Local Flood Aid Collection Due - $1,000 Sent

A $1,000 check already has been sent from Mitchell County to South Texas flood victims and individual citizens will have an opportunity to contribute food and clothing Friday at the Colorado-Brady football game.

Mitchell County's Salvation Army unit mailed the check to the Salvation Army's Division Service Unit in Dallas expressly for use in flood relief.

Colorado City's Beta Sigma Phi chapter will sponsor the collection of staple foods (canned foods and other items not subject to spoilage) and clothing at the football game.

A collection truck will be placed outside the stadium between the southwest and southeast gates — for convenience of donors.

"We are hopeful of a splendid response from all our citizens to aid the thousands who are homeless because of the unprecedented floods," said Mrs. R. H. Drennon of Beta Sigma Phi.

Clothing and food collected here will be picked up here by truck and transported directly to the flood area.

Beta Sigma Phi also will call at local homes and pick up food-clothing donations, according to Mrs. Bruno Kaulfus, president of the sorority.

Persons desiring a pickup of their items can phone Mrs. Kaulfus, RA 4-5478.

Dee Tonn, treasurer for Mitchell County Salvation Army unit, said the $1,000 check sent from here was in response to an appeal for local groups to participate directly in Salvation Army relief work on the Gulf Coast.

"All Salvation Army manpower and equipment in Texas has been sent to the Gulf Coast," the Dallas service unit has informed the local organization, "and our people will serve from Port Arthur to Brownsville — caring for more than 50,000 people."

Tonn said the $1,000 comes from funds held here for lo-

Texas looks to Colorado City Friday for the week's No. 1 game in AA football. Two unblemished records smack into each other at 8 p.m. kickoff time in Wolf Stadium.

Favorites, of course, will be Brady High Bulldogs — unanimous choice for No. 3 ranking among all Texas AA teams.

Coach Truman Nix's Colorado High Wolves — apparently a team with bad breath as far as state ratings are concerned — will seek to lengthen its unbeaten path for victory No. 4.

IT'S THE caliber of game fans wish for, seldom see. Both teams have blazed a victory trail through their opening games with muscle.

The Wolves are the hungry, aggressive kids — moving up after being evaluated as an also-ran for District 5-AA championship.

Brady, conqueror over C-City last year, is a perennial power in Central Texas football, familiar to the taste of glory and tabell "too strong" for District 8-AA.

IN THREE successive encounters Colorado has conquered C-City 25 to 8, 20 to 62 to 0 and AAA-Sweetwater 19 to 0 — 106 points to a skinnier 8 for opponents. Brady, heavier all around than the Wolves, shattered Lampasas 41 to 7, whipped AAA Lake View 26 to 20 and, last week, beat Winters 12 to 7.

PUDDIN' JONES, a 9.8 sprinter with a rugged 190 pound frame, and powerful Ronnie Neves, 205-pound fullback, head an all-senior Brady backfield which also includes 160-pound Curtis Kidd at quarterback and 175 pound Ramon LaFuerne at halfback.

Neves is the bread-and-butter guy in the offense with Jones ready and capable of scoring from any distance, which he did 4 times against Lake View.

The Wolves depend upon

Brady Bus To Receive Welcome

Colorado City, before the heat of battle, will welcome Brady High's football team with a motorcade here Friday.

Jaycees are sponsoring the friendly greeting when the team arrives here for its encounter Friday at 8 p.m. with Colorado High Wolves.

Local fans are invited to join with Jaycee cars Friday afternoon at Civic House, then move out to the city limits to meet the bus.

"We are planning a police escort and will have signs and banners ready," said Danny Majors, who is formulating plans for Jaycees.

"It is our idea to be good sports on and off the field and this kind of welcome should set the tone for friendly, but earnest encounter on the field."

Coach Truman Nix will join the C-City group at the school and personally welcome Brady coaches and players, Majors said.

Colorado City sent 340 adult tickets and 200 student tickets to Brady early in the week.

Local fans can obtain tickets downtown at Landau's. The game Friday is expected to draw one of the largest football crowds here in years.

a lighter, less experienced gang of backs with slender Randy Parker at quarterback, Don Steakley and Ralph Lindsey dividing most of the running chores.

DEFENSIVELY, the Bulldogs will have a quick moving front line of Mike Rice, 155; Neves, who moves his 205-pounds from fullback to interior lineman; Boone Newlin, 192, and Royce Lewis, 205, bolstered with a trio of linebackers — Jones, 165; Steve West, 175, and Dennis Snodgrass, 165.

The Wolves came out of their encounter with Sweetwater last week with an extra batch of ailments, but the only new name to the casualty list is Kenny Key, the 160 pound end who doubles as a linebacker.

KEY, WITH a bum knee, has worked out each day this week, but has been taking it easy, skipping the rough duty. But he is hopeful of being ready Friday night and joining Benny Lamb, Kerry Campbell, Macca Findley, who has come back from the injury list, in handling the linebacking chores. If he isn't ready, then 142-pound Carl Webb will likely see duty at line.

LAST YEAR, the Wolves journeyed — to Brady — with the same record as now — three wins, no losses — but fell before the Bulldogs, 24 to 14. And the loss took a good bit of starch out of the Wolves for remainder of the season.

A leaky pass defense caused major trouble last year in Brady. In fact, the Bulldogs passed safely 12 times for a total of 170 yards.

Aerials were key factors in 50 and 75 yard touchdown marches by the Bulldogs.

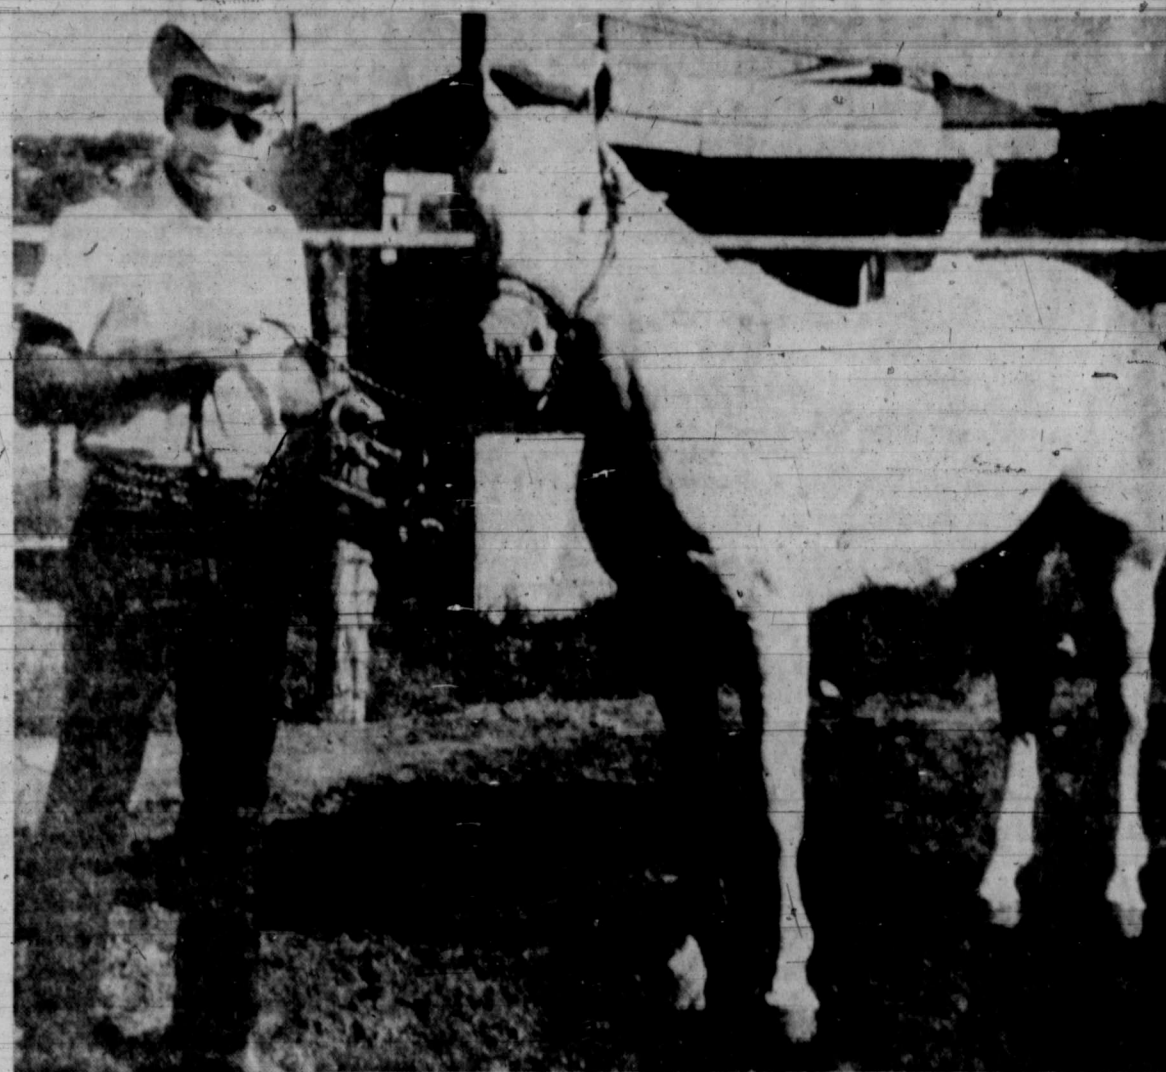

Coach Nix's team did register five more first downs than Brady (19 to 12) and traveled 81 yards in 11 plays for their opening touchdown. But they couldn't halt the Brady attack, also aided by a 17-yard scoring jaunt by Jones.

An auto wreck last year had just knocked Larry Paul out of the Wolves lineup for the season and had hurt Findley, too.

ASSOCIATED PRESS. United Press International — along with major city sports staffs — all rank Brady this week as No. 3 in State AA football behind Jacksboro (No. 1) and Dain.

Roach Renamed to ASC Committee

Community committeeman Wednesday renamed Edward E. Roach of Payne Community to Mitchell County Agricultural Stabilization & Conservation Committee.

Roach, whose term expired, was named to a new three-year term. Following the community committeemen's action, the county committee retained its same organization for the ensuing year — Curtis Latimer, continuing as chairman; Roach, continuing as vice chairman, and Jack Linam as third member of the committee.

Neither Latimer's nor Linam's terms expired this year.

T. C. Moore of Sapde Community and Everett Haggerton of China Grove were named by the community representatives as first and second alternates, respectively, to the county committee.

The community committeemen met Wednesday following their election in a tabulation Monday of mail ballots.

Farmers elected to the community groups were: Community A — Rex T. McKenney, chairman; A. Preston Morris, vice chairman; T. C. Moore, regular member; J. B. Autry, first alternate; Linden Solomon, second alternate.

Community B — Everett W. Haggerton, chairman; Warren Anderson, vice chairman; A. K. McCauley Jr., regular member; O. B. Trulock Jr., first alternate; W. A. Taylor, second alternate.

Community C — Lee Ray Cornutt, chairman; John Thomas West, vice chairman; Travis P. Turner, regular member; C. N. Stubblefield, first alternate; Roscoe Huggins, second alternate.

ASC county and community farm committees are in charge of local administration of such national programs as the Agricultural Conservation Program, Crop-Land Adjustment Program, Feed Grain Program, Voluntary Wheat Program, Up-Land Cotton Diversion Program, National Wool Program, acreage allotments and marketing quotas, commodity loans and storage facility loans.

Each year local farmers earn thousands of dollars through participation in these farm-action programs.

He was arrested last Sept. 16 by State Highway Patrolman Jim Mauldin.

Honor Ceremony Athlete Leads Loraine Chapter

Ronnie Finley, leading scorer for Loraine High's football team, has been installed as president of Loraine High Chapter of National Honor Society.

The studious athlete is a senior and son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Finley of Loraine.

Other officers of the chapter are: Gaye Green, vice president; Sharon Sanford, secretary; Ricky Walker, treasurer; Danny Butler, historian; Marsha Padgett and Debbie Oliver, reporters; David Terry, parliamentarian.

Rev. James E. McKee, pastor of Loraine First Baptist Church, installed officers in a candle-lighting ceremony and inducted 13 new members into the honor society.

New members inducted include Daniel Alvarez, senior; Mary Jane Chavez and Emma Madrid, juniors; Elaine Boyd, Karen Sue Givens, Tim Hamilton, James Lee, Karen Sue Long, Cindy McDaniel, Pam Sanford, Frankie Stewart, Kristi Walker and Milke Walker, sophomores.

Rev. McKee gave the invocation and Stanley Hackfeld led the audience in the pledge of allegiance. Peter Galvan, a senior member of NHS, presented the purpose and aims of the society.

Vance Dickenson, principal, explained the method of selection of candidates and presented each new member with a membership card. Members are elected on the qualities of scholarship, character, service, and leadership by the teachers.

Gail Richard served as scholarship speaker; Patricia Baumann as character speaker; Irene Chavez as service speaker; and Jean Graham as leadership speaker.

The top 10 NHS members are one of the local chapter's projects. A framed display of pictures and scholastic ranks of the NHS members is determined each six weeks with ranks based on grades from the beginning of the ninth grade.

A short business meeting of the NHS Chapter was held after the ceremony.

Turn Row Fight Ranchers Go After Mesquite

Numerous ranchers in Mitchell Soil and Water Conservation District have taken up the fight against mesquite on their range lands. Control of mesquite needs to be an objective of many district farmers according to F. E. Busby, soil conservationist and their fight needs to be carried out along turn rows and fence rows bordering cotton and grain fields.

According to Busby, there are two reasons why the mesquite is such an undesirable plant.

First, research has shown that mesquite is one of the most inefficient users of water that we have. It takes five times as much water about 1800 hundred pounds — for a mesquite to produce a pound of dry matter as it does for cotton plant to produce a pound of dry matter.

Second, the mesquite tree has a vast system of lateral roots. The top foliage of a mesquite may be 10 to 20 feet across. But the root system on this same plant may stretch out a hundred feet or more in every direction.

Everywhere that mesquite are found growing along turn rows, these roots stretch out into the field robbing the farmer of valuable moisture that his crops depend upon," Busby explained.

John Kazda, Soil Conservation Service, calculated that a farmer could lose almost 25 acres of land to mesquite on a 160 acre field. Even in poor crop years, this could mean a loss in production of from 10 to 20 bales of cotton.

"It is hard to visualize any farmer being able or willing to sustain their loss," Busby emphasized.

There are two methods of mesquite control that are often used. The first is mechanical grubbing and the second is by basal oil spray. One advantage of grubbing is that the brush is removed and the turn row can be kept clean through the use of normal farm equipment.

An advantage of basal oil spray is that the farmer and his labor can treat the mesquite with regular hand sprayers.

"Either method should be fairly economical, especially when compared with loss in production caused by the mesquite," Busby said.

"The method of control is not really important. What is important is controlling the mesquite and eliminating this loss of moisture and production. It all means added dollars in the farmer's pocket," he said.

Mesquite Clears Out Crop

Soil Conservation Service photo shows plainly how mesquite and other brush have sapped cotton crop for 100 foot width at edge of a field in Mitchell County. Cotton production has been completely wiped out over the wide area.

PLAQUE PRESENTED

Memorial Tribute Paid Ratliff And Old Timers

Mitchell County paid special tribute Friday morning during Old Timer Day, to citizens whose names have been added to the memorial list since Sept. 1, 1966.

Sefton Pickens, manager of the Chamber of Commerce, read the list before the crowd of pioneers assembled in Civic House observed moments of silent meditation with prayer spoken by Oscar Batten.

District Judge Austin McCloud was then introduced for one of the program highlights. He made the presentation of a plaque to Mrs. Harry Ratliff, in memory of her husband, longtime reunion and historical museum enthusiast, attorney, and public-spirited citizen of Colorado City.

McCloud began by saying "There was nothing ordinary about this man Harry Ratliff. He was an extraordinary man in every respect."

Former law partner of Mr. Ratliff, Judge McCloud spoke his personal appreciation for his association with the late Harry Ratliff as counselor and friend.

"From him I learned how a wise man thinks, where he places values," he said. "Many times, when as a younger man he questioned Mr. Ratliff's keen interest in the museum, he would tell me we are not talking about things. We are talking about people." McCloud said as he referred to the late citizen as "Backbone of the museum and this reunion, dedicated to service and sacrifice to his community."

Plaque tribute, along with Mr. Ratliff, during the meditation period were these names, read by Pickens:

Electricity has shortened our life expectancy. Power from the LONE WOLF ELECTRIC COOPERATIVE automatically awakens us with light early in the morning and doesn't let us go back to sleep until far into the night. As a result we are up longer, eat more and get fatter faster. We know cooperative service is something to crow about but do they have to do it day and night? The LONEWOLF ELECTRIC COOPERATIVE is fine for people but if it were left up to us, there wouldn't be a kilowatt to cook with. So we are bringing our case to you. We get no sympathy from our mother, the brooder, She's electric also.

Men In Uniform News From Vietnam

Hubert Earl Jones has been promoted from corporal to sergeant while on duty in Vietnam.

The Colorado City soldier is stationed at Binh Hoa with a battery of the 8th Artillery.

He is the son of Tony Jones, the grandson of Mrs. Mary Haynes, and nephew of Mrs. Lois Bailey.

Billy Wood, who returned to Navy duty last July with specialist rating in the Seabees, is supervising a construction crew at an airstrip in Vietnam.

He is with a Navy Construction Battalion unit constructing an airstrip with aluminum strips, a technique perfected by the Navy and Marines after being tried first in the Central Pacific in World War 2 on Wallis Island.

Wood, whose wife and two daughters live here at 203 Manuel, has been working out of bases at Dong Ha and Da Nang.

He returned to uniform last July, received petty officer training in Rhode Island and joined a Seabee unit in California for assignment to Vietnam three months ago.

Navy Ensign Donald R. Vest, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Vest of 1405 Pine, and husband of the former Miss Jeanne K. Walthall of Ft. Worth, qualified for carrier landings aboard the anti-submarine warfare aircraft carrier USS Lexington while undergoing advanced flight training with Training Squadron 27 (VT-27), based at the Naval Air Station in Corpus Christi.

Flying the Grumman TS 2A "Tracker", a multi-engine, carrier based anti-submarine aircraft, he also performed his first instrument pilot training, qualifying him to fly under all weather conditions.

Upon completion of the training with VT-27, he will be designated a Naval Aviator, and receive his "Wings of Gold".

Marine Private First Class Raymond L. Summers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Summers of 825 Locust St., completed two weeks of training under simulated combat conditions in the fundamentals of day and night patrolling, employment of infantry weapons, survival methods and assault tactics at this Marine Corps base.

This individual combat training is given every Marine after his graduation from recruit training. Taught by combat experienced non-commissioned officers of the infantry training regiment here, it prepares the young Leatherneck to become part of the Marine air-ground combat team.

While in the field he was taught how to use hand grenades, a compass and the principles of map reading and land navigation. He learned how to detect and disarm mines and booby traps and while being exposed to live machine gun fire, he learned to advance safely from one point to another.

From this course, he is scheduled to go on to more advanced training before being assigned to his permanent unit.

CONVERSATION CORNER

WITH all this disheartening news about hurricane Beulah there came a sudden memory . . . the memory of how much all us Baptists used to love to sing the old hymn "Beulah Land."

Loved it as a small child because of the dashing rhythm even if the words didn't mean very much back then.

Remember? "I'm living on a mountain underneath the cloudless sky . . . I am drinking from a fountain that never shall run dry . . . Oh yes, I'm feasting on the manna from a bountiful supply . . . For I am dwelling in Beulah Land!"

HYMNS had a very special place in life when I was growing up. Specially the ones us Baptists love to sing.

Long ago, when Emma used to come to the big gray house on the terraced lawn every sunny Monday to do the wash, it became the duty of Mother's three little girls to "bring in the clothes" after they were dry.

We made a fine game of it and a contest to see who could remember the most words and sing 'em the loudest, from the old hymn "Bringing in the Sheaves."

Matter of fact, the littlest girl, the one named Ruth, always sang it more literally, making the words go "Bringing in the sheets, bringing in the sheets, we shall come rejoicing, bringing in the sheets!"

OTHER favorites during the first decade of this life were always the rollicking ones — the happy hymns.

"Bound for the Promised Land," Billy Sunday's theme "Brighten the Corner Where You Are" and "When the Roll Is Called Up Yonder" were wonderful for marching along to school, even if the music sang only in the heart.

Later, as the years marched by, came to prefer the hymns with words which sang a promise . . . "When We All Get to Heaven," "Meet Me There" and "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere."

Charles, my brother, loved best to sing "Shall We Gather At the River," and we sometimes argued about which was the best hymn in the world, his favorite about "The beautiful, the beautiful river," or my own beloved "I Love to Tell the Story."

HYMNS have a place in the human heart. They come back to echo of other days, other scenes.

For no reason — except maybe the name of the hurricane, have caught myself singing "Beulah Land" all week. Chances are that our fellow Texans who have homes in the midst of the places that hurricane claimed as Beulah Land 1967 . . . have no fondness for singing "Beulah Land" right now.

Have a feeling that if anybody in the path of the floods feels an urge to sing a hymn, it will come nearer to being "Lord Plant My Feet On Higher Ground."

FAMILIAR FACES, here and there places, belonged to Wilma Jean McKenney (Mrs. Rex) in a lovely shade of rosy pink, with Mrs. W. A. Swafford in bright blue, Old Timer Day.

Saw Lucy Thomas (Mrs. Luke) at the parade last Thursday . . . Carolyn Braswell (Mrs. Eddie) with Gayle Houston (Mrs. Corky) and their children, too.

George Hudson and his attractive wife Frances were office visitors.

Joe Earnest is back in town after the most wonderful vacation spent abroad.

HEAR TELL that C-City has a new grandbaby, a little girl born to John M. Worrell, Jr. (MD and PhD) and his wife Sabiha in Albuquerque, New Mexico, Sept. 15.

The baby has been named Laila Jeannine. Since her mother is a native of Iraq, Laila's paternal grandparents, Betty and John Worrell Sr., have been in Albuquerque to welcome the new grandchild.

The C-City Worrells were expected back about the middle of this week.

SEEN LATELY were Mrs. Ed Jones . . . Mrs. Bennett Scott . . . Lena (Mrs. Gwan) Strange . . . Ann Randle Davis, all with study club reports . . . Doris (Mrs. Harry) Dockrey of Spade.

Saw Barney Wren with his daughter Lovena Cooper of Washington, D.C. . . . Dolores Boles, wife of Lacy . . . Pat Moore on the shopping scene . . . Jean (Mrs. Bill)

Holbert and Joan Watlington (Mrs. Raymond) in Richburg's . . . George Womack . . . Gus Chesney . . . Tandy Curlee . . . Bob Reilly, husband of Charlene . . . Mrs. Buster Davis who was saying our Monette Davis loves West Texas State at Canyon where she's a freshman.

SPIED by specially appointed spies at the county fair Friday night were Forrest and Esther Smith . . . Bill and Gloria Erwin.

James Hull and J. C. Britton were manning the Lions Club stand . . . Addie V. Payne was there with her electric organ . . . The Ginzels, Frank and Betty, were taking in the exhibits . . . So were the Leon Lights . . . The J. L. Harders and their handsome children.

Also on the scene, said spies reported, were Dolly Ruth (Jarman) and Owen Lee Montgomery . . . The Hank Bryants . . . Pat and Bob Lee, Jr. . . Janie Sue Henderson . . . The Lawrence Ruddicks . . . Homer Watt Hart of Loraine.

Montie and G. D. Foster were strolling along . . . Diane Graham . . . Connie Gomez . . . George Lee, highway patrolman . . . The B. D. Masons . . . The Bill Helms family . . . Setton Pickens . . . Shana and Hubert Bassinger.

Spies, who served without pay and through family loyalty, were Doris Coffey Mann, her son Jim, and daughter Betsy.

See you Sunday!

CIRCUIT RIDER VOLUNTEERS

Nina Farmer New Office Secretary

Mrs. Clifford (Nina) Farmer has been appointed by Volunteer Advisory Board for Big Spring State Hospital.

Office is located in the Rhode-Cowan Clinic building 505 Chestnut St. Telephone number is RA 8-3547.

Mrs. Farmer will be in her office, beginning Monday, Oct. 2, between the hours of 1 p.m. and 5 p.m. each week day through Friday. Women interested in becoming part of the Circuit Riders Volunteer program are requested to call the office and list their names with Mrs. Farmer.

Announcement of Mrs. Farmer's appointment as secretary came from Lewis McKnight, president of the Volunteer Advisory Board for the Big Spring State Hospital.

Wednesday has been set as the traveling day for Circuit Rider Volunteers from Mitchell County, said Mrs. Mildred Bennett, program specialist. Trips to and from the hospital are to be made by the Circuit Riders station wagon.

Colorado City citizens interested in becoming members of the "Buck a Month Club," are also asked to call Mrs. Farmer or Mrs. Jewell Richter. One dollar each month can help some lonely patient with small expenses at the canteen, Mrs. Bennett pointed out.

Mrs. H. T. Coles and Mrs. Jewell Richter of Colorado City were visited Friday by Mrs. N. F. Hall.

Playhouse To Open In Yum-Yum Tree

Three acts of riotous fun, is ready for Colorado City Playhouse fans with the opening, Monday night, of "Under The Yum-Yum Tree," in Colorado High School auditorium.

Curtain time will be 8 p.m. for the three performances. "Under The Yum-Yum Tree" will be staged here Monday night, Tuesday night, Oct. 2 and 3, and again Saturday night, Oct. 7, theater audiences are reminded.

Directed by Charlotte Northcutt, the comedy drama (billed as adult entertainment) will star Gwen Brown as Irene Wilson; Dan Majors as Hogan; Mrs. Northcutt as Robin Austin; Wendell Jamarian as Dave Manning; Bill Davis, a millman and a cab driver, will be played by Porter Richardson and Tandy Curlee.

Action takes place in an attic apartment of an old building in San Francisco's Telegraph Hill, with the time "in the present."

"Under the Yum-Yum Tree" is a new comedy, first presented in New York City in 1960 with Gie Young and Nan Martin as stars. Later Jack Lannon starred in the Hollywood movie version.

Romantic, light, facetious, the drama is concerned with two love affairs with Hogan, apartment manager, trying to play real live cupid to the younger couple in love, and frustrated.

Spade 4-H Club Meets

The Spade 4-H Club had their first meeting for their second project in the home of their leader, Mrs. Harry Dockrey.

Members were presented their project guides "4-H Food and Fun." Plans were made for each member to enter home cooked exhibits in the Mitchell County Fair.

Cookies and candies were cooked at the meeting.

Members present were: Muri Jackson, Sue Howell, Cheryl Hamrick, Patricia Winn, Norma Morris, Vannassa Morris, and their co-leader, Mrs. Francis Winn.

advise, is not recommended for children's viewing. This is a sophisticated, but extremely light-hearted, show. Playhouse announces: It is written and will be played aimed at adult audience and grownup laughter.

Behind scene workers for "Under The Yum-Yum Tree," are Curlee, Playhouse president, Porter Richardson and George Womack, two former presidents of Playhouse, who are staging the drama. Set is complete and is said to be the most ambitious attempted to date.

Proprietor is Sharon Prescott, new Playhouse member. Properties are in charge of Nadine Gordon, first Playhouse president. Make-up will be done by Womack and Mrs. Northcutt.

Lovers of the ridiculous, the clever line, the situation comedy, and the spontaneous chuckle are invited by Playhouse to see "Under The Yum-Yum Tree."

Category of this play is what is used to be called

"drawing room drama" with addition of a kitchen and a split-level bedroom to add to the fun.

Elite Club —

A tip of the hat to Lowell E. Petty, Colorado City's newest member of Texas Electric Service Company's Quarter Century Club.

That's an elite group he joins — TESCO employees with 25 years of service with their company.

Mr. Petty, who lives up there at 1448 Dallas across the street from Virgil Moser and G. D. Foster, has been at Morgan Creek Power Plant since the No. 1 generating unit went into operation.

No doubt this gentleman is as proud of his quarter century of service as we are of him, his great generating plant and all the TESCO "family."

Hesperian Musical Tea Features Snyder Artists

Tea with a musical program highlighted the first 67th club meeting for members of the Hesperian Study Club and a number of guests.

Featured at the program hour in the home of Mrs. G. D. Foster, 1425 Dallas St., hostess for the tea, were Mr. and Mrs. Jon D. Smith of Snyder.

Mrs. Perry O. Barber introduced the guest artists. Mr. Smith is director of vocal music at Snyder High School and supervisor of voice in all Snyder schools. His wife, Donna, is teacher of public school music in Snyder elementary schools.

"Music Through the Centuries," subject for the afternoon, was presented by discussion, tapes, and vocal and piano solos.

Mr. Smith began his discussion with a study of music of the primitive, ancient and pre-baroque eras. He added the baroque period of 1600 to 1750 when concert music began, organ music was born, and such composers as Bach, Handel, and Vivaldi influenced music. Classical period, 1750-1820 brought a discussion of opera as a major form of music. Gluck, Haydn, Mozart and Beethoven as composers.

Mr. Smith continued his study of music of the romantic period, time of Paganini, Mendelssohn, Gounod, Verdi, Wagner, America's Stephen Foster, Grieg, and the origin of "The Blues," followed.

Climaxing the discussion Mr. Smith spoke of music in the 20th century—new sounds, new ways of expressing music, from Debussy, Gershwin, Bernstein, Verese. Mrs. Smith played as piano solos "To Spring" by Greig and John Schawm's "Shortlins' Bread." She accompanied her husband for two Leonard Bernstein vocal solos, "There's A Place For Us," and "Tonight."

Invited guests attending the musical tea were Miss

Clydine Suckney, Mrs. J. F. Quinney, Mrs. Eddie Piland, Mrs. Jim Hale, Mrs. Sims Palmer, Mrs. Charles Wakefield of Abilene, Mrs. Lucien Madden, Mrs. W. J. Waldrip.

Members present were Mrs. Lynn Halbert, Miss Mahel Smith, Mrs. Edgar Major, Mrs. John Hale, Mrs. Sam Wulffon, Mrs. E. H. Winn, Mrs. F. N. Thomas, Mrs. J. W. Watson, Mrs. O. Jones, Mrs. Bennett Scott, Mrs. O. L. Simpson, Mrs. Barber, and the hostess Mrs. Foster.

Next meeting will be Sept. 28 in the home of Mrs. Winn.

STUDY CLUB MEETS

Hobbies Program Theme At Hesperian Daughters

Hesperian Daughters Study Club inaugurated their 1967-68 series of club programs with a meeting Thursday in the home of Mrs. Warren Costin.

Eleven members answered roll call and exhibited a current hobby. Introduced by Mrs. Costin, Mrs. B. W. Tartt discussed "Hobbies I've Learned."

"Hobbies," she said, "offer enjoyment, friendship, knowledge, and relaxation. Anyone, rich or poor, old or young, sick or well, can follow a satisfying hobby regardless of age, position or income," Mrs. Tartt added.

She then discussed use of hobbies and crafts for both physical and mental therapy. Included on the speaker's list of hobbies for famous people were Charles V., collector of watches, Louis XXIV of France who designed furniture, George V of England, stamp collector, Franklin D. Roosevelt's 1,250,000 stamps and his model ships, Churchill's pleasure in painting, and Eisenhower's painting hobby.

Hobbies, Mrs. Tartt explained, fall into four classes: collections, do it yourself and handicraft hobbies, arts, and games or sports. Sir William Osler, she quoted, once said "No man is really happy or safe without a hobby and it makes precious little difference what the outside interest may be — botany, beetles or butterflies, roses or tulips, or urises, fishing, mountaineering or antiques — anything will do so long as he straddles a hobby and rides it hard."

Mrs. Tartt mentioned as some of her own hobbies the

"Do it yourself" variety — candy and cookie jars for gifts, sequin fruit, Deco painting paper flowers and fruit, egg shell frames, varnished fruit and flowers.

A demonstration of the making of attractive candy jars from a tin nut can was given by Mrs. Costin and Mrs. Tartt.

Next meeting will be Oct. 5 in the home of Mrs. C. N. Mayo. Present at the first program meeting were Mrs. E. V. Grantland, Mrs. R. P. Lee, Sr., Mrs. Donald Albright, Mrs. Curtis Erwin, Sr., Mrs. Frank Ginzler, Mrs. A. L. Geer, Mrs. Weems Dykes, Mrs. Willis Jones, Mrs. Tartt, Mrs. Costin, and Mrs. Harold Boney, new president, who presided at the opening session.

INSTALLATION NIGHT

Zetagathians Start Year With President's Dinner

President's dinner party for Zetagathian Study Club members marked the opening of their current club season Thursday evening.

Hostesses for the salad supper party in the Parish House at All Saints Episcopal Church were Mrs. W. S. Rhode and Mrs. Harland Birdwell.

librarian, and Mrs. Ann Randle Davis as reporter.

Mrs. Anderson spoke to the club on the subject, "An Experiment in Involvement," after installation.

"Every office, no matter which involves some responsibility," Mrs. Anderson told the club after her introductory remarks.

"As the new year begins let us stop to reflect on the blessings available to us through our service to our study club. Taking an active part adds purpose to our lives, a means of self-expression, a way of finding a channel of service, and an opportunity to spread a little sunshine in this troubled world."

"We live in a time of heightened intellectual appreciation and radical changes in all fields of human knowledge. In this kind of world it is especially important that adults as well as youth continue to study. Let us remind ourselves from time to time this year that it is through response to demands, many times, that we learn the best," Mrs. Anderson said.

Impala Sport Coupe

Distinctively new!
Fastback or formal.
Both '68
Chevrolet Impala coupes.

Some want the spirited, action-packed fastback look. Others prefer the poised and classic lines of our new Custom Coupe. The beauty of it is, from Chevrolet and only Chevrolet, you get both. Pick the one that's right for you and, whichever great new style you choose, you'll also enjoy such exciting new quality features as (1) Chevrolet's quietest ride ever, because of Chevrolet's extensive use of electronic computers to help isolate noise and vibrations. (2) Better performance from a bigger standard V8 with GM's no exhaust emission control. (3) Proved safety features including many new ones. (4) All kinds of new comfort and convenience: Hide-A-Way windshield wipers, rich new instrument panels, sumptuous new interiors. Chevrolet's best... ever!
