Desperate Oklahoma Fugitive-Killer Captured In Texas

Bohannon Is Taken Without Firing A Shot

Wife And Daughter Abducted From Boarding Place; Wife Prevents Gun Battle With Officers At Capture Scene

Escaped May 13

Convict-Fugitive Had Been At Large Since Break In Which Two Guards Were Killed At McAlester Penitentiary

(By The Associated Press)

DAINGERFIELD, Morris County, Texas, July 30.—Julius Bohannon, 40, desperate killer-fugitive from a prison break at the McAlester, Okla., state penitentiary was captured near here today after abducting his wife and 9-year-old daughter.

The pretty, blond 29-year-old wife knocked a pistol out of his hand as he raised it to fire at a posse of six heavily-armed officers on a lonely wooded lane four miles northwest of here.

Considered Most Dangerous

Bohannon, convicted of shooting down two deputy sheriffs at Idabel, Okla., in 1933, escaped from the McAlester penitentiary with 26 other fugitives May 13 after a battle in the prison brickyard. Guard C. D. Powell was slain and another guard seriously wounded in the break. Bohannon was considered the most dangerous of the group, and had said he would not be taken alive.

Sheriff Ben B. Garrett of Morris county, led the posse. He said Bohannon and a companion, Manuel Cox, a filling station operator near here, went to a boarding house at Naples this afternoon where Mrs. Bohannon and their daughter, Perline, live and forced them at gun point into a car. They drove to Cox's house, Garrett said, where Cox and the child left the car.

Bohannon, lean and gaunt from his desperate flight from the law, took his wife to the cuntry roadside where they were resting when the posse drove up. Garret said that, as the posse approached and Bohannon raised a small calibre pistol, his wife struck his arm sharply, knocking the weapon into the sand.

The fugitive, who formerly lived near here, has been sought intensively during the last two weeks following a tip that he was nearby.

Sheriff Garrett brought Bohan-

Ferguson Forum To Suspend Publication After 19 Years In Texas Political Wars

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, July 30. — Former Governor James E. Ferguson, who has figured in Texas politics for more than 20 years, today announced suspension of publication of the weekly Ferguson Forum.

"After 19 years of interesting and experimental discussion, I have decided that the Forum should cease from its labors and suspend publication," Ferguson said. "While I take this action with some degree of regret, I feel that I have earned a vacation and I believe the people are willing to let me have it.

"It may be that at some future time I will feel that the Forum is needed in the discussion of public questions and if such a condition arises, the people can be depended upon to ask that I resume publication of the Forum."

Ferguson suffered one of the worst political setbacks of his long career in the governor's race which ended last Saturday. State Senator Roy Sanderford, his choice for the post, received less than 100,000 votes out of a total of more than one million.

Ferguson said the election undoubtedly established that the people of Texas opposed a sales tax.

"Whether it be from the lack of information or for any other cause, the majority was so decisive against Senator Sanderford's sales tax idea that it would be useless to raise that question any further," he said.

Payments To Farmers Said To Be Taxable

Treasury Rules Thursday That Soil Conservation Payments Are Subject To Federal Income Taxation

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, July 30. — The treasury ruled today that payments received by farmers from the government under the soil conservation act would be subject to the federal income tax.

In a statement it said:

"Payments or grants made by the secretary of agriculture to agricultural producers, including tenants and sharecroppers . . . constitute taxable income to the recipients for federal income tax purposes."

Secretary Wallace said yesterday he did not know when the soil conservation payments would begin.

In another ruling today, the secretary said that bond losses of banks or other corporations, when found by proper authorities, could be deducted as "bad debts" in income tax returns.

Dr. Knapp Is Speaker At Banquet Last Night In Dallas

(By The Associated Press)

DALLAS, July 30.—Dr. Bradford Knapp, president of Texas Technological college at Lubbock, tonight declared the drift toward farm tenancy must be stopped.

Dr. Knapp, addressing the Texas Agricultural Workers banquet, said his statement was in the interest of better Americanism and the future of agriculture.

For ills besetting the land workers he placed the blame upon the fact that 60 to 80 per cent of farm land in Texas, for instance, is occupied by persons who do not own it. Individuality, he asserted has built the strength of agriculture in the United States.

Dr. Knapp also criticized "continued yapping about the dust storms" in West Texas. He said it was time to quit talking about the storms and to start talking about saving the soil.

Sen. Tom Connally in a brief speech said that even the East had come to the realization that "we must have a sound and constructive agricultural system to assure prosperity for all of the country."

The banquet was sponsored by Texas State Grange.

Ranger Chief Is Displaced

Capt. J. W. McCormick Is Sent To Wichita Falls And Col. H. H. Carmichael Temporarily Serving As Captain

By HOWARD C. MARSHALL
Associated Press Staff Writer

AUSTIN, July 30. — Col. H. H. Carmichael, director of the department of public safety, announced today that Capt. J. W. McCormick, noted southwestern peace officer, was out as chief of the Texas Rangers and that he himself had assumed the duties of senior Ranger captain.

In making public an order which was effective June 25, Carmichael said the request of McCormick for command of Company E of the Rangers, stationed at Wichita Falls, had been granted. The delay in announcing the shakeup was, he said, intended to give the captain time to arrange his business.

Carmichael said that while he would act only temporarily as senior Ranger captain, a post created by law, no successor to McCormick was contemplated at this time.

McCormick held the chief command less than a year, having succeeded another famous Ranger, captain, Tom Hickman, known in-

"Public Authorities" Should Protect Labor Unions' Right To Organize, Landon Writes

Kansas Presidential Candidate Gives His Views On Labor To Norman Thomas In Letter; Replies To Inquiry

(By The Associated Press)

TOPEKA, Kas., July 30. — Gov. Alf M. Landon told a presidential opponent in a letter made public today that "public authorities" should protect the right of labor unions "to promote by lawful and proper means the organization of an unorganized industry."

This right of union organization he said, "includes the right to send in an organizer."

Protected Workers

Landon added that in "the only serious labor disturbance" during his governorship, "my action protected the workers in the right of free speech and free assembly."

The Republican candidate's views were written to Norman Thomas, Socialist party presidential nominee.

He replied to Thomas' request for elaboration of Landon's acceptance speech statement that the freedom "from interference" pledged organizing employees by the Republican platform "means, as I read it, entire freedom from coercion or intimidation by the employer, any fellow employee or any other persons."

Thomas Questioned Meaning

Thomas had written under date of July 24, saying that "employers' organizations like the National Manufacturers' association" had used the freedom-from-interference phrase "to mean denial of the right of a labor union, or labor unions" to promote organization of an unorganized industry.

"Is this the interpretation to be given your words?" Thomas asked.

"In my statement which you quote," Landon replied in his letter dated July 29, "there is nothing to suggest that I am in favor of infringing in any way the right of free speech or free assembly. I

The pact was intended to regulate production "in the interests of conservation."

Texans Named To Committee On Stock Plan

Five Leaders Of Industry In State Are Appointed To Aid In Outlining Program Of Federal Assistance

(By The Associated Press)

FORT WORTH, July 30. — Four Texas men were chosen today to serve on a five-man advisory committee to Washington officials attempting to outline a program of relief to drouth-affected cattlemen.

They are H. F. McGill, Alice; Jay Taylor, Amarillo, Roger Gillis, Del Rio; and Sol Mayer, San Angelo. A fifth man is to be selected from Oklahoma. E. B. Spiller, secretary of the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers' association, said.

To Map Program

The men are to be called upon by C. A. Cobb, Washington, director of the southern region of the soil conservation domestic allotment administration, for assistance in mapping the work.

The program, outgrowth of the defunct Agricultural Adjustment administration, proposes to purchase stock for relief purposes in areas where drouth has affected the cattle market.

Spiller said any plans arrived at by Cobb and the committee will be submitted for the approval of cattlemen before adoption for use in the southwest.

The request for an advisory body was presented to directors of the cattlemen's association at a recent meeting in Midland. Officers made the selection here.

Throng Of 25,000 Is Present In Stadium For Ceremonies

BY CECIL DOUGLASS
Associated Press Staff Writer

CHICAGO, July 30.—Col. Frank Knox, with a pledge of personal devotion to the "principles of sound and honest government," accepted tonight the Republican nomination for the vice presidency of the United States.

Standing on a blue and gold rostrum, the Chicago publisher told a happy, enthusiastic crowd which filled the specially augmented seating capacity of the huge Chicago stadium, that he regarded the honor as "the greatest opportunity for serving that has ever come to me."

No Ordinary Campaign

"It is no ordinary campaign that confronts us," he told the throng, estimated by the committee on arrangements at 25,000.

Speaking earnestly and emphasizing his remarks frequently with a wave of his hand, he assailed the Roosevelt administration as having "failed to meet its responsibility for the orderly, economical, and impartial administration of the affairs of the nation."

Crowd Soberly Attentive

Cheering and noisy as he started, the crowd was soberly attentive as he assailed the New Dealers.

They had, he said, "embarked on a series of hysterical experiments" from the day they took office.

Cheers broke out when he declared "I charge the present administration with responsibility for the ten million still unemployed."

Leaders On Platform

Most of the several hundred leaders of the party in city, state, and nation, who were seated on the platform behind the speaker joined in the applause.

This group included the official notification committee, designated by the Cleveland convention, former Vice President Charles G. Dawes and others.

Boos Given New Deal

"Boos" from the crowd greeted the mention by the speaker of the various New Deal governmental agencies, which he listed by their alphabetical designations.

A demonstration in full national convention style cheered for ten minutes his appearance on the speakers' rostrum after Senator Frederick Steiwer of Oregon had carried to him the official notification of his selection as running mate for Gov. Alf M. Landon of Kansas.

Corn, Largest Cash Crop In U. S., Jumps Four Cents On News; Report On Drouth Causes Reaction

By FRANKLIN MULLIN
Associated Press Staff Writer

CHICAGO, July 30. — Prices of important farm commodities soared to the highest levels in six years today.

In trade marts throughout the world peak prices of 1936 for many farm products were posted in sudden recognition of the severity of drouth losses in many types of feed and food stuffs.

Corn Pits Electrified

A special government report indicating that in important producing areas half of the acreage planted to corn, the largest cash crop in the United States, was damaged beyond recovery, electrified corn pits at Chicago and Kansas City and prices shot up four cents—the limits permitted in one session.

According to bureau of agricultural economics figures, damage inflicted by drouth and heat in July caused the sharpest rise in farm prices that has occurred in any 30-day period since August, 1934. The general level of values, the bureau said, was lifted to the highest point since September 1930.

New Peak Prices Set

Wheat, corn, eggs, butter, potatoes, rye and lard were among the commodities in which 1936 peak prices were set today in various Chicago marts. The major grains were at season's tops in other domestic markets and wheat at Winnipeg and Liverpool, important world trade centers, were at the highest level in some cases for six years.

The Woman's Angle

BY MARGARET TURNER
Woman's Editor

NEW YORK, July 27 (via airmail)—To come right out with it, it isn't the easiest thing in the world to write a column after the full day we have spent, but we remember those we so fondly call "our public" and turn out one of a sort.

WE VISIT WEST POINT

A TRIP to West Point occupied the morning and early part of the afternoon. The Hudson river, palacial homes and majestic nature were a source of endless delight. Of course the college girls loved West Point and while they were cautioned by Mis Pirtle not to speak to any of the cadets, over half of the group found a soldier a piece to take her along the famous Flirtation Walk. Frances Brownfield enjoyed a chat with her cousin, Ray Brownfield, of Brownfield. He is a yearling, or second year student. A Littlefield boy, Tilden Wright, also is enrolled there in the same rank.

We were fortunate to arrive just after the mess hour when they marched from the hall to their tents. We had an insight into some of the conditions at the famous military academy by Miss Brownfield, who has visited there before. The students aren't allowed to spend over five dollars monthly for candy, sodas or cigarettes. This allowance is called "boodle checks." Too, if a girl comes to the campus for a date and should go out for dinner, she must pay the bill, even to taxi fare. It is impossible for the students to get a drop of liquor in that whole area. Small wonder that the highest type of young American manhood is to be found in this school.

HEADLESS HORSEMAN

THE ride up to West Point was interrupted as we paid a visit to the Sleepy Hollow country and saw the grave of the one who did so much to make it famous, Washington Irving.

We returned a different route and came over the beautiful spanned Washington bridge. Oh yes, we went to Sing Sing. Well not literally because it is impossible to go inside of the institution. The guard said that was one place where no women were allowed. However, Miss Pirtle was permitted to go as far as the warden's office to take a look see. Later we got off the bus near the Ossining and had a good view of the plant and of a guard in a tower who seemed to become nervous the longer we stared.

NIGHT CLUB LIFE

TONIGHT we went to the nationally famed Hollywood Restaurant that featured an excellent floor show and good dinners. The spotlight was turned on our tables when the master of ceremonies asked the orchestra leader to direct a piece for the "girls from Texas."

FORMER LUBBOCKITES

THERE are a number of other Lubbock persons here who call by the hotel for short visits between our runs. Morrison Arnett, studying to be a designer of advertisements, and Eleanor Simmons, who said she "worked in the daytime and attended the theater at night" called today. Some of the group saw Frances Campbell, who accompanied Spencer A. Wells and Mrs. W. B. Maxey to New York on a shopping tour.

The main features of Tuesday's program include a tour of Manhattan island by boat, seeing "On Your Toes" and a visit to the Queen Mary, which doced behind schedule as you probably learned from the papers.

Precautions Give Tan Sunny Side

BY ALICIA HART
NEA Service Staff Writer

Sunshine can be your beauty's best summer friend or it can be a troublesome enemy. Into which category it falls is up to you and nobody else.

If you go out in the noonday sun day after day without a hat, never wear sun glasses and belittle the importance fo a sun preventive for use on the beach, you are headed for trouble in September. On the other hand, if you get a coat of tan gradually, leave off your hat only in the cool of the evening, wear sun glasses on the beach and use tissue cream at night, you'll feel better and look lovelier in the fall than you did last spring.

It is especially important to protect your eyes from glaring rays. You can' stare at the water for hours without squinting and if you squint many, many hours during the summer months, the squint lines are likely to become permanent wrinkles.

It isn't absolutely necessary to spend a lot of money on special eye creams. Your own tissue cream or, if you like, plain olive oil or vaseline will do the trick. Take one of these with you when you start on vacation and get into the habit of putting some of it around your eyes at night. Leave it on while you sleep.

Remember that salt water removes even the best suntan oils and lotions. If you don't want to burn and get red as a lobster, put a fresh coat on arms, legs, back and shoulders after each dip in the surf. If you want to be invited back to your host's boat or country house, use a greaseless variety. Plain oil is likely to leave permanent grease spots on deck or porch.

Margaret Lindsay, striking Hollywood star, protects the loveliness of her eyes with sun glasses.

HOWDY FRIENDS

I want to tell you some more about that swell movie old Bing Crosby and myself are bringing to Lubbock next Sunday, called "Rhythm on the Range." No kiddin' folks it's really good—it's a galloping roundup of mirth and melody out where the West begins—with Bing singin'—the gals swingin' and me tootin' the old bazooka. I want to tell you too that we think this picture is so good that if you don't like it you can ask for your money back (but try and get it!) Well folks let me pass on my bazookaism today before I close, you know in some ways a feller is better off broke than havin' a lot of money. When he's broke and he makes a friend, he has an asset. But when he's flush and makes a friend, he don't know whether he's got an asset or a liability. See you tomorrow night at the Palace.

Tax Rate Is To Be Fixed

Indications Were Thursday That Automatic Tax Board Would Meet Next Week To Fix Rate For Coming Year

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, July 30.—Indications today were that the automatic tax board, composed of the governor, comptroller and treasurer, would not meet until next week to fix the state property tax rate.

The rates for the general revenue and confederate pension funds, both of which have large deficits, will be kept at their constitutional maximums of 35 and seven cents respectively on the $100 valuation.

The school tax rate must be retained at approximately the 1935 figure of 20 cents or possibly increased slightly if the $19 per capita apportionment for the next school year voted by the state board of education is paid.

Rendition Reports Out

The comptroller's department said that property valuation renditions still had not been received from nine counties. Valuations for state tax purposes likely will show an increase of about one-seventh of one per cent.

Counties which reported increases of $1,000,000 or more included Gregg, Anderson, Bee, Brazoria, Cass, Chambers, Duval, Ector, Galveston, Nueces, Refugio, San Patricio, Smith, Upshur and Ward. Those whose valuations for state tax purposes decreased $1,000,000 or more included Jefferson, Hardin, Matagorda, Reagan, Wheeler and Wichita.

NYA Projects In Area Approved

Receipt of first NYA money for projects in this district was reported Thursday by Calvin Hazlewood, district supervisor.

One hundred boys and young men are to be employed in five counties. Allotment was $1,024 per month, and the jobs are expected to last from three to six months.

Projects approved and allotments made, with work starting on August 5, are:

Memphis, Hall county, 20 boys on a school project, including a grandstand and football field.

Levelland, 15 boys on improvement of a park.

Spur, 15 boys on improvement of a football field and school project.

Plainview, 20 boys on improvement of a football field and school project.

Lubbock, 30 boys on a highway project.

Fascism And Its Bitter Struggle With Liberalism Keeps Alight The Torch In World's Powderhouse; War In Offing

(EDITOR'S NOTE: The following story on the foreign situation as it stands today is by the chief of the Associated Press foreign service, a correspondent who has spent 16 years covering the news of Europe. He returned only recently to assume the direction of the press association's foreign news report).

BY JOHN EVANS
Associated Press Foreign Chief

NEW YORK, July 30.—Fascist banners over more than half of Spain, riotous in civil war, proclaim anew the dangers of a coming war.

Fascism and its bitter struggle with liberalism or the "left," whatever labels they bear, keep alight the torch in the world's powderhouse.

There is war or a virtual state of war on three continents—Europe, Asia and Africa.

More Sore Spots

There are more sore spots than in 1914 and far more proprecies of an approaching conflict.

Colonl Charles A. Lindbergh, sensing the dangers, warned the world also of war's unrevealed terrors when he told German Nazi aviators in Berlin Thursday that aerial warcraft has "stripped the armor from every nation in war."

Mussolini and Stalin, chiefs of Fascist and Communistic states, are only two of many statesmen who talk of war. In every country, leaders and their peoples say they "don't want war" but the great majority see it coming.

Fears Grow Daily

Clashes over territory furnish reasons enough to them for their fears but daily there grows ominously the age-old clash between the "right" and the "left."

Fascism is the nucleus of the "right," in Spain. Fascism there groups monarchists, advocates of a strong church and groups of property owners, economic descendants of the old feudal lords.

The liberals are the "left". They include Communists, Socialists, freethinkers opposed to church power and the "humanitarian" groups that called for rule by the people, and comfort and security for them.

Lines Sharply Drawn

These lines, every day more sharply drawn, between Fascists and liberals, whatever labels they bear, increase the tension of a world in turmoil.

Statesmens' warnings and international conferences point out dangers that may lead to war in:

Germany's demand for "expansion."

Italy's effort to revive the old Roman empire.

Japan's spread into China and Mongolia.

France's belief that Germany intends a war of conquest.

Austria's belief that Hitler seeks control of southwestern Europe.

The Little Entente's (Rumania, Yugoslavia and Czechoslovakia) declaration that German seizure of Austria means war.

Great Britain's conviction she must arm to protect her empire.

German Nazi control of the Free City of Danzig, capital of the Polish Corridor which divides Germany into two parts.

Military experts credit Russia and Italy with more than 1,000,000 soldiers each. They calculate Europe has a standing army of more than 5,000,000 and 8,000,000 more available in 48 hours.

The world finally put 74,000,000 men under arms during the Great War. Death took one of them every 15 seconds.

Record Is Ruined

Railroader's Goal Nearly Achieved

CLIFTON, N. J., July 30. (AP) Death today ruined Frank Graves' record of almost 50 years of railroading without an accident.

Graves, an East Orange resident and engineer on the Lackawanna railroad, will be retired tomorrow after 50 years of service. His ambition was to say farewell to his job without a single accident on his record.

Two days short of achieving his ambition, Graves was at the throttle yesterday when his engine struck Antonio Guamina, of Paterson. Guamina died today.

More Lives May Be Lost

Three Victims Of Gun Breech Block Explosion Dangerously Wounded In Naval Hospital At San Diego

(By The Associated Press)

SAN DIEGO, Calif., July 30.—Fear that the worst gun explosion aboard a U. S. fighting ship since 1924 would exact additional lives was felt today as three victims lay dangerously wounded in naval hospital here. Two were killed in the breech block blast Tuesday.

The three—Robert William Opie of Philadelphia, Rolland Lowell Curnow, Stockton, Calif., and Edson Lee Flower of Colorado Springs, Colo.—were most seriously injured of nine hurt in the "kickback" of a six-inch gun of the light cruiser Marblehead off San Clemente island in southern California waters during target practice. Authorities expressed concern over their condition.

Preparing Reports

Naval officers on a court of inquiry and board of inquest were preparing reports to be sent to Washington after viewing the scarred and powder-blistered gun turret here yesterday.

Faulty parts in the breech gave way, causing the heavy charge of high explosive to backfire into the steel turret. The gun butt was shattered, and the gun crew was showered with steel and wrapped in a sheet of flame. The missile, however, landed near its mark, miles away, observers said.

The injured were either burned by powder, or suffered lacerations, shattered and broken legs and arms. Aside from Edwin Benedict, jr., Forest Knolls, Calif., who lost his right arm, the remaining six injured were reported in "fair" or "good" condition.

Menus Of Texas Prison Published

HUNTSVILLE, July 30. (AP) — Horace Coon, supervising steward of the Texas Prison System, has assembled in a book entitled "Bills of fare of the Texas Prison System," 3,650 menus used the past three and a half years for morning, noon and night meals.

"The meals are prepared from data furnished by a standard food chart," Coon said, "based on our prison-produced food and what we can reasonably purchase. They are made with the view of furnishing variety." He said he doubted wheter any menu in the collection duplicated another.

"The menus are based on scientifically balanced rations, for we feed around 4,000 calories daily to the men doing hard work," Coon explained. He said he "prepared the book so stewards over the system may be able to find things they might not think of."

Coon, who became steward at the Hunstville unit in 1928 and was promoted to supervising steward in 1935, advised stewards to put bulk with their menus as well as concentrated foods so men would not become abnormally hungry. He suggested also that crisp foods be paired with smooth or soft foods, and contrasts should be carried to color through use of fruits and vegetables.

If there was no other way of obtaining a color contrast, he suggested using parsley garnish, a dash of paprika, or brown-topped deserts.

Waitresses rarely stay long enough in the hotel business to learn it properly, and thus are unlikely to replace men in dining-room service, according to most hotel managers.

Convenient Eating

Double-Deck Table Is Good Idea

ROBERT LEE, July 30. (AP)—Citizens of Valley View community near here "set a good table," and, equally important, they make eating convenient.

J. J. Casey has adopted a double-deck table, the upper level revolving and the lower stationary. Guests' places are on the latter and the food on the upper deck.

"Pass the biscuits, please," no longer interrupts conversation. The guest pulls or pushes the food-stacked level and in a moment the desired dish is in front of him. When his glass or cup is empty he places it on the turn-table and sends it around to the hostess who fills and returns it by the same route.

Folks say the devise relieves the strain upon politeness and a number of families are installing the arrangement.

Newspaper To Be Censored

Board Of Regents Of University Of Texas Order Daily Texan Placed Under Control Of Faculty Committee

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, July 30.—The university board of regents ordered the Daily Texan, student newspaper at the University of Texas, placed under supervision of a faculty-controlled committee.

The committee appointed Granville Price, assistant professor of journalism, as its agent to pass on the news and editorial content of the paper.

Prohibit Editorial

Ed Hodge of El Paso, student editor, said that Price's first act of censorship was to prohibit publication of an editorial lauding the Wharton county commissioners' court for raising valuations of the Texas Gulf Sulphur company's properties in that county.

The new rule of the board of regents empowered the committee or its agent to exclude "libelous material, improper personal attacks, reckless accusations, opinions not based on fact, inaccurate statments, articles on national, state and political questions, material detrimental to good conduct of the student body and material prejudicial to the best interests of the university."

Not Censorship Move

Dr. H. Y. Benedict, president of the university, said the move was not so much a strict censorship of news as it was a plan to put an advisory group in charge of the staff with censorship powers.

"We want to give the student editors and the student staff all the freedom possible," he said, "but we don't believe this freedom entitles these students to run a political newspaper."

Intense Campaign Seen In Oklahoma

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 30. (AP)—An intense senatorial campaign was in the making in Oklahoma with the outcome of major races in Tuesday's run-off primary election apparently settled.

Herbert K. Hyde, Republican nominee for the U. S. Senate, chose his birthday, Aug. 5, to fire his opening campaign salvo. A barbecue and Indian stomp dance will be features of a rally at his former home, Norman.

Hyde took it easy during the run-off campaign because he already had his nomination.

But Rep. Josh Lee, who won the Democratic nomination after a bitter campaign with Gov. E. W. Marland, took a short rest before plunging into the general election drive.

Unofficial returns from 3,403 of Oklahoma's 3,411 precincts gave Lee 290,213 votes, Marland 186,433.

Flames Carried Away From Historic Old Indian Mission

HAVRE, Mont., July 30. (AP) — A shifting wind carried flames away from historic old St. Paul Indian mission and the little mining town of Landusky today after women and children had fled by airplane, automobile and on foot.

Reports from the Fort Belknap Indian reservation indicated that the old mission, where hundreds of Indian children have started their education and received spiritual guidance from the Jesuit fathers and Ursuline nuns, had not been damaged.

The flames were within a few hundred yards of Landusky today. Between 200 and 300 residents of the little mining village were reported out of the area, or leaving.

Telephone lines were down.

From Great Falls, Missoula and other cities new squads of fire fighters and more equipment was rushed into the territory to aid the more than 1,000 weary men who have been on the line for six days.

SCIENCE ADVISES AGAINST MEALS LOW IN NEEDED "BULK"

Reports ALL-BRAN Supplies This Dietary Adjunct

Scientific tests have shown that meals which miss the proper "bulk" tend to cause common constipation. This condition causes discomfort, and may lead to headaches, loss of appetite, even serious disease.

Avoid these faulty meals by adding Kellogg's ALL-BRAN to your menus. It supplies generous "bulk" in convenient form. This absorbs moisture, and gently exercises and cleanses the system. ALL-BRAN also furnishes vitamin B and contains iron.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is often more effective than that found in fruits and vegetables as it does not break down within the body. Two tablespoonfuls daily are usually sufficient. If not relieved this way, consult your doctor.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN may be served as a cereal with milk or cream. Sprinkle over soups, salads or other cereals. Or work into appetizing muffins, breads, waffles, etc. It adds a delicious nut-sweet flavor to your recipes.

How much better than taking patent medicines—sometimes harmful! ALL-BRAN is sold by all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Woman Killed; Seek Husband

Two Pistol Shots End Life Of Attractive Woman Married Six Weeks Ago To Man She Met On Bus Trip

(By The Associated Press)

LOS ANGELES, July 30. — Two pistol shots ended today the life of attractive Mrs. Vanthelia Hippe McCandless, 28, married six weeks ago, to a man she met on a transcontinental bus.

Detective Captain Hubert J. Wallis immediately ordered search for W. McCandless, who disappeared after selling a small cafe here.

Found In Bathroom

His wife's unclothed body was found by an apartment house manager in their bathroom. There were two bullet wounds in the chest.

Captain Wallis said he learned the couple had quarreled frequently.

Mrs. Powell said Mrs. McCandless met her husband while returning from a vacation visit to her father, Martin Hippe, in Minneapolis.

The manager, Mrs. Polly Powell, said Mrs. McCandless said last week: "Things are breaking bad. I'm going to Mexico in a few days to get a divorce."

Regional Representatives For Young Democrats Appointed

WASHINGTON, July 30. (AP) — Frank Wickhem, president of the Young Democratic Clubs of America, today appointed twelve regional representatives "to be the eyes and ears of national headquarters for the purpose of carrying on an intensive and militant campaign."

Wickhem said that during August each representative would call conferences of various state officers to outline campaign activities and plan regional rallies for September and October.

The representatives included: J. R. Wrinkle, Santa Fe, N. M., his region included New Mexico, Oklahoma, Texas and Louisiana.

Britton Is Given 30-Year Sentence

FARWELL, July 30. (AP) — A Parmer county court jury sentenced J. C. Britton to 30 years in prison today on his plea of guilty to charges growing out of the robbery of the Friona State bank, June 29.

The jury deliberated 41 hours. Britton was captured with Herbert Stanley in Fort Worth after a gun fight with officers. He interrupted his trial yesterday to plead guilty.

Stanley was convicted of a similar charge and sentenced to life imprisonment last week.

Port Arthur Is To Seek State Democratic Session This Fall

PORT ARTHUR, July 30. (AP) — Port Arthur will seek the state Democratic convention this fall, L. H. Wheless, mayor, said today.

The bid will be made before the state executive committee when it meets August 8. Senator Allan Shivers, Port Arthur, will extend the invitation.

Taking the lead in the movement to bring the convention here were Mayor Wheless, the city commission and the chamber of commerce and clubs and civic organizations followed with resolutions supporting the plan.

Black Horse Cavalry Troop Plans Free Military Show

FORT WORTH, July 30. (AP) — While Frontier Centennial officials prepared a double-barrelled welcome for three separate groups tomorrow the Black Horse troop of the Second United States cavalry today announced plans for its first free military show on the grounds.

Tomorrow will be special day for Fort Stockton and children.

Cavalrymen will give their free show on Sunday afternoon, Aug. 2, as a special treat for the kids, although everyone is invited and the local national guard units and reserve officers will be special guests.

Maj. Frank H. Barnhart, commanding officer of the detachment, will direct the soldiers in a regular musical precision drill.

Laugh of the day will be the soldiers' burlesque on the Wild West spectacle, "The Last Frontier."

Half Of Crop Is 'Beyond Recovery'

WASHINGTON, July 30. (AP) — The department of agriculture reported today that about half of the total corn acreage in the states of Missouri, Iowa, Kansas, Nebraska, Oklahoma and South Dakota "was damaged beyond recovery for grain production" as of July 28.

The department's bureau of agricultural economics said prospects were better in Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota but "even in most of these states there are sizable areas where very little corn will make grain."

In this group of states and in bordering areas including the western portion of New York, Pennsylvania, Maryland and West Virginia, central Kentucky, northwestern Arkansas and the eastern slope of the Rockies from Colorado to Montana, the crop was said to be "badly hurt" and all late crops damaged materially.

Many Problems Scheduled For Action By Mexican Congress When Session Opens In September; Law Proposed

(By The Associated Press)

MEXICO CITY, July 30.—Mexico's congressmen are mapping out what they mean to do to the country's law when they assemble in September. If the senators and deputies get around to discussing all the bills they say they mean to dump into the legislative hopper they may be there all winter.

Projects slated for consideration include:

1. Revision of the civil service law to protect public employes who hold their posts on merit against losing them through changes in administration.

Would Deny Strike Right

2. Change in the labor, or the civil service law, to deny persons working for the government the right to strike. This proposal is favored by the Regional Confederation of Mexican Workers but opposed by the stronger Confederation of Workers of Mexico.

3. Amendment of article 249 of the federal labor law to provide that labor leaders can not take part in ploitics nor hold elective posts.

4. A bill, proposed by the Institute of Social Economic and Political Study, to provide that all professions be federalized "in order the better to serve the social aims of the revolution" and to provide more thorough examination of would-be practicioners before licensing.

To Eliminate Politics

5. A proposal to make the department of communications autonomous, entirely independent of political control, on the theory the telegraph and postal services would benefit thereby.

6. Legislation, supposed to have been suggested by President Cardenas, to set up an institute for the delineation of village boundaries which, in some cases, have been in violent dispute for decades.

Almost certain to come before congress, too, members say are proposals for amendments in the labor laws to secure in the country's statutes gains labor has made during the last year, and amendments designed to clarify the law governing national resources and their exploitation.

May Face Ticklish Questions

Likewise the solons may be confronted with the ticklish and complicated questions brought into being by the administrations agrarian policies—the arguments of some economists that the splitting up of large estates devoted to growing henequen, maguey, cotton and sugar means the decline of those important crops.

Not all the projects scheduled to come before the legislations are concerned with such weighty matters, however. Hearty laughs are promised gallery occupants, if advance comment is an indication, when the two houses get around to discussing the petition of 20 women that bachelors be taxed to provide maternity hospitals and women's homes.

Fun Poked At Plan

Fun has been poked also at Deputy Alfonso Ramirez Paulin's suggestion that government departments employ no one younger than 35, leaving its strong, willing youth free to develop agricultural and other natural resources of the country.

One of the nation's more prominent senators plans to offer legislation "taking vice out of the hands of strangers"—providing, in brief, that only Mexicans may make money out of their fellow countrymen's weaknesses.

Would Fight Malaria

A bill, in which the health department, struggling along for years on what officials call insufficient funds has considerable interest but not much hope, wuold appropriate 30,000,000 pesos ($8,333,000 U. S.) to fight malaria.

Whether the congress will get around to discussing Mexico's future course at Geneva is conjectural.

There has been much talk, some of it emanating from responsible members of both houses, that the amount this country pays for belonging to the League of Nations, approximately 600,000 pesos ($165,000 U. S.) annually, is out of all proportion to the benefit she derives.

However, President Cardenas' feelings in the matter likely would be Congress' yardstick in measuring the advantages of league membership, and the state department frequently has described the executive as too eager for world peace to abandon any possible avenue thereto.

Bullets For Beans Is Reich's Proffer To Balkan States; Can Use More Food

BY LOUIS A. MATZHOLD
(Associated Press, Foreign Staff)

VIENNA, July 30.—Bullets for beans, tanks for tomatoes and planes for potatoes is the offer Germany is making to the farming countries in southeastern Europe.

Balkan states are glutted with farm porducts. Germany could use great quantities of this produce and, it is reliably understood, is prepared to pay for it in munitions.

Usual arrangements between nazidom and these Balkan states hitherto included payment half in cash and half in industrial products. But due to a shortage of foreign exchange in Germany, the cash payments were slow.

Germany Owes Big Sums

The reich at present owes Yugoslavia about 22,000,000 marks for farm goods and ore; Bulgaria 600,000,000 lewa; Rumania 700,000,000 lei; and considerable sums to Hungary and Greece.

As the funds of the farm products export corporations in the Balkans are meager, no advance could be given to the farmers, and consequently there is great unrest in many rural districts.

Protests from the Balkan states' own industrialists and political propaganda against Germany added to the disquietude in financial circles and among the peasants and merchants of southern Europe.

Schacht On Pact Mission

Germany, fearing that it may lose political prestige and trade in the Balkans, has therefore decided to start negotiations for new trade agreements with these countries. Dr. Hjalmar Schacht, the German financial wizard, recently visited some Balkan countries for this purpose.

In Yugoslav diplomatic circles it was said Germany now seeks to take advantage of the present desire in the Balkans for more armaments and that Reichsfuehrer Hitler is willing to pay old debts with outmoded planes and munitions.

But under the proposed new trade and political agreements, Germany is said to be ready to exchange almost any amount of modern tanks, artillery, airplanes and the like, for badly-needed flour, vegetables and meats.

Palm trees in the tropics, under ideal conditions, often attain a height of nearly 160 feet. This is an exceptional size, as even a tree 100 feet tall is regarded as extreme.

Denton Girl Wins

Texas' Milkmaid Champ Crowned

DALLAS, July 30. (AP)—Blonde Ruth McHaffey, 18, of Roanoke, Texas, Denton county, received the title of sweetheart of the dairymen of Texas when she won the milking contest today at the Texas Centennial exposition.

Miss McHaffey milked nine pounds and seven ounces in three minutes from a shorthorn, "Roan Nina," owned by Bunting and Peck, of Neodesha, Kansas. Eleven milk-maids, representing 11 Texas counties, competed before 400 spectators in the contest held in the arena of the livestock building.

AGREEMENT ANNOUNCED

LONDON, July 30. (AP)—An Anglo-Russian commercial agreement establishing a 10,000,000 pounds sterling ($50,000,000) credit for Soviet orders for British exports was announced to the house of commons today by Sir Walter Runciman, president of the board of trade.

"Saw And Hatchet" Boom In Oil Field Boosting Hobbs

HOBBS, N. M., July 30. (AP)—The "saw and hatchet" boom in the New Mexico oil fields brings newcomers here daily. Jal and Eunice are growing while Monument has a population estimated at 750. In Texas, it is said 12,000 persons receive mail at Wink, Winkler county, which has swollen to its boom proportions of six years ago. Some brick and tile buildings are being erected here after a fire causing an estimated loss of $150,000.

Japs Plan To Build Ships

Naval Program In 1937 Calls For Replacement Of Four Capital Ships, Informed Quarters Predict Thursday

(By The Associated Press)

TOKYO, July 30.—Japan's 1937 naval program probably will provide for replacement of four capital ships, informed quarters predicted today.

Navy officials declined to comment on statements that the British government was preparing to lay the keels of two battleships next year and an assertion from Admiral William H. Standley that the United States probably would follow suit.

Expert opinion was represented as believing at least two Japanese ships would be started as part of the principal features of the "third replenishment program" of the navy.

Officials are formulating the plan for a five-year period with expenditures estimated at 2,000,000,000 yen ($580,000,000.)

Vernacular newspaper naval writers scoffed at reports, current in London, that the Japanese navy was planning super-dreadnaughts larger than any afloat and carrying 18-inch guns.

Stogner-Roosevelt No. 1 Googin, section 215, block D, John H. Gibson survey in Yoakum county was drilling at 3,858 feet in redrock and anhydrite, at last report. The test was 146 feet below sea level.

IN ANHYDRITE

Humble Oil and Refining No. 9 J. S. Means, in Andrews county, a mile south of oil production in the Means ranch pool, had drilled to 3,702 feet in anhydrite, at last report. It is in section 22, block A-35, public school land, in the northeast quarter.

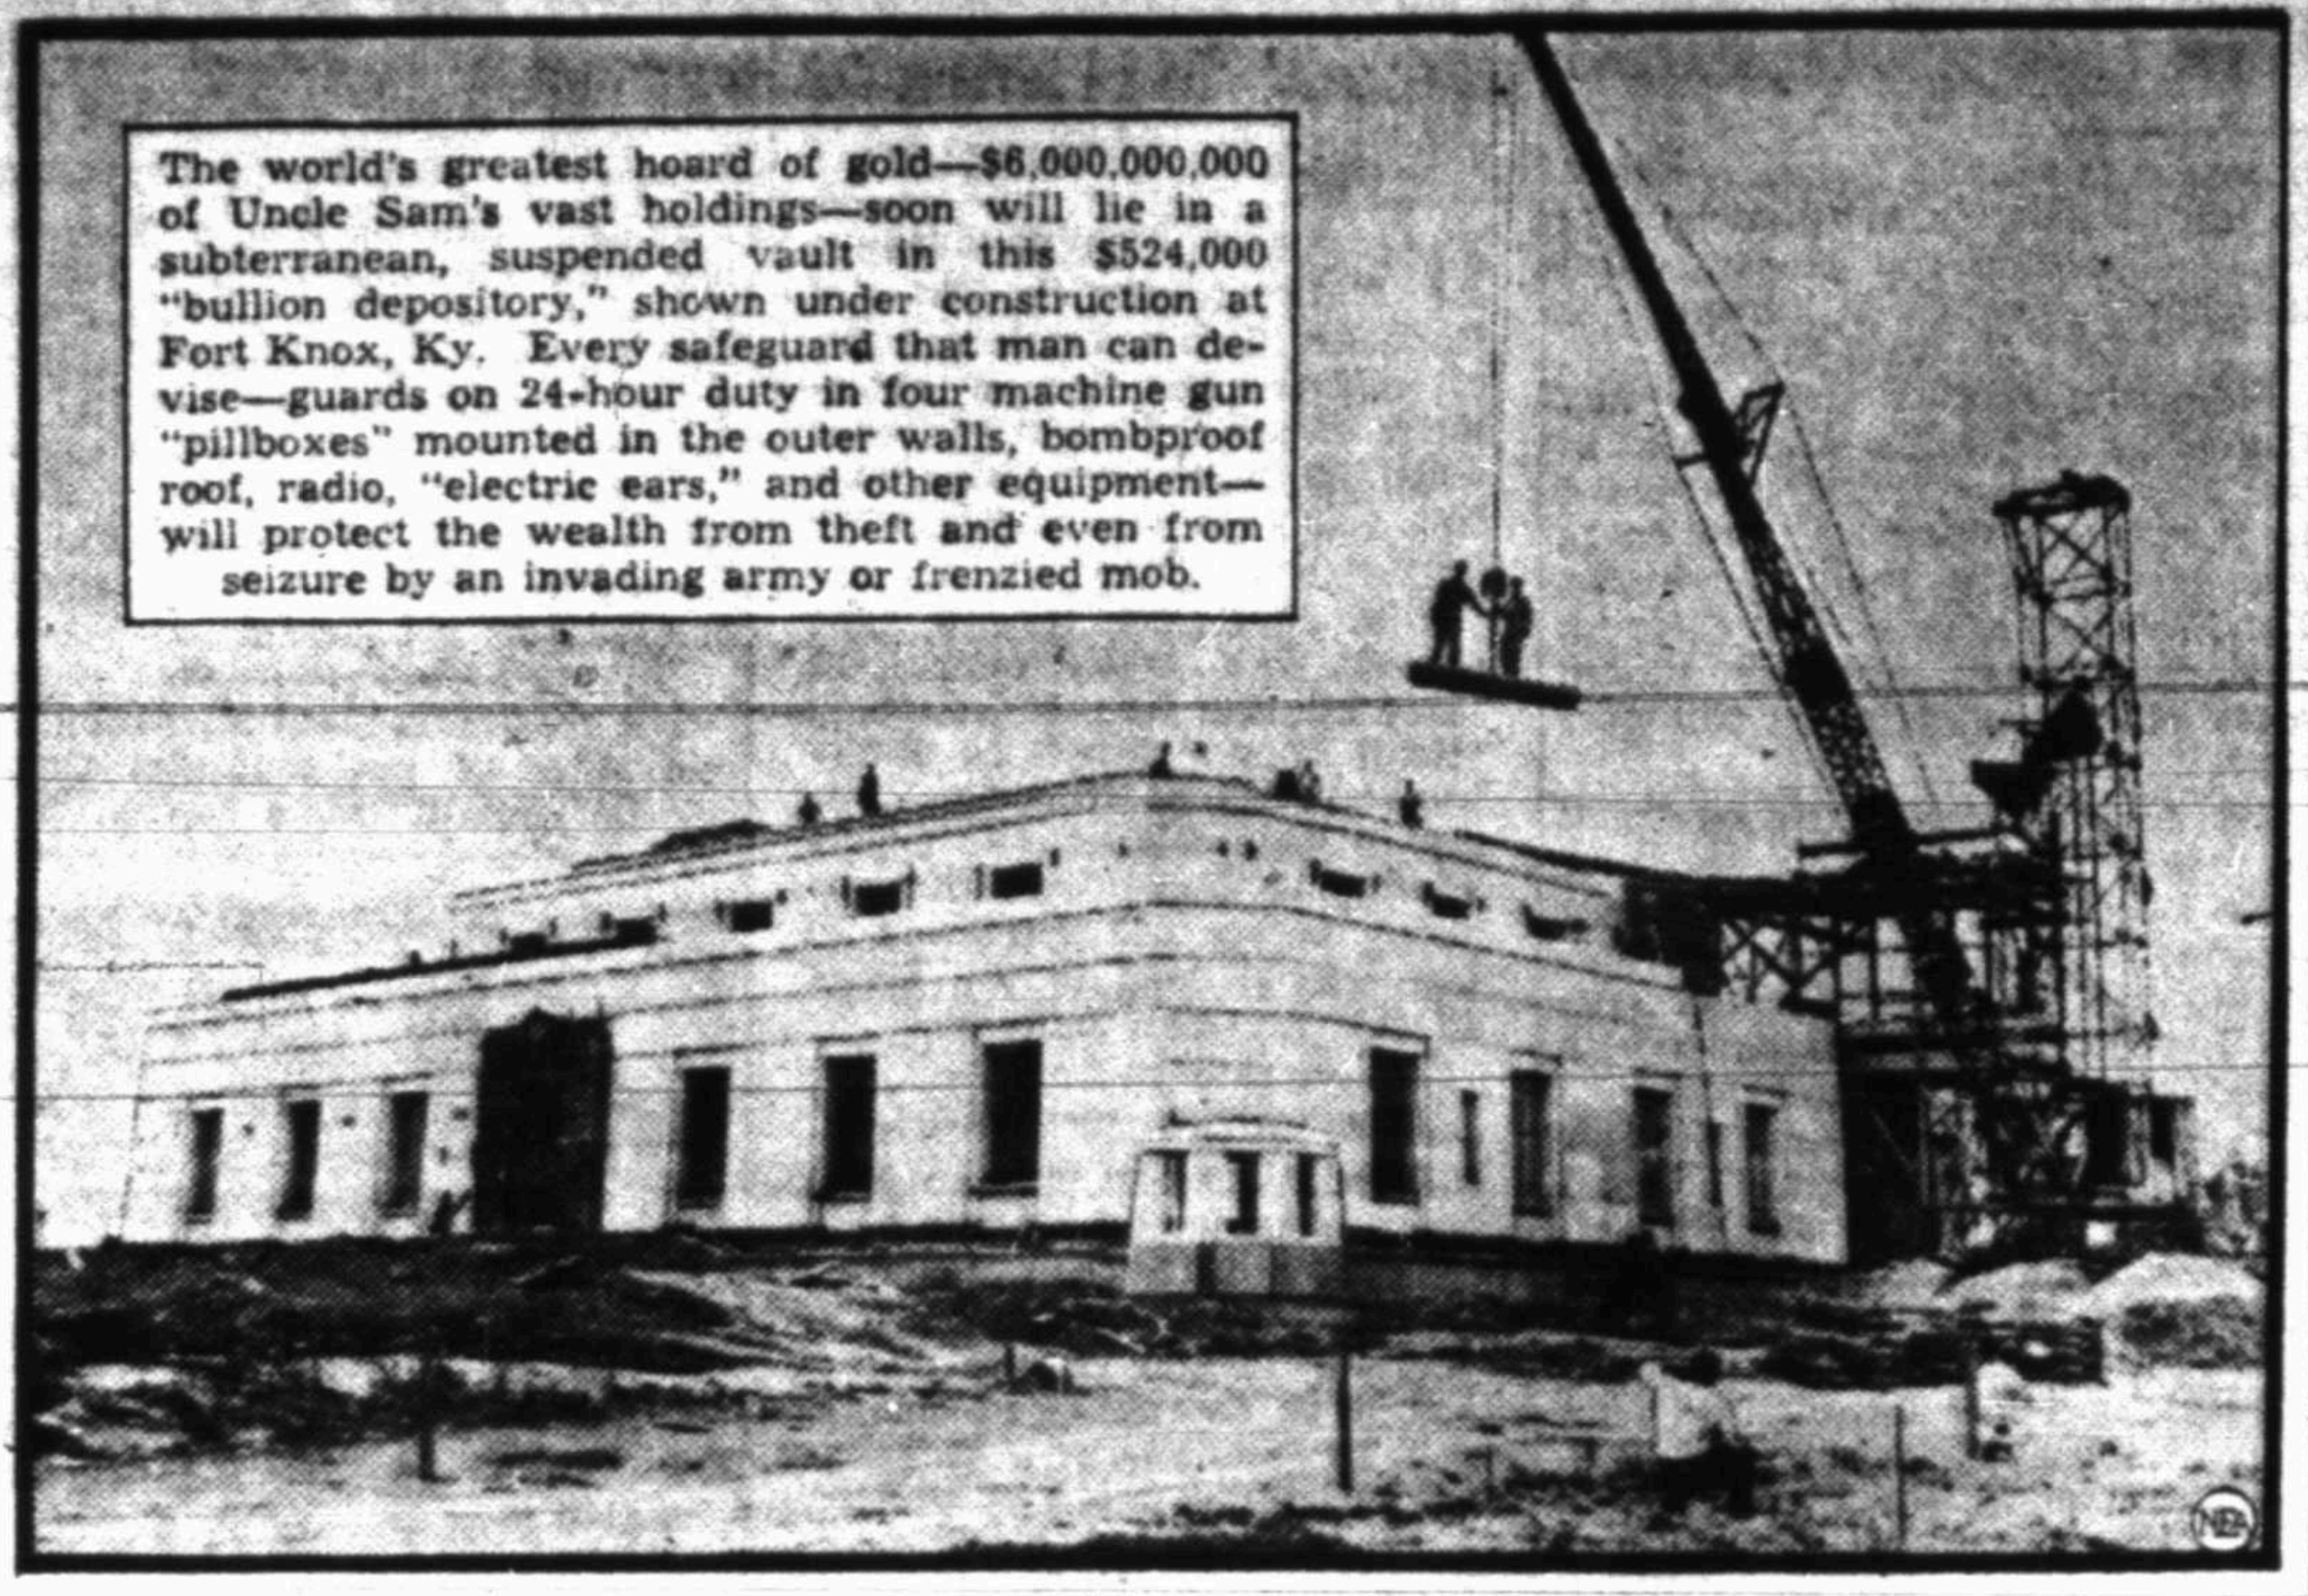
LOCATION STAKED

No. 1 Clayton Johnson of Moore Bros. in Borden county, has been staked. It is 1,320 feet from the east line and 990 feet from the south line of section 2, block 32, T-4n T. & P. survey.

PREPARED FOR SHOOTING

Landreth Production Corp. No. 1 W. H. Kirk, section 22, block A-21, public school lands in Gaines county, was reported bing prepared for shooting after being plugged back from 4,870 to 4,855 feet. Before pulling tubing, fluid in the hole was swabbed down to the 3,500-foot level. The bailing is expected to more accurately determine whether there is water in the hole coming from the formation. Last week 3-4 of a barrel of sulphur water was believed encountered from 4,862-70 feet, total depth. At 4,820 feet 107 barrels of oil was swabbed in 24 hours after a second acid treatment was allowed to stand two weeks. Before logging the water a 16-hour baling test showed 120 barrels or at the rate of 180 barrels daily. A shot will be given when water is completely shut off.

Uncle Sam's New 'Safe' Soon Will Guard Billions



The world's greatest hoard of gold—$6,000,000,000 of Uncle Sam's vast holdings—soon will lie in a subterranean, suspended vault in this $524,000 "bullion depository," shown under construction at Fort Knox, Ky. Every safeguard that man can devise—guards on 24-hour duty in four machine gun "pillboxes" mounted in the outer walls, bombproof roof, radio, "electric ears," and other equipment—will protect the wealth from theft and even from seizure by an invading army or frenzied mob.

Functions of the Kiwanis Educational committee were given in detail to members of the local club yesterday noon by Dean A. H. Leidigh in a program on the committee's work, in charge of Harley D. Woods. Program was at noon in the Hotel Lubbock.

President Ray C. Mowery, presiding, announced receipt of a letter from District Governor Milt Batten announcing he would be here Wednesday night, August 5, for a meeting with the local club. After some discussion it was planned to have the meeting at night. Neighboring clubs will be invited.

Dewitt Landis, manager of KFYO and a member of the club, was in charge of the musical part of the program. Mr. Landis in a short talk, explained some of the operations and future plans of the station, and the radio industry, as a whole.

Bruce Collier was presented as in charge of the music. The Harmonette trio, Misses Jane Proctor, Joyce Jackson and Jonnie Mae Ellison, sang several numbers. Winton (Cowboy) Kyle, officiated at the piano.

General Motors Properties In Spain Are Reported Seized

MARSEILLE, July 30. (AP)—Refugees returning from Barcelona, Spain, reported today all General Motors corp. automobiles had been requisitioned by the Catalan government after much equipment and property of the company had been destroyed in the fighting.

William Butler, General Motors executive, who accompanied the refugees here, dispatched a report to his New York office but declined to discuss the matter.

The cars apparently were seized for transportation of loyal Spanish militiamen to meet insurgents.

Cast For Romance By Rialto

The Song of Love is the favorite aria of Diva Lily Pons and Bandmaster Andre Kostelanetz, insist intimates of the Broadway musical stars. So perhaps, this-arms-about-each-other pose is more than just professional informality. They've als obeen seen together often at those intimate rendezvous frequented by romantic New York couples.

King Edward Charters Yacht For Short Vacation Cruise

LONDON, July 30. (AP)—King Edward has chartered the yacht Nahlin for a three or four-week's cruise along the Dalmatian coast.

The king probaly will join the yacht in about ten days at Dubrovnig, Jugoslavia. He will be accompanied by three or four friends.

The cruise will replace a projected vacation at Cannes, France, which was cancelled after the outbreak of the Spanish rebellion.

HAPPY RELIEF FROM PAINFUL BACKACHE

Caused by Tired Kidneys

Many of those gnawing, nagging, painful backaches people blame on colds or strains are often caused by tired kidneys—and may be relieved when treated in the right way.

The kidneys are one of Nature's chief ways of taking acids and wastes out of the blood. A healthy person should pass about 3 pints a day and so get rid of more than 3 pounds of waste matter.

If the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work well, waste stays in the body and may become poisonous. It may start nagging backaches, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Don't let it lay you up.

Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills—used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help to flush out the 15 miles of kidney tubes. Get Doan's Pills.

Oil Lease Is Sold Thursday

Los Angeles Corporation Pays $100,000 Cash For Eighty Acres In McCamey District; Five Wells On Tract

(By The Associated Press)

SAN ANGELO, July 30. — The International Petroleum corporation of Los Angeles has purchased the Upton county 80-acre oil producing lease of Harry Baldwin of McCamey, William W. Gruber and C. D. McCabe of San Angelo and J. E. Sullivan of Big Spring for $100,000 cash.

The tract is the east half of the northwest quarter of section 36, block 1, M-K-T Ry. Co. survey, in the north part of the Sherk-Lane area of the McCamey district. On it are five wells with total daily potential yield of 1,457 barrels and present daily allowable of 150 barrels. Three undrilled proven locations remain.

The deal, retroactive to July 1, was the second this month in which a San Angelo operator sold producing properties. The first was by E. M. Wahlenmaier of three leases, each with one well, in the Henderson area in northern Winkler county, reportedly for $100,000 cash and approximately the same amount to be paid out of oil runs. Atlantic Oil Producing company was the purchaser.

Santa Fe Men Get Christmas Checks In Mid-Summer

Christmas occurred on July 30 for six Santa Fe train employes.

Santa Claus, in the person of "John" Santa Fe, dropped some $11,800 into their laps in the form of back compensation.

Several years ago a dispute between train service men and the railroad developed over the "rights" of the men on the Crosbyton branch. After the case went back and forth in railroad circles, it was submitted to arbitration.

Entitled To Claims

Recently the decision was made that the men were entitled to their claims. The company had held up payment pending settlement.

Checks for the men were received and distributed Thursday morning.

Those receiving checks were: Ray Amick, Curtis C. Crawford, James A. Hickman, Frank V. Holden, Dennis R. Patterson and Claude Zachary.

'Gly-Cas—Greatest Of Modern Age'

All Foods Caused Severe Indigestion, Headaches Continually, Awful Rheumatic Pains Settled In Her Limbs; Gly-Cas Again Unfailing.

"I had heard how wonderful Gly-Cas was but little did I realize it would give such quick and thorough results," said Mrs. J. D. Bogan, Baker, La., (near Baton Rouge) "Years of suffering with a chronic case of constipation and stomach trouble had wrecked my entire system. It seemed I was never without a severe headache, lost my strength and energy and it was all I could do to get about at times. Then to make me more miserable rheumatism settled in my limbs. The pain was awful, seldom got a good nights sleep and felt as if my entire system was worn-out. I was terribly worried over my condition until I began Gly-Cas—it went right to the source of my health troubles."

MRS. J. D. BOGAN

"Gly-Cas surprised me how it corrected my stomach and bowel troubles so easily," she continued, "The poisons were removed from my system and even that dreadful rheumatism has been taken from my system. I have not had a headache for so long, sleep good, enjoy a good nights rest and sleep and my former strength and energy has been restored. Gly-Cas without a doubt is the greatest medicine of its kind in this modern age—it deserves all the credit for my present good health."

Gly-Cas is sold by Mark Halsey Drug Store, 1219 Broadway, and by all leading drug stores in surrounding towns.

Automatic Spacer Eliminates Ragged Lines In Copy Done By Typewriter; Young Russian Immigrant Is Inventor

By SAM JACKSON
Associated Press Staff Writer

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Calif. July 30. — How to make a typewriter space to produce an even margin on the righthand side of the sheet has puzzled inventors for years. A young Russian immigrant here says he has solved the problem.

By flipping a little lever on the side of his machine, Sergei M. Toman now turns out neat columns of typewritten copy resembling those of a newspaper or magazine. Gone are the ragged, irregular line endings.

This demonstration of the new automatic spacing device for typewriters is made for The Associated Press by its inventor, Sergei M. Toman. The top specimen exhibits the ragged right-hand margin of ordinary typewriting, while the lower one shows how Mr. Toman's device evens it up:

This demonstration of the new automatic spacing device for typewriters is made for The Associated Press by its inventor, Sergei M. Toman. The top specimen exhibits the ragged right-hand margin of ordinary typewriting, while the lower one shows how Mr. Toman's device evens it up.

Sergei M. Toman, young Russian immigrant, demonstrates his spacing device to produce typewritten manuscript with even margins on right as well as left.

Toman developed his device under a grant from the Stanford University Press, whose executives see an immediate use for it in photo-lithographic, or offset, printing, used for cheap reproduction of reports, scientific treatises and the like.

Simple, He Says

How far the spacer will get in America's vast volume of business correspondence, Stanford Press executives say, will depend on how much importance business men attach to having their letters look like a printed page.

"The principle of the thing was simple," Toman says, "and I had to build only about five models before getting this present one, which works."

Production of evenly aligned typewriting involves a double process. The original draft is made on graph paper, which shows at a glance how much each line must be spaced out to reach uniform width.

Inventor A Musician

For re-copying, an indicator is set at a number, usually from one to seven, corresponding with the number of extra spaces needed in a particular line. The automatic spacer does the rest, evenly distributing the excess space through the entire line.

Toman says the device operates by regulating the movement of the typewriter carriage and can be installed on any machine.

Twenty-six years old, Toman was born in Russia but has spent most of his life in Harbin, Manchoukuo, where his father is a civil engineer. He came to America seven years ago for an education. Although a trained musician, he says invention is to be his career.

Garrett Plans To Continue Similar Campaign Tactics

EASTLAND, July 30. (AP)—Judge Clyde L. Garrett, run-off opponent to Rep. Tom Blanton in the 17th congressional district, said today he proposed to continue his campaign along the same lines as in the first primary "unless my opponent should adopt methods other than he used in the first primary."

His opening speech was for this afternoon at Bass lake, near Gorman in Eastland county.

"Rep. Blanton told the voters he was running purely on his record and that he was not mentioning his opponent's name and that if he had to deal with personalities he did not want the office," Judge Garrett, said.

Hoped Not Necessary

"It is hoped that it will not be necessary for me to adopt any other type of campaign other than that used heretofore.

"The result of the first primary clearly indicates that the character of campaign I waged met with the hearty approval of the voters of the district. They have given me about 5,000 more votes than Mr. Blanton, the incumbent."

Judge Garrett said he was not ready to comment on reports that Fred O. Jaye, Deleon attorney endorsed by Townsend clubs, had "joined the Blanton forces." Jaye trailed in last Saturday's Democratic state primary. He was seeking the 17th district congressional nomination.

Judge Garrett said "the charge that a slush fund of $25,000 from Washington" was being used to elect him was a "malicious lie."

Dr. Truett Is To Open Encampment

MARFA, July 30. (AP)—Dr. George W. Truett of Dallas, world-renowned Baptist leader, will open tomorrow evening the sixteenth annual Baptist encampment at the foot of Mount Paisano, deep in the Davis mountains.

The encampment will run through Aug. 9, with Dr. Truett preaching daily. Last year there were 1500 Baptists at the encampment and even larger attendance is expected this time.

Other speakers listed include Dr. Roy Angel of the First Baptist church of San Angelo and former Gov. Pat Neff, president of Baylor university at Waco.

Experts in the U. S. treasury each day count approximately 40,000 new bills and 25,000 old ones.

Lubbock And Enochs, Amherst And Wilson Battle Today

Tournament Favorites To Be Seen In Crucial Games Here Today: Tip-Toppers Triumph

Orphan Club Of Tournament Pulls Another Upset, Downs Powerful Enochs Club To Enter Finals; Wilson Is Winner Over Ropesville; Two Hot Teams Leave Today

They did it again!

That crazy mixture of "worn out" ball players and fresh young collegians jerked up by Berl Huffman at the urgent request of the tournament committee to fill an eleventh-hour vacancy, the tournament "orphans" known as the Lubbock Tip-Top team, came through with another bombastic victory yesterday to throw another astonishing kink into the sixth annual Lubbock Avalanche-Journal Invitation Baseball tournament.

It's Tough, But That's The Way It Is Today

Two mighty fine baseball clubs of the South Plains will pass from the Lubbock tournament scene today when the four favored teams clash in third round games.

In the first, beginning at 2 o'clock sharp, the Lubbock Hubbers, managed by the veteran Skipper Sied Allen, meet the powerful Enochs crew. The winner will enter the closing rounds Saturday, playing the winner of today's second game.

And in that main event today, two of the most popular and most capable chunkers of the South Plains are due to face each other—both left handers. Lefty Beans Pair for Wilson and Lefty Gaut Hambright, the one-handed ace, for Amherst. And the losing team in each game is no more with us.

They defeated the popularly favored Enochs crew, 9 to 6 in another great ball game yesterday, the day's main event.

Of all the booting a sport dope bucket ever got, the one supposed to have something to do with the current baseball tournament most certainly is getting the worst.

The College Spirit

Enochs, a team of ex-professionals who have been playing together steadily for the last several seasons, a team which entered the tournament late and established itself as the club to beat for the money when it won over the pre-tournament favored Wilson club Tuesday, was battered into surprised submission yesterday by a pick-up team whose members had to be introduced to each other no later than last Monday.

But the "old college try" plus the powerful second breath of counselling and consoling veterans, combined to put an unbeatable spirit on the field each time the Tip-Toppers have come up so far in the tournament. It was a case of the underdog outhustling the favorite, and as a result you have the Tip-Toppers and Anton only undefeated clubs of the tournament clashing in the main event of Saturday's program.

Both of yesterday's games were soul satisfying to baseball loving people.

The nifty Wilson outfit came back into the win column yesterday with a scintillating victory over Ropesville. The score was 14 to 5, but it went down in the scorebook as one of the better tournament games, despite the one-sided score.

Hail Mr. Roberts

Ropesville passed from the tournament scene as a result of the defeat, but not before giving Wilson a scare in the closing innings.

A right-handed pitcher named Roberts, wearing a Lockney uniform, was pitching a game for Wilson that had the spectators wearing themselves out hoping he'd carry on for a shutout. But Ropesville's batters finally found him, and made the last three innings intensely interesting for all concerned, especially Wilson.

This is what Mr. Roberts did: He pitched to 18 men in the first six innings, which adds up to three men in each inning. Nobody got a hit, nobody got to first base. He struck out six in those six innings, caused the other 12 to go out in order, mostly by the infield route, three by outfield flies, cans of corn into the waiting arms of the stout fellows from Wilson.

Retires First 20

Manager Doc Cook's Wilson crew, most flashily dressed outfit in the tournament and certainly one of the best teams, supported the pitching of Roberts errorlessly until the seventh. The first two to oppose him in that inning were retired, making a total of 20 batters he retired as fast as they came up. Then Alvin Crews fumbled a grounder at third, was too late in the throw.

With a base occupied, Roberts weakened. Hinson, playing third base for Ropesville, cracked one through center which went for three bases, A. Marcey, the Ropes pitcher, scoring. Firstbaseman Evans, of Ropesville followed Hinson with another triple to left field, and Hinson came home. Manager Chambers flied out to shortstop to retire the side.

One Ropesville run came in the eighth, Crews booting another one at third, letting Stearns to second. Stephenson's single brought him in. Roberts struck out Cates and Bradshaw went out, second to first, after Hardy had flied to third.

In a final desperate try, Ropesville rallied in its part of the ninth for two more runs. Marcey, who started in left field but replaced Stephenson on the mound in the first stormy Wilson inning, led off with a double. Hinson followed with another two-bagger, and after Evans fanned, Chambers was safe and Hinson scored on an error at second. But Roberts settled down to fan Stearns and Hardy to end the game.

Meanwhile, the Wilson batsmen had been pecking away at the offerings of Stephenson and Marcey. Stephenson was in a hole from the start of the game, an error at third letting Shaw go safe. Toby Pair singled. Fincher fanned, and Alvin Crews' single scored two runs. Crews was nabbed at second, but Leroy Crews beat out an infield roller for a hit. Blue Graham and Lefty Barrett walked, intoxicating the hassocks.

Olin Calls His Shot

To the platter strode Olin Crews, youngest of the three Crews brothers. Against Enochs Tuesday it was Olin who took a toehold and blasted a home run in the 14th inning to score two runs and apparently ice a game for his team. Enochs came back in its half of the same inning, however, to score three runs and win the game.

So up to the plate yesterday, with three ducks on the pond, strode young Olin. He indicated the left field fence, 325 feet away. "Right over there," he said, and on the first ball pitched, he swung mightily, and the ball sailed over the fence at the spot he picked out.

That got Stephenson out of the hole and also out of the game. A. Marcey, long, lanky 20-year old Ropesville native, swapped places with him and retired the side with no more runs. He pitched nice ball for the next six innings, weakened in the eighth to let in four runs. His support also weakened, and only three earned runs were made off him.

The grandstand, permanent bleachers and a couple of sections of moveable bleachers were packed by a "ladies day" crowd yesterday, and it seemed that a large number of them came out to see Berl Huffman's Tip-Toppers play a game of ball, although few expected to see them win against the powerful Enochs bunch.

But win they did, and in grand style.

Thompson Wins Again

It was another victory for Bull Thompson, sturdy young right-hander who pitched winning ball for Lubbock when he was still in high school. He pitched great ball against Ropesville in the first Tip-Top game, and went right back in there yesterday with the dope all against him again.

Thompson not only pitched a capable game, scattering nine hits over the route, but he won his own ball game with a lusty single, his third of the afternoon, in the seventh inning.

The score was tied, 6 to 6, when Thompson came to bat, with two out, in the seventh. Henderson had scored on an Enochs error to tie the count, and Big Herschel Galey, catcher, was perched on first, Chuck Webster on second. Webster had singled. Galey had been called safe on the error which allowed Henderson to score. Thompson proceeded to knock the hide off the ball, scoring Webster from second.

Nudie Moore In Trouble

The Tip-Toppers added two more in the eighth, but they were superflous.

The bespectacled veteran, Nudie Moore, of Littlefield fame, pitched for Enochs yesterday, pitched very well, too, only without considering the heart and spirit of the Huffman crew, which sailed "into the money" with its second straight victory, to no defeats. Moore was nicked for five safeties in the third inning as the hustling Lubbock team scored four times. Bull Thompson led off with a lusty single, then stole second. Cracker Carr doubled to left, scoring Thompson. Buddy Aderton flew out to second and Moore fanned Manager Huffman for the second time, Burly Berl going down swinging hard at fast balls. The cuts he took all but fanned the atmosphere out of the park.

Then big Tox Wiginton, Texas Tech varsity center, swung a heavy mace, reached second and rested there while outfielders relayed the ball in. Carr came home. Harold Crites, third man in the trio of heavy hitters, waited Nudie out and won a walk. Red Henderson singled, and Chuck Webster laced a long one-baser, scoring Wiginton and Crites. Moore struck Galey out, but the Tip-Toppers had a 4 to 1 lead.

The lead vanished in the fifth when Enochs scored five times, Thompson's defense around second base failing him in the clutches. The ball hit the wellworn infield and failed to take the proper hops, some of them counting as hits when more rigid scoring would have been errors. The Enochs club batted around in that inning, and Huffman started to remove Thompson. The crowd yelled its displeasure, and Thompson was allowed to remain. It was a wise move to leave him in there, as it turned out.

But jumping back to the fourth for a second. Huffman finally connected with one of his manly maceswingers, and when he pulled up, puffing and sweating on second, Thompson, who had led off with his second single, was safely across the plate. Huffman's double came when two were out.

Braddock's Boss Not Sure Jim Is To Battle Maxie

LOCH SHELDRAKE, N. Y., July 30 (AP) — Joe Gould, manager of James J. Braddock, said here today there will be no heavyweight title fight Sept. 26, or any other time, unless Madison Square Garden meets Braddock's terms.

"I haven't signed yet and don't intend to unless Braddock is given 47 1-2 per cent of the gate," Gould said.

"I talked money with the Garden the other day and was offered 42 1-2 per cent. They'll have to come through with another five if they want Braddock."

Braddock is doing light work here.

But Garden Manager Says Contract Signed

NEW YORK, July 30. (AP)—James J. Johnston, Madison Square Garden boxing promoter, said he has Joe Gould's signature on a contract calling for James J. Braddock to receive 42 1-2 per cent of the gate for his heavyweight title defense against Max Schmeling in September.

"Gould signed a contract for Braddock to fight for 42 1-2 per cent," said Johnston. "That's all there's to it. As a matter of fact most champions only receive 37 1-2 per cent.

Americans Won't Dip Flag In Parade Before Adolf Hitler

BERLIN, July 30. (AP) — Avery Brundage, president of the American Olympic committee, today formally notified the German organizing committee that the United States delegation wouldn't dip the flag while passing in review in Saturday's opening ceremonies.

He explained that this was in accordance with American regulations and not to be interpreted as any discourtesy to the Germans. Germany had included in its general trade orders a request that the national colors be dipped before the reviewing stand which Chancellor Hitler will occupy.

Golfers Of Lubbock And South Plains Invited To Play Grass Greens Sunday

Country Club Opens New Greens With Medal Tourney

Lubbock's first grass greens will be opened to the golfing public Sunday when Lubbock Country club comes into its own as one of the most potentially important golf centers of West Texas.

The new greens, started last year and rushed to completion this spring, are being given finishing touches by members and workmen this week, a membership "work day" bringing hearty response and enough of it to make possible the clearing of traps and the trimming of putting carpets necessary for the formal opening Sunday.

Tournament Arranged

A 36-hole medal play tournament has been arranged, and all golfers of the section are invited to participate. It is not a tournament for the membership alone, although members "who did more toward making possible the new greens" will be given preference in the pairings. That is, they will be started from the No. 1 tee ahead of the field.

Meadowbrook golfers are especially invited to play the new greens Sunday and to participate in the tournament. There will be no tournament fee, the usual Sunday green fee permitting every player to compete. Prizes will be awarded. Handicaps will be established in the first or morning 18-hole round, and flights arranged in the afternoon.

Ballot Battle Features Nazi Olympic Scene

Site Of 1940 Games Due To Be Determined Today With Japs And Finns Bidding; Better Weather Helps Spirits

BY ALAN GOULD
Associated Press Sports Editor

BERLIN, July 30. — The biggest pre-Olympic battle tonight was being waged between Japan and Finland, rival bidders for the 1940 games.

Meanwhile Nazi Germany applied the finishing touches to its $25,000,000 athletic extravaganza.

The heaviest oratorical guns were brought into play during an all-day bombardment before the international Olympic committee which, earlier in the day, had ousted Ernest Lee Jahncke of New Orleans by a unanimous vote and promptly installed Avery Brundage as his successor.

A decision on the next games is slated to be made by secret ballot at the committee's closing sessions tomorrow afternoon. Great Britain is not seeking them.

Opposed U. S. Entry

Officially Jahncke lost his committee place on the ground he failed to attend two consecutive meetings of the committee. It was recalled, however, that the New Orleans sportsman and former assistant secretary of the navy opposed American participation if the games were to be held in Germany.

Meanwhile the odds lengthened on Japan's hitherto well-regarded prospects of winning the 1940 games as a result of a Finnish appeal to return the games to "Spartan simplicity."

Despite Tokyo's offer to subsidize the transportation of foreign athletes to the extent of a million and a half yen (about $485,000), it looked like a close battle of ballots.

There was a possibility of a split in the American delegation over the question. Garland already is committed to Japan's support but Brundage, after sitting through his first session this afternoon, apparently was impressed by the Finnish case and declined to commit himself.

Terrance Off Form

The athletes, although shunted out of the headlines temporarily by the Olympic solons, capitalized on the first warm, sunny day since Sunday, enjoyed full workouts and eased the burden the medical staff has been shouldering.

Except for the women's track and field and swimming teams which remained hard-hit by illness, the entire American contingent appeared in better health and spirits.

The shot putters, Jack Torrance of Baton Rouge, La., and Dimitri Zaitz of Boston college remained so far off form that their Olympic chances are poor. On the other hand, the foot-racers who start competition Sunday, notably Jesse Owens, John Woodruff and Don Lash, were pronounced in the best possible condition.

Washington's stroke oar, Don Hume, who laid off because of a heavy chest cold, took light exercise today and hopes to pace the Huskies' eight in a time trial tomorrow.

Berlin Is Jammed

Approximately 4,000 athletes, double the 1932 entry list, were encamped in the Olympic village and elsewhere by nightfall after a series of welcoming demonstrations.

Eight national delegations, including the neighboring Austrians, 300 strong, and the strong Hungarian contingent, arrived during the day. Great Britain's array moved in tonight.

Dropping out of the picture at the last minute were the Spanish fencers who reported they were too busy at home to permit an Olympic sortie at this time. Spain, however, still will be represented by a number of athletes.

Nearly 1,500 American visitors, including two Olympic tours, helped to increase Berlin's jam.

One new school building the cost of which was approximately 63,500 was accepted formally by board members, two recently grouped districts for high school purposes were named, meetings to resolve the status of County Line and Shallowater grouping have been held, and superintendents of the six rural high school districts of the county will meet today for important business affecting the start of new scholastic terms, said Joseph R. Griggs, county school superintendent.

Rural high school district 1 was named at Woodrow Wednesday, from the late George C. Cooper, oldtimer at Grovesville and at Lubbock, where his widow lives. At the time of his death he was a member of the county board, in which he held membership when the first grouping election was called in the county. He was an ardent suporter of the grouping idea and intensely interested in promotion of rural education plans.

Legal Difficulties Encountered

A move to group the No. 1 district was begun a year ago, but legal difficulties were encountered. One month ago technicalities resulting from litigation were resolved, and the district officially was formed. A $40,000 bond issue for erection of a new high school building was subscribed in voting Monday. Application for a PWA grant of $28,000 had been approved and, if the funds were received, would supplement the bond issue in the construction project.

Three new buses have been purchased for transportation of students in that district, and the high school building at Woodrow is being reconditioned.

Roosevelt Building Accepted

The building accepted was at Roosevelt. Superintendent Griggs and W. O. Sheely, county board member, going there to witness that action of the Roosevelt board. The structure resulted from voting of $33,000 in bonds and was supplemented by a government grant of $28,637. It practically is fireproof. has hardwood floors throughout, electric lights, gas steam radiators, 10 classrooms, a combination gymnasium and auditorium, a big study hall and laboratory, and other important features. M. L. Kelly is superintendent, and 18 credits of affiliation have been secured.

An ultra-modern structure also was accepted Monday by New Deal district's board. Cost was approximately $73,000, including a teacherage.

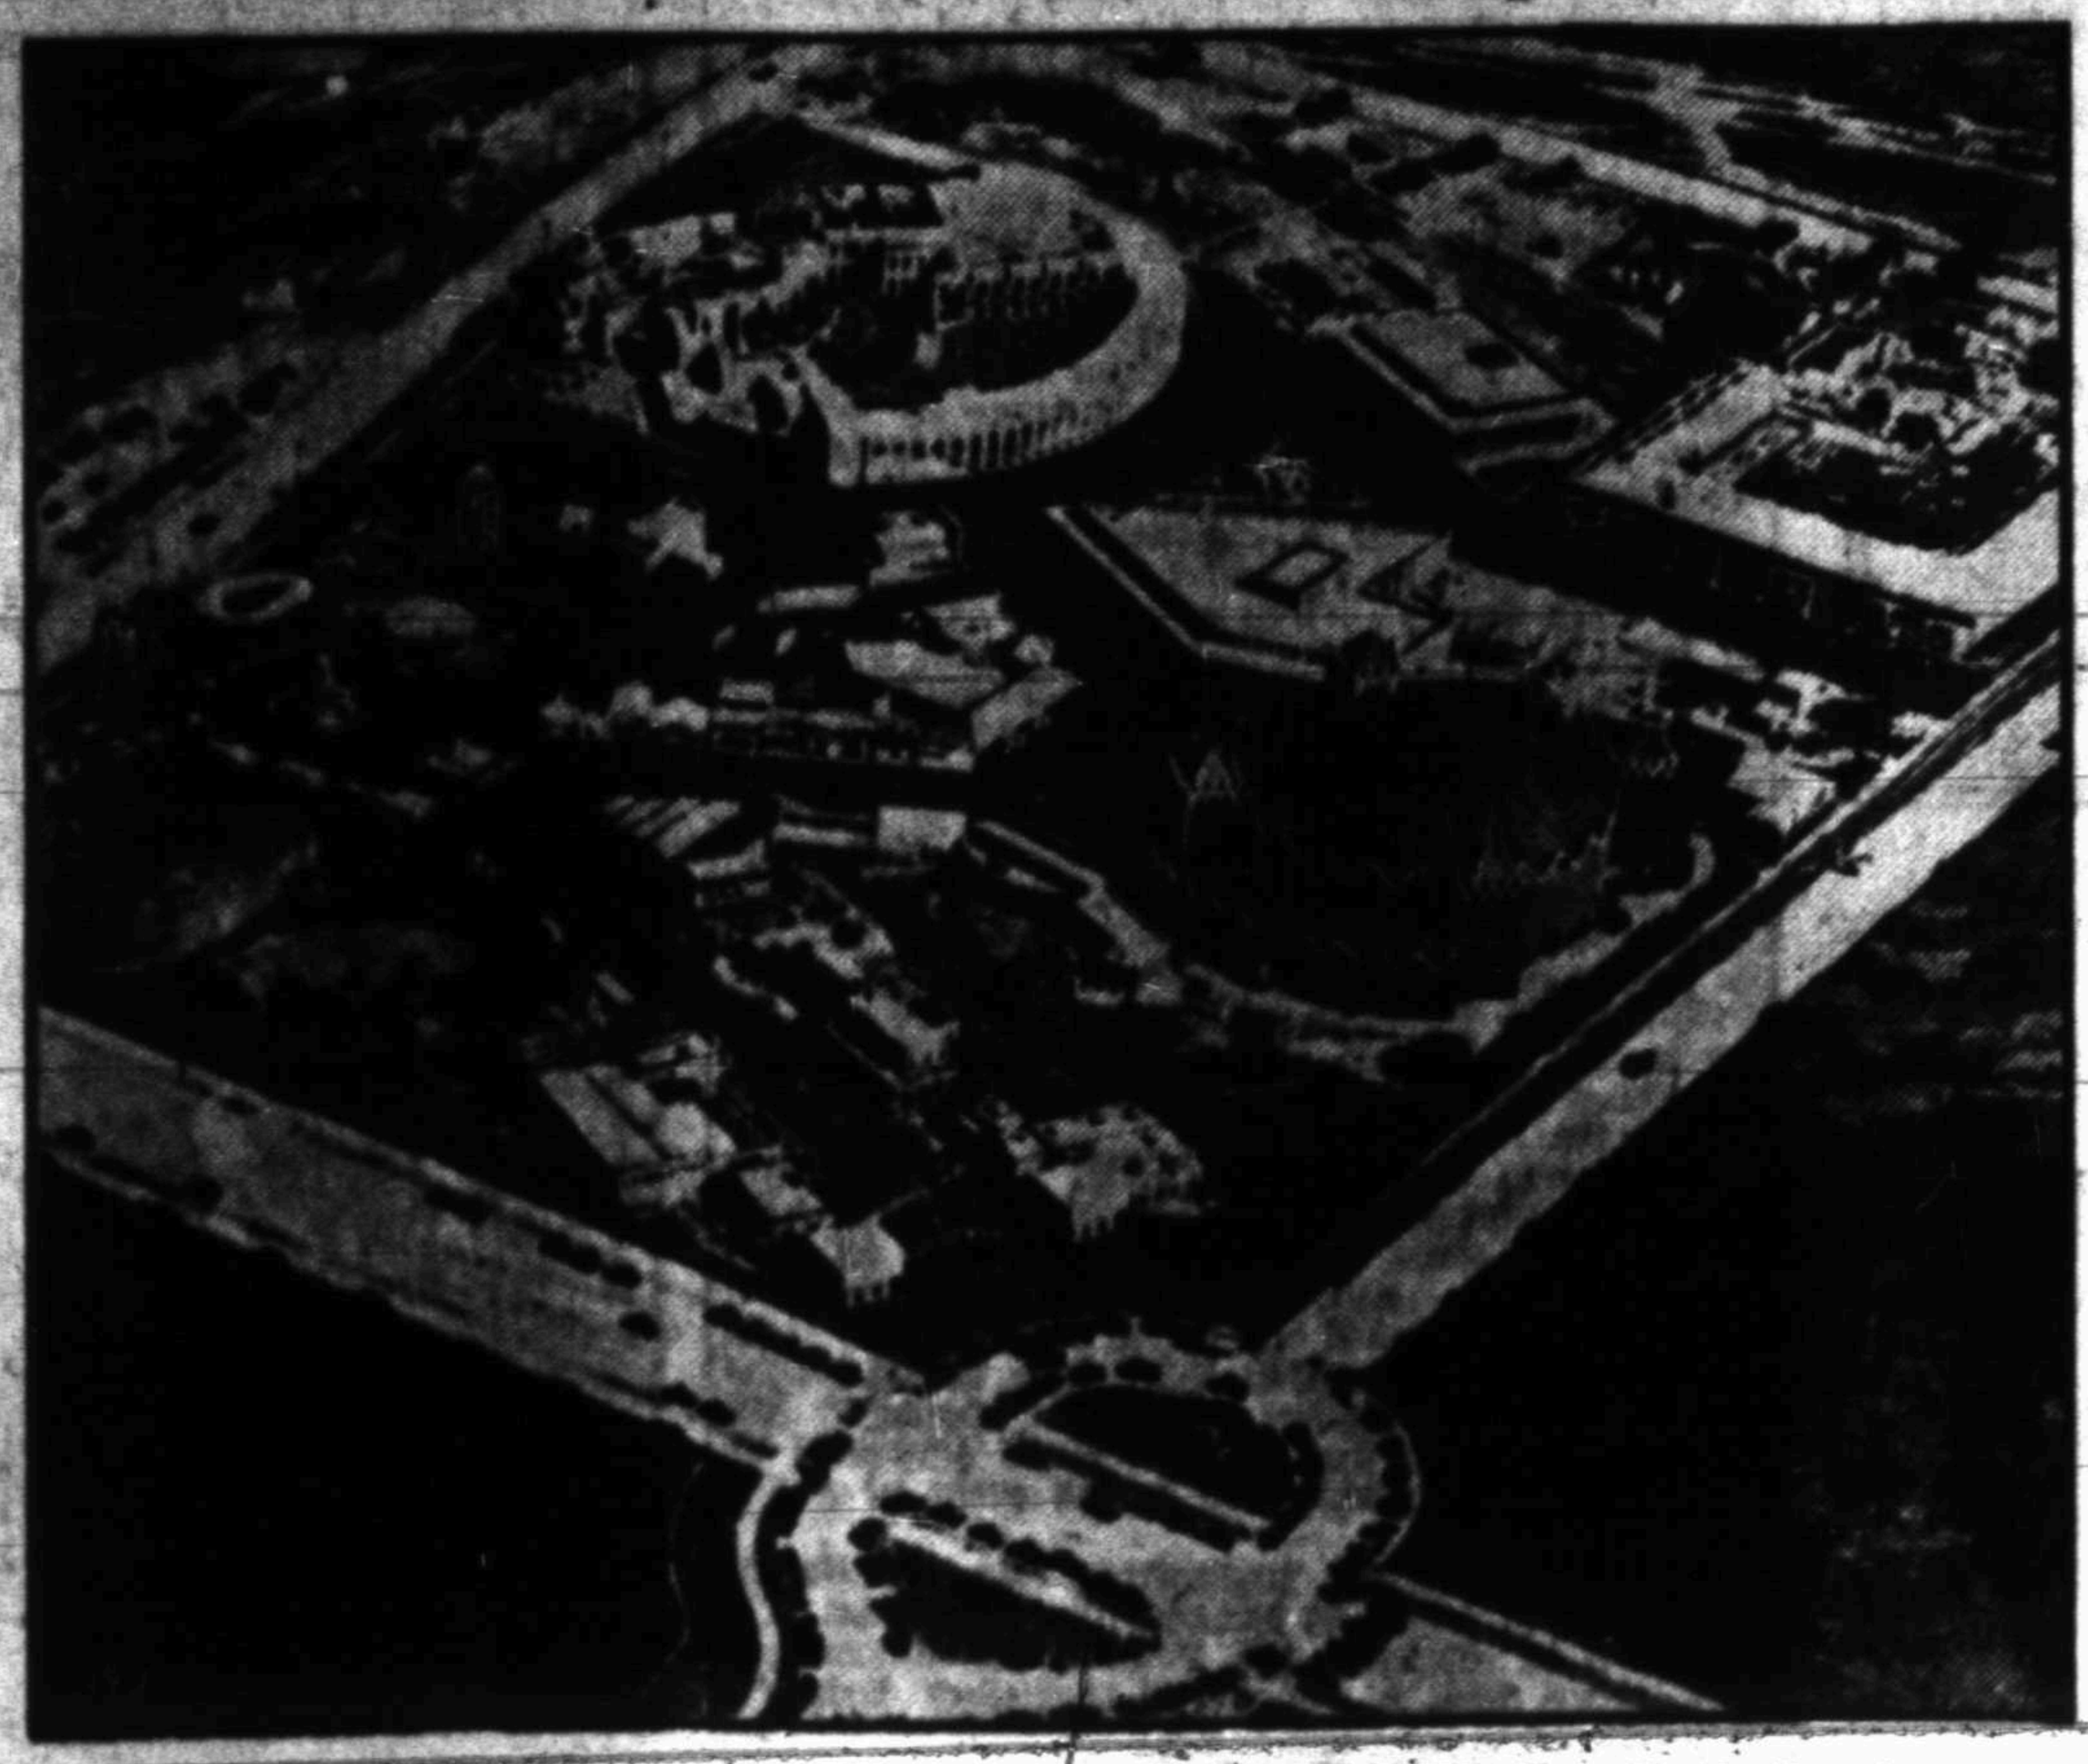
Rural high school district 6 was named Idalou district. Components, Becton, Idalou and Liberty, were welded in voting Saturday. The district board met Wednesday night and bought five new (International) buses which, added to two Bledsoe will receive on a trade-in of old buses, will make a total of seven all-steel carriers the grouped district will own. Since the district is comprised of more than 100 square miles, maximum transportation aid of the state will be invoked.

The County Line tangle also has been into court. The Lubbock and Hale county boards met Tuesday and Wednesday nights at Plainview in an effort to arrive at a working agreement on County Line and Shallowater grouping. So far, a basis for grouping has not been resolved, and the status of County Line is ninth grade classification. It, however, is under administration of the Lubbock county board. Some patrons of that district have made application to transfer students to other schools, said Supt. Griggs.

This afternoon's meeting, to be held at 3 o'clock in the office of the county superintendent, will draw the following district superintendents: R. M. Hays of Cooper district 1, E. R. Haskins of Frenship district 2, A. L. Faubion of New Deal district 3, M. L. Kelly of Roosevelt district 4, E. L. Parr of Shallowater district 5, and E. J. Lowrey of Idalou district 6.

Such plans as regard transfers, transportation, budgets, subjects to be taught, grid schedules, and vocational education will be broached.

Air Slant On Ft. Worth's Giant Exposition



A mixture of Broadway, the big top, and the Old West—that's the $5,000,000 Fort Worth Frontier Centenniel, shown above in an air view after it had opened amid great ceremony. Launched six weeks after the Texas Centennial of its neighboring rival city, Dallas, the Fort Worth show, like the other, will run to November. Giant stages of the Frontier Centennial's outstanding attractions are visible in this picture. The strucure resembling a cone-roofed tent houses Billy Rose's New York sensation of last winter, the musical circus, "Jumbo." In the left background is the "Casa Manana," great theater cafe, where 4,000 diners can watch a 130-foot stage revolve in an artificial lake under "250-Eye-Bedevilling Coryphees." From the three-sided grandstand, upper right, visitors will see the lifetime drama of Texas portrayed.

Stories Of Activities Of Bandits On Mexican Highway Exaggerated, Automobile Association Man Declares

(By The Associated Press)

SAN ANTONIO, July 30.—Stories of activities of bandits along highways in Mexico are greatly exaggerated and tourists need have no fear in traveling in Mexico City over the new Pan-American highway, Jose Rivera, general manager of the Mexican Automobile association in San Antonio on a brief vacation, said today.

Rivera said 40 highway patrolmen and 1,000 soldiers maintain a constant vigil along the route and that the association is building eight stations on the road to give information and to render general assistance to tourists.

Rivera estimated that an average of 300 persons travel over the road daily.

Illinois Teacher Tells Of Robbery Near Taxco

MEXICO CITY, July 30. (AP)—Miss Gladys Serviss, principal of an elementary school in Aurora, Ill., was still shaky today after the experience of being held up Monday on a highway near Taxco.

The bandits "were like villains you see in movies," she said. The highwaymen were "polite but silent" in taking her watch, nine pesos, and $120 in traveler's checks.

Leading the bandits was a man "nearly six feet tall, well set-up and good looking but with a hard face," Miss Serviss declared.

In the same party with Miss Serviss was Miss Edna Horrocks of Cleveland who lost a few pesos, and Mrs. Marie Wolfs, also of Cleveland, who saved her traveler's checks by thrusting them down the front of her dress.

Oklahoma Officials Are To Attend Oil Compact Session

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 10. (AP)—Gov. E. W. Marland and a party of state officials plan to leave here tonight for Dallas, to attend a meeting of the interstate oil compact commission.

The group will be guests at Oklahoma Day at the Texas centennial during the conference.

Aged Negro, His Savings Of Lifetime Gone, Back At Work

JASPER, July 30. (AP)—Will Land Williams, 60-year-old negro, suffering from shock over loss of $1,500, his life savings, arose from a sick bed today to return to work.

The money, all in gold, was missed Saturday from its burial place near the mail box in front of his farm home west of here.

Williams saved the money while a contractor in timber work 35 years ago and, placing it in a cast iron wagon thimble, buried it two feet deep 15 years ago.

He said he never told anyone about the gold. He believes some person with a "mineral rod" discovered it.

Take A Tip From Henry Ford

HENRY FORD, who through his own ingenuity lifted himself by his bootstraps from a backyard bicycle shop to a position of the world's No. 1 independent motor maker, yesterday observed his 73rd birthday.

The Morning Avalanche is pleased to note from press reports that Mr. Ford, at 73, looks and feels fully as well and strong as he did at 60. That is unusual in the case of a man who has lived as busy and as demanding a life as has Henry Ford. Too often such men are forced to pour too much of their strength into their work and, as a result, die early or live their latter years as semi-invalids.

One thing we read in stories dealing with the Ford anniversary made us wonder if, perhaps, Mr. Ford owes his health and strength to his insistence upon occasionally getting away from his work and, what is even more important to a man in his position, getting away from people. Even his birthday was spent in the fastness of his Huron mountain estate where he frequently repairs for rest and solitude.

Of course, all of us cannot have estates in the rocky wilderness of Lake Superior's northern shores.

Most of us can't even have a cabin on a winding creek.

But the great majority of us can—and should — get away from the hustle and bustle of the every-day world and go out where "silence is deafening."

Out here in this country we are blessed with plenty of open country almost within a stone's throw of our work. If there is anything we have plenty of it's the opportunity for peace and quiet.

Maybe more of us should take a tip from Henry Ford and come as close as our economic position will let us to the rugged fastness of Lake Superior. After all, nights in the country around here are usually cool and New Mexico's mountains are not a day's drive removed.

TOM GALLAHER "GOES UP"

Tom Gallaher is "going up."

The "big boss" of the Santa Fe in this country, after declining upon a number of occasions to leave the Plains for bigger jobs, has finally accepted promotion and goes to the Chicago headquarters offices of his company in one of the most important jobs on the road.

"Hardboiled as a picnic egg" in matters of discipline, Tom Gallaher is better known as an executive who is "as just as the Supreme court". His men, scattered over the Panhandle and Santa Fe system believe in "the old man" to such an extent they'll fight for him at the drop of a hat, and that's about as fine a compliment as can be paid a fellow who sits in the seat of the mighty and administers to a business big, far reaching and complex as the railroad business.

While he has been a resident of Amarillo for 30 years, Mr. Gallaher's personal interests in civic matters have reached out to encompass all of the Plains, North and South. He has been a good and outstanding citizen of West Texas and as he climbs further topward with Old John Santa Fe there are thousands in these parts who wish him well.

WALKING BANKS

The money veils which the married women of Palestine affect constitute the accumulated wealth of the family. The Arab has long been familiar with banks and with the functions of a bank account. The family wealth is converted into gold and silver coins and made into a veil for the lady's face, thus making the woman into an ambulating bank account.

$9^{9^{9}}$ EQUALS?

The above figure expresses 9 raised to the 9th power of 9, or 9 raised to the 387,420,489th power. It is the largest sum that can be indicated by three figures.

The final answer will contain 369 millions of digits. Allowing for five digits to the inch, the length of tape required to write down the answer would be 1,164 miles, and the ordinary human span of life would be sadly insufficient to accomplish the task.

MURDER TONIGHT

BY LAURENCE W. MEYNELL

Chapter 34

BITTER TRUTH

When Hylton went into the room he saw Dale Shipley sunk comfortably in the best armchair smoking one of Nancy's cigarets; the young man seemed surprised.

"Hallo," he asked cheerfully, "what are you doing here?"

"Never mind about that," Hylton snapped irritably. "The point is what are you doing here?"

"Me? Why shouldn't I be here?"

"Where were you last night?"

"What's that got to do with you?"

Kingsley Hylton swallowed hard. "Young man," he said grimly, "this whole village seems to be running mad, but it strikes me you must be about the maddest of them all. You don't seem to realize that I propose to arrest you on suspicion of having murdered Arthur Burdett on Monday the eighteenth."

"I never even saw old Burdett on Monday the eighteenth."

"You were nowhere near Enderton Court that night, were you?"

"I didn't go to the Court on Monday or for a week before."

"Let's see, you went to Captain Reeves for dinner, didn't you, that evening?"

"Yes, half a dozen people will prove that."

"Oh I daresay; the same half dozen will also prove that you didn't arrive at Ferney House until considerably after half past seven, having left your own house at a quarter to."

For the first time in the interview Shipley seemed a trifle discomfited. "I never said so," he objected.

"No, of course you didn't; but it happens to be the truth, doesn't it?"

"Supposing it is?"

"You took over three quarters of an hour to walk a mile."

"I might have been a long way round."

"You might also have been at the bottom of the side lane leading up to Enderton Court where you lost this." The Inspector brought out Shipley's cigaret case with dramatic effect. "When were you last at Enderton Court?"

"Some time ago."

"You can't remember the exact date?"

"Why on earth should I? I don't even know what date it is today."

"You were at Enderton Court on January the twelfth, Shipley, and on that day you quarrelled with your uncle over something, to such an extent that he cut you out of his will."

Dale shot an angry suspicious glance from the Inspector to Nancy and back again. "What have you two been playing at?" he demanded. "Only one person knew about that quarrel besides myself."

"Dale—"

"Wrong as usual," Hylton interjected. "Burdett's lawyer knew, you've forgotten him; and what's more the whole world will know as soon as the will is proved because it's all in there."

"The old swine."

"Quite so; but let's stick to the matter in hand. You quarrelled with your Uncle and were disinherited by him on January 12th; a week later he is murdered, and on the night on which he is murdered you take three-quarters of an hour to walk a mile and can be proved to have been near the house at about the time of the crime. On top of that you bolt up to London a few days after investigations start, and a friend of your deliberately hinders the police from doing their duty by following you."

"What on earth are you talking about now?"

"Never mind that for the moment. I admit I don't know why you should have come back. If you can give me here and now a satisfactory account of all you did on Monday evening I'll be willing to listen to it. If it sounds plausible and can be proved true I'll do no more than keep you under strict police supervision."

Dale's glance flickered uneasily towards Nancy.

"There's nothing to tell really—"

"Right-o" Hylton chimed in briskly. "In that case you better come to Morechester straight away, and we'll talk business there—at the station."

"I mean it's nothing to do with the murder," Dale amended.

"I'll be judge of that," the Inspector assured him. "what's the yarn?"

Dale shot another quick glance at Nancy and then a little shamefacedly began to tell his story. "You may know that there's a man at the Lodge called Lawson."

"Um—what of it?"

"He's got a daughter, Frances. (Dale kept his glance well away from Nancy now and the Inspector noticed that he didn't look at her again for the rest of his story. The other day Frances—uh—tried to—blackmail me."

"Is she married?"

"No."

"How old is she?"

"Nineteen."

"Um."

"She was at me on Monday morninb about it, so I said I'd meet her that evening and talk it over. She always goes into Morchester on Monday afternoons, and I told her if she caught the bus out in the evening I'd meet her at the end of the back drive at ten to seven. I thought I could have a quarter of an hour with her and still be in time at the Reeves. I got there about five to seven and waited till twenty past, she hadn't turned up by then (as a matter of fact she missed the 'bus and had to wait for the next) and I couldn't wait any longer so I walked down the side lane and onto the main road again. That's all."

Hylton smiled grimly. "Did you see anybody at all whilst you were there?" he asked.

"I ran into a tramp-sort of fellow at the bottom of the lane, he came out of one of the Enderton fields actually."

"And what did you say to him?"

"I only told him it would be a damn sight healthier for him not to start any poaching games. I didn't hear anything from the girl the next day and then, on Wednesday, when Lawson called to see me at my house I thought the fat was in the fire all right; but as a matter of fact he didn't know anything about it, and had only come about a horse which I didn't want."

"You didn't go to see the girl?"

"No fear. I was hoping it had all blown over; then, on Friday night, I got a letter from her from London. She had gone up by the afternoon train without saying a word to to her people to see her married sister in Battersea, or some such God-for-saken spot; said she couldn't face her parents. Well, what was I to do? I had to go and see her and find out the worst, so I threw a few things in a suitcase and caught the evening train to Town. It's nonsense to say I was running away from anything; why, I wrote a note that evening to Miss Featherstone here telling her about it."

"Is that true Miss Featherstone?"

Nancy gave a despairing sort of sigh. "Yes, it's true enough," she said. "All this stupid mess up is entirely my fault, I can see that now."

"What happened in London?" Hylton cut in.

"I went down to the address she wrote from, in this ghastly Battersea place and there she was with her sister. I will say her sister acted like a brick; between us we settled the matter without trouble."

A lengthy silence followed this illuminating narrative; before the silence was broken Nancy turned and quietly left the room, and Hylton, though aware of what she was doing, did nothing to hinder her.

"So your skin's safe," he said eventually to Shipley.

Dale laughed awkwardly. "All that's over anyway, and it's got nothing to do with Arthur Burdett. I didn't go near the old fool on Monday, and what's more there isn't anyone in the world who can possibly prove that I did."

"And what about that murderous stick of ours?"

"My stick? I always take that with me when I'm walking, especially at night. I've trimmed up half a dozen poachers with that before now."

"Um." Kingsley Hylton gazed at the unwontedly communicative young gentleman and unconsciously shook his head sadly; he was loath to relinquish what had just begun to promise to turn into a cast-iron case.

"I haven't the slightest idea whether you're lying or not," he said at length. "I can check up on your story, of course, to a certain extent—what's the address in Battersea you went to?"

"93 Park House Drive."

"Um. We'll see about all that—but whether you're lying or not you are still under suspicion of murdering Arthur Burdett. I shall have a constable up at your place tonight and for the next few days so don't try any tricks."

Shipley gets a broad hint, tomorrow.

The News Behind The News

WASHINGTON

By Ray Tucker

A CABINET member high in President Roosevelt's confidence has furnished a tip on the indirect attack the Democrats will make against Alf Landon.

The Cabineteer, who is noted for his stinging style, was prompted to propose this strategy by William Allen White's biography of the G.O.P. in a national weekly. Writing to a friend, the Cabinet member said, in effect: "The article pictures Mr. Landon as a likeable, friendly, successful business man, but no more than that. . . . You could cross out the name of Landon, insert the name of any man in 10,000 towns and cities, and the article would apply to him. Perhaps we need that type of man as President these days, but I don't think so."

Not all New Dealers favor this sort of strategy. The more canny realize that average men far outnumber the geniuses among the voters. Nevertheless, Democratic speakers will covertly ring the changes on this theme in the campaign.

PROMISED: Although both parties will take to the air in the campaign, so far the Republicans have framed a more elaborate radio program than the Democrats.

For radio director the G.O.P. has chosen Hill Blackett, who heads an agency that leads the field in handling serial advertising. Two men formerly connected with national chains are associated with him. The Landonites will spend $1,000,000 for radio time as against $500,000 in 1932. At a recent luncheon to 100 radio station owners and managers Mr. Blackett promised that many reforms advocated by them would be inaugurated in the event of a Republican victory.

Governor Landon underwrote Mr. Blackett's pledges in a letter to Broadcasting Magazine. He promised to supplant the Federal Communications commission with a permanent regulatory body—"a Supreme court for radio." He also indicated that he would grant licenses for three years instead of six months, thereby ending the feeling of insecurity which bothers broadcasters.

KEY: New Deal financiers are privately disappointed at the veterans' slowness in turning their bonus into cash. Only $1,000,000,000 of $1,900,000,000 worth of securities have been liquidated since the bonds were issued on June 15.

When the measure was under discussion on Capitol Hill administration opponents argued that the money would be wastefully spent. Upon passage they sermonized on the need for saving the bonds to maturity in 1945 so as to accumulate annual interest of 3 per cent. But privately they were counting on the flow of these funds into consumer channels to stimulate trade and industry, offsetting the seasonal summer lag. Official orders emphasized the importance of haste in distributing the bonds.

Official Washington still hopes that the veterans will cut loose and that July figures will show signs of more generous spending. In fact, the fear that this $2,000,000,000 would soon back up on the banks was a key factor in the Federal Reserve decision to stiffen reserve requirements.

SUCKERS: SEC scouts report that returning prosperity has boomed the market for fake and fantastic stocks. The more money the credulous have, the sooner do they part with it.

In Florida 70,000 people bought $1,300,000 worth of stock in a cultivated oyster farm. The promoters leased 500 acres of supposed beds for $500, and that was their whole investment. The only oysters they fingered were on the half-shell. In Chicago eight men were recently convicted for selling millions worth of stock to "heirs" to Sir Francis Drake's $27,000,000,000 estate. They broadcast that the head of the firm was "involved in government business"; they didn't explain that he is an inmate of Leavenworth prison—where he was sent for perpetrating the same swindle in Iowa a few years ago.

Some SEC-ers wonder if it's worthwhile to pass laws and set up regulatory agencies to protect people from themselves.

DIFFICULT: New Dealers are chuckling over a letter sent to a subscriber by the editor of a farm journal which recently published a poll favoring Alf Landon over President Roosevelt. The subscriber, a rabid Democrat, forwarded the missive to his favorite Cabinet member.

Said the editor: "You seem to believe very thoroughly in Mr. Roosevelt and his methods, and if so, I am sure you are going to be very unhappy if you continue to read the ——. We expect to do our best to stop Mr. Roosevelt's borrowing, spending, budget deficits and increasing taxes, which is about the only contribution that Mr. Roosevelt has made to returning prosperity.

"Would you not be much happier reading some other farm magazine which supports Mr. Roosevelt—if you can find one?"

NEW YORK

By James McMullin

ONE of the key Landon men from the Midwest puts forward the suggestion that it may be a long time before we have any more second term Presidents in the United States. Coming from a source so close to the candidate, New Yorkers who know about it are moved to wonder whether Landon himself shares this view.

Quite a few leaders of financial opinion have long felt that it would improve the standard of our government if the President were not eligible for reelection. They feel that the Chief Executive could then devote himself wholeheartedly to his job without being hampered by political considerations. Some of them go so far as to suggest that it would be most constructive if Landon were to announce that he is not interested in reelection, but only in four years of efficient administration.

However, keen observers doubt that such a statement would be politically helpful even if the governor were disposed to make it. They remark that it might dampen the ardor of G.O.P. party workers if they foresaw a comparable shortening of their own careers in public office.

HOLDOUT: New York learns that Senate Progressives are deferring the demonstration of support for FDR they have been planning because of a lack of unity in their ranks.

Bob LaFollette of Wisconsin and George Norris of Nebraska are ready to play, of course. So is Hiram Johnson of California and—with mild reservations—Farm Laborite Henrik Shipstead of Minnesota. The latter's colleague—Elmer Benson—is holding back a bit, but he won't be a serious obstacle. Lynn Frazier and Gerald Nye of North Dakota—Bill Lemke's state—are not committed as yet, but the betting is 5 to 1 that they will climb aboard the Roosevelt bandwagon long before November.

The real holdout is Democrat Burton K. Wheeler of Montana. He privately has never been very fond of Mr. Roosevelt, even though he sponsored the administration's famous Wheeler-Rayburn bill in the Senate. He is resisting suggestions that he line up for FDR with his leftish senatorial associates—says he wants more time to study the situation. The other Progressives don't like to move without him as long as there is any hope of winning him over.

KEY: In some respects Wheeler is the most important man of those named above for Roosevelt to have on his side. He has a strong popular following in the Dakotas as well as in his home state—and it is precisely in this area that the Lemke ticket is most likely to hurt the President.

There is reason to believe that Wheeler realizes he occupies a key position, and it is sound political tradition that he should play on it for his own advantage.

ARGUMENT: A campaign argument being widely developed among industrial policy holders runs this way: "Your insurance policy won't be worth much to your family if Roosevelt is reelected. His assaults on 'wealth' include the insurance companies—and that means all beneficiaries."

COULD HARDLY RAISE ARMS SO STIFF WITH RHEUMATISM R. U. X. BRINGS QUICK RELIEF

"Can Now Use Arms and Hands to Do My Own Work. Am More Than Pleased With Results," Says Grateful Housewife

Many men and women who read this are desperate with the fear and agony of rheumatic pains. How well you know!—you sufferers—what this scourge of mankind means to its victims! Long, sleepless nights—racked with pain; dull, half-alive days—crippled with the horror of neuritic agony; inflamed aching muscles and joints—every fibre of your body crying for relief and peace; tissues loaded with impure deposits of body poison . . . In desperation, you have tried salves, liniments, "cure-alls." Disillusioned —discouraged —life has little meaning for you today.

Amazing Relief

But at last there is a message of genuine hope for you. Read the amazing sworn testimony furnished to the John Halsey Drug Store, from Mrs. Rebecca J. Newmon, R. F. D. 5, Abilene, Texas:

"I suffered with rheumatism or neuritis in my hands and arms for some time, gradually getting worse. My fingers became so stiff that I finally had no use of them, and I got to the point where I could hardly raise my arms.

"After commencing to take Williams R.U.X. Compound, my trouble has disappeared. My hands and fingers are now so that I can do my housework, and I have even begun to do sewing again. Am more than pleased with the results as I had taken other medicines with absolutely no benefit and am happy to recommend R.U.X. Compound to anyone."

Doctor's Prescription

Developed from the experience of an army doctor during the World War, this remarkable medicine is now available to you under the name of Williams R.U.X. TARZAN AND THE LEOPARD MEN, No. 5

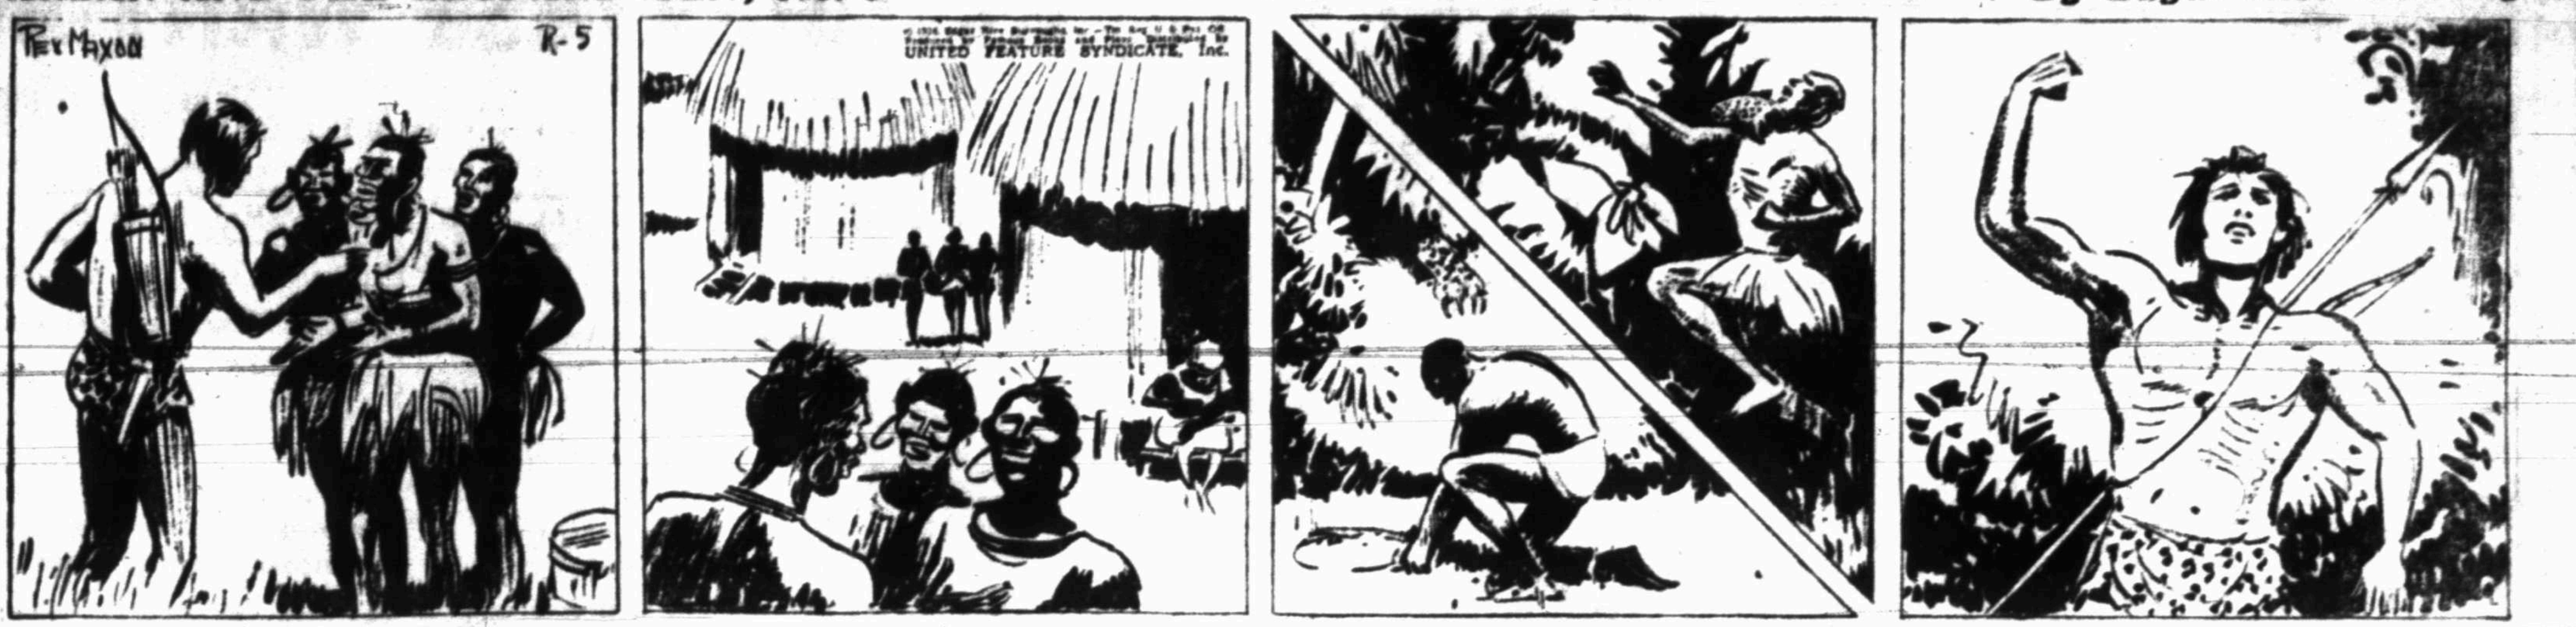
By Edgar Rice Burroughs



Despite all his urging, no tribesman would impart to Tarzan the secret of the Taloned Death, for fear that the wrath of the Terrible Spectre would alight upon him who was their greatest friend. For several days there was peace and quiet in the village of Gowando.

The villagers whispered happily to one another. "The Taloned Death has fled. It fears Tarzan. Tarzan is mightier than the Evil Thing." The ape-man, too, began to believe that the mysterious killer had been halted. Then it appeared again—more terrible than ever.

A hunter inspecting his traps was slain! A courier on his way to a neighboring village was struck down! Each victim bore the telltale marks of the Taloned Death! Once more the mysterious jungle killer was abroad, in seeming defiance of the mighty Jungle Lord.

Tarzan carefully surveyed the victims, but no clue could he find to aid him in tracking down the mysterious Thing that killed apparently for the love of killing. Fury seized him. "I shall solve this mystery," he declared. "I'll destroy this thing—or be destroyed!"

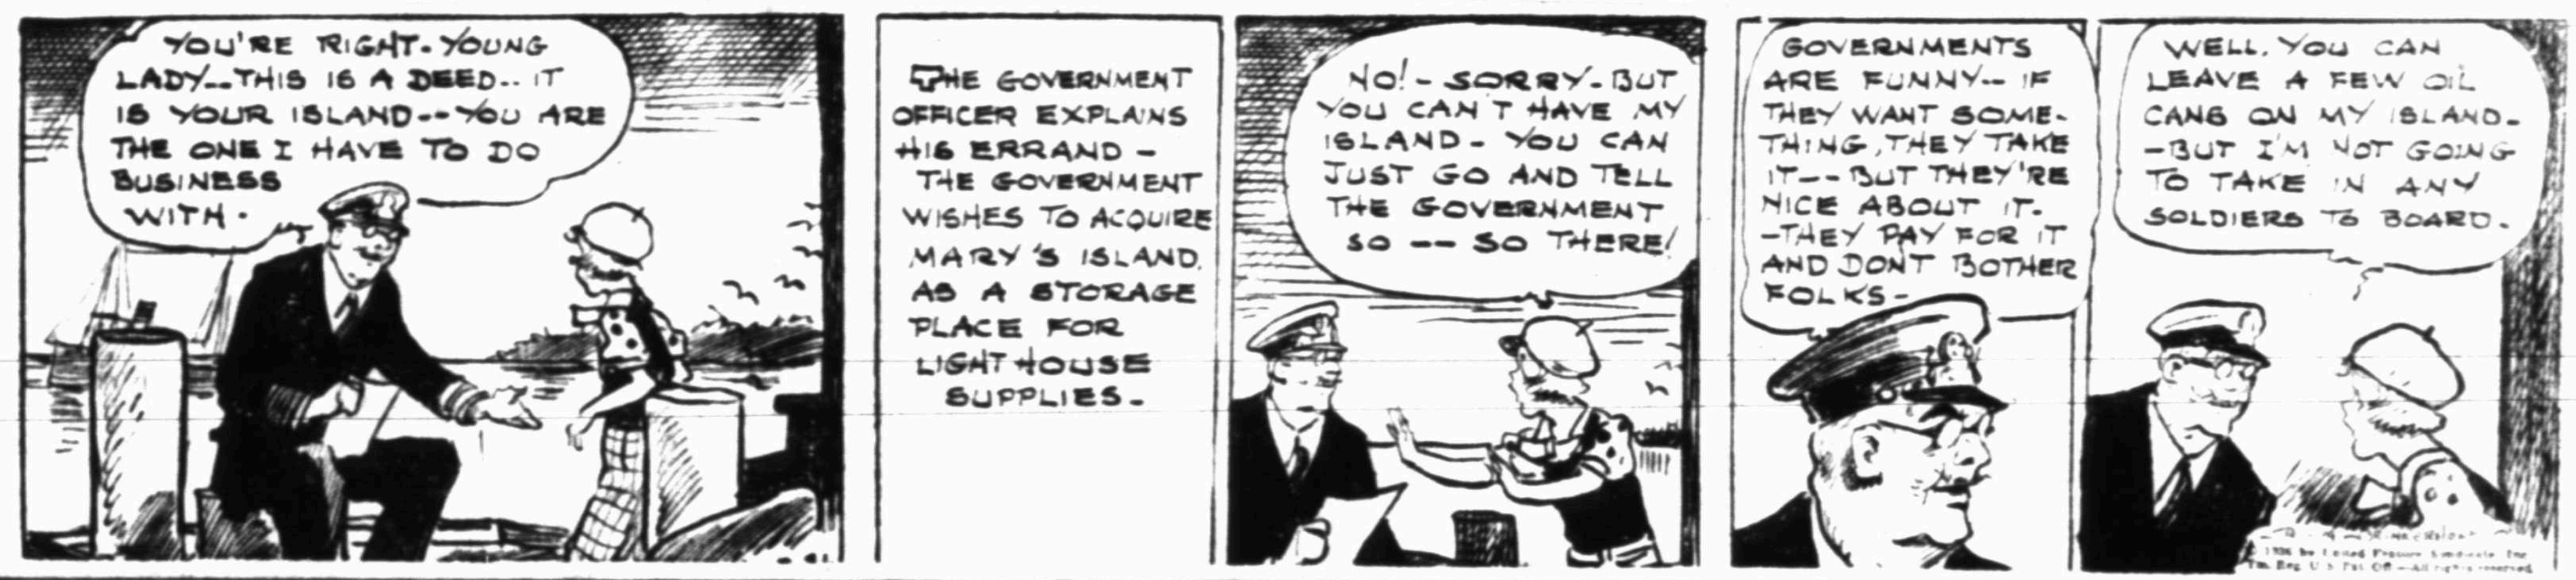
By Brinkerhoff



YOU'RE RIGHT-YOUNG LADY--THIS IS A DEED--IT IS YOUR ISLAND--YOU ARE THE ONE I HAVE TO DO BUSINESS WITH-THE GOVERNMENT OFFICER EXPLAINS HIS ERRAND - THE GOVERNMENT WISHES TO ACQUIRE MARY'S ISLAND AS A STORAGE PLACE FOR LIGHTHOUSE SUPPLIES-
NO!-SORRY-BUT YOU CAN'T HAVE MY ISLAND-YOU CAN JUST GO AND TELL THE GOVERNMENT SO -- SO THERE!
GOVERNMENTS ARE FUNNY-- IF THEY WANT SOMETHING, THEY TAKE IT--BUT THEY'RE NICE ABOUT IT. -THEY PAY FOR IT AND DON'T BOTHER FOLKS-
WELL, YOU CAN LEAVE A FEW OIL CANS ON MY ISLAND- -BUT I'M NOT GOING TO TAKE IN ANY SOLDIERS TO BOARD-

GET IT DONE WHILE YOU HAVE THE CHANCE - - -

The government pays 40c per hundred running feet for terraces. It will pay you to get these terraces built this fall. By doing so, you will let the government pay the bill and you will have permanent crop yields that are one-third to one-half more. A Texas terracer is economical and efficient.

cture Of Drouth Situation And Relief Needs To Be Presented To President Next Week By Sec. Wallace

By FRANK I. WELLER
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, July 30. — Sec ry Wallace drafted today a nded picture of the drouth blem, and relief efforts, for pres tion to President Roosevelt at e Park next week.

multaneously, the Great Plains uth area committee mapped an itious itinerary for inspecting drouth regions, winding up with conference with the chief execu in the Dakotas next month.

To Make Tour

The committee, acting on White se instructions, will leave Wash ton August 12 or 15 by automo e on a tour to terminate at either pid City or Aberdeen, South Da ta, August 22.

Officials said that in Wallace's rt to the president, he would phasize the importance of the ating between the Great Plains mittee and the planning com sion for the Dakotas, Montana d Wyoming under the chairman of W. R. Ronald, Mitchell, S. ublisher.

To Exchange Views

The four-state commission post ed from August 8 to August 23 executive conference at Aberdeen the express purpose of ex nging views with the president's mittee.

Wallace, officials said, found some flict between bureaus when he iewed the government's drouth p this week and in a secret meet of inter-departmental leaders ped a program in which each alloted definite functions.

"The result," said an attache of secretary's office, "was a well- d machine in which the inde dent efforts of the Resettlement inistration, the Public Works inistration, the AAA and the m Credit administration are ected to mesh as correlated ."

To Leave Amarillo

orris L. Cooke, chairman of the eat Plains committee said the in ection party expected to leave marillo, Tex., on August 18 for arden City, Kas., from which it ould head to Wray, Colo., on Aug. 19; Chadron, Neb., 20; Pierre, S. 21; Aberdeen, S. D., 22; Bis arck, N. D., 23; Miles City, Mont., Gillette, Wyo., 25; and Rapid ity, S. D., 26.

The dates, Cooke said, were sub t to change.

During the day the department agriculture reported that be se of the drouth an increased ount of pork at seasonally lower ices was in prospect this fall and nter, and estimated that about pe cent of the total corn acre in part of the main belt was aged beyond recovery.

e Castle McLaughlin Is ain In Midst Of Dog Fight; Chicago Has Scare Of Rabies

CHICAGO, July 30. (AP) — Mrs. e Castle McLaughlin, who ed from dancing stardom to ume the role of "champion of dogs," called for a fight against drastic quarantine on the ani s today.

rabies scare in Chicago mpted the execution of almost of the pets in the gas cham at the city pound. Police were horized to shoot unleashed s on sight. Transportation of s into or out of Cook county was bidden.

"Grossly Exaggerated"

Mrs. McLaughlin—she calls her lf "the champion of all dogs—par ularly the poor man's dog"—de red the whole affair was "gross exaggerated."

She said she had detected no sign the disease in her "orphans of e storm" dog refuge. She added: "I have yet to see a case of ra s and I take in dogs suffering m exposure or starvation which uld be easy prey to anything. I in fully 8,000 dogs last year."

One ray of hope, she said, was the new orders affecting dogs y spell the doom of the tyran al city dog ordinance which I ve been fighting for five years."

Under the ordinance, all dogs un imed at the city pound after e days are turned over to uni rsity laboratories. In the current uation marked by three deaths widespread treatment for bites, "grace" has been limited to 24 s.

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, July 30. (AP)—The stock market sat up today and took a little recovery nourishment.

While the list continued to cope with profit-taking in many departments, an early rally in yesterday's heavy steels and motors brightened the horizon for bullish forces and several of the aviation, alcohol, amusement, rubber, rail and specialty issues were singled out for buying attention.

The flow of favorable business and industrial news tended to keep further realizing within bounds and stimulate extension of commitments in equities showing promise of higher earnings and dividends.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks came back .2 of a point to 68.2. Transfers totalled 1,512,930 shares against 1,947,880 in the preceding session.

Improvement in the steels was attributed to further study of the U. S. Steel report and the general conclusion it was much better than indicated at first glance. After the close Bethlehem released its second quarter statement disclosing the best net for any period, with one exception, since 1930.

Cotton

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, July 30. (AP)—The cotton market was in the doldrums today and prices drifted along with no important changes.

After opening irregularly lower the market encountered hedge selling and stop-loss sales and dipped a few points, only to recover and finish with net advances of 4 to 5 points.

Oct. closed at 12.08, Dec. at 12.20, Jan. at 12.02 and March and May at 12.03. Spots moved upward 4 points with middling at New Orleans 12.86.

Crop news continued to be the most important market factor.

The weather map disclosed that the showers received yesterday by Oklahoma were scattered and fell more on the wheat region of the extreme west than the cotton area.

Other parts of the belt had little rain and temperatures were about normal. More crop estimates appeared and ranged from 11,831,000 bales to 13,126,000 bales. Both forecasts issued were well below the cotton cooperatives figure and more in line with trade expectations.

AVERAGE PRICE

NEW ORLEANS, July 30. (AP)—The average price of middling cotton today at ten southern spot markets was 12.68 cents a pound.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, July 30. (AP)—Cotton, after breaking below the 12-cent level under further liquidation, rallied during today's late trading. December sold up from 11.98 @12.10 and closed at 12.07. The general market ended steady at net advances of 4 to 5 points.

The opening was barely steady at a decline of 3 points to an advance of 1 point. Buying on relatively steady Liverpool cables and lower private crop figures was offset by hedging and liquidation at the start. Prices steadied right after the call, selling about 7 to 8 points net higher. This bulge met renewed liquidation and after early buyers had been supplied, prices reached the lowest levels of the day.

Some stop orders were uncovered on the break which carried the market back nearly to levels prevailing before publication of the government acreage figures July 8. After their execution, offerings were lighter and there were some rallies of 13 to 18 points from the lowest.

Cox, who was arrested at his home after Bohannon's capture, will be charged with assisting a fugitive from justice, the sheriff said. Mrs. Bohannon, reunited with her daughter, expected to go to her father's home near here tonight.

Garrett, Sheriff Henry J. Brooks of Bowie county, deputies John Tigert, Bill Powell, Joe Telford and W. A. Stout made up the posse which captured Bohannon. Other posses were sent out to watch all roads.

Officers said Bohannon appeared to be suffering from lack of food, and was raggedly dressed. He cursed the officers but made no statement, they said.

Corn Pits Most Active

The most sensational activity occurred today in the corn pits. The markets were influenced partly by a statement attributed to Secretary of Agriculture Wallace to the effect that only generous rainfall in the next week or 10 days could prevent the 1936 corn crop from being the smallest since 1881. He indicated the crop may be more than a billion bushels below normal.

September corn closed at 98 cents a bushel in Chicago, the highest this delivery has been since 1930, December corn was 90 5-8 cents.

Parents To Claim Daughter's Body

TULSA, Okla., July 30. (AP)—W. S. Collier, airport operator, who arrived here today by plane, said the parents of Ava Courtney, Tulsa stenographer killed in an automobile accident near Lubbock, Tex., yesterday, would come to Tulsa to claim the body.

Collier said the parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Courtney, who live near Inola, 40 miles southeast of here, were informed of the death of their daughter and would be here when the body arrives tomorrow.

Collier, suffering from shock and injuries received in the accident, said officials at the hospital where he was taken for treatment had given him Miss Courtney's small stone-set band ring, not a wedding ring, and her watch to give to her parents.

"I had been at Plainview, Tex., endeavoring to dispose of property I own there and had gone over to Abilene to pick up Miss Courtney, who had been visiting relatives in Texas," Collier said. "We were going about 45 miles an hour when the accident occurred."

Illegal Labeling Of Liquors Cited

AUSTIN, July 30. (AP)—Charles R. Miller, state administrator, said an investigation by the state liquor control board's enforcement division disclosed today that several out-of-state breweries were placing ale labels on beverages containing four per cent alcohol or less.

"Apparently these labels were placed on the weaker beverage with no other purpose than to appeal to persons who wanted a stronger malt drink," Miller said.

He said the action is illegal and will be stopped by September 1.

Representatives Dismissed

At Burgos, a rebel provisional government, informed Spanish diplomatic and consular representatives throughout the world they have been dismissed.

(Leftist ambassadors in the Argentine, Italy and Germany resigned, indicating belief the rebels may control the homeland.)

The fate of Madrid was uncertain. Loyalists said rebels retreated under a barrage of artillery fire. Fascists, on the other hand, claimed new victory there, and asserted forces were gathering to assault the narrow passes leading to the capital.

In the Gibraltar straits west of Algeciras, rebels fired on the loyal Spanish cruiser Cervantes.

France May Supply Arms

(France, watching signs of increasing Fascist strength, indicated arms may be supplied to the republic to aid the fight.)

The battle for Zaragoza marked heaviest fighting of the day. The loyalists were said to have been ambushed in a pass about 20 miles outside the northern city. Rebels had mounted machine guns on the hills guarding the pass and fired in bursts as loyalists marched in. The government sent warplanes and reinforcements.

The Catalonian cabinet in extraordinary session, after denying reports of seizure of foreign factories, said the autonomous government will be enlarged to include representatives of all leftist parties and labor unions.

The report, he said, would be redrafted by Sullivan "according to changes agreed to' at the meeting of five of the eight committee members in Chicago the past two days.

"The report will then be mailed to each member for signature," said Bell, indicating he believed that "a majority of the quorum which met here will sign the report." The final report will be made public probably in Washington.

AUSTIN, July 30. (AP)—Governor Allred said today he had conferred with Oscar Powell of San Antonio, regional director for the social security board, on the social security act as applicable to Texas.

The Texas planning board has begun a study of the social security program and will make a full report to the governor with references to any needed state legislation.

Governor Allred indicated, however, that these matters were not to be considered as presaging a special session of the legislature this fall.

"My mind is entirely open on that subject," he said. "We are studying all angles."

The governor said the old age pension situation in Texas was "good" and increased revenue from the liquor tax was expected in September.

Farnsworth Denies He Sold Defense Secrets To Japan

WASHINGTON, July 30. (AP) — John S. Farnsworth, whose career in the American navy ended dismally in court martial a number of years ago, denied in the District of Columbia federal court today that he betrayed his country's defense secrets to a foreign power.

The former lieutenant commander appeared before Justice Oscar Luhring to plead innocence to two offenses charged by a federal grand jury.

The indictment returned by the jury last week said Farnsworth delivered a confidential naval publication, "the service of information and security," to a Japanese agent in August, 1934. It also charged he had attempted to make such a delivery.

Farnsworth, seemingly cheery and confident, was returned to the district jail after the arraignment to await trial before a federal court jury early in October.

UVALDE, July 30. (AP)—Catching insects with which to rid West Texas ranges of prickly pear is the work of three Uvaldeans — Garden and Herbert Barnett and Douglas Pogue —but catching rattlesnakes is their hobby.

While in the field the trio frequently encounter the reptiles and, by means of a stout cord attached to a stick, capture the rattlesnakes alive and bring them here for display.

The display, containing two more than five feet in length, has attracted the attention of out-of-state tourists, many of whom had never previously seen a Texas diamondback rattler.

Landon Gives Labor Opinion

Kansas Governor Says Right Of Unions To Sponsor Organization Should Be Given Full Protection

am opposed to any such infringement.

"The workers have the right to meet among themselves or with others of their own choice to promote organization, with complete freedom from interference from anyone whatsoever. The workers should be fully protected in this right by the public authorities.

Necessarily Includes Right

"This necessarily includes the right of a labor union to promote by lawful and proper means the organization of an unorganized industry, which includes the right to send in an organizer."

In New York Thomas, commenting late today on Landon's letter said "It would seem Governor Landon has recognized as legitimate the activities of the committee on industrial organization and of the Southern Tenant Farmers association."

The "serious labor disturbance" referred to by Landon was a lead and zinc mine and smelting strike in June and July 1935. It covered sections of Kansas, Missouri and Oklahoma.

"I acceded to a request, jointly preferred by the sheriff and prosecuting attorney of Cherokee county that I send troops to maintain order," Landon said. "I instructed the troops, through the adjutant general of Kansas, to maintain order, to disarm all armed civilians, including the armed guards employed by the smelter and mine operators, and those that may have been armed in behalf of the labor groups . . .

Ordered Not To Interfere

"The troops, however, were directed not to interefere with labor meetings and other activities of the strikers, so long as they were peaceably conducted. This included picketing, and both meetings and pickets were protected from possible violence of any kind."

Landon gave out his letter to Thomas at a press conference.

The Kansan's first eastern swing, scheduled for late August, will take him into Mahoning Valley steel and coal area of Pennsylvania and Ohio. John L. Lewis' committee for industrial organization, has sent labor organizers into this and other sections in an effort to organize the giant steel industry.

Strong Cotton Market Seen

Agriculture Department's Report On World Prospects Is Bright For U. S. Outlook; Price Average Good

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, July 30.—A strong market position for cotton was indicated today by an agriculture department report on world cotton prospects.

Rising prices during June and early July were attributed to the high level of world consumption of American cotton compared with last year, the small supply in private hands, reduction in stocks of government-financed cotton, and a belief that the coming crop would show only a moderate increase over last year's.

The bureau of agricultural economics said the highest daily price for cotton this season was 13.42 cents July 10 with an average of 13.08 for the week ending July 18.

The condition of the domestic cotton textile industry was reported improved during the last two months with mill consumption in June at 556,000 bales compared to 384,000 bales in June last year.

Mr. Bullock will be in charge of four districts, 13, 16, 17 and 18, with offices at Amarillo, Lubbock, Big Spring and Abilene.

Headquarters will be in the office in the West Texas Gas company building, in which Calvin Hazelwood, district supervisor, is located.

Mr. Bullock is well known in this section. He was for several years secretary of the Ralls Chamber of Commerce, going to Quanah about three years ago. Last December he resigned to accept the NYA post.

Just as soon as he can locate a house, he plans to move Mrs. Bullock and their family here, he said. The transfer is effective Aug. 1.

Marlene Dietrich Says She Is Never To Return To Germany

LONDON, July 30. (AP) — Marlene Dietrich, arriving in London today from Paris, said she planned "never to go back" to her native Germany.

Asked "don't you like the current Germans?" she replied "they don't like me."

Miss Dietrich asserted she was Aryan, but she did not explain her stand further. The reich has banned most of her films.

The film star was accompanied by her husband, Rudolph Seiber, but her daughter remained in Paris.

India has princes rich enough to own private railroads to carry them around their vast estates, and other classes so poor that they have no other form of transportation than by foot.

Many Visitors At Observatory Site

McDONALD OBSERVATORY, Mount Locke, Jeff Davis County, July 30. (AP)—Many tourists daily drive the 17 miles from the Fort Davis-Balmorhea highway to the top of Mount Locke, expecting to see the big telescope. However, it isn't there. Workmen are installing some of the machinery in the aluminum dome but it will be late in the fall, or possibly the first of the year, before the three-ton glass disc is hoisted into place to extend, perhaps, the known frontier of the universe.

J. C. Kline, field superintendent for construction, gives information to inquiring sightseers. Here also are Dr. C. T. Elvey and Dr. Franklin Roach from the Yerkes Observatory, which is co-operating with the University of Texas in staffing the McDonald Observatory. They are engaged in measuring night light with a 12-inch refractor, taking readings from the rain guage, recording thermometor and other weather measuring instruments.

To Be Self-Sustaining

The observatory will be a self-sustaining unit. The water well, 900 feet deep, is down the slope and a small electric power plant supplies power for pumping and other present operations. It soon will be supplemented by a larger plant to turn the big dome and elevate the telescope.

A sign informs sightseers the elevation is 6,800 feet and the telescope will be the second largest in the world when completed. The glass measures nearly a foot in thickness and 83 inches in diameter. Later an observatory in California will have a mirror 200 inches in diameter.

Toward the west Mount Livermore is visible, its 8,200 feet rising the highest in the Davis range. Beside it is Sawtooth and in the foreground the Blue Mountain. To the left Mitre Peak rears its conical head. Saddle Mountain also is within view, and in the notch, 50 miles away, Cathedral Mountains of Mexico across the Rio Grande, 125 miles away.

A memorial avenue of trees, 24 miles long, was planted along the road to the tomb of Ieyasu, Papanese leader. Although planted in 1651, 18,308 of the trees still stand.

Purchase was made possible by pledges underwritten by local men who are paying them at the rate of 10 per cent per month.

There are about 100 persons in all belonging to the local group, including women and children. Plans are being drawn for the remodeling work.

Scientists Study To Find Family Tie Between Prehistoric Citizens Of U.S. And Folsom Man; Ruins Are Found

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, July 30.—Scientists who uncovered a forgotten Indian city near Jonesville, La., studied today to find a family tie between its prehistoric citizens and the Folsom man, America's oldest known inhabitant.

How long the mounds of Jonesville were a site for human quarters the scientists cannot say, but the "city" was probably one of the largest settlements west of the Mississippi river when Columbus discovered America.

De Soto Found It

When Hernandez De Soto, the Spanish explorer, came upon the ancient "city" in 1542, it was at the height of its prosperity, according to Winslow M. Walker, who began excavating at Jonesville as a member of the Smithsonian staff in 1932.

Under the city that De Soto saw, Walker found the remains of other, older settlements going back into unknown antiquity, the Smithsonian announced today.

How far these ancient mounds go back toward the time estimated at 10,000 years ago, when the Folsom man lived in America, the scientists have not determined.

TO ADD TO PARK

UVALDE, July 30. (AP)—M. B. Walcott, county judge, says arrangements have been made to add 150 acres to the Garner state park in the main Frio canyon, 25 miles north of here. The additional land will increase the acreage of the park, named in honor of Vice President John N. Garner, to more than 700.

Addition of the land will give the park one and one half miles more frontage along the main Frio river. More buildings, roads and trails will be constructed, and dams will be built in the river to provide fishing and swimming places, Judge Walcott said.
