

On The BEAM

By J. W. King, Sr.

Loraine is known far and wide as a friendly town. Go just about anywhere you want to and let it be known you are from Loraine and somebody will tell you "why that's the friendliest town I know of."

It is true that Loraine is a friendly town especially to her visitors. But among our own people here at home we sometimes have family quarrels over matters that some see one way and others another way.

Not too long ago an incident happened in our town that two factions took up and expanded. Rumors were started about first one thing and then another and each rumor grew bigger and bigger until unfriendliness took over.

We ought to be bigger men and women than that. It would do a world of good if each individual involved in any way in the thing that happened would go to one about whom you perhaps have said some unkind and untrue things and apologize. Our friendliness would soon return and our town would again run along smoothly.

Last year the Loraine Volunteer Firemen staged a barbecue and display of equipment used in fire fighting. They also put on some entertainment that was excellent.

This year, if the firemen again have the event, other organizations should join in and help to make it bigger and better. The Lions Club ought to take hold of it and help. We could expand the entertainment to last the full day with a barbecue either at noon or later in the evening. But if we are going to do anything we ought to be at work on it. Firemen should not have to carry the burden alone.

THE WIND BLOWS

The wind has been blowing now for some time. Some people say they have never seen the wind blow for so long a period before. The Abilene weatherman says, however, that in May 1945 we had a prolonged windy period.

Contribution to the Loraine Cemetery Fund the past week included $10 from C. C. Thompson of Colorado City.

Lions Hear About

Nike Hercules Missiles

Major Nolan of the Nike Hercules Missile base near Abilene gave the Loraine Lions Club a vivid description of the performance of the Army Missile at the noon luncheon Tuesday.

In addition to the oral description he showed a film taken at White Sands Proving Ground, New Mexico, in which several missiles were fired at moving targets. All hit the target.

Major Nolan explained that the purpose of his organization is to protect this area from attack by enemy planes. There are other such bases in Texas and more than half of the Texas area is protected he said.

The Major explained that the missile after launching is controlled entirely from the ground. After radar picks up the target the missile is fired and guided to the target (plane) and it is destroyed completely. All of this is done, he said, before the pilot of the plane knows he has been discovered.

The base at Abilene protects an area within a radius of 75 miles. Other visitors present included a Sgt. from the base, Senator David Ratliff, County Judge Elmer Martin, Roy Davis Coles and Ira Caswell.

What is the Answer?

Q. What and where was the "Spanish Main"?

A. The Spanish Main was at first a name given to the Spanish colonies on the mainland of South and Central America. It meant the Spanish Mainland. In later years, when piracy was a shipping hazard, the entire Caribbean Sea became known as the Spanish Main.

the Lord, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon. (Isaiah 55:7.)

Anxious that a photograph of her be good, a woman tried to impress the photographer with that idea. "You needn't worry," he said. "My picture will do you justice." The woman answered, "But I don't want justice. I want mercy."

We all need mercy: for, as Paul says, "All have sinned, and come short of the glory of God." Simple justice is a phrase we used, in many areas it is good. But justice for the sinner would mean condemnation and punishment.

Even without Paul's assertion, our hearts tell us we have sinned. We are guilty of doing what we should not have done. What may be even worse, we are guilty of leaving undone what we should have done.

The law calls for justice, but Christianity stresses mercy for the old address before the VA could get a notice of your change of address to the Treasury dis-

God with a sincere plea for forgiveness.

Prayer: We confess our sins, O God, and turn to Thee for pardon. Have mercy upon us. Give us power this day to resist temptations to do evil. In Christ's name we pray. Amen.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q. I sent the VA a notice of my new address the day before I moved but I have not received my pension check.

A. Checks are mailed by the Treasury Department. Your check may have been mailed to the old address before the VA could get a notice of your change of address to the Treasury disbursing office. You would have received your check promptly, nevertheless, if you had also given the post office a notice of your change of address over your written signature.

Q. I receive pension checks from the VA, and I have been told I should immediately report any change in my income from outside sources. Since I report my income annually, why isn't that enough?

A. If you wait until your annual report to advise VA of the change, you may be required to repay pension payments you received during the year to which you were not entitled because of a change in your income.

Q. As a Korean veteran holding "RS" GI insurance, if I choose the new lower-rate term insurance in order to collect a dividend, must I convert to a permanent type of insurance within a short time?

A. You can convert to a more permanent type anytime before you reach age 50.

Working for Texas

Meet a fellow Texan: Preston Smith.

Preston Smith's story is in the best Texas and American tradition—a farm boy who worked his own way to an education and a place of honor in his business and community life.

Born in the heart of Texas, at Georgetown, he moved with his family to Dawson County in 1923 when he was 10 years old. He went to school at Sunset, Lamesa, and Texas Tech. In his adopted home town of Lubbock, with his wife Ima and their two children, he now carries out the full responsibilities of a typical Texas business and civic leader.

A steward at St. John's Methodist Church—member of the Salvation Army Board, the Kiwanis Club, the Chamber of Commerce, the Texas Farm Bureau—these are some of the activities close to the heart of Preston Smith, citizen.

He did not stop there. In his daily pursuits Preston Smith came to realize that business and government are closely related in the American system—and that without good government we cannot have a favorable climate for good business. A man of direct action, Preston Smith went into the business of government. He served six years in the Texas House of Representatives and six in the Senate.

Senator Smith has supported sound statewide legislation for better schools, roads, welfare and conservation. He took the lead in establishing a permanent building program for state colleges. He had the integrity to support necessary state spending and the courage to oppose extravagance and waste. In government, as in business and at home, Preston Smith believes in meeting his obligations and paying our bills.

Having proved himself as one of the best-trained, best-equipped, best-informed and most highly respected Texans in both his private and public careers, Preston Smith was a logical candidate to succeed Ben Ramsey as Lieutenant Governor of Texas.

Voters in 102 counties gave Preston the lead over four opponents in the First Democratic Primary. Now he is in the runoff. He got there without the support of any self-serving group or power bloc. His opponent has the endorsement of labor leaders and other special interests who want to dominate our state government.

Preston Smith asks only for the votes of individual Texans who want a Lieutenant Governor without any strings attached. He is depending on independent-minded Texans everywhere to vote for him on June 2.

Elect your independent candidate for Lieutenant Governor—

How familiar are you with the various languages?

Can you speak Spanish? German? French? Italian? These and some others are to be heard in Texas. Used infrequently, 'tis true. But used!

There's one language you'd better get familiar with right away if ever you're going to become a real, down-to-earth honest-to-goodness outdoorsman. It's what we choose to call "Fishman"—for the lack of a better name, or simply.

Anyway, once you learn about 20 or 30 words you've mastered the language.

For instance, when a fellow angler hails you from a passing boat, on whom speaks his language. It's "Hiya-mac". And it means what it says, "How are you, Mack?"

Or he may say "Lobudddy". Meaning of course, "Hello, Buddy."

Anyway, if you stop to chat, the conversation goes like this: "Binearlong?"

"Cuplours?"

"Ketchanenny?"

"Goddafew."

Now do you savvy—entende—comprende? Kinda confusin' wasn't it?

Anyway, that's the way it's said by the "Fishman" method—when "fishmen" meet.

At least that's what Bill Miller of Corpus tells me. And he oughta know, 'cause he's the guy who runs to Del Mar Tackle Co. in that seacoast city—where they fish rivers, creeks, ponds, lakes and the Gulf.

Really don't think the language is limited to that area, however, for we've found traces of it everywhere.

HEALTH AND SAFETY TIPS FROM THE AMERICAN MEDICAL ASSOCIATION

The home gardening season is in full swing across the nation again this week. After long months of winter, followed by spring rains, millions of American householders are back at the annual battle with crab grass and insects in the perennial effort to add a touch of natural color and beauty to the American scene.

Gardening is splendid therapy and good exercise, highly recommended by the medical profession for almost everyone. It also entails some hazards to health, most of which can be avoided.

* If you have done nothing more strenuous than sit by the fire for most of the winter, by all means take it easy for the first few weeks of gardening. Give your muscles and wind a chance to regain strength gradually, rather than trying to do too much on the first day in the yard.

* Gardening often brings cuts and scratches from twigs, thorns, sharp tools. First aid is simple: Wash the wound with soap and water and apply an adhesive bandage. Let it bleed a little to wash away impurities. Of course, deeper cuts will require medical attention.

* Tetanus germs are harbored in the soil, particularly if there are farm animals around or if barnyard fertilizer is used in the garden. The home gardener who falls to get a shot of tetanus toxoid at the beginning of the season is courting serious trouble with lock jaw.

* Power tools, particularly lawn mowers, are standard equipment for the modern home gardener. They save many an aching back, but they are potentially dangerous. Your power lawn mower should come with instructions on its safe use. Study them carefully. They mean what they say. If you're in doubt, check with a mechanic as to potential hazards of power tools.

* Insect sprays and powders, plus poisons that kill weeds, are useful adjuncts to gardening. These, also, have inherent hazards if used improperly or carelessly. Once again, read the directions, especially the warnings. Keep the unused portion of the spray or powder tightly capped and safety out of the reach of children.

* The bees and wasps and spiders are out for the spring season too, and now and then one of them may sting you. For most of us, the sting is painful and causes swelling, but it isn't serious. If you are one of those individuals with an allergy to insect bites, extra caution is required. If you are allergic to bites, ask your doctor about the desensitizing injections.

Mrs. Chas. Lee went to Midland Friday to visit her daughter, Mrs. Mack Pyle. She will accompany her daughter to Roswell, New Mexico, where they will visit their daughter and sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ackerman.

More than a million dollars! That was the cost last year of removing litter from highway rights of way. Vandals of signs and other highway property cost another $450,000. The Texas Highway Department urges Texans this year to help keep the state's "front yards" clean by disposing of travel trash in the proper receptacles.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q. Will the VA pay for ambulance transportation to and from a VA hospital?

A. Only if prior authorization is obtained from the hospital. A veteran or a private physician may apply to the hospital by mail or phone for this authorization. If (a) the veteran has a service-connected condition or (b) if a non-service-connected veteran can't pay the cost of the travel.

Q. A discharge or dismissal from service by sentence of a General Court-Martial bars veterans from benefits administered by the VA. Recently a Navy veteran had been discharged by sentence of a General Court-Martial, the Navy Board for Correction of Naval Records held that his records should be corrected to show his separation was under honorable conditions. What about cases like this?

A. A recent decision of the VA General Counsel held that the action of the Board for Correction of Naval Records has the status of a special act of Congress for the veteran's relief, making the veteran eligible for VA benefits to which he is otherwise entitled.

Q. Because I pay my National Service Life Insurance premiums by allotment, I have not applied for the total disability income provision which might pay me $100 a month if I am disabled before age 60. Can I get the TDIP rider, and if so, how?

A. Yes, you can, and without a physical examination if you are under age 40. Application forms and assistance are available at any VA office or from your Service Personnel Officer.

LORAIN SENIOR TRIP

By Beth Shepherd

After long years of waiting other Senior classes depart on their Senior trips and, after working for four long years to raise the money for their own Senior trip, the Senior class of Loraine High School, 1962, finally made it! Wednesday afternoon, May 2, at 1:40 p.m., seventeen students, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Nichols, Mrs. Iris Preston, and assistant bus driver, Mr. Roy Wells, along with four room mothers, Mrs. Price Hall, Bud Shepherd, Thomas Vest and Roy Wells, departed from Loraine on the annual Senior Trip of LHS. Students participating were Ann Dickenson, Annette Browning, Katrina Wells, Joretta Hall, Barbara Kidd, Lenora Chavez, Simona Salas, Esther Mosher, Sandra Cushing, Thomas Vest, Don Redwine, David Little, Mike Dobbs, Mario Galvan, Gerald Owen, Don Williams, and Beth Shepherd.

During the bus ride, games of cards, Mexican dominoes, Pass-word and others were enjoyed by the students and sponsors. Picnic lunches were eaten at a roadside park near Gatesville about 5:30. Wednesday afternoon, after driving all night, breakfast was eaten at a small truckstop near Gramercyville, Louisiana. The group arrived in New Orleans at 7:45 a.m., Thursday morning. After checking in at the Riviera Motel at 10:30 a.m., the students swam a while, unpacked, and were ready to go once again. While the boys toured Lake Ponchartrain Beach and Bourbon Street, the girls, Mrs. Preston, and room mothers had an interesting ride downtown in a city bus and a trolley car. Upon arrival on Canal Street, the main street of the city, the girls walked several blocks to Morrison's Cafeteria, a very beautiful one indeed. After lunch, a shopping spree was enjoyed on the busy streets of New Orleans. Later, some of the group returned to the motel, while others rode the city bus to Ponchartrain Beach. After everyone returned to the motel, supper was enjoyed at Martin Brothers' Restaurant near the motel, and the group retired for a good night's sleep. However, some of the girls had a difficult time sleeping, as some "unknowns" insisted on "whistling dixie" outside their motel windows!

Friday was a big day in the lives of these small-town residents, most of whom never have a chance to see a real celebrity, much less the Chief Executive himself! The day's activities started off with a bus ride downtown, then a walk to City Hall, followed by a two-hour wait to see and hear President John Fitzgerald Kennedy, himself! The purpose of the President's visit to the city of New Orleans was to dedicate a new wharf, supposedly the largest wharf in the entire world. The President arrived at City Hall, where a crowd of 100,000 people, mostly high school and college students, awaited him. At City Hall, the President made a short ten-minute speech. Sure enough, he really does talk like a Bostonian! His accent is as distinct as the Texas drawl of the Seniors hearing him! Excitement spread through the crowd as secret service men were spotted high atop the skyscrapers of the city. Amidst all the cheering and the crowd, the President was only fifteen minutes behind schedule for a two-and-one-half hour stay in the city.

Following the President's appearance, the Loraine Seniors had lunch at Antoine's Restaurant in the center of the French Quarter. Each member of the party was given his menu as a remembrance of Antoine's. The menus were written in French and the waiters aided us in selecting our meals. After lunch, a tour of the restaurant was made, which included seeing the wine cellar, the State Room, and the room in which the ornaments for the crowning of the Queen of Orleans are kept. Following lunch, a tour of the French Quarter was made. Trills included browsing in antique shops, curio shops, watching the artists in Pirate's Alley, and touring the French Market. There, the group was served the famous "square" doughnuts and a tour of the kitchen in which they are made was enjoyed. After the doughnut break, Jackson Square was toured and the group was shown through the famous old Saint Louis' Cathedral, a very beautiful Catholic church. The group then went to the famous cemetery in which voodoo is still practiced and were shown the above-ground burying places.

FIRST STEP IN THE HIGHLAND LAKES' GIANT STAIRWAY OF FUN: Lake Buchanan, photographed at massive Buchanan Dam. Backing up a lake-full of aquatic fun, the dam and its Lower Colorado River Authority power station help provide electric power for the Central Texas area. Below Buchanan, five more LCRA dams form the rest of the Highland Lakes: Inks, Granite Shoals, Marble Falls, Travis and Austin. The lakes are surrounded by numerous parks and attractions, including popular Texas Longhorn Cavern State Park and its famous underground cavern, third largest in the world. The cavern is located on Park Road 4, just a few miles from Lake Buchanan, and is open daily from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Friday night, the group returned to Bourbon Street and the girls and their sponsors went to the Famous Door nightclub, which features two wonderful jazz bands each night. When the manager learned the group was from Texas, he played "The Eyes of Texas" and some other Texas songs. This was all for the price of a coke-not ten cents, as usual, but $1.10! At those prices, one coke was enough!

Saturday morning, the group relaxed at the motel, then went to Ponchartrain Beach for lunch and to relax during the afternoon. The girls ate lunch at a Polynesian Restaurant and enjoyed it very much. After an afternoon in the sands of Ponchartrain, the group returned to the motel. After supper at Martin Brothers, they went to the docks and boarded the S. S. President, a very beautiful steamboat. At 8:00 p.m. atop the boat, there was a steam calliope on which special requests were played. Naturally, the group had to request some special numbers, including "When the Saints Go Marching In", "The Eyes of Texas", Yellow Rose of Texas", and the Loraine High School's school song. The ship raised anchor at 9:00 p.m. and made a tour of the Mississippi River which lasted until 1:15 a.m. Sunday morning. Following the riverboat ride, the group boarded the schoolbus and made a quick tour down Bourbon Street. After returning to the motel, they then retired for the rest of the night.

Sunday morning, after breakfast, some of the class members and sponsors attended church. Churches attended were a Church of Christ, a Catholic Church, and First Baptist Church of New Orleans. The group loaded and left New Orleans at 3:15 p.m., Sunday afternoon. Sunday night, the group stayed at Holiday Inn in Alexandria, Louisiana. After going through Shreveport, the group arrived in Dallas about 5:30 p.m., Monday night. While in Dallas, the group stayed at the Belmont Motor Hotel, near the Dallas-Ft. Worth freeway. Tuesday was spent shopping in downtown Dallas for the girls, and in Ft. Worth, for the boys. One of the highlights of the shopping trip for the girls was a tour of the Merchants Building in which they were taken to the 31st floor to the penthouse. From there, all of Dallas and the surrounding area could be seen.

The group left Dallas about 8:00 a.m., Wednesday morning, had lunch at the Chicken Shack in Abilene, and arrived home about 3 p.m., Wednesday afternoon, a very happy and relaxed group. The 1962 Senior Class of Loraine High School certainly recommends a trip to New Orleans for every Senior Class! It is an enjoyable, unforgettable trip!

This is the last of the "Senior News and Views" column and the Senior class would sincerely like to thank the paper for allowing us the room to share our interests and good times with the general public. Also, thanks to the merchants and private citizens who have helped to make our Senior year a happy one. Without your help, we could never have edited our 1962 Lorainean, nor could we have made our wonderful trip to New Orleans. Thanks again!

GRAZING DEADLINE PAST FOR WHEAT, FEED GRAIN PROGRAMS

Farmers were reminded today that acreage diverted under either the 1962 wheat or feed grain program may no longer be pastured. Orrion J. Linam, Chairman, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Mitchell County Committee, said today that May 1 was the deadline for pasturing such acreage. Acreage to be diverted under the programs is so designed by the program participant at the time a check is made of compliance. In this county, this check should be substantially completed by July 15. Under the wheat and feed grain programs, farmers are seeking to bring production into line with needs through diversion to a conserving use acreage formerly planted to either wheat or corn, grain sorghum, or barley. Program payments are made under the programs to offset the loss of income which otherwise might have been returned from such crop production. Farmers in Mitchell County have signed up 102 farms for participation in the wheat stabilization program, and 386 farms under the feed grain program. Acreage signed up for diversion under the programs included 1,596 acres from wheat production, 14,602 acres from corn-grain sorghum production including barley.

Marketing Quota Penalty Rate For 1962 Excess Wheat Set At $1.59 Per Bushel

The U. S. Department of Agriculture May 8 announced a market quota penalty rate of $1.59 per bushel on 1962-crop "excess" wheat production. This compares to a 1961-crop penalty rate of $1.08 per bushel.

When wheat marketing quotas are in effect as they are for 1962-crop wheat, the law requires penalties on excess wheat production at the rate of 65 per cent of parity as of May 1 of the crop year. The rate announced May 8 reflects 65 per cent of the May wheat parity price of $2.44 per bushel.

The Agricultural Act of 1961 increased the rate of penalty to 65 per cent of parity. Previously, the penalty rate had been set at 45 per cent of parity by law.

This rate times a farm's wheat excess, expressed in bushels, determines the actual amount of penalty.

Growers approved marketing quotas for the 1962 wheat crop, as announced Oct. 16, 1961.

USDA officials point out that some farms with 15 acres or less of wheat may be subject to quota penalty on their production as a result of changes made in the law for 1962. Previously, producers on farms harvesting less than 15 acres of wheat were not subject to penalties.

For 1962, small farms (13.5 acres or less of wheat) on which the 1962 wheat acreage is higher than the highest acreage in any of the three years 1959, 1960 and 1961, will be subject to penalty in 1962 in most cases.

Any farm on which the acreage is more than 13.5 acres and more than the acreage allotment will also be subject to penalty.

USDA officials also indicated that producers on many of these farms still have time to reduce their acreage to avoid a marketing quota penalty.

The 1961 act also changed the basis for determining the wheat marketing excess. The amount of wheat subject to penalty will be assessed on double the normal bushel yield on the excess acreage. However, if the producer can establish that his actual yield was less than this, the county Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation (ASC) committee can reduce the amount of the excess. Previously, the penalty was based on the normal yield with provi-

The wheat marketing excess in bushels is determined by multiplying the average in acreage times the yield figure. This bushel figure times the penalty rate announced May 8 determines the farm's quota penalty in dollars. This may be paid in cash or the payment may be avoided by storing the excess wheat under bond or by delivering it to the Secretary of Agriculture in accordance with special instructions. When the penalty is satisfied, the remaining wheat may be marketed penalty free. However if the penalty is not satisfied, any wheat marketed has an automatic lien against it.

Farmers who signed to participate in and comply with the 1962 wheat stabilization program will be eligible for price support on their 1962 production. Support will be at a national average rate of $2.00 per bushel. Wheat farmers can obtain specific information from county ASCS offices as to how these new marketing quota provisions may apply to their farms.
