CONSTRUCTION NOW UNDER WAY

Federal and County Monies Helping To Make Safe and Modernize Terry Airport

The Civil Aeronautics Administration (CAA) today approved a Grant Offer of $76,000 for Terry County Airport, Brownfield, Texas, it was announced by L. C. Elliot, regional administrator, CAA Second Region.

District Airport Engineer, A. E. Dyatt, who has supervised this project for the CCA, said today at his headquarters in Fort Worth, Texas, "This Civil Aeronautics Administration participation is a part of the Federal Airport Aid Program through which local governments are offered financial aid up to fifty per cent of the total construction cost."

"According to the agreement, Terry County will at least match the $76,000 sum with local funds, thereby bringing the total to $152,000 for the airport work."

The money offered by the CAA, along with Terry County funds, will be used to modernize the landing and airplane parking facilities at Terry County Airport.

The CAA-local funds will construct a new, hard-surfaced runway 3800 feet long and 75 feet wide. The runway will lay north-northeast/south-southwest.

As an added feature, a 30-foot-wide hard-surfaced taxiway will be built to connect the new runway with the aircraft parking apron which is to be hard-surfaced also.

The CAA money will also be applied to the preparation of the site and the stabilizing of 2758 feet by 75 feet of the northwest-southeast runway. Included in the cooperative overall airport improvement program will be the construction of a segmented circle marker around the wind indicator so that the indicator can be more easily identified from the air.

EFFORTS REWARDED — Mrs. Earl M. Fox walked away with the $1,000 cash prize in the Brownfield NEWS Good Will Subscription Campaign which ended Friday. She accepts her award from Curtis Sterling, NEWS publisher-manager. Awards were announced and presented Saturday noon at a luncheon in the Hitch-N-Post.

Winners in NEWS Drive Announced

Winner of the $1,000 cash prize in the NEWS Good Will Subscription Campaign which ended Friday was Mrs. Earl M. Fox of Brownfield.

Mrs. Fox was presented a check in the amount Saturday during a luncheon in the Hitch-N-Post.

Other cash award winners: 1. Mrs. J. L. Kemper of 401 East Cardwell, $600. 2. Mrs. R. W. Horton of Meadow, $300. 3. Mrs. Edson Wilder of 913 East Tate, $200. 4. Mrs. Lillie McPherson of 202 West Broadway, $100. 5. Mrs. Major Howard of Pool, $50.

A trio of Brownfield judges approved final tabulation of votes received by each candidate during the six-week effort to increase the NEWS circulation: the Rev. Ralph O'Dell of First Presbyterian Church, Mayor Arlie Lowmore, and Joe Satterwhite, manager of Brownfield Chamber of Commerce.

Basis of the awards presentations was as follows: Mrs. Fox tallied 25,975,000 votes; Mrs. Kemper 23,598,000; Mrs. Horton 18,437,000; Mrs. Wilder 16,157,000; Mrs. McPherson 9,364,000, and Mrs. Howard 9,203,000 votes.

WHERE TWO DIED — The crumpled and burned wreckage pictured above is the remains of a small Cessna 120 airplane which nose-dived into the ground late Wednesday, carrying its two passengers to their deaths: Charles Delbert Gryder, 27, Denver City oilfield worker, and Jim Youngblood, 19, a flying service employee of Lovington, N. M. The tragedy occurred on the farm of L. V. Alexander, about 10 miles west and 3½ miles north of Brownfield. Gryder, who only recently bought the plane, apparently had been trying to attract the attention of Alexander, a relative by marriage. The plane had circled Alexander as he was plowing in a field near his home, headed south, briefly turned its nose upward and then plunged into the earth, bursting into flames. Funeral for Gryder was held Friday in Denver City, and for Youngblood, Friday in Lovington. (NEWSphoto)

Birth Rate Bright Spot in Terry's Long-Term Economic Picture--Up!

(Special to the NEWS) NEW YORK, May 13 — One bright spot in Terry County's economic picture, on a long-term basis, is the big, booming birth rate locally.

The baby crop, which is setting records, is a matter of prime importance to local merchants, some of whom are deep in the doldrums at present. For babies are big business. They are consumers. Each one of them arrives on the scene with a loud demand for all the necessities of life.

New facts and figures on birth rates locally and in the other parts of the country, together with their significance to American business, have come from the national Office of Vital Statistics and other sources.

For Terry County, they show, the rate has climbed to 29.0 births per 1,000 people. This refers only to the local population and does not include babies born there to non-residents.

The rate is 18 percent higher than that for the United States as a whole.

And an even greater baby boom in the years just ahead is something that can be counted on with assurance. For it is then that the big crop of babies of the World War 2 period will be producing their own offspring in numbers.

By 1965, estimates the Census Bureau, we will have about 30 million more people than we have today. Already, new babies are arriving at the rate of 4,300,000 a year and the pace is rising rapidly.

To American business, it means in essence that a great many more people will soon have to be supplied with food and clothing and homes and the countless number of other consumer items that go to make up our standard of living.

During a normal lifetime, these 30 million additions will require over 7 billion pairs of shoes, 175 billion pounds of beef, 350 billion quarts of milk and 73 million new cars, according to U. S. News and World Report.

How will it all affect Terry County? If local merchants get no more nor less than their commensurate share of this

ABOUT COTTON ACREAGES

Congressmen Need Enlightening

How much worse can it get?

Cotton growers—those in Terry being no exception—have had their acreage slashed drastically in five successive years of controls.

Unless Congress does something this session, they face a further cut of 20 per cent in 1959.

Agriculture Secy. Benson indicates he almost surely will be forced to cut allotments from their present 17.6 million acres to about 14 million next year — if present farm law stands.

The result would be still more idle land, land planted to less profitable crops, and a further income cut for the farmer, whose income already is too low.

What's more, a small 1959 crop would aggravate the shortage of better quality U.S. cotton, which already is forcing mills to use lower grades and encouraging substitution of rayon.

Cotton farmers need an acreage increase, not a decrease. This means a lot to Terry County: When cotton is hit hard, we're all hit hard.

Congress is trying to make up its mind about the farm program. Time for corrective action for cotton is short. Cotton growers should express their concern. They should let their senators and representatives know their views — and right away.

SAY SOME ECONOMISTS

Advertising Helps Prevent Depression

By WELDON CALLAWAY
NEWS Advertising Manager

Economists often refer to 1953 as "the year that advertising prevented a depression." That year our major industries met a decline in business with increased advertising effort. This show of confidence and optimism was transmitted to the local level where an additional increase in advertising broke the lag in consumer buying.

Early in 1954 total advertising expenditures had been increased by five percent, but the country was entering a two-year period of unsurpassed prosperity.

President Eisenhower, no doubt, was recalling the events of 1953-1954 when he said at a news conference that "better advertising" could be a means of preventing depression.

In another news conference the President went further. He asserted that more buying was the best antidote to a business slump. He noted that consumer savings are now at an all-time high. If people are not buying it is because they have not been properly stimulated to buy things which they actually need, the President observed.

In recognizing advertising as a vital factor in prosperity, the President has restated an old and proven truth — that is, hoarded savings are of no value to anyone, while savings well-spent can brighten the lives of many.

Who's to blame when business becomes stagnant? Certainly no one can be blamed for saving his money when he has not been convinced that spending will serve his needs.

The responsibility is shared by the manufacturer and the local dealer. For no matter how fine and economical new products are, they can not be exchanged for consumer savings until advertising shows that the new products are good and needed.

Long-Known Genius Of Orson Welles Is Applied In Thriller

The triple-threat genius of Orson Welles as writer, director and star never has been more excitingly applied than in "Touch of Evil."

Co-starring are Janet Leigh and Charlton Heston. "Touch of Evil" will be shown today and Monday at The Regal.

Welles is not alone in this brilliant picture when it comes to top achievement.

Charlton Heston, who sought long for a meaty role which would be the opposite of his famous Moses portrayal in "The Ten Commandments," has found it in the part of a hard-hitting special investigator for the Mexican Ministry of Justice.

As Heston's wife, Janet Leigh is co-starred in a performance which puts her far above the pretty-face category. Miss Leigh demonstrates that she is capable of a many-dimensional performance.

Life is not all down
hill

It might seem that it would be fun if life were like one great slide downhill. It might be; however, life is not that way. It has a great many ups and downs, good and evil, sadness and joy. How will this little boy feel about life when he learns that it has incredible sorrow as well as great joy? Will he learn that life, whatever it holds for him, can be trusted because this life, every minute of it, is a gift from God? Will he learn that God has his breath in the palm of His hand, and that the fulfillment of every life is His dearest desire. Don't let your boy or girl miss a moment of life; it's too wonderful. Teach them now to trust in God and live to the full the life He gives.

Is something wrong with your life—an inner restless dissatisfaction? The answer to every human problem comes only from God our Maker. He alone can forgive and reassure. Through the church God has committed the provision and proclamation of His forgiveness and redeeming love. Without a church relation no one is securely related to God. Everyone should be in the Church and the Church in everyone!

"A second thought on first aid"

We're constantly amazed at the number of children who cut, scrape and bruise themselves within sight (and sound) of our pharmacy. We do a big business in antiseptics, bandages, and other first-aid items. Same everywhere, probably. But sometimes we wonder if people don't depend too much on first aid—neglect proper medical attention. If there's the slightest question in your mind following what appears to be minor injuries, see your physician. First aid has definite limitations. You can only be sure of proper medical care by seeing your doctor. A prompt visit can save a half dozen later.

When completed, this CAA local airport improvement program will contribute much in convenience and safety to pilots and passengers landing at Brownfield. The improvements should greatly stimulate general aviation in the Terry County area.

The CCA has, during the past several years, cooperated with such progressive local governments as Terry County and Brownfield in the improvement of their air facilities. It is another in the CAA's overall program to do all that it can to foster and encourage civil aviation.

In addition, the CAA provides for the nation's flying safety through efficient air traffic control around airports and enroute from point to point throughout the United States. The agency also installs and maintains, 24 hours a day, the world's largest and finest air navigation system over more than 158,000 miles of controlled airways.

CAA Regional Administrator Elliott commented, "Terry County Airport at Brownfield, with its improved facilities, will do much to encourage the air traveler to realize the progressiveness of Terry County citizens."

By ROSE JEAN HENSON

To continue a subject which I started two weeks ago and failed to finish. You recall I was discussing the trip made to Lubbock by Meadow fourth grade students. I commented on one particular place visited on the tour, a milk plant, whose very courteous guide emphasized the modern methods his plant had adapted to keep the dairymen "in line." Maybe you remember the column ended by saying that the thought came to my mind to ask him who checked on the milk plant to see that its operations were on the level at all times in making sure that the dairymen got a fair deal.

Perhaps none of the children noticed his implications, but it was easy, at least to me, to interpret what he said as meaning that it was a common practice for dairies to be dishonest. I'm sure it is being done or else he wouldn't have mentioned it.

But show me if you can, a business of any kind, any where, which is immune to unethical practices? Any business is as honest as the people who operate it.

I have always contended that most people are basically honest whether they are watched or not. At least I don't make a habit of suspecting every person I meet. If one is dishonest he may not "water his milk" but he will do something else to accomplish the same end.

The first and second grade Latin Americans visited, among other places, our county jail, May 9. Since some of these children were 12 years and older, I think this is one place that not only the school

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Good spent last weekend in Waco with relatives.

Mrs. Bill Dugger and Miss Melba Willis attended an SDF clerks meeting Monday thru Wednesday in San Angelo.

J. L. (Dusty) Kemper, division manager, spent Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday in San Angelo, where he took part in a managers meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Street visited last weekend in Texhoma, where they attended her high school class reunion.

Miss Alda Mae Steen of 904 Tahoka Road, cashier, spent last weekend with her sister, Mrs. Barney Holgate of Lubbock.

Jobe Services Held Friday in Chapel

Final services for H. F. Jobe 70, retired oilfield worker, were held Friday afternoon in the Brownfield Funeral Home Chapel, with the Rev. A. J. Franks, pastor of Northside Baptist Church, officiating. Burial was in Brownfield Cemetery.

Jobe, who came here from Waco, died early Thursday in Treadaway - Daniell Hospital. He had lived here since 1942.

Survivors include the widow; one daughter, Mrs. James Estill of 608 North A; three sons, Clarence Jobe of Waco, and Henry and Roland Jobe, both of Brownfield, and five grandchildren.

child but every adult should visit at least once in his lifetime.

I have been going on these tours 10 years but for some reason the jail has never been on the agenda. I think I shall suggest it as one of our stopping places for the fifth grade next year.

Most of our children are so sheltered from that particular side of life and seldom have the chance to view it from any angle except the newspaper. Some parents probably would prefer to keep it that way and would object to a class observing first-hand what type of people are placed behind bars.

I can see no harm in letting an innocent child see for himself what kind of surroundings are offered to those who choose to break the law. It might just keep them innocent.

I have seen on the inside of a jail only once in my life and that was sufficient to make a law-abiding citizen out of me. I had a friend, who had a friend, who knew someone in there.

It likely would be surprising to know exactly how many of the local citizens have never seen inside a jail — except on television.

Yes, indeed do, I think a child would learn something he would never forget just by visiting a "house of correction" and no doubt the prisoner inside of it would learn something, too.

It certainly would not be a pleasant feeling to have 30 or 40 little faces peering at you. I should think that alone would be punishment. If I were the prisoner, I would say to myself: "What am I contributing toward making this world a better place for little folks to live in?" — On second thought, one need not be a prisoner inside a jail to ask himself that. It's a good question to ask yourself anytime.

It is unthinkable to imagine what man would do without the benefits which cotton and all of its by-products provide. This week being National Cotton Week, we here in a cotton growing area should take some thought concerning cotton and not only boost but reaffirm our support to this all-important product which is so necessary to our local economy.

Only in recent years has cotton industry taken a step forward in research. At the present time there is much less money being spent on scientific research in the cotton industry than any of the other fiber products.

This Week's School Menu

(Following are menus for Brownfield school cafeterias for May 26 and 27.)

MONDAY

Beef stew, cheese toast, crackers, tossed salad, ice cream and milk.

TUESDAY

Ham, potato chips, lettuce, peas, mixed fruit, bread, peanut butter cookies and milk. (Meals will not be served in the high school cafeteria but students desiring lunch may eat at one of the other cafeterias.)

MISS CARY'S GUESTS

Misses Dell Tisdale of Ballinger and Gail Campbell of Raymondville, both students at Texas Tech, were weekend guests of Miss Lynn Cary of 921 East Tate.

Visiting Grandparents

Johnny and Erin Ann Carey of Lubbock are visiting their grandparents this week. Mr. and Mrs. John H. Portwood of 1308 East Buckley and Mr. and Mrs. Tracy of 921 East Tate.

As always, the farmer has been slow in grasping the idea that the future of cotton consumption lies in discovering new ways and means of producing a better product.

Too, they have not fully realized that the future of our cotton economy will largely depend on its adaptation to the ever-increasing flow of new products on the market today.

There is an undetermined number of things that could be developed through research from the by-products alone. All this requires money. Two years ago the idea of each farmer paying 10 cents per bale produced into a research fund in Terry County was met with sufficient disapproval that the idea was forgotten.

It has been said that the farmer is an independent cuss because his livelihood was salvaged from the soil by the sweat of his brow. This required little help or suggestions from others and therefore in years past he has been inclined to be self-centered.

It is conclusive proof that he has not given much thought of sharing his talents with others who might have more scientific knowledge than his.

But the day has come when the farmer must admit he is not alone in this world. If he expects to keep pace with the scientific age in which he is living, then he too must organize as other industries have done. This is the only way he can be heard. And it costs money to be heard. It's high time the farmer ponder just how independent he can afford to be!

AT THE BEAUTY AID CLINIC

Many women suffer from the problem of unwanted hair.

And ... because many of them do not know what to do, they torture themselves by tweezing, waxing or applying irritating depilatories.

All of these forms of removing superfluous hair actually create more, and the hair root becomes distorted, causing infection and coarse, stiff stubble.

During the past 10 years, much progress has been made to remove hair electronically, and the method is permanent and safe. Each case is individual and needs individual attention.

To clear your problem completely will require only short weekly appointments of 15 to 30 minutes.

I will be glad to consult and cooperate with your family physician, if you prefer. If you like, many patients who have been pleased with their results will talk with you.

I recently have completed an advanced course in Thermiquetron Hair Removal, and have my instructor's certificate from Boston.

Dr. Cowan, who invented the Thermiquetron, was my instructor. Therefore, you can have complete confidence in my ability. For your convenience, you may have time payments, if you prefer them.

It is a wonderful feeling to be hair-free.

Call Beauty Aid Clinic (4605) for an appointment to discuss privately your case.

A smooth skin is an enviable asset, and it is yours for the asking.

TO HIM — "The Cub '58," this year's annual yearbook of Brownfield High School, was dedicated to Fred R. Smith, director of BHS Band. Preface to the annual: "Because of his always ready smile and words of encouragement, because of his faithful and continued support of all BHS activities, and because of his readiness to be a friend to all who know him, we, the annual staff, as a way of saying 'thanks,' dedicate this 1958 Cub Annual to: Fred R. Smith, band director." Smith has increased the number of band students to beyond the 100-mark and has been instrumental in having the band hall air-conditioned. He and his family live at 1220 East Broadway. (LOWE'Sfoto)

BHS News

By PATTI WILDER

The senior class of 1958 is saying its final adieu to BHS. Although we have been looking forward to this day for years, it isn't as good as it looks. . . it's difficult to leave so many pleasant memories behind.

Baccalaureate and commencement is the crowning point of this year—and it is just around the corner. At baccalaureate, the white-robed seniors will enter the auditorium as A. V. Wall plays the piano processional.

Dr. Jones W. Weathers, pastor of First Baptist Church will give the invocation. After this prayer, the girl's choir will sing the "Ten Commandments" and "Bow Thine Ear, Oh Lord" Carl G. Hecker, minister of the Crescent Hill Church of Christ, will deliver the baccalaureate address and the Rev. James E. Tidwell, First Methodist Church, will give the benediction.

The following night, Monday, at 8 p.m. seniors will come down the aisle for the last time as students while the high school band plays "Pomp and Circumstance". The Rev. Warren Stowe of Calvary Baptist Church, will give the invocation. Sue Shewmake will then step to the platform as she delivers the salutatory address.

A. V. Wall, choir director, will sing "You'll Never Walk Alone." Then Mary Jane

Brownfield, class valedictorian, will address the audience. Mr. Byron Rucker, principal, will announce the honors and Tommy Hicks, president of the school board, will present the diplomas. The Rev. Marjorie Nilsson, of First Christian Church, will give the benediction and everyone will be seated as the Class of 1958 leaves the auditorium as exes.

May 15, the BHS seniors were guests of First Presbyterian Church at a barbecue. They enjoyed a meal of delicious chicken. After all the eating, there was a party in Fellowship Hall. The seniors greatly appreciate all the splendid attention they have been receiving.

Jerry Hahn was named high scorer in the Road-E-O contest sponsored by the Jaycees. Charles Lee placed second; and Billy Summerlin placed third. (In boys' division). Brenda Grissom placed first and Barbara Harris came in second. Other participants winning safe driving awards were: Gene Purcell, Dennis Roscoe, Delbert Hadaway, Ronnie Summers, Jr. Knox, Curtis Bryant, Pat Butts and Tom Hardy.

All seniors in Brownfield Club Band were honored with a dinner at the Hitch-N-Post last Thursday night at 6:30. Those enjoying the get-together were: Bill Walker, Mike Smith, Johnny Jones, Curtis Hooker, Bobby Turner, Sue Shewmake, Bettie Ann Davis, Mary Ruth Venable, Carolyn Weathers, Patti Thomas, Donna Sue Nelson, Patti Wilder, Patsy Hulse, Mary Jane Brownfield, and our loved director and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith. Following the barbecue, Mr. Smith gave a parting message after which a response was given by Doris Ratliff, band captain. "Several sad little horn-players" friends with a slumber party. Those present were: Sharon Kennedy, Sharon Snedeker, Juanema Denson, Toni Lowe, Sue Steele, and Gayla Smith.

The Party House has been hoppin' with parties this past week. Dovie Adams hosted a huge crowd Tuesday night, and Grace Grissom entertained the same group with a party Wednesday night.

Mary Jane Brownfield was honored with a sundae party given by Mrs. George O'Neal last Sunday afternoon. Mrs. O'Neal's home was completely decorated in red and white, the class colors. Those thoroughly enjoying the unique party were: Margaret Snider, Mary Ruth Venable, Sue Shewmake, Patsy Hulse, Bettie Ann Davis, Carolyn Weathers, Donna Sue Nelson, Bobbie Nell Richardson, Patti Thomas, Doris Ratliff, LeNora Turner, and Patti Wilder.

May 20, at 4:00 p.m. at the old football stadium, the annual Red and White Scrimmage was held. Robert Wright made the touchdown for the Red, and Joe Oswald ran over the goal for the White. Final score was White 8 and Red 6. In case you are wondering why the score is 8 to 6, there is a new ruling which states that if the goal is run, it is worth 2 points, and kicked 1 extra point is given.

'Dad-Daughter' Event End of Program

Brownie Scout Troop 309 ended their year's work with a "Dad and Daughter" box supper Monday night in Girl Scout Little House.

Centerpieces for the tables were gold colored containers with yellow roses. Brown napkins had the occasion inscribed on them in gold. Miniature Brownies and letter holders were used for place cards and later presented to the fathers.

Roy Priest said the blessing and Mrs. Rufus Franks played piano selections during the supper. The girls entertained with a folk dance and gave demonstrations of what they had done during the past year.

The meeting closed as each little girl led her dad through the magic tunnel. The group sang "Happy Birthday" to Lucille Holleman.

Lucille Holleman.

Attending were Priest and Jane, Franks and Sheryl, Carl Peters and Claudine, Floyd Holleman and Nora Mae and Lucille, Bill Hensley and Billie, Carol Doss and Sharon Sue, J. D. Williams and Nina Ruth, Boyd Noel and Gladys, J. E. Cole and Belinda, W. L. Daugherty and Vicki and Marvin Borroughs and Kaye.

Colors are printed on cotton cloth by a method similar to printing on paper. Pastes are used instead of ink.
