GETTING INTO SCHOOL -- This group of parents gathered at Olton High School Friday morning for the purpose of getting their boys into school. The boys were sent home because they failed to meet the standards of the present hair code policy set by the board of trustees.

Parents Seek Meeting With Board Of Trustees

Things got kinda "hairy" when students began reporting for classes at Olton Schools Thursday, marking the beginning of a new school year.

Approximately 60 boys were refused admission to classes in Olton High because their hair styles failed to meet the hair code, established by the board of trustees about two years ago.

The code says that the hair must not touch the eyebrows, ears or the shirt collar. Boys were inspected as they arrived at the school by two coaches, who sent them to principal Robert Sivley if they felt there might be a question about their hair. Otherwise, they were sent on to classes, according to information given by some of the students.

Students who did not meet requirements were instructed to get haircuts and return to the school, again appearing before the principal.

Due to the number of boys sent home, whose parents felt that their hair style met the code, a meeting of parents was held Thursday night.

Purpose of the meeting was to request a meeting of parents (or a committee appointed by the parents) with the school board to discuss relaxation of the hair code somewhat. Student council representatives had earlier in the summer requested a modification of the present code, asking that the hair be allowed to grow below the earlobe as is the current style.

Approximately 150 persons attended the Thursday night meeting, which was opened with a prayer.

Following a discussion, a committee comprised of R.V. Allcorn, Billy Gary, J.L. Snider, William DeBerry, Pablo Almanza, Ralph Contreras, Mrs. Hoyt Taylor and Daniel Rey was elected.

The committee was asked to meet with Superintendent Joe Turner, to ask that the boys be allowed to get into school without five points being taken off their grades each day they missed.

Friday morning, the committee met at the office of Supt. Turner, asking that the boys be allowed to return to school, and also requesting that a meeting be set with the board of trustees at their earliest convenience, preferrably Friday night.

Turner told the group that if the principal felt that the boys met the standards as set out in the handbook, that they would be allowed to go to classes. Otherwise, they would have to get a haircut, because of school policy.

Turner told them that the policy could only be changed by the board of trustees, and until it was changed, the present policy was in force.

Turner also pointed out that persons attributing to disrupting of classes are subject to a fine of $200. Persons who are encouraging disruption of classes need not be on campus of the school, Turner stated. They are subject to fine if they are within 500 feet of the campus.

The committee spokesman stated that the group wanted to meet with the board to ask that the hair code be modified according to outlines set by student council.

It was also suggested that in the event that the hair code was relaxed that a group of responsible students and one teacher be elected to see that the students kept their hair at the designated length.

The biggest complaint that seemed to emerge from the meetings was, "Some boys were admitted to classes that had hair much longer than some of those who were sent to barber shops."

At press time Friday morning, a board meeting had not been called but most of the students were back in classes, if not all.

Lions Club To Conduct Sale Of Household Products

Olton Lions Club will conduct an all-out drive Sept. 3-4 to sell quality blind-made products to residents and local businesses, according to an announcement made this week by K.Y. Givens, sale chairman.

The articles are all manufactured by blind workers in the Lighthouses for the Blind which are located throughout the state of Texas. The Lions' earnings from this sale will be used for a worthwhile project of the club.

Entire membership of the Lions Club has been organized to supply friends and neighbors with this quality merchandise delivered right to their homes. Every household can use some type of household cleaning aid and every item sold helps some blind person to help himself.

Sales of blind-made products held by Olton Lions Club in previous years have been most successful and Lion Givens expressed his confidence in another successful sale this year.

Booster Club Meeting Changed To Aug. 27

Vernon Britton, president of Olton Booster Club, announces a change in meeting date of the organization, effective this week.

Boosters are asked to meet Tuesday, Aug. 27, in school cafeteria at 8 p.m.

Britton states that Coach Miller will present a run down on Crosbyton scrimmage, giving highlights of the evening and showing films.

All interested persons are urged to be present.

Two Collisions Result In Heavy Damage

Four persons luckily escaped injuries Tuesday in two separate collisions which resulted in heavy damages to vehicles involved.

Occurring at approximately 11:30 a.m. at the intersection of Main and Ninth Streets, the first accident involved a 1969 Chrysler New Yorker driven by Mrs. Geneva Prestridge and a 1972 Ford LTD driven by Jimmy Parker.

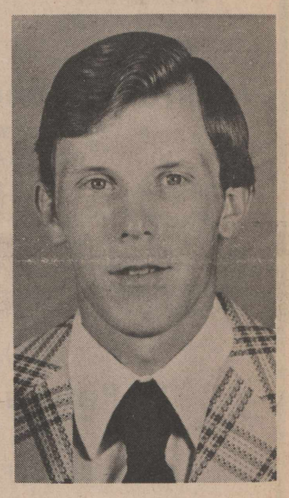

Parker was driving north on Main Street when his vehicle struck Mrs. Prestridge's auto as she was attempting to cross the intersection heading east.

Heavy damage also resulted to a 1972 Ford Ranchero driven by H.B. Maxey Sr. late Tuesday afternoon at the intersection of Avenue D and Fourth Street. Maxey's vehicle, traveling east, was hit by a 1972 Chevrolet Monte Carlo driven by Emily Talamantez.

Dale Carys To Be Feted

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Cary will be honored with a get acquainted coffee Sunday, September 1 from 3 to 5 p.m. in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Loveless. Everyone is invited.

New Employee At Funeral Home

BRUCE McCABE

Bruce McCabe has been employed by Parsons Funeral Home and is serving a one-year apprenticeship in preparation for becoming a licensed funeral director.

A graduate of Seymour High School whose father is a funeral director in Seymour, McCabe attended Navarro Junior College one year. He will receive further college training at Dallas Institute of Mortuary Science after serving his initial apprenticeship and will then serve an additional two years as an apprentice.

McCabe and his wife, Brenda, moved here last week from Cisco. They are parents of nine months old son, Billy Joe.

Career Decided As 5th Grader

Percy Parsons knew as a fifth grader that one day he would be a mortician and have his own funeral home. He can't explain how his career was so destined at that age but says it came about after writing a theme on what he planned for his future.

Assigned the paper, Percy recalls talking with Marvin Hudman of Mason Funeral Home in Post. The considerate, friendly way the funeral home director spoke with him may have helped provide some of the inspiration for the choice of his life's work, Percy says.

Percy's father died during his senior year in high school and, after graduation, he and his older brother, Conner, bought a dairy at Post. Conner was in the service and Percy planned to operate the business. It did not take long, he recalls, to learn that dairying was not the way he wanted to make his living.

In 1946, Percy moved to Brownfield to work a year of apprenticeship at a funeral home and then entered Dallas Institute of Mortuary Science for a year's study. Completing the required courses, he returned home to work with Hudman who had put in his own funeral home in Post.

The funeral home at Post had also obtained a new home with the purchase of the two-storied, grand old C.W. Post home which had been built in 1909.

Percy and Margaret were at home just a block away from the magnificent house that had taken four years to build. Still boasting some of its original wall paper and carpeting, one great room was built with 15-inch oak beams that had been shipped to Colorado City and brought by wagon to Post.

Serving two years apprenticeship, Percy was then ready to take his second state board exam, the first taken on completion of his year of college work.

Percy and Hudman operated the Post funeral home as partners until Percy came to Olton in July, 1958. Also in the furniture business at Post, Hudman had begun looking at Olton as the possible site for a furniture business in 1955.

In 1958 Percy saw, instead, its possibilities for a funeral home and began searching for a location. Despairing over finding a suitable building, Percy had already begun plans with the late H.G. Walker to lease a building which he would have erected for the new funeral home.

It was then he learned that the "old home ec cottage," which had been moved to the 900 block of Avenue H and converted into a duplex, could be bought. The transaction was made and remodeling begun at once.

More space was added across the north and the front entry was made to look out on Ninth Street. "Open House" was held Sept. 8, 1958.

A furniture store north of the "square" in the building which is now occupied by Howell's Flowers was opened in October. Conner and his wife, Thelma, ran that business and Percy sold it to his brother in 1962.

In 1962, the funeral home underwent more remodeling. All the front yard was enclosed and improvements made in the living quarters. Five years later the building got a new brick "face-lift" and the living quarters were re-done.

Percy provided Olton with an ambulance service soon after opening the funeral home, converting a station wagon into an ambulance.

"I've never objected to any of the regulations regarding equipment for the ambulance," he says. "They've been made to help the person who needs the ambulance. The back board is one of the finest things that's been required."

Ambulance service, Percy says, is something that most pesons take for granted until the time they, or someone close to them, need it.

"You cannot charge enough," he says, "to pay for it."

Rising costs and lack of help for the around-the-clock service are two of the primary reasons for discontinuing ambulance services over the area.

"You're married to it," he says of the confining responsibilities of operating such a service.

Parsons- Ellis - Singleton Incorporated brought funeral home service to Earth in 1966 and also made ambulance service available to that area.

An ad in a trade journal of a funeral home for sale in Stephenville led Percy to his next partnership owned funeral home. In January, 1971, contract was signed on Trewett-Reed-Lacy Incorporated. Construction is currently underway on a new building for that home.

Percy entered into yet another partnership in 1972 when he, Frank Ellis, John Blackwell and Wayne Cole purchased a funeral home in Friona. That purchase brought about the Parsons family's departure from Olton. After their move to Friona, Wayne assumed the direction of the local home.

Wayne began work for Percy in 1964 with a year off for college study. He received his license in 1968. Wayne and his wife, Jan, have two children. Taralena is six; Anthony, three.

Percy and Margaret have two sons and a daughter. Mike, the eldest, graduated from Olton High School in 1972. Studying at SMU, he hopes to enter law school after graduating as a tax attorney.

Dale graduated from Friona High School in May and will be attending Texas Tech University this fall.

"If any of the kids follow me for a career, I guess it would have to be Rhonda," Percy says of his daughter, a

'Mini Mall Plus' Grand Opening Held Thursday

With shingled stalls, wooden corral fence dividers and rustic 'outhouse dressing rooms' the Mini Mall Plus opened its doors Thursday for Grand Opening.

A studied effort to achieve "The Country Look" has been carried out in the background of the four enterprising businesses housed in this newest addtion to the Mini Mall.

"Country Lad", located at front left section, features men and boys clothing. Dress and casusal shirts, slacks and jackets are being shown, in sizes three to twenty for boys and through large sizes for men.

Owned and operated by Mrs. Doug (Glenda) Goen, the Country Lad also carries ties, sox, belts, and other accessories for male patrons. Of particular interest, seasonally, is a line of athletic and blue/white Mustang sox.

Situated in the right front section of the complex is "The Calico Patch". Patchwork wall treatment, behind the merchandise contributes to the casual country look.

Owned and operated by Mrs. W.G. (Jean) Green and Mrs. Goen the shop offers a wide selection of fabrics, including nylon and polyester double knits, plain, patterned and co-ordinated. New selections of sweater knits and polyester jersey knits are also on display. Less sophisticated materials include denims, kettle cloth and cotton blends designed for wash and wear use.

'Stitch-Witchery,' a new type innerfacing is offered along with pellon and all kinds of lining material.

"We shall carry a complete line of sewing notions," Mrs. Green stated. "If it's new, we have it," she continued as she named zippers, thread, laces, ric-rac, buttons, cording, binding, and two pattern lines, Butterick and Simplicity.

Along with Mrs. Goen, Mrs. Stephen (Donna) Smith is new in the shop-owner list. Her "Stitchin' Post" is located center back on the left side of the building, and features Crewel and Needlepoint stitchery.

Currently popular 'Jiffy Stichery' kits and frames are shown along with embroidery thread and tapestry yarn. Mrs. Smith plans to teach the arts of Crewel embroidery and Needlepoint. Classes are being organized for this purpose and she requests that interested persons watch future editions of The Enterprise for further information in this regard.

Donna is enthusiastic about 'Bargello' kits, "This craft is centered with needlepoint, but also uses assorted other stitches effectively," she pointed out.

Occupying the rear of the building is The Art Corral, operated by Mrs. Jean Green. Established in the Mini Mall, earlier, it is simply re-located in the more spacious quarters with its art supplies.

Leather craft materials have been added for school supply, and a larger inventory of frames is being shown. A gallery wall furnishes space for local and area artists to hang pictures. Local craftsmen are also invited to sell their wares through The Art Corral. Presently, miniature flower arrangements are being exhibited.

Assisting with sales in the new sections will be Mmes. Margaret Burrus, Billy Kelley and Don Nafzger. Miss Karen McGill will be helping through the school co-op plan.

Meanwhile...back in the Mini Mall as it may be approached through the connecting archway...things have been altered slightly.

The section formerly occupied by the Art Corral now houses The Shoe Barn, operated by Mrs. Green and Mrs. Harold (Patsy) Mills. The shoe inventory has been expanded in ladies shoes. Bags have been added, and new lines of scarfs and jewelry.

Mrs. Mills has established a new shop of children's clothing, "The Mini Miss." Here she offers wares for infants, six months to toddlers, and girls togs up to size fourteen.

As a specialty she also shows stuffed animals, for toys or decoration.

The remaining shops within the Mini Mall proper remain basically the same.

MRS. GREG SLOVER

Slover-Dear Vows Read In Saturday Ceremony

A candlelight service Saturday evening in First United Methodist Church of Earth united Miss Darla Kay Dear and Greg Slover.

Officiating the double ring ceremony was the Rev. Johnnie Williams of Slaton, former pastor.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Dear. Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Slover are parents of the groom.

Traditional wedding selections were presented by Mrs. Larry Tunnell, organist. She accompanied Becky Littleton who sang "Twelfth of Never," "Hawaiian Love Song" and "Wedding Prayer."

Vows were solemnized before an altar set with crystal and brass candletrees flanking baskets of blue floral arrangements. Three white tapers in a floral arrangement were placed on the altar table. Arrangements were placed in each window and large blue satin bows marked the parents' pews.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of white slipper satin and lace fashioned with a modified A-line skirt and Empire bodice.Overlaid with lace, the bodice was styled with a wedding ring collar and sheer bishop sleeves caught at the wrists with lace and satin cuffs.

Her cathedral veil of silk illusion, edged with scalloped lace, fell from a pearled petal headpiece. The veil was "borrowed" from the bride's sister-in-law, Mrs. Lonnie Dear. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and blue carnations atop a white Bible belonging to her sister, Mrs. Raiford Daniel III.

In keeping with tradition, the bride's dress was "new" and she wore a blue garter. For "something old," she carried in her bouquet the wedding rings of her grandmother and the grandmother of the groom. She carried in her shoes, pennies coined in the year of her birth, 1954, and a 1974 penny for the year of their marriage.

Mrs. Raiford Daniel III was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Myrna Dear of Irving, sister of the bride, and Renay Jones of Sunnyside. Candles were lighted by Alayne Slover, sister of the groom, and Connie Dear, sister of the bride. Tifanee Slover of Plainview, cousin of the groom, was flower girl.

Feminine attendants wore formal gowns of baby blue batiste embroidered with tiny flowers. Fashioned with Empire bodices, the gowns featured scooped necklines and short puffed sleeves with a sash accenting the waistline. They carried Colonial nosegays of tiny blue flowers with baby's breath.

Raiford Daniel III, brother-in-law of the bride, was best man. Groomsmen were Chris Brock and Mike Cleavenger. Lynn Slover, brother of the bride, was ring bearer. Guests were seated by Larry Dear, brother of the bride, Ray Stevenson, cousin of the groom and Larry Thomas.

Guests were registered by Barbara Cleavenger.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Dear wore a formal gown of pale blue polyester crepe fashioned with fitted bodice and long full sleeves of matching sheer. She wore an orchid corsage. Mrs. Slover chose a formal length gown of pink ployester linen styled with fitted bodice, long sleeves and softly gathered skirt. She also wore an orchid corsage.

A reception was held in fellowship hall. Laid with a pale blue cloth edged with lace, the bride's table was centered with a crystal epergne with blue flowers. Two miniature brides were placed at the base.

The tree-tiered wedding cake was frosted in white with accents of blue and topped with a white wedding bell with tiny flowers. Pineapple sherbet punch was served from a milk glass punch bowl. Appointments were milk glasses and silver. Presiding were Tisa Whitfield of Plainview and Camille Haberer.

The groom's table was laid with a beige crushed velvet cloth and accented with crystal and brass balance scales filled with green grapes and entwined with blue flowers. Coffee was served from a stainless steel service. The groom's chocolate cake was shaped as double wedding rings. Linda Davis and Karen Green, cousins of the groom, presided.

For a wedding trip to Colorado, the bride wore a ployester dress of pink and pink and blue plaid accents.

A 1973 graduate of Springlake-Earth High School, the bride attended South Plains College one year. She is employed as a teacher's aide in the Amarillo Public Schools System.

Slover graduated from Springlake-Earth High School in 1972 and attended South Plains College two years. He will attend West Texas State University this fall where he will continue his study of physical education.

Sunday the group went to Carlsbad, N.M. where they met Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Allcorn, Bryan, Brynea and Brad; Mr. and Mrs. Roy LaDuke, Brack, Gary, David and Craig; and Mrs. Allcorn's sister and family, Mrs. Joe Allen, Scott and Mark of Roswell, N.M. and the Allens' foster son, Pete Torrez, student of Dallas Baptist College. All members of the party toured the primitive cavern opened this year with the exception of Mr. and Mrs. Thompson.

MRS. BARRY LEON COWART

Mr. Cowart-Miss Spain Recite Double Ring Vows

Miss JoEllen Spain and Barry Leon Cowart pledged twin ring wedding vows in a 7 p.m. ceremony Saturday in First United Methodist Church.

Officiating was the Rev. John E. Lewis, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Donald L. Spain and Mr. and Mrs. James E. Cowart.

Vows were solemnized before an archway flanked with gladioli filled baskets and spiral candelabras entwined with tropical greenery and ivy. White doves nestled in the archway.

Presenting nuptial selections was Mrs. Delmer Givens. She accompanied Mrs. Johnny Lewis of Houston who sang a medley of "Follow Me," "There Is Love" and "Walk Hand in Hand." The bride's father sang "Wedding Prayer" by Dunlap at the conclusion of the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of white satin organza fashioned with a scalloped peau d' ange lace ruffle on the high Victorian neckline and long lace sleeves accented with a ruffle at the wrists. An overlay of lace in a deep oval yoke adorned the bodice of the princess silhouette. A deep lace ruffle encircled the hemline which swept to a very full chapel length train. Seed pearls accented the lace bodice and sleeves and scattered lace appliques adorned the train.

Her tiered illusion veil was held by a Camelot lace crown. She carried a bouquet of white roses and ivy surrounding two cattleya orchids. The bouquet was carried atop a white Bible which was a gift for her christening as a baby.

Marilyn Lindquist of El Paso was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Janet Spain, sister of the bride, Melanie Cowart, sister of the groom, and Anne Goodman of Richardson.

Miss Lindquist wore a formal Empire gown of olive green lace over matching satin with matching bow accenting the waistline and streamers to the floor. She wore tinted green carnations entwined with olive green ribbon in her hair and carried nosegays of baby's breath, baby white roses, leather fern and ivy.

Bridesmaids wore similarly fashioned gown of lime green lace with apple green bow and streamers.

Cecil Dean Oursbourn was his cousin's best man. Groomsmen were Mark Hodges, cousin of the groom, Robin Spain, brother of the bride, and Dale Schueler of Friona.

David Light, cousin of the groom, lighted candles. Cary Clay Gunter of Plainview was ring bearer. Guests were seated by Kenny Spain, Steve Spain, Gale Long and Bobby Turner.

A reception in fellowship hall honored the couple following the ceremony. The bride's table was centered with the bridal and attendants' bouquets. The traditional tree-tiered wedding cake and green punch were served from crystal and silver appointments. The groom's table was decorated with a memory candle encircled with ivy. Appointments were silver and ironstone.

Assisting with the hospitalities were Mrs. Steve Spain, Mrs. Bobby Turner of Hart, Cheryl Latimer and Niki Ellen Hazelwood and Debbie Smith, both of Amarillo.

For a wedding trip to New Mexico, the bride chose a dress and jacket ensemble fashioned with red bodice, red and white polka dotted skirt and red jacket.

The couple will be at home after Aug. 30 in Bryan.

The bride is a 1971 graduate of Olton High School and a candidate for December graduation from Texas Tech University with a degree in business education. She is president of Phi Gamma Nu, business sorority and a member of Pi Omega Pi, honorary business education society.

Cowart is a 1970 graduate of Olton High School and is currently enrolled as a second year student in the College of Veterinary Medicine of Texas A&M University. He also attended Howard Payne College and Texas Tech University.

A rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's parents at their home.

A bridesmaids' luncheon was held in the home of the bride's parents.

Out of town guests included Mrs. Jim Spain, Cali, Columbia, S.A.; Dr. Gene Spain, Lajas, Puerto Rico; Dr. and Mrs. Ivan E. Miles of Starkville, Miss.; Rev. and Mrs. Cecil Hardaway of O'Donnell; Mrs. Shirley Bailey of Longview; Mr. and Mrs. Mike Hipp and Teri of Houston; and J.D. Meekma of Lamesa.

Mrs. Berta Ensey, Mr. and Mrs. John Pederson and Kelly, Linda Wigley, Barbara Piram, Judy Mikkelson and Mrs. Edna Gott of Lubbock; Mrs. Dale Schueler, Mr. and Mrs. H.L. Lovell Jr., Emma Jane Brandt, Bill Henry, A.M. Meekma, Miss Jan Shipley and Mike Phillips, all of Bryan; and Diane Day of Rankin.

Mr. and Mrs. Delton Lewellen and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Schueler, all of Friona; Janice Long of Midland; Mr. and Mrs. Dick Cade of Cooper; Becky Garrison of Hillsboro; Betty Long and Jan and Sherrie Evers, all of Amarillo and Suzanne Tooker of Abernathy.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Allison, Jana, Don and David; Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Nava of Slaton; and Mr. and Mrs. W.C. Gunter Jr., Mr. Mrs. Jesse Cowart, Maggie Meekma and Vena Gideon, all of Plainview.

Lamb Pioneers Meet Tuesday

Olton Pioneers are reminded of the 25 annual Lamb County Old Settlers Reunion to be held in Littlefield Tuesday, Aug. 27.

Twenty five years residency in the county constitutes a pioneer, according to Lauis Hair, member of the planning committee.

Featured in this year's program will be roll call of the first school held in Lamb County. The building which stood northwest of the city had an enrollment of 24 students. Members of the student body, or members of the families are invited to be present to be honored during the program.

The program will close with a bar-b-cue supper to be served at 6 p.m.

FROM ANDREWS

Mrs. B.C. Cooner had as guests during the weekend her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. R.B. Bowden of Andrews.

Career

new high school freshman.

Few women are licensed funeral directors although Percy recalls there was one feminine member of the class which graduated the year after his own graduation.

There are two or three, he says, in the class which graduates this month. Among those graduates, too, is a young man from Friona who will be returning home to work for Percy.

"I'm not afraid of starving to death," Percy says, "because I've done so many different things - farm, run a dairy and sell furniture. But funeral service is the most rewarding work I've done because I've been helping people."

"It's a service that not just everyone can do, helping people when they need special help. People appreciate it."

"The people of Olton have been great to me. I've said lots of times, 'The folks up and down Highway 70 are great' and it's because of them that our business has grown. People's confidence has enabled us to do that."

Percy and Margaret came to Olton as civic and church "do-ers" and continued that zeal throughout their years here.

Selected as Olton's 1966 "Man of the Year," Percy served as both president and manager of the Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture. He has also worked in numerous other ways as a booster of Olton. Margaret was named Olton's 1972 "Woman of the Year."

New comers to Olton and new to Parsons Funeral Home are Bruce McCabe and his wife, Brenda. Coming last weekend from Cisco, they are at home with their small son, Billy Joe ("B.J.") in the house next door to the funeral home.

SLUDER GRANDCHILDREN

Cooks Of The Week

Recipes for foods they especially enjoy are shared this week by four young granddaughters of Floy and Tom Sluder, Kari, Koye and Konie Hull and Donna Finch. Serving as their "official taster" is Donna's brother, Carl.

The young Hulls came the first week of August to visit in their grandparents' home. They will return home to Kimball, Neb., this week with their mother, the former Peggy Sluder.

Donna and Carl arrived last Wednesday to visit with their grandparents and cousins. They are children of Leabell and Orville Finch Jr. of Dalhart.

All the youngsters share a common love for tennis, swimming and horseback riding. Each of them also likes to go fishing.

Kari, 11, likes to collect rocks and "junk." She is an avid bookworm and says reading is her favorite subject at school.

Koye, nine, and Koni, eight, pick art as their favorite subject.

Art is also ten-year-old Donna's favorite subject. She collects stamps and rocks and has her own rock polisher. She likes to cook, an interest shared by her cousins.

Koni, her older sister says, is the "experimenter" when it comes to cooking. During their visit here, the girls have taken turns with cooking and household chores and have frequently had supper ready when their grandparents closed their insurance office.

Carl loves all sports and has already decided his favorite subject this year will be OA, organized athletics, because it includes football, basketball and tennis.

The youngsters enjoy pets and the Hull girls have tropical fish and a frisky little hot chocolate colored dog named "Koko." Donna and Carl have a pet dog and cat.

Readily available to serve as "taster," Carl says there is nothing better than iced tea after helping brand cattle by a hot camp fire and riding horseback home on a hot summer day.

KARI'S SNOWBALLS

1 c. butter
½ c. sugar
2 t. vanilla
2 c. flour

Mix butter, sugar and vanilla add flour and mix well and form into small balls. Place the balls on cookie sheet. Bake at 325° for twenty minutes, cool and roll in powdered sugar while warm.

DONNA'S BUTTER-SCOTCH BROWNIES

Combine & Stir:

Bridal Shower Honors Mrs. Curry Saturday

Mrs. Leslie Curry, nee Janice Graham, was feted with a post-nuptial shower Saturday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Clyde Emberton. Assisting as hostesses were Mrs. Lewellen Hooper, John Downey, W.T. McEachern, Edsel Hall, Carl King, J.S. Bell, R.S. Pinkerton, J. Hollis Young, Owen Pinkerton, Clarence Gaither, Clyde Harrell, W.B. Sisemore, I.W. Moore, Harold Goree and J.T. Mallow.

Special guests were the honoree's mother and sister, Mrs. Robert Graham and Miss Karen Graham of Plainview.

Mrs. John Downey served punch at a party table laid with a white lace cloth over yellow satin. The centerpiece was an arrangement of yellow and white flowers with greenery encircling a five branched silver candelabra with white tapers. Refreshments of banana punch, coconut snowballs, thumbprint cookies and nuts were served from silver and crystal appointments.

Hostess gifts were a blender, coffee pot, pressure sauce pan, mixer and money.

Baptist Choir Honors Presented At Banquet

Tuesday, August 20, the chapel choir from First Baptist Church held its first annual awards banquet. Fellowship hall was decorated with sombreeros, candles, and other south-of-the Border articles to set the mood for the enchilada supper.

Several awards were given to deserving young people who showed outstanding quality in their respective fields. Torri Thompson and Brynea Allcorn received the honored "Jerk-of-the-Year" award. Their service was unsurpassed in this field. The annual "Foamy" award was presented to Jimmy McCurry for extreme cowardice in the face of the enemy during a shaving creme fight. Congratulations to these recipients.

Choir members selected as their favorite boy and girl, Vic Allcorn and Martha Smyth. Vic was also awarded the "Most Valuable Choir Member" plaque.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Jones were on hand to present the 1974 Janie Jones Award. This award goes to the young person who has shown the most spiritual growth, musical development, co-operative attitude, concern for others, and a willingness to sacrifice self for Christ. This year's recipient of the award was Jimmy McCurry.

Officers for the 1974 Chapel Choir included Vic Allcorn, president, Chesna Dickenson, vice-president, Cynthia Johnson, secretary, and Martha Smyth, assistant secretary.

Lamb Pioneers Meet Tuesday

Olton Pioneers are reminded of the 25 annual Lamb County Old Settlers Reunion to be held in Littlefield Tuesday, Aug. 27.

Twenty five years residency in the county constitutes a pioneer, according to Lauis Hair, member of the planning committee.

Featured in this year's program will be roll call of the first school held in Lamb County. The building which stood northwest of the city had an enrollment of 24 students. Members of the student body, or members of the families are invited to be present to be honored during the program.

The program will close with a bar-b-cue supper to be served at 6 p.m.

new high school freshman.

Few women are licensed funeral directors although Percy recalls there was one feminine member of the class which graduated the year after his own graduation.

There are two or three, he says, in the class which graduates this month. Among those graduates, too, is a young man from Friona who will be returning home to work for Percy.

"I'm not afraid of starving to death," Percy says, "because I've done so many different things - farm, run a dairy and sell furniture. But funeral service is the most rewarding work I've done because I've been helping people."

"It's a service that not just everyone can do, helping people when they need special help. People appreciate it."

"The people of Olton have been great to me. I've said lots of times, 'The folks up and down Highway 70 are great' and it's because of them that our business has grown. People's confidence has enabled us to do that."

Percy and Margaret came to Olton as civic and church "do-ers" and continued that zeal throughout their years here.

Selected as Olton's 1966 "Man of the Year," Percy served as both president and manager of the Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture. He has also worked in numerous other ways as a booster of Olton. Margaret was named Olton's 1972 "Woman of the Year."

New comers to Olton and new to Parsons Funeral Home are Bruce McCabe and his wife, Brenda. Coming last weekend from Cisco, they are at home with their small son, Billy Joe ("B.J.") in the house next door to the funeral home.

Chapel Choir Performs During Colorado Tour

By Rick Hudson

Sunday 4, First Baptist Church Chapel Choir pulled out of Olton on a tour to Denver, Colo. The choir sang the first performance of the tour at First Baptist Church in Spearman. At 6:00 the next morning, the choir was again on its way, with Denver as the destination.

Stopping for a short break in Colorado Springs, the choir took a tour of the chapel at the U.S. Air Force Academy. The choir sang at Chambers Road Baptist Church in Denver for the Monday evening service.

The next day the bus hauled the 40 persons around Denver in a sight-seeing trip. The Museum of Natural History was visited with Allene Allcorn making a little history herself. Then the choir went to Cinderella City, a large shopping mall for lunch some shopping. The Colorado State Capitol was seen before checking into the Capital Plaza Hotel.

For the enjoyment of park visitors, the choir presented Lightshine at City Park in Denver. A beautiful drive up Look-Out Mountain capped the evening.

The long drive back to Amarillo, filled Wednesday. Arriving at Bykota Baptist Church, the choir set up its equipment and sang for the last performance of the bus tour. After a time of fellowship with the host church, the choir packed up again and headed for the First Baptist Church in Sudan to perform Lightshine for its last time on the 1974 Choir Tour.

Plans are being made now for next summer's trip and a whole year full of activities for the chapel choir.

HOUSE GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Cox had as house guests Monday until Wednesday of last week their daughter and grandson, Mrs. Kenneth Wells and Craig of Seguin.

Mr., Mrs. Tom Smith Tour Northwest States

Mr. and Mrs. Tom C. Smith returned last week from a six weeks tour of the Northwest in their mini motor home.

They stayed the first night with their niece and family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bouner and son of Albuquerque, N.M. The next night they spent with their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Doug Smith, Dirk and Terece of Cuba, N.M. Traveling from that point with the Oltonites was their granddaughter, Terece who is ten years old.

They were at Prineville, Ore. ten days with the Smiths' daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Johnson, Jolissa, Tammy, Cody and BoJan. They went into Canada and to the island of Vancouver which they reached by a huge ferry boat with a capacity of carrying 160 campers and cars with 2000 passengers. At Sidney, Vancouver, they viewed the vast Butchart Gardens which are at the site of a former limestone quarry. Some of the sunken gardens feature Japanese and Italian plants. Of striking beauty is a night view of the huge water fountain.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith and Terece were at the International Campers Rally held in Monroe, Wash. where 423 campers were gathered. There they enjoyed five days of fun and fellowship. Many campers showed articles they make as hobbies. Mrs. Smith received a blue ribbon and an outstanding prize for angel dolls made from egg cartons. She was awarded a red ribbon for her fake fur dogs and Smith received a red ribbon for candle holders he had made.

They traveled North Cascade Highway to Spokane, Wash. It took one hundred years and millions of dollars to build this highway. They stayed one night at Grand Coulee Dam with its noted colored lights. They rode an incline lift platform with a 60 degree angle for a distance of one fourth mile. The platform can carry 159,000 pounds. Mr. and Mrs. Smith went by bus and boat to Ross Power House which supplies electricity for the city of Seattle.

They stayed at Spokane three nights viewing Expo 74. Ecology of many countries was displayed on huge screens. United States had the largest screen with its theme "Earth does not belong to man, but man belongs to Earth."

FROM HEREFORD

Mr. and Mrs. Barton Prestridge and her mother, Mrs. Alice Willoughby of Olustee, Okla., had visiting them Saturday Mrs. Willoughby's nephew and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Kinsey, and a niece and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jewel all of Hereford.

HOUSE GUESTS

Recent house guests of Mr. and Mrs. H.L. Moses were their daughter and family, Mrs. Billy Don Huff, Cindy, Canda and Jason of Longview.

Write In The Groove

BRYAN ALLCORN AND FREDDY STOCKDALE

Wait! Don't turn that page! Yes, that's right! Your eyes aren't betraying you--it really is "Write In The Groove," back by popular demand, of course. This week's version is brought to you by Bush Heffer and his collegues at "Hair Today, (Not Tomorrow)."

In case you haven't noticed, school started Thursday, and it looks like this could be another good year. We can say this because our horoscope said so, it's in the stars, and the handwriting's on the wall. Speaking of handwriting on the wall, you might have seen a little "Olton Graffitti" that was left on the announcement board by the high school. Well, to whoever did it, and most of us know who, all we can say is that you showed us your expert penmanship and your stupidity. You really got a lot accomplished. If things like that keep happening, Mr. Sivley has no choice but to take away such activities as Sadie Hawkins Day and other activities.

Boy, talk about short summers, if ever there was one, this was it. It seems like just yesterday we were passing lifesavers with toothpicks. Now it's back to the old grind. (around here we like to think of school as a year long re-run of "Peyton Place," interrupted by a 2½ month Alka-Seltzer commercial.)

One thing of major importance that happened this summer was the students' bid to "alter" the hair code. The reason hair was the topic was because that seems to be the only gripe the kids have. So, three or four "major student council officers" went to the board. We presented our views and they asked us questions. A vote was then taken and the proposal was unanimously turned down. We accepted the decision, but were kind of disappointed.

Superstition is a belief of many people even if it is good or bad. Maybe it will be good for the 1974-75 Mustangs. Superstition is one of the many things the Mustangs have going for them. Coach Miller brought up at one of our Two-a-Day workouts that Olton has won a District Championship every 7th year since 1953. Starting with '53, seven years later the Mustangs won in 1960. Then in 1967, the hosses earned another gold football. Now seven years later, the Olton Mustangs of '74-75 are going for another District Championship. But, let's not go into the race on tradition alone. We also have great enthusiasm, experienced personnel, a backfield consisting of one All-District player, a Junior quarterback who started as a Sophomore and a Junior tailback who started as a freshman, a long list of depth at each position, a fantastic line under a new coach, and of course, three freakers or in English, streaking flankers.

Seriously, we think we have a good team in a tough district, and with Olton being known as a hitting team, maybe we can conquer another seventh year.

Comments:

Kyle A. - A Great American Cowboy

Buster L. - Hold what you've got!!

Jan B. - Going on vacation?

OHS Secondary - "Knock three times on the football if you want me."

New Freshman - Only 4 more days. Hee! Hee! Hee!

Well, so ends the first and hopefully not the last column. Keep those cards and letters coming in, and until next week, stay in your zone and "Write In The Groove."

Mike Phillips Attends ROTC Training

Cadet Mike W. Phillips, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn H. Phillips has been learning the fundamentals of military leadership at Ft. Riley, Kan. He attended the advanced ROTC course which began June 14 and ended July 26.

During the intensive six-weeks training he was confronted with practical exercises that groomed him for duties as a second Lieutenant in the sophisticated, modern army. The encampment also provided an opportunity to practice theories he learned in the classroom during his past years in the program.

Cadet Phillips, a student at Texas A&M University, College Station, will be commissioned upon completion of the program.
