Texas Water Commission results...

Local water 'okay', needs improvement

The Texas Water Commission tested the quality of water in Colorado City's water system in late April and the results add up to the water provided from Lake Colorado City and the wells not meeting the Water Commission's minimum standards, according to a report from Mike Lannen, of the T.W.C.'s Monitoring and Enforcement Water Utilities Division.

Lannen stated that "remedial measures must be taken to correct the enclosed list of deficiencies so that the water system may be operated and maintained in accordance with the requirements for a 'superior' public water supply.

That rating is given to systems which have few if any defiencies and if a system is not rated superior, it does not necessarily mean it is a bad system said a representative of the T.W.C.

It's just a bonus title - "kinda' like getting extra credit for always doing your homework, " said the representative.

Most of the problems reported by the commission deal with the mineral content of the water and the raw water intake at Lake Colorado City.

Total dissolved solids in the test indicated almost twice the amount over the standard, as they indicated 1839 mg/1 with the standard being 1000 mg/1. Chlorides were 444 mg/1 with the standard being 300 mg/1 and sulfates were 382mg/1 over the standard of 200 mg/1.

Water from wells indicated a high iron content with the standard being 0.3 mg/1 and the tested water showing a content of 2.31 mg/1 and manganese testing 0.42 mg/1 with the standard being 0.5 mg/1.

The report said elevated levels of the above chemicals could cause the following problems:

A. Elevated chloride levels may increase the corrosiveness of the water and give it a salty taste.

B. Elevated sulfate levels may have a laxative effect.

C. Elevated iron and manganese levels may stain laundry and plumbing fixtures.

Elevated levels of dissolved solids may give the water an objectionable mineral taste.

The report said facilities must be provided to remove the iron and manganese from the well water and to maintain a "superior" rating status, facilities must also be provided to reduce the chloride, sulfate and dissolved solids in the lake water.

Problems in the intake structure itself were noted as the report listed numerous cracks and holes and concrete floor "appears to be slowly crumbling away, exposing numerous pieces of rebar. The report continued, stating an evaluation of the facility by a qualified engineer must be conducted.

Some of the electrical wiring going to the structure and inside the structure appeared to be in an advanced state of deterioration creating safety hazards and potential loss of power to the pumps, said the report, therefore "an evaluation of the facility by a qualified electrical engineer must be conducted."

The report also stated that a restricted zone of 200 feet radius from the raw water intake works must be established and all recreational activities and trespassing prohibited in this particular area. Signs will have to be put up warning of this restriction and also the restricted zone must be designated with markers or buoys.

Other problems with the filters at the water treatment plant were noted as was some problems with the water pressure.

Lannen's letter to the city also stated that the city had 30 days to respond to the agency on what action is to be taken to correct the items listed and the timetable for such repairs.

The County Commissioners covered a six-item agenda Tuesday morning in short order and then heard a presentation from Danny Garcia, a safety specialist with the Texas Association of Counties, concerning the Texas Hazard Communication Policy and rules for setting County Safety and Health policies.

They appointed Shirley Stafford to the post of charity coordinator to replace Bertie Kidd who has resigned and set budget workshops beginning at 9 a.m. each day next week.

Also approved was a request from court reporter Charles Walker to move his office to the first floor of the courthouse where the tax office was and to put up petitions in his old office to be used as a conference room for trials.

The commissioners also passed resolutions to be forwarded to the Texas Department of Transportation for replacement of two county bridges. One is located on County Road 424 about seven miles south of Loraine and the other is on County Road 125 on the South Fork of Champion Creek.

Topics to be discussed on the tour are the history of ranch breeding procedures, grazing systems, brush control and wildlife management.

The tour will leave the Civic Center at 8 a.m. on the 16th and will return to the Kiwanis Park downtown to a real chuck wagon feed. The meal is free to those on the tour but tickets can be purchased for $5.

New law could affect local school boards

A new state law authored by a San Antonio member of the Texas House of Representatives meant to bar school board members from selling goods or services could cause problems with school boards across the state including the Colorado ISD.

This is according to a lawyer for the Texas Assoication of School Boards, Frank Battle.

A provision in the law prevents a school board from entering into a contract with a business in which a member of the board or a spouse of a board member has a "significant interest."

The law defines a significant interest as deriving 10 percent of one's gross income from the business he said.

The law affects a school board member who is employed by an entity that does business with the district - such as a telephone company or an electric utility.

"It's big. There are not many school districts that are not affected." Battle said

On the Colorado ISD board of trustees, Jesse Munoz, Jr. works for Southwestern Bell which, of course, provides local phone service to the district. the district is under contract with NTS to provide long distance service.

Battle said a district in this situation should not have any problems unless the long distance service went out for bid and Southwestern Bell was one of the bidders.

Crops must be certified by July 15

Don Stewart, of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service, reports that Thursday, July 15, is the date all programs and non-program crops must be certified.

Stewart said each producer is responsible for accurate measurement of their own crops. Measurement service is provided for a fee if a producer does not want to do their own.

He also stated that producers must also file a ASCS-574 and certify acres of any failed acres before making any other use of that area. If another crop is planted, it will be considered invisible or "ghost acres". The second crop isn't eligible for deficiency payments. Stewart also said ACR and CUPAY acres cannot be harvested or grazed until Sept. 30 and they are to be kept free of weeds.

LAW

But Battle said the district would not be able to enter into a contract with Bell as long as an employee was on the board.

"The member would have to resign and the vacancy filled before the board could enter into a contract," said Battle.

When NTS was voted on as the long distance carrier, Munoz abstained from voting while the vote was unanimous otherwise.

The provision in the law causing all the concern was authored by Ciro Rodriquez. It was added as a floor amendment in the House and it was on the House's local and uncontested calendar and was not debated.

The vote in the House was 144 Representatives voting for it and none against. In the Senate, the vote was 31 for and 0 against.

Norma Reyes, of the Representative's office in San Antonio, said the original bill was to prevent a trustee of a district from applying for employment with that school district until the trustee's current term has expired or until the trustee had resigned and a successor had been named to fill the vacancy created by his resignation.

She said Rodriquez is employed by a community college in San Antonio and their board of trustees named a member of that board to the spot of interim-President and apparently it did not set well with the Democrat-hence this bill.

She said the bill was written with the intent to convey the message that "if a trustee benefits from a school board's action in anyway, then it is unethical."

Well the 31st annual Fly-in was a success again. J.O. Dockrey always does an outstanding job. Thanks for your effort J.O. Even though the wind was blowing hard enough to blow the eggs right off your plate, 55 airplanes flew in to take part in this event. I thought that was a good turnout! The C130H Hercules was on hand for everyone to tour. Did you know that particular airplane flew in Desert Storm? Every year trophies are awarded to various pilots, this year's winners were: Oldest Pilot who flew in - Ray Britton, age 81 of Odessa. The youngest Pilot who flew in was Corey Nolen, 17 of Seminole. The oldest aircraft was a 1941 AT6 belonging to Robert Ford. The most unusual aircraft was a Kit Fox belonging to Kelly Hughes of Seminole. The pilot traveling the longest distance was Leonard Horton of Clovis, NM.

CHIEF LONE WOLF

BY JIM BAUM

Back in June of 1916 our city fathers decided to put the town's firehorses, Prince and Charlie, out to pasture. And that really created problems. Not for Prince and Charlie, but for Willie, Bob and Loyd.

You see, the city council decided Colorado City was ready for its first fire truck, so approval was given to buy a vehicle from La France Engine Company. Part of the bargain was an "expert" would come to Colorado City and spend four days training men interested in driving the truck. Then, the expert would make a recommendation on which man was the best qualified.

A "Mr. Walsh" came to our fair city to screen potential drivers, but when the time came to make a recommendation, he said Willie Moeser, Bob Cooper and Loyd White were all "competent."

Well, that resulted in a special session of the city council. Ostensibly the learned ones would make the decision. Not so said the volunteer firemen who turned out en masse for the session. A petition was presented to the mayor, and the fire boys, as they were called, made the following statement;

"To the honorable mayor and council of the City of Colorado. We the undersigned members of the Colorado Volunteer Fire Department petition your honorable body not to select Mr. Bob Cooper as driver on truck recently purchased as we know he is not a capable man for the position and we will positively refuse to ride with him as driver of said truck."

Nine men signed the petition. They were R.L. Spalding, V.V. Shropshire, Newt Miller, Charles Taylor, Will Fox, Tom Nunn, Sam Majors, E.M. (Ed) Majors and W.L. Majors.

Mayor C.M. Adams was no dummy and he quickly seized on the moment to put democracy into action; the firemen could vote on who THEY wanted as driver. Willie Moeser led all candidates with seven votes, followed by Bob Cooper with two and Loyd White, two also.

Naturally Cooper, who was the fire department's attendant, was a little upset. He told the city approximately where they could drive their truck. He was promptly fired, but for consolation prize, he was given a full months severance pay.

Moeser was then promoted to attendant and his salary was set at $50 per month. Now the stage was set for a dramatic event. One June 28, 1916, the city's fire truck was delivered. A test run was immediately scheduled. Here's how the Colorado Record set the pace in creating a little hoopla;

"There was a ripple of interest and activity Wednesday morning among the volunteer fire company of this city caused by the arrival of the big auto fire truck which will more efficiently fight the fire fiend when he comes on trouble bent. A trial run was made down 2nd Street to test out the attention attracting power of the gong."

Don't you just know that gong attracted the native's attention...shoppers turned and gawked, kids raced after the bright red engine and men on street corners quit whittling and spitting to see what all the commotion was about. And can't you just see the smiles on the faces of those riding on the La France as it sped down 2nd Street?

Then it happened. The driver, and history did not record who he was, slammed the truck into an unidentified object. So much for competent drivers. Fortunately, the damage was minor, but the embarrassment of the moment caused the driver's face to turn a deeper crimson than the engine.

In July a new bumper was shipped to Colorado City with an invoice for $15. The council balked at paying the staggering amount, but finally, in December, sent a check to La France.

But let's get back to the driver (or drivers). Moeser resigned after just four months on the job. (Reckon the other firemen decided they didn't want to ride with him or Bob Cooper?).

Loyd White, who received two votes the first time around, was prevailed upon to become the new driver. After a year and a half on the job, White asked for a ten day vacation. He got it, then after his vacation was over, he quit the city.

On June 10th, 1918, George Tiller became the third fire truck driver. He stayed a month and quit. Loyd White was rehired. He stayed a month and then quit again. (This was a very stressful job). Tiller was rehired.

After three months on the job, he asked that his salary be raised to $65 per month. The city agreed to pay $60. Three months later Tiller quit and Loyd White was rehired.

He didn't keep the job long. Remember Bob Cooper? (The man no one wanted to ride with). Bullet Bob said he was still interested in the job, but only if the city kicked the salary up to $75 per month. White turned in his notice, Tiller wouldn't take the job again, so Cooper got the $75.

Three months later he quit. Homer Key was hired, but he said he would take the job only if he got a one year contract for $100 per month. (The NFL and major league baseball aren't the first organizations to see salaries skyrocket). The city said, "OK Homer, $100 per month."

Five months later he quit. (Coaches aren't the only professionals who break contracts). The next driver was Ray Allmond. He stayed six months and Hugh Nixon was hired. Hugh could only take the high pressure two months, and he resigned. Welcome back George Tiller!

In time M.H. Allmond and J.L. Quinney would join the honor roll of fire truck drivers, and then, in 1925, the second man ever to serve as driver, Loyd White, was back again, nine years after the city had first entered the mechanized age.

The next time you hear the fire alarm sound, please pull over to the side of the street to allow the emergency vehicle to pass. The driver may be Bob Cooper.

Graysons named missionaries

The Rev. and Mrs. Bobby K. (Bob) Grayson were among 38 people named missionaries by the Southern Baptist Foreign Mission Board June 29 at Mount Pleasant Baptist Church in Colonial Heights, Va.

The Graysons will live in the Phillippines, where he will teach in a seminary and they will be involved in a variety of outreach ministries.

Since 1988 he has been pastor of Southview Baptist Church in Lincoln, Neb.

Born in Oklahoma City, Okla., Grayson is the son of Freda Grayson of Midwest City, Okla., and the late Franklin W. Grayson. While growing up he also lived in Midwest City and Holdenville, Okla. He considers Midwest City his hometown and Country Estates Baptist Church there his home church.

He received the bachelor of science degree from the University of Oklahoma in Norman and the master of divinity and doctor of philosophy degrees from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth, Texas.

He has been pastor of First Baptist Church of the Homesteads near Alvarado, Texas, and Calvary Baptist Church in Colorado City.

The Graysons, who have two grown children, will go to Rockville, Va., in September for a seven-week orientation before leaving for the field.

With more than 15 million members, Southern Baptists are the largest evangelical denomination in America. Their missionary-sending agency, the Foreign Mission Board, is the largest evangelical career foreign missionary force based in the United States. With more than 3,900 missionaries in 128 countries and assisting in 27 others, they have a goal of 5,000 missionaries by the year 2000. This is the denomination's part in seeing all the world has a chance to hear the story of Jesus Christ.

Our Lady of Mercy Convent to hold reunion

Our Lady of Mercy Convent will have it's first all school reunion Saturday, July 10, 1993 during the old Settlers' reunion, in Stanton. Some forty invitations have been sent out to students who once attended the school. The school was opened in 1897 and closed in 1938.

All that remains of the school is a two-story adobe building. Local historians are working to restore the building. Its unique European architectural design coupled with Mexican-American building materials and labor make it a most unique structure.

The All School Reunion will be held at the Martin County courthouse. Activities will start at 9:00 a.m. with a tour of the Convent and will conclude at 3:00 p.m. after a program honoring Convent students.

Martin County Convent, Inc. is sponsoring the reunion. We are looking for names and addresses of people who once attended the Convent, said Chairman Jeane McGilvray. Anyone who has any information should call 756-3316 or write P.O. Box 1435.

Students are urged to bring old photos and any memorabilia they have. We have class pictures for the years 1903 and 1898. We think class pictures were probably made in other years. We really would love to be able to take pictures of these photographs.

Committee members will be making video tape recordings of reminiscence of years at the Convent. Photo copies of any document brought will be made. This will help piece the history of the Convent back together. Many of the records were lost in the 1938 tornado.

Other events of the day will include a reunion float in the parade and a light lunch with the Martin County 4-H Super Shooters.

LORAINE PERSONALS

By: Lois Phillips

Hope you had a nice, safe Fourth of July. It was such a beautiful day, you just knew it was made to enjoy. Maybe your favorite ball club won and then you felt better.

The First Baptist Church had a very good program Sunday morning, singing our best-loved patriotic songs with the choir, solos, trios, and other combinations. We have a very good choir director and the very best pianist in the State of Texas, so it all went well. I believe everyone enjoyed it, especially all these busy people. Brother James and Cindy, our singer, and many others from church had vacation Bible study in our park. It seemed to work fine.

On July 2, 1993, Cecial and Jan Collier of Oxnard, California and David and Ruth Collier of Odessa visited in Loraine and had lunch with the senior citizens. Glad you stopped by.

Patsy LaVerne Graham was married to Richard Eugene Long of Robert Lee on June 25th at the Cedarwood Apartments.

Patsy is a lifelong resident of our town and graduated from our schools. Roland Graham is her brother and the late Tom and Lottie Graham were her parents. Her husband was schooled at Robert Lee and graudated there. The Rev. Orvelle Brantly read the ceremony. The couple will make their home in Sweetwater, where they are both employed.

The Stewart Reunion was held on July 4 in Sweetwater. This is an annual affair and seems to be well attended. I have been told everyone had a real good time.

On Saturday night, July 3rd, Elba McEvans had an anniversary party, the 70th, for her eldest brother and his wife as a surprise for them. Those present were the honorees Mr. & Mrs. Raymond Stewart of Commerce, their son, Mr. & Mrs. Neal Stewart and Scott from Commerce, Mrs. Yvonne Rollins and grandchildren, Marsha and Josh of Sulphur Springs, Mr. & Mrs. Mark Keahey and Kyle of Commerce, Laura Stewart of Colorado City and Mr. and Mrs. W.O. Stewart of Post.

Also, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Scrivner, Doug, Debbie, Misty, Shane and Jimmie, Jackie and Patsy Walker of Loraine.

Last Thursday, Inez Webb started to fasten a lock on her front door before she went to bed, then turned to go to her bedroom and fell on the floor and broke her thigh bone. She does not see or hear very well so she had a hard time getting help. She finally scooted herself to the phone, pulled it to the floor and tried to dial our 2700 number that she is used to but didn't make that work. She kept at it until she got an answer. It was Mr. Scott from Scott's Acres out on the Lucas Road. She asked if he had a Loraine phone. He said he did so she told him to call 2700 and tell them Inez had fallen on the floor and broke her leg.

Of course, Mr. Scott did as she asked but her message was all he knew, not even a last name, except we were almost positive it was Inez Webb. When we got there about two minutes later, Sandy and Chris were in the house. A Mitchell County ambulance came and picked her up and took her to Lubbock, where she had surgery on Saturday morning and is doing fine. She will be back in Mitchell County Hospital, I have been told.

The point of this story is, if you don't get your number at first, don't panic. Follow Inez's leadership and keep dialing. Someone will answer soon and get your message out for you. Inez said she couldn't remember 911 but 2700 always came to mind, so she finally got through to someone, thanks to the Scotts.

***

Fern Coon was transported to Mitchell County Hospital by a Mitchell County Ambulance on Monday morning. I do not know all her problem, but hope she is soon better and can get back home.

***

Mrs. Bill Cates, the former Faye Johnson and her daughter, Marilyn Fryman of Vernon visited in Loraine with friends and relatives Friday. They were accompanied by the former Edna Edmonson and her daughter and family from San Antonio.

Saturday morning Chrystene Hall met them in Sweetwater at the Holiday Inn for breakfast. Faye Johnson Cates was a former Loraine High School classmate.

There will be a bridal shower for Patsy Long (Graham) and her husband on the 18th of July from 2 to 4 at Hubert and Nina Meadows. Come and join in this happy occasion for Patsy.

Richburgs hold reunion

On June 26th, the families of the late Mollie and John Richburg gathered at the Loraine Senior Center Building for their annual reunion. There were 117 present. Twelve of the original sixteen survive and all were present.

They came from many areas in the state of Texas and some from other states. Oklahoma, Kansas, New Mexico and California were represented.

After the meal (too big to describe) the group had a jolly good time. Kitty Gage masterminded a very entertaining program that involved many.

Donna Herm from Ackerly had her group perform and Tommy Richburg with his family quartet gave several religious numbers. Kitty put several of the "originals" of the family on the spot by telling some of the escapades they had been involved in during their younger days.

The "old folks" wondered who had brought this information to her, evidently a tattletale in the family.

The second generation, who now makes the plans, gathered for a business meeting before the dismissal. They plan to meet again the last Saturday in June 1994.

Scout camp to host Explorer Ship 545

Explorer Ship 545 will be meeting this weekend at Hughes Aquatic Base Boy Scout Camp on Lake Colorado City. This is open to all youth ages 14-20 as well as any adults who are interested. Our primary emphasis has been sailing, but we also have other types of water craft available.

Bring your swim gear, a sack lunch (refrigerator and ice are available), and your enthusiasm. The meetings will be on Saturday, July 10, and Sunday, July 11. We usually get started at about 9 a.m. each day. If you can't make it that early, that's OK too. You don't want to miss any of the fun! For more information, call Fred Morris at 728-8887.
