don Cardwell and Dick Farrell.

This sextet has been largely responsible for the Phils' current streak, which has produced seven victories in the last 10 games.

Veteran observers can't recall when six rookies made good simultaneously on one club.

Three of the six were instrumental in Philadelphia's 10-8 victory over Cincinnati last night which snapped the Redlegs' 12-game winning streak and knocked them out of a first-place tie with Milwaukee. The victory also boosted the Phillies past Brooklyn into third place in the National League.

Anderson walloped a home run and single, drove in two runs and scored two. Bouchee also hit a home run and single, drove in two runs and scored one. Farrell, coming to the assistance of Cardwell after Cincinnati had gone ahead 5-4 in the fifth inning, retired five straight batters before bowing out for a pinch hitter to receive credit for his second victory.

The Braves took undisputed possession of first place with a 3-2 victory over the Dodgers.

In other National League games the New York Giants defeated St. Louis 5-3 and Pittsburgh outslugged the Chicago Cubs 8-5.

In the only American League game played, Detroit shut out Boston 2-0. The others were rained out.

A pair of old Dodger killers—Joe Adcock and Bob Buhl—did it again to Brooklyn. Adcock's triple drove in one of Milwaukee's two runs off loser Don Newcombe in the first inning. Adcock carried over the second run himself on an infield single by Chuck Tanner. Billy Bruton drove in Milwaukee's final run with a sixth inning triple.

CLIPS AGS TWICE

Longhorn Nine Wins SWC Title

By The Associated Press

There'll be a few more games to play but for all purposes the Southwest Conference baseball race is over with Texas holding the championship.

The Longhorns whipped Texas A&M 5-1 and 1-0 Tuesday to clinch their thirty-first conference championship. Now they face the NCAA playoffs, something they have twice hurdled in the past.

Dell Morgan, baseball coach of Rice, is chairman of the selection committee for this NCAA district and will decide on playoffs that might be held to decide the district representative. Usually the conference champion plays Arizona of the Border Conference in the first round.

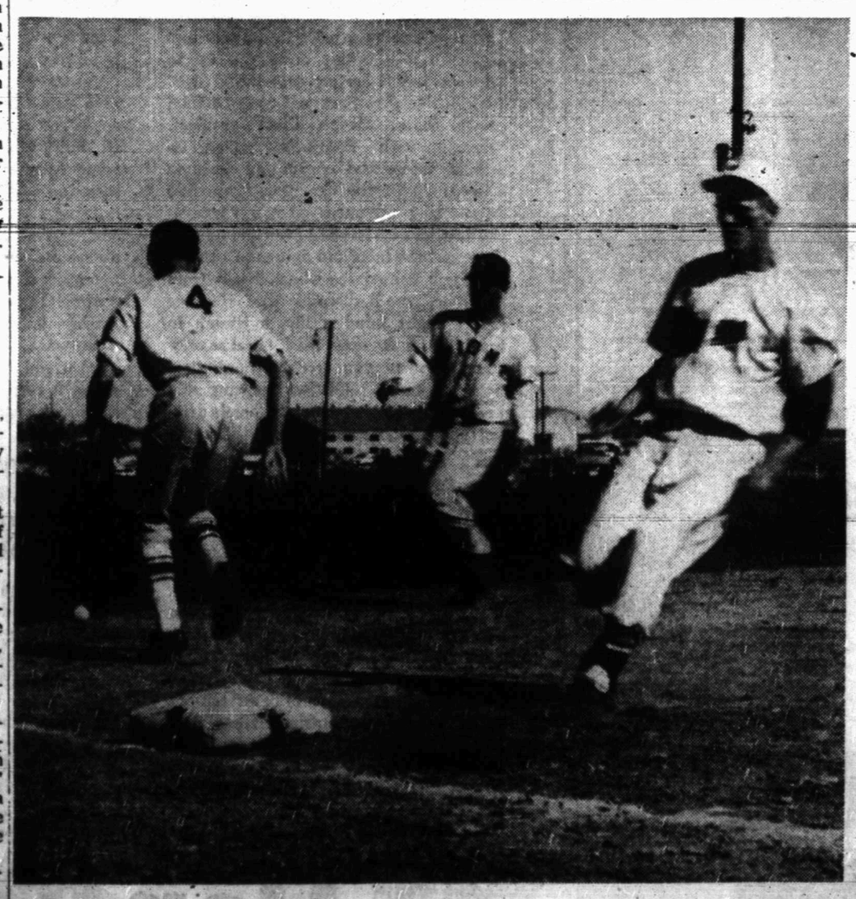

Top pitching brought Texas its double triumph over A&M. Harry Taylor held the Aggies to two hits in the opener, facing only 30 batters.

In the second game Howard Reed worked a 6-hitter while his Texas teammates were getting only two off Toby Newton and reliefer Donnie Hullum. But Texas cashed in on its slender output. George Myers doubled in the lone run of the game.

Southern Methodist beat Baylor 4-2 in a game postponed from Monday. Don Carter and Bill Fannin hit homers for the victors.

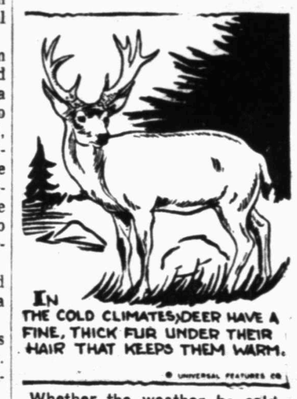

Rice and Texas Christian play at Fort Worth while Southern Methodist meets Baylor at Dallas in two but neither game means aynthing in the championship

Texas wound up with a 12-1 record, Second place. Texas Christian has 7-4 and Baylor, in third place, shows 4-5.

TIGERS LOAD BASES—The Tigers loaded the bases in the third inning yesterday as results of the above bobble by Vernon third baseman George Wiederanders. Milton Ham took third on the play, Jimmy Allen went to second and Ronnie Baker, the batsman, was safe at first. Neil followed with a two-run single that sent the Tigers ahead, 6-0. The Bengals went on to win, 9-0. Wiederanders, left, and shortstop Richard Christopher are shown chasing the loose ball. (Lee Watson Photograph).

Automobiles To Use Higher Grade Fuel

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Autos of 1960 will require a premium motor fuel of about 110 octane, or 10 to 12 octane numbers higher than at present, oilmen were told today. Production of the higher octane fuel will run considerably higher than similar increases in the past, S. P. Blumberg, of the Humble Oil and Refining Co. of Baytown, Tex., told the refining division of the American Petroleum Institute.

Manufacturing costs will rise 6 cents a gallon, he said, and refinery investments will mount 40 per cent to add the higher octane content.

PEOPLE BREAKING INTO BUTLER JAIL

BUTLER, Pa. (AP)—You've heard of people breaking "out" of jail but this southwestern Pennsylvania community has a different problem—how to keep 'em from breaking "in."

Officials learned several men have been using an abandoned jail building for sleeping quarters. How did they get in? Why, they broke down the doors.

281 Are Still Held

BUENOS AIRES (AP) — President Pedro Aramburu's provisional government says 281 persons still are under arrest at the "disposition of the executive power" as an aftermath of the overthrow of Juan Peron.

New Organization Of Demos Formed

HOUSTON (AP) — The national Democratic committeewoman for Texas said yesterday a new organization of liberal-loyalist Democrats to be set up at a statewide meeting in Austin Saturday has the approval of the national committee.

Mrs. R. D. Randolph denied charges by other groups that the organization is a splinter group and said the purpose of the meeting is to set up an organization which can be trusted to carry out the mission of the party.

Mrs. Randolph said the official party organization in Texas the past five years has been controlled by what she called a Dixiecrat-Republican coalition and that true Democrats have been denied fair representation.

She said she issued her statement in answer to letters sent to county chairman by State Chairman Jim Lindsey.

The new organization, known as the Democrats of Texas, has no desire to supplant or oppose the State Democratic Executive Committee or any party group, she asserted.

"Indeed, we want to work with the state committee or any other body of Democrats that will actively support the platform and candidates of the party," she said.

"The state committee's actions have not been properly directed toward the advancement of the Democratic party in Texas. Instead, its leadership has directed its efforts against loyal Democrats who have always supported the Democratic Party. The Democrats of Texas plan to continue such support and make it effective —preferably with the cooperation of the state committee. Certainly we do not intend to be pushed into a brawl with the state committee."

"The national committee has assured me they approve of this kind of organization," she said. "Indeed, the national committee has adopted specific rules to this effect."

Children Get New Names

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The three children of actress Eleanor Parker have been converted from Friedlobs into Clemenses.

Susan, 9, Sharon, 7, and Richard, 4, appeared in Superior Court yesterday, where Judge Bayard Rhone granted a change of name.

They are Miss Parker's children by her late husband, producer Bert Friedlob. They wanted their last name changed to that of the mother's present husband, artist Paul Clemens.

At one point in the proceeding, Judge Rhone asked Susan: "Have you ever gone through bankruptcy?"

"Why, No," the bewildered child replied.

"Just a routine question we always ask in name change cases," the judge explained.

RIPPED OFF FOUNDATIONS—These houses at Lampasas, Texas stand in disarray after being washed off their foundations by a flash flood that surged through the town.

STUDENTS CLASH

Riots Break Out In Mexico

GUADALAJARA, Mexico (AP) — Mexico's second largest city was in a virtual state of siege today as armed troops patrolled the streets to prevent any recurrence of rioting by armed students.

Student gatherings were forbidden, and officials tried with little success to disarm pupils reported carrying rifles, pistols and homemade grenades. Authorities canceled a students' day celebration set for May 25.

Military guards were thrown around the telephone and telegraph offices and key public buildings in this city of half a million persons.

The trouble began last week when students of the State University of Jalisco and Guadalajara University clashed in a downtown square. Later Jalisco students armed themselves, purportedly to defend their school buildings from the Guadalajara group.

Protests were general that the police failed to intervene in the original clash and were not doing enough to prevent further disorders.

Just what touched off the riot is not clear. Many parents and some officials blamed Communist agitators. Congressman David Perez Rulfo claimed opposition political groups staged the riots to create disorder on the eve of local elections.

Msgr. Jose Garibi Rivera, Roman Catholic archbishop of Jalisco, charged that "strange hands" were trying to create a rift between church and state. Communist leaders have tried to blame the trouble on the church.

A shutdown of all businesses, planned by the owners yesterday to demand protection against renewal of the riots, failed to come off. Only a few stores failed to open.

Dies From Injuries

SAN BENITO (AP) — Arnulfo Ponce, 31, injured Monday night in a one-car accident north of here, died yesterday.

Examiner Recommends Grant On New Station

WASHINGTON (AP) — Examiner Hugh B. Hutchison of the Communications Commission yesterday recommended a grant to Star of the Planis Broadcasting Co. for a new radio station at Slaton, Tex.

He proposed that a competing bid be denied. The competing bid was by Earl Walden & Associates, doing business as Plainview Radio, which bid for a new station at Plainview, Tex., using the same frequency.

The proposed Slaton station would operate on 1050 kilocycles, 250 watts, daytime.

Negro Leaders Seek Bloc Of Voters For Election In 1958

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — A group of Negro leaders last night formed a statewide political action group which said its objective was to seek a bloc vote of 500,000 Negro voters by the 1958 elections.

Harland Randolph of San Antonio, said the organization would seek to "overcome inadequate representation in the Legislature, lack of participation in local government and the pathetic attitude on educational opportunities." He was named public relations chairman for the as yet unnamed group.

Randolph said the organization was spearheaded by the Negro Baptist Ministers Union, which, he said would hold an executive meeting within 15 days.

In addition to a poll tax crusade, Randolph said the group would:

1. Make a concerted drive to get qualified Negroes to run for office;

2. Urge greater participation by Negroes in local political parties.

3. Seek fair employment legislation, with special attention being given to East Texas, where most Negroes in the state reside.

4. Utilize public relations departments to stimulate an atmosphere favorable to the acceptance of integration.

"We of course, see no freedom in segregation," Randolph said, "and we intend to use political resources to bring pressures to bear. The vote will be registered on the things in which a Negro has prime interest. Legislators and others running for office will have to be counted at the polls."

He said the group was mostly made up of Negroes at present, but support later would be encouraged from "all persons interested in political action for the furtherance of democracy."

"We hope to get white liberals, white conservatives and even Ku Klux Klan members if they will join," he said.

Grazing Plans Discussed By U.S. Experts

DALLAS (AP) — Federal experts from eight states yesterday opened discussions on how to spend some 25 million dollars yet to be appropriated by Congress for the proposed deferred grazing program.

The Eisenhower administration has recommended legislation authorizing assistance to farmers and ranchers to reduce livestock grazing enough to permit conservation and reestablishment of native grass damaged by drought.

"We're hoping to get the $25,000,000 recommended, of course, but it's possible that the figure might be cut back some," said Forest Beall, Southwest area director of the Commodity Stabilization Service in Washington.

He said one purpose of the meeting, which lasts through Thursday, was to determine as far as feasible, how much individual states would get as their share.

Ranchers in some 166 Texas counties would be eligible to participate in the program when the new fiscal year begins July 1, if Congress approves the appropriation.

Representatives from Texas, Kansas, Oklahoma, New Mexico, Colorado, Nevada, Utah, Arizona are taking part in the meeting.

Soda Pop In School

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo. (AP) — Soda Popp, 5, has been enrolled for kindergarten here next year. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Popp.

Boy Scouts Pick Up Wrong Clothes Bundle

VENTURA, Calif. (AP) — When Mrs. Edythe Lowe finished her washing she took it from the dryer and set it out for pickup by an ironing service.

A Boy Scout spotted it on the front porch. He picked it up and took it downtown by mistake. The scouts were having a clothing salvage drive. He presumed Mrs. Lowe was cooperating.

When her laundry didn't come back she called the ironing service. They said they had called but found no laundry on the porch.

Mrs. Lowe ran an advertisement in the Ventura Star-Free Press. The scoutsmaster read it, found the laundry and returned it personally to Mrs. Lowe.

GOOD NEWS

Malabar Farm Saved By Group

By INEZ ROBB

The heartwarming news from Mansfield, Ohio, is that Malabar Farm, one of the world's most famous agricultural showplaces, is to continue as an experimental and educational center as in the lifetime of its owner, the late Louis Bromfield.

The Friends of the Land, a group in which Louie was a leader, has finally scraped together the money, $140,000, to purchase Malabar, lock stock and barrel.

Indeed, the purchase by the Friends culminated a tense climax in a race against time that would have done credit to any of the novels of the man who won the Pulitzer Prize in 1926 with "Early Autumn."

Within a few hours of the sale of Malabar to a real estate group that proposed to sell the Big House and cut the 700 acres into small farms and a housing development, the Friends of the Land received through the mail a loan from the Samuel R. Noble Foundation of Ardmore, Okla.

This loan from the Noble Foundation, plus a second loan from a group of Louie's old friends and admirers in Mansfield, plus a substantial gift from Doris Duke, enabled the Friends to buy Malabar and save it from a fate worse than death in the eyes of innumerable persons who loved both Louis and the farm.

The letter carrier who brought the check from the foundation may have veen a prosaic-looking party. But he is blood brother to the handsome hero who has galloped home with the mortgage money, both to save the old place and the heroine, in a thousand presentations of that venerable melodrama, "Down on the Farm."

Now that Malabar has been saved, the Friends of the Land hope to raise additional funds to operate it as an educational, demonstration and scientific agricultural center. The Big House will shelter a fine agricultural and scientific library, based on the substantial library collected by Louie.

By coincidence, Malabar has been sold at a time when another Bromfield, literally a chip off the old block, is making news. Ellen Bromfield Geld, 25, the youngest of the three Bromfield daughters, has just arrived from Brazil to celebrate the publication of her first book, "The Jungely One," a story for children.

Her second book, "Strangers in the Valley" (for adults), will be published in mid-August. Ellen's first literary attempt, a story of Malabar and her father, was written when she was 10. Vouge Magazine bought if for $500 and thus published, at the time, one of the first stories of Malabar.

Ellen, a tall, slim and exceeding ly pretty girl, has been in South America since 1953, operating Fazenda Malabar do Brasil with her husband, Carson Geld. Both attended the agricultural school of Cornell University. The Brazilian Malabar is near Itatiba in the state of Sao Paulo.

As devoted to both the land and writing as her father, Ellen is now working on a novel of Brazilian farm life and plans a biography of her father. A girl with her father's inexhaustible energy, Ellen, who is the mother of three small children, finds time not only to help run Malabar do Brasil but to write short stories, a weekly farm column for Brazilian and American newspapers and novels.

At the moment, the Gelds are conducting a group of Brazilian agriculturists on a tour of American farm installations. The tour will include a nostalgic visit to Malabar, which Ellen loved with a passion second only to her father's.

Controversy Over Negro Coed Feared

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—A Negro coed was barred from the lead role in an undergraduate opera to avoid "bitter controversy," University of Texas President Logan Wilson said yesterday.

He said the action was necessary because of the school's efforts to achieve orderly and gradual integration. The university was opened to Negroes on the undergraduate level for the first time last September.

"We were convinced that if the opera were produced as planned, it would become a symbolic incident which would stir up bitter controversy about every aspect of our efforts to make an orderly and gradual transition," Wilson said.

Reading stiffly from a prepared statement, Wilson told a faculty audience that the decision was made after "threats of violence to the student in question" and others directly involved.

The coed, Barbara Louise Smith, 19, Pittsburg, Tex., was not present when Wilson made his explanation, the first public statement he has made on the controversy.

State Rep. Joe Chapman of Sulphur Springs, a leader in a legislative segregation bloc, said he had asked Wilson to remove Miss Smith from the role for the betterment of the university.

Grandma Is 1957 Graduate

WILBURTON, Okla. (AP)—Mrs. John Lucas, a 46-year-old grandmother, was graduated with top honors from Wilburton High School last night.

Now she's going to college on a scholarship hoping to become a teacher.

Her daughter LaDawn witnessed the graduation ceremony. She won't graduate until next year.

Mrs. Lucas, three times a grandmother, won her cap and gown as covaledictorian. She had a grade average of 7.3 out of a possible 8.

The wife of a miner, Mrs. Lucas said she always wanted to complete her high school education.

"So, I decided to go back to school," she explained. She had quit school after the seventh grade.

"Everyone seems to like Mrs. Lucas and she fits in well here," said the Wilburton High School principal.

Mrs. Lucas said she wants to become a schoolteacher. She will attend Eastern A&M College here.

Her husband said he had no objections.

Five Die In Crash

POND CREEK, Okla. (AP)—A two car crash on U. S. Highway 81 six miles southwest of here last night took the lives of five persons.

Police said the front ends of both vehicles were driven practically to the windshields.

Dean Will Start On His Talent Scouting

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Dean David E. Snodgrass of the Hastings College of Law departs today for New York on his annual talent scouting for his faculty's "65 Club."

The Hastings 65 Club, composed of eminent law professors compelled to retire at other schools, has been rated "the strongest law faculty in the country" by Roscoe Pound, former Harvard law dean.

Snodgrass said he will confer with professors scheduled for compulsory retirement soon from various top Eastern law schools.
