Deadline for ASCS Signup Set March 10

Approximately 250 Collingsworth farmers have until Friday, March 10, at 5:00 p.m. to sign up for the government feed grain, wheat and cotton programs. This was the number remaining Monday morning, according to Bob Weatherly, ASCS executive said.

He reminded of other deadlines.

We still need some of the cotton production records that have not been reported, and we must have them to figure 1972 yields, said Mr. Weatherly.

Cotton allotment transfers can be taken until Wednesday, May 3. At this point, there appears to be fewer transfers than last year.

Requests are also being taken for both measuring and pre-measuring acreage. Pre-measurement requests may be filed until April 21.

Receiving Division II ratings were Betty Burba, flute solo; Carole Cochran, clarinet solo; Dickie Johnson, cornet solo and Judy Jones, alto saxophone solo. Division III ratings were won by Debra Long, clarinet solo; Jerry Bowen, tuba solo; and Earl Hartman, cornet solo. Benny Stallings received a Division IV in cornet solo.

Father Burke Marks 10th Anniversary Here

The month of February 1972 marks the 10th anniversary of the arrival of Father Patrick Burke, Parish Priest of Our Mother of Mercy Catholic Church.

It was in February 1962 that Father Pat took over the reins of the parish from Father Kevin Hand. He had served in the Cathedral in Amarillo and in St. Elizabeth's in Lubbock as Assistant priest, before being assigned his own parish in Spur in 1961.

Father Pat came to America in 1957 from his native London, England, having been ordained there by the Cardinal Archbishop of Westminster, William Godfrey. Previous to his becoming a priest, Father Pat was a professional Soccer player with one of England's top clubs, the Tottenham Hotspurs. He represented his country four times in international games.

Father Pat lived in London during the famous Blitz of 1941,

Funds Allotted for Work on US83 North of Wellington

BULLETIN

AUSTIN. — The Texas Highway Commission today designated a Farm to Market road at Wellington, Collingsworth County.

The road extends from the intersection of US Highway 83 and State Highway 203 in Wellington westward to FM 1035, a distance of approximately one mile.

The action is subject to the condition that all right of way will be furnished the State. On acceptance by the city and county, the Highway Department will proceed with development at an estimated cost of $30,000.

The Texas Highway Commission on March 1st, 1972, approved a $240 million, two-year program for the development of almost two thousand miles of Texas highways.

The 1973-74 Consolidated Highway Program calls for construction of 1,186 miles of highway facilities and the State's portion of right of way costs on 810 miles.

The program includes both new work and additional finance for work previously authorized.

V.J. McGee, District Engineer of Childress, announced that included in this Consolidated Highway Program are State funds in the amount of $49,000 to cover the purchase of right of way and relocation assistance on U.S. Highway 83, extending from the Wheeler County Line, South to F.M. Road 1439, a distance of 11.2 miles, in Collingsworth County.

These right of way funds will permit the Highway Department to prepare right of way maps and preliminary plans for the re-construction of this section of U.S. Highway 83.

tion of U.S. Highway 83.

State funds in the amount of $690,000 are provided on this program for the widening and reconstruction of U.S. 83, extending from 4.2 miles south of the Wheeler County Line to F.M. Road 1439, a distance of 7.0 miles. Construction funds for that section of U.S. Highway 83, extending from the Wheeler County Line, South

Individual trophies will be awarded to those playing on first, second and third place teams in each division.

Four Steers Win Places at Houston

Four steers entered by Collingsworth 4-H members won places in the junior division of the Houston Livestock, and the other three county entries also made the show.

Results were announced by County Agent Don Reeves.

A steer exhibited by Joel Ross of Quail placed second in the middle-weight Hereford class, the highest placing of any county calf. His other steer was 12th in the same class, which included approximately 60 steers. Keith Davis had the fourth place winner in the light weight Charolais class, and Allen Havens, with a Charolais cross, was just two places out of the money.

Havens also exhibited the 14th place steer in the light weight Angus class. Reeves reported the Charolais class was the largest in the show this year with 68 steers entered, while the Angus class had 55.

SCS Briefs Personnel On RC&D Promotion

Some 25 Soil Conservation Service personnel from a 13 county surrounding area met at the Gate City Electric building in Childress, Thursday, March 2, to study ways to better conserve, develop and enhance our environment.

State Resource Conservationist C.A. Rechenhain from Temple, Texas gave the group training concerning Resource Conservation and Development (RC&D) projects.

SCS'ers assisting the "Four Winds RC&D Area" made up of Childress, Cottle Foard and Hardeman Counties and the "North Rolling Plains RC&D Area" of Lipscomb, Hemphill, Wheeler, Gray, Donley, Collingsworth, Hall and Briscoe Counties were present.

The Four Winds RC&D Area has had an application in Washington D.C. since 1968. The application is awaiting funding for planning. Of the eleven applications submitted from Texas, four have been funded to date. Only the "Rio Bravo" located around Larado has been in longer than the Four Winds. The North Rolling Plains is the latest application submitted.

The local sponsors are the Soil and Water Conservation Districts, cities and counties within the areas. Sim Vaughn of Childress is chairman of the Four Winds group and Harry Frye of Shamrock the North Rolling Plains group.

When asked what RC&D areas are and what they do, Mr. Rechenhain explained:

— The Food and Agriculture Act of 1962 authorized the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) to give technical and financial help to local groups in resource conservation and development (RC&D) projects. Aim of the projects is better economic opportunities in rural areas through speeding up conservation and development of the area's natural resources.

— The Soil Conservation Service (SCS) has leadership in the program. It works with local, State, and other Federal agencies in assisting project sponsors.

What They Do: Each project has its own unique features, but most of the projects include these goals:

1. Develop water resources for recreation, wildlife, flood prevention, and agricultural, municipal, or industrial use.

2. Complete a soil survey of the area.

3. Speed up conservation planning and establishment on individual land units.

4. Convert cropland to grass, trees, wildlife, and recreation use.

5. Improve recreation facilities, including historical and scenic attractions.

6. Encourage new industries to locate in the area and to process products of the area.

7. Improve markets for crop and livestock products.

He explained the RC&D would help coordinate self help efforts of all groups within the designated areas. He praised the work already being done by such groups as the Conservation Districts, cities and counties.

He said that once an area was designated for planning the SCS would assign a full time project coordinator to help the local sponsors develop their RC&D plans.

All Federal agencies would speed up their present programs and assist in applying the identified project measures.

He encouraged the group not to wait until funded to promote the development of the areas and cited the county park for Collingsworth County, sanitary land fill for Wellington, and the flooding problem on the north side of Wellington as excellent examples of successful project measures.

Dodson Exes Call Off 1972 Banquet Plans

The Dodson Ex-Students Annual Reunion will not be held this year, but plans are already underway for the 1973 gathering.

Officers of the Dodson Ex-Students Association met recently and came to this decision as the school building is being torn down and there is no place large enough to hold the reunion.

"We plan to have our gymnasium remodeled and ready for the reunion by next year," said Mrs. Jo McKinney Hunt, secretary.

"We don't want our Association to die, so we ask that everyone keep this in mind and let's plan for a bigger and better reunion on Saturday before Easter in 1973."

Officers of the Dodson Ex-Students Association are Reggie Lewis, president; Lonnie Roberson, vice president; and Mrs. Howard Hunt, reporter.

Former Resident Hurt in Wreck

L.V. Morris, a former Lutie man who was here to see a sick brother, was himself injured in a two-car collision as he returned to his home in Tucumcari, N.M.

The accident occurred near Vega. He had a broken left arm and broken nose, and after being hospitalized at Amarillo, he is now at his home, relatives said.

He was here to see Oscar Morris, who entered the Collingsworth General Hospital February 7, and also to visit two sisters, Mrs. Ike Rogers and Mrs. Lee Roark of Lutie.

Oscar Morris lived at Meyer, Arizona, more than 40 years before returning here to make his home a short time ago.

Old Post Card Brings Memories

Publication of Earl Hunter's picturepost card showing a scene from the court house square on the Saturday before Christmas 1917, in the February 24 issue of The Wellington Leader has brought a surprise reply.

Mrs. Reba Stephens, society editor of the Hobart-Democrat Chief, has written:

"The post card had been addressed to Miss Pauline Tidwell from her brother, who signed his name BFT. Miss Tidwell is now Mrs. Pauline Lovelady of Hobart, Oklahoma. She is in a convalescent home here. She has a daughter and grandchildren living here who are Hobart business people."

Mrs. Lovelady was living in Duke, Oklahoma, when she received the post card and her brother was employed in Wellington.

County Couples At National FU Convention

Mr. and Mrs. Rudie Tate and boys and Mr. and Mrs. W.R. Breeding have returned from Houston. Mr. Tate was on the planning committee and Mr. Breeding a delegate from Texas, where they attended the 70th annual national convention of the Farmers Union.

More than 2,000 delegates and guests at the farm organization conference heard presidential candidates Hubert Humphrey and George McGovern attack Administration policies for agriculture.

Delegates adopted resolutions calling for a new approach to farm policy that would assure parity income for small and medium-sized farms and cut off payments to large corporation farms.

The national president of Farmers Union, Tony Dechant, called the plan "a complete turnaround from present policies" and said that it was needed to halt the disappearance of the family farm.

In other convention action, delegates picked Omaha, Nebraska as the site of the 1973 convention and re-elected Dechant as president, and elected E.W. Smith, Jamestown, North Dakota, as vice president.

They heard panels on the invasion of farming by off-farm corporations headed by Governors William Guy of North Dakota and David Hall of Oklahoma, and a panel on local taxes headed by Governors Robert Docking of Kansas and Patrick J. Lucey, Wisconsin.

E.G. Marshall, television personality and expert on medical care, addressed the convention banquet on "National

Seedlings May Be Ordered Until March 10

COLLEGE STATION, -- Tree planters have but two weeks left in which to order tree seedlings for windbreak construction.

According to Mason Cloud, head of the Forest Environment Department, Texas Forest Service, only five kinds of the tree seedlings are still available -- Catalpa, Chinese Elm, Cottonwood, Mulberry and Osage Orange.

"All remaining trees will be sold on a first-come-first-served basis until March 10, 1972. After that date," Cloud says, "no orders will be accepted."

Windbreak seedlings sell for $2.50 per 100 seedlings, plus the 4 percent state sales tax. Seedlings are shipped postpaid. Orders must be for 100 or more seedlings and in multiples of 50.

Chinese elm is a good tree for most sites in Texas for it is somewhat drought resistant. Osage Orange and Catalpa are medium-sized trees which do well on the more critical sites. Cottonwood is a fast grower which may reach 60 to 80 feet in height. The mulberry produces fruit which is eaten by birds and may be objectionable if planted close to houses.

Windbreak tree seedlings may not be used or resold for ornamental purposes.

Order forms can be obtained from County Agricultural Agents, Soil Conservation District Offices, the Texas Forest Service, Agronomy Department, Texas Tech University, Lubbock, Texas 79410 and from the Texas Forest, College Station, Texas 77843.

MRS. J.W. CHAPMAN

Mrs. J. W. Chapman Works Daily In Store After Her 90th Birthday

Few merchants in Collingsworth County can equal in length the business career of Mrs. J.W. Chapman, who on Tuesday, February 25, observed her 90th birthday.

This has made little difference in her daily routine, for she continues to come to her store each day, as she always has walking from her home at 903 Dalhart Street.

The former Mary Elizabeth Kesler, she has always been known to her family and friends as Molly. She was born in Boone Mill, Virginia February 25, 1882, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Kesler, who also were born in Virginia.

She and Mr. Chapman were married there in 1904, and two years later, in 1906 they came to Collingsworth County.

About 1914, they bought a confectionary which also handled many other items, on the south side of the square, near the east end of the block. She helped her husband in operating the store through the many years that included two World Wars, and the Great Depression.

About 20 years ago, they decided to retire and sold the business to Keith Smith. Only a few

If you have a teen-age daughter with lots of hair bows, double an inch-wide strip of ribbon and attach it to her bedroom mirror with thumb tacks at the top and bottom. Clip the hair bows onto the ribbon through the first layer only. This keeps the clips from marking the wall and the bows make a colorful addition to the room's scheme.

When watering house plants, such as vines that climb a pole, use a paper cup with small holes punched in the bottom. It may be placed on top of the pole so the water feeds through slowly and can soak into the pole. Liquid fertilizer can be given to plants in this manner.

If the cuffs of your wool sweater stretch out of shape, dip the ends in hot water to shrink them back to normal. This would also work on the waistband.

If paper is stuck to a varnished table top, do not try to scrape it off with a knife. Pour on olive oil, a few drops at a time, and rub with a soft cloth. Repeat until the paper is all off.

Use empty cereal boxes for litter bags in the car. When full, just throw the whole thing into the trash can.

Study Club Sees, Hears Story Of Restoration of Williamsburg, Va.

"That the future may learn from the past." A visit to Colonial Williamsburg, Virginia and Philadelphia, Penn. through slides was the program of the 1954 Study Club given by Mrs. Jerry Nix at her home February 24, 1972.

Visitors to Williamsburg today step back across the bridge of years to a city that was for eight vigorous decades preceding and during the American Revolution - the capital of Virginia and the focus of a proud plantation society. Buildings, furnishings, fences, gardens and the public greens appear much as they did in the eighteenth century. Trim carriages once more roll along Duke of Gloucester Street, a broad public way described by President F.D. Roosevelt as "the most historic avenue in all America."

Restored Williamsburg has a dual heritage. It recalls not only those years when Williamsburg served as the seat of government for Britain's largest colony in America, but also the turbulent period when it was the political headquarters for Virginia patriots who were to have an important part in overthrowing the rule of the Crown.

Rev. W.A.R. Goodwin, former rector of Bruton Parish Church, long cherished a dream of preserving the historic part of the old city of Williamsburg. He communicated this vision to John D. Rockefeller, Jr., who, taking the first step in 1926, determined to preserve the heart of this colonial capital and, for more than 30 years, devoted personal leadership to the project. During his lifetime Mr. Rockefeller contributed all necessary funds to return Williamsburg to its eighteenth-century appearance and, by means of endowment, assured the permanence and quality of the restoration and the enrichment of its educational program.

During the business meeting plans were made for the Tiny Tot Revue, March 28, 1972.

Members present were: Mrs. A.J. Fires, Mrs. Paul Spillman, Mrs. E.W. Clement, Mrs. Don Reeves, Mrs. Fred Cox, Jr., Mrs. Virgil Patterson, Mrs. Cal Hurst, Mrs. Kenneth Maxwell, Mrs. Leon Hartman, Mrs. Lynn Courtney, Mrs. Harley Hatch, Mrs. R.L. Templeton, a guest; Mrs. R.T. Savage, and the hostess, Mrs. Nix.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Marsh spent 10 days visiting with her two sisters, Mrs. Eula May McLaughlin of Douglas, Ariz., Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Greer of Mesa, Ariz., and nieces and nephews of Phoenix, Ariz. Staff Sgt. and Mrs. Danny Marsh Robert and Candy of San Diego Calif., met the Marshes in Mesa for a visit also.

Coffee Saturday Morning Honors Mrs. Ed Williams of Anniston, Ala.

A former county woman, Mrs. Ed Williams, of Anniston, Alabama, was honored at a coffee Saturday morning, March 4. Her aunt, Mrs. Dick Sweat, was hostess in her home, and she was assisted by Mrs. James Richardson, Mrs. Howard Crosby and Mrs. Frank Light.

Mrs. Williams will be remembered as Mary Olga Kennedy and she is also a niece of Cicero Gulley. She left here while she was still a child, about 1935.

She stopped to visit after accompanying her husband on a business trip to Las Vegas, Nevada.

Coffee was served from a Collection in the National Gallery of Art in Washington, D.C. exhibits the exquisite detail achieved by a Master's hand, using the medium of oil paint.

During political turmoil many of their works were carried to France by Napoleon and later, were returned to Belgium. Hitler also carried away many treasures and later these were found in Salt mines in Austria and returned to Belgium. But a painting of Jan Van Eyck's wife was lost for centuries and in 1808 it was discovered in a Belgium fish market where the back of it was being used as a plank on which to cut up fish!

Miss Wells served a salad plate to: Mrs. Lowell Wells, Mrs. Robert Barjenbruch, Mrs. J.F. Michael, Mrs. Henry Vaughan and Miss Dorothy Robertson, Miss Marie Shadid, Miss Rose Shadid and Miss Bonnie Willis.

MRS. J.A. LEACH

Mrs. J. A. Leach Observes Her 95th Birthday Quietly on March Eighth

With family and a few close friends joining her in the quiet celebration, Mrs. J.A. Leach observed her 95th birthday Wednesday, March 8. She has lived in the county 71 years, and in the same house at the corner of 8th and El Paso Streets for 62 years.

Because of failing vision and hearing and because she has not fully recovered from a recent illness, friends extended congratulations through birthday cards, rather than by visits.

There was less of reminiscing than might have been expected from one who has had so long and full a life, but Mrs. Leach has never been concerned much with the past. She always has been and still is, completely involved with what is happening now, or is going to take place.

Outside her home and family, her greatest concern has been First United Methodist Church, of which she is the senior member. She has been a Methodist since childhood, and of the Wellington Church since she and her family moved into town from the Cross Roads community 62 years ago. For many years she taught a Sunday School class of 9-year-old boys.

Her relationship with her pastors has always been close, and friends have said half joking, half serious, that she has probably cooked as many Methodist hens as anyone in the congregation.

Mrs. Leach, the former Carrie Dell Curtner, was born at Chico March 8, 1877. She and her twin sister, the late Mrs. Callie Stalnaker, grew up there, attending Pleasant Grove Academy. Seventy seven years ago, she was married to J.A. Leach. On first moving west, they settled in Scurry County, then coming to Collingsworth in 1901.

Mrs. Leach's yard has been her pride, and in her 80th year, it was chosen Yard of the Month by the Wellington Garden Club.

Mrs. Leach's daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. C.L. Gibbs along with a close friend, Mrs. Davis Robinson, of Irving are here for her birthday. Her other daughter was the late Miss Inez Leach.

Visitors and overnight guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fielding and children of Quail during the week and last week end were Mr. and Mrs. Jarrell Fielding of Pampa, Mrs. Brenda Blackmou of Austin, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Ford of Irving, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Langford of Wellington, Mr. Dale Fielding, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hampton of Arlington and Miss Mary Lee Hawthorne of Amarillo.

Brownies, Juniors Observe Girl Scout Week March 12 through 18

The Girl Scouts, largest voluntary organization for girls of its kind, is celebrating its sixtieth anniversary, and joining in this are two Wellington Brownie troops and one of Junior Scouts.

They will observe Girl Scout Week from Sunday through the following Saturday, March 12, to 18, said Mrs. Bob Weatherly, who heads the local organization.

Two special events are planned, a flag raising ceremony at Elementary School Tuesday, March 14, and the Girl Scout Cookie Sale, which begins March

Crafts Studied By Dodson HDC

The Dodson Home Demonstration Club met in the home of Mrs. Truitt Holland for a series of crafts demonstrations.

Mrs. Dennis Holland gave a presentation on foil art. Both necklaces of small gold safety pins and beads and rug knitting were given by Mrs. Hubert Redeker.

Needlepoint and early American embroidery were explained and demonstrated by Mrs. T.J. Bowling, then Mrs. Gilbert Hunt showed the group how to make crocheted and long-length necklaces.

During the business session, Mrs. Wayne Reynolds gave the council report and Mrs. C.E. Hightower, president, announced that the next meeting, March 14, will be a book review in the home of Mrs. Thurman Crownover.

Refreshments, in keeping with George Washington's Birthday, were served to Mrs. H.A. Painter, Mrs. A.V. Lowrie, Mrs. Purl Tippie, Mrs. Hightower, Mrs. Edith Quitt, Mrs. Reynolds, Mrs. Redeker, Mrs. Bowling, Mrs. Hunt, Mrs. Dennis Holland and Mrs. Truitt Holland.

Troop Visits Fire Station

Girl Scout Troop 201 recently visited the Wellington Volunteer Department Fire Station. They were shown the fire-fighting trucks and other equipment by Howard Breece, fireman on duty.

The group included Lisa Hartman, Lisa Nix, Lynette Spillman, Renee Owens, Becky Saied, Lina Nunnelley, Mary Sue Thompson, Elizabeth Brewer, Tammy Hiatt, Jannon Thomason, Dana Jameson, Valerie Van Pelt, Kathleen Reeves, Stacey Weatherly, and their sponsor, Mrs. Leon Hartman and Mrs. Ralph Owens.

Brownies Have Skating Party

Girls of Brownie Troop 196 were taken to Memphis for a skating party Saturday afternoon, March 4.

Attending were Debbie Cleveland, Monica Foster, Catrina Atkinson, Teresa Gray, Cynthia Gollighugh, Toni Kay Isaacs, Maria Langford, Doris Lockhart, Cindy Morris, Kathy Tate, Kimala Poteet, Melanie Pendleton, Leigh Myrick, Sharon Trimble, Pattie Daves, Debbie Trimble, Mendy Morgan, Rhonda Gollighugh, Veronica Foster. Mothers accompanying them were Mrs. C.C. Atkinson, Mrs. Jim Morgan, who are the leaders, and Mrs. Rodney Myrick, Mrs. Larry Gollighugh, and Mrs. Kenneth Foster, Mrs. Harvey Isaacs.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Hite recently were her mother, Mrs. Belle Perrin of Shamrock; her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Perrin of Post; her sister-in-law, Mrs. Lorene Perrin of Tolleson, Arizona; and a niece, Mr. and Mrs. Fay Floyd of Arcadia, Calif.

1924 Study Club Prepares for Annual Spring Fashion Show on March 16

Undaunted by possible whirlwind snow flurries, brisk winds, light precipitation, or balmy breezes, the 1924 Study Club membership continues with plans for a March 16 "Spring Fling." The event is scheduled for 7:30 o'clock at the Wellington High School Auditorium. This 17th annual spring fashion show will include not only an array of current delights of the clothing industry but also an exhibit of painting fashions by area artists.

Fashions will be modeled for The Fair Store, Hatch Dry Goods, D.C. Bargain Store, Gibson's, Fabric & Ready-to-Wear, Town & Country.

Coiffures by local hair stylists will be featured also. Art will be exhibited in the school library, hall and foyer.

Door prizes from local merchants are a special feature too.

Tickets are available from club members. Proceeds benefit community projects.

100th District Court Hears Four Cases

Both civil and criminal cases were heard by Judge Robert Montgomery in the March session of 100th District Court, which was in session Monday and Tuesday, February 28 and 29.

A default planted was handed down for the plaintiff, in the case of the FDIC vs. Lee Roy Wiles.

Clede E. Aldridge pled guilty to passing a forged instrument and was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary.

One divorce was granted: in the case of Clifford Don Throne vs. Vicky Gay Throne, she was granted a divorce on a cross petition. She also received custody of a minor child.

A mistrial was declared in the case of the State vs. Ernest Benton, charged with taking a car without the owner's permission. The case went to the jury, which was unable to come to a decision.

The next session of District Court will be Monday, April 13.

Leigh Nall Seeks Irish Rose Title

Leigh Nall will be Wellington's Colleen at Shamrock's St. Patrick's Day Celebration, March 17 and 18, competing for the Miss Irish Rose Title.

She was chosen at an election at large recently in Wellington High School, after neither the reigning Miss Wellington or the runner up could qualify, explained Principal E.W. Clement. One of these traditionally represents the town.

However, one of the qualifications is that the Colleen must be a junior or senior in high school, and both Miss Wellington, Debbie Neely, and Miss Runner Up, Sandra McGill, were graduated last spring.

Leigh, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Nall, is a senior.

FU Green Thumb Program Striking at Rural Poverty

Many people think poverty doesn't exist any more, when in fact, it is just better hidden. District I Farmers Union members were told at their annual banquet in Wellington Saturday evening, March 4.

What Farmers Union is trying to do about poverty in the rural areas was spelled out by Archie Baughman, Western Region Director of the FU Green Thumb Program, who a few days earlier spoke at the National Convention in Houston.

The Green Thumb Program has been approved for Collingsworth County, and is in the process of being set up.

Preceding Mr. Baughman's address, Henry Harnley ofampa, District Director, presented a plaque to W.R. Breeding of Samnorwood, the immediate past district director, in appreciation of his work.

"Congress is convinced that

Family Living Costs Compared

COLLEGE STATION -- How much money does it take to live?

For an urban U.S. family of four living on an intermediate budget, it cost an estimated $10,664 in Spring, 1970, reports Bonnie Fowler, Extension home management specialist. For a family of four on a lower budget, the cost was $6,960, compared to $15,511 for a family living on a higher budget.

These figures, based on Bureau of Labor statistics, are for an urban family of four with two children, a boy aged 13 and a girl 8, in which the homemaker is not employed.

Living costs vary widely among various regions and cities, continues Mrs. Fowler. For example, the costs are generally lower in small cities and in southern parts of the United States. In non-metropolitan areas of the south, living costs for the urban family of four on an intermediate budget averaged $9,862. The national average was $10,664.

According to the estimates, the family spent approximately 23 percent of their income for food, 23.4 percent on housing and 10.7 percent on clothing and personal care. Transportation accounted for 8.6 percent, while 5.3 percent went for medical care, and 18 percent was spent on taxes. All other spending, including gifts, and contributions, occupational expenses and life insurance, totaled 11 percent.

the only poverty is in the urban slums, but in the rural areas, many people are living on the thin edge of poverty," Mr. Baughman declared.

Initiated by Farmers Union and operating under a contract with the Department of Labor, the Green Thumb Program provides that men over 55 years of age and in the low income bracket, may work three days per week in jobs consistent with the skills they used as farmers. Each job is funded for $1,600 for the contract year.

Side benefits are improved health for those in the program, who get out and again become part of community life.

But the aged are not the only ones who must be fed, Mr. Baughman reminded.

Rockets Place In Vernon Track Meet

Four individuals and a relay team from Wellington High School placed in the Vernon Relays Friday and Saturday, March 3 and 4.

The team, along with Electra, tied for 10th place in the Class AA division, each earning 8 points.

Kenneth Porter placed fifth in the 100 yard dash; Ray Aguilar, fifth in the 440 yard dash; and Mike Williams fifth in the 880 yard dash.

The mile relay team came in sixth. Members were Aguilar, Robin Maddox, Williams and Randall Hodges.

Floydada won the AA division with 136.5 points. Others were second, Seymour, 98; third, Olney, 69; fourth, Shamrock, 59; fifth, Panhandle, 35 points; ei points; Childress, sixth, 25.5 points; seventh Jacksboro, 22 points; eighth, Quanah, 15 points; ninth, Stamford, 10 points.

"We have to extend our opportunity beyond the old concept of food, clothing and shelter. Our society also owes medical attention, education and an opportunity to serve the community. We should say these are yours just because you are living and breathing and because we have the ability to do it.

"But if you want something like a colored TV set, we believe you should go out and work for it," he continued.

Mr. Baughman called for a program to strengthen the family farm, believing that this will have to be done soon to keep that part of America great.

Kenneth Moss brought greetings from the state organization and Rudie Tate spoke briefly on the National Convention at Houston. Bob Mullins, State Green Thumb director, accompanied Mr. Baughman here.

Mayor John Coleman welcomed the guests, and entertainment was by Elvis Sain, country and western singer.

Donald Langley, Collingsworth FU president, was master of ceremonies.

Farmers Union members attended from these counties, Carson, Deaf Smith, Oldham, Potter, Randall, Gray, Roberts, Collingsworth and Swisher counties.

Pheasants Make Good Progress on Coastal Plain

AUSTIN -- After seven years of effort, the stocking of pheasants along the coastal plains of Texas is showing promise, according to Texas Parks and Wildlife Department biologists.

Beginning in 1964, ring-necked pheasants were stocked in rice fields in the eastern portion of the state. The birds came from California, where they were captured in habitat similar to that in which they were released, and from pens, where they were reared especially for release.

Achievements Told to Quail School Patrons

Accomplishments of Quail students and improvements to the school plant were emphasized at the annual Open House, held Monday evening, March 6, in observance of Texas Public Schools Week.

The largest crowd to attend an open house in a number of years first visited the classrooms, where the day-to-day work of the boys and girls was on display.

Supt. James Stavenhagen, during the assembly program, and briefly told what it takes to make a school or contribute to the educational process.

"I feel we have to start by asking, Where are we? Where do we want to go from there? and What steps are we going to take to reach this goal? There are some things Quail students have done during the year that make us believe we are going in the right direction," he said.

These included achievements in the county fair, soil conservation competition, on livestock and dairy cattle judging teams and as the district champion basketball team. He cited the graduates who went on to college.

Next Mr. Stavenhagen pointed out the physical plant improvements, so the patrons will know where their tax money is spent. Among these are renovation of the lunch room and home economics cottage, painting and repair work on the building. He credited the Homemaker Chapter with its work on the home cottage and Quail Lions for their contributions.

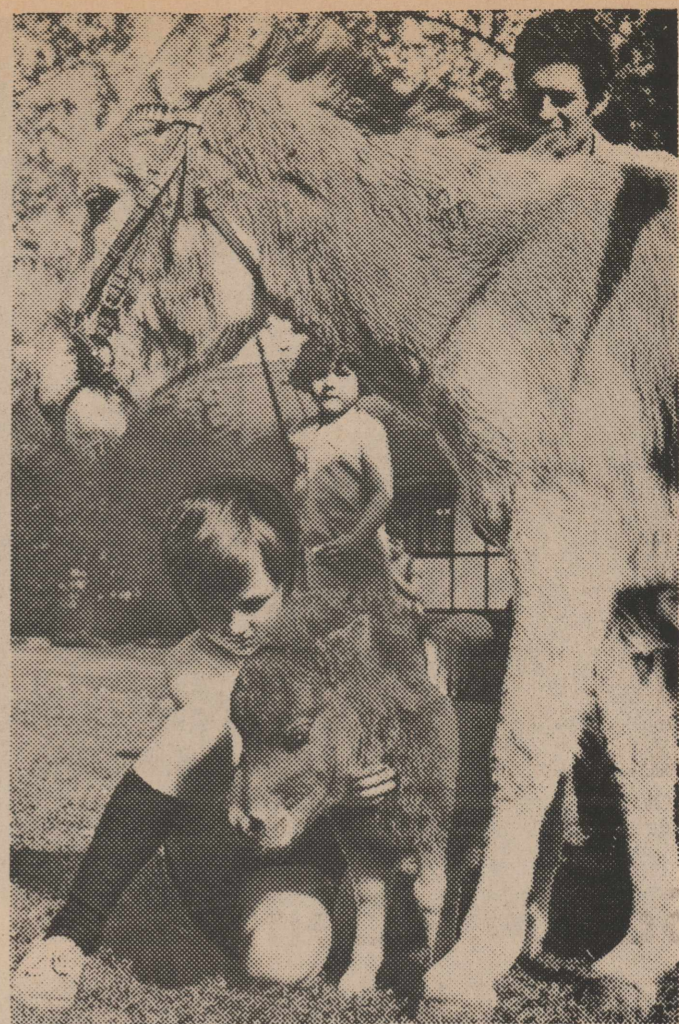

"We have other goals we are striving to reach and other projects that are planned for the remainder of the year and summer months. We feel this school and this community are doing their part to turn out worthwhile citizens for our democracy," he concluded.

A program of music was given by children of the grade school and the high school girls chorus under the direction of Mrs. Patsy Bowen, who joined the faculty in mid-January.

Coach Bill Wilson presented basketball jackets to Seven Quails and Bobwhites, all with junior basketball eligibility. These were Terry Canada, Sherri Canada, Sandra Sullivan, Larry McCann, Calvin Green, Janet Patterson, and Jerry Alston. A sweater was presented to Mrs. Carl Wischkaemper, the girls team sponsor.

To conclude the open house, those present went to the home economics cottage for refreshments and visitation, and to see for themselves the improvements in the building and its furnishings.

Approximately 115 attended.

Satellite Center Work Shown to 128

Visitors attending the day-long open house at the Satellite Training and Work Center Tuesday, February 29, saw the day to day activities in which the students participate, and from which they learn.

Those coming in the morning saw the children at work; afternoon visitors saw the activities in which adults participate.

Here to explain the over all program were two staff members of the Amarillo Human Development Center, of which the Wellington unit is a part, Mrs. Ruth Curley, Co-ordinator of volunteer services and Philip Wright, a program executive.

Mrs. Dan Hiatt, teacher, and Mrs. Bill Lindsey, teacher's aid, told of the work of the local group.

The students had prepared some of their crafts from class work and by the end of the day, most of these had been purchased.

Overall plans were handled by the project chairman, Mrs. Bill Hall and the Rev. Philip Daniels.

During the day, students from the Childress Satellite Center, along with their instructor, Mrs. Hazlewood, and Mrs. Barbara Moates, came to visit.

Altogether, 128 persons attended. "People came, and that was what was so great," said Mrs. B.M. Sims, chairman of the advisory committee.

"It was better even than we had expected," added Mrs. Lindsey. "We appreciate the concern of the people, and we encourage visitors to come. It is open every day for visitors. Their coming encourages the students to do better in their work, and they love to have visitors." Seven students attend the morning session and seven in the afternoon. There are other who may begin as soon as the required preliminary testing is completed.

US 83 Improvement Will Bring New Advantages

A major impact on the future of Collingsworth County will come from the announcement of the Texas Highway Department of the widening of US 83 from Lutie north, and additional work south to Wellington, including the mile at the north edge of town.

By the end of 1974, we will have a four-lane highway north to the county line, and eventually we may expect the same improvement to the south.

Each phase of Highway 83 improvement boosts our economy. On the short range, there will be new people and new money in the county for the next two years, reminding that every dollar changes hands 8 times before it leaves the community.

The long range benefit will be much greater. Wellington is the home of a major livestock and commodity carrier, Cudd Brothers, who have rendered outstanding service to the area. Two major motor freight companies, Mistletoe and Curry, have terminals here operated efficiently by local people.

US 83 improvement will make it easier to get livestock into and out of the county, a plus in future Feedlot operations.

It will strengthen US 83 as a major route across the heartland of America, the easiest of all routes to bring both summer and winter tourists to the Texas Vacationland.

These are steps in putting us on the beaten track, which we have so long felt we are off of.

Other Editors Say . . .

Quick Peace

Peace may come quickly in Vietnam when the United States withdraws its troops. Probably there would be peace in Vietnam today if we had never intervened.

But do you know what kind of peace? In the American mind, peace and freedom are a single thought, almost as if peace and freedom were the same word.

Not so in the Communists lexicon. As Communists used the word "peace" means the absence of resistance to communism — nothing more, nothing less.

Communist peace does not come easily but it comes quickly — as quickly as the last man or woman who resists communism is killed or driven underground.

Then there is quiet, and the Communists and the blind doves call it peace.

— Paul Timmons in The Amarillo News.

Wisdom

"My boy," said the old man to his son, "integrity and wisdom are the keys to business success. By integrity I mean that when you promise the delivery of goods on a certain day, you see to it that they are delivered on that day."

"Fine," said the son. "But what is wisdom?"

"Not to make such promises!"

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights

by Bill Boykin
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN, Tex. -- Leaders of both Democratic and Republican state parties will meet March 13 for major decisions as well as routine housekeeping duties.

Texas law requires executive committees of political parties on that date to certify statewide candidates, set ratios for state convention delegate selection, fix hours and sites for June 13 and September 19 state conventions and select a place to canvass May 6 primary returns.

National GOP Committee-man Peter O'Donnell Jr. gave Republicans something else to think about when he expectedly submitted his resignation, the vacancy to be filled at the statutory R.E.C. meeting in Austin.

State Rep. Fred Agnich of Dallas is the overwhelming choice to succeed O'Donnell as committeeman, and may get the job unopposed.

Time is also getting close for Republicans to adopt a formal set of written rules for operation of party conventions and regular operations, although that is considered no great problem for the GOP.

Rules writing is a problem of major proportions for Democrats. April 6 is the deadline under new state law for the parties to submit their rules drafts to the secretary of state.

Democrats are expected to make a choice at the March 13 meeting between a set of reform rules drawn under direction of William R. Anderson Jr. of Corpus Christi and a watered-down draft which opponents claim perpetuates the winner-take-all system of convention operations.

Supporters of the Anderson rules claim a majority of the State Democratic Executive Committee will adopt them in preference to the alternative which has SDEC rules subcommittee approval.

Rumors persist that SDEC Chairman Roy Orr of DeSoto may resign his post at the Austin meeting. Gov. Preston Smith is backing Anderson to succeed him. Orr early this year became a Dallas County commissioner, and questions have been raised about his holding both positions.

COURTS SPEAK -- Texas Supreme Court has agreed to decide whether party primary election costs can be paid from state funds without special legislative authorization.

The High Court heard arguments in the historic case Monday (March 6). Secretary of State Bob Bullock claims he has power to make rules for conduct and financing of the May and June primaries. Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin maintains only the legislature can provide the money -- in this case via special session. Martin tried unsuccessfully to prevent Bullock from bringing the mandamus action against Comptroller Robert S. Calvert to force payment of two minor preliminary election bills.

MUSTANG CONTROVERSY REVIVED -- Parks and Wildlife Commissioners postponed for 60 days a showdown on a proposed purchase of 3,965 acres on Mustang Island for a park development after earlier voting to forget the whole thing.

Commissioners voted two-to-one to kill the $4.2 million island purchase, with three new members abstaining. They agreed to hold off on a firm decision, however, following legal advice that a majority -- at least four of six members -- had to vote to make action binding.

Former Commission Chairman Pearce Johnson blocked the Mustang purchase early last year with a federal court suit. A higher court reversed the lower court decision, throwing the decision back to the Commission.

SALES TAX LOSS TOLD -- A Senate committee's staff report that at least $12 million a year is being lost by the state in uncollected sales taxes due to alleged faculty administration by the state comptroller's office is figuring in three campaigns.

Sen. Joe Christie of El Paso, chairman of the senate committee, is talking about it in his race for lieutenant governor.

Randy Pendleton of Andrews, a candidate for comptroller, blames the loss on Comptroller Robert S. Calvert and Attorney General candidate John Hill of Houston claims Attorney General Martin should be more diligent in filing tax collection suits.

AG OPINIONS-- A public school district can permit neighboring parochial school students to participate in its music (band) program, Attorney General Martin held.

In a flood of other recent opinions, Martin concluded: * Parks and Wildlife Department is not authorized to appoint any game wardens, salaried or non-salaried, other than those permitted under the current state appropriations act. PWD further has no appropriation to buy a white-winged dove habitat.

* Wichita Falls city officials can collect Wichita Falls Independent School District delinquent taxes at a penalty rate of 10 per cent.

* The state treasurer may accept mortgage-backed serial notes as collateral for state deposits if payment is unconditionally guaranteed.

* Where three districts vote on school consolidation and the proposition fails in the third, but the first two subsequently consolidate, another election cannot be held for at least a year on consolidating the third district with the other two.

* A court has discretion whether criminal case judgments and sentences will be announced orally and subsequently entered by the clerk or prepared in writing by the clerk and signed before being entered.

HORSE OWNERS WARNED -- Horse owners have been warned to have their animals immunized for protection against another Venezuelan Equine Encephalomyelitis (VEE) outbreak this spring and summer.

A Texas Veterinary Medical Association spokesman said foals born since the 1971 epidemic and horses vaccinated under six months of age during the epidemic or afterwards are prime targets for exposure.

CROP INSURANCE CHANGED -- New changes in the crop hail insurance aimed at savings on premium costs to farmers were reported by the State Board of Insurance last week.

Bringing Up the Big Guns

Tizzy

The new "stepladder policy" will enable cotton growers for example, to buy insurance after July 1 at a drastically-reduced rate. Value of the coverage increases as the crop grows in value. Policies are cheaper after July 1 because hail usually ends with May and June.

SHORT SNORTS

A qualified 18-year-old voter can run for municipal office in Midland where there is no statutory or legal barrier, Secretary of State Bullock held.

Former State Sen. Grady Hazlewood of Amarillo is campaigning for tougher parole eligibility regulations in the prison systems.

Texas Highway Commission approved a $240 million, two year program for development of almost 2,000 miles of highways.

CROSSROADS REPORT

Dear Editor:

Over several centuries some wise man's saying that "birds of a feather flock together" has been widely accepted as a sort of Law of Nature.

But this law has been ruled Unconstitutional by U.S. courts, and Nature might as well accommodate herself to being overruled.

It will take some doing but our courts and our bus factories are equal to it, and bird families such as robins may soon have to get used to having their offspring bussed every day over to, say, a cardinal family training session, and vice versa.

D.E. SCOTT
Crossroads, U.S.A.

The first early childhood development program under the Texas Department of Community Affairs began operations last week in Corpus Christi.

A Democratic Senate candidate, Thomas M. Cartledge, plans a 300-mile walking tour to dramatize the high cost of campaigning.

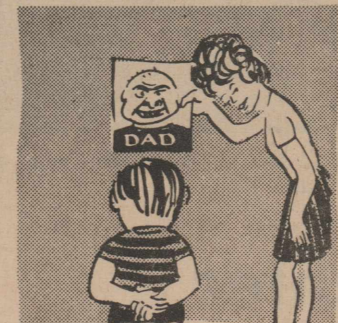

Texas urban construction, measured by building authorizations, declined slightly as 1972 began, but in dollar value, without seasonal adjustment, construction permits advanced 24 per cent in January

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Poisoning Child's Mind

"Your father is a mean, nasty man. Stay away from him or he will whip you with a great big strap."

Laura, recently divorced, kept drumming this warning into her five-year-old son. She had been given custody of the child at the time of the divorce, and she meant to tighten her grip on him by any and all means.

Actually, her ex-husband was devoted to the boy. When he found out about Laura's tactics, he haled her into court. The judge took the matter so seriously that he changed the custody order, transferring the boy from his mother to his father.

As a general rule, the law condemns efforts by one divorced parent to poison the mind of the child against the other. It condemns "implanting in his tender mind the seeds of hate and the cankerous beginnings of malice toward those whom he should cherish."

Likewise, the law frowns on the use of the child as a pawn in financial bargaining. For example:

A divorcee constantly belittled her ex-husband to their small daughter. But she also let him know that she would stop as soon as he agreed to a large cash settlement.

Again, a court denounced her tactics and switched custody from mother to father. The court said she had no right to use the child as a kind of blackmail weapon for her own benefit.

Strictly Fresh

A slave driver is the fellow who pilots the 7:15 bus into the city.

When in many a hospital, one of the greatest inducements to get well is the food.

In our neck of the woods, March is the month when you take off the snow tires, drain the antifreeze and, the next day, get a cracked engine block while stalled in a snowdrift.

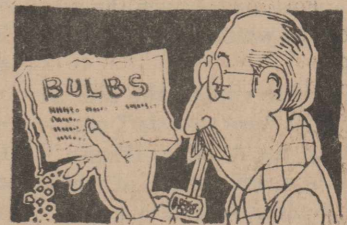

It's spring when the neighbor comes over to borrow a can of gas to fuel the mower he borrowed for one final lawn trim last fall.

If you come to see us, keep your temper: we have all we can do to control our own.

Now that winter's about done for, they'll be sealing those bus windows that haven't stayed closed since last November.

One way to get a snarl from the boss is to put the bite on him for an advance.

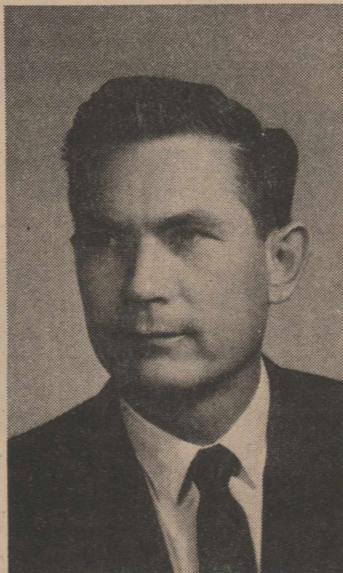

Now is about the time when one discovers—back of the sofa—the box of replacement bulbs for the Christmas tree.

Texas, Oklahoma Top Producers Of Athletes

STILLWATER - Studies by an Oklahoma State University geographer have revealed Texas ranks second and Oklahoma ninth in per capita production of major college football players.

Further, Texas ranks fourth and Oklahoma 16th in total football player production.

"Together they account for over 10 percent of the nation's major college players," says Dr. John Rooney, who describes himself as a frustrated athlete turned geographer.

Rooney says the top state per capita-wise is Ohio, followed by Texas, Utah, Delaware, Mississippi, New Hampshire, Pennsylvania, Kansas, Oklahoma and West Virginia.

California tops all states in total production, followed by Ohio, Pennsylvania, Texas, Illinois, New York, New Jersey, Massachusetts, Michigan and Florida.

In the past five years Rooney, who is head of the OSU geography department, has sampled some 140 major college and university athletic departments to determine where their athletes come from.

Portions of his findings have been published in the Geographical Review, Journal of Proceedings of the Oklahoma Academy of Sciences, and PRO, magazine of the National Football League.

Rooney lists several reasons why Texas and Oklahoma produce so many talented college gridders:

- Strong emphasis on rugged individualism, self-discipline and militarism which is manifested on the gridiron.
- Strong community support of winning teams.
- Mild fall weather which makes for long seasons, including playoffs.
- Lack of conflicting extra-curricular activities which permits more emphasis on football.
- And lots of opportunity for the better players to play major college football.

"It is easy to say football prowess in Oklahoma and Texas is the result of some type of socio-cultural emphasis," Rooney claims.

"Also, good high school football programs are likely to be associated with high levels of community support." He cited the fact that many small Texas towns have football stadiums which seat two to three times the population of the community.

Rooney also notes a Texas or Oklahoma gridders has a much lower propensity to migrate out of state than does the average major college recruit.

Father Tash to Speak At WHS Drug Program

Father Joseph T. Tash, the Panhandle's foremost leader in the fight on drug abuse, will talk to Wellington High School and Junior High School students Thursday, March 9.

This is part of the continuing drug education program now mandatory above the fifth grade in all Texas Schools.

Joe Frank Knoll Heads Norwood Ex-Students Assn.

Joe Frank Knoll was elected president of the Samnorwood Ex-Students Association in a meeting Tuesday night, February 22, in which plans were begun for the 1972 Reunion on Saturday, July 1.

Elected to serve with him are Rex Peoples, superintendent of Schools, vice president; Mrs. Joe Frank Knoll (Lois Ameron) secretary; Kay Purkey Macina, corresponding secretary; and Helen Carreker Williams, reporter.

The Reunion Committees were appointed and include: Barbecue, Paul Schaub; evening socials, Rudy Tate and Wayne Johnson; afternoon program, Doug Coleman and Rex Peoples; registration of ex-students, Bonita Tate Myers; necrology, Donald Coleman.

In their last meeting, the ex-students also voted to donate an ice machine to the school with money left from the last reunion.

The outgoing president is Rudie Tate with Mrs. Tate as secretary.

The Ex-Students Reunion is held every three years. Committees have been named, and these will report in a progress meeting scheduled for Tuesday, March 28, in the foyer of the Samnorwood gym, beginning at 7:30 p.m.

All ex-students in the area are urged to attend these meetings and take part in the plans for the 1972 reunion, the officers urge.

Miss Glenda Kiker, student at Bethany Nazarene College, is spending spring vacation with her grandmother, Mrs. O.A. Kiker and her parents Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Kiker. Dwane Wasemiller of Oklahoma City was also a guest of the Kikers during the week end.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Troy Gardner from Wednesday evening until Sunday were their three grandchildren, Christy, Kari, and K.C. Tuckness of Amarillo. They are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Terry Tuckness.

Mrs. J.L. Burt, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ford, and Mrs. and Mrs. Roy Brinson, of Fritch, were in Wichita Falls, Saturday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Burt's sister, Mrs. B.R. James.

according to Jimmy Forrester, chairman of the drug program here.

Father Tash will speak twice, including students from grades 5 through 8 in one group and those in grades 9 through 12 in the other.

His assignment as chaplain of St. Anthony's Hospital in Amarillo is only one part of Father Tash's work. Since coming to Amarillo, he has spoken before both adult and youth groups and worked with drug programs throughout the area.

Much of his work, however is on a one-to-one basis with the drug user, and it reaches those of all stratas of society.

He is presently working with a rehabilitation house in Amarillo for those trying to overcome addiction.

Father Tash has spoken in the county several times prior to this. He was speaker for a combined parent-student group at Samnorwood, and last June he discussed the drug problem for the Kiwanis Club. A month later, he conducted a drug seminar for Kiwanis International at its annual convention in San Francisco.

He recently returned from a visit to Spain.

Deck's DIDACTICS

—by Deskins Wells

OKLAHOMA turned down the $250 million super highway bond issue by an overwhelming vote. In the Panhandle counties, north of the Texas Panhandle the vote was 5 to 1. The issue was not treated so roughly east of us in Harmon County where the vote was over 2 to 1 against. Gary Reid, the Hollis editor, says the reason was they did not allow sufficient time for the people to evaluate the proposition. Be that as it may, the election failed with a bang.

WHEN YOU travel the highways of other states, particularly the roads that are not free-ways, you get a new appreciation of the highway system of Texas. From the farm to market roads to the mighty freeways, the highways of Texas are a marvel of technology and efficiency and a monument to honesty. Most people believe the excellence is due to the fact that the system has been kept relatively free of politics.

THIS BRINGS to mind the fact that we will have some very desirable construction underway in this county in the coming months.

THERE IS AN embattled coach over at Eastern New Mexico University who insists on discipline among his athletes, and some studying regardless of whether they be black or white. One black athlete quit because the coach made him run two extra laps. Others quit because his rules hurt their dignity. He made them wear a coat and tie on road trips. He also insists that students pass their grades. More power to him.

SOME DAY some imaginative sports writer will become famous by calling thinclads - trackmen. He might go on further glory by calling a quietest a basketball team. He might call the hot corner - third base. The ultimate in new expression would be to refer to the gridiron as a football field.

THERE WAS a full moon on Feb. 29. Some mathematician has it figured out that it will be 900 years before this celestial event happens on that particular calendar date again. The reason we have Leap Year is that a true year - one revolution of the Earth around the sun - is 365 1/4 days long. Adding an extra day every fourth year is supposed to take care of the extra one fourth day, except it does not quite do it.

A SOLAR year is not exactly 365 1/4 days. It is actually 11 minutes and 14 seconds less. In case you believe all mans thinking has been done in recent years you might be interested to know that an old English monk, named Bede, figured it out in 730 A.D. To keep the calendar from getting out of whack, it was decided that three out of four turn of the century years, such as 1900, would have no Leap Year and no Feb. 29.

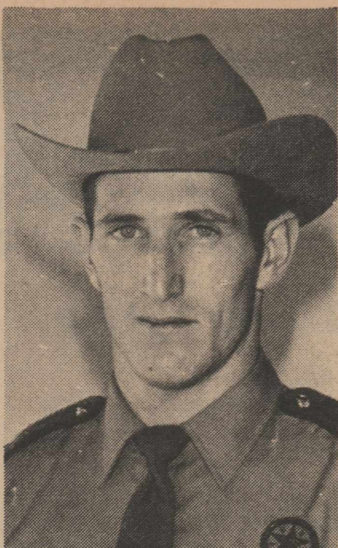

#5—continued from page 1 the widening and reconditioning of U.S. Highway 83, extending from F.M. Road 1439, South, to the North City Limit of Wellington, a distance of 11.2 miles. This is in addition to the original funding of $1,579,000 which was provided for this construction project on a previous program.

The proposed work on U.S. Highway 83 will be under the supervision of O.V. Johnson, Supervising Resident Engineer in Wellington, Texas.

JACKIE GUNNELS

Gunnels Named DPS Patrolman For County

Jackie Gunnels, who recently completed the 18-week course at the Department of Public Safety Academy in Austin, has been assigned as a patrolman serving Collingsworth County.

He succeeds Don Gosnell, who transferred to Rising Star. Mr. Gunnels has been with the DPS 5 months.

His wife, Brenda, will join him in a few days, and they will live at 1109 El Paso Street.

Tulia is the home town of both, but they lived in Amarillo a year before he joined the DPS. They were graduated from Tulia High School and he attended West Texas State University two years. His hobbies are golf, fishing and hunting.

Mrs. Gunnels is a member of the Catholic Church and he is a Baptist.

#1—continued from page 1 period in English history. Father seldom talks about that now, looking on it as a best-forgotten nightmare.

The British priest has coached boys in Soccer in all the towns in which he has been stationed, including Wellington, and has introduced the world's most popular game to this part of America with great enthusiasm and experience. He also enjoys boxing, tennis, table-tennis, hockey, basketball and the Irish game of hurling.

Father Pat attended schools in England and Ireland, before going to the seminary in Hertford, England, to study for the priesthood. Among his academic achievements are a Bachelor's degree in Education, a Licentiate in Sacred Theology, a Higher Diploma of Education, a Licentiate in Sacred Scripture, and a Master's degree in English Literature from famed Cambridge University.

He is very fond of travelling, and has been to practically all of the nations of the world, with the exceptions of the Soviet Union and Red China. He is a friend of the Kennedy family for many years, and still visits them in Massachusetts en route to visit his family in Europe each summer.

Father Pat has been a chaplain in the Reserve Air Force since 1957, and volunteered for a week's replacement duty in Vietnam a few years ago. His parents shuttle between the old home in London, a house in Dublin, Ireland, a summer cabin in the English Lake District, and a small chalet in Lucerne, Switzerland.

Father says he is very fond of Wellington and it's people, and the parish has grown from 20 families to 60 during his administration, with a full church every Sunday, consisting largely of young people, with whom he has a great rapport. He also presides over a thriving St. Patrick's Church in Shamrock.

He is happy about the fact that so many people have asked him if he is staying here or moving to Shamrock after the Dominican Sisters leave.

#3—continued from page 1 the boys at 7:30.

The girls consolation finals will begin at 1:00 p.m. Saturday and the boys consolation finals at 2:15.

Third place in the girls division will be determined in a game beginning at 3:30, and the boys will play at 5:30.

Girls Championship finals will start at 6:30 and the boys championship game will begin at 8:00 p.m.

Teachers Hear Marian Giles, Named to Frostig Institute

A gifted teacher who spent her childhood in Wellington, Dr. Marian Giles, returned Monday night, February 28, for a down-to-earth talk with fellow teachers about the thing she knows best, learning the disabilities of children.

Now the Director of Special Education at Midwestern University, Wichita Falls, she was the guest speaker at the annual banquet of the Collingsworth County unit of the Texas State Teachers Association.

She brought her home town a generous gift, for her audience was among the first to hear that Dr. Giles has been named Director of Teacher Training and Research at the Marian Frostig Institute in Los Angeles, known world-wide for its work and research relating to learning disabilities of children. She will succeed Dr. Frostig, Jim Bob Nall showed in the light weight Hereford class and Jenny Earnest in the heavy weight Angus class.

But Jenny's big moment came, not with her own calf, but when she showed the Polled Hereford steer belonging to Starla Mann of Clarendon, as it was judged the Grand Champion of its breed in the Astrodome before a crowd of 40,000. Starla was unable to attend the show.

Approximately 1500 steers were entered in the Junior Livestock Show, a record number anywhere in any steer show, Mr. Reeves said. Approximately 350 were sifted.

"I thought our calves looked real good and we had lots of favorable comment, especially that they were real fresh looking," the county agent continued.

All of the Collingsworth steers were sold in Houston, bringing from 57 down to 51 cents per pound.

The young exhibitors also attended the Rodeo and other events held in connection with the Stock Show.

The Wellington group, Keith, Allen, Jim Bob and Jenny also visited Larry Wright, who is receiving treatment in M.D. Anderson Hospital and Tumor Institute.

Accompanying the exhibitors were Mr. Reeves, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ross, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fulcher and Neal Davis.

who is retiring. She reminded that only a few nights earlier, the Marian Frostig Institute was accurately featured on a segment of TV's "Dr. Welby."

Her enthusiasm for her new work was spoken softly, but underscored with every sparkle of her brown eyes.

"Dr. Frostig found I was doing everything like her. Our philosophy is the same. It is as if one of us could start a sentence and the other finish it," she said later.

She will begin work at the Institute in September. Her rancher husband, Bob Giles, could not come with her to Wellington, as he was looking for ranch land in Southern California.

Speaking to the teachers, school board members and their guests, she covered in well-ordered succession the various learning problems of children, some hearing, or visual, or the problem of the fast learner

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Strong and Mrs. Billy Joe Cunningham of Amarillo have been at the bedside of their father, J.M. Strong, in the Hollis Hospital. They also visited here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Wheeler visited recently with their children in Amarillo.

er and fast forgetter, children who are confused (we must help them get unconfused, she said) the child whose mind doesn't process learning correctly, and a number of others.

After covering these learning disorders, she added: "But the kids I am worried about are those without responsibility. Kids need to know there is something they can contribute to the family. They must feel they are a working, paying, member of society."

Relaxing later with friends, she raised the possibility that children may be given too much to learn too fast, that the material handed them may be too difficult.

She spoke out for memory work for children, and home work.

If Marian Giles had harsh words in Wellington, they were for the teacher who does not love her students - all her students.

Dr. Giles reminded that she was born in Wellington, at home and before a doctor arrived. Her father, V.L. Taylor, was then associated with Oran Starkey. "Carrie and Oran Starkey are like my second parents," she added.

Her mother was the late Frankie Latson Taylor, a poet of note, who also studied at West Texas State University. "I believe that for her I became a realization of her dreams," Dr. Giles said.

The family moved to Clarendon, then Memphis and in 1941 to Amarillo. Her father has operated V.L. Taylor Furniture and Appliance Co. for many years.

Dr. Giles has a B.S. degree from Abilene Christian College, Master of Education from West Texas State and Doctors degree from Northern Colorado University where her work was influenced by Dr. Kephart, recognized as the father of research in learning disorders.

She has taught at Ft. Worth, Abilene, Childress, and was a reading specialist in Houston and Corpus Christi schools. She came to Midwestern three years ago.

Her husband and children, Steve, 14 and Sheila 12, come into her conversation frequently. Both youngsters will be in gifted student program this summer.

She has written many articles in professional magazines, and March 23 will see the publication of her second book, "Individual Learning Disabilities, Classroom Screening Instrument. It has already been used in a pilot project in Wyoming and Nebraska.

How many children are there with learning disabilities in the United States? There is no way to tell, but Dr. Giles believes the figure may go as high as 10,000, 000.
