Cold Wave Accidents Fatal To More Than Score State And Federal Lawmakers Strengthen Dry Law

Enforcement Gets $24,000,000 More By Vote of Senate

Attempt For Inauguration Of Stricter Observance Of Prohibition Throughout Nation Is Made

Mellon Is Ignored

Only Three Democrats Vote Against Increase of Fund; Probe Appropriations Are Voted Also

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—The President of the United States was voted $24,000,000 by the senate today for use in an attempt to enforce prohibition more strictly. The prospective appropriation still must be approved by the house and President Coolidge and, if this is forthcoming, the expenditures are expected to fall to the lot of Herbert Hoover because of the short time remaining before March 4.

Give Wide Powers

Wide powers would be given the chief executive in the expenditures of the nearly quarter of a hundred million dollars under the amendment adopted to the first deficiency appropriation bill. It was offered by Senator Harris, democrat, Georgia, a dry, and was made available over the protest of Secretary Mellon. The senate also voted an additional $250,000 to enable the President to carry out a "thorough-going" investigation of prohibition. Funds for this investigation, which President-elect Hoover has given callers to understand he intends to make, also must be approved by the house and Mr. Coolidge.

Must Be For Enforcement

The only restrictions placed upon the executive in the use of the $24,000,000 would be that he must allocate the money to departments and bureaus of the government which have a part in the enforcement of the dry laws. He would be able to use all or part of the money as he might see fit.

The vote on the Harris proposal was 50 to 27. Only three democrats

The board was informed that the institution had doubled in its enrollment, during the past four years, and reports reflecting the progress and success of the college were received from Dr. Paul W. Horn, president of the institution. In his statements he said that the present enrollment was 2,004. Of these there are 1,220 men students and 784 young women students.

Seek Emergency

Tech college is seeking $185,000 in an emergency measure, at this time, the board was told, proposed legislative appropriations being discussed at length. ### Prayer Meeting Tonight

Turbulent Seas Put Seven Ships In Distress; Two Plead For Immediate Assistance; One Is Feared Foundered

(By Associated Press) NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—With a northwest gale howling along the ocean seven ships were in difficulty of one sort or another today, two of them pleading for immediate assistance lest they be submerged in the storm and the silence of another arousing fears that it already had foundered.

The American tanker Danedake and the Italian freighter Florida were disabled in tremendous seas some 800 miles off the Virginia Capes and the liners America and President Harrison sped to their rescue.

The British freighter Teesbridge asked for immediate assistance from south east of Cape Race yesterday but then her wireless was silenced and though British steamers Maine and Caucasus searched the vicinity all day no trace of the Teesbridge could be found. The combined crews of the Teesbridge, the Florida and the Danedake number approximately 100 men.

Lines On Reef

Other ships that figured in the day's news of distress were the liner President Garfield, still hung up on a coral reef on the Bahamas where she grounded two days ago; the four masted schooner Kingsway which burned to the water at Broad Cove, Me., where it was laid up for the winter, the Norwegian steamer Terne, which still was held in ice that may imprison it all winter although it had escaped, at least for the time being, the destruction that threatened it yesterday on the rocks of Marjaree, N. S., an the diesel tugboat Mariner, disabled off Nantucket and under tow for Boston.

Hoover Is Greeted By Noisy Ovation In Miami Arrival

Seventy-Five Thousand Persons Line Sides of City Streets To Glimpse New President-Elect

(By Associated Press) MIAMI BEACH, Jan. 22.—President-elect Hoover and Mrs. Hoover were accorded an ovation by 75,000 Floridians and Florida visitors who packed the streets to greet them today during a brief public appearance after their arrival from Washington.

A tumultuous greeting was given the president-elect and his party as their automobiles moved through the streets of Miami and Miami Beach to the estate of J. C. Penney of Belle Isle, where Mr. Hoover will make his pre-inaugural home.

To the roar of 75,000 throats was added the din of a dozen bands and drum and pipe corps stationed at points along the route the president elect's party followed to the Penney estate, while overhead airplane motors droned an incessant roar punctuated with the sharp detonations of aerial bombs, and the throaty blasts of whistles of steamships and yachts in the harbor.

At the Miami Beach city hall the respects of Mayor Snedigar and the residents of this resort were proffered to the Hoovers through the medium of a floral key. Jack Dempsey, former heavyweight champion and promoter for the Sharkey-Stribling fight, to be staged here, paid his respects to the party here.

Texas Is Okeh, Jones Declares

DALLAS, Jan. 22.—(AP)—National democratic leaders need not worry about Texas, Jesse H. Jones, former treasurer of the party and "Godfather" of the 1928 convention at Houston, said here today.

Organization of the party on a basis under which it would function in "off years," as advocated by Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt of New York, is a meritorious plan, Mr. Jones said, but not needed in Texas.

"Texas was divided only on the religious question. There is no doubt about how the state will vote in 1932."

Approve Reed Plan

Kansas House Sends Bill To Senate For Okeh

TOPEKA, Kansas, Jan. 22.—(AP)—The house of representatives late today passed and sent to the senate the bill requested by Governor Reed to provide legal machinery and funds for his announced program to dry up Kansas and for other criminal law enforcement.

Midland Man Caught After Chase by 100 Men

MIDLAND, Jan. 22.—(AP)—Jesus Hurtado was arrested near here this afternoon for the fatal shooting earlier in the day of Miss Catalina Gonzales. A posse of more than 100 men had combed the country south of Midland for several hours before Deputy Sheriff ee Haynes made the arrest.

Miss Gonzales was shot six times, five bullets entering her head and sixth penetrating her neck. Hurtado was said to have been jealous of the attentions paid Miss Gonzales by other men.

Texas Solons Give Favorable Report On Two Dry Bills

Repeal of Search and Seizure Law and Reduction of Prescriptions to Half Pint Clear 1st Hurdle

May Become Law

King, of Throckmorth, Is Author of Search Bill, While Graves Proposed Prescription Plan

(By Associated Press) AUSTIN, Jan. 22.—Two measures striking at illegal liquor sales in Texas cleared their first hurdle today when a bill, repealing the present search and seizure law and another, limiting the amount of whiskey prescribed by a physician to one half a pint each ten day period received sanction of the House committee on liquor traffic.

The first bill, written by Representatives A. H. King of Throckmorth and W. T. Graves of Stephenville, repeals the existing statutes governing searches and allows officers to enter premises or search persons when they conscientiously believe intoxicants may be found.

Needed to Stop Sales

Speaking for the bill, Representative King asserted that the measure was a necessity to stop bootlegging "which had reached astounding proportions."

Representative Jack Keller of Dallas, one of the opponents of the bill declared it might result in unwarranted searches.

Representative W. H. Wieg of Paris, speaking in behalf of reduction of physicians' liquor prescriptions, declared that "in our place some doctors have become law violators and druggists have turned into bootleggers."

The second measure met with opposition from only four of the 16 members of the committee present.

Merriman Said To Be 'Queer' Person

Alleged Assaulter In Dallas Faces Plea For Death Penalty; Witnesses Say Boy Isn't Bright

(By Associated Press) DALLAS, Jan. 22.—A tense court room today heard relatives of Lee Roy Merriman testify that the man charged with criminal assault upon a 17-year-old girl was not "bright" when he was a child and that members of his family had "funny ways."

Introduction of defense testimony began after the state abruptly had closed its case. Only one witness appeared against Merriman, the girl whom he is alleged to have attacked. After identifying Merriman as one of two men who attacked her and two other girls and relating details up to a certain point the girl collapsed in a hysteria of sobbing.

Hubert Merriman, brother of the defendant, said his parents always had told him to stay away from Lee Roy because he was apt to hurt him. He said he never thought Lee Roy was "bright."

As a precaution against possible mob violence, many officers were stationed at points in the court room.

The death penalty will be asked for Merriman. His alleged companion on the night of the purported assault, Ben Aldridge, was given death on a similar charge last week.

The judges will start examination of the pictures January 30, and the exhibit, hung in the Witte Memorial museum, San Antonio, will be opened to the public February 3.

Chicago Police Stage Big Show

CHICAGO, Jan. 22.—(AP)—The Chicago police today staged the biggest show in town with a cast of 4,000 characters and an audience of 500 persons.

The audience consisted of victims of thefts and robberies for several months past, the cast included everybody seized in a wholesale three-day round-up of every known police character.

The scene was in a dingy room at the Detective bureau with an improvised stage at one end brilliantly illuminated with flood lights. In endless procession across the stage all day long the cast marched.

A police official left no doubt as to the identities of the cast. He recited the record of every man as he appeared, and when there were murmurs from the audience as some robbery victim recognized an assailant, the actor on the stage was forced to prouet about, remove his hat, display side and front view and aid in the identification.

Driver's License Proposed In Bill In Senate Tuesday

Fifty Cents Fee To Be Assessed Against All Car Drivers; Bill Introduced For Motor Safeguard

Fight Is Evident

Measure Plans Compulsory Registration of All Car Drivers In Texas; Age Set At 16 Years

(By Associated Press) AUSTIN, Jan. 22.—A bill providing for the licensing of automobile drivers was passed out of the senate committee on highways and motor traffic today but the argument which preceded the committee action plainly indicated that several amendments would be submitted from the floor.

The clause which drew the most fire from committee members was the one fixing the minimum age limit for licensed drivers of private cars at 16 years. An amendment to lower that limit to 14 years was defeated when Chairman Edgar E. Witt of Waco voted against it.

Senators objecting to the age limit asserted their belief that a very small percentage of accidents was caused by motorists between 14 and 16 years old and that many accidents to children depended on children of that age to drive their automobiles.

Under the bill license records would be kept by the state highway department but enforcement would be returned to the counties to enforce the law.

Provides Forfeiture

The bill would provide for the forfeiture of a license for one major offense such as driving while intoxicated or negligent homicide or

Sooner Governor Faces 6th Charge For Impeachment

Oklahoma Legislature Continues With Probe Into Johnston Administration; Muddle Gets Deeper

(By Associated Press) OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Jan. 22. Voting of a sixth impeachment charge against Henry S. Johnston, suspended governor, stories relating purported activities of Mrs. O. O. Hammonds, his comely and aggressive confidential secretary and ghosts of the attempted impeachment session of 1927, were additional fuel to the fevered political brew stirred by the Oklahoma legislature today.

The sixth article of impeachment was adopted late today by the House of Representatives, which yesterday submitted to the senate five charges it voted last week. It alleged the illegal employment by Governor Johnston of Kirby Fitzpatrick, formerly of Ardmore, as a political attorney for the state banking department. The vote was 60 to 36.

Mrs. Hammonds' friend, the name of Mrs. Hammonds, who is charged by political enemies with wielding great influence over the governor's official acts, figured prominently in hearings of both house and senate investigating committees.

Death List Known To Be 18 While Others May Die To Swell Toll; Fourteen Are Seriously Injured

Snowstorm Cause

Driver of Bus Believed To Be Blinded by Snow; Two Men Drown Near Mexia; Other Tragedies In West

(By Associated Press) CHICAGO, Jan. 22.—Sleet, rain, and snow, forerunners of a new cold wave expected to overspread the midwest tonight, covered highways today with a slippery coating of ice that was blamed for half a dozen accidents in which more than a score of persons lost their lives, and scores of accidents resulting in serious injuries.

Among the accidents attributed to the storm or slippery highways today the most serious was at Bellevue, O., where more than a score of bus passengers were killed or injured when the bus was struck by an interurban electric car. The bus driver was believed to have been blinded by a snow storm.

At Michigan City, Ind., ice-coated rails were blamed for the collision of a south shore electric train with a freight train and the injury of five persons while at Rock Island, Ill., a fatality was reported in a coasting accident and at Moline a critical injury from a similar accident was reported.

Dollar Steamship Is On Coral Reef

Ninety Passengers Await For Unloading of Ship Bound For World Cruise; May Float Off.

(By Associated Press) NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—Ninety men and women killed today at a hotel in Nassau, Bahamas Islands, waiting for the ship to be freed from a coral reef so they could continue their journey part or all the way around the world. The ship is the Dollar Liner President Garfield, which left here on a world cruise Thursday and which yesterday drove its prow up onto the Matanilla reefs, hidden beneath waters of the south Atlantic at the northern tip of the island. SOS Call Is Sent Out An SOS call sent out brought aid from the Munson liner Pan-America, which left New York on the same day as the President Garfield and was 200 miles away. Passengers were transferred with all their baggage in lifeboats. The officers and crew of 150 stayed aboard the President Garfield as the Pan-America steamed away to Nassau with the passengers. A salvage tug reached the scene today and found the President Garfield still fast but apparently unharmed.

ACQUIRE BIRTHPLACE

Stratford Hall, Home of Lee, To Become Shrine NEW YORK, Jan. 22. (P)—Stratford Hall, birthplace and boyhood home of General Robert E. Lee, in Westmoreland county, Va., has been acquired by the William Alexander, jr., chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, of Connecticut, and will be preserved as a national shrine similar to Mount Vernon and Monticello. Announcement of the sale came Saturday, birthday of Gen. Lee and the 200th anniversary of the building of Old Stratford, gift of Queen Caroline, wife of George II, to members of the Lee family. For generations this was the home of the Lees of Virginia—Richard Henry Lee and Francis Lightfoot Lee, signers of the Declaration of Independence; Light-horse Harry Lee, and his sons, Maj. Henry Lee, Robert E. Lee and Sidney Lee.

Room, Furnished With Simplicity, Seems Larger

Very modern is this bedroom done in tones of soft green, rose and mulberry. You will note how the furniture seems to fit in niches all its own, just as though it were made especially for this particular room. As a matter of fact, the room is nothing but the ordinary small bedroom, slightly rectangular or entirely square, such as is found in the modern apartment. The dresser and dressing table, owing to their shape, size and the handling of the mirrors, appear to take even less floor space than they actually require, which is one way of making the small room take on a more roomy appearance. The twin beds, too, seem to take up less space than the twin beds of more ornamental design usually found in the smart apartment. The walls are a very light shade of tan. The beds and dressers are painted a soft shade of leaf green with rose bandings. The mirrors are hung flat against the walls, and flush with the tops of the dressers. The smaller dresser, or dressing table, fits in charmingly between the beds, where usually is found a small bed table, and holds a practical reading lamp in modern design. The top of the mirror is cut in a step design to match the design of the beds. The placement of the mirror on the larger dresser is very modern and rather tricky. It leaves room for a tiny chest of drawers at one side. To raise the dresser grouping, a modern wall bracket of ground glass is placed above the tiny chest, and gives a subdued, but very efficient, light, after the manner of modern lighting. The tops of both dressers are covered with glass, as is the top of the small modern taborette in the chair grouping. The modern overstuffed chair is covered in a deep shade of rose in tone with the bandings on the furniture. It might be a Cogswell chair, except that it has no framework, showing on legs or arms. It rests flush with the floor, emphasizing the trend of the modern easy chair. The floor rug is mulberry.

If possible the Dallas specialist will be secured to represent Lubbock and other South Plains cities and towns in the hearing before the interstate commerce commission, for permission of the Santa Fe to make an extension from the Seagraves terminus of the line. Mr. Reed gave much valuable aid to this section in securing the Fort Worth and Denver railroad.

This extension of the Santa Fe into the New Mexico section adjacent to Lovington and Hobbs is an important factor in the future development of Lubbock, as it will link this city with a mighty stretch of country in which are oil fields, and rich stock farming areas that are being rapidly developed. It is felt that Lubbock is the logical connection for the section to reach its markets. The natural trend of traffic is in this direction.

The Texas and Pacific railroad is also seeking a permit to make extensions from its main line near Monahans to Kermit, and on north to the same territory and the need of expert assistance is vitally felt by the Chamber of Commerce committee and members in helping the Santa Fe present its plea for the right to extend from Seagraves.

City Has Wave Of Thefts Over Week

Theft of more than $500 in cash, half a dozen automobiles, several automobile tires, some bicycles, clothing and other articles, in Lubbock and surrounding territory, have been reported, during the past few days.

The money was stolen from the First Baptist church Sunday evening, and at a late hour last night no clues had been found as to the burglars who entered the church. A small roadster, stolen in front of a local residence, and a coupe, taken from near a hotel, were reported to city police yesterday. Ewall Hall, 1908 Seventeenth Street, is the owner of the coupe.

Police have recovered a car, which was stolen from near a church last Sunday night. Thefts of automobiles at Spur and Tulla, during this week, have been reported to Lubbock police, and yesterday a tricycle and two bicycles were listed among missing articles, along with three silk dresses, an automobile tire and 10 boxes of cartridges.

YOUR CHILDREN

by Olive Roberts Barton ©1928 by NEA Service, Inc.

One lives and learns—and sometimes gets a shock in the learning. A young married woman with a three months' old baby, remarked at a luncheon table: "Certainly I nurse my baby. It helps to keep me thin."

"But observing her eat, I decided that it was not only baby that was keeping her thin. Untouched cream soup, half a lamb chop, a nibble of salad and half a parfait told the rest of the tale. She was dieting.

"Shades of the first mother, what are you coming to?" thought I, interested in this new aspirant to Poirot models. So I ventured a question. "Is your baby well?" "Well? Yes, indeed. He's the cutest thing. We give him. He's gotten now that he notices—

"Is he fat?" "N-not so very. But it's better to have a baby not too fat, don't you think? If they get too fat, you can't carry them around. He gains about three or four ounces a week and just so he's gaining it's all right, I guess."

A Target for Queries "I never thought you'd nurse your baby, Mary," said one of the girls. "Doesn't it tie you down?" "Yes—it does. But I'll wear him some of these days. I'd do it now since he's got his start, but do you know, I'd gain fifteen pounds. Peggy did, and mother says I'm just like her. I don't dare yet."

HISTORY repeats itself again. ON January 7, 1926, the Pontiac Six came into existence. It had bodies by Fisher. It sold for $825. It introduced real luxury and beauty to buyers in the low-priced field. But Pontiac's builders did not rest content with their early triumph. They knew that American people are constantly on the lookout for new and finer things. So in February, 1927, they introduced the New and Finer Pontiac Six. And it was lower in price than ever, selling for $775. Then, in July, greatly increased production enabled Pontiac's builders to reduce the price again. Now Pontiac sold for $745. Came 1928, and with it a still finer Pontiac. Even then the price remained only $745. And after six months, Pontiac was made faster, more powerful and more attractive than ever. This brief review gives you an idea of something that is coming. Automobile history is repeating itself again. Soon Oakland will present a brand new Pontiac Six, an even greater advancement over other low-priced cars available today than the original Pontiac represented in 1926. How to Achieve Beauty

BY MME. HELENA RUBINSTEIN

FACIAL LINES MAKE OR MAR BEAUTY

There's a little four-letter word that fashion has built her modern "credo" on. The word is "line."

Whether we're in a dress shop, a milliner's, a jeweler's or a beauty parlor, the significant sales point of every wide-awake merchant is "line." A gown is a sensation or a failure, a bargain or an unwarranted expense in just such measure as it possesses fashionable lines.

So let's talk about lines—what they do for us, and what they do to us. Perhaps the most fertile field for the most distressing of lines is the face—an excellent starting point for my little talk. Have you beauty-killing lines in your face? Suppose you take a mirror over to the sun-light and permit yourself to see—not what you want to, but exactly what the reflection tells you. Ask yourself honestly: "What age is reflected in the mirror?" And to complete the soul-harrowing performance, answer yourself as honestly and valiantly as you can!

If you aren't attractive to yourself, if you turn from the mirror with a qualm of self-reproach, I know just exactly what you've seen. Downward, unattractive lines—lines that portray weariness, disinterest, time, trouble, and all its unwanted children. It's too bad, but let's not waste time regretting an unfortunate circumstance. Let's get to work and rectify it.

We want not only to discipline those drooping, downward tendencies, but we want to cultivate happy, upward, beautiful lines. Lines that signify good temper and good will; lines that spell beauty in every laughing curve of them. How are we going to do it? Well, just suppose we take a little temper inventory first. Now, let me see. How long ago is it since you lost your temper? I'm afraid you could have done a little better than that. After this, let's add another two weeks at least in between times. You see, losing one's temper is a habit, and it's a habit I'm afraid we rather like to indulge in. There's something pleasantly wicked in reverting to savagery and primitive emotions, but it is so bad-for your face.

I suppose you think you'd look grotesque if you started in smiling when you were good and angry—but you probably would be doing an infinite amount of good—not only to your soul, but to your complexion as well.

Downward lines spell age to the casual onlooker. It is very difficult to draw the line between the effects that time leaves upon the complexion and the marks that the slightly shady spots of your disposition do. A mouth that is drawn down, or that is too firmly set, may be evidence of had temper up to a certain point, but yet we find that they have developed into definite muscular breakdowns which are followed by a complete relaxation of certain important facial muscles.

The same way with your eyes. I have talked repeatedly about expression lines, and it is quite true that they are uncontrollable to a reasonable extent. However, if you are going to aim for the beauty of an unlined skin, you must remember that a face that is devoid of expression is not beautiful. Permit yourself to cultivate that alertness and vivacity of expression which is more youthful than even an unlined skin could be but preserving a certain amount of caution, especially later on in life, when muscles are inclined to be a little flabby and a little less quick to return to their normal tension. Use a moderate amount of self-control, and when there are lines, make sure that they are upward ones.

One glimpses sometimes that this First Lady has a rare talent for enjoying life to the full, saluting away memories of a time of rich and adventurous and unparalleled living for her quiet days. Here's wishing that if Mrs. Coolidge is ever prevailed upon to write her memoirs of White House living they will make a sprightly reading because nothing has escaped her, just as nothing escapes her little movie. On the other hand, there will be no suggestion of criticism or gossip about anyone, which would be a drawback.

THAT'S DIFFERENT

The remarriage of Mr. and Mrs. Morton Hoyt, who were divorced a few months ago, following Hoyt's publicity for jumping overboard from a steamer upon a girl's dare, saves food for thought. Mrs. Hoyt filed the suit. It's obvious that no woman wants her husband doing even so insane a thing as jumping from a steamer at another woman's request. He probably has convinced her that he jumped to get away from the woman rather than because she asked him to. So now they're remarried, and all's well that ends well.

WOMAN'S PLACE

The award for the year's scientific achievement goes to Dr. Oskar Kamm for the isolation of two hormones of the pituitary gland which are supposed to reduce childbirth pain. Just one more little proof, if it is needed at all, that woman is not the ignored, exploited person she once was. There was a time, perhaps, when even the world of science would not have considered a discovery for this purpose so very important, after all; not nearly so important as a cough cure or a good bunion remedy.

THE PATERNAL URGE

A father raced death the other night over a thousand mile stretch, using train and plane and auto in a mad attempt to get from Hartford, Conn., to Cincinnati, O., to see his 7-year-old son who was reported dying. There is a general vague belief that the paternal instinct is a rather wishy-washy thing compared with the maternal. Here's wagering, however, that quite as many fathers, confronted by the death of their offspring, would make just as frantic attempts to reach him before too late as mothers would. Maybe not quite, but almost.

Wildcats Nose Out Matadors In Thrilling Game, 33-32

Young Stribling Is Winning Popular Favor With Fight Fans Of Country

Tech Rally Falls Short By 1 Point As Christians Cop

Dalton and Cinzant Outstanding for Matadors; Four Game Series Evened By A. C. C. Win

(Special To The Avalanche) ABILENE, Jan. 22.—Texas Tech did this ninth inning rush act with much gusto tonight, but a ten point lead accumulated by the Abilene Christians stood it off to win the game by the not too comfortable margin of 33-32.

With half of the last round gone, A. C. C. led by a score of 31 to 21. Vic Payne's boys did most of the remaining work. Wortham, a substitute guard slipping in a single field goal while all of the Matadors on the floor turned a hand to put over twelve points. A long looping goal by Tadlock in the last second, however, fell short of bringing about a tie.

Purvis and Phippen, A. C. C.'s freshmen from Cisco, did the damage for the Wildcats. Together they accounted for 37 points. Purvis' five field goals and same number of free tosses gave him scoring honors.

Not particularly rough, but hard fought, the contest produced a large number of personals. Purvis, Black and Powell of the Wildcats being ousted, and Vinzant for Tech meeting the air.

Dalton and Vinzant were outstanding for the Matadors. Fisher renewed old knee injuries before the game was over, and had to be helped from the floor.

HARDLY HAD A WELL DAY IN THREE YEARS

"Orzalone Is Relieving My Husband of Rheumatism and Other Troubles," Says Abilene Woman

"Since Orzalone is relieving my husband of rheumatism I just can't help praising it to everybody," said Mrs. N. A. Estes, wife of a well known farmer residing on rural route 1, Abilene, Texas, a few days ago.

"For three years," she continued, "my husband suffered terribly from rheumatism and a general run down condition. He had very little appetite and was so pained racked it was almost impossible for him to get a good night's rest owing to the aches in his joints and body."

"The first dose of Orzalone seemed to hit the spot and he has been getting better every since, he can eat with a relish and he is being built up in a substantial way. Those aches and pains in his joints and body that used to bother him so much are fast disappearing and he can now get a good night's rest and feels like working the next day. His general health has improved wonderfully since he started taking Orzalone and it has certainly been a blessing to my husband and there are no better Orzalone boosters in this town than we are."

Orzalone is not a so-called secret or patent remedy but a new scientific treatment containing no alcohol or other false stimulating drugs and is sold in Lubbock exclusively by the Bowen Drug Store under the personal direction of a special Orzalone representative.

Strolling Down Sports Lane

With Allan Carney, Avalanche Sports Editor

County basketball champions of sixteen counties in District Two of the Interscholastic League are expected in Lubbock February 22 and 23 for the district cage tournament under the direction of Coach E. Y. Freeland of Tech. As the head of interscholastic competition in the section, the Tech athletic boss is before they can enter the tourney can be played off in two days.

Beginning at 9 o'clock on Friday morning (Washington's birthday) game will be played on through the noon hour until six o'clock that evening. No games will be played Friday night, but on the following day the contests will be resumed and will last until the winner is decided. Last year Coach Del Morgan's Lubbock Westerners won the championship of this district, but from all indications the local cagers have a stormy sea ahead of them and the 1929 district title.

In the first place there are teams in the district that Lubbock will have trouble in brushing aside will have to enter the district meet. Notable among these are Monroe and Ralls high schools. Both have won from the Morgan crew in early season games, and there is a possibility that both may improve just as fast as the Lubbock five.

It has come to our attention that members of the Ralls basketball team and the team's supporters have voiced their protest over a squib that was carried in this column several days ago in which Ralls was classed with "country schools" which play basketball the year around." On second thought, we do remember something about a Ralls football team. In fact we inquired of the progress of the Ralls griders several occasions when Froggie Lovren dropped in the labor temple on Texas Avenue.

As bad as we hate to admit that we made a mistake, it seems that this is the only alternative. We give the Jackrabbits credit for having a strong basketball team, first because they defeated Lubbock, and second because Athens was held to a lower score on the Ralls court than at Lubbock. And it might also be in order to mention for the benefit of those who have not had the opportunity of attending an athletic event in this fair city, that the people of Ralls have taken a big step ahead of Lubbock in building a municipal court with a seating capacity of 1,500 to accommodate the high school team.

All of which leads us to the point we were approaching, namely, that Lubbock needs a public play ground—a municipal building with a regulation sized basketball court and with seating facilities to accommodate at least two thousand persons. Such an edifice might also serve for a public meeting place and community center.

Nurmi's Shift To Boston Protested

Masonic District Official Charges Finn Was Influenced to Participate in K. C. Games

NEW YORK, Jan. 22. (AP)—The athletic committee of the 2nd Masonic district, through its chairman, George Keiser, today repudiated the action by its secretary, Jack Harris, in writing an open letter of protest concerning Paavo Nurmi to the Amateur Athletic union.

The letter charged Nurmi had been "influenced by a man or men with power in official track circles" to shift his entry from the Masonic games here next Saturday night to the Boston K. C. meet the same date.

In a note of explanation and apology addressed to Daniel J. Ferris, secretary-treasurer of the A. U., to whom Harris' letter also was sent, Mr. Keiser apologized for Harris' act and said the latter's resignation as secretary of the committee had been requested and received.

Mr. Ferris was in New Haven today and it could not be learned from him whether a meeting which had been called for tomorrow to look into Harris' charges now would be held.

Steers Will Have Color This Year

DALLAS, Jan. 22. (AP)—Taking a cue from the collegiates, owners of the Dallas Steers have decided to inject some color into the make-up of the 1929 Texas League entry. New uniforms have been ordered—nice loud ones. Stockings will be red and blue, caps blue with red trimmings, and an ornate steers' head of the same color combination will adorn the chest. All the Steer moguls have to do now is organize a pep squad.

Phillips led the winners in scoring with 12 points, most of which was counted with follow-up shots. Porter of Slaton was high point man for the Tigers, scoring 8 points

Westerners Whip Crosbyton Quint In Slow Contest

Lubbock High School Cage Outfit Has Little Trouble In Downing Crosby County Basketeers

Lubbock High school cagers, fresh from their crushing defeat at the hands of the Athens Hornets, came back with determination last night to trounce the Crosbyton High school quintet 21 to 4 in a rather listless game in the Tech gymnasium. Coach Del Morgan's basket loopers displayed an improved pressing attack to down the boys from the Crosby county capital with little difficulty.

Finding the defense of the opposition much easier to penetrate than that of the East Texas Monday night, the Westerners took the lead in the opening period and completely outclassed the visitors through the remaining quarters. Crosbyton was held to one field goal and two free throws by the man-to-man defense of the local five.

This lone tally from the field scored by R. Karr opened the scoring in the first minute of the game and gave the Crosbyton cagers a lead which they enjoyed for only a few minutes. Holmes scored first for Lubbock with a free toss and after Dowell sank a field goal from long range, the Westerners assumed the lead which they continued to pile up until the last whistle sounded. At the close of the half, the Morgansmen were leading 14 to 3.

Makeup of Racing Circuit Ratified

Sixteen Weeks of Harness Horse Racing Is Assured At Meeting of Grand Circuit Stewards

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. Jan. 22. (AP)—The makeup of the "Big Line" for 1929, was ratified by grand circuit stewards at their annual meeting here today. Sixteen weeks of harness horse racing for the year was assured with the opening at Lexington during the week of June 17, and the closing at the same track with a two-weeks meeting beginning December 30.

Five new clubs in the circuit. They are Grand Rapids and Detroit, Michigan; Hartford, Conn.; Aurora, Ill.; and Cincinnati, representatives of these cities appeared before the stewards and gave assurance of support.

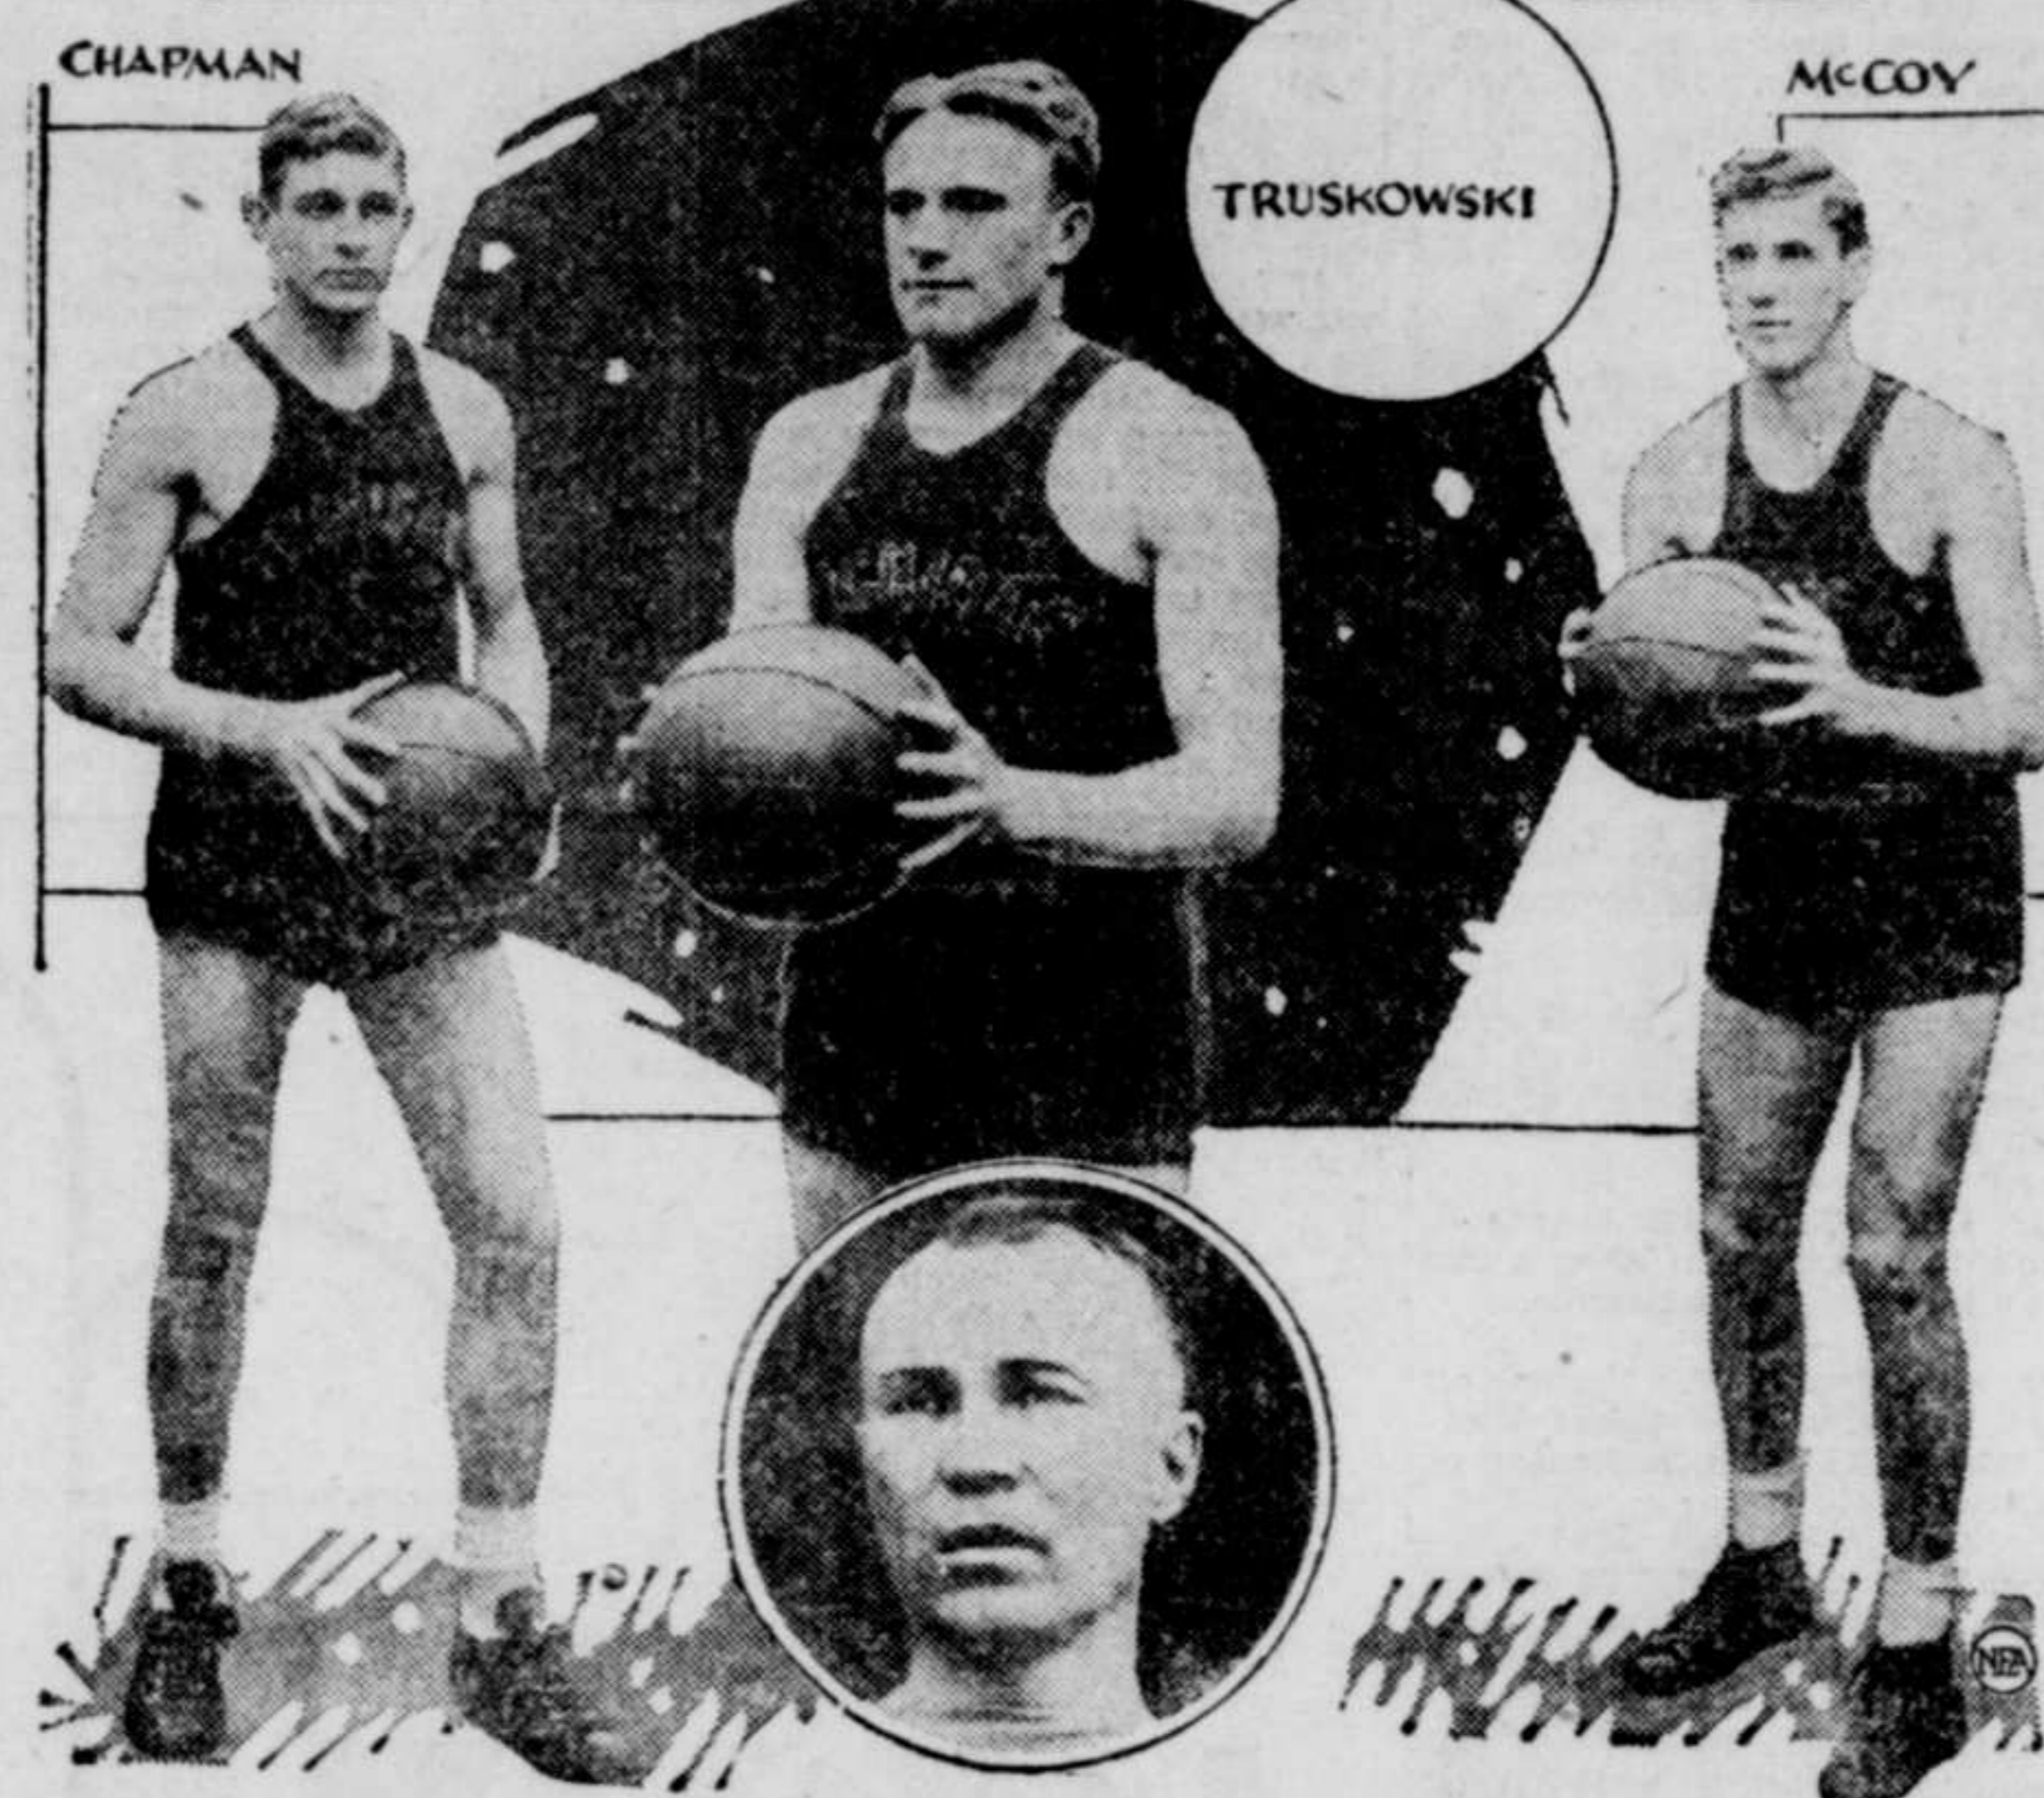

E. Roland Harriman of New York was elected president and Don Detrick of Bellefontaine, Ohio, was elected secretary at the closing session. It was decided there would be no change in the rules which prevailed during the "Big Line" meetings of last year. Harry K. Devereux, president of the North Randall track, Cleveland, is the retiring president and A. C. Pennock of Cleveland, is the retiring secretary.

Monroe Trounces Slaton, 33 To 12

(Special To The Avalanche) SLATON, Jan. 22.—Monroe High school's fast-stepping basketball team gave the Slaton Tigers a sound trouncing here tonight by the score of 33 to 12. Coach Floyd Blankenship's cagers displayed a brand of basketball that the Slaton basketeers were never able to fathom.

Phillips led the winners in scoring with 12 points, most of which was counted with follow-up shots. Porter of Slaton was high point man for the Tigers, scoring 8 points

Surprise Of Big Ten Basketball Teams

There wasn't much tallyho attached to the current basketball team at the University of Michigan and it wasn't expected of fans around the Big Ten conference that the Wolverines would be hard to handle in conference games. But Michigan won their first game and then trimmed the strong Wisconsin squad in its second and that caused the cage fans to take heed of their play. Truskowski, who played football in splendid manner this fall, is one of the stars of the outfit, featuring with his classy goal shooting. Captain McCoy, a guard, and Chapman, center, are two other stars for the Wolverines. Coach Venker is with his stars.

Wichita Poloists Lead Tournament

Blue Jackets From North Texas City Win Way Into Finals With Victory Over Midland Cowboys

SAN ANTONIO, Jan. 22. (AP)—High powered Blue Jackets from Wichita Falls won their way into the finals of the low-gallop event of the sixth annual southwestern winter polo tournament on the field Tuesday, when they inflicted a crushing 12-5 defeat upon Midland Cowboys in the crucial second game of the undisputed double-header upper bracket.

In the afternoon of the double-header at that field, the crack Wichita Cavalry headquarters headed by the Fifth Cavalry Yellow Jackets from Fort Clark by the score of 12-5, with Capt. Harry Collins scoring six of the winning goals.

Both the headquarters and the Wichita Falls four spotted their rival to three goals by handicap, but Wichita Falls scored the most impressive victory of the tournament to date when the Blue Jackets led ### Georgia Boy May Be The Favorite In Betting to Beat Jack Sharkey In Heavy Bout At Miami Beach, Fla.

Freshman football players at the University of Minnesota sleep, play and study more than non-athletes, a survey shows. But how can one tell whether a freshman is sleeping or studying?

The non-athletes spend slightly more time in self-support than the athletes, but then in some schools you know football and self-support can't be separated like that.

The football players spend more time at the table than the non-athletes, the report shows. Probably proving they are much hungrier. Or maybe it's only that they eat more.

We'd like to see a survey of that kind covering today's brand of heavyweight prize fighters. Of course much of the time spent in the ring would have to be listed under social activities.

Jack Sharkey has tossed his hat into the ring for the heavyweight championship, and O'Goofy is around asking everybody what Jack is going to use to talk through now.

Stribling Best Known Boxer In Country While Sharkey Has Confined His Work To Boston and New York

By HENRY L. FARRELL, NEA Service Sports Writer
When Willie Stribling goes into the ring against Jack Sharkey he may be a favorite in the betting. It appears quite certain now that he will be a popular favorite among those who don't bet and for reasons other than that Sharkey never has had the boys getting down for three long college rays for him.

It may be taking a lot for granted to anticipate Stribling and Sharkey in the ring because that guy Christner may take his discuss windup and knock for a loop the fellow who called him "a common Polack." But it is not assuming too much to predict that Stribling will have the majority of the public with him if he does get in the ring.

Disregarding their mechanical equipment for a moment, it can be said that Stribling is the best known fighter in the country. He has wandered all over the country for three or four years fighting every place. Sharkey has confined his work almost exclusively to Boston and New York.

Stribling Got Plenty Publicity
Stribling also has been in print more than any other fighter. He has attracted a lot of publicity by making a tour of the country with an automobile caravan and later he bought a big plane and piloted it from spot to spot where he was fighting. And two or three times a week he was legitimately in the news with an item that he had knocked out some bum some place.

It is possible that Stribling has shown himself to more people in

Hornets Take 2nd Game From Ralls By 29-18 Score

Athens Basketeers Set Fast Pace to Down Fast-Stepping Jackrabbits Five in Second Game

(Special To The Avalanche) RALLS, Jan. 22.—In one of the fastest games seen on a local basketball court, the Athens Hornets took their second straight game from the Ralls Jackrabbits here tonight before a capacity crowd in the new municipal gymnasium.

Both teams went at top speed throughout the hard-fought contest, displaying a brilliant brand of basketball.

Athens started off with a boom, scoring 6 points before the locals were able to find the basket. Before the first quarter had ended, the teams were deadlocked at 8 all, but before the half was over the rangy basket loopers from East Texas had pulled away with a substantial lead which they never relinquished.

Ralls came back strong in the second half but not strong enough to overtake the cohorts of Jimmy Kitts. The Hornets continued to pass over and around the Jackrabbits to get within scoring distance.

Following the feature contest, Idalou defeated the Floydada high school quintet 27 to 22.

Ralls will meet the Lovington, N. M., cagers on the local court tonight. Coach Lovorn announced today that the Jackrabbits had been scheduled to meet Estelline here January 23 and 24.

more cities and hamlets than any other fighter since the day that John L. Jack McAuliffe and the original Dempsey traveled the country taking all comers.

It is true that Stribling did not show himself to be a great fighter before all those people. He was fighting sixth and seventh raters all the time and he could call his shots. Even the simple country folk did not fall for the idea that he was in a fight, but they did gather the impression that he would have been powerful good against a top notch fighter.

Nice Clean Boy, Too

Even if he did not convince the customers that he was a ripe prospect for the vacated heavyweight championship title, he did make an impression upon them as a nice, fine looking, clean-cut young athlete who went around with his mother and father. And it made an impression upon those fans of the bush leagues when they asked his father why the boy did not fight in New York and the father replied—"My boy will not do business."

All of this contact with the public made Stribling well known and well liked. He is not popular in New York but he is popular in every other section of the country and when you travel around a little bit you become convinced of it.

The tact of Pa Stribling put his boy in a nice spot recently. The directors of the Garden couldn't find the contracts that Rickard had signed with Sharkey and Stribling for the fight. Sharkey said his was for $100,000 flat, posted in advance. Pa Stribling said—"Well, I go for anything you think fair." They got what Rickard had agreed to pay them. Sharkey didn't. And Stribling got the popular decision by a shutout. Sharkey never has been popular through the country. The people out there never have seen him and they don't know him. They think he is a blow-bag and a cry baby. The Dempsey fans hate him because of the things he said about their hero and the Tunney fans, who may constitute the other half of the house, despise him because of the cracks he took at their patron saint.

As far as their mechanical equipment is concerned, Stribling might be rated as an even money choice. It is true that he has been fighting bums and that some guy or other had him on the floor the other night. But he's fighting all the time and when he lets go he oughtn't miss. Sharkey is a terrible in and out and he is disturbed by moods. He rebelled from the first about the Miami spot. He's looking for excuses already.

Some of the fighters think Stribling is a cinch to win. Dempsey, as the "Iron" promoter of the fight, naturally cannot express an opinion, but down in his heart, we know, he thinks that Stribling will lick his ears off.

Mike McTigue picks Stribling and Paulino and Johnny Risko pick Stribling. But Paulino and Risko may be trying to disparage Sharkey as a fighter.

Houstonian Wins Gold Tournament

Three-Man Team Honors Also Goes to Houston; Austin And Waco Follow In Low Scores

SAN ANTONIO, Jan. 22.—(U.P.)—Jack Dold of Houston, shooting par golf today on the first nine and going two over the back nine, turned in a card of 36-37-73, which was good enough to win the amateur gold tournament being staged as a forerunner to the Texas open. One stroke behind him came Lewis Levinson, San Antonio amateur, with a 38-36-74.

Houston won the three-man team honors with a score of 247. Houston's team consisted of Runt Young and Frank Bobo, who turned in 84 and 90, respectively, to go with Dold's 73. Austin followed with 251, carded by Tinsley Pennick, 81; Fred Ayer, 84; Floyd Allen, 86; San Antonio's three-man team turned in a low score of 232, made by Levinson, 74; W. H. Barnum, 78, and Jimmie Morgan, 80, but San Antonio golfers are not cashing in on the team prizes. The third low score went to Waco whose team came in with 259.

The scoring was generally high, only six scores being turned in below 80. San Antonio placed two men in the 70's, Levinson and Barnum. Houston placed Jack Dold; Del Rio produced Bud McKinney, Young Chap who came in with a 79; Chicago was represented in the select column by John Dawson's 77, and J. L. Taylor of San Angelo came in with a 79.

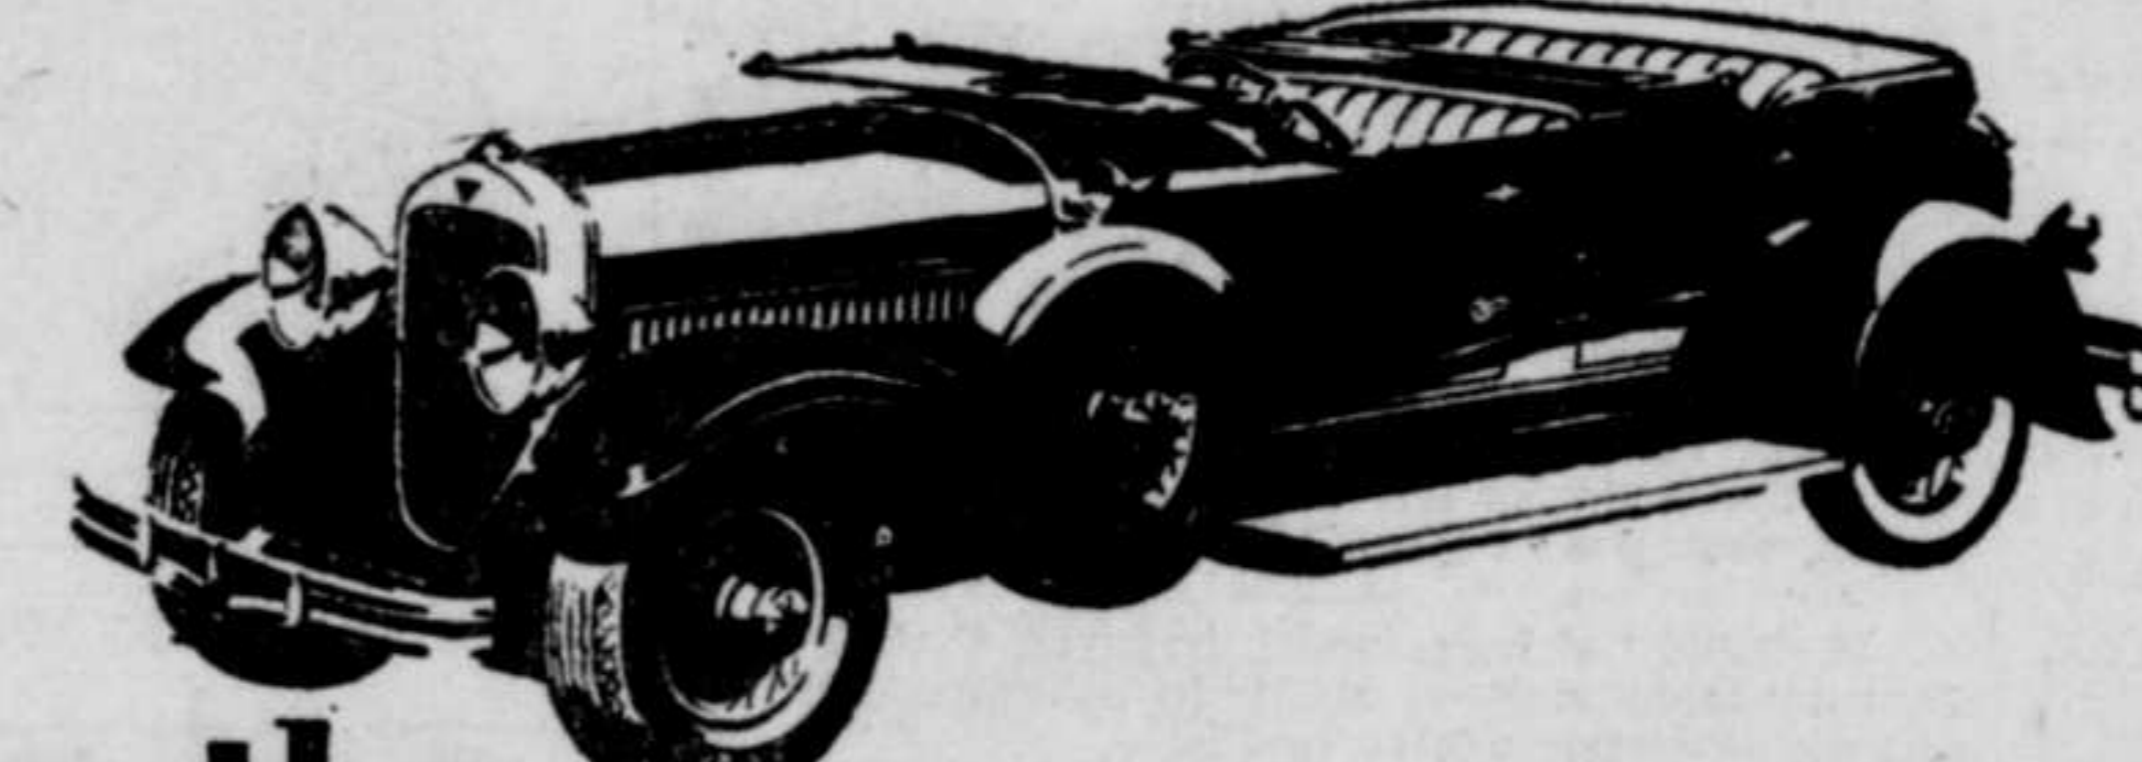

Stribling Bold On Eve Of Big Bout

Georgia Heavyweight Says He Would Be Champion Now If Tunney Hadn't Bucked Issue

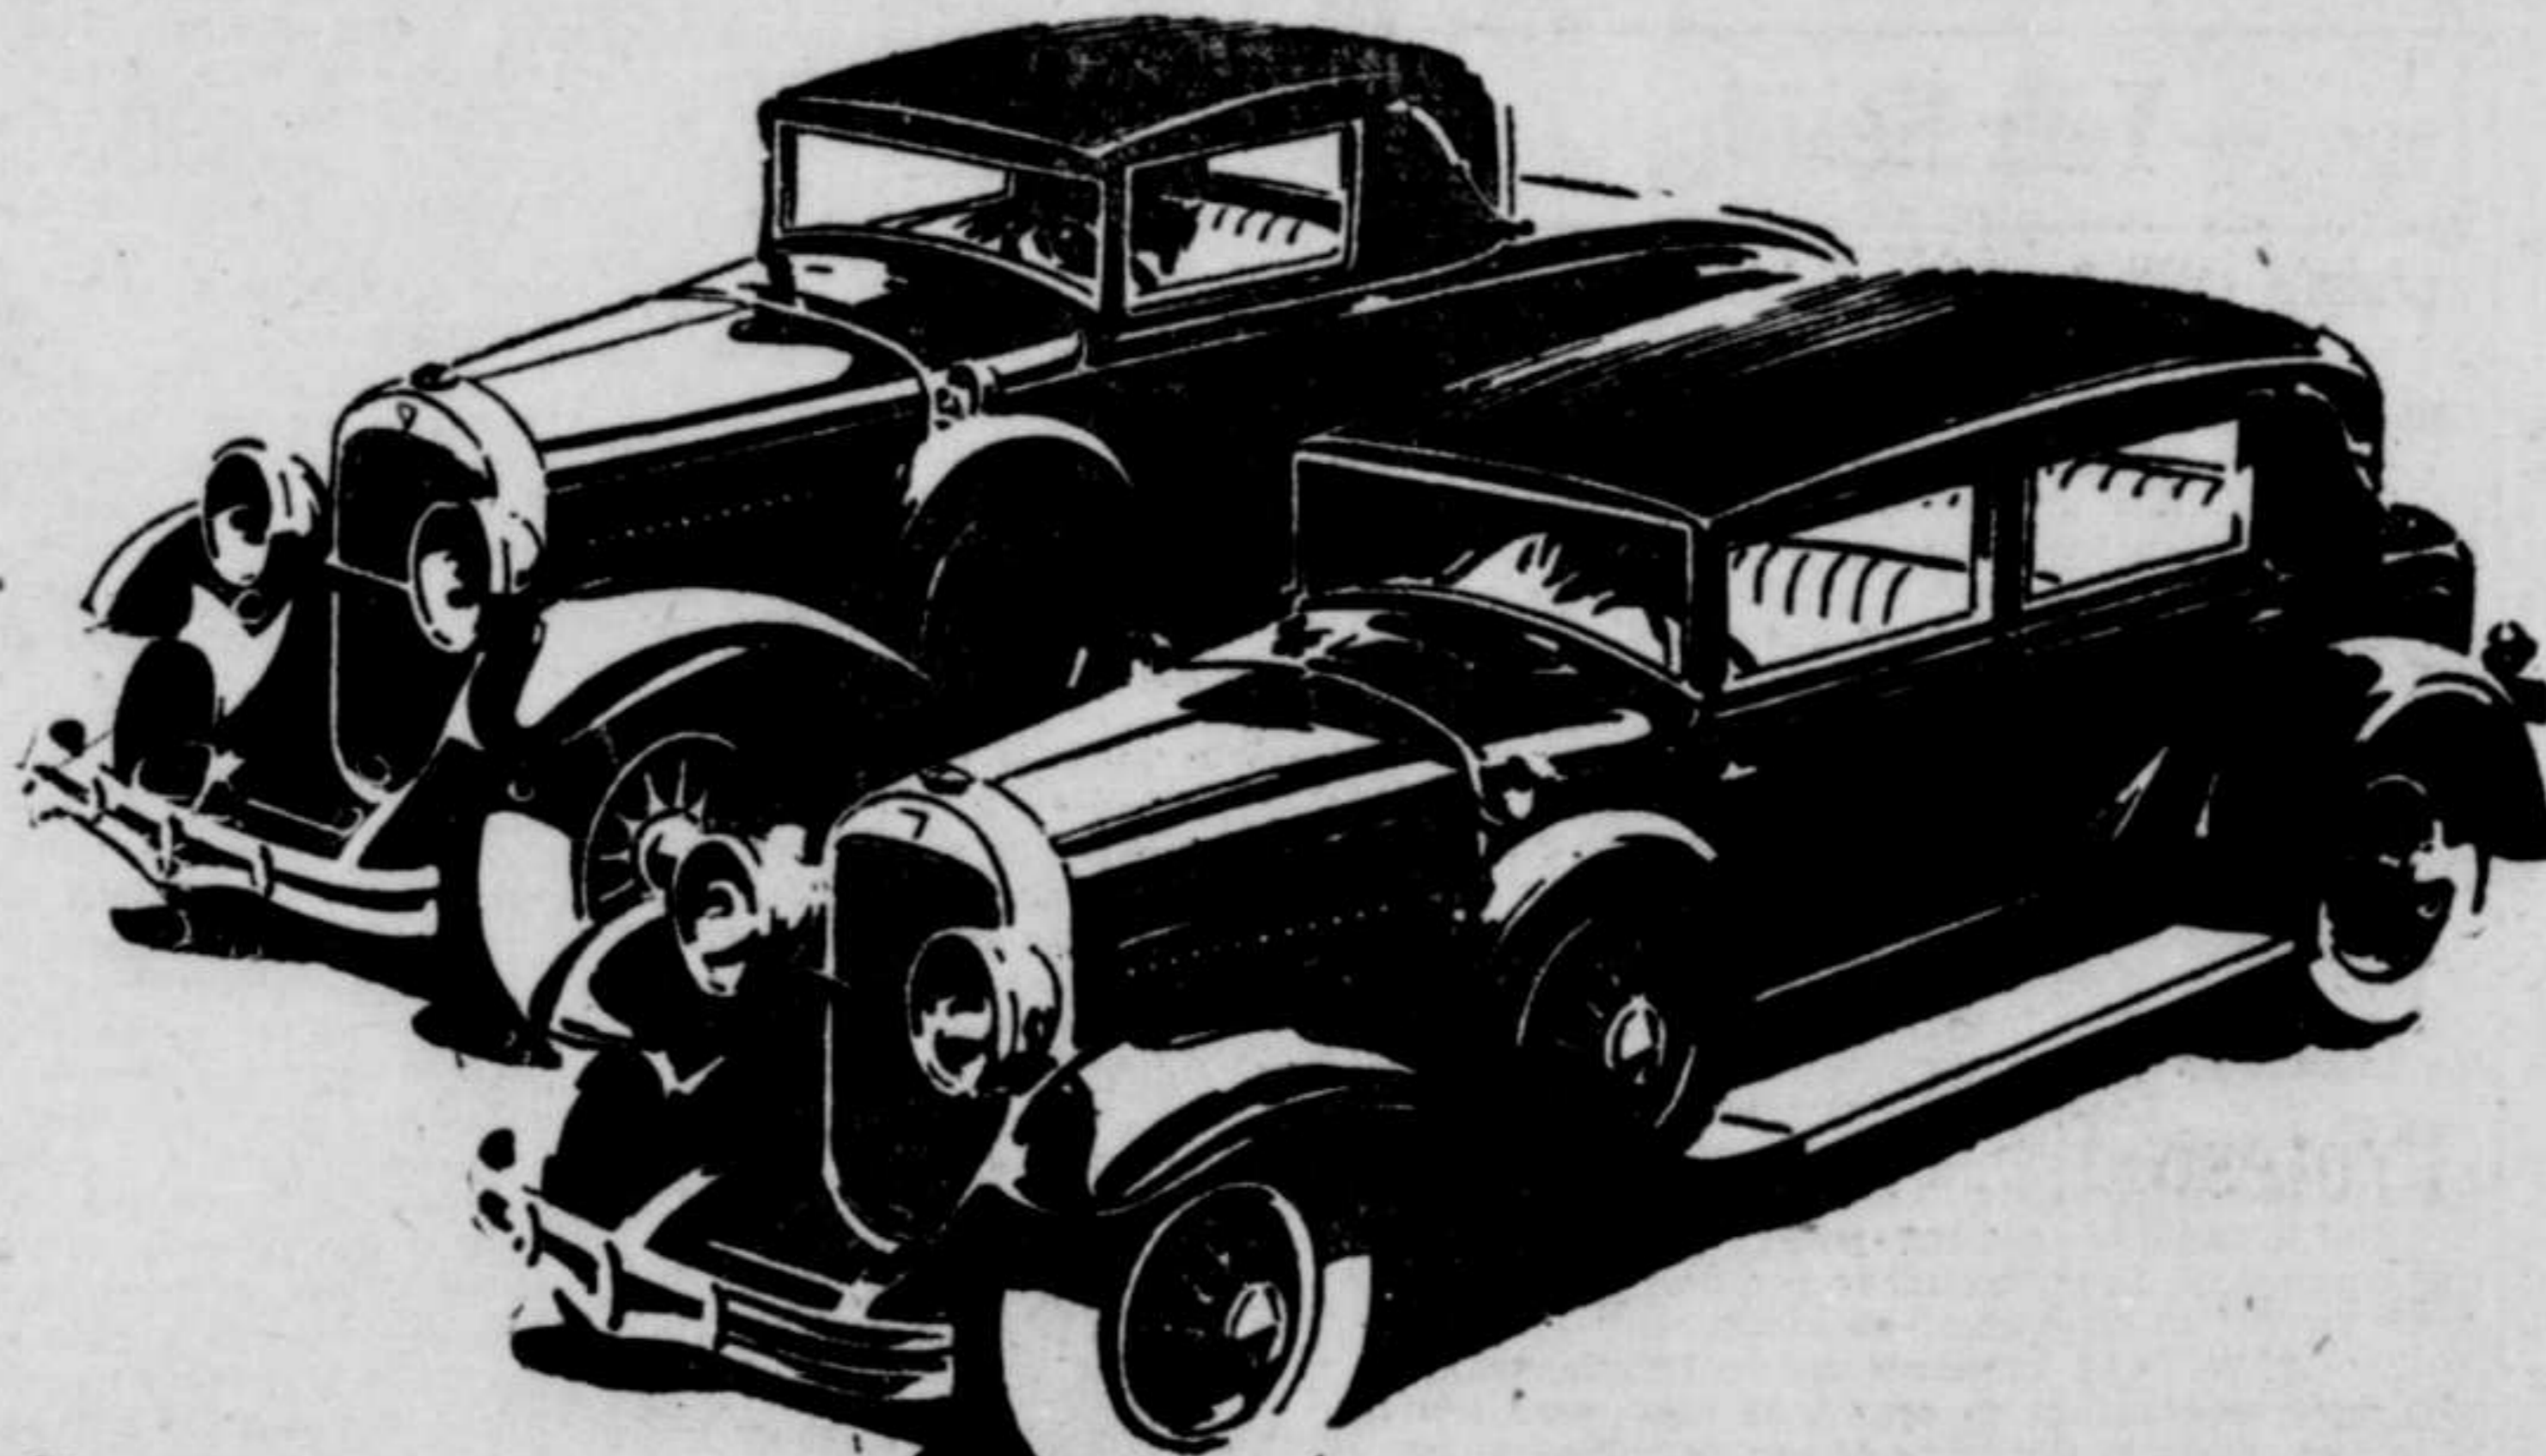

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 22.—(U.P.)—"I'd be champion now if Tunney hadn't ducked the issue when we were scheduled to fight in Miami in 1927," Young Stribling, the 24-year-old Georgia heavyweight contender who arrived in New Orleans today for his fight on the 25th with Ralph Smith, Western Giant, said. "The biggest men in Florida offered to guarantee his end of the purse, but he backed down on a claim that the promoter broke his contract. I was willing to get in the ring for nothing but a chance to flatten him."

The battle in New Orleans will be Stribling's major fight before meeting Jack Sharkey in Miami Beach February 27. Sully Montgomery, knocked out in the second round by Stribling last night in Memphis, was my 113th knockout victim. "The Dixie fighter remarked further, "Smith will be my 114th and Sharkey is certain to be number 115. Don't make any mistake about it."

64 improvements include Large, Fine, Roomy, and Luxurious Bodies... 92 Developed Horsepower... Above 80 miles an Hour... 70 Miles an Hour All Day... Greater Economy... New design double-action 4-wheel brakes unaffected by weather... 4 Hydraulic two-way shock absorbers... Non-shattering Windshield... Easier riding, steering and control... A superb car with every appeal to pride... There are fourteen body types and two chassis lengths to choose from.

Table listing car models and prices: 2-Door Sedan $1095, Standard Sedan $1175, Coupe $1195, Roadster $1250, 5-Pass. Phaeton $1350, Town Sedan $1375, Convertible Coupe $1450, Landau Sedan $1500, Victoria $1500, 5-Pass. Club Sedan $1850, 7-Pass. Sedan $2000, 7-Pass. Limousine $2100.

Because the experience and suggestions gained from a million Super-Six owners led to the 64 improvements now introduced, the new Hudson is to be known as the Greater Hudson. It is to this vast army of experts that this invitation to examine and drive the car and place upon it their appraisal is made. So emphatically does the Greater Hudson answer their wishes that we leave to them the verdict of its beauty, appearance, performance and value. No car has ever held greater prestige from the standpoint of value. No car has been regarded as being better on the road or having such a satisfactory motor. In the Greater Hudson you will find that in these as well as other particulars a higher standard is set. No group of owners is better qualified to judge values. None know so well what smoothness and reliability—easy driving and easy riding means. So what they say of the Greater Hudson will be authoritative and conclusive. It is their judgment that we now invite.

THE TOURIST'S PARADISE

The American automobile tourist—which includes just about all of us—will find his horizon immeasurably widened in the next few years.

The long-talked-of Pan-American highway, linking the United States and Canada with the countries of South America, is apparently going to become a reality at last.

A release from the Pan-American Union at Washington says that this great scheme has finally emerged from the realm of ideas and entered the realm of matter-of-fact blue prints.

The director of highways in Mexico, for example, has announced that a good roadway from Laredo, Texas, to the Guatemalan border is now being begun, and says that much of it will be ready for use in a couple of years.

Probably few undertakings ever planned in the New World have greater potentialities than this one. To the American tourist, this highway will open a great new wonderland for vacation travel.

It will mean better understanding between all the New World nations. The friendship that the United States and Canada enjoy can be extended all the way to Cape Horn.

PAYING THE GOVERNOR

A resolution now before the House of Representatives urges an increase in the Texas Governor's salary from $4,000 to $12,000 a year.

If we argue that the services of the governor are not worth more than $4,000 annually to us, it is tantamount to arguing that we have an inefficient administration, to say the least.

Some coaches in Texas receive a salary more than twice that paid the governor, and almost any private business pays its executive more than that received by the head of the biggest business operating in Texas.

RESCUE BY AIRPLANE

In the six-and-a-half day continuing flight of the Question Mark there is promise of great advancement in aviation, which has already wrought a transformation in human affairs not yet fully realized.

But of not less practical importance and of much greater romantic interest was the recent exploit of British aviators who flew to Kabul in Afghanistan from Pershwar and brought to safety in India the women of the threatened foreign legations.

Think of the prevention of the most tragic extremes in desperation if there could have been a similar rescue at Lockport in 1857 when British women threw their children into wells and jumped in after them in order to escape brutal massacre and fire.

Successful aviation has already removed some of the worst horrors from the siege of cities in uncivilized parts of the world.

No wonder Gordon is proud of the Kabul rescue, thrilled by the daring which faced the crossing of snowy mountain masses, with death certain at the hands of wild tribes, or from collision with fog-wreathed heights, if all did not go well.

The new scientific inventions have added hideous possibilities to war, but at the same time science and human daring have robbed savagery of some part of its power to commit enormities.

On the Firing Line at the Nation's Capital

SENATE WILL MISS FIRE OF JIM REED BY CHARLES P. STEWART

Washington Correspondent for Central Press And The Morning Avalanche

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—It will be a good deal like turning off the electricity when Jim Reed of Missouri retires from the United States senate at the end of this session of congress.

Everybody on Capitol Hill says so. An extra session is to follow close on the heels of the present regular one.

But no Jim Reed will sit in the front row, second desk from the aisle, on the democratic side, in the senate chamber.

Alas!—not a dissenting voice is raised—it won't be the same senate without him.

Yet it's the generally accepted theory that nobody is absolutely indispensable—that somebody always is ready to step into any just vacated void, no matter how seemingly non-refillable, and occupy it adequately.

Jim Reed's retirement will create a vacuum in the post of scintillator-in-chief for the senate minority.

My personal candidate for Jim's place is Senator Thaddeus H. Caraway of Arkansas.

For a short spurt, Thad Caraway undoubtedly is the champion scintillator in national politics.

He is not Jim Reed's equal in a marathon. That is to say, Jim can get up and make a speech, lasting hours, that darts forked lightning all the time 'till your eyes hurt.

There are other senators who can say strong things. Senator Borah can. So can both Senator Walshes. Likewise H. Johnson and young Bob LaFollette, and, most emphatically, "Uncle George" Norris.

But they all lack Thad Caraway's pungency. On Thad's own political side, Senator Pat Harrison of Mississippi has more of Jim's capacity for a prolonged effort, but his effect is nothing like as devastating as Jim's, or Thad Caraway's.

It should not be assumed, however, that Senator Caraway is deficient in ability to continue in action as long as circumstances require.

At his own particular game, he's tireless. And of Hygiene, the Health Magazine.

The senate will miss Jim Reed terribly. Still, complete ennuil never will settle upon the solemn chamber while Thad Caraway remains to enlighten its proceedings.

Your Health

DOES A CERTAIN FOOD MAKE YOU SICK? BY DR. MORRIS FISHBEN

Editor Journal of the American Medical Association Ten or 15 per cent of all people respond to the eating of certain food substances with constitutional reactions.

The foods to which they are sensitive may be such wholesome articles of diet as milk, eggs or cereals, or such appetizing luxuries as strawberries and shell-fish.

A baby sensitive to egg can be made severely sick by feeding him an amount of egg too small to be weighed on a chemical scale.

A person sensitive to honey may be made severely ill not only by eating honey as such, but by eating it when it forms merely a portion of the flavoring in cake or some confection.

Dr. W. W. Duke has described in Hygiene patients who were so sensitive to eggs that they were made ill by the eating of the trace of egg contained in hen meat; on the other hand, they could eat rooster with impunity.

One man, 50 years of age, who had had asthma for many years and of a type so severe as to produce prostration, was found to be sensitive to fish and to fish glue.

Food allergy is difficult to diagnose because it demands of the physician a highly analytical type of detection. Once the condition is determined, it is possible for the person to develop a diet and a method of living which will permit him to avoid the dangerous substances.

Getting Personal. Mother—Johnny, run over and find out how old Mrs. Brown is today. Johnny (returning)—Mrs. Brown says it is none of your business how old she is.

Not Much Good. An elderly couple was walking down behind a row of beef cattle at the Eastern States Exposition when suddenly the old gentleman was heard to remark: "Mary, it is just like I tell you, the blamed things aren't good for anything but to eat."

"Is Mrs. Rise at home?" "I don't know, ma'am," the new maid replied. "I can't tell till I get a better look at you. If you have got a wart on the side of your nose, she's out."—Detroit News.

Overheard at the Gurnsey banquet in Memphis: "There's nothing doing. It is all off?" "What is all off?" "Karj Muser's hair."

The Girl We Thought We Left Behind Us

SO THINK WE

We think that no one can laugh harder at the California football player who made the seventy-five yard run in the wrong direction than the kind of man that is given to doing substantially the same thing in the conduct of his own affairs.

We think that possibly the Syracuse College professor who says what the world needs is some never and stricter swear words, got a cigarette lighter for a Christmas present.

We think that if there is anything in the world that will make a United States Senator fight is a peace pact.

We think that before talking pictures, people used to wonder what the actors in the film dramas were saying, and in certain cases still do.

We think that the inventor who has recently discovered a process by which a gasoline engine may be run with water as lubrication is looking for the oil-well we have that possesses that sort of lubricant.

We think that if Sir Isaac Newton had based his calculations on a skirt of yesterday, instead of on the apple, the thoughtful old boy would conclude that the law of gravitation works in another direction.

We think that it is often suspected that a man is not thought to be dumb until he speaks.

We think that since so many men were given cigarette lighters for presents during the holidays that the general practice of borrowing matches has become more or less a universal habit.

We think that none of the prohibition enforcement officers are able to see anything new in the plan of the Durant prize-winner, but, then, there are plenty of things those officials never see.

We think that each generation has its war due to the fact that medals are saved and crutches are thrown away.

We think the housewives do not do near so much baking now as they did twenty-five or forty years ago, but they use just about as much dough, and some of them a great deal more.

We think there is possibly one thing that you have forgotten. Do you have a 1929 poll tax receipt?

We think there is no heritage that a father can leave to his children that will bring them greater returns than a life of usefulness, and a life that is clean, honest and to which people will refer back to as being a useful and good man.

We think when we hear an old bird on the street spitting red and often, and blowing about what he has done, and that he has done all he is going to do for the town, that he will never contribute another dime to the development of the community, and that he does not give a blank whether the town ever gets another railroad or factories, or hotels or any of the many enterprises that it will take to build the town, you might just as well put it down in your little book that he is right on the verge of the cemetery, and nobody is going to have time to fool away to follow him the last hole that he will ever get in, unless it is to be sure that the ground is well filled into the grave and that there will be no chance for him ever getting out.

The Way Of The World

BY GROVE PATTERSON

NOT BAD FOR CHURCHES Don't worry, sneer, or rejoice too much about the stories you hear that churches in this day are not doing well. Church membership in this country has increased 130 per cent since 1851, while population has increased 80 per cent. In 1850 one person in six belonged to a church; today it is one person in three. Despite the 25,000,000 motor cars in the United States, 18,000,000 telephones, and 7,000,000 radios, people still have time to go to church, and many of them even go to church. Some, indeed, pay their dues.

NOT SO GOOD AS TO MURDER While we are fooling along with figures let's admit that some other things have grown besides church membership. The murder rate per 1,000 people is twice as great today as it was in 1900. In burglary, highway robbery, and other crimes we lead the civilized world.

THE PRICE OF BEING BAD The cost of maintaining prisons and similar institutions is about one-sixth of the revenue of all the states. And they are high, too. In two eastern states the cost of maintaining such institutions takes one-third of the revenue. It is said the eleven billion dollars advanced to European nations during and after the World War is no more than the United States pays out every year in the war on crime.

LIVING TODAY Emerson believed in living in the present—not in the past or future. He writes: "Man is timid and apologetic; he is no longer upright; he dares not say 'I think,' 'I am,' but quotes some saint or sage. He is ashamed before the blade of grass or the blowing rose. These roses under my window make no reference to former roses or to better ones; they are for what they are; they are right with God's sun; there is no time to them. There is simply the rose; it is perfect in every moment of its existence."

WHAT IS IT ALL ABOUT? You ask: what is it all about? Take this quotation as a final word from today's column. The writer does not know to whom to give credit.

"We come from a world where we have known incredible standards of excellence. And we dimly remember beauties which we have not seized again. And we go each to that world."

PLAN UNIFORM WORK Baggage Agents to Meet in Dallas in February DALLAS, Jan. 22.—Discussion for uniformity in the checking of baggage to expedite its handling, which is being sought throughout the United States, Canada and Mexico, by the American Association of General Baggage Agents, will be made here at the quarterly conference on February 13 of members of the western association of the organization.

THIS HAS HAPPENED ASHORETH ASHE is spending an exciting evening with Hollis Hart in a little house on the top of a mountain that towers above a tiny island in the Caribbean Sea. A most romantic spot.

Ashtoreth is a stenographer. Mr. Hart is her employer. Rich beyond her wildest dreams and handsome. Considerable older—but then—a girl can't have everything.

Ashtoreth, who has been ill, is taking a West Indies cruise. She meets Hart quite by accident in Dominica, and proceeds to make the most of it.

Her trip so far has been most adventurous. MONA DE MUSSET, a fascinating woman with whom she roomed, died at sea. JACK SMYTHE, an Englishman, made love to her. And all the women aboard snubbed her outrageously.

Ashtoreth caps the climax by purposely missing the boat, and going with Hollis Hart to his little house on the mountains. She pretends of course, that it was an accident. And Mr. Hart seems not to suspect her little ruse.

They have been sitting on the gallery for hours, exchanging confidences.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XXVII They sat in silence. And the only sound that broke the stillness of the night was the mournful note of a dove.

Ashtoreth shivered. And presently—for no reason at all—she began very quietly to cry.

"Why, Ashtoreth, my dear—what is the matter, child?" Hollis was all tender compassion. "You're not frightened, dear?"

"I—I—I don't know," she sobbed. "I—I—I'm—nothing."

"You're weeping," he said. "It's that plaintive dove, sobbing in the dark. I think there's not a sadder sound in the world."

"I—I guess I'm lonely myself," she whispered. "Sometimes I miss daddy so much."

"Of course you do," he agreed gently. "And no wonder you're upset, little girl."

"It's not just daddy either," she said. "It's Mona—and everything."

"I know," he murmured. "And that little dove up on the mountain was simply the last straw."

"You're the understandingest man," she told him, and pressed his fingers gratefully. "I won't be silly any more. Don't you hate girls who cry?"

"Well usually," he admitted, "I'm a rather sloppy. But I think you're adorable, whatever you do."

Ashtoreth powdered her nose vigorously. "I'm glad it's dark," she confessed. "My nose always gets red when I cry—and there's nothing adorable about that. I assure you, I wish I was one of those women who weep artistically. It must be a great asset."

"I should imagine," he laughed. "I would take a lot of home work."

"Yes I suppose so," she sighed. "And I've not technique at all. Movie actresses practice in front of their mirrors. Maybe that would help. It must be wonderful to just have your eyes swell up with tears that never spill. And your throat palpitate. And your nose never get red at all. Not you, my dear."

Hollis Hart niled in the darkness. "The world is learning its lesson. Today new inventions are greeted with respect. The day of the laugh-er, the haw-hawer, is drawing to a close. The avenues for discovery, the doors to progress, are more open than ever before."

Be one of those to welcome the new thing when it comes along—do not shame yourself by laughing at it.

When the impossible is predicted, remember that in the course of modern progress many a thing thought impossible has become both possible and practicable.—Big Lake Wildcat.

A SHOCK TO WEST TEXANS West Texans were given a shock when they received the news of the unexpected death of Mayor Lee Bivins of Amarillo. Lee Bivins was a pioneer of the far Panhandle section. More than 30 years of his busy life had been spent under the skies of the west. He owned ranches in Old Mexico, New Mexico and West Texas. He owned many herds of pedigreed cattle. These herds grazed on his 500,000 acres which he had accumulated during his busy life. He knew all the cowmen of the country. He was one of the builders of Amarillo. He never held but one office, that of mayor of the city that jumped from a small town to a modern metropolis of 50,000 with the coming of gas and oil in his section of the state. His admiring fellow citizens drafted him, and he served. He knew all the petroleum kings. He knew all the gas kings. He could have written a history of West Texas that would have given the reader many thrills. Discovery of oil made Brock Walker a multimillionaire, but land and cattle and the discovery of gas made Lee Bivins one of the wealthy citizens of the most important of American commonwealths.—Waco News-Tribune.

above all women. "And I'm ashamed of her because she makes the most awful grammatical mistakes. And dyes her hair. And uses too much make-up. And wears a purple velvet suit. And acts exactly like the genuine, simple soul she is.

Hollis broke in upon her thoughts. "Would you tell me about your father?" he asked. "Or had you rather not talk about him, Orchid?"

"Oh, I love to talk about him!" she cried. "I told you daddy was a man in a million. Hollis shall I tell you a secret that I've never told another soul in this world."

"Why, if you would care to," he answered. "I should be profoundly touched, I am sure." "Well, father left a letter for me," she told him. "A most remarkable sort of a letter. I haven't shown it to anybody—not even mother. In fact," she added honestly, "mother is probably the last person on earth I ever would show it to. I carried it around with me until it was almost worn out. It's in a little box now, in the bottom of my hat box, all tied up with tissue paper and ribbons. But I think I know it almost by heart."

"I won't tell you the beginning," she said, and there was a little catch in her voice. "It was so awfully personal and not meant for anybody at all but me. The rest, though, wasn't so private."

"It was sort of daddy's idea about 'what a young girl should know'."

"You're sure," interrupted Hollis, "that you won't be sorry if you tell me?"

"Oh, no," she said. "I'd really like to. Sometimes, you know, it's blest to be able to talk about things. Particularly secrets." "I know," he said. "Then tell me, Orchid. And I shall appreciate your confidence with all my heart."

"You're not sleepy?" she asked. "Sleepy?" he cried. "When I can talk with you? I should say not! I think, though, since we are going to sit up so long, I will speak to Hester, if you will excuse me for a moment."

He went, she noticed, across the garden and down a little ravine. "Hester!" he called. "Hester!"

The servants then did not sleep in the house. She was to be all alone with Hollis Hart! . . . What would Maizie say? And Monty? And Sadie?

Ashtoreth put her arms about her shoulders and hugged herself. Funny—the feeling it gave a girl, sleeping in the same house with a man. Just she and he. (To Be Continued.)

Ashtoreth finds she has become very important to Hollis Hart. Read the next chapter.

New High School Planned at Alpine

(Special to the Avalanche) ALPINE, Jan. 22.—Trustees of the Alpine Independent School District have asked for bids on the new high school to be built here. The bids are to be opened in February. It is expected that a contract for the new building will be let immediately following the opening of the bids and the work on construction will begin at once.

A site for the new building has not yet been decided on, according to members of the board.

Meeting Rewarded Lonesome Stranger Leaves Bequests

OKMULGEE, Okla., Jan. 22. (AP)—A lonesome stranger and a friendly little girl were the combination that met in Hucbins hotel in Oklahoma City 8 years ago. A combination that resulted in the girl becoming the heir to a part of the stranger's fortune. "Who's little girl are you?" "I'm Mrs. Terry's little girl." "And what is your name?" "My name is Marion and that is my daddy sitting over there." Thus the friendship started. Today Marion, 16, Okmulgee, is the recipient of the bulk of the estate of Clinton Lyon, Columbia, Mo., insurance man. Marion's little brother, Billy, 4, and sister, Virginia, 11, have also been bequeathed a part of their late friend's fortune.

Hardware Is Victim Establishment Goes For Woman Appeal

DALLAS, Jan. 22. (AP)—The last of the establishments offering a haven to men have gone feminine. Following the lead of barber-shops, hardware stores must recognize the importance of "woman appeal," delegates to the Texas hardware and implement dealers association were told today. F. X. Schud, Gainesville, president, urged that the stores "be given a feminine appeal; that women clerks be employed." That change is imperative, he added, unless the hardware dealers wish to see their business absorbed by chain and department stores.

Minds Still Change Marriage Licenses Cause Commotion

"Many a slip" there is, between the intention and the deed. And, even in 1929, members of the fair sex continue to practice their prerogative of changing their minds. Proof? Oh, well! No more had the ink dried on a certain marriage license record issued Monday afternoon, when the devouring eyes of the find-it-all-reporter had the names and gone to his typewriter. In the Avalanche yesterday morning the names appeared. In the office of the county clerk yesterday the young man appeared to inquire why the names had been published, as he requested them not to be. Being advised the records were public property and available to everybody, much less n-w-hounds, he insisted further the publication of the marriage license spoiled his and her plans. They were to have been married secretly. "We've already said we're sorry. However, Tuesday evening, one of Lubbock's very best dressed and most attractive young ladies hurried her way into the offices of the Avalanche-Journal, handed the city editor a couple of names and said: "Don't you publish those names. The marriage license has been issued, but don't you print those two names. There will NOT be any wedding as a consequence of such license having been issued to..." It's a cruel, cruel world.

New York Market Has Busiest Day Of Year Tuesday

Movement of London Gold To New York Gives Action To Bull Party; Sales Above 5,000,000 Shares

By CLAUDE A. JAGGER, Associated Press Financial Writer. NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—The bull party celebrated resumption of the gold movement from England today with violent bidding up of high-priced issues on the stock market. The session was one of the busiest of the year, total sales crossing the 5,000,000 share mark for the first time since Jan. 4.

The taking of about 2,500,000 in gold bars by Speyer and Co., to be shipped on the Aquitania tomorrow, represents the first movement of London gold to New York since mid-November.

The present shipment is understood to reflect the drop in sterling exchange below $4.95. The Federal Reserve authorities do not look with favor upon a heavy inflow of gold from London, which would probably be attracted by an increase in the New York rediscount rate.

England Does Not Object. The Bank of England is thought unlikely to object to a flow of gold to New York, so long as the movement does not exceed the amount of transval gold offered in the open market in London.

Call money was in abundant supply at 6 per cent today, and some was available in the outside market at 5 per cent. Time money held firm, however, and the Federal Reserve increased its buying rate for bankers bills to 5 per cent, which makes it equal to the rediscount rate. Bankers look for tighter call money toward the end of the month.

Business news was largely favorable. Chile Copper raised its dividend rate for the second time in three months, and Anaconda pro-

Suffered For 10 Years; Then She Turns to Sargon

Mrs. Malcott Recommends Sargon Because It Proved Its Worth In Her Case

"Sargon and Sargon Soft Mass Pills are the most wonderful medicines I have ever used. I say this because they have brought back my health after I had been trying for ten years to find something that would relieve me of my suffering. My principal trouble was with my liver, for my complexion was always sallow and I often saw my color was as yellow as gold. I believe my entire system was filled with poison, resulting from chronic constipation and liver trouble. I became dreadfully nervous. I did not sleep well and was losing my strength and energy rapidly.

I also suffered terribly with intestinal indigestion and had always to be careful about my diet, but I would suffer with indigestion just the same. Gas would form and extend up around my heart and cause severe palpitation. I also had severe pains in my abdomen. These attacks would generally come on after meal time. Pains in my chest and shoulder also bothered me a great deal, and I was in a badly run-down and weakened condition.

"After taking two bottles of Sargon and one bottle of Sargon Soft Mass Pills I noticed a remarkable improvement in my condition. My appetite is splendid. I can now digest and assimilate food I hadn't dared touch before in months. I no longer suffer from those indigestion spells, but the greatest blessing of all has been the relief from constipation from which I suffered for so many years. My complexion is now clear and healthy. I have gained some weight and feel greatly strengthened in every way.

"The Sargon Soft Mass Pills are wonderful. They are so gentle and yet so thorough and cause no bad after effects whatever."

The above statement was made by Mrs. Alexander Malcott, 1405 West 6th Street, Oklahoma City. Mrs. Malcott is a member of St. Lukes Methodist church and is highly respected by a large circle of friends.

Sargon may be obtained in Lubbock at the City Drug Store and in Slaton at the City Drug Store. adv.

KANSAS CITY LIVESTOCK
KANSAS CITY, Jan. 22. (P)—(U. S. D. A.)—Fresh receipts of hogs were around 115,100 a decrease of 30,000 as compared with a week ago and 48,000 less than a year ago; lighter supplies and a broad shipping outlet were responsible for an active market at 15 to 20c higher prices as compared with Monday's average; best light weights reached 9.45 at St. Louis for the days top. OKLAHOMA CITY, Jan. 22. (P)—Harold H. Snyder, Oklahoma City, today gave $64,100 for a lease on the SW-36-11-3W, a mile and five eighths south of the Itio discovery well of the south Oklahoma City area. Meetings of Kansas and Oklahoma oil operators to consider conservation legislation to have been held January 23 at Independence for the Kansans and at Tulsa January 29 for the Oklahomans have been indefinitely postponed. Decision to postpone the meetings in order to permit the industry to make a broader study of its needs was reached at a meeting at Tulsa today of several operators representatives with J. C. Denton, president of the Kansas-Oklahoma division of the Mid-Continent oil and gas association. Greater Seminole field dropped again the past 24 hours, gauging 291,037 barrels at 7 a. m. today, this was a loss of 1,778 barrels from yesterday's output and a forty eight-hour decline of 2,756 barrels. SAN ANGELO, Jan. 22. (P)—California company's No. 1 Smith in Peeco county flowed 618 barrels of oil in 30 minutes today, a rate of 25,664 barrels a day from 1,444 feet. The well topped the pay at 1,405 feet and has flowed steadily since the bit reached 1,440 feet. The well is in the northwest corner of section 21, block 194, G. C. & S. P. Ry. Co. survey and is an east offset to Gulf Production Co. No. 12B Smith in the northeast corner of section 22, block 194, of the same survey. The Gulf well came in recently extending the Yates pool half a mile south. This well was completed at 1,521 feet for 850 barrels of oil hourly. The California Co. well was shut in for storage.

Oil Notes
The commodity markets were irregular. Wheat strengthened on poor weather conditions over the winter belt, while corn sagged in profit taking. Cotton was quiet, pending the official ginnings report. Foreign exchanges were quiet and barely steady, with sterling exchange below 4.85.

PLAN ANNUAL TOUR
Tentative Plans for Tenth Annual Tour Started
AUSTIN, Jan. 22. (P)—Tentative plans for the tenth annual spring tour of the University of Texas Longhorn Band, scheduled to begin on March 18, will send the band through the principal towns of East Texas, including Tyler, Longview, Marshall, Nacogdoches, Lufkin, Greenville, and Commerce, with a possibility of Denton heading the list, according to Director Burnett Pharr.

Market Is Quiet On Cotton Despite Ginnings Rumors

Moderate Advances Feature Day's Trading; March Is Closed at 20 1/2; Report Ginnings at 13,629,000

NEW YORK, Jan. 22. (P)—The cotton market was quiet again today. Moderate advances on some trade buying and covering were followed by reactions in the late trading. After selling up from 20 1/2 to 20 3/4, March reacted to 20 1/2 and closed at that figure. The general market closed steady net one point lower to five points higher.

The market opened steady at an advance of one point to a decline of 2 points. It eased slightly right after the call under near month liquidation promoted by the circulation of January notices, which were estimated about 7,400 bales. January declined to 20.10 or 4 points below yesterday's closing figures. July, after selling at 19.80 at the start, reacted to 19.78 compared with 19.74 at the close of yesterday. Offerings Are Small

The initial selling was readily absorbed and the market firmed up during the middle of the day on some trade buying and covering. The comparatively small volume of offerings seemed to promote a little covering or commission house buying. The market became more active during the afternoon when January sold up to 20.19 and July to 19.87, or about 4 to 15 points net higher on the active months. More cotton appeared for sale around the 20 1-4 cent level for the spring positions, however, and last prices showed reactions of 4 to 10 points from the best. At the close January was 1 point under March after having been about six points under during the day. Trading in that position will end at noon Friday. It is thought that some further notices may be issued as a little cotton is arriving for addition to the local stocks.

Private Ginnings Given
A private report was published estimating ginnings prior to January 16th at 13,629,000 bales. The figures were without apparent effect on the market, which some brokers think may be waiting for the official ginning report tomorrow morning. Private cables attributed a relatively steady showing of Liverpool to trade calling and Manchester buying, which had absorbed some Bombay selling. According to these advices, the demand for cotton cloths from China was well sustained, but business with India was poor. Port receipts today 45,048. U. S. port stocks 2,243,274. Exports 18,554, making 8,431,360 so far this season.

WTCU To Support Tom Love's Bill

Mrs. De Van Watts Declares Organization Will Go For "Freedom of Conscience" Measure In Texas

(By Associated Press) AUSTIN, Jan. 22.—Believing it is vitally necessary that "machine government" be changed to "man government," the Woman's Christian Temperance Union will support Senator Tom B. Love's "freedom of conscience" bill, Mrs. Claude De Van Watts, state president, announced today.

The Love bill would not make binding political party pledges assumed at primaries when a matter of "conscience" is concerned. "We are fully persuaded that this bill is of far-reaching worth as a prohibition bill," Mrs. Watts said. "If it fails of passage and the 'machine' remains in control, and we, the patriotic, lawabiding, conscientious citizens who voted outside the democratic party in the recent election, are barred from the primaries, the 'wets' will be in complete control. "We do most heartily and patriotically resent the threats of the state democratic executive committee to bar us from the primaries, their attempts to act as dictators of our consciences."

Million Couldn't

Boston Police Chief Invites Agents

BOSTON, Jan. 22. (AP)-The Herald Sunday quoted Superintendent of Police Michael H. Crowley as saying: "If I had a million more men at my disposal, they wouldn't help me any" in closing Boston speakeasies.

The superintendent admitted the Herald said, that "there are many speakeasies and other liquor establishments in Boston - far too many," but I denied charges that there was graft in law enforcement.

"If the federal prohibition forces think they can come in and clean up some of these places, they are welcome to try and they'll get our complete cooperation."

Woolens Come Into Own For Sports Season Costumes

By LUCY CLAIRE

Fashion Expert for Central Press and Avalanche

Woolens have come into their own with the sports season of racing, hunting, golfing, football, and the other outdoor events of fall and winter. So strongly are wool fabrics becoming a d'la mode for afternoon as well as sports costumes, as exploited by the Paris couturiers. In Philippe et Gaston's collection is featured a frock of navy woolen bordered with black braid, elaborated with disks of the braid over the hips, and lightened by plastron collar of white crepe and white crepe sleeve bands. Premet introduces a frock of a fine gray and navy mixture of rough surface, with an encrusted scarf of navy crepe. Doucet sponsors a model of black kasha, smartly cut in a frock of afternoon type. The only trimming is white kasha. Dusty red is being combined with beige by a number of society women here in America. Lanching at the Colony club recently Mrs. Anthony Drexl Biddle, Jr., approved this combination in a red cloth coat and skirt with a beige knitted jumper. Several of the other women present wore red cloth coats with beige frocks.

across the hips, is an interesting feature.

Another version of the short jacket worn at the hunt meet was of a reddish brown woolen material with large patch pockets, posed over a pink crepe frock. The double breasted jacket suit was worn by one of the smart matrons. It was part and parcel of the three-piece sports suit of green flannel. Width was afforded the skirt in a flared front box pleat. A zigzag striped sweater accompanied the suit. Proof that woolens will be good right through the Palm Beach season into summer is found in the beautiful new sheer woolens now in the hands of manufacturers. Challis will be much in evidence, and, of course, the sheer jerseys and tweeds we met last summer. Arrangements are now under way for a gigantic fashion show, under designation of the Golden Fleece Pageant, to be held in March, when all these new lightweight, sheer woolens will be shown in last minute Paris creations.

PURCHASE ORGAN

Mr. Parker remodeled his theater into one of the best playhouses in the west a short time back. Addition of a new organ of this type will give it the finishing touch.

were reported against the increase. Bruce of Massachusetts, Kendrick of Wyoming, and Reed, of Missouri, while fifteen republicans voted with, while the solid democratic membership in its support. The $250,000 fund was approved without a record vote. Adopted in the face of strong opposition by Secretary Mellon and divided allegiance of day leaders and organizations, the favorable action on the Harris amendment was the first time in the remembrance of congressional leaders who have dealt with money appropriations. That money has been voted under such circumstances.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22. (AP)—The discussion in the ranks of the Anti-Saloon League over the Harris amendment to increase the prohibition enforcement fund by $25,000,000 was sharpened today when Dr. A. H. Briggs, superintendent of the California league, said at national headquarters that F. Scott McBride, general superintendent who has opposed the amendment, is attempting the impossible in trying to carry the work of legislative representative.

Dr. Briggs said the situation was "interesting" and might become "critical."

1929 Budget Adopted. Adoption of the 1929 budget for the district, which amounts to $6,000, was had Tuesday and announcement of several new ventures and some churches planned for the year announced. The full quota for 1928 was reported as having been paid.

The establishment of the outdoor pulpit, near Texas Technological college, which was authorized at this convocation, is to be in commemoration of the pioneer work done in West Texas by all religious bodies," declared Rev. L. G. H. Williams Tuesday. "The names of distinguished men from each religious body will be inscribed on the pulpit, when it is erected."

Rev. Mr. Williams also stated that the plan for construction work on the two lots belonging to the Episcopal denomination will probably be started during the year. Several social receptions were held in the city during the convocation for the visitors, which were well attended, and delegates were otherwise entertained with automobile tours of the city, and visits to Texas Tech.

Rev. J. Leslie Glenn of New York, religious education department worker of the church's national headquarters, who is engaged in college work throughout the United States, addressed the convocation on Monday night and held a conference at Tech college. "He thinks Tech one of the strategic college points in Texas," was the remark of Rev. Williams. "He was greatly impressed with the work already done at Tech and is planning to send an able college speaker to visit Tech during the next few months for special work among students."

Other district speakers were spoken of as coming here during the year by the Lubbock rector, who otherwise commented upon the fact that Texas Tech has attracted attention of the New York department of his church and that much assistance is promised here during 1929. At the invitation of the College a summer conference of this district will be held in one of the college buildings. Miss Mabel Cooper, of the New York office, will come as one of the instructors. She is a Southern woman and is said to stand high among workers of her kind. Also Bishop Quinn, of the Diocese of Texas, is coming for special summer conferences in Lubbock, and Rev. A. E. Whittle, of San Angelo, is coming for a Preaching Mission in the early summer.

Cooper, county agent and secretary of the club, 343 wolves and 24 wildcats have been exterminated since the club was organized last April. By the volunteer contributions of 1 cent per acre from land owners and those controlling land in this county, funds are provided for the payment of bounties.

Tragedies

see anything. He drove upon the crossing at the instant the interurban, travelling about 35 miles an hour, reached it.

The interurban crashed on top of the bus, and then fell across it in a ditch, smashing the machine into a mass of twisted steel and splintered wood, and pinning nearly all the passengers underneath. Those riding the electric car frantically began digging into the wreckage to extricate the dead and injured. Passing motorists made improvised ambulances of their machines and the four ambulances in Bellevue made repeated trips.

Volunteers Work In Snow. Scores of volunteers worked in the snow. It required four hours to remove the bodies of dead, four of them women. The eighteenth body could not be removed until the New York Central railway responded to calls for jacks and a wrecking crew. There were few coherent stories of the tragedy, but passengers on the electric car agreed that it was rolling along through the snowfall at a fast clip when without warning there was a rending crash. The bus was torn nearly in two and the interurban hurtled into the air from the force of the impact.

Passengers on the electric car escaped with shocks and minor injuries but nearly all of the bus were pinned in the debris. The dead were taken to the three Bellevue establishments, where identification was slow because of the mangled condition of some of the bodies. The injured, of whom two were in a critical condition, were taken to Bellevue hospital. Among the less seriously injured was Butler, the bus driver.

The crossing where the crash occurred is one of the most dangerous in northern Ohio. A resolution by the Dallas senate asking a referendum providing for continuous sitting of the Supreme court was reported favorably.

Favor License Increase. The senate state affairs committee voted favorably on two bills lightening the duties of the state railroad, calling for a referendum on that subject, already had been voted out of committee. Love's proposed constitutional amendment to allow prosecution by information as well as indictment, which he said had the support of the crime suppression league, was killed by unanimous vote and another to relieve of taxation a homestead valued up to $5,000 and $500, worth of furniture met a like fate.

A resolution by the Dallas senate asking a referendum providing for continuous sitting of the Supreme court was reported favorably. The senate state affairs committee acted favorably on a bill offered by Senator Hornsby of Austin providing a penalty for incorrect gasoline measurements and asking the licensing of all filling station operators. Tests which have been made indicate that gasoline consumers in Texas are cheated out of $3,000,000 a year by short measures. V. A. Stovall, chief of the division of weights and measures in the office of commissioner of agriculture, told members of the committee.

Under the Hornsby bill cost of a license would be $2 and the proceeds would be used in enforcement of its provisions. A state bureau of criminal identification and investigation would be created under a bill introduced by Senator Hornsby.

TOKYO.—(AP)—Official permission for the erection in Tokyo of a Sun Yat-sen statue has been refused. Government officials explain that "under present circumstances," the erection of such an image would be inappropriate.

three minor traffic violations. Practically every one agreed that the expressed purpose of the bill, to safeguard the state's public thoroughfares, was sound. Senator Wirtz of Seguin, author of the measure, said it was modeled on the uniform bill which had been adopted in a number of states.

The senate committee on constitutional amendments killed three of four joint resolutions introduced by Senator Love of Dallas and voted favorably on the other. Don't Consider Salary. His proposal to increase the governor's salary from $4,000 to $12,000 was not considered because a like resolution by Senator Moore of Greenville, calling for a referendum on that subject, already had been voted out of committee.

Love's proposed constitutional amendment to allow prosecution by information as well as indictment, which he said had the support of the crime suppression league, was killed by unanimous vote and another to relieve of taxation a homestead valued up to $5,000 and $500, worth of furniture met a like fate.

A resolution by the Dallas senate asking a referendum providing for continuous sitting of the Supreme court was reported favorably. The senate state affairs committee acted favorably on a bill offered by Senator Hornsby of Austin providing a penalty for incorrect gasoline measurements and asking the licensing of all filling station operators. Tests which have been made indicate that gasoline consumers in Texas are cheated out of $3,000,000 a year by short measures. V. A. Stovall, chief of the division of weights and measures in the office of commissioner of agriculture, told members of the committee.

Under the Hornsby bill cost of a license would be $2 and the proceeds would be used in enforcement of its provisions. A state bureau of criminal identification and investigation would be created under a bill introduced by Senator Hornsby.

TOKYO.—(AP)—Official permission for the erection in Tokyo of a Sun Yat-sen statue has been refused. Government officials explain that "under present circumstances," the erection of such an image would be inappropriate.

GALVESTON.—(AP)—The federal government is to construct a $1,000,000 marine hospital here. J. W. Davis, general manager of the Galveston Chamber of Commerce, announced after a trip to Washington.

does not feel certain the governor will be re-instated. Citizens here are depending on the administration democrats and all of the republicans to stand by Johnston in the senate impeachment trial.

As to the charges, little is said—for most citizens know too few of the details to assert opinions. But they know the governor is "crystal clear."

"There is a feeling," says the Perry Journal, "slight little support of the governor, that he has fought for clean administration and that he has intended from the first to help clean up politics."
