Democrats Hike House Majority

PARTY WINS IN NEW JERSEY ELECTION; SEEK ONE MORE

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Elated by victory in New Jersey yesterday, the Democrats are becoming sanguine over the possibility of taking the last remaining vacant house seat in the first New Hampshire district.

The party holds 219 seats, two more than a bare majority, as a result of the election of Percy Stewart of Plainfield, N. J., in the normally Republican fifth congression district.

The leaders, among them Speaker-Candidate Garner of Texas, called the result an omen for 1932's presidential election. Stewart's victory had converted a normal 35,000 Republican majority into an edge of 1,500 to 2,000 for the Democrats.

The New Hampshire district cannot be won in time for representation at the organization of the house but the Democrats will need every vote even after the January 5 special election to fill it. The seat has been occupied by a Democrat once before in recent years.

Five out of ten recent elections to fill house vacancies have favored the Democrats. Three of the five victors took seats which had been occupied by Republicans.

PERCY H. STEWART ELECTED TO POST

ELIZABETH, N. J. Dec. 2.—Percy H. Stewart, Democrat, was elected to congress from the regularly Republican fifth district of New Jersey by a plurality of 1,912 votes.

The special election yesterday saw a normally Republican majority of 35,000 overturned, with complete returns from the 298 districts giving Stewart 31,567 and Donald H. McLean, Republican, 29,655.

The national Republican administration was the major issue in the campaign in which Stewart an ardent wet, urged a Democratic victory as a repudiation of President Hoover and his policies. McLean, answering the challenge, pleaded for support as a vote of confidence in the president.

Mexican Bishop Is Freed By Kidnapers

EL PASO, Dec. 2 (AP)—The Rev. Luis Guizar, bishop of Campeche, Mexico, was safe here today after being released by bandits who kidnaped him in Chihuahua.

Father Guizar said the bandits gave him five pesos before leaving him at the international boundary near Presidio, Texas.

He said they told him commissions had been formed in Chihuahua to expel priests.

MAN IS SOUGHT IN AFFRAY

SAN ANGELO WOMAN IS WOUNDED IN HOLDUP ATTEMPT MONDAY

(By The Associated Press)

SAN ANGELO, Dec. 2—Authorities today sought "a small man who Mrs. Terry B. Sterrett said shot her in the back at her home and then fled.

She was wounded seriously in an affray at the Sterrett garage Monday night which cost the life of Tom McAfee, 44, a former Big Lake peace officer.

Sterrett, a druggist, said he was attacked by two men when he and his wife drove into their garage. He said he fired one shot and then heard another shot and a scream from his wife.

A justice of the peace gave a verdict that McAfee died apparently from gunshot wounds "inflicted by a weapon in the hands of Terry B. Sterrett."

The police theory was the men attempted to hold up Sterrett, obtaining he carried about $1,500 in cash and checks. One man was arrested.

Mrs. Sterrett said she was shot by a small man and she believed she could identify him. McAfee was a large man.

NEAR-SLAVERY CHARGE MADE

THOROUGH AIRING IN LOWER MISSISSIPPI APPEARS LIKELY

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—A thorough airing appeared likely today into charges of near-slavery in levee construction camps along the lower Mississippi.

News that a federation of labor investigator was going to report conditions of incredible brutality—use of lash and pistol butt—on negro laborers held in virtual peonage by contractors on the government flood control job set in motion a war department investigation.

If its findings are not satisfactory to critics, there is even possibility congress may look into the situation. However, the chief of army engineers, Major-General Lytle Brown, is on the spot and the regional supervising engineer of the army has been instructed to report fully on conditions.

It is planned to give full publicity to the report as soon as the investigator, Holt Ross, gets it here. Press reports of a preliminary statement by Carroll were the first the army engineers heard about the alleged condition but General Brown already planned to look into protests from around Vicksburg, Miss. that employment had been slashed in the government shops there.

Attempted Robbery Frustrated Today

SAN ANTONIO, Dec. 2. (AP)—Attempted robbery of the Groos National bank here today was frustrated when Adolph Groos, president, wrestled with a man until help arrived.

Walking into the bank with a brief case in his hand, the man approached Groos' desk and handed him a typed paper, which read:

"Mr. Groos, a signal from you and both of us shall die now. Read that first line carefully again. You would not help me when I begged. Now get 100 $100 bills and 100 $50 bills and place it in my leather bag. Accompany me out the door with your hat only."

Groos leaped to his feet and seized the man. J. H. Roberts who was making a deposit at the bank, saw the struggle and subdued the man.

AMARILLO AND LUBBOCK TO PLAY HERE

SPECIALS TO BRING SANDIE FANS TO TILT THURSDAY

Should the weather clear Thursday, one of the largest crowds of the year is expected to witness the Lubbock Westerners in their second bid for the championship of District One football against the Amarillo Sandies at Tech field. With approximately 2,000 tickets already sold for the game here and more than 2,000 sent to Amarillo, indications are that more than 6,000 people will attend the game.

Amarillo is planning on at least two and probably three special trains to be run to Lubbock. They will arrive here at 12:30. A number of Amarillo fans will drive through in cars for the game, advice from that city today said. They will begin arriving tonight.

Capacity Is 7,500

Seating capacity of the field at present is approximately 7,500, E. J. Lowrey, business manager of the high school athletics, said Tuesday. The entire Lubbock High school student body, pep squad and band will sit on the east side of the field. The Amarillo pep squad, band and fans will be seated on the north end of the west stands.

The Amarillo football squad will arrive at 9:50 tonight and will be quartered in the Hilton hotel which also has been designated as headquarters for the Amarillo delegation Thursday.

Tickets for the local fans are on sale at Bowen's Hilton drug with J. O. Smith in charge of the sales. He reported at noon today that several hundred seats were available out of the block put on sale Tuesday. At least 60 box seats still are unsold, he reported.

Field Is Covered

The Tech field was still covered with tarps today and although a little wet is expected to be in fair condition for the game. At least it will be much drier than the grid in Amarillo Thanksgiving, school of-

TWO MEN DEAD IN EXPLOSION

LIVES OF OTHERS ARE ENDANGERED TODAY IN BIG BLAST

By The Associated Press

WEDESBORO, N. J. Dec. 2—Two men were killed and the lives of several other persons were endangered today when a three ton boiler attached to a 10,000-gallon still exploded in a barn at Woodstown near here. The dead were mangled beyond recognition.

The blast shook the countryside for miles and sent the boiler hurtling through the air. It tore a 10-foot hole in the home of Fred Danner, 48, on whose farm the still was located, and fell in a field 100 yards away.

Danner said he had leased the barn some time ago to the two men who said they intended to manufacture tallow. He did not know their names.

DIPTHERIA REPORTED

AUSTIN, Dec. 2 (AP)—Reports of 600 cases of diptheria in the East Texas oil fields have been received by the state health department. Dr. J. C. Anderson, state health officer, suggested that children between one and 12 years old be immunized by toxoid.

PROHIBITION VOTE SEEN

WETS AND DRYS ARE MAKING CAMPAIGNS FOR CONGRESS

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Drys and wets of both parties now expect a vote in the house on prohibition at the coming session.

Anti-prohibitionists desire a vote to place the candidates for congress on record in time for the 1932 campaign. Many drys recognize that prohibition is high up in the minds of a large part of the population and that, until a vote is had, those persons will not give economic issues as much consideration as otherwise.

Favors Referendum

Representative Henry T. Rainey, outstanding candidate for the Democratic floor leader, today voiced the opinion that the prohibition question should be disposed of as early as possible to make way for economic issues, Rainey has always voted dry but favors a referendum on the 18th amendment.

Representative Snell of New York, Republican speakership nominee, another dry, said yesterday "we will have to face the prohibition issues at the coming session."

With the wet bloc numbering about 170 members and the Republicans generally favoring a rule which will permit a vote on prohibition, it appears almost certain some action will be taken.

Meanwhile, the national prohibition board of strategy reported today that more than 25,000 dimes were scooped out of one day's mail as the first cash returns from the dry group's campaign for "dry dimes to beat wet dollars."

BLANTON TO FIGHT REPEAL MOVEMENT

ABILENE, Dec. 2. (AP)—Thos. L. Blanton, 17th district congressman, departed today for Washington for the opening of congress next Monday. He was resolved, he said, to work against efforts for modification or repeal of prohibition, and to favor full payment of bonus to ex-service men.

"The saloon is dead," he said. "There is not one-tenth of one per cent of liquor now used that was used formerly, and with 75-mile an hour highways, no life would be safe with return to road houses."

Identify Suspect In Bank Robbery

COFFEYVILLE, Kas., Dec. 2 (AP)—Identified as one of two bandits who robbed the Peru, Kas., State bank of about $1,500 Nov. 7, John Eldridge, 25, Beggs, Okla., was held in jail at Sedan today.

Floyd Storer, cashier and victim of the holdup, identified Eldridge, who was arrested at Okmulgee, Okla., by officers who kept his apprehension secret in an effort to locate a second suspect.

Eldridge waived preliminary hearing and was bound over to the district court for trial.

LOCAL MEN ON VISIT TODAY TO TOWNS

CHRISTMAS PAGEANT AND PARADE BEING ARRANGED HERE

To invite townspeople and children of Abernathy, Hale Center, Plainview, and possibly other communities in that region to a Christmas pageant and parade here Friday, December 11, four Lubbock men left here this morning by automobile. The four, Charles A. Guy, Truman C. Meinecke, Bert Pinson, and J. H. Brock represent a chamber of commerce public relations committee.

A similar trip to towns southeast of here was postponed until Friday because a member of the group which will make the trip was held here by business. Slaton, Southland, Post, and possibly other points in that direction will be visited.

The committeemen will attempt to align bands for competitive appearance in the parade and pageant sponsored by the Avalanche-Journal.

Lubbock school children will be dismissed Friday morning to view the parade, the board of education decided Tuesday. About a mile and a half long, the parade will depict the birth of Christ, the visit of the three wise men, the adoration of the shepherds, and quaint customs of foreign countries.

A canvass of Lubbock business houses to ask them to contribute for prizes to be awarded floats and out-of-town bands in the Christmas parade got under way today following a meeting at 9 o'clock this morning at chamber of commerce offices of a finance committee on the pageant J. D. Hassell, jr. is chairman and A. G. Hunt and J. A. Raley vice chairmen of the committee.

The Texas Technological college and Lubbock High school bands also will participate but will not compete for prizes.

Fourteen persons attended this morning's meeting at which the committee was divided into six

Seek To Separate Capone Gangsters

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2 (AP)—The government moved today to separate convicted members of Chicago's Capone gang and ordered Ralph Capone, brother of Al, transferred from the United States penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kansas, to the United States penitentiary at McNeil Island, Washington.

Ralph was taken to Leavenworth recently after the supreme court refused to review his conviction for income tax law violations.

Other members of the Capone gang are at Leavenworth. The government decided it would be better to prevent communication between the Capones and members of their gang.

Al Capone, leader of the gang, is in jail in Chicago awaiting the outcome of an appeal from his heavy sentence for violating the income tax laws.

PRINCE NIKOLAS HAS ONE MORE DAY TO RENOUNCE WEDDING TO COMMONER

(By The Associated Press)

BUDAPEST, Dec. 2.—Prince Nikolas of Rumania has one more day, reports from Bucharest said today, to renounce his marriage to Mme. Delet), a commoner, or be exiled from the royal family under a statute which was adopted originally to curb Carol himself.

The king, who spent several years in exile because of an affair with Mme. Magda Lupescu, recently was prevailed on by his cabinet members, in the interest of his favor with the people, to curb his wrath against his younger brother and he gave Nikolas two months to "think things over."

The prince wrote Carol defiant letters, however, the reports said, and now Carol has decided to banish him tomorrow unless he repents.

The banishment order would deprive the prince of all his prerogatives, his offices and his pay.

The cabinet ministers again have opposed the king's move, it was reported, and Premier Jorga, Carol's old tutor, was said even to have reminded the king of the history of the expulsion statute.

To this Carol replied that no prince should be allowed to "make a fool of himself."

Rumanian politicians were understood to be interceding in Nikolas' behalf in order to maintain the king's popularity.

OKEH CHANGES IN TARIFF

HOOVER APPROVES TWO INCREASES AND FIVE DECREASES TODAY

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2—President Hoover today approved tariff increases on two commodities and decreases on five others.

The increases, recommended by the tariff commission and effective Jan. 1, 1932, were on McKay sewed shoes and on fresh green peas. The duty on shoes was increased from 20 per cent advalorem to 30 per cent advalorem. The peas levy was raised from 3 to 3.9 cents per pound.

The decreases approved were on window glass, turned shoes, crude feldsparr, green peppers and egg plants. The crude feldsparr tariff was lowered from $1 to $.50 per ton; cylinder, crown and sheet glass, decreased by 25 per cent; turned shoes, decreased from 20 per cent to 10 per cent; fresh green peppers, 3 to 2.5 cents per pound and egg-plants, 3 to 1 1-2 cents per pound.

No changes were made on 15 items for which applications for modification had been substituted.

DRAMA IS TO BE OFFERED TONIGHT

Presenting two Shakesperian plays, Sir Philip Ben Greet and his players from London, England, will appear in performances at the new high school auditorium this afternoon and night. "Twelfth Night" is being given at the matinee performance while "Julius Caesar" will be the evening production. The evening performance starts at 8:15.

Sir Philip is considered one of the outstanding Shakesperian students of England and is on his second season's tour of the United States with the present company. He brought his players here last year for two plays.

Russell Thorndike, one of the most noted of English Shakesperian actors, is the leading actor of the troupe, playing the part of Brutus in "Julius Caesar" tonight. Other members of the troupe include Mark Digham, Peter Dearing, Enid Clark, Frederick Sargent and Gwen Llewellyn, neice of Edith Wynne Mattheson. Eighteen members comprise the cast of the two plays.

Indians Gathering For Ancient Fiesta

TUCSON, Ariz., Dec. 2. —(AP)—Around the crumbling walls of the weather-beaten old mission of San Xavier Del Bac, on the desert nine miles south of here, hundreds of Indians gathered today to begin at sundown a three-day fiesta— the annual celebration of a thanksgiving first held in the days before the white man came.

Throughout the night and early morning the Indians, members of the Papago tribe, passed through Tucson en route to the mission. They came from all parts of the southwest, many walking, some on horseback or in wagons and still others in dilapidated automobiles.

LIGHT SNOW IN CITY TODAY

FREEZING WEATHER IS PREDICTED TONIGHT, CLOUDY THURSDAY

(By The Associated Press)

Unsettled weather, with the probability of continued rain was in the forecast for Texas today. Overcast skies throughout the state indicated little change could be expected in the next 24 hours. Temperatures climbed a few degrees but remained cool.

Shippers were warned by weather bureau observers to protect consignments against freezing in the north and Northwest sections.

Precipitation occurred in practically every part of the state yesterday and last night. Reports indicated drizzling rain covered all but the southwest region. A snow storm of two days' duration struck there.

Scattered snowflakes fell in Lubbock this morning, melting as they fell, and early this afternoon cloudy weather still was holding this section.

Freezing temperatures again are predicted for tonight, with possible rain or snow. Thursday, the weatherman says, will be cloudy. The mercury dropped to a low of 31 degrees early today, said Don L. Jones at the state experiment farm. This reading was but one degree above the minimum temperature Tuesday.

Jacob S. Coxey Is Back At Washington

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2. (AP)—The general of "Coxey's army" is back in Washington—not in jail as in '94 but, in the new Willard hotel—insistent that demonstrators be treated properly.

While unconnected with new marches on the capital, Jacob S. Coxey, sr., is sympathetic. And he is convinced of the efficacy of demonstrations. "I won out," he argued.

Coxey, representing Massillon, Ohio, as mayor-elect, now wants congress to make the $3,400,000,000 in outstanding soldier bonus insurance certificates legal tender, cashable within 30 days.

OIL MOVEMENT CONSIDERED

STERLING TELLS WHY HE RESCINDED OIL SLASH ORDER

(By The Associated Press)

DALLAS, Dec. 2—Consideration of a movement to persuade Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas to further pinch allowable production from their oil fields this week caused Governor R. S. Sterling suddenly to rescind an order to reduce the per well allowable in the East Texas field to 110 barrels.

"Merely postponed on account of inclement weather and other causes," he explained, but oil men expressed the opinion the governor had decided to leave East Texas production undisturbed until production in the three states could be studied. The 3,200 wells in the East Texas field continued under the existing military order fixing the per well allowable at 125 barrels.

Attention of oil men in the three states still centered on the hugely productive East Texas area where the output continued to mount because of new drilling, in the face of repeated reductions made by Governor Sterling in the per well allowable under martial law rule.

Price advances early in November to 83 to 85 cents per barrel heari-

NEW ALARM IN LEAGUE OF NATIONS

DEVELOPMENT IS HELD AS THREAT TO MOVE FOR SETTLEMENT

(By The Associated Press)

PARIS, Dec. 2.—News that the Japanese government was insisting that Marshal Chang Hsueh-Liang's government be withdrawn from Chinchow behind the great wall as well as his troops threw new alarm into league quarters this afternoon.

This development was regarded as a threat to the hopes for an early agreement on the council's resolution on plans for a Pacific settlement of the Sino-Japanese conflict in Manchuria.

A Japanese spokesman told the Associated Press "the council is not taking seriously our demand about the Chinese withdrawing from Chinchow, but we mean business."

BAG AND HAT OF SAME MATERIAL AS DRESS IS FAVORED NOTE OF FASHION

By RUTH BALDWIN COWAN

CHICAGO, Dec. 2—(AP)—Bag and hat of the same material as the dress.

That was a favored fashion note observed at the national 4-H clubs style show last night in which young farmerettes demonstrated their skill with the needle and modeled what "the well dressed school girl" is wearing that is smart, yet easy on the purse.

Annette Yonkelowitz, 15, Hoopeston, Ill., who was awarded the title of style queen, placed first in the tailored wool dress class with a light green novelty wool frock with collar, cuffs and vestee of egg shell crepe she made at a cost of $60, 31. Her entire outfit, including dress, hat, shoes and undergarments, totaled $24.90.

Louise Morgan, 17, Buchanan, Ga., won first place in the cotton school dress class with a brown and orange cotton tweed sport frock that looked like Fifth Avenue. Her jaunty tam and envelope bag were of the same material. The investment in the dress was $6.30 and in the outfit $15.65.

A dark brown crepe dress with a clever tan yoke won the blue ribbon in the semi-tailored silk dress class for Helen Louise Thomas, 15, of Amesville, O. Her dress cost her $5.06 and the outfit $14.27.

HEALTHIEST BOY, GIRL GET UP EARLY, LIKE SPINACH, BUT BAN STIMULANTS

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Dec. 2.—America's healthiest 4-H club girl is 15 year old Gertrude Heikes of Dakota City, Neb., and she's all but perfect so far as her physical condition is concerned.

She scored 99.9 points to win the national 4-H health contest over the competitors of 151 other states. Only a slight imperfection in the alignment of her teeth kept her from a 100 per cent rating. And she's a good looking girl too.

William Sanders, a husky 18-year-old blond youth of Hopewell, Ind., who like Miss Heikes lives on a farm, was proclaimed the healthiest 4-H boy in the country with a rating of 99.1. A slight skin eruption, a defective nasal passage and somewhat faulty teeth were the only defects examining physicians and dentists said they could find when the results of the contest were announced yesterday.

Neither of the winners goes in for any special diet but they drink lots of milk, get up at the crack of dawn, aren't afraid of a little work, go to bed early, and, last but possibly not least, they both eat spinach. They were emphatic about that. But cigarette, coffee, tea or stimulants of any kind are taboo.

Wedell Has Record, Hawks A Headache

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 2. (AP)—James Wedell, New Orleans pilot, held a new Agua Caliente-Vancouver flight record today and Capt. Frank Hawks, who also went after speed honors for the course, had a headache.

While Wedell rested in Vancouver after a flight of six hours and 46 minutes from Mexico yesterday, Captain Hawks was in a hospital at Yreka, Calif., recuperating from the effects of carbon-monoxide gas which rendered him nearly unconscious while he was attempting to set a record on a southbound flight.

Bridge Tournament Between College Clubs, Tacky Party Feature Social Events

Las Chaparritas And Stag Clubs Have Joint Bridge Party; Party Is Benefit

Among the social events of Tuesday were a bridge tournament between members of the Stag Bridge and Las Chaparritas clubs and a benefit tacky party given by two circles in the First Christian General Aid society.

Although it has not been an annual custom, members of Las Chaparritas and Stag clubs have had several bridge tournaments in the last few years. Tuesday evening's affair was at the Hilton hotel and members of the girls' club scored a few points above those of the men's society.

High scores for the young women were made by Misses Marjorie Ann Ainsworth and Frances Ford. Robert Huff and Dr. W. J. Howard made high scores for the men. Miss Beth Wulfman received the low score favor. Ten tables were in play.

Costumes Good

Costuming of those who attended the tacky party added much to the color for the occasion. Circles 1 and 4 of the Aid, of which Mrs. Joe Coursey and Mrs. J. H. Eubanks are chairmen, gave the party to raise funds for their general activities. It was at the church.

Paper flowers and kerosene lamps were used in preparing the parlors for the affair. Various games were played and refreshments were served, consisting of corn bread, buttermilk and ginger cakes. Ross Edwards' orchestra played.

PENDER TALKS ON WAR SITUATION

The settlement of the Sino-Japanese controversy will determine the future of the league of nations, Prof. H. C. Pender of the Texas Technological government department told members of the Lubbock Lions club at the Hilton hotel Tuesday. The Manchurian situation, he said, is one of the most serious international complications since the world war.

"Manchuria is the sore spot of the world today," Prof. Pender said as he reviewed the situation in his talk. "It is owned technically by China and coveted by both Japan and Russia with the United States being intensely interested in the entanglement due to its foreign policy since the Spanish-American war. The nation has departed from its isolated foreign policy and has shown some cooperation with the league in the earlier stages of the controversy but a recent withdrawal of the U. S. from the league sessions has weakened the efforts of the league."

He said Russia was in no position to fight should there be war as it would mean the sacrificing of her five-year plan.

Prior to Prof. Pender's talk H. W. Moore gave two vocal selections. He was accompanied by Mrs. Moore.

Dr. S. S. McKay had charge of the program.

The club voted to cooperate with the Avalanche-Journal in the Christmas pageant after E. H. McKinney and J. H. Brock had explained it and President F. L. Pitts named a committee to decide on a float for the parade.

Campaign Against Vagrants Started

LAMESA, Dec. 2 (Special)—"Too many people are maliciously idle and gold-bricking for charity," Mayor J. R. Lowrie of Lamesa said after several vagrants had been told here recently. Every person suspected of being a vagrant will be investigated, the mayor said.

There is no employment in Lamesa or Dawson county to invite additional labor according to survey here. The U. S. Employment Labor Bureau service has been busy the last few weeks routing hundreds of cotton pickers and maize headers out of the territory, it being clear that there is too much labor here. It is pointed out that there is no reason for anyone to be misled in coming to this territory seeking labor. Many who have come here recently have stated that they had been told there was plenty of work here and when they came, had spent all of their means, and upon arriving found no labor and were objects of charity.

Many things can be changed from a harmless substance to a poison by merely changing the arrangement of the atoms of which they are made.

DR. MYERS

BY GARRY C. MYERS, PH. D. Head Division Parental Education Cleveland College, Western Reserve University

Doctor Myers' Daily Column On Child Welfare

TWINS

About two per cent of all children born are twins. Twins pairs are of two types. In one type, both members of the pair may or may not be of the same sex. They begin from two fertilized eggs that happen to be fertilized at the same time. In the prenatal life each occupies its own separate fetal sac and draws nourishment from a separate placenta. After birth they resemble each other only as do any other children with the same father and mother.

Of the other type of twins, both members are always of the same sex. Always they have the same color of eyes and hair, and resemble each other very closely in their features, though they may differ considerably in body size. During their embryonic life they are carried in the same fetal sac and their umbilical cords draw nourishment from the same placenta.

To quote from Dr. Paul T. Wilson of the Institute of Child Welfare of the University of California: "For obvious reasons the actual process of their origin has never been observed in man, but fortunately nature has furnished us with comparable phenomenon in an animal that is easily available. The armadillo has four young at birth, and in appearance these young are so like one another at birth as to be considered identical.

"Close study has been made of their development from the moment of their conception until they are fully formed young. These investigations have shown that only one egg is fertilized, but in the early stages of development this single embryo divides into two, and these in turn divide again, so that in fact there are two sets of twins, all from a single fertilized eggs. Most embryologists agree that much the same thing at times occurs in man.

"In most cases anyone familiar with the structure of the embryonic membrane can tell at birth whether twins are of identical or the fraternal type" . . .

To quote further from Wilson: "Popular belief is that twinning is a very strong family trait, that members of a twin pair usually beget twin children. However, the data of a number of careful investigators show relatively few members of twin pairs who were also pairs of twins. . . . The United States birth records show that older mothers tend to have a higher percentage of twin children. Apparently multiple births are more common among the north European than among the Mediterranean peoples.

Whereas about 5 per cent of the total population are left-handed among twins the rate is about 13 per cent. Most investigators think this is due in some way to the halving of the original embryo; in one of the new individuals the dominance of the right side is retained and in the other it is transferred to the left side.

The Institute of Child Welfare of the University of California has been making an extensive study of twins of school age. The results of their study should be of great interest to all of us. Dr. John Anderson directed a study of twin infants at the Institute of Child Welfare of the University of Minnesota. Among the things he discovered was that twins develop speech somewhat later than non-twins, since perhaps they have less need of speech in their early years than do siblings.

Santa Suggests—

A COMBINATION CENTERPIECE

Being a young man in love with a gorgeous creature is very nice. Trying to think of something appropriate to give her mother for Christmas is something else.

An excellent solution to this perplexity is a new combination centerpiece for the fastidious hostess. It is a porcelain fruit dish or flower vase and candelabra. It can be a lovely green color or other tones. With fresh fruit in it, it functions both as decoration and for use. With flowers placed in a holder, it becomes a charming novelty for the table.

Mrs. H. F. Godeke, president, opened the council meeting by reading a Christmas poem and Mrs. E. B. Wheelock sang "The Tree of the P.-T. A., a national organization song. Reports were given and tentative plans were discussed for a mother-daughter luncheon to be given in January.

REFUND LOOMS ON PAVING

SPECIFICATIONS NOT BE CHANGED. ELY TELLS LUBBOCK

AUSTIN, Dec. 2.—(Special)—Specifications in material for state highway No. 7 from Lubbock northwestward will not be changed, the state highway commission told a Lubbock county delegation here Tuesday.

Commissioners J. T. Pinkston and L. C. Denton complained that when the campaign for the bond issue in Lubbock county was being waged voters were told the highway would be constructed of concrete and that several protests had been registered against the plan of the highway commission to substitute caliche and asphalt.

W. R. Ely, commission chairman, told the delegation that construction as planned by the state would give Lubbock county a much better road at considerable less expense and leave the county wth sufficient funds to materially improve other roads. Ely said the wealth of local material would reduce maintenance on highway seven to a minimum and that the asphalt and caliche would be in good condition for several years where concrete paving would deteriorate rapidly.

Turn Back Money

"Let the highway department build this road like it wants to and we will turn back some of the money to the county for use in paying off the bonds or additional improvements," Ely stated.

Protest of a Travis county delegation against the proposed change in the route of the Austin-Houston highway between Manor and Elgin was heard but the commission looked with disfavor on rebuilding the highway on its present location. The new route will reduce the distance between Elgin and Manor four miles.

The present route was termed one of the worst pieces of road in the state, the commission expressing a strong desire to proceed with the improvement possible.

Award Contracts

The commission Tuesday awarded road and bridge construction contracts, aggregating $736,024 bringing the total for the two-day session to $1,781,378.

Bids have been asked by the commission on additional projects estimated to cost $1,400,000. These bids will be opened December 12.

Contracts awarded today called for improvement of 95.4 miles construction of ten bridges and one railroad grade elimination. Of the total to be improved, 58.2 miles will be grading and drainage structures, nine miles of concrete paving and 13.3 miles of other types of hard surface.

BOND ISSUE IS SUPPORTED

BROWNFIELD EDITOR FAVORS PASSAGE OF PROJECT

BROWNFIELD, Dec. 2.—(Special)—When A. J. (Jack) Stricklin, editor of the Terry County Herald, supported a proposed highway bond election in the county with a front page article, the about-face reflected the consideration Terry county citizens are giving to voting bonds for construction of all-weather highways in the county and paving of 110 miles of state highway.

"As most of the readers know, the Herald has always opposed a big bond issue in Terry county for the construction of roads and especally as they were figured to cost us in the neighborhood of a million dollars," he said. "But since both the state and federal governments have begun to look more favorably on the cheaper costing road, and one which can be constructed with materials found on the grounds, we have come to look more favorably on the proposition."

Mr. Stricklin pointed out that there is a strong probability of a state-wide bond issue being passed by the legislature and that it will include the redemption of present county bond issues. Should Terry county have a bond issue voted, this money would be refunded.

At the present time the county has slightly over 45 miles of state designated highways. 15.15 miles of No. 137 between the Hockley county line and Brownfield and 30.25 miles of No. 84 from the Lynn county line on the west through Brownfield to the Yoakum county line. Besides this there is a mile of street through the town that is not included as the county takes care of the expense of paving streets.

No. 137 between Brownfield and the Gaines county line, four miles from Seminole, has not been designated in this county. The state is soon to let a contract to pave between Seagraves and Seminole and this will bring state designation nearer.

In speaking of state aid for these paving jobs, Mr. Stricklin said: "But if we did not get a penny for either of these roads, an outlay of $300,000 would put every artery in the county in fine shape, and all the money allowed the commissioners could then be spent on the upkeep of our neighborhood roads."

"Our good clay roads have about served their day for they are not all-weather roads and the first thing we know, other counties will build all-weather roads around us and leave us sitting high and dry."

State designated highways in Terry county include the following: No. 137, Hockley county line to Brownfield, 15.15 miles. No. 84, Lynn county line to Brownfield, 11.75 miles, through Brownfield one mile, Brownfield to Yoakum county line, 18.50 miles; total 46.75 miles of state designated road. An additional 30 miles is to be added with the designation from Brownfield to the Gaines county line. It is now a county road.

Soloist-Composer Forgets His Song

NEW YORK, Dec. 2. (AP)—Soloist-composers sometimes forget their own songs.

Frank Crumit and the missus, Julia Sanderson, were guests of Rudy Vallee the other evening. As a courtesy, Rudy asked Crumit to sing his own song "The Gay Cabellero" for the diners.

Frank got to his feet, but not a word issued from his mouth as his face began to flush and the music went on.

The prompting of Julia finally saved the day.

Cotton Market

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Dec. 2 (AP)—Cotton opened steady today, 3 points higher to 2 points lower on covering and some southern selling. Offerings were small.

Trading was quiet at the start but became a little more active after the opening, with prices working up slightly as offerings were comparatively light and some covering seemed to be promoted by rallies on an opening decline in the stock market. January sold up from 6.01 to 6.05 and May from 6.36 to 6.41, making the more active months about 2 to 5 points net higher by the end of the first half hour.

Liverpool cables said there had been local and foreign buying in that market o nthe depreciation in sterling but reported an improved cloth demand from India.

The market was quiet later in the morning but held fairly steady with very little pressure in evidence except for some selling by brokers supposed to be operating for the cooperative associations and Japanese account. This was absorbed by covering or trade buying and the market at midday was steady with January around 6.06 and May 6.42, or about 5 to 6 points net higher.

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 2 (AP)—The cotton market had a quiet and irregular opening today. Cables were a shade worse than due and first trades here showed 2 points gain to 2 points decline. The market eased off slightly after the start on a little liquidation. January dropping to 6.03 and March to 6.18, or 4 to 5 points down from yesterday's close.

There was little disposition to trade, operations being disposed to wait for the government estimate due early next week.

Near the end of the first hour the market was quiet and steady and at the lows.

A private authority estimated the crop at 17,200,000 bales.

The market continued to rule very quiet all morning, prices fluctuating within a few points and keeping within the early range. The market was sustained by steadiness in stocks but there appeared to be a general disposition on the part of traders to await the government's final estimate of the crop.

Near noon, January traded at 6.05 and March at 6.22, one to two points below yesterday's close.

Another private authority today estimated the crop at 17,339,000 bales.

NEW ORLEANS OPEN

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 2 (AP)—Cotton futures opened steady today: Dec. 6.03; Jan. 6.09; March 6.21; May 6.41; July 6.57; Oct. 6.79.

NEW YORK OPEN

NEW YORK, Dec. 2 (AP)—Cotton futures opened steady today: Dec. 5.97; Jan. 6.04; March 6.19; May 6.38; July 6.55; Oct. 6.80.

Stock Market

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, Dec. 2. (AP)—Short covering based on the recommendation for a 10-per cent Canadian railroad wage cut more than offset the Wabash receivership in the stock market today and prices rallied briskly after a few minutes of weakness at the opening.

Extreme declines of 1 to 3 in rail shares were converted into net gains of similar extent. Wabash shares sold at nominal quotations but firmed from the lowest. Tobacco issues were strengthened a point or more by resumption of the Lorillard common dividend.

U. S. Steel, American Can, Case, American Telephone and Allied Chemical advanced 1 to 2 points on the upturn. Trading was very quiet after the first half-hour.

Call money renewed at 2 1-2 per cent.

Grain Market

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, Dec. 2 (AP)—Wheat prices averaged higher and corn lower early today. Upturns in Liverpool wheat quotations with improvement in British exchange rates gave some encouragement to wheat bulls. Opening unchanged to 1-2 cent up, wheat afterward rose all around but then receded. Corn started at 1-8 decline to 1-4 advance and subsequently sagged.

HEARING SET IN AUCTION TRIAL

A hearing will be conducted before Judge Clark M. Mullican in 99th district court December 10 to determine whether a temporary injunction, granted Tuesday to restrain the city from interfering with an auction sale by Steagall Bros., jewelers, shall be made permanent.

The order, temporarily restraining city officials from prosecuting members of the firm for violation of the city's ordinance regulating auctions, was issued Tuesday afternoon following a hearing Monday.

The plaintiffs made $1,000 bond ordered by Judge Mullican. The Steagalls, in their petition, attacked the city's ordinance regulating auctions, except sections 11, 12 and 13. The petition sets out that the firm had not complied with the ordinance, which requires 30 days notice of an auction and an itemized list of articles to be sold, with cost price. These requirements were attacked as being unfair to those conducting the auction, charging their business competitors would be given an advantage.

The petition sets out that Chief of Police John Lemond has arrested P. E. Steagall and P. L. Wilson the latter an employe of the firm. The defendants, all city officials including Mayor J. J. Clements, the commissioners, the police chief and Manager W. H. Rodgers, were served with the restraining order late Tuesday.

anese forces and was driving them back.

The action was described as part of a counterattack by General Mah to recapture Tsitsihar from which his army was driven by the Japanese offensive on the Nonni river.

Varied Program Is Heard By Rotarians

Members of the Lubbock Rotary club heard George Simmons, local cotton oil mill manager, in a classification talk, J. H. Henry, state Y. M. C. A. secretary, of Dallas, on his organization's work, Coach Weldon Chapman pledge his Westerners' fight and Sir Philip Ben Greet of London in short talks at the club's luncheon in Lubbock hotel today noon. Rev. W. P. Jennings was in charge of the program.

Mr. Simmons, quoting statistics on the present cotton crop, pointed out that acreage reduction is the imperative need of the south today and that the cooperatives are letting the problem fall into the hands of the political whims of the various states when they should be giving close coordination by districts to acreage control.

Mr. Henry traced the rise of the Y. M. C. A. movement from its founding in London in 1844 and outlined the services to the youth of the nation that it renders. The future hope of youth lies in the development of leadership responsibilities, he said.

Coach Chapman made a short talk when called on and assured the club that his boys "would be out there fighting until the last".

Sir Philip Ben Greet spoke briefly, lauding the spirit of Rotary and citing Shakespeare's moderness.

A number of out-of-town Rotarians and guests were present.

CLAIMS BANKRUPTCY

Listing his liabilities at $25,620.23 and his assets at $32,035, Robert Henry Fraulin, a retail druggist of Crosbyton, Tuesday filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy in United States district court here. He claimed property exemptions totaling $15,035.

White Face Youth Seriously Injured

His skull fractured when he and a playmate ran together at a school house, La Verne Moss, 8-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Moss of White Face, was received at Lubbock sanitarium at 6 o'clock last night.

Attendants this morning said his condition was good. An operation was performed to relieve pressure on the brain.

Certificates Given Matadors Of Tech

Certificates for miniature gold footballs and football letters were awarded Texas Technological college athletics at 11 o'clock convocation in the gymnasium there this morning. Lubbock business men donated the footballs.

The secretary of the Texas Y. M. C. A., J. H. Henry, was the principal speaker. The Matador band played.

BUY UNIT FOR LIGHT PLANT

CITY WILL INCREASE CAPACITY OF PLANT BY NEW ENGINE

Installation of a new 1,390 horsepower Diesel engine, purchased on Tuesday from the Nordberg Manufacturing company of Milwaukee for $56,704, will increase the capacity of the city light plant 1,000 kilowatt hours.

The city commission accepted the Nordberg bid from 16 bids offered on the equipment by six firms. Price is F. O. B. Lubbock and delivery is expected within three months. Revolutions per minute of the engine bought is 257.

Capacity of the plant now is approximately 2,400 kilowat hours, it was said, from ten engines varying in power from two 200-horse power Fairbanks-Morse to one 1,250 H. P. Nordberg.

Nordberg offered four bids, as follows: 1250 H. P. slow speed engine, $74,549; 1,500 h. p. engine capable of 277 r. p. m., $56,704; 1,800 h. p. $80,926, and the bid accepted by the city.

Other bids were:

I. P. Morris and De La Vergne company of Philadelphia 1,200 h. p. engine, $63,000; 1,600 h. p., $77,-100.

CITY-WIDE COLLECTION TO BE MADE FOR OLD CLOTHING FOR NEEDY HERE

Lubbock's unfortunates need clothing and the United Welfare association Saturday, December 12, will conduct a city-wide collection of worn apparel which townspeople wish to donate.

Plans for the drive were made Tuesday afternoon at a meeting of a committee from the association, which placed J. T. Trigg in charge and named Mrs. John Dalrymple and Mrs. W. B. Price to assist him. Services of the Boy Scouts, offered by D. T. Jennings, scout executive, have been accepted.

Many unfilled calls for clothing already have been made to the association, Miss Evelyn Richter, the secretary, told committee members. Much suffering from cold will be alleviated this winter among transients and some needy local people if sufficient cast-off clothing is donated, she said.

Backers of the drive Tuesday urged every Lubbock resident to gather all his old clothing before Saturday and on Saturday morning, Dec. 12, to place it at the front door. Cars donated for the purpose will carry two Boy Scouts each and make calls for the clothing. A thorough canvass is planned, with each street to be assigned to collectors.

Difficulty was encountered last year in the drive when those who wished to give clothing did not have them ready when the collectors came, it was pointed out.

Attending the meeting Tuesday were B. Sherrod, County Judge E. L. Pitts, Miss Richter, J. W. Hodges, the Rev. R. M. Hocker, Mr. Trigg, J. O. Jones, Mr. Jennings and George Simmons.

Quail Season Opens In Texas Yesterday

The quail season opened in Texas yesterday and hunting of the birds will be legal until a half hour after sundown January 15, Morgan Dickinson, deputy game warden, said.

Bag limit on quail is 12 birds each day per hunter and must be shot between one-half hour before sunrise and one-half hour after the sun sets. Word of the arrest of two hunters with nine prairie chicken and two quail at Seminole Monday was received here yesterday by Mr. Dickinson. The men paid fines of more than $100 each, it was said. Open season on prairie chicken is only four days, beginning Sept. 1.

For the first time in the history of iron ore mining in Minnesota, Itasca county has passed a year without a fatal accident.

Seeks Half Billion

Declared to be the largest suit ever filed, an action for $500,000,000 has been brought in federal court by Miss Marjorie O'Brien, a stenographer of Dorchester, Mass., against Goldman, Sachs & Co., private bankers and directors of a trading corporation of that name in New York. Miss O'Brien seeks to recover for herself and other shareholders half a billion dollars it is alleged was lost to the trading company through improper investments.

RETIRING OFFICERS ARE HONORED AT TUESDAY FETE

Honoring men who soon will retire as officers of the Lubbock County Medical society, about 90 persons attended a dinner-dance Tuesday night in the Matador ballroom and adjacent mezzanine quarters of the Hilton hotel. Members of the society, their wives, technicians, and offices employes were at the dinner and dancing and bridge which followed.

Dr. Allen T. Stewart, president of the society, presided at the banquet at which an address on "Humanism," by W. C. Rylander, was a feature. As an added, pleasing event was a musical skit by Mrs. R. A. Mills, reader; Mrs. Paul Morgan, pianist, and Mrs. H. W. Moore, soprano. The trio sketched the life of an imaginary man, from cradle to grave, through popular musical selections.

Doctor Stewart retires as president and Dr. R. L. Powers as secretary of the association on January 1. A business meeting of the society will be held in the near future when 1932 officers will be elected.

The evening's entertainment and banquet were planned by a committee composed of Doctors O. W. English, Robert T. Canon and R. L. Powers.

Made FRESH
never parched, never toasted
CAMELS are KEPT Fresh!

You probably know that heat is used in the treatment of all cigarette tobaccos.

But you know too that excessive heat can destroy freshness and fragrance.

That's why there could be no truly fresh cigarette except for scientifically developed methods of applying heat.

Reynolds is proud of having discovered and perfected methods for getting the benefits of heat treatments and still avoiding ever parching or toasting.

With every assurance we tell you, Camels are truly fresh. They're made fresh — not parched or toasted — and then they're kept fresh in the Camel Humidor Pack.

If you wish to know why the swing to Camels is nationwide and steadily growing — switch to them for just one day — then leave them, if you can.

WESTERNERS TAKE THINGS EASY IN PREPARATION FOR SANDIES

LAMESA TO MEET CLARENDON FRIDAY

WORKOUT HELD IN GYM HERE YESTERDAY

CHAMPIONSHIP GAME TO BE TOMORROW ON TECH FIELD

The Lubbock Westerners, on the verge of a victory or a defeat that will mean the difference between a district football championship title and just another "also ran," are trying to "unlax" this week before they meet the Amarillo High school Golden Sandies tomorrow. They worked out yesterday at the high schoo gymnasium. They will don uniforms today and get in a bit of gridiron work, though it will be brief and to the point if the weather is unfavorable.

Yesterday's workout was an unusual one for a team so near the breaking or making point. The Westerners did not wear football togs, rather they donned the things of the maple court and toyed with a basketball for a short period. It was a light workout, featuring rest and relaxation.

Plenty Work Monday

But the workout tendered the Westerners on the previous day was long enough and hard enough to suffice for at least two days. Unless the weather is good today the Westerners will put in another afternoon at the gymnasium. The game with Pampa on Monday left the Westerners in not too good conditions and humors, yet the attitude on the practice court yesterday was of a pleasing nature.

Sensing the danger of over-training and over-practicing, also the danger attached to outside work in unhealthfully cold weather, Coach Chapman ordered his Westerners to the gymnasium for a skull practice, warm-up exercises and calisthenics. They all realize the grave possibility of a defeat when the Sandies, favorites now to cop the District 1 title, come here Thursday. They also realize that they will be blamed for the defeat, no matter what kind of preparation is made, so they're taking things as easily as possible. Rest, Coach Chapman wisely believes, is as essential to a ball club as work.

Hurts Slow To Improve

Investigations yesterday failed to show any great improvement on the part of the injured Westerners. Captain Bob Crawford is ailing with a battered thumb, caused by something more strenuous than thumbing rides to and from the practice field, and Fullback Gene Barnett is suffering from the foot injury jinx. Crawford's thumb, while not seriously affecting his health and appetite, provides a mental disturbance not easily quelled. Barnett sprained an ankle, the ankle on the same foot that was broken in the Childress game, and if the Westerners can do without him at all, he will not see much service tomorrow.

The others of the casualty and semi-casualty lists are slowly rounding into health and happiness. Quarterback O H Britton took several hard jolts Monday and, while he is not exactly groggy, he is feeling the effects of the game. Mack Scoggin had not had time to recover from a blow sustained in Amarillo on Thanksgiving before he was called upon to help beat Pampa. The game did his condition no good. Melvin Griggs, guard of the first water, was taken, limping, from the Pampa game. He is still limping. Charley horses are prevalent.

The Westerners are conceded only the slimest chance to defeat Amarillo tomorrow. The Sandies are coming full of hope and courage and with a week of comfortable rest separating them from the last game. They are the heavy favorites. Dame Fortune must deal a lick or two of her own if Lubbock wins. Amarillo's long line of reserves is enough to send quakes through the systems of hopeful Lubbock supporters.

Matador Field reposed under a covering of tarps and heavy cloth last night. The coverings were removed yesterday and the field swept clear of the drifting snow, but the coverlet was replaced with nightfall against the possibility of additional snowfall and probable rain. It is hoped that the game tomorrow can at least be played upon a dry field.

Aggies Decline To Clash With Steers For Charity

ALBIE BOOTH IN HOSPITAL AND HIS STORY BOOK CAREER NOW IS ONLY A MATTER OF YALE ATHLETIC RECORDS

BY EDWARD J. NEIL
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Dec. 2—Albie Booth, the dynamic mite, is resting in the Gaylord sanatorium at Wallingford, Conn., today bound to a hospital cot for perhaps four months, his story book career now only a matter of Yale athletic records.

His is the story of a small-town boy who made good in his own neighborhood, a New Haven High school idol who stepped into Yale's big league, all 145 pounds of him, and instantaneously dominated every team, football, baseball or basketball, on which he played.

Never All-American

Albie is the greatest broken field runner, the finest leader in Yale's modern football history, a ball-carrying back whose sudden scoring splurges are rivalled only by feats of the gridiron's great pair of redheads, Grange of Illinois and Cagle of Army. Yet in his three sensational years, Albie never "made" an all-America eleven. Always some injury or some illness such as the pleurisy and bronchitis which now have ended his Yale career, forced him to the sidelines.

Yet in his three years in the Yale backfield, Booth probably generated as much publicity as either Grange or Cagle. He had the same spark of inspirational leadership, the dash and spectacular ability to function best in a crisis, the nerve of a winning ball player.

Three highspots blaze through Booth's career, two of them in a pair of magnificent scoring outbursts, the third in the last few minutes of the Harvard-Yale game, last of his career, when he dropped back and kicked the field goal that gave the Elis a 3-0 victory.

As a sophomore he leaped overnight into national fame by tearing Army apart in little more than a period to score 21 points after the Cadets, with "Red" Cagle in the ascendancy, had gained a lead of 13-0.

Texas Tech is not in an athletic conference; neither is Notre Dame if that's any comfort, but Tech faces a schedule next fall what is a schedule, and how! Southern Methodist, Texas A. & M., Baylor University, Louisiana Tech, University of Arizona, Notre Dame, University of New Mexico, Colorado Mines, Austin College or Trinity University and Simmons University. Boy, oh boy!

The football business in Lubbock is picking up. Axel. Ole Tech is going to show 'em how to go. May not win all their games, may not win even half of 'em, but the Matadors will scrap 'em. Had Coach Cawthon desired, he might have arranged a schedule through which Tech could go undefeated. That would have been easier. It was much more difficult to arrange games with the bigger teams, and Mister Pete and his boys like the hard way.

By meeting the bigger teams, win, lose or draw, the Matadors can bring greater recognition to their school, provide better football entertainment for fans and enjoy the experience of playing with the other good teams. It's a great step-up, and Coaches Cawthon and Smith and the other powers that be are to be congratulated.

* * *

Had it occurred to you that Tech has defeated three conference champions, or would be champions this fall? The New Mexico Aggies defeated the University of New Mexico for the Far Southwest conference title, it being the second straight title for the Aggies, and Tech defeated both the N. M. clubs. Simmons University is co-holder of the Texas conference title with Howard Payne, and A. C. C. is tied for the T. I. A. A. championship. Tech defeated both teams by decisive means.

They named the lettermen the other night and a right smart bunch of boys they are, too. With the exception of one, perhaps two and maybe three, the entire squad will be back next year, better equipped and more apt to carry on. It was sportsmanlike to award a special honorary letter to Bill Teal, flashy end who sustained a broken leg in the Haskell game. To Speed Moffett, Yancy Price, Shorty France, Bennie McWilliams, Harold Crites, Slick Close, Murray Nichols (whom we owe a bowl of ice cream), Ross Ayres, George Langford, Matt Hitchcock, Walter Fulks, Truett Owens, Jack Durham, Eli Harris, Clarence Young, Toby Greer, Elva Baker and Lacey Turner we extend a hand of congratulation and gratitude.

Reserve letters are to be awarded Harlan Howell, Whacker Barton, George Cowan, Carl McAdams, Merrill Kayser and Lefty Sollis. They're all good men and likely to be heard from next year. And they gave Bo Williams a letter for his managerial services. Bo is right there with the goods when it comes to looking after the team. He's as indispensable to the team as smelling salts is to the team's opponents. Matt Hitchcock, however, likes his smelling salts.

Well, we knew we'd get down to it sooner or later and we can't go further down this column without suggesting that there will be another football game at Matador Field tomorrow. Judging from the looks of things now, the Amarillo Sandies will feel at home. The field may be heavy, the atmosphere more than likely will be heavier and colder. Yep, it looks like another day for Amarillo.

* * *

The game tomorrow between the Lubbock High Westerners and the Amarillo Golden Sandies is being played for the expreis purpose of deciding who will represent the district in the bi-district game Saturday with Quanah—and nothing can be done about it, apparently. We had hoped that the District 1 race would end on Thanksgiving Day, like any normal football season should end. But Amarillo had to act hateful about it and prolong the agony by beating the newspaper champions.

POST SEASON TILT IS TURNED DOWN BY A&M COLLEGE

DALLAS, Dec. 2 (AP)—A. & M. college last night declined to meet the University of Texas in a post-season football game for charity.

Athletic officials at College Station telegraphed persons in Dallas who were attempting to arrange the contest that members of the Aggie squad considered the season closed and wanted to start basketball practice.

D. W. Carlton, business manager of athletics at A. & M. and Matty Bell, head coach, previously had discussed the matter with a Dallas committee.

W. E. Metzenthin, chairman of the Longhorn athletic council, told the committee he was authorized to schedule the game if all receipts except actual expense of bringing the teams to Dallas and returning them to their schools were given to charity.

If a suitable opponent could be found, it was believed the game would be played. Joe C. Thompson, chairman of the committee, said, however, no other opponent was in sight.

DICK METZ IS GOLF WINNER

WINS PROFESSIONAL TOURNAMENT HELD AT LONGVIEW

LONGVIEW, Dec. 2 (AP)—Dick Metz, Texas Professional Golf Association champion and holder of several minor titles, added another jewel to his crown yesterday by winning the first annual Texas Professional Golf organization tournament with a 72-hole card of 142-145—287.

Tony Butler, Corpus Christi professional whose 141 led Monday at the conclusion of the first 36 holes, finished five strokes back of Metz for second place with 141-151—292.

Jimmy McGonagill, Dallas amateur and Ray Garrett, Tyler professional, tied with 299 for third place. Garrett got the money and McGonagill a trophy.

William Robinson, who displayed one of the finest assortment of approach shots in the tournament, won fourth place with 148-153—301.

Fine mess the Sandies got us into a fine mess. Well, we comes right back and repeats a victory over Pampa and now we're ready to play the Turkey Day game all over again. This time the Sandies are favorites. How so, Axel, how so? Well, Lubbock beat Pampa twice didn't it, or she? And didn't Pampa beat Amarillo? Quite so, but then Amarillo beat Lubbock, to make the tie more binding.

The dope has run true to form only once, and that on Monday when Lubbock defeated Pampa. At all other times it has been as haywire as a lunatic at a dress rehearsal. Lubbock is not in very good shape for another hard game this week. Three hard games over a period of seven days is not good for one's team. Even if the Westerners beat Amarillo, they've gotta meet Quanah Saturday and that is what is called rushing the deal. Quanah may slip up on the district 1 delegate. In fact, it would be no surprise at all if Quanah should beat Lubbock, provided Lubbock wins. Amarillo might be in better shape, or worse.

We're glad to note that Henry Frnka, former Lubbock High coach, won his district title, defeating Marshall, the favorite, in the play-off Monday. Frnka is showing East Texas boys some West Texas stuff, and it's coming through fine. 'Twould be nice, kinda, if Lubbock and Greenville could meet in something or other in connection with the state schoolboy race.

Hungary has raised its bounty to wheat and rye growers.

STRONG SQUAD IS SELECTED

DRAKE PLACES FOUR ON THE MISSOURI VALLEY ELEVEN

Missouri Valley all-conference football selections:
(By the Associated Press)
John Briley, Drake, end.
Fred Blanck, Drake, tackle.
Milo Bowers, Drake, guard.
Oscar Christofferson, Grinnell, center.
Bill Oates, Okla. A. & M., guard.
Richard Sklenar, Creighton, tackle.
Frank Duncan, Grinnell, end.
Henry Thomas, Grinnell, quarterback.
Hayden Trigg, Okla. A. & M., halfback.
Conrad Collin, Creighton, halfback.
Lloyd Lanshud, Drake, fullback.

DES MOINES, Ia., Dec. 2 (AP)—A fast backfield and a fast, hard charging line make up the 1931 all-Missouri Valley football team selected by coaches, athletic officials and critics for The Associated Press today.

Drake, which won its three conference contests to lay claim to another title, placed four men. Grinnell rated three and Oklahoma A. & M. and Creighton two each.

Henry Thomas, Grinnell quarterback, was unanimous choice for that post. The heaviest man in the backfield, Conrad Collin of Creighton, was voted a halfback berth. The Oklahoma Aggie midget, Hayden Trigg, whose brilliance was one of the features of the Aggie attack, drew the other halfback post.

The fullback post went to Lloyd Lanshud, 158-pound Drake star.

DISTRICT ONE WINNER WILL PLAY HOST

BI-DISTRICT TITLE TO BE AT STAKE IN CONTEST

LAMESA, Dec. 2.—(Special)—With the bi-district Class B championship at stake, the Lamesa Golden Tornadoes will leave tomorrow for Clarendon where on Friday they meet the Clarendon High Broncs in a game of football.

Lamesa defeated Floydada on Thanksgiving Day for the championship of District 2, and Clarendon won over Dalhart for the District 1 title.

The teams will be unevenly matched according to weight. Coach F. T. McCollum of the Tornado staff believes, with the Broncs outweighing the Tornadoes on an average of some 15 pounds to the man.

Reid and Nichols are Clarendon's leading ball carrying favorites, having swept up and down District 1 with much ado. The Lamesa fans are counting upon little Treadway, 128-pounder, and Quarterback Marr for their ball toting work.

Coach McCollum announced the following as probable starters for Lamesa in Friday's game: Lourimore and Koger, ends; Addison and Conkin, tackles; Boswell and Jordan, guards; Womach, center; Marr, quarterback; Moore and Cox, halfbacks; and Treadway, fullback.

HONOR AMONG DRUNKS

PITTSBURGH—James Monaghan may have been without home or money and he might have drunk, but no one can gainsay his honor. Up before Magistrate Jones on an intoxication charge, he was asked by clues to reveal where he had purchased the liquor. "I can't tell you," Monaghan replied. "My sense of honor won't let me. Judge. I'd rather go to jail." He did, for three days.

WASHINGTON STATE IS EXPECTED TO GIVE UNEASY MOMENTS

NEW YORK, Dec. 2 (AP)—The Washington State Cougars of 1931 are not the all-conquering outfit that swept through a Pacific coast conference championship last year but there may be strength enough left to give Tulane at least a few uneasy moments at New Orleans Saturday.

This is a pivotal clash so far as Tulane is concerned for if the Southern conference title-holders can chalk up a decisive victory they are almost certain to be invited to battle Southern California in the Rose bowl game at Pasadena New Year's day.

The yard-stick by which Tulane's right to such an invitation may be measured is the 38 to 6 trouncing Washington State accepted from Southern California early in October. If the Green Wave can run up a score approximating that count the invitation in all likelihood will be forthcoming.

While Tulane is trying to earn its invitation to the far west, Southern California will try to clinch the Pacific coast conference title by whipping Washington.

LEGIONNAIRES TO GO TO CONCLAVE

Several Lubbock American Legion members expect to attend an 18th district convention of the American Legion and auxiliary at Borger, Saturday and Sunday, although no delegation will be formed from here Ben Kucera, local post commander, said.

Earl V. Earp, Texas department commander of the Legion; Mrs. Van W. Steward, state auxiliary president, and Josh Lee, University of Oklahoma humorist, will speak at the convention.

The program will begin Saturday morning at 9 o'clock and includes initiation of 40 and 8 members and a convention ball at 9:30 p. m. that day. Sunday's program for the legionnaires includes a band parade, a service officers' school, joint devotional services, a deer dinner and a joint meeting of the legion and auxiliary. The auxiliary program includes a tea Saturday and a meeting at the Borger high school auditorium Sunday morning at 9:30.

BOOST IN POLL TAXES REPORTED

Next year is election year, ballots will carry names of candidates for offices ranging from city posts to the presidency, and an increase has occurred in poll tax payments enabling the holders to vote in 1932, tarches of the county tax collector's office have reported.

Approximately 530 persons paid poll taxes or claimed exemptions during October and November. Of that number 32 were exemptions. The voting tax must be paid before Feb. 1.

Persons who were not 21 years of age January 1, 1931, but who will be 21 prior to the elections are entitled to vote, but, in cities of 10,000 or more population, must secure poll exemptions. Residents of rural precincts and smaller cities, who can claim exemptions, are not required to secure them to vote. Persons older than 60 years last January also are entitled to exemptions. Approximately 3,500 poll taxes were paid in Lubbock county in 1930, as compared with 6,300 paid in 1929 for the privilege of voting in the 1930 state elections.

Unidentified Man Victim Of Holdup

Identity of a man who said he was held up by a masked man with gun and robbed of $12.50 late Monday night had not been learned this morning police indicated, as the holdup was reported by another man.

The robber, whose face was covered with a handkerchief, accosted the man on Tenth street between Ave R and S shortly before 10 o'clock it was said. Both men were walking and the bandit escaped on foot. Although a police patrol car visited that section of Lubbock, the gunman had not been arrested as today. The victim was said by police to live somewhere on Ninth street.

SEXTON REIGN TO BE ENDED

SUDDEN CAMPAIGN TO REORGANIZE SWEEPS BASEBALL GROUP

WEST BADEN, Ind., Dec. 2 (AP)—Mike Sexton's 22-year-old reign as president of the National Association of Professional Baseball leagues appeared near the end today, engulfed by a sudden campaign to reorganize and rehabilitate the entire organization.

The action to oust him and to install new leadership in the organization of the minor baseball leagues came last night when the owners decided the time had come for rehabilitation. A committee of three was appointed to bring the proposal before the formal meeting of the organization, opening today, and it was reasonably certain its plan would be adopted.

Under the plan, a committee would be appointed to make a complete study of the minor league problems and to recommend a new president at a future meeting. Sexton would be retired to the post of honorary president with a pension.

The committee members selected to place the matter on the convention floor were Homer Hammond, president of the San Antonio club of the Texas league; Charles Graham, vice president of the San Francisco club of the Pacific Coast league, and W. Giles, president of the Rochester club of the International league.

"Such an action is absolutely necessary if the minor leagues are to endure," said Branch Rickey, of the St. Louis Cardinals.

It is my humble prayer that I may be of some use in my day and generation.—Hosea Ballou.

From Obscurity

One of our favorite traditions is the belief that only in the United States can the son of poor parents rise to the highest positions in the land. The "log cabin to the White House" story has convinced that this is true. Only America holds opportunity for the underdog.

To a certain extent this is true. But there are more exceptions than we generally suppose; and a recent dispatch from Paris by an American newspaperman contains some information that is apt to be surprising.

Europe, this writer points out, is today very largely ruled by men who came from the lower strata of the population.

In England, of course, there is Ramsay MacDonald, brought up in the bleak poverty of a Scottish village, and now prime minister of the empire. Paralleling his case is that of another English prime minister, Lloyd George, who was a penniless orphan and who was reared by a shoemaker.

In France, Premier Laval was the son of a butcher. His family was so poor that he had a hard time getting a decent education. Foreign Minister Briand, similarly, was the son of exceedingly poor parents. Former Premier Herriot is another who came from a poor family.

Chancellor Heinrich Bruening of Germany did not come from a poverty-stricken family, but his people belonged to the lower middle class. In Czechoslovakia Thomas Masaryk is president, the son of a blacksmith; and another blacksmith's son who rose to power is none other than Benito Mussolini himself. Russia, of course, is ruled by men who came up from the depths, and has been ever since the revolution.

This list is rather impressive. To be sure, it is probably perfectly true that oportunity is still greater on this side of the Atlantic than in Europe. The son of poor parents has more chances. But it is quite obvious that the avenues of fame and riches are by no means closed to him on the other side of the ocean. Europe's so-called ruling class is by no means the closed corporation we generally suppose.

Worst Depression?

The head of a large life insurance company recently took up arms against the prevailing notion that the current depression has been the worst one in American history. Speaking to a writer for the Magazine of Wall Street, he declared:

"In 1839 every single bank in the United States outside of New England closed its doors. On May 10 of that year every bank in New York City closed. . . In 1873 there were 3,000,000 men out of work in a population of 40,000,000, 89 railroads went into the hands of receivers, and 300 out of 307 iron and steel plants absolutely shut down. As for 1893, I remember it distinctly, and I want to tell you that as a nation we are in ease now compared with what we went through then."

Cold comfort? Perhaps. But it doesn't hurt to be reminded that our condition not only could be, but in the past has been, a great deal worse than it is now.

The "perfect stenographer" says a powder puff is as important to a woman's success as a typewriter. Yes, it helps her click.

Rats four feet long have been found along the Amazon. Just the place for some of those South American cheese champions.

Experts say this isn't the worst depression this country has known. But everybody will admit it's the best.

When a bridge player decides to 'pass' that means he has nothing in his hand; but when a quarterback makes the same decision it indicates he has something up his sleeve.

It was inevitable. It was inevitable. It just had to come—but nevertheless it's one for Ripley in his "Believe It Or No"! Yes sir! Now hold your breath!

Some keen-eyed fellow has invented a machine which deals bridge hands, just by pressing a button!

All that's necessary now is for somebody else to invent a machine that puts up and takes down the tables and offers suggestions for between-hands conversation.

While on the subject of machines to improve the bridge situation, why not have a gimcrack that turns leftover bridge party refreshments into t-bone steak, hash brown potatoes, hot biscuits and drinking coffee?

And why not another apparatus which announces, periodically and in stentorian tones: "Prize winners, please do not fail to offer your loot to the honoree before leaving".

In other words, why not apply the machine age to the whole darn business of bridge, so the only detracting feature of the craze will be the time wasted in playing?

Somebody sent this in:

And all over town,
All fandom is talking and walking around,
To exchange their ideas
And to hear themselves spout;
Do you reckon they know

THE Plainsman has done a lot of figuring in the past couple of days; has conferred with a lot of football experts, wise or otherwise. And after all is said and done he has come to a final decision, be it good or bad. That is: The only thing that stands between the Westerners and the District title is the Sandie reserves.

Few ball clubs are stronger than their reserve strength and there's no use denying that Amarillo has reserves—and then more reserves.

But if the Westerner first string can dodge the injury jinx and is not too over-played as a result of the last two tilts we need take no water from the Golden Windstorm.

That 25-2 count at Amarillo last Thursday was just one of them things that happen.

The Plainsman doesn't believe the Windies could pile up that many points against the Westerners again with the aid of an adding machine.

LUBBOCK folks who have been going around with their dobbers down as a result of the Turkey Day upset are crossing a bridge before it's even built and they're not doing right by a fine, fighting ball club that smacked Pampa over in the face of tremendous odds and then sat steady in the boat.

Lubbock hasn't lost that ball game—and anybody that knows the Westerner team knows it won't lose, at least before the last whistle blows.

Tomorrow's game is just another ball game and as far as The Plainsman is concerned, he's stringing with the Westerners—as good a high school ball club as ever trod a Lubbock grid—until the final tackle.

The least we grandstand coaches can do will be to show as much confidence and aggressiveness as we expect the players to do.

Pour it on 'em Westerners! And win those gold footballs!

"Without-Or-With, Offense To Friends Or Foes, We Sketch Your World Exactly As It Goes"—Byron

Politicians Beginning To Grow Anxious About Jobless Situation Now That Elections Looming On The Horizon

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2—More people have had to worry about the security of their jobs in the last couple of years than in any previous period and there is a corresponding increase of anxiety here among those politicians whose tenure of office depends on the voters.

Dutche

The jobs of a president, cabinet members, diplomats and a host of minor officials down through hundreds of housands of postmasters hang n the ability of his Republican administration to get itself re-elected. In less than a year the 435 representatives and at least 33 senators will also know whether they must join the ranks of the unemployed.

Thus, although the words, actions or votes of members of Congress and other officials may be primarily guided by the urge for job retention, the present employment situation may bring them some scant sympathy which is ordinarily lacking. No one need be carried away by comparison. The point is that these felows want to hang onto their jobs and salaries in about the same way as the rest of us.

At least half the senators up for re-election next November have something to think about.

Take George McGill of Kansas, a Democrat elected last year by no large majority because many Kansas Republicans were sour on Henry Allen. McGill is filling an unexpired term so he must fight all over again in 1932. Vice President Curtis has been thinking of running against him because it has seemed so easy for any strong Republican to beat McGill. One also hears that Kansas Democrats think they can keep the seat, but McGill's position is far from secure.

The famous Jim Davis of Pennsylvania, former secretary of labor, is on the anxious seat. He also is serving a two-year term. Jim is dry. Boss Bill Vare of Philadelphia, who gave him the Republican primary support which won the job, declares for wet candidates only. Also, Jim made the second senator from Pittsburgh and ancient Pennsylvania custom has always demanded one from Philadelphia.

Otis Glenn of Illinois can well worry about the Democratic plots that Senator Jim Ham Lewis and Mayor Cermak of Chicago will hatch to unseat him, bearing in mind the huge wet Democratic majority which elected Lewis last year. Wesley Jones of Washington, father of the "five and ten" law, has seen his party in the state go wet and now hears that other Republicans are after his seat. Even if he is nominated his Democratic oponent probably will be National Committeeman Scott Bullitt, a wet and a formidable foe.

Sam Shortridge of California, besides wondering whether there will be any Hoover coat-tail to ride in on next year, must build strong fences against Congressman Phil Swing, who will oppose him for nomination with the probable support of Hiram Johnson. Also, some of the boys at home are trying to smoke Sam out on the wet-dry issue. Bingham of Connecticut, since November, 1930, can't be sure whether his state is Democrat or Republican.

Bulkley of Ohio, another short-termer and a wet Democrat, is up again next year, although he should keep his normally Republican seat. Ex-Senator Cole Blease of South Carolina is expected to try to unseat his political enemy, Senator Ellison Smith, in Democratic primaries. Broussard of Louisiana has the enmity of politically-powerful Governor-Senator Huey Long. Fletcher of Florida has done considerable worrying in the past about Congressman Ruth Bryan Owen's senatorial ambitions, which may or may not still be flaming.

Among senators not yet reported as seriously threatened are Brookhart of Iowa, Dale of Vermont, Blaine of Wisconsin, Moses of New Hampshire, Wagner of New York, Morrison of North Carolina, Nye of North Dakota, Smoot of Utah, Watson of Indiana, Barkley of Kentucky, Thomas of Idaho, Black of Alabama, Tydings of Maryland, Norbeck of South Dakota and Oddie of Nevada. But they can't tell what may turn up.

Diet and Health

EDITOR'S NOTE: Six pamphlets and six articles by Dr. Clendening can now be obtained by sending 10 cents in coin for each pamphlet and 2 cents in coin for each article, with a self-addressed, stamped envelope, to Dr. Logan Clendening in care of this paper, or Central Press Association, 1435 East Twelfth street, Cleveland, O. The pamphlets are: "Reducing and Gaining," "Feminine Hygiene" "Indigestion and Constipation," "The Care of the Hair and Skin," "Infant Feeding" and "Instructions for the Treatment of Diabetes." The articles are "Normal Diet," "List of Books for Mothers," "Bed Wetting," "Diet of the Expectant Mother," "Ear Troubles" and "Tuberculosis."

WINTER ILLS

CHILBLAIN, known technically as pernio, is usually a disease of the winter months. Dampness and cold together are more likely to produce the condition than cold alone. But there is also a constitutional factor, certain people being more liable to the disease than others. It is likely to occur in those people who have a poor circulation. Those whose hands or feet or ears are always cold are more subject to chilblain than others. It is essentially a redness and erythema, a circulatory change due to the temperature change. In those predisposed to it even exercise will bring it on. The chilblain area is red or bluish, painful, decidedly cool to the touch, and the color disappears on pressure. Sometimes after the long continued presence of chilblain in a certain spot other diseases engraft themselves on the same area.

Dr. Clendening

In treatment the best and newest method is the use of ultra violet rays, to improve the circulation. Prevention is more important than cure; those who are subject to it should take every precaution against cold and dampness. Woolen socks or stockings, heavy shoes, and the use of every means to prevent wetting the feet, are recommended. Woolen socks should be worn to bed during the severe weather. General treatment to improve the whole body by regular exercise, a diet high in vitamins, and tonics should be added to local treatment. Massage of the part and rubbing with iodine ointment has been recommended.

Another disease of the skin which affects certain people during the winter months is a scaliness of the entire integument. In its severe form it is called ichthyosis or fish skin. The very severe forms usually bring the patients into the show business, where they are exhibited as the "man-fish", or the "human shark" or some such imaginative title.

Many people suffer with the condition, but in a more mild form. During the summer usually their skin is quite normal. It is never very oily, but during the summer one would observe little difference from a normal skin. As soon, however, as winter comes, the skin begins to get dry and scales appear. Finally, the whole surface of the body is covered with fine bran-like scales which scruff off continuously. The skin is indeed not unlike the appearance of those fish which have fine scales.

There is no record of permanent cure, but there are methods to give relief when the condition is severe. Hot baths, and hot sodium bicarbonate baths are used. Inunctions with oils have good results for obvious reasons. The X-ray and ultra violet light have been used with some success.

QUESTIONS FROM READERS

M. R.: "A person 21 years old has heart burn. What is the cause? Could it be because he smokes? He usually has them after eating certain foods, especially oranges."

Answer: Heart burn is due to an excess of acid gastric juice (stomach secretion). It may be caused by too much smoking. It is also frequently caused by ulcer of the stomach.

The pamphlets are: "Indigestion and Constipation," "Reducing and Gaining," "Infant Feeding," "Instructions for the Treatment of Diabetes," "Feminine Hygiene" and "The Care of the Hair and Skin."

LUCKY LANDING

MILWAUKEE, Wis.—Gliding to a landing at the Fond du Lac Airport, James Hansen and a passenger had a miraculous escape from death when they crashed through high tension wires carrying 66,000 volts of electricity. As the wires parted, under the impact of the plane, there was a blinding flash as the current short-circuited. Lights in the neighborhood were out for hours after the crash before the damage could be repaired. Hansen managed to land safely after the crash.

Omaha's university's enrollment, now 600, has increased 35 per cent this year, the first it has been under municipal control.

ART—Mrs. Gertrude Vanderbilt Whitney, devotee of the arts and a sculptress with sufficient fortune to care little about commercial values, has presented New York with its most interesting art gallery. The address is No. 10 Eight street, and since it's going to be permanent there's no hurry. And there's a romance attached. Some 20 years ago, Mrs. Whitney decided that young and unrecognized talent should have a better break. She took possession of three buildings that had once been proud mansions of earlier days and turned them into the "Studio Club." It was for those youngsters who must grope their way through the esthetic mazes and scores of proteges have graduated into recognized artists. For the past two years the buildings have been remodeled, 500 paintings have been installed, together with etchings and sculpings and the museum has become the art event of the year.

MUSIC—Now that Ethel Leginska is back in the limelight as a musical director of consequence, they're recalling the eccentric behavior of this excellent musician a few years back. In those days she had a quaint and disconcerting habit of making engagements to play the piano in one town and turning up somewhere else. Her fadeouts became front page material which she eventually blamed on nerves. In Europe, however, she directed her own orchestra and now, at 57, she finds herself acclaimed for directing the opera "Boccaccio." Since taking up the baton, Leginska has been very happy. No more temperament or mental distress!

Which reminds me—her name isn't Lekinska at all! She had an English name—the good plebian name of Ethel Leggett. And she came from Hull, England. "Leginska," apparently, seemed a better performing name than Leggett, and there you are!

DRAMA—The return of New York's favorites Alfred Lunt and Lynn Fontanne in quite the theatrical tid-bit of the moment. That and the fact that the tall and handsome Robert Sherwood, who has been towering over first night crowds these many years, has written a brilliant piece titled "Reunion in Vienna," in which the Lunts appear. Herein, too, is a bed-room scene from which even the torchy Mae West could learn a thing or two. One of the lessons would reveal how to put on a fairly scorching act which brings laughter, rather than blushes. Not so easy!

Don't hurry! It will still be here next spring.

LITERATI—The season's best "lions" have proved strangely gentle. At the moment, they talk about the shy, soft-voiced daddy of Christopher Robin and Winnie-the-Pooh, A. A. Milne has thus far dodged the lecture platforms, but not the tea parties. At his "coming out" Milne appeared to be slightly gun-shy and frightened of gushing ladies.

Druggists Find New Way To Stop Headaches

Realizing that no one drug can conquer all headaches, as they come from so many causes, two North Carolina druggists developed a combination of several ingredients which function together, giving three-minute, safe relief for any kind of headache, neuralgic sciatic or rheumatic pain, quiets the nerves and leaves you normally buoyant, without depression or bad after effects.

This combination of pain relieving ingredients, so efficient for women also at special times, may be found at any drug store or soda fount under the name "B-C" (10c and 25c) ready for use in easing pains and quieting nerves in three minutes. "B-C" is a amazing preparation ever discovered and harmless. (Adv.)

The Tinymites

STORY by HAL COCHRAN—PICTURES by KING

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

Once more wee Coppy, in the plane, reached for the pup, but twas in vain. A sudden wind swerved him about and gave him quite a scare. Thought he, "I wish I was below. Perhaps that's where I'm going to go. I'd be much safer on the ground than up here in the air.

"But I must save that little hound and take him right down to the ground. As soon as this stiff breeze dies out, I'll make another try." He tried to make his plane go straight, but it was blown at such a gait that all it did was dip and dive around up in the sky.

The other Tinies, down below, gazed upwards. Scouty said, "I know that Coppy's having trouble. He has drifted out of sight. The clouds have covered him, no doubt. Perhaps he'll shortly sail right out into the open sky again. I hope that he's all right."

"Ah, he was foolish," Clowny cried, "to start out on that airplane ride. But that's how Coppy is, you know. He's brave as he can be. That's why he willingly went up to try and save that little pup. I guess he's gone much higher than our little eyes can see."

Then Carpy said, "All we can do is wait. I'll bet that he'll come through the air at quite a speedy gait most any minute now. Shucks, he can run a plane all right, so there is no real cause for fright. He knows a lot 'bout flying 'cause the flyer taught him how."

By this time Coppy'd worked around in his small plane until he found that he could touch the little dog still hanging to the balloon. "Hey, hang on tight," he loudly cried. "I'll shortly end you thrilling ride. You'll sail right back to Bow-wow Land in this plane pretty soon."

(Coppy gets a great cheer in the next story.)

Proud Guests At Pacific Show

Both the girl and the lamb smiled for the cameraman when he shot this picture at the Junior Livestock and Baby Beef Show held in San Francisco recently. The lamb is a Southdown and was entered in the show by the girl, Virginia Miller.

What strange beastie is this? It's a "kyroc," a Scotch highland steer, which, in addition to its beef, is valued for its wool. It was imported from Scotland and placed on display by Hugh Houston at the recent Junior Livestock and Baby Beef Show in San Francisco.

Pretty Doggy

BEST DOG in the Intermountain Club Kennel Show at Salt Lake City was the verdict of judges when they looked at La Collins Brownie, above. The Scottish terrier blue-blood is owned by Ben R. Meyer of Beverly Hills, Calif.

Doomed On California Rocks

Doomed to destruction, the cargo-carrier Munleon is shown in this unusual picture helpless on the jagged rocks near Pt. Reyes, Calif., after it had been abandoned by its crew. The Munleon went on the rocks in a dense fog while en route from San Francisco to Portland, Ore., with a cargo of lumber and combustibles.

Third Secretary For First Lady

The First Lady of the Land will have three secretaries now, with the addition of Miss Doris Goss, above, of New York, to her social staff. Miss Goss, former secretary to the late Mrs. Whitelaw Reid, will assist Miss Mildred Hall and Mrs. Frederick Butler in arranging for the winter social season at the White House.

Famed Woman Pilot Is Bride

Governor Flem D. Sampson of Kentucky, right, is shown above congratulating Reginald Williams and his bride, the former Lady Mary Heath, a world-famous flyer, at Lexington, Ky., shortly after they were married. They are now on their honeymoon.

Doubly Honored

Honors don't come singly to the household of Grete Davis, Austrian novelist. On the same day that her latest book was received by the Austrian Academy, her pet cat, Plumby, won first prize at the National Cat Show in Vienna. Here are proud mistress and proud cat.

Another Barrymore For The Stage

Youngest heir to a former stage tradition, John Drew Colt—a son of Ethel Barrymore—is seen here as he prepared to make his theatrical debut on Broadway. His famous mother is shown making him up for his role in "The School for Scandal." For four generations the Barrymore-Drew family has appeared in the famous comedy, dating back to the time of Louisa Lane, the elder Mrs. John Drew, who was the grandmother of Ethel Barrymore.

Sweetest Voice

Delphine Brown (above), pretty long distance operator for the telephone company in Chicago, is said to have the sweetest voice over the wire. The claim was made after an exhaustive test of various "hello"-girls employed by the telephone company. Delphine is attractive enough to win almost anyone's vote—without hearing her.

Freshman Queen

Mary Alice Pendleton, above, of Shreveport, La., has been named Freshman queen of the University of Arkansas at Fayetteville, and who will disagree with the choice? Her picture will appear in the beauty section of the college annual.

Mother Of 102

Mother of 102 children, Calico Kate, shown above, is believed to have established some kind of a record for the feline family. Calico Kate is just a plain alley variety of cat brought to a Cleveland, O., grocery when a kitten. She has remained there since. Her descendants now include grandkittens, great-grandkittens, great-great-grandkittens and great-great-grant-grandkittens and number into the thousands. Besides fulfilling so nobly her duties to her kind, Kate is an extraordinary mouser.

True To Her Curls

Boyish bobs, waves and ripples may come and go, but the one and only Mary Pickford will not relinquish the "American Sweetheart" curls that made her famous throughout the entire world. Here's a recent photo of Miss Pickford showing the renowned curls—a little shorter than of yore, but still Mary's very own.

Youthful Romance

Hollywood rumors whisper that Loretta Young, above, former wife of Grant Withers, and one of the youngest stars, may wed Mervyn LeRoy, the youngest director in the films.

Mayor Divorced, Weds Next Day

Mayor Leo P. McLaughlin of Hot Springs, Ark., embarked on his third matrimonial venture when he was married to Miss Florence Paul Houston, heiress, the day after his divorce from his second wife, the former Miss Mary Francis Frink, had been granted. The Hot Springs mayor was one of the most ardent supporters of the law which has made the city Reno's chief rival as a divorce center. The mayor and his new bride are shown above.

Prince And Bride Spurn Carol

Disregarding the summons of his brother King Carol, Prince Nicholas of Rumania and his beautiful commoner bride, Mme. Jana Lucia Deleti, have been staying at a villa near Bucharest since their elopement, an affair which is reported to have greatly displeased the king whose own love affairs have held the interest of the world. Above is Nicholas' wife; left below, is her husband, the prince, and right is King Carol.

Picks 9th Mate

Mrs. Frankie Davis-Greenup-Warren-Yarbrough-O'Neil-Calahan-Kile-Bryan, of Denver, above, has chosen her ninth husband, she announced to friends. "At last I have found love," she says. The name Flannigan will be added to her list of husbands.

Look Out, Girls!

No, girls, you needn't scream. This isn't a mouse, but a harmless potato, with roly-poly body, neck, ears, eyes and nose. The odd-shaped spud was found on the farm of W. R. Angle, near Freeport, Ill.

Perfect Autoist After 102 Years

Here's a mark for motorists to shoot at! Thomas Gordon, 102 years old, whose home is in Grand Rapids, made a perfect score in physical and traffic law tests demanded by a new Michigan statute for auto drivers whose licenses antedate 1925. Born in Scotland in 1829, Gordon was 86 before he began driving. Former Governor Fred Green attended his 100th birthday celebration two years ago. Officer Clyde Deming is shown handing him official o. k.

Mary Pickford, M. P.

Introducing Mary Pickford of the British House of Commons, duly elected from the Central Hammersmith constituency in the recent election. Maybe the famous "America's Sweetheart" doesn't know she has a namesake in Parliament, but she is—as big as life. Since Mary of the movies was born in Canada, perhaps Mary of Parliament is some distant relation.

SANTA CLAUS, EN ROUTE TO LUBBOCK, GIVEN WONDERFUL RECEPTION IN THE OTHER TOWNS WHERE HE IS A VISITOR

OLD SANTA CLAUS is in the United States now and word has been received from his expedition that he is being recorded wonderful receptions in his visits to other cities. Snow and ice are adding to the spirit of the season and his reindeer are prancing along their way toward Lubbock where they will be seen in a gigantic parade and Christmas spectacle on December 11. The spectacle is being sponsored by the Avalanche-Journal.

Preparations for the event are going forward here with committees busy at work on arrangements for Santa's reception and the big parade. Plans for the gigantic parade call for a march of more than a mile and a half long and every organization in the city represented with a float or decorated car of some sort.

The city is to be decorated in all its splendor along with the show windows of the various business houses.

Christmas decorations are beginning to make their appearance in many parts of the country and this recalls the origin of the Christmas tree.

Origin of Christmas Tree

Long before we had Christmas in the world people were without churches or temples in which to worship so they laid their altars in woods and groves.

Love for trees in the groves where people worshipped grew steadily until they called them Sacred Groves.

Perhaps the oldest of all Christmas customs is that of decorating houses, churches and streets with evergreens. At the very beginning of history the worship of trees began, hence the groves were made man's first temples. All our instincts of love for nature are forest memories, because forest worship was once universal among our forefathers.

Through time each tree was dedicated to some God. Apollo had the laurel, Jupiter, the oak and the Greeks for ages had their grove.

Worshipers Offer Sacrifices

To worship is to give and boughs and garlands are the oldest gifts of man as the forest worshipers would bring the flowers and green of spring and the fruits of autumn to the forest and hang them on the boughs of the sacred trees. These gifts were sacrifices, not, as with us, decorations.

The Romans, with a deep love for beauty, used to garland their temples, homes, meeting places and their Coliseum with boughs of greens and strands of flowers. This peculiar custom was accepted by the Christians with keen approval, recalling, as it did, the fact that our Lord entered Jerusalem amid the strewn branches of the multitude.

Mistletoe Once Held Sacred

For ages mistletoe was regarded as sacred by the old British pagans—the Druids—and was surrounded by great mystery and sentiment. It was supposed to possess healing powers as well as to ward off evil spirits. Once a year the Druids High Priest would cut the mistletoe with a golden sickle, bless it and distribute the sprays among the people.

"Tree of Light" Contributes

From such customs our Christmas trees of today originated. They came from the northland forests. They are either White Pine, Scotch Pine, Balsam, Cedar, Hemlock or Norway Spruce. What would the Yule-tide season be without the "Tree of Light"? Christmas trees blossom at night and the flowers are jewels of red, blue, green and gold lights. A Christmas tree has the magical power of arousing a feeling of peace and good-will within all who look upon it.

A very old legend makes Saint Winfred the inventor of the Christmas tree. Winfred was one of the early missionaries to Norway who helped to advance the ancient Scandinavians out of their pagan practices and beliefs. He did not sanction their priests, the Druids, custom of teaching the worshiping of trees as if they were living gods and on a Christmas Eve, before a great crowd of men, women and children he hewed down a mighty oak to demonstrate that it was not an idol to worship but merely a tree.

Saint Winfred's "Miracle"

An ancient historian describes the demonstration as follows: "As the blade circled around Winfred's head, and the flakes of wood flew from the deepening gash in the body of the tree, a whirling wind passed over the forest. It gripped the oak from its foundations. Backward it fell like a tower, groaning as it split in four pieces. But just behind it and unharmed by the ruin, stood a young fir tree pointing a green spire toward the skies.

"Winfred let the axe drop and turned to talk to the people.

"This little tree, a young child of the forest, shall be your holy tree tonight. It is the woo of peace, for your houses are built of fir. It is a sign of endless life for its leaves are ever green. See how it points to Heaven. Let this be called the tree of the Christ—gather about it, not in the wildwood, but in your own homes, there it will shelter no deeds of blood, but loving gifts and rites of kindness."

The people looked upon Winfred's act as a miracle and from thence he won more converts to his Christian beliefs.

RECORD CROWD

ficials say.

After the arrival of the Amarillo fans here at 12:30 and the staging of a parade downtown, courtesy cars of Lubbock people will begin arriving at the Hilton at 1 o'clock to take the visitors to the game. The cars will arrive from the north on Texas avenue and pick up the Sandie fans on the south side of the hotel on Main street. The visitors will be returned to town after the game.

BEAUMONT, Dec. 2 (AP)—Charley Horton, who was accused of shooting his brother-in-law, A. M. Burge, on a hunting trip about two weeks ago, was "no-billed" today by the grand jury. Both men came here from Houston to hunt.

OIL MOVEMENT

ened oil men in spite of the fact they were somewhat perturbed by action of Attorney General James V. Allred in filing ouster suits against 15 companies, alleging anti-trust law violation and seeking to collect penalties amounting to $17,000,000. These cases were to be set for trial on the docket of the district court session opening January 4 at Austin.

The chief executive continued the grip of military control unrelaxed in the field, although a fresh assault on proration was made several weeks ago by the Brock-Lee Oil company. E. Constantin and others, who had obtained a federal court temporary injunction restraining Brig. Gen. Jacob F. Wolters, martial law commandant in the East Texas field, the attorney general and members of the railroad commission from enforcing proration rules. General Wolters was cited to show cause why he should not be held in contempt, when he continued to enforce the governor's military proration orders.

BEER RUNNERS ARE FREED

THIRTY - SEVEN TAKEN BY DRY AGENTS ON SEA-GOING TUG

NEW YORK, Dec. 2 (AP)—Having amused themselves by peppering visitors with eggs and potatoes and later playing checkers, smoking and just talking, Vannie Higgins, Brooklyn beer runner, and 36 companions were released Tuesday 15 hours after being captured at sea by treasury department agents.

They were found on the sea-going tug Ohio when the agents boarded it last midnight, frankly admitting they had hoped to find it well loaded with liquor.

No Charged Filed

No charge was made against the men who were ordered released after George M. Brewer, assistant solicitor of the port, had satisfied himself the boat was owned by Joseph O'Boyle, one of those taken from the Ohio. Custom officials planned, however, to hold the vessel temporarily.

A police launch, which for minutes played its searchlights on the agent's speedboat, a former rum-runner used as a decoy searching for liquorrunning craft, was blamed by agents for part of their lack of success in finding any evidence up which to hold the men.

The agents said the policemen might have mistaken their speedboat for a suspicious craft but asserted the length of time they kept their searchlight on the boat gave the 37 men on the tug Ohio time to discard any weapons or other cargo upon which charges might have been based.

BOY SCOUTS, FIRE DEPARTMENT AND LIONS CLUB COOPERATE WITH SANTA

Boy Scouts will gather worn and broken toys. Lubbock fire department members will repair them, and the Lions club will distribute them at its annual Christmas party for children. The toys will be collected and mended for youngsters whom Santa Claus may not have on his list.

A committee from the Lions club Tuesday night accepted the offer of the toys made by the scouts and the fire department. Chairman of the Lions committee is C. Fred Litton and other members are E. H. McKinney, Paul Sherrod, H. W. Moore, C. C. Lindsey and J. B. Morriset.

Lubbock children who have toys they have discarded can bring cheer to other children by donating the playthings. These toys will be collected Saturday by the Boy Scouts. All those who have toys to give are urged to telephone the scout office, 695, before Saturday morning.

Fire Chief W. E. Twitty and Mayor J. J. Clements Tuesday told Scout Executive D. T. Jennings the fire department would repair and refinish the toys.

Date of the Christmas party, at the Lindsey theater where the toys will be distributed, has not been set, Litton said Tuesday.

Old Time Actor Is Claimed By Death

BOSTON, Dec. 2 (AP)—One of the stage's old time actors passed away Tuesday when Thomas MacLarnie died at St. Elizabeth's hospital. Those who saw the play "Lightnin'" during its three-year run in New York and its later three-year tour of the country will remember MacLarnie as the judge, for no one else ever played the role from the time the show opened until it closed.

MacLarnie had followed the stage since the time he was a youth and had played in almost every large city of the country. He had for the past five years, conducted a school of dramatic arts in Boston with Doris Bramson Whitehouse, an associate of the stage.

"I suppose I'm like most people who read the newspapers..

"I DON'T read all the ads, any more than I read the whole of any newspaper or magazine. But I do read a good many of them.

"Recently I've been reading more than usual, and I certainly like what Chesterfield has to say and the way it is said. I would probably like the cigarette, too, but somehow I just haven't got 'round to trying it.

"Come to think of it, I can't tell you why I smoke this other cigarette. It's more from habit, I suppose, than for any real reason.

"I'd never thought about it before, but last night, at a party, I noticed eight of my friends—five men and three girls—who had changed to Chesterfields. They told me that Chesterfields are milder, that they taste better, that they just seem to satisfy.

"Of course, cigarettes are a small thing, but, after all, they give me a lot of pleasure, and a cigarette like Chesterfield that you hear such good things about, must be good. Anyway, I've just bought my first package of Chesterfields, and I believe I'll find them just like the ads say—milder—taste better—pure—satisfy."
