Public Address System Installed At Town Hall

A new improvement was made to the local Town Hall recently when members of the Current Literature Club sponsored the purchase and installation of a loud speaker system. The system was installed at a cost of $215.00.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Jo Brookman, project chairman and Mesdames D. H. Smith, C. M. Archer, C. R. Chambers, committee members, and Mrs. Ralph White, club president, the club worked tirelessly toward the completion of the project and it is one that will be highly appreciated by the community.

Last summer the Town Hall underwent a complete re-decoration job which included lowering the ceiling, adding new lighting fixtures, refinishing the walls and floors and adding new lounging chairs and sofas. All of these improvements have added greatly to the appearance of the hall.

The club wishes to especially thank the C. C. Lions Club, Rotary Club, Mens Bible Class of the First Baptist Church, Morris Bookbinder and the Town Hall committee for their donations and Mr. A. W. Newman and employees of the City Electrical Department, Chester Todd and Billy Wayne Duncan, for installing the system.

Center Of Attention

As usual, Jayne Mansfield was the target of every masculine eye at the "Salute to Hollywood" party given recently by the Saturday Evening Post at the Beverly-Hilton Hotel in Beverly Hills. Pete Martin, famous Post writer, was no different from the rest—and here he chats with the lovely Jayne. Even Saddle Horses Buck At Big Rodeo

UNSCHEDULED THROW
OPENER AT BURWELL
by Harold Cowan

Buster Morgan, oldtimer of the Beutler-Morgan Stock Producers of Elk City, Okla., rode forward in the arena to take a bow during opening ceremonies at the thirty-fourth annual rodeo here Wednesday.

At the applause of some three thousand, his gray saddle mount shied, left the ground and sun-fished.

Set The Pace
Unhurt and chagrined, he had the consolation of setting the pace for a rough go-around of bronc riding, steer bulldogging, horse racing and Brahma bull fighting which followed.

Generally, livestock gave the cowboys a hard time throughout the first afternoon's program of "Nebraskas big rodeo."

Buster, you are not the only one to sail off in the wild blue yonder from the back of a pony you trusted. This week B. H. Preston, Jr., was helping E. R. Burns round up some cows when his cowhorse swallowed his neck and threw Brack 'way out in the bushes. Brack was unhurt, but he respects the likes and dislikes of his horse more than he did before the bronc bustin' incident.

Geo. Counter, Jr. Elected Director N-T Field & Sream

George Counter, Jr., was elected a director of the North Texas Field and Stream Association at a recent meeting.

The Association has done much for sportsmen in this area since the first of the year. So far, four Kiddies fishing derbies have been staged. Awards were made in July.

A new rifle range will be ready in about two weeks. It is 100 feet long and has ten bench rests for the use of members and their guests only.

One of the principal uses of the new range will be to instruct youngsters the use and safe handling of 22 rifles. Soon the Association will begin brushing fishing holes in North Texas in preparation for crappie fishing this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Pirtle are vacationing in Red River, N. M. this week.

Betty Jo Bellamy, Clifford A. McKinnis Engagement Told

Mr. and Mrs. Orvel Bellamy of Lee's Summit, Missouri are announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Betty Jo, to Mr. Clifford Arthur McKinnis of Wichita Kansas. The groom-elect is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. McKinnis, 308 West Second street, Burkburnett.

The ceremony will take place at 2:00 p. m. on Aug. 18th in the First Baptist Church in Lee's Summit where Miss Bellamy is a member. The pastor will officiate and there will be a reception following the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents.

Miss Bellamy has resided in Lee's Summit most of her life and attended high school there.

Mr. McKinnis attended high school in Burkburnett and later received his high school diploma while serving three years in the Marine Corps.

The couple will make their home at 2822 Gilbert Street, Wichita, Kans., where the groom is employed by Boeing Aircraft.

Do You Want A Swimming Pool?

Deadline for Making Response Is Sat., August 17th

For the past few weeks enthusiastic meetings have been held by those interested in building a swimming pool in Burkburnett. There is no doubt that many want such a recreation facility. This week the question is being asked point blank: Do YOU Want a Swimming Pool here? The number answering this question will determine whether the project will be carried through to completion or dropped where it stands.

The proposed plan, which may be altered, is to sell stock in an incorporated association for financing the undertaking.

In this week's Star the proposal is offered in a half page ad, which explains the proposition as it now stands. If you are sufficiently interested, fill out the coupon and mail it, with $1. to the Survey Committee, P. O. Box 701. The response, which must be in the hands of the committee by August 17, 1957, will let the committee know whether or not to proceed.

Wife Charged After Husband Shot to Death

The widow of a slain Burkburnett body repairman was charged here Wednesday with his death after the couple's young daughter told authorities she fired the fatal shotgun blast on her mother's instructions.

Mrs. Ruth Marie Payne, 33, of Burkburnett, was charged with murder with malice aforethought at 2 p. m. Wednesday and ordered held without bond. She was charged with the shotgun slaying of her husband, Lawrence David Payne, 38, in the couple's two-room home in Burkburnett late Tuesday night.

Assistant District Attorney Gene Richie filed the charge against the woman with Peace Justice H. M. Newman following lengthy interrogation of Mrs. Payne and her two children.

Sharon Sue Payne, a charming eight-year old was quoted by Sheriff Weldon Bailey as saying she held a .410 gauge shotgun within a inch of her sleeping father's head and pulled the trigger. The only daughter said she took the shotgun from her mother after Mrs. Payne had said the only way the family could lead a "better life" would be to kill the father.

GRASS ROOTS OPINION

CATSKILL, N. Y. ENTERPRISE: "Statistics are working in favor of older employees in industry and the premise that they are less productive is being continually disproved. The Industrial Bulletin, published by the New York State Dept. of Labor, opines that 'output man-hours show little significant variation among age groups.' The magazine gives figures to show that older workers have a better attendance record than younger employees and that old workers have fewer accidents on the job. Hiring older workers is good sound business practice. Their experience gained through the years is indispensable."

LINDSBORG, KAN., NEWS-RECORD: "Anza-Amen Lema, whose home is in Tanganyika East Africa, is attending Bethany College. Lema told me that one of the greatest problems in his country was to make his people believe that a government could be operated the way ours is, in the United States. That is, every one can take a stand on government operation, can vote for the individuals, in our free elections, can criticize our government operations if they are not in agreement with what our law-makers are doing. These things, he stated, are difficult to get across to his people and it is his belief that our government is going to have to make a definite effort to get these things across to the people of many foreign countries if we're to halt the spread of communism."

NORWALK, CONN., HOUR: "In 1887, the first federal regulatory agency in this country was set up with the establishment of the Interstate Commerce Commission to regulate the railroads. In the 70 years since, there are, no fewer than 115 lesser bodies with authority to make rules and regulations, investigate complaints and judging the findings. They are rightly called quasi-judicial agencies. It is now personification of big government."

Big Profits-For The Racketeers

They need money badly, the shut-ins, disabled veterans, pensioners, housewives who can't get out to work and even regular job-holders in desperate straits for "a little more", these trusting souls who send $500 million a year to the "homework" swindlers.

They are the suckers, who respond by the millions every year to such ads as: "Wanted: Men and Women to work at home, $25-$50 per week. Spare time. Send $1.00 for information."

Ralph Lee Smith of the National Better Business Bureau reports in the June Reader's Digest how this racket operates—and survives—in spite of the unending efforts of the Post Office, Better Business Bureau, reputable publishers and the Federal Trade Commission to stamp it out. In this article "How to Beat the 'Homework' Racket", condensed from the American Legion Magazine, Mr. Smith tells of a show-card painting scheme that lured responses from $2,500 needy people a day and took half a million dollars of their slender means before it was stopped, another for decorating and selling Christmas cards that brought the promoters $100,000.

Typical of the whole racket was an ad that offered: "$50 a Week—address and mail postcards for us at home. Spare time. Pen or typed. Enclose self-addressed stamped envelope". The Better Business Bureau answered this, received a reply asking one dollar for "Complete Information and Instructions"—which in turn, asked for an additional $5 for a box of 250 unstamped, double postcards advertising nameplates. These cards were to be used in soliciting orders. The sucker would receive $1.00 commission for each order he got.

Bureau workers tried out the scheme. Their expense for "information", cards and stamps was $16. They got two orders, earned $2 for a net loss of $14. But this particular swindle brought in dollar bills from a million victims—just for the "instructions" alone.

It is possible, however, for ambitious persons to set up profitable spare-time businesses at home, benefiting both themselves and the community. But, Mr. Smith warns, look out for the "homework" promoter who asks for money before he will tell you his proposition. And, no matter how clean an offer may appear, check first with the Better Business Bureau or the Chamber of Commerce.

The best source of legitimate and workable ideas for a part-time home business is the Small Business Administration of the US Dept. of Commerce, Washington, D. C. Ask for Business Service Bulletins No. 95 and No. 98 and save your money.

Stop Government Competition

Senator McClellan of Arkansas has introduced an "Anti-Government Competition" bill.

This bill is designed to hasten the termination of government owned or sponsored business type operations. Its passage would put Congress on record as directing Federal agencies to get out and stay out of activities that compete with privately owned, taxpaying enterprises.

While the measure is said to face stiff opposition from Government employe unions, it has the backing of economy minded members of Congress and they hope to push it through this session. They need all the active public support possible.

ITALIAN DESIGN

This bow-trimmed sun dress, worn by Helen Landon, the 1957 Maid of Cotton, was created for her by Roberto Capucci of Rome. The famous Italian designer chose a delicately striped dobby cotton for the frock. The dress looks slim but has restrained fullness in inverted side pleats.

Texas Safety News

"The fellow with a one way mind should stay out of today's two-way traffic!"

In those words, J. O. Musick, General Manager of the Texas Association, today pointed out the need for driver adaptability to cope with changing traffic patterns.

Musick spoke in support of TSA's summer, Slow Down and Live Campaign.

"At this time of year, adaptable driving assumes special importance," Musick said. "Many people take vacations and weekend motor trips, and on such trips they are likely to encounter a variety of roads and traffic situations."

He pointed out that in a single trip a driver may travel over congested city streets, quiet rural roads, superhighways, mountainous roads and narrow winding roads. Sometimes the change from one to the other will be abrupt and a driver will have to shift mental gears to adapt swiftly to the new condition.

"First of all," he said, "the vacationer should find out what types of road he will have to travel. Then he should learn the characteristics, hazards and patterns of the road. He can generally get this type of information from service stations, restaurants or other stopping places as he travels along. He will then be prepared, at least mentally, for the change in driving pace."

Musick's advice was to stay alert on all roads and be especially careful when making change-overs. He said the driver should get the "feel" of the new conditions as soon as possible, then get in step with the flow of traffic immediately.

He reminded motorists that, at the demand of the public, enforcement of traffic laws is being stepped up by local and state agencies throughout Texas. This makes the highways safer for drivers and also offers extra chance for the careless and discourteous driver to be stopped.

News From The HD Agent

Wichita County Home Demonstration club women are making big plans for their annual Day Camp. It will be Tuesday, Aug. 13th at Harrell Park in Wichita Falls and will start about 9:30 a. m.

Mrs. Tom Witherspoon, Mrs. W. P. Wyatt and Mrs. George Emmert served on the committee that made and presented the plans.

The Bowie HD club, where Mrs. W. P. Wyatt is president, will have charge of registration. Recreation will be presented in two shifts, by two different clubs. The South Electra club where Mrs. R. C. Hughes is president and Park Area, where Mrs. W. E. Karstetter is president will present games and other recreation.

Crafts will also be a part of the day's program. The Ray club where Mrs. Raymond Krull is president, will teach one craft. A representative of the Huff Hobby Shop will also give a craft demonstration. Each club plans to bring a picnic lunch and just have a day of all play and no work.

To most children the word "a party" is or should be a magic word that means friends, fun and food. It also means plans, activities and anticipation, says Thelma Wirges, county HD agent.

The child who is allowed to help plan and prepare the party has a double amount of fun. The party is more apt to be a success and provides desirable social experiences if it is planned with the child, with his interests, stage of development and temperament taken into consideration.

The agent suggests these principles for planning:

Avoid elaborate parties, they usually end up being "mother parties."

Invite the same number of guests as child is old.

Have one other adult with children and refreshments.

Provide room and recreation away from children, for other

A "How-To-Do-It" PAINT POINTERS

Now's the time to recondition and redecorate outdoor furniture. Before applying a fresh coat of paint to wood or metal furniture, devote some time to surface preparation. Remember, paint cannot successfully fill nail and screw holes, cracks and dent, places where the previous paint film has been chipped. "Spot" prime with undercoat. Fill with putty and sand smooth. Sand rusted areas on metal furniture down to bare metal. Then spot with metal primer. Over-all light sanding is the next step. Follow with a topcoat of high quality enamel.

Limit the time to 1 1/2 or 2 hours. A good time is just before lunch or after nap time in the afternoon.

Encourage guests to dress comfortably.

In planning refreshments, choose foods that are healthful, colorful and suited to the time of the day. Serve small portions and allow chances for "seconds." Make the table as colorful and attractive as possible.

Plan entertainment that is within the ability of all. A child's span of interest is fairly short, so plan a variety of activities. Tell children when the party is ended and send them on their way.

Simple, well-planned parties help children to develop as hosts and provide an opportunity to share home, friends and toys.

Chemical treatment of lumber is advised as a means of controlling termites and rot and retarding fires in homes and other farm buildings.

Internal parasites can take a slice out of the livestock producer's profits. They lower the resistance of animals to disease, cause animals to use feed inefficiently and lower the market value of infected stock.

News From The County Agent

Right now would be a good time to look into a defoliation program if you plan to harvest your cotton with strippers or pickers this year. A cotton defoliation guide has been issued by the Texas A and M extension service and county agents have them in their office. This guide gives a list of defoliant and the directions on how you will want to supply them.

This cotton defoliant work is not a hard job to do but it must be done right to get a good kill on the leaves. This bulletin is designed to help you get the best results possible from whatever recommended material you use.

One thing to remember is to be sure that you follow the manufacturer's recommendations when applying defoliation material. Just remember the safety rules will pay off in the long run.

Now the brown-banded cockroach has gone in for television. They're not interested in the viewing but in using the TV cabinet as a hiding and nesting site. The county agent recommends the use of chlordane or deodoriz- these pests. Don't apply a spray ed malathion for controlling to the TV set but a small amount of powder may be sprinkled around the edge of the case. The important thing is to control them in the home so there'll be none for infesting the TV cabinet.

If your hens show a lack of vim, vigor and vitality, it's not because they're lazy, they're just hot. Some symptoms of this hot and bothered condition, says B. T. Haws, county agent, are low egg production, lower feed consumption, a higher water consumption rate and some death losses. Good hot weather management of the laying flock, he says, will pay big dividends.

According to Thelma Wirges, county home demonstration agent, choosing foods to fill the market basket is the most important job of the family food shopper. It is her responsibility to decide which foods are good buys for her family, and a lot of considerations are involved in that decision.

If you are the family food shopper, one of your first considerations will be your family's likes. Of course, you will include many of these foods in your weekly menus—but there are other points to consider, too.

The cost of the foods you want to buy plays a big part in your decision, for the part of the budget that goes into food is important in every family, and the cost is determined by the amount to be bought, the price of individual food items and their qualities and values. Knowing the marketing seasons helps you to buy more wisely, for most foods are usually low in price when they are plentiful and in season. You certainly do want to consider the nutritive value of the foods you serve your family—a healthful diet contributes to the well being of all family members. Then of course, you will think about the convenience various foods offer, and how much time and work it takes to prepare and serve them. The availability of these foods at the market where you shop is another consideration. Your kitchen and the space and equipment in it will have a bearing too, for the limitations in this area influence the kind and quality of foods to be stored and the way they are prepared, so you as a family food shopper must consider a number of different points in order to secure good food buys for your particular family. Compare the different factors involved before making decisions at the food counters. You will need to plan buy, prepare and serve food that meets the requirements of your family's tastes, nutrition and budget, as well as the time, energy and kitchen facilities that you have available.

Family economics leaders, for the various home demonstration clubs, are going to help club members with these, when they give club programs on "Problems in Buying." These leaders are: Mesdames, Jack Marshall, J. G. Leonard, L. L. McHugh, Bee Bryant, Carl Green, Emil Flusche

Cleo Askins, J. G. Cheney, J. Ludeke, G. R. Belue, Alton Brock and E. A. Moore.

If you are interested, might contact one of these and visit a meeting.

If you're planning to take baby out where heating the tile may be a problem, try suggestion: heat the bottle warm as possible, then wrap in aluminum foil. The milk be just the right temperature hour or two later when it's for his feeding.

Garnished ice cubes add a note to many fruit drinks. An ice cube tray about two full of water. Boiled water to make the cubes clear. As the water freezes slightly, an orange, lemon or lime wedge, a pineapple tidbit, fresh berry, cherry or grape. Finish ing with water and freeze

Mrs. W. C. Vann Hostess Aug. 2nd Federated Society

The Federated Missionary Society met Aug. 2nd in the home of Mrs. W. C. Vann with Mrs. J. W. Keller as co-hostess. President, Mrs. W. C. Gage opened the meeting with the group singing Count Your Blessings. She welcomed Mrs. Pat Crawford, a visitor.

Mrs. Leon Turner brought a beautiful devotional on the life of Ruth. She quoted that this young woman of another land came from the heroic strain of Jewish greatness which gave them David and many years later, Jesus. The story has come to have new meaning since Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea. It is the story of the triumph of faith over fear of brotherhood over provincialism. The story of Ruth in the bible illustrates the highest elements in human relationship, the kindness and goodness that come from the heart of one who sees all men and women as brothers and sisters in the family of God. Mrs. Turner closed with a prayer. The secretary called the roll with each member answering with a bible verse. Mrs. Jim Ady reported on magazines taken to the State Hospital.

Closing prayer was by Mrs. Ady. A nice refreshment plate was served to the following members: Mesdames Homer Gilbert, Leon Turner, A. R. Bunstine, B. Cauthorn, L. W. Brocker, J. W. Keller, W. C. Gage, Jessie Jones, W. R. Carswell, J. B. Ady, one visitor, Mrs. Crawford and the hostess, Mrs. Vann.

The cavern, located in Longhorn Cavern State Park four miles south of Burnett off U. S. Highway 281, is the third largest cave in America. Over eight miles of the underground passageways have been explored without an end being reached. The two mile guided tour is conducted several times daily through the more marvelous and amazing of the Cavern's vast rooms and chambers.

TALK ABOUT ECONOMY... FORDS COST LESS PER MILE!

Fords cost less to buy!

No doubt about it! Model for model, Ford cars are the lowest priced* of the low-price three. And don't be fooled by those "low prices" now being quoted for some "stripped down" models in the medium-price field. Remember, a '57 Ford equipped the way most people want a car today—with automatic transmission, heater and radio—costs hundreds of dollars less than these medium-priced cars, similarly equipped.*

*Based on comparison of manufacturers' suggested retail delivered prices

Fords cost less to run!

In the only nationally recognized test of gasoline economy, the 1957 Mobilgas Economy Run, a Ford Six delivered more miles per gallon than any other car entered! This, remember, was no "private test" conducted for the benefit of a single manufacturer. This was grueling competition between 12 different makes of cars... supervised by the United States Auto Club. And when the test was over, Ford led all other cars in the thing you want most—actual miles per gallon!

Fords cost less to trade!

Latest official auction sale figures on used cars show clearly that the new kind of Ford commands a higher price than either of its two low-priced competitors. The men who bid at these auctions are professional buyers—men whose very livelihood depends upon their expert knowledge of cars. They pay more for used Fords because they know that Fords hold up in value. Like thousands of Ford owners from coast to coast, they have discovered that Ford is worth more when you buy it... worth more when you sell it, too!

COUNTY CLUB CHATTER

by Alden Smith

A week of exciting events for county 4-H'ers has just passed and the remainder of August promises to bring many more activities and events.

The most successful county camp ever held in Wichita County was held Friday at the 4-H center. We were especially proud as the Burkburnett club won the prize for being the best represented club in the county. Helping to conduct the camp from the Burk area were Charlotte Simons, Alden Smith and Shirley Van Huss.

We were happy to see several of the adult leaders at county camp. Attending part of the afternoon and evening program were Mrs. Warren Smith, Mrs. Walter Silber and Mrs. E. J. Simons, all leaders in the Burk Jr. High Clubs.

Tuesday, I had the pleasure of helping to judge the records for the annual county 4-H dress revue. The revue was held Wednesday afternoon at the YWCA and was a great success.

A local 4-H'er was named the outstanding camper at this year's camp, Patricia Simons, president of the Busy Bee 4-H club, was presented a small silver plaque. Also honored was Bryan Scherff.

Other county 4-H'ers who will enter records for district and state contests include Shirley Van Huss, Friberg 4-H entering home improvement; Charlotte Simons in achievement; and Alden Smith in leadership. County clubbers are busily preparing records and taking pictures to have their books ready by the September first deadline.

Until next week and more 4-H club news, I'm hoping you are enjoying the summer heat and all.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Stegall left Thursday for Kewanee, Illinois, where they will attend a reunion of Co. C, 1st Motor Transport Battalion of the U. S. Marine Corps, Aug. 9-11 at the Kewanee Hotel. They also plan to spend a few days visiting in Arkansas enroute home.

Visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Sanders and Madlyn the past week was Mrs. F. A. Gilley of Post, Texas.

BWC Met Aug. 5th With Providence Baptist Church

BWC of the First Baptist Church met Monday night Aug. 5th with the Providence Baptist Church and gave their mission program for the month. Serving as judges were the instructors of the short courses, county extension agents and the junior 4-H leaders who helped conduct the camp. Patricia and the boy winner, Bryan Scherff, were presented plaques by the county clubs. Making the presentations were Shirley Van Huss and Alden Smith, camp co-chairmen.

Say! DO YOU WANT A Swimming Pool?

DEAR SIR OR MADAM:

The purpose of this ad is to find out whether you and a sufficient number of other people in this area are interested in having a swimming pool in Burkburnett. We know that there is considerable interest in such a project, but before launching the program we must know whether this interest is extensive enough to carry the cost. The details of the proposal have not yet been decided upon, but the tentative program outlined below will give you some conception of what we have in mind.

ORGANIZATION It is proposed to organize and incorporate a non-profit club, comprised of a limited number of family-members. Club membership, which would be restricted to white persons, would be obtained by the purchase of a share of stock in the corporation by the head of the household (or an unmarried adult). Use of the pool would be restricted to members and their families and a limited number of guests.

COST AND FINANCING It is estimated that the initial cost of the land and the cost of constructing the swimming pool, filtration and chlorination system, water supply, sewer system, bath house, fencing, parking area, etc., can be financed by the advance sale of a share of stock to each family (or unmarried adult) at the cost of about $100 to $150. After the initial issue, the price of the stock would be increased. You can probably make arrangements to finance the initial cost of the stock over a period of months.

PROMOTION COSTS The cost of this initial survey will be about $100. If we go ahead with the project, we shall need from $300 to $500 additional funds to cover expenses of incorporation, preparing specifications and drawings, circularizing prospective stockholders, etc. In order that this expense may not fall as burden on a few, we are asking those who are interested to send us a donation of $1.00 with their response. If the project is not pursued, the unexpended balance of the sum collected will be donated to the Burkburnett Youth Center, as it would not be practicable to refund a small sum to hundreds of people.

NOW IS THE TIME TO HELP INCREASE OUR RECREATIONAL FACILITIES
Don't Delay - Mail Today

REQUEST FOR RESPONSE

If you are interested in participating in this swimming pool club, please fill out the enclosed coupon and mail it, with your donation of $1.00, to the address shown thereon. This response does not obligate you in any way.

Please respond promptly. We have set a deadline of August 17, 1957. If the responses by that date are not sufficient to assure the necessary interest and probable financial support, the project will be abandoned. Please tell your friends about this survey, and urge them to write to us if they are interested.

Could "The Thinker" Really Think? Not Possible, Say Posture Experts

Did Socrates slouch when he sat? If our mental view of that Greek philosopher comes from Auguste Rodin's statue of "The Thinker," we are apt to think so, since that has come to be our stereotype of the attitude of philosophical speculation. But—chances are we would be wrong.

One has only to look at the statue, doomed forever to sit bent forward, chin on hand, to get an acute pain across the shoulders and back—a condition notably destructive to productive thought. As a model for a posture which stimulates creative thinking, the Thinker is, to put it bluntly, a frost.

This is the opinion of the Posture Research Foundation, an organization devoted to getting us through "this sedentary century" somehow without losing health, beauty, agility—or the capacity for constructive thought.

Slouching and cramped positions, according to the Foundation, retard blood circulation, flatten the chest and rib cage, put strain on the back and leg muscles; they make the abdomen protrude and displace vital organs, and produce fatigue. As if this list of dire consequences of sitting incorrectly were not enough, the Foundation continues, "Poor posture also diminishes the proper intake of oxygen into the lungs and thus makes less oxygen available for the blood stream to transmit to the brain. This inevitably cuts down on the efficiency of the mental processes." Errors become more common, the Foundation points out; mental fatigue sets in; the back begins to ache—and, aha, Thinker, where are you now?

The maxims of our early gym teachers hold the key to improved posture, hence to better work, greater energy, and improved health, according to a booklet issued by Do/More Chair Company of Elkhart, Indiana, the world's largest manufacturers of posture chairs, and hence also interested in improving our posture. To achieve proper posture, tucked down and abdomen pulled in. Important: keep chest pulled high, and drop your shoulders! In sitting, follow the same rule of keeping back straight, chest pulled high, shoulders relaxed. There! Feeling better already?

But DON'T, if you really want to think clearly, imitate The Thinker. Rodin to the contrary, he will never get a Phi Beta Kappa key until he learns to straighten that back!

Burkburnett Baptists Attend Assembly

The First Baptist Church of Burk Burnett was represented by 34 people during the second week of Falls Creek Baptist assembly near Ardmore, Okla., which closed July 31, according to Rev. Leroy Meyer, pastor.

The encampment, held annually on a 20-acre site seven miles southeast of Davis in the Arbuckle mountains is said to be the largest religious assembly in the world.

Sponsors of the group from First Baptist church were Rev. and Mrs. Leroy Meyer, Mr. and Mrs. Gavin Vaughan, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Landrum, Mrs. L. H. Gilbert, Mrs. G. E. Lynsky, and Mrs. H. W. Fowler.

The girls volleyball team won first place and the boys volleyball team won second place in the athletic events.

The daily camp schedule included two study course classes, worship services twice daily in the open air tabernacle and recreational activities.

Burk youths attending were: Donald Moore, Keith Vaughan, Bruce Meyer, Robbie Lilley, Tommy Pierce, Chuck Duke, Howard Wooten, Sherry Gilbert, Gayle Sanders, Juddie Smith, Myrna Hoffman, Tommie Jean Middleton, Janice Welborn, Barbara Story, Sharon Hatcher, Linda Carter, Charlene Preston, Jean Yannel, Martha Meyer, Lora Gene Lynsky, Connie Clemens, Sue Dempsey, Karan Burton, Dan Fowler, Gilbert Grisby.

Dodge Scheduled In 3,700 Newspapers

Dodge has scheduled a campaign in 3,700 of the daily and weekly newspapers back its "most aggressive" sales program, according to W. D. Moore, director of advertising and merchandising.

Moore said display ads from three to seven columns would be used in a campaign which runs for a period extending through September. The firm will spend more than $1,000,000 on the campaign, including radio and television spots.

Based on the theme "you get one," the campaign is designed to take advantage of the growing number of cars in the summer months; to maintain momentum built up the first half of the year; and to meet aggressive campaigns by competitors.

Mrs. Flora Bentley, home Saturday, after weeks visit with relatives in Georgia and Oklahoma. On return trip she visited daughter and son-in-law and Reggie Mauger at Force Base in Illinois where she attended two St. Louis, Mo. "The Commandments" and "Seveners of World."

News

STANFORD
Press Association

Unions in Texas now numbered into one 300,000-organization.

A joint AFL-CIO merger was announced in this capitol city. Internal disagreements among those who fear the political power of such a group.

The union recommended the Civil Rights Committee of the 55th Legislature pass "immoral and un-American" laws concerning segregation. Gulf coast balked. Finally, the compromise by the national AFL-CIO plank, worded in a general language.

It also criticized Texas newspapers; the Texas Board of Directors; the Republican and highway construction.

There were a state income tax increase; an increase in income tax exemption for school children; higher pay for teachers; honesty among union members.

Jerry Holleman was president. CIOer Fred was chosen as secretary.

LOBBY CURB PROPOSED

With legislative opposition to the special session weakening under Gov. Price Daniel's determined stand, attention now turns toward what the lawmakers might enact.

Sen. Henry B. Gonzales of San Antonio has drafted a strict lobby control measure. It is patterned after the Federal Law. It would require registration of all persons seeking to influence legislation, for pay. Also it calls for a detail accounting of money used to influence legislation, where it comes from, how it is spent.

It would hang a heavy sword over the head of any lawmaker or lobbyist found guilty of a bribe arrangement. Penalty up to a $25,000 fine and 10 years imprisonment. Corporations involved would lose the right to do business in Texas.

SALES SURGE SEEN

Experts foresee a "slow but strong upturn" of production and marketing in Texas for the last quarter of the year.

It might even break last year's record, despite the restrictions on credit. So states the UT Bureau of Business Research.

June retail sales dropped five percent from May. But totals for January-June, 1957 were two percent above 1956.

Home modernization has done "surprisingly well." But completion of new homes in 1957 is expected to fall some 10 to 20 percent below last year.

EMPLOYMENT TO CLIMB

More jobs, better pay, is the outlook for Texas workers.

Texas Employment Commission forecasts a small rise in job-holders during August, followed by the usual steep jump from increased activities in September.

Early summer brought the customary glut of workers as school poured out thousands of graduates and vacation job-seekers. In addition, factory jobs dropped somewhat as automobile assembly plants and aircrafts companies cut back.

However, the same period brought good news to factory workers as average weekly wages jumped some $2. In the higher brackets were workers in coal and petroleum products, up $4.76 to $115.16 per week, and those in chemicals, up $2.49 to $103.34 per week. Less fortunate were those in apparel and fabric products, up .37 to $43.92.

NO MAGIC EXPECTED

Rebuilding public confidence in Texas insurance cannot be done "by any magic touch or wave of a wand, not overnight nor within a few months."

It will take "painstaking planning, organized effort and competent performance," said Joe P. Gibbs, member of the newly reorganized Board of Insurance Commissioners.

Board members are reconciled to operating in a "show window," said Gibbs, recalling the recurrent troubles that resulted in a wholesome legislative overhaul of the department.

We recognize that the public has a right to look in on us to see what we are doing to remove the clouds of doubt," Gibbs stated.

CONSTRUCTION UP

Construction authorized in Texas for the first half of 1957 is five percent higher than for 1956, according to the UT Bureau of Business Research.

Foremost among the cities making gains were Midland, Houston, Amarillo, Lubbock, Ft. Worth, El Paso and Odessa.

Dallas, San Antonio and Austin showed declines.

POLISHED ELEGANCE

Lovely Marian McKnight, Miss America 1957, wears an elegant ballgown of white polished Everglaze cotton. The strapless bodice is accented with Dresden blue cotton satin webbed with lace, embroidered with crystal beads and iridescent sequins, and pleated at the back into a dramatic train of flowing color. Styled in the Empire manner, the gown is by Helga of California.

FARM OUTLOOK

Where rain has not fallen recently, outlook for grass and feed crops is poor, reports the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Timely showers helped pasture and late crops in some areas. But were too late for corn and feed.

DRYS LOSE

Anti-prohibitionists still are riding high in local option elections. So reports the Texas Liquor Control Board.

Orange and Culberson counties favored continued sale of alcoholic beverages by one sided margins.

VOLUNTARY CUTS

Texas seem to have adopted a dubious "wait and see" attitude toward Pres. Dwight D.

Eisenhower's request for a voluntary 10 percent cut in oil imports.

For months Texas officials and industry leaders have sought White House help to restrict the flow of foreign oil into the country. They blamed "excessive imports" for the dwindling demands for Texas oil.

State oil allowable slipped month by month to an all-time low. State revenue estimates, heavily dependent on oil taxes, were dragged down correspondingly.

After study by a Cabinet committee, the President's advisory asked importing companies east of the Rockies to reduce crude oil imports to 10 percent below the 1954-56 average. Implied was the suggestion that mandatory quotas would be imposed if the voluntary program doesn't work out.

Gov. Price Daniel called it "a step in the right direction." But, he said, the step "does not go as far as is necessary to meet the present emergency." He suggested there should be no waiting period before applying positive government controls and that 10 percent was not a "realistic reduction."

The morning activities consisted of a swimming party at Westmoreland Pool.

At noon each 4-H'er enjoyed the sack lunch brought from home.

After lunch, a short assembly was held under the direction of Shirley Van Huss. The groups were divided into work shops which lasted all afternoon. This year one hour courses were conducted in safety, wildlife, family life, 4-H records and electricity.

The remainder of the afternoon was spent in recreation under the direction of E. O. Wilson. Mr. Wilson taught folk dances and square dancing to the group.

One of the most delicious covered dish suppers ever prepared was held that evening and the tables were laden with many varieties of food and desserts.

The evening program consisted of a skit by members of the camp committee, announcement of the outstanding campers and a movie, 'The Town That Came Back.' The remainder of the evening consisted of square dancing under the direction of Mr. Wilson.

The day long camp ended at 10:15 with vespers in charge of Goldie Shook. The vespers presented the mood of the camp and youth leadership.

Miss Fredilyn Haynes Donald R. Gee Wed

Miss Fredilyn Haynes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Allen Haynes, 3704 Cumberland, Wichita Falls, became the bride of Donald Ray Gee, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Gee of Burk Burnett, in a ceremony at the University Methodist Church.

Dr. George R. Davis, pastor of the First Christian Church, conducted the July 28 nuptials before a central sunburst arrangement of white gladioli and white chrysanthemums before a spiral candelabra holding white tapers and banked with jade foliage. Altar baskets of gladioli and chrysanthemums completed the decorations.

Ensembles

Cousins of the bride, Miss Doreen Grimes of Weatherford, Tex., organist and Mrs. Don Newsom of Big Springs, Tex., soloist provided nuptial music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white point d'esprit over tulle and taffeta, styled with a basque bodice, sabrina shelf neckline edged with miniature roses, and brief sleeves. Her bouffant skirt, forming a cascade of tiers of pleated tulle and point d'esprit, swept into a train. Her veil of white silk illusion was gathered to a queen's crown covered with chintilly lace and outlined with tiny seed pearls and iridescent sequins. She carried a stylized cascade bouquet of white phalaenopsis orchids and stephanotis.

Mrs. Wayne Ellis, of Abilene, Tex., sister of the groom, was matron of honor. She wore a waltz-length gown of mint green organdy over taffeta, fashioned with a portrait neckline, long fitted bodice and bouffant or gandy skirt. Her hat was of mont green taffeta and tulle. She carried a cascade bouquet of matching carnations.

Mrs. Robert L. Martin, Jr., of Dallas, cousin of the bride, and Miss Mary Ann Brown were bridesmaids. Their gowns were same as the honor attendant. Lynn Allen Camp was ring bearer.

Jerry Gee of Burk Burnett served his brother as best man. Usher and groomsmen were Bill Haynes, brother of the bride, Kenneth Korges of Weatherford, Tex., and Kenneth Gee of Oklahoma City.

Reception

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Rose Room of the church. The refreshment table was covered with a white satin cloth caught at intervals and in the center with white wedding bells. The centerpiece was a crystal and silver epergne filled with white carnations and chrysanthemums from which white wedding bells and white nylon tulle cascaded.

Members of the house party were Misses Joyce Willingham, Carol Rugeley, Beverly McCormick, Jean Ann Katz, Frances Walsh, Margy Keaton of Big Spring, cousin of the bride, and Mesdames Billy Allison, Mike Clark, Abilene, Irvine Camp, and R. L. Fischer, Miss Lynne Williams of Greenville, Tex., headed the receiving line.

The cost of a session will be expensive. The cost is about $300,000 day session.

In accordance with Constitution, at the of each session the must present an estimate of the financial position of the state. It is feared that if such an estimate in October, it may be due to oil allowable and thus require a tax. However, the Governor states that there will be for a tax bill.

On the other hand, little doubt of the type of lobbyist register control. I have reported such bills during the House session and gave a large passage of such a measure was killed in the Senate.

I am extremely interested in obtaining the views of the residents of Wichita as to the urgency of such a session.
