The SDN Column

This community has plenty to be thankful for this Thanksgiving Day, much more than most. If you doubt it, just take a leisurely drive around town and refresh your memory.

Some of the things that stand out this year: The Chamber of Commerce can be thankful for a new office building of its own; The hospital people can be thankful for improvements to medical facilities and especially right now the new offices now under construction for doctors; the Scurry County United Way can be thankful for an ultra-successful campaign. These are only some of the more recent and more noticeable.

Incidentally, the United Way campaign continues to gain in contributions and yesterday had passed the $51,000 mark. Also, the Commercial Division of the campaign—the only one that had not reached its goal last week when the final report session was held—was within some $89 of its objective. This very likely will come in sometime in the next week or so, campaign leaders believe.

Snyder Public School officials report that apparently there will be no need for any legal action in a truancy case that claimed attention a few weeks ago. The board of trustees authorized administrators to file charges in a case in which a child of mandatory attendance age was being kept out of school.

Since that authorization was granted by the board, not only has that particular problem been solved, but better attendance throughout the school system has been reported.

City officials still are pondering a petition filed by Lone Star Gas Co. asking for a greater rate increase than that granted recently by the city council. They feel that the request for a "Cost adjustment-clause" in the rate ordinance possibly is regarded as more important by the gas company than the small difference between the actual rate hike granted and that requested by the company. Such a clause would enable the gas company to adjust rates without council approval whenever a change occurred in prices Lone Star paid for gas.

Also, city officials are looking at the value Lone Star placed on its facilities here in its application for the rate increase. It differs substantially from the value on the firm's tax rendition at city hall.—WACIL McNAIR.

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Thursday, Nov. 27, the 331st day of 1975. There are 34 days left in the year. This is Thanksgiving Day.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1942, during World War II, French navy men at Toulon, France scuttled ten French cruisers, 28 destroyers and 14 submarines to prevent them from falling into the hands of the Nazis.

On this date:

In the year 602, the Roman emperor, Maurice, and his five sons were beheaded at Chalcedon in Asia Minor.

In 1703, a coastal storm in England took an estimated 8,000 lives.

In 1919, Bulgaria signed a World War I peace treaty which yielded territory to Greece and Yugoslavia.

In 1940, during World War II, Germany annexed the French province of Lorraine.

In 1945, General George Marshall was named a special U.S. Envoy to China to try to end hostilities between the Nationalists and the Communists.

In 1970, FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover charged that a terrorist group had planned to blow up tunnels connecting Washington buildings and to kidnap White House Assistant Henry Kissinger.

Ten years ago: Secretary of Defense Robert McNamara reported that more than 5,000 U.S. nuclear warheads were stored in Europe in support of NATO forces.

One year ago: Chairman Arthur Burns of the Federal Reserve Board predicted a permanent decline of America's economic and political power unless world oil prices could be forced down.

OF ATTEMPTING TO KILL FORD

Squeaky Convicted

By LINDA DEUTSCH
Associated Press Writer

LYNETTE FROMME

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Lynette "Squeaky" Fromme, who dedicated her life to mass murderer Charles Manson, was found guilty of attempting to kill President Ford — a conviction which may send her to prison for life.

The tiny red-haired Miss Fromme, who boycotted the verdict as she did much of her trial, was found guilty late Wednesday night by a jury of eight women and four men which deliberated more than 19 hours. Miss Fromme's attorney said he would appeal the conviction.

Their verdict gave the 27-year-old Miss Fromme a notorious place in history as the first person ever convicted of attempting to assassinate a U.S. President. She was prosecuted under a special law enacted after the 1963 assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

Miss Fromme, appearing pale and weary, spoke to U.S. District Court Judge Thomas J. MacBride before and after the verdict, but did not confront her jurors.

"You understand why I won't be here," she told the judge, apparently referring to her repeated refusal to attend her trial unless Manson was present.

She wore a green pants suit but clutched under her arm the flaming red-hooded robe she had worn in honor of Manson.

She wore a similar red outfit when she walked to a park near the California Capitol on Sept. 5, a pistol strapped to her leg under the flowing robe. Witnesses at her three-week trial recalled how Miss Fromme calmly stepped from a crowd and pointed the .45-caliber automatic pistol at Ford. She was wrestled to the ground by Secret Service agents who quoted her as shouting, "It didn't go off."

But the trial's star witness, President Ford, whose testimony was recorded on videotape in Washington at the request of the defense, had a fuzzy memory of the incident and couldn't say for sure whether he heard the gun trigger click as Miss Fromme took aim.

The weapon was found to contain four live bullets in its clip but none in the firing chamber. Jurors, who were reported deadlocked for a time, apparently reached agreement only after long debate on whether Miss Fromme really intended to kill Ford or, as the defense contended, was merely seeking attention for her cause — a new trial for Manson.

The jurors, mostly middle-aged and elderly, were solemn as they delivered their verdict in a hushed courtroom. There were gasps from the spectator section as the word "guilty" was read by the judge's clerk, Walter Fitzpatrick.

Then, at the request of Miss Fromme's attorney, John Virga, each juror was polled on whether he or she agreed on the verdict. Each answered firmly, "yes."

FORD PROMISES LOANS

NYC Default Put Off Until 1978

By LEE MITGANG
AP Business Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — President Ford has promised billions in federal loans for New York City. City residents face higher taxes. As a result on this Thanksgiving Day, the threat of city default has been put off until 1978.

That's a big change from the crisis atmosphere of the past six months when default was around the corner every two weeks or so.

Immediately following Ford's news conference Wednesday night, Mayor Abraham D. Beame said the help came only at the cost of much hardship to the city's 8 million residents and he warned that the city's probems weren't over. He said the President's promise of federal loans of up to $2.3 billion in the current fiscal year and a like amount in each of the next two years only "marks a crucial turning point."

Ford's announcement did mark a change from his repeated stand that the city would have to save itself from bankruptcy without federal aid.

In explaining his decision to offer help, Ford said "New York has bailed itself out" and the federal loans would not cost taxpayers outside New York a single penny. He stated that steps taken by the city and the New York State Legislature in the past several days had actually erased a deficit that amounted to $3.95 billion for the fiscal year ending June 1976.

However, there is no state or city plan to eliminate the deficit that quickly.

Ford apparently was referring to an agreement reached with New York City banks and city labor unions under which the city would delay paying off about $1.6 billion in debts owed to them. The unions also had agreed this past week to invest $2.5 billion in new securities to aid the city, bringing total city union and bank commitments to about $4.1 billion.

But the complex package of aid arrived at in New York was aimed at curing the city's ills over the next three years, and no one involved claimed it would completely erase the budget deficit by next June.

The city comptroller projected a $900 million deficit for the current fiscal year, but more conservative accounting done by some fiscal experts suggest an actual decficit of well over $3 billion.

Texans Pause To Give Thanks

By The Associated Pres

Aside from its first Turkey Day in decades without a major football game and a few isolated incidents ranging from the ridiculous to the sublime, the state had a routine Thanksgiving today.

Texas and Texas A&M postponed their traditional Thanksgiving joust until Friday and the Dallas Cowboys had a chance to eat their turkeys with the rest of us after several years of holiday games.

However, one Fort Worth man who had planned a quiet dinner at home ate his turkey in jail today after he allegedly shot and killed his step-father following an argument after a cat ate some turkey left out to thaw.

The man in custody came home from work Wednesday and found the house empty and a cat eating the Thanksgiving turkey set out on a table.

Angered, he threw the cat and the remains of the turkey out of the house and grabbed a pistol. He found his step-father and shot him at least six times, police said. The victim was identified as Emory Pippins.

Another Texan, H. L. Edcox, 75, of Amarillo, had a happy and thankful day after expecting just the opposite Wednesday.

Demolition crews were standing in front of Edcox' old frame house when the neighbors called city officials. After some discussion it was decided to pull back the demolition crews and give Edcox 60 more days to repair the house which had been condemned by the city.

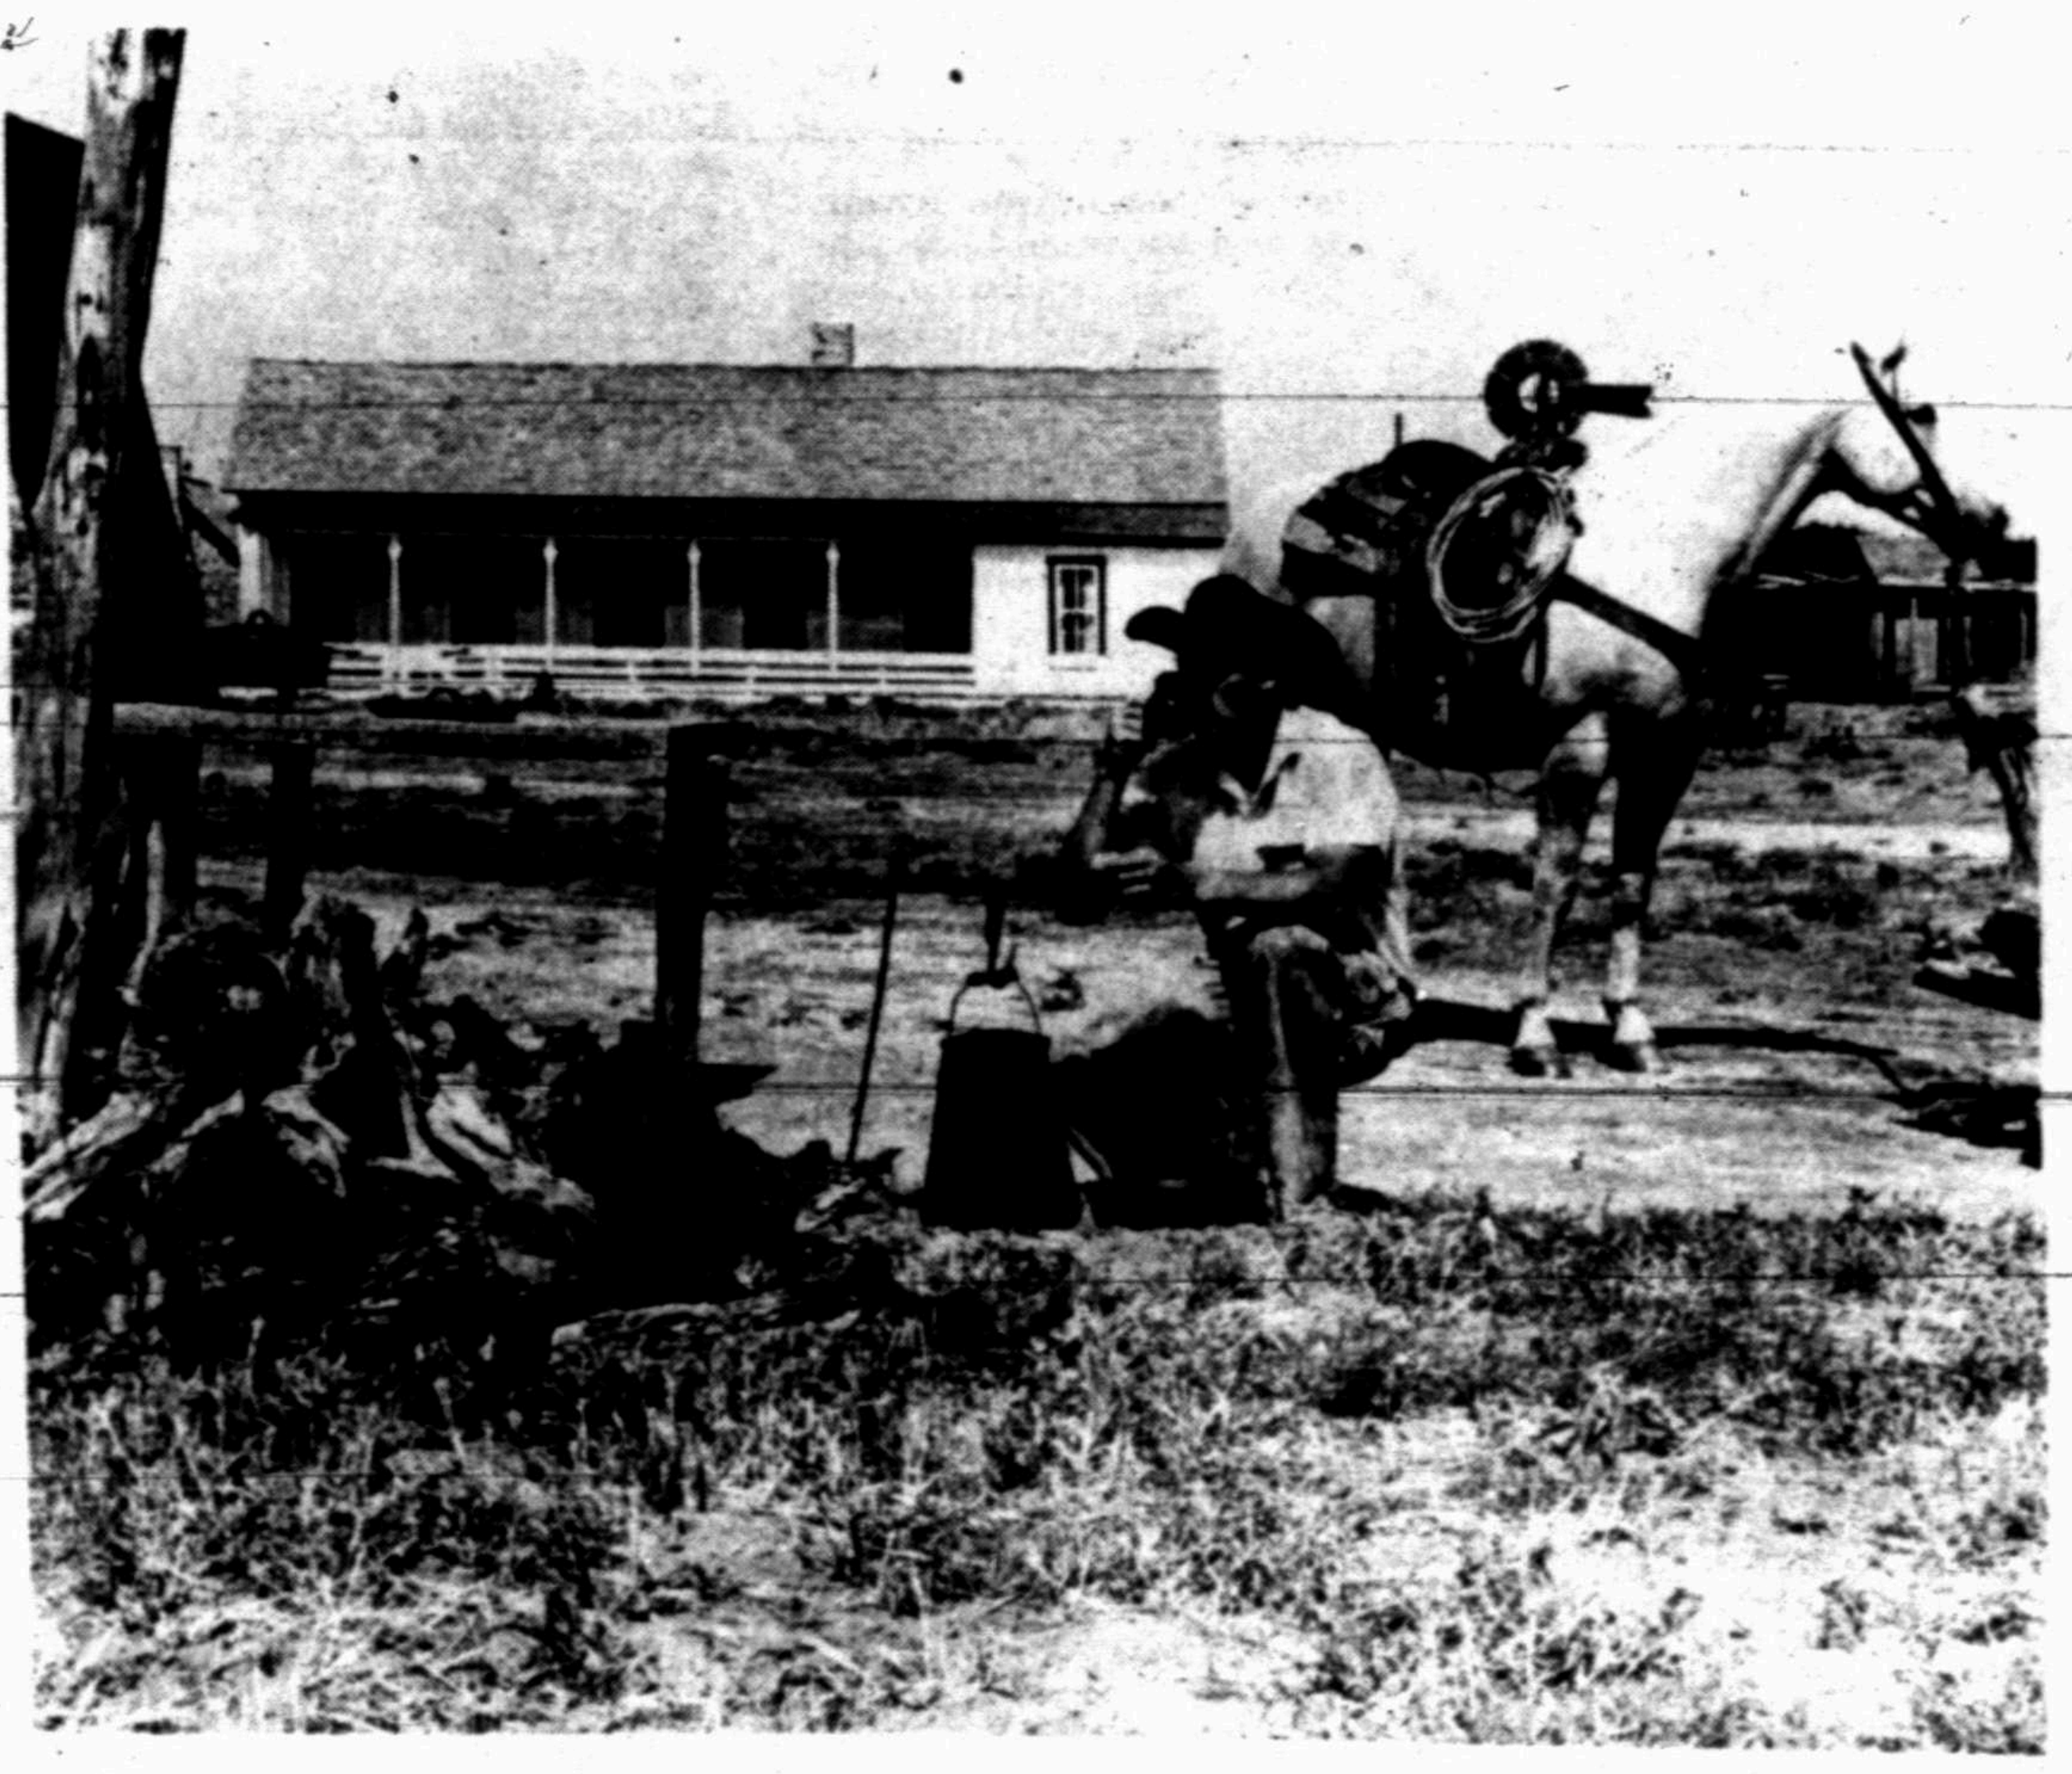
Neighbors said the roof of the house is almost gone and Edcox has living with friends next door saving money from his pension to make the necessary repairs.

Churches of all denominations conducted special services throughout the state, ranging from Thanksgiving masses at Catholic churches to services and a turkey dinner at the First Baptist Church at Dallas.

The holiday fare at state prisons included sliced roast turkey with cornbread dressing, giblet gravy, buttered whole kernel corn, whipped sweet potatoes with diced pineapples and other delicacies. At the Texas-Mexico border, the Border Patrol planned turkey dinners for 200 illegal aliens at a detention center.

Ft. Bliss spokesmen at El Paso said more than 10,000 pounds of turkey would be served today.

A phone call to Turkey, Tex., revealed that the drive-in was closed but there was plenty of the winged variety at other establishments, including one restaurant that offered a take-out turkey dinner with all the trimmings for $40, designed for 12 to 14 persons.



SNYDER LANDMARK—Snyder residents have contributed much to the Ranching Heritage Center at The Museum of Texas Tech University, and most visible of all is the Harrell House, seen here in the immediate background. Bobby Allen of the Pitchfork Ranch is drinking the coffee. Between the chuckwagon and the Harrell House can be seen a glimpse of the Masterson JY bunkhouse. Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson will dedicate the center next July 2, as a part of the nation's Bicentennial celebration. (TECH PHOTO)

Special Tour Is Set At Ranching Heritage Center

LUBBOCK—When the trail herd arrives and Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson cuts the ribbon officially opening the Ranching Heritage Center at Texas Tech University next July 2, Snyder area residents will be making part of the history.

They will be as conspicuous a part of the opening as they have been at every stage of development for the Ranching Heritage Center.

In recognition of the Snyder interest, several community leaders have been invited to a special luncheon meeting hosted by the Texas Tech University Board of Regents.

The luncheon will be held at the Lubbock Country Club at 12 noon Thursday, Dec. 4. Guests will receive a first-hand account of plans for the opening and be offered a special tour of the Ranching Heritage Center.

Several hundred guests from throughout Texas have been invited to the luncheon; for the Center opening is a major statewide Bicentennial event.

The Center itself depicts authentically the history of ranching in the American West. Its development has depended upon the interest of ranchers and others throughout the state in preserving and interpreting this history for future generations.

It was in Snyder in 1969 that the Ranch Headquarters Association was organized, and since that time the association has helped raise more than $1 million in contributions to complete the Center. Its members have helped which will tell the history of American ranching at the outdoor exhibit.

Among those buildings– and a favorite with visitors – is the Harrell House, a home that grew as the families who lived there grew in numbers and prosperity.

On Ranch Day, the October Saturday set aside for the Ranch Headquarters Association annual meeting, members of the Snyder Area Unit of the association treat visitors to hot bread and bacon in the cozy kitchen of this little home which started as a rock and mud room on Deep Creek.

Its owners have been, successively, Fred Williamson, R.T. Mallard, Lon Smith, Phineas Reynolds and Charles Joell Harrell.

First it grew into a comfortable dwelling, but then gradually it fell into disrepair.

Two Harrell sisters, the Misses Faye and Myrtle Harrell, rescued it. They restored its bright interior and furnished it as closely as possible to the comfort earlier owners had known.

When they began to consider its future, they elected to give it to the Ranching Heritage Center. The Snyder Area Unit gave funds for its moving and installation on the 12-acre site.

It had served well the three ranching families who lived there, beginning with ranching on the free range and ending with barbed wire fences that separated the cowmen from the farmer. In a land where building materials were scarce, the L-shaped Harrell House is typical. While it was given in memory of Joell and Nancy Harrell, it evokes among visitors memories of other childhood homes in rural Texas.

Hostesses for the Harrell House are often residents of Snyder and members of the Ranch Headquarters Association. Activities of the unit have not, however, been limited to hostessing and cooking.

The Snyder Unit has collected Scurry County history and published much of it. They created their "Pageant Wagon Shindig" and brought the Snyder show wagons to the Ranch Day audience in 1972.

And never to be forgotten is Snyder's gift of two recipes, one for buttermilk pie and the other for watermelon cake, both mouthwatering treats which have delighted the palates of special guests including the Texas Arts and Humanities Commission which lunched at the Center last year.

The formal opening of the Ranching Heritage Center is set for next July 2-5. Arrival of the Longhorns, led by Trail Boss Charlie Schreiner III of Kerr-

Take Time to Give Thanks

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1975 by Chicago Tribune-N.Y. News Synd., Inc.

DEAR READERS: Today is Thanksgiving, so take a few minutes to think about what you have to be thankful for.

How's your health? Not so good? Well, thank God you've lived this long. A lot of people haven't. You're hurting? Thousands — maybe millions — are hurting more. (Have you ever visited a veterans' hospital? Or a rehabilitation clinic for crippled children?)

If you awakened this morning and were able to hear the birds sing, use your vocal chords to utter human sounds, walk to the breakfast table on two good legs and read the newspaper with two good eyes — praise the Lord! A lot of people couldn't.

How's your pocketbook? Thin? Well, most of the living world is a lot poorer. No pensions. No welfare. No food stamps. No Social Security. In fact, one-third of the people in the world will go to bed hungry tonight.

Are you lonely? The way to have a friend is to BE one. If nobody calls you, call them. Go out of your way to do something nice for somebody. It's a sure cure for the blues.

Are you concerned about your country's future? Hooray! Our system has been saved by such concern. Concern for honesty in government, concern for peace and concern for fair play under the law. Your country may not be a rose garden, but it also is not a patch of weeds.

Freedom rings! Look and listen. You can still worship at the church of your choice, case a secret ballot and even criticize your government without fearing a knock on the head or a knock on the door at midnight. And if you want to live under a different system, you are free to go. There are no walls or fences — nothing to keep you here.

As a final thought, I'll repeat my Thanksgiving Prayer:

O, heavenly Father: We thank Thee for food and remember the hungry
We thank Thee for health and remember the sick.
We thank Thee for friends and remember the friendless
We thank Thee for freedom and remember the enslaved.
May these remembrances stir us to service
That Thy gifts to us may be used for others. Amen.

Have a wonderful Thanksgiving and may God bless you and yours.

Love,

ABBY

ville's YO Ranch, will signal the start of the opening.

Mrs. Johnson's dedicatory remarks will precede the ribbon cutting.

Master of ceremonies for the event will be Dale Robertson of film and television fame. When the ceremonies are over visitors will be invited to tour the Center. After July 5, the Center will be open to visitors on a daily basis.

Depicting the history of ranching from the Spanish-Mexican era to the turn of the 20th Century, the Center already has on site 19 buildings, including two windmills. Fifteen of them are restored. Four are in the restoration process. Two are yet to be moved. Groundbreaking for the orientation center is scheduled for December.

To complete the Center, a Working Partners Fund has been initiated. Those working on the fund include the Association's Board of Overseers who are seeking large contributions and accepting donations of any size to help meet the goal of the Center: to give Americans an opportunity to experience their history with an authenticity so precise that it gives substance to the values that brought the nation to greatness.

The orientation center will have a parlor in which donors to the Ranching Heritage Center will be memorialized. Memorial books relating family and ranching history will be placed in the parlor library for visitors to peruse and scholars to study.

Kennedy Library Near Sea

BOSTON (AP) — President John F. Kennedy was a public man who loved the sea. For those reasons, and others, the John F. Kennedy Library and Museum will be built at the University of Massachusetts campus on Boston Harbor.

There had been plans to build the Kennedy Library and Museum near Harvard University, the late president's alma mater, but the objections of local residents scuttled those plans.

Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., told a news conference Monday the University of Massachusetts site was the unanimous choice of the Kennedy family and trustees of the library corporation.

"President Kennedy was very much a public man and a public figure, he said. "It is appropriate that the museum and archives that bear his name be housed in a public place."

He said the school's site on Boston Harbor was important to the family and the trustees in view of John F. Kennedy's close association with the sea during his lifetime. One requirement, he said, was the building be "as close to the water as possible."

The decision ended 12 years of squabbling and threatened legal action. Kennedy said the trustees abandoned the Cambridge, Mass., site near Harvard because "a small and vociferous group was prepared to entangle the corporation ad infinitum in the courts."

Apply Early For Social Security Card

Some employers won't hire people unless they have a social security number so students and others planning to get holiday jobs should apply for a number without delay, if they don't already have one, according to Don Minyard, Social Security Branch Manager in Big Spring.

"Delaying your application might prevent your employment or cause you to lose time and wages in a job requiring a social security number," Minyard said. "When you don't recall having had a social security number before, your application is screened against central files in Baltimore to make sure a second number isn't issued to you—and screening takes time."

"You should apply for your social security number at least several weeks before you need it for a job," he said. "You can get information about applying by calling or writing any social security office."

A worker builds disability, survivors, retirement, and Medicare protection by work and earnings credited to his social security number. He gets credit if he's paid $50 or more in a 3-month calendar quarter for work covered by social security.

More than nine out of 10 jobs are covered by Social Security.

"Your social security number is yours alone and remains the same for life," Minyard said. "When you get a job covered by social security, be sure your employer copies your name and number correctly from your social security card to his record."

People applying for a social security number for the first time may be asked to prove their age, identity and citizenship, according to Minyard.

The Big Spring Social Security office is located at 501 Main. The phone number is 267-5226.

Opening lead — 3 ♥

By Oswald & James Jacoby

The student gasped when the Professor won the first trick with the ace of hearts over East's queen.

The Professor knocked out East's ace of clubs and claimed the balance after West cashed three heart tricks.

"Why didn't you duck the first heart?" asked the student, after the Professor had chalked up the rubber.

"I couldn't afford to," replied the Professor. "If I could have depended on my opponents to keep leading hearts everything would have been fine. I could have made an extra trick. But someone might have shifted to a spade and I would have chucked my contract."

"Suppose West had made the tricky opening lead of the lowest card of a five-card suit?" asked the student.

"I would have paid off," replied the Professor. "West might well have done that, but he would have needed five hearts first."

Ask the Jacobys

A reader from Florida was victimized when given wrong information by his opponents in response to proper questions. The opponents went on to win the tournament after the director ruled against our correspondent. Needless to say, he was upset.

We sympathize with him, but the director had ruled correctly. Even the world's greatest players forget their own conventions. Usually it costs them. This time they were just real lucky.

Laredo Receiving Satellite TV

LAREDO, Tex. (AP) — Cable television viewers in Laredo began getting programs sent from a satellite this week, billed by promoters as the first such arrangement in Texas.

VuMore Company said it installed a 32-foot dish antenna to get television signals from a satellite in orbit 22,000 miles over the equator.

Some 11,800 cable television subscribers will get a two-week free preview of programming on a pay television network operated by Home Box Office, a subsidiary of Time Inc.

Home Box Office broadcasts to some 250,000 subscribers in four Northeastern states and three Southern states, the firm said.

Pay television in Laredo will cost $8 per per month above conventional cable charges, VuMore said.

Holiday Helpers Are 'Disguised' As Children

COLLEGE STATION—Don't dread the holiday season's extra work, consider an overlooked source of holiday help—the children, Mrs. Ilene Miller, a family life education specialist, says.

"Youngsters won't feel so confused or left out during the holidays if they're involved in activities. And if given the opportunity, they can be a big help with lots of small jobs."

Mrs. Miller is with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University Ssytem.

Before the holiday activities begin, start a list of things young children can do. For example, they can put stamps on Christmas cards, make decorations and help decorate the tree and house, wrap gifts, set the table, help with making cookies and other holiday food.

"Of course, the young holiday helper will need parental guidance and supervision. Give simple, clear instructions to tell the child what you want him to do, and give only one job at a time.

"If the youngster seems confused or hesitant, he may need more assistance. Parents might help by showing him what to do or working with him on more difficult projects," she suggested.

After the job is complete, let the child know his help is appreciated. Being involved gives little children a sense or pride and accomplishment. And doing a job teaches a small child responsibility for his actions and promotes independence, Mrs. Miller reminded.

Symptoms don't spell gout

By Lawrence E. Lamb, M.D.

DEAR DR. LAMB—Would you please give me some information on gout? My daughter has what some doctors says are symptoms or gout. She is in her early 30s.

Her ankles and top of her feet swell real full, and she has pain in the back of her heel, in the cords.

She only takes water pills which decrease the swelling just a little. She has had the acid test, and it was high, but now down to normal. She is in perfect health otherwise. Should they give other tests or what treatment is there for it?

DEAR READER—I am not convinced that your daughter has gout on the basis of the information you have given me. Gout causing symptoms in young women is quite rare. More often women may have a high uric acid level but only about 10 per cent develop bone and joint symptoms of gout. Men are the usual victims.

Women do have gout and apparently may transmit various hereditary factors that pass the disorder on to offspring, hence the tendency for a high family incidence of gout in those affected.

The typical gout attack is not as you describe your daughter's problem. For more information on gout that you asked for you can send 50 cents for The Health Letter number 2-3, Gout, Ruic Acid. Send your letter to me in care of this newspaper, P.O. Box 1551, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019. Include a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for mailing. That issue will give you a run down on the various levels of uric acid and their meaning and the current thinking about the treatment and management of gout, including the curent ideas about diet for gout.

Incidentally, gout is not treated by taking water pills. Sometimes water pills will cause an acute attack of gout. This is another reason that I doubt if your daughter's doctors really think she has gout pains.

DEAR DR. LAMB—I wonder if there is any known reason why so many women have kidney infections.

DEAR READER—Most of those infections are not of the kidney, but the bladder. The infection gets into the bladder easily through the short urethra. The man is protected by the relatively longer urethera. That's anatomy for you, and it does make a difference. Men may also get some protection from an antibacterial substance apparently formed by the prostate gland.

The location of the female urethra makes it easy to be injured or irritated with normal family life. This may permit the onset of a urinary tract infection.

Then as a woman gets older and her muscles relax, the emptying of the bladder may not be perfect, and this leads to infection. Even the decrease in female hormones with age may cause changes in the character of the cells of the bladder that make it easier for an infection to get started.

The kidneys can become infected secondarily by spread of an infection from the bladder, but that is considerably less common.

UT Regents Considering Grocery Store

AUSTIN (AP) — University of Texas regents apparently are considering building a grocery store on 2.7 acres near a municipal golf course.

The store would be leased by Safeway, Inc., the Austin American-Statesman said today.

Although the university has never built a structure to lease it to a private concern, Robert Long of the UT system office of investments said there is no legal prohibition against doing so.

Minutes of the July 25 regents meeting that a special regents committee was "authorized to negotiate financing of the improvements for Safeway and the UT system was authorized to employ the firm of Henry A. Miller Co. (of Dallas) to work with and advise the staff in drawing up an improvements lease with Safeway Stores Inc."

Regents' minutes also tell of a land lease with Safeway under which the store would pay aproximately $61,000 a year for four years, with the rent increasing after that.

Some residents have complained about the proposed store plans

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Bargains or agreements today will be advantageous to you, provided they're in an area where you have some past experience.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) If you apply yourself today, you have the ability to focus your talents toward a profitable end. Concentrate on things that bring reward.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) You have a commanding air about you today. It will draw the respect of others. They'll go along with you and welcome even the little prods you give.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Complex tasks won't faze you today, nor will knotty problems. You field everything — and make it look easy.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) You're equipped for problems that challenge the brain, not brawn, today. Others will find you're tops in utilizing the old gray matter.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) This could be a very profitable day if you are dealing with those you can trust and with whom you have realized a profit in the past.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Although you may get the idea that people aren't listening to your ideas, they are. They will give you credit when your leads bear fruit.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) For best results, keep your commercial dealings to yourself today. Don't let others know your financial position or what you're aiming for.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) You can be very successful today in competitive situations. The opposition will find it hard to overtake you. You'll know instinctively what power they have.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Your powers of observation today permit you to learn what others have in mind. You will later use this knowledge to your advantage.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Thinking in bold terms and following through with plans you have weighed carefully will pay off in extra income soon.

Westerners Enter Wool Bowl Event

The Western Texas College Westerner basketball squad will be playing in the Wool Bowl Basketball Tournament at Roswell, N.M. tomorrow and Saturday.

Four teams are entered in the meet with two games each day.

Western Texas meets Oscar Rose Junior College of Oklahoma City in the first tilt of the tournament at 2:30 p.m. tomorrow. A contest between New Mexico Military Institute, the host, and Lamar Junior College of Lamar, Colo. will follow at 4:30 p.m.

Saturday the losers will meet for third place at 12:30 p.m. followed by the winners meeting at 2:30 for the championship.

WTC's opening opponent is 2-2 on the year with an eight point victory over Clarendon College. "They have a pretty good ball team," declared Western Coach Mike Mitchell, "they shoot well and have excellent size."

New Mexico Military Institute will probably be favored in the other contest, having recently won the New Mexico Junior College Tournament downing an exceptional Seminole Junior College team of Seminole, Okla. in the finals.

Mitchell said that he would go with the same alignment that has started the other games, that will include Stanley Covington, 6-0 sophomore from Washington, D.C. and Lawrence Butler, 6-3 freshman from Glasgow, Mo. at guard; and Tyrone Clopton, 6-6 sophomore from Washington, D.C., Darryl Smith, 6-8 freshman from College Park, Ga. and Larry Orton, 6-8 freshman from Portsmoth, Va. at forward.

Referee Apologizes

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A referee in the Arkansas-Texas Tech football game last weekend called the sports editor of a Little Rock newspaper Wednesday to apologize for what he said was an incorrect call he made in the game.

Referee McDuff Simpson had charged Teddy Barnes of Arkansas with roughing the kicker in last Saturday's game which the Razorbacks won 31-14.

Simpson told Orville Henry of the Arkansas Gazette Wednesday that the action was the "worst call an official could make." He added: "I didn't call what I should. For me, it was an unforgiveable mistake.

"In my mind, the player (Barnes) had made a deliberate effort to rough the kicker after he had touched the ball," Simpson said. "It was obvious in the film that this was not the case, and I don't know how I ever thought that.

"Of course, I made a second mistake," he added. "If that had been the violation, it would have been a personal foul, and not roughing thekicker.

"I was just totally wrong and all I can do is apologize," he said.

Frank Broyles, head football coach and athletic director at the University of Arkansas, said Simpson telephoned him Wednesday, informing him of his call to Henry, and had expressed his apologies.

When Texas Tech punted from its 28-yard line in the fourth quarter with Arkansas leading 24-0, Barnes got his hand on a punt by David Kuykendall. The punt traveled only 17 yards to the Arkansas 45.

The book rule is that if a defensive player touches the ball and also collides with the kicker there is no foul.

Simpson charged Barnes with roughing the kicker and stepped off a 15-yard penalty against Arkansas which gave Tech a first down near its 44. Tech went on to score a touchdown and make a two-point conversion.

Broyles, upset by the action, finally succeeding in halting the game and gaining a consultation with Simpson. Broyles quoted Simpson as saying then that Barnes had "only barely" touched the ball and that it was up to the referee to decide whether the ball had been touched enough and whether the kicker had been roughed.

Simpson's statement to Henry began: "I want to apologize publicly to Barnes, to the Arkansas team, to Coach Broyles and especially to the Arkansas fans...Anything that was said about me was deservingly so. I made a grave mistake."

Aggies Hope To Beat Fumble Jinx

The Aggies have fumbled the opening snap the last three years under Coach Emory Bellard's regime and the Longhorns have rolled to runaway victories.

"I wouldn't even mind seeing us punt on first down because we just beat ourselves last year," says Texas A&M All-American linebacker Ed Simonini.

Texas scored 14 points in the first 54 seconds of the game last year after A&M fumbled the ball away on its first two possessions. The 'Horns stormed to a 32-3 victory, helping Baylor to its first SWC title in 50 years.

A lot of folks say the Aggies always get too up-tight for Texas," says Aggie defensive tackle Jimmy Dean. "That won't happen this year. It's a big game but we won't be uptight about it."

A sellout crowd of 50,000 and a nationally television audience will view the 2 p.m. kickoff matching the nation's highest scoring team—Texas—against the No. 1 defense in the land, Texas A&M.

Texas can clinch its seventh Southwest Conference title in eight years and a berth in the Cotton Bowl with a victory. A&M would then meet Colorado in the AstroBluebonnet Bowl.

A Longhorn loss would give A&M at least a tie for the championship but the Aggies still have Arkansas on the schedule Dec. 6 in Little Rock. Should Arkansas upset A&M after victory over Texas then Coach Frank Broyles' Razorbacks would get the host spot opposite Georgia New Year's Day because of a three-way tie.

Arkansas last went to the Cotton Bowl in 1965 while A&M defeated Alabama in the 1967 classic. Texas' most recent visit was 1973.

The Aggies haven't defeated Texas since 1967 and the Longhorns own a lopsided 58-18-5 edge going into the 82nd meeting in the bitter series.

Texas Coach Darrell Royal is 17-1 against the Aggies in his regime.

Aggie safety Lester Hayes said A&M had devised an excellent defensive scheme to stop Texas quarterback Marty Akins and fullback Earl Campbell.

"We have a master plan and we're real enthusiastic about it," said Hayes. "We'll stop Texas like they have never been stopped."

Ivy Teams Meet

HANOVER, N.H. (AP) — Cornell and Brown, the Ivy League's 1975 co-champions, will meet Sunday in Providence, R.I. in the quarter-final round of the NCAA university division soccer championship.

NFL Has A Couple Of Turkey Day Appetizers

By BRUCE LOWITT
AP Sports Writer

The National Football League has a couple of appetizers for this Thanksgiving Day weekend and, as usual, neither of them are turkeys.

The Los Angeles Rams and Detroit Lions, Buffalo Bills and St. Louis Cardinals get the jump on the rest of the league today, with both games on national television. All of them have winning records and all still have playoff dreams, although some are fading fast.

The Rams will be in Detroit, starting at 12:30 p.m., EST, on CBS, followed by the Bills in St. Louis three hours later on NBC. Los Angeles is hoping to lock up its own divisional title and, at the same time, knock the Lions out of theirs. The Cardinals, with a victory, can at least temporarily strengthen their first-place hold and dent the Bills' playoff chances.

The Rams take an 8-2 record into Detroit. They're gunning for their third straight flag in the National Conference West and can get it by beating the Lions. Should Los Angeles win, second-place San Francisco could still finish in a tie for the conference lead — but the Rams would win it since they outscored the 49ers in their two meetings.

The Lions are 6-4 and trail unbeaten Minnesota by four games in the NFC's Central Division. If they lose, Minnesota, which plays in Washington on Sunday, will automatically take the title. Detroit would still have a chance for the conference's wild-card, the fourth playoff berth, but it would be a slim one at best.

Los Angeles goes into the game better than a one-touchdown favorite. St. Louis is favored by about 5½ points to beat the Bills and stay atop the National Conference East.

The Cards are also 8-2, one game ahead of Dallas and two in front of Washington, while the Bills, at 6-4, are tied with Baltimore for second place in the American Conference East, a game back of Miami.

"We'll have to be very physical and very violent," Detroit Coach Rick Forzano says of the Lions' task against the Rams. "They're ratedamong the two or three best teams in pro football."

St. Louis is facing O.J. Simpson, far and away the best runner in the league this year with his 1,394 yards. But Cards Coach Don Coryell knows that stopping O.J. doesn't mean you've stopped the Bills. "We dare not look for only one thing or we're going to get beat," he observed.

Last Sunday, while New England was limiting Simpson to 69 yards, Joe Ferguson was throwing four TD passes in a 45-31 beating of the Patriots.

Shira In Surgery

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — Charles Shira, athletic director at Mississippi State University, is scheduled to undergo surgery Friday for a ruptured aneurism in his head.

Seagraves, Crowell Vie In Regional Here Friday

Two football teams that have high-powered offenses and tough defenses will collide in Tiger Stadium at 7:30 p.m. Friday when the Seagraves Eagles take on the Crowell Wildcats in a Class A Regional playoff game.

Seagraves, the number one ranked Class A team in the state, puts a perfect 11-0 season and 4-0 district record on the line. Crowell is 10-1 for the season and was 6-0 in district. The Eagles represent District 5-A while the Wildcats represent District 7-A.

Last week, Seagraves knocked off Iraan, 22-0, and Crowell bested Rotan, 25-7, in bi-district action.

There are several good reasons why Seagraves is ranked tops in its class in the state. The Eagles have scored 418 points while limiting 11 foes to only 29. The string of victories includes seven shutouts, and none of the opponents have been able to score more than eight points against the Eagles.

Crowell has tallied 257 points while limiting the opposition to 67. Three of their games have been shutouts, and the most points the Wildcats have yielded in any game is 14.

Both teams depend primarily on running attacks, and both units prefer the straight T alignment, although they sometimes run from variations of the T. Defensively, both use five man fronts.

Coach Jim Eddins of Seagraves said it's nice to be ranked number one.

"Our kids have worked hard enough and deserve it," he said, "But we feel Crowell will be a tough opponent. They're big and physical and I think they have a fine defensive ball team."

Coach Prentiss Gidney of Crowell was unavaliable for comment since he has been in the hospital since last Sunday night for treatment of a high fever and flu. L.H. Wall, principal of the Crowell School, said Gidney is expected to be recovered in time for the playoff game here Friday night.

The Eagles have offensive halfback and defensive back Steve McCormick on the bench. He sustained a hairline fracture of the arm in the game with Iraan last week. However, Seagraves has two other backs who each have over a thousand yards in offense. They are fullback Mike Hoover, a 183-pound sophomore, and right halfback Kenny Jackson, a 140-pound senior. Robert Tamez, a 130-pound senior, has been placed in the left halfback slot in place of McCormick. Directing the Eagle T will be Bryan Hawkins, 132-pound senior.

Although Seagraves is primarily a running team, Coach Eddins feels that Hawkins also can throw the ball, and team statistics bear him out. Hawkins has completed 39 of 68 tosses for 750 yards and 10 touchdowns. The Eagles have simply not had to pass much this season.

Left end Bob Woods, a 160-pound junior, is Hawkins' primary receiver. He's snagged 21 aerials for 552 yards and eight touchdowns.

"It would be hard to single out anyone in the defensive unit" said Coach Eddins, "They've played well together as a unit."

Eddins said the Eagles strong points are defense and quickness of the offensive line, but he added his main concern is "Crowell's size." The Wildcats appear to be about 10 pounds a man heavier up front and their defensive linebackers are about 20 pounds a man heavier than their Eagle counterparts.

The Crowell backfield will include Tommy Tamplen, 150-pound junior, at quarterback; David Bell, 200-pound senior, at left halfback; Ronnie Swan, 160-pound senior, at fullback; and, Rocky Glasscock, 190-pound senior, at right halfback. Bell and Glasscock are both big enough to run over the opposition. Bell, who kicks extra points and field goals, is the team's leading scorer.

SCIARRA, BRUINS FACE CRUCIAL TEST FRIDAY

By ALEX SACHARE
AP Sports Writer

John Sciarra, UCLA's star quarterback, has piled up some fancy figures on the football field this fall. But all that matters now is what he can do Friday night.

That's when the Bruins take on Southern Cal, their crosstown arch-rival. A victory would give UCLA a share of the Pacific-8 Conference championship and a berth in the glamorous Rose Bowl. A defeat and the Bruins go home empty-handed.

"This is going to be the first game in four years I've started against USC," says Sciarra, "and it's going to be a big game for me. My only goal in football right now is to go to the Rose Bowl."

Sciarra, a 5-foot-10, 175-pound senior, is the heart of UCLA's Veer T offense. He has rushed for 721 yards and 14 touchdowns and passed for 1,015 yards so far this season, and the Bruins need a big game from him if they hope to keep that New Year's date against top-ranked Ohio State.

Southern Cal, meanwhile, is in the unaccustomed role of spoiler. After reeling off seven victories, the Trojans have dropped their last three in a row — all since Coach John McKay announced he's heading for the pro ranks next season. The Trojans were the host team in the Rose Bowl the past four years, but this time they'll be going to the Liberty Bowl instead.

For Southern Cal, a victory over UCLA would more than salve the wounds of the past three weeks. A Trojan triumph would knock UCLA out of the Rose Bowl, or any bowl, for that matter, and give upstart California the shot at Ohio State.

UCLA, ranked No. 14, has a 7-2-1 record while Southern Cal, which has dropped out of the top 20, is 7-3.

The UCLA-USC matchup is the middle game of the weekend's college football feast. ABC is televising five games in a span of 46 hours, certainly a bountiful offering.

Georgia, 8-2, ranked 15th and headed for the Cotton Bowl, meets unranked Georgia Tech, 7-3, tonight in what Tech Coach Pepper Rodgers has dubbed "the Turkey Bowl." His team is not slated for post-season action, so a victory over local rival Georgia before the nation TV audience would be especially sweet.

The opener of Friday's TV twin-bill s the Southwestern Conference showdown between No. 2 Texas A&M, 9-0, and No. 5 Texas, 9-1, and the outcome of this one will effect a number of post-season pairings.

For Texas, a victory means the Cotton Bowl, a loss the Bluebonnet Bowl. For A&M it's a bit more complicated. A victory means the winner of next week's game between Texas A&M and Arkansas goes to the Cotton Bowl. A loss to Arkansas sends the Aggies to the Liberty Bowl and Arkansas to the Cotton.

Saturday's Army-Navy matchup won't have any bearing on the bowl situation, but there's a lot of pride at stake. Navy, 6-4, rates as a three-touchdown favorite over Army, 2-8 and loser of its last eight in a row. But the Cadets are smarting after being shut out by Navy the past two years, and an upset would more than make up for their losing record.

Fourth-ranked Alabama, 9-1 and bound for the Sugar Bowl against Penn State, closes out its regular season Saturday night in the final game of the TV blitz against Auburn, a disappointing 3-5-2 in Shug Joran's 25th and final year as coach. A victory over big bad 'Bama would be a lovely retirement present.

In another big game Saturday, one which somehow managed to escape the tube's attention, eighth-ranked Arizona State, 10-0, will go against No. 12 Arizona, 9-1. The winner earns the Western Athletic Conference crown and the host berth in the Fiesta Bowl against Nebraska.

Westerners Enter Wool Bowl Event

The Western Texas College Westerner basketball squad will be playing in the Wool Bowl Basketball Tournament at Roswell, N.M. tomorrow and Saturday.

Four teams are entered in the meet with two games each day. Western Texas meets Oscar Rose Junior College of Oklahoma City in the first tilt of the tournament at 2:30 p.m. tomorrow. A contest between New Mexico Military Institute, the host, and Lamar Junior College of Lamar, Colo. will follow at 4:30 p.m.

Saturday the losers will meet for third place at 12:30 p.m. followed by the winners meeting at 2:30 for the championship.

WTC's opening opponent is 2-2 on the year with an eight point victory over Clarendon College. "They have a pretty good ball team," declared Western Coach Mike Mitchell, "they shoot well and have excellent size."

New Mexico Military Institute will probably be favored in the other contest, having recently won the New Mexico Junior College Tournament downing an exceptional Seminole Junior College team of Seminole, Okla. in the finals.

Mitchell said that he would go with the same alignment that has started the other games, that will include Stanley Covington, 6-0 sophomore from Washington, D.C. and Lawrence Butler, 6-3 freshman from Glasgow, Mo. at guard; and Tyrone Clopton, 6-6 sophomore from Washington, D.C., Darryl Smith, 6-8 freshman from College Park, Ga. and Larry Orton, 6-8 freshman from Portsmoth, Va. at forward.

Referee Apologizes

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A referee in the Arkansas-Texas Tech football game last weekend called the sports editor of a Little Rock newspaper Wednesday to apologize for what he said was an incorrect call he made in the game.

Referee McDuff Simpson had charged Teddy Barnes of Arkansas with roughing the kicker in last Saturday's game which the Razorbacks won 31-14.

Simpson told Orville Henry of the Arkansas Gazette Wednesday that the action was the "worst call an official could make." He added: "I didn't call what I should. For me, it was an unforgiveable mistake.

"In my mind, the player (Barnes) had made a deliberate effort to rough the kicker after he had touched the ball," Simpson said. "It was obvious in the film that this was not the case, and I don't know how I ever thought that.

"Of course, I made a second mistake," he added. "If that had been the violation, it would have been a personal foul, and not roughing thekicker.

"I was just totally wrong and all I can do is apologize," he said.

Frank Broyles, head football coach and athletic director at the University of Arkansas, said Simpson telephoned him Wednesday, informing him of his call to Henry, and had expressed his apologies.

When Texas Tech punted from its 28-yard line in the fourth quarter with Arkansas leading 24-0, Barnes got his hand on a punt by David Kuykendall. The punt traveled only 17 yards to the Arkansas 45.

The book rule is that if a defensive player touches the ball and also collides with the kicker there is no foul.

Simpson charged Barnes with roughing the kicker and stepped off a 15-yard penalty against Arkansas which gave Tech a first down near its 44. Tech went on to score a touchdown and make a two-point conversion.

Broyles, upset by the action, finally succeeding in halting the game and gaining a consultation with Simpson. Broyles quoted Simpson as saying then that Barnes had "only barely" touched the ball and that it was up to the referee to decide whether the ball had been touched enough and whether the kicker had been roughed.

Simpson's statement to Henry began: "I want to apologize publicly to Barnes, to the Arkansas team, to Coach Broyles and especially to the Arkansas fans...Anything that was said about me was deservingly so...I made a grave mistake."

Aggies Hope To Beat Fumble Jinx

The Aggies have fumbled the opening snap the last three years under Coach Emory Bellard's regime and the Longhorns have rolled to runaway victories.

"I wouldn't even mind seeing us punt on first down because we just beat ourselves last year," says Texas A&M All-American linebacker Ed Simonini.

Texas scored 14 points in the first 54 seconds of the game last year after A&M fumbled the ball away on its first two possessions. "The 'Horns stormed to a 32-3 victory, helping Baylor to its first SWC title in 50 years.

"A lot of folks say the Aggies always get too up-tight for Texas," says Aggie defensive tackle Jimmy Dean. "That won't happen this year. It's a big game but we won't be uptight about it."

A sellout crowd of 50,000 and a nationally television audience will view the 2 p.m. kickoff matching the nation's highest scoring team—Texas—against the No. 1 defense in the land, Texas A&M.

Texas can clinch its seventh Southwest Conference title in eight years and a berth in the Cotton Bowl with a victory. A&M would then meet Colorado in the AstroBluebonnet Bowl.

A Longhorn loss would give A&M at least a tie for the championship but the Aggies still have Arkansas on the schedule Dec. 6 in Little Rock. Should Arkansas upset A&M after victory over Texas then Coach Frank Broyles' Razorbacks would get the host spot opposite Georgia New Year's Day because of a three-way tie.

Arkansas last went to the Cotton Bowl in 1965 while A&M defeated Alabama in the 1967 classic. Texas' most recent visit was 1973.

The Aggies haven't defeated Texas since 1967 and the Longhorns own a lopsided 58-18-5 edge going into the 82nd meeting in the bitter series.

Texas Coach Darrell Royal is 17-1 against the Aggies in his regime.

Aggie safety Lester Hayes said A&M had devised an excellent defensive scheme to stop Texas quarterback Marty Akins and fullback Earl Campbell.

"We have a master plan and we're real enthusiastic about it," said Hayes. "We'll stop Texas like they have never been stopped."

Ivy Teams Meet

HANOVER, N.H. (AP) — Cornell and Brown, the Ivy League's 1975 co-champions, will meet Sunday in Providence, R.I. in the quarter-final round of the NCAA university division soccer championship.

NFL Has A Couple Of Turkey Day Appetizers

By BRUCE LOWITT
AP Sports Writer

The National Football League has a couple of appetizers for this Thanksgiving Day weekend and, as usual, neither of them are turkeys.

The Los Angeles Rams and Detroit Lions, Buffalo Bills and St. Louis Cardinals get the jump on the rest of the league today, with both games on national television. All of them have winning records and all still have playoff dreams, although some are fading fast.

The Rams will be in Detroit, starting at 12:30 p.m., EST, on CBS, followed by the Bills in St. Louis three hours later on NBC. Los Angeles is hoping to lock up its own divisional title and, at the same time, knock the Lions out of theirs. The Cardinals, with a victory, can at least temporarily strengthen their first-place hold and dent the Bills' playoff chances.

The Rams take an 8-2 record into Detroit. They're gunning for their third straight flag in the National Conference West and can get it by beating the Lions. Should Los Angeles win, second-place San Francisco could still finish in a tie for the conference lead — but the Rams would win it since they outscored the 49ers in their two meetings.

The Lions are 6-4 and trail unbeaten Minnesota by four games in the NFC's Central Division. If they lose, Minnesota, which plays in Washington on Sunday, will automatically take the title. Detroit would still have a chance for the conference's wild-card, the fourth playoff berth, but it would be a slim one at best.

Los Angeles goes into the game better than a one-touchdown favorite. St. Louis is favored by about 5½ points to beat the Bills and stay atop the National Conference East.

The Cards are also 8-2, one game ahead of Dallas and two in front of Washington, while the Bills, at 6-4, are tied with Baltimore for second place in the American Conference East, a game back of Miami.

"We'll have to be very physical and very violent," Detroit Coach Rick Forzano says of the Lions' task against the Rams. "They're ratedamong the two or three best teams in pro football."

St. Louis is facing O.J. Simpson, far and away the best runner in the league this year with his 1,394 yards. But Cards Coach Don Coryell knows that stopping O.J. doesn't mean you've stopped the Bills. "We dare not look for only one thing or we're going to get beat," he observed.

Last Sunday, while New England was limiting Simpson to 69 yards, Joe Ferguson was throwing four TD passes in a 45-31 beating of the Patriots.

Shira In Surgery

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — Charles Shira, athletic director at Mississippi State University, is scheduled to undergo surgery Friday for a ruptured aneurism in his head.

Seagraves, Crowell Vie In Regional Here Friday

Two football teams that have high-powered offenses and tough defenses will collide in Tiger Stadium at 7:30 p.m. Friday when the Seagraves Eagles take on the Crowell Wildcats in a Class A Regional playoff game.

Seagraves, the number one ranked Class A team in the state, puts a perfect 11-0 season and 4-0 district record on the line. Crowell is 10-1 for the season and was 6-0 in district. The Eagles represent District 5-A while the Wildcats represent District 7-A.

Last week, Seagraves knocked off Iraan, 22-0, and Crowell bested Rotan, 25-7, in bi-district action.

There are several good reasons why Seagraves is ranked tops in its class in the state. The Eagles have scored 418 points while limiting 11 foes to only 29. The string of victories includes seven shutouts, and none of the opponents have been able to score more than eight points against the Eagles.

Crowell has tallied 257 points while limiting the opposition to 67. Three of their games have been shutouts, and the most points the Wildcats have yielded in any game is 14.

Both teams depend primarily on running attacks, and both units prefer the straight T alignment, although they sometimes run from variations of the T. Defensively, both use five man fronts.

Coach Jim Eddins of Seagraves said it's nice to be ranked number one.

"Our kids have worked hard enough and deserve it," he said, "But we feel Crowell will be a tough opponent. They're big and physical and I think they have a fine defensive ball team."

Coach Prentiss Gidney of Crowell was unavaliable for comment since he has been in the hospital since last Sunday night for treatment of a high fever and flu. L.H. Wall, principal of the Crowell School, said Gidney is expected to be recovered in time for the playoff game here Friday night.

The Eagles have offensive halfback and defensive back Steve McCormick on the bench. He sustained a hairline fracture of the arm in the game with Iraan last week. However, Seagraves has two other backs who each have over a thousand yards in offense. They are fullback Mike Hoover, a 183-pound sophomore, and right halfback Kenny Jackson, a 140-pound senior. Robert Tamez, a 130-pound senior, has been placed in the left halfback slot in place of McCormick. Directing the Eagle T will be Bryan Hawkins, 132-pound senior.

Although Seagraves is primarily a running team, Coach Eddins feels that Hawkins also can throw the ball; and team statistics bear him out. Hawkins has completed 39 of 68 tosses for 750 yards and 10 touchdowns. The Eagles have simply not had to pass much this season.

Left end Bob Woods, a 160-pound junior, is Hawkins' primary receiver. He's snagged 21 aerials for 552 yards and eight touchdowns.

"It would be hard to single out anyone in the defensive unit" said Coach Eddins, "They've played well together as a unit."

Eddins said the Eagles strong points are defense and quickness of the offensive line, but he added his main concern is "Crowell's size." The Wildcats appear to be about 10 pounds a man heavier up front and their defensive linebackers are about 20 pounds a man heavier than their Eagle counterparts.

The Crowell backfield will include Tommy Tamplen, 150-pound junior, at quarterback; David Bell, 200-pound senior, at left halfback; Ronnie Swan, 160-pound senior, at fullback; and, Rocky Glasscock, 190-pound senior, at right halfback. Bell and Glasscock are both big enough to run over the opposition. Bell, who kicks extra points and field goals, is the team's leading scorer.

SCIARRA, BRUINS FACE CRUCIAL TEST FRIDAY

By ALEX SACHARE
AP Sports Writer

John Sciarra, UCLA's star quarterback, has piled up some fancy figures on the football field this fall. But all that matters now is what he can do Friday night.

That's when the Bruins take on Southern Cal, their cross-town arch-rival. A victory would give UCLA a share of the Pacific-8 Conference championship and a berth in the glamorous Rose Bowl. A defeat and the Bruins go home empty-handed.

"This is going to be the first game in four years I've started against USC," says Sciarra, "and it's going to be a big game for me. My only goal in football right now is to go to the Rose Bowl."

Sciarra, a 5-foot-10, 175-pound senior, is the heart of UCLA's Veer T offense. He has rushed for 721 yards and 14 touchdowns and passed for 1,015 yards so far this season, and the Bruins need a big game from him if they hope to keep that New Year's date against top-ranked Ohio State.

Southern Cal, meanwhile, is in the unaccustomed role of spoiler. After reeling off seven victories, the Trojans have dropped their last three in a row — all since Coach John McKay announced he's heading for the pro ranks next season. The Trojans were the host team in the Rose Bowl the past four years, but this time they'll be going to the Liberty Bowl instead.

For Southern Cal, a victory over UCLA would more than salve the wounds of the past three weeks. A Trojan triumph would knock UCLA out of the Rose Bowl, or any bowl, for that matter, and give upstart California the shot at Ohio State.

UCLA, ranked No. 14, has a 7-2-1 record while Southern Cal, which has dropped out of the top 20, is 7-3.

The UCLA-USC matchup is the middle game of the weekend's college football feast. ABC is televising five games in a span of 46 hours, certainly a bountiful offering.

Georgia, 8-2, ranked 15th and headed for the Cotton Bowl, meets unranked Georgia Tech, 7-3, tonight in what Tech Coach Pepper Rodgers has dubbed "the Turkey Bowl." His team is not slated for post-season action, so a victory over local rival Georgia before the nation TV audience would be especially sweet.

The opener of Friday's TV twin-bill s the Southwestern Conference showdown between No. 2 Texas A&M, 9-0, and No. 5 Texas, 9-1, and the outcome of this one will effect a number of post-season pairings.

For Texas, a victory means the Cotton Bowl, a loss the Bluebonnet Bowl. For A&M it's a bit more complicated. A victory means the winner of next week's game between Texas A&M and Arkansas goes to the Cotton Bowl. A loss to Arkansas sends the Aggies to the Liberty Bowl and Arkansas to the Cotton.

Saturday's Army-Navy matchup won't have any bearing on the bowl situation, but there's a lot of pride at stake. Navy, 6-4, rates as a three-touchdown favorite over Army, 2-8 and loser of its last eight in a row. But the Cadets are smarting after being shut out by Navy the past two years, and an upset would more than make up for their losing record.

Fourth-ranked Alabama, 9-1 and bound for the Sugar Bowl against Penn State, closes out its regular season Saturday night in the final game of the TV blitz against Auburn, a disappointing 3-5-2 in Shug Joran's 25th and final year as coach. A victory over big bad 'Bama would be a lovely retirement present.

In another big game Saturday, one which somehow managed to escape the tube's attention, eighth-ranked Arizona State, 10-0, will go against No. 12 Arizona, 9-1. The winner earns the Western Athletic Conference crown and the host berth in the Fiesta Bowl against Nebraska.
