Rain Soaks Area!

Rain, rain, wonderful rain brought smiles to many faces here late Friday afternoon. After being forecast for several days, a hard rain began falling in Knox City about 4:00 p.m. It had sprinkled off and on for most of the afternoon and after the heavy downpour, the Channel 2 scanner on Cable Vision recorded 1.3 inches. By 10:00 p.m. Friday, the scanner gauge had moved up to two inches and after almost continual, slow rain overnight, the amount had risen to 3.5 by Saturday morning. Knox City's two-day total of 3.85 topped the 10-county area surrounding Abilene. Goree was second with 2.80, and Munday and Haskell tied for third with 2.50 inches.

The rain fell slowly for the most part with no wind or severe weather of any kind being reported as slow-moving cold front moved through.

As one area farmer put it, "It's a million dollar rain, and it came one day before it was too late putting a good season in the ground and saving pastures and wheat!"

KNOX CITY LIONS will be presenting Bob Hale the Magician, the world's most colorful illusionist this Friday at 7:30 p.m. in the Knox City School Auditorium. Readers are reminded to take the family for an evening of great entertainment.

Carol Felts Seeks Seat On Council

Carol Felts submitted his name this week as a candidate for a two-year term on the City Council.

Previously signing for re-election were Mayor Charles Auburg and councilmen Craig Williams, two years, and Larry Staggs, one year term.

A mayor and three councilmen will be elected on April 4. Unless others filed before the Wednesday, March 4 deadline, no race developed. Former council member Cornie King had indicated that she would not seek re-election.

In a check with school officials Tuesday noon, no other candidates had announced other than the three incumbents who are Allen McGaughey, J.M. Emerson, and John Gillispie. Deadline for the school election was March 4.

Richie Smith, secretary for the Knox County Hospital Board, reported that Greg Clonts, incumbent, had filed for re-election and Bill Kingston filed Tuesday afternoon. Greg's place on the board is the only elective term, while two board members will be appointed by the Knox County Commissioners' Court. Deadline for filing is March 10, Smith said.

Joint election for city, school and hospital will be held April 4.

City officials are gravely concerned with the sharp increase in street lighting costs.

According to city manager Faye Railsback, prior to the December 15 rate increase by West Texas Utilities Company, the city paid $1.25, $2.10, $2.25, $2.75, and $3.50 per month, per light, based on the type of light in use. The street lighting bill then amounted to $437.00 per month.

Under the new rates, the fuel cost factor is applied to the bill and the kilowatt hours are estimated rather than metered, Mrs. Railsback said. Current rates are $1186.00 per month, almost three times as much as previous bills.

She said city officials will continue studying the matter and may suggest alternatives in the near future.

GETTING READY for the big Rock 'N Roll Jamboree to be held next Wednesday, March 11, at the Brazos Valley Care Home are these wheelchair participants, Mary Fulton and Libbie Hoge. Looking on in background are Care Home residents Wayne and Ruth Harden. Merchants and individuals in Knox City and O'Brien are sponsoring participants and all proceeds will go to the Heart Fund. Refreshments will be served and musicians from Gilliland have been invited to provide the music.

The monthly Men's Breakfast will be held Saturday, March 7, at 7:00 a.m. at the St. Isabel Hall with the men of the Santa Rosa Catholic Church as hosts.

All men and boys of the community are invited to attend.

More Bids Needed

School Auditorium To Be Remodeled

Bids were opened Friday at 2:00 p.m. for work on remodeling the present school auditorium, and according to Supt. W.R. (Bill) Baker, officials are now in the process of evaluating the bids and re-advertising, as will be noted in the legal notices, for certain components. Bidders have until March 27 when this round of bids will be opened.

Plans call for the present gym-auditorium to be a formal auditorium only, featuring a sloped floor, permanent seating for 528 persons, a professional sound system, acoustical ceiling, and heating and air-conditioning. The present facilities are not air conditioned.

Also a foyer will be built at the rear of the building to serve as the public entranceway on the north. New restrooms will be built, and dressing rooms will replace the steps on each side of the stage. The present stage will be extended six feet to accommodate the high school band and other stage productions, Baker said.

The auditorium also will be used by teachers for in-service training and by the general public for meetings.

About 100 of the chairs will have desk tops attached to them and microphone jacks will be spaced throughout the building for enhanced acoustics.

The building was constructed in 1936 and was abandoned as the school's regular gym in 1961 when the new gym was built. The building continues to serve as a gym for physical education classes and also as the school auditorium.

However, when the building is used for the auditorium, metal chairs have to be set up on the wooden floor.

Baker said that officials felt as if the remodeling were a good alternative to completely abandoning the old auditorium.

Architect for the project is Fred Heaton Jr. of Palestine.

KC Artist Presents Solo Show

Knox City artist Melanie Whitley is having a solo show at the Citizens State Bank throughout March. It is a 10 year retrospective show featuring paintings owned by local people.

Mrs. Whitley began painting in 1971 with oil classes under Henrietta Lott of Rule. Her next instructor was John Crump, Anson, who taught oil glazing. About four years ago, she became interested in watercolors and taught herself the technique.

This show contains her first oil painting, a stillife owned by her aunt, Lillian B. Verhalen, and painting #3, and oil landscape belonging to her son, Chad Whitley. Her latest paintings include watercolors "Emmeline" a young old-fashioned girl, a portrait "Audra" granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Grindstaff Jr., "Callie" a calico cat, and an old house on Wildhorse Creek.

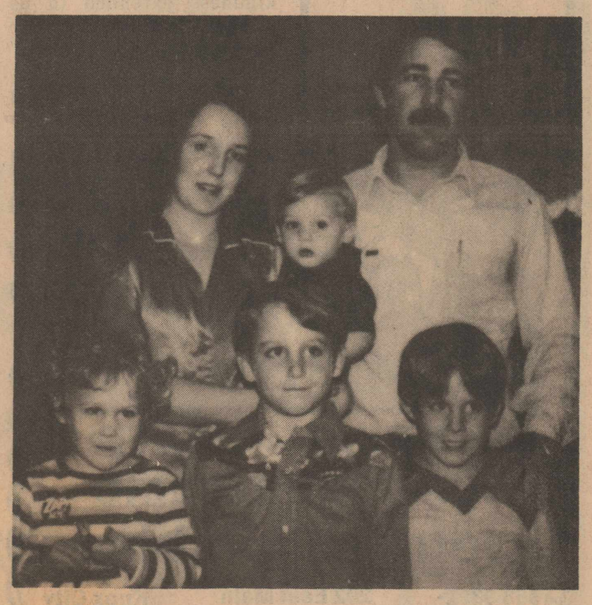

During the ten years, Melanie has completed approximately 200 paintings. She has been represented by galleries in Abilene and Arlington and taught one oil class for teenagers. She has shown and won awards in shows at Vernon, Snyder, Knox City, Haskell, Breckenridge, Eastland, Cisco and Abilene. In Texas Fine Arts competition, one painting advanced to the state show and two others were in the circuit show.

Banking hours are from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. with the show open to the public. The artist expressed special appreciation to these area art lovers and especially her family members who have been her best critics, supporters, and patrons.

Houndettes Defeated By Benjamin

By Coach Steve McIlhaney

The Houndettes ended the 1980-81 basketball season last week by losing the bi-district game to Benjamin, 40-38. The game was an exciting contest and close all the way. The Houndettes led 20-19 at halftime. The game remained close in the second half even though Benjamin pulled out to a seven point lead only to see the Houndettes come back to tie the game at 38-38 with about a minute and a half left. Benjamin made a free throw with just over a minute left. The Houndettes then had several opportunities to win. We went to the free throw line for four missed opportunities. We shot about eight goal attempts in the last 40 seconds; two from underneath the basket looked like sure two pointers for a winning margin, but the basket seemed to have an invisible lid over it to keep the ball out and the Houndettes out of the regional tournament.

The loss was disheartening but the girls are still winners. Not only for their season record of 21-9 but for the way they have performed on the court in both victory and defeat. They worked hard all year, their attitude was good, and they are a good bunch to be around.

We will lose two seniors this year, Mary Albus and Kay Howell, who were captains of the team and who have started all year. They will be missed next year. Coming back next year will be three starters and seven letterman, which makes this year a stepping stone to better things next year. Congratulations, Houndettes, for a fine season!

BASKETBALL NEWS

Well, it's over for the Benjamin girls' basketball team. After winning district and having the opportunity to play our neighbors to the South, Knox City and gaining the bi-district title by defeating Knox City 40-38, they traveled to Stephenville for the regional tourney. They suffered a loss there but we feel they are still winners because they advanced that far. Girls, we are all proud of you and commend you and your coach, Vernon Smith for a job well done. You all have represented our school very well.

MRS. JEFFREY ALAN HARBAUGH
...the former Sarah Eliazbeth McGaughey

Miss Mc Gaughey, Harbaugh Are Wed Saturday Afternoon

Sarah Elizabeth McGaughey and Jeffrey Alan Harbaugh were married Saturday, February 28, at two o'clock in the afternoon in the sanctuary of the First United Methodist Church. The Rev. Ernest McGaughey of Wheeler, uncle of the bride. performed the ceremony before an altar setting of candelabra and greenery.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen McGaughey of Knox City, and Mr. and Mrs. Phillip W. Harbaugh of New Albany, Indiana, are parents of the bridegroom.

Providing wedding music at the organ was Mrs. Melvin Lowrey, who accompanied Martha Skoog of Lubbock, soloist. Vocal selections were "Your Song" and "Today."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose for her wedding a bridal gown featuring a Victorian neckline, lace yoke with seed pearl trim and Empire waistline. Her chapel length train was edged with a wide lace ruffle. She wore a matching lace hat with fingertip veil and blusher. Her bridal bouquet was of red and white roses and gypsophilia atop her mother's Bible.

In keeping with tradition, for something old, the bride wore a ring given by a great aunt; for something new, she carried a lace handkerchief; for something borrowed, she carried her mother's Bible; and for something blue, the traditional lace garter, which was handmade.

Attending the bride as matron of honor was her sister, Mrs. Lou Ann Winegar of Borger. Bridesmaids were Patti Counts of Lubbock, Becky Hendrick of Irvine, California, and Mrs. Marsha McGaughey of Knox City, sister-in-law of the bride. The feminine attendants wore burgundy gowns with Victorian necklines and accordian pleated skirts. Each carried a single long stemmed red rose and wore sprigs of gysophilia in their hair.

Tonya Kuehler, niece of the bride, served as flower girl. She wore a pale pink gown and carried a nosegay of burgundy and white carnations.

David Madden of Houston served as best man. Groomsmen were Don Weisheit of Jasper, Indiana, Larry Mask of Houston, and John Clayton of Arlington.

Ushers were Phillip Harbaugh of New Albany, Indiana, and Ross Harbaugh of Lubbock, brothers of the bridegroom, David McGaughey of Munday and Mark McGaughey of Knox City, brothers of the bride.

Mrs. McGaughey chose for her daughter's wedding a burgundy crepe dress with pleated skirt. Rhinestones were scattered over the bodice of the dress and she wore a corsage of white carnations.

The mother of the bridegroom wore a green dress with accordian pleats. She also wore a white carnation corsage.

A reception hosted by the bride's parents followed in the fellowship hall of the church. A white cloth over burgundy covered the refreshment table centered with an arrangement of burgundy flowers. The wedding cake was accented with burgundy roses with white doves atop. Serving were Mrs. Beverly McGaughey of Munday, sister-in-law of the bride, and Teresa Chisum and Gina Felderhoff of Lubbock.

Parents of the bridegroom hosted the rehearsal dinner Friday night in the fellowship hall.

The bride graduated from Texas Tech University in Lubbock with a bachelor of science degree in horticulture. She is presently an assistant manager of Wolfe Nursery in Hurst. Harbaugh, also a Texas Tech University graduate, majored in agricultural economics. He is employed by Allied Mills of Fort Worth.

Following a short honeymoon, the couple will make their home in Irving.

Saturday Brunch Honors Bride-Elect

A brunch honoring Sarah McGaughey, who was married Saturday afternoon to Jeff Harbaugh, was held Saturday morning at ten o'clock in the home of Mrs. David Counts.

Assisting Mrs. Counts with hostess duties was her daughter, Patti of Lubbock.

Refreshments of ham, egg brunch casserole, a fruit compote of bananas and fresh strawberries, blueberry and gingerbread muffins, coffee and orange juice were served from tables covered with beige linen cloths. Burgundy candles in brass candlesticks and burgundy and wine silk flowers were used on the tables.

Attending were the honoree; her mother, Mrs. Allen McGaughey; Mrs. Phillip Harbaugh, mother of the bridegroom; Mrs. Eleanor Harbaugh, grandmother of the bridegroom; Mrs. Wallace Gardners, aunt of the bridegroom; Mrs. Tom Winegar, sister of the bride; Mrs. Mark McGaughey, sister-in-law of the bride; Becky Hendrick and Martha Skoog.

STREAMS IN DESERT PLACES

By OZELLE STEPHENS

"The Lord will give continued strength unto people." (Psalms 29:11).

Jesus said, "If you love me, keep my commandments; and I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another, that he may abide with you forever;" (John 14:15-16).

Sometimes it is hard to understand why certain things must be. But God does not exempt any from pain and sorrow; but he does not leave any of us alone to bear our burdens alone or to fight the battles of life by ourselves. In the storms God will hold your hand and calm and restore your soul. Walking with you each step of the way he leadeth you beside the still waters. You need not fear any evil for he will never leave you or forsake you; for he careth for you.

Each day of life is a miracle; as you reach out to trust and believe his Word and speak it in faith, he gives you a deeper strength and the Streams of his Love fills your inner being: his joy floods your heart, because He loves you.

Miss Albus, Brown Are Wed In Saturday Afternoon Mass

Nuptial mass uniting Charlette Albus and Allen Brown was celebrated Saturday, February 28, at three o'clock in the afternoon at St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Rhineland. The Rev. Brendon McGuire performed the ceremony.

White and peach gladioli were used on either side of the altar.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. James Albus of Knox City and Mrs. Gerald Brown of Munday and the late Mr. Brown.

Mrs. Leo Fetsch provided organ music and Charlie Decker of Amarillo sang "If" and "You Fill Up My Senses" accompanying himself on the guitar.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal length gown of white organza accented with lace appliques on the bodice. Ruffles of lace were repeated on the long sheer sleeves from the elbow to the cuff. The chapel length skirt of the gown fell into a train of tiered lace ruffles. Her fingertip veil of illusion was edged with lace matching that of the gown. She carried a bridal bouquet of white roses scattered with peach roses and lilies of the valley.

For something old, she carried a coin; something new, her bridal gown; something borrowed, a ruby ring from her grandmother; and something blue, her garter.

Matron of honor was the bride's sister, Cindy Brothers. Another sister, Mary Albus, attended as maid of honor. Bridesmaid was Beverly Brown of Rhineland, sister of the bridegroom. They wore peach colored gowns of Qiana with spaghetti straps, sheer capes and pleated skirts. Each wore peach roses in their hair and carried silk peach and white azaleas nosegays.

The bride's niece, Tammy Brothers, was flower girl. She wore a peach ruffled tiered gown and carried a basket of peach and white azaleas.

Best man was Kenny Brown, brother of the bridegroom, and groomsmen were Joey Kuehler and Bryan Kuehler, both of Munday. Ring Bearer was Jayson Kirkland of Roanoke.

Mrs. Brown also wore a peach gown and orchid corsage.

Diane Helms registered guests from a table holding a bud vase with peach carnations.

The bride's parents and the bridegroom's mother were hosts for the reception following the ceremony in the Knights of Columbus Hall.

The bride's table was covered with a white cloth with lace inserts. The tiered wedding cake held a fountain and was accented with peach roses. A couple with wedding bells was atop the cake. Crystal candleholders belonging to the bride's grandmother were used on the table. These candleholders were used at all 11 of the bride's mother's family members' weddings and at all of the Albuses' three daughters weddings. Punch, mints and nuts were also served.
