Donley Still Short of War Bond Quota

J. R. Porter, Donley County War Bond chairman, announced this morning that Donley County still needed $79,332.25 in War Bond sales to put us over the top, and stressed the fact that there are only four more days to get the job done by the 15th, which is the deadline.

Although the above amount is yet to be raised to fill the total quota, the quota for E bonds has already gone over with the total sales reaching $92,193.75. This does not mean that anyone should not buy any more E bonds because they will still be counted on the total and every bond will be needed to raise the remaining $79,000.

Mr. Porter pointed out that this is one time that good old Donley is up in the top bracket. She is above the state and also the national average at the present time, and also above most of the surrounding counties, and he added that we want to put the whole deal over by the end of the week if possible in order to hold this lead and show the other people how proud we are and how much we think of our fighting men and women through this small way by purchasing bonds. Purchasing war bonds is very small in comparison to what they are doing and besides that, it is not a sacrifice but an opportunity for most people to save that much and receive interest on the money at the same time. The money you put into war bonds now will mean much more to you in later years.

Plan now, if you haven't already, to buy that extra bond before next Tuesday, Feb. 15th—the deadline for the 4th War Loan drive.

Feed Dairy Cows Well In Dry Period

Charles Reed, County Agent, recommends the following: To be in good condition at freshening a dairy cow should get all of the roughage she will eat during the dry period.

Dairy husbandmen of the A&M College Extension Service say that a cow which has been well fed during lactation will require little concentrated feed while dry. If she hasn't been well fed and is thin upon going dry, usually two to five pounds daily of the grain ration being fed the milking herd along with the roughage, and pasture, if available, will put her in good flesh at freshening.

To prepare for the approaching drain upon her body minerals, a dry cow should be provided, free choice, with plenty of lime and phosphorus, the two minerals required in largest quantity for building the calf's body and in milk. The minerals may be supplied by mixing three parts by weight of steamed bone meal and one part salt. The mineral box should be protected from the weather, and if the cow does not lick the mixture when first offered, sprinkle a little cottonseed meal on it.

At least ten days before freshening, the grain mixture should be changed to equal parts of wheat bran and ground oats, and fed three or four days after calving. If ground oats are not available wheat bran alone may be fed.

The specialists recommend supplying dry cows with feeds containing plenty of Vitamin A. A deficiency of this vitamin can cause them to lose their calves, and calves born with a deficiency of Vitamin A will be susceptible to calf diseases, especially scours. Cows getting free pasture, hay with green color, or silage made from crops having green leaves will have their Vitamin A needs taken care of. Five pounds daily per cow of pea green leafy alfalfa hay, or five pounds daily of a yellow variety of sweet potatoes will furnish the needed supply of Vitamin A during the dry period.

Those Who Must File Returns

Even though they filed declarations of estimated tax in September or December, the following persons in general must file income tax returns on or before March 15:

1. Every single person whose gross income in 1943 was $500 or more.
2. Every individual married person whose gross income was more than $624.
3. Every married couple whose combined gross income was $1,200 or more.
4. Every person who paid or owed a tax on 1942 income.

Excepted from filing on March 15 are servicemen and others outside the country, and wives of servicemen outside the country if the wife's own income is less than $1,200.

The Bureau of Internal Revenue advises all persons to file their returns early to determine how they stand. Many people will be about even with the government, a number of people will find they have a sizeable payment to make, and still others will find that the government owes them money.

Income tax returns of farmers as well as of most other persons will be due on or before March 15, and livestock raisers, fruit and truck growers, poultry raisers, and operators of plantations and ranches are considered farmers by the Bureau of Internal Revenue.

RATIONING AT A GLANCE

By PEPPY BLOCKER

As Pretty Does

Pierre, Antoine, and Auguste have been drafted; Adele, Elaine, and Louise are in defense plants. Many of the Country's usual 100,000 beauty operators are either carrying guns or making them. However, the 800-million-dollar business of beauty—to which the average woman contributes $16 a year—has always operated with a small skillful personnel, relatively simple materials, and will continue its pursuit of beauty in 1944 with a successful adaptation to war conditions, finding alternates to such war casualties as alcohol, perfume, and glycerine.

Women war workers in munitions plants are making use of special new "insulation" creams that have been developed for their skin protection. Vanishing and greaseless, these creams are somewhat like a powder base, and prevent embedded grime.

A person recently charged with violating the ordinance passed by the City of Cleveland Heights, Ohio contended, on hearing, that the ordinance was invalid since the City Council had no authority to enact it. Judge David J. Miller of the Cleveland Heights Police Court found the defendant guilty as charged, and to support his decision said, "The law seems to be well established that prices can be controlled and fixed . . . by the Council of the City"; and further that it "is not in conflict with Federal law, but rather in aid of the Congressional enactment, is a proper exercise of the legislative authority by the Council."

A copy of a model city ordinance can be secured by writing John T. Burke, AF of L liaison officer to OPA, in care of the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C.

Big Meat Waste Story Was Baloney

A recent news story claimed that 18 Philadelphia packers had "dumped one million pounds of meat into vats for rendering and fertilizer". An immediate investigation revealed, however, that the story was totally unsupported by the facts. One Philadelphia packer—not 18—had sent 50,000 hog stomachs to the rendering vats after being ordered by the War Food Administration to clear his refrigerators of non-edible meat products, to make room for edible meats for the armed services and civilians. No edible meat was wasted and no rationed products were thrown away.

LOCAL BOYS SEND CHEER TO CRIPPLED CHILDREN

A letter has been received from Asher Mintz, Secretary of the Texas Scottish Rite Hospital for crippled children in Dallas, in which he expressed his thanks for the model airplanes sent by Jimmy Dean Howze, Billy Ray Armstrong, and Tom Goodner to three of the patients in the hospital. The letter said, in part: "I wish to express my appreciation to these boys for their expression of interest in the unfortunate little crippled children in our hospital. The children will enjoy these airplanes a very great deal."

WORTH WHILE COMMENTS BY COUNTY AGENT Charles O. Reed

Bangs and T. B. Tests
A graduate veterinarian has completed Bangs or T. B. tests on 50 cows in Donley County during the latter part of January.

Further tests for Bangs and T. B. will be made in County on the following conditions:

A. If farmers or ranchers in community will have 75 to 100 head tested during one trip, a fee of 60 cents per head will be charged for Bangs test. If sufficient number are tested for T. B., both tests may be obtained for $1.00 per head.

B. If less than 75 head are tested in one day, a fee of 75 cents to $1.00 will be charged per head for Bangs tests.

C. If family has one cow to test for Bangs a fee of $1.50 will be charged.

I believe that these charges for Bangs and T. B. tests are economical. Since tests are made by a graduate veterinarian, they are acceptable and official.

Now is Time to:

1. Turn in your application for Bangs or T. B. tests.
2. Get County Agent to run your terrace or contour lines.
3. Get County Agent to prune your orchard.
4. Get County Agent to cull your hens.
5. Get Sulphur-cube mixture from County Agent to control cat-grubs.

Youths to Present Boxing Bouts Here February 16th

Boxing fans here will be in for a treat on the night of Feb. 16 when local youths will put on 14 boxing bouts at the College Auditorium at 8 p. m. This is an all amateur affair, and each bout will be three minute rounds with one minute rest between rounds.

The purpose of the exhibition is to raise money to pay for boxing equipment and the admission price will be 25 cents for school students and 55 cents for adults.

Seven of the boys who will box here, entered the tournament at Childress last Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. They did not win any medals but every boy gave a good account of himself.

The team has been invited to the high school tournament at Shamrock the 2nd, 3rd, and 4th of March and several of the boys expect to go.

This is just a part of what these boys are doing and expect to do in the future, so all you boxing fans should make your plans to come out on the 16th and see what we have in the way of local talent, and help them pay for their equipment.

TWO CLARENDON MEN RECEIVE COMMISSIONS

Texas, already traditional as the home of great combat pilots, placed another 470 names on the list of its aerial fighting men today as graduation ceremonies were held at eleven AAF Training Command advanced schools in this state and Oklahoma.

Included among the new men graduating are two Clarendon men who received their commissions in the Fighter Command, Flight Officer Elbert G. Horton received his wings as fighter pilot from Aloe Field, Victoria. Wesley Powell received his wings as bomber pilot from Ellington Field, Houston.

S/Sgt. Marvin Jones of Lubbock visited his mother last week.

Metal Tabs For License Plates

The 43rd Regular Session of the Texas Legislature, anticipating unusual conditions due to the scarcity of materials used in the War Effort, authorized the State Highway Commission to prescribe whatever type of motor vehicle registration was available and best suited to the requirements of the State and the traveling public for the 1944 registration year.

The Texas Highway Commission on January 18, 1944, passed an order prescribing for the 1944 registration year, which begins April 1, 1944, two metal tabs 2" x 2" bearing the designation of the State, year and an identification serial number. The tabs must be used in connection with the 1942 plates which must be retained throughout the 1944 registration year. The same procedure applies to vehicles which are required to have but one license plate except that one tab is prescribed and the one 1942 license plate must be retained.

The Highway Commission has also ordered that the 1944 tab or tabs be securely fastened to the 1942 plates in such a manner as to be clearly visible. On all motor vehicles for which two tabs are issued, one shall be attached to the front license plate and one to the rear license plate.

The Highway Commission has made every effort to comply with the request of the Federal Government for conservation of critical materials and both the steel and paint used in manufacturing the 1944 tabs were obtained from stocks on hand before Pearl Harbor. All motor vehicle owners in Texas are earnestly requested to cooperate by applying 1944 registration insignia in the manner legally prescribed.

Indicating the garden seed resources of the nation, WFA explains that in 1943, U.S. seed growers produced the largest crop of vegetable seeds in the history of the country. Comparably it exceeds the average three year (1939-41) pre-Pearl Harbor harvest by 91 per cent. Estimated increases for 1943 as against that base include: carrot 273 per cent; onions 189 per cent; garden beets 53 per cent; spinach 328 per cent; and cucumber 135 per cent.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Merchant and daughter, Jacqueline of Pampa, spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cal Merchant.

Last week it was two. Now it is three since L. E. Thompson has rounded up his folks out in the Fairview community to join in with the big Bond Rally at the Lelia Lake high school Friday night. The other two are Lelia Lake with Quinn Aten as captain and Windy Willey with Dr. H. R. Beck as captain.

This is proposed to be one of the largest gatherings of the people who live in the center of the county in many years. They are going to be out in full force for a special purpose and that is to put their bond quotas over in each respective community all at one time.

Plans have been completed with a large number of boxes to be auctioned off to bond buyers and a lively program has been arranged with a band concert by the Clarendon High School band, a short talk by R. E. Drennan, and a program by the Lelia Lake school students.

The Captains of each of these communities are counting upon you people to come out in full force and see that the job is done right. They also extend an invitation to anyone else over the county to come out and enjoy the occasion and incidentally buy one of the boxes.

Vegetable Seeds Allocations

Donley County Agent, Charles Reed has received the following information from College Station: Civilian gardeners in the United States, who plant farm and back lot plots, will have for their selection 70.3 per cent of the supply of vegetable seeds allocated for all needs through June 30, 1944. In bulk, this is equivalent to 275,252,000 pounds.

According to information to the Texas A&M College Extension Service from the War Food Administration which administers the allocation, an estimated 391,000,000 pounds of seeds are available this year. Of the quantity remaining after providing for civilian needs, 25.3 per cent, or about 99,000,000 pounds have been placed in a contingency reserve to meet emergencies. What is left goes to allies and liberated areas, U. S. Territories, Red Cross, friendly nations, and U. S. Military and war services.

Although certain accustomed varieties may be missing at planting time, W.F.A. officials believe that no domestic gardener will need to be without enough seed.

It is explained that while they are not necessarily the most important, the large or heavy seeds like peas, beans and sweet corn account for more than 263,000,000 pounds of the total allocated to civilian needs. The contingent reserve will take about 92,000,000 pounds of this type, largely seed peas.

Of the small or light seeds, such as beet, cabbage, carrot, lettuce and onion, civilians will receive more than 11,500,000 pounds of the total supply of approximately 25,000,000. Seven million pounds of the remainder have been placed in the reserve.

Indicating the garden seed resources of the nation, WFA explains that in 1943, U.S. seed growers produced the largest crop of vegetable seeds in the history of the country. Comparably it exceeds the average three year (1939-41) pre-Pearl Harbor harvest by 91 per cent. Estimated increases for 1943 as against that base include: carrot 273 per cent; onions 189 per cent; garden beets 53 per cent; spinach 328 per cent; and cucumber 135 per cent.

LIBRARY NOTES

"Without good books, plenty of them, and easy access to all, we Americans will starve in the midst of our American plenty" — so says one of the leading writers and literary critics of the day, Dorothy Canfield Fisher.

the various camps where our soldiers and sailors are to realize what books are meaning to these boys who are away from home — and from the Prisoner of War camps to know what books are meaning to those men. Recently fifty books were placed aboard the liner Gripsholm when she sailed to repatriate American citizens. The statement was made that of these fifty books the most popular was Louise Randall Pierson's "Roughly Speaking."

"You've earned some sort of medal yourself, I'd say, for giving lots of us drivers safe warning. Good thing you kept harping on rationing. You said limited driving couldn't keep clearing out the rank acids always left from combustion; they'd linger and corrode the engine. But you said that plating, of course, wouldn't soon let metals corrode. And you convinced me, all right, about keeping my engine OIL-PLATED with your patented Conoco Nth oil. Now my OIL-PLATED engine is seeing me through, and I say good for you! ... helping the home front! They all should know how Conoco Nth gives engines protective OIL-PLATING!"

The how of it is that Conoco Nth motor oil — popular-priced — includes a costly modern synthetic. Its strong "power of attraction" fastens and maintains the OIL-PLATING on inner surfaces. Despite engine inactivity, the unavoidable acids aren't "working right through" the OIL-PLATING, and so the ago the Nazis set 50,000 volumes on fire. The authors of these books had conjured up too much dignity of the individual, too much freedom of the soul for liberty-loving mankind — so they were treated like witches and burned at the stake.

The many readers of Jack London's stories will be interested in the statement that his camera, carried all over the world forty years ago and used for many of his illustrations, has been taken to Yale University for inspection and study. It lacks all the modern gadgets, but still takes excellent pictures.

Irene Ralf Sues, Polish author of "Sharks Fins and Millet", is said to have learned English without a single grammar or school book — she taught herself by reading Shaw, Wilde, Dickens and Poe with a dictionary in her lap.

The account of the death of an author whose books we have read and enjoyed comes to us as a personal loss. This is true of Armine von Tempski, Hawaiian writer, author of the book so many of our readers have enjoyed, "Born in Paradise," which was a best seller for a long time. She died at Fresno, California at only 44 years of age.

Another author whose books are so popular among our readers who died recently at St. Joseph, Missouri, was Louise Platt Hauck, aged 59. She had written since 1929 — more than 70 books — the latest of which was "Cary For-dyce."

The founder and editor emeritus of "Who's Who in America" died recently at Evanston, Ill. — Albert Nelson Marquis. He was 88 years old and had operated a toll road in his early years in his Ohio home. His first "Who's Who" appeared in Chicago in 1899.

"Serene is a word you could put to Brooklyn" began Betty Smith in her first novel, "A Tree Grows in Brooklyn." Serene is also a word that could be used about Miss Smith — the wife of Pfc. Joe Jones — for these days she's watching the book top almost every best selling fiction list in the nation.

Quiet, domestic Mrs. Etta Shibe came out of the kitchen, so to speak, to save 150 British lads from the clutches of the Gestapo and smuggle them out of occupied France. Then she wrote of her adventure in a brilliant human document — "Paris Underground."

Pearl Buck has a new book, "The Promise," which is getting its full share of attention, but is not being quite so popular as her "Dragon Seed" — but neither of them equaled her "Good Earth" which was on the best seller list for 21 months — a record equaled only by "Quo Vadis" 35 years before.

Willia Cather will receive the gold medal from the National Institute of Arts and Letters — the first time in 10 years that the medal will be awarded for fiction.

Michael Arlen and William Saroyan, the noted authors, are both Armenians — Saroyan of "Human Comedy" fame, you know.

"I-B Soldier" by Pfc. Joe Jones will be published by Harper's soon. The best seller, "A Tree Grows in Brooklyn" was written by Betty Smith, who is the wife of Pfc. Jones.

THE TEMPLE OF TRUTH
By the Apostle

Having plenty of money and no points recalls an old saying in this part of the country before it settled up with the folks. "All dressed up, but no place to go."

A friend who ain't in need, is a friend in deed.

There is said to be about 400 pairs of muscles in the human body, and when a fellow gets around 70, every blamed one of them begins to twitch, burn and ache.

No one apparently knows just how long the earth has been inhabited with the human animal, but a lot will agree that it has been long enough for them to have learned better.

Woman has better business sense than a man and can prove it. When her business is to catch a man, she doesn't sit around and cuss the President. She hangs around the beauty parlor half of her time, and the other half is spent where eligible men are to be found.

Items appearing in this column are born without malice and nursed by a spirit of friendliness. Dealing in personalities won't go over. It has been tried too much. Some years ago the old Apostle ran up against a large painted hogshead—twice as large as a barrel—right in the main cross section of the streets of Lorraine, down in Crosby county. It was night, dark and rainy. The next time the Apostle wrote his column, he got smart and said: "Some towns use a city marshal, while others use a painted barrel." He had in mind the experience at Lorraine a few days before. Great was my surprise a few days later to find out that City Marshall Flop Pyle had taken extreme exception to the statement. He had talked with every one in town almost except the outlaw whom he thought had slandered his noble profession by comparing him to a painted barrel. I hunted Flop up, explained the whole thing and he got back on the track again. That just shows how easy it is to get into serious trouble minding your own affairs. That is why you have seen fewer personal names in this column than in any other paper.

We Salute..

TWO GREAT AMERICANS

As a Nation we pause this month to honor two illustrious patriots—Abraham Lincoln, whose birthday anniversary is Feb. 12th—and George Washington, whose birth is observed on Feb. 22nd.

If Lincoln and Washington could give us a personal message this month it undoubtedly would urge us to go all-out for Victory - - - to buy more War Bonds - - - to accept sacrifices we are called upon to make willingly and without complaint.

Do YOU measure up to standards Lincoln and Washington might set were they alive in 1944?

'WHAT DO SOLDIERS THINK ABOUT' POEM PROVIDES ANSWER

EDITORS NOTE—The following poem was taken from the Los Angeles Star and was handed to us by Mr. C. E. Griggs. "We've Done Our Hitch In Hell" By Sgt. W. C. Homer—Italy I am sitting here and thinking of the things I left behind. And it is hard to put on paper what's running through my mind. I've dug a million ditches and cleaned ten miles of ground. And a nearer place this side of Hell is waiting to be found. There is one consolation: sit close and I will tell, When we die we'll go to heaven, for we've done our hitch in hell.

We've built a hundred kitchens for cooks to stew our beans, We've stood a million guard mounts and cleaned the camp latrines. We've cleaned a million mess kits and peeled a million spuds, We've rolled a million blanket rolls and scrubbed our dirty duds.

And the number of parades we've stood it's mighty hard to tell, But we all will parade to Heaven, for we've done our hitch in hell.

We have killed a million snakes and bugs that battle for our eats, We've shook a million centipedes from our dirty sheets. We've marched a hundred thousand miles and pitched a thousand camps, And picked a thousand cactus thorns from the seat of our khaki pants.

And when our work on earth is done our friends at home can tell, When we died we went to Heaven, for we'd done our hitch in hell.

When the final taps are sounded and we lay aside life's cares, We'll do our final dress parade, up those golden stairs. The angels will welcome us, the harps will start to play, We'll draw a million canteen checks and spend them in one day.

It's then we'll hear St. Peter say, loudly and with a yell, "Take front seats, all you soldiers, for you've done your hitch in Hell."

A Hint to the Wise
During Mark Twain's days as a newspaperman, he was editor of a small Missouri paper. One day he received a letter from a subscriber, stating that he had found a spider in his paper, and asked if this was an omen of good or bad luck.

Twain replied: "Finding a spider in your paper is neither good luck nor bad. The spider was merely looking over our paper to see which merchant was not advertising so that he could go to that store, spin his web across the door and lead a life of undisturbed peace ever afterward."

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Bell and daughter, Jean, left Tuesday for San Francisco, Calif. to visit their son Billy Ray who is in Naval training there. Their trip will take them to various other cities along the west coast.

Mrs. J. T. Latson left Tuesday night for Camp Beale, Calif. for a visit with her husband, Jack Latson.

Red Cross Aids 35 Million War Victims

In the four years since the start of the war in Europe, 35 million war victims in thirty nations have benefited by aid extended by and through the American Red Cross. Details of this program are contained in a recent statement issued by Red Cross National Headquarters in Washington, and provide a comprehensive view of the organization's widespread wartime relief activities.

Of the $80,000,000 thus furnished since the war began, about half represents relief extended in the form of government-provided supplies channelled through the American Red Cross. From the Red Cross' own treasury, funds totaling more than $18,000,000, and articles of wearing apparel, convenience, and comfort (produced in the 3,756 Red Cross chapters throughout the United States) valued at nearly $20,000,000, went for the same purpose. And this, despite difficulties in transportation and in procuring the necessary supplies, the changing situation due to our entry into the war and numerous other obstacles which had to be overcome.

"The steady flow of relief supplies to war victims in the United Nations continues," said Chairman Norman H. Davis of the American Red Cross. "We were ably assisted by three million volunteer workers in those nations in carrying out this program."

Let's Bust 'Em Wide Open

It's in the air. You can feel it, every time the Axis is struck. This is the climax year, the year of decision. In history, 1944 will be the big year of the war—every stroke for victory counts more now. That's why it's vitally important for every American to be at his post, doing his part right now. You, personally, have an important job in winning the war—buying War Bonds. It's not glamorous—no, not even a sacrifice, really, because you are only lending your money, to be returned with interest. But it is essential to complete victory. Your part in this year of decision is at least one extra $100 Bond, above your regular Bond buying. That is your minimum individual quota. But don't stop there. Remember wars are won only by all-out effort. So buy $200, $300, $500 worth—buy more than you can afford. And buy your Bonds where you work—at the plant or at the office. Your country is counting on you—let's make the year of decision OUR year!

This sticker in your window means you have bought 4th War Loan securities.

Facts on the rubber situation by Phillips Petroleum Company, operating a 90,000,000 pound butadiene plant, for an annual production of rubber equivalent to 11,000,000 tires

THE RACE FOR RUBBER is right now entering the homestretch. Swiftly and surely, the nation's synthetic rubber plants are approaching peak annual production of 850,000 tons.

Despite this record-breaking achievement, the next six months are the time of crisis, because the full fighting power of rubber is needed for war: Tires for planes, and combat trucks and cars; rubber for life rafts and landing boats; rubber for bullet-sealing tanks and electrical insulation; rubber for a thousand and one victory needs.

This is why only the most essential civilian drivers can be supplied with new tires of synthetic rubber at least until late in the year. The rest of us must continue to save miles and rubber, and recap in time to keep rolling.

As a major producer of butadiene (the chief ingredient in synthetic rubber) and 100 octane aviation gasoline, the Phillips Petroleum Company presents these facts as a contribution to general understanding of the present transportation problem.

With us, as with every American motorist, the needs of war come first. But when victory is won, car owners will begin enjoying the benefits and product-improvements flowing from Phillips gigantic chemical plants, devoted to producing new and better things from petroleum gases as well as petroleum. over the week end. Everyone is looking forward to the bond rally next Friday night.

We wonder if Rex two timed Catherine Friday night.

The Lelia girls defeated the Goodnight girls 16-11 Friday night and the Goodnight boys defeated the Lelia boys. We don't know the scores.

We are glad that Martha Ann is going to finish at Lelia High.

Six girls were really having a good time last Thursday (at noon). Harold Usrey didn't go to Goodnight Friday night.

We wonder if all the kids who go to the show have as much fun as Jack.

Lynn, why wasn't you at school last week?

Will Martha Ann and Lois Marie ever learn to keep their big mouths shut at the right time? The Freshmans gave Laura Clark a farewell party last Tuesday night.

Ann Sue, why didn't you go with that boy that came after you the other night?

Alice, who was that boy you was with Thursday night?

Why was Jimmie Lee going to go out the back door (of the cafe) Friday night about the time a few certain Lelia kids came in the front door?

What was everyone so quiet about in the cafe Friday night. A slip of the lip—maybe.

Who was the girl Jimmie Lee was carrying in the cafe Friday night?

Mrs. Jeanne Ross is very ill in the St. Anthony Hospital at Amarillo. Her husband is in the radar branch of the Navy and is on leave for a few days to be with her.

CORRIDOR COMMENTS

Sunshine McCrary and Sugar McCrary seemed to be very unhappy Friday morning. I wonder what the matter was.

Sunday evening seemed to be full of fun for a group of kids in a maroon car. Johnnie said they really had some fun.

Mary Ellen seems to be doing all to the good these last few weeks.

The seventh period baseball games are more fun than anyone realized they would be. "Sunshine McCrary and Imogene Wilson are the captains, and Imogene's team always manages to win somehow or other.

Elizabeth Beverly and Mary Nell Keys were having a good time, or at least they seemed to be on Thursday night. They were in a blue-green car with Mr. Gillham's younger brothers, one from A&M and one from the Army.

We wonder why Billie Bullman was so nervous in the second period study hall Friday. Could it be because her "Better Half" was gone to town?

"Sugar" where were you Thursday night? Maybe Donald would know.

Jeannie Porter and Carl Bennett are getting around these days.

Imogene Wilson and Shirley Smith are really having a time with Otto and Oalf, their respective heartthrobs. What's the matter, girls? Can't you get things straightened out?

Betty Rhodes, how is the Army getting along? Or is it the Navy, or the Marines, or maybe the Air Corps? Surely it would not be the Paratroopers? Or could it be the Coast guard or the civilian defense?

Two to one, Ruth and W. S. were walking around on clouds while they were at Pampa. Why not?

Gertrude Calcote is surely anxious to play basketball at Goodnight again. There must be a strong attraction up there. How about it, Gertrude?

Betty Rhodes has made up her mind as to the answer of the question above, it is the Navy—but definitely.

ECONOMIC CLASS

By Billie Jean Knox

Miss Smith's two economic classes have been exposed to a new subject since midterm. The first semester, they studied civics, but this last semester they are taking up economics, an interesting subject. They have been surprised at some of the terms they have found in their texts. In fact, they are beginning to wonder if they are not "dumb bunnies" for not knowing the meaning of wealth, land, capital, stocks, bonds, production, consumption, partnership, corporation, and other common words.

The word "labor" especially had them stumped. They did not even have a vague idea of the meaning of that horrible word. The knowledge that, economically speaking, land meant nature, not dirt, and that wealth does not especially mean just money; all these things are simply astounding to the economics pupils.

At the present, they are having a grand time. Each student has chosen a partner to go into business. Miss Smith has given the assignment that the partners draw up a partnership contract which takes care of every little angle. It must cover the distribution of the expenses, losses, earnings, income, capital, management, the location, and how long it is to last. There are some very interesting business enterprises; a beauty shop, a book shop, a bakery, a shoe shop, a grocery store, and a ladies ready-to-wear shop.

I hope the business adventures come out okay, although I'd hate to be a lawyer and try to find some legal information from those contracts.

SORORITY NEWS

Dorothy Nell Kemp and Mary Nell Keys entertained the Kappa Kappa Sorority Wednesday afternoon, February 2nd, in the home of Dorothy Kemp. Members voted to have a chili supper on the evening of Feb. 9th, and Beverly Stricklin offered her home for the occasion. The president announced that the order for the pins had been placed, and they should come some time in March. Marilyn Maher gave a delightful review of the biography of Madame Curie, who with her husband, discovered radium. Lovely refreshments were served. They consisted of heart shaped sandwiches, angel food, and coca cola.

GOSSIP

Lou, where did you and Nita get that beautiful car? I'll bet it was every bit of a twenty-nine model. All the freshmen seemed rather pleased with their pictures.

Why is it that Delene is always watching Bert in the first study hall? Is it because she is afraid he's making eyes at some one else? Boy, those mirrors are really popping around in study hall these days.

Arvazene, was it you that fell head over heels on the bicycle? Or did the bicycle fall head over heels over you?

If anyone wants to know how it feels to have a broken collar bone or a broken arm, just ask Leo or Douglas; they should know.

G. E. Workers See Ship Launching 150 Miles Away, By Television

General Electric workers who built the powerful propulsion units and other vital electrical apparatus for the mighty battleship USS Missouri witnessed the launching of the ship in New York Saturday afternoon (Jan. 29) by television. The telecast, first ever made of an event so closely connected with the war, reached the workers who built the huge turbines on several receivers installed in the turbine shop at Schenectady.

This special television program from General Electric's station WRGB was arranged in conjunction with the National Broadcasting Company and its television station WNBT, which simultaneously telecast the launching in New York City. It reached Schenectady over the G. E. relay station, located a mile from the main WRGB transmitter in the Helderberg mountains, 12 miles from the city.

"Watching the launching by television was the next best thing to being present and seeing the event first hand," Robert S. Peare, manager of television, radio and publicity for General Electric pointed out in commenting on the event. "This is the only way the men and women who built the equipment could participate in this event taking place some 150 miles from the factory. It should prove an epochal event in television."

The 45,000 ton ship, the future Queen of the Seas and described as the most formidable warship in the world, will be propelled by geared turbines, designed and manufactured for the Navy by General Electric. The main switchboards, the hundreds of motors, lights, cable, radio equipment and numerous other parts of the ship were also built by General Electric.

The keel of the Missouri was laid at the New York Navy yards, Brooklyn, on January 6, 1941. Her over-all length is 880 feet, equivalent to the combined length of three football fields. Her unofficial cost is placed at $100,000,000.

Sponsor for the Missouri at the christening was 19-year old Margaret Truman, daughter of U. S. Senator and Mrs. Harry S. Truman.

LAST WRITINGS OF FRANK COLLINSON TO APPEAR

When Frank Collinson died, the West lost one of its best known figures. Mr. Collinson was an old-timer who knew his West and he had often written pieces on Western lore for "Ranch Romances" magazine; one of his last appears in the second March issue of the magazine. It's called "Indian Treasure," and in it Mr. Collinson told of his experiences down in New Mexico some forty years back when he discovered exquisite jade that had been buried in the earth; and of his belief that some of that treasure in jade is still there to this day! "Indian Treasure" is illustrated by the famous cowboy artist, Harold Bugbee of Clarendon, and can be found in the number of "Ranch Romances" on the news stands from February 11th until the 25th.

Mr. Collinson made Clarendon his home many years ago, and is the father of Mrs. Allan Jefferies who still lives here.

Amarillo Fat Stock Show To Feature Quarter Horse Show

For the first time in the history of the Amarillo Fat Stock Show, March 6-9 inclusive, there will be added a Quarter Horse Show which promises to be a highlight of the four day occasion.

Interest is teeming by quarter horse breeders over West Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma, and some of the most outstanding stallions and mares of this breed are entered.

Six classes are designated for the show; three for mares and three for stallions. Each class will be judged according to rules of the American Quarter Horse Association. Three hundred dollars in awards are offered.

In addition to the cash and ribbon awards, the Amarillo Globe-News offers a handsome trophy for the grand champion mare, and the Capitol Hotel, Amarillo, offers a similar trophy for the grand champion stallion.

Entry fee is $5 for each horse, directors announce, and application blanks may be secured from the Amarillo Fat Stock Show headquarters, 500 Tyler Street, Amarillo.

Quarter Horses are the typical Western ranch horses. They are bred for stamina. One cowboy, asked what Quarter Horse meant, replied: "Quarter speed, quarter lightning, quarter strength, and quarter brains." They are the horses which have the broad shoulders, racing legs and smartness which has made them the working partner of the waddie. Today, many of these horses are worth small fortunes. Cattlemen like to race them for short distances due to their lightning-like starting ability, but range men swear by their endurance.

A record entry list and record attendance to the Fat Stock Show this year is anticipated by the directors.

THIS ADVERTISEMENT, ONE OF A SERIES TO HELP ACQUAINT THE GENERAL PUBLIC WITH THE DAIRY FARMER'S CONTRIBUTION TO THE WAR EFFORT, appears in The Saturday Evening Post February 12th and in Collier's February 26th issue

Furlough till milking time (5 a. m.)

Saturday night. He is tired from a week of 14-16 hour days. But, stepping lively, he's got the chores all done and now he can take time off... till 5 a.m. tomorrow.

Fellows in war plants work shorter hours, get more money. That makes no difference to the thoughtful man on a dairy farm. He's in the thick of the food fight, the fight our nation must win if the Allies are to win this war. Milk, the most precious of foods, is vitally needed. So, too, are the products of milk. Cheese, for example. Why, the U. S. Government's requirements alone this year have been estimated at nearly 400 million pounds of cheese. Over 500 million more pounds will be consumed by you and other civilians. America needs now more than twice as much of this nutritious food as the nation could produce when the last war ended in 1918!

We'd like to shake the hand of that farmer on furlough till 5 a.m. . . . or somehow make him understand that people appreciate what he is doing, he and all the men and women and boys and girls on the nation's dairy farms.

Because of the tremendous demand, both military and civilian, you may not be able to get as much Kraft Cheese as you would like, or get your favorite varieties—Kraft American, "Old English," "Philadelphia" Brand Cream Cheese, Velveeta, and so on. But you may be sure, as always, that any cheese or cheese food which bears the Kraft name represents the very highest standard of quality.
