Gov. Connally Speaks To Oil Compact

BILLINGS, Mont. (AP) — Gov. John Connally of Texas sympathized today with independent oilmen, but said they probably will get no relief soon. He urged them to "hold on a while longer."

Connally spoke to the Interstate Oil Compact Commission. He expressed "tremendous concern" over some industry problems.

Describing the independents as the victims of the oil industry's "own Appalachia of depression," Connally said oil regulatory agencies in many states, including Texas, cannot take economics into consideration in controlling the production of oil.

"Fortunately, no such restriction is placed upon the governor of Texas—and speaking in that capacity, I say to you that I am tremendously concerned about the economics of the oil industry, in Texas and elsewhere."

Connally said he is "alarmed and dismayed over the inadequacies of our federal imports program," worried about the impact of production and price cuts on state and local tax revenues" and shares the unhappiness of independents "because they do not seem to be able to participate in the general prosperity that American business is now enjoying."

Connally said his sympathy with independents "is not a criticism of companies and individuals who are making money." His feelings are based instead on a reasoning that "no industry is truly prosperous unless all of its important elements are prosperous."

A study group reported that most states have adequate authority to conserve oil and gas.

Argentina Settlement Is Sought

BUENOS AIRES (AP) — Argentine officials pressed talks today for an out-of-court settlement with three U.S. oil companies whose oil field operations were taken over by the Argentine State Oil Agency (YPF).

Government sources indicated YPF would take over direction of other petroleum company operations this week.

State assumption of control was the final step carrying out President Arturo Illia's November decree annulling development contracts with 13 private oil firms. All but two are foreign and nine are American.

YPF officials pounded government ownership stakes into the ground on field operations Monday of Pan American International, a subsidiary of Standard of Indiana; Cities Service Development Corp. of New York, and Union Oil Co. of California.

The U. S. government has warned Illia that future financial aid to Argentina could be affected unless full payment is made to the companies.

Illia claimed the oil contracts, signed in 1958-59 under President Arturo Frondizi, were harmful to Argentina.

Taylor To Assume Post

WASHINGTON (AP) —Henry Cabot Lodge has resigned as ambassador to South Viet Nam and will be succeeded by Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, President Johnson announced today.

Johnson also told a news conference that U. Alexis Johnson, presently an assistant secretary of state and a veteran foreign service career officer will become deputy ambassador, a new post.

Taylor, now chairman of the joint chiefs of staff will be succeeded in that post by Gen. Earle G. Wheeler, now Army chief of staff.

Johnson said Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara has not yet recommended a successor to Wheeler in the top Army post.

Johnson again expressed this country's determination to help South Viet Nam resist Communist aggression and to continue flights over Laos when ever representatives of the International Control Commission are barred from inspecting the area.

The news conference was a hurriedly set up affair—one of the quickies such as Johnson has held before.

In addition to announcing the big changes in South Viet Nam and the Pentagon, Johnson told the reporters:

—The United States and the Soviet Union have entered into an agreement for scientific cooperation on methods of desalting sea water.

He expressed the hope that this could lead to important developments in this field.

—After the civil rights bill becomes law, he intends to appeal to the people to "observe the law of the land."

—He is proud of the record of Congress so far, but many important legislative recommendations still must be acted upon by one house or the other and in some cases by both houses.

He mentioned in this connection his antipoverty program, special aid to the Appalachian area and health insurance.

Johnson said he hopes to get as much of his legislative program enacted as possible.

—While dodging any guess as to the Republican presidential nominee, Johnson said he hoped for a high-type of campaign with appeals to hate kept at a minimum. He said he intended to make no such hate appeals.

Lodge's letter of resignation was dated June 19 and Johnson's letter of acceptance with regret was dated today.

Lodge said he was resigning "entirely for personal reasons" and the tone of his letter indicated no policy disagreement was involved.

Johnson said the country had been fortunate to have had Lodge's dedicated service in the delicate South Viet Nam post.

And, he said, he was fortunate in getting Taylor and Johnson to go to Viet Nam.

In this connection, Johnson commented that Taylor has displayed outstanding qualities of leadership in the past; dedication to democracy and knowledge of the ways of Communist subversion and aggression.

Deputy ambassador Johnson will go to South Viet Nam and head up the U.S. mission until Taylor arrives.

Will Aid Gov. Scranton

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP) — Henry Cabot Lodge, U.S. ambassador to South Viet Nam during the past 10 stormy months of its history, resigned from his post here today to take up the political cudgel against Barry Goldwater.

Lodge said in a prepared statement that he was quiting his post in Saigon to give all the help he could to Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton's 11th hour bid to stop the nomination of Goldwater by the Republican convention.

Police Smash Plot To KidnapKrush

By JOHN O. KOEHLER

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP) —Swedish police have smashed a plot to kidnap Soviet Premier Khrushchev and hold him hostage for the release of political prisoners behind the Iron Curtain.

Police confirmed that at least one man, described only as a 30-year-old foreigner, was arrested Monday near Haga Castle, where the Soviet leader is staying during his five - day state visit.

The man reportedly confessed that he and several other men had planned to smash their way through the castle gates in a truck.

The newspaper Aftonbladet, which has close connections with the Swedish government, said the man in custody was a Hungarian. Police declined to confirm this.

There also was speculation that the plot was hatched by members of the Ustashi, a fanatic Croatian anti-Communist organization which fought for the Nazis during World War II.

The Ustashi reportedly has a strong membership in Sweden, which is haven for about 30,000 refugees from Communist countries.

Two weeks before Khrushchev's arrival in Sweden, the newspaper Expressen said the Ustashi had threatened openly to kill the Soviet leader.

"Khrushchev will die in Sweden," Expressen quoted a Ustashi leader as saying.

County police Supt. Aake Magnusson signed the charge sheet against the arrested man.

Magnusson described a report by a Stockholm newspaper that the plotters were armed with submachine guns as a "dreamed up story."

In the wake of the arrest, the 5,000 policemen in Stockholm for Khrushchev's visit were reinforced by two special commando units.

At Haga Castle, only one gate was kept open and it was protected by scores of uniformed police and plainclothes detectives.

The kidnap plot was the first serious incident reported during Khrushchev's Scandinavian tour which began in Denmark on June 16. He arrived in Sweden on Monday.

Because of previous threats, police operations and restrictions were decidedly more severe in Sweden than in Denmark.

Police were told to shoot anyone making a threatening move toward Khrushchev. They reportedly were told to fire "even if you are in a crowd."

Swedish police normally are permitted to shoot only after being fired on.

Sen. Case Will Back Gov. Scranton

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Clifford P. Case, R-N.J., broke with precedent today and announced he is supporting Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton for the GOP presidential nomination.

Case said in a statement he had hoped to follow his state's tradition of remaining an uncommitted delegate until the Republican National Convention opens in San Francisco next month.

But he added, "It appears that if leadership is not taken now, the convention would be foreclosed against Scranton before it met."

Case's action put at least two of New Jersey's convention votes in Scranton's column. Five New Jersey House members, including Rep. Peter H. B. Frelinghuysen, a delegate, announced Monday they are backing the Pennsylvania governor.

Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz. who has more than enough publicly committed votes to win the nomination if they do not melt away, has claimed only eight New Jersey delegates.

FLIGHTS CONTINUE

US Defies Red Warning

BERLIN (AP)—A Pan American World Airways jet from New York flew through the Berlin air corridor today, defying a warning from the Soviet Union it could not guarantee the plane's safety over East Germany.

In a protest note Monday to the United States the Soviet Union called the New York-Berlin service illegal and disclaimed responsibility for the consequences if it continued.

Pan Am refused to cancel the flight and the jet entered the 110-mile long center corridor on the last stage of the flight.

The aircraft touched down at Berlin's Tegel Airport at 1:27 p.m., 28 minutes ahead of schedule.

It left New York with 77 passengers, 10 of whom were booked through to Berlin. The plane made stops at Iceland and Scotland. None of the passengers had voiced any concern over the Soviet warning.

A Soviet note to the United States and Britain claimed the recently inaugurated flights were illegal because they had not been approved by the Communist East German regime.

A Pan American spokesman said the flights three times a week, which reach Berlin after stops at Keflavik, Iceland, and Prestwick, Scotland, will continue. Other flights are scheduled to depart Wednesday and Friday.

"Our position is that we have not been notified that these flights are unlawful and until we are, we will continue them," the spokesman said.

"We don't negotiate with the Soviet government, the State Department does. The State Department and the West Berlin government gave their approval and until the State Department withdraws its approval, we will continue to operate jet flights into Berlin."

State Department officials in Washington did not regard the Communist warning as ominous. They pointed out that the Soviets had given similar warnings in the past.

Up to May 30, when the New York-Berlin flights began, Pan American had been making flights to Berlin that originated in West Germany. These flights were set up with Soviet agreement after World War II to supply occupation forces in Berlin.

Request May Delay Bill

WAHINGTON (AP) — The prospect of final congressional action on the civil rights bill within 10 days was clouded slightly today.

President Johnson reportedly has told House Democratic leaders he wants his top - priority poverty bill passed before the House adjourns for the Republican presidential convention.

This could clash with a pre-convention recess the Republicans have been counting on. Their platform committee meets in San Francisco the week before the convention starts July 13, and many congressmen are on it. Others want to testify.

Rights Workers Are Still Missing

By ED MCCUSKER

PHILADELPHIA, Miss. (AP) —Mystery deepened today in the strange disappearance of three young civil rights workers. They were last heard from Sunday night after paying a speeding fine in this east central Mississippi town.

The FBI and the Mississippi Highway Patrol pressed a search for the two white persons and a Negro, part of the first wave of summer volunteers seeking to reform this state politically.

Missing were Andy Goodman, 20, and Mickey Schwerner, 24, both of New York City. With them was James Cheney, 22, a Negro member of the Congress of Racial Equality from Meridian.

They came here Saturday after a week's orientation course for the Mississippi "Freedom Summer Project" in Oxford, Ohio. Other workers spread over the state during the weekend to launch voter registration drives and advise Negro citizens of their rights.

With Cheney at the wheel they drove to Philadelphia, reportedly to see the ruins of a Negro church that burned last week after armed whites broke up a church board meeting.

Officers stopped the three Sunday and charged them with speeding. They were let go after being held in jail several hours. Cheney paid a $20 fine.

Sheriff's deputies said they released them about 10:30 p.m. A spokesman for the Neshoba County sheriff's office said a patrol car followed the workers "several blocks to make sure they got out of town all right."

As hours passed without any sign of the trio, concern rose. Cries came from civil rights groups for a search.

In New York, James Farmer, national director of the Congress of Racial Equality, called for an air and ground search by the Meridian Naval Air Station.

The Council of Federated Organizations, one of the groups spearheading the summer drive, said because the three were not heard from Sunday "that means they haven't been physically able to call."

FBI agents arrived in Philadelphia Monday night. In Washington, Edwin O. Guthman, Justice Department information officer, said the FBI was making a full probe of the "possibility that they are being held against their will or that they are otherwise being deprived of their civil rights."

The Mississippi Highway Patrol was ordered to do everything it could to help the search.

Negroes Set New Wade-In Scenes

By PAUL WILLS

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla. (AP) —Determined Negroes, shrugging off attacks by white gangs in their last three wade-in demonstrations, planned another one today at the beach.

The assault on St. Augustine racial barriers was stepped up Monday by daylight, while legal attempts were made to knock out an order of Gov. Farris Bryant banning after-dark demonstrations by both sides.

Two wade-ins were held Monday within three hours. Each time tough white segregationists wielding fists and clubs attacked the Negroes.

Bryant, ordered by U.S. Dist. Judge Bryan Simpson to show cause why he should not be held in contempt of court for his order to halt the night marches, worked on the defense he will make in court at Jacksonville Friday.

Simpson had struck down an earlier attempt by police to stop the marches. He declared the ban violated freedom of speech and assembly.

Bryant reportedly plans to cite a strength-in-reserve law granting governors extraordinary powers in times of stress.

The governor denied that he had asked the State Supreme Court for an advisory opinion on his duties and responsibilities under a Florida "big stick law." Reliable sources said the court was studying the law for him.

The law, enacted in 1955 after the U.S. Supreme Court decision outlawing segregation in public schools, gives the governor authority to take any steps he deems necessary to prevent violence and maintain peace.

State troopers sent in by the governor quickly broke up Monday's encounters and hauled 21 persons to jail. Virtually all those arrested were released on bonds.

Until the battle over desegregation grew tense two weeks ago, Negroes had used the integrated public beach without incident.

During the first wade-in Monday several Negroes were struck and nine whites were arrested. The second wade-in produced a more violent reaction. The whites beat some of the demonstrators with sticks. Twelve more were arrested.

Duke Of Windsor Celebrates Birthday

PARIS (AP) — The Duke of Windsor ushered in his 70th birthday today with a small dinner party at Maxim's that lasted until after midnight.

His supporters in Britain used the anniversary to call again on the royal family to forget the past and officially recognize the duke's American wife.

Marking his birthday quietly, the duke slept late and spent most of the day at his desk. A secretary said he was working on personal accounts and correspondence.

Another private dinner party, at the house of friends, was scheduled tonight.

With the duke at their Paris mansion was his wife, the former Wallis Warfield Simpson, who was a divorcee when he gave up the British throne in 1936 to marry her. She is 68.

Barry's Power With Southerners Concerns Demos

By REX THOMAS

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)—The possibility that Sen. Barry Goldwater may attract large numbers of Southern Democrats as a candidate for president has created a problem for the unpledged elector movement in the South.

At least one states rights Democrat, Roy Harris of Augusta, Ga., has expressed fear that the Arizona Republican's vote against the civil rights bill may take some steam out of the free electors cause.

But Alabama's Gov. George C. Wallace, leader of the movement which he hopes will give the South the balance of power in the presidential election, discounts the Goldwater influence.

Wallace, a Democrat, is trying to line up enough presidential electors to keep either President Johnson or the GOP nominee from getting the required majority in the Electoral College.

In half a dozen states, he is striving to get the electors committed to him as a presidential candidate or left free to vote for someone else besides the major party nominee.

At the moment, he cannot be sure of any state except his own. The Democratic elector slate in Alabama has refused to promise its support to Johnson but is not committed to anyone else, including Wallace. The unpledged nominees, however, almost certainly will come out openly for the governor.

Wallace has run into opposition in some instances from Democratic leaders unwilling to go against the national party. To offset that, his backers have circulated petitions asking the voters to put his name on the ballot as a third party candidate.

Petitions are being passed around in North and South Carolina and probably will be later in Arkansas and Georgia. Similar efforts also may be made in Virginia, Texas and Florida.

Voters in Louisiana and Mississippi already are assured of a choice between elector tickets pledged to the Alabama governor and rival slates committed to Johnson.

If Wallace can gain control of the electoral votes of half a dozen Southern states, he will have a block of at least 53. In a close election, he figures that will be enough to keep either of the major party nominees from getting the 270 electoral votes needed to win.

Then, says the Alabama governor, the South, with the balance of power, could demand concessions on civil rights.

Goldwater sentiment in Georgia prompted Harris, leader of the unpledged elector drive in that state, to concede it may be difficult to convince some persons of the need for free electors.

Wallace had an answer for that:

"If Goldwater wins the Republican nomination he will have to embrace the party platform, and that's what is important rather than a single vote on the civil rights bill. And the Republican platform certainly will endorse the civil rights bill.

"If the Southern votes go to Goldwater we won't have any bargaining power. The only way we can exercise our power is to withhold our votes from both parties."

Stock Office Manager Is Being Sought

NEW YORK (AP)—The office manager of a New York stock change member firm is being sought in an embezzlement that may total $700,000.

Named in a warrant is Jeremiah T. Moran, 61, for two decades an employee of Burnham and Co., which disclosed Monday it had been the victim of embezzlement.

The police alarm said Moran, a frequenter of race tracks, is wanted for grand larceny of $375,000. A detective said that much was known to be missing and the figure may reach $700,000 when additional records are checked.

Burnham said its $25-million insurance policy more than covered any loss.

Moran was last seen leaving the Wall Street office Friday.

Probe Opens With Row

WASHINGTON (AP) — A broad congressional investigation into cigarettes opened today with a row over who, if anybody, should police smoking.

The first witness, Sen. Maurine B. Neuberger, came before the House Commerce Committee with a plea to let the Federal Trade Commission go ahead with its plans to require that cigarette containers have a health warning.

First, she asked Congress to "do nothing which would obstruct or impede the implementation" of the FTC program or a public health service plan for mass research and education on smoking.

Mrs. Neuberger also anticipated the testimony of a witness scheduled to follow her, Surgeon General Luther H. Terry. She said Terry would testify that the Department of Health, Education and Welfare "has now determined that HEW should be given legislative authority to regulate cigarette package labeling."

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am 19 and my husband is 28. We have two children. My husband has always been a sensible man, until he got mixed up with a character from work. This guy is 43 and thinks he is 18. He goes to the beach every week-end with his portable radio and tries to pick up girls young enough to be his daughters. My husband has been going to the beach with him and I don't like it. I told my husband to stay away from this character and it has caused lots of arguments between us. What would YOU do?

DISGUSTED

DEAR DISGUSTED: I'd go with him, and take the kids. One of them is sure to call him "Daddy."

• • •

DEAR ABBY: Does giving a girl a pearl ring for her little finger mean that you are engaged to her? I gave a girl a pearl ring and told her she should have the jewelry store make it fit her LITTLE finger. Well, she is wearing it on her ENGAGEMENT finger and she's telling everyone we are engaged. I always thought that a diamond ring was the only kind that meant engagement, but now people are telling me that a pearl ring could mean the same thing. I like this girl a lot, but I don't want to be engaged to her. What do I do now?

WORRIED

DEAR WORRIED: A pearl ring (or a paper ring from a cigar) can mean engagement, if the man proposes marriage to the lady and she accepts. You had better tell this girl that you were interested in only her little finger — not in her whole hand!

• • •

DEAR ABBY: A good friend of mine had to accompany her husband on an emergency trip, and she asked if my husband and I would chaperone her teenage daughter's house party. I said we would be glad to. When I asked her for instructions with regard to our responsibilities as chaperones, she said, "Oh, you don't have to do a thing. Just stay out of sight!" Will you please tell me how anyone can "chaperone" a party and stay out of sight? My husband and I sat upstairs in the bedroom and watched television the whole time, while the kids tore the place apart downstairs. I would like your opinion of what a chaperone's responsibilities should be.

'OUT OF SIGHT'

DEAR OUT: A chaperone should first confer with the hostess to be certain that she understands what the "rules" are. This includes the do's and don'ts of conduct and what time the party is to end. It is not necessary for the chaperone to be present every moment. But she should check periodically to be sure the rules are bing followed.

McClelland Trial Testimony Opens

MARLIN (AP) — Testimony was expected to begin today in the bribery trial of Clem McClelland, former Harris County probate judge.

After listening to arguments Monday by the state and defense, Dist. Judge John Patterson overruled a defense motion to postpone the trial and jury selection began.

The state has subpoenaed five Houston men accused of bribing McClelland, as well as at least a dozen other persons to testify or produce financial records.

McClelland is indicted for allegedly accepting a $25,783.10 bribe from Robert M. Duren, Rose D. Evahn, David H. Hudson, James Bryson Martin and E. R. Coffey to appoint them as appraisers, administrators and guardians of a state fund. They have been ordered to appear.

Martin was convicted and given four years and a fine of $2,500 at Bryan. His case is on appeal. The other defendants are still awaiting trial.

The bribery case against McClelland was transferred from Harris County to Marlin, about 150 miles northwest of Houston, because of the alleged publicity it had received in his hometown.

If convicted, McClelland faces a maximum sentence of five years in a state penitentiary and a $5,000 fine.

He was convicted at Belton, some 50 miles away, of converting state funds and given the maximum sentence of 10 years. The state court of criminal appeals reversed this conviction.

Later, at Austin he was convicted again of the same offense and handed another maximum prison term. He is now appealing this to the state appelate court.

The entire occasion has been planned for Mothers and Daughters; Mrs. Bob Womack and her daughter, Jane Ann, will present a musical program, and the menu has been arranged to provide for those daughters under 12 years of age.

Make your plans now to attend, with a daughter and perhaps with a group. Call Mrs. Nunley at the Woman's Club, HI 3-3427 by noon, Wednesday.

Yellow Rice From Tampa Shrimp And

BY CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

WHAT'S MORE fascinating to a dedicated cook, than regional dishes? And those delightful cookbooks published by groups of ladies to help along their good works, yield some of the best of these rules.

That's why we're borrowing from "The Gasparilla Cookbook" compiled by The Junior League of Tampa, Florida. In this informative collection, with its sturdy format, we found a recipe for Shrimp and Yellow Rice contributed by the Columbia Restaurant in Tampa. We've tasted the dish at that restaurant so that we know how good it is. Here's our version of the recipe:

SHRIMP WITH YELLOW RICE

1 large clove garlic, peeled
1½ teaspoon salt
¼ cup olive oil
1 cup chopped onion
1 cup chopped green pepper
1 pound peeled and deveined shrimp (1¼ pounds before peeling)
1 can (1 pound) tomatoes
1 cup water or seafood broth
¼ teaspoon saffron
¼ teaspoon pepper
¼ teaspoon yellow food coloring
1 cup converted - type rice
1 package (10 ounces) frozen green peas, cooked and drained
1 pimiento, cut into strips

Place garlic and salt on chopping board and mince garlic, mash with flat of knife or with a spoon to mix salt and garlic. Heat oil in a 2½ quart casserole that may be used over surface heat. Add garlic and salt, onion and green pepper and cook lightly; as onion begins to soften, add shrimp and continue cooking and stirring until shrimp turns firm and pink. Add tomatoes (including liquid in can), water, saffron, pepper, yellow food coloring and rice. Break up tomatoes into small pieces with a spoon. Bring liquid to a boil. Cover and bake in a moderate (350 degrees) oven 45 minutes, or until liquid is absorbed by rice. At the end of 35 minutes, remove cover, stir rice; add peas and pimiento strips arranging them in a pattern on top of mixture. Replace cover and continue cooking the remaining 10 minutes or until liquid is absorbed. Makes 4 generous servings.

Note: If seafood broth is used, salt may have to be reduced.

Scranton Seeking Delaware Ballots

HARRISBURG, Pa (AP) — Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania took his campaign for the Republican presidential nomination into neighboring Delaware and New Jersey today.

With a combined delegate strength of 52 votes, the two states were first on a list of regions to be visited by Scranton during his second full week of an 11th-hour bid to overtake and surpass the front runner for the nominatitn, U.S. Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona.

After a morning appearance in Wilmington, Del., Scranton was to cap the day by giving the principal address at a Newark, N.J., $100-a-plate fund-raising dinner.

Wednesday Scranton will visit Charleston, W.Va., and Miami, Fla. His staff was working on appearances in Ohio and Michigan later in the week.

The current Associated Press delegate poll shows that in Delaware all 12 delegates are committed to favorite son Sen. John J. Williams. Scranton's people believe they can capture at least 7 of those votes, if released by Williams.

The figures for New Jersey showed 8 for Goldwater, 2 for former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, 1 for New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, 4 for Scranton and 25 uncommitted.

In the AP poll Goldwater's total indicated delegate support would give him more than enough for the nomination — if the support held up through the first ballot at the Republican National Convention in San Francisco.

Scranton said during his 4,000-mile flying tour of five Midwestern states last week that his objective was to visit every delegation he could that was not legally bound to Goldwater.

Scranton told a news conference Monday that results of his first tour in the Midwest were "better than I expected."

Asked to specify states from which he had received favorable reports, Scranton named North Dakota, South Dakota, Minnesota, Iowa, Kansas and Missouri.

Scranton was asked about published reports that some top Republicans were aiding his campaign privately. He replied that he had been in contact with many party leaders, including two former national chairmen, Leonard W. Hall and Meade Alcorn, before and after he decided to run, but made no direct references as to whether they were supporting his bid.

After the news conference, Scranton flew to Washington and paid courtesy calls on Senate and House Republican leaders to compliment them on their support of civil rights legislation.

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois told a reporter that Scranton "popped into my office to compliment me on my support of the civil rights bill." Dirksen said Scranton "was only here for a moment."

Scranton has used Goldwater's vote against the civil rights bill last Friday as a principal issue in the pre-convention campaign.

Seek Raise For Education Commissioner

AUSTIN (AP) — State Education Commissioner J. W. Edgar makes less money than some local school superintendents, and the legislature ought to remedy the situation, a State Board of education member says.

Paul Haas, board member from Corpus Christi, told budget officers Monday Edgar's monthly salary should be raised from its present $1,667 to $2,000. The average salary of superintendents of six school districts sampled is $1,985 a month, Haas said.

"I think his (Edgar's) responsibilities are much greater," he said. He added that pay raises should be given Edgar's top lieutenants in the Texas education agencies.

Haas, Edgar and other board members and agency officials appeared at a hearing before representatives of the governor's budget office and the legislative budget board.

The agency's proposed budget for the fiscal year starting Sept. 1, 1965, is $565,377,916, and for the following year is $588,158,250. Its spending authorization for the year beginning this Sept. 1 is $532,250,973.

Major increases requested include additional funds for vocational education and salaries.

The proposed budget asks $15,322,174 for vocational education in the first year of the coming biennium and $18,503,369 for the second year. A total of $10,092,276 is appropriated for the fiscal year beginning Sept. 1.

Salary increases requested include $23,000 a year for top executive positions and $35,373 a year to upgrade other administrative posts.

Storms Batter Wide Areas

By The Associated Press

Showers and thunderstorms again battered a broad section of central United States today.

Much of the rainfall was a continuation of storms that started Monday and, in some cases Sunday.

In the aftermath of two twister reports in western and southwestern Wisconsin, La Crosse reported a rainfall of nearly 3 inches.

Waterloo, Iowa had 2.37 inches; Mobile, Ala., 1.64; Ponca City, Okla., 1.43; Emporia, Kan. 1.27; Des Moines, Iowa, 1.06; Olathe, Kan., 1.10; and South Bend, Ind., 1.27.

Strong winds damaged property and disrupted utility services in several Iowa towns Monday. Heavy rain accompanied the wind.

Near Enid, Okla., powerful winds toppled an oil drilling rig, injuring one man.

Two tornadoes touched ground near St. Joseph, Mo., inflicting property damage.

In the Chicago area, a wind and rainstorm struck early Monday night, causing some damage to property. Some 1,000 homes in a dozen suburbs were without electric service when lines were torn down by wind. Some small damage was caused by lightning. Many street underpasses and basements were flooded by the rainfall of more than 1½ inches.

Earthworms spend winters busied in the ground beneath the frost line. They reappear with the coming of spring.

Hard Bargaining Due For Ford

DETROIT (AP) — Hard bargaining between Ford Motor Co. and the United Auto Workers in their impending new contract talks appeared likely today in the wake of clashing preliminary stands by both sides.

The union charged that Henry Ford II could not understand the worker's position. This was the UAW's reaction to Ford's speech Monday in Coronado, Calif., in which he said willingness to accept a strike was a part of "free and responsible collective bargaining."

Ford, board chairman of the firm, said that union demands could endanger the national economy.

"From his lofty position, it is understandable Mr. Ford can't make out the American scene below of workers producing more than ever yet being shorted in their share of the prosperity they are creating," said Ken Bannon, director of the union's Ford department.

The UAW issued Bannon's statement late in the day, presumably after the union had taken time to study the automaker's remarks.

Negotiations between Ford and the UAW formally open July 1, simultaneously with General Motors and Chrysler new contract talks. The present three-year contracts between the union and the Big Three automakers all expire Aug. 31.

The UAW has not announced its specific demands though UAW President Walter P. Reuther has indicated them in broad terms.

Ford in his speech, said it appeared that management is to face union demands that are "out of touch with reality."

Revolt Over Hoffa Plan Predicted

NEW YORK (AP)— A major revolt against Teamsters Union President James R. Hoffa's plan for a nationwide contract in the car-delivery industry shaped up today with locals from Tarrytown, N.Y., to Baltimore reported out on strike.

The East Coast locals had rejected the pact earlier this month, but the international union ordered another vote. Scattered reports indicated the members voted overwhelmingly against it Monday night.

The eight car-delivery concerns which haul new cars from assembly plants to dealers negotiate through the National Automobile Haulers Conference.

Their old contract with the 17 locals in the Eastern Conference of Teamsters, with locally negotiated supplements, expired June 15. It contained a provision calling for the negotiation of a national agreement.

The strike could close General Motors, Ford and Chrysler assembly plants. Cars pouring off the assembly lines would overflow the limited parking space.

Striking locals reportedly oppose the national contract because they fear it would take away their autonomy and some of their fringe benefits, which are negotiated locally to some extent.

Brain Displays First Signs Of Death

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The head—not the heart—first signals certain death, says a Boston doctor who urges that a brain wave recorder be used to tell when a dying patient passes beyond help.

Devices to restore or stimulate heartbeat and breathing can "maintain the look of life in the face of death," Dr. Hannibal Hamlin reported today at the annual convention of the American Medical Association.

But the electroencephalograph —EEG—can tell when lack of oxygen to the brain, the main lethal factor, has made death inevitable, he said.

"The brain completely without oxygen generates no waves on the electroencephalogram," the Boston neurological surgeon noted. Yet resuscitative devices can keep heart and lungs functioning "while agonizing and expensive prolongation of false hope continues for all concerned."

MISS WOOL OF TEXAS—Miss Lynda Rhea Allen, was chosen Miss Wool of Texas 1965 at Odessa. She is from Sterling City. Lynda is 20-years-old and a student at Stephens College, Columbia, Mo. She is majoring in fashion retailing. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Worth E. Allen. (AP Wirephoto)

Guardsmen In Hills For Combat Training

NORTH FT. HOOD (AP)—National Guardmen of the 49th Armored Divison, 5,500 strong, were deployed in the hills of Ft. Hood today for a week of combat training.

The division is using the 27,000 acres for maneuvers this year, because the fort's 1st and 2nd Armored Division have just returned from Operation Desert Strike and will not be active in the field for the National Guardmen's two-weeks camp.

"SPANKING HAND" RESTORED—Dr. Leonard Marmor, orthopedist of the University of California at Los Angeles, points out where a three-inch section of nerve from another person was grafted into the wrist of Mrs. Blanche Sheets, 36, restoring feeling to her "spanking hand." The Los Angeles school teacher says she really doesn't spank her fifth and sixth grade pupils. Mrs. Sheets had lost part of the median nerve when she cut her hand while opening a can. She is one of the first few humans to have sensation restored through nerve grafted from another person, Dr. Marmor said during news conference in San Francisco. (AP Wirephoto)

Convention Concluded By Witnesses

The three-day assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses concluded at high school auditorium with a peak attendance of 612 for the public lecture, "Facing Up to the Urgency of Our Times," delivered by H. A. Fetzik of Brooklyn, N. Y.

Fetzik said, "Powerful nations of the past have fallen only because the spirit of the people was lacking." He said, "Facing up to the urgency of our times calls for a resisting of pressures of the world, a turning to God's Word is required since God's laws are substantial reason to resist this pressure."

Commenting on the need of security, Fetzik said, "Knowledge of God's Word is to the eye of discernment what light is to the natural eye. Paying attention to that Word enables the Christian to make right decisions in facing up to the pressures of our times."

For the Saturday evening film presentation, "Proclaiming Everlasting Good News around the world" 807 saw scenes of 580,000 delegates at 24 conventions that circled the globe. In addition to this highlight Saturday's sessions also included the ordination of 21 new ministers.

Assembly sessions began Friday at 6:45 p.m. with a model ministry school with local minister, Mike Cook, taking part. A Service meeting with the theme, "Lovingly Assist One Another," was featured.

Solons Say LBJ Willing To Risk War With Chinese

By ERNEST B. VACCARO

WASHINGTON (AP) — Many Congress members indicated belief today that the administration has decided it is willing to risk war with Red China to prevent Communist forces from overrunning Southeast Asia.

Sen. George D. Aiken, R-Vt., said for one he was apprehensive about "a general expansion of the war in Southeast Asia" but he added in an interview: "I think they (administration officials) have made up their minds to expand the war."

Aiken, a member of the Foreign Relations Committee, said he hoped that if that decision is made it would be based on "an understanding with Russia that Russia will keep hands off."

"Maybe they can get away with it in Viet Nam and Laos if the Russians agree to stand back," Aiken said. "The President has to make the decision as to whether we have general war in Asia."

Although few others on Capitol Hill would comment publicly on the situation, Aiken's appraisal that a decision had been reached appeared to be shared by many others after a series of weekend rumblings — above and below the surface—in official circles.

One of these came Monday when Gen. Paul D. Harkins, retiring after more than two years as U.S. commander in South Viet Nam, declared it would be "very much" worth risking war with Peking to save South Viet Nam.

"If the Communists move down into Southeast Asia, it threatens the whole rest of that part of the world," Harkins told reporters on arriving home.

Rep. Clement J. Zablocki, D-Wis., promptly asked the Pentagon to arrange for the four-star general to testify before the House Foreign Affairs Far-Eastern subcommittee.

"I certainly hope we would not have to risk war with Red China," Zablocki said in an interview. "I agree with the general that Southeast Asia is important to the free world—and every effort should be made to prevent the Communists from broadening their position. But I believe it can be done without inviting all-out war."

Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, faced prospects of further questioning on the Southeast Asian situation during scheduled close-door testimony today before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. They were to testify in support of President Johnson's $3.5-billion foreign aid requests.

Pilot's Failure Due To Desire For Pictures

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—A desire to make movies on an anti-Castro bombing mission last week may have spelled doom for the raiders, Cuban exiles said today.

"The pilot, Luis Diaz, asked that he be permitted to make the raid in daylight rather than during protective darkness," said spokesmen for the sponsoring organizations, Revolutionary Recovery Insurrectional Movement and Commandos L.

"He wanted to make pictures and show them later to spur collection of funds to buy planes for bigger raids on Cuba."

Diaz, 23, was killed after he and two companions dropped three homemade bombs on a central Cuba sugar mill, Havana radio said the other two were injured when the plane was shot down. Both were captured.

Stockmen Baffled By Rising Prices

By The Associated Press

Livestockmen can't put their fingers on the exact reason for it, but market meat prices are rising across the country.

Observers at the Kansas City stock yards reported stock prices have risen $2.50 to $3 a hundredweight in the last 2½ weeks, the highest jump since October 1963.

Before the increase farmers were marketing at what they said were the lowest prices since 1957.

At Omaha, cattle prices last week registered the highest single gains since August 1961. Fed steers were $1 to $2 higher with a top of $23-25. Heifers topped at $22.75.

From Salt Lake City came word that the first Idaho range lambs on the Ogden, Utah, market last week brought the highest price in eight years.

Last week on the Chicago market, top price of slaughter steers increased $1.50 to a high of $25 a hundredweight — the largest rise since last November.

Prices on prime cattle of 1,250-1,350 pound weights have jumped $2.25 in three days. Gains in plain classes ranged from 50 cents up.

Trade sources reported the general price rise started at the 12 major markets when supplies while not extra light, were below normal.

Asked if he could explain the sudden end of lower prices, one livestock man said, "The economy of the country is extremely good and people are buying meat. Yet, strangely, it is coming at the time of the year when people generally consume less meat."

Others close to the industry cited such factors as governmental buying of steer carcasses for the school lunch program. Still others pointed to industry and chain store promotion of meat sales.

Another stockman called attention to a tapering down of meat imports. As the market weakened in the United States, importers found their margin of profit narrowing, he said.

Some in the industry pointed out recent decreases in some sectors of shipments to markets.

Robert Kuhn, Chicago Livestock Exchange secretary, said that last week 21,000 fewer cattle were shipped to the 12 main markets than during the preceding week.

Air Pollution Group Meets In Houston

HOUSTON (AP) — The air pollution control officer of Los Angeles County in California forsees an end to what he calls a decade of "arrogance and apathy" toward air pollution by the auto industry.

S. Smith Griswold made the prediction in a paper presented to the 57th annual meeting of the Air Pollution Association.

About 900 persons are attending the four-day conference which began Monday.

Griswold, former president of the association, was critical of the auto industry and credited his state with forcing the industry into action on the air pollution problem.

California had determined by 1953 that its smog problem largely was due to air pollution by automobiles, he said.

In 1959 the auto industry announced that crankcase emissions were a major source of smog - forming hydrocarbons and offered control for 80 per cent of the emissions. The Los Angeles County Air Pollution Control District then proved that 100 per cent control could be achieved through "closed crankcase systems instead of open ones.

California, he said, now makes such controls mandatory on all cars sold in the state.

The state's latest action has been to certify four exhaust control devices and require that 1966 automobiles carry one of them or perform equivalently.

This, he said prompted the auto industry to announce its 1967 cars would conform to California standards without the new devices.

"Everything that the industry has disclosed it is able to do today to control auto exhaust was possible technically 10 years ago," he said.

"No new principles had to be developed, no technological advance was needed, no scientific breakthrough was required.

"Why has this action required 10 years? One is forced to ascribe it to arrogance and apathy on the part of this, the nation's largest industry."

Light Fund Approved

AUSTIN (AP — A $55,677,000 general light maintenance program for Texas highways, the largest in state history, has been approved by the Texas Highway Commission.

The commission approved the program Monday for the fiscal year beginning Sept. 1. The maintenance budget is $1,881,000 more than presently authorized.

The commission also approved $1.5 million for installiation of safety devices on highway systems, including traffic control signal lights, special signing and delineation, illumination of high accident locations and barriers for access control.

The commission also authorized construction of a two-mile section of Interstate 45 from the Navarro County line to U. S. 75 south of streetman in Freestone County at an estimated cost of $1.2 million; and designated two new ranch roads and approved extension of a third road in Donley County.

Import Concern To Boast Estes Name

EL PASO (AP) — Billie Sol Estes may be going into the import-export business on the Texas border.

The city Monday issued a permit allowing a sign bearing the name and likness of the former agricultural and financial whiz, now under state and federal convictions for fraud.

And today a new sign went up at the Rio Loan and Pawnshop located at the Santa Fe Bridge into Mexico. Paul W. Slone, the owner who says he and Estes are good friends, had no comment on prospects of getting a partner.

The sign was partially covered, but the visible portion read "shipped to all parts of the world—importer and exporter of fine products."

Janet Martin received a trophy for high girl judge from Scurry County and Bob Daugherty received a trophy for high boy judge from Scurry County.

There were 33 teams and approximately 60 individuals from West and West Central Texas competing for the plagues and trophies. The awards were presented by Ezell - Key Feed Mill. The crowd of 500 people consisted of young hereford breeders, parents, vocational agriculture teachers and County Agents.

In addition to the judging contest an informative program consisting of talks on raising hereford cattle, feed mixing demonstration, selection of show calves and fitting and showing of club calves was presented.

Dodgers, Yankees Gain Victories

A no-hitter highlighted Colt League play Monday night as the Yankees bounced the league-leading Red Sox 4-1. In Pony League play the Dodgers edged the Rebels 9-8.

Roy Hunter and Ray Kizer were the combination that defeated the Red Sox without allowing a hit. Hunter started and went to the 7th frame when he was relieved by Kizer. The Red Sox scored their only run in that frame on 3 walks and a hit batsman.

Steve Holder was the winning pitcher for the Dodgers, who are now 6-1 for the season. Jackie Weaver doubled for the winners, while for the losers Kenny Sehested hit 3 doubles and Ronnie Potts and George Kay hit one each.

Yankees, Cubs Win In Farm League

In Farm League play Monday night the Cubs defeated the Cardinals 19-14 and the Yankees edged the Athletics 14-12.

Ten extra-base blows were hit in the American game. For the Yankees Gilbert Hernandez, who was the winning pitcher, rapped out 3 doubles. Jerry Beard also doubled and Steve Chambers tripled. For the Athletics Billy Kay homered, and Dennis Blythe, Billy Atkinson, Jackie Floyd and Donald Phariss all doubled.

Three Cardinal players doubled. They were Richard Gorman, Laddy McMillan and Jackie Gorman. Mark Zeck tripled for the Cubs. Alfred Smith was the winning pitcher.

PITCHING PERFECTION—Jim Bunning gives a victory gesture after pitching a perfect game against the New York Mets at Shea stadium in New York. He led the Philadelphia Phillies to a 6-0 win to make baseball history by not letting a single batter reach first base. The feat has been accomplished only nine times in major league history. The Phils won the second game of the doubleheader, 8-2. (AP Wirephoto)

Albuquerque Pads Texas League Lead

By The Associated Press

Long-range hitting paid off in every game Monday night as Albuquerque increased its lead to two full games in the Texas League race.

The Duke beat Tulsa 2-1 in the first game of a head-to-head duel between the two leading clubs. Bobby Cox and Don Williams pounded doubles to drive in the runs. Jim Ward pitched a five-hitter at the Oilers.

Third place San Antonio took a 5-1 drubbing from El Paso. Marcy Juarez slugged a triple to drive in what proved to be the winning run. Leo Posada hit his 15th homer for San Antonio while Larry Stubing of El Paso pounded his 16th to take over the league lead.

Ray Withrow's three-run homer in the first inning stood up for Fort Worth in its 4-1 victory over Austin. The Senators claimed it wasn't a homer but the umpires ruled that it hit a board running behind the fence and was so, too, a circuit smash.

The umpire had the last say, as usual.

Fort Worth was winning its third straight and showing ideas of moving out of the cellar. The Cats are 4½ games behind fifth-place Austin, whom they play again tonight.

Tulsa again is at Albuquerque and San Antonio at El Paso.

Fireball Roberts Undergoes Surgery

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — Stock car driver Glenn (Fireball) Roberts of Daytona Beach, Fla., was to undergo surgery today for severe burns he received in the world 600-mile race May 24.

Surgeons were to remove tissue killed by second and third-degree burns over about 70 per cent of his body. A doctor's report said skin grafting will be the next step "in about two weeks."

Ken Boyer of the St. Louis Cardinals led the National League third basemen in errors last season with 34.

Athletics, Cards Win LL Games

The Little League Cardinals knocked off the National League leading Cubs 8-5 Monday night, while in the American the Athletics continued their winning ways by shutting out the Yankees 12-0.

The Cubs still lead the National with a 7-3 record, while the Cardinals are even at 5 wins and 5 losses. The Braves are in second at 5-4. The Athletics lead the American with a 9-1 record. The Yankees are in second place with a 4-6 record.

David McGinnis of the Athletics allowed only one hit, a double to Stewart Sims. He was the only Yankee to get on base. The game was called after 4 innings because of the 10-run lead rule. Larry Wall homered for the Athletics, and Brent Beall, Brad Morgan and McGinnis all doubled for the winners.

The Cardinals took the lead in the 2nd frame with a 4-run outburst. Bruce Almond was the winning pitcher. Glenn Rambin hit a home run for the Cards.

Bragan Likes Confidence

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

"The show of confidence will reflect on th play of our ball club—no doubt about it," said Manager Bobby Bragan after he received a new contract from Milwaukee.

If the Braves' first game under Bragan and his new contract is an example of what he meant, the reflection is more weird than you see in a funhouse mirror.

Two hours after Bragan accepted the written vote of confidence Monday, the Braves dropped their seventh straight game, 10-9, to the Los Angeles Dodgers.

True, the Braves exploded for 15 hits, including five home runs, but they still couldn't erupt from the slump that has dumped them into ninth place in the National League, their worst position in the standings since they moved to Milwaukee 12 years ago.

In the American League, the New York Yankees continued their mastery over Chicago, dumping the White Sox 6-5. The Yankees had beaten the White Sox nine previous times without a defeat this season. In the only other AL contests, Los Angeles downed Washington 5-2 and Cleveland and Minnesota battled to an 8-8 tie in a game ended by rain in the 11th inning.

San Francisco whipped Cincinnati 6-2 in the other National League game.

Milwaukee led 5-3 until the Dodgers rallied for six runs in the seventh inning. Wally Moon ignited the burst with a pinch double and Dick Tracewski ended it with a two-run single. Tracewski singled in two other runs, the one in the ninth proving to be the winning tally.

Lee Maye, Joe Torre and Gene Oliver clouted two-run homers for the Braves while Hank Aaron and Denis Menke hit solo blasts.

The Yankees survived Chicago's three-run surge in the ninth for their fifth consecutive triumph. Steve Hamilton scattered six hits through eight innings. Hal Reniff started the ninth, and the White Sox quickly loaded the bases and scored one run.

Bill Stafford replaced Reniff and retired the side, although two more runs scored on force plays. Hamilton scored New York's last run in the eighth on Roger Maris' sacrifice fly.

Pinch hitter Willie Smith, a pitcher-outfielder, slashed a single in the seventh inning that broke a 2-2 tie and sent the Angels on to their sixth straight victory. The hit was the seventh for Smith in 13 pinch-hitting appearances. Mike Brumley collected three hits and an RBI for the Senators.

Larry Brown homered in the eighth for the Indians, sending their game with the Twins into extra innings. Cleveland came to bat in the 11th when rain struck. After a delay of an hour the game was called.

Harmon Killebrew and Bob Allison each drove in three runs for the Twins with Allison hitting his 17th homer with one aboard.

Willie McCovey smashed a grand-slam homer for the Giants in the sixth after dropping a fly ball for a two-run error in the fifth. Cincinnati starter John Tsitouris had a no-hitter until the sixth, when pinch hitter Chuck Hiller singled.

Goldwater's Strength May Permit Veto Of Platform

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater commands the largest single bloc of members thus far selected to the Republican Convention Platform Committee and may have a veto on any plank he opposes.

Party moderates and liberals who are fighting to prevent the Arizonan from getting the GOP presidential nomination have been plugging for a strong platform statement on civil rights.

They want an endorsement of the legislation Congress is about to pass, and against which Goldwater voted in the Senate. Moreover, they are contending the GOP nominee must be pledged to enforcement of the bill's sweeping provisions.

Rep. Melvin R. Laird, R-Wis., chairman of the committee, said he would recommend a plank to put the party on record for "prompt and effective implementation" of the legislation which has had strong GOP support in Congress.

"I don't think this will cause any problem in the committee or in the convention itself," Laird said in an interview.

If a declaration of this nature is written into the platform, it apparently will be because Goldwater chooses to placate the moderates and does not choose to invite a convention battle over the platform before voting begins on the nomination.

Goldwater supporters played down the possibility of platform controversy.

Lee Edwards, director of information for the Goldwater-for-President Committee, said he thinks the platform that emerges will be acceptable to his candidate.

"We think we will get a platform that is neither liberal nor conservative but a Republican platform," he said.

Edwards said the Goldwater camp is content with the selections of platform committee members made so far. Laird pointed out that from 17 to 19 House members—most of them Goldwater supporters — will be on the committee. Membership will total 100—two from each state delegation.

Laird said he had no doubt that some of Goldwater's admirers on the committee would fight for a plank pledging efforts to repeal the civil rights legislation. On the other hand, he said he expects some of the backers of Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton, Goldwater's leading competitor for the nomination, to demand a more far-reaching civil rights plank than Scranton himself would propose.

Wheat Prices Are Down

WASHINGTON (AP) — With one more week to go, the nation's cash wheat markets have approached the new and lower price support levels under the administration's new wheat adjustment program.

On July 1, wheat price support rates drop to a national farm average of $1.30 a bushel compared with $1.82 for the 1963 crop. But loss in the support rates will be made in large measure in payments to cooperating farmers—those who harvest allotments.

Cash wheat prices late last week averaged about $1.57 a bushel for No. 1 hard winter wheat at Kansas City, compared with the support rate there of $1.53. Support rates are higher at markets than on farms, reflecting costs of handling and transportation.

At Chicago prices for No. 2 red winter were about $1.54 compared with the support of $1.57. At Fort Worth prices of hard winter ran about $1.89, compared with the support of $1.77. But spring wheat prices held considerably above supports, reflecting the fact that harvest of spring wheat comes later in the summer.

Meanwhile, the department reported that exports of wheat and flour from July 1, 1963, to June 12, 1964, totaled a record 783 million bushels, compared with 591 million a year earlier.

Negro Servicemen Report Discrimination Vanishing

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon's civil rights chief today reported some "spectacular changes" in treatment of Negro servicemen in areas around military bases.

Alfred B. Fitt, deputy assistant secretary of defense for civil rights, indicated he expects the new civil rights bill to help in scoring further gains against racial discrimination affecting servicemen.

"Our people probably use more public accommodations than any other segment of the population," Fitt said in an exclusive interview with The Associated Press.

He referred here to a section of the new bill providing remedies for persons barred on racial or religious grounds from such public accommodations as hotels and motels, restaurants, or places of entertainment.

The Pentagon's year-old drive to eradicate discrimination against servicemen has relied largely upon persuasion, with base commanders generally dealing with local officials on a case-by-case basis.

"There's been very gratifying progress," Fitt said, "but a good deal remains to be done."

He stressed that in using the word spectacular to describe some gains so far, he meant instances where rigid patterns of segregation had been broken even to a limited extent for servicemen.

To The People Of Scurry And Borden Counties:

In last Sunday's Snyder Daily News a self-styled "Independent Candidate" for District Attorney announced his candidacy for the office and sought your support. Let's look at his record. In the last eight years, his name has been on the ballot in the democratic primary three times asking the people to let him be the democratic candidate for an office of public trust. Twice the people have said "No". If he was interested in being District Attorney and wanted to pay the filing fee, he could have run again in the Primary this year. Apparently he did not care to do that.

You may wonder whether or not he voted in the 1964 democratic primary. If he did, there may be some who will question his status as an "honest" candidate and as an "independent" candidate. An independent is one who is not aligned with any political party; if he did vote in the primary, he pledged to support those who were nominated in that election, and he can not even sign his own petition. If he did not vote in the primary, there may be some who will question his motive in being so concerned about the "public's business". Is he concerned only when his name is on the ballot, or when he is trying to subvert the will of the more than 5150 people who voted for me in the first democratic primary this year? There are some who may think if he is genuinely interested in the "public's business" it is his duty as a citizen to vote in the primary of the party where he has three times been a candidate, even though he is not running for office at that particular time.

This man would like for you to believe that your District Attorney has committed a great and heinous crime by filing his first expense account three days late. What he failed to tell you was that there were approximately 50 candidates for District Attorney, District Judge, State Representative and State Senator in the same election in the State of Texas who also were late filing their expense account. Most or all of them were, like I was, candidates who did not have an opponent in the primary and therefore had spent either the minimum, or very near the minimum, amount it takes to run a campaign. He also failed to tell you that my second expense account (which showed expenses identical to the first) was filed on time in the office of the Secretary of State on May 6, 1964, and that I received notice of such proper filing. Perhaps he did not think this was a part of the "public's business". He even implies I committed a fraud by making the statement in my own handwriting. Since it was my statement, I wonder whose handwriting he thought it would be in.

This "Independent" tells you the Secretary of State and the Election Boards cannot certify my name to be printed on the general election ballot. This he knows is not true. He knows they are required to print my name unless ordered by a Court of proper jurisdiction not to do so. And he also knows, if he knows the law as he would have you believe he does, the Courts have ruled that while the filing of an expense account as directed by the Election Code is mandatory, the time of filing is directory only, and a late filing will be a substantial compliance with the law in the absence of injury or fraud. Since I did not have any opponent, and since I spent a very small amount more than the minimum required for getting my name on the ballot, and since I did file both statements required by the law, I think you will agree with me there was no injury or fraud.

This self-styled "honest non-partisan candidate" quoted a part of the Election Code that provides a fine and a penitentiary sentence, and apparently would have you believe I am about to go to the penitentiary. What he did not bother to tell you was that several years ago the Court of Criminal Appeals (the highest court for criminal cases in Texas) declared that section of the Election Code invalid. How honest has this "honest" candidate been with you?

I have never tried to run a political campaign on any basis except upon my own merits. If I have no merits of my own to run on, I do not want to try to ride into an office of trust on the demerits of somebody else. However, when the people are given half-truths and misleading statements, I believe it is my duty and responsibility to set the record straight and give them the true facts.

I deeply appreciate the support the people of this district have always given me. If I am re-elected your district attorney in November, I will continue to make every effort to deserve the trust you have placed in me.

Sincerely,

Wayland G. Holt

Your District Attorney

Supreme Court Ends Year Jammed With Controversy

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP — The Supreme Court, undeterred by criticism that it is pushing too far too fast and usurping power, has finished another jammed year deciding cases from civil rights and communism to reapportionment.

It continued to assert its concern for civil liberties—protection of the individual from the power of the state. It handled labor problems and many cases which may seem minor to the general public but took time, work and thought.

Near the end of last year's term the court blew up a storm by banning any required reading of the Bible and the Lord's Prayer in public schools. Attempts were made in Congress this year to undo that decision.

But these attempts — to produce a constitutional amendment permitting the reading of the prayer and the Bible — have failed so far and will probably fail totally.

Again this year, one week before it finished up Monday, the court gave perhaps its most far-reaching opinion in years, one which will surely shake the foundations of the old political machines as they haven't been in generations.

This ruling — it may affect practically all 50 states — instructed them to overhaul their legislatures by reapportioning their election districts more equally by population to carry out this philosophy: "one voter, one vote."

The court said the seats in both houses of state legislatures must be reapportioned to get away from the present, ancient districting in which a relatively small number of people in one district can elect one legislator while four times as many squeezed into a single district elsewhere can elect only one.

Earlier this year the court said similar reapportionment must be worked out by the states in electing representatives to Congress. This does not touch the arrangement for senators which is based on the Constitution and is unrelated to population: each state is entitled to two senators elected by the whole state.

The court began to move into this problem of reapportionment in 1962, but this year's actions were the climax.

The court made a ruling which affected Communists favorably. But it was in effect an expression of the court's concern that individuals be protected by the Fifth Amendment's guarantee that no one shall be deprived of life, liberty or property without due process of law.

In pursuance of this the court ruled unconstitutional a section of the Subversive Activities Control Act that denies passports to members of officially designated Communist organizations.

Two weeks ago the Communist party gained another round in its 14-year-old legal battle against registering as an instrument of world conquest.

The court refused to review, and thus let stand, a lower U.S. court decision of last Dec. 17 which reversed on technical grounds a $120,000 fine against the party for failure to submit details of its membership and finances.

The court was loaded down with racial and civil rights problems this term.

The court overturned a series of trespass convictions against sit-in demonstrators; threw out the conviction of 65 Negro students arrested on breach of the peace charges in a 1960 racial demonstration; ruled against a Southern courtroom custom of addressing Negroes by their first names instead of as "Miss" or "Mr." or "Mrs."; let stand a lower court ruling that hospitals accepting federal funds for construction must desegregate their staffs and facilities; upheld a lower court decision declaring unconstitutional a Louisiana law regulating segregation of the races in public parks and recreation centers; and banned any requirement that candidates for public office be designated on ballots by race.

Junior Editors Quiz on HORSES

QUESTION: Why is one kind of horse called a "Walking Horse?"

• • •

ANSWER: This question usually is asked when someone mentions the Tennessee Walking Horse, since, as everyone knows, all horses can walk. This is true, but the Tennessee Walker walks in a different way from others.

This unusual breed, developed in central Tennessee over 100 years ago, is a combination of the Standardbred, Morgan, Thoroughbred and American Saddle Horse strains. It was developed because of the need on southern plantations for a gentle, comfortable horse which could also move rapidly. Some of the Tennessee horses had a faster, smoother walk than others, a kind of running walk which gave the effect of gliding and was very pleasant to the rider. Horses with this gait were deliberately developed, until a special breed had been created. Notice the long stride of the Walking Horse as shown in the picture.

Over the years, the comfort and smooth ride of the Tennessee Walker has made the breed appreciated in many parts of the United States and it is now rapidly spreading westward, as this horse has been found to be an excellent mount in rugged country.

• • •

FOR YOU TO DO: Color the Walking Horse a light brown which will contrast nicely with a green background on the plants. Use your imagination to select bright colors for the girl's shirt, coat and jodphurs.

(Kate Hartley of Duluth, Minn., wins today's combined prize of Compton's Illustrated Dictionary plus $10 cash, for this question. Mail yours on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of this newspaper and you may win the weekly grand prize of Compton's Pictured Encyclopedia.)

Those Good New Days Are Better

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Those good old days. Oh, those good old days!

Old-timers 60 years of age or more like to drop a tear in their sarsaparilla as they recall how much better and more romantic life was in their youth than it is now.

But was it really?

Life in America before World War I still had something of a pioneer quality, and hardship and discomfort were pretty much taken for granted.

Weather and work held people in thrall far more than they do now; leisure was more for the dead than the living.

When old-timers reminisce, they don't dwell on such points as:

Probably not half the homes in America had indoor plumbing.

Most homes were heated by pot-bellied stoves or balky coal furnaces, the ashes from which had to be lugged out with monotonous regularity.

People worked a 50- to 60-hour week.

When a rug had to be cleaned it was hung on a line in the backyard and dust was spanked out with a beater.

You didn't ride on power mowers; you cut the grass with a sickle.

If you were wealthy enough to afford a car, you had to hand crank it to get the motor started. The roads were so bad you were lucky if you went 100 miles without a flat tire; if you did get a flat tire, you had to fix it yourself.

Most women had lost their beauty by the time they were 40; most men were considered old at 45.

Pensions were unheard of in most industries.

There were no electric washing machines. Wives had to souse the family's grimy duds in tubs, and launder them by hand or with a scrubbing brush on a ridged washboard.

Winters were long and cold; summers long and hot.

The kitchen held no gleaming refrigerator. The pan under the icebox had to be emptied daily.

Wood-burning stoves were used in rural areas, and somebody in the household had to chop the wood.

After a hard day spent at other chores, mothers had to darn, often by lamplight, the menfolks' socks.

In addition to all their other woes, women had to lace themselves into corsets so tightly they couldn't swallow a grape without feeling uncomfortable.

It took almost as many days to travel across the continent by train as it now does hours by jet plane. In a small town, any resident who had seen both Niagara Falls and the Grand Canyon was a celebrity. No banker was crazy enough to lend you money to make a vacation trip.

Righters Say Police Up Pressure

By PEGGY SIMPSON

DALLAS (AP) — Civil rights demonstrators say they have felt increased police pressure since Saturday when they refused to stop picketing a segregated cafeteria as the powerful Dallas Citizens Council asked.

The Rev. Earl Allen, a Negro, said at a news conference Monday that Monday's arrests of four persons, including the wife and 16-year-old daughter of a civil rights lawyer, all white were "unjust" and a drastic change from the previous cooperative attitude of the police toward demonstrators.

But Allen said "no pressure will break our resolve to continue to call upon the law-abiding, fair-thinking and good-hearted people of this community to protest and bring to an end the discriminations against any of our citizens."

The Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) has picketed the downtown Piccadilly Cafeteria for 24 straight days. Allen said demonstrations will continue and possibly increase if results are not forthcoming.

The picketing has "pointed up to the city and to the nation that Dallas is not the harmonious city that some leaders attempt to say it is," Allen said. "There are pockets of discrimination that should be eliminated. . .We feel that the Piccadilly is a blight in a city that claims to be open."

Allen said the police behavior grew abruptly harsher after a Saturday meeting with the biracial committee of the Dallas Citizens Council. The council is composed of presidents of more than 200 of the city's most influential businesses and is not connected with white citizens councils of the Old South.

With Ted Armstrong, local CORE president, Allen rejected the committee's request to stop demonstrations for two wekes to let them (the council) negotiate with the Piccadilly management in Baton Rouge, La. Allen said he refused after the committee balked at issuing a statement that they were entering the picketing dispute.

The three white members 'were unanimously opposed" to explaining the truce in a public statement while the seven negro members favored a statement, Allen said.

Aircraft Co. Extends Exchange Deadline

DALLAS (AP) — Ling-Temco-Vought Inc. has extended until July 2 the deadline for exchange of common stock into Series B preferred stock.

The exchanged period expired at 3:30 p. m. EDT Monday but the company exercised its option to extend the time until 3:30 p. m. July 2.

In announcing the extension the company said the Series B preferred stock has been approved for listing on the New York Stock Exchange.

James J. Ling, chairman of the board and chief executive officer of the company, said 650,000 shares of common stock have been tendered for conversion since the exchange offer was posted May 29.

Quake Series Hits San Diego Area

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—An earthquake shook San Diego Monday night for the third time in two days.

Chandeliers swayed, windows alarms started clanging when the quake hit at 9:56 p.m.

Dr. Charles Richter of the California Institute of Technology seismology laboratory at Pasadena, 130 miles to the north, said the quake probably was centered ventose to San Diego.

The city had a sharp quake Sunday morning and a series of light tremors just after noon Monday.

The Spanish Riding School in Vienna remains the world's foremost equestrian academy; it's name refers simpley to the horses' Spanish ancestry.

Conservation Adequate In Most Oil Producing States

By MAX M. SKELTON

BILLINGS, Mont (AP) — A preliminary report by a 14-month-old study group said today the majority of oil and gas producing states hold adequate conservation authority.

A 121-page report submitted to the Interstate Oil ompact Commission said there are exceptions but most of the state statutes have been keeping pace with research and technological developments.

Gov. Matthew E. Welsh, D-Ind., submitted the voluminous draft and supporting documents at the opening general session of the 33-state commission's year meeting.

Welsh heads a committee of eight governors who will complete the report and submit recommendations at the December annual meeting of the interstate body at Biloxi, Miss.

The study was requested early last year by Interior Secretary Stewart Udall, in a letter to Welsh, then chairman of the commission, Udall said domestic crude production is subject to a control system based on state statutes and several factors limit the effectiveness of this system.

Such factors, Udall said, include the status of state regulatory statutes in today's technical age and the limited participation by some producing states.

Today's preliminary report said 36 states have some form of oil and gas conservation legislation.

The report said:

"Although limited and lagging at times because of lack of foresight, conflicts of interest or the age-old resistance to change, these statutes for the most part, but with a number of exceptions, have been effectively revised and updated as experience, improved technology and necessity have required.

"As a result, the great majority of states, particularly those with any significant volume of production, have reasonably adequate conservation laws. Since 1960 some 19 states have either adopted totally new statues or have amended existing statutes."

The legal section of the report said 12 states—Alabama, Arizona, Florida, Iowa, Kansas, Louisiana, Michigan, New Mexico, North Dakota, Oklahoma, Texas and Washington—have statutes which limit crude production to market demand or to the capacities of available transportation and marketing facilities.

"Together these states produce more than three-fourths of the nation's oil," the report said.

The legal section then added:

"For an individual state to attempt to control the market demand for oil or gas in another state or between states, would clearly be in violation of the interstate commerce clause of the federal constitution."

Today's report said none of the market demand statues authorize arbitrary fixing of a state's production allowable to shift markets or crude purchases from state to state.

"The only authority of the state regulatory agency is to determine the fact of what is the reasonable market demand for production from that state and to limit production to that demand," the report said.

Authors of the engineering section of the report warned that $350 million was spent in 1963 alone on research for the development and application of new petroleum technology.

"These efforts must be continued if a future decline in the domestic supply of petroleum hydrocarbons is to be avoided," the report said.

US Industries Has Negro Director

NEW YORK (AP — Samuel R. Pierce Jr., a Negro lawyer, has been elected a director of U.S. Industries, Inc., a manufacturing company with sales at about $120 million a year.

His law partner, Theodore W. Kheel, said Monday Pierce is the first Negro to have a policy-making position in a large American corporation doing business internationally.

"And not because he's a Negro, but because he's qualified," Kheel said. "U.S. Industries has no Negro business. Sam's presence will not make a nickel's worth of business for them."

The Micronesians are brown-skinned, straight or wavy-haired people of ancestral Mongoloid Caucasoid, and, to some extent, Melanesian strains.

Sen. Kennedy Keeps Tab On World

NORTHAMPTON, Mass. (AP) —Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., who faces 10 to 12 days of immobility in an orthopedic bed to permit his broken back to heal, is keeping up with the news of the world outside his hospital room.

The late president's brother, at 32 the youngest member of the U.S. Senate, is reported to be making continued progress in overcoming the serious injuries he suffered last Friday night in an airplane crash at nearby Southampton.

Doctors at Cooley Dickinson Hospital said the senator asked for newspapers Monday and spent some time listening to radio broadcasts, mostly music.

Funeral services were scheduled today for th two men who died when the twin-engine private plane plunged into an apple orchard in fog and drizzle while approaching Barnes Airport at Westfield.

For the pilot, Edwin T. Zimny, 48, there was a solemn Requiem Mass at the Polish Immaculate Conception National Catholic Church, Lawrence, and a similar service at St. Augustine's Catholic Church, Andover, for Edward S. Moss, 41, Kennedy administrative aide, a father of two children.

An autopsy report Monday night silenced rumors that Zimmerman might have become ill just before the crash. Dr. E. Donald [illegible], Easthampton medical examiner, said the autopsy did not reveal any physical condition which could have caused the pilot to lose control.

The medical bulletins on Kennedy's condition continued encouraging.

Dr. Thomas F. Corriden, the hospital's chief surgeon, described the senator's neurological condition as satisfactory, his orthopedic condition as improving, and his abdomen, which had given some discomfort earlier, as "getting softer."

The surgeon said Kennedy had taken fluids by mouth and also was being fed intravenously.

The conditions of Sen. Birch Bayh, D-Ind., and his blonde wife, Marvella, were described as good to excellent.

Houston May Get New Newspaper

HOUSTON (AP) — Houston which lost a newspaper recently when the afternoon Houston Press folded, may get a new one, Albert Fay says.

The national committeeman for the Republican Party said if all goes well, a "Republican oriented" paper would begin publication "within a few months."

At first it would be a weekly, he said, and later possibly become a semi-weekly or even a daily.

"There is certainly room for another newpaper in Houston," Fay said Monday. "I believe that if the Houston Press had been locally owned it would still be with us."

Houston has two major newspapers, the afternoon Chronicle and the morning Post, plus several smaller dailies and weeklies.

Fay identified himself as one of 25 "Class A" stockholders in the Houston Times Co.

The company has asked State Securities Commissioner William King for permission to sell 325,000 shares of common stock.

"It is just a business venture," Fay said, "although 14 of the 25 Class A stockholders are Republicans."

He said there is a lack of Republican news in Texas newspapers. "The preponderance of news is from the Democrats."

He said the Class A stockholders would set the policy of the paper.

Says Hospital May Not Accept Ruby

DALLAS (AP) — Jack Ruby may not be a legally acceptable patient at Rusk State Hospital, the hospital head says.

Dr. Charles Castner says Ruby may be ineligible for admission under Texas law since he is under sentence of death, for slaying Lee Harvey Oswald, accused assassin of President Kennedy, and since no jury has ruled he needs treatment.

"If we were asked to take him, we would want a legal opinion," Castner said.

Ruby's lawyer, Clayton Fowler, says he will ask that Ruby be moved from jail to a hospital for proper treatment.

Court Reverses Sit-In Decisions

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court ended its 1963-64 session Monday by overturning the conviction of sit-in demonstrators in eight cases and applying its "one voter, one vote" rule to the legislatures of nine more states.

The sit-in cases, which involved trespass convictions in Maryland, South Carolina, North Carolina and Florida, were decided on narrow technical grounds as the court failed to deal with this basic question: Can a merchant refuse service to a Negro and then have him arrested for trespassing if he refuses to leave the premises?

Justice William O. Douglas indicated that the justices were deadlocked on this question, commenting that the issue "consumes the public attention, yet we stand mute avoiding decision of the basic issue by an obvious pretense."

Justice Hugo L. Black, joined by Justices John Marshall Harlan and Byron R. White, opposed the court's refusal to come to grips with the key question and said "the 14th Amendment does not forbid this application of state's trespass laws."

The reapportionment rulings, involving the state legislatures of Michigan, Iowa, Illinois, Oklahoma, Washington, Florida, Idaho, Connecticut and Ohio, were based on last week's ruling that both houses of state legislatures must be based on population only.

This decision capped more than two years of court rulings on apportionment of legislatures and Congress. Earlier this year, the high court ruled that the population test must be used in setting up congressional districts.

The court Monday handed down its second important decision of the session involving the Communist party. It overturned a portion of the Subversive Activities Control Act barring passports to members of groups officially designated as Communist by the government.

Two weeks ago the court let stand a decision by the U.S. Court of Appeals which threw out on technical grounds the conviction of the Communist party for failing to register as a subversive group.

In three decisions Monday, the court overturned decisions by state courts in Kansas, Ohio and Florida aimed at books and movies considered obscene.

Expert Says Killer Is Now Insane

HUNTSVILLE (AP — Condemned murder William Otho Hagans is now insane and needs medication for the rest of his life in the opinion of Dr. E. P. Kalbaugh, a neuropsychiatrist of Beaumont.

Kalbaugh testified at the opening of a sanity trial Monday for Hagans, 30, who is scheduled to die in the electric chair at the state prison on June 28. He was convicted of killing an aunt, Mrs. Zoura Hagans of Nacogdoches, Tex., on Feb. 22, 1961.

If the jury at the sanity hearing finds Hagans is now insane he will be committed to a state mental hospital until he is judged legally sane.

Under cross-examination, Dr. Kalbaugh said Hagans had described the crime in great detail to him and said he was sorry for what he had done. The doctor added that the prisoner was under heavy medication at the time.

Hagans' mother, Mrs. O. E. Hagans of Port Arthur, testified Monday her son "never knew right from wrong."

She said he suffered brain injury at birth and underwent a stomach operation when he was six years old. She also said he had been in two serious traffic accidents and has suffered from epileptic seizures.

Hagans, who says he cannot walk, was brought into court in a wheelchair. He watched the proceedings but showed no emotion.

Johnson Faces Opposition On Intact Foreign Aid Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's insistence that Congress give him the entire $3.5 billion he wants for foreign-aid collides today with a hostile House Appropriations Subcommittee.

The subcommittee decides whether to follow the President or support its chairman, Rep. Otto E. Passman, D-La., an outstanding and perennial foe of large foreign aid outlays.

Never during the nine years of Passman's leadership has the subcommittee failed to cut presidential requests for foreign aid money. The Louisianan claims the over-all reductions during that period exceed $8 billion.

An informal nose-count indicated the subcommittee might tos the final decision into the lap of the 50-member parent committee scheduled to meet Thursday.

Chairman of the over-all group is Rep. George H. Mahon, D-Tex., normally a supporter of the aid program and a long-time friend of President Johnson.

Mahon has voting privileges on all subcommittees. A vote by him against any motion to cut the funds in the subcommittee could result in a 6-6 tie and defeat of the motion. There are seven Democrats and four Republicans on the subcommittee.

Opponents of the President's request claim the support of about 18 of the 20 Republicans on the parent committee. They would need the help of eight of the 30 Democrats to enforce a reduction.

The parent committee plans to send the appropriation meaure to the house for a showdown vote next week.

More than 409,000 children attended school less than full time in 35 states and the District of Columbia during 1963 - 64, the U. S. Office of Education reports.

Seeks To Relieve Court Of Power

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — The Georgia Legislature has approved a resolution urging the state's U.S. senators to seek to take from federal courts the power to decide legislative reapportionment cases.

After heated debate, the Senate approved the resolution by a 33-13 vote Monday.

The House had approved the resolution shortly after the recent Supreme Court decision on reapportionment of both legislative bodies by population. The Senate tabled it the first time around.

Pope Reviews Problem Of Birth Control

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope Paul VI said today that the Roman Catholic Church is studying the birth control problem in the light of new developments. But he said Church bans on contraceptives remained valid for the present.

It seemed clear that he was speaking of contraceptive pills, although he did not mention them specifically.

The Roman Catholic pontiff discussed birth control in a general speech on Church and world affairs to a group of cardinals.

His words came amid growing discussion among Roman Catholics about the use of contraceptive pills. There have been suggestions that they might be used to regulate the menstrual cycle so the rhythm method could be used with greater precision. The Church rejects contraceptive devices but permits the rhythm system.

Pope Paul said he hoped the studies would soon be concluded.

"But let us say frankly," he said, "that we have not yet sufficient reasons to consider overcome, and therefore not obligatory, the rules given by Pope Pius XII in this connection."

Pius in a 1958 speech said pills should not be used to prevent pregnancy. But he added that they could be used to check uterine ailments if they were prescribed by a doctor without the intention of preventing pregnancy.

He'll Tell You That Speed Really Pays

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—Harlan Weaver will tell you speed pays.

The speedometer on Weaver's automobile was stuck at 80. A garageman said it would cost $20 to repair.

Monday Weaver was caught in a radar trap and fined $10. But the radar apparently corrected an electrical fault, and the speedometer works perfectly now.

Weaver figures he saved $10.
