Rockefeller Not Candidate

Light Vote Expected

By JIM BRIGANCE
Associated Press Writer

Texans get a first hand opportunity Tuesday to do what most voters say they rarely have a chance to do-take a direct action in shaping their destinies.

Officials expect, however, that only about 20 to 25 per cent of Texas' five million voters will ballot on a proposed new state constitution.

The battle lines were slow in forming but toward the end of the issue interest sharpened along generally conservative and liberal philosophies.

But even one of the state's best known liberals, former gubernatorial contender Frances Farenthold, has opposed the new document.

The issue has divided Gov. Dolph Briscoe and his lieutenant, Bill Hobby. Briscoe has stumped across the state calling for defeat of all eight propositions related to the constitution while Hobby has been in the forefront for the constitution.

Opponents of the constitution say it gives state government too much power. Proponents say it provides much needed streamlining, and addresses itself directly to life in the 1970s. The present constitution was adopted in 1876.

The most controversial of the eight propositions on the ballot has been No. 1 which includes an article calling for annual sessions of the legislature. Another facet gives the governor more power to control agency operations and budgets.

Perhaps the two articles which have generated the least fuss are No. 2 and No. 6. The first would merge the state's highest appeals courts to handle both civil and criminal cases. The second would give voters the authority to banish, combine or create county offices with county commissioners handed the power to make and enforce ordinances.

Sen. Peyton McKnight, D-Tyler, has headed a statewide group opposing the constitution. "Can you imagine the turmoil 10 years hence? It puts every agency-those with responsibility for essential services such as mental health, and mental retardation, law enforcement, rehabilitation, highways and parks-in the position of lobbying for continuing their existence instead of doing their jobs. It would also create an atmosphere for personal vendetta by legislators against various state agencies," he said.

Robert W. Calvert, former chief justice of the Texas Supreme Court, is among those favoring adoption of the new document. He said it makes no sense to budget two years in advance for a $6 billion-a-year government.

Larry Margolis, director of the Citizens Conference on State Legislatures, says "The growing complexities of the job of legislator and of the problems of the state which the legislature is called upon to manage have far outpaced the growth of compensation."

An opponent, former Gov. Preston Smith, argued: "My experience has been that the more they meet the more money they spend and the more taxes we have to pay."

Brazoria County Commissioner Joe Brigance, lined up with McKnight against the constitution, said "If you like what Congress is doing to the country these days you'd love a Texas legislature that sits every year."

Polls open at 7 a.m. Tuesday at most places and all must close at 7 p.m.

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Monday, November 3, the 307th day of 1975. There are 58 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1936, President Franklin Roosevelt's New Deal got a vote of confidence at the polls. Republican presidential candidate Alf Landon carried only Maine and Vermont.

On this date:

In 561, Julian became Emperor of Rome on the death of Emperor Constantine.

In 1796, John Adams was elected the second President of the United States.

In 1868, the Republican candidate for President, General Ulysses Grant, was elected over Horatio Seymour.

In 1883, the World Women's Christian Temperance Union was organized at a national convention in Chicago.

In 1903, the Republic of Panama was proclaimed.

In 1964, President Lyndon Johnson swamped Republican Barry Goldwater in a presidential election.

Ten years ago: Thirty-nine refugees trying to escape Cuba were reported drowned when their fishing boat sank after striking a reef off the coast of Mexico.

Five years ago: A Marxist, Salvadore Allende, became President of Chile.

One year ago: Secretary of State Kissinger announced that he would visit Egypt, Saudi Arabia, Jordan, Syria and Israel to explore possible next steps toward a Middle East Peace.

Dallas Bus Ruling Upheld

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court today let stand a federal court order which Dallas, Tex., school officials said would require them to bus pupils for integration.

The court declined to review a decision of the U.S. Circuit Court in New Orleans striking down an alternative plan which had been approved by U.S. District Judge W. M. Taylor Jr. of Dallas.

The circuit court said the alternative plan, involving classroom exchanges and the use of closed circuit television, did not meet constitutional requirements laid down by the Supreme Court.

It ordered the lower court to adopt an acceptable plan by the start of the second semester of the 1975-76 school year. On Sept. 17, Taylor rejected a plan proposed by the Dallas Independent School District, which called for busing 18,000 of the district's 145,000 students. He said it would leave 46 one-race schools operating. All parties were ordered to work on a new plan and the judge said a hearing would be held in November.

In their request for review, school officials said the circuit court had incorrectly interpreted a 1971 Supreme Court decision to "establish the legal principle that as a matter of law busing is mandatory in order to desegregate a large urban metropolitan district."

They also argued that the circuit court had disregarded a 1974 act of Congress limiting the power of federal courts to order busing of pupils.

"No citizen should be permitted to ignore the law and throw a brick at what that citizen considers to be an unacceptable school bus," they said. By the same token, they argued, "no court should be permitted to ignore the law and order a student transported at a time prohibited by law."

Rains Fall Over Area

Thundershowers produced substantial mounts of moisture over much of the Snyder area Saturday night and early Sunday as a cool front drifted southward.

Some measurements in unofficial guages ranged up to 2.50 inches. The official guage at the city water plant in Snyder measured 1.95 inches of rainfall, and 1.60 inches fell at the Lake J. B. Thomas dam. There were no reports of runoff into the lake, however.

The rains are expected to give winter grain crops a needed boost.

MONEY FOR A FENCE— Snyder Jaycees donated $250 to the Snyder Day Care Center today to be applied to the purchase of a fence for the center. The Day Care Center opened its doors this morning for the first time at the new location at 115 Thirty-first Street. Presenting the check to Vivian Dyer, director of the center, is Tommy LaRoux, Jaycee President. Also pictured are Bob Clifton, chaplain, left, and Lynn Smith, first vice president of the Jaycees.

CONGRESSMEN TOLD

Ford Will Name Rumsfeld, Bush

By FRED S. HOFFMAN
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Ford told congressional leaders today he plans to name White House Chief of Staff Donald Rumsfeld as secretary of defense and George Bush, now U.S. representative in Peking, as head of the Central Intelligence Agency.

Word on those appointments came even before Ford formally announced the ouster of Secretary of Defense James R. Schlesinger and CIA Director William Colby.

Pentagon sources, reporting this shakeup in the top echelons of the administration, also said that Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger will relinquish his second job as chairman of the National Security Council.

A Republican source said Air Force Lt. Gen. Brent Scowcroft, Kissinger's deputy and protege, will replace the secretary of state as NSC chairman.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield said Ford called him at mid-morning with word of the Bush and Rumsfeld appointments. He said the President denied that Kissinger, who has been at odds with Schlesinger, was behind the shakeup.

"The President told me what he did he was doing on his own," Mansfield said. "He said that for some time he had wanted to set up his own team."

Mansfield also said he considers Rumsfeld and Bush to be excellent choices.

Meanwhile, it was reported that Senate Republican Leader Hugh Scott is a prime prospect to succeed Bush as the U.S. emissary to China. Scott said he had not been offered the job.

Scott faces a difficult race for re-election in Pennsylvania next year, is a noted collector and historian of Chinese art, and has made no secret of his interest in some day representing the United States in China.

Amid the administration upheaval, which also included an announcement by Vice President Nelson A. Rockefeller that he will not be a candidate for that job next year, a White House party that was about to fly to China was suddenly told not to take off from Andrews Air Force Base, Md.

More than 40 aides and technicians were ready to go when the White House said their trip was postponed, probably until later in the week. Ford is scheduled to go to China late in November.

Ford called a nationally-televised news conference for tonight.

Voting Begins In Scurry At 8 A. M.

Scurry County voters will join voters of the state in deciding whether to adopt a new state constitution tomorrow.

The polls open at 8 a.m. Tuesday and will remain open until 7 p.m. There are 14 voting precincts in the county. The voters may approve or reject any or all of eight parts of the proposed constitition.

Beverly Ainsworth, county clerk, said 49 absentee votes were cast before absentee voting closed last Friday at the courthouse.

Voting precincts, location, and election judges follow:

Precinct 1, northeast Snyder, north side of coliseum, Delbert Hirst.

Precinct 2, Loyd Mountain, Northeast community center, Sam Cross.

Precinct 5, Fluvanna, community center, Paul Turner.

Precinct 6, Union, community center, Mrs. Tommy Pate.

Precinct 7, Bison, Knapp community center, Mickey Sterling.

Precinct 9, Ira, community center, Grady Moore.

Precinct 10, Dunn, community center, W. J. Fuller.

Precinct 13, Hermleigh, community center, A. E. Sturdivant.

Precinct 15, south Snyder, school administration building, L. A. Patterson.

Precinct 17, northwest Snyder, city hall, Mrs. Lawton Taylor.

Precinct 18, southwest Snyder, fire station on El Paso Street, Hilton Lambert.

Precinct 19, Crowder, Union community center, Kenneth Smith.

Precinct 20, southeast Snyder, south side of coliseum, Gene Bowlin.

Precinct 21, absentee, county clerk's office, Jenna Vee Miller.

Box 4 (Dermott) now votes in part at Fluvanna and part at northwest Snyder. Box 8 (China Grove) now votes at Dunn. Box 12 (Inadale) now votes in Hermleigh. Box 14 (Camp Springs) now votes at Loyd Mountain.

Constitution Information

If you have questions about the proposed new Texas Constitution and desire last-minute information concerning any part of it, there is a toll-free number that you may call.

The number is 1-800-292-9628.

State Rep. Mike Ezzell has reminded that calls to this number will be answered between the hours of 10 a.m. and 6 p.m.

New Two- Dollar Bill Announced

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government officially announced today it will issue a new $2 bill on April 13, 1976. The date will be the birthday of Thomas Jefferson, whose portrait will be on the bill.

Treasury Secretary William E. Simon said he hopes Americans will make wide use of the new bill, since it is intended both to save the government $4 million a year in printing costs and also to reduce the volume of currency Americans carry.

The $2 bill, which dates back in the nation's history to 1776, was removed from circulation in 1966 because of a lack of interest by Americans, who preferred using the $1 bill in preference to the $2.

Jefferson, the third President of the United States, also was on the front of the last issue of the $2 bill.

Treasury officials said they also considered other prominent persons, including civil rights leader Martin Luther King and suffragette Susan B. Anthony, but decided Jefferson was the most appropriate.

There will be a change in the back of the bill. It will feature a rendition of the signing of the Declaration of Independence, as painted by John Trumbull after the American Revolution.

Although the bill is being issued in connection with celebration of the nation's 200th birthday, Simon said it is intended as an important and continuing piece of national currency.

He said about 225 million of the new bills will be available for circulation by banks in time for the April 13 release date, and he said annual production will be about $400 million.

Officials said they anticipate few problems in the retail and banking business because of the new bill. They said a similar bill circulates in Canada without causing any problems in handling by businesses.

In the nearly 10 years since the bill was withdrawn from circulation, the value of a dollar has declined to 61 cents of what it was then. That means the two-dollar bill would be worth only $1.22 cents of its 1966 value.

In fact, the inflation of recent years is a major reason for bringing back the bill.

Contractor's Bond Accepted

County Commissioners this morning accepted the bond of Jerry Stephens of Big Spring for demolition of the old Travis Junior High School building.

He posted $30,000 bond and will complete the demolition within 120 days.

Commissioners also met with architect J. D. Hinton to discuss construction plans for a new Scurry County jail, but no formal action has been taken yet. Tentative plans call for the jail to be constructed on the site of the old Travis Junior High School with facilities for the Sheriff's Department, the Department of Public Safety, the Texas Ranger and prisoners.

Political Bolt Is Surprise

By WALTER R. MEARS
AP Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Nelson A. Rockefeller declared today that he does not want to be President Ford's running mate in 1976, stepping aside in a surprise move that dramatically altered the Republican campaign outlook.

He did so without explanation, saying only that:

"After much thought, I have decided ... that I do not wish my name to enter into your consideration for the upcoming Republican vice presidential nominee."

The move opened a potential scramble for vice presidential selection next year. It could cut into the planned White House challenge of former California Gov. Ronald Reagan, who has gained support from some conservatives inalterably opposed to Rockefeller.

It left the vice president's own political plans a giant question mark. There was no hint of discord in Rockefeller's letter to the President.

Rockefeller, 67, had run for the presidency three times himself, before becoming Ford's vice president.

His withdrawal from the Ford ticket led to immediate speculation that Rockefeller himself might once again go after the White House nomination.

A Rockefeller spokesman said he knew nothing of any such plan.

A Rockefeller aide said the vice president had discussed his decision with Ford in advance. The aide said he doubted the letter made public today came as a surprise to the President.

The aide declined to speculate as to whether Rockefeller made his move believing it would help Ford's election prospects next year.

White House press secretary Ron Nessen said Ford and Rockefeller had discussed the matter during the past few days and "are in complete understanding."

He said Rockefeller took the action at his own initiative, and that Ford had not asked him to step aside.

The Rockefeller announcement came a day after disclosure of a major shakeup in the top ranks of the administration.

Ford scheduled a nationally-televised news conference at 7:30 p.m. EST, with Rockefeller and the ouster of Secretary of Defense James R. Schlesinger and CIA Director William Colby certain to be the dominant topics.

Rockefeller was nominated for the vice presidency on Aug. 20, 1973, and sworn in, after lengthy congressional confirmation hearings, on Dec. 19.

The Rockefeller announcement, a political bolt no one had anticipated, could undercut the planned presidential challenge of former California Gov.

NELSON ROCKEFELLER
...going to sidelines

Ronald Reagan. The conservative Reagan had gained early support among Republicans who still see Rockefeller as the symbol of GOP liberalism.

Rockefeller's announcement was relayed by his press secretary Hugh Morrow, who said the vice president was delivering the letter to Ford today.

Rockefeller's decision means the Republican vice presidential spot will be an object of maneuver and potential political bargaining.

Rahman Killing Indicated

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — International communications with Bangladesh were snapped today, Dacca airport was closed and the country's radio network was interrupted, indicating that the group that killed President Mujibur Rahman in August was facing internal difficulties.

The state-run radio was off the air for about 9½ hours, then resumed broadcasts with a half-hour of patriotic songs, followed by five minutes of news dealing mainly with international developments.

After each song, an announcer broadcast such slogans as "freedom is the only mission of a nation," "those who love the country have the right to live," and "responsibility of the nation's economy and social progress is yours, mine and ours."

But there was no way to deduce from the first half hour of resumed transmission who was in control of Bangladesh. No names of any political personalities were mentioned in the initial broadcast.

Cable and Wireless, the international communications company with direct links to Bangladesh, said it lost satellite contact with Dacca at 7:38 a.m. and radio contact at 10:04 a.m., meaning the country was virtually cut off from the rest of the world.

A UNITED WAY AGENCY

Red Cross Symbol Of Voluntary Help

Through Red Cross, people all over the country— your neighbors— voluntarily help persons to recover from disaster. And these same neighbors help in many ways.

Caring about and caring for others are the ideals which inspired the formation of the Red Cross in the United States and around the world. These ideals have been put into action in programs of practical services to members of the armed forces, their families, veterans, and disaster victims. Red Cross also conducts service courses such as first aid, nursing, swimming, and lifesaving courses in individual communities everywhere. It's a means of helping the communitfes to be better prepared, better equipped, and better educated in order to care for persons.

With its cross of blood red as a symbol of health, help, and hope, Red Cross always stands ready as a service organization. It works with one purpose: to organize human kindness in order to meet emergencies.

In Snyder, Red Cross has five instructors in multimedia First Aid, and over 350 men and women have been taught in Red Cross-sponsored and supervised courses. It has also given assistance in Scurry County in time of flood, tornado, and other disasters.

As one local worker pointed out, Red Cross is an effective organization, for it is geared to local needs and is guided by people who understand not only those local needs, but also area-wide needs.

And the Red Cross serves generously another example of people helping people—through your United Way.

OVER QUARANTINE THREAT

Conflict Brews Between Texas Cattlemen, Feds

DALLAS (AP) — A conflict brewing between Texas cattlemen and the federal government threatens to bring a cattle quarantine which could cripple the already financially troubled industry in the state.

If the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) were to slap a quarantine on Texas' 17 million head of cattle, officials say the move could result in annual losses of more than $250 million and disrupt the teetering feedlot industry.

The problem is brucellosis, commonly called Bang's disease, a highly infectious bacterial disease that can spread like wildfire among cattle. In human beings, the disease is called undulant fever.

The two sides of the conflict:

—The USDA charges that the state and the cattlemen are not doing enough even to control Bang's disease, much less eradicate it.

—Cattlemen claim the program already in force is costing them millions of dollars a year and is not doing the job because the so-called "experts" don't know enough about brucellosis.

Bexar (San Antonio) and El Paso counties each have reported four confirmed cases of undulant fever in 1975. Dallas and Tarrant (Fort Worth) counties each have counted one case of the communicable disease out of the statewide total of 23 cases, according to Dr. M. S. Dickerson, chief of the Bureau of Communicable Disease Services in the Texas Department of Health Resources.

Even if the USDA stops short of a technical quarantine, the cattle industry could be seriously crippled unless it comes up with a satisfactory program to combat Bang's disease, says Dr. Wilson Boaz, chief veterinarian for an 18-county area in North Central Texas.

Boaz says only 23 of Texas' 254 counties are totally free of the disease.

The power to slap an embargo on Texas cattle already is on the books, says Boaz, who works both for the state and the federal governments.

But T. A. Cunningham of Goliad, president of the Independent Cattlemen's Association, says he is not frightened by the possibility of a quarantine.

Nine of the 13 cattle-producing states have a problem with brucellosis, which thrives in wet areas.

Less than 1 per cent of Texas cattle have brucellosis — no more than 50 years ago. We just have more cattle now," says Cunningham.

"What the federal and state governments need to do is go out and spend some money on research and leave us cattlemen alone in the meantime. We don't need tougher standards until we know what we are doing."

Cunningham maintains there is no menace to human beings at the current level of infection.

"Only 20 people in Texas have come down with undulant fever this year, and most of those are veterinarians and cattlemen," he said.

"Heck, look at the dairymen. They can continue to sell milk from a cow which has brucellosis."

FIRST IN FIFTEEN YEARS

Cargo For Israel Through Canal

TEL AVIV, Israel (AP) — Cargo for Israel — a load of Romanian cement in a Greek ship — has moved through the Suez Canal for the first time in at least 15 years.

The passage Sunday through the 103-mile waterway was made possible by the new Sinai accord negotiated by Secretary of State Henry Kissinger.

The 9,645-ton Olympus, which was leased to the Israeli Zim Lines, was due today at Israel's Red Sea port of Eilat, a government communique said. The ship was expected to spend several days taking on phosphate for Europe, then make the return trip back through the canal from south to north, a spokesman for the Transport Ministry said.

The Israeli Transport Ministry and the Suez Canal Authority in Egypt said they had no records of the last Israeli passage through the canal. Shipments to Israel through the waterway linking the Mediterranean and Red seas were believed common until Egypt nationalized the canal in 1956, but in 1959 Israel protested to the United Nations that Egypt was confiscating cargoes bound for Israel.

The Olympus moved under heavy security with a 20-ship convoy which sailed at dawn from Port Said, at the northern end of the canal, and entered the Gulf of Suez at sunset.

Egyptian officials barred newsmen and photographers from the canal area, saying they feared sabotage by Arab radicals or Palestinians who claim the Egyptian agreement with Israel betrayed the Arab cause. It was clear the Egyptians wanted to minimize the publicity.

Permission for the use of the canal for nonstrategic cargo going to and from Israel on ships not flying the Israeli flag was one of Egypt's major concessions in the agreement providing for the second Israeli troop withdrawal in the Sinai Desert. Israeli ships are still barred under the 1880 Treaty of Constantinople, which allows Egypt to keep ships from any nation with which it is at war out of the waterway.

It was the second successful test of the Kissinger accord. Israel released the Sinai oilfields last month, and American technicians are now operating them until Nov. 15, when Egypt takes over.

Meanwhile, the semiofficial Israeli state radio reported Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin told his cabinet Washington has cut $60 million from the $2.3-billion aid package it promised in return for Israel's signature on the agreement with Egypt.

The Israeli radio also said the first of the 200 U.S. electronic technicians who will man surveillance posts in the buffer zone in the Sinai have arrived in the Middle East. The State Department in Washington denied the report. The men are to begin staffing their posts early next year.

Kitty Bruce Files Lawsuits

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The daughter of the late comedian Lenny Bruce has filed suits in Los Angeles Superior Court against the publishers of a biography and the producers of a movie about her father.

Singer Kitty Bruce maintains that her father's name and likeness were appropriated for commercial profits without consent or payment to his estate.

She asks for $11 million damages from United Artists, Douglas International Corp., Marvin Worth Corp., L.D. Corp. and Grove Press for the movie "Lenny" and $4 million from Ballantine Books, Random House, Albert Goldman and Lawrence Schiller for the book "Ladies and Gentlemen, Lenny Bruce."

Isabel Peron In Hospital

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP) — President Isabel Peron, facing impeachment threats in congress, was hospitalized early today for a gall bladder condition, the government said. A reliable medical source said she may have to undergo an operation.

Mrs. Peron's condition was not serious, a medical bulletin said. But the source said the recovery period from such an operation ranged from three weeks to more than a month.

Senate President Italo Luder, who filled in recently as acting president and is Mrs. Peron's constitutional successor, told newsmen he did not plan to change his schedule today. Observers interpreted this as meaning no transfer of power was contemplated so far.

Meanwhile, police found the body of parliamentarian Ramon Pablo Rojas in his car in San Juan, 800 miles west of Buenos Aires. The police said Rojas died of a bullet wound but gave no other details. Over 1,000 persons have been killed in political violence in Argentina since July 1974 when Mrs. Peron assumed office on the death of her husband, Juan D. Peron.

The medical bulletin said the 44-year-old Mrs. Peron felt sick at 2:15 a.m. and two hours later was taken to a clinic "to undergo a check-up and medical treatment."

Laser Brand Patented

PULLMAN, Wash. (AP) — A Washington State University inventor has patented an invention that could make the branding iron obsolete, university spokesmen says.

The patent is for a technique which uses a laser beam to quickly and painlessly brand animals. The technique was developed by R. Keith Farrell of the university's College of Veterinary Medicine.

As described by the patent, laser branding is done by transmitting an intense beam of laser light through a fiber optic bundle to the animal's skin. Different brands can be formed on the skin by simply rearranging the fiber optic bundle in the desired shape.

The spokesmen said the technique is being used by the Washington Department of Fisheries to mark salmon. Other experimental efforts have involved branding domestic and wild animals such as cattle, dogs and deer.

The laser technique is not the first new branding method developed by Farrell. He also invented "freeze-branding" — a method of marking livestock using super-cooled branding tools.

WTC Rodeo Team Wins First Place At Alpine

Western Texas College brought home the team championship and two individual firsts from the Sul Ross State University NIRA rodeo held in Alpine Oct. 30- Nov. 2.

The WTC men's team had a total of 335 points for first place. Brady Crumpler took first place in saddle bronc riding and Rick Bradley won first in steer wrestling.

Second in team standings was Sul Ross with 250 points. Cicso Junior College finished third with 185 points, Howard College was fourth with 125 and Texas Tech and New Mexico State University tied for fifth with 110 points each.

Eastern New Mexico University took first place in women's events with a total of 295 points. New Mexico State was second with 190 and Tech was third with 130. The All-Around Cowgirl title went to Jennifer Haynes from NMSU, who had a total of 190 points. Rick Kinney from Sul Ross was All-Around Cowboy with 175 points.

This was the final rodeo of the fall semester, and WTC stands second or third in the NIRA Southwest Region, Van Rigby, rodeo coach, said. The team standings will be announced later when all statistic have been rechecked. Nine rodeos have been scheduled in the Region during the spring semester.

BRADY CRUMPLER
...first in saddle bronc riding

Bradley now stands first in steer wrestling and Crumpler second in saddle bronc riding in the region. John Crain is third in saddle bronc riding, Larry Turner is in fourth place in bull riding and Jo Ann Whitehead is in fourth place in barrel racing.

At the Sul Ross rodeo, Crumpler marked 71 points for first place in saddle bronc riding in the first go. He marked 63 points in the finals for a total of 139 points and first place. In bull riding, he marked 64 in bullriding in the first go.

Larry Turner placed second in bullriding in the first go with 68 points. In the finals, he had 65 points for third place, giving him a total of 133 points for third place in the average.

Another bull rider, Randy Jackson, marked 60 on his first bull. Kenny Foreman had 61 points.

John Crain, a saddle bronc rider, had 59 points in the first go and 64 in the finals, giving him third place in the short go and fourth in the average.

Bradley turned in times of 5.4 in both the first go and the finals, a total of 10.8 for first place in the average.

In bareback riding, James Murff received 61 points in the first go and 59 points in the finals for a 120-point total, good enough for fifth in the average.

Also in the bareback riding, Mark Beauregard marked 64 points in the long go for fourth place. He bucked off on his second ride.

Calf ropers didn't fare as well. Terry Arnold had 13.5 seconds, Kenny LeMond had 15.1 and Keith Rowan had 13.1

Jo Ann Whitehead turned in a time of 13.1 in goat tying. Her time in the barrel race was 17.3 plus a five-second penalty for turning over a barrel. Kerry Harston's time was 20 seconds.

ABC Director Orders Raids

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — The new director of the Texas Alcoholic Beverage Commission (ABC) has ordered a series of statewide raids to vigorously police Texas bars which violate the state's liquor control laws.

"We're going to stay with it as long as we have to," says Luke Robinson, a Church of Christ deacon who took over the reigns of the ABC on Oct. 1 "I'm not a prohibitionist, but I believe in enforcing the law the way it was written."

Since his crackdown began three weeks ago, Robinson's agents have arrested 294 drunks and slapped 71 bars with administrative citations. An Oct. 24 strike in Dallas resulted in 38 arrests and 26 cases against licensed liquor establishments.

"We were in Dallas last weekend, and we'll be back from time to time until I can get this mess straightened out," Robinson, a lawyer, told the Austin bureau of The Dallas Times Herald.

ABC legal advisers are currently studying the law to determine if topless go-go establishments and other "skin houses" that sell liquor are vulnerable to Robinson's raiders.

"We're definitely going to look at establishments that permit exposure of an individual's person," Robinson said. "It's a violation of the Texas Liquor Control Act to permit any lewd, immoral conduct. It's going on in Texas, and I'm going to root it out."

The state Penal Code prohibits sexual intercourse, sexual contact and bestiality in a public place, but does not mention nude performances. The law which created the ABC authorizes it to cancel the liquor licenses of establishments that offend "the public sense of decency."

Robinson ordered the creation of a permanent strike force within his agency after initial raids Oct. 11 revealed "that we have quite a few intoxicated people in Texas."

In addition to corraling drunks, the strike force was ordered to strictly enforce "the entire spectrum of the law," including sale of liquor in "dry" areas, after hours and by unauthorized dealers—bootleggers.

The raids haven't been without incident. One ABC agent was bitten on the arm during a raid in Amarillo in the Panhandle, and another agent found his car tires slashed.

"I have no objection to people drinking," says Robinson, stressing that his agents are out only to arrest those who drink to excess. "We like to think we got those 294 (arrested drunks) before they got on our highways and killed someone. We're going to continue this crackdown."

Sgt. Grant In Exercise

ALAMOGORDO, N. M.— Sergeant Eldon D. Grant, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Grant of Rt. 2, Snyder, recently took part in "Crested Cap 75," a North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) training exercise in Germany.

Sergeant Grant is a weapons mechanic at Holloman AFB, N. M., with the dual based 49th Tactical Fighter Wing whose units deployed to the European continent fo the month-long maneuvers.

Flying non-stop from Holloman, 96 NATO-committed F-4 Phantom fighter-bombers were refueled en route by Strategic Air Command KC-135 Stratotankers. Airlift of maintenance and support specialists was provided by Military Airlift Command C-130 Hercules and C-141 Starlifter aircraft.

The exercise was designed to maintain aircrew proficiency in instrument flying and radar bombing in support of allied forces in Europe.

Sergeant Grant is a 1971 graduate of Snyder High School.

Mishaps Are Reported

City Police investigated two mishaps here Sunday.

The first occurred at 1:21 a.m. on the East Highway. Involved were a 1967 Chevrolet driven by Betty Heath Glover, 2409 Twenty-eighth Street, Snyder, and a 1974 International Truck-Tractor operated by Julius Ray Brock of La Porte.

At 9:55 a.m. there was a collision at Twenty-fifth Street and College Avenue. Involved were a 1973 Mercury driven by James Lee Hester of Lamesa, and a parked 1975 Ford owned by Jack McCartney of 1907 Thirty-first Street, Snyder.

Only minor damage resulted in both mishaps.

Cpl. Gutierrez Is Promoted

Marine Lance Corporal Florentino Gutierrez, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gutierrez of Route 3, Snyder, as been promoted to his present rank while serving at the Marine Corps Air Station, Santa Anna, Calif.

A former student of Snyder High School, he joined the Marine Corps in January 1975.

London Car Bomb Third In 12 Days

LONDON (AP) — A bomb blast turned a lawyer's Mercedes Benz automobile upside down on its roof this morning, injuring the lawyer and two other persons, Scotland Yard reported. It was the third terror attack in London's fashionable West End in 12 days.

Attorney Richard Charnley, 34, who was just starting the car when the blast went off, was "a fantastically lucky man" to escape with cuts and a broken leg, a police officer said.

"The car was split in two," he added.

Scotland Yard said the other two casualties were not hurt badly.

The bomb squad chief, Cmdr. Roy Habershon, said the bombing at 9:10 a.m. in Connaught Square appeared "almost identical with" the one a mile away in Kensington on Oct. 23 outside the home of a Conservative member of Parliament with whom the late President Kennedy's daughter, Caroline, was staying. That bomb killed a leading cancer specialist who was walking by.

The bomb went off about three-quarters of a mile from an Italian restaurant in Mayfair that was bombed last Wednesday night, injuring 17 persons. There have been 11 such bombs since August, and two persons have been killed and more than 50 injured. The bombings are believed to be the work of Irish extremists who want to get Britain out of Northern Ireland and reunite the province with the rest of Ireland.

The Evening Standard suggested that the bomb today might have been intended for another Conservative member of Parliament, John Gorst, who lived until recently near Charnley. He has been associated in a political group with a Protestant leader in Northern Ireland.

The blast shattered windows of several buildings facing into the tree-lined square near Hyde Park. Police evacuated surrounding houses and cordoned off nearby blocks in case there might be a second bomb.

Sis and Dog Speak The Same Language

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1975 by Chicago Tribune-N.Y. News Synd., Inc.

DEAR ABBY: Do you believe that dogs can understand human language? My sister, Carol, insists that they can. At least she says her poodle can.

Carol went on a three-week vacation and left "Pisher" in a kennel. When she returned she said Pisher was so furious with her that he wouldn't look her in the face for five days. Carol took the dog in her arms, and he turned his head away. Then she said, "If I promise never to put you in a kennel again, will you forgive me?"

She claims the poodle looked at her with love and understanding and actually nodded his head as if to say, "Yes, I forgive you." Then he nuzzled her and started to lick her hand to show his appreciation and affection.

Carol says she knows that Pisher understood every word she said, and she'll never put him in a kennel again because she promised she wouldn't.

Can you believe this? Or do you think my sister is a nut?

ESTHER IN HARTFORD

DEAR Esther: When it comes to dog lovers, I can believe anything.

DEAR ABBY: Rick and I were both underage and needed our parents' signatures to get married. (I was pregnant at the time, but after we got married I lost the baby.)

We couldn't afford a place of our own, so we lived with my parents. It was okay for about three months, then Rick decided it was too crowded at my folks' house, and he thought it would be better if I lived with my parents and he went back and lived with his.

Abby, I don't like this arrangement at all. Rick has started to run around with his friends like he did before we were married. I'm afraid he's got another girl.

He keeps telling me that as soon as he can afford it we will get a place of our own, but I don't believe he really wants one.

He comes to see me maybe once a week for an hour, and then he takes off. I just sit and cry. Please help me. I don't feel married anymore.

MISERABLE

DEAR MISERABLE: Married people belong together. If you can't afford a place of your own, you should live with your parents or Rick's. This way, you have no marriage, dear. Tell Rick it's either—or. His answer will tell you what to do.

DEAR ABBY: I identified with the fellow who preferred not to broadcast the line of work he was in.

I am a Roman Catholic priest, and every time I get to a town where I'm not known, I take off my collar and put on a sport shirt.

I'm not trying to get away with anything, but the minute people (especially Catholics) spot me in my Roman collar, they corner me and start to tell me their troubles.

Most people are much more relaxed and comfortable around me if they don't know I'm a priest.

INCOGNITO IN MASS.

DEAR ABBY: The man who lied about his job because he didn't want people to know that he was a garbage collector caught my eye because I lie about my job, too.

I'm a police officer, and when I'm off duty, I tell strangers (when they ask) that I work for the city.

If they inquire further, I tell them that I'm a garbage collector. In a way, I sometimes am.

Oswald: "The continent-wide charity game will be played later on this month. This duplicate game is played all over the continent under the auspices of the American Contract Bridge League Charity Foundation."

Jim: "With tens of thousands of people playing the same hands anything is likely to happen and does happen."

Oswald: "Here is a hand from the spring game. The bidding in the box is what might take place with a pair who play standard American without any Stayman responses. South opens two notrump with his balanced 23 high-card points. North bids his five-card club suit and South shows his five hearts. Then after North raises to game, South takes the bull by the horns, Blackwoods to find the missing ace and goes to seven."

Jim: "There are thirteen easy tricks. The hands are a perfect fit and we imagine that many pairs wouldn't even get to six. Of course, top score would go to anyone who bid seven notrump. A finesse is required but the finesse is on."

Ask the Jacobys

A reader from North Dakota wants to know if we would open the bidding in third seat with:

♠ AKxx ♥ xxx ♦ Kxx ♣ xxx.

The answer is a decided "No". Not only are we likely to lose points because of bidding with this balanced mess, but we also lose so much partnership confidence that he will start to distrust all our bids.

Double Zippers Make Flattering Fit

By Joanne Schreiber

One of the freshest of the new fall fashions is the double-zip-pants and skirts shaped and closed by two front zippers.

It all began in France, with denim workskirts, and the look spread in other work fabrics such as corduroy and chambray. The zippers are meant to show as a gleaming decorative detail. To meet the demand for this new look Talon has designed Top Brass, an authoritative 7-inch brass zipper.

The zippers can be inserted in any placket. Used in the French panel, they are set where darts might normally fall and shape the pants or skirt to your figure just as darts do.

Special patterns are not necessary. In a gored skirt, they may be inserted in the two side front seams. In pants, they may be placed where the darts fall. Naturally, the standard side or back closings are simply stitched up.

No longer is the invisible zipper the home sewer's mark of distinction. These zippers are boldly topstitched in place, in the easiest of all zipper applications, using the zipper foot and fairly long stitch. If they are stitched into a separate panel or pocket, that, too, is topstitched into postition. For extra fashion punch, the final topstitching may be done with buttonhole twist for the top thread.

Zippers also are seen in menswear and children's wear as details for double patch pockets or on a single bib pocket. They also may be inserted in the side seams, though the side front seams are more attractive.

For your guide to fall fashion, send for the new Fall and Winter '75 edition of Basic Fashion. Write to Stitchin' Tme, care of this newspaper, Box 503, Radio City Station, New York. N. Y. 10019. Send $1.25, plus your name, full address and zip. Don't forget- each copy contains a coupon for a free pattern. (Newspaper Enterprise Assn.)

NEW FASHION—Fresh and French is a new fashion of double zippers. Use any standard skirt pattern and a pair of seven-inch Top Brass zippers. This skirt is done in popular denim.

Makeup Artist Gives Moisturizer Tips

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

Go northwest, young woman, if you'd keep your skin youthful looking. It seems the "natural humidity and moisture in the air keeps skin from aging rapidly." So says makeup artist Eduardo De La Madrid.

But all is not lost if you live in another area. If you apply moisturizers to the skin, you might get the same effect. Well-known — Eduardo makes beauty forays into cities and towns for a week at a time all year — he was comparing skins in different parts of the United States.

"In Miami and New Mexico women have dry skin because they spend so much time in the sun. In Denver one 27-year-old girl had the kind of dry, wrinkled skin a woman might have in her late 30s. Sun and wind can age the skin rapidly."

In cities where women keep up with fashion — in San Francisco, Chicago, New York and others — they may be more attuned to beauty needs than say, Seattle, where they spend a lot of time outdoors, he points out. Even though it lies in the moisture belt, Seattle women can dry their skins prematurely by playing outdoors without providing protection for their skins.

Some women tell Eduardo — which he uses as his professional name — "My husband doesn't want me to wear makeup." But he considers that nonsense because "any husband wants his wife to be attractive." If he doesn't want her to make up it is "because she doesn't know how to do it or chooses the wrong colors or something." If she wants proof, she should compare photographs of herself in black and white and in color. Color makes all the difference, he says.

In fact when Eduardo, 35, arrives in a town he is likely to shake all the sleeping beauties — homemakers and career girls who could be beautiful if only they wouldn't take their looks for granted.

"I tell them the truth ... not only about their bad makeup ... their wrinkled throats that need massaging ... their hairdos that can be improved ... and how they are cheating themselves ..."

He hears excuses, he says. "How can I take 20 minutes a day for a beauty program when I can hardly keep up with the washing, cooking, cleaning and children ...?" is a typical plea.

"If a woman can't take 20 minutes a day to improve herself, she will age rapidly," he tells the woman. It hits home, he says.

Women worry more about aging than any other beauty factor, he has found in his tours. He is national makeup artist for Charles of the Ritz and is its special events coordinator. In addition to providing makeup advice, he provides information about the effects of household pollutants on the skin and offers exercises that will help tighten flabby skin or ward off deeper wrinkles.

"Makeup can protect against dust, heat and the drying effects of air conditioners in the home. At the same time it can make a woman more attractive if she must answer a knock on her door."

Newer makeups have built-in moisturizers that make it easy to apply makeup smoothly. You don't need to slather it on. A little goes a long way and it can protect the skin.

"You don't get that brightness in makeup that gives that overly made up look. Reds and pinks have a tawny, brownish tone. Ginger, cinnamon, carmel, cornelian brown are all flattering to current fashions and provide a healthy glow."

Eduardo is trying to foil a few fine lines with moisturizer which he uses three times a day, patting it on lined places. He is trying to prove that it can ward off deeper lines at the mouth or between the eyebrows. They are barely detectable now but he is experimenting to see what happens.

"Little wrinkles form at the cleavage and these may not be noticed until a woman wears a low cut dress. She should massage her moisturizing lotion from that area up her chest and neck and out beyond her ears. If she wears long hair, she may not even notice that wrinkles are forming at the neckline behind her ears.

"Certain isometric exercises can help a woman whose neck is beginning to wrinkle," he insists, opening his mouth wide to illustrate how it can contract the neck muscles and help tighten the area.

As for applying hand ceam, it is seldom applied properly, in his opinion. It should be smoothed on as if you were donning gloves.

Dr. Lamb

What causes hot flash?

By Lawrence E. Lamb, M.D.

DEAR DR. LAMB— Will you explain what is happening to a woman's body when she has a "hot flash?" Is there anything that can be done to help prevent them besides taking some kind of medicine, such as a vitamin or some special food?

DEAR READER— In middle-aged women the most common cause of hot flashes is decreased production of estrogen along with the menopause. When hot flashes are really part of the menopause related to low hormone levels, the one thing that will relieve them is giving the woman some replacement female hormone. It is one of the few symptoms of the menopause that responds immediately and dramatically to hormone replacement. Of course, if a hot flash is from some other cause or the woman has normal hormone levels, then giving more hormones will not help.

Taking vitamins or special food won't help at all. There is a widespread cult that erroneously believes all maladies can be cured by vitamins. They can't, and such an attitude often prevents a person from being treated properly, sometimes for serious life-threatening deseases. That is the biggest harm of all caused by the mis-information available about vitamins.

The hot flash is caused by improper function of your body thermostat. You have a center in the brain that controls all your body heat and cooling mechanisms. When it gets the signal that your body needs to be cooled, it sets off reflex actions to open up all your small capillaries in your skin, this is the flush you see. You can also see the flush when a person gets too hot from any cause. The hot blood is brought to the surface of the skin to be cooled and returns to cool your body. At the same time reflex mechanisms set off your sweating mechanism. The evaporation of sweat induces evaporative cooling at the skin.

When the body temperature falls to normal the small blood vessels close down, the flush disappears and the sweating is stopped. If you get too cool the center will set off shivering. The mechanical action of shivering generates heat.

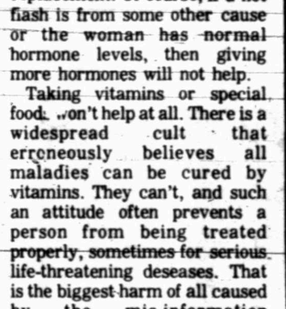

Your body thermostat can be affected by hot, spicy foods. You may know some people who will sweat when they eat such foods and that is the reason. The center is also near the master hormone gland for the body. Its functions are affected by the decreased function of the ovaries. In some way this causes the thermostat to function erratically during this phase of a woman's life. Usually the phase doesn't last too long, and eventually a woman's system will re-adjust.

Whether you should have female hormones depends on many factors. Those interested in these problems should send in 50 cents for The Health Letter, number 5-12, Menopause. Just write to me in care of this newspaper, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019. Send a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for mailing.

There is a lot more to managing the meopause period than just taking hormones. A woman needs to take special care to avoid obesity. Lifestyles and eating habits are more important here. A lot of women tend to lose muscle mass about this phase in life and that means getting fat, even though you are still eating the same amount as always. Muscle mass and physical activity (including the type) are just as important as your diet in preventing obesity.

Over-All Grocery Bill Holds Steady In October

By LOUISE COOK
Associated Press Writer

Supermarket shoppers found over-all grocery bills stayed fairly steady during October, an Associated Press market-basket survey shows. Increases in the price of chopped chuck, frozen orange juice and butter were balanced by declines in the cost of eggs, hot dogs and sugar.

The AP drew up a random list of 15 commonly purchased food and nonfood items, checked the price at one supermarket in each of 13 cities on March 1, 1973 and has rechecked on or about the start of each succeeding month.

During October, the market-basket total at the checklist store increased in six cities, up an average 3 per cent, and decreased in seven cities, down an average 2 per cent. Over-all, the bill at the start of November was about a third of a per cent higher than it was a month earlier.

The situation was similar to that in September when the bill also increased at the checklist store in six cities and declined in seven.

The U.S. Department of Agriculture has predicted that food prices will increase about 9 per cent during 1975, compared to a 14 per cent boost last year.

The biggest price fluctuation so far this year has been in sugar. At the start of 1975, a five-pound sack cost about $3. Prices have declined steadily since then and now average about $1.40 for a five-pound sack.

If sugar is included in the total, the AP survey shows the market-basket bill has declined since the start of the year at the checklist store in 11 cities. If sugar is not included, however, the survey shows the market-basket bill has increased at the checklist store in every city, up an average of 8.5 per cent.

Among other findings in the latest survey:

—The price of chopped chuck increased at the checklist store in nine of the 13 cities surveyed. The biggest boost was in Salt Lake City where the price of a pound of chopped chuck went from 73 cents to 85 cents, an increase of 16 per cent.

The higher prices reflect the grain-fed beef that is coming to market. Earlier this year, much of the meat in the supermarkets — particularly for hamburger — was less expensive grass-fed beef which generally is leaner and, some people believe, less tender than the grain-fed variety.

—Egg prices, which had been rising in recent months, dropped again. The price of a dozen eggs declined at the checklist store in nine of the cities surveyed and increased in only one — Albuquerque, N.M. The price was unchanged in the other three cities.

—The price of a pound of butter increased at the checklist store in eight of the cities surveyed, reflecting higher milk prices.

—Frozen orange juice prices, which have stayed steady for more than two years, increased last month. The price of a six-ounce can of frozen orange juice concentrate went up at the checklist store in seven of the cities surveyed.

The items on the AP checklist were: chopped chuck, center cut pork chops, frozen orange juice concentrate, coffee, paper towels, butter, Grade A medium white eggs, creamy peanut butter, laundry detergent, fabric softener, tomato sauce, chocolate chip cookies, milk, all-beef frankfurters and granulated sugar.

The cities checked were: Albuquerque, N.M., Atlanta, Ga., Boston, Chicago, Dallas, Detroit, Los Angeles, Miami, New York, Philadelphia, Providence, Salt Lake City and Seattle.

Violence Death Toll Only Three

By The Associated Press

Life and limb proved vastly safer for Texans during the weekend than ordinarily is the case.

Aside from rainy weather to discourage highway travel across much of the state Sunday, there was no apparent reason for a sharp lowering of the usual death toll from violence.

The Associated Press handled reports of just three fatalities between 6 p.m. Friday and midnight Sunday, including two in traffic.

Authorities at Tulia say a Grinnell, Kans., couple was killed Saturday in a car-truck collision five miles south of that Panhandle town. They were as Harvey Suter, 63, and Lois Michael Suter, 63.

Police were investigating the cause of death for Samuel Horn, 33, of Amarillo. His body was found Saturday in a hotel room on the city's west side.

Further Crimp In Grain Supply

WASHINGTON (AP) — Reduced crop prospects in the Soviet Union have put a further crimp in the world's grain supply at least through most of next year, says the Agriculture Department.

By the time 1976 harvests are ready, the world grain reserve is expected to be 98.8 million metric tons, the smallest since USDA began keeping international records 15 years ago. Last April, when it appeared much larger crops were in prospect — including those in Russia and the United States — the department projected a buildup in reserves to 114.7 million tons by the end of 1975-76.

For Tuesday, Nov. 4, 1975

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Your thoughtfulness today may not reap an immediate reward, but it will not be forgotten quickly. You've won a loyal ally.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) One who is very fond of you now needs your moral support. Let her know you'll stand behind her decisions.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) In unity there is strength today. Work closely with those who share a kinship of interests. Mutual benefits will result.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) It's to your advantage to conduct important business later in the day. At that time you tend to view things more prudently.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) If your priorities are met in proper order today the results will be fruitful. Handle domestic and financial situations first.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) It's a good day to take care of a serious matter you've been postponing. When dealing with the party concerned be friendly, but firm.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Contact one who is obligated to you financially today to see if some type of repayment plan can be worked out.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Follow through on today's developments. They'll lead to benefits for you career- and moneywise. Don't be afraid of extra responsibility.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) As of today you may begin to realize that a situation you're involved in has much more to offer than you've taken advantage of.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) You're a bit reluctant to ask another for something that's owed you. Talk it over now. It won't jeopardize the relationship.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Others will be playing a bigger hand today than you'll be aware of in a matter that's important to you. Fortunately, it's in your favor.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Time is your ally today. Be persistent. Don't give up if you suffer a minor setback. On the second try, you'll make it.

The Consumer Alert

by John L. Hill
Attorney General

AUSTIN— A number of Texans will be shopping for new or used cars this fall. Most are aware that one important indicator of how much wear and tear a car has received is the number of miles shown on the odometer.

Of course, if an odometer reading had been altered, the ability to assess the car's value, reliability, and safety is impaired.

But what some car-shopping consumers may not be aware of is that since 1973 the Texas Deceptive Trade Practices-Consumer Protection Act has provided protection against sellers who disconnect, turn back, or reset the odometer of any car or truck so as to reduce the number of miles shown.

Anyone who suspects odometer tampering should contact our Attorney General's Consumer Protection Division immediately. If they are correct, the law provides that the seller can be enjoined from such practices and that the buyer is entitled to restitution. Or a consumer can consult a private attorney and collect three times the amount of damages, plus attorney's fees and court costs, if a judge finds the suit is valid.

Our lawyers have won a court judgment against a car dealer who was picking up new cars in one city, unhooking the odometers,driving them to another city several hundred miles away, and selling them there as brand-new cars with little or no mileage on them.

And we've received reports of a few dealers who routinely unhook odometers on demonstrator cars, use them for test drives or as personal transportation, then sell them as new, when they may have several hundred or thousand miles on them.

Sometimes used car shoppers discover a "bargain"- a car several years old with a minimal number of miles on it. Such a car may have had its odometer "rolled back" to show far fewer miles than it actually has.

In addition to protection from such deception under Texas law, there is a federal law that requres anyone- dealer or individual- who sells a new or used car to give the buyer an odometer "disclosure statement" which gives the car's true mileage reading and a statement that the information is correct. If the seller doesn't know the true mileage, he must declare that it is unknown. Then if a consumer can prove he was sold a car by someone who violated these requirements, or gave false information, he can collect three times his damages or $1,500, whichever is greater, plus attorney's fees and court costs.

But even with protection under both state and federal laws, it's still better to avoid problems with false odometer readings. Our Consumer Protection attorneys recommend the following precautions.

Trade with a reputable dealer or individual and get an odometer disclosure statement.

Be suspicious if the speedometer and odometer aren't working when you test-drive a new or used car.

If a car looks "well-worn" but the mileage is low, be suspicious of possible odometer tampering.

Get a history of a used car's title from the Texas Highway Department's motor vehicle registration division. Then check with previous owners if possible for information on the car and its mileage.

McCartney Happy

PERTH, Australia (AP) — "Nothing is left of the Beatles now,, only memories," said singer Paul McCartney, a member of the disbanded rock and roll quartet, at his first news conference in three years.

His ambition now is "just to be happy," and he said he is happy with his group "Wings."

Housewife Wins Chili Cookoff

TERLINGUA, Tex. (AP) — Suzie Watson, a Houston housewife and avowed "libber," triumphed over 27 rivals to win the ninth annual World Championship Chili Cookoff.

She claimed the title with a concoction of beef and peppers called "Mother Gonzo's pineal special" and spiced with pine.

In addition to the cookoff Saturday, this dusty old ghost town near the Mexican border also witnessed its first wedding in 66 years. The bride was Nancy Fowler Sebastian, a niece of one of the chili contest founders, and she carried a bouquet of red and green chili peppers as she and Peter George Kleck of Fredericksburg recited their marital vows.

Washington state chili champ Merle "Firepot" Williams of Spokane was runnerup in the cookoff and Bubie Davila of Poteet, Tex., placed third.

"All I can say is I'm glad a woman won," averred defending champion Aleghani Jane Schoffield of Stonewall, Tex., who broke a male stranglehold on the title last year with a dish she called "hot pants chili."

A side attraction was a martini mixing contest. The winners were a team from the Odessa, Tex., White Buffalo Salvation Army Saloon with a drink called "T-N-T-ini" and put together with tequila, vermouth, hot sauce and a couple of barbecued olives.

Lebanon Fight Concerns Israel

CHICAGO (AP) — Israeli Ambassador Simcha Dinitz says Israel would seriously consider military action should any Arab nation enter the conflict in Lebanon.

At a news conference Sunday, Dinitz said his country is concerned "that our northern border with Lebanon should not become a border of confrontation," but he refused to speculate on what conditions would cause Israel to confront a third party in the conflict.

Skins Win In Overtime

By BRUCE LOWITT
AP Sports Writer

Sometimes there's more to a penalty than just 15 yards. Sometimes it's the difference between winning and losing.

In Washington, it was a 15-yarder slapped on Dallas quarterback Roger Staubach for throwing a punch in frustration. "That's the thing that gave us the impetus," Washington quarterback Billy Kilmer said. "Roger just lost his cool."

And in the heat of sudden-death overtime, Staubach and the Cowboys lost the game, too. Kilmer and the Redskins, aroused by the incident and buoyed by the 15 yards it gave them, marched relentlessly to the Dallas goal line. Then, with 6:34 gone in the extra period, Kilmer himself banged over for the touchdown that gave Washington a 30-24 victory.

In Cincinnati, a desperate Ken Anderson was tearing apart the Pittsburgh defense with his passes, trying to bring the Bengals back from a 23-3 deficit which he had slashed to 23-17.

But with the Bengals on the Pittsburgh 14-yard line and oh, so close to taking the lead with less than five minutes to play, a holding penalty on Cincinnati tight end Bob Trumpy moved the Bengals back to the 25.

One play later, Mike Wagner made his second interception of the game and returned it 65 yards to Cincinnati's 18. That set up another Pittsburgh touchdown and the Steelers prevailed 30-24.

Bengals' Coach Paul Brown saw that holding call as the game's critical play. "There wasn't much difference between the champs and the chumps," he said, "except for that 15-yard penalty."

In Sunday's other National Football League games, St. Louis beat New England 24-17, Houston topped Kansas City 17-13, Minnesota defeated Green Bay 28-17, Buffalo edged the New York Jets 24-23, Miami mauled Chicago 46-13, Oakland crushed Denver 42-17, New Orleans beat Atlanta 23-7, Detroit downed San Francisco 28-17 and Baltimore beat Cleveland 21-7. On Saturday, the New York Giants whipped San Diego 35-24. Los Angeles plays at Philadelphia tonight.

Redskins 30, Cowboys 24

Dallas lost its chance to kayo Washington when Toni Fritsch missed a 38-yard field goal with 14 seconds to go in regulation play. But the Cowboys seemed ready to overcome that problem when Staubach began passing them into Redskins' territory.

Then came his fatal mistake — the one that dropped Dallas into a three-way tie with the 'Skins and Cardinals in the National Conference East.

He threw a pass just as linebacker Chris Hanburger belted him — and the wobbly ball was picked off by Ken Houston and returned to midfield. Staubach, angered by his error, threw a punch at cornerback Pat Fischer during the runback.

And with the penalty, Washington had the ball at the Dallas 35 instead of at midfield. From there [illegible]s academic. "I just did [illegible]pid thing," Staubach ad[illegible]. "The play was over."

Steelers 30, Bengals 24

"This game gave us a big lift," Steelers quarterback Terry Bradshaw said after he passed to Lynn Swann for touchdowns of 37 and 25 yards, then piled in from the one for what proved to be the deciding touchdown.

Cardinals 24, Patriots 17

Terry Metcalf scored on runs of one and seven yards from scrimmage and on a 69-yard sprint with a punt to carry the Cards past New England. Mel Gray's punt returns of 19 and 27 yards set up Metcalf's two short scoring bursts.

Oilers 17, Chiefs 13

Quarterback Dan Pastorini and wide receiver Ken Burrough hooked up on touchdown pass plays of 71 and 57 yards — but it was Bob Atkins, Houston's second-string free safety, who made the biggest play.

Vikings 28, Packers 17

Minnesota, trailing 17-14 on two Packer touchdowns by reserve running back Barty Smith, rallied to win on Fran Tarkenton's fourth-quarter touchdown passes of 19 yards to John Gilliam and 10 to Chuck Foreman.

Bills 24, Jets 23

With a 23-17 lead, about five minutes to play and a fourth-and-one on the Buffalo 20-yard line, New York Coach Charley Winner decided to go for the yard instead of the field goal. It didn't work.

Dolphins 46, Bears 13

Bob Griese passed for 288 yards, including touchdowns of 20 yards to Norm Bulaich, 79 yards to Nat Moore and 58 yards to Fred Solomon in Miami's rout of the Bears.

Raiders 42, Broncos 17

Denver had a 10-7 edge at the half, but was in trouble the rest of the way. Ken Stabler passed for two touchdowns in the third quarter and Pete Banaszak ran for two more in the fourth.

Saints 23, Falcons 7

Archie Manning heaved a 71-year touchdown pass to Larry Burton to help the Saints give Ernie Hefferle, their new head coach, a victory in his debut against the Falcons.

Lions 28, 49ers 17

Joe Reed, subbing for injured Greg Landry and Bill Munson, threw two touchdown passes in the third period to carry the Lions past his former San Francisco teammates.

Colts 21, Browns 7

Bert Jones threw two touchdown passes to lead Baltimore's offense and linebacker Stan White intercepted two passes, recorded three quarterback sacks and had 11 individual tackles to slam the door on Cleveland's offense, keeping the Browns winless.

Giants 35, Chargers 24

Craig Morton passed for two touchdowns and Joe Dawkins ran for two in the Giants' Saturday victory that handed the Chargers their seventh loss without a victory.

Trojans, Bruins Upset

That given Saturday on which any college football team can beat any other team almost arrived in style over the weekend, but the only places it really made a full-scale appearance was the California towns of Berkeley and Los Angeles.

In Berkeley, the California Golden Bears knocked off the previously unbeaten fourth-ranked Southern Cal Trojans 28-14, one day after Coach John McKay made it official that he would leave USC at the end of the season for the new Tampa Bay Buccaneers of the National Football League.

"I don't think the coaching announcement was that much of a distraction," said McKay, who may be heading for Tampa sooner than he thought if Southern Cal doesn't make it to the Rose Bowl. "We just refused to tackle."

But Cal's Mike White thought the announcement "must have had some negative effect. I imagine it had people thinking about something else."

Down in L.A., Washington stunned 13th-ranked UCLA 17-13 and threw the Pacific-8 race into a turmoil — Cal is 4-1 with Southern Cal, UCLA, Washington and Stanford, a 28-22 winner over Oregon State, all 3-1.

That given Saturday almost dawned in Columbus, Ohio, where the Ohio State Buckeyes, No. 1 in The Associated Press ratings, blew most of a 17-0 halftime lead before subduing Indiana 24-14.

Runner-up Oklahoma cruised past Oklahoma State 27-7 and remained deadlocked for the Big Eight lead with third-ranked Nebraska, a 30-7 winner over No. 12 Missouri. Fifth-ranked Texas A&M was idle, its scheduled game with Arkansas having long ago been switched to Dec. 6 for national television purposes.

That given Saturday almost showed up at Jackson, Miss., where sixth-ranked Alabama had to come from behind in the third period on Tyrone King's 26-yard interception to turn back Mississippi State 21-10. And it nearly was in evidence at Ann Arbor, Mich., where seventh-ranked Michigan needed Gordon Bell's tie-breaking 23-yard run with just under seven minutes left to stave off Minnesota 28-21 and remain tied with Ohio State atop the Big Ten.

Dallas, too, almost had that given Saturday as No. 8 Texas withstood an early 7-0 deficit and a 202-yard rushing performance by Southern Methodist's Wayne Morris and beat the Mustangs 30-22. There also was a struggle at College Park, Md., where ninth-ranked Penn State edged No. 14 Maryland 15-13 on a 40-yard fourth quarter field goal by Chris Bahr, a professional soccer player.

Elsewhere, 10th-ranked Arizona State intercepted nine passes — Mike Haynes returned one 51 yards for a score — and trounced Utah 40-14. No. 11 Florida's Jimmy DuBos rushed for 149 yards and Jimmy Fisher threw two touchdown passes as the Gators whipped Auburn 31-14 and stayed in a tie with Alabama for the Southeastern Conference lead.

No. 15 Notre Dame, held to six first downs and 200 yards total offense, used Ross Browner's blocked punt and ensuing 27-yard return plus tackle Jeff Weston's 53-yard interception return to defeat Navy 31-10.

JV Flails Lake View

LAKE VIEW—The Snyder High School Junior Varsity football team flailed Lake View's JV, 34-2, here Saturday afternoon.

The junior Tigers got on the score board first on a 60 yard run by Clay Peterson. Tracey Witherspoon's extra point kick made it 7-0. Later in the first period, Tommy Smith plunged over from the two to cap a 61 yard drive. The kick for extra point was blocked.

In the second period, Tim Falls scored on a 30 yard run, but the wide kick on the conversion play left Snyder ahead, 19-0, at halftime.

Lake View crossed midfield for the first time in the third quarter, and the Snyder team held at the one yard line. But, on their first offensive play after the goal line stand, Snyder was stopped behind the goal for a safety.

Peterson tallied on a 45 yard run, and Witherspoon booted the extra point as Snyder went into a 26-2 lead after three quarters.

Scott Hendricks scored the final Snyder touchdown in the fourth quarter on a 13 yard run, and Peterson ran for the two bonus points.

Peterson gained 165 yards rushing, and Tim Falls contributed 131. Snyder had a total of 439 yards rushing. Jim Campbell intercepted two passes, and Randy Shipp intercepted one. Early Clayton, Randy Collum, Jerry Hamilton, Hubert Thompson, Doug McGee, Jim Campbell and Thomas Smith all were outstanding on defense.

The Tiger JV visits Lamesa Saturday for a 1 p.m. contest.

9th Grade Black Wins Tourney

KERMIT—The Snyder 9th Grade Black girls volleyball team won the tournament here Saturday, beating Wink 17-15, 9-12, 11-9 in the first round, besting Pecos 12-4, 15-4 in the second round, and topping Kermit in the finals 13-11, 15-4.

Kathy Harrell and Dana Elrod both were named to the All-Tournament team. Scoring for the Black team: Cindy Koonsman 27 points, Lanell Selmon 23, Dana Elrod 13, Debbie Myers 13, Kathy Harrell 7, Rachael Chaidez 6, and Sherry Neves 3.

The Snyder 9th Grade Gold team won third place, beating Pecos 12-9, 14-6. In the first round, the Snyder team beat Andrews 15-5, 15-1, but they lost to Kermit in the second round, 9-15, 9-14.

Scoring for the Gold: Sarah Fagin 15 points, Trudy Hataway 12, Angela Brumley 11, Shana Smith, Danna Myers, and Joan Alarcon 9 each, Terri Dennis 7, and Karen Littlepage 2. Shana Smith and Joan Alarcon both were named to the All-Tournament team.

The varsity Tigers meet Lamesa there at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday following a 6:30 p.m. match between the junior varsity squads of both schools.

Aggies, Horns Face Tough Foes

By DENNE H. FREEMAN
AP Sports Writer

The Texas Aggies and the Texas Longhorns, the only remaining unbeaten teams in Southwest Conference play, have blood debts to pay this week and both teams know it isn't going to be easy.

The fifth-ranked Aggies, who trail the Longhorns by a half game in the SWC standings but are unscratched for the season, host Southern Methodist which bushwhacked the Aggies in Dallas last year, and the Horns host Baylor.

Aggie Coach Emory Bellard and assistant Melvin Robertson were present Saturday when SMU and Wayne Morris scared Texas Coach Darrell Royal's eighth-ranked outfit before falling 30-22.

Bellard and Robertson noted that SMU's Wishbone carved huge chunks out of the Longhorn hide, including 202 steps by Morris. A&M leads the nation in defense against the rushing.

"SMU is certainly a better team than its record and seems to be improving every week," said Robertson.

4 Snyder Teams Play This Week

Four Snyder football teams will see action this week, and two of the games will be played here.

The 8th Grade Black team hosts Sweetwater at 5:30 p.m. Thursday on the Junior High field. Also on Thursday, the Freshmen visit Coahoma for a 7 p.m. contest.

Friday night, the varsity Tigers host Sweetwater at 7:30 in Tiger Stadium.

Saturday, the junior varsity will be at Lamesa for a 1 p.m. contest.

Elsewhere in District 3-AAA, Lake View will host Estacado Friday night while Brownfield will meet Dunbar in Lubbock Saturday night.

On the area scene, Gail will visit Klondike, Hermleigh will host Ira, and Hobbs travels to Highland for Friday night affrays.

Upsets Highlight 3-3A Grid Action

There were two big surprises in District 3-AAA football action last week as the surprising Brownfield Cubs knocked off previously unbeaten Lake View, 15-13, and the surprising Lamesa Golden Tornadoes shaded Estacado, 7-6, which also had been unbeaten until Saturday night in district play.

The Chiefs still lead the league with a 4-1 record, and they can wrap up the title and gain the playoff berth with a victory over Estacado in Lake View Friday night. Estacado still is in second place with a 3-1 record. Snyder, Brownfield and Dunbar all are tied for third with 2-2 district records while Lamesa is in 6th place with a 2-3 mark and Sweetwater occupies the cellar with an 0-4 mark.

Lake View stilll has the best season record an 8-1 for the year. They also lead in scoring and degense, having scored 211 points against 44 for the season and 115 against 34 in district play. Estacado is 6-2 for the year while Snyder, Brownfield and Dunbar all are 4-4 for the season. Lamesa is 2-6-1 on the year and Sweetwater is 0-8.

Two other important games are on tap this week with the Tigers host Sweetwater Friday night and Brownfield visiting Dunbar Saturday night.

Runnels Defeats 8th Gold, 24-6

BIG SPRING—Host Runnels came out in a spread offense here last Saturday morning, and stunned the Snyder 8th Grade Gold 24-6 at Blankenship Field.

The Yearlings had tallied four times, and had 16 points, before the visitors knew what had hit them.

Carlos Castanda tossed two touchdown passes of 49 yards each in the first period to Joe Willie Jones. The pair hooked-up for extra points following the two touchdowns.

The Snyder team came back in the first period covering 56 yards on 11 plays, and fullback Zell Gaston going over from the five. The visitors attempted to run for the extra points, but were stopped short of the goal.

In the second quarter, the Castanda to Jones combination again hooked-up, this time covering 82 yards. Kevin Cain ran over the bonus points.

"It was the first time for the Snyder boys to play against this type of offense, the only time they had seen it before was on TV," explained Gold Coach Bill Boles.

"An adjustment was made at halftime to stop this offense."

No one tallied in the second half Snyder's only serious threat came when Zell Gaston intercepted a pass and Snyder drove to the Runnels 18 yard line. But, on the next play they were intercepted.

Snyder was 1 for 6 in the passing department with one interception. Each squad lost one fumble. In the punting department, Snyder was 4 for 24, and Runnels 4 for 28.

Defensively for the visitors Gaston had nine stops to lead the team. John Hanson and Sam Willis each had eight.

Seventeen players had one or more stops.

The win gave the yearlings a 5-2 record, with the 8th Grade Gold and Coahoma being the only teams to stop the squad.

Next action for the 8th Grade Gold will be Nov. 13 when they play Lamesa there.

This Thursday the 8th Grade Black will play Sweetwater here at 5:30 p.m.

Booster Club Meets Tuesday

The Tiger Booster Club will meet at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in the high school cafeteria to see films of the Snyder-Dunbar football game and hear a scouting report on Sweetwater, this week's opponent.

Bill Sikes, club president, urged all members to attend.

Carr Re-Joins Cavaliers

CLEVELAND (AP) — The Cleveland Cavaliers of the National Basketball Association say Austin Carr is healthy again and will accompany the team on their two-week road trip starting Tuesday in Washington.

However, Coach Bill Fitch says he isn't sure when Carr will be reactivated.

Carr is recovering from knee surgery. He will remain on the injured reserve list but will work out with the squad, Fitch said after the Cavaliers lost 103-91 to the New Orleans Jazz Saturday night.

"He's healthy, but hasn't even scrimmaged yet," Fitch said. "I don't know when he'll be playing."
