County Has Harvested About 7,200 Bales

Twelve of the 13 Hall County samples have been classed this season, compared to 18,000 at this time last year.

As receipt of samples warrant, additional classes will be transferred to the Memphis office, Voelkel said.

Following is last week's report on the percentage breakdown of the grade, staple, micronaire and Pressley results:

The quality of cotton classed showed 11 per cent were White grades, 81 per cent Light Spotted, and 8 per cent Spotted Strict Low Middling, with 6 per cent was the chief grade in the White cotton.

Middling Light Spotted represented 52 per cent of the classing and Middling Spotted showed 7 per cent in the colored category.

Two per cent of the cotton classed this week was reduced in grade because of bark. This meant at least one grade reduction plus a 50 point penalty.

The predominant staple length was 15-16 inch with 74 per cent. Other lengths were 29-32 inch, 13 per cent; 31-32 inch, 10 per cent; and 1 inch and longer, 3 per cent.

The micronaire readings, which indicate the fineness and maturity of the cotton fiber, showed 67 per cent in the premium range of 3.5-4.9. The week before 81 per cent of the cotton classed fell in this grouping. This shows that some immature cotton damaged chiefly by the early freeze, has been received. Thirty-one (31) per cent of the cotton milled 3.4 and below, and two (2) per cent read 5.0 and above. The discount on these readings ranged from 20 points to 300 points.

Pressley strength tests, conducted in cooperation with the Cotton Research Committee of Texas, reflected slightly weaker fiber this week with 22 per cent testing 80,000 pounds per square inch and above compared with 29 per cent last week. Other readings were: 75,000-79,000, 17 per cent; 70,000-74,000, 43 per cent; and 69,000 and below, 18 per cent.

Cyclone Faces Post In Bi-District Game At Plainview Friday Night

Local School Board Approves Fund Raising Project For Band Uniforms

The Memphis School Board, in regular session Monday night, gave approval to the Memphis Band Booster Club to begin a campaign to raise money for band uniform purchase with the school participating on a 50-50 matching funds basis.

Gayle Greene, president of the Band Boosters Club, along with Band Director Darryl Phillips met with the board to discuss this possibility.

In the motion passed by the board, it was stated that, "the Memphis Band Boosters Club be authorized to conduct a fund-raising drive for the purpose of purchasing new band uniforms and the Memphis Independent School District will be obligated up to $4,500 for this purchase."

Supt. A. E. Greer explained that the board has set aside $1,500 in its budget this year for purchase of uniforms but the cost of new uniforms for the band would run in the neighborhood of $9,000.

The Cyclone Band uniforms are now 10 years old, Supt. Greer said, and in as good condition as they are due to being well taken care of by the students. However, they need to be replaced.

"We hope the Band Boosters fund drive is most successful and they can raise ample money for the uniforms," Supt. Greer said.

Mrs. Gladys Edwards, who moved to Memphis early this month, was awarded a contract by the School Board as a special education teacher. She comes to Memphis with seven years experience as a special education teacher, moving here from Grand Prairie.

The board members discussed the possibility of selling portions of the Highway 287 frontage property east of Cyclone Stadium with the long range plan in mind of moving the parking lot from the east to the west side of the stadium.

Supt. Greer said the board would consider offers for this property if they were in the range of other highway frontage property.

"Frankly, we need the money to do numerous permanent improvement projects and also the board feels the east side parking lot is a traffic hazard and blocks traffic on Highway 287," Supt. Greer said.

The members studied a blueprint of the plaque to be placed in the new High School Building. Also the board authorized the purchase of baskets for the new gym at the best possible price.

The board passed on a motion that the Memphis I. S. D. secure another big bus from Texas Surplus Property when one becomes available.

The board also authorized that employees be allowed to have payroll deductions for life insurance if different individuals so desire.

It was also approved that the district participate in work study program and Neighborhood Youth Corps again this summer.

Thirteen members of the staff of the district were named as a Textbook Committee for the district. These include Mrs. Homer Tribble, Mrs. Maryann Fowler, Miss Alma Bruce, Mrs. Gladys Farmer, Mrs. Marjorie Russell, Mrs. T. W. Harrison, Miss Jeanie Nesbitt, Mrs. James Lange, C. E. Voyles, Charley Chambliss, Miss Ethel Hillhouse, Mrs. C. D. Morris and Supt. A. E. Greer.

Chamber Requests Notice Of Rent Property Available

The Memphis Chamber of Commerce has requested that persons having rental properties available, such as houses and apartments, notify the office.

Numerous inquiries concerning available housing here have been received by Clifford Farmer, manager, and his list is not up to date.

From all indications, Memphis will be without a large part of its population Friday as a mass exodus will take place. The destination will be Bulldog Stadium in Plainview, the site of the 1966 Bi-District game between the Post Antelopes of District 4-AA and the Memphis Cyclone of 3-AA. Many of the business firms are making plans to close their doors at about 4:30 p. m.

so owners and employees can attend the game at plainview.

This is the first time since 1953 Memphis fans have had the opportunity of following the Cyclone to a Bi-District game.

The 1953 team represented District 2-A in Bi-District played at Memphis, and won the encounter from a favored Springlake team.

The 1966 Cyclone squad will probably be the underdog in the contest with Post as the Antelopes have an impressive record; however, indications point to a real fine contest.

Those interested in purchasing advance general admission tickets can do so at the drug stores or the banks in Memphis or at the superintendent's office at the High School.

Memphis side of the field will be the visitors side as Post will be the home team at Plainview, it was reported.

The Antelopes have a big line and good sized backfield. Offensively, the Antelopes run from a winged T set with a split end, as a basic formation, although they run from other formations.

Key backfield men are No. 44 FB Paul Walker, a 5-foot, 10-inch 175-lb. power runner, and No. 11 HB Davis Heaton, a 6-foot, 1-inch 175 pounder. Both boys are power runners with good speed.

No. 10, QB Dick Kennedy, is a good running quarterback who can throw the ball. WB Dennis Altman at 150 lbs. adds speed to the Antelope attack. QB Kennedy is replaced by No. 22 Duke Altman who is on equal basis with Kennedy. Actually, Altman was the starting quarterback at the first of the season.

Ends for the Antelopes are No. 30 Jimmy Bartlett, 170-lb. senior and No. 81 Donnie Windham who weighs 210. Tackles are Norman Tanner, No. 72, at 193 lbs. and No. 64 Joe Hudman at 165 lbs. Guards are No. 66 Clyde Cash at 165 lbs. and No. 63 Ronny Petty at 185 lbs.

The seating capacity at Plainview Stadium is about 8,000. A large crowd is expected to be on hand for the contest.

The winner of this game will face the winner of the Phillips-Iowa Park game next week in the Regional contest.

Special observance Mayor H. J. Howell has proclaimed Friday, Nov. 18, 1966, "Cyclone Day" in Memphis in honor of the District Co-Championship team representing District 3-AA.

The MHS pep rally will be held in the gymnasium at 11:15 a. m. tomorrow. School will take up after lunch at 12:30 and will turn out early.

The Cyclone Band is expected to leave at 4 p. m. it was announced.

Mattie Stanley Of Lakeview Succumbs Friday

Final services for Mrs. Mattie F. Stanley, 79, long-time Lakeview resident, were held Sunday at 2 p. m. in the First Methodist Church of Lakeview. The Rev. C. C. Lamb, pastor, and the Rev. Clesby Patterson, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Fritch, officiated.

Interment was in the IOOF Cemetery under the direction of Spicer Funeral Home.

Mrs. Stanley died Friday, Nov. 11, in Harris Memorial Hospital in Fort Worth. She had been visiting with a son there.

She was born Feb. 8, 1887, in Lyon County, Kentucky. Mattie F. Blanks was united in marriage to Jess M. Stanley on Dec. 25, 1913, at Lakeview. She was preceded in death by her husband in 1936. One son, John, was lost in action in 1944 during World War II.

Mrs. Stanley was a member of the First Methodist Church of Lakeview and of the Rebecca Lodge.

Survivors include one daughter, Mrs. Ben Smith of Amarillo; two sons, R. L. Stanley of Amarillo and Jim Stanley of Fort Worth; nine grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; one sister, Mrs. John Wyatt of Daltart; and one brother, H. L. Blanks of Lakeview.

Pall bearers were Troy Payne, Russell Payne, Neely Carl Rice, Joe Durham, Ted Montgomery, R. C. Clements, Del Wells and Phae-ton Alexander.

Funeral Services Held Wednesday For Mrs. Switzer

Funeral services for Mrs. Florence Matilda Switzer, 84, of Memphis were held at 2 p. m. Wednesday from the First Christian Church with Min. Tom Posey, pastor, officiating.

Interment was in Indiana.

Mrs. Switzer was born March 3, 1882, in Covington, Ind., and moved to Memphis from Colorado Springs in 1924. She was a member of the First Christian Church here.

Mrs. Switzer was born March m. Monday Nov. 14, in Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo.

Survivors include two foster daughters, Mrs. Dorothy King of Amarillo and Mrs. Edna Justice of Amarillo; three foster sons, Robert D. Devlen of Denver City, Harold C. Devlen of Midland and Al Devlen of Amarillo; a sister, Miss Clara Devlen of Covington, Ind., and 10 foster grandchildren.

CYCLONE DAY, Nov. 18, 1966

Memphis Mayor H. J. Howell set into action and words in a proclamation this week setting up Friday, Nov. 18 as CYCLONE DAY in Memphis. The climax of the day being the Bi-District Contest between the Memphis Cyclone and the Post Antelopes in Bulldog Stadium in Plainview.

Mayor Howell's proclamation is a fitting tribute to a remarkable group of young men wearing black and gold uniforms representing the Cyclone of Memphis High School. This team got together at the first of the year with one thought in mind, "proving that Memphis can compete in Class AA ranks and the team did not deserve the low ranking awarded by pre-season predictions."

As the season progressed, Shamrock scored the first defeat, a game which convinced the local lads they had to play tough defense if they were to survive Class AA wars.

Winning the Lockney battle was only a build up to the Dimmitt game the next week. Actually, the Dimmitt-Memphis game, which the Memphis boys won 7 to 0, was the first indication of a possible chance at the district championship. The turning point came in the second half of the Memphis-Abernathy game when the Cyclone scored two TDs and "golden footed" Jerry Hall booted two through the uprights for the extra points, for the 14 to 12 victory.

The Olton Mustangs upset the local boys and taught them another object lesson, that when you're on top, everyone guns for you. The Cyclone bounced back after this and won probably their toughest game of the season, at Floydada, 13 to 12 in a come from behind game that left local fans spell-bound.

Fighting to maintain their record the Cyclone overcame the Hale Center Owls 13-6 in another bruising game the next weekend.

Going to Friona last week, with a co-championship in the bag, the Cyclone looked like a champion boxer after 14 hard rounds. The defense growing stronger with each passing week but the offense suffering from constant pounding and key personnel hampered by some injuries. But despite the Friona outcome, a 7-2 tie, the Memphis team played good football at Friona even though penetrations gave the game to the opponent.

We want to salute the battling Cyclone for it has won a place of honor in the archives of Memphis High greats. The 1953 Cyclone team won the right to represent District 2-A in the first year after our school dropped from Class AA to Class A.

The team members are to be congratulated and encouraged to an ever great season accomplishment at Bi-District. These boys have accepted the challenge to represent Memphis, and District 3-AA to the best of their ability and we're behind them regardless of the outcome.

What do we like about the 1966 Cyclone squad? They have set goals and have reached them; they play as hard as they can every minute of every game, regardless of score or toughness of opponent; they make mistakes but shake them off and go ahead to make the best of each situation; but most of all, they are a team with a heart and love for the tough game of football in the tradition of our area, state, and nation.

We salute them on the eve of one of the toughest encounters of the season for we know they will give their all, for they have worked hard and dedicated themselves to the task. This is what's important and what makes football the truly American sport it is. It is wisely said many times that you get out of a thing what you put into it, or in other words, you reap what you sow. A team that wins a game, or a championship, has to put a lot into it or they never reach this goal. What more can be said than that the 1966 Cyclone is a champion. Friday night, two champions will play and both will play like the champions they are, so may the best team win.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

My Observation and dedication to the Hall County Old Settlers Reunion and Memphis.

Memphis! Where are you? You little, small but wonderful County Seat town.

So one day in September last on my way to the Old Settlers Reunion in Hall County, thinking very perfectly and clearly as if just yesterday of the day I landed in Memphis with my mother and father, June 6, 1906 in the then "Jet Age" (truly it was—a covered wagon with over jets to give more living and travel room) the present generation of today would scoff at such means of transportation, but it was considered a luxury then. I remember so well the morning we drove into Memphis from the East, with twelve inches of snow on the ground. It had a public watering trough for the peoples teams or stock. Frank's Wagon Yard was a very popular location there. I remember the Lobo wolf in the First National Bank, as I remember, just killed the year before and placed on exhibition. The Bank was located on the Northeast corner of the Square across from Thompson's Hardware Store. (Established the year before.)

I was a lad of very few summers and winters when I started to school my first year in Memphis is the fall of 1906. That same fall my father, C. N. Ward rented a farm two miles Northwest of Memphis. If my memory serves me clearly, from a Mr. Snowden, who lived with his daughter, Alice in a half dugout. The main crop then was cotton and crooked neck maize. We would stack maize in ricks out in the open high as the barn and a hundred yards or more long.

We could kill a mess of quail any time just before noon and have them for lunch. My father had a double barreled shotgun he prized very highly. It furnished all of our meat on the move from Indian Territory, Shawnee, Oklahoma in the then "jet age" covered wagon.

I told my mother one day I wanted some quail for dinner. She said she would clean them if some one would go get them. I slipped the shotgun out, went down around the feed lots, saw a covey of quail, levelled down on them and pulled the trigger. After I picked myself up, I saw quail fluttering around everywhere. I gathered up nine birds and took them in for my mother to prepare for dinner. Needless to say my daddy almost spanked me for slipping out his prized gun but after a good quail dinner all was forgiven, and forgotten.

We lived on the Snowden farm for two years before moving to Newlin, rented a farm from Lee Thornton, south of town. It was a very productive center at that time for cotton.

I remember some awfully good friends, the Bob Nelson family, Morrisons, Ewens, Crabtrees, Doolins, Clifton, Ballards, Crows, Hemphills, and Odams. My first girl friend—in third grade—was Lora Odum. Roy Ewen and I spent every weekend together. Willie Mae Doolin was Roy's first sweetheart. Today Willie Mae Doolin lives in Heldon, Oklahoma. Willie Mae and her husband, Dr. Jordan were in the drug business in Heldon in the '30s, same time I was in the drug business in Duncan, Oklahoma. My mother passed away in 1913. We moved to Lakeview that year and finished high school in Lakeview in 1917. My professor, R. M. Holt, was my main teacher and Superintendent of Schools, a wonderful and dedicated man to his school work, I shall never forget him. The Lakeview school years bring fond memories and thoughts of the following: Borens, Wells, Sessions, Davenport, Gosdins, Jesse Cokrells, Dunns, Montgomerys, Wrens, Potts, Wardlows, Evans, Beavers, Penningers, McCanns, Keyes, Durhams, Boones Springs and Syperys and Lije Alley, Clinkscales.

Borrowed my first money from Ewell Noel, he was with the State Bank of Lakeview, 1915. Twenty dollars was the amount. I thought the bank would close up with that money taken out. The first dollar I deposited in a bank was received by Charlie Whitacre with the Newlin State Bank. Charlie Drake was president then—1912.

As I made my way from Tyler, Texas to my homeland of Memphis, Hall County I discovered as I came in sight of Memphis that bright new, new look. Just what were we expecting to see? A shanty, stick-in-the-mud town? No, indeed not. We want our citizens of tomorrow and our children and grandchildren (as I have them both in Memphis) to be as proud of us as are of our forefathers. It doesn't take heroes, stars, nor even millionaires to make a town decent to live in, one which visitors give approving glances at all the improvements. Our cheeks may swell with pride over our accomplishments, but we still haven't swelled out so far that we have lost sight of our feet. We step carefully and steadily up that ladder that leads to Steve Watts will transfer to the General Telephone Company of Kentucky as assistant engineer effective Jan. 1, he announced this week.

He has been employed with General Telephone Company of the Southwest in Memphis since 1959. His first position was as a stockman and he moved into the engineering department in December, 1959.

Watts is a 1958 graduate of Memphis High School. During the past four summers he has completed short courses at Texas A. & M. in right of way, which includes private property easements, city, county and state permits.

He has been active in the Memphis Jaycees, serving as vice president or a director for three years.

Watts said, "In the past 13 years I have resided in Memphis. An individual could live at any place in the United States and would not find a finer bunch of people. A person living in a small city has an advantage over people living in a larger one. He finds the church, schools, community and individuals work very close together."

"A person has to look a long way to find a better group of supervisors and fellow employees. After you have worked for a large corporation for seven years, there exists a closeness that a person will not long forget with his fellow employees. I want to say as an individual that Memphis and Hall County will continue to grow and prosper with the wonderful people and leadership it has today."

Steve Odom, of Pampa, Scout Executive, installed the officers and gave a short talk. He said,

"Scouting still carries out the objectives of Baden Powell, the founder of scouting, although in many instances these objectives have had to be up-dated to meet current needs."

Melvin Jennings reviewed accomplishments of the district and lauded the work of unit leaders, den mothers and those scouts assisting in the work.

He presented certificates of appreciation to Les Sims of Memphis, Bill Brooks of Wheeler, Ray Sutterfield of Shamrock for outstanding unit service.

Mrs. Lennie Lou Sims of Wellington received the certificate for outstanding service as a den mother. Rob Roach, Jr., of Shamrock was awarded the outstanding unit and district service award.

Farmers, Businessmen Still Eligible For Investment Credit, Depreciation

Farmers and other businessmen are still eligible for investment credit and accelerated depreciation, according to Norman Brints, area farm management specialist of the Agricultural Extension Service. The announcement was made this week in a publicity release from the specialist's office in Vernon, and follows recent announcements in the news media after Congress passed legislation to suspend the 7 per cent investment tax credit on machinery and the allowance of accelerated depreciation on certain real property.

Brints pointed out certain exceptions under the act passed by Congress, especially where farmers are concerned.

His report is as follows: Here are some of the highlights of the new legislation which was signed into law by the president on Nov. 8, 1966:

1. The suspension period begins Oct. 10, 1966 and runs through Dec. 31, 1967.

2. Exceptions (a) A taxpayer may select up to $20,000 of such investments made during the exemption period to be still eligible for the investment credit. This applies to property which is to be used in the taxpayer's business. (b) The right to use the rapid depreciation rates on buildings is suspended except for "buildings whose construction was begun prior to Oct. 10, 1966, or where the taxpayer was under building contracts in effect on Oct. 9, 1966 calling for later construction. The exceptions apply only to property to be used in a trade or business—not for investment or rental purposes.

3. The suspension of both the investment credit and the rapid depreciation rates on buildings applies also to orders placed during the suspension period, or for construction, even though delivery or completion may occur after the end of the suspension period. If actual construction of a building was begun prior to Oct. 10, the entire building will still be eligible for rapid depreciation methods even though completed during the suspension period. This rule extends to include all machinery to be used in an "equipped building" if more than 50 per cent of the adjusted basis of the building and equipment and machinery to be used in it (as contemplated by the plan) is attributed to property on which either construction was begun before Oct. 10, or which was acquired or on binding order, before Oct. 10.

4. You may still choose to apply the accelerated depreciation method (declining balance or sum-of-the-years digits) to machinery or business equipment.

5. There is no disturbance whatever in this legislation of the right to claim the 20 per cent first year additional depreciation, which applies to tangible personal property for use in a trade or business to which you assign an expected useful life in your hands of six years or more. 6. The period in which unused investment credits may be carried forward has been extended from 5 to 7 years; the three years for carrying them back is unchanged.

What It Means In Farm Management Decisions

1. There is no disturbance of qualifying investments made this year prior to Oct. 10. This extends to, and includes, any machinery which was definitely ordered on or before Oct. 9, (and which order remains binding) even though it was delivered or available for use after the suspension period began. The 7 per cent tax credit is still available on such purchases.

2. You may still make up to $20,000 more of investments in qualifying machinery and equipment during the remainder of 1966 and all of 1967. So you need to decide in which calendar year you want to make any more such investments. In other words, in which year do you need or expect the additional credit to do you the most good? You will be able to claim the tax credit on only $20,000 more of such investment through December 31, 1967. You may (a) use part of it this year and the remainder next year, (b) use the full $20,000 yet this year and have none left for 1967 or (c) wait and have all of it available for use in 1967.

3. Few farmers will be affected by the suspension of the rapid methods of depreciation on buildings.

Interest rates on U. S. Savings Bonds have been increased four times since the first Series E Bond was sold on May 1, 1941. The rate may not be lowered during the term of a bond. Current rate is 5.15 per cent, when held to maturity.

Mrs. Ernest Clark Is Guest Speaker For Bethel SS Class Program Tuesday

Mrs. Ernest Clark was speaker for the Bethel Sunday School Class of the First Baptist Church at a meeting held Nov. 8 at 7 p. m. in the home of Mrs. H. H. Lindsey.

Co-hostesses were Mrs. Larry Simpson and Mrs. Sim Reeves.

Mrs. Ocie Scott, president, called the group to order and opening prayer was given by Mrs. Byron Baldwin. An inspiring devotional on prayer was presented by Mrs. Grace Foxhall, using II Corinthians 12:7-10.

During the business session Mrs. Pauline Wilson read the minutes of the previous meeting, and reports were given by the officers, Mrs. Lindsey, Mrs. Reeves and Mrs. Ruby Randolph.

The program chairman, Mrs. Ethel Fowler, introduced Mrs. Clark, who gave some highlights of her recent fall foliage tour of the Eastern United States and Canada. Her description of the beauty of the Smoky Mountains, both in brilliant sunlight as well as in rain and fog, was interesting.

She explained that, as the tour reached Vermont, Connecticut, and New Hampshire, the wonderful colors of the trees and shrubs were breathtaking. Frequently, one maple tree would have as many as five different colors varying from the reddest reds, through orange, bronze, gold and light yellow, the speaker said.

In Williamsburg she saw Colonial America as it was originally; visited William and Mary's College, and enjoyed Southern cooking at the Williamsburg Inn.

While in Washington, D. C., the group visited President Kennedy's grave which is on a steep climb in Arlington National Cemetery. There they were privileged to see the changing of the guard at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier.

Mrs. Clark said, "Besides the usual attractions of New York shops on Fifth Avenue, the marvelous cathedrals, Radio City and Rockefeller Center, the most outstanding feature of the tour was the boat trip around Manhattan Island."

On the way to Canada, the tour spent one day in Philadelphia and two in Boston. At Harvard University Museum she enjoyed especially the glass flower and foliage exhibit showing every kind of flower grown in the United States. This is the finest such collection in the world, Mrs. Clark stated.

She said, "Canada seemed to be an entirely different world from the United States, with its small, immaculate farms, its quaint houses, and its clotheslines on the front porches. Quebec was delightful and old-world. The scenery was beautiful; the people charming and the food delicious. Here the people are 92 per cent French and 90 per cent speak the French language. The 10-mile drive to the Cathedral of Ste. Anne de Beaupre and the Cyclo-rama was very rewarding."

"Montreal is more cosmopolitan. Here everything seems to move at a leisurely pace as it does in Quebec but the old-world architecture is being replaced by very modern buildings in the city. They claim to have the finest and most modern universities in the world. All the people are enthusiastic over the great 1967 Exposition."

"From Montreal the drive for miles along the St. Lawrence River to Niagara was beautiful. The wonder of Niagara gives one a feeling of reverence and awe. The group realized, as they stood and gazed at this wonder of God's universe, how very puny man is," Mrs. Clark concluded.

The class sang "Blest Be the Tie." The meeting was dismissed with prayer led by Mrs. Randolph. Delicious refreshments were served to the guests, Mrs. Mary Bownds, Mrs. Willie May Baldwin and Mrs. Grace Foxhall, and members including: Mrs. Ernest Clark, Ocie Scott, Emma Hill, Christine Hays, Pauline Wilson, Ethel Fowler, Ruby Randolph, H. H. Lindsey, Sim Reeves, Larry Simpson, Allie Caviness, Novie Hinders, Iva Smith and Sally Cofer.

FAMILY AFFAIR—Vickie Copeland, left, a South Plains College coed at Levelland, sold her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Copeland, shown with her, on getting a college degree. Now the parents are enrolled at SPC as freshmen with that in mind. Mrs. Copeland is the former Ima Jo Gafford, daughter of Mrs. F. R. Gafford of Turkey. Copeland was reared in Childress and Vickie was born in Memphis.

Three From Copeland Family Seek Sheepskins At South Plains College

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Copeland and daughter Vickie of Levelland were subjects of a feature article which appeared Oct. 31 in the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal.

Father, mother and daughter are all enrolled and working toward degrees at South Plains College in Levelland.

Mrs. Copeland is the former Ima Jo Gafford, daughter of Mrs. F. R. Gafford of Turkey. Mrs. Copeland was reared at Turkey where she graduated from high school in 1944. Three of her brothers, George, Conway and Randy, as well as her mother, reside at Turkey.

Bob Copeland was reared at Childress where he graduated from high school in 1942. The family formerly lived at Turkey and Clarendon.

Vickie and another daughter, Candie, were born in Memphis.

The Lubbock feature read, "I just wish my wife and I had done this in 1958 when the college first opened. We'd be through by now," said Copeland, a Levelland insurance agent.

He is the father, and with his wife, began college work as freshmen at SPC this fall.

Their child led them. She is Vickie Copeland, 19-year-old sophomore. She is president of the SPC's Student Education Association, a national organization for future teachers.

She took home the lure of college and sold her mother and father. After some "putting off" and much discussion, the parents made the decision—to get a college degree.

Copeland is studying English. His hobby is writing.

Mrs. Copeland is taking 15 hours with art as a major. She and her husband plan to receive degrees from SPC and then go to Texas Tech for higher degrees. Mrs. Copeland plans to work in the field of commercial art, or teach.

Vickie's major is education with a specialty in music. She plans to teach music at the elementary level.

The only other member of the family is Candie, a junior high twirler in Levelland. No doubt, the article said, she will follow all those family footsteps through high school and college.

"The heritage has been left to her," said the parents and older sister.

Insects Help Control 'Thorny' Problem

Goathead Killer Weevils Are Proved Valuable In Research

By MIKE WOOD
Area Information Specialist
Texas A&M University
Agricultural Extension Service
BUSHLAND, Tex.—A foreign weevil is invading West Texas and is doing as much as 70 percent of the seed in host plants, report scientists at the Southwest Great Plains Research Center.

University scientist at the U. S. Department of Agriculture's research center here.
In the last five years, they say the weevils have multiplied millions of times.
However, the researchers doubt if the insects will completely eradicate goatheads.
"We've never found more than 70 percent of the seed infested," Wiese said.
Seeds unharmed by the weevil may have the potential to maintain or increase the goathead weed population, but Wiese believes that 70 percent destruction of the productive seed could cause an important reduction of the weeds.

Killing weed seed with insects is one example of a new concept of controlling agricultural pests called "biological control," according to the Texas A&M scientists.
"The idea is to use natural predators or parasites in place of mechanical or chemical control," Wiese said.
He said biological control is receiving emphasis by agricultural scientists because it offers tremendous possibilities for future control of numerous pests.
The goathead or puncturevine weevils (Microlarinus larenei), first gained USDA scientists' attention in India when they noticed goatheads were sparse there although conditions are ideal for the weed.

NEWLIN

Visitors in the home of Mrs. G. Nelson were Mrs. R. O. Nelson of Estelline, Royce Nelson of Estelline, Mrs. A. D. Phillips and J. R. Mitchell of Memphis. Mrs. Ben Jackson of Estelline, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Henry of Ft. Worth last Saturday visit with their son, James and wife.

Daniels said the weevils originated in India and were brought to California in 1961 by USDA scientists.
After reading about the project in a scientific journal, the pair asked the California researchers to send them some of the weevils for tests in Texas.
They promptly received 250 of the goathead seed-predators.
Half were released here at the Southwest Great Plains Research Center and half were released at the USDA's Big Spring Field Station.

Extensive tests showed the weevils could feed and reproduce only on goatheads or puncturevine (Tribulus terrestris).
Daniels said adult weevils feed on the puncturevine foliage, but the chief damage to the weed occurs when the female snout weevil chews a small hole into the green bur and lays an egg which she covers with a fluid that seals the hole.
The small grub that hatches destroys the seed by feeding on the inside of the bur, he said.
When it reaches the adult stage, it bores its way out of the seed, Daniels said.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Edwards and girls of Amarillo were Sunday guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Stewart.
A. M. Sims isn't feeling up to these days. Hope he will soon be well.
Edmund Williams of Memphis visited with friends Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. George Gresham Clarendon visited Sunday afternoon in Newlin with Inez McFarland and Mrs. Annie Hamilton.
Mrs. Will Smith was reported to be feeling better this week. She continues to improve.
I had visitors from Estelline which I appreciated very much. Those who came were Mrs. Bob Davidson, C. L. Sloan, and Richburg and Dewitt Edwards.

The goathead weevils flourished at Big Spring, but did not overwinter here at the research center, which is located 10 miles west of Amarillo.
This year they have found them in Lubbock, Abilene and Levelland, so they are confident the pests are spreading rapidly.
Daniels also introduced them in the Rolling Plains on the eastern side of the Panhandle and they are reported to be thriving in the lower elevations there.

A fellowship dinner will be spread in fellowship hall at 12:30 noon, followed by a time of visiting and the afternoon program will begin at 2 p. m. At this time, the former pastors, members, and guests will be recognized and given an opportunity to reminisce of their days with the church.

The First Methodist Church of Turkey was organized Sept. 8, 1897, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Cooper, and was first called the Elizabeth Church in honor of Mrs. Cooper. The seven charter members were: Mr. and Mrs. Cooper and their children, Lizzie Z. and Challie; David C. and Mrs. Betty M. Lane; and James D. Frazier.

The Rev. J. D. Terry, who helped to organize the church, came to Turkey twice each month from his home in Greer County. He also served the church in the Hulver community. W. M. Cooper guaranteed the minister's salary for the first year which was $25.00 per year. Following the death of Mr. Cooper in 1896, his son and son-in-law, Dave Cooper and David C. Lane, assumed the yearly obligation.

Cash was a scarce item in that early day, and an item the early settlers were not likely to have, and $25.00 represented quite a sum of money. But we all realize that the pioneers were a resourceful people, and so the young men trapped wolves and sold the hides in order to pay the salary of the minister.

In 1903, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Lane and family moved to Turkey, and became members of the church. Then in 1905, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Meacham came with their family and the congregation grew slowly, but steadily.

In the beginning, services were held in the homes of the members. Later, the school building in the Wolf Flat community was used. When the town of Turkey was formally organized in 1905, the church was established in town and the congregation built the first parsonage. Two years later, a frame building was erected as the church edifice.

In June of 1928, a tornado struck Turkey and the church building was demolished; but almost immediately, the members set about to plan a new building, and a foundation and basement was built in which the first worship service was held in December of that same year. For more than 20 years, the congregation used the basement as a combination education building and sanctuary. The new sanctuary was begun under the ministry of the Rev. C. W. Parmenter, and the first

County Cotton Producers To Vote On Proposed Research, Promotion Order

Producers of upland cotton will vote Dec. 5-9 to determine whether a research and promotion order should be issued for upland cotton, the U. S. Department of Agriculture announced today.

Officials of USDA's Consumer and Marketing Service said the referendum will be conducted by mail ballot through county Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS) offices in conjunction with the upland cotton marketing quota referendum, but in a separate ballot.

Approval by two-thirds of the producers voting, or by a majority of producers voting if that majority accounts for two-thirds of the cotton represented in the referendum, is necessary for the order to become effective.

Today's announcement followed USDA's final decisions on the provisions to be included in the program order and on the regulations to be used for the referendum.

The proposed cotton research and promotion program would be administered by a Cotton Board composed of members nominated by cotton producing organizations and selected by the Secretary of Agriculture.

The program would be financed through assessments of $1 per bale from upland cotton producers, to be collected by cotton handlers designated by the Cotton Board. Collections from any producer who did not wish to contribute would be refunded upon written application. Assessment would start at the beginning of the ginning season for the 1967 crop.

C&MS officials said producers are eligible in the referendum if they were "engaged in the production" of the 1966 upland cotton crop during calendar year 1966. The term "engaged in the production" is defined to include planting an upland cotton crop even though the crop is not harvested if the failure to harvest is not caused by the neglect of the farmer.

Those sharing in an upland cotton crop or proceeds from it, on a farm as an owner, cash tenant, sharecropper, share tenant, or landlord of a share tenant (except for a landlord of a standing rent, cash rent, or fixed rent tenant), shall also be considered engaged in the production of that crop.

In addition, owners or operators of a farm for which an acreage allotment for an upland cotton crop was established according to the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, but on which that crop was not produced, shall generally be considered to be engaged in the production of that crop in the year in which that crop, if produced, would have been harvested.

This definition of "engaged in production" is also used in the marketing quota referendum regulations.

Each producer is entitled to only one "yes" or "no" vote in the referendum.

C&MS officials explained, however, that if it is necessary to calculate the volume of production by voters to determine the outcome of the referendum, county ASCS offices will make this calculation on the basis of their records of 1966 planted acreage and projected lint yield per acre for each farm.

A farmer with additional production in a county or State other than the county in which he is eligible to vote must establish that interest with his county ASCS office prior to the beginning of the referendum in order for that production to be considered.

This order was proposed by the National Cotton Council. The legislation authorizes it was designed to enable cotton producers to engage in a comprehensive self-help program to strengthen cotton's competitive position and to maintain and expand domestic and foreign markets and uses for U. S. cotton.

USDA's final decision in favor of the order was based on evidence developed at a two-week hearing in August and includes consideration of comments filed on the recommended decision published in the Oct. 5 Federal Register.

Exports Hit A New High
The increasing volume of American food and fiber is being sold abroad. The amount is truly amazing. Latest figures, for the year ended June 30, show the export market accounted for nearly two-thirds of U. S. sales of hides and skins, more than half the rice sales, nearly half the grain sorghum sales, two-fifths of soybean and cotton production, nearly one-half of the corn sales, about a quarter of tobacco and barley sales, and one-fifth of the sales of cotton.

The strength of our agricultural exports is good news for American farmers and for the economy generally. The value of farm exports reached a new record high of $6.7 billion last fiscal year—up 10 percent from the previous year's total.

Exports and California, with agricultural exports totaling $495 million each, ranked among the States behind only Illinois, which accounted for $666 million; Texas, $392 million; Indiana, $377 million; and North Carolina, $366 million.

U. S. and world exports of wheat and flour reached a record in the last fiscal year. Exports had a total value of $1.4 billion. In bushels, 859 million were sent abroad—a new record for U. S. wheat, $114 million.

worth. India, where famine threatened, received 262 million bushels valued at $430 million. Exports of feed grains totaled $1,351,000,000, more than 40 percent higher than the previous year. Dollar exports accounted for more than 90 percent of this total. The primary factor in the rise of feed grain exports has been a continuing expansion in livestock feeding, especially in Western Europe and Japan. As in wheat sales, Japan was the largest dollar purchaser of feed grains—$233 million worth. Shipments to countries under government programs were higher than in the previous year but were only 8 percent of total feed grain exports, and half of the total shipped under food-air programs went to India.

Unfortunately, the export market for cotton—another crop in which Panhandle farmers have a vital interest—continued to decline. Cotton exports totaled $3,065,000 bales, with a value of $386 million. The volume was one-third less than in the previous fiscal year and the lowest total since the fiscal year of 1955-56. According to the Agriculture Department, the decline reflects primarily a reduction of foreign Free World stocks in anticipation of lower world prices next season. Man-made fibers continue to give cotton severe competition in developed countries. Japan, again, was the largest dollar buyer of U. S. cotton, but the total declined to $92 million from $123 million a year earlier.

It is obvious that the export market is of major importance to U. S. farmers, who now supply more than one-fifth of the world's agricultural production moving in export channels. Meanwhile, with the U. S. ranked as the world's leading food and fiber exporter, our imports of farm products continue to increase. We're the world's third largest importer, receiving about an eighth of all world imports in calendar year 1965. In the past fiscal year our imports were up 12 percent, with a value of $4.5 billion. One half of the value of imported goods came from six countries, the Philippine Republic, Australia, Canada, Mexico, New Zealand, and Denmark. Primarily, however, the imported items are competitive with those produced by American farmers. While I recognize the need to import in order to export, I would very much like to see a reduction of imports in such foodstuffs as sugar and beef and meat—commodities our American farmers and ranchers are fully able to produce in abundance to their benefit and the country's.

With rising populations and growing famine threats in the world, America's vast agricultural productive capacity is going to supply increasing proportions of the world's needs as well as our own.

Protecting Rod Windings
To preserve the color of the winding thread and to keep the guides from getting loose, experienced fishermen use a clear Ambroid cement to repair their rod windings.

Apply a couple of coats of the cement, then finish off with a coat of spar varnish. Let it dry and the rod's ready for use once more.

Local Postmaster Gives Christmas Mailing Advice

Postmaster Gene Lindsey of Memphis today announced that henceforth all first class mail, personal sound recordings (voice letters), and parcels weighing 5 pounds or less and measuring not more than 60 inches in length and girth combined, will be lifted on a space available basis between the United States and all military post offices overseas.

Also, under Public Law 89-725—The Dulski Military Act—which was signed by President Johnson on November 2, 1966, second class publications such as newspapers and magazines published weekly or more often, and featuring current news of interest to the military, will be airlifted from San Francisco to the armed forces serving in Viet Nam.

Postmaster Lindsey explained that parcels weighing 5 pounds or less and not exceeding 60 inches in length and girth combined, paid at surface rates, will be moved by surface transportation within the United States from the points of mailing to the port of embarkation.

To speed up separation and delivery of these smaller parcels falling within this category, Postmaster General Lawrence F. O'Brien directed that all parcels be clearly marked upon acceptance at the post office with the letters SAM (surface airlift mail).

This will eliminate the task of reweighing and measuring the parcels at the San Francisco Concentration Center prior to dispatch to Viet Nam or other overseas military post offices.

Postmaster Lindsey also reminded mailers that Christmas parcels weighing 5 pounds and under, though they are given airlift priority from San Francisco to Viet Nam on a space available basis, should be mailed no later than December 1. Airmail, he said, should be sent no later than December 10.

The deadline for Christmas packages weighing more than 5 pounds going to Viet Nam and other overseas military post offices by surface means is November 10.

Storing Duck Decoys
Duck decoys are best preserved by careful storage.

To insure dryness and prevent molding and discoloration, string a strong wire or heavy twine wall to wall across your garage, boat-house, or some other dry room. Then use curtain hooks to hang each decoy to the line.

Suspend them from the weight eye underneath each duck. Space them so as not to touch each other.

Arthur Butou Is Returned To Stand Trial Here

Arthur Butou, 37, a Oct. 1, 1961 escapee from Hall County Jail, has been returned to this area to stand trial for burglary. He faces two indictments and trial will be held within the next few weeks.

Butou escaped from Hall County Jail and left this area in a stolen car from Potts Chevrolet Co.

He is being held in Collingsworth County Jail, Sheriff Elmer Neel said, until he is brought to trial.

Butou was apprehended in New York State on Oct. 8, 1961 and has been serving a 5-year term for illegal possession of fire arms in that state.

Sheriff Neel brought Butou back to this area to stand trial for burglary after he had served his jail sentence.

Christ Ambassadors Group Plans Bake Sale Saturday

Members of the Christ Ambassadors of the Assembly of God Church will hold a bake sale Saturday, Nov. 19, in front of Branigan Jewelry, beginning at 9 a. m. The announcement was made by Mrs. Amos Weddel, youth councilor.

Proceeds from the sale will go directly to a district "Spend the Light" offering which is used to buy vehicles for foreign missionaries. This money will help on a vehicle for a young man, Rev. R. Hagemire, and his family who are planning to go to Africa in February, Mrs. Weddel said.

Caprock Trail Riders Have Cook-Out Sat.

Due to the usual rush of rural business at this time of year, only twelve members of The Caprock Trail Riders gathered in the Riding Barn Thursday evening, Nov. 3.

The president, Haskell Howell, presided over the business portion of the meeting during which several items of importance to the members were discussed.

A report on the Sunday afternoon "play-day" session was favorable. The riders have been having a gallery of spectators to encourage and enjoy their horseback games of patching the ring, barrel racing, and potato races. The Zack Fisher family have added their names to the membership roll.

Plans were made for a cook-out at the Phaeton Alexander farm Saturday afternoon, Nov. 12. The riders met at Paul Smith's corral at 2:30 p. m. and went from there.

The riders turned out in great style for the Hedley Cotton Festival. Thirty-three Caprock Trail Riders represented Memphis in the parade.

A stop-watch has been purchased for benefit of the play-day time events. Also, more ties for the riders have arrived at last and can be had from Haskell Howell at the First State Bank. The next regular meeting will be December 1, the first Thursday in the month.

Cyclone Is Dist. 3-AA Co-Champ, Loses 7-7 Heart Breaker

Offensive Season Statistics Are Released On 1966 Cyclone Squad

(Editor's Note: As has been the practice of The Democrat the past six years, the following are individual statistics of the offensive members of the Cyclone squad as made during the regulation 10-game season, as compiled by the team's statistics taker Randy Jennings, and worked up by The Democrat staff.)

HB Gary Rea, a junior, 140-lb. setback, was the leading scorer for the Memphis Cyclone team, catching two TD passes and running over six more to score 48 points this season.

Rea is just one of nine boys on the Cyclone squad who have figured in the scoring of the team's 168 points this season.

Second and third places in the scoring department go to End Clyde Wilson and Tailback Junior Graves, each scoring 26 points. Wilson caught four TD passes and one pass for extra points, while TB Graves ran over four TDs and ran over a two-point conversion.

FB Kenneth Cornish scored on four TD carries for 24 points. QB Tony Pounds scored twice and ran over a two-point conversion for 14 points. Also scoring 14 points was End Dwayne Jones, who ran over one TD and a two-point conversion, and caught a TD pass.

TB William Welch scored 8 points, one TD and one two-point conversion. Place kickers Jerry Hall and Kay Miller scored 5 points and 1 point, respectively.

Surprisingly enough, the Cyclone defensive unit gets credit for a safety, earned in the Shamrock game.

TB Graves is the team's leading ground gainer with 524 yards, averaging a remarkable 6 yards per carry. HB Rea had a 5-yard per carry average gaining 370 yards. FB Cornish made 460 yards maintaining 4.7 yards per carry. QB Pounds made 189 yards and averaged 3.7 yards per carry. William Welch had a 4.1 yard per carry average with 140 yards gained.

FB Miller made 31 yards and had a 2-yard average and Dwayne Jones made 68 yards and had a 13.6 average. Roge Fowler made 29 yards for a 7.25 average, and James Spruill had 7 yards this season.

Passing Statistics

QB Pounds threw seven TD passes and two extra-points passes this season. The Cyclone team completed 56 passes, 58 incomplete, and had seven interceptions.

The leading receiver is Strong Side End Clyde Wilson who caught 25 tosses. Jones caught 11 passes and TB Graves caught 8 passes. QB Rea caught 7, while End Roy Long caught four and FB Cornish caught one.

Punter Bobby Carroll kicked the ball 31 times and maintained an average of 35 yards per kick.

Since the Cyclone squad will be in action again Friday night in the Bi-District game against Post, the statistics will be added as the season continues, Coach Bert Glascock said.

Coach Glascock authorized the public release of these statistics Wednesday afternoon and posted them on the bulletin board of the locker room.

Probably, the most remarkable thing about the season statistics is they show versatility of the Cyclone offensive squad, which makes the problem of defending the team pretty tough. The team went through the regulation season without being shut out, another remarkable feat considering the fine defensive teams the Cyclone had to play as it climbed to the top birth in the district.

Spaghetti Supper To Be Served In Plainview Friday

Memphis citizens who will attend the Cyclone-Post football game in Plainview Friday night, have been invited to eat a spaghetti supper in that city prior to the contest.

The invitation was issued by the Plainview High School A Cappella Choir. The members of the choir will serve the supper in the High School Cafeteria from 5:30 to 7:30 p. m.

"Believing that many persons from your area will be unable to eat their evening meal in our city prior to the game due to crowded conditions in our restaurants, we have scheduled this spaghetti dinner," the announcement said.

The price will be $1.00 per plate. Pre-school children will be served at no charge.

The Memphis Cyclone finished its regular 1966 scheduled season with a Co-Championship of District 3-AA and with the right to represent that district in Bi-District play-off with Post.

The Bi-District game will be held at 7:30 p. m. in Plainview Stadium according to school officials who met last Saturday and agreed upon the neutral field site for the Bi-District game between representatives of District 3-AA and 4-AA.

The Cyclone lost the Friona game on penetrations after the score ended in a 7-7 deadlock. Memphis School Officials protested the 3-2 penetrations ruling by the officials due to the fact that the local team was deep in Friona territory at the end of the first half. Supt. A. E. Greer withdrew the protest by calling the District Chairman late Saturday after examination of game records and film showed the ball placement in question was not on or inside the 20-yd. line.

The District 3-AA race ended with Memphis having a 5 win, 2 loss record, losing to Olton and Friona. Floydada, by virtue of a victory over Dimmitt Friday night ended the season with the same record as Memphis and shares the co-championship.

Abernathy ended the season with a 4 win, three loss record to be tied with Olton and Dimmitt for second, third and fourth places. Friona and Hale Center ended the season with 3-4 records and Lockney stayed in the cellar with a 0-7 mark.

This is the first Memphis Cyclone team to win the right to represent its District since the 1953 team quarterbacked by Duke Frisbie accomplished this feat.

The Cyclone squad beat the Friona Chiefs everywhere but on the scoreboard, on penetrations and in the punting department, however, when the final whistle ended the game, the Chiefs were awarded a District victory by virtue of a 3-2 edge on penetrations.

The game ended in a 7 to 7 deadlock and according to district rules, when the score is tied, a winner will be decided by the penetrations, and if these are tied, by the first downs.

Coach Bert Glascock said, "The Friona game was our best defensive game of the season and one of our better offensive games, but with all the bad breaks we had, passes intercepted, a fumble, numerous offensive penalties and slipping down in the mud, we just couldn't keep our drives going."

The Cyclone fumbled the ball to Friona on the opening play after the kickoff, on the Memphis 34. Friona was stopped cold and punted into the endzone.

Memphis tried a second down pass but the ball was intercepted and Friona returned it to the Memphis 15, for their first penetration.

The Cyclone took over the ball on the 20 after Friona was held and tried to kick a field goal.

This began the Cyclone's scoring drive. Highlighting this drive was a 21-yard pass to End Dwayne Jones, a roughing the kicker penalty against Friona, a 15-yd. and a 9-yd. carry by FB Kenneth Cornish, and a 12-yd. end sweep carry by Tailback William Welch.

FB Cornish carried over for the touchdown from the 3-yd. line on the first down. Junior Guard Jerry Hall, the Cyclone's kicking specialist whose foot has decided several games this season, booted one over the goal post which was called good and the score was Memphis 7, Friona 0.

The Chiefs used the quick-kick twice in the game and got the Cyclone deep into their end of the field. After the first of such maneuvers, the ball came to rest on the Cyclone 28.

On a third down and five situation, QB Tony Pounds passed to a receiver. The ball hit the receiver in the hands but bounced into the air and a Friona lad intercepted the ball and raced to the Cyclone 9.

The Cyclone defense held tight for three downs and the Chiefs faced a fourth down and 13 situation. QB Johnny Barker rolled out to his left, and passed the ball to End Ray Lynn Murphree for the score. The place kick was good so the score was 7-7.

After the score, the Cyclone took over the ball on the Memphis 31. On a third down, a pass was picked off by a Friona defender, the third of the night, and the Chiefs took over on the Memphis 35.

On a third down and long yardage, a Chief pass went incomplete but an official called pass interference against the Cyclone defense and gave the Chiefs the first down on the Memphis 19, their third penetration.

The Chiefs made a first down to the 9. QB Larry Graves of Friona tried twice to get into the endzone on third and fourth downs from the Cyclone 2, but (Continued on Page 4)

ELCH CARRIES—TB William Welch, a 125-lb. junior, is pictured after being downed in Friona game after a short carry, probably the shortest of the night for him. Welch thrilled local fans many times this season and sees a lot of action in every game. No. 20 Tony Pounds and on the left of the picture is Tackle Bobby Carroll. No. 40 for Friona is Ruben DeLeon and No. 55 is Rickie Hurst. Welch maintained a 5.4 yd. per carry average during the game, but had to leave the action due to an elbow injury.

Turkey Romps Past Rule Bobcats, 40-6

By PAUL HAWKINS

A ferocious bear that had awakened from a season-long slumber, the Turkey Turks of the Bobcats came alive with a vengeance. The Turks rampaged past the Bobcats by a score of 40-6 Friday afternoon in a homecoming game played at Bobcat Stadium.

The outcome probably could have been much worse for the Bobcats as Coaches Joe Bob Barnard and Harvey Wellman cleared the bench in the third quarter, moved players around in an effort to keep the score respectable.

The offensive, which up until now had seemed to jell, clicked into all four cylinders as the Turks found out that they could move the ball and just simply out of the stadium. As the game picked up so did the defense of the Turks as they played the strongest game of the season.

The Bobcats could pick up only one first down and 44 total yards as Tim Salem, James Edwards, Russell Barnhill and Bob Edwards played much of the afternoon in the Rule backfield, giving havoc for the home team.

The Turks, meanwhile, picked up 13 first downs and 279 yards in the game. Late in the opening stanza, James Woods pounced on a bobble at the 25-yard line of the Bobcats. After picking up a 10-yard move the ball back to 35, Setliff hit Case on passes 11 and 13 yards with the latter being the six points. Barnard ran the points and the score was 8-0.

The Bobcats retaliated very early as their fourth down punt fumbled and Rule recovered the 20-yard line of the Turks. Here, it took just two plays and Crawford skirted left end for 10 yards and the score. The try points failed and the Turks led 8-6 lead early in the third quarter.

The Turks then began to take over as they took the kickoff and marched 70 yards in nine plays with King going the final 10 yards for the touchdown.

After fell short and the Turks led 14-6. Forcing Rule to punt, the Turks quickly scored as Majors caught the punt and ruled 40, eluded one tackler behind a wall of blocks by Edwards, Denton and Crawford raced down the sideline for 50 yards and another score. Mullin ran the points after and the Turks enjoyed a halftime lead of 20-6.

In the third quarter, the Turks received a punt at midfield and marched 60 yards in seven plays for another score with Robert getting the last six yards.

Cyclone Is—

the Cyclone defense held strong and Memphis took over on the one yard line.

Two carries by Kenneth Cornish marched the ball out to the 19-yd. line. Three more running plays gave the Cyclone the ball on the home 37. Then, TB Junior Graves took a pitch out and swept right end, broke into the clear and raced across field avoiding tacklers for 43 yds. This is when Memphis fans thought the Cyclone made their second penetration and was the basis of the early protest.

Actually, Graves' carry took him to the Friona 16-yd. line but the ball was spotted back to around the 20. The action took place near the out-of-bounds line and there was some question as to whether the play went out-of-bounds or not. The clock was not stopped and the half ended as QB Pounds tried to stop the clock with an incomplete pass.

The second half saw the Cyclone steadily marching the ball against the Chiefs defense, but the only penetration the Cyclone could come up with was to the Chiefs 15-yd. line in the fourth period of play.

Aspermont Small Business Center Ends First Year

The Aspermont Small Business Development Center has received notification of funding for another year. On October 31, the Aspermont S.B.D.C. had completed its first year of operation. During its first year of operation, the Center interviewed 489 small businessmen and prospective businessmen, and other interested individuals. A total of 108 applications were processed of which 39 applications were approved by SBA, totaling $361,900.00, and 32 applications were declined by the S.B.D.C., and 16 applications were declined by the SBA.

The Aspermont S.B.D.C. as the representative of the local community plays a vital role in the economic opportunity loan program. The Aspermont S.B.D.C. has the responsibility of screening applicants, recommending loans, and the counseling and training of applicants and those who receive loans. While the SBA office, Lubbock, makes the final decision on loans, its decision is largely based on the recommendation and justification submitted by the S.B.D.C. In the past year, the Aspermont S.B.D.C. has sought to carry out these responsibilities, by making known the program to the people it is intended to help in the communities.

The S.B.D.C. has interviewed 31 businessmen and prospective businessmen from Hall County. The Center has processed 7 loans of which no loans are now pending in the SBA office, Lubbock, and 3 loans have received approval totaling $28,000.

A representative from the Aspermont S.B.D.C. spends two days per month (second and fourth Tuesdays) in Memphis at the Community Center to interview and to discuss with any individual who is interested in expanding his present business, going into a new business, or talk of any problems concerning his business.

The Hall County representatives are Carl Henry Wood, Memphis, Board Member, and V. C. Durrett of Lakeview, and B. J. Robinson of Turkey, Screening Committee Members.

The land area of the United States today is 3 1/2 million square miles with a population density of 50 persons per square mile. At the time of our first census in 1790, there were less than 900,000 square miles with five persons to the mile.
