Bank Committee Favors Measure

Bailey And Bates End Hunger Strike

LEAVENWORTH, Kas., Jan. 23 (AP)—A resigned pair of convicts sipped soup in solitary cells at the federal penitentiary here today and each spoonful was an admission of the supremacy of the law.

The prisoners were Albert W. Bates and Harvey Bailey, convicted kidnapers of Charles F. Urschel, Oklahoma oil millionaire.

The soup and other light foods were accepted voluntarily as they ended their hunger strike in protest against solitary confinement.

Bates, the first to refuse food, was the first to recognize the futility of a hunger strike — especially when prison doctors forcibly fed him and Bailey milk through the nose with the aid of a rubber hose.

MONETARY BILL GIVEN QUICK APPROVAL BY SENATE GROUP

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23—The administration money bill was speedily approved by the senate banking committee after it had voted several modifications, including a provision making the proposed $2,000,000,000 stabilization fund temporary.

The important monetary legislation was approved 15 to 2. A time limit of two years on the operation of the stabilization fund was the most important modification. The committee placed a limitation of two years on President Roosevelt's power to devalue the dollar.

Both time limitations were voted with a proviso that the president could terminate the powers in less than two years or extend them for one additional year.

Another amendment would place the stabilization fund under a board of five instead of vesting complete control in the secretary of the treasury.

The administration was upheld in a vote to leave title to the gold with the Federal Reserve system and take the profits from devaluation through a franchise tax on the system.

Meanwhile, debate over the measure broke out in the senate with Senator Fess of Ohio assailing it and Senator Robinson of Arkansas, the Democratic leader, speaking in defense.

MOTHER-IN-LAW SHOT TO DEATH BY MAN AT GOOSE CREEK

(By The Associated Press)

GOOSE CREEK, Jan. 23—Marital troubles were blamed today for a shooting in which Carl Dobbins allegedly killed his mother-in-law and critically wounded his estranged wife and another woman.

Dobbins, resident of Baytown, was in the Harris county jail, charged with murder and assault with intent to murder.

A fusillade of shots fired from an automatic pistol brought death to Mrs. Herman Enderli. Bullets penetrated her chest and abdomen.

Her daughter, Mrs. Carl Dobbins, was struck in the abdomen, chest and an arm. She was in a critical condition.

Fights For Life

The other victim was Mrs. Oscar Hazelwood, 50, at whose home the shooting took place late yesterday. With a critical wound in the left side, she is fighting for her life.

Leon Lusk, investigator for the district attorney's office, said Dobbins made a statement in which he admitted the shooting.

Dobbins, according to the statement, said he was separated from his wife about January 1, when she returned to her parents' home in Cedar Bayou.

Dobbins, officers said, admitted firing three shots through the door with an automatic pistol and was still shooting when he entered the house.

Severe Blow Dealt To Kidnap Racket

CHICAGO, Jan. 23 (AP)—A conviction for kidnaping, with sentences fixed at life imprisonment for two reputed members of a "collegiate band" of abductors, was hailed by officials today as a severe blow to the kidnap racket in Illinois.

The defendants, Gail Swolley, 30, of Peoria, and Frank Souder, 31, of Benton, Ill., heard the verdict convicting them in criminal court last night of the abduction for ransom of James Hackett, Blue Island, Ill., gambler, without show of emotion.

CHAMBER OF DEPUTIES THROWN INTO WILD CONFUSION TODAY

(By The Associated Press)

PARIS, Jan. 23. — A warning that Premier Camille Chautemps himself and three members of his endangered cabinet would be named in documents on the Stavisky scandal was served them today by Deputy Philipe Henroit.

Henriot advised the premier, George Bonnet, minister of finance; Eugene Raynaldy, minister of justice; and M. Laurent-Eynac, minister of commerce, to be ready to defend themselves before the chamber of deputies.

Documents Not Disclosed

The nature of the documents in the Stavisky case, which shook France with the collapse of the Bayonne municipal pawnshop, was not disclosed.

Charges have been hurled by angry deputies that Serge Stavisky, alleged late leader of pawnshop operations in which the public was fleeced of $40,000,000, received protection in high places.

The chamber was thrown into confusion by announcement of the deputy's action. Shouting wildly and banging their desks, government supporters drowned out Henriot's voice.

Police resources were taxed during the night as 4,000 battled 1,500 royalists demonstrating around the chamber and 3,000 disgruntled civil employees crying out against pay cuts in a manifestation near the city hall.

Hundreds Arrested

"Down with Chautemps!" was the royalists' cry. Stones, sticks and torpedoes were hurled during their struggle with police. Hundreds were arrested, but released.

Even after they had been turned back in the fighting around the chamber, royalists continued their rioting at scattered points during

Wilsons To Leave For Post At Orange

Captain and Mrs. Walter T. Wilson, commandants of the local Salvation Army corps since June 20, 1929, have been assigned to Orange, Tex., near Beaumont, and will leave Lubbock for their new post about January 30, Captain Wilson said this morning.

Captain John Churchill, of Orange, has been assigned here. He is expected about February 1. The change was recently ordered by Lieutenant Colonel David Main, divisional commander of Texas.

The outgoing commandant has had about 14 years service in the Salvation Army. He served for about six years prior to 1908 and was forced to leave the work because of a breakdown. After being engaged in other work for 18 years, he returned to the Army in Texas in February, 1926, and three years later came to Lubbock.

Unsolved Mystery?

MANY PERSONS THINK DR. WYNEKOOP WILL NEVER FACE TRIAL

CHICAGO, Jan. 23 (AP)—There was a growing belief in some quarters today that the death of Rheta Wynekoop will forever remain an unsolved mystery.

The possibility of a quick legal decision on the question of the guilt or innocence of Rheta's mother-in-law, Dr. Alice Wynekoop having been dissipated for the time being, there were many persons, both in and out of the criminal court who believed the elderly defendant would never again face the ordeal of a trial.

"It's just like freeing her," Burdine Gardner, of Indianapolis, father of the dead Rheta, said in commenting on yesterday's decision by Judge Joseph B. David to declare a mistrial because of the possibility that Dr. Wynekoop would fall dead before the eyes of the jury.

The case was continued to the February term of court, Judge David having held that the danger of death of Dr. Wynekoop was of greater importance than the state's demand that the trial be finished.

POSSE SHOOTS DOWN BRADY

THREE COMPANIONS OF DESPERADO CAUGHT; TWO AT LARGE

(By The Associated Press)

LANSING, Kas., Jan. 22—Death at the hands of hard shooting possemen has ended the criminal career of Bob (Big Boy) Brady, who led six other Kansas penitentiary convicts over the wall last Friday morning.

Brady, a life termer who thrice has escaped from prison, was shot to death late yesterday near Paola, Kas., after he had made a futile effort to rally his three companions with a cry of "let's fight" as a posse of peace officers approached.

Companions Captured

His three companions — Tommy McMahan, Fred Cody and Benjamin Young—were recaptured and returned here. They were placed in No. 2 cellhouse from which they escaped after overpowering a guard and constructing a ladder with which to scale the wall. This cell house is the "solitary" of the state prison.

Their return and the death of their leader accounted for five of the seven fugitives. Charles Clifton McArthur was taken into custody at Kansas City Sunday. Jim Clark and Frank Delmar, who made their way into Oklahoma after kidnaping Lewis Dresser, a rural school teacher and using his car in their flight, still are at large. Dresser was released unharmed near Pawhuska and allowed to keep his car.

ANOTHER NOTE FROM GANG REPORTED

HEAVY POLICE GUARD MAINTAINED AT HOME OF BANKER'S KIN

(By The Associated Press)

ST. PAUL, Jan. 23.—Swiftly moving reports and events were believed in some quarters today to point to negotiations looking to the release soon of Edward G. Bremer, wealthy St. Paul banker, kidnaped last Wednesday.

These included reports that persisted, despite denials, that a second communication had been received from the abductors in a bottle thrown through a window at the home of the Bremer family physician, flashing lights by an automobile, and a mystry trip by a brewers' truck.

Heavy Guard Maintained

In addition, a heavy police guard was maintained at the home of Adolph Bremer, principal owner of the Jacob Schmidt Brewing Co., and father of the abducted 37-year-old president of the Commercial State bank.

The $200,000 ransom in old $5, 10 and $20 bills, not numbered consecutively has been ready for delivery for two days and last night a large sedan stopped before the home of Dr. H. T. Nippert, the Bremer family physician. The car's lights were flashed on twice, the porch light was turned on for a moment and the car disappeared. Officials would not say whether this was intended as a signal from the obductors.

Officers Act On Tip

This was followed by a hurried sortie into the country west of Minneapolis by two automobile loads of heavily armed Hennepin county authorities on the tip the kidnap gang had its headquarters at Medicine Lake.

Sheriff John P. Wall, however, exploded that theory by establishing ownership of two airplanes and two big sedans at the lake, which had aroused suspicion of residents.

Hog Contracts Are Talked At Meeting

Between 50 and 60 farmers, most of them members of county hog committees and 25 county agents were here Tuesday for a meeting with E. M. Regenbrecht, College Station, and O. N. Fisher, U. S. D. A., to discuss the 1934 hog reduction program. The meeting started this morning in the Aztec room of the Hilton hotel.

Section by section, the reduction contract was taken up. Many questions regarding crops to be fed animals were asked by farmers.

The meeting continued this afternoon.

Acute Concern Held For Missing Youth

OFFICERS ASKED TO AID IN SEARCH FOR SON OF SHREVEPORT BANKER WHO DISAPPEARED BETWEEN COLLEGE AND HIS HOME MONDAY

(By The Associated Press)

SHREVEPORT, La., Jan. 23—Disappearance of Val H. Murrell, jr., 15-year-old son of Val H. Murrell of Shreveport, president of the Commercial National bank and the Continental American Bank and Trust company, was a matter of acute concern here today, Sheriff T. R. Hughes and Police Chief D. D. Bazer reported.

Sheriff Hughes and Chief Bazer have been requested to aid in locating the boy, said to have disappeared between St. John's college, which he attended, and his home in a prominent residential section, Monday.

Father "Very Uneasy"

The father of the missing boy said he was "very uneasy about the safety of the boy," and that he "feared some mishap may have overtaken him."

Young Murrell was described as 15 years of age, though somewhat older in appearance; weight about 125, with thick, wavy brown hair. When last seen he was wearing gray long trousers, blue shirt, tan swede jacket with zipper front, tan low shoes and gold-rim glasses.

The boy, according to Murrell, attended school Monday, and was dismissed at 1:45 p. m., as usual. He was not missed by his parents until he failed to appear for supper.

The sheriff's office telegraphed officers of surrounding towns, asking that they keep a watch for the boy and communicate with him immediately.

Both Sheriff Hughes and Chief Bazer said they were working on the case and expected to locate the

ANTI-REPEAL CONFAB OPENS; CHANGE IN LAW OPPOSED

(By The Associated Press)

FORT WORTH, Jan. 23.—Approximately 200 men and women from many sections of the state were present today when an anti-repeal session opened at the First Christian church in an effort to preserve the Dean prohibition law for Texas. Leaders predicted a much larger attendance this afternoon.

Chester B. Collins, attorney who called the meeting to order, said that talks would be made by a number of persons prominent in W. C. T. U. work and prominently connected with churches and colleges of the state.

Among early arrivals was Bishop H. A. Boaz of Houston, former president of the old Polytechnic college of Fort Worth, former president of Texas Woman's college and once president of Southern Methodist university of Dallas.

Among other visitors were Mrs. Claude De Van Watts of Austin, president of the W. C. T. U. for the state; Dr. J. D. Sandefer, president of Simmons university of Abilene, and Rev. J. T. McClure of Amarillo.

Dr. F. S. Groner of Marshall, president of the college of Marshall, will deliver the principal address tonight.

It was expected that the meeting will take steps to finance a legal fight against voiding of the Dean law, to organize a statewide body to oppose repeal of the law and to begin definite plans for publication of a weekly newspaper to support the cause of prohibition.

GUARDS ARE ON DUTY IN THREE-CORNERED MAYORALTY RACE

(By The Associated Press)

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 23.—Senator Huey P. Long's role as Louisiana political dictator gets another test in the bitter four-cornered mayoralty election today.

With 300 deputized citizens standing by to preserve order, the city's electorate turned out almost en masse after a vituperative campaign in which Senator Long held the center of the stage.

Ends Hectic Campaign

Jailings, court injunctions and threats of military rule, punctuated by blistering charges of corruption and fraud, combined to make the campaign one of the most hectic in New Orleans' history.

Long entered the picture when he broke with Mayor T. Semmes Walmsley, leader of the old regular organization, and placed his own ticket in the field, head by John Klorer.

Walmsley, a candidate for re-election, directed the full force of his regulars against Long, and Francis Williams, independent candidate, launched an equally strident attack against the Louisiana Kingfish Herbert B. Homes, the fourth candidate, made no active campaign.

Squarely before the voters was the Huey Long issue—in a city in which the senator himself has often said he was "weak."

Registrar Arrested

The fireworks began to pop early last week when Mayor Walmsley's police raided the city hall and arrested Long's registrar of voters, C. S. Barnes, for allegedly "scratching" names of voters from the registration rolls in defiance of a court injunction.

Governor O. K. Allen, who was elected with Long's support, placed the head of the militia in charge of state departments to "protect them."

AUTHORITY TO TAKE ACTION GIVEN ICKES

COMPLAINTS OF FUNDS MANIPULATION HEARD BY ADMINISTRATION

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23. —President Roosevelt has given Secretary Ickes, the Public Works administrator, blanket authority to deal as he sees fit with all complaints of "graft" or manipulation of funds on public works projects.

Meanwhile, agents for the Civil Works administration and the department of justice scanned closely operations of the agency in a dozen sections of the country as the result of disclosures of graft in handling funds of the relief organization.

Complaints Forwarded

Joseph B. Keenan, assistant attorney general designated to make the civil works investigation for the justice department, said several complaints concerning the operation of the Civil Works administration have been forwarded to him by Harry L. Hopkins, the administrator.

Public Works officials said that because of the elaborate inspection and investigation system set up several months ago in anticipation of possible attempts to manipulate funds in connection with projects, complaints were that they considered a "minimum."

President Roosevelt filed a protest by Governor Lehman of New York as he surveyed the program for terminating the Civil Works administration in May.

The organization's highway work was also particularly commended with President Barr commenting at length on that project. The number of conventions entertained between May and December of 1933, 16 in number, and 12 similar gatherings already secured for 1934 was also considered to be outstanding, as was the chamber's NRA and agricultural relief work.

Younger Set Must Wear Trains With Restraint; Need Good Proportion

BY JEAN PATAU
Written for NEA Service

PARIS, Jan. 23—Fashions for the eighteen-year-old girl should not be different in any way from the general mode. It is merely a question of selecting an appropriate style.

When you mention evening dresses for the debutante age, I have invariably noticed that people immediately visualize an anarchronical type of dress—something very full, very modest and, of course, very light and vaporous.

Fortunately, the "jeune fille" is not held to wear this one type of dress and no other, although, as a matter of fact, it is a vastly pretty and becoming one. Probably the reason why the mind associates this style more especially with the debutante is because there are certain stiff fabrics such as taffetas and tulle which are eminently suited to her. After all, only the very youthful and not fully developed feminine form is able to carry off the somewhat rigid lines proper to these fabrics.

The modern girl, as a rule, has very good taste in dress. While she may err sometimes in her choice of evening models, for daytime wear she will usually select clothes which are simple and cleancut. These are becoming on condition that the cleancut, sober look is not exaggerated and becomes something too boyish altogether, emphasized also by the habit many young moderns have of walking with their hands thrust in their coat pockets.

Apart from afternoon dresses, which can be as frivolous and as feminine as desired, I think that the more simple clothes, those that look man-tailored, are the appanage of the young girl. Care must be taken, however, not to go to the other extreme and achieve too masculine an air. The feminine touch must always be assured, in a detail of either the collar, sleeves or waistline. A scarf, for example, can impart a very youthful and feminine look to a simple, mannish wool coat, provided it is tied in an original manner. And if it closes a smart, upstanding military-looking collar, it supplies the note of originality as well as color.

Trains are permissible to the younger set, who can wear them sometimes with just as much of an air as is supposed properly to belong to the older woman alone, but they must always be restrained and proportioned to the girl's height. The effect otherwise destroys that precious look of youth. The arms and neck must be the object of careful study and never uncovered if unsufficiently developed.

Ultra-nude backs should never be considered for the less-than-twenties. Not only are they too utterly sophisticated, but they are also a matter of good and bad form.

One ordinary cup holds eight ounces of liquid.

BY MARY E. PLUMMER

NEW YORK, Jan. 23 (AP)—An analysis of the spring openings of America's leading designers shows the following main trends for spring:

1. A new silhouette known as "Windblown," marked in daytime dresses and coats by a forward movement, and in evening gowns by a sweep to the back.

2. It will be a great suit season—better than for several years; and the suits will be of many types both tailored and soft.

3. Off-the-face hats. Probably the most widely worn hat will be the saucer-brim Breton sailor. Spring will see a revival of flowers, veils and quills on millinery, and the bonnet will be back, for the first time since pre-war days.

Clothes Conservative

In general spring clothes are conservative and wearable. The two-piece dress, for example, an ultra-practical frock, is back after an absence of several years.

There are no extravagant changes. Radical sleeves have gone. Everything has a normal shoulder line, or, in suits, a simple raglan shoulder. The silhouette is still slender with curves, but the waistline is a little slimmer and more fitted than before. Lengths have not changed.

To serve the post-repeal vogue for restaurant cocktails, daytime frocks are dressier, often with lingerie yokes or insets. The costume suit—a three-quarter coat with a full dress under it—will be popular for this transfer from street to restaurant.

One-piece day frocks often have high necks, long sleeves and leather belts. The newest evening decolletage is a very low front V and a back cut almost to the waist. But the high front neckline also is shown for evening.

Blue Is Important

Navy blue seems to be the most important day color for spring. Off shades of navy and brown are good, and so are mustard color, turquoise, gray, and all kinds of stripes and plaids.

The leading colors for evening are more uncertain. There are many big floral prints, and challis gowns with small flowers, but fully as many one-color gowns in satin, chiffon net and fine organza. Very stiff silks with a great swish also are back.

Evening gowns have long lines and usually some kind of back skirt treatment—a cascade or an outright train.

Soft wools and tweeds are the coat and suit fabrics. Hats are of felt, straw cloth or stitched fabric. Among the hat shapes are the Madame Bovary bonnet, a new beret, something of straw with a big pleated projection on one side; a new shallow bowler and Henry the Eighth tiara effects.

Villa To Battle Chavez Tonight

Parents Sought

A nation-wide search to identify the 18-month-old white boy shown above, found with a negro woman in a Detroit rooming house, has been launched by Detroit police. The woman, Betty Holland, 29, is held on a kidnaping suspicion charge, after telling conflicting stories.

NEW RING COMPLETED AT NATIONAL GUARD ARMORY HERE

The new ring is complete, the seating capacity has been doubled and the stage is set for Matchmaker Marty Fiedler's second contribution to Lubbock and South Plains boxing fans.

And the boxers, in the opinions of themselves and their handlers, are in the pink of condition and the proper mental spirit.

Chavez Vs. Villa

The ringside gong at the National Guard armory out on College avenue will sound at 8:15, signaling the start of events that will be climaxed by a feature 10-round scrap between two of the neatest bantamweights of two countries. Abe Chavez of Albuquerque meets Baby Manuel Villa of Mexico City in a battle that carries international significance.

Tonight's contest augurs rather tough for the popular young bantamweight from Albuquerque who added the Texas title holder to his long string of victims here a week ago last Friday night. In that battle, Chavez won the hearts of nearly a thousand fans by rushing in and throwing enough leather to win six of 10 rounds over Thurman Murdock, Texas champ, and breaking even on two others. The bout was publicized as for the southwest bantamweight championship.

Meet First Time

In Villa, Chavez meets one of Mexico's ranking bantams, a 118-pound demon who ranks higher even in the United States than Chavez, but whose superiority over Chavez has never been proven in the ring. They meet for the first time tonight.

To Chavez, tonight's bout means a chance to climb higher on the boxing ladder, as a victory would naturally give him nation-wide fame. To Villa, it means an opportunity to show his wares in Texas for the first time. It also may mean for the Mexico City mauler a night of education.

Matchmaker Fiedler's supporting card tonight looms almost as big as the main event. A curtain raiser featuring Andy Jones of Snyder, a Texas Tech athlete who looked exceedingly good in a brief round at the gymnasium last Thursday night, versus Lawton Smith, former Littlefield scrapper who appeared here in the last card, will see plenty of mitt-slinging.

In a preliminary, little Louie Booth, paperweight boxer from Albuquerque and sparring partner of Abe Chavez, will meet Pete Martinez, Latin-American scrapper from El Paso.

Each of the preliminaries will go four rounds.

Match For Woody?

Woody Windham, popular lightweight from Abilene who has appeared in and won four consecutive fights here, is billed in the eight-round semi-final against another Mexico City battler, Chip Flores. Windham won his last fight by a knockout, the only one on the January 12 program. He slapped to sleep Lee Chavez of Albuquerque in the fifth of a scheduled eight-round contest.

A negro battle royal which Matchmaker Fiedler had planned to provide comedy on tonight's card fell through when the Texas Boxing commission refused to sanction such an event.

ROSS FAVORED IN BETTING

PETROLLE THINKS HE WILL BE HEADACHE TO ONES WHO BET

NEW YORK, Jan. 23 (AP)—Worried no longer by the problems of weight-making, grim-visaged Billy Petrolle thinks he has another headache in store for the betting fraternity.

They've made him a short-ender at 7 to 5 for his ten round non-title bout with Barney Ross, lightweight champion, at the coliseum tomorrow night and Billy thinks that's a grave error.

Title Hopes Abandoned

The Duluth veteran, one of the greatest crowd-pleasers in the game as he is one of heaviest of its sluggers, has dropped all thoughts of winning the lightweight title since he absorbed successive defeats by Tony Canzoneri and Ross in November, 1932, and March, 1933.

These reverses, he is convinced, were due principally to the fact that he had badly weakened himself by his efforts to pare down to the lightweight limit. Competent critics agree with him.

Now he is fighting strictly at his best weight, 140 to 142 pounds, a poundage at which Billy has been unbeaten, except by Jimmy McLarnin, present welterweight champion, for three years.

PRICE SCORES LOW AT GOLF

PRESIDENT OF MIAMI BILTMORE CLUB SETS PACE IN TOURNEY

MIAMI, Fla., Jan. 23 (AP)—If any one would know the eccentricities of a golf course it should be the club president—anyhow T. E. Price, head of the home club, had a low of 76 to lead the early qualifiers for the third annual Miami Biltmore amateur invitation tournament.

Four players, each with 79, vied for second place, with Everett G. Livesay, southpaw star from Columbus, Ohio, and Lee Fowler, of New York, first tying for position, but later joined by H. F. Bowbeer of Chicago, and Arnold Minkley, of Cleveland.

Tommy Goodwin, of Monroe, N. Y., who last week successfully defended his midwinter amateur title, was to play his qualifying round today. Goodwin was the 1932 Biltmore winner.

Arthur Lynch, of Mamaroneck, N. Y., last year's winner, let the title go and is playing golfing trails in the west.

Match play begins tomorrow over 18 holes, with final round Saturday over 36 holes.

AMATEUR RING TOURNAMENT IS PLANNED

THOUSAND FISTS ARE EXPECTED TO FLY IN 5,000 BOUTS

BY GEORGE SIEBER

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 23 — They're getting ready for r big amateur boxing tournam in the Allegheny Mountain association where the young idea seems to be put on a pair of boxing gloves and tell somebody to put up his dukes.

The forthcoming flurry of fisticuffs, scheduled for the Keystone A. C. February 8, 9 and 10, will be the second of the season, bringing together the amateur battlers of western Pennsylvania, West Virginia and eastern Ohio.

Cream of Simon Pures

The entrants will be the cream of some 500 simon pures in this district of the Amateur Athletic union—a district in which the boys eagerly take to the padded gloves.

In fact, William S. Haddock of Pittsburgh, president of the association, estimates that some 1,000 fists fly in about 5,000 bouts over a year's time.

Haddock, who has headed the association since its organization 16 years ago and who was boomed for the presidency of the A. A. U. last year, says he thinks there is probably more amateur boxing in this section than in any other A. A. U. district in the country.

Champions Produced

He and John Taylor, the secretary, and a host of other officials have been building up the boxing spirit over a long period of years and the A. M. A. has produced many an olympic fighter and national amateur champion in recent years from the athletic clubs scattered throughout the region.

The season's first big tournament, with sectional eliminations, was marked by hundreds of bouts. The February tourney, says Stanley Waechter, Keystone A. C. boxing committee chairman, will find several hundred fighters in there giving their all for the glory of the manly art of self-defense.

Mrs. Black died from what was described as a rare brain disease.

Her husband is aboard the Byrd cutter, Bear.

SONNENBERG WINS

DALLAS, Jan. 23. (AP)—Gus Sonnenberg defeated Glen Wade in a wrestling match here last night, downing the Nebraskan with flying tackles in the last two falls after Wade had won the first fall with a pile driver hold. Sonnenberg, onetime heavyweight champion of the world, weighed 205. Sonnenberg is from Boston. Wade, 215, is from Winside, Neb.

BOXING TONIGHT at the Armory. Abe Chavez vs. Manuel Villa.

No word of criticism regarding Chavez' fight a week ago Friday has come to this department, so it must have been good. When something isn't good, we hear plenty about it.

If the Chavez-Murdock fight pleased, the Chavez-Villa fight ought to go over handsomely with the boxing fans. Murdock came here with the Texas bantamweight title dangling from his thin waist. He put up a nice defensive battle. Villa comes with an even greater reputation. He is one of the high rating bantams of the entire country of Old Mexico.

No relation to the lamented Pancho Villa of Robin Hood fame, Baby Manuel deals out misery with a good right swing and a fast left jab rather than with pistols and cutlasses. Chato Laredo, claimant to Mexico's title, found Villa a very tough opponent on two occasions, and these occasions gave Villa his national ranking.

Villa, in fact, holds a higher ranking than Chavez, who is younger and maybe less experienced. He has never fought Chavez. In the face of all the dope, however, that makes Villa a slight favorite, we're going to give Chavez the edge here. Perhaps we're wrong, but we have seen Chavez and know what he can do. We haven't observed Villa in action.

Three other bouts on tonight's card promise plenty of action.

Those amateur wrestling matches out at the Tech gymnasium the other night were more or less pitiful, as compared with the rougher, tougher professional game as may be viewed of a Wednesday night at the Auditorium. But that collegiate boxing—that is something else again.

These college boxers don't go in for the fancy stepping back and weaving in stuff. They're in there to slug it out with the opponents, and slug they do. It's all offensive stuff when collegians get together. Those three scraps were as neat and nice and full of action as one would wish to see.

Of the sextet of boxers out at the gymnasium, one Andy Jones, Snyder youth, looked the best. Jones mixed it with big Jim Prim, whom you will see at an end position on the Texas Tech football team come next autumn. Now this Mr. Jones is a scrapper. A physical makeup that would make sculptors rush for their hatchets and young maidens rushing for lipstick topped off by a blond head that knows what it's all about—that's Mr. Jones. Tonight he may be viewed without extra charge at the Armory. He fights Lawton Smith, the beetle-browed youngster from Littlefield, Waco and Fort Worth. They go four rounds in a special exhibition.

Then there's our old friend, Woody Windham, back to strut his stuff in the local arena. He's popular. He's a crowd pleaser, and he's a good fighter. Tonight he faces one Chip Flores, tough little Latin-American from El Paso, in the eight-round semi-windup.

Windham made short work of another Mexico native in his last appearance here. He outweighed Lee Chavez nearly 10 pounds, and won by a knockout in the fifth. He may not be so fortunate tonight. Young Flores, we understand, is not giving much, if any weight, and they say he can stand up and take it with the best of ambitious lightweights.

Another newcomer and another type of fighter will be on tonight's card. Little Louie Booth, paperweight pounder from Albuquerque, stable mate and sparring partner of Abe Chavez, will tangle with Pete Martinez, Mexico City youngster who has a habit of flinging plenty of leather.

Matchmaker Marty Fiedler couldn't get his negro battle royal over. He had the darkies signed up, all right, and was getting them mad at each other. But the Texas Boxing commission threw a monkey wrench in the plans. If Fiedler wanted the battle royal, he would have to plank down five bucks apiece to pay for licenses for the battlers. Fiedler first tried to get the commission's consent to use the darkies without charge. He didn't get it. It seems that the commission is awfully particular about who fights in Texas. It wouldn't be worth $30 bucks, so Fiedler gave up the idea.

DETTON MEETS JOE KOPECKY TOMORROW

JACK VAN BEBBER TO WRESTLE ROB ROY IN SEMI-FINAL

The return to the local mat by Joe Kopecky, heavy "villian" of many a rassle melodrama, features tomorrow night's program at the Auditorium. Kopecky meets Dorry Detton, popular young ex-collegian from Salt Lake City, in the three-fall main event on Promoter Sled Allen's regular Wednesday night show.

Rob Roy, of Goodnight, who got his early wrestling experience bulldogging buffaloes on the Goodnight ranch, and topped it off with a course under the old Dutch dynamiter, Mantell, takes on Jack Van Bebber, of Texas Tech, in the one fall thirty-minute time limit bout.

Rob says he is going to giv Jack the kind of a neck-twisting that he used to give and still gives the buffaloes. The Goodnight grappler has been having hard sledding of late. Detton threw him out of the Auditorium arena last week for a one-point landing that did Roby practically no good at all. Then bad-tempered old Professor Kanthe forward passed him out among the audience at Amarillo.

He's Getting Mad

These happenings are bringing Rob to a froth of fighting fury, and his match tomorrow night with Tech's hustling wrestling coach promises to be packed with action.

Detton, who specializes in flying scissors, drop-kicks, and other acrobatic skullduggery, will need all his speed and skill against the slow but clever ex-cotton picker from East Texas.

Charley Heard, of San Antonio, who is usually a main-eventer, but has been taking the curtain raiser bows or boos of late, meets Lobo Brown, of Amarillo, in the opening preliminary.

Tech Will Meet Lions Of Loyola

MATADORS TO PLAY ON WEST COAST NEXT FALL; CONTEST WILL BE PLAYED HERE IN 1935

Texas Tech's Matador football forces will move farther westward than ever before next fall when they invade Los Angeles for a game on October 27 with the Loyola university Lions.

This was the announcement coming from Head Coach Pete Cawthon and the Tech athletic council last night, following the receipt of signed contracts from Loyola officials.

Tech and Loyola signed a two-year, home and home contract, Cawthon said. This year's game is to be played in Los Angeles. The Lions come to Lubbock on October 25, 1935.

Rockne's Favorite

The Loyola Lions are coached by Tom Lieb, former Notre Dame star and right hand man of Knute Rockne during the latter's last years at the South Bend institution. Naturally, Lieb has followed the Notre Dame system, and is said to "put it on" better than any other coach on the Pacific seaboard.

This announcement was received with much glee by the members of the Matador team, who have never in the past traveled that far for an intersectional setto. Coaches Cawthon and Smith were highly gratified to receive the final notice from Coach Lieb, with whom Cawthon opened negotiations for a game during the American Football Coaches association in December at Chicago.

Won Five Games

Coach Lieb piloted his Lions through five victories last season, playing the toughest teams on the coast. Loyola's 6 to 0 defeat by the University of Southern California, highest ranking team in the nation, was one of the high points of the season.

Lieb went to Loyola in 1929, and for the past five seasons has coached better than average teams.

Other definite opponents for Tech in 1934 are the University of Texas, Louisiana Poly, Simmons, Oklahoma City U. and Texas Mines.

HUBBELL SAYS HIS SCREW-BALL WILL WORK WITH THE NEW AMERICAN LOOP BALL; THINKS GIANTS WILL REPEAT

MEEKER, Okla., Jan. 23. (AP)—It just wouldn't be right, in the opinion of Carl Hubbell, the screw-ball maestro of Meeker, to say anything about the 1934 contract the New York Giants gave him, or to venture any predictions as to how many games he personally might win next season.

The tall, slim pecan farmer opined, however, that the Giants would repeat and that his screw-ball would work with the new American league ball, which will be universal next season.

Interested In Basketball

Just now, Hubbell is more interested in basketball. The team he manages tackles another one directed by Pepper Martin, St. Louis Cardinal third baseman, at Oklahoma City tonight and both Carl and Pepper are anxious to win.

Hubbell doesn't play but suits up and takes practice shots before each game, with another unique delivery, a left-handed "hook" shot. His team has played games in Oklahoma, Texas and Kansas with varying success. One game, in Hutchinson, brought charges of professionalism against "his boys," but Hubbell pointed out he didn't play in any games with them, just coached and arranged games.

To Receive Award

He will forsake the court Feb. 1 for a week to journey to New York to receive the "most valuable player's award" of the Baseball Writers' association at a banquet Feb. 4.

Before leaving for spring training in California about March 1, Hubbell plays to show University of Oklahoma baseball pitchers how he throws his famous "screw-ball," to keep a promise he made last winter.

As to the new ball, Hubbell says: "We didn't get to use it enough during the world's series for me to be able to say just what we'll be able to do with it over a season's span, but I don't think it will make a great deal of difference."

"Breaks More Sharply"

He said he did notice that his screw-ball broke just a bit more sharply, although its curve was not quite so great as with the National league ball.

"The big difference is in bunting," he said. "After using the slower ball all season, it was hard to keep from bunting the livelier ball right into infielders' hands. It seemed to make infield plays quicker."

Italy Joins France In Warning Germany

ROME, Jan. 23 (AP)—Warning to Germany that Italy will stand shoulder to shoulder with France against any attempt of Nazis to annex Austria was contained last night in what was generally accepted as an officially-inspired editorial in the newspaper Il Lavoro.

This was the first time since Hitlerites came into power that that they have been subjected to any serious attacks by the regime of Premier Mussolini.

The article was considered all the more significant in view of the form attitude Chancellor Engelbert Dollfuss of Austria expressed toward Germany in a speech last week and his reference to friendship for Italy.

The Night Watch!

A cheerful fireside friend during the evening hours, electric light becomes a tireless, faithful watchman when you sleep. Slinking intruders avoid the bright circle of light cast by the lamp over front porch or entry way. Switches placed in the hall make midnight journeys safe. A lamp should keep vigil in the bathroom, too, should sudden illness threaten. A bedside light should point out clock or telephone, connected to a nearby socket and instantly ready to be turned on.

Your home is not modern unless it is protected by vigilant night lights. The slight additional cost is compensated many times over by the safety factors involved.

Elections To Teem With Bitter Senate-House Conflicts

FIREWORKS TO BE SEEN IN PRIMARIES

POLITICAL FIGURES TO FIGURE IN COMING VOTE CAMPAIGNS

BY CECIL B. DICKSON

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23. (AP)—Sufficient political fireworks to light up the national picture, starred by unusual conflicts between well recognized political figures, were foreseen today as likely in the forthcoming senatorial and congressional primary and general elections.

The Democratic congressional committee tonight steps into the middle of the picture. A meeting has been called to reorganize for the campaign. The Republican congressional committee, already organized, is awaiting further developments on the Roosevelt program on which to base issues for the campaign.

Many Seats To Be Filled

All of the 435 house and a third, or 32, senate seats are to be filled in November.

Almost nation-wide interest already centers in the campaign between Senator Connally and Representative Bailey, for the Texas Democratic senatorial nomination, which is tantamount to election. Bailey is the son of the late Senator Bailey, noted orator. Connally went from the house to the senate in 1928.

In Missouri, Representative Milligan is being urged by friends to seek the Democratic nomination. Senator Patterson, Republican, is up for re-election. There is talk that the former Democratic senator, Jim Reed, fiery orator and critic of the Roosevelt administration, may enter the primary.

White Enters Race

Ohio Democrats may furnish a three-cornered senatorial nomination contest. Governor George White has announced his candidacy. Representative Truax and former Governor A. Vic Donahey are expected by friends to enter. Senator Fess of Ohio, former chairman of the Republican national committee, is understood to be planning to seek re-election.

From Indiana comes talk that three representatives—Mrs. Virginia Jenckes, Louis Ludlow and Samuel B. Pettenvill—may contest for the Democratic nomination to face Senator Robinson, Republican.

Senator Johnson, progressive Republican of California, probably will run as an independent. He supported President Roosevelt in 1932, but under California law registered Democrats cannot vote in a Republican primary. Dr. Walter Dexter, president of Whittier college in southern California, plans to oppose Johnson for the Republican nomination.

Ashurst Will Run

Senator Ashurst (D-Ariz) probably will seek to succeed himself. Indications are that Sidney P. Osborn of Phoenix, chairman of the Arizona Democratic committee, will oppose him for the Democratic nomination.

Senator Key Pittman, Democrat of Nevada, and president pro tem of the senate, probably will be unopposed for his party's nomination. The name of George W. Malone, state engineer, has been mentioned as the possible Republican nominee.

In Alabama, former Senator Tom Heflin is campaigning against Representative Allgood for the Democratic nomination.

There is talk that Governor Charles Bryan of Nebraska may seek to come to the senate to succeed Senator Thompson, Democrat, whom he appointed. Representative Burke is also mentioned as a possible Democratic candidate.

Former Senator Simmons of North Carolina, is being discussed as a probable opponent to Representative Abernethy of the third North Carolina district. Simmons fought Alfred E. Smith in 1928 and lost his Democratic seat.

There's Health Hope In This Pool

"Water's fine," sputters Franklin D. Roosevelt, grinning in the Warm Springs, Ga., pool, where he fought his way back to health. And thousands of other sufferers from infantile paralysis will be benefited when the dollars pour in from the nation-wide series of parties to be given January 30 to aid the Warm Springs Foundation.

ROOSEVELT BALL TICKET SALE OPENS TOMORROW; PARTY PLANS COMPLETED

Tickets for the Lubbock President's ball, at $1 per couple, go on sale tomorrow with Riley F. Hule, commander of Allen brothers post of the American legion, in charge of the sales campaign.

That was the announcement made last night by the Central committee formulating plans for the ball after a meeting held at the chamber of commerce. Net proceeds from the ball, which is expected to draw between 600 and 800 persons, will be sent to the Warm Springs, Georgia, Foundation, which is President Roosevelt's project to combat infantile paralysis—a disease which a dozen years ago attacked Franklin D. Roosevelt, himself.

Full Committee Present

The Central committee, made up of representatives of the Central Labor council, the Rotary, ABC, Kiwanis and Lions clubs and the Allen Brothers legion post, had almost 100 percent attendance in yesterday's meeting. Only absent member, Durwood H. Bradley, was out of the city on business. The other eleven on hand were J. C. Fortenberry, Dick Gosdin, N. L. Ball, Neil H. Wright, Newton Walton, Riley F. Hule, J. A. Raley, Wyatt Hester, M. E. Heard, Bo Sexton and W. O. Daniels. Chas. A Guy, general chairman, presided.

Mr. Walton was appointed to secure the music for the dance, which will be held next Tuesday night, January 30—the President's 52nd anniversary of birth—at Sled Allen's Auditorium. Although Mr. Allen donated the hall, the committee ruled that he should be reimbursed for expenses incidental to lighting and heating the large hall.

Expenses To Be Small

The committee also voted to pay the musicians, who are Tech students, for orchestration, and for the printing of tickets. Outside of the bare actual expenses every penny collected from ticket sales will be turned over to the Warm Springs project. There will be no passes except to police officers actually on duty at the hall and to ticket sellers at the hall's window who will work without compensation.

Wyatt Hester and N. L. Ball, with the aid of Hubert L. Allen, will attend to securing radio connections so that Lubbock party attendants may hear the President's birthday broadcast at 10:15 p. m., Lubbock time. Mr. Roosevelt's speech, going over both the NBC and Columbia nation-wide hookups, will be augmented by contributions of various stars of the air.

Neil Wright and Dick Gosdin are in charge of ticket printing and J. A. Fortenberry is in charge of policing. W. O. Daniels will handle requests to the orchestra for special selections.

Bankers To Handle Money

The presidents of the city's three banks will be asked to serve as members of the treasury committee so that all funds will be handled by persons experienced in handling money. The bank presidents will also be asked to select from their organizations junior officials or employes to aid in checking the money at the hall on the night of the party.

The Lubbock ball will be similar to affairs staged in 5,000 American cities, towns and villages on the night of the President's birthday. Hundreds of thousands of dollars are expected to be thus raised to carry on Mr. Roosevelt's work among unfortunates stricken with the malady which all but laid him low.

The President, who it was feared by his friends would be a hopeless cripple, found benefits of almost miraculous nature at Warm Springs, which caused his sponsorship of the foundation.

The Central committee will hold its next meeting at the chamber of commerce offices on Thursday evening of this week.

CHURCH FLAYS LYNCHINGS

EPISCOPAL BODY ASKS GOVERNOR TO STRESS LAW ENFORCEMENT

TYLER, Jan. 23. (AP)—A resolution deploring lynching in this state was adopted here Monday at the 85th annual council of the Texas diocese of the Episcopal church.

The council authorized the sending of a message to Governor Miriam A. Ferguson asking her to issue an official statement encouraging state and county officers responsible for law enforcement.

Rev. DuBose Murphy, Tyler, was elected secretary of the Texas diocese. Horace M. Wilkins, Houston, treasurer; Rev. George L. Crocket of Nacogdoches, registrar; Sidney S. McClendon, jr., Houston, chancellor; and W. G. B. Morrison, Houston, assistant chancellor.

Budget Adopted

The council adopted a budget of $30,000 for 1934. Of this amount, $12,000 was alloted to the national council for missionary work and $18,000 for diocese missionary work.

J. Cook Wilson of Beaumont, treasurer of the diocesan executive board, reported that more congregations met their pledges for missionary works in 1933 than in any recent year. A balance was still in the treasury after the missionary obligation had been paid in full, he said.

Several amendments to the canons of the church were proposed and read. A vote will be taken on them today. One would affect the wording of the pledge to the church by vestrymen so that it would coincide with that used in ordination services of the clergy.

Committeemen Named

Those elected to the standing committee were Rev. E. H. Gibson of Galveston, Rev. T. N. Carruthers of Houston, Rev. B. M. Body, of Austin, Dr. John M. Trible of Houston and M. H. Royston of Galveston.

Regents of Grace Hall of Austin: Rev. Harris Masterson, jr., Mrs. William Molesworth and Harwood Stacy, all of Austin.

Clerical deputies to the general convention at Atlantic City in October included Rev. Beverly M. Boyd of Austin and lay deputies, Dr. W. J. Battle of Austin.

Davis Funeral To Be This Afternoon

Last rites for Mrs. O. R. Davis, 65, who died at 10 a. m. Monday at her home at 1923 Main street, were to be read at 2 o'clock this afternoon at Sanders Funeral home. Rev. J. O. Haymes, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church, was to officiate. Burial was to be at Plainview.

Death was attributed to pneumonia. Mrs. Davis became ill Friday, several days after she had fallen and broken an arm.

The widower, four daughters, Mrs. P. B. Wright, Amarillo; Mrs. W. H. Tilson, Plainview, and Mary and Bennette Davis, both of Lubbock, and five sons, O. R., jr., Frank, and Pat Davis of Lubbock, and Owen Davis of Amarillo, and Howell Davis of Plainview, were survivors.

OIL REFINERY TO BE BUILT

PLAINVIEW MAN WILL HEAD COMPANY; SITE ALREADY BOUGHT

A six-acre site adjacent to Fort Worth & Denver City railway tracks in southeast Lubbock having been bought, anticipated erection of an oil refinery was announced Monday night.

Lubbock Refining company, which will be incorporated with a capital of $25,000, will operate the plant. Two grades of gasoline, kerosene, several grades of fuel oil, distillate, and gas oil will be products.

Plainview Man Owner

A. S. Everest, now of Plainview, will be president and general manager. He and a silent partner will be owners of the company.

Contract for brick construction has been let to Joe Hill of Spur. The company will supervise other construction, according to Mr Everest. Work will begin about February 1.

Mr. Everest, in Lubbock yesterday, closed a deal in which he purchased the site, about a mile from the Fort Worth & Denver City passenger station, from A. Judd of Lubbock. Everest said $1,200 was paid for the land.

Daily capacity of the refinery will be 250 barrels of crude oil. Two distills will be operated, and six to eight men will be employed regularly. Twelve to 18 men will be used during the construction period.

Mr. Everest, queried in Plainview about the proposed refinery, said he anticipated operations would begin in from 45 to 60 days. Products will be sold in wholesale quantities only. Names of the products had not been determined.

Move To Lubbock

The company president and his family will move to Lubbock this week, he said. Asked why Lubbock was selected for the refinery, Everest said, "It's about the livest town I've ever seen."

There are no refineries in this immediate vicinity. Everest formerly was vice president and general manager of the Exploration company, an oil company.

Application for charter for Lubbock Refining company has been made to the Texas state secretary, it was said.

New Jersey Hunts For "Pretty Boy"

TRENTON, N. J., Jan. 23. (AP)—A state-wide New Jersey hunt for Charles (Pretty Boy) Floyd, much wanted midwest outlaw and long a fugitive from justice, was begun yesterday.

An automobile, bearing 1933 New York license plates, and said to contain Floyd, was reported seen speeding along the Lincoln highway, between here and south Langhorne.

Before any Magnolia Station is permitted to display the Mobilubrication Shield, the men in charge must first complete a course of instruction and pass rigid examinations on scientific lubrication.

Talk to a Magnolia Man about lubrication. You'll be surprised at how much he knows about his job. Let him show you a "Chek-Chart" of your particular make and model, prepared with the co-operation of your car manufacturer.

He will explain why several different grades of Mobilgrease are needed to protect your car against heat, water, road shocks and speed.

Forest Fire Savings

Almost every week brings new testimony to the value of the work being done by the president's "forest army."

U. S. Forest Service officials just have checked their figures and discovered that in 1933, in the 18 national forests which lie in California, only 75,000 acres were swept by forest fire—and the average for the last decade has been 217,000 acres a year for that area.

Fire fighting costs have been reduced by 80 per cent, at a direct saving to taxpayers of approximately $300,000 in cash—to say nothing of the value of the timber saved, which is far greater.

Regional Forester S. B. Show declares bluntly that the CCC is largely responsible for this saving. For years the Forest Service has yearned for a trained, disciplined and well-equipped reserve force available at a moment's notice.

The CCC is just such a force, and Forest Service officials predict that it will be even more valuable in the future.

Is the "law" of supply and demand a law?

We may soon find out.

The National Recovery program, in various sections, is running avast of what we have always considered the law of supply and demand.

Buck Passing Stirs New NRA Storm; Annoyed By Previous Changes In His Rulings, Whiteside Ired By Latest One

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
Journal Washington Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.— The next NRA big shot to leave will quit as an aftermath of the mixup whose first outcome was the assurance that you wouldn't have to pay the banks new fees for handling your money.

Division Administrator A. D. Whiteside isn't expected to take that incident on the chin. Whiteside, president of R. G. Dun & Co., is one of NRA's top half - dozen. He has supervised the retail and other great codes.

Butcher

He had been annoyed or embarrassed by other changes in his rulings. But a climax came when General Johnson fired Deputy Cary N. Weisiger for approving new service charges in the banking code.

As Weisiger's superior, Whiteside also had approved the schedule. Johnson himself approved a press release on it, apparently not realizing what he was signing.

After a flood of protest had reached the White House and Johnson had been called on the mat, the NRA czar cancelled the charges and fired Weisiger.

NRA's deputy administrators were sore. They asked whether they were to be made goats when superiors plundered. Whiteside was sore, too. He went to bat with Johnson, prepared to insist on Weisiger's reinstatement.

But Weisiger promptly had obtained a good job in the banking business and preferred to let the matter drop.

Whiteside still is sore. He and many other NRA officials share a dissatisfaction with Executive Officer Alvin Brown, who is accused of disrupting the former eager NRA spirit by autocratic, bureaucratic tactics.

Bootleggers Score

There's something cockeyed, but very honest, in Uncle Sam's appearance as the bootlegger's press agent. Federal policy is to collect taxes on legal liquor and destroy the illegal traffic, but Henry Morgenthau, secretary of the treasury himself served samples to newspapermen to prove the bootlegger's moonshine was cheaper and more palatable.

D. Spencer Bliss, commissioner of industrial alcohol, asserts that bootleg stuff, aged six months, is the best available. The government's only hope seems to lie in possibility that punk legal whisky will lead bootleggers to lower their standards, and thus give the distilleries a chance to compete.

RISE IN COST OF LIVING FOR INDUSTRIAL WORKER LAGS BEHIND PRICE GAINS IN RETAIL AND WHOLESALE STORES

NEW YORK, Jan. 23 (AP)—The cost of living for the industrial worker has advanced less from the low point of this year than retail, wholesale or department store prices, the National Industrial Conference board reports.

From 1929 peaks, the four factors declined to low points early this year and reached 1933 highs in October.

Retail prices declined 38.4 per cent from the 1929 high to the low this year and recovered 29.7 per cent of the loss in climbing to the October high level.

Department store prices declined 33.5 per cent and recovered 46.3 per cent of the loss.

Wholesale prices declined 38.1 per cent and recovered 30.2 per cent of the loss.

The cost of living declined 29.2 per cent and recovered 21.9 per cent of the loss.

"The exhibits provide a basis for a limited explanation of price behavior," reports the conference board.

Raw Materials Fluctuate More

Commodities that are either finished or in some intermediate stage of manufacture carry a burden of labor and overhead costs in addition to the original cost of material. They are generally found to be less sensitive in downward price movements than raw materials.

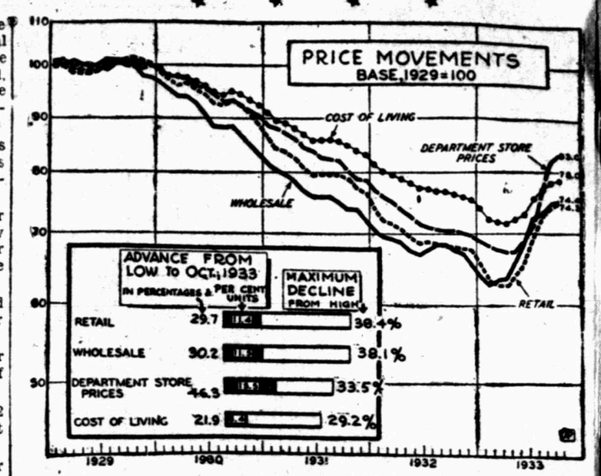

As an example, raw cotton prices fluctuate more rapidly than the price of a cotton suit of clothes.

Necessities, such as rentals and public utility charges, also are generally less subject to downward fluctuations than non-necessities.

Department Store Prices Gain

On the upswing this year, department store prices moved ahead more rapidly than wholesale or retail prices. Marking up of inventories by department stores and other retailers probably is responsible for irregularities in the advance, says the board.

"Correction of this situation may appear in coming months through either a slowing down of purchase at retail or a marking up of wholesale prices relative to retail," the board states.

Wholesale, retail and department store prices and the cost of living for the industrial worker have all been advancing in recent months, as shown by the chart, but the cost of living has risen less sharply. In October, 1929, it stood at 101 and reached a low of 71.5 (as compared with the 1929 average) in April of this year, a loss of 29.2 per cent. In October, 1933, it stood at 78, having regained 21.9 per cent of this loss—or 6.4 "per cent units" if the line representing the loss is divided into 29.2 units. Department store prices, on the other hand, fell from a high of 101.2 in February, 1929, to a low of 67.3 in April, 1933, and by October, this year had risen to 83, regaining 46.3 per cent of the loss.

Loans Being Made On Lubbock Homes

Loans totaling $122,206 had been made on Lubbock county homes by the federal Home Owners Loan corporation, records of the county clerk's office showed Monday. Loans still are being made.

Lien-holders on the property accepted HOLC bonds, and the home owners, in addition to refinancing their homesteads, received funds with which to pay delinquent taxes.

Fifty-five deeds of trust, involving HOLC loans, had been filed yesterday, Deputy County Clerk Louie Moore said. Average loan was $2,221, the largest $13,348.43, the smallest $359.46.

Studying Life . . .

PROPER TRAINING is the birthright of every American youth. Without the proper education and development of those faculties which will be necessary to him in later life, he will be seriously handicapped.

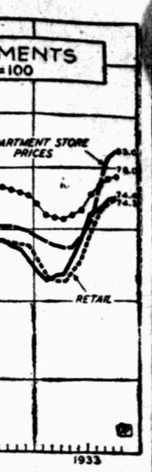

Realizing this, the newspaper industry is seeking to give the boys who are associated with it every opportunity for advancement. Gain In Certified Seed Acreage Seen

A slight increase in certified grain sorghum seed acreage was forecast by R. V. Miller, secretary of the state certified grain sorghum breeders association, Monday after the seed producers appeared before the state seed and plant board at Texas Technological college.

Breeders informed Mr. Miller sale of certified seed was increasing, he said.

Dr. E. C. Humbert, chairman of the board, presided. It was decided to bring the minimum price of sudan seed to the level of other seed.

Reports indicated a larger number of orders than usual at this time of the year. An order for hegari seed was received by the association from the state prison farms and will be sent to nine of the farms. Other orders, according to W. H. Cunningham, will total about six cars of certified seed.

NAMED C.-C. SECRETARY

ABERNATHY, Jan. 23 (Special)—W. A. Richter has been elected to succeed J. P. Nystel as secretary of the Abernathy Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Nystel has been secretary 8 years. The chamber's 1934 program was outlined Tuesday night at Struve hall.

NEW CARS ON DISPLAY

CHEVROLET MODELS OF NEW YEAR SHOWN HERE TODAY

The new 1934 Chevrolet with "knee-action" wheels, 80-horsepower "Blue Streak" engine, streamlined body and an imposing list of improvements and refinements is being shown for the first time in Lubbock at the showrooms of the Kuykendall Chevrolet company, Thirteenth and Avenue J, today. Four models of the new car are on display, all of them of the sedan and coach types.

The new Chevrolet is longer—it has 112-inch wheelbase—roomier, more powerful, smoother and more quiet than its predecessor, according to Kuykendall officials. The "knee-action" wheels give it the improved riding qualities, also added steering stability. Incorporating many unique design features, the new motor has a bore of 3 5-16 inches and a four-inch stroke and develops 80 horsepower. Additional features besides a new water distribution control are: improved mechanism; more efficient piston and narrower compression rings, recalibrated harmonic balancer, new type oil pumps, new inlet manifold, downdraft carburetor, larger aircleaner and intake silencer, octane selector simplified and improved fuel pump and an additional rubber mounting located beneath the transmission.

Body features include: improved no-draft ventilation, arm rests for front seat passengers, wider doors, roomier seats and improved cowl panel.

Brakes on the new cars are of the double-articulated shoe type. The 1934 frame is of an entirely new design known as the "YK" type is heralded as 20 times stiffer torsionally than the conventional type used in previous models.

All new features are an addition to the basic improvements offered in the 1933 car.

the early morning hours today, building barricades on the boulevard Raspail and burning them.

Chautemps Questioned

For more than half an hour deputies shouted epithets, shook their fists at each other and yelled as Henriot first subjected Chautemps to questioning on his career in parliament, in law and who his friends were.

Calmly facing the waves of shouts that were raised, Henriot managed in a penetrating voice to get through a few sentences over the roars of anger.

Then he talked to Raynaldy, who hopped up and down, waving his arms, and shouting back at the inquisitive deputy.

Government opponents applauded Henriot and tried to outshout the Chautemps' backers.

The demonstration was so wild that Vice President Delbos suspended the session.

Undersheriffs H. R. Lininger and Ed Schlotman were the first to approach the men. When challenged, Brady sought to fire at the officers with a riot gun, but the cartridge failed to explode. He started to run, cursing at his inability to clear his weapon of a damaged cartridge. Both officers fired with revolvers and then Schlotman downed the desperado with a shotgun.

munity endeavor to a high rank, President Barr declared.

For several years port interests have been endeavoring to centralize concentration of cotton pressing at the ports, to the detriment of interior interests.

Insured Fire Loss Here Shows Decline

A marked reduction in Lubbock's insured fire loss, the total being $18,455 in 1933 as compared with $61,002 in 1932, was reported to Mayor J. J. Clements by Raymond S. Mauk, state fire insurance commissioner, of Austin.

The state figures were based upon weekly reports by D. A. Forbes, city fire marshal. W. E. Twitty is chief of the fire department here.

The Texas fire insurance department asked a continuation of vigorous prosecution in arson cases.

DAILY MARKETS

Cotton Market

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Jan. 23. (AP)—Cotton opened barely steady, 5 to 8 points decline in response to lower cables and under liquidation. Jan 11.00; Mch 11.06; May 11.21; Jly 11.37; Oct 11.49; Dec. 11.61.

There was some foreign selling at the opening but initial offerings were taken by trade buying or covering and after net declines of about 8 to 10 points prices steadied slightly. March contracts sold off to 11.02 under the early pressure and were holding around 11.07 at the end of the first half hour with the market moderately active and steady. Reports from the southwest said the basis was very firm but demand for spot cotton was slow.

The market met increased offerings late in the morning. There was a renewal of heavy commission house liquidation and some stop orders were uncovered as prices worked into new low ground for the movement. March sold off to 10.97 and July to 11.29, making net declines of about 12 to 15 points and a reaction of over 50 points from the high prices touched at the beginning of last week. The market at midday was quieter at net declines of about 8 to 11 points.

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 23. (AP)—Cotton opened easier today with rather heavy selling by commission houses. Cables were lower than due but sterling was steady. First trades here showed losses of 6 to 9 points and prices eased some further after the start, May dropping to 11.13, and July to 11.28, or 9 to 10 points below yesterday's close.

As soon as the heavy early selling had been absorbed, the market rallied five points to 11.18 for May and 11.33 for July, at these levels showing net declines of 4 to 5 points.

The census bureau reported ginnings to January 15 at 12,558,762 running bales, about as expected.

The market continued to ease off the greater part of the morning on persistent long liquidation, particularly in March. That month dropped to 10.96, down 14 points from yesterday's close. May declined to 11.12 and July to 11.27, off 10 to 11 points net late in the morning the liquidation appeared to have run its course and prices recovered on short covering and firmer stocks, March advancing to 11.03, May to 11.19 and July to 11.34, or 7 points above the lows but still 3 to 7 points under the previous close.

The dollar performed sedately in foreign exchange dealings and was only slightly lower in terms of sterling and the gold currencies. RITES SET FOR BOY VICTIM

FUNERAL TO BE HERE TODAY FOR CHARLIE WEST McDONALD

Last rites for Charlie West McDonald, an 8-year-old boy who died soon after a heavy wheel of a house-moving trailer ran over him here, about 12:50 p. m. Monday, will be read at 4 o'clock this afternoon at Sanders Funeral home.

Rev. J. O. Haymes, pastor of First Methodist Episcopal church, will officiate. Burial will be in Lubbock cemetery.

Two Are Questioned

Orville P. McDaniel, 25, of 324 Avenue D, driver of the truck pulling the trailer, and George Wynne, who was on the truck running board and saw the accident, were questioned by police and County Attorney Vaughn E. Wilson. Both were released.

Wilson, Police Chief W. L. Metcalfe, and Peace Justice J. S. Connell investigated the tragedy. So far as they learned, Mrs. M. D. Anderson, 213 Avenue G, was only person other than Wynne who had seen the boy on the trailer.

Saw Child On Trailer

Mrs. Anderson said she was standing at her kitchen window, saw the truck going east on First street between Avenues H and G, a child riding on the trailer frame. She said she turned to her work a few moments, and when she again looked out of the window she saw a "commotion" about the trailer.

Heavy timbers formed chasis of the bedless trailer. Wynne said the boy jumped upon one of the timbers, near the rear, lost his balance, and toppled head-first between the frame and under a rear wheel. Wynne said he called to McDaniel to stop the truck, and the vehicle was stopped in about 25 feet from the body.

Chest Is Crushed

When the boy was received at Lubbock sanitarium, he was dead. The child's chest was crushed, causing internal hemorrhages. A passer-by carried the boy to the sanitarium.

A police report said the truck owned by H. A. McDaniel, was being driven at about 10 miles an hour.

The child was survived by his mother, Mrs. Pauline McDonald, 705 First street; his father of Farris, Okla.; three brothers, Abner, 17, F. D., 11, and A. G. McDonald, 13, all of Lubbock, and one sister, Ollie, 6.

RITES ARE READ FOR R. M. BOYD

Funeral rites for R. M. Boyd, 74, a cattleman who died of anginia pectoris about 9 p. m. Sunday at his home near Lubbock, were read at 10 o'clock this morning at the First Presbyterian church by Rev. Dr. Jack M. Lewis, the pastor. Burial was to be this afternoon at Elida, N. M., from which Mr. Boyd came to Lubbock about 15 years ago.

Born at Livingston, Ala., Mr. Boyd had come to Texas when he was 19 years old. He had been in the meat business here.

Pallbearers were to be Charles Lunell, Charles Holcomb, Paul Judah, W. H. Beatty, W. L. Bailey, and J. A. Hodges.

Martin Funeral home directed arrangements.

Grovesville Club To Be Organized

A girls' 4-H club is to be formed Thursday morning at the Grovesville school, northwest of Lubbock, as the result of the interest of a former 4-H girl club member in another community, Miss Hazel Bratley, home demonstration agent, said.

"Wilma Turner, who was a member of the Hurlwood club last year, came to me and asked me about starting a club at Grovesville." Miss Bratley said. Her family had moved to that community and she said she did not want to miss out in her club work.

"I told her if she could get some girls interested, enough to form a club, I would be glad to do it. She has obtained at least 15 girls."

Mrs. Buford D. Allen, 25, died about 3 o'clock this morning at her home at 2114 Nineteenth street.

Body Of Youth Is Found Near Links

SPOKANE, Wash., Jan. 23 (AP)—The body of Paul Newport, jr., 18, son of Paul Newport, creamery operator here, was found near the Manito golf links Monday afternoon while police and sheriff's officers were making a search on the theory Newport might have been kidnaped.

A shotgun charge had entered the body just below the heart. But the sweater was not pierced, causing deputy sheriffs to believe the body to have been placed there by the killer.

Newport disappeared Sunday from his father's home after taking his sister to Sunday school in the morning.

COTTON CO-OP BODY NAMED

COMMITTEE TO DRAFT PLANS FOR GROUP IN THIS AREA

A committee of six, including four directors, has been named to work out an organization plan for the cotton cooperative association to be formed out of the present Lubbock district of the Texas Cotton Cooperative association. The group was announced following a recent meeting of the T. C. C. A. board in Dallas.

M. S. Hudson, Hale Center, acting president of the T. C. C. A. was named chairman. Others are: Earl R. Davis, Acuff; Richard Wischkaemper, Shamrock, and M. Mitchell, Lamesa, directors, and R. D. Jones, Paducah, and E. L. Tucker, Levelland.

"The plans will be ready to get the organization functioning by next season, N. H. Payne, manager of the district, explained. "This committee will work out a plan so that we can do our preliminary organization work this summer."

Formation of a cooperative group in this section to handle cotton is the fourth district group authorized by the state organization, Mr. Payne pointed out. The first was the South Texas Cotton Cooperative association with headquarters at Corpus Christi; the Brazos alley Cooperative association at Calvert, and the West Texas Cotton Cooperative association at Abilene.

In this district there are 42 counties, in 33 of which cotton is produced.

PWA PROBE

that Mr. Roosevelt was planning to adhere closely to his original plan.

The president will disclose his ideas in an early message to congress asking for $350,000,000 additional funds to continue the Civil Works program until May.

At the same time he will ask an additional $300,000,000 to continue for another year the Civilian Conservation corps.

It was disclosed that Public Works inspectors on several projects had been instructed to stand by pay windows in connection with suspicion that contractors might be using the so-called "kick back" system of cutting pay.

Under this system a worker is carried on the payroll at a certain figure, but receives a few dollars less in his envelope.

Expenditures Watched

One of the principal methods which Ickes is using to prevent graft in the public works, it was said, was to feed the allocated funds out to projects in small sums, with inspectors watching the money as it is spent.

In cases involving individuals, the president has told Ickes that where there is the slightest suspicion of graft dismissals may be made immediately.

Keenan said in his statement that Hopkins "has been in receipt of several communications commenting upon the conduct of the administration in the various localities of the operation of civil works. He has referred to the department several complaints, requesting that when federal statutes have been violated prompt prosecution be instituted."

MISSING YOUTH

missing boy within a short time.

Officers were inclined to the belief that young Murrell, who, it was said, had been a little dissatisfied at school, had run away from home.

Murrell, however, said that the boy had never, to his knowledge, made any threats to leave home and was a little skeptical of this theory. He admitted the possibility.

Murrell has a brother in Fort Worth, Texas, and the officers felt that the youth, in case he ran away from home, might try to make his way there.

HUNTER FAVORS EXECUTION OF OFFICIALS WHO TAKE BRIBES

PLATFORM ANNOUNCED BY CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNORSHIP

WICHITA FALLS, Jan. 23. (AP)—Execution of state officials convicted of taking bribes was favored by Tom F. Hunter in the platform made public today upon which he will ask the voters of Texas to make him their candidate for governor in the Democratic primaries this year.

"The practice of a state official receiving compensation from a corporation is wrong," the platform declared. "This practice shall be made a felony. One who betrays his trust to the extent of taking a bribe should be executed."

His Second Attempt

This will be Mr. Hunter's second attempt to win the Democratic nomination for governor of Texas. He emerged from the 1932 primary topped only by Gov. Miriam A. Ferguson and Ross S. Sterling, then governor.

Mr. Hunter favored submission to the voters of an amendment to the state constitution for repeal of prohibition. "It would be just as wrong to refuse submission of the repeal amendment now as it would have been to refuse the submission of the prohibition amendment when its adoption was sought," the platform stated. "We shall, though, if when the sale of liquor is permitted, make sure that the old saloon and its attending evils do not return. The youth not yet at the age of discretion, shall be protected, temperance must be taught.

Favors Tax Free Home

Among other planks in the platform are: A tax free home and a tax free vote, revision of the state tax system to distribute the burden of raising revenues upon all in proportion to their ability to pay, limitation of capital stock issue and abolition of holding companies, election of the state auditor by the legislature, creation of a board of public relations, rigid control of public utilities and reduction of rates, a tax upon out-of-state chain stores, coordination and consolidation of overlapping and duplicating department of government, the abolition of more than a hundred of our units of state government, and the reorganization of the state education system.

"Our tax system has broken down," the candidate's announcement said. "Real estate producing 15 per cent of our income, pays 77 per cent of our ad valorem taxes. The state ad valorem tax shall be abolished. A blended tax system shall be adopted, one that will require to combines to pay proportionately with the plain man. A tax shall be levied to recapture for the state a part of the proceeds of the sale of its natural resources outside the state and nation, including natural gas, salt and sulphur.

"A state supervised and tax free annuity fund shall be established so that the aged citizens of Texas may be assured of support in their declining years."

Would Tax Luxuries

"A tax levy upon the net earnings of the big brackets, reaching those corporate interests that do a statewide business, and a select or luxury tax will help replace the county and school ad valorem."

"Requirement of a poll tax is discrimination and except for a registration fee every citizen shall have a tax free vote."

"Reduced tax burdens and a fair price for his products is the greatest relief that can be offered for the farmer. A sales tax on out of state produced or processed substitutes for state produced commodities will stabilize his market prices."

"Our primary election laws shall be written so that voters are permitted to express first and second choice when the number of candidates exceeds two and three when the number exceeds three. This will prevent organized combines from setting the stage for a run-off with "bumper" candidates."

Opposes Monopolies

"Trusts and monopolies shall not be permitted. Holding company operation of subsidiaries shall be denied permits to do business.

"Out of state chain stores must go. A levy upon the number of stores operated and a sufficient sales tax upon their gross sales will remove the cancer.

"The scholastic apportionment shall be maintained at $16.00 and above.

"There shall be created a board of public relations of five to seven members. The act of creation shall provide for the abolition of all statutory created boards, commissions and bureaus, and by resolution for constitutional amendments for the abolition of elective offices as recommended by the 43rd legislative committee on that question."

"The five to seven managers should be required to reorganize and allocate to their several members the various functions of the departments. Their appointment by the governor with the advice and consent of the senate would require them to be experienced and capable. In matters of dispute they would sit as a whole and collectively would form the governor's advisory board.

BARTON BLAZE BURNS TWO

ONE VICTIM TREATED HERE; FARMHOUSE IS DESTROYED

Two men were burned and a five-room frame farmhouse in Barton community was destroyed by fire about noon Monday.

Johnny Heald was treated at West Texas hospital about 2 o'clock for second-degree burns on his face and hands. His father, R. Heald, who had been ill in bed in the house, suffered less severe injuries about the face and hands.

Prevent Spread

Lubbock fire department received a call at 12:27 p. m. to go to the fire. Chief W. E. Twitty, Buck Price, and Alfred Parrack made the run, but they said ruins of the building were smoldering when they arrived. Spread of the fire to stacked feed near the house was prevented.

J. A. Barton, 1304 Avenue L, owner of the house, said he estimated loss at about $2,000, with only $750 in insurance carried. No insurance protected the contents, owned by the Healds.

The elder Heald and his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Johnny Heald, were in the building when the fire started. Oil, being used as fuel in a wood stove, ran from the stove to the kitchen floor. Flames quickly spread throughout the structure. R. Heald did not have time to dress completely before he fled from the building. Johnny was injured in a futile attempt to save household goods. He was dismissed from the hospital after treatment.

Great Britain imported 81,200,000 eggs from France in 1930.

Woman Took Cardui Got Rid of Pain

"I had a pain in my left side about a week," writes Mrs. T. C. Stewart, of North Little Rock, Ark. "Then it went to my right side. I would cramp and feel like I could not stand it. I asked my husband to get me a bottle of Cardui and let me try that. After a few doses, I seemed easier, rested better. I kept it up. I continued taking Cardui for a while. I cannot begin to tell how much good it did me, and how glad I was to be rid of the pain."

An all-glass house that is asserted to exclude air, dirt, and bacteria was built by a Japanese scientist, ventilation being provided by air pumped from a distant point through filters.

"TOO FRIENDLY"

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 23. (AP)—Leroy McLaughlin, 22, was wishing today he was less friendly with dogs. Because "Buster," watching bulldog at the home of Roy Barkley did not bark when a thief looted the place of jewelry, police sought a former roomer who had been on good terms with the animal. That led, officers said, to Leroy and a confession.

Budget adopted for 1934 included $3,500 for benevolences and church extension, Rev. Mr. Barnett said. The church pension fund was discussed and steps were taken to make the fund a greater protection in this district.
