PLAN TO FIGHT AMERICA IS REPORTED

SECRET DECLARATION OF EXTENSION PLOT TOLD BY PRAVDA

(By The Associated Press)

MOSCOW, Nov. 5.—The newspaper Pravda, renewing its attack on Japanese policies in Manchuria, today published what it described as a secret declaration by Baron Tanaka when he was premier of Japan in 1927 asserting that Japan must crush the United States to capture China.

This document, said Pravda, bears out its charge that Japan's present action in Manchuria is a long planned part of its effort to extend the Japanese hegemony in the Pacific.

Designs Claimed

"Japan's aggressive tendencies will not end with China," said the newspaper. "It has designs on the Philippines, the Malayan Archipelago, Guam, Tahiti, Samoa and Australia."

Then the editorial quoted the alleged Tanaka statement which it said had been published recently in China. For its own protection, this document said "Japan must remove its difficulties in eastern Asia by establishing a policy of blood and iron. If we intend to win control over China we must first crush the United States. To capture China we must also capture Manchuria and Mongolia."

PEACE HOPES DIM AS TROOPS CLASH

TOKYO, Nov. 5 (AP)—The Japanese war office issued a communique tonight announcing "positive and effective measures" had been decided upon to cope with the threatening position facing Japanese occupation troops at the Nonni river bridge in Manchuria, fifteen of whom were killed and many wounded yesterday in a battle with

PLAN TO PROBE FARM BOARD

SENATE AGRICULTURE COMMITTEE IS TO MAKE INQUIRY

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5 — The searchlight of inquiry is to be turned on the farm board late this month by the senate agriculture committee.

Any and all complaints will be taken up for airing, Chairman McNary of the committee informed the board at conferences with it this week.

McNary has called the committee to assemble here November 24. The farm board members were asked to appear with representatives of organized agriculture.

Organized agriculture is prepared to fight for continuance of the two-year-old board in the face of some threats from congress for its abolition. The farm leaders will, however, advocate some supplementary legislation to the Farm Marketing act. This proposed legislation will take the form probably of appeals for authority for the board to invoke either the equalization fee or export debenture, two long-contested forms of relief.

Some Democrats and Republican independents are grooming for a thorough examination of the board members before the senate committee.

First Turkey Price Is Announced Here

First announced prices on turkeys for the 1931 Thanksgiving season were made Thursday when a price of 12 cents for No. 1 birds was made public.

Old tom prices were 9 cents while No 2 and light birds will bring six cents.

The season will close about Thursday, November 12 or Friday, November 13, as the last cars that can be shipped from Lubbock to each far eastern markets must go out early on Sunday, November 15.

INQUIRY HELD AFTER DEATH OF JACKSON

SLATON MAN TO FACE GRAND JURY AFTER VICTIM DIES

Following a court of inquiry before Justice of the Peace E. H. Ward of Slaton at the courthouse here, a young man held in connection with the death of F. E. Jackson, 51, of Slaton, was bound over to the December 7 grand jury of 99th district court and freed on his own recognizance.

Jackson, a former automobile dealer, died in a Slaton hospital at 4 p. m. Wednesday without regaining consciousness, as a result of a severely fractured skull suffered when his head struck the pavement as he was felled by a blow from the younger man's fist.

Fuss Over Note

The dispute which resulted in Jackson's death occurred on a downtown Slaton street Monday afternoon. A note which the younger man had passed on to Jackson was the root of the altercation, a deputy sheriff said.

"It is a regrettable affair but I see no intent to commit murder," District Attorney Durwood H. Bradley said at the inquiry this morning. County Attorney Vaughn E. Wilson concurred in the opinion and Peace Justice Ward ruled in harmony with the recommendations.

The suspect, who had been in the city jail here since his arrest Monday afternoon, said he and Jackson had been friends six years and had no previous difficulties. He said he struck Jackson with his right hand, raising his left to fend off an expected blow, as the other's body motion indicated he was striking.

Slaton Men Testify

T. M. Hill and R. T. Williams, also of the Slaton vicinity appeared at the inquiry, as did Deputy Sheriff R. L. Wicker. District Attorney Bradley ordered the witnesses to appear before a grand jury.

Funeral services for Jackson, who until several months ago was owne of the Jackson Chevrolet company at Slaton, will be conducted at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon at the Church of Christ at Slaton. Burial will be in Inglewood cemetery by Foster Funeral home.

A widow and six children survive.

BROTHER CHARGED IN TAHOKA FIGHT

TAHOKA, Nov. 5—(Special)—A charge of aggravated assault has been filed against Clint Lytell, 29, and his younger brother, L. D. Lytell, is in a serious condition in a Lamesa hospital as a result of knife wounds, Sheriff B. L. Parker said.

L. D. Lytell, who is married, was stabbed two or more times in the chest, once in the back below the right shoulder, and twice in the abdomen at a dance several miles west of the Lynn-Dawson county line at about 3 o'clock Sunday morning, the sheriff said.

The Lytell brothers live in a house on a farm which they own jointly, according to Sheriff Parker, about 16 miles southwest of Tahoka. The accused man is not married.

A woman figured in the dispute which ended in the knifing, one of the brothers told the sheriff, the latter said.

Gasoline Price In Oklahoma Increased

OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 5. (AP)—A gasoline price increase of one cent a gallon had spread today to most Oklahoma City filling stations. The new prices, inaugurated by the Continental Oil co., and 14, 16 and 19 cents a gallon for the three grades marketed, including 5 cent state tax.

German Officer Still Carries On World War Against French Legion

ORDERS ARE ORDERS FOR PROUD LIEUTENANT IN AFRICA WHO DOESN'T KNOW CONFLICT OVER

(By The Associated Press)

RIO DE ORO, Spanish Africa, Nov. 5—Orders are orders to a proud officer of the once splendid Uhlan guard of the German empire, so Lieutenant Erich Von Satzen, down in the desolate wastes of France's African frontier, is still carrying on his share of the World war which ended 13 years ago.

No order to cease hostilities ever has reached him and now the man who once was an officer of German cavalry has gone native, married the daughter of a tribal chieftain and as El Hadi Aleman is a desert fighter with the title of caid in the "blue" tribe.

"Tell the people back home," the lieutenant recently told the second white man he has seen in 15 years, that in the south you found Erich Von Satzen of the second Uhlan regiment, sent here by the imperial government in 1916 and forgotten by the new government of Germany. Tell them he is still obeying his orders, still doing his duty, still fighting against the French."

In October, 1916, a secret order sent Von Satzen from his Uhlan regiment to report to hte commander of the German submarine UC-20 at Heligoland. He went aboard the boat in the night and found there Herr Probster, former German counsel at Fez, and Captain Achmed Hairy Bey of the Turkish army.

There were a few commands issued in hushed voices, and the submarine put to sea to run the French and English blockades, to reach Africa and land Von Satzen and his two comrades on a mission to rouse the desert tribes against the French as the English Colonel Lawrence was rousing the Arabs.

Attorney Beaten By Mob Is To Be Back

BOY SCOUT AND CAMPFIRE GIRL DRIVE STARTED

In a campaign to solicit about $4,000 for operations of the Boy Scouts and Campfire Girls this fiscal year, 30 men and women this morning had obtained pledges totaling slightly more than $1,200, D. T. Jennings, area scout executive, said.

The goal of $4,000 for the two Lubbock organizations, the scout chieftain said, "is less than has been the annual expenditure of the scouts alone in previous years."

"This money is raised in Lubbock for the maintenance and operation of scouting in Lubbock alone, and does not contemplate expending any of that money outside of Lubbock," Jennings explained.

The Campfire Girl moneys also are spent on the Lubbock organization only.

R. D. Moxley, chairman of the Lubbock Boy Scout district committee, is general chairman of the joint-drive here. Members of the Lubbock Campfire Girls executive board met last night and outlined plans for participation of that board in the drive for funds.

Other towns in the South Plains Boy Scout area, the executive here said, "will be given service in accordance with the amounts they raise."

LAWYER FOR NEGRO IS TO DEFY WARNING TO STAY AWAY

(By The Associated Press)

SNOW HILL, Md., Nov. 5—A telegram saying he would be back in Snow Hill today was received in Baltimore late last night by the father of Bernard Adea, international defense league attorney who was attacked and beaten by a Worcester county mob yesterday as he came here to defend Yuel Lee, alias Orphan Jones, accused negro slayer of a family of four.

Ades, who voluntarily came to the defense of the negro, was escorted out of Snow Hill last night with a woman "protector," Helen Mays, and Oscar Radowsky, after he had promised never to return and declared "I am sorry I ever took part in this case in any way." The three were guarded by county officers and a state policeman as they left town.

Whereabouts Unknown

The telegram, made public by the attorney's family, said Ades was spending the night on the eastern shore but did not say at what place.

Ades, with his companions, came to the circuit court to demand that the trial of the negro be moved to the western shore because "race prejudice" on the eastern shore made fair trial impossible.

The three were assailed by the mob twice. The first time they were ordered to leave town. A restaurant keeper refused to serve them.

After court adjourned, they left the courthouse alone and were quickly surrounded by the mob and all severely beaten. They were rescued by officers who placed them under protection.

BOTH SIDES IN AMARILLO TELEPHONE FIGHT CLAIM VICTORY IS IN SIGHT

(By The Associated Press)

AMARILLO, Nov. 5—Both sides in Amarillo's telephone fight claimed today that victory was in sight.

Mayor Ernest O. Thompson, who is directing the fight against the Southwestern Bell Telephone company for lower rates, estimated that one-third of the city's 10,400 telephones had been ordered disconnected, and he exhibited signed communications to back up the statement.

This number of telephones—more than 3,000—represented only 1,100 of the more than 7,000 subscribers. The subscribers, however, included 29 hotels, two of them owned by the mayor and the largest in the city.

G. N. Hailey, district manager of the telephone company, said that 63 subscribers actually had been disconnected. He said those included only three hotels—two of them the mayor's—and estimated the number of telephones thus affected at 1,000. The other hotels, he said, had rescinded their orders after being interviewed by company representatives.

Hailey said the company had more than 600 "disconnect"

PROBLEMS ARE PILING UP ON PARTY

FUTURE WOES SEEN AS CANDIDATES SWEPT INTO CONTROL

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—Obstacles previously heaped on Republican shoulders already have begun to pile before the eyes of Democratic leaders flushed with the surging crest of Tuesday's election victories.

The tidal wave sweep of A. Harry Moore back into the New Jersey gubernatorial chair could be accepted by national chieftains with rejoicing unadultered by the possibility of future woes. So could the equally effective, if less decisive, march of Judge Ruby Laffoon to the governor's chair in Kentucky, giving the party 27 of the 48 governorships.

Problems Faced

Prospective organization of the house of representatives, however, and elevation of the veteran Jack Garner of Texas to the speakership have brought their problems.

Overshadowing for the present even the difficulties of legislating without a working majority—a majority now standing at one—is the necessity for keeping peace in the Democratic family. This may not prove so easy with the chairmanships of the most powerful and important committees scheduled to go to southern members through right of seniority.

Under the present lineup, not only would Garner be unopposed in the party for the speakership, but 30 of 46 charmanships of standing committees would go to Dixie congressmen. Texas alone would get five.

Want Equal Division

An effort by the Tammany delegation from New York and other members from northern states to force a more equitable division of these election spoils already is down in the future books.

British Aviatrix Makes New Record

CAPETOWN, Union of South Africa, Nov. 5 (AP)—Peggy Salaman, pretty and vivacious 19-year-old British society girl flier, landed here today after a flight from England in which she lopped a whole day off the previous record set by the late Glen Kidston, noted sportsman and man of daring, last April.

Miss Salaman and her co-pilot, Gordon Store, set the girl's diminutive plane down on the airdrome at 7:40 a. m. and calculated their unofficial time at approximately 5½ days.

Leaps To Death To Avoid Theft Trial

WACO, Nov. 5 (AP)—Opie Williams, 24, accused of taking $1.90 in burglary, leaped to his death from a third story window in the courthouse here today.

Judge D. W. Bartlett had been conferring with the youth in his office. The sheriff opened the office door. Williams leaped to his feet, ran through the door and dived out the window.

"They won't get me now," witnesses said he shouted as he fell.

He struck headfirst on a concrete paved alleyway, dying immediately.

Way To Prosperity Pictured By Hyde

CHICAGO, Nov. 5 (AP)—Arthur M. Hyde, secretary of agriculture, said last night that the way back to prosperity would be found with restoration of purchasing power to the American farmer.

"For ten years, farmers suffered financially," he told the economics club. "When they finally lost their purchasing power, the small towns could buy no more, agrarian banks failed with frozen assets and labor was thrown out of employment.

"The depression will be worth while if we can get American industry and banking to realize thatt their interest and the farmers' is mutual."

New York Seen As New World Finance Center

GOLD STANDARD HELD IMPREGNABLE BY DR. KEMMERER

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—The man who helped a dozen nations back to monetary stability today told the United States that the American gold standard and dollar are virtually impregnable.

So strong are they, Dr. Edwin W. Kemmerer of Princeton university, said in a speech before the Advertising club, that New York now has the opportunity of replacing London as the world's financial center.

Fears Scored

Dr. Kemmerer, who was a principal advisor in the formation of the Dawes plan and who helped several South American countries back to the gold standard, labelled "ignorant" or "timid" or "envious" those persons who have expressed fears of the breakdown of the gold standard.

"We in America," he said, "still have the largest supply of monetary gold of any country in the world, and the largest supply that any country has ever held in the history of the world. Until September last, this stock had been increasing month by month, with only an occasional slight interruption, since the summer of 1928.

"We have recently lost seven hundred millions of this gold, but this amount is only about 14 per cent of our September maximum holdings and merely puts us back to about the figure we had in January of this year.

"We still have an excessive amount of gold, not because we reached out and grabbed it, but chiefly because so much has come but it will be put to work when people abroad and people at home come to believe it can be put to work safely and profitably.

"Standard Is Strong"

"The gold standard in the United States today is strong—very strong—and the fears entertained by some timid persons and by some ignorant persons at home, as well as the fears publicly expressed by some envious persons and by some ignorant persons abroad, of the possible breakdown of the American gold standard have no justification whatever in the cold facts of the situation.

"I can imagine few things more foolish than for anyone actually to hoard gold in a country with such a large gold supply as the United States and with such a strong credit position in relation to the rest of the world."

BRITTON CASE IS DELAYED

JUDGE IS TO DELIVER CHARGE TO JURY AT TOLEDO TODAY

(By The Associated Press)

TOLEDO, O., Nov. 5.—The $50,000 libel suit of Nan Britton author of "The President's Daughter" against C. A. Klunk, Marion, O., hotel keeper, was delayed today by the death of the mother of one of the jurors. Federal Judge John M. Killits will begin his charge to the jury when the afternoon session of court opens.

Gandhi Before King Clad In Loin Cloth

LONDON, Nov. 5 (AP)—Mahatma Gandhi, adhering to his intentions, appeared before George V today at Buckingham palace clad only in a loin cloth and with his head bare.

Ascending the crimson-carpeted staircase to the royal picture gallery, he bowed before King George and Queen Mary with his hands palm to palm, in the manner of a Hindu priest pronouncing a benediction. It was pronounced the most extraordinary scene ever witnessed within the palace walls.

NEA

SHEFFIELD IS FINED TODAY

LOCAL HOTEL MAN IS FOUND GUILTY IN HOMICIDE CASE

A county court jury found C. A. Sheffield, local hotel manager, guilty of second degree negligent homicide and fixed his fine at $1,500 this morning. Sheffield was tried in connection with the death of a 16-year-old girl here last April as a result of being hit by an automobile operated by him.

Sheffield will appeal the case, Charles Triplett of Schenck & Triplett, law firm defending the hotel manager, said early this afternoon. Formal notice of appeal had not been filed. Two days is allowed for appeal, Judge Pitts said.

Arguments in the case were completed late Wednesday and County Judge E. L. Pitts presented his charge to the jury this morning. J. T. Lee was foreman of the six-man deliberating body. The trial began Monday afternoon.

The jury filed into the jury box and Foreman Lee handed Judge Pitts the verdict at 10:25 o'clock.

Tech Pep Rally Is Scheduled Tonight

To bolster Matador spirit for the football game with Abilene Christian college here Friday night, a pep rally will be conducted at the Texas Technological college gymnasium tonight on call of Jay Timmons, head cheer leader.

The Matador-Wildcat contest is next to the last home game on the 1931 schedule and Timmons and his two assistants, Joe Harter and Rob O'Hair, hope for the best rally thus far this season.

PRICE OF THANKSGIVING DINNER NOW DEPENDS LARGELY ON WEATHER MAN

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Nov. 5 — The price of your Thanksgiving dinner—turkey and trimmings—depends largely now on the weather man.

There are plenty of turkeys gobbling their last gobbles in the Dakotas, in Texas, in Maryland and New York, according to reports obtained by the New York State Department of Agriculture and Markets.

If the weather is warm when they arrive in the city they will have to be sold as quickly as possible at any price that can be obtained. If the weather is cool, they will keep longer, the turkey appetite will be up and the price will climb a bit higher. It is expected a 10-pound turkey will cost somewhere around three dollars under ordinary conditions.

Offering prices to dealers in Texas are from ten to twelve cents a pound, wholesale. And present wholesale prices on the "trimmings" are as follows: $2 for three bushels of potatoes, cranberries four cents a pound, turnips one cent a pound, squash one cent a pound. Pumpkins are reasonable. Celery is reasonable. Other vegetables for salad, nuts and fruits also are fair in price.

LOSSES BEING OVERCOME BY ADVANCES

STRENGTH SHOWN BY WHEAT; PRICES AT SEASON HIGHS

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—The grain market climbed steadily higher today, setting new records for the season with each bulge and rapidly making back the losses of past months.

Opening firm and withstanding one burst of profit-taking after another, wheat showed unusual strength. May crossed the 70 cent mark at the opening and March followed suit later, leaving only December at 60-cent quotations. Until yesterday, none of the wheat contracts had sold at 70 cents or better since last May.

Up 23 Cents

After an hour and a half's trading, wheat was from 2 to 2 1-4 cents higher than yesterday's close and around 23 cents above the low point of the season, just one month ago today.

Corn responded even more to the bullish enthusiasm, gaining as much as 2 5-8 cents. Oats and rye were strong, most of the futures setting new high prices for the season.

Speculative strength appeared to be so great that there was little need of bullish news. There were reports however to strengthen the sentiment for higher prices—notably the lack of Russian exports and a story of drouth in that country.

SOUTHWEST GAINS ABOUT $75,000,000

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 5 (AP)—A month of rising wheat prices has brought the Southwest a gain in value of $75,000,000 on its total 1931 harvest and $30,000,000 on the estimated portion still held in storage by producers.

Of the 367,641,000 bushels grown this season in Texas, Missouri, Kansas and Oklahoma, reliable figures place the amount withheld from market at 144,750,000, about 100,000,000 bushels of which is from Kansas' record-breaking 223,641,000-bushel crop.

The price upturn since the low point was touched Oct. 5 has exceeded 20 cents a bushel.

VALUE OF GRAIN IS GREATLY INCREASED

CHICAGO, Nov. 5 (AP)—Nat Murray, quoted by the Chicago Tribune today as a veteran crop expert, declared at least 125 million dollars have been added to the value of grain which farmers held for market by the recent advances in prices.

This estimate, Murray said, is on grain which the farmers hold.

TROOPS GUARD COMMITTEE

THEODORE DREISER TO LEAD WRITERS INTO COAL MINE AREA

(By The Associated Press)

FRANKFORT, Ky., Nov. 5—A detachment of state troops was ordered to Harlan county today while a committee of writers led by Theodore Dreiser, novelist, assembled at Pineville to organize before invading the coal fields to investigate what Dreiser calls a "reign of terror." Pineville is in Bell county, adjoining Harlan.

Gov. Flem D. Sampson ordered out the national guardsmen last night, saying he was doing so "in order that there may be no doubt as to the safety of the visitors." Dreiser had telegraphed the governor saying he would hold the chief executive responsible for any harm that might come to members of his committee.

To Test Rights

The troops, the governor said, would maintain the "status quo" while the writers investigated reports of terrorism and suppression of free speech. Dreiser's committee planned to enter Harlan county tomorrow and conduct a meeting of the National Miners Union to test the right of free speech.

Salvation Army's Drive Under Way

A report of moneys pledged the Salvation Army will not be possible until tonight, as only four of 12 team captains had reported, Ben Kucera, generalissimo of the financial drive, said this morning.

Response in the four districts from which reports were received were "satisfactory," the general chairman said. Team captains probably will meet early tonight, he said.

Benefit Bridge And Forty-Two Party Will Be Large Event Friday Afternoon

Parties, Dances And Other Events To Fill Week-End Here; Visitors Expected

A benefit bridge and forty-two party that is scheduled for Friday afternoon from 3 until 5 o'clock at the Hilton hotel will feature social events during the week-end in Lubbock. Proceeds from this party will be used in paying a deficit in the Milk and Ice Fund that is used to help needy families in Lubbock during the summer.

The party is being arranged by Mrs. W. T. Milam, Mrs. Tom J. Foster and Mrs. G. W. Scott and other Lubbock women are assisting in arranging for tables at the affair.

Parties Today

Several events are scheduled for today. Mrs. W. S. Moss is entertaining the Congenial club at 3 o'clock in her home at 1725 23rd street this afternoon. Mrs. J. N. Nislar is to have the Six and Six club in her home at 2105 Broadway, Mrs. Lola Shuey is entertaining the Ace Hi club in her home at 1808 13th street and the Lu Beta Delphian chapter is meeting.

The Junior high school P.-T. A. meets this afternoon and the International Relations group of A. A. U. W. is meeting this evening at 7:30 o'clock with Mrs. Fred Sparks in her home at 2322 20th street. Another evening event is to be a party for Rev. and Mrs. G. P. McCollom and family at the Asbury Methodist church with the congregation entertaining.

Several out-of-town people are expected in Friday evening for the Trailers Dancing club dance at the Hilton hotel, according to the hosts.

The High School Girl Reserves tea and program at 4:15 o'clock and the College club dance at the Country club are other Friday events expected to attract attention.

Mrs. Dee Puckett Is Hostess To Club

Mrs. Dee Puckett, 2106 17th street, entertained members of L'Aiquillee club Wednesday afternoon in her home, using Thanksgiving appointments for the party. The afternoon was spent sewing. Mrs. Puckett was assisted in serving refreshments by Miss Roberta Elkins.

Members of the club attending were Mesdames Imogene Pace, Earl Ellison, William Von Wolf, T. L. Biggs, H. A. Welmaker, Robert Ellison, J. W. Phillips and V. O. Jennings. Geraldine Von Wolf was a guest.

Noted Educator Will Talk Before AAUW

CANYON, Nov. 5 (Special—Pampa, Amarillo, Plainview and Lubbock branches of the American Association of University Women will be guests of the Canyon branch on November 25 to hear Dr. Sarah Sturtevant of Columbia university.

Dr. Stutevant will be the guest of the West Texas State Teachers college on that date, and will be one of the speakers at the Texas State Teachers association in Amarillo during November 26, 27 and 28.

Dr. Sturtevant is one of the best known women in education in America. She is director of personnel work in Columbia university and has probably trained more deans of women than anyone else in the United States, according to Mrs. Geraldine Green, dean of women of the local Teachers college.

DR. MYERS

Doctor Myers' Daily Column On Child Welfare

BY GARRY C. MYERS, PH. D.
Head Division Parental Education Cleveland College, Western Reserve University

PLAYING SICK

CAN YOU remember the headache you didn't have, the pain on your chest that wasn't there, or the doctored throat that was not sore? Maybe you don't. You may never have discovered these resources as a means of escaping arduous or repellant tasks.

Some of us do remember. Some, indeed, do not have to go far back. Occasional adults discover that a sudden ailment wins them coveted attention which comes not so easily in any other way. It is a childish trick which a few grown-ups of good social standing have resort to.

Many children have enjoyed this convenient device. Parents who are over anxious about the child's health encourage it. Anyway, it is not so bad to have a little extra attention. And it usually works very well. I know. I tried it when I was a lad about 9 years of age. My sister, who was nearest me in age, whose companionship I, with no boy playmates near our home in the country, greatly cherished, was, as I saw it, blessed with illness.

School then had little lure for me. Home had had a great deal, especially when my sister stayed there. With a vigorous appetite at breakfast, I could not easily feign illness in the early morning; so off I trudged to school with my brother ten years older.

But about 10 o'clock a very "severe" headache developed. Tears came. I even wept. As nearly as I can remember it was a kind of homesick feeling that I had worked up.

My brother took me home as ill.

Next day the same thing happened, and it happened on a third. On that particular day I was dosed with medicine but my appetite betrayed me. Accordingly, my father had some doubts. I think I remember that I sensed his unfortunate discovery.

Next morning he told me rather sternly not to come home again, else "I would have a little hickory oil." I understood that figure of speech, and 10 o'clock passed without another headache. I was wholly cured.

Many parents have told me of similar problems with school children. Some pre-school children, jealous of a younger brother or sister, also feign illness for attention.

Regardless of the child's age, it is safe to assume that he may be ill. Put him to bed since he is "sick," and whether or not the thermometer registers some fever, give him limited liquid diet. Of course if the child has a temperature noticeably above normal, you will call the doctor. Don't question the child or suggest that you doubt his truth. Indeed, it is possible for him to think he is ill when he is not, if he has a good imagination.

The school child so pretending is likely to show marked recovery an hour or two past the time for school. But say to him, "Since you are ill it is not safe for you to get out of bed today." Play the game through without any suggestion to him that he is being punished. Merely take him at his word. You are thinking of the effect this experience will have upon his future conduct. Be pretty busy during the day so that he does not get much attention. Next time he complains of illness he will doubtless have more substantial grounds for his report.

Girls Costume Snappy For College

PARIS.

TIME WAS, when Higher Education spelt Blue-Stocking, evoking a careless vision of wispy hair and flat-heeled shoes; butnowadays, all that has changed and the modern college girl is apt to be smarter, as well as snappier, than her (now rare) stay-at-home sister.

And as our ideas of what constitutes "a lady-like education" have changed, so also we have evolved a higher sartorial education; being well dressed, like being cultured, is no longer the attribute of the favored few. The golden mean of chic is now as high as its summit in the so-called "good old days."

The college girl's wardrobe is as up to the minute as herself. She has neither time nor patience for crinoline revivals. Her sports costumes are slender enough for grace, but full enough for freedom; their hems are 12 inches from the floor; their waistlines trimly belted. They have skirt, sweater and jacket or frock and long or three-quarter coat. They are in soft, thick jersies, in thin or heavy wools.

Her afternoon frocks are built on the same general principle as her sports clothes—in fact, all my new sports costumes, for whatever occasiou, are constructed on plastic principles, following the natural lines of the human figure, but elongating it into an elegance typically 1932.

These frocks are of crepe satin or fine wool. They are slightly longer than those for morning, but, above all, they look longer because of their slim princess cuts and absence of superimposed details that break the flowing line.

Suits either for morning or afternoon are worn with hip-bone length tunic blouses in brocaded satin, crepe or chiffon.

Coats are slender, but not fitted, though the waistline is often defined by a separate belt. The college girl chooses wool or velveteen coats, rather than the dressier velvets, which age her by giving her too formal an air.

Likewise, in choosing her evening clothes, she avoids lames, velvets and the stiffer satins in favor of chiffon, lace, net or taffeta, and she profits by the present vogue for clear colors to select those pleasant tones which set off her youthful personality to so much better advantage than do somber hues.

Nine-Hour Law Is Attacked In Court

AUSTIN, Nov. 5 (AP)—The state law prohibiting an employer from working a female employe more than nine hours a day or 54 hours per week was attacked in a habeas corpus action filed in the court of criminal appeals Wednesday by E. D. Butcher of Harris county. Arguments will be heard November 13.

Butcher, a laundry operator, was charged with having required a woman to work more than 54 hours a week.

The habeas corpus action attacked the penalty provision of the law claiming it was ambiguous, indefinite, vague and uncertain.

Makers of Vicks VapoRub Announce a New Plan for Home-Control of Colds

News Comes With Development of a New Product; A Unique Companion to the Famous Treatment, Based on a New Idea for Prevention of Colds.

Makes Possible a Further Reduction of the Family "Colds-Tax" This Winter In Time, Money, Health.

A quarter century ago, Vicks VapoRub introduced the modern external method of treating colds. Now, Vicks Nose & Throat Drops—latest development by the Vicks chemists—introduces a new idea in preventing colds. Together, these perfect allies make possible the new Vick Plan for better "Control of Colds" and reduction of the family "Colds-Tax" in time, money and health.

Here is the Vick Plan of Control:

1—BEFORE a Cold Starts

On exposure to colds or to any of the causes that ordinarily lead to colds—(crowded indoor places—stuffy, poorly ventilated rooms—sudden temperature changes—wet and cold, etc., etc.)—that slow down the normal functioning of the nose, Nature's marvelous "first line of defense against colds"—use Vicks Drops promptly. Or, if a cold actually threatens—at that first stuffy, sneezy irritation of the nasal passages—a few drops up each nostril, and many annoying colds will be avoided.

2—AFTER a Cold Starts.

At night, rub Vivks VapoRub well over throat and chest and cover with warm flannel. Leave bedclothing looee around the neck so the medicated vapors can be inhaled all night long. During the day—any time or place—use the convenient Vicks Drops as often as needed. This gives you full 24-hour treatment. (If there is a cough you will like the new Vicks Cough Drops—medicated with ingredients of Vicks VapoRub).

Trial Offer to Vick Users

The makers want every user of Vicks VapoRub to try Vicks Nose Drops. Free trial samples of the Nose Drops were sent every druggist in the United States—but if you failed to get yours, buy a bottle today and try out the Vick Plan for better Home-Control of Colds as directed. If you are not delighted with results, your druggist is authorized to refund your money without question.—Adv.

Colds and Coughs Yield to Calotabs

Medical writers agree that the important point in the treatment of a cold or cough due to a cold, is to relieve the congestion in the nose and throat, thereby preventing serious complications which may follow a neglected cold. To stop this congestion calomel was the accepted and standard remedy until Calotabs, the improved calomel compound tablets was introduced.

Now that science has robbed calomel of its nausea and danger, making it pleasant to take and perfectly safe for general use, over forty million Calotabs are consumed in the U. S. yearly with only the most pleasant and satisfactory results. In millions of homes Calotabs have proven their superiority in the prompt relief of colds and coughs due to colds.

One or two Calotabs at bed-time with a glass of sweet milk or water. No salts necessary. No nausea nor the slightest interference with your eating, work or pleasure. Next morning the congestion has subsided, your cold or cough is relieved, your system is thoroughly purified and you are feeling fine with a hearty appetite for breakfast. Eat what you wish—no danger.

Get a family package of Calotabs, containing full directions, only thirty-cents. Trial size, ten cents. At any drug store. (adv).

MATADORS END WORKOUTS TODAY FOR WILDCAT GRID CLASH

WESTERNERS PRACTICE FOR BOBCATS

SPYING ON SPORTS

BY COLLIER PARRIS

THEY'RE WORKING early and late out on the Tech field this week. When the sunlight departs and it grows too dark for daylight practice they switch on the electricity and keep going. Every succeeding workout seems more profitable than the last. Tuesday's practice, lasting nearly three hours, was one of the best of the year. More than an hour of it was done under the arcs.

It all means that Tech expects a battle when the Matadors meet the A. C. C. Wildcats Friday and that the big bunch of sophomores are straining to regain the favor of Lubbock fans after dropping a game last week. No matter what you say about Tech's football team and its coaches, they are a conscientious bunch. We could consume the remainder of this column and another with reasons why Tech did not beat Baylor and Haskell and they'd be legitimate reasons, too. Personally, we think the Matadors have done well to win four of the first six games. Remember that it is still a "kid" team, made up mostly of men who never played college football until this year. No coach can take a bunch of sophomores and hope to set the world afire.

It hurt Coach Cawthon and Coach Smith when their team lost to Baylor by such a disastrous score last week. It also hurt the Matadors. They know things now they never thought of before last Saturday and they'll be better prepared next time. If you don't believe it, come out Friday night and see what they can do.

The Tech-A. C. C. game this week brings to a close a series of three for which contracts were signed making the Abilene school the financial "winner" every time. We said school, not team. One of our private operatives informs us that a fabulous guarantee was made at the time the contracts were signed. If Tech breaks even financially on Friday night's game, it is necessary that a big gang of dollars clink through the turnstiles, thanx to a long since departed athletic head.

Eleven Class A high school teams of the Texas Interscholastic league, after six weeks of competition, are still undefeated and untied. Lubbock High is one of these, second in the list in number of points scored. Nine districts are represented out of the total sixteen. Perhaps one of these eleven teams will come through for a state title; perhaps it will be a team which has been defeated. Football is like that.

Lubbock and Big Spring lead the list with 8 victories each. Big Spring, the rankest scoring club of the country, has rolled up a total of 303 points against none for their opponents. Lubbock's 353 points are good enough for second place, though 12 points have been scored against the Westerners. Here is the complete list of undefeated teams. See if you can pick the ultimate state champion.

Team	W	L	Pts	Opps
Big Spring	8	0	298	0
Lubbock	8	0	353	12
Corsicana	7	0	351	36
Quanah	7	0	343	18
Abilene	7	0	251	19
John Reagan (H)	6	0	204	19
San Angelo	6	0	196	6
Breckenridge SA	7	0	186	6
Cleburne	7	0	158	27
Marshall	6	0	156	8
Oak Cliff	5	0	136	12

TRY THESE ON YOUR ZITHER: When Tech played Baylor last week there were more Baptists on the Matador side than among the Bears—nineteen of the thirty-four varsity boys are Baptists—eight are Methodists, one a Presbyterian, one of the Christians—The University of New Mexico gridders, who play here at Tech's Homecoming, haven't lost a game this year—Chester "Cotton" Wilcox of Purdue, in two years, carried the ball 147 times and gained 1070 yards—an average of 7.3 yards per try—by comparative scoring you can figure how Lubbock High school is eleven points better than Harvard—but you do the figuring.

Dallas Club Will Meet Mexico Team

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 5 (AP)—The Dallas baseball club of the Texas league will arrive here tomorrow for a nine-game series of games with the Aztecas, Mexico's crack team. It is understood the Kansas City Blues will follow the Dallas club.

SPIRIT SHOWN IN WORKOUT PLEASING

A. C. C. EXPECTED TO FURNISH POWERFUL OPPOSITION HERE

Coaches Pete Cawthon and Dutchey Smith steer their Texas Tech Matadors through the final workout this afternoon in preparation for the invasion tomorrow by the Abilene Christian College Wildcats. The teams meet tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock on Matador Field.

Since returning from Waco where they were humiliated by a 32 to 0 defeat at the hands of Baylor's Southwest conference team, the Matadors have done some of the most conscientious and hardest practice work of the year. Their coaches agree that the spirit shown in practice this week beats anything shown so far. It seems to have taken the Baylor game to show the Bullfighters that it requires more than brute strength and willingness to win a ball game. They're putting their hearts into the workouts this week.

Tech Won Last Year

Tech's 53 to 7 victory over A. C. C. here last fall is hardly to be considered as a forecaster of dope in connection with the 1931 meeting of the teams, other than to assure the local players and fans that the Wildcats will be seeking vengeance. Coach Bugs Morris last season had a bunch of youngsters hardly adapted to playing under fire. Most of them were sophomores. Tech had what is usually known as a veteran team. The tables are turned this year in that respect, for Morris' men are all back, seven third-year men appearing on the team and the rest playing second year football with the varsity. Tech has a sophomore team which is powerful and heavy enough but lacking in experience.

The Wildcats' 41 to 0 victory over the Canyon Buffs last week branded the Morrismen as capable of playing football. Earlier games had been won with more or less ease and the Christians find themselves leading the western division of the T. I. A. A., a place which they are fairly certain to hold through the rest of the season. Tech was able to beat the Buffs 21 to 0 the resulting dope pointing naturally to A. C. C.'s superiority. Tech's defeat last week looks bad on the face of it, but it may have been the very thing for the betterment of the club. Practice this week shows a grim determination to get back into the win column.

Use Aggie System

Coach Morris teaches a style of football learned under Dana X. Bible at Texas A. and M., which is a modified form of the short punt system, something a bit different from the Notre Dame formation from which Tech plays are executed, when and if. Morris was a player at Aggieland when the Farmers were leading contenders for Southwest Conference honors, himself an outstanding player, a man of brains and the ability to accumulate football knowledge. His work at A. C. C. so far this year brings it out.

One of A. C. C.'s most valuable gridiron individuals this season is "Goober" Keyes, familiar to West Texas football followers. Keyes is a former pupil of Weldon B. Chapman, Lubbock High school mentor, who was once one of the Oil Belt's outstandings backs, operating out of Cisco. Keyes this season is looking up as one of the greatest double-threat men in West Texas football. He can pass and he can run, also receive passes. His aerial plays to Bert Pippen, a lanky end, have wrought havoc against nearly all competition this season.

George Selkirk Is Added To Yankees

NEW YORK, Nov. 5 (AP)—The Yankees have added George Selkirk a young outfielder who hit .310 for the Jersey City International league club last season, to the roster of promising ball players they will take to their training camp at St. Petersburg, Fla., next spring.

The outright purchase was completed yesterday as soon as the closed season for deals between major and minor league clubs ended. It also was announced that Cy Perkins, veteran catcher who had been given his unconditional release in November, might be signed again as coach and bull pen catcher.

Weighing 227 pounds and said to be the heaviest dog in the world, Pancrase de la Solitude, a St. Bernard from Belgium, was declared the finest animal in the recent International Dog Show at Versailles, France.

Schoolboy Race Gets Easy Week

FEW DISTRICT TILTS TO BE PLAYED ON NEXT SATURDAY

With Lubbock's victory over Pampa last week furnishing enough football to warrant a rest, the state schoolboy grid race calls a halt this week with only a scattered few teams engaging in district combats. Most games that would have been played this week have been set for Wednesday of next week as special Armistice Day program events.

One of the outstanding games on November 11 will be between Cisco and Ranger in District 3. Cisco and Abilene are tide for the lead in that district, Abilene with three victories and no defeats, Cisco with two wins and no losses.

The district standings, results last week and games scheduled this week follow:

SWIM STAR TO BE HONORED

HELENE MADISON TO BE RECOGNIZED AS OUTSTANDING

NEW YORK, Nov. 5 (AP)—Helene Madison, 17-year-old Seattle, Wash., girl, is due for official recognition as the outstanding swimmer of the United States if not of the world when the 1931 crop of athletic records is presented to the Amateur Athletic union meeting at Kansas City Nov. 15, 16 and 17.

Of the 144 world's records and American marks to be considered, Miss Madison has made 37. During the year, her first of competition, the Seattle girl smashed 10 world records and 17 American records and if the new times are recognized, as they undoubtedly will be, she will hold every women's swimming record from 100 yards to one mile, and there are 16 different marks listed between those limits.

Dallas Girl Stars

In track and field sports feminine athletes also outshone their male rivals when it came to breaking records. Mildred "Babe" Didrickson of Dallas smashed eight track and field records. Stella Walsh, the Cleveland flier, scattered seven sprint marks. Betty Robinson of Chicago, whose track career was shattered by an injury received in an airplane accident, annexed four new records while the leading record breaker among the men, Leonard Spence, New York Athletic club swimmer, set three marks to tie with three women athletes for the next place on the list of record breakers.

Outstanding among the masculine performances were a 9 2-5 second 100-yard dash by Hubert Meier of Iowa State college, who also tied a second record of 6 1-10 for the 60-yard indoor sprint; Percy Beard's two hurdle marks, 8 3-10 for 70 yards over the sticks indoors and 14 2-10 for the outdoor 120-yard high hurdles and a decathlon record of 8166.663 points made by Jess Mortensen of the Los Angeles A. C. Mortensen's record was over 100 points better than that made by Paavo Yrjola, Finland's Olympic champion.

COLLEGES HEAR CALL TO HELP U. S. JOBLESS

NEW YORK, Nov. 5 (AP)—America's college football players have heard the call to come to the aid of the unemployed and needy and have responded with offers of 128 college teams to help in one way or another.

Already 53 teams have arranged special games, the proceeds of which are to go to charity, it was revealed by the first report of E. K. Hall, chairman of the football rules committee, who took over the task of handling the gridiron program after Owen D. Young had issued a call for aid on behalf of the president's organization on unemployment relief.

Fifty-seven more are planning special charity games; seven have agreed to give the net proceeds of one regular game to relief funds and eleven will contribute a percentage of the receipts of a regular game.

In making his report, Hall praised highly the efforts of the colleges to lend a hand and added that "further reports make me confident that literally hundreds of other colleges and schools throughout the country will have their part in this project."

CHILDRESS TO MEET LOCALS SATURDAY

THANKSGIVING CLASH AT AMARILLO SEEN MOST IMPORTANT

Lubbock's Westerners, a crew of young footballers who have gained the favorite's position in the District 1 high school football race, are taking no time out to gloat over a thrilling victory which placed them in that position. On the contrary, they are working with increased enthusiasm and purpose for games yet to come. Especially does the Thanksgiving Day game at Amarillo loom as one of their most important contests of the year.

There was one day of rest following the Pampa game and then the Westerners settled down to a period of intensive training which is due to send them through two games with Class A teams before they tangle with Amarillo's Sandies, the latter having already suffered a defeat, in a game which may sew up the district title for the locals or throw the whole thing into a three-way tie.

To Meet Childress

The local high school team meets the Childress Bobcats, a Class A outfit of District 2, here Saturday afternoon in what promises to be just another football game the odds heavily in favor of Lubbock. Childress has failed to get going in its own district and the change of scenery may be the reason for a hard battle on the Bobcats' part Saturday.

Plainview sends its scrapping Bulldogs here for the Armistice Day celebration. The Bulldogs are hardly to be counted on as able to furnish heavy competition, though in the records that the two teams always play a hard game. Plainview is hopelessly out of the District 1 race, though the Bulldogs have already won a district game getting the best of Slaton in a tied contest.

NOTRE DAME MEN GATHER THROUGHOUT NATION TO PAY TRIBUTE TO ROCKNE AND OPEN CAMPAIGN FOR A MEMORIAL

NEW YORK, Nov. 5 (AP)—Notre Dame men in many parts of America gathered last night to pay tribute to Knute Rockne, famous football coach who was killed in an airplane accident last spring, and to open a campaign for $1,000,000 to build a permanent memorial to him in a field house on the Notre Dame campus.

A nation-wide radio hookup linked the meetings together as outstanding speakers from various gatherings went on the air.

New York To Aid

At New York, where one of the largest gatherings brought together about 200 Notre Dame alumni, Mayor James J. Walker, in opening the broadcast, said New York only asked an opportunity to help the fund in return for the great service Rockne rendered last year in helping to raise funds for the unemployed.

Notre Dame's famous "four horsemen," Don Miller, Elmer Layden, Harry Stuldreher and Jim Crowley, were introduced over the radio by Grantland Rice, sports writer. The Rev. Matthew J. Walsh, former president of Notre Dame, also spoke from New York. Mayor Anton Cermak added his tribute and Will Rogers concluded the broadcast, speaking from San Antonio, Texas.

One of the interesting parts of the New York meeting came when a record of a "pep talk" delivered by Rockne to his team, was played on a phonograph.

WILL ROGERS SERIOUS

SAN ANTONIO, Nov. 5 (AP)—In a serious mood, Will Rogers, America's cowboy humorist, paid tribute to Knute Rockne in an address at a banquet of Notre Dame alumni here last night.

The banquet was one of a series held throughout the country for the purpose of promoting a campaign to erect a Rockne memorial.

In discussing the congressional election he said he planned on flying to Uvalde, near here, to see Representative John Garner, Democratic candidate for speaker, before continuing his trip to the coast.

"You know, he's our next speaker now," Rogers commented.

SUBMIT RESIGNATIONS

AUSTIN, Nov. 5 (AP)—A. B. Capers and R. B. Latting, proration umpires in the East Texas oil field, have submitted their resignations to the Texas railroad commission. It was announced last night. R. D. Parker, chief supervisor of the oil and gas division, said their places would be filled immediately.

BATTALINO IS STILL CHAMP

EARL MASTRO LOSES CLOSE DECISION IN CHICAGO GO

CHICAGO, Nov. 5 (AP)—Earl Mastro today was another of the boys who have tried to knock the featherweight championship crown from Bat Battalino's head without being able to do more than leave it slightly askew.

The hardy youngster from Hartford, Conn., who can be depended on to fight like a champion when his title is the prize did exactly that last night in the Chicago stadium, winning the decision after ten blistering rounds to thwart Mastro's challenge. The Chicago Italian, a master boxer, fought a recklessly game fight but the champion's ruggedness and never ceasing attack won him the favor of Referee Dave Barry and one judge. The other judge cast his vote for a draw.

Score Close

Mastro came so close, however, that Barry's score card showed 51 points for the champion to 49 for the handsome Chicago youngster.

Battalino, as usual, set his own pace and maintained it almost without variation every second of the way. A left hook to the body and a right to the jaw sent Mastro down in the second round but the challenger bounced to his feet before a count could be started. Mastro hit the floor again near the end of the sixth when Battalino crashed a left to the body and stayed down for a count of nine.

SOUTHWEST CONFERENCE TEAMS ARE GRINDING HARD FOR WEEK-END GRID CLASHES; MORRISON WARNS HIS PONIES

(By The Associated Press)

Sounding a warning that not in 13 years have the Southern Methodist Mustangs played an easy game against Texas A. and M., Coach Ray Morrison pointed out to his men yesterday that they are taking this week's game at College Station entirely too lightly.

With his entire team in splendid condition, Coach Matty Bell drove his Aggies through a long practice yesterday. The running attack, composed of Domingue, Aston, Hewitt and McFadden, was clicking like a clock. The front wall was charging hard and low under the battle cry of "Smother S. M. U."

The second Southwest conference game of importance Saturday will be at Fort Worth between Rice and Texas Christian. Yesterday saw those teams polishing their offensive and defensive formations.

At Fort Worth, the crippled Frogs spent most of the afternoon improving their goal line punch.

The Texas Longhorns, who will make a supreme effort Saturday to break into the conference win column, were groomed yesterday for their game against Baylor which will be a homecoming affair for the Texans.

At Waco, Baylor whipped through a lively scrimmage and announced ready to taper off today then rest up for the Texas game.

Boss Gets Credit For Capone Trial

CHICAGO, Nov. 5 (AP)—To the state belongs credit for the conviction of Al Capone, imprisonment of several of his leaders, and reforms in which Chicago's "public leaders" in general find themselves, Col. Henry Barrett Chamberlin, operating director of the Chicago crime commission, said today.

"The newspapers of the nation brought the force of public scrutiny to Chicago crime conditions, and the gangster did not survive, Col. Chamberlin said.

"Those referred to the income tax conditions of Al Capone, Jack McGurn, Ralph Capone, Terry Druggan and other notorious gangsters have been obtained after newspaper publicity called the federal government's attention to their affairs.

"Chicago newspapers awoke the state law enforcement agencies to their duty, Col. Chamberlin said, and the press of the nation had an awakening effect.

Joan "Manicures" the Decks

Some things she did, however, were not so thrilling. As, for instance, scrubbing decks. Here's Joan "manicuring" the deck with male assistance.

DAY OF NATIONAL THANKSGIVING IS PROCLAIMED BY PRESIDENT HOOVER

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5 (AP)—President Hoover has proclaimed Thursday, November 26, a day of national thanksgiving for the advantages enjoyed despite a measure of passing adversity.

The presidential proclamation said:

"We approach the season when, according to custom dating from the garnering of the first harvest by our forefathers in the new world, a day is set apart to give thanks, even amid hardships, to Almighty God, for our temporal and spiritual blessings. It has become a hallowed tradition for the chief magistrate to proclaim annually a national day of thanksgiving.

Blessings Cited

"Our country has cause for gratitude to the almighty. We have been widely blessed with abundant harvests. We have been spared from pestilence and calamities. Our institutions have served the people. Knowledge has multiplied and our lives are enriched with its application. Education has advanced, the health of our people has increased. We have dwelt in peace with all men. The measure of passing adversity which has come upon us should deepen the spiritual life of the people, quicken their sympathies and spirit of sacrifice for others, and strengthen their courage.

"Many of our neighbors are in need from causes beyond their control and the compassion of the people throughout the nation should so assure their security over this winter that they too may have full cause to participate in this day of gratitude to the almighty.

Observance Urged

"Now, therefore, I, Herbert Hoover, president of the United States of America, do hereby designate Thursday, November 26, 1931, as a national day of thanksgiving, and do recommend that our people rest from their daily labors and in their homes and accustomed places of worship give devout thanks for the blessings which a merciful father has bestowed upon us.

"In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

"Done at the City of Washington this third day of November, in the year of our Lord, 1931, and of the independence of the United States the 156th.

(Signed) HERBERT HOOVER."

Question Faith Of Housewife On Jury

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 5 (AP)—The government today questioned the good faith of Mrs. Genevieve A. Clark, Minneapolis housewife, who as the only woman member deadlocked a jury in the recent trial of W. B. Foshay and six associates on mail fraud charges with a seven-day stand for acquittal.

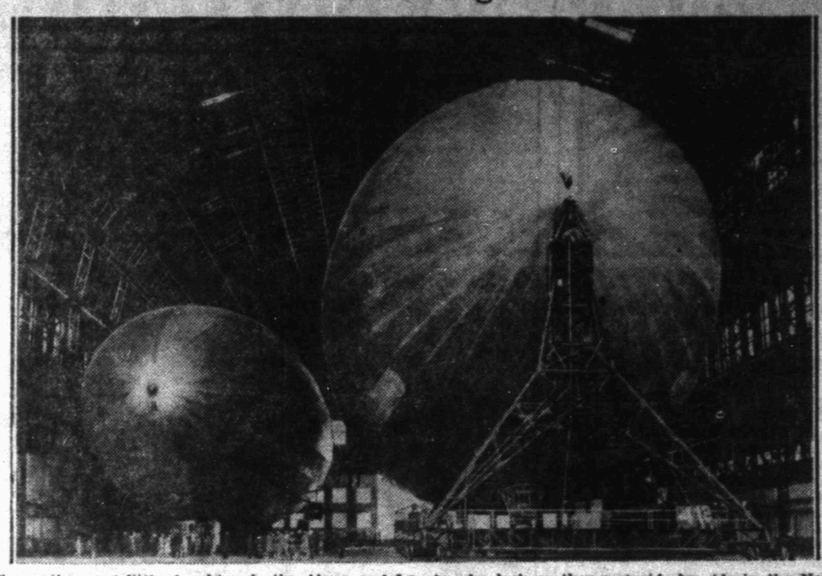

It brought charges of perjury against the woman who prided herself on her refusal to change her mind and cited her to show cause Monday why she should not be adjudged in contempt of court. It alleged she was a former employe of the Minneapolis promoter who with his associates is to be re-tried next January because she prevented the panel from reaching an agreement.

Mrs. Clark protested her innocence. She said when she was discharged with other jurors 13 days ago she was ill and weary.

"That experience was a nightmare," Mrs. Clark said. "And now I face these charges of which I am innocent. I shall fight them and my husband will retain an attorney for me. It isn't pleasant."

And Dr. Fishbein, commenting editorially in this week's Journal, after publishing Dr. Bengtson's report of his preliminary success, writes: "Enough evidence has been established to indicate that in certain cases of baldness in which there may be a deficiency of the secretion of this particular gland, injection of extract of the pituitary gland resulted in overcoming baldness. Probably charaltans may endeavor to reap the usual income from these new investigations. The time is not yet ripe for every baldheaded man to try the new treatment. It is still in the investigative stage."

Was Totally Bald

Four years ago Dr. Bengtson recognized a glandular type of alopecia in a man of 58, totally bald. He began injections.

In six months a faint hair growth was visible. In a year white hair appeared. In 15 months it was full grown. The patient dropped the treatment for two years. A few weeks ago he resumed them, and today a vigorous growth of black hair, the original color and texture, is returning.

The Auto Business

It is rather surprising to hear that the export trade has accounted for practically all of the increase in production of American autos since 1923. A survey conducted by a University of Michigan expert shows this to be the case, and indicates that the domestic market has not appreciably expanded in eight years.

"Production abroad by American companies," remarks the survey, "will do more to limit our future exports than competition from European producers."

The automobile business thus, seems to be pretty securely in American hands. Yet one is entitled to wonder just how much this will help the ordinary American worker if American factories located overseas are going to grab off most of the export trade. That is a point which the tariff makers might ponder over a little.

Dogs

The traditional dog show of society, in which bored-looking and immaculate dogs sit around and wait for the judges to decide which is the finest example of well-bred uselessness, are more or less familiar to everyone. In London, recently, however, a new kind of dog show was staged, and it sounds as if it must have been highly interesting.

This was a show of Scotch sheep dogs—collies most of them. Instead of strutting at the end of their leashes, these dogs were taken out into fields and made to show how skillfully they could, each in turn, handle a flock of sheep. Before it was over, judges discovered that the dogs could do the job just about as intelligently as any human being.

A dog show of that kind must be refreshing. There is some point to it—and the prize winner is useful as well as ornamental.

Dirigibles' Names

Already various civic boosters in the United States are filing claims with the Navy Department asking that the new navy dirigible, construction of which is just beginning, be named for this or that particular city; and departmental officials will probably begin to wish before long that they hadn't started the practice of naming dirigibles for cities. There are so few dirigibles and so many, many eager cities.

With cruisers, which are also named for cities, it is different. The navy has a lot of them, and it is constantly building more. Sooner or later almost every city can be satisfied. But dirigibles! The navy has two, with one more under construction (not counting the tiny blimps). It will be decades before it has enough to satisfy all the rival city fathers.

Attention, Amarillo!

Silver Lining

Day by day, the dark clouds on the business horizon give faint but positive signs of being just about ready to lift.

The most recent encouragement comes from the president's committee on unemployment relief. This group, busy keeping a finger on the national pulse, finds that definitely optimistic reports are now at hand from no fewer than thirty American cities.

In none of these cases is there any spectacular recovery. But in all there are indications of solid improvement. Buying has picked up, mills and factories have reopened, unemployment has diminished—in one way or another each of the thirty shows signs of approaching recovery.

One of these days, while we are still wailing about the depression, we shall wake up and find it has slipped out from under us.

The depression may have ended chivalry in business, but in most bakeries nighthood is still in flour.

That Girl on Broadway says it's all right to have a family skeleton but there's no sense in dressing her up in an evening gown.

COME on, you red hot football fans! Where are you at? Where are you at? Here we are, right on the verge of that high school district championship Lubbock has been chasing all these years and it's time for action.

The campaign to secure 22 gold footballs—one for each Westerner letter man and one each for Coaches Chapman and Huffman—is on and only 11 more balls at six bucks each are needed to celebrate Lubbock's victory over Amarillo.

The Westerners get the balls if they beat Amarillo. No money is needed now. Call The Plainsman and say "put me down". It ought to be worth six slugs of anybody's dough to see the Sandies thumped in a good, oldfashioned way.

Jerry Jarrett, manager of Jarrett's Fashion shop, who used to live in Amarillo but, like Parker Prouty and Ray Hinchey, is pulling for the Westerners now, and Dick White, manager of the Lubbock Poultry and Egg company, joined the happy throng yesterday. That pulled the total of pledges up to eleven. Others already pledging a football each are:

E. J. 'Jack' Parsons, Homer Grant, John Dalrymple, H. H. Shell, Parker Prouty, R. F. Hinchey, Dick Smith, Gust Kallas and The Plainsman.

Come on, you fans! Let give those lads another incentive to beat the Sandies on Turkey day. Call The Plainsman now!

THE Plainsman announced yesterday that he and the Tactless Texan, of the Amarillo Globe-News, were going to have a freak bet on the Lubbock-Amarillo ball game and we are, although the details haven't been worked out yet. They're sure going to try to win—those Amarillo boys—and the fans up there are helping them.

One patriotic Amarillo citizen has promised all the Sandie football players a free trip home for Christmas, if they beat Lubbock.

He must be a rich man, because it runs into money when you start paying railroad expenses for 15 or 20 Amarillo football players to their homes in Ft. Worth, Sherman Liberal, Kansas, Los Angeles—not to mention bus fares to towns all over the Panhandle!

But that's all right.

This is one year when all the imported ball players in the world can't stop the home town lads sporting the livery of Lubbock High.

This is Lubbock's year—this is Lubbock's year. We've got the ball club and the percentage is with us. Lucked out at Amarillo two years ago and beaten out last year when a sleepy official failed to see a good pass, the Westerners will get their overdue breaks on Turkey Day!

WHILE on the subject of football, take time to read these next few lines, relative to attendance at the Tech-ACC game tomorrow night.

Part of the proceeds of the game go to Notre Dame's Rockne Memorial fund and that's enough to make most people want to go.

But on top of that, tomorrow night's turnout should be a testimonial to the work of Coaches Pete Cawthon, Dutchey Smith and Del Morgan, whose efforts this year are worthy of cheers.

The game's going to be at night—that is, if the powers that be don't change it again—so plan to be on hand for the kickoff at 7:30 sharp.

Wedding anniversaries are becoming a problem now-a-days. Couples get married so often it's difficult to remember which wedding they're celebrating.

SOME of the Boy scout leaders got all crossed up with this column Tuesday evening on the theory that the Plainsman deliberately took a crack at the scout financial campaign.

They were mistaken and The Plainsman's friend George W. Dupree, who led the verbal attack upon this column's apparent backhand slap at the scout drive, reports that he jumped at a conclusion and thought he was right in the criticism voiced at a meeting of scout supporters.

In Tuesday's Journal, The Plainsman applauded the Salvation army campaign, which leaves the amount of each donation up to the donor, rather than saying to the prospect "we have you down" for so much.

With no apologies for commendation of the Salvation army method, this column holds to the opinion that the donor, rather than the agency, should be the judge of the amount of his contribution.

However, to the charge of taking a crack at the Boy scout drive, The Plainsman answers with a clear and distinct, 'Not Guilty.'

THE Plainsman generally manages to keep fairly busy in this office and has no desire to butt into the private affairs of any individual or organization.

He doesn't have any idea that it comes within the province of this column to dictate to the scout leaders, or to any other organization upon policies which affect their own organization and its operation.

At the time this column commented upon the Salvation army plan it knew nothing and had heard nothing concerning the scout drive methods, so the allegation that The Plainsman made a wisecrack about the scout drive has no actual basis, whatsoever.

One of the cardinal principles behind the conducting of this department — which, incidentally is a widely read and discussed department—is frankness. The "hidden jab" method is never used here intentionally, which fact, The Plainsman believes, is fairly well known to the public generally.

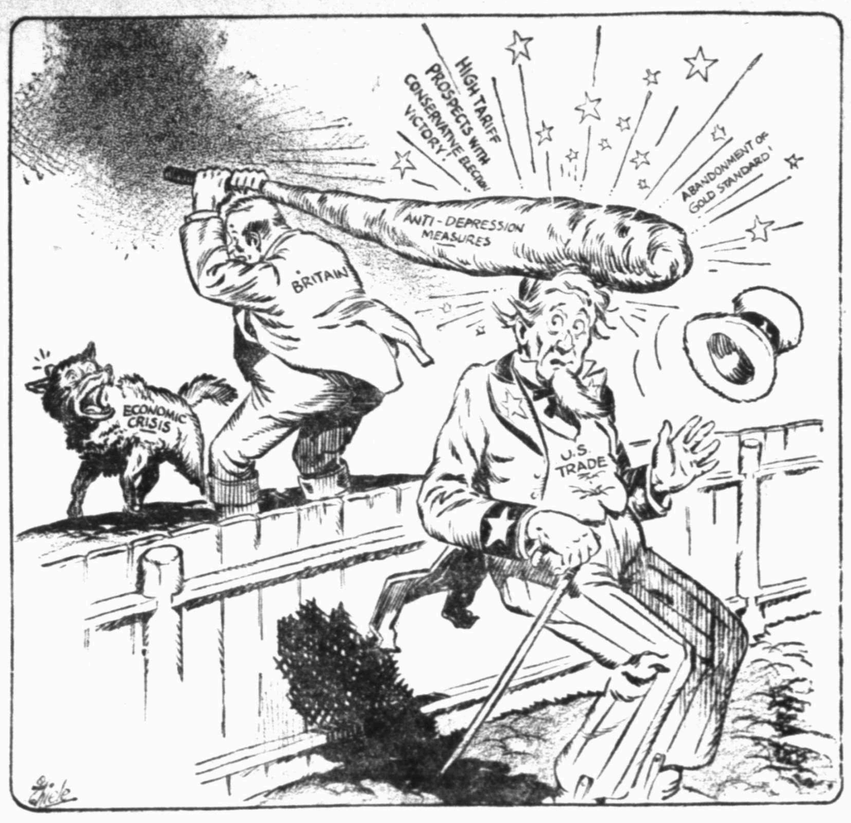

The Plainsman is used to criticism, expects it and knows there is much, much opportunity for it in connection with various discussions opened to the public here. He is sorry that scout leaders misunderstood in this particular incident, yet never-the-less contends that reading between the lines this time resulted in the wrong idea being gleaned.

No hard feelings!

Nearly Everyone From President Hoover To Mlle. Reine Claudel Have Played Roles In Recent Comedy Of Errors

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5—There has been plenty of amusement here lately for those whose taste for comedy is best satisfied when a distinguished dignitary sits on his plug hat or shows a bust of garter dragging on the floor.

DUTCHER

So many people have gotten themselves all puffed up on public occasions in so short a space of time that one is inclined to the conclusion that such a program was carefully planned. Perhaps the illusion called by Senator Borah's interview with the French correspondents was not so funny because it threatened to spoil the Hoover-Laval conferences. But it seems to merit a Nobel prize for absurdity. First Borah was overlooked in the invitations to the White House dinner for Laval and only received a last-minute bid after newspapermen had seen the list and asked what the heck. Then Borah spilled the beans by denouncing revision of France's dearly beloved Versailles treaty. Frantic French correspondents dashed to the White House to ward off Laval and Laval broke off conferring with Hoover to issue a rebuke to the chairman of our Senate Foreign Relations Committee. French correspondents cabled Paris that Americans were anti-French and suggesting that Hoover had put Borah up to the interview. The incident left everyone sore—Laval, Hoover, the correspondents and Borah himself.

MEANWHILE, General John J. Pershing himself had entered competition with Hector Fuller, the New York municipal radio announcer. Fuller, who first achieved fame by introducing Ramsay MacDonald as "prime minister of the United States," had turned on the French and introduced Laval on the air as "Premier Paul Claudel." Next day Pershing was taking Marshal Petain of France through Red Cross headquarters. The whole Red Cross staff was called in and Pershing ended a brief speech by introducing "my dear friend and comrade-at-arms—Marshal Foch"! He managed to get himself corrected.

Vice President Curtis got into this local comedy of errors when Laval came to pay a formal call at the Capitol. Laval was taken to the historic vice president's room just off the Senate chamber. Curtis was at his huge place in the Senate office building, of which he is very proud and whose gaudy trappings have become famous. So Laval had to be taken down and out and over through the torn-up Capitol grounds to see Curtis in his lair. Then the party had to drive a hundred yards back to the Capitol to be received by Chief Justice Hughes.

Social complications always cause more trouble and fuss here than anything else, however. It was Mlle. Josette Laval's desire to see the Princeton-Navy football game which stirred Princeton, the Naval Academy, the Pennsylvania railroad and the White House into excited activity and kept State Department protocol experts up until 3:30 a. m. to decide if Josette couldn't go to the game without breaking all the rules of the capital's social racket.

Finally Mlle. Laval couldn't make the train and a great heap of preparation went for nothing. Mlle. Reine Claudel, her friend and hostess, went on to the game by error and is supposed to have been talked to by her papa, the French ambassador, when she got home.

President Hoover's dignity stood the strain of the French premier's visit, but he had just been through a series of embarrassing moments himself. At Yorktown the wind blew his speech away and one sheet was lost so that he had to omit that part. At Annapolis his party sped by the mayor and an official welcoming committee waiting to greet them at the city line—for a reason rather difficult to convey in print.

Diet and Health

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M.D., Author of "THE HUMAN BODY"

EDITOR'S NOTE: Six pamphlets and six articles by Dr. Clendening can now be obtained by sending 10 cents in coin for each pamphlet and 2 cents in coin for each article with a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Dr. Logan Clendening, in care of this paper, or Central Press Association, 1433 East Twelfth street, Cleveland, O. The pamphlets are: "Reducing and Reducing Preparations" "Feminine Hygiene" "Indigestion and Constipation." "The Care of the Hair and Skin." "Infant Feeding." "Instructions for the Treatment of Diabetes." The articles are: "Normal Diet." "Diet of Expectant Mothers." "Bed Wetting." "Diet of the Expectant Mother." "Ear Troubles and Tuberculosis."

DRUGS FOR COUGHS

Cough mixtures are probably consumed in larger amounts than any other class of drugs except cathartics. Cathartics have a year-round popularity, but even now on the approach of winter the sale of cough mixtures will be on the increase. With them the ingredients of "standard" cough remedies are of two kinds. One sort is absorbed by the stomach and carried by the blood to the bronchial tubes and lungs and cast out there, carrying along the germs and mucous which keep up the cough.

Dr. Clendening

The other sort of ingredient which makes cough mixtures of any value affects the throat itself, soothing it or numbing it. This deadens the reflex which irritates the cough, and keeps you from hacking and whooping without getting anything up.

Of the first class, the favorite drug is chloride of ammonia. This is a very valuable drug. For a long time students of drugs thought it had no action. But doctors and [illegible] it just the same and in most cases when that happens the scientists are wrong and the practitioners are right. So it turned out with chloride of ammonia. It was discovered that one of its most valuable assets was that it could produce an acid condition in the body. Then it was found that in a cold or respiratory infection that apparently was what was lacking—the body had an alkaline reaction. So the chloride of ammonia not only helped the cough but also counteracted the derangement [illegible] chemistry. Nowadays [illegible] of ammonia is one of the [illegible] cough drugs.

Another class of drugs which, when absorbed by the stomach is excreted through the lungs, is turpentine usually administered in the form of terpene hydrate.

Of the substances which soothe the throat the best is probably a drug you have never heard of as a drug—sugar. Most cough mixtures you will find are sweetened. They are "syrups"—syrup of wild cherry, syrup of hypophosphites, syrup of tar, etc. These syrups are simply saturated solutions of sugar. One of the best things to sooth a stinging cough is a piece of candy dissolved in the mouth. It keeps the larynx from "wanting to cough." It stops that tickling, deep in the throat. The syrups in cough mixtures do the same thing, except that they are more expensive.

Of the same sort of ingredient is camphor or menthol. These, as you know, cool the mouth and throat and keep you from coughing for no purpose.

In evaluating cough mixtures it should be remembered that cough itself is valuable. It brings up infective material which should not be allowed to accumulate in the chest. But continuous coughing irritates the throat so that when a cough has lasted a long time it is the result as much of the irritation of the throat as the desire to remove secretions. For both of these purposes the ingredients in cough mixtures are designed.

QUESTIONS FROM READERS

A. L., Orange, N. J.: "My child, a boy of three and a half years, stutters. Is there anything that can be done for him?"

Answer: Stuttering is often relieved by a course of training in a stuttering school. There are several in New York and Philadelphia. It would be improper for me to select out any special one for recommendation because almost all of them are excellent.

X: "I'm wanting reliable information about epilepsy. What causes it? Is it inherited? Can it be cured? I am considering marrying a man who has it."

Answer: Gowers says, "there are few diseases in the production of which inheritance has a more marked influence." The actual cause is usually impossible to determine: it is an increase in the excitability of the brain. Of cases beginning under ten years few are arrested whereas of those beginning at puberty the opposite is true. (Osler.)

The Republicans, the Democrats and Central Europe have attacked the Hoover-Laval debt plan. And Al Capone, with those federal liens against his property, probably wouldn't approve of it either.

Now that election time is rolling around many a judge will recall he who judges gets judged.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5—The "back yards of Broadway" provide amazing scenes.

There is that strange playground hemmed in by theaters and tall buildings where the children of theater folk play. There are tiny squares of courtyard space, where acrobats and trapeze artists keep limbered up.

And just now there is a large lot off Ninth avenue where a lion tamer, working out a new troupe of "ferocious performers," gets them ready for next year's circus.

Somehow, coming upon a lion tamer in the process of lion taming provides a shock even in New York, where anything can and does happen.

Just when, how and where lions are tamed seems never to occur to the average person sitting under the white tops. The tricks must be learned somewhere, but one scarcely expects to find the arena a block or two from a subway station.

For many a year, Americans visiting in Paris have flocked to Joe Zelli's. Zelli was the smart cafe gent who invented the famous "royal box."

Whenever a newcomer arrived, Zelli would say "Ah, madame and messieur! We have special for you tonight, the royal box! The most famous people occupy it!"

And vanity, picked up by a few cocktails and champagne, would succumb.

At any rate, Zelli is returning to New York and the newest nightspot in the White Light belt will be The Royal Box with Joe in charge. There will be, even as in Paris, a royal box for everybody—for it was just a gag—and the out-of-town visitors should get quite a kick out of being escorted to the place of eminence in New York as in Paris. That others are occupying other places of eminence is beside the point.

Speaking of nightspots, it seems that N. T. G. Nic Orastinfindi has been smarter than almost any other floor-show manager in getting a direct play for the out-of-town customers.

The average out-of-town tired-business-man sightseeking in New York wants his night life to be like the night life he has seen in movies or read about in books.

So when N. T. G. ordered his girls to wear no more clothes than necessary, but they wear those gilt head adornments of the music shows, there is plenty of action and no cover charge.

With the result that this place has survived a couple of tough seasons where the more sophisticated caterers to the New York crowd have folded up.

Your wet Saturday night is likely to start with "ring around the bathtub."

But most any man can measure up if he uses the golden rule.

And he who doesn't gets bum liquor.

The guard who stood beside the gun on Morro Castle said, "You'd run, if I should make this thing go bang. It makes a lot of noise." "Oh, no, we wouldn't", Scouty cried. "We are much too brave to run and hide. That sort of thing is only done by timid little boys."

"Well, let's find out if you are right," replied the Travel Man. "Tonight, just when the sun goes down, he'll shoot, so we will come back. While waiting we can look about. There's plenty here to see, no doubt. We'll have a guard right with us, so there's not a thing to fear."

So, through the castle they all went and thus two interesting hours were spent. And then they ran back to the gun, just as the sun sank low. The sunset cannon soon went BANG, and through the air the echo rang. The Tinies didn't even budge. They cried, "We told you so!"

That night a fine hotel was found and everybody slept real sound. 'Twas almost noon when they got up. The Travel Man said, "Say! You've let me sleep a long, long time. Now right into your clothes please climb. We're going to a bathing beach and must be on our way."

Of course this sounded m good. They dressed as quickly as could and took a cab out t beach. It was a pretty spot. Clowny, "Let's get bathing Well swim and maybe shoo shutes. The water will feel wo ful, because the sun's so hot!"

It wasn't very long till they out upon the sand, at play. a sudden Carpy cried, "Ah! T a dandy thing! Fine swinging for everyone. Come on, we'll a lot of fun." And then the mites took turns and, my, how did swing.

REPORT ON ROADS

This report is furnished daily by the South Plains Automobile club, local branch of the American Automobile association.

Roads throughout South Plains are in fair condition.

Highway No. 137, 21 miles detour from Lubbock to Hockley county line on account of paving, good when dry, difficult when wet.

Fourteen mile detour from Lubbock to Lynn county line between Lubbock and Tahoka, bad in wet weather.

Route recommended to Oklahoma City due to detours on U. S. Highway 66. Follow State road 51 to Dickens, State road 106 and 24 to Seymour, No. 127 from Seymour to Wichita Falls, State road 79 to Devol, Oklahoma, same road to Waurika, Oklahoma, U. S. highway 31 to Chickasha, going to Oklahoma City by way of Amber, Tuttle and New Castle. Paving east to Chickasha, detours mostly gravel.

Best route to Dallas: Follow Highway No. 7 to Post, No. 84 from Post to Clairemont, No. 84-A from Clairemont through Rotan to Roby, State road 83 to Anson, No. 4 from Anson through Albany to Breckenridge, No. 1-A to Mineral Wells and U. S. No. 80 to Dallas.

Rates, Rules and Requirements of Classified Advertising Of The Lubbock Daily Journal (Afternoon)
Lubbock Morning Avalanche (Morning)
Sunday Avalanche-Journal (Sunday Morning)

All classified advertising will appear in both the Morning and Afternoon papers—both papers counting one insertion. All classified advertising is printed in the Lubbock Morning Avalanche first and the Daily Journal of the same date, no classified originating the afternoon paper.

Classified for Sunday's issue will appear in the Avalanche-Journal counting one insertion, as this paper is sent to all subscribers of both the afternoon and morning papers.

AVALANCHE-JOURNAL Combined Rates:
Minimum words per insertion, 10.
One insertion, per word 4c
Two insertions, per word 6c
Three insertions, per word 7c
Seven insertions, per word 12c
Thirty insertions, per word 45c

These rates are for consecutive insertions only. Additional consecutive insertions over 30 times, of 1 1-2c per word each.

All out-of-town ads, received by mail must be Cash with order. No exceptions.

PHONE 13 or 14

Our experienced ad taker will receive your ad and help you to word it, then our collector will call the following day. These accounts are "accommodation accounts" for our patrons and for one day only.

No advertisements accepted on an "until forbid" order. A specified number of insertions must be given.

We reserve the right to place an advertisement under the proper classification and reject unclean or objectionable copy.

Obituaries and cards of thanks at regular classified advertising rate.

The publishers are not responsible for copy omissions, typographical errors, or any unintentional error that may occur further than to correct it next issue after it is brought to their attention. All advertising orders are accepted on this basis only.

Classified Advertising accepted until 5:30 P. M. on week days, and 5:30 P. M. on Saturdays, and all advertising received after 5:30 P. M. will be placed under "Too Late To Classify."

and will market in that form, and does not include the increased income from grains converted into livestock, dairy and produce which the farmers will also market at increased prices.

"Based upon reports from crop reporters," Murray said, "I find that farmers held 2,550,000,000 bushels of corn on Nov. 1. This estimate considers that 5 1-2 per cent of the new crop had been fed by that date and that farmers were holding 75 million bushels of old corn. It is safe to estimate that 500 million bushels of corn will be marketed as grain by farmers.

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, Nov. 5. (AP)—Spurred by reports drought had cost Russia a loss of 150,000,000 bushels of grain this season, wheat prices valued today to new record heights. There also were predictions of smaller shipments of wheat from Argentina to Europe. Trade was on a big scale. Opening at 3-8 to 1 1-8 cents gain, wheat continued to climb. Corn started unchanged to 7-8 up and afterward rose further.

against the Turks.

They landed at Assaka, on the west coast of Africa, in November and negotiated a plan with El Hiba, leader of the savage "Blue" tribes, to fight the French foreign legion. Probster studied the situation and then set out to return to Germany to have machine guns and ammunition shipped by submarines to supply the expedition. But French destroyers were found patrolling the coast and he was unable to return to the UC-20. He started north along the coast and nothing more was heard from him.

Half guest, half hostage, Von Satzen trained the desert riders and led them as they swept down on the lonely garrisons of the legion.

In 1920 he heard a report of the signing of the armistice. It was a German ex-officer who told him. The officer had been captured by Von Satzen's men in an attack on the legion.

Standing in the desert, the officer told Lieut. Von Satzen that the war was over but the latter disagreed. He had been ordered, he said, to wait for the return of Probster and to fight the French. And Probster had not returned. So his war goes on.

Two sisters, the Misses Cadell of Edinburgh, Scotland, had their first flight under pathetic circumstances when they flew from Edinburgh to Waterford, Ireland, to attend the funeral of a sister who had died there while on a visit.

Stock Market

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, Nov. 5 (AP)—The stock market pushed up moderately in the first hour today but showed signs of tiring toward midday and some of the advance was lost.

Motors and accessories, oil and non-ferrous metals were actively bought for a time. Steels, however, were sluggish and rails held back. Shares rising 1 to 2 points temporarily included Standard of N. J., Sears-Roebuck, Studebaker, Electric Autolite, North American, American Smelting, Eastman and International Silver. Toward midday, however, much of the advance had been lost, and fractional declines appeared in U. S. Steel, American Can and others. American Telephone lost more than a point.

Cotton Market

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Nov. 5 (AP)—Cotton opened steady today, unchanged to 7 points higher on the continuation of yesterday's late rally. The advance met some southern selling on realizing and prices reacted slightly during early trading.

The buying continued, however, and the market held fairly steady. After selling up to 6.76 at the start, March reacted to 6.73, but was ruling around 6.75 at the end of the first half hour. Liverpool cables reported general buying and covering on easier sterling and said there was a sustained demand for cotton cloth.

Another private crop report issued late in the morning placed the indicated yield at 16,702,000 bales and ginnings prior to November 1 at 11,531,000 bales. These figures had no apparent effect on the market which continued comparatively quiet and more or less irregular late in the morning. Selling by the brokers credited with acting for the cooperative interests continued during the greater part of the morning but offerings were absorbed by trade buying or covering and the market at midday was steady with active months ruling about 2 to 5 points net higher.

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 5 (AP)—Cotton had a steady and fairly active opening. Cables came in slightly better than due and first trades here showed gains of one to two points. As the northern market advanced more than the market here and as stocks opened steadier, prices gained a little further after the start. December trading up to 6.52, January to 6.59, and March to 6.74, 2 to 3 points above yesterday's close.

Later in the first hour prices eased 2 to 4 points on some hedge selling but near the end of the first hour the market was firmer again and rallied about 4 points owing to firmness in wheat's opening.

The undertone was rather firm and prices appeared to be tending upward.

A private estimate today made the crop 16,637,000 bales. Another private report estimated the ginnings to November 1 at 11,902,000 running bales.

The market ruled fairly active all morning after the early dip due to hedge selling. Later a rally came on the strong opening of wheat with December trading up to 6.55, January to 6.63 and March to 6.79, or 6 to 7 points up from the early lows.

Toward noon prices turned easier owing to considerable hedge selling and declined 9 points from the top, to 6.46 for December, 6.54 for January and 6.70 for March, new lows for the day to that hour.

At noon the market was steady, but at the lows.

BIG SPRING CLUB AT KIWANIS MEET

Ten members of the Big Spring Kiwanis club presented a program today noon in Hotel Lubbock in an inter-club meeting with the Lubbock club, Grover Porter, president of the visiting delegation, was in charge.

Following club singing and an invocation by Dr. Jack Lewis, the visiting members were introduced.

Miss Virginia Peden, teacher of violin in the Big Spring schools, gave a violin solo. She was accompanied by Miss Katherine Sangester at the piano.

Speaking on the "Value of Kiwanis to You and Me", James Little, county attorney of Howard county, made the principal talk of the luncheon, pointing out the benefits derived from membership in the organization and the service to a community.

He was followed by quartet selections by Jack Ellis, Duck Webber, Charlie Deats and Bax Baxley of the Big Spring club.

Garland Woodward, former president of the Lubbock club but now of Big Spring, made a short talk, pointing out that his club held the attendance record for the district the past month with 97 per cent.

Other Big Spring people present included Enos Ashcroft and Ray Wilcox.

JAPANESE PLOT

Chinese forces.

The communique said reinforcements were being sent to the scene of battle. Tokyo newspapers announced a mixed brigade of 4,000 troops would be sent from Japan to the occupied area to replace tired Japanese soldiers who have been holding the positions in the occupied Chinese territory since the outbreak of trouble September 18.

Peace Hope Dims

Yesterday's fighting seemingly has precluded all hope that China and Japan might patch up their troubles by November 16, the date set by the league of nations for withdrawal of Japanese soldiers from the occupied areas.

orders on file that had been investigated. He said that at least 50 per cent of the orders were being rescinded as telephone company representatives interviewed the customers, and that 75 per cent of those having their telephones disconnected asked for the instruments to be left in place.

He said eleven orders for new connections were received unsolicited yesterday.

Officials of the company gathered here in conference. Hailey said they would stand firm on their announcement September 1 when rates were cut slightly, that the new rates would reduce their earnings to less than 7 per cent and that a further reduction would be impossible.

Amarillo's mayor, whose administration has been marked by reductions in rates by every utility serving the city, said he was "greatly encouraged and surprisingly leased with the way the people have responded to the plea to join the fight."

"They are learning how easy it is to get along without telephones," Mayor Thompson said. "You can't imagine how quiet and peaceful it is not having a telephone ringing constantly. I can work unmolested for the first time in years. Even our hotel guests are not complaining. Business men are having to walk a few block to transact business formerly done by telephone, but they get more exercise and are happy about it."

The mayor again mentioned the lapse of the franchise next June.

"They can't afford not to meet our demands," he said. "After all, the power of granting the franchise rests with the city commission. People have indicated they are dissatisfied with present rates. That is all we need."

Train Accident Is Averted By Pilot

COUNCIL BLUFF, Ia., Nov. 5. (AP)—Engineer Charles Utter is indebted to an airplane pilot for the safety of his Burlington passenger train patrons.

The pilot, Harold Nymann saw the Chicago-Denver train No. 3 speeding toward a burning railroad trestle yesterday afternoon.

He nosed his ship over the locomotive, banked sharply and flew along with the train, gesticulating to the engineer. The puzzled trainman brought his train to a halt a quarter of a mile from the bridge.

Passengers detrained and were brought into the city on special cars.

Kentucky Man Shot In Downtown Fray

BOWLING GREEN, Ky., Nov. 5 (AP)—H. H. Denhardt, former adjutant general of the Kentucky national guard and former lieutenant governor, was wounded early today in an encounter on a downtown street here. He was shot once in the shoulder and was believed to be in a serious condition.

Witnesses told police Denhardt was shot by W. K. Dent, a Republican worker in Tuesday's election. The shooting was said to have resulted from ill feeling over political issues. Denhardt is a democrat.

Two Officers Are Given Suspensions

KILGORE, Nev. 5 (AP)—Constable A. P. Farrar and Justice of the Peace Homer T. Glover were suspended temporarily from office yesterday by Judge Reuben Hall of Longview.

Their suspension resulted from the action of attorneys representing a group of Kilgore citizens working to oust Farrar and Clover. The attorneys, B. Y. Cummings and D. M. Doyle had filed felony charges against the two officials.

Immediately after the suspensions the commissioners court, acting on a petition, reappointed Farrar. No action was taken concerning Glover.

Unwritten Law Is Pleaded By Click

GEORGETOWN, Nov. 5 (AP)—On the stand in his own defense, Ray Click, 33, testified yesterday he killed A. W. Walker after learning Walker had been associating with his wife.

In describing the shooting, Click said he was driving his automobile in Llano when he came to a grader, being operated by Walker. Click testifed Walker began to curse him and that he then stopped his car, got out his gun and began shooting. The defendant said he had been told his life was in danger.

U. S. Missionary Is Slain By Chinese

NANKING, China, Nov. 5. (AP)—The Rev. J. W. Vinson, member of the American Presbyterian mission at Hachow, Kiangsu province, has been slain by Chinese bandits, United States Consul General Willis R. Peck was advised today.

Vinson was kidnaped last Sunday. His death presumably occurred yesterday. Immediately on receipt of news, Peck asked the Chinese foreign office for details of the incident.

At the instance of the American government, he had made representations to the foreign office following the kidnaping and was assured the Chinese government would do all in its power to obtain the release of Vinson.

Grape Concentrate To Be Discontinued

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5 (AP)—Fruit Industries, Inc., has agreed with the government to discontinue the sale of its "vinegio" brand of grape concentrate.

Donald Conn, who represents the concern here, revealed this today upon entering a conference with Mabel Walker Willebrandt, counsel for Fruit Industries.

He emphasized, however, that brand is "the smallest end of our business—five per cent of our grape concentrate business."

Gardiner Charges Are Being Studied

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5 (AP)—Members of the navy league's executive committee today studied the charges William Howard Gardiner made against President Hoover.

Meanwhile members of the board named by Mr Hoover to investigate assertions by Gardiner that the president was trying to starve the navy met in their first session.

Gardiner, president of the navy league, acompanied members of his organization into their meeting place in the law offices of Walter Bruce Howe, the league's chairman of the board.

MELTON FREED ON BOND

EIGHTEEN GALLONS OF LIQUOR SEIZED BY LOCAL OFFICERS

Charged with possession and transportation of liquor, S. E. ("Slick") Melton of Lubbock is free in bail of $1,000, posted after filing of the charges Wednesday afternoon.

Melton was arrested Wednesday afternoon by county and city officers near Shallowater. About eighteen gallons of whisky in two ten-gallon kegs were seized and officers said they would confiscate the coupe in which the liquor was found.

Melton, arraigned before Justice H. K. Porter, waived examining trial and Judge Porter set bond at $1,000. Officers making the arrest were Chief Deputy Will Earnest, H. B. Brown, George Eubanks, W. F. Tarpley, the last three named being city policemen.

Davis Condition Is Reported Improved

The condition of Elmer Davis, 21, whose left arm was injured in a gin accident Wednesday afternoon, at Baileyboro was improved, attendants at Lubbock sanitarium said this morning. He was received at the sanitarium Wednesday night.

The flesh and muscle from the left arm, below the elbow, was torn loose when the member was caught in the huller belt at the Baileyboro gin at 4:30 p. m. The injury is not regarded as serious and unless complications arise the arm will be saved. A. T. Biggers, owner of the gin, 20 miles southwest of Sudan, brought the injured youth to Lubbock. Davis is unmarried.

Among those who helped take Britain's 1931 census were 12,704 unemployed, 1,821 government employes and 6,347 employees of local authorities and 19,144 other employed or retired persons.

Never Dangerous To Cure Eczema

That's What Doctors Say—

Some people have an idea that it is dangerous to try to cure eczema—that the "poison" will go through your system.

That's all wrong, doctors say. Nobody knows exactly what causes eczema, but plenty of folks know how to stop it—how to get relief that's nothing short of magic.

Eczema—tetter—salt rheum—no matter what you call it, no matter how long you've had it, nor how many things you have tried—

When it itches so it almost drives you crazy—when you think you just can't stand it another second—put some Moone's Emerald Oil on it.

If that doesn't give you—instantly—greater relief than anything you've ever tried, money back.

Don't be afraid of its hurting you or your clothes—use lots of it. And remember that Bowen's Drug and Bowen's Hilton Pharmacy and every first class druggist guarantees it. —Adv.

BEWARE THE COUGH OR COLD THAT HANGS ON

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the infected membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold, no matter of how long standing, is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE AGENT SAYS LUCK FIGURED IN SOLVING DEATH OF STUDENT AT HANDS OF APACHE INDIAN

EL PASO, Nov. 5 (AP)—J. A. Street, department of justice agent, thinks luck figured largely in solving the killing of Miss Henrietta Schmerler, Columbia university student.

He returned Tuesday from Arizona where he arrested Coley Seymour, Apache Indian, on the White River reservation, charging him with murder in connection with the young woman's death.

Stabbed To Death

Miss Schmerler, who had been living on the reservation to gather socio'ogical data about the Apaches, was beaten and stabbed to death last July while on her way to an Indian dance.

"When I went to the reservation from El Paso, I had no idea as to who had committed the crime," he said. "But after I got there I had a number of fortunate breaks which put me on the right track."

One of these came when an informer overheard a conversation between two Indians on the subject of Miss Schmerler's death. Another resulted from Seymour's talking.

Street said Seymour displayed no emotion when, after questioning, he finally admitted killing the woman. The agent elaborated further on Seymour's statement.

He quoted Seymour as saying that on the evening of the slaying Miss Schmerler asked him for a horse on which to ride to the dance, about seven miles from Miss Schmerler's house. He had only one horse, Seymour replied, but he would take her on it.

Rode "Double"

Miss Schmerler accepted, and they rode "double." Several miles down the road, a trail cuts away from the road. It formerly was much used by Indians who wished to avoid the fort, but had been little travelled in recent years.

Seymour said in the confession he turned the horse down this trail, and when they came to a muddy "draw" he and Miss Schmerler alighted to walk across it.

He admitted criminally attacking the young woman, and when she fought him he said he knocked her down with a rock and stabbed her with a knife. Then he went to the home of a relative.

One of the chief difficulties in the case was the Apache dialect of which Street himself had only a slight knowledge. He was helped by his experience with Indians gained in the noted Oklahoma Osage cases several years ago.

Early in August, Street was assigned to the case and went to the reservation, but he had been there only two weeks when he was recalled to attend court. He returned to Arizona about the first of October.

Indians Busy

It was a difficult time to get information from the Indians, for they were rounding up cattle and were scattered over the range. Street posed as a cattle buyer, however, sat at their camp fires and listened to their talk, absorbing what he could.

He denied he had disguised himself as an Indian, as some have said. In fact, he said he made no attempt to conceal his identity, and among white people on the reservation it was known he was investigating the Schmerler death.

From time to time, he overheard talk about the young woman and the Indian, and gradually he centered his attention on Seymour.

"A lot of Indians on that reservation knew who killed that girl," he said. "But they wouldn't talk."

Widely Experienced

Street has had wide experience as a peace officer and a government investigator. Not only did he figure prominently in solving the Osage cases, but he aided in solution of murder mysteries on the San Carlos reservation, connected with that of the Apaches.

He was born in Ripley, Miss., and moved to Tucumcari, N. M., his present home, in 1896. He was sheriff of Quay county, N. M., for 10 years. In 1922 he became a department of justice agent.

Street is a quiet, soft-spoken middle-aged man. He wears glasses and rolls many cigarettes as he talks.

J. A. STREET WIDELY KNOWN ON PLAINS

J. A. Street, United States department of justice agent credited with solving the slaying of Miss Henrietta Schmerler, Columbia university student, on an Apache reservation in Arizona, is known widely in Lubbock and on the South Plains.

Mr. Street, better known as "Alex Street," was a witness in the recent Spikes libel suit here in May and June. He has lived in the southwest for many years and after serving as a sheriff in New Mexico, joined the federal forces ten or twelve years ago.

While here Mr. Street declined to discuss at length his experiences as a federal officer. However, he was the leading officer in the famous Hale case in Oklahoma several years ago where he worked for three years to uncover a case affecting Indian wards of the government.

Many old timers who lived in New Mexico a score or more of years ago or who had business there, especially around Tucumcari, will recall Mr. Street.

"I liked Chesterfield right from the start"

"NO, I don't know a blessed thing about how cigarettes are made. But, of course, I would want the tobacco to be PURE. And then I've heard that the blending is very important. I'd want that to be done just right.

"Then the paper. I don't like paper that you can taste—or smell when it's burning. I'd want that pure too.

"Another thing. I want to smoke whenever I feel like it—without worrying about smoking too many. So I want my cigarettes MILD.

"But the main thing, of course, is TASTE. I don't care for over-sweetened cigarettes. I much prefer those that are just sweet enough.

"Chesterfield seems to satisfy in every one of these ways. That is why I'd rather have a Chesterfield."

SMOKERS tire of too much sweetness in a cigarette, and they don't like rawness. For a steady diet, they want a cigarette like CHESTERFIELD — a mild and mellow smoke, free from any over-sweetness or any harshness or bitterness. That's why more and more smokers every day are changing to CHESTERFIELD.

Good . . . they've got to be good.
