TO ADVERTISE FOR COTTON FACTORY

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE DIRECTORS TAKE STEPS FOR INSTITUTION OF THIS KIND.

HENDERSON IS CHOSEN

He Will Succeed J. M. Bland as Member of Directorate—Other Matters Acted On.

Advertisements are to be placed in papers of circulation in the cotton mill districts by the Chamber of Commerce with a view to interesting capitalists in those sections in the establishing of a cotton mill in this city.

This was decided upon at a meeting of the directors this morning and a committee consisting of Messrs. Frank Kell, R. E. Huff and A. H. Carrigan was appointed to take the matter up at once.

It has been intended to send Judge Carrigan to the east next month with the committee from McKinney, but this will not be done until a definite proposition is submitted. It is stated that Wichita Falls is in line for either a bonus or stock subscription proposition.

The directors received a proposition from a wholesale printing house at Greenville, manufacturers of a grocery list patent, offering to come here with its plant. The representative of the company is in the city today and Mr. Blair has the matter in charge.

The hay press factory proposition was referred to a committee consisting of Messrs. T. J. Taylor, Frank Kell and W. Lee Moore.

The resignation of Director J. M. Bland was received. Mr. Bland stated that he had too many other duties to give the needed amount of time to his work as director, and he asked that his resignation be accepted. Upon motion of Mr. Kell, the resignation was accepted and Mr. Bland thanked for his past labors and for his offer of future co-operation.

N. Henderson was elected a director to succeed Mr. Bland, there being no other nominations.

Jim Marlow brought up the baseball question and it was discussed at some length. The chances for Wichita Falls getting into the Texas League were mentioned and a committee consisting of Messrs. Marlow, Tandy and Blair, was appointed to take the matter up. Mr. Kell stated that a baseball park was to be constructed at Lake Wichita, and that whether Wichita Falls secured a league team or not, baseball would be amply provided for.

One or two other matters were informally discussed, after which adjournment was taken.

HELD NO CONFERENCE.

Elimination of Neither Johnson or Davidson is Considered.

Texas News Service Special. Dallas, Tex., Jan. 31.—R. V. Davidson, candidate for the nomination for governor, is still here today, conferring with prominent politicians of North and East Texas. Those who should know, declare there has been no conference between the Johnson and the Davidson supporters for the purpose of eliminating one of them and that no such meeting is contemplated. It is expected both will remain in the race.

WILL NOT RESIGN.

Culberson Denies That He Intends to Quit.

By Associated Press. Atlantic City, N. J., Jan. 31.—Senator Culberson of Texas, who is here for a rest, following a nervous breakdown, continues to improve. Rumors have reached him that he intended resigning his seat in the senate, but these he denies.

ANTI MEAT CRUSADE IS APPARENTLY GAINING

By Associated Press. New York, N. Y., Jan. 31.—Neither the anti-meat campaign nor the crusade for lowering the cost of living showed any signs of exhaustion here today.

The postal card campaign inaugurated by the Gotham Club, is being pushed. This movement contemplates asking every woman in the country to send a post card to President Taft, asking that he take measures against the monopoly control of meat prices.

INDICTED FOR PEONAGE.

Three Are Arraigned by Federal Court at Austin.

Texas News Service Special. Austin, Tex., Jan. 31.—The federal grand jury today returned indictments against Wm. Sledge Houston, a constable, in five cases; Jos. William Woods, Justice of the Peace, in four cases, and Robert S. Newton, in six cases, charging them with conspiracy to hold in peonage. There are thirty-six to forty counts against each. They have made bond. Tomorrow the cases will likely be set for trial in June.

It is alleged they had thirty whites and negroes as slaves on the Koppe farm in Burleson county.

STRIKE IS IMMINENT.

Bituminous Coal Miners May Walk Out Soon.

By Associated Press. Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 31.—Ten cents per ton on all mined coal is demanded for the bituminous coal miners in the report of the scale committee of the United Mine Workers of America is to be submitted in the convention today. Among the new wage contracts to be made are the following districts: Arkansas, Indian Territory and Texas.

MAY IMPEACH BASKELL FOR MISAPPROPRIATION

By Associated Press. Guthrie, Okla., Jan. 31.—Reference to the possibility of the impeachment of Governor Haskell on a docket state official was made in a resolution introduced by Representative Humphrey in the lower house of the legislature here today.

This grew out of the charges recently filed that the governor was guilty of misappropriation of public funds. The resolution demands the investigation of the Columbia Bank and Trust Company, which failed in Oklahoma City last fall for over a million dollars. The resolution is based on a letter written by the attorney general when the grand jury investigating the failure was discharged, criticizing the acts of certain state officials he alleged to be concerned in the institution.

LOSE LIVES IN FIRE.

By Associated Press. Scranton, Pa., Jan. 31.—Mrs. Joyce and her grandchild, Mary Sweeney, lost their lives early today in a fire which destroyed the Joyce home near Minook.

Yegmen Make Rich Haul.

Texas News Service Special. Chickasha, Okla., Jan. 31.—Three yegmen dynamited and robbed the safe of the Howard Mercantile Company at Blanchard, east of here, early this morning. They escaped with about one thousand dollars in cash and bank notes. The explosion awakened the citizens and a posse was organized and started in pursuit soon afterwards.

GOOD START MADE DURING JANUARY

ACCOMPLISHMENTS OF THIS CITY DURING PAST MONTH ARE RECAPITULATED.

GOOD PROGRESS IS MADE

Boys' School Heads the List of New Things Secured and Many Others Follow.

With the month of January, 1910, now practically ended and eleven months of this year ahead, Wichita Falls has made a start for 1910 that is worthy of recapitulation. Among the January accomplishments along the lines of civic progress, are:

$40,000 boys' school secured; Extension of Wichita Falls and Northwestern from Altus to Hollis assured.

$25,000 candy factory building started.

$100,000 building and loan association organized.

Realty deals aggregating about $400,000 consummated during the month.

Election called for more paving bonds and a better paying law.

Plans completed for new five-story office building.

Eight new street cars ordered and additional machinery for water and light plant contracted for.

Work started on interstate fair building.

Organization of cheaper gas company started.

These are the most important accomplishments of Wichita Falls and her citizens during the month just closed and if every month of the year witnesses that much progress along civic, industrial and commercial lines, 1910 will certainly be a record-breaking year for this city. Only one month of this year is gone and eleven-twelfths of the year remains for further accomplishments. On the 28th of February the Times hopes to be able to print another story of progress for that month that will eclipse January, and so on, at the end of every month during the current year.

By Associated Press. Paris, France, Jan. 31.—From midnight until noon today the subsidence of the River Seine averaged only a third of an inch per hour. The recession of the water in some streets was noticeable during the forenoon.

Some exciting row boat chases after criminals on the outskirts of the city occurred last night. Several times "Apaches" were fired upon by pursuers, three being shot dead and two others hanged from lamp posts as warnings.

Texas News Service Special. Amarillo, Tex., Jan. 31.—The case against John Williams, charged with the murder of John Armstrong, foreman of the X. I. T. ranch near Boyina, on November 17th, 1909, was called this morning before Judge Browning in the Forty-Seventh District Court. At the first trial in Randall county, the jury disagreed and the case was transferred here.

SENATOR CARTER SPEAKS ON BILL

DISCUSSED THE POSTAL SAVINGS MEASURE IN CONGRESS THIS MORNING.

WOULD NOT BE A MENACE

Says It Would Not Hurt Commercial Banks, But Would Improve Their Business.

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 31.—The United States is the only first-class power in the world to deny to the people the privileges and the blessings enjoyed by a postal savings bank, declared Senator Carter of Montana, speaking today in the senate on the bill to establish postal savings banks, favorably reported from the committee on postoffices and postroads.

He spoke of the promises made in the last republican platform, as well as in several other party platforms; of the support given to the measure by former President Roosevelt and by President Taft, as also by a number of the postmaster generals of the past 40 years and outlined the measure.

Answering numerous objections that have been made against postal savings banks, Senator Carter asserted that they would not be a menace to the present banking system of the country; that the commercial banks, even if they were sufficiently numerous, could not reach people in the rural and sparsely inhabited districts whom the postal banks are designed to benefit. The postal depositories, he declared, would encourage thrift, would bring into circulation much money now kept in hiding and would impel foreigners, who now send much of their savings home for deposit in savings banks in their own countries, to place it in the care of this government.

In referring to the countries which already have such a system the speaker said it is operated in countries of limited extent and those of broad territorial expanse with equal facility, success and satisfaction.

Answering the objection that the establishment of the postal banks would be "an unwarranted use of power by the government," he claimed that the bill but elaborates a use to which the postal service is now subjected, for as the report of the committee will show, a very large sum of money in all the states and territories is invested in money orders payable to the purchaser and renewed annually at an expense of $3 per $1,000, as a penalty of thrift.

"The prime feature of the measure," he declared, "is to encourage it among the masses of the people by furnishing widely distributed, convenient and absolutely safe depositories wherein small sums may be placed at a low rate of interest with the faith and credit of the government pledged to the repayment of principal and interest on demand."

He held that if the commercial and other banks were widely distributed they would not be patronized to any considerable extent by the class of people to whom the postal savings depository would furnish the useful element of convenience and absolute confidence. As to the charge that such a system might be held unconstitutional, he added that the microscope has not yet been made that can disclose a difference in principle between the money order system and the system here proposed.

"This system, he claimed, 'instead of being a menace to the banks, would prove a source of strength to the financial structure.' He said that such had been the experience wherever it had been tried.

TWO CHILDREN SHOT.

Mysterious Man in New York Continues His Work.

By Associated Press. New York, Jan. 31.—An unknown man shot and killed one child, wounded another and then shot himself today in an East Fifth Street house. The police are following the theory that the man may have been the slayer of the two boys shot while coasting recently.

LOCAL SUNDAY SCHOOL DEFEATED BY ABILENE

The contest between the Sunday Schools of the Christian church in this city and of the same denomination at Abilene, was decided yesterday, Abilene winning by a majority of 361 points.

The attendance yesterday at the Christian Church Sunday School was 548, more than could find room in the church building, and the men's Bible class was assembled on the lawn in front of the building.

The collection amounted to $38.45; number of Bibles, 384; daily Bible readers, 279; total points made yesterday by the Sunday School in this city, 1759.

A telegram from the superintendent of the Abilene Sunday School to Superintendent Bullock of the Christian Sunday School in this city, announced that that Sunday School had made 2126 points, which gave them the contest by a majority of 361 points, as stated above.

"Although we lost," said Superintendent Bullock, to a Times reporter this morning, "we have had for three months one of the largest Sunday Schools ever held in this part of the state. We thank the people of Wichita Falls for their loyal help."

LEAGUE TEAM FOR THIS CITY IS NOW PLANNED

Steps are being taken to secure the admission of Wichita Falls to the Texas Baseball League and the work was started this morning. While Wichita Falls is smaller than any city in the league, it is felt that she is none too small to ably support a league team, and the matter will be pushed hard. Shreveport's berth in the league is understood to be shaky and this city would be no further out of the way than Shreveport is.

A committee, consisting of Messrs. Jim Marlow, J. C. Tandy and Wiley Blair has been appointed to take the matter up and they hope to be able to secure a league team for this city by the time the season opens.

A good baseball park is guaranteed by local parties and it is not thought there would be any difficulty in raising the necessary amount of money to secure the franchise. The matter will be pushed and it is possible that Wichita Falls will be able to land.

SCALDED TO DEATH.

Texas News Service Special. Dalhart, Tex., Jan. 31.—The young daughter of E. C. LAVISH PLANS FOR BANKERS MEETING

VISITORS HERE ON FEBRUARY 22 WILL BE MOST EXTENSIVELY ENTERTAINED.

WILL GO TO PETROLIA

Lake Ride, Banquet and Theatrical Attraction Included in the Program for the Day.

The program for the Northwest Texas Bankers' Association, which meets here on February 22nd, has been completed and it provides entertainment of the most generous sort for the visiting bankers, who will be here on that occasion. The social features include a trip to Petrolia and the oil and gas fields, a car ride to the lake, a boat ride on the lake and a banquet at the lake, followed by a visit to the opera house, where "The Climax" will be presented for the benefit of the visitors.

The following business program has been arranged, beginning at 9:30 in the morning: Address of welcome—Hon. L. H. Mathis.

Response for visiting bankers—T. W. Slack of Fort Worth.

President's address—N. Harding of Fort Worth.

"The Best Method of Handling Cotton Accounts"—John H. P. Jones, of Childress.

"The Duty of the City Bank to Its Interior Correspondents"—Harry James, of Abilene.

"The Duty of the Interior Bank to Its Reserve Agent or Its City Correspondent"—J. W. Spencer of Anson.

This will conclude the business session and dinner will be the next attraction. At 1:00 clock a special train will leave Wichita Falls for the oil and gas fields at Petrolia, eighteen miles distant and the visitors will be given an opportunity to view the wonders and attractions of that section of Clay county. The return train from Petrolia will arrive here at 3:30 and the bankers will immediately be loaded on street cars and transported to Lake Wichita, where they are due to arrive at 4:15 in the afternoon.

Motor-boats fitted on the lake will occupy the crowd until 1:15 in the evening, when there will be a banquet served on the second floor of the new pavilion. It is probable that a program of toasts and responses will be arranged to follow the banquet.

After the supper, cars will bring the crowd back to town and "The Climax" at the Wichita Theatre will be the next attraction. This play is one of the most successful that has ever appeared on the local stage and special arrangements will be made to seat the bankers, who will be the guests of Wichita Falls. The theatrical performance will conclude the entertainment for the visitors.

Several hundred bankers are expected in Wichita Falls to attend this meeting, and they will come, not only from every section of the northwest Texas, but from all the financial centers of the country and it is proposed to give them a reception here that will always make the mention of the name of Wichita Falls put a good taste in their mouths. The local committee has completed the arrangements for the meeting and will take care of the visitors in a most lavish manner.

A SCIENTIFIC BABY.

Chart System and Absence of Cuddling Gives Promising Results.

One college woman who decided to raise her child in scientific principles has demonstrated at the end of the little one's second year the fallacy of the statement so often repeated that college women are unfitted for motherhood. Her boy—a scientific baby in all that the word implies—is today far superior, mentally and physically, to children of his age, and he promises the highest development of sturdy manhood when he comes to maturity.

The mother, Mrs. William Noyes, determined early to forego nearly all of the manifestations of motherly affections, such as cuddling, kissing, exhibition and fine garments, and to devoted here energy and thought entirely to conquering the petty ailments incident to infant life and to build up a strong body with a correspondingly acute mentality. She began by exercising the baby in his second month;
by limiting food to "just enough and no more," and by keeping him in the open air as much as possible.

Results showed themselves immediately.

At two months, the boy, Leonard, weighed twelve pounds, one and a half pounds more than the average; at three months he was 2.7 pounds above the average, and he rarely lost this gain.

The "average" babies observed by Holt do not hold up their heads until the third or fourth month. Leonard held up his in the third week. Holt's babies do not laugh until the fourth month. Leonard laughed in his twelfth week. Holt's babies do not reach for objects until the fifth to the seventh month. Leonard grabbed for a pair of scales in his fifteenth week.
In his twentieth week he began pulling himself up to the sitting position by the rod fastened across his basket;
in his twenty-second to sit up alone;
in his twenty-seventh, to pull himself up to his feet and stand alone; in his thirty-third he began to walk.

Everything that affected the health or demeanor of the boy was noted on a chart such as hospital nurses keep,
and this record when consulted proved to be an infantile guide in case of recurrence of the symptoms.—Van Norden Magazine.

Roadless Streets in Venice, Cal.
The Municipal Journal and Engineer.
The city of Venice, Cal., is to a considerable degree, a "resort" as such is subject to conditions differing in many respects from the ordinary city.
It has (wisely, in our estimation) taken cognizance of these peculiar conditions and adapted the construction, not only of its houses, but also of its streets, to suit them. It is located on the ocean beach about eighteen miles west of Los Angeles.

Perhaps the most striking difference between this and ordinary residence villages is the construction of certain streets without any roadways whatever.
The space which would ordinarily be so occupied containing merely wide sidewalks, between which and the houses extend wide lawns containing palm-trees and other trees. This relieves the houses of the dust and noise of wheel traffic and affords the children a perfectly safe playground. Such vehicles as are necessary for delivering groceries and other household provisions use twenty foot alleys which alternate with roadless streets passing in the rear of the houses and connecting with a commercial street which parallels the water front. The roadless street is forty feet wide from building line to building line, and the sidewalk, which passes through the middle of it, is twelve feet wide. The walks are built of wood or cement, as may be decided upon by the property owners, but most of them have chosen the latter, which is, in some cases, colored dull red, green or slate.

This construction has resulted from the agreement of all property owners thereto, and the work has been done under the Vrooman act, by which the expense is borne by abutting property owners. The plan has now been adopted for about thirty blocks, extending for a distance of almost two miles along the ocean front, and for 350 feet back therefrom. In this area are but four streets containing roadways which connect with the country roads back a little distance from the ocean.

And the way we are doing it is keeping the best wire fencing in stock.

Before deciding on the wire fencing most suitable to our particular trade, we investigated all the leading makes. Our object was to get the strongest fencing; fencing that would stretch up the easiest; would not sag when run over uneven ground; was animal proof and so constructed as to best withstand the ravages of time.

The fencing that we found to most nearly combine all these desirable qualities was the Pittsburgh Perfect Welded Wire Fencing. So this is the fence we not only offer you, but advise you to take. It costs no more than other fencing of inferior quality.

"The Flower of the Ranch."

The attraction at the Wichita Theatre next Friday night, February 4th, will be Jos. E. Howard's famous western musical play, "The Flower of the Ranch."

The Galveston (Galveston-Dallas News) said:

"One of Joseph Howard's best plays, 'The Flower of the Ranch,' was seen at the Grand Opera House Saturday afternoon and night. The play is a bright, sparkling concoction of the very latest that there is in comedy. It is a musical comedy of about two hours and twenty minutes. Two hours are taken up with music and songs and the rest of the time is devoted to pathos, comedy and some little tragedy.

Shivers is a scream pure and simple. His part in the play and the way in which he does it comes nearer being a concoction of all the elements of fun and ridiculousness than anything else one could think of.

"The Flower of the Ranch," company is not a big one, about thirty-five people, but its shortage of company members for a musical company is made up by the merit of those in the cast. There are pretty girls, all good singers, and a gingery bunch of good actors. It seems as if every one in the company works hard to get the results Mr. Howard bid for when he wrote the play.

Those who saw the performances Saturday were quick to appreciate the true merit of the play. If the worth of the play can be judged by the plaudits given by the audiences, "The Flower of the Ranch" is one of the good attractions of the season.

The play concerns itself with Westive of the plot and location. The costumes are bright and up to date. There are some twenty musical numbers, of which the following are appreciated successes: "What's the Use of Dreaming," "The Pajama and the Nighty," "Just Say You Care" and "Worried."

Seats on sale Thursday, 9 a. m. Prices, 25c to $1.50.

Return of Tim Murphy.

Tim Murphy, always welcome to this city, is to be at the Wichita Theatre, Saturday, February 5th, in Charles Jeffrey's comedy, "Cupid and the Dollar." As a dramatic offering, it presents many unusual opportunities and gives this distinguished comedian occasion for some of the most pronounced work he has yet done. Though in its dramatic feature is very strong there is at the same time a thread of enlivening and amusing comedy running through it.

Characteristic of all of this artist has heretofore done, the presentation of this play has received the most complimentary consideration. Mr. Murphy's players number many excellent people, among them being Dorothy Sherrod, who was the principal and opposite role to him.

Mr. Murphy is under the management of Louis F. Werba.

To every person at all conversant with things theatrical Tim Murphy stands prominently forth. Every season on this enjoyable comedian visits us, and has never failed to bring us something pleasing and highly entertaining. This season he returns with Charles Jeffrey's comedy, "Cupid and the Dollar." In this play, Mr. Murphy offers what is possibly the most pretentious

JOHN E. FRANK.

As Jack Fannin in "The Flower of the Ranch."

ern life. The foothills of the Rocky Mountains in California is the locale of the play and the characters are such as one might expect to find in such parts. There are Indians, cow punchers, ranchmen, cowboys and Mexican besides the little nugget the character of Little Flower—played by Miss Nellie Walters. Jack Fannin is the hero of the play. He is a manly rancher, whose property an unprincipled sheriff seeks to get possession of with the aid of one who is even more treacherous than himself—a Mexican. Little Flower, Fannin's sweetheart, who was a long time in proving the match, impeded by Fannin's slowness, helps to thwart the bad man's game.

Shivers, the underfoot, probably realizes his protection by being one of the players, does enough to be arrested for it off the stage. For a time one can sit up and laugh heartily or even boisterously, then every laugh hurts, and the audience has to be satisfied by looking wild-eyed and wishing that they had strength enough to laugh undertaking he has yet had, for it has certainly so far been his greatest success, and while a dramatic story, there has not been omitted the necessary comedy so requisite to a player of his style. Mr. Murphy will be at the Wichita Theatre on Saturday, Feb. 5th, presenting "Cupid and the Dollar," with the assistance of a remarkably excellent company, principal among whom will be Miss Dorothy Sherrod.

WEATHER FORECAST.

For Wichita Falls and Vicinity.
—Tonight, fair and warmer. Tuesday, fair and colder.

If the $400 salary was all the inducement offered aspirants for the mayoralty of Wichita Falls, the job would be compelled to seek the man. But that is not the case. To be the mayor of the liveliest city of 19,000 population in Texas or elsewhere is an honor to be sought for, and from the present outlook, the fellow who wins is going to know that he has been to an election.

Joseph W. Folk, of Missouri said: "There is a battle going on in this country today between progress and decay, between money and morals, between dollars and men, between privilege and equal rights. If the democratic party is true to its ideals, it must stand for progress and put morals above money, men above dollars and equal rights above privilege."

Today is the last day of January—the last day you, Mr. Voter, who have not yet qualified, will have a chance to do so in order to have a voice in any and all elections that are to be held during the year 1916. The tax collectors' offices, both city and county, will remain open until 12 o'clock tonight for the purpose of issuing poll tax receipts.

It is gratifying to the Times management to make the announcement that its January business of 1916 shows a substantial increase over the same month of last year. If this is any comfort to those who have determined to "put it out of business," let them have it.

When the tax collectors' books close tonight they will show that 2,000 or more citizens of Wichita county have qualified as voters by complying with the law and taking out poll tax receipts. Those who neglected to do this will have disfranchised themselves.

It begins to look like the enterprising insurance rating board is simply doing its best to raise its rates in about the same proportion that corner lots in Wichita Falls are enhancing in value. They seem to forget, however, that the lots are always saved.

Wichita Falls' property values are enhancing by leaps and bounds. Property which was offered a year ago at what was then considered an "inflated value," cannot now be touched for that price, not even if you add 25 per cent. to it.

The first month of the year 1916 has made a splendid showing for Wichita Falls. Here's hoping the remaining eleven will do fully as well. If not better.

In Georgia the penitentiary officials who maltreat convicts are being sent to jail. Texas might try that, in the event of less strenuous remedies failing.

NOT TOO OLD AT FORTY.

English Business Men Agree That Middle Age Is Best for Work.

The question of at what age a man is best fitted for close mental and physical work has been raised by the wonderful endurance of Commander Peary, who at the age of 53 has discovered the north pole.

Some interesting opinions have been advanced by the heads of large business firms, medical men and others on the subject.

Commander Peary's achievement has exploded the "too old at 40" bubble," the manager of a famous engineering firm told a representative of the Daily Mail.

"It has been my experience that mechanical engineers, so long as they keep in good health, are much better and more useful workers at 50 than are young men of 25."

"In our employ we have many engineers doing hard manual work whose ages are between 60 and 70. They are thoroughly experienced workmen, who do not make mistakes, like younger men."

"Of course, with consulting engineers their value increases as they get older, provided, of course, they retain their health and mental powers."

The manager of a big business said that in his opinion a man was fitted for mental work from the age of 30 to 45.

"At the age of 45 he should have acquired sufficient experience to superintend his juniors, and be a valuable asset to his employers," he said.

An experienced Harley Street physician said that the average man was the fittest mentally and physically, between the ages of 35 and 45.

"By that age a man should thoroughly understand himself—not only his mind, but his body," he said. "He knows, or should know, how to diet himself, how to keep an even level of good health and well being. With a sound constitution a man can retain his vigor and mental powers until he is 65 or 70."—London Mail.

FINAL RUSH ON TODAY FOR POLL RECEIPTS

From present prospects there will be about eleven hundred qualified municipal voters and about two thousand county voters.

The eleventh-hour rush is on today at both the city and county offices and at both of them numerous receipts are being taken out. Owing to the fact that there are several places in the county where poll taxes are being paid, the totals will not be available for several days.

At 1 o'clock this morning a total of 381 receipts had been issued by City Collector Robertson and these, with the exemptions issued, make a total of something over a thousand who have qualified as voters up to this afternoon. It is believed that the total will reach eleven hundred by closing time tonight, and it may go considerably past that figure.

Texas News Service Special.
Fort Worth, Tex., Jan. 31.—Advices received by the Texas News Service today from the larger cities of Texas show there is a great rush to pay city, county and state poll taxes. Thousands waited until the last day before paying. The exact voting strength will not be known until tomorrow. The figures, however, indicate increases everywhere.

San Angelo estimates that ninety-eight per cent of her assessments will be paid by tonight, the poll taxes corresponding. Dallas, so far leads in payments up to Saturday night, which follow:

Dallas 15,275; last year, 17,902; Houston, 11,000, last year, 11,967; Fort Worth 10,000, last year, 14,000; Waco 9,000, last year, 9,000; Sherman 9,400, last year, 11,082; Texarkana 4,000, last year, 3,400; San Angelo 2,400, last year, 2,000.

This year's figures do not include the payments being made today, as every city reports that thousands are being paid and the total will, in each instance, likely exceed the previous year. It is expected that three thousand will pay the tax in Fort Worth today.

San Angelo reports 900 paid, exclusive of today, and 1,200 last year. The figures hereinbefore mentioned include the city, county and state poll tax figures.

The Other Side of the Meat Question

Where Does the Producer Come In When the Boycott Is in Force?

There are two sides to every question. The article below, from the Fort Worth Daily Live Stock Reporter, sets forth the producers' side of the boycott now in force:

Prices of hogs have suffered a heavy drop this week, and cattle have declined, too, but not so decidedly as hogs. This fall of price has been in the face of deficient supplies, when, according to the normal law of supply and demand, an advance should have been made.

This stable law has been rudely turned from its steady course by the interference of the meat boycott, started in the large cities, the purpose of which is to compel a reduction in the price of meats. Each boycotter agrees to abstain from eating meat for 30 days or longer, if necessary, to force the desired reduction. Thousands have entered into such an agreement, in all of the large cities of the country, and the total so leagued together probably reaches in to the hundreds of thousands. The withdrawal of such a large number of people from among the consumers of meat cannot but have the effect of diminishing the demand, and the demand being diminished, prices must go down. It is the farmers and stock raisers who will suffer this loss, for their cattle, hogs and sheep must be sold at lower prices, or not sold at all, to meet the demand for cheaper meats.

The labor unions are the leaders in this movement, as they are the most efficient in the use of the boycott. They have used it to compel employers to come to their demands for higher wages and now it is used to compel farmers to come to their terms for cheaper food. In some parts of the west the farmers are resenting this action and threaten to retaliate by boycotting the products of union labor. If this should be done, on a general scale, it will bring about a competition in the ranks of the Farmers' Union. That organization, especially in Texas, has been working in conjunction with the labor unions, or rather, as an auxiliary of such unions. But with the unions boycotting the farmers' products, and demanding that they accept less for their products, they can not reasonably expect the farmers to keep on pulling their chestnuts out of the fire.

What the Farmers Say. The extent of the antagonism between the farmers and labor unions may be measured by the utterances of several of the farmers, who are quoted in the Kansas City Drovers' Telegram as follows:

"If the city unions think they are going to put the farmers and stock raisers out of business, let them go on with this meat boycott just as long as they please," said M. W. Hudson, of Channing, Okla., who brought in two carloads each of hogs and of cattle. "We have no record of a boycott accomplishing anything good, or anything that benefited any one. But as long as the city unions inaugurated this boycott, we will also take a hand in it, and see who can hold out the longest. We will refuse to buy the union made goods our merchants' offer us, and quit buying the farm machinery made in the union shops for a month and see what will happen. We can stand it for a good deal more than a month, for that matter. We can keep it up for six months and still do business at the old stand. The merchant will feel the effect, of course, and he will pass it back to the wholesaler and the big city jobber, and the firms who handle the goods in the cities who employ men who have started this boycott can lay some of them off for a while. If these agitators and walking delegates think they can run us out of business, they may change their minds before they get through. Already the matter is being agitated in the country, and we will give them a taste of boycotts which comes from the country. If the city mechanic who is complaining so loudly about the beef trust, and the robbery meat prices would take some pains to inform himself he would soon discover that the wages of the skilled mechanics has advanced as steadily in the last ten years as the price of beef, and when he was getting beef steaks cheap he was only working half the time. But, in the meantime, let the boycott go on."

"We are living in a very extravagant age and at a time when many people are living beyond their means." This remark was made today by J. C. Cobb, bank president and farmer of Odessa, Mo. "I think the most dangerous time in a man's life is when he is very prosperous. Today labor is employed at high wages. This applies to skilled and unskilled labor. The city mechanics never received such high wages, and farm hands were never so well paid as now. The farmer, in turn, is receiving very high prices for everything he sells. It is a time of general prosperity. But as I said, that is the time when danger lurks around, as we are apt to forget ourselves and become reckless, financially and otherwise. This movement, started by city folk to abstain from eating meat and thus reduce the price, looks like a very foolish movement. Boycotts never settle anything. They simply stir up unrest, and that often brings on disaster. The present agitation will hurt the farmer, of course, in a way. But the people who inaugurated this movement ought to carefully consider the matter, and figure out to the end what it may bring. The farmer could retaliate and starve out the city folk. The farmer is in a position where he could stand the boycott a good deal longer than the city folk. If it is intended to hurt the packer, then a grave mistake has been made, as the packer is the very man who will make money out of it. I really think it will amount to nothing but if it lasts a good many city people are bound to be out of jobs before long. I know wealthy Jackson who were unable to get men at any price last fall to husk corn. They may be able to hire them next fall at much lower wages. It all depends, you see."

J. H. Austin, a wealthy farmer and cattle feeder of Washington, Kansas, has little use for boycotts. Mr. Austin thinks that before any such movements are started those in favor of a boycott should investigate and get at the right fellow. If a boycott should be started, "But they are all wrong, both in theory and practice," said Mr. Austin. "Now this so-called meat boycott of which we are hearing considerable, is not hurting me very much—or, of course, it should be kept up it would have a tendency to reduce the price of fat cattle and hogs, too, but only temporarily. But let us turn the picture around and look at it from the other side a while. Just suppose that the farmers should combine, and not ship or sell any farm products for 30 days, then what? The head of the union and the members of the unions in the cities would surely feel it keenly. No cattle, no hogs, no chickens, or eggs, no vegetables, no grain on the market for 30 days! And while the city mechanics and others were starving and paying outrageous prices for what they could get, we would really suffer no hardship at all. But, as I said, the boycott is wrong in every way. The boycott settles nothing. The mechanic and skilled laborer well knows that he is getting higher wages now than he did 10 years ago. The farmer is now compelled to pay for help almost double what he did 10 years ago. And even at this great advance, help is hard to get. Corn has doubled in price. So far as the packers are concerned, all I have to say is this—they could not continue to do business unless there was a profit in the business. So far as real profits go, the retail butcher makes about as much as anyone else."

SHORT ITEMS OF INTEREST

Since Alderman Young has announced as a candidate for mayor, talk of who will be a good man to succeed him as alderman is being indulged in by many citizens who have the best interests of Wichita Falls at heart. In this connection the name of Mr. W. M. McGregor has been mentioned often and should he consent to serve, would make Wichita Falls a splendid official. Our city council should be composed of the best material the city affords and there are those who indulge in the hope that Mr. McGregor will allow the use of his name in this connection.

One of the most pleasing attractions of the season is the joint recital to be given by William H. Sherwood and Miss Virginia Listerman tomorrow night, February 1st. Mr. Sherwood plays with broad intelligence and sympathetic appreciation of the music which he interprets.

Miss Listerman's voice is a revelation of great range and clearness of tone.

Dr. R. L. Miller is having the three-story block house at the corner of Sixth and Lamar, which was recently purchased for a sanitarium, overhauled and as soon as it is finished, the sanitarium will be open to the public. At the present time he is using it only for the purpose of giving attention to his own patients.

Work will be started tomorrow by the gas company on the construction of the gas line extensions through the western part of the city. The pipe has arrived and construction work will begin without delay.

The final rush for getting poll tax receipts is on today at both the city hall and court house and it is expected that both lists will be materially increased by tonight. Both are already far ahead of last year.

The cases of J. B. Morris and Chas. Murphy, charged with burglary, are on trial in the district court today. These cases grew out of the theft of a number of eggs from a local house on Christmas Day.

W. J. Bullock has sold to J. T. Williams his residence at 1501 10th street for a consideration of $5,000 and has purchased lots in Floral Heights, where he will erect a nice home at once.

January was a record month in the sale of lots in the Floral Heights addition, the total value of the lots changing hands being in the neighborhood of eighty-five thousand dollars.

Marriage licenses have been issued by the county clerk to D. D. Dockey and Miss Ruby S. Ivie, and to Sam Dudley and Miss Beniah Moore, all of this city.

No changes in the local prices of meat were recorded today and the "boycott" situation is substantially the same as it was the latter part of last week.
