Three Car Crash Hurts Teen-agers

Jay Boy Adams, 13, was reported by Root Memorial Hospital to be resting well, Saturday at noon, following surgery Friday night to reduce a fracture of his left ankle.

Young Adams was a passenger in one of three cars which were involved in a threeway collision, intersection of Hickory and East 12th St. at 5:52 Friday afternoon.

He also suffered severe abrasions and bruises. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Adams of 745 East 15th St.

Still hospitalized Saturday, also was Mike McAdams, 13 year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. K. C. McAdams, 705 Houston St.

McAdams received cuts, abrasions and facial contussions. He remained in Root Memorial Hospital for observation and for x-ray studies.

Billie Don Craig, 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Craig, 1460 Austin St., was released from the hospital after a check for injuries.

Amy Del Real, 18, who lives on Fairmount St., was given emergency treatment for contusion on her right forearm and released shortly after the accident.

Adams, McAdams and Craig were riding in a car driven by Don Latimer, 16 year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis L. Latimer, 149 West 11th St., when the accident happened, according to police. Adams was riding in the center of the front seat, Craig in the right front. McAdams was in the right rear seat of the Latimer car, a '56 four-door Ford owned by Dan and his brother Don Latimer.

Rita Cienega Pineda, 18 year-old drive-in car hop, was driving the second car involved, a '53 Dodge owned by her father, Jesus Pineda. Miss Del Real was riding with Miss Pineda.

Third car was driven by Rebecca Ann Palmer, 15-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Palmer of 406 East 18th St. Riding in the Palmer '57 Buick was Jana Mahon, daughter of District Judge and Mrs. Eldon Mahon, 1508 Dallas St. Neither girl was hurt.

Police reported the Latimer car was traveling on East 12th. The Pineda car was traveling north on Hickory St. The Palmer car was going west on East 12th.

The Latimer car and the Pineda auto were in collision in the initial phase of the accident. Damaged at the left front fender area, the Pineda car was spun around in an easterly direction.

With the impact of the collision, the Latimer car skidded approximately 40 feet head-on into the Palmer car, according to City Patrolman Billie Henderson, who investigated the accident.

Damages to the three automobiles were estimated as approximately $500 to the Latimer car, $200 to the Pineda car and $100 to the Palmer car.

Oldest Club Marks Anniversary's Date

BY RUTH COFFEY
Record News Editor

The oldest study club in Colorado City — and one of the oldest in the state of Texas — celebrated a 70th anniversary with a party for 150 guests Friday. The birthday celebration was a tea hosted by Hesperian Study Club in Medallion Room at Lone Wolf Electric Co-op building.

Among guests of honor here for the occasion were Mrs. A. T. Carlton, of Houston, president of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, Mrs. L. E. Dudley, Abilene, state parliamentarian, Mrs. R. W. Herren, of Haskell, president of the Mesquite District Federation, and Mrs. H. Jene Steakley, of Colorado City, vice-president of Mesquite District.

Here too, for the Hesperian Club birthday tea party were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shepherd of Houston. Mr. Shepherd is son of the late Judge and Mrs. Shepherd. His mother was an early-day Hesperian member and president.

Mrs. S. H. Millwee, the club's only life member, was here for the event from Amarillo.

Introduced by Hesperian president Mrs. Charles C. Thompson, Mrs. Millwee gave a witty commentary on "The club ladies as I knew them when — they took their work very seriously, sometimes kept Hesperian husbands waiting until after dark for supper while they studied Shakespeare, and never missed a meeting unless they were out of town or unconscious."

Mrs. H. B. Broaddus, a state Federation Board life member and a former Hesperian president, was also presented to the guests by Mrs. Thompson. Mrs. H. G. Towle of Snyder Mr. and Mrs. Jim Greene of Big Spring and Mrs. Leroy Gressett were among other out-of-town guests present.

Stansel Whipkey, of Houston, son of a club president the late Mrs. A. L. Whipkey, Mr. and Mrs. Ford Merritt and Mrs. Jake Merritt attended as a tribute to their mother, the late Mrs. J. G. Merritt, a former club president and Hesperian member for more than 50 years of her lifetime.

Mrs. Jim Watson gave high lights of the club's origin and history. First organized as "The Up to Date Club," in

Almost an Orchid

This iris is a gorgeous flower, so beautiful that one feels that it is almost an orchid. But on the flower market the iris brings no premium; it is no substitute for an orchid. There are substitutes for many things in life, but as there is none for the orchid, just so is there none for Christianity. Only the real thing gives life and that abundantly. Go to Church this week and partake of the blessing God offers to you.

EVERYONE IN THE CHURCH ... THE CHURCH IN EVERYONE

Is something wrong with your life—an inner restless dissatisfaction? The answer to every human problem comes only from God our Maker. He alone can forgive and reassure.

Through the church God has committed the provision and proclamation of His forgiveness and redeeming love. Without a church relation no one is securely related to God. Everyone should be in the Church and the Church in everyone!

CONVERSATION CORNER

ONE OF THOSE psychiatrists who goes about making speeches concerning the perils of being human has conceded that it's all right to be neurotic if you're in competitive business.

This Dr. C. Knight Aldrich who heads the Department of Psychiatry for University of Chicago says "Neurotic competitiveness can bring lavish rewards in a business career."

* * *

THAT'S NICE to know. At least those of us who are still waiting around for lavish awards in a business career can console ourselves with knowing we haven't got lavish rewards simply because we do not suffer from "neurotic competitiveness," whatever that is.

Dr. Aldrich even goes so far as to hail being "a perfectionist—who is nervous when things aren't perfect" when it applies to the business world. "The perfectionist will work night and day while a better adjusted competitor relaxes with the family."

* * *

TELL YOU WHAT. Anybody in this business of newspaper editing who "gets nervous when things aren't perfect" is in for developing a twitch, a "tic," or worse in no time a-tall.

It feels fine to learn why us "better adjusted" characters can relax rather than "read it and weep"—our mistakes, their mistakes, your mistakes leering at people in print. We just aint got that "neurotic competitiveness," or that "perfectionist streak," that's all.

* * *

COMPETING is for the birds whether it's with a spelling bee, a grand slam hand, big money for "25 words or less" or for the Pulitzer Prize. It's murder on the adrenalin glands, not to mention the disposition.

To ge grown-up is to reach the point when you compete against only one person or thing in this world—YOUR SELF. Your standards. Your former accomplishments. Your personal record or history.

Which still leaves most of us plenty of room for improvement, at that!

* * *

FRIDAY was an old home-week special day, for sure. Over in the Colorado Room saw Martha J. Majors Nickson (Mrs. Ned Sr.) of Roswell who was headed from Big D to Midland, then home again to Roswell.

And saw Fannie Bess Earnest Sivalls (Mrs. D. C.) of Midland lunching with her handsome grandson and with her sister Martha Earnest.

* * *

IN MIDLAND, this week, Fannie Bess of the beauteous platinum hair hosted a party for several of her old C.C.H.S. graduating class and other old-timer belles who had luncheon in the Sivalls home and spent the afternoon conning old scrap books and such.

* * *

CLASSMATES there for the party were C. City's Mrs. Clay Smith (nee Nora Lydia Reese) Mrs. Lloyd Mackey (nee Elsie Lee Majors) Mrs. Eleanor Wheeler (nee Thomas) both of Midland. Others enjoying the gay little reunion were C. City's Mrs. Charles Mann (nee Loree Dorn) and Midland's Kitten Richardson (Mrs. Jake) Mrs. Bill Broaddus (nee Nelta Thomas) Mrs. Walter Rankin (nee Susie Beale Snyder) Mrs. Sol Kelly (nee Lyle Lowe) Mrs. Dick Carter (nee Lillian Dorn) and Natchez, Mississippi's Mrs. Sam Geisenberger (nee Louise Wulfjen.)

* * *

FRIDAY, tea time for Hesperian Club's 70th anniversary, while admiring the lovely arrangement of white flowers sent by the Merritt family in memory of their mother Mrs. J. G. Merritt, got to remembering all at once what it was our City Manager Ford Merritt used to say for fun. Remember?

"I was born at home while Mama was gone to the Hesperian Club," Ford used to like to tease his Mama . . . Or was it Rod Merritt who thought that one up? Anyhow Ford and his Jean and Jake Merritt's Eva dropped in during the party hours.

* * *

STANSEL WHIPKEY of Houston was there, too. He is son of one of the club's other most beloved members the late Mrs. A. L. Whipkey.

Robert Shepherd, attorney of Houston, and his trim little wife Opal came to C-City second time in 47 years to honor the memory of his mother Mrs. J. L. Shepherd an early-day Hesperian president.

Mrs. H. G. Towle of Snyder and the Jim Greenes of Big Spring were here. Mrs. James T. Johnson, sister of Mrs. Towle and Mrs. Green, was a Hesperian life member.

* * *

MRS. S. H. MILLWEE, the club's only life member now, was here from Amarillo as houseguest of her friends the Otto Joneses. Mrs. Millwee, who used to read Shakespeare while washing dishes, Robert Browning while drying 'em, and all the highbrow magazines while she took her short daily rest, is as witty, as pert, as much what people call "an individual" as ever, bless her!

* * *

HESPERIAN TEA was, all in all, one of the prettiest affairs and one of the most memorable parties of this decade.

Among the 150 pretty ladies there was Mary Ruth Rudd (Mrs. Laurence H.) wearing a little love of a spring hat. With her was her mother Mrs. J. B. Campbell of Alvarado and Dr. Rudd's mother Mrs. L. H. Rudd of Burleson.

* * *

"SWEETER than the flowers" were the three C. City ladies in the receiving line. Emmabeth Thompson (Mrs. Charles C.) and Mrs. H. B. Broaddus and our Bobbie Steakley (Mrs. H. Jene) all wearing white corsages and their own special brand of joie de vivre.

Others busy greeting, serving, and registering were Mmes. Bennett Scott, R. J. Wallace, E. H. Winn, Jim Watson, J. A. Sadler, J. D. White—and her mother Mrs. Mills from Ft. Worth—Sam Wulfjen, Nat Thomas, Arthur Barry, Lynn Halbert, Doc Simpson, Edgar Majors and Otto Jones.

'S gone out of style to print the old once popular cliche "A good time was had by all." Anything goes in a column, though. So? So a good time was had by all.

PEGGY'S

Paragraphs

By PEGGY BELVIN

SWEETWATER'S RATTLESNAKE ROUNDUP has been scheduled for next week-end, and it makes me shudder to think about my tomboy childhood.

My Father used to allow my kid brother and me to go along on expeditions to hunt rattlesnakes on clear, late-winter and early-spring days.

Dad would get up, look at the sun, and say something appalling like, "They should be crawling out of the dens today, and be lying in the sun trying to bake the winter cold out of their hides."

So, armed with his gun, his 'toe-sack' and enough water to last a couple of kids through a few pastures, we set out.

We always formed a single line, with Dad in front, my kid brother between, and me bringing up the rear.

This was for reasons of safety, Daddy said. I always thought my kid brother was in the safest spot, and I walked with my head twisted behind me, to make sure one of the things wasn't slithering up the trail behind me.

But, if the middle spot was the safest, guess I have to forgive my Daddy. Because, after all, he has seven daughters, but only ONE son.

WE WERE ALWAYS just as proud of the sack full of snakes we brought back as my father was. Even if we didn't do anything but add a few gray hairs to his head.

And my kid brother always had a tale to spread about how close he stepped to some big rattler before my dad shot his head off.

HE should know so much! Was he the one who had walked in the perilous back of the line, vulnerable to the fangs of any viper who happened to be trailing us?

But he was expected to tell yarns, 'cause he was a boy!

* * *

MY DAD WAS PAPA to three daughters before I was born, and he was so sure I would be the son he had waited for so long.

But boy or no boy, my Father and I were buddies. Even after a boy was finally born, I still went fishing, climbed trees, learned to shoot, learned to cast a line halfway across a lake and learned the fundamentals of how an automobile was put together.

So, on fishing trips, my Dad always took two of his children. Two, dressed in old jeans, with Daddy's worn-out hats on our heads and with our very own cans of worms.

So . . . what if it was true that one of the fishermen hid long hair under her hat and belonged to the Girl Scouts?

It didn't bother me any. And I didn't even wince when I pierced the worm with the hook.

* * *

BUT THOSE WERE THE DAYS before I discovered lipstick, mascara and eye shadow. Those were the days before I discovered how nice it is to be a girl. How nice it is to act demure, to fake helplessness and to flutter eyelashes.

It's hard now to remember the days when it was lots more fun to grab a pole and line and traipse to the fishing hole with Daddy than to sit in a movie and eat popcorn with a favorite boyfriend.

And you know, when I outgrew my fishing jeans and began wearing bouffant and billowy dresses, I don't think my Daddy minded. I think he was glad he lost a son . . . but gained a daughter.

News from the Library

The following is a list of new books just received at the Federation Library. They are available, by request, from Mrs. Boyd Dozier, librarian.

* * *

"THE BATTLE FOR BUNKER HILL," Richard M. Ketchum (Doubleday.) The editor of the American Heritage books describes with considerable elan the "embattled farmers" who gathered at Breed's Hill in 1775 and in the midst of confusion, lack of preparation, and an understandable alarm repulsed two attacks by the thoroughly trained British regulars. With 8 pages of illustrations, endsheet drawing, notes, bibliography and index.

"WREATH FOR A REDHEAD," Peter Chambers (Abelard-Schuman.) Private detective Mark Preston was originally hired by a business tycoon's secretary to stop the blackmail threats of a girl who said the industrialist was the father of her child. Then both blackmailer and victim were killed, and Preston was told to find the murder.

"PA," Colhburn O'Neal (Crown.) The changing fortunes of Pa Randal, dirt farmer of Texas, lean and straight and dependable in good times and bad, and a tower of strength to his family and all who knew him. By the author of "The Gods of Our Time."

"POE: A BIOGRAPHY," William Bittner (Atlantic-Little, Brown.) From 1809 to his death in 1849, the author follows Poe from his birth to an actress in Boston, through his tragic marriage, his unhappy, frenetic life, astonishing productivity as poet and storyteller, and his wretched end.

"A TREASURY OF DRIFTWOOD ARRANGEMENTS," Tatsuo Ishimoto (Crown.) More than 100 new arrangements of driftwood and dried materials, with step by step directions and photographs of each step and the finished arrangement.

"FLOWERS OF THE HOLY LAND," Bertha Spafford Vester (Doubleday.) Seventeen watercolors of flowers painted by Mrs. Vestor, who has lived in the Holy Land about eighty years, with a biography by Lowell Thomas and a note by Norman Vincent Peale.

"HELEN CORBITT'S POT-LUCK," Helen Corbitt (Houghton Mifflin.) The Director of Restaurants at Neiman-Marcus serves potluck meals in the Zodiac Room of the Dallas department store. Here she tells how to prepare meals out of what you have and still make them appetizing. Illustrated with drawings.

Spice CABINET

No Freezer

The frozen food storage compartment or ice cube section of the household refrigerator should never be used as a freezing unit. In fact, it is generally wise never to try to freeze your own foods, as harmful bacteria may develop if it is not done correctly.

Banking, as Farming, Has Come A Long Way Since 1863

In 1863, pen-and-ink records —today, automation.

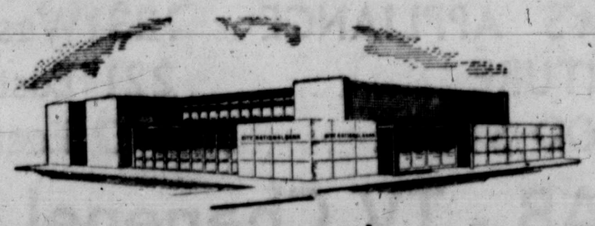

In 1863, Abraham Lincoln signed into law a bill which has proved indeed meaningful to the Nation . . . the National Currency Act. It established a national currency; and Federallychartered banks, to take their place beside the existing state-chartered banks.

If Lincoln had been able to look ahead 100 years and see the far-reaching results, this is what he would have seen:

The U. S. public receiving more than $450 billion per year in personal income; its communities with over 100,000 schools; its citizens owning more than 70 million automobiles. This flourishing state of affairs owes a great deal to the standardization of the currency.

And he would have seen one commercial bank office for every 7,000 persons; 90% of all payments made with bank checks; individual commercial bank savings of about $70 billion; commercial banks having some $130 billion in loans outstanding. A vastly different type of bank building and equipment. Instead of pen-and-ink records—automation. New concepts . . . new and expanded banking services that keep pace with the needs of a forward-looking nation—all these developed because the dual banking system of 1863 sparked a growing era of competition in the banking field.

The evolution of this picture through years of work and study emphasizes commercial banking's unremitting drive to better its best . . . to provide the fullest measure of complete banking service.

Minor League teams, also for boys of 10, 11, and 12, will have as manager for the Texans, the Rev. Alan Conley; for the Cats, Bob Brooks; for the Missions, Price Morris; for Eagles a manager to be named.

Farm League boys — ages 7 to 10— have yet to secure a manager for the Blue Sox. Managers for other teams are: Steers, B. H. Denson; Lions, Forest Yancey; Cubs, Larry Kinard; Colts, P. C. Smith; Mets, J. L. Harder.

Field care this season will be undertaken on a team basis League President Benson said. Each of the 16 teams in the league will take care of the the field for one week during the season.

Parents' release, a form which must be signed by both parents, will be issued by Junior High, Hutchinson, and Primary School principals Monday. Forms approving a boy's candidacy for Little League play are necessary before a boy can try out. Forms are to be returned by Wednesday.

Try-out date has been set for Saturday, March 16. Place for try-out play is to be Pony League Park, north of Wolf football stadium. Time is 2 p. m.

Player auction is scheduled for Tuesday, March 19 in Junior High gym. Team managers will buy for points players for their teams.

Practice begins April 1. Practice fields are located in South Colorado City, at Junior High, and Little League Park which is east of Ruddick Park.

Saturday April 6 is to be Litttle League decal and bumper sticker day. Money from decal and sticker sales goes to purchase uniforms and equipment, plus field upkeep.

Season starts first week in May. All interested workers in any capacity — score-keepers, announcers, field men etc. — are requested by Little League backers to offer to help with the program. Little League play was participated in by about 450 boys, last season.

Games are to be played, beginning May 6, each Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday through June. Season is annually climaxed with an All-Star game played against Snyder in July.

Next important date for Little League comes up Saturday March 2. There will be a work session at Little League Park at 2 p. m. to get the field ready for practice and play.

1892 members were organized by the late Mrs. Martha B. Smoot, grandmother of the late Joe Smoot who was a prominent Colorado City banker. Name of the club was changed to Hesperian— which means western — in 1902.

Hesperian Club's outstanding achievement as a group of women meeting regularly to study has been a student loan fund begun with a $50 Liberty Bond bought in 1917, sold in 1923 as "neucleus of a loan fund now totaling $1,120.25.

Eighteen boys and five girls have borrowed the funds for college, only two stopped college before they received degrees, and not one has ever failed to pay back money borrowed from the fund.

At the formal program time Mrs. Thompson introduced Mrs. Steakley who presented Mrs. Herren, Mrs. Dudley, and Mrs. Carlton whose address, a salute to the hostess club, climaxed the program.

"Go Whole Hog"

This expression sounds like a barnyard term, but it isn't; its origin comes from the pocketbook. Just as a dollar is known today as a "buck," a dime was once known as a "hog." To go whole hog actually means to spend the entire ten cents, worth more in the days of the expression than today, however.
